

OPENING GAME TAKEN BY WAYLAND SATURDAY

GOODWILL A. & M. COLLEGE TO PLAY HERE FRIDAY

Game With Wayland Played in Mud and Rain—Professionalism is Charged Against Players.

The Buffaloes lost the opening game of the season when the team was defeated Saturday by the Wayland Jack-rabbits by a score of 19 to 0.

Captain Burton states that he has severed connections with the Wayland team until professionalism is discontinued. The star Wayland player was a star with Texas A. & M. two years ago, and at least two other men have played more than the allotted four years of football.

The game started after a light shower had fallen for half an hour, and the field was wet and slippery. As the game progressed the rain increased until the last ten minutes was played in a regular downpour. The rain made passing difficult, and little distance was made on punts.

Captain Burson and Moose Hutson were both injured in the first play, and neither of the men played the game of which they are capable. Both were forced to retire from the game long before the end.

Wayland scored the first touchdown in the first quarter, after the Buffaloes had fumbled in the second play after receiving, and by a series of short forward passes and line smashes carried the ball over.

The battle for the next twenty minutes serged from one end of the field to the other, with Wayland gradually working nearly the Buffaloes' goal, and finally making the second touchdown.

The second half opened with the Buffaloes stubbornly contesting every inch of the ground, and at times making brilliant attacks which netted good gains. But the local team was never able to get within striking distance of the opponents' goal. The last touchdown came near the middle of the last quarter.

It was an unfortunate game so far as the Normal was concerned on account of the injuries.

Burson and Hutson will be in the line-up next Friday, but Lancaster is out of the game for the season with a broken shoulder blade.

The Goodwill, Okla., A. & M. College team will play here Friday. Nothing is known of the team excepting the school has defeated two high school teams.

Paving Contracts Are Being Signed Up for Additional Blocks

Paving contracts are being entered into this week between the Panhandle Construction Company and the property owners from the depot to the East end of Houston street at the highway. In this edition of the News is to be found the paving assessment ordinance.

The work on the new sections will advance just as rapidly as possible after the square is completed.

The contractors state that eight cars of brick are now in transit. When the council members visited Mineral Wells two weeks ago in the tour of inspection, the brick company promised to have all of the brick for the square in transit within ten days; the brick now in transit will be sufficient to complete only the north and south sides of the square.

The concrete foundation for the north side has been completed and the crew is at work on the east side.

The paving fever is running high in Canyon, and residents of Evelyn street are urging the city council to pave this street if the city is able to finance its part of the undertaking.

NORMAL HAS ATTENDANCE OF 597, WHICH IS FOUR MORE THAN TOTAL FOR REGULAR SESSION LAST YEAR

The attendance of the West Texas State Normal College has reached 597, which is four more than the entire enrollment of last year.

It is likely that several more will enroll during the week for the first quarter's work, and there are always large enrollments at the opening of the winter and spring quarters. President J. A. Hill expressed himself as very highly pleased with the enrollment.

Mr. Hill recalled that the attendance of the Normal now is practically the same as that of the university of Texas when he entered that school twenty five years ago. The university now has an enrollment of 4017.

The increased attendance this year seems to be largely among the higher grades of the college.

There has been an increased attendance of boys this year.

This week has been one of organization. The literary societies have been pulling in friendly rivalry for new members. The Y. M. C. A. held its first meeting Tuesday night.

President Hill states that the budget as allowed by the legislature will give him practically no money for permanent improvements this year. The only improvement item in the bill is $1000 for grounds. Three teachers are being paid this year out of the local fund on account of the maintenance fund being insufficient.

J. W. Reid has been granted a year's leave of absence. Mrs. T. V. Reese is taking his place in the Normal School, teaching history.

Last week the 1921-22 Senior Class of the Canyon High School donated to the Gregg Cousins Memorial Loan Fund $55.39. If present plans are carried out, you'll hear some time soon from the Y. M. C. A. Glee Club.

CLIFFORD HENRY, WALKED 900 MILES TO ENTER SCHOOL

HOME IS IN CORPUS CHRISTI—MADE TRIP ON FOOT.

Is An All Around Student, and One of Star Men on the Buffalo Football Team.

Would you start on foot to enter a college nine hundred miles away when there are many other schools much nearer? That is exactly what Clifford Henry of near Corpus Christi did. Henry is a self supporting student.

