U.S. Charges Soviet Caused Political Crisis In Hungary Through Interference

Marshall Sends Sharp Critical Note To Moscow

WASHINGTON (P)—The United States Thursday charged Soviet Russia with causing a political crisis by an "unjustified interference in Hungarian internal affairs."

A sharp note, delivered to the Russian, British and Hungarian governments, and to the Soviet military commander in Budapest, said that the Soviet high command by direct intervention has brought political difficulties in Hungary to a crisis.

An official summary of the note handed Moscow as Secretary of State Marshall traveled toward the Soviet capital, said this government deems "unwarranted" charges filed against Parliamentary Deputy Bela Kovacs, who was arrested last week by Russian soldiers.

Kovacs until recently was secretary general of the Smallholders Party, the moderate majority group in the Hungarian Parliament, which the Communists and other parties have tried to oust.

U. S. His Foreign Interference
The State Department's note added:

"The pattern of recent political developments in Hungary appears to threaten the right of the people to live under a government of their own free choosing, for it involves foreign interference in the domestic affairs of Hungary in support of repeated aggressive attempts by Hungarian minority elements to coerce the popularly-elected majority."

"The United States government is opposed to this attempt to nullify the electoral mandate given by the Hungarian people."

The note said that the grounds given for the arrest of Kovacs "are allegations that he actively participated in the formation of subversive and anti-Soviet terror groups and in organizing espionage directed against the Soviet Union."

The Soviet action against Kovacs, the State Department said, was "taken unilaterally without prior discussion with the United States and the United Kingdom representatives on the Allied Control Commission."

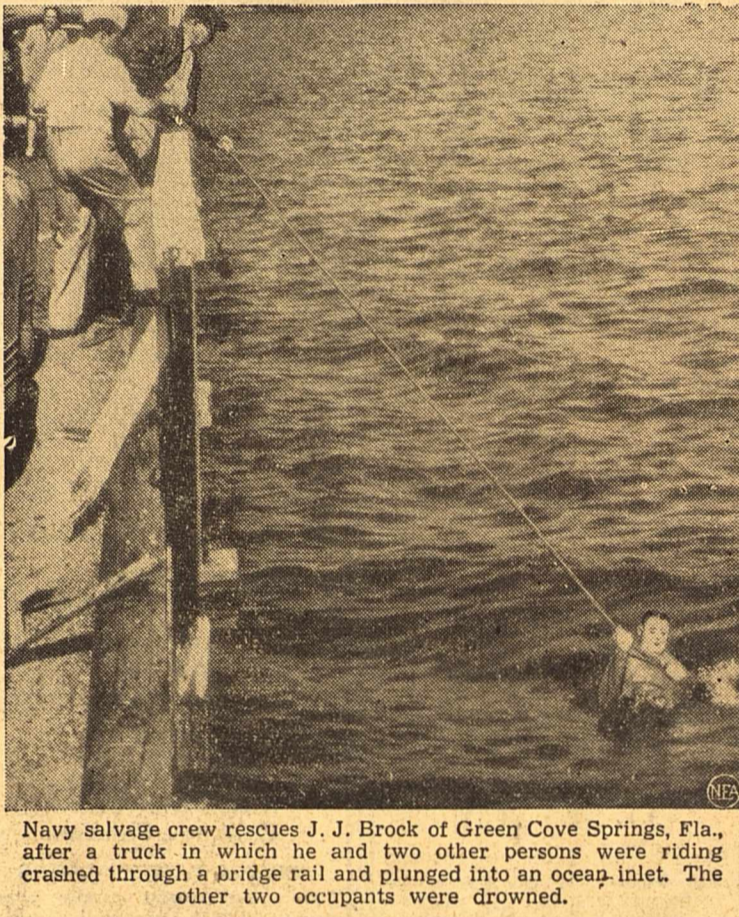

Diplomatic authorities said the note was sent to Moscow by Secretary of State Marshall shortly before his departure Wednesday for the Big Four foreign ministers conference opening there Monday.

Copies went to Great Britain and the three-power Allied Control Council at Budapest.

The State Department declined comment pending word that the note had been delivered.

The protest reflected American concern over bolstering Hungary, like Greece, against Soviet domination.

SILVER OUTPOST IS DRILLING AHEAD

Sun Oil Company No. 1 Fred Jameson, one quarter of a mile south of the Silver field discovery, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 315, block A-1, H&TC survey, was reported by operator to be drilling ahead below 6,957 feet in an unidentified zone.

No information has been released which would indicate that the prospector had reached the Ellenburger. It has already shown for good producing possibilities from the Strawn.

FLANKER IS STAKED TO FULLERTON-DEVONIAN AREA

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 2-YY University, is a new step-out from Devonian production on the south side of the Strawn field in Northwest Andrews County.

It will be 660 feet from north and east lines of section 30, block 13, University survey. Drilling to 8,750 feet, or production in the Devonian, at a lesser depth, is to start at once.

CSOC NO. 1 RILEY SWABBED SOME OIL IN 18-HOUR TEST

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Riley, West Garza County, possible wildcat discovery 15 miles west and slightly south of Seminole, and about four miles north of the Doss field, swabbed 18 hours, on section at 7,040-7,251 feet, which had been treated with 1,000 gallons and 4,000 gallons of acid.

Recovery was 64 barrels of fluid with cut ranging from one per cent to 25 per cent sediment and water. The project would not flow.

Operator was preparing to retreat the pack section with 7,000 gallons of acid.

The Rev. Lennel Hester, assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, was to officiate and burial was scheduled in Fairview Cemetery.

Hawkins was born in Wilson County, Texas. He lived in Midland until 12 years ago when he moved to Monahans. He was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Monahans.

Survivors include two sons, Wayne and Lloyd of Monahans; four sisters, Mrs. Harry Cole and Mrs. Roy Solso of Fall Brook, Calif.; Mrs. Sterling Cone of Albuquerque, and Mrs. J. A. Andrews of Midland.

Lodge members will be pallbearers at services.

Snow Two To Three Inches Deep Blankets Wide West Texas Area

By TANNER LAINE

"Spring may be a little late this year," hummed a Midlander going to work Thursday morning—it was snowing.

On the heels of the annual Style Show of Spring fashions in Midland Wednesday night came a big-flaked snow, which covered the city and its cattle and oil territory on the level two to three inches deep by 8 a. m. Thursday.

The snow began to fall between midnight Wednesday and 6 a. m. Thursday. It was first cold rain, then it was sleet, and finally wet, big flakes of snow, then sleet again.

The temperature dipped sharply in Midland from its 63 degrees reading Wednesday afternoon to a low of 24 degrees at 11 a. m. Thursday.

"Everything is colder in Midland but city politics," a man said on the street.

Here is the weather situation, in Midland, North, West, South, East, and straight up, as gathered from transportation services (bus, train, highway, air), oil company pipe lines, and other medias:

Snow, two to three inches deep in the city of Midland and immediately around here; snow all the way to El Paso and worse weather as you go West, especially around Pecos and farther West; snow East as far as Sweetwater; snow North to Lubbock but not as bad on to Amarillo from there; snow South to between Midland and San Angelo, not as bad farther South; icing conditions in the air in West Texas, ice quickly forming on airplanes; air traffic cancelled Thursday morning, 900-foot ceiling at Midland.

The Greyhound Bus Company reported: bus traffic a little tardy into Midland, but going ahead;

NEWSPAPER RESUMES SPRINGFIELD, MASS. (P)

This city's first morning newspaper since last September was published Thursday with no interference from striking mechanical and editorial employees.

Midland public schools reported about 100 students out of classes at the high school due to the weather. No injuries were reported when an automobile hit a school bus Thursday morning.

Midland streets were slushy by mid-morning. The snow turned to sleet by 11:30 a. m. Taxis hurried with early morning office workers. Cars were covered with snow.

