New Fire Flares In Texas City

FRANKELS TO DRILL DEEP TEST IN N-W ANDREWS

Frank and George Frankel of Houston are reported to have staked location for an Ellenburger wildcat on the extreme south side of the Fullerton area in Northwest Andrews County.

It is located at center of northeast quarter of northeast quarter of section 43, block 13, University survey, and on land owned by the University of Texas. Drilling is due to start in the near future.

AMERADA'S DISCOVERY IN TERRY SHOWS MORE OIL

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Adair, wildcat 15 miles south of Brownfield in South Terry County, and in southwest corner of section 4, block C-37, ps1 survey, which has indicated discovery of a new producing area from the San Andres-Permian, eight miles northwest of the Cedar Lake field, the nearest oil pool—was drilling ahead from 4,930 feet, and will go to about 4,950 feet and take a drillstem test.

In a four-hour drillstem test at 4,908-30 feet, recovery was 125 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, 1,586 feet of clean oil, of 31.4 gravity, corrected, and 140 feet of drilling water.

Informed sources report that no indication for formation water has been encountered. Operator expects the San Andres water table at around 4,975 feet. This prospect showed first signs of possible production in the zone below 4,814 feet.

ANDERSONS' WILDCAT IN GARZA HIGH ON YATES

Anderson Bros. of Midland, and others, No. 1 Henderson, South-Central Garza County wildcat to around 2,800 feet, to explore the San Andres, and located 330 feet from north and west lines of section 47, block 6, H&G survey, four miles west of Justiceburg, had progressed below 1,349 feet, in red beds, and was continuing.

Top of the Yates was at 964 feet. Elevation is 2,298 feet. That gives the wildcat a correlation of 31 feet high to the old Post City Development Company No. 1 Payne and 29 feet high to Northern Ordinance, No. 1 Walker, dry holes in the adjacent regions, in which interesting shows of petroleum were logged.

This exploration had a blow of air at 577 feet, which cleaned the hole, another blow at 890 feet which kicked the tools up the hole, and an increase in air in the top of the Yates.

PLYMOUTH STAKES ANOTHER DEEP TEST IN ANDECTOR

The Plymouth Oil Company has filed application with the Railroad Commission to start drilling immediately on its No. 4-12 R. B. Cowden, on the southeast side of the Andector-Ellenburger field in Northwest Andrews County.

It will be 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 12, block 45, TP survey, T-2-N. It will dig to around 9,000 feet to test the Ellenburger.

Plymouth No. 2-12 Cowden, 660 feet from south and west lines of the same quarter section, was drilling out plug on 5 1/2-inch casing which had been set on bottom at 8,505 feet, about 50 feet in the Ellenburger. Operator will drill more of the pay before making production tests.

Plymouth No. 3-12 Cowden, 660 feet from north and east lines of the same quarter section, had penetrated below 8,200 feet in Simpson line and shale, and was drilling ahead. It is to go to the Ellenburger.

Snyder Urges Senate Not To Reduce Taxes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder urged the Senate Tuesday to kill the bill—passed overwhelmingly by the House—to cut income taxes from 30 per cent at the bottom to 10.5 per cent at the top.

Snyder renewed the Truman administration's opposition to any tax cut for at least another 14 months, but suggested that Congress, with help from the treasury, "review the whole tax system in anticipation of later tax reductions."

Declaring that a general cut now is "neither necessary nor appropriate," he was first witness before the Senate Finance Committee hearing on the House-passed bill.

As an example of his contention that the measure is inequitable, Snyder said it would eliminate 22 per cent of the difference between present taxes and 1939 taxes for a married person with no dependent and a $5,000 net income, but would wipe out 69 per cent of the tax increase since 1939 for a man with a $1,000,000 income.

Aggies Of Midland Area Hold Muster In Big Spring

Approximately 60 former Texas A&M students from Midland, Monahan, Odessa, Rankin, Stanton, Colorado City, Garden City and Lamesa gathered in Big Spring Monday night for an Aggie muster. The Big Spring A&M Club was host for the group. Fifteen Midland Aggies attended the meeting.