And for the past two years has been a student in the West Texas State Normal College. With the opening of school only a short time away, and none too much money saved from his summer labors and realizing that a railroad ticket with other expenses from Corpus Christi to Canyon would amount approximately forty or fifty dollars, he was confronted with a real problem.

Allowed himself several days to make the journey, Henry started out on foot. "It's a long road," said Henry, in talking of the trip, "but there are lots of fine people driving cars between here and Corpus." He continued, "I often secured rides from one town to the other, and in some instances rode for several miles." Henry arrived in Canyon in time to report for the first football practice.

He is one student who finds time to make good grades in his school work, earn his own living, and take part in the college athletics. He has made his football letter during the past two years and last year made a letter in basketball. He is very popular with the student body and faculty, and is considered one of the best all around students in school.

W. Brookhardt is the republican nominee for United States Senator from Iowa, winning over five opponents. Iowa is a safely republican of from 50,000 to 75,000. Dr. T. Harding, father of our President, Warren G. Harding, visited last week and stated that were he a voter in Iowa he would bolt the republican ticket, and vote for the democratic nominee. If the democratic nominee should defeat Brookhardt next month there will be a great shout to go up from the democrats of Texas for the broad-minded policy of Iowa for turning away from the nominee of their own direct vote and electing a true-blue democrat. It was the "safely republican" which re-elected Woodrow Wilson president of the United in 1916. Texas democrats went wild with it. If Dr. Harding had come into Iowa as a prominent leader of the democratic party and suggested that he would support the nominee of the democratic ticket who was a better man than the democratic nominee, he would at once be branded as an out-and-out breaker of party principles. It is a lot of difference whose ox is yoked in this political game. Every state in the union would follow the same game rule as imposed on the Texas voters, we would turn our attention over to the republican just as securely as the democracy is now trying to hold Texas. There is certainly great illumination in our party pledge.

politicians at Anstin are going to it that George Peddy's name not go on the ticket; not so in fear that he had any great chance to win, but as a method of lining the democratic voters subject to having only a portion of the citizens represented in Texas. Klansman Mayfield goes to Anstin. All nominees of the republican party, with the exception of Peddy, go on the tickets. The newspapers of the state believe that the attorney general has certainly created a condition in holding a general election to be held in this office, whereby the United States senate, safely republican, will most reasonable grounds for re-election to seat Klansman Mayfield, thus causing Texas to have a republican election next year. All of this is purely conjecture, possibly you knowing more than another what will happen. In the meantime the Peddy campaign goes on and voters are urged to write his name on the ticket if it is not finally printed on the ballots.

discussing the labor and capital question recently, J. Ogden Armour made a very wise suggestion that the labor must make a profit or it could not continue to pay labor. Labor too often gets it, that it is immaterial whether capital is making a profit or not, just so long as labor gets an increased wage. Capital cannot long which is not returning a profit. When capital ceases to exist, there is no wage for the laborer, and the industry is injured to a great extent. Labor has not been the only one in seeking a long profit, although labor has been unreasonably demanding during the past three years strikes and unjust wage increases.

seems that practically every town in this section has taken a decided stand against guaranteeing a chautauqua companies the expense of their trams. The chautauqua has greatly operated in quality during the past years, and the people are not willing to shoulder the financial burden of a lot of second or third rate engineers may come and clean up a lot of money for their managers.

is hard to tell what or when the end is coming to.—Greenville Pied-

The American Magazine prints a very interesting article on beggars this month, exposing the profession—for it has indeed become a profession in the cities, being profitable to the extent of hundreds of dollars per month, and requiring a school in which is taught the "art" of begging. There are, no doubt, some deserving beggars, but they are few and far between, according to a man who has made a long study of this class of undesirables. The reason they thrive so well in this country comes from the fact that it is easier for most Americans to dig up than to turn down the beseeching one.

Henry Ford advocates buying just as little coal as possible during the coming months, in order to get the upper hand of the coal profiteers. We note that most people are buying "little" coal, but the cause is scarcity on the market.

Clarendon News: Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the Normal at Canyon, made a very striking address at the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce convention at Amarillo, on the needs of the Texas educational system, and among other things declared that the state institutions need this year, $40,000,000 for permanent improvements. He further said that if property in Texas now escaping taxation could be made to pay its proportion of tax that the ordinary taxpayer could have his taxes reduced fifty percent and all the money necessary for the schools and other needs of the government would be amply provided for. This is the doctrine that many people in Texas have known and advocated for years and should be brought home to the masses that it should be made a platform demand, bringing to justice the untaxed millions of the rich man and relieving the burdens that beset those of less fortunate circumstances. Texas should not lack for funds to properly build and maintain her schools and eleemosynary institutions when simple justice in taxation would settle the difficulty for all times. Dr. Hill is right.

