COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING IS HELD ON FRIDAY NIGHT

WEEKLY LUNCHEON WILL BE RESUMED NEXT TUESDAY.

Many Important Meetings Will Be Held in Canyon During the Coming Three Months.

The attendance Friday night at the meeting of the Commercial League was small, and little business was attempted.

J. M. Vetesk, president of the Commercial League, presided, and expressed the wish that during 1923 the members of the organization take up one or two things at a time and stay with the proposition until it had been accomplished.

President J. A. Hill pointed out some of the things that were coming to Canyon during the next few months, and the large amount of entertaining that would be expected of the town and college. The district basketball meet was coming this week; the stock judging contest would bring about fifty boys and at least that many men here; the Historical Society was to meet on Feb. 15 and a banquet would be given; the Parent-Teachers Association of Texas was meeting in Amarillo, and the president desired that the members visit the Normal; the Panhandle Press Association meets in Amarillo, and a number of the members expressed a desire to make a trip to Canyon; the Singing Convention would be held in March; the Interscholastic Meet would be held in April; and there possibly other meetings of importance to be held at the college during the spring.

In order to care for the large number of visitors during the stock judging contest a committee had been appointed from the college of Frank R. Phillips, T. A. Fritts, W. E. Lockhart and J. L. Dufflot. A committee from the town was named of W. J. Flesher, C. D. Lester and C. L. Thompson. The housing committee is S. B. McClure, J. W. Reid, O. N. Gamble and W. A. Warren.

The proposition of sending a man to a meeting of the Southwest Trails was presented and it was decided that no representative would be sent.

C. F. Walker stated that a large part of the cotton seed bought by the business men had been taken by the farmers, but that many farmers were going ahead and buying various kinds of seed, which would be very injurious when it came to selling the seed next fall. He urged that business men explain to the farmers that the seed was being sold at cost, that there were guaranteed to be pure and free from disease, and that the germination was guaranteed. He pointed out instances where farmers had bought cotton seed at cheap prices, and had so low a percent of germination that it did not pay to plant the seed.

The business men were urged to attend the meeting of the farmers which are being held at the court house on Wednesday afternoons.

It was voted to resume the noon luncheons at Casey's Cafe next Tuesday. The luncheon will start at 12:15 and end promptly at 1:15. Frank R. Phillips will be the leader next Tuesday. It was pointed out that women are invited to any and all of these luncheons, and that they are urged to attend.

BREEDERS AND TYPES COURSE

One of the most practical courses offered in the West Texas State Normal College is the one in "Breeders and Types" which is instructed by Prof. T. A. Fritts of the Department of Agriculture. At present County Agent C. F. Walker is giving the class a series of demonstration lectures by comparisons on Hereford cattle. Mr. Walker has had fifteen years experience in the breeding of Herefords and knows this phase of work thoroughly.

LUNCHEONS TO BE RESUMED

The semi-monthly luncheons of the Randall County Commercial League will be resumed next Tuesday, February 13. The first luncheon will be held at Casey's Cafe. Frank R. Phillips is the leader.

Every man and woman interested in Canyon's welfare is urged to be present. Do your part. Attend this luncheon. The luncheon starts at 12:15 and ends at 1:15.

Many Farmers Will Attend Agricultural Conference at College

Those in charge of the arrangements for the Farmers meeting to be held Friday and Saturday of next week are expecting a large number of men present. The Commercial League has a committee on arrangements consisting of C. D. Lester, C. L. Thompson and W. J. Flesher to co-operate with a committee from the Normal consisting of J. L. Dufflot, B. F. Fronabarger, Jr., T. A. Fritts, W. E. Lockhart and F. R. Phillips, selected by President Hill for the same purpose. S. B. McClure, J. W. Reid and O. N. Gamble are in charge of locations.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO BATTLE FOR DISTRICT CHAMPION

EIGHT TEAMS WILL ARGUE OUT THE BIG DISPUTE.

Canyon High Team Doped to be a Strong Contender for the Battle Friday and Saturday.

Eight teams from so many districts will start the district championship tournament in basketball Friday at the Normal gymnasium, and the championship game will be played Saturday night.

The championship is several subdivisions of the district is to be decided in games this week.

The Canyon high school team is undefeated, and will represent district No. 8 in the meet here Friday and Saturday. The boys have defeated the Amarillo team, which will represent another district and which are no doubt one of the strongest teams that will be in the meet. The Canyon high school team is going after the district championship Saturday, and are doped to win by those who have seen the other strong teams play.

Zero Weather Hit This Section Saturday, With a Little Snow Falling

The temperature started to drop Friday night and registered zero Saturday night, being the coldest weather of the winter.

A little snow fell during Saturday, but not sufficient to be of any benefit.

The stockmen report that they have never seen stock winter better than they have this year. Very little feeding has been necessary throughout the winter, and stock are in good condition. The wheat crop will likely be a failure this year owing to the continual drought through the winter, but the stockmen believe that the farmers of Randall county have saved enough on their stock feed bill through the mild winter that they can afford the loss of a wheat crop this year.

However, many farmers are still hopeful that with plenty of rain during February there will be considerable wheat this year. Many farmers report that wheat which came up last fall during the small rains is still alive and well rooted just under the dry crust of the ground.

Randall County to Have Big Exhibits at Fat Stock Show

According to County Agent C. F. Walker, Randall County will send some very fine exhibits to the Southwestern Fat Stock Exposition which will be held at Fort Worth, March 3 to 10. Mr. Walker states that the steers entered by the Dowlin Brothers and Fred Ward have a good chance of winning the prize offered for the best steer and the one for the best five steers entered by club boys.

