

FERGUSON MAKES SHORT ADDRESS IN AUDITORIUM

ADAPTS CAMPAIGN SPEECH TO LOCAL AUDIENCE.

Reduction of Taxes and Ku Klux Klan Are Principal Issues Discussed Here.

Former governor James E. Ferguson made an address in the College auditorium Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock in the interest of his wife's candidacy.

Adapted to a considerable degree of teachers. Reduction of taxes and the Ku Klux Klan were the principal issues discussed here.

Mr. Ferguson stated that he felt a personal interest in the College and its building since he signed appropriation bills for it.

Advocates Strict Economy "Why shouldn't the people of Texas be saved fifteen millions of dollars as I suggest?" Ferguson demanded.

Disusses Klan Much of Ferguson's speech was a bitter denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan.

Ferguson assumed responsibility for the proof of why his wife should be elected governor, claiming that she has the best platform.

After a luncheon in the city, Ferguson went to Amarillo where he spoke in the evening.

BOARDING HOUSES FOR TEACHERS ATTENDING INSTITUTE

Prof. T. M. Moore of the College and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce will have charge of securing room and board for the visiting teachers in attendance upon the institute here September 1 to 5.

Women to Have Places on Election Board Saturday

It has been suggested that the election board for next Saturday be composed largely of women.

Those appointed are Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, Miss Elva Fronbarger, Miss Mae Hood, Mrs. C. N. Harrison, Mrs. J. W. Green, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Miss Ellen Smith, Mrs. M. S. Bisher, Mrs. C. R. Burrow and Mrs. T. V. Reeves.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Oran T. Stephenson and Miss Lorena Henderson, August 17th. Wm. S. Morris and Miss Irene Paston, August 18th.

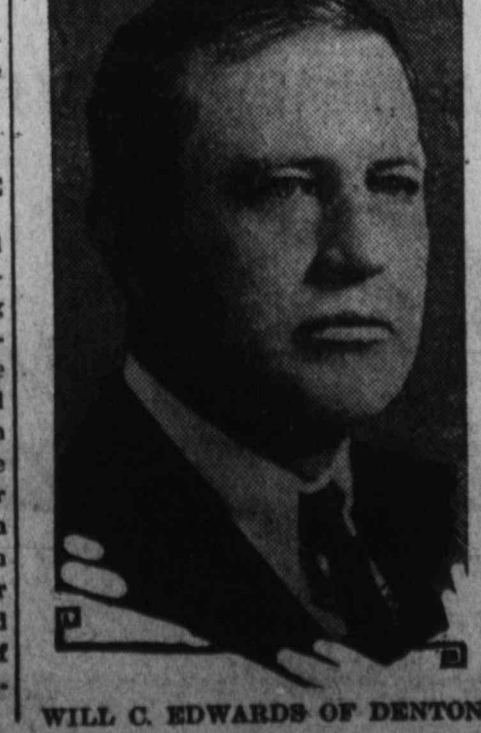

BUILDING NEW STORE

Rhea Robbins, of the Robbins Cash Grocery, has started the construction of a new grocery store on the corner of the block east of the old Canyon Steam Bakery.

VOLE FOR WILL EDWARDS FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

WILL C. EDWARDS OF DENTON

PARK BOARD WILL GET WELCOME ON ARRIVAL AUG. 30th.

LOCAL DELEGATION TO MEET VISITORS AT WAYSIDE.

Hope to Have Ready Plan for Gift to State That Will Provide Great Palo Duro Park.

Plans are being matured to have a large crowd on hand Aug. 30th to greet the State Park Board, headed by D. E. Colp, chairman, and Mrs. Phebe K. Warner, secretary.

A barbecue will be given the board at Wayside at noon, and it is expected that a delegation of Canyon citizens and park workers, headed by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, chairman of the county organization, will meet the party at Wayside to conduct them along the show places of the Palo Duro Canyon.

Mayor C. N. Harrison and Mrs. Reeves will receive, up until the board arrives, any proposals for gifts to the State, in the way of park sites that anyone has to offer.

Governor Pat M. Neff has promised that he will parole 50 convicts and furnish the State trucks to get the work of roadbuilding for these parks started during his administration, which means immediately, of course.