"Canned" Voices of All Races in Berlin Museum

Berlin.—A museum of living voices—more than 2,000 phonograph plates of prominent personages, of wild tribes and all races—has been collected by Prof. Wilhelm Doegen of the Berlin public library. The professor believes that from this extraordinary museum he could start a movement which would solidify peace in the world, and he is now trying to arrange for contact with American and other scientists.

"Furthering the mutual understanding of the peoples as well as of scientific progress," he said, has always been the aim of our work. For instance, the general idea about the Gurkhas is that they are a savage tribe glorifying in bloodshed. Now take this record.

The sounds of a beautiful and melancholy tune ceased. "Can anyone imagine a tribe having such songs and being a mere set of cut-throats?" he continued.

United States Will Send Two Former North Sea Mine Sweepers on the Work.

Washington.—Two former mine sweepers, turning from the pursuits of war to those of peace and science, are being remodeled in Delaware river shipyards and are nearly ready to weigh anchor to start on an indefinitely long cruise in the Pacific ocean for the United States coast and geologic survey.

They are steamers Pioneer and Discoverer, formerly the Auk and the Osprey, which saw service in the North sea. Now they are to be equipped with the finest scientific instruments for sounding and surveying.

Some time during the summer they are to pass through the Panama canal and proceed up the Pacific coast to Alaska to sound and survey uncharted territory.

Constantinople.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curt of Caldwell, N. J., who were married here last month, have left on a gypsy honeymoon trip of 10,000 miles around Europe. They will travel all the way in a small American camionette, with a chauffeur-cook, and a small tent of oiled silk. When the weather is too inclement for the tent they will sleep in the motorcar. Their honeymoon will take in Greece, Bulgaria, Rumania, Jugo-Slavia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Germany, Holland and France, averaging about 100 miles a day. They expect to complete their caravan journey in time to reach New York on Thanksgiving day.

The result of Doctor Curt's observations will be embodied in a series of economic studies for the American State department.

BOY CATCHES WHITE CROW

Abandens Round-up of Cows in Canadian Northwest to Capture "Funny" Bird.

Stettler, Alta., Canada.—Mrs. Katie Rottenfusser's eight-year-old son was sent out to bring in the cows for milking recently, and a short time later the mother saw the boy coming into the barnyard without the cows, but with something in his arms.

It was a pure white crow, white head, white feet, even white toenails. There is not a black spot on its whole body, and it seems as healthy as any crow that caws.

"I just caught it in the old cornfield," was all the boy would say about the capture of the rare bird. Mrs. Rottenfusser has offered to sell the crow to a circus menagerie.

Rural welfare centers in America have a counterpart in recently organized "village clubs" in England and "foyers" in France. The purpose of the European associations is to provide social, recreational and intellectual advantages that the country communities have hitherto lacked. The campaign is to raise the standard of living and offer wider opportunities for culture, and so to make life happier.

What has always made the helicopter a will-o-the-wisp is the requirement that it shall be able to descend with the engine cut out without horizontal motion. When an aeroplane engine stalls the aeronaut can glide to safety, but to get a heavy machine safely out of the clouds without horizontal motion is a much more difficult undertaking.

Because it burns so easily, coke must be used differently from coal in the domestic furnace. It requires more air over the top of the fire, less under draft and less shaking. It is made from bituminous coal from which gas, tar, ammonia, oils and the like have been driven. The manufacturers say that such volatile substances would go up the chimney anyway, and therefore of no use to householders. Coke mixed with a small amount of anthracite coal is said to give most satisfactory results.

LADY ELEPHANT WON BY MAHOUT

The Beast in the London Zoo Is Persuaded to Abandon Her Strike.

SOOTHED BY HINDUSTANI

The Indian Lectures Her Respectfully and Now She Is Again Tractably Carrying Little Children.

London.—A big female Indian elephant that went on strike at the zoo last spring and refused to do what big elephants at the zoo are used to do—earn money by carrying men around on her back—has been tamed by the sulks and laziness by seeming magic treatment of an Indian mahout.