The following will send animals to the show: T. A. Dowlin, two bulls; C. F. Walker, five steers, Dowlin Brothers, five steers and Fred Ward one steer. John Vetesk will accompany the animals to Fort Worth.

Hog Men Hold Interesting Meeting Yesterday Afternoon

The cold blustry wind did not prevent thirty men from meeting in the Court House Wednesday afternoon for the regular hog school meeting. The subjects discussed were "Management of the Brood Sow and Her Feed," by Forrester Burton, a Poland China breeder, and "The Relation of the Business Man to the Farmer," by T. C. Thompson, president of Thompson Hardware Company.

Sows Should Not Be Overfed

Mr. Burton thinks the brood sows should not be overfed. He gave us his experience that little pigs would not grow well if the mothers had been overfed on rich feeds. He recited an illustration of an experiment that he had, where he lost forty pigs out of forty-two from gilts overfed, while at the same time the older sows who had not been overfed retained their litters. Mr. Burton thinks that the success of the hog business depends largely upon the kind of sows selected for the herd. He stressed the fact that breeding hogs must have exercise if they are to produce the best class of pigs.

Farmers are Business Men

Mr. Thompson stated at the beginning of his talk that he did not see any reason why there should be a difference between the farmer and the business man; that the farmer who succeeded was a business man, and that if we took as a definition of a business man, one who buys and sells, that we find ninety-six percent of that class of people, if they sell merchandise, fail. He did not want to think of a business man as that kind of a person. He stated that the farmer was the tap root of all commerce. He stressed the fact that business men wanted the farmer to have livestock that they might have a small income each day, especially the dairy farmer.

The meeting next week will be devoted to economy of feeding hogs. C. F. Walker will give the results of experiments carried out with grain sorghum feeds and H. C. Roffey will relate his experience in fattening a carload of hogs with imported feeds. W. A. Warren is to discuss the value of live stock in a system of farming in Randall County.

Santa Fe Officials Visit in Canyon Two Days to Get Line on Conditions

J. K. MacKie, Division Superintendent, and W. E. Goodloe, Division Freight and Passenger Agent, of the Santa Fe spent Tuesday and yesterday in Canyon looking into conditions generally over the city.

The gentlemen would not state their mission to Canyon, excepting that they wanted to get better acquainted with Canyon and Canyon people.

They spent several hours at the Normal, inspecting the buildings and the work being done.

There has been considerable agitation in Canyon for a new depot, and it is surmised that the visit of these gentlemen make have been provoked by the interest shown here over this matter.

KLAN LETTERS RECEIVED.

A bunch of Ku Klux Klan letters were received in the city last Thursday from the Amarillo Klan asking that Canyon Klansmen transfer their membership to the Amarillo Klan in view of the fact that the local Klan had disbanded and given up its charter. The letter asked that letters be directed in care of one of the Amarillo daily newspapers.

The Country Women's Club met with Mrs. J. Tueck Jan. 18th, and a fine dinner was served. A special program was given by Mrs. J. L. Boyd, and everyone enjoyed the day.

BUFFALO BASKETBALL TEAM HOME WITH LOSS OF ONLY THREE GAMES ON TWO WEEKS' TRIP DOWN STATE

The Buffalo basketball crew came home Monday on the 11:10 a. m. train, and were met at the depot by practically all of the students and faculty of the Normal, who gave the boys a most wonderful welcome.

The team has been away two weeks on one of the hardest trips ever experienced by a college basketball team in the state. On this trip the team has gone up against the strongest teams in the state, and lost only three of the ten games played. Only one of these games were lost on a fair break, this being the first game with Denton, which team had not been defeated in two seasons until whipped in the second game by the Buffaloes. The one game lost to Huntsville by the score of 28 to 27, was occasioned by the referee changing his mind after the game ended in favor of the Buffaloes. The referee ruled out the last two points made by the Buffaloes after the players had left the floor. The last defeat at San Marcos Friday night was occasioned by the all night trip from Huntsville and the fact that Captain Hale, Hill and Lancaster were out most of this game.

The Buffalo team came up smiling after the grueling experience of the past two weeks, when they met and disposed of the biggest basketball teams in the T. I. A. A. The Buffaloes had the heaviest schedule of any team in the association, both from the number of games to play and the strength of the teams to be met.

The men are feeling fine considering the long trip and hard schedule, but are mighty glad that they will not be in another game until the end of the month when the cadets from Roswell Military Institute will lock horns with the Buffaloes.

The game last Thursday night at Huntsville was easily taken care of by the Buffaloes, and the contest was added to their string of scalps by the score of 29 to 21.

The long jump from Huntsville to San Marcos, and the fact that Captain Hale, Lewis Hill and Joe Lancaster were out most of the game, lost the first game at San Marcos Friday night by a score of 29 to 15.

All of the first string men were in the line up Saturday night and the Buffaloes won by the score of 30 to 14.

The loss of three games out of ten on such a hard trip is an excellent record, and is one that the boys of the team should feel extremely proud. If the games had come singly, neither Huntsville or San Marcos would have been able to defeat the Buffaloes. The Denton team was the strongest aggregation played on the trip, and the Buffaloes were loud in their praise of this bunch of basketball players. Denton won the first game by a score of 28 to 27, after the Buffaloes had led at the end of the first half by a score of 22 to 9. The second game came to the Buffaloes by the score of 24 to 22. The coach at Denton wrote President J. A. Hill a highly complimentary letter of the work of the Buffaloes, both as to team and individual playing.