The park will be laid out by a famous scenic engineer obtained by the Glacier to Gulf Highway, but in order for Randall County to avail itself of his services without charge quick action will be necessary.

Public spirited citizens of Randall County have now an opportunity to render lasting service to their community and to perpetuate the memory of their family names through such a gift, it is pointed out, and it is hoped that a definite proposal will be in shape to offer the board on its arrival.

It is understood here that Armstrong County citizens are ready to submit a similar proposal for a park on their side of the Canyon, so that it is only a question of getting the local people together to create one of the greatest drawing cards this city has ever had.

Correspondence Division to Care for More Students in '24

The correspondence division of the Teachers College is making provisions to take care of 250 or 300 correspondence students during the 1924-25 session.

A few high school subjects will also be offered in order to give boys and girls and men and women who have not had the advantages of getting high school training and opportunities to take correspondence for college entrance.

Last year 100 students ranging from Dalhart to Bront, Texas availed themselves of the opportunity to do some college work during their spare time while engaged as teachers.

ASSISTANT COACHES WILL ARRIVE SEPTEMBER 15TH

Coch S. D. Burton of the College states that Assistant Coaches Oscar Eckhardt of Texas University and Alvin Jackson of Oklahoma will arrive in Canyon September 15th to begin their work.

The football uniforms have been received; there are enough for seventy-five men; the suits are on the racks ready to be handed out at the first meeting.

The Buffaloes will play their first game at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo on September 27th when they will meet the Northwestern Teachers College of Alva, Oklahoma.

MERCHANTS TO BE HOSTS WHEN STUDENTS COME

Merchants of Canyon will give incoming students of the Teachers College an ice cream supper shortly after their arrival, according to plans now under way. It will be held on the court house lawn, probably, and full details will be announced at a later date.

The Chamber of Commerce is going to back the football team of the college this fall in every way possible, it is announced. The college band also will come in for its hearty support.

'The Peace Pipe' Well Received at College Last Night

In the last number of the summer Musical Artist's Course, Bernard U. Taylor, baritone, of Fort Worth, assisted by the College Chorus and Orchestra yesterday evening at 8:30, sang 'The Peace Pipe,' an Indian composition by Converse.

Mr. Taylor's sea songs were well received, as will the miscellaneous songs in group three. The prologue to the opera will make the program well balanced.

- 1. Sea Songs Shipmates o' Mine... Sanderson Trade Winds... Keel Captain Stratton's Fancy... Taylor The Wreck of Julie Plante... O'Hara 2. Prologue to Pagliacci... Leoncavallo Leoncavallo used the old idea of a play within a play for his opera 'Pagliacci' and adopted an old theatrical custom dating back to Greek drama—that of having a "prologue."

CLEAN UP DAY FRIDAY AUG. 29TH

Clean up day is set aside for Friday, Aug. 29th by Mayor Protom, T. C. Thompson, and will be under the auspices of the City Federated Clubs. Each district is urged to pay special attention to the cleaning of the curbs and cutting of the weeds.

STORY HOUR CLOSSES FOR THE SUMMER

The Story Hour, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association, closes for the summer with a picnic Friday at 6:45 on the lawn at the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, Texas, is opposing Felix Robertson of Dallas, self-confessed Klan candidate, for the governorship of Texas.

Mrs. J. E. Greenfield of Canyon won the first prize of a 100-foot building lot Monday at the first Trades Day of the Fall series, a day marked by encouraging attendance, considering the season of the year, and gratifying interest, both on the part of local and out of town traders.

Ed Phillips, also of Canyon, won the second prize, a 50-foot lot adjoining the first prize, in Block 17, Victoria Addition, just Southeast of the High School and within three blocks of the brick paving.

Nine Jersey cows, quantities of furniture and hardware and several lots of clothing were sold at auction on the South side of the square in the afternoon, Auctioneer J. W. McCreery of Wayside wielding the hammer.

At 3 p. m. a baseball game was played at Buffalo Park, at the Teachers College, between the Coyotes and the Badgers, a collegiate game, in which the pitching of Nay Hale proved a winner. A full account of the game will be found elsewhere in the paper from the pen of Jerry Malin, college sports scribe.