She was presented to the zoo by Maharajah of Cooh Behar two years ago. She had been well trained and acted at all times like a sensible, behaved elephant and obeyed orders properly. She developed no beyond that of picking pockets and eating dainties. But every evening that has any sense at all, learns that in the zoo.

Goes on Strike. When she took it into her big head she would not submit to being led any longer. She declined to go between the new riding steps had been fixed up for the convenience of juvenile elephant riders. The old wooden steps were substituted for the new ones she proved obdurate. In the end she decided to leave the elephant yard at the elephant is a fine animal, quite good tempered. It was decided to obtain a mahout from India. He was cabled for, and arrived in due time. He was taken to the elephant. He at once entered the enclosure and formally saluted the mahout standing first at her head and then at her tail. Next he took off his turban and knotted a rope loosely around the elephant's neck, which he used as a kind of stirrup.

Talks Hindustani to Her. Little difficulty he persuaded her to kneel and mounted her neck. In less than two minutes, soothingly, and talking volubly to her mahout, he had got on good with the animal. Then he took her and to the elephant ride, and she had her in complete compliance with his admonitions, freely obeyed, were as follows: "I am that you eat your food, and will work; it is wrong; Allah enjoins all that we must work if we eat. You are cheating your god, and it is unworthy of you. I am a black man, and you must obey me. Put fear out of your heart, take it up from your heart, and let it out."

The elephant certainly seemed to understand, and now obeys every order. The mahout was given quarters in the part of the gardens, but he had to sleep in the elephant house, as he says that he wishes to be with the elephant during the day. He has not yet tried to saddle her, but he wants to take things slowly. He is confident he will conquer her fears and make her "permanently obedient."

York.—Possibly this dog was a St. Bernard. O'Connor, who hails from Kennebunk, Me., told this one with a face at McAlpin. He was out in a boat with his collie, last week, on a lake near the town. A few bites were rebuffed each time he drew up his hook was bare. Just as he was about to give up preparatory to leaving home, Queenie jumped overboard and soon reappeared with a fish. She repeated this performance shortly afterward and Jim went home with two fish. Neither of them was an edible variety, however, he

You Know Why It Is Often Called Firewater

San Diego, Cal.—The governor proved the wisdom of the "Lo" in naming liquor "firewater" some centuries ago. A hundred gallons confiscated by federal customs officers were used to empty into the gutter the other day. The thermometer registered 120 in the shade, and the liquor splattered on the pavement burst into flames. The heat of the sun's rays caused the officers moved to another place and again started pouring into the gutter. Again it burst into flames, which flashed a stream of liquor and exploded one of the tanks. The fire then poured the firewater into the sewer. The spectators saw the "firewater" fire.

SUNG HIS OWN COMPOSITIONS

Thomas Moore, Famous Irish Poet, Was Surely Exceptionally Endowed by Nature.

Thomas Moore, Ireland's favorite minstrel poet, was born in 1779, and died a baronet, the "poet of all circles and the darling of his own," the idol of two continents, in 1852.

For the last thirty years of his life he lived in a cottage at Sloperon, near Devizes, Wiltshire, where he devoted himself to all manner of literary efforts. His works include not only delightful short poems of "The Last Rose of Summer" type, but also poems to form a quarto volume, such as "Lalla Rookh," for which Moore received 3,000 guineas ($15,000), and they include prose of all kinds, a series of humorous letters, biographies and even a "History of Ireland."

Moore himself was a beautiful singer and rendered his own compositions often in public. It is related. After the tragic death of his daughter he refused to sing publicly again. His daughter, the darling of his heart, was leaning over the balustrade one night to throw a kiss to her father as he was going out to dine, when she lost her balance, fell and was killed.

"The Last Rose of Summer" was one of Moore's most exquisite creations. It appears in a collection of "Irish Melodies," written for Power, a London music publisher, on a contract to supply a considerable number of songs for a volume entitled as above. The work was started in 1807 and was not completed till 1834. "The Last Rose of Summer," however, was among the early productions, and is therefore easily more than 100 years old.

LAWYER COULD NOT SEE IT

Legal Luminary Felt Himself Regrettably Compelled to Decline Offered Job of "Spellbinding."

"I want to take time by the forelock," he said as he entered a lawyer's office.

"Yes, sir; Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Always take time by the forelock and you won't get left. What it is, sir."

"Well, we are to have an election this fall for city offices, and I wanted to know if I could engage you to make a speech for me the night before election."