The boys are resting this week and will not be in action until the Roswell games.

The first string men will be referees in the series of high school games to be played here Friday and Saturday in the Interscholastic League meet.

Historical Society Will Hold Annual Meeting Thursday, February 15

The regular annual meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society for the election of officers will be held at the Normal building, room 201, on Thursday, February 15.

At six o'clock a banquet will be given served by the Home Economics Department of the College. Among the speakers will be Judge L. Gough of Hereford and C. R. Burrow of Canyon.

Miss Hattie M. Anderson, secretary of the Society, states that the banquet is open to all interested in the preservation of the records of this region.

Tax Collector W. C. Black reports a shortage on poll tax payments this year within the allotted time, and that he has a goodly number on the tax rolls unpaid. The total for the county this year is 1192, as compared with 1291 last year. Many people did not pay their poll tax this year, thinking there would be no elections of importance during the year.

The following were the payments by precincts:

Baptist Workers Conference Met Last Tuesday at Hereford

Another very fine monthly meeting of Tierra Blanca Baptist workers was held last week at Hereford. The general topic discussed was the Lives, Times and Reigns of Saul and David. All the program brought out many interesting facts. The outline was discussed and then the facts about Saul and his wars.

Pastor Morris' discussion on the regeneration of Saul was of great interest to all. He understood it, that Saul was never a saved man. Most of the crowd seemed to agree with him.

At eleven o'clock the ordination to the Gospel Ministry of Rev. Rufus Brazil took place in the presence of the good crowd. The Hereford Saints spread a most bountiful dinner which all enjoyed and several well filled plates were sent to those who were sick and to shut-ins.

The afternoon discussion was also most profitable to Bible people. The crowd was somewhat cut down because of the prevailing epidemic, yet it was a fine crowd and enthusiastic.

Next meeting goes to Happy on Thursday, March 1. The Scripture for our study and program this month is the book of Genesis. Let every Bible reader be sure to review it all and come of Happy and I am sure you will be happy.

THE SCHOOL LOCATION

The people of Canyon will be called upon next Saturday to pass upon a question of the location of the new high school building. The people will be asked to give authority to the city council to close Evelyn street in order that the new high school building may be placed in the middle of that street, just north of the old building. The question naturally arises whether or not this is the logical location for the new building.

School men who have had opportunity to supervise city schools advocate separating school buildings several blocks, and when this is done the question of discipline is greatly improved. If this were done in Canyon, it would be advisable to move the new high school building away from the old building, which will be used as a ward school, thus separating the older children and the young ones in the grades. This could be done by locating the new building in a more central place in Canyon.

The school building is now considerably out of the center of population, and will probably always remain so. The eastern part of town will always build more houses than will the west part. A census of the present school shows a very large percent of the school children to live east of the Presbyterian church. If the new high school building is to be placed near the center of population, it would have to be brought to within a short distance of the public square. If located farther down town, the building would become more serviceable to the people of the city, and would not interfere with those patrons who live in the country since they will be driven to school. The only objection to be found in this plan is the placing of the high school student within easy access of the public square and thus create a tendency for them to loaf around town at off hours, rather than stay on the school grounds.

The objection of placing the two buildings together, and building the new house away from the center of population are the most serious ones. It seems to the News, to placing the new building in the west part of town. There is going to be a number of votes cast against closing the street on these grounds.

The location in Evelyn street was chosen by the board of trustees after discussing the question for several weeks. There is the possibility of locating the new building either to the south or west of the old building. Both of these have been rejected by the school board as being impracticable. The new building will certainly be too beautiful a structure to hide behind the old building, and the old building is in too good a state of preservation to be wrecked or rebuilt at this time. The finances of the district will not allow of doing away with the old building for many years.

It might be possible to buy the block north of the old building but this is another very expensive thing for the district, as the improvements on this block would be practically wasted to the district, and about $2,000 lost in the transaction. By buying the south part of this block and the block west of the old building, and placing the new building in Evelyn street, the district gets one and one-half blocks more of land in addition to the land in Evelyn street for about $2,300 less than the one block north could be purchased, and in addition have nearly a block more land.

Looking at the question from all angles, a majority of the trustees decided that Evelyn street was the only practical location in the west part of town, as there is a disposition to get the greatest value for every dollar of the people's money that is to be invested in the new building and plant. If the people reject this location in Saturday's election, the whole question of the location will have to be reconsidered and all available places in town must be carefully weighed in order to get the best place for the money. As we see the question, the best argument in favor of placing the new building in Evelyn street is the fact that paving is promised up this street to the new building within a short while. If the building is not placed in that section, the people on the west end of the street near the school site, would not be disposed to pave, and several blocks of paving would be lost to the city for many years to come. The question of paving is as great a thing, from the standpoint of civic attractiveness as is a new school building, although we need the school building greater just now than anything else.

Go to the polls Saturday and express your opinion regarding the location of the new school building. The contractor will have to start operations next week in order to get the new building completed in time for school next fall. If the trustees are forced by the vote Saturday to look for a new location, it will naturally take a few days to buy other land.