Traffic on Highway 80 was coming through but moving just a little slower than normal. "Bad West, not so bad East," motorists reported.

The weather forecast is slightly warmer for Friday.

Picture Over State
Here is the picture over the state, as reported by The Associated Press:

Snow blanketed most of West and North Texas, extending as far East as Dallas, with freezing rain and sleet falling in many other sections.

The Weather Bureau reported that as far South as Central Texas, temperatures were so near the freezing mark that ice formed intermittently.

Rain, snow or sleet covered practically all of Texas Thursday. Vernon reported a heavy snow falling. Sleet and rain fell at Bonham.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

SAN JOSE, CALIF. — (AP) — This city of 80,000 went without milk deliveries Thursday because of a strike—with supplies on hand reported as sufficient for only 24 hours at the most. Deliveries were being made only to hospitals and nurseries.

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — Four taxi-drivers were placed under arrest Thursday by military policemen at Fort Sam Houston on suspicion of having been selling whiskey to mental patients at Brooke General Hospital.

ST. PAUL, MINN. — (AP) — Strike of 300 stock pen workers at the St. Paul Union Stockyards Company at nearby South St. Paul Thursday tied up operations in three large meat packing plants when more than 5,000 workers refused to cross picket lines established shortly after the walkout started.

TO RIGHT A GREAT WRONG— House To Vote On Changing Name Of Boulder Dam To Hoover Dam

WASHINGTON (P)—House Republicans get their chance Thursday to set up a monument to the last GOP President—Herbert Hoover—and at the same time "right a great wrong."

After 14 years, they were ready to designate mammoth Boulder Dam on the Colorado River Hoover Dam once more.

Senate approval and President Truman's signature still will be required.

Okayed only Tuesday by the House Public Lands Committee, the name-changing resolution won a quick place on the chamber's calendar for a vote Wednesday.

To many Republican members the action brought an opportunity they have been waiting for since 1933.

That was the year Harold L. Ickes, President Roosevelt's secretary of the interior, discarded the Hoover label and announced that thereafter the dam would be given its "original and proper" name, Boulder Dam.

During Congressional debates on the Boulder Canyon project in the 1920s, the dam generally was referred to as Boulder or Boulder Canyon Dam.

As secretary of commerce during that period, Herbert Hoover had been instrumental in putting through the Colorado River compact which cleared the way for the dam's construction.

CONGRESSIONAL ROUND-UP— Wagner Amendment Proposed; OPA Told To End Work June 30

WASHINGTON (P)—Herman W. Steinkraus of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce asked Congress Thursday to amend the Wagner Act so that employers won't be worried with "overnight" changes of National Labor Relations Board policy.

Steinkraus is chairman of the chamber's Labor Relations Committee.

He said "vast areas" of the Wagner Act have been left to interpretation by the NLRB and because of "shifts in the board's policies, the employer has never known when a long-established administrative ruling would suddenly be changed x x x."

Steinkraus urged the act also should be amended to forbid unfair labor practices by employers.

On the other side of the Capitol, Paul M. Herzog, NLRB chairman, told the Senate Labor Committee that changes proposed for the Wagner Act could touch off a nationwide round of strikes.

Gromyko Says Russia Not To Open Frontiers

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. (P)—Pessimistic Security Council delegates, groping for a solution to global control of atomic energy, pondered Thursday a Russian assertion that Soviet frontiers never would be thrown open to unlimited international inspection nor Soviet factories allowed to operate under United Nations control.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, made these points clear in a major policy speech, devoted principally to an outspoken attack on the American control plan.

Gromyko said the United States proposals, already accepted by all members of the 12-nation Atomic Energy Commission except Russia and Poland, were contrary to the basic economic and national interests of other nations and "directed against the independence of other states."

The Russian delegate insisted that he was in favor of strict and effective international control, but not on the broad terms laid down by the United States. While repeatedly assailing the American provisions in a 78-minute speech, Gromyko did not state how far his country was willing to go toward "strict" control.

U. S. Wants Full Inspection
The United States wants an atomic development authority with full powers of inspection and control of atomic matters everywhere.

Delegates generally reserved immediate comment pending a study of the text, but it was apparent that many envisioned major difficulty in clearing up the inspection-control problem in the face of the Russian stand.

Coming almost on the eye of the Moscow conference, the speech was viewed as especially significant.

Gromyko declared that "granting an international control organ the right to possess establishments for the production of atomic energy and unlimited power to carry out other important functions connected with the ownership and management of the establishments would lead to interference in internal affairs." He said that granting such powers was "incompatible with the state sovereignty" and "must be rejected as unfounded."

New Fuel Crisis Threatens Britain

LONDON (P)—A new fuel crisis threatened storm-battered Britain Thursday.

Ice and mountainous snows knotted the nation's transportation system and slashed critically needed coal production. The Daily Herald, organ of the ruling Labor Party, forecast "further checks" on fuel-short industry unless coal stocks get through.

A two-day blizzard that died out Wednesday night had blocked 120 highways, stopped all movement on 40 branch lines of the Great Western Railway, and entirely isolated 33 South Wales mines, which went out of production. Attendance at other mines there and in the Midlands was cut by 50 per cent.

Prime Minister Attlee called a meeting of his emergency "coal cabinet" Thursday.

A Woman's World Baylor Gives Honor Degree To President

Margaret Halden, of Everett, Wash., State Department assistant, is the only woman among the 35 members of the American delegation to the Foreign Ministers' Conference in Moscow.

WACO (P)—President Truman, calling for a reduction of world trade barriers, declared Thursday the United States "can lead the nations to economic peace or we can plunge them into economic war."

The President, en route home from a three-day goodwill visit to Mexico, stopped here to receive an honorary degree of doctor of laws from Baylor University. In an acceptance speech devoted entirely to the need for freer world trade, he:

- 1—Reaffirmed his faith in the reciprocal trade act which has been under attack by some Republicans in Congress.
- 2—Struck out at those who would return to high tariffs and "economic isolation."
- 3—Welcomed continuation of bi-partisan support for a foreign policy which calls for cooperation in the economic as well as the political field.
- 4—Asserted that the alternative to "regimentation" of international commerce is the World Trade Charter to be considered by 18 nations at Geneva next month. The proposed international trade organization, he said, would apply to commercial relationships "the same principle of fair dealing that the United Nations is applying to political affairs."

(Truman made no reference in his remarks to Greece's appeal, with support from Britain, for American economic aid. Last Tuesday, Secretary of State Marshall termed the threatened collapse of the Greek economy a matter of "primary importance" to the United States. He said details of action proposed would be announced by the President.)

"The negotiations at Geneva must not fail," he declared.

He termed the United States today "the giant of the economic world," and added:

"Whether we like it or not, the future pattern of economic relations depends upon us. The world is waiting and watching to see what we shall do. The choice is ours. We can lead the nations to economic peace or we can plunge them into economic war."

"There must be no question as to our course. We must not go through the 'thirties again.'"

Favors Reducing Trade Barriers
He said reduction of trade barriers is a "settled policy" on this government one of the "cornerstones of our plans for peace," and "a policy from which we cannot—and must not—turn aside."

"To those among us—and there are still a few—who would seek to undermine this policy for partisan advantage and go back to the period of high tariffs and economic isolation," he continued, "I can say only this:

"Take care! Times have changed. Our position in the world has changed. The temper of the people has changed. The slogans of 1930 or of 1896 are sadly out of date. Isolationism, after two world wars, is a confession of mental and moral bankruptcy."

As for bi-partisan cooperation, he said:

"Happily, our foreign economic policy does not now rest upon a base of narrow partisanship. Leaders in both parties have expressed their faith in its essential purposes. Here, as elsewhere in our foreign relations I shall welcome a continuation of bi-partisan support. 'Our people are united. They have come to a realization of their responsibilities. They are ready to assume their role of leadership. They are determined upon an international order in which peace and freedom shall endure.'"