"Are you going to be a candidate?" was asked.

"I am."

"But what about the speech?"

"Why, a feller is going to run against me again who beat me by 300 votes last year. In fact, I only got two votes. I want you to come up and give me such a speech that I will beat him worse than he beat me. You will want to lay it right down to him. He killed a horse once, and stole a sawmill, and has been married three times. If you will come up and present the case in a way to knock the feller out, I will give you $5."

The lawyer respectfully declined to take the case, and somebody will get showed under again.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

He was United States consul at Creford, Germany, 1878-80, and at Glasgow, 1880-85, and afterward lived in England. Among his many works are "The Luck of Roaring Camp," "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," "Condensed Novels," etc., "The Heathen Chinee," "Poems," "Stories of the Sierras," "Tales of the Argonauts," "Gabriel Conroy," "Thankful Blossom," "Two Men of Sandy Bar," "California Stories," "A Millionaire of Rough and Ready," "A Drift From Redwood Camp" and "A Phyllis of the Sierras."

Her Daddy Was All Right.

When I was twelve years old I called upon Mary (aged eleven) one Sunday evening. I was all dressed up and had pilfered an armful of mother's cherished lilies from the garden. I stole out the alley gate, traversed Mary's back yard and she met me at the kitchen door. We sat on the back steps. I restrained a strong impulse to flee when Mary said: "Father is coming, I think." He was a gruff, bad man. When he saw us I was terror-stricken. What he said was, "How's the boy tonight?" and he took us both in the house and sent little brother after ice cream and Mary's mother cut a cake. So I wasn't kicked out by an irate father, after all; in fact, he still likes me and often jokes about the lilies and the kitchen steps, although another young man walked up the aisle with Mary.—Chicago Journal.

OWNS FLOATING HOME

Pensacola Yacht Club Purchases Concrete Vessel.

Obtains From Government Motorship General William Wilson, Whose Only Voyage Cost Uncle Sam Too Much.

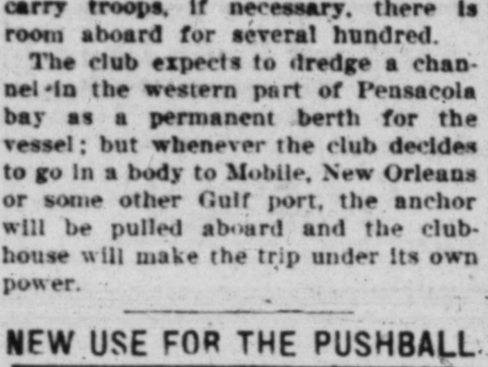

Pensacola, Fla.—The new home of the Pensacola Yacht club, a handsome concrete structure, is about ready for occupancy and the club members think so well of it that when they make their next trip to Mobile in a body they will take the clubhouse along with them to show it to the yachtsmen of the Alabama city. It is a floating clubhouse. The club has just purchased for less than $10,000 the army quartermaster motorship General William Wilson, a concrete vessel, 136 feet in length, which the government built at an expense of $350,000. The Wilson is equipped with two powerful gasoline motors, which cost Uncle Sam $30,000 each, and virtually is a new vessel, having made only one voyage since it was launched.

Its only journey was a trip by easy stages from New York to Pensacola, but the voyage proved to be the undoing of the vessel. The motors consumed 50 gallons of gasoline an hour, and even Uncle Sam's bank account would not stand for that. On arrival of the vessel here it was tied up and a recent advertisement for bids for the ship resulted in the local yacht club's becoming interested.

The club for many years had dreamed of a floating clubhouse eventually, but even the most optimistic members did not contemplate one of concrete or one that could be moved without the assistance of a tug, and when it was learned the Wilson was on the market the members proceeded to file a bid.

With the vessel went all of its equipment, which comprised everything from table silver to bed linen. The ship has accommodations for 50 persons, but having been designed to carry troops, if necessary, there is room aboard for several hundred. The club expects to dredge a channel in the western part of Pensacola bay as a permanent berth for the vessel; but whenever the club decides to go in a body to Mobile, New Orleans or some other Gulf port, the anchor will be pulled aboard and the clubhouse will make the trip under its own power.

NEW USE FOR THE PUSHBALL.

