

Kent Hance and Mary Behrends Selected for Boys and Girls State

Kent Hance and Mary Behrends have been selected to go to Austin early next month to take part in the mythical state governments set up by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary.

KENT HANCE

MARY HELEN BEHRENDIS

Ranking junior high school students through a detailed facsimile government, is gaining in recognition every year and there is considerable competition among youngsters for the expense-paid trip.

The American Legion Boys State is held yearly on the campus of the University of Texas in Austin, and the Bluebonnet Girls State is held at the Texas School for the Blind in Austin. The boys are in session from June 5 to June 11 and the girls from June 8 to June 17.

According to the American Legion, the purposes of these two programs are to educate the young men and women of Texas in the duties, privileges, right and responsibilities of American citizenship. "Its purpose is to awaken within the youth of our nation a sincere conviction that a well-informed, intelligent, participating citizenry is most vitally needed to protect and preserve our American institutions, our American democracy. It is a mythical 50th state where, for a period, the citizens of Girls State and the citizens of Boys State organize their own city, county and state governments. They choose their own officials in accordance with regular election procedures. They learn the duties of the various city, county and state offices. They introduce and argue their own bills in a legislature. Justice is administered by their own law enforcement agencies and courts. They 'learn by doing'."

In selecting Hance and Miss Behrends, the local Legion and Auxiliary asked both the faculty and Student Council to choose three boys and three girls each. Then the Legion and Auxiliary selected one boy and one girl from this group. Selection was made on the basis of honesty, character, leadership, personality, scholarship and physical fitness.

Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hance of Dimmitt and Mary Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Behrends of the Big Square Community.

The Castro County News

Official Publication of Castro County, Texas

THIRTY THIRD YEAR DIMMITT, CASTRO COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1960 10 PAGES—NUMBER 31

Castro County Ranked Ninth in Farm Income

Castro County ranks ninth in Texas in total gross farm income, according to a news story Sunday in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal.

Castro's total income was $38,053,832 on 828 farms for an average gross of $45,959 per farm.

This ranking came despite the fact that Castro County lost at least a fourth of its cotton crop to hail last year and about half the wheat crop. Grain sorghum, which was in normal production, had a low price support.

The figures came in a round-about way. The amounts, according to the Avalanche-Journal, were issued on a district basis by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. Then they were compiled on a county basis by Progressive Farmer magazine. These county estimates were then compiled in the offices of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., to get an area-wide total.

Hale, Lubbock and Lamb counties led the state in gross income in that order. The South Panhandle and South Plains area furnished most of the top ten counties with three counties in winter vegetable-producing areas of the Rio Grande Valley taking fourth, sixth and seventh.

The South Plains of Texas is the leading cotton producing area of the state. With a good cotton history when acreage allotments began, the South Plains has tremendous acreage in the state's top revenue crop. Castro County came along late in the cotton picture and must depend on grain sorghums and wheat to supplement cotton income.

The report further stated that South Plains farmers have about $75,000 to $100,000 invested in land and equipment and that roughly 60 percent of the gross of an irrigated cotton crop goes to pay expenses of operation. This would mean a profit figure of about 40 percent on good cotton farms not counting hidden expenses such as depreciation, interest, off-year hail losses and the like.

Last Rites for Ray S. Speer Held in Hollis

Funeral services for Ray S. Speer, 64, formerly of Dimmitt, were held Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Coley Memorial Chapel in Hollis, Oklahoma, with the Rev. Clarence Stanfield of Raton, New Mexico, officiating. At the time of his death, Mr. Speer was a resident of Jal, New Mexico.

He died at 11:40 p.m. Thursday in an Amarillo hospital following two strokes.

Mr. Speer was in charge of construction of the El Paso Natural Gas Plant south of Dimmitt eight or nine years ago. He and his wife lived here for some time while construction work on the large plant was in progress. They were here inspecting the damage and rebuilding following the tornado that shattered portions of the plant and the Sunnyside Community last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Speer and some friends had gone to the museum in Canyon Sunday and had stopped off in a cafe there when he suffered his first stroke. He died following a second stroke at the hospital.