The delegation met at the Crawford Hotel in Big Spring for a business meeting, which was followed by a buffet supper. At the business meeting the customary Aggies muster ceremony was observed and a message from a student at the school was read. The group voted to send a letter to the Senate Investigating Committee pledging support and confidence in their findings in the trouble which has arisen between the students and officials. Former students from classes between 1911 and 1945 answered the roll call.

Attending the meeting from Midland were Pat Stanford, Cecil Hodges, James Mims, Jim Clary, J. R. Cuffman, Buck Green, Bob Simpson, Hank Avery, Bob Gray, Rawleigh Elliott, Jack Doran, Guy Crawford and Ed Monteith.

Elliott and Mims are president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Midland A&M Club.

Youth Letter Plan Links US, Germany

BERLIN—(AP)—German and American youth now are authorized to exchange letters, a practice which boomed before the war.

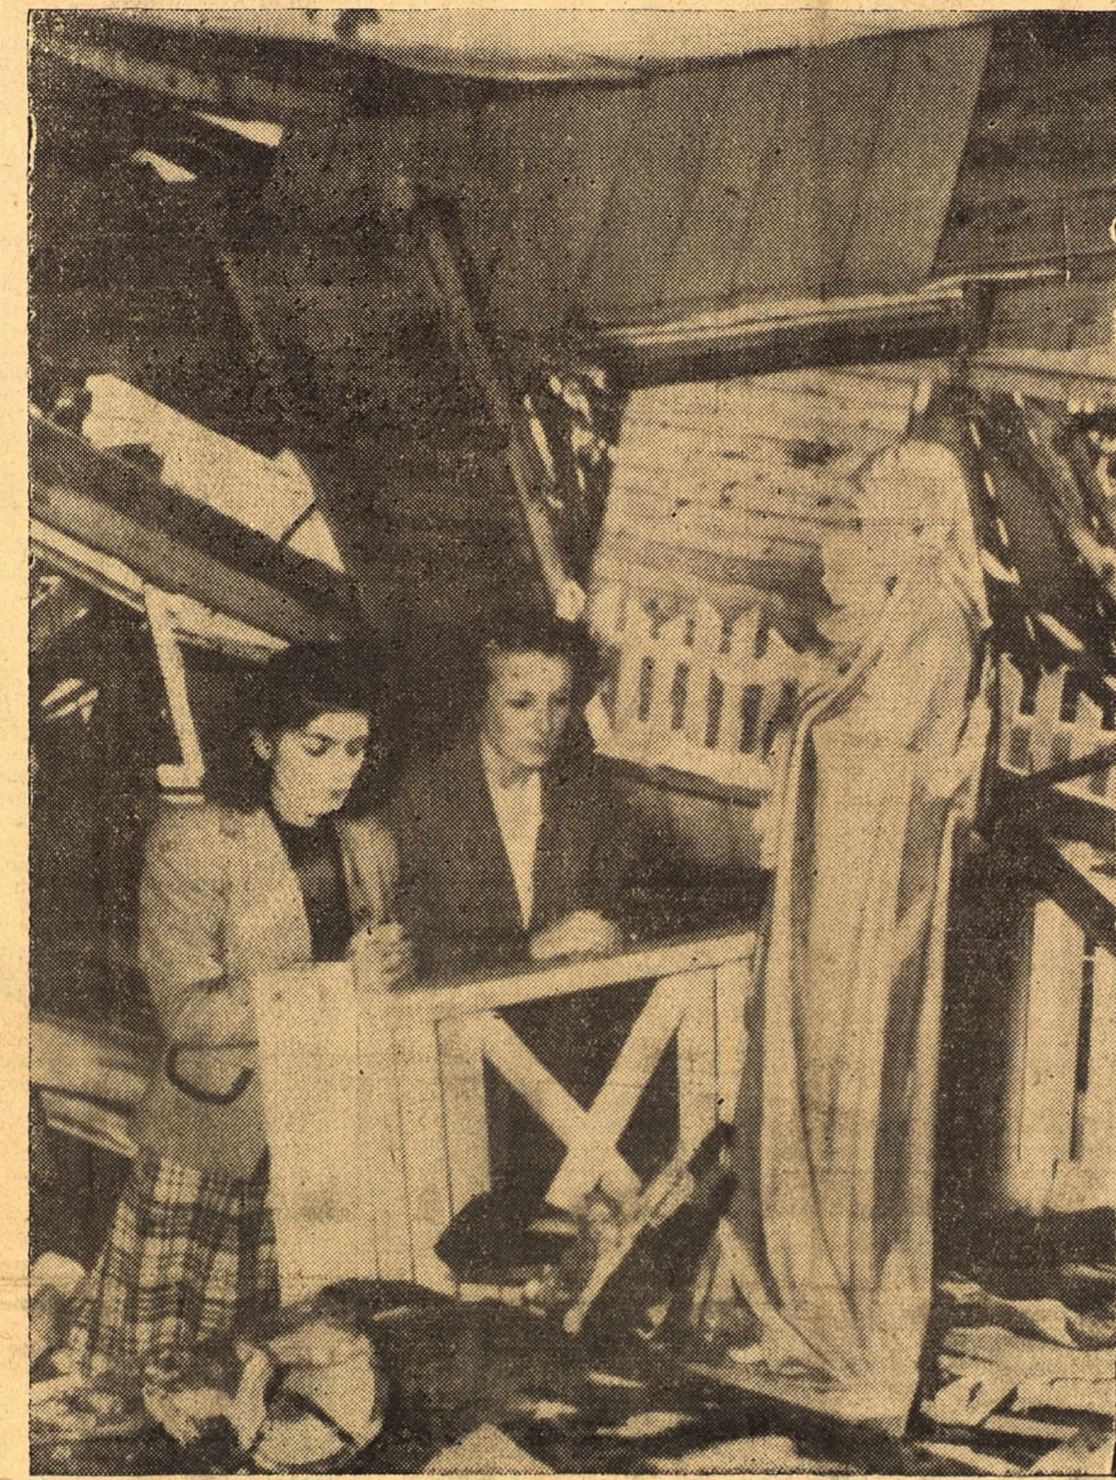

Group letters from school classes as well as from individuals may be exchanged through the Division of International Education Relations of the American Office of Education in Washington, D. C.

Un-American Activities Committee Asks House To Cite Communists

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The committee on Un-American Activities called upon the House Tuesday to vote contempt charges against two alleged Communist "conspirators" and upon the attorney general to prosecute Communists who scoff at American laws.

Committee Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) asked for the contempt action against Eugene Dennis, Communist Party secretary, and Leon Josephson of New York. He described Josephson as the "official procurer" of false American passports for Communist "functionaries."