Private Trade Urged
Truman said the pattern of international trade most conducive to freedom of enterprise is one in (Continued on Page 7)

Court Upholds Convictions Of Lewis, Miners

WASHINGTON (P)—The Supreme Court Thursday upheld the contempt convictions of John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers.

The high tribunal at the same time upheld the $10,000 fine imposed on Lewis but ordered the $3,500,000 fine assessed against the United Mine Workers reduced to $700,000.

The penalties grew out of Lewis' refusal to obey a court order intended to head off the 17-day soft coal strike last November.

The court majority ruled that neither the Norris-LaGuardia Act nor the War Labor Disputes Act barred the government from obtaining the injunction which resulted in the contempt proceedings.

It was this injunction that Lewis and the miners union were accused of flouting.

After the case had been appealed directly to the Supreme Court, Lewis suddenly ordered his miners back to work, on December 7. He said he wanted the Supreme Court freed of any public hysteria in weighing the issues.

Chief Justice Vinson in his majority opinion said that the trial court properly found the defendants in the Lewis case guilty of both criminal and civil contempt.

The majority specified that in cutting the union's fine to $700,000 it was doing so on this condition: The union must pay an additional fine of $2,800,000 unless it shows within five days after the Supreme Court issues its mandate that it has fully complied with the lower court's order.

Butler Urges Retail Trade Development By Merchants Here

Development of Midland into the shopping center of the vast Permian Basin area was urged by John P. Butler, Chamber of Commerce president, in an address to Rotarians at their regular meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel.

He held of plans of the Chamber of Commerce and of its retail trade and development committee toward this goal.

"Buy it in Midland" is the slogan of the program, he continued.

1947 Is Important Year
"Your Chamber of Commerce is necessary and essential to the life of our community. This may be the most important year in Midland's history. Sound and thoughtful planning is needed to stay on the beam. We are in a growing city—not a country town any more. We have our problems but we must be alert to our opportunities and we must create opportunities. Midland has grown attractively and soundly."

He discussed briefly the Chamber of Commerce's program of work and told of efforts of the city to gain possession of the Midland Army Air Field so it can be developed into a successful airport to serve this area.

Butler was introduced by E. H. Barron. Wallace Wimberly was program chairman and R. L. Miller, president, presided at the meeting.

Entertainment was provided by the Junior High School A'Capella Choir, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Routh.

Roy McKee urged Rotarians to provide a meeting place for their Boy Scout troop. R. S. Brashears won the attendance prize.

Ex-Husband Shot As He Watches Movie

DALLAS (P)—W. R. Camp, 34, was shot twice in the head and fatally wounded Wednesday night in a neighborhood theater as he watched a picture with his divorced wife. He died a few minutes after arriving at Parkland Hospital.

Two men in the audience seized Sam Williams Lyons, 53, also a divorced husband of the woman, and disarmed him of a revolver in the rear of the theater.

In a signed statement to police Mrs. Margie Lyons, 38, said she had married Lyons in 1934 and divorced him in 1946. She married Camp in October, 1946, and divorced him three months later.

She said two weeks ago she swore out a peace bond against Lyons and added:

"I was afraid something like this would happen."

Virginia Sale Proves Versatile In Concert-Lecture Association Recital

The characterizations made by the versatile Virginia Sale were received with continual ripples of laughter Wednesday night, when the stage, radio and movie actress presented a recital sponsored by the Midland Concert-Lecture Association in the Midland High School auditorium.

The recital opened with the antics of a mother serving a meal to a large Indiana family the day she is to entertain the Women's Society. Everything goes wrong—flies swarm on the food, grandpa chokes, baby gets fly paper in his hair.

junior spills the milk, and the climax is reached when the cat licks the frosting off the cake which has been set aside for the Women's Society.

Husband's Day at Society
In a number entitled "Husband's Day at the Monday Morning Women's Society," Miss Sale kept the audience laughing with acting and double-meaning remarks: "the business meeting will be presented as if no one is here," and "Mrs. Jones wants to thank the ladies for assisting in the death of her husband."

When the treasurer gives her report, she reads everything in her purse but the report—including the grocery list and "$3 on the nose on Firely." The cheering-up committee chairman reports the committee "couldn't function very much because only two members were sick."

The audience especially liked the featured speaker at the society meeting—who talked on developing "forward personalities" and "I don't mean tight sweaters."

"Three O'Clock in the Morning"
Miss Sale's third skit was a scene showing a hostess trying to get rid of party guests—in a number entitled "Three O'Clock in the Morning." The bride finally got all George's friends wobbling on their way although she did catch George kissing his former flame, Miss Osborn, in the library.

In an old-fashioned school marm scene, Miss Sale used the names of several members of the Concert-Lecture Association while the whole audience served as her pupils. After "leading" in teeth-washing, physical exercises and holding in the diaphragm while singing, the teacher announced that "the Monday night meeting of the PTA will be held on Friday, instead of Wednesday."

In a take-off on the late Gertrude Stein, the teacher read a poem, "handed in by Erma Mancill, entitled 'Ah, Spring.'" Those were the only two words in the poem but the teacher read them over and over with different emphasis and inflections each time.

Characterizes Brother
In another skit Miss Sale characterized her late brother and feature of many comedies, Chic Sale. She donned coveralls and gave a good imitation of the comedian.

The play based on the life of her grandmother made up the last half of the program. It opened with the grandmother living alone in Dakota in a cottage. The light was turned out and she appeared as a young bride in Illinois, and changes through the years of hardship were made in the flash-backs, until in the last scene she was the grandmother again—glad she had stuck it out in the Dakotas.

At the intermission H. Winston Hull, association president, urged the members to renew their memberships as quickly as possible so that a new series of programs could be planned for the year.

Mansfield Concert Scheduled In City-County Auditorium

The concert featuring Emanuel Mansfield, noted negro tenor, will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday in the City-County Auditorium, instead of at the Carver School as previously announced. The concert was moved to the auditorium to handle the large crowd anticipated. A section of the auditorium has been reserved for white persons.

Mansfield, recognized as one of America's outstanding negro tenors, will present a varied and universal program. He now is on a tour of Texas cities and this week has appeared in several West Texas cities.

The concert is being presented here under the auspices of the Carver School Parent-Teacher Association.

Robert Evans, American Indian piano sensation, is Mansfield's accompanist. Evans is from the University of the State of Washington, and is termed as "the little giant of the piano."

Latest Fashion News Presented At Midland's Twelfth Style Show

In an "Easter Parade of '47" Wednesday evening, merchants "presented their wares" for the approval of Midland women and their families.

The twelfth annual Spring style show was presented by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal Church with Mrs. Hal C. Peck as general chairman. Mrs. Roy E. Kimsey was co-chairman.

Models wearing the latest creations paraded across the stage of the Yucca Theater in two complete sell-out showings.

Descriptions of each costume modeled were given by John DeFord, master of ceremonies.

In the setting of the garden of an estate, tiny tots of Midland showed what the well-dressed preschool and grade school youngsters will be wearing. They were gathered for a party.

After the children went into the house for refreshments the hostesses entered the setting and guests called for a small garden party and style review. Each woman wore the style accents which are being featured in afternoon dresses this Spring.

"Long Look" Dresses
Afternoon dresses, as well as suits, feature the "long look" and the "rounded look". Drapes on the side, front and back, full pleated skirts and the bustle effect were stressed in the models presented.

The show, given for the hostesses and her guests, included active sports wear, lingerie, casual clothes, suits, afternoon frocks, formals and "Mildly's Easter Bonnets".