"Pushball walking" is the latest innovation of the Eleventh United States cavalry, whose fame for inventing new sports is nationwide. The idea is to stay on top of the ball while making it move forward by propelling it with a walking movement, treadmill fashion. An ordinary cavalry pushball is used. The new sport has a practical as well as sporting value in that it trains the soldiers in balancing themselves and controlling their bodies.

GETS GROUSE BY AIRPLANE

London Has Birds for Luncheon on the First Day of the Shooting Season.

London.—For the first time in the history of August 12, the date on which grouse shooting begins, birds shot that morning arrived in London in time to be served at luncheon. Hitherto, the best record has been their delivery in time for dinner.

Airplanes were the means by which this feat was accomplished. From the butts of the famous moor in Yorkshire the first birds shot were rushed by motor car to the aerodrome and thence brought by plane to London and distributed to the leading hotels and Covent Garden market.

At Covent Garden dealers sold the birds at 11 the brace. Prices charged at hotels depended on the headwaiters' estimates of their customers' characters.

U. S. IS RICH IN OIL SHALES

New Source of Motor Fuel Awaits Development by Chemists, Says Dr. McKee.

USE MORE THAN WE PRODUCE

Shortage of Petroleum is Made Up by Large Importations From Mexico—Big Source of Supply Seen in Shale.

Washington.—In the last six years the gasoline used in the United States per automobile has decreased from 600 gallons per year to approximately 400 gallons per year, owing not to a decrease of mileage per car, but to an increased efficiency of carburetors and engines. Were it not for this increased efficiency we should already have reached our limit of gasoline consumption and with it probably a price of at least 40 cents a gallon.

Since 1921 the United States has been consuming more petroleum than it produces. The excess has been largely provided by Mexico and last year showed an importation of more than 120,000,000 barrels, that is, approximately 26 per cent of the American production. Moreover, about a year ago the geological survey called attention to the fact that we should not expect to find any more large fields of petroleum in the United States—in other words, that practically all of the possibilities in the way of large petroleum fields in this country have been well protected and that now we can calculate fairly closely what the production will be in the future.

Continually Increasing.

On the other hand, the use of motor vehicles in this country is continually increasing. At present there are about 10,000,000 passenger cars, trucks and tractors in use, and it is certain that the saturation point is more than 15,000,000, and perhaps will exceed 20,000,000 machines. With this expected larger demand for gasoline on one hand, and on the other, even less petroleum available in a few years than we have at present, there arises a question as to how the motor fuel deficit is to be met. Of course, importations of oil can be made from Russia, Persia, Mesopotamia, and South America. The consumer will purchase his gasoline at from 60 to 75 cents a gallon. We must have a domestic supply of motor fuel and at a price more reasonable than 60 cents a gallon. Thirty-five or forty cents a gallon will probably be considered a fair price by the consumer.

Alcohol and benzol and the synthetic motor fuels having a mixture of these two as their base, will meet a small, but only a very small portion of the needs. The total amount of these two motor fuels available in America is but a small percentage of the 20,000,000 gallons of gasoline now used daily.

Oil Shale Resources.

In the last two years another source of motor fuel has begun to be considered seriously in America. In Europe oil shale has been used for nearly a century for the obtaining of petroleum. Indeed, the word "petroleum" was used for shale oil for a generation before Colonel Drake drilled the first oil well (Titusville, Pa., 1859). Oil shale does not contain petroleum, but by heating oil shale a petroleum distillate from which a motor spirit similar to ordinary gasoline may be obtained.

The European oil shale yields 20 to 22 gallons of oil per ton of shale mined. In this country we have large deposits of shales that give double this yield of oil. The largest of these are the Green River deposits in Colorado, Utah and Wyoming, but there are also deposits in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, and some of equal extent in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Many of these will yield a barrel (42 gallons) of oil per ton of rock. It is not commonly appreciated how large these oil shale deposits are. In the Green River section alone there are known deposits yielding a barrel or more of petroleum per ton. These are sufficient to furnish more than five times the total world production since the commercial development of well petroleum 60 years ago.

Experimental Work.

In the last two years "conversations" regarding shale oil possibilities have been followed by real experimental and small plant operations, so that today we have several processes in course of trial. It is as yet a question whether we have found the best method of obtaining oil from the shale. It should be said in passing that the American shales do not work satisfactorily when retorted in the standard Scotch retort, and that, accordingly, modifications of this retort, or retorts on new principles must be designed. So far the developments have been largely in the hands of mining engineers or of men without technical training. Only lately have chemical engineers taken an active hand in the industry.