This section of the state is being flooded with literature and salesmen of cotton seed. Most of our people being new in the game will fall for the first or second salesman who strikes them on the proposition "and buy seed of which they know absolutely nothing. Just so the price is right. Good seed is cheap at $2.00 or even $3.00 per bushel. There may be just as good seed at $1.00—possibly, just as good, but in ninety nine cases out of one hundred, the $1.00 seed is the most expensive seed the farmer can buy. The business men of Canyon have bought a car load of seed from an old established firm who knows how to handle seed, and absolutely guarantees its seed as to purity and germination. These seed are offered at cost to the farmers. They are possibly a little higher in cost than seed that may be picked up over the country with no one backing them, and with possibilities of being infested with disease, and with absolutely no guarantee as to germination. The business men of Canyon are putting their money in these seed because they want to see the farmers start out in the cotton business the right way. It would be disastrous to the cotton industry in Randall county to get a lot of infested seed the first year. Better play safe on the game, and buy seed that are known and guaranteed to be good.

The chronic kicker is a nuisance to the community. He kicks whether there is anything to kick about or not. The occasional kicker is a benefit to any community. He kicks when there is something that needs a kick. Nobody pays any attention to the chronic kicker, because nothing else is expected of him. Everybody listens to the occasional kicker, because they know that when he voices a protest there is a legitimate reason for his noise. Kicking pays when people take your kicks seriously. It is then that investigations are made and the truth comes out. Don't kick for the sake of kicking, but kick hard when the good of the community requires it.—Paducah Post.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS IS ADVERTISING YOUR NAME AND BUSINESS SO MUCH THAT WHEN POLICE THINK OF ONE, THEY'LL THINK OF THE OTHER. JEST LIKE COMED AND JULIET, BE HAM 'N EGGS!

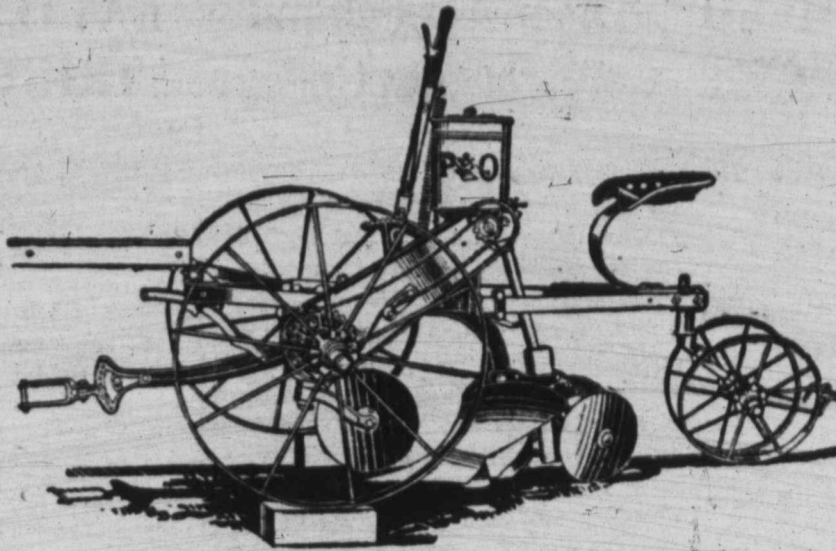

The Plainview News is going after the jury service in Hale county because juries will not convict criminals. Juries are funny things, the world over. Juries turn criminals loose when it looks as if there was possibly no excuse for not giving them the limit of the law. Yet, all twelve men on the jury are human beings, just like other human beings, and are subjected to the same passions and prejudices, fashions and follies as the rest of us. It is unlawful for a man to sell bootleg whiskey. Yet is entirely within the law for this captured bootlegger to take this money, pay it for a criminal lawyer who will manufacture evidence, distort the truth, hide the fundamental facts, build up false premises, harangue before the jury over unimportant facts, and with tears in his eyes plead for mercy when he knows his client will leave the court room and commit the same crime within twenty-four hours. It is unethical for the lawyer to advertise his trade, yet the criminal lawyer will indulge in practices in the court room that if put in practice by any merchant in Canyon would lose them every respectable customer within a week. To strengthen our jury service, we must reform our court practices.

CHEMISTRY HEAD DISCUSSES CHINA IN THREE TALKS

DR. PIERLE PLEASURES STUDENTS WITH CHAPEL LECTURES

Speaking for the first time in chapel exercises here, Dr. C. A. Pierle, head of the chemistry department since last September, discussed Chinese history and institutions in three interesting lectures last Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Prof. Pierle spoke from close study and experience, having taught in China for nine years.

Dr. Pierle began by giving a brief history of China, mentioning her ancient civilization, her early forms of government, her economic independence, and the "closed door" policy of her emperors. He then showed how trade negotiations followed the movements of foreign missionaries, and spoke at length of the injustices China has suffered at the hands of the nations who have forced her to open her ports to world trade.

China Has Reason for Attitude

"However we may criticize China, there is a real reason for her dislike of foreign nations," said the speaker. England, he explained, in 1850 forced the opium trade on China, and through some slight pretenses gained a foothold in the country. Aided by France, she destroyed the summer palace at Peking and in a treaty gained important concessions. France, Germany and Russia found it necessary to follow their missionaries, and they too demanded and obtained trade rights.

Caste System Not Rigid

While there were many classes in China, Dr. Pierle stated that it was not impossible for a member of the lowest class to reach the highest order. The first class was composed of the scholars, or officials, then followed the farmers, merchants, soldiers, and artisans.

Education consisted chiefly of the memorizing of simple classics and the tenets of the Confucian religion. Learning was desired chiefly because it gave governmental prestige. With the introduction of mission schools, the emperors gradually lost their influence. It was to their advantage to hold the masses in ignorance.