Suits were along the feminine lines with cut away coats, fancy buttons, and straight skirts with side or center front slits. Sleeve interest highlights the '47 Spring suit in such unusual cuts as the dolman sleeve, the leg-o-rutition sleeve and the new push-up sleeve. Top coats also featured the unusual sleeves.

Sleek to Fluffy Formals
Formals ranged from the sleek dinner gown including a Grecian model to the fluffy, full skirted taffeta for the younger set.

Flowers, veils and ribbons on black, brown and bright colored straws caught the eye in hat models. Also featured were large brim straws.

The furniture and flowers for the stage setting were furnished by Midland merchants. The loud speaker was furnished by the Dun-agan Sales Company. The Community Theater assisted in the make-up of models and Randy Rubin assisted in the stage lighting.

Models Listed

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging back-ache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcel Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

QUARRELS

People don't always see eye to eye. We have differences of opinion... clashing aims... conflicting views. And what can we do about them? Primitive man settled his quarrels with a club or spear. And modern man isn't above using tanks and planes and battleships to settle his. But there is a better way! It involves sacrifice, forgiveness, and a large measure of brotherly love. But it leads to happiness and peace. Yes, it's about time the world began using this better way. By going to Church this Sunday you won't solve every problem the world faces. But you will find a better solution to your own problems. And you'll find God... Who alone can show all humanity the Way to peace and lasting happiness. Choose your Church—and use your Church—regularly!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Imagine His Relief When Car Is Returned

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. —(P)— Martin Kamerer drove home from a parking lot in his new car and when Mrs. Kamerer arrived in an almost identical car from the same parking lot a few minutes later, Kamerer notified police.

The police notified Ray Eliot, University of Illinois football coach, who sighed with relief.

Eliot had reported a few minutes earlier that the new car Champaign-Urbana friends gave him after Illinois' Rose Bowl victory over UCLA was missing from the parking lot.

Mrs. Kamerer returned Eliot's car, similar to her husband's and apologized for her mistake.

Flying Circus Will Go To South America

MIAMI —(P)— Jerome Wilson plans to take his Gran Circo Americano around South America this spring by air. He believes the increased cost of transportation will be more than offset by longer runs in the cities he visits.

For instance, he says, the trip from Barranquilla to Bogota in Colombia is a 14-day junket by river boat. It's three hours by plane. He'll use the extra 13 days watching money roll in the box office.

When his arrangements with Pan American World Airways are completed he believes his outfit will become the world's first flying circus and incidentally one of the biggest mass movements of passengers and cargo in the annals of Latin American aviation. Aside from nearly 100 trouperes and a full fledged menagerie, there will be 28,000 square feet of canvas and bleachers and chairs for 3,500 people.

Issued this 12th day of February, 1947.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Midland, Texas, this 10th day of February, A. D. 1947.

Standard's Pool Has Seal Of Approval

EL SEGUNDO, CALIF. —(P)— Standard of California operates, at its refinery here, a special swimming pool—for fish and seals.

The company had to build the pool, it explained, to keep fish which are drawn into its big seawater intake "from gumming up our works." They're parked in the pond and eventually chased back to sea.

One baby seal has been up three times now; "He just loved our swimming pool, or else he hated the ocean," Standard explained.

Rabbits Augment Berlin Food Supply

BERLIN —(P)— The rabbit has become the most popular domestic animal in calorie-conscious Berlin.

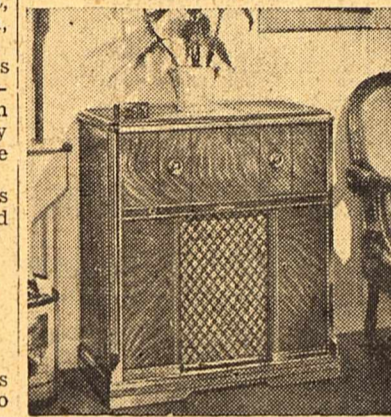

The lowly "kaninchen" serves a double purpose — he provides not only food but fur for coats and hats. And he's easy to feed on such things as potato peelings, vegetable waste and hay.

That's why today thousands of amateur breeders are keeping rabbits on balconies and in cellars, as well as in backyard warrens. In addition, there are 350 commercial rabbit breeders associations.

King Darius of ancient Persia is credited with establishing the first carefully organized provincial governments as an aid to the administration of his empire.

Truman—

(Continued from page 1) which the major decisions are made not by governments but by private buyers and sellers, under conditions of active competition, and with proper safeguards against the establishment of monopolies and cartels."

He described the opposite pattern as one where governments make the decisions, with public officials dictating the quantity of purchases and sales, sources of imports and estimation of exports.

"This was the pattern in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries," the President said. "Unless we act, and act decisively, it will be the pattern of the next century."

Everywhere on earth, he went on, nations are under "economic pressure," with a tendency toward rigid control of imports.

"If this trend is not reversed," he said, "the government of the United States will be under pressure, sooner or later, to use these same devices in the fight for markets and for raw materials. And if the government were to yield to this pressure, it would shortly find itself in the business of allocating foreign goods among importers and foreign markets among exporters and telling every trader what he could buy or sell, and how much, and when, and where."

"This is precisely what we have been trying to get away from, as rapidly as possible, ever since the war. It is not the American way. It is not the way to peace."

Williams' Arrival Officially Opens Red Sox Training

By JACK HAND
SARASOTA, FLA. — (AP) — Ted Williams pulled his new car to a screaming stop and stepped out into the bright sunshine. The Boston Red Sox officially had opened Spring training.

Lean and tan after two months fishing in the Everglades, slim Teddy held court in a sidewalk interview. Twisting and turning his head and craning his neck like a schoolboy, the slugger answered the queries of newsmen who had been awaiting his arrival.

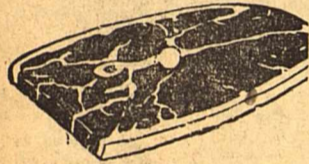

In keeping with a quaint Williams custom, Teddy arrived late Wednesday afternoon, hours after the regular workout and three days after the rest of the team reported. He mumbled something about being caught in the heavy traffic and visiting a reptile farm but nobody paid much attention. The team had arrived.

"Are you going to try hitting to left field this year?" a reporter asked.
"I'm not going to change my style," the splendid splinter replied as he eased into a pair of knee-length wool socks. "It all depends on what they do to me. If they pile too many men into right field, I'll have to do something."
"I think the club agrees with me that I am most valuable hitting that home run when I can. If it means the ball game for me to hit for the homer, that's what I'm going to try to do. I think I owe it to the club."

Wild turkeys of Colonial days were much larger than present-day domesticated birds and could easily outrun a man or fly at a speed of 50 miles an hour.

TRACK TEAM MOLDED AROUND DUNNY GOODE

By TANNER LAINE

Built around Dunny Goode, one of the fastest sprinters in the state, a track team is working out at Midland High School.

Tempo Speeded In Grid Drills

The tempo of Spring football training for the Midland Bulldogs was increased in drills held Wednesday.

The big turnout of youngsters is stepping on the gas. Soreness is still evident but the general overall condition is good.

It's the T-formation the boys are running from in these drills. Some scrimmage is held each day but Coach Barnes Milam indicated no game-condition scrimmage would be held until a week from Friday.

More than 90 hopefuls are working out daily.

Avinger Defeats Burkett As Cage Tourney Opens

AUSTIN — (AP) — Avinger from deep East Texas, opened the Texas schoolboy basketball tournament Thursday with a 30-26 decision over Burkett in the Class B division.

Staving off a Burkett rally, the ball-handling stars from Cass County entered the semi-finals against the winner of the Marfa-Sugarland game—second on the program.

Gruver and Pettus were scheduled next.
Thursday afternoon Johnson City takes the court against Prairie Valley of Nocona. That game will end the Class B first round and furnish semi-finalists for Friday.