Mr. Speer was a brother-in-law to Mrs. Warren Jones of 602 Southwest 2nd Street in Dimmitt. He was born October 19, 1895 at Palo Pinto. Interment was in Fairmont Cemetery at Hollis.

He is survived by his wife, Della, of Jal, New Mexico; one daughter, Mrs. Eugene Lenhardt of Alton, Ill.; three sons, Bill of Jal, New Mexico, A. B. of Farmington, New Mexico and R. W. of Alton, Illinois; one sister, Mrs. C. B. Brown of Amarillo; one brother, Tom Speer of Palo Pinto; eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held in Hereford on Tuesday, May 31, under the direction of Edwin "Goose" Ramey of Dimmitt, vice-president. All old settlers in the area are invited to attend. Registration is at the community center at 9 a.m. Lunch will be at the community center and those attending should bring a basket lunch.

HOSPITAL PETITION—A petition asking that an election be called to vote bonds for a new Castro County Hospital was presented to Judge Raymond Wilson Monday at the Commissioners Court meeting by Mrs. Jean Byrnes (left) and Mrs. H. A. Cooper. Mrs. Byrnes represented the Dimmitt Jay-Cee-Ettes and Mrs. Cooper represented the Dimmitt Garden Club, the two organizations sponsoring circulation of the petition. Judge Wilson said this week that the election would probably be called the first half of July. The Commissioners could not set the election date at their Monday meeting since the Democratic Primary elections will have all the county's ballot boxes tied up.

Dimmitt to Close For Memorial Day

Most Dimmitt businesses will close Monday for Memorial Day, which is a national holiday and one which local merchants have picked as one appropriate to observe.

This annual memorial day takes place on May 30 throughout the United States where it is observed generally as a legal holiday. The custom, now nationwide, was first inaugurated by the women of the South who, in the first days of early spring, went out to strew flowers on the graves of their beloved dead. This example was imitated here and there in the North. In 1868, General John A. Logan, then commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued an order designating May 30 as a day for the decorating of soldiers' graves. Since that time, the 30th of May has become the occasion in most states for the commemoration of American soldiers and in many localities, of all dead.

County Civic and Moral League Plans Mass Rally of Drys Sunday

A county-wide rally of Castro County citizens of anti-liquor sentiments has been set for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the High School auditorium.

Roy Bass and Kenneth Hobbs, attorneys for the Castro County Civic and Moral League, will explain to the meeting what has been done and what is yet to be done toward the League's goal of returning all of Castro County to a dry status.

This meeting precedes an appeal to the 7th Court of Criminal Appeals in Amarillo on June 7 by the wet forces of the decision favoring the dries by the 64th District Court recently.

Judge Harold M. LaFont of the District Court held that the Texas Supreme Court ruling, considered by the Castro County Commission, is based on a Dimmitt County case and conditions applicable in Dimmitt County are not applicable in Castro County.

The election which turned Precinct 4 of Castro County wet, was held on October 10, 1959.

Dimmitt County voted dry after the passage of a 1935 amendment to the Texas Constitution, while Castro County voted dry before the amendment was passed.

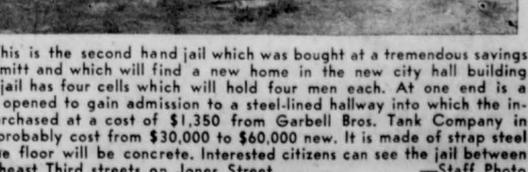

The 1935 amendment allowed entire counties to decide the wet-dry issue in local option votes. The Supreme Court ruling in the Dimmitt County case interprets the amendment to permit local option elections by subdivision of counties.