The largest crowd of the day gathered at 6:15 p. m. at the east door of the court house to witness the awarding of the prize lots. County Commissioner Parker D. Hanna acted as umpire in the awarding, a pretty young lady from the audience acting as principal.

Probably much to their later chagrin, the holders of the first two numbers out had gone home, so that two other persons received the big plums. Those present, however, were of the opinion that the awards had gone to persons well deserving of the prizes, so that "everybody was happy."

The majority of the merchants having agreed that the purpose of the big contest had been achieved, it was voted to continue the series of days and to give away two additional lots, on the Northeast corner of the same block, at the September Trades Day, to be held Sept. 15, when it is expected that an even larger attendance will be had, on account of the fields requiring less attention at that time.

A full account of the plans for this coming trades day will be published in this paper at an early date. Other attractions will be added, and a football game may be a part of the amusements offered.

Merchants who participated in the giving of the lots are requested by the Chamber of Commerce to hold their undistributed tickets until taken up.

The teachers cannot obtain 100 per cent of good results unless they have the parents' co-operation, so the parents can no longer bring up their children alone. The same system must run from the home into the school and back again. And to achieve this, parents and teachers must not only meet and be entertained together, but they must appreciate their independence and take up their mutual problem as co-workers until the trained parent lifts from the shoulders of the narrow overburdened teacher those things which should have never rested there, and which they have at least come to realize, are a part of home education.

ANOTHER CRUCIAL DAY IN TEXAS HISTORY.

The Dallas News: It is not the habit of The News to support or oppose the candidates of men for public offices. Its rule has been to keep out of such contests. But now and then it has disregarded this rule of conduct on occasions when it felt that a candidacy was fraught with graver consequences than the issues of measure and policy involved in them.

The News feels that it is confronted by such an occasion now. The differences between the platforms of Mrs. Ferguson and Judge Robertson, with respect to legislative and administrative and administration questions of government are not many nor important. At most, they give one but little substantial reason for preferring the candidacy of one or the other. But the two candidacies are differentiated by a political and moral issue of such great moment as to make the rule of neutrality which it has been the custom of The News to observe incompatible with its sense of the duty it owes to itself and the people of Texas, with whose interest its own is woven.

Judge Robertson is the nominee of the Ku Klux Klan. To the nomination of that organization he is seeking to add the nomination of the Democratic party, and in seeking to do that he is trying to make the Democratic party a vassal of the Klan. He is seeking the office of Governor at the instance, with the consent and at the direction of a few individuals who exercise an oligarchic domination over the political activities of the Ku Klux Klan. He owes what success he has had and whatever hope he indulges to the power and influence which that organization wields over the religious prejudices of men and women. That plain and undeniable fact is an imperative reason, in the opinion of the News, why Mrs. Ferguson should be elected Governor of Texas.

The News has no desire to engage in any extensive consideration of the purposes and works of the Ku Klux Klan. Nor is there occasion to do so. The News has already done that. It is enough to say that events have verified to an astonishing degree the forecasts which The News made of its career more than two years ago. The News is aware now, as it has always been, that the Klan counts among its members, though in diminished and diminishing numbers, many good men who have given their fealty to it out of an earnest desire to serve a patriotic purpose. Of this there is ample evidence. But that they have erred in their judgment of its ability, and even of its intention, to accomplish the very purpose which they had in joining it is testified, in a most melancholy way, by the demoralization it has brought into our politics, the strife it has brought into our social relations and by the terrorism which it has brought into our civic and business affairs. Intimidation and the boycott are among the means which the Klan uses to constrain those who are impervious to the prejudices which it fosters and to the hatreds which it excites.

It but states a truth of every one's recognition to say that, pretending to be a fraternal organization, the Ku Klux Klan has become almost exclusively a political organization. To that there could be no valid objection if the Klan used the same methods that other political parties do in the treatment, discussion and determination of our political questions. But it does not. Its methods and processes are peculiar to itself. It stacks the cards against the electorate in general. Its political policies and its nominations are prescribed by a few men acting in secrecy, and not only with respect to the people at large, but equally with respect to the unselect of its own members. And having made their decisions and their nominations, they imperiously command the support of them, using various measures of threat and intimidation to enforce their command. Thus they reduce those of the Klan's members who are obedient from the proud status of sovereign citizens to the ignominious one of puppets used in a game of politics whose prizes go to those who direct and command. The freedom of choice and judgment which is the heritage of every born citizen is in effect destroyed to the degree that the Ku Klux Klan is capable of doing it. A political organization using the methods of the Ku Klux Klan is a menace to our institutions and must endanger them in proportion to its strength.