The Class A teams get their baptism Thursday afternoon and night with Bowie meeting Beeville at 3:15 p. m., Plano tackling McCamey at 4:30, Alvin clashing with Levelland at 7:15 and Lockhart and East Mountain (Gilmer), another favorite, ending the night's play, their game starting at 8:30.

Marfa 33, Sugarland 22.

Class AA Starts Friday

The blue ribbon boys—the Class AA teams—do not start swapping field goals and free throws until Friday afternoon. Before Crozier Tech of Dallas, the defending state champion, plays gifted El Paso in the first game of this division at 3:15 p. m., finalists in both Class B and Class A will have been determined.

Critics are figuring on a finals Class AA battle Saturday night between Crozier Tech and Jefferson but are wary of El Paso with its 19-1 record. These two teams—Tech and El Paso—are considered tops of the upper bracket—the other game being between Bryan and Greenville. In the lower bracket Sam Houston (Houston) plays Amarillo in the first game of Friday night's schedule with Waco, which beat Crozier Tech in a game in early season, meeting Jefferson in the final.

Some 300 boys are here for the big tournament—the twenty-seventh—and Gregory Gym at the University of Texas is expected to show its greatest turnout for the three days and nights of battling.

Ten Bulldogs Win Letters In Basketball

Ten Midland High School cagers earned letters for the 1947 season, Coach Jack Mashburn announced. "M" winners include Jimmy Edwards, Dewey Kirby, Bobby Cole, Jack Cox, James Urice, Dunny Goode, Don Hamblet, Gilbert Sevier, Barney Hightower and Jimmy Green.

Of these lettermen, two will return next season—Hamblet and Goode. Green and Urice are undecided. The others graduate.

Good Prospects
The Bulldogs ranked second in the 3-AA tourney and fourth in round-robin play. Without height but possessed with lots of hustle and determination the team won 12 games and lost 12 during the season.

To join Goode and Hamblet for next year's team are these "B" basketeers of merit: Larry Messersmith, Fred Dunn, G. H. (Hook) Harris, "Totem" Dickerson, and Richard Clark. A "B" letterman, Herman Hanka, moved to Colorado.

Dunn is six feet, four inches tall and Dickerson towers six feet, five inches. Messersmith is one of the hottest hoopers ever to wear the Purple.

Six Candidates For City Jobs In McCamey Election

McCAMEY—Mayor Earl C. (T) Bone of McCamey is unopposed for reelection, but five men are seeking the four available council seats in the April 1 election here.

Mayor Bone, pioneer McCamey businessman, has been a member of the council four years and was appointed mayor last year to serve the unexpired term of Mayor McKinney, resigned.

Emmett Matejowsky, Gordon Russell and Jake McClain are asking reelection as councilmen. Crockett Fisher, another member of the council whose term expires in April, is moving to San Angelo soon and is not seeking reelection.

Dr. Hal Cooper and Tom Evans also are candidates for council positions.

Jimmy Boyd has another year to serve as councilman.

Bonds For Paving

Mayor Bone said the city finances are in excellent condition, and that the council is considering a bond issue for street paving.

Business is good and everyone is busy, he said. The housing shortage is acute, and every available dwelling is occupied.

Frank (Shorty) Belcher is McCamey's chief of police. He has held that position since September, and has been a law enforcement officer in Upton County since 1935.

VA Ends Itinerant Contact Service

In keeping with the curtailment of federal funds, the Veterans Administration regional office has been directed to suspend itinerant contact services throughout the region, Merritt F. Hines, Midland service officer, said Thursday.

Veterans in towns formerly visited on an itinerant basis will be only in extreme emergency by VA contact representatives. In such instances veterans should communicate with the nearest contact office. The regular schedule of VA itinerant service will be discontinued immediately, Hines stated.

The Midland service office will remain open, Hines said.

Contact offices will remain open Monday through Saturday in Abilene, Amarillo, Childress, Big Spring, Borger, El Paso, Lubbock, Odessa and San Angelo. Pecos contact office will be open Monday through Friday.

The VA regional office, located at Lubbock Army Air Field, has been directed to operate on a 40 hours work week and will not be open on Saturday, Hines said.

"Every effort will be made to render efficient and expeditious service to West Texas veterans. Services to victims of war must not slacken," Hines asserted.

Veteran Groups To Erect Community Center In McCamey

McCAMEY—The erection of a two-story building to serve as a community center here is being planned by the McCamey posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The proposed building will be 75 by 70 feet, and will be located on the present Legion property.

Committees from both organizations have been appointed to work on the project. Construction is expected to begin soon.

Butch Schuman is commander of the Legion post and Gaylon Harding is the VFW commander.

Pay Received As Enlisted Man Is Free From Tax

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The pay of enlisted men in the armed services is tax-free. Don't report it. It's tax free dating back to January 1, 1941. It will remain so until the war officially has been declared over.

If you've paid any tax on enlisted pay since 1941, ask the internal revenue collector for a refund. Do so on form 843.

Any enlisted man who received $500 or more civilian income in those years going back to 1941 must file a return on it, just as any civilian would have to do.

There's a difference with commissioned officers:

The first $1,500 of their service pay is tax free dating back to January 1, 1943, and doesn't have to be reported.

With that first $1,500 tax free, they don't have to report any additional service pay unless it's $500 or more.

So commissioned officers don't have to file a return on their service pay unless it was more than $1,999.99. For example:

An officer received $1,900 service pay and $100 civilian income from dividends on stocks.

He forgets the first $1,500 of service pay but must report the next $400 plus the $100 in dividends, since the total income over $1,500 was $500.

Tax-Exempt Pay

Here is tax-exempt government pay—which doesn't have to be reported—to servicemen, veterans and their families:

Federal mustering out pay; state bonuses to veterans; all benefits under the GI Bill of Rights, such as for education and subsistence; terminal pay; government contributions to family allowances and to dependents; disability pay; disability retirement pay for service-connected disability; allowances for uniforms, subsistence, traveling, quarters; pensions to veterans or their families for war services.

Check Further—If you must file a return—on the various items a serviceman can deduct or need not report.

Here's a point for a serviceman's wife to remember:

If her husband, because his service pay is all exempt, is not filing a return but she is, because she has a civilian income of $500 or more, she can claim him as an exemption.

Help To GI Wife

Here's another point:

Suppose you, a parent, support a daughter whose husband is in service and who sends her some of his service pay.

Can you, in making your return, claim her as a dependent? Yes, so long as she did not have $500 or more civilian income of her own.

Here are points for veterans and servicemen who have to file a return:

If you've been regularly stationed in the United States and are here March 15—the date for civilian filing—you must file.

If you've been overseas, or on sea duty, you can file a return 5 1/2 months after the month of your return. But you can get the full payment delayed this way:

By applying in writing to the collector to whom the tax is due. Usually the law permits payment, without interest, in 12 quarterly installments over a three-year period. Application must be made within six months of discharge.

A question like this comes up:

I'm a veteran. I was an enlisted man. I was discharged in June, 1946. Do I have to file a return? You file no return on the service pay for those first six months of 1946—or any government benefits since—but if between June, 1946, and December 31, 1946, you had as much as $500 civilian income, you must file a return.

With that first $1,500 tax free, they don't have to report any additional service pay unless it's $500 or more.

So commissioned officers don't have to file a return on their service pay unless it was more than $1,999.99. For example:

Midland Employment Office Sets Record

The Midland office of the United States Employment Office set a record for placements during the month of February. The local office placed 122 persons in jobs. The previous total had never reached the 100 mark, W. G. Reynolds, manager, said.

During February, 64 new applications for jobs were filed which compares with 104 for January. Of the February applications, nine were from women and 31 from veterans. Eight applications were filed by disabled workers.

Forty-three applicants were interviewed by the Midland office and 138 were referred to employers. Part of the number referred and some of the placements were previous applicants.