Boxer Uprising Significant

Growing out of the anomalies of this situation, a movement to drive out all foreigners was launched. Foreign nations, among them the United States, interfered. Our government advocated the "open door" policy, a principle avoided by most of the European powers, who were interested chiefly in getting some of China's immense resources. By the protocol of 1901, the United States government agreed to accept indemnity of twenty four million dollars. However, after investigating our losses in the uprising, it was decided to return thirteen millions. The suggestion was made that China use the money to educate her young Skin Ablaze with Eczema Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1891! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body-builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and it well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again men abroad. China agreed to send every year a number of her students to this country.

The first delegation arrived in 1909. Though selected on a competitive basis, the students were without sufficient preparation to enter our universities. For this reason, it was decided to establish a preparatory school in China.

Tsing Hue College Opened

In 1910, the ground was broken for a good junior college at Peking. The faculty—all Americans—was the best that could be procured. Selection was made by the International Y. M. C. A. through the New York office of Dr. John R. Mott. Tsing Hua college opened in 1911, when Dr. Pierle took charge of the chemistry department. Students from the college are making good records in the universities of this country.

Dr. Pierle was associated with Tsing Hua College for eleven years, teaching continuously except for two years leave of absence when he studied in Wisconsin University. It is hoped that he will in another series of lectures discuss present conditions in China.—The Prairie.

THE HABIT OF LUXURY

We congratulate ourselves daily on the immense progress of comfort in ordinary life. It appears that in the last century scientific invention has made more advance in the matter of common luxury, of living than had been made by many centuries before. There is health, there is cleanliness, there is plumbing, there are endless electric appliances for simplifying domestic labor. There is light, there is heat, there are the telephone and the automobile. It seems that those poor, benighted earlier people, who had none of those things, could not have known what the comfort of life really is.

Are we any happier for it all? It is obvious and notorious that those who are born to all this wealth and variety of luxury might appreciate the lack of it, might feel it keenly if deprived of all these cunning and insinuating arrangements for warding off the bare attacks of human need. But when things go on in their normal course we are too likely to accept our blessings without thinking anything about them. And the old, restless, anxious, self-tormenting soul seeks some new ease, some strange relief, some unimagined luxury, just as much as ever it did.

Even, it is possible to see when we think of it the immense danger and damage of getting dependent on all those things which our forefathers did not need because they did not know them. We have become gradually enmeshed in a close network of comfort and luxury that, by pampering our bodies, bids fair to rob us of the brave freedom of our souls. And no doubt the Great War taught many a hot-house-bred young man that what he had grown up, unthinkingly to consider as absolute necessities of life were by no means indispensable, that a man might rarely wash and seldom shave and yet be a hero. But the strain of deprivation was often cruel and sometimes deadly, and many a soldier grew to wonder whether he most despised luxury or longed for it.

The luxuries that really count are those of the spirit, the wealth of human affection and the inexhaustible beauty of art and nature. These have been the common property of all ages; and they cost nothing but the simple effort of training yourself to appreciate. How many people refuse to make even an effort to despise the most exquisite luxuries the world affords only because they are within reach of everyone!

Fountain pens with glass points are now being made.

Habits are the only cobwebs that grow into cables.

Mrs. C. R. Correy, Canyon, says: "My back ached steadily and there was lameness and soreness in it which made it hard for me to stoop to do my housework. I got dizzy and black specks floated before my eyes. I had headaches and my kidneys were inflamed and irregular in action. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some at the Holland Drug Co. Three boxes fixed up my kidneys and relieved my back."

Santa Fe Taxes 3 times as high

Here is the Tax Bill:

	State and Local	Federal	Total
1912	$ 4,187,000	$ 251,000	$ 4,438,000
1917	7,094,000	4,838,000	11,932,000
1918	7,036,000	3,838,000	10,874,000
1919	8,500,000	4,010,000	12,510,000
1920	8,689,000	3,315,000	12,004,000
1921	10,192,000	4,644,000	14,836,000

The exact figures for 1922 are not yet available, but they will greatly exceed even 1921.

Taxes for each mile of railroad operated were $414 in 1912 and $1,270 for 1921.

Please note, the tax bill has more than tripled since 1912.

Many public men are keenly alive to the serious situation arising from this enormous tax burden and have dealt with it in recent addresses. Senator Borah says:

"It will be very difficult to reduce freight rates, if we continue in this country to increase taxes upon railroads as we have for the last four years."

The magnitude of the bill suggests one reason why new stations, locomotives, and cars, and new railroad lines are possible only in a limited way, and why passenger fares and freight rates are so much higher than 10 years ago.

The tax bill comes ahead of everything.

"It Speaks!"

On March 10, 1876, in a noisy machine shop at Boston, the telephone was born. Alexander Graham Bell, the young teacher of deaf mutes, had dedicated his life to restoring the precious gift of voice to his pupils.

During his experiments he discovered a new principle of sound transmission which brought the hope that some day men might hear each other's voices though separated by hundreds of miles.

That dream has come true. Today you may send your voice—your—to anyone anywhere in the United States by Long Distance telephone. It will carry you to your family and friends; it will bring them to you.

WHO AM I?

I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.

I steal in the United States alone over $300,000,00 each year.

I spare no one and find my victims among the rich and poor alike; the young and the old; the strong and the weak; widows and orphans know me.

I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage earners in a year.

I lurk in unseen places, and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you heed not.

I am relentless, I am every where; in the home, on the street, in the factory, at railroad crossing and on sea.