The election of Judge Robertson would mean that the powers of that office would be used primarily for the aggrandizement of the Klan and of its leaders. We know this from the experience we have had of its rule in cities and counties. This its leaders exact of those whom they lift into places of authority. We should have government by a minority faction in the interest primarily of a minority faction. That certain consequence is reason enough why Judge Robertson should not be elected. But there is another in the equal certainty that his election would prolong the existence and for a time increase the power of an organization whose works have been pernicious. Soon or late we shall be compelled, as a means of saving the principles of popular government, to rid ourselves of the Klan as a political power. We can do it now by electing Mrs. Ferguson. Her election will sound the death knell of the Klan as a political power in this State. Judge Robertson's election would increase the need of destroying it as a political power, but postpone the day of its destruction and make the task more difficult. We shall not escape the duty and the necessity. The present opportunity is the best we have had to do that, and the best we are likely to have for many a day.

Anyway, the Kluckers will have some salvage shortly. When the cotton opens they can make sacks out of their robes.

We note in the Plainview News that Felix D. Robertson closed his speech there "with a political prayer." It is our modest opinion that he should at least show as much sportsmanship as the English cricket champion, who quit praying the game on the ground that it wasn't fair to his opponents to line the Almighty up with his side.

We won't say that Felix will uphold Zeke after he gets into power. Calvin burned Servetus for expressing the same doctrines that gave Calvin his start to religious dictatorship.

The man who undertakes the moral censorship of his neighbor must himself have an unimpeachable record—or a mask.

Calamity bowlers are going to have a severe setback this fall, with gold oozing from every pore of the earth.

A committee from the American Bar Association, after examining the law courses of twenty-five of the leading schools of the country, reports that in only nine of them is a study of the Constitution compulsory, and in two of those attention is given only to the purely commercial or legal value of it.

In the year 1907 China enacted the most spectacular moral reform in history. To free themselves of the opium slavery they plowed up the poppy on a million acres of land, closed up 500,000 opium dens, and old smokers stacked up their pipes in the market places and burned them.

THE PASSING DAY

By Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, University of Texas.

In a letter mailed at Austin and signed "Woman Voter (who fortunately has a sense of humor)" a reader of "The Passing Day" in the Rusk Cehreokean says, "You say, 'Do women vote for candidates because they know them, or do they vote for them because of the principles for which they stand?' and then proceeds to flay this writer for asking such a question. Perhaps the writer's words were not enough all-inclusive to please this woman voter, but to soothe her feelings he will answer the question by saying 'Many of them do vote for candidates because they know them and like them rather than because of the principles for which they stand, and many men do the same thing.' The reason for that is that study is required to understand governmental principles and most women, and men too, are mentally too lazy to study. Therefore they vote for candidates whom they know rather than for principles."

This was true of men long before women were given the ballot and it is likely to be true of both men and women long after the refining influence of woman has been felt in what "Woman Voter" is pleased to call "pulling the game of politics out of the mire into which men have plunged it." So far as any effect is concerned the writer fears that he will have to agree with the Woman Voter with a sense of humor that the question was "inane." Still it would be a blessing to the country if all voters, women and men, would place principles before personalities in casting their ballots. The writer of this column is hardly optimistic enough to expect that this will soon be brought about, even with the assistance of those women who have already gone in advance of men in their political studies.

Every once in a while some writer feels called upon to deplore the "inordinate and unusual craving for excitement" on the part of the present-day people. Most of these writers, thinking that they see extraordinary conditions that never existed before, attribute the change to the World War. It is very doubtful, though, if in this respect people have changed very much in the last two thousand years. The admonitions of that period read very much like the warnings that are heard today. History from the earliest records is largely a chronicle of thrilling wars and risky adventures. The American pioneers were a most venturesome people who quickly became bored when not constantly under some exciting strain. Circling the world in the air is not more exciting or dangerous than was the navigation of the Atlantic a few hundred years ago. The world is merely progressing from adventure to adventure. The people are not unduly given to excitement; they are merely interested in the things about them.