Dennis and Josephson both refused to testify to the committee and were held in contempt. Should the House back the committee, a contempt case can be laid before a grand jury. Conviction carries a maximum punishment of a year in jail plus a $1,000 fine. Thomas wants to increase the penalties.

The chairman told the House that witnesses have described Josephson as "more important in the international setup of Communism" than Gerhart Eisler, the "commissioner of Communism in the United States." Eisler already is under indictment for contempt of the committee.

He said all three of the men he named have been "diplomatically served" as agents of a foreign government and are leaders of a "conspiratorial organization which is bent upon destroying" the United States government.

South Plains Bankers Hold Big Spring Meet

BIG SPRING—William R. Sewell of Slaton was elected president of the South Plains Bankers Association at its annual meeting here Monday. Herman Dobbs of Odessa was named vice-president, and Bruce Zorns, Brownfield, secretary.

El Paso was selected as the 1948 convention city.

Speakers included R. L. Thornton, chairman of the board of the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas; T. C. Root, dean of the business administration department at Texas Tech; and Joe Clark of the First National Bank of Fort Worth.

Attending the meeting from Midland were M. C. Ulmer, John P. Butler and E. D. Richardson of the First National Bank, and R. M. Barron, J. R. Martin, Mrs. Bertie Boone, Mrs. Loene Miller and Mrs. Jean Blake of the Midland National Bank.