Precinct 4 in Castro County voted to go wet in the October election by a vote of 160 to 92. Since that time about ten liquor stores in that precinct have been in operation. However what strayed out to be a bonanza for the liquor stores has turned instead into a much slower operation since the Post area south of Lubbock went wet, even to the extent of legalizing taverns and bars. Consequently most of the Lubbock liquor trade has reportedly shifted in that direction. One close observer of liquor store operations here estimated that the Nazareth stores had suffered a business loss of up to 60 percent or possibly even higher. Dimmitt stores were relatively unaffected since their out-of-town business came mostly from the more sparsely populated west and southwest.

After the appeal is heard by the Amarillo Court on June 7, it will probably be appealed to the State Supreme Court by the losing party.

To Work in Nebraska
Carl Kemp and son, Carl, Jr., went to Nebraska for a visit with Mr. Kemp's old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Den Klave. Carl, Jr., plans to stay the summer and work on the Klave Ranch.

New Jail Arrives In Dimmitt

SECOND-HAND JAIL — This is the second hand jail which was bought at a tremendous savings recently by the City of Dimmitt and which will find a new home in the new city hall building when it is constructed. The jail has four cells which will hold four men each. At one end is a master door which must be opened to gain admission to a steel-lined hallway into which the individual cell doors open. Purchased at a cost of $1,350 from Garbell Bros. Tank Company in Fort Worth, the jail would probably cost from $30,000 to $60,000 new. It is made of strap steel riveted at each overlap. The floor will be concrete. Interested citizens can see the jail between Southeast Second and Southeast Third streets on Jones Street.

ABEL SPEAKS
"By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, . . . and by it he being dead yet speaketh." Heb. 11:4. Yes, Abel speaks, but what does he say?
That God will avenge the innocent. His blood (Abel's) cried unto God from the ground. Gen. 4:10. God is keeping the score; vengeance will overtake the evil doer, and the faithful will be rewarded. Eccl. 12:14. The blood of Abel warns every evil doer that God will require that accounts be settled. 2 Cor. 5:10.
That the righteous are hated without a cause. Thus Cain hated Abel, 1 John 3:12,13. There doesn't have to be a reason for one to hate another. Christ warned about this, Matt. 5:10-12.
That it does make a difference how we worship. The New Testament leaves no doubt on this matter. John 4:24; Revelation 22:18,19; 2 John 9.
That faith is the key to acceptable worship, Hebrews 11:6.
That the only righteousness is in obeying God. Psalms 119:172; Hebrews 11:4.

Through a hard-hitting, conscientious ADVERTISING PROGRAM

Competition is a demanding taskmaster—but it can also be the greatest rewarding factor in merchandising or servicing. It is a taskmaster when competition defeats, when it sets the rut that engulfs the businessman. Competition is rewarding when the merchant forces it to become his tool, when he knows he has a thriving, growing business that will never want for customers. Business goes where it is invited—and competitive prices, outstanding courteous service with a good selection, and promotional advertising will do the most inviting.

Do yourself, your customer, and your community a favor by using the pages of the Castro County News to sell your goods and services. It is not only good business but it will help you gear your operation to today's quickly changing trends and increasing competition.

Success stories of large businesses almost always hinge around concentrated advertising and other sound business practices. Start a campaign now—you'll be amazed at how quickly you will feel the difference. Just telephone 88 and a salesman will call on you at your convenience.

THE CASTRO COUNTY NEWS

HART NEWS

According to the release of the coroner Hart now has a population of 1,126. This was its first count in a town since it was incorporated a few years ago.

More and more we realize the significance of "First Aid" and its importance during the time of storms and what the importance of immediate first aid is to a great number of people who have been injured. And too one never knows when he might just happen upon an accident, and at the very best it is around 30 minutes before an ambulance can reach the accident. So important is the person who can render proper first aid. Learning excitement improper handling can render a person permanently paralyzed. When a person who has had first aid will know the right thing to do at the right time.

Given five boys are taking a course of Red Cross First Aid. The course is being taught by Mr. E. D. Rogers of Dimmitt. Congratulations to our boys are out to you.

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run... went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard) certifies that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

*With professional economy driver on the new Corvair. See the new Corvair at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's.