Seventy-one placements were in common labor, fourteen in wholesale and retail trades, 11 in governmental agencies, nine in oil businesses (secretaries, etc.), and the remainder in public utilities, finance, manufacturing and other lines of business.

Employs in the Midland office visited 111 employers during the month.

DU QUOIN, ILL.—(AP)—The patient fared well—and so did his doctor, after both suffered identical mishaps.

Again the Morris car "stuck" on ice and this time Dr. Stevens assumed the pushing task. The doctor slipped and had to seek out a fellow physician to tend his head wound.

Sauce Adds Flavor To Croquettes

Haddock croquettes with olive-almond sauce

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

The hint for meatless dishes the entire family will enjoy during Lent leads right up to this recipe: Haddock Croquettes (Serves 6)

One cup rice, 2 pounds fillet of haddock, 1 1/2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, dash of cayenne, 1/2 cup melted fortified margarine, 2 tablespoons grated onion, 1/2 teaspoon celery salt, 1/2 cup milk, 3/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs.

Cook rice in boiling salted water until tender; drain. Simmer fillets in water until tender; drain. Flake fillets and combine with rice, parsley, salt, cayenne, 1/4 cup melted margarine, grated onion, celery salt and milk. Form mixture into 6 or 8 croquettes. Toss bread crumbs with remaining 1/4 cup melted margarine. Roll croquettes in crumb mixture, place on baking sheet and bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.)

15 to 20 minutes or until browned. Serve with sauce. See next recipe. Olive-Almond Sauce (Serves 6)

Two tablespoons fortified margarine, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, 1/4 cup sliced stuffed olives, 1/4 cup toasted almonds, 1/4 cup mayonnaise. Melt margarine in saucepan, add flour and salt. Remove from heat, add milk slowly, stirring constantly and cook until thickened. Cut almonds into strips and add to sauce with olives. Heat thoroughly. Just before serving, add mayonnaise.

Connally Says Coast Shipping To Continue

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Continuation of at least a limited coastwise shipping service between New York and Texas Gulf ports has been predicted by Senator Connally (D-Texas).

Following a conference with Maritime Commission officials, Connally said the commission would probably make an announcement on the matter soon.

Connally said protests, which Texas shipping and labor groups had made against a commission announcement that government coastwise vessel service in Atlantic-Gulf trades would be abandoned, were presented the agency.

The commission had announced abandonment of the service because of low competitive rail freight rates and mounting labor costs. F. J. Lavelle, president of the Houston Dock and Marine Council, had wired Connally that suspension of coastwise shipping would result in unemployment to several thousand dock workers.

Charles A. Stewart, of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, had also wired Connally on the matter. Stewart said that 90 per cent of the Texas wool clip moves through Texas ports "at substantially lower rates than rail" to Boston and other Eastern mill centers.

Consumers Urged To Return Empty Bottles

Drastic curtailment in the supplies of carbonated beverages may result in the near future unless consumers cooperate fully to help relieve the current shortage of bottles, bottlers report.

The present shortage of bottles is due to a number of factors, the most pressing being the shortage of soda ash, one of the principal ingredients used in the manufacture of glass. Shortages of soda ash, which developed suddenly, are due to the unprecedented demands for this material by other industries in addition to glass manufacturers.

This situation, complicated by such developments as shortages of railroad cars and increased demands for glass containers of all types, threatens to become worse if steps are not taken to put every idle bottle into active service, bottlers said.

Householders are urged to make a thorough search of their premises for idle deposit bottles of all kinds. When collected, they should be returned promptly to the dealer from whom purchased.

Bankers Rule On Use Of Lipstick

PHILADELPHIA — (P) — What would you think if you chanced to walk in on a formal banker's meeting and heard a group of dignified financiers discussing the use of lipstick by young girls, the effect of trees on the human soul and the purchase of snuggles, briefs and bobby pins?

Well, don't think it, because it's all strictly business — or almost strictly.

For many years the Provident Trust Company has served as "fosterfather" for Ellis College, a girls' school.

In 1909, Charles E. Ellis, Philadelphia traction magnate, died, leaving the bulk of his $3,000,000 estate to be used for a school and home for fatherless girls. The school was established in 1919 and trusteeship eventually devolved upon the Provident company. Executives began to realize a new influence had entered their financial lives.

A seven-man school committee was formed under the chairmanship of Charles F. Jenkins, former president of the board of managers of Swarthmore College.

Financial matters that arose gave the bankers no trouble. Since 1928 the original $3,000,000 has been doubled. And the school enrollment now is 150, an increase of 90 students in the same period of time.

Other problems kept cropping up, however, and those are the ones that might cause amazement on the part of visitors to the committee's meeting.

Lipstick, it was decided after some lengthy debate, can be worn only for parties and on week ends. Boy friends are allowed to visit the school only on Sundays and in company with the girl's mother.

King Darius of ancient Persia cleared out and used an ancient canal between the Nile and the Red Sea, comparable in utility to the modern Suez Canal.

Retroactive Funerals Might Prove Popular

TULSA — (P) — Still wearing his khaki, a discharged soldier walked into the veterans service center and pointed to a newspaper story.

"It says here this is the last day to apply for retroactive death benefits," he told center manager Mrs. Ida Campbell.

Mrs. Campbell explained: "You have to be dead to get that."

"Well, I didn't know what those big words meant," the veteran declared. "Just wanted to be certain."

Construction Provides Jobs For 1,728,000

WASHINGTON — (P) — Construction provided jobs for 1,728,000 workers in January, 40 per cent more than the year before, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported.

The total represented a seasonal decline of 145,000 since December, the Bureau said, and the pay roll was about 25 per cent below the 1946 peak last August.

Cutlays for construction during January totaled $976,000,000, compared with well over a billion dollars in December. Building of non-farm homes employed 617,000 workers, and cost $357,000,000, compared with 675,000 and $390,000,000 in December.

Washington's Ling Fish Live In Depths Of Ice-Covered Lakes

LAKE PALMER, WASH. — (NEA) — Living in deep seclusion in six different lakes in the state of Washington are a specie of white-meated fish called ling.

In summer, when lakes are open and sportsmen are out in full battle gear for trout and better-known species, ling are seldom chanced upon.

They have a way of keeping to themselves in dark, mysterious levels, much deeper than those used by game fish.

Ling prowls the cavernous bottom recesses of Lakes Cle Elum, Kachess, Keechelus, Chelan, Osoyoos and Palmer.

In wintertime, when ice covers these lava-bound lakes, the ling travel closer to the surface.

The technique of the hunt for ling is simple, but productive.

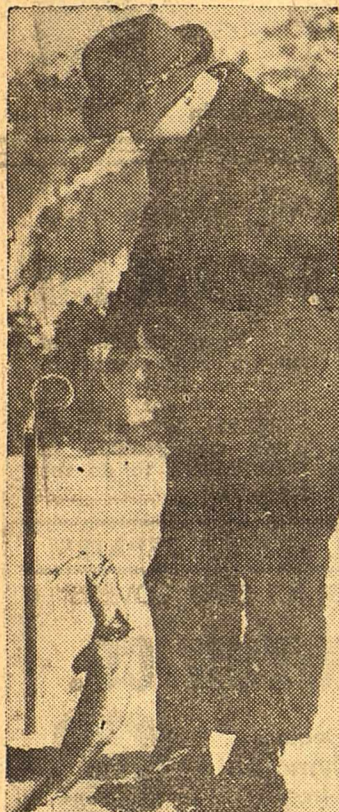

At not too frequent intervals holes are chopped through the ice and marked by slender sticks, anchored at the openings. Each day the set lines are baited with meat or small fish and lowered. Sometimes a thousand feet of line are floated out, sometimes a few hundred. They are baited at intervals. Here at Lake Palmer, where the ling have been taken weighing as much as 30 pounds, short lines seem to do the trick.