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.

I bring sickness, degradation and death, and yet few seek to avoid me.

I destroy, crush and maim; I give nothing but take all.

I am your worst enemy.

I am carelessness.

A FEW MISTAKES

We made a mistake in last week's issue of the Sentinel. A good subscriber told us about it. The same day there was a letter in our post office box that didn't belong to us. We called for 98 over the phone and got 198. We asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and when we got home found it was No. 60. The train was reported 30 minutes late, we arrived at the depot twenty minutes after time and the train had gone. We got our milk bill and there was a mistake of ten cents in our favor. We felt sick and the doctor said we were eating too much meat. We hadn't tasted meat for two months. The garage man said that the jitney was missing because it needed a new timer. We cleaned the spark plugs and its run fine ever since. Yes, we made a mistake in last week's issue of the paper, but fortunately there were others who did just as well.

No Championship to Be Awarded in T. I. A. A. by Officials

Ablene, Texas, Feb. 2.—Championships in the T. I. A. A. are still taboo, as result of the tabulation of the mail vote taken on the matter by A. E. Chandler of Simmons, president of the association, the vote standing at a 6-6 tie on the matter. Rice Institute was the only school that did not vote on the question.

Four Normal Colleges are numbered against championships in any sport with only one in favor of the measure. T. C. U. and Trinity are also numbered against the championships. The vote stands as follows: For championships, Simmons, Austin, Howard Payne, Daniel Baker, West Texas State Normal College, Southwestern University. Against championships: T. C. U., East Texas Normal, Southwest Texas Normal, Sam Houston Normal, North Texas Normal.

President Chandler stated that he would take no further action on the matter. Although he would have a vote in the matter at the regular meeting in case of a tie he declared that he would take no step to rescind the measure. He opposed the nonchampionship ruling in the annual meeting held in Dallas in December.

COWBOY'S SWEET BYE AND BYE

The following was recited by Rev. J. W. Hunt in his Sunday night sermon at the Methodist church and the News has been requested by a subscriber, that we publish it:

Tonight, as I lie on the prairie
Looking up at the stars in the sky,
I wonder if ever a Cowboy
Will go to the Sweet Bye and Bye.

The trail to that bright mystic region
Is both narrow and dim, so they say,
While the broad one that leads to pre-
dication,
Is posted and blazed all the way.

I hear there will be a grand round-up,
Where the cowboys like others will stand,
To be cut out by the riders of Judgment
Who are posted and know every brand.

And, perhaps, there will be a stray
cowboy,
Unbranded, and unclaimed by none
nigh,
To be mavericked by the riders of Judgment
And shipped to the Sweet Bye and Bye.

Quick!

The first act passed by an Irish Parliament in 122 years was a highly technical measure entitled, "Adaptation of Enactments Bill." It passed the Dail and was accepted by the Senate without discussion. At the time, Sir Thomas Esmonde, speaking with emotion, said, "We have done what many generations of Irishmen lost their lives in trying to be able to do, and may all thank God we have lived to see this day."

A GIRL'S ESSAY ON BOYS

Boys has been generally considered the more useless creashun of the animal kingdom since the beginning of time, with sum boys reelize more, but most boys less.—Boys use to ware their own dresses, but the girls beet 'em' at their own game—sence then they have wore soots; they give up long hare, also, because the female gender beet them at hare-dressing.

Boys is generally hippokritts; they calls you "sweetie," and then buys "kisses" at the drug store for other gurls. They does fall hard sum times, though—even so far as to wash their face and polfish the heels of there shoose.

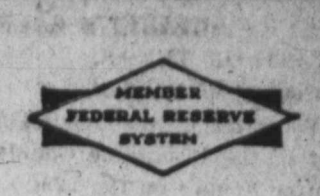

Boys is easily fuled into marrin' a gurl, but good washer wimmen stand better chances at matremonte than other gurls; boys has to get sum one to make a livin for them.

Boys is generally divided into three classes: bad, worser and worstest. Sum klassify them as insects, black-heads, and jelly-beans. They kaint be klassified according to brains, which they seemingly ain't got any.

Most boys is bipeds, although they sum times need four legs or more to keep their equilibrium.

Boys is made strong, but they will do their work in the next world. Better take a good look at them here—they won't be any boys in heaven, dear girl.

1st, 1922, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and the land is described as follows to-wit: All of the East 1/2 and the Northwest 1/4 of Section No. 66, in Block M. 9, located by virtue of Certificate No. 0-178, issued to John H. Gibson containing 480 acres of land, situated in the County of Randall and the State of Texas.

On Sept. 10, 1921, J. E. Rogers transferred to C. P. Hileman that certain vendors lien note executed by R. E. Prewitt and made payable to J. E. Rogers for the sum of $1266.72 dated Sept. 1st, 1917.

On Sept. 21st, 1918, R. E. Prewitt gave an oil and gas lease on the above described land to J. D. Thompson, and J. D. Thompson assigned the above described oil and gas lease to A. B. Miller and on Dec. 6th, 1919, A. B. Miller assigned a half interest in said lease to A. F. Allen. That said note was given for part of the purchase money of the above described land.

Plaintiff alleges that he bought the note herein sued upon from J. E. Rogers in due course of trade for a valuable consideration and before the note matured.

That the defendants herein mentioned have an inferior lien against the above described land but Plaintiff would show to the Court that if such exists that they are inferior and subordinate to the liens herein asserted by this plaintiff.