New Venture In Foreign Policy Gets Final Test

WASHINGTON—(AP)—With a rare certainty of approval, the Senate was scheduled to vote Tuesday afternoon on President Truman's plan to give Greece and Turkey $400,000,000 in financial and military aid to keep them from collapsing into the arms of Communism.

The new venture in foreign policy approached its first congressional showdown amid indications that it would receive far less emphatic backing than the last major decision in that field—the Senate's 89 to 2 ratification of the United Nations charter on July 28, 1945.

A score, more or less, of dissenters' votes stood ready to cast their opposition against the first segment of the developing program of aiding "free peoples." They have predicted variously that it will bring eventual war with Russia, bankrupt the American economy, and destroy the United Nations.

Nearly three times that number of senators have lined up to pass the bill and send it to the House. Favorable action there also seems assured later. Many agreed it may be necessary for Uncle Sam to plant his foot firmly in Europe's strategic back door, lest it be slammed shut by the Communists.

Grandma Keeps Young Climbing Mountains

ROANOK, Va.—(AP)—For 26 years "Grandma Cora" Clemmer, now 76, has scaled Tinker mountain on Easter Monday, and she expects to make a lot more trips.

Young people of her church who now accompany her are children of those with whom she started the traditional hike.

To the question, "How do you keep so young?" Mrs. Clemmer's answer is: "I don't. It is the young people I associate with who keep me young."

Top Officials Sign Steel-Union Pact

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Top officials of the CIO-United Steelworkers and the U. S. Steel Corp. Tuesday put their signatures to a new pact which union President Philip Murray declared "assures peace in the industry for two years."

The signing will climax more than three months of negotiations and will make official the agreement providing a $1-per-day increase for 140,000 employees of five U. S. steel subsidiaries.

The steelworkers' executive board approved the agreement Sunday and the union's 175-man wage policy committee added its unanimous endorsement Monday.

Murray termed the wage pact "an answer to all congressional labor baiters hell-bent on destruction of labor unions in America."

Weather

Partly cloudy to cloudy with widely scattered showers in the Panhandle, South Plains and east of the Pecos River Tuesday night-Cooler Wednesday. Maximum temperature Monday was 91 degrees, low 63 degrees. Minimum temperature Tuesday morning was 68 degrees.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

HOUSTON—(AP)—The Houston Chronicle said Tuesday that it had received a report from its staff member at Texas City that the warehouse fire there had been extinguished.

COLUMBUS, GA.—(AP)—Nine persons were killed Tuesday when a special Delta Airlines plane carrying eight employees of the company, including one top official, collided with a civilian plane and both crashed onto the airport here where they were enveloped in flames.

GALVESTON—(AP)—William T. Butler of Washington, civilian advisor to the Coast Guard on explosives, said here Tuesday as hearings resumed in the Coast Guard's inquiry into the Texas disaster, that he believed that a cigarette probably was to blame for the whole catastrophe.

HOUSTON—(AP)—A lone bandit made an unsuccessful attempt to hold up the National Bank of Commerce here shortly after 11:30 a. m. Tuesday.

Terminal Warehouse Afire From Nitrate

TEXAS CITY—(AP)—The warehouse of the Texas City Terminal Railway Company, stored with ammonium nitrate, burst into flames here Tuesday—just seven days after the disastrous explosions, caused by the same chemical, killed an estimated 575.

Deputy Mayor John Hill said he could not say definitely what would happen, but that "an explosion could occur at any time."

The cause of the fire was not determined, but a Houston Chronicle staffer at the scene said it broke out shortly after 9:10 a. m., almost the same minute the Wednesday first blast occurred aboard the French ship Grandcamp.

Huge clouds of smoke again obscured tragedy-torn Texas City.

The Galveston Tribune said radio men had been called to Texas City suddenly, but knew no details of the new fire except that it had broken out.

Recovery of five more bodies from the rubble of the explosion-torn industrial area here brought the toll of known dead to 428 and Roy Wade, Department of Public Safety official, said the final figure could not be less than 575.

There was a new atmosphere of cooperation at the city hall as Mayor J. C. Trahan and American Red Cross officials resolved their difficulties.