As this is being written a fine rain is falling, the first in this part of the State for about two months, and what a welcome rain it is to most of us. A few months ago we were complaining of too much rain and wishing for even a few days of sunshine. For the last few weeks we have complained of the dry weather and have longed for another rain. Now that it is falling, and apparently bounteously, many will express a fear that it will ruin the cotton crop or else that it will not do it any good and will only send the market price down. All of which leads to the statement that we are great grumblers, nothing seems to please any of us a great while at a time. We would find fault with any kind of weather. If not at the weather we would complain of something else. We do not always mean it; we were just born conscientious objectors.

Some observer remarks that in proportion as people become well-to-do in about the same proportion do they become uncomfortable, and there is much truth in the observation. As soon as a family gets well enough along to make a payment on an automobile and to fill the gas tank it begins to look around for some place to go where it will not be as comfortable as at home. The discomfort of the journey is almost in exact proportion to the gas supply, which is the measure of the distance traveled. The automobile has proven a great blessing to the world and travel within reason is good for people, but when half the population takes to life on the highways there is bound to be much discomfort even if a little pleasure is mixed in with it. Auto-riding has become the great American fad. It indicates that the American people are reasonably prosperous and that they want to show it even at the sacrifice of the comforts of the home.

Ordinary glass windows keep out the heating and stimulating ultra-violet rays of sunshine, but panes made of quartz would let them through. Dr. Edwards R. Berry, a director in the Thompson Laboratory of the General Electric Company, has perfected a method for making fused quartz which promises to be an incalculable boon to the medical profession.

Pneumonia promises to be deprived of its annual toll of 45,000 lives by the serum developed by Dr. Lloyd B. Fiedon, of the Harvard Medical School. The substance is a white powder, an antibody against pneumonia. It was discovered after five years of work following the influenza epidemic of 1918.

In unveiling a war memorial recently General Sir Ian Hamilton said: "There is no getting over the fact that tragedies make good copy and that goodness makes bad copy. Therefore a feeling of hopelessness comes over the man who wishes to point out to his fellows the wonders and beauty of peace."

Eighteen Letter Men Will Report To Training Camp

Word from Cowboy Adams and the Goodwin Twins to the effect that they will be back and ask for their uniforms when training camp opens brings the total number of veterans that will be back to nineteen. Eighteen are letter men, and the whole school is jubilant over the prospects.

In addition to these tried Buffaloes, many high school players and yearlings are to report—all of which means that never before in the history of this school has so much material been available. Fifty five men, all experienced football men, are expected to don the maroon and white when Sept. 10th rolls around.

Among the more prominent Buffaloes who are going to make some one fight for a place on the squad are: Grady Brunson, Captain and fullback; Odus Mitchell, veteran end and a four letter man; Earl and Myrl Goodwin, the famous twins; Bulldog Jones, guard, known as the biggest little man in the T. I. A. A.; Otello Herm, a smashing backfield man; Ira Jenkins, quarter of great renown; Cowboy Adams, the man who worked havoc with the Simmons line last year; Floyd Golden, brother of the fightin' Roy; Virgil Santy; Finis Vaughan; Clem McDonald; "Bud" Thompson; Ray Thompson; and Herschel Jennings, a hard fighting end.

Jim Crowe, a high school player from the Pacific Coast, and Young McDonald, brother of Clem, are two promising new members who are expected to do great things.

Umbarger Notes

Clem Friemel and family left Sunday morning for a trip to Schulenburg, Texas, to visit friends and relatives.

About three inches of rain fell Saturday evening. Some hail fell with the rain, damaging row crop considerably. The rain was not heavy west of Umbarger.

The election held Saturday on the stock law in precinct number two was 28 to 59 votes in favor of the stock law.