And that in said deed from J. E. Rogers to R. E. Prewitt a lien was retained to secure the payment of said note for $1266.72 and that said note is due and unpaid, and defendants though often requested have failed and refused to pay said note, but the same still remains due and unpaid.

That said note has been placed in the hands of R. L. Lester an attorney for collection, and the Plaintiff has contracted to pay him the ten per cent stipulated in said note which is reasonable and the customary fees in such cases.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays the court that the defendants be cited to answer this petition, and that he have judgment for his debt, interest and attorney fees and costs of suit against the defendants P. J. Neff, The Tulla Bank and Trust Company of Tulla, Texas, W. E. Armstrong, J. E. Rogers and R. E. C. Black, Sheriff of the Tulla Bank & Trust Co. of Tulla, Texas, be cancelled, and the same be decreed to be sold according to law, that the Sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale shall place the purchaser of said property sold under said order of sale in possession thereof within 30 days after date of sale, and for such other and further relief special and general in law and in equity that he may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not, and have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

A. Helronymous and R. W. Taylor and the unknown heirs of H. A. Helronymous and R. W. Taylor and the legal representatives of each and all of said defendants, and the legal representatives of said unknown heirs whose residence is unknown to Plaintiff, J. D. Hamlin, Katherine Hamlin and James McDowell Defendants, and said petition alleging:

And for cause of action Plaintiff represents to the Court, that heretofore to-wit: On December the 11th, 1916 the defendant R. W. Taylor made, executed and delivered to Plaintiff one note in the sum of $163.00 being note number five bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, due December the 11th, 1921, payable to the order of Plaintiff at Canyon, Texas, and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and the description of the land which this note covers is described as: 80 acres of land and being the West Half of the Southwest 1/4 of Section 34, Township No. 9, South Range One East, Syndicate land in League No. 550 situated in Parmer County, Texas, and the said R. W. Taylor executed two other notes on the below described land situated in Parmer County, Texas, and being notes Numbers Four and five for the sum of $480.00 each dated December the 11th, 1916, note Number Four due December the 11, 1920 and Note Number Five due December the 11th, 1921, and made payable to the order of Plaintiff at Canyon, Texas, and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and these notes were given on the following land situated in Parmer County, Texas:

Being lots Numbers 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, containing 240 acres of land in section No. 33, Township 9 South Range One East, Syndicate lands in leagues Numbers 549 and 550 for a better description of said lands reference is hereby had to the deed records of Parmer County, Texas, and all of the above notes provide for ten per cent on the amount of principal and interest then due as attorney fees in case suit is brought on same or if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, whereby defendants became liable and bound to pay and promised to pay Plaintiff the sum of money in said notes specified together with all interest and attorney fees due thereon according to the tenor and effect thereof.

That whereas, R. W. Taylor sold to Mrs. Katherine Hamlin a certain interest in the above described land, and Mrs. Katherine Hamlin sold to H. A. Helronymous the East 1/2 of the S. W. 1/4 Sec. 33 and W. 1/2 of S. W. 1/4 Sec. 34 and Mrs. Hamlin and Helronymous assumed the notes made payable to the First National Bank of Canyon, Texas, and that by reason of the defendants assuming the notes to said Bank they became liable and bound to pay the same.

That in the deed from the First National Bank of Canyon, Texas, a lien was reserved thereon to secure the payment of said notes that each of said notes are due and unpaid, and defendants though often requested have failed and refused to pay these notes but they remain still due and unpaid.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays the Court that defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that the said Bank have judgment against R. W. Taylor, H. A. Helronymous, James McDowell, Katherine Hamlin for its debt, interest and attorney fees and costs of suit, and for a foreclosure of its lien against all of the defendants on the above described land and premises and the same be decreed to be sold according to law, that the Sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale shall place the purchaser of said property sold under said order of sale in possession thereof within thirty days after the day of sale, and for such other and further relief special and general in law and in equity, that it may be justly entitled to.

HUNTING WITH CAMERA GAINS

As Sport It Becomes as Popular as Killing Game.

FIND IT MUCH MORE EXCITING

Takes Good Woodcraft, Skill and Endurance of High Order to Enable Man or Woman to Secure Really Fine Photograph of Fine Wild Animal in Its Haunts—Naturalist Tells Thrilling Story of Photographing Charging Rhinoceros.

The new sport of hunting with a camera instead of with a gun is gaining thousands of recruits this season. This is distinctly noticeable all through our eastern marshes and woodlands, where field glasses and cameras are now almost as much in evidence as guns, writes Frederic J. Haskin in the Chicago Daily News.

Evidently the younger generation of American sportsmen, being ex-members of outdoor study clubs or ex-boy scouts, are aware of a fact that well-known naturalists have long since urged upon our attention—namely, that it is much more exciting sport to photograph wild life than to kill it. As Dr. William Hornaday says, "any duffer with a good check book, a professional guide and a high-power repeating rifle can kill big game, but it takes good woodcraft, skill and endurance of a high order to enable a man or woman to secure a really fine photograph of a fine wild animal in its haunts."

Match Wits With Animals.

This very difficult, while frightening off the lazy and timid, is an additional incentive to the man who seeks in hunting not the spoils of an easy victory, but the satisfaction of matching his skill and cunning against the superlative cunning of wild animals. Furthermore, a game bag filled with squirrel or reed birds represents but a temporary triumph, while a game bag filled with photographic plates represents a permanent achievement. Then there is a gratification of the creative impulse in hunting with a camera, which is now almost totally absent in killing game. Our ancestors used to kill with a constructive purpose—because they needed meat or clothing for their families—but since the necessity motive has been eliminated from hunting, shooting expeditions have largely degenerated into little more than cruel orgies.