Although they are commonly called "ling cod," Washington's ling are not true cod. Their flavor, however, is similar to that of the cod.

Little is known about the ling. They seem to do very little damage to game fish, although they must eat smaller fish, since they are taken by such baits.

There are several theories about their beginning. One of the most likely is they have inhabited these waters since the lakes were a part of running waterways which had access to the sea, such as Lake Chelan. Eventually, volcanic and glacier action closed these waterways and the fish became landlocked.

Lakes in the eastern part of the U. S. have a fish similar to Washington's ling, but this particular fellow is a creature unto himself.

The Ling... Washington's mystery fish.

Using Deductions In Filing Income Taxes May Save Taxpayer Money

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(P)—Watch your deductions in filing your 1946 income tax return. They may save you money.

A deduction is the amount of money for personal or business expenses you can deduct from your total income before it is taxable. You can deduct many expenses.

Some kinds of income, being tax-exempt, don't have to be reported at all. The size of the deductions will decide for many people the kind of tax return they use.

If your income was $5,000 or over, you have no choice about forms. You must file on the 1040 long-form. When you use the long-form: 1. You can take the standard $500 deduction allowed everyone, without itemizing or accounting for any of it. Just take $500, provided your income was $5,000 or over.

2. Or, if your deductions were actually more than $500, you can claim them in full but, in that case, you must itemize every penny. Unemployment compensation; life insurance paid because of the death of the insured; social security benefits, mustering-out pay; monthly allowances to the families of servicemen; sickness and injury benefits received through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation laws; inheritances or bequests of money or property, although the income from them is taxable. (Gifts to relatives or other individuals can't be deducted by the person making the gift.)

Here are deductible expenses: Charitable contributions (the total of them can't exceed 15 per cent of income and can't be made to individuals) to charitable, religious, scientific, fraternal and veterans organizations, and non-profit educational institutions.

Here are other deductible expenses: Interest paid on personal debts, such as bank loans and mortgages; state income and personal property and real estate taxes except those taxes like paving assessments which tend to increase the value of your property.

Unless for business purposes, you can't deduct the following federal taxes: on admissions to theaters and sporting events, club dues, telephone and telegraph services; and transportation, such as railroad and bus fares.

You can deduct for medical, hospital and dental expenses to this extent: up to 5 per cent of your income they're not deductible. After that they are but—

They're limited to $1,250 if you file a return for yourself alone, or $2,500 if you claim more than one exemption. Example: Your income was $6,000. Five per cent of that is $300. But your medical expenses were $500. Subtract the $300 from the $500. That leaves you $200 to deduct from your income as medical expenses.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT SCHEDULED IN AUSTIN —(P)—The 14th annual state Texas women's public links golf tournament will be held here June 1 through June 7.

Take the Laughter

THE STORY: Sherry and Mona try to get together in one of Hollywood's bungalow courts. Mona is sleek and sophisticated. She works in an insurance office and is making a play for her married boss, George Brothers. Sherry keeps house, wants to write, worries about Mona's interest in Brothers. She becomes friendly with the three boys who live at the end of the court. Sandro, who is French, wants to become a producer. Marcia Stone, a businesswoman who lives next door, also becomes a good friend.

VII
The next day was Saturday and Mona stayed downtown in the afternoon with Brothers.

Sherry cleaned the house thoroughly and polished the brass and silver.

In the afternoon the things came from the grocer's. Sherry counted them over carefully and regarded the turkey with admiration. This was going to be a real Christmas! Mona was late getting home. She was flushed and her eyes sparkled and she carried a large expensive-looking box.

She said, "I got my Christmas present from George! Wait a minute!" and she went into the bedroom and shut the door. Sherry listened excitedly to the tissue wrappings being rustled, and after a moment Mona came out again. She was wearing the camel-hair coat with the sable collar.

Sherry's eyes widened. She said, "Oh, it's gorgeous, Mona! Very sincerely. 'But—but should you—?'"

Mona said, "Wait till I tell you about it."
It seemed Brothers had been asking Mona what she wanted for Christmas for a long while. Mona had said, "Oh, just any little thing. After all, it's only the thought, you know." But today she had managed to pass the store where the coat was, and let Brothers catch her look of wistful admiration. He had wanted her to try it on and had become quite insistent before Mona would let herself be persuaded.

Because of the way Mona told the story Sherry had to laugh about it, but after she was in bed, and Mona asleep, she thought about it for a long time.

CHRISTMAS DAY was clear and cold.

Everything that could possibly have been done the day before had been done, and it was still early when Sherry reviewed the icebox with satisfaction. The fruit cocktails were in their glasses and the cranberry sauce sliced. Olives and celery and jellies had only to be served, and the hard sauce was ready for the plum pudding.

At quarter to three Tony and Sandro arrived looking very scrubbed and tidy. Sandro carried a package, but Tony pulled his out of his pocket and said, "Doesn't that turkey smell grand?"

Then they both said, "Merry Christmas," and laughed and seemed a little embarrassed about offering their packages.

Sherry said, "There's something for each of you under the tree," and Tony and Sandro unwrapped the small gifts that Sherry had bought them and were very pleased.

Sherry opened her packages. Sandro's was a bottle of very pink bath salts, and Tony's was a little enameled compact. They all thanked one another a lot and Sherry put the compact in her pocket and went out to the kitchen where Mona was.

Mona said, "Now let me do things from here in, honey; you've done everything."
Sherry showed her the compact and Mona laughed. "Swell," she said. "Fourteen carat tin, isn't it?" Sherry smiled.

"Anyway, I can use it," she heard Marcia's voice, and in a minute Marcia came into the kitchen.

"Season's greetings and so forth," she said. "Here's the champagne."
There were two big bottles and they put them in the icebox. Marcia made herself useful and Mona ribbed her about it. She said Marcia was willing to help because she wanted to eat.

Kris arrived promptly at 3 o'clock. He kissed Sherry's hand and then looked at her steadily for a moment.

"You're beautiful," he said, and handed her a package. Sherry was interested in the feel of it. She opened it quickly. It was a beautifully bound volume of Byron, and Kris had written on the flyleaf "Sherry" and then a word in Danish and then, "from Kris." The Danish word meant "the lovely." She found out, Sherry was touched and a little thrilled.

DINNER was a success. The turkey was golden brown and the champagne cold and sparkling. They all ate a great deal and talked and laughed a lot.

It was dark when they finally finished and Sherry lit the Christmas tree. Mona seemed restless and looked at the clock frequently. After a while Sherry asked her what was the matter.

Mona said, "Why, nothing at all. What do you mean?" But her voice had an edge to it.

Marcia said, "That tone of voice always means a man."

Mona was annoyed. She said, "Aren't you the one, though?"

Marcia laughed good-naturedly, and the telephone rang. Sherry was sitting next to it, but Mona got there first.

She said, "All right, in about ten minutes."
She hung up and turned to Sherry and the others. "You'll all excuse me, won't you?" she said, and put on her new coat and went out.

Sherry stirred up the fire. She suddenly felt cold.

Tony suggested that the rest of them go down to Henri's and the others thought it was a wonderful idea.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

I had an interesting experience a short time ago on the radio program "Quiz of Two Cities." In Chicago we had the newly crowned men's national team-of-four champions, while in New York we had four bridge writers. The Chicago team remained champions, coming out with a perfect score on the quiz.
I had the pleasure of presenting over the radio life membership cards in the American Contract Bridge League to Chicago's seven life masters, who are Walter Jacobs, Arthur Glatt, Albert Weiss, Ralph Kempner, Jules C. Bank, William McGhee and Maynard D. Adams. I also presented Richard L. Frey, a member of the New York quiz team, with his life master-life member card.