In concluding, Dr. McKee says: "The demands for petroleum are increasing in this country at the rate of about 50,000,000 lbs. a year. We have in prospect no source of fuel oil, gasoline, or gasoline substitute other than oil shale that promises to furnish even a minor part of this demand. To meet this, even without making any allowances for the expected decrease in production from oil wells will require each year the building of 75 shale oil plants, each handling 2,000 tons of oil shale daily, and each representing an investment of nearly a million dollars. And yet some men feel that the industrial need for chemical engineers and chemists is limited!"

MONKEY MESSES UP HOTEL

Ring-Tailed Animal From Central America Causes Considerable Commotion During Freedom.

New York.—A little black ring-tailed monkey from Central America escaped from an animal store. He was finally captured in a room of the Hotel Chelsea by Patrolman Ernest Freeburg, but not before he had, during his two days of freedom, caused considerable commotion in the Chelsea district.

The monkey seemed to be partial to the Hotel Chelsea. He was first seen on a fire escape of the sixth floor. Several times he was cornered in rooms there, but always escaped. He got into the room of Arthur Wolke, resident manager of the house, and ate a couple of thrushes which used to sit sweetly.

Soon after this the monkey went into the room of a gentleman who had been drinking home brew, and the gentleman called the hotel clerk to witness that he had sworn off from that moment, it being his belief that the little monk was equipped with green wings and yellow hands. Simmons and the police tried to poison the monkey after that, sprinkling a deadly liquid on a bunch of bananas, but the monkey ate the good fruit and let the poisoned bananas alone. He was finally cornered in a room on the third floor of the Hotel Chelsea, and while two boys closed the windows on the fire escape the policeman went in and captured him. Then he was locked up.

SUE FOR AMERICAN'S DEATH

$100,000 Reparation Asked for Death of George Knapp, Murdered by Soldiers.

Los Angeles, Cal.—A claim of $100,000 as reparation for the death of George P. Knapp, an American, seven years ago in Armenia, is being prepared for filing against the Turkish government by officials of the State department at Washington, according to a statement made here by Knapp's brother, J. Herbert Knapp, a civil engineer.

When Knapp died, typhus was given as the cause, but his brother believed the cause was more sinister and left his home here to go to Turkey and Armenia, where he passed years in an investigation. He secured an affidavit from an Armenian banker, which declares his brother was taken by Turkish soldiers, who trampled into the dust the American flag over his door, tied him to a tree in a desolate place and shot him three times simply because they believed he knew too much about their depredations.

SEIZE BEGGAR'S COSTLY CAR

Horton Malone After Day's "Work" Dresses in Tuxedo and Silk Shirt.

New York.—Under an attachment for $100 City Marshal Hirsch seized the costly automobile in which Horton A. Malone, legless street beggar, rides about with his wife after he has done his day's work collecting money. Malone has a bank account and an apartment. When he is not "working the streets" here, he and his wife attend country fairs where she runs a concession and he sells pencils, showing himself about of a board fixed on roller skates.

At home he dresses in tuxedo, silk shirt and diamonds.

The $100 attachment followed a suit which Henry Frank, lawyer, brought for services in connection with trouble Malone's chauffeur got into. Malone said he would fight the lawsuit.

"Mushrooms" Soon Hatch Blacksnakes in Jar

John Witmer of Lancaster, Pa., now knows that blacksnake eggs and mushrooms are much alike. He recently found six big "mushrooms" while walking through a field, but laughed at a friend who told him they were snake eggs.

To prove his informant was wrong, John put the eggs in a jar. Several days later three tiny blacksnakes broke out of the eggs. A few days later the other eggs hatched six-inch reptiles.

Facts About Child-Birth

An eminent physician has shown to thousands of expectant mothers just how to be free from dread, and from much of the suffering which many mothers experience for months, right up to the moment when the Little One arrives.
 Mrs. Wm. Washington, 107 Louise Ave., Nashville, Tenn., says: "There is positively no woman on earth that would be without 'Mother's Friend' during expectancy if she only knew the value of comfort."
 "Mother's Friend" is externally applied to the region of the abdomen, back and hips. It relieves the tension on nerves and ligaments as month follows month. Finally, it makes childbirth a joy instead of a painful dread.
 Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., R.A.-7, Atlanta, Ga., for a free wonderful book containing information every expectant mother should have. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, to ADVERTISE in THIS PAPER