My Willie Word

My first department has held regular practice sessions with the help of the Red Cross. This film revealed the type structures which could withstand the blast better and the places where persons would be safest from the effects of the blast and the use of radiation. We were also treated by a very informative talk by Mrs. Marie Hudson who is the State Pension Commissioner for Fremont. Incidentally, we had an excellent noon meal of fried chicken with all the trimmings. Everyone who went had a very good time and we are expecting a good turnout for the next convention which will be held in Hereford in September.

We have been very fortunate in that there hasn't been a fire since a month ago today. There was a false alarm sounded one night this past week when the men who are doing the installation work on the telephone system got some wires crossed and set off the alarm. It caused a good deal of excitement because at the time there was a high wind blowing from the North and some people thought it might be a storm warning. Let's keep those fires down and keep our insurance rates as low as possible. Just a year ago next month the old Webb house caught fire. The cause was determined to be from inadequate wiring and the largest loss we have had since that time was caused by the very same thing. If the wiring is inadequate in your home, would you have it checked by an experienced electrician? Better be sure that sorry.

I have on my desk at this time a clipping which I cut out of the Lubbock paper this morning. The headline of the clipping reads "Girl Dies in Odessa Blast." It tells of five small children left at home alone by the parents and of the rescue of four of the five by passing motorists. The mother had left the children alone while she went across the street to visit with a neighbor. The infant who perished was in a rear bedroom which didn't actually catch fire but was heated to over temperature by the hot gases and air from the fire in the other part of the house. May 23rd, this happened near downtown Odessa. If the passing motorists hadn't noticed the fire and went to the rescue of the other four children, they might have all perished in the blaze. Small children should not be left alone for any length of time.

There is an excellent article in the May issue of the Reader's Digest about what to do in the event of a fire in your home. I would like for each of you to read that article and practice what it preaches.

GALLANTRY IN ACTION:

A reception a young man was asked by a widow to guess her age. "You must have some idea," she said as he hesitated. "I have several ideas," he admitted with a smile. "The only trouble is that I hesitate whether to make you 10 years younger on account of your looks, or 10 years older on account of your brains."

He: "Why is this grocery bill so high?"
She: "Go upstairs and stand side-ways in front of the mirror."

Every 37 seconds a fire breaks out in some city in the U.S., damaging or destroying property and endangering lives.
Every two minutes fire damages or destroys someone's home in a trend.

"Mummy," asked the child, "Why doesn't daddy have hair on his head?"
"Daddy thinks a great deal of his hair."

The activities of Mr. Khrushchev in recent days have confirmed the fears and feelings of those who expressed in the above paragraph.

School was out today and the happy voices of children echoed throughout the neighborhood. My children, plus a number of neighbors' children, really had a time with their water-guns and a good portion of them, ended the holiday by not only being half-drowned but by sporting a pretty good case of sunburn.

I remember, having put the children to bed, that I was just sitting and thinking about the happenings of the day when some peevish urge struck me and I quickly put my thoughts on paper.

Only a mother can understand the full meaning of the following lines, but I just thought you might like to read them and remember how quickly time flies.

"This first group of lines was of course, written when my son was five years of age... Big little fellow, Every eye sparkling, Glad to be alive, Running over here, Daring over there, Without any worries, Still without a care, Mama's broom his horse, Daddy's wrench his gun, Watch out there partner, His day has just begun, The chickens are his cattle, The yard his coral, The cellar is his mountain, His bunkhouse is a barrel, Indiana are approaching, Buffalo are his friends, Careful, now there partner, No place for a child, Imagination growing, Thoughts have gone astray, Wondering what strategy He'll use on them today, Bullies getting thicker, Battle's being won, Indiana are retreating, Fighting's nearly over, I see a molting cow, He's a little cowboy, It's nearly time for bed, The following was written about my daughter who is now approaching her fourth year in school, however, it could well apply to my younger daughter who is now two years of age.