When four bridge writers get together, there is bound to be a discussion of a hand. Bud Collyer, the New York quizmaster, was interested in the discussion as to how today's hand should be bid.

Should South open the bidding? When West doubles North's four-spade bid, should South redouble?

We all seemed to agree that South's redouble was not too sound. Strangely enough, however, when this hand was played in a duplicate game, several pairs did get into four spades doubled and made the contract when West refused to go up with his ace on the opening diamond lead. North won the trick with the king, and discarded his losing king of clubs on dummy's king of hearts.

Government Ruins Little Boy's Fun
TULARE, CALIF.—(AP)—When the Lippert Construction Co. started an $80,000 outdoor theater, a 10-year-old neighbor boy began nailing steps to the only tall tree near the walls.

His tree house is nearly finished, but he'll see no free shows. The Civilian Production Administration called the theater non-essential and stopped the construction.

Drunk Mistakes Patrol Car For Taxi Cab

LOUISVILLE, KY.—(AP)—A police cruiser halted at an intersection here to await a signal change.

A man with a glassy look in his eye opened the door of the car and stepped in.

"Fourth and Magnolia," he said, settling down on the seat.

"You mean Sixth and Jefferson (that's the jail)," said Traffic Patrolman Robert Hardin.

In police court, the defendant was placed under peace bond and told to learn the difference between a taxicab and a police car.

Broil Cod For Fine Consistency

A delicate white cake for Mid-Lent.
By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Most good eaters enjoy broiled fish. So broil your quick-frozen fillets for tomorrow's dinner and serve with a butter sauce.

Broiled Quick-Frozen Fish Fillets
Use 1 package quick-frozen fish fillets (frozen or thawed). Separate fillets and spread with slightly softened butter and sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika. Place on well-greased broiler and broil 15 to 25 minutes, turning to brown both sides.

Butter Sauces For Broiled Fish
Tart Lemon Butter: Cream 4 tablespoons (2 ounces) butter, add 2 to 3 tablespoons lemon juice and cream well. Makes enough sauce for 4 to 6 servings of fish.
Lemon Parsley Butter: To Tart

Lemon Butter, add 4 tablespoons minced fresh parsley.
Cod Baked With Tomato Sauce
(Serves 4-6)

Two packages quick-frozen fillet of cod, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 tablespoons shredded green pepper, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 1/2 cups canned tomatoes, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 bay leaf, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley.

Cut fillets (frozen or thawed) into servings and place in buttered shallow baking dish. Saute onion, celery, and green pepper in butter until tender; add flour and mix well. Add remaining ingredients and cook slowly 10 to 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Pour over fish and bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes, or until fish is tender.

Science And Cheap Power To Change Western Wastelands Into Farms

WASHINGTON—(P)—Science and cheap power may turn wastelands of the West into profitable farms, Rep. Murdock (D-Ariz.) said he believes.
The former chairman of the old House Irrigation and Reclamation Committee, thinks the time will come when large areas withdrawn from homestead entry as "unsuitable for agriculture," will have to be reclassified.

Already, scientists are finding ways of transforming what have been regarded as desert weeds into valuable crop plants, he told the House Public Lands Committee.

Among the plants which Murdock asserted stand a good chance of finding new and widespread uses is the yucca—otherwise known as the soapweed or the Spanish bayonet—whose green spikes and white flowers flourish on many a Western plain.

Murdock said he found that the yucca promises to be "as versatile in its many products" as Indian maize or corn.

Many Uses Of Yucca
"There are more varieties of useful things that can be obtained from a yucca plant, I think, than from corn," he said. "The yucca is growing over millions of acres, needing only to be harvested, but I am convinced that it already has been shown that the yucca can be grown under cultivation as a row crop. It has been done."

As for the reclassification of arid and semi-arid lands for homesteading, Murdock said he believes there must be changes in the coming years.

"We are making great progress," he added, "and when we get cheap power over the West, not power to irrigate in the sense that they are irrigating in so many of these projects but on a smaller scale, I am convinced that there are vast areas in the West that should be homesteaded. I think we are going to get a new type of homesteading."

While creation of Taylor Grazing Act districts has done much to stabilize the Western livestock district, Murdock said, they have mitigated against small ownership of lands.

"We have got to see that many settlers can go out upon the land that was formerly regarded as fit only for grazing and be able to make a living of it," he said.

"The burden of proof, of course, is going to rest upon somebody to show that the vast areas which were unfit for irrigation, and regarded as being fit only for grazing, shall be changed by some newer process of lifting a living from the soil."

House Bill May Bar Columnists And Radio Newscasters To Labor Unions

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON—(P)—Chairman Hartley (R-NJ.) Tuesday ticked off ten points the House Labor Committee may put into a new labor bill, including bans on the closed shop and on union membership for foremen and some columnists and radio commentators.

They are intended to reduce or eliminate such things as jurisdictional strikes, secondary boycotts, and strikes ordered by only a small percentage of a union's membership.

Hartley told a reporter he thinks there is "a good chance" the committee will agree that radio and news reporters who "mold public opinion" should be forbidden to join unions. He said reporters who do "straight away" news writing should be exempt from the ban.

It would be in line with a suggestion by former Publisher J. David Stern, who earlier this year suspended and sold his Philadelphia Record and Camden, N. J., Courier and Post. Stern told the committee a CIO American Newspaper Guild strike destroyed the papers.

None of Hartley's ten points deals directly with the issue before the committee at the moment—charges of Communism in the labor movement.

Hartley's List

The House chairman's list of things likely to go into his committee's bill is based on suggestions the group has received in weeks of hearings and on reactions of committee members to them.

Hartley counted off these:

1. Make a strike illegal unless a majority of all the members of a union vote for it by secret ballot.
2. Outlaw the closed shop, under which management can hire only union help.
3. Bar secondary boycotts. A union in an argument with a company sometimes applies pressure by boycotting shipments to customers. At times a union not involved in the dispute applies the boycott.
4. Outlaw mass picketing and violence on picket lines.
5. Ban jurisdictional strikes. These are caused by disputes between unions, not with an employer, over the work they do or over recruiting members.
6. Make unions equally responsible with management for living up to contracts.
7. Penalize workers who go out on "wildcat strikes"—those not authorized by their unions.
8. Allow employers "freedom of speech" in advising their help on labor-management problems.
9. Forbid foremen, as well as opinion-molding reporters, to join unions.
10. Require unions to file, at least with their own members, regular statements on income and expenditures.

San Diego Marriages Back To Normalcy

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—(AP)—Evidence that things are about back to normal in this war-boomed city was given as 1947 started with only 383 marriage licenses issued in January. This was but one more than in January, 1942. Figures for the month for the years in between: 1943, 505; 1944, 641; 1945, 719; 1946, 619.

Danes, Swiss Make Barter Agreement

BERN, SWITZERLAND.—(AP)—Under a new exchange agreement between Switzerland and Denmark, Switzerland is to deliver textiles, machines, iron and metal products, watches and chemicals. Switzerland will take slaughter cattle, butter, eggs, seed potatoes, fish, hides, skins, hay and straw. Total values were estimated at approximately $35,294,000.

You Can't Use Pull With Boy Scouts

SALEM, ILL.—(AP)—A Boy Scout mayor-for-a-day, Bob Gofstetter, collected $50 in fines from traffic offenders—including $1 from the actual mayor, C. A. McGraw, for illegal parking. McGraw's remonstrance to Alfred Myers, Scout stand-in city attorney, was futile.

Obliging—Two Ways

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Superior Judge Paul Valle granted an uncontested divorce decree to Mrs. Shirley Reunker after Attorney Barry M. Woodman prevailed upon the court to move the hearing from the regular chambers on the 19th floor to the ground floor probate courtroom.
Woodman explained his client suffers from claustrophobia and was unable to bring herself to enter an elevator to reach the 19th floor room where Judge Valle presides.