BARBECUE AT HARDING'S RANCH

Harding's Ranch will for the last time this year, give a special barbecue which will be prepared by the well known John Snyder as Chief Barbecueer, besides a free dance and swimming in the large swimming pool, will be included in the day's entertainment. The Texas Press Association and the Chamber of Commerce of Amarillo are endorsing Harding's Ranch as the main attraction of Texas, having the Devil's Kitchen, two and a half miles of scenic ride, and nine miles of canyon, and the ranch covers over 8000 acres. Deer has been stocked lately, and squirrels are running loose on the ranch.

CHARTS AND SLIDES TO BE SENT FROM HERE

Through its Home Economics and Agriculture departments the College expects to furnish student workers of this region with lantern slides and lecture charts. The International Harvester Company will send charts to be filed here, and these will be available for free distribution. County Agents, agriculture and home economics teachers, and other rural teachers will be saved the expense of the transportation charges to and from the factory—the cost of postage from the College to Panhandle points is negligible.

Charts and slides may be obtained concerning the following subjects: Control of Flies, Canning, Gardening, Alfalfa, Dairying, Poultry, Live Stock Managing, and various other subjects of rural interest.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

HAY FEVER SUFFERERS CAN STAY AT HOME THIS YEAR

Complete Relief Reported in 95 Per Cent Of All Cases Under New Treatment.

No longer need thousands of Hay Fever victims go to the big expense of trips North, to the mountains and lakes, or ocean voyages, the moment the pollens begin to fly. For no matter where you live or how long you have had Hay Fever—no matter how many other treatments you have tried in vain—complete relief is positively guaranteed with the remarkable new internal prescription of a Cleveland specialist.

Thousands of the severest cases were treated with this new prescription before it was released for general use. In 95 per cent of all cases every single symptom—all that terrible sneezing, itching eyes, runny nose, headache, fever, asthma and general misery—disappeared within 24 hours.

Entirely New Method

It has been known for years that Hay Fever is caused by plant pollens floating in the air. Formerly it was thought that these pollens merely irritated the sensitive eyes and nose of certain persons. So various local treatments—salves, sprays, inhalations, etc.—were tried, but with little benefit. Of course they did not at all help the headache, fever, etc.

But now it has been found that the pollens contain what is known as protein matter, and that this protein matter is absorbed into the blood through the thin membranes of the eyes and nose, thus causing an actual poisoning of the entire system. And at last Science has found a way to completely neutralize this poisoning and so entirely banish every trace of the trouble.

Why New Prescription Disperses Every Sign of Hay Fever

ments like salves, sprays, inhalations, cauterizing, etc., can possibly get at this internal poisoning. Serum treatments have been tried, too, but are only partially successful. But after 8 years' intensive study and experiment in the clinical treatment of thousands of cases a new prescription has recently been developed which is entirely different from any other hitherto known or used. It is known as Dr. Platt's Rinex Prescription and taken internally in simple capsule form, acts directly to completely neutralize the protein poisoning throughout the system. The amazingly prompt relief seems little short of miraculous, but this is easily understood when it is realized that Rinex Prescription goes direct to the cause and removes it.

Results Positively Guaranteed

So Hay Feverites can rest easy right at home this year, and need not suffer the slightest inconvenience. The minute the attack begins, all they need to do is to take Dr. Platt's Rinex capsules, and they can forget they ever had Hay Fever. Rinex Prescription is not to be taken beforehand, but only at the time of attack, when the poisoning is beginning. It at once neutralizes this poisoning.

Results are positively guaranteed. If you are not completely free of all distress within 24 hours your druggist, is authorized to instantly return your money. So have not the slightest fear of Hay Fever this summer and fall. Simply be prepared with Dr. Platt's Rinex. Ask these druggists: City Pharmacy, west side square; Jarrett Drug Co.

Your "Selective-Ringing" Telephone Rings Only For You!

Every "selective-ringing" telephone in Canyon has a "one-party-line" bell ringing service. This means that your bell rings only when your number is wanted.

The subscriber who shares your line has no means of knowing when you are being called, and you are not disturbed by the ringing of HIS bell.

In fact, unless you use your telephone much more frequently than the average householder, the only substantial difference you will note between the two forms of service will lie in the size of your monthly bill. By changing over your residence telephone to a "selective-ringing" telephone you save 25c per month.