My little lass, With hair of shining gold, Busy little body, All of two years old, Into every little thing, Exploring the unknown, Pretending she's a Lady, My, how she has grown! Borrowing Mother's lipstick, For lips of every red, Just fits her tiny head, Putting Mother's highest heels On her tiny feet, Looking like a clown, But still an angel sweet, Seeing into Mother's purse, So full of things, Going through Mother's jewelry, Trying on her rings, Playing Beauty Shoppe, Hair just dripping wet, Using Mother's bobbi-pins, Getting her hair set, Arriving in the kitchen, Just in time to know, Mother's starting dinner... her hands are in the dough, Pulling up a chair, Beside her Mother's knee, Helping with the bread, Happy as can be, Now Mother's moved, She's over frying meat, Here comes her helper, Right at Mother's feet, Dinner's on the table.

Blessing has been said, Food's being passed, Mealtime is over, Clean-up time has come, Game of pretend, Sleepy little lass, Nodding little head, She's still Mother's baby, When it's time for bed, Yes, every mother has a million dollars in memories wrapped up in every child... she's the richest person alive... time, swift as it is, only makes her richer. "miff said, Mary

Every driver should remember that when he or she takes a chance and violates a traffic law, they are also taking a chance with injury or death in a traffic accident for themselves, as well as the ones riding with them.

Our patrolmen are on the highways every day and every night, trying to apprehend the traffic law violator before an accident happens," the sergeant said, "but we can't do the job without the support of the traveling public."

When more drivers start obeying the law, accidents will decrease and in turn your chances of being killed or injured in an accident will decrease.

program doesn't excuse or justify waste or graft. That is why I re- solutely voted to cut the fat out of foreign aid spending when the foreign aid authorization bill came before the Senate. One way to assist to eliminate waste in foreign aid was to try to require that the Congress must separately review and approve each foreign water and dam project estimated to cost over $1-million. In other words, we tried to enforce the same set of standards on foreign projects as we have for federally built water projects in Texas. But the amendments lost and today we continue to authorize and appropriate money for foreign public works improvements on a lump sum basis, without consideration by the Congress of the separate large projects. One Senator even inquired during debate whether any member of the Senate even knew how many foreign projects that will cost over $1-million were being authorized under the $4-billion bill. No one answered him. I'm strongly convinced that closer study of separate projects would have two highly desirable results: (1) The program would cost less money; (2) It would achieve more because wisely invested dollars would build more beneficial projects and would win wider respect among foreign peoples.

Timeliness of many operations often means the difference between a fair crop and a larger one. Also, the unit cost of products is higher with a reduced yield such as often results from poorly timed insect control measures, for example.

For the livestock producer, economical gains or lower unit costs are important. Here again the well planned operator must reduce labor needs. Full use should be made of mechanical feeding and automatic devices which reduce costs.

A small reduction in important production items may bring sizable savings in total annual costs resulting in more profit. For example, feed costs comprise about 75 percent of the outlay for pork production. This, a small saving of $4 per ton on the ration needed for 500 market hogs would total almost $1,000. Similarly, the use of feeders designed to avoid waste can reduce costs.

A & M Specialists Says Good Planning Aids Farm Profits

By C. H. Bates

The margin of potential profits from present day farming and ranching is narrow. Sometimes small savings are of tremendous importance. With the trend toward larger volume of business, there are increased risks from lower prices or higher costs.

For example, a few cents less per hundredweight on 200 steers marketed means a reduction of thousands of dollars in returns. Slight variation on prices for a cotton or grain crop will influence profits materially. Not all risks can be avoided, but careful planning may help reduce their impact on profits.

Individual operators may benefit more from planning by concentrating on their "recurring" and high-cost items. This emphasizes the reduction of per unit costs.

On crop enterprises, the aim should be to minimize labor costs through the economic use of machinery. Often adverse weather causes costs to increase for weed control, combating insects and for certain harvesting operations. Planning should include alternate methods of handling these practices under adverse conditions.