It was the introduction of the light, ever-ready, universal kodak about the beginning of the present century, which first suggested the interesting possibilities in photographing wild animals. By this time, according to Doctor Hornaday, the long-continued slaughter of American big game had begun to produce on the public mind certain strong effects. People began to realize that the deadly efficiency of the high-powered repeating rifles and automatic shotguns was rapidly exterminating the game in America, great and small. Consequently, thousands of sportsmen became so disgusted with game slaughter that they hung up their guns forever. "To this group," says Hornaday, "the possibilities of hunting with a camera instantly appealed. Hundreds took to the camera."

Originated in Colorado.

To A. G. Wallihan, or rather to Mrs. A. G. Wallihan, belongs the credit of furnishing the first great impulse in America to the photographing of wild game on the hoof, free in its own haunts. Like most great pioneers, the Wallihans chanced upon their discovery quite by accident. One day, while Mrs. Wallihan was crouching in the sagebrush on the outskirts of her home town of Lay, Colorado, she looked up to find herself closely surrounded by a herd of mule deer. "What a wonderful picture," she thought, "if it were only possible to take it with a camera." On the way back to the house, she pondered the idea—the idea of photographing wild animals with the aid of a blind, a fixed camera.

Mr. Wallihan, who was a professional photographer, at once recognized the value of his wife's suggestion. In a short time the couple were in pursuit of wild mule deer and prong-horned antelope and elk, armed with heavy tripod cameras, which they carefully set up and tended along the game trails. They camped, cooked, jacked and trailed and fought wind and weather for ten adventurous years in order to secure the delightful pictures published in 1901 by Doubleday, Page & company under the title, "Camera Shots at Big Game."

Books Starts New Art.

This publication practically marked the beginning of a new art, for the pictures were hailed with respect, not only by zoologists, but by famous artists as well. Paintings of wild animals, with few exceptions, have always been something of a joke to zoologists, as the artists' studies have generally had to be made in zoos and museums, where the animals have quite a different appearance from those in the wild state. On the other hand, photographs of wild game have often provoked snorts of disgust from artists, because they have lacked composition and good shadow effects. It remained for the Wallihans to produce the first wild animal photographs of genuine artistic merit—at least in this country.

Since then, the list of art photographers of wild animal life has grown by leaps and bounds until today it would be impossible to give honorable mention to all of them in the space of this article. As an inspiration for the reader who would lay down his gun for a kodak, however, we recommend the work of Dr. William Hornaday, John M. Phillips, George Shiras, (especially his flashlight pictures); Carl E. Akeley, Norman McClintock, Edwin R. Sandborn, Kermit Roosevelt, Edmund Heller, W. Lyman Underwood and A. Radclyffe Dugmore, who was the first to produce photographic masterpieces of African game.

Sporting Element Not Lacking.

Those who doubt the sporting opportunities of camera hunting as compared with gun hunting should be impressed by the account of Mr. Dugmore's African expedition, given by James L. Clark, well known New York taxidermist, who accompanied Mr. Dugmore and shared his thrilling hazards in obtaining photographs of lions, hippopotamuses and rhinoceroses.

"As we topped a little knoll one morning," relates Mr. Clark, "we saw about 100 yards ahead of us in the yellow grass, the black outline of a rhinoceros' back. We approached to about 80 yards where we had a good view of him, and from this point Mr. Dugmore took a telephoto picture. Although in plain sight we moved slowly and cautiously toward him and at about 60 yards Mr. Dugmore took another picture. Being sure of two pictures, he then changed his lens to one with a shorter focus while the rhinoceros showed no sign of knowing of our presence. We walked to a spot about 40 yards from him, where Mr. Dugmore focused the camera, while the rhinoceros deliberately lay down. This was a sure sign that we had not been detected and we both gave a sigh of relief. Mr. Dugmore, however, whispered, 'Splendid! Now we can walk up very close without his seeing us.'

Camera Clicks; Gun Bangs.

"This was no place for an argument, so as he started forward I followed, my finger on the trigger of the gun. As each cautious step brought us closer and closer and my breath grew shorter and shorter—I wondered if Mr. Dugmore were ever going to stop! At a little over 20 yards from the big rocklike mass he hesitated and began to focus his camera, while the rhinoceros' ears twitched nervously. My gun, which seemed to weigh many pounds, came slowly to my shoulder. The next moment there was a snort, a cloud of dust and a big rhinoceros was coming straight toward us. I set my teeth, held the gun and listened for the click of the camera. Mr. Dugmore let him get well on his feet and under way when a 'click' and a 'bang' in quick succession decided the battle in our favor. At 15 yards distance the rhinoceros bit the dust, scrambled to his feet, wheeled and made off."

J. M. Phillips is another photographer who has run the most appalling risks in order to get photographic studies of such difficult animals as mountain goats. Doctor Hornaday tells of one case in which Mr. Phillips cornered a big male white mountain goat on a high, knife edge of rock and kept him there until he was thoroughly photographed.

LATEST MEN'S FASHIONS FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA

It's come! When the women began to wear mannish attire, breeches and such things, there were some who predicted that the cycle would be completed when the men began to wear skirts and petticoats. This picture tells the sad tale, mates. The costumes seen here are the latest thing in attire for social functions and weddings—if you happen to be in Czechoslovakia.