A total of 295 persons are missing and 132 victims still remain unidentified. Wade's figures showed, but the city threw its whole heart into a program of rehabilitation.

The homeless of Texas City still thronged outlying communities. There were 1,000 at nearby Camp Wallace, fed by the Red Cross. Throughout this stricken area, the Salvation Army maintained feeding stations. In the domestic science building of the high school, Salvation Army workers fed 2,000 persons a day and have taken over the high school building and filled a dozen rooms and hallways with clothing and shoes.

AFL-CIO Merger Would Mean Huge Political Front

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The AFL has asked the CIO to talk about merging the two huge labor organizations.

This won't happen overnight, if it happens. Many problems need settling.

The AFL—American Federation of Labor—and the CIO—Congress of Industrial Organizations—are not unions in themselves. They are organizations of unions. The AFL has 104 unions, claiming 7,650,000 members. The CIO has 40 unions with 6,000,000 members.

This latest suggestion of a merger comes when Congress is about to pass the toughest labor laws in history.

A merger would mean a solid labor front of 13,650,000 union workers, all in one organization.

Unlike the AFL, the CIO has taken a strong part in politics. As an organization, it backed candidates it considered friends.

If the two groups merge and adopt a strong political policy, it will be a giant force in national affairs because:

All politicians, including congressmen, will have to keep in mind the votes of the 13,650,000 union members and their families.

JayCee Collections For Texas City Relief Pass $2,600 Mark

Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce collections for Texas City relief and rehabilitation total $2,604, it was announced Tuesday morning. Money continues to come in from individuals and groups in Midland as the campaign enters its fifth day.

Midland JayCees launched a state-wide drive for raising relief funds last Thursday. Mayor Russell H. ("Rusty") Gifford wired Austin that the JayCees here were conducting the campaign, and Midland was designated as headquarters for state donations.

A plane load of foodstuffs was sent from Midland to Texas City Friday morning. Several thousand pounds remain to be sent to the stricken area, and is being held here until a request is received.

Dallas Boosters Here Tuesday Afternoon

With members of the Midland Wranglers' Club on hand to extend greetings, Dallas goodwill trippers, 100 strong, were scheduled to arrive here by special train Tuesday afternoon for an hour and 15-minute visit.

The Dallas Boosters were to parade to the Midland Courthouse where a variety program was to be presented.

Mayor R. H. ("Rusty") Gifford was scheduled to deliver the address of welcome.

The Midland Chamber of Commerce was in charge of arrangements.

Scouts Will Hold Annual Round-Up In Big Spring

The annual Round-Up of the Buffalo Trail Council of Scouts will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Big Spring, it was announced Tuesday. Several hundred Scouts from 15 West Texas counties will be represented at the meet. The four troops of Midland will send representatives.

Midland Scouts will leave from the courthouse at 4 p. m. Thursday. Transportation will be furnished, but those making the trip will be responsible for their own food and bedding. Each troop will carry tents. Big Spring will give a barbecue Saturday when the Round-Up breaks up.

Scouts will be graded at the Round-Up on selection of camp site, cooking, trail blazing, neatness and other things which tend to make the Scout a better citizen.

The Round-Up camp will be held at the Big Spring State Park.

Terrorists Blow Up British Train Near Tel Aviv, Palestine

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Terrorists blew up a British troop train southeast of Tel Aviv Tuesday, killing at least eight persons, and then machine-gunned the wreckage. The attack was made two hours after two condemned Jews committed suicide with explosives just before they were to be committed to the gallows.

Army sources said they believed the "Egypt Express," bringing soldiers from that country, had been attacked by members of the Jewish underground group, Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Troops and guards were reported to have exchanged fire with the attackers, but no one was captured. News of the wrecking of the train quickly spread through the Holy Land, adding to the nervous tension created a short time earlier by the disclosure of the suicides.

Cats Defeat Dallas To Climb To Second

By The Associated Press
A tight, three-hit pitching performance by Selmer Swain Sloan gave the Fort Worth Cats a 3-2 victory over Dallas Monday night and kicked them into second place in the Texas League Standings.

While Sloan was adding to his mound record, San Antonio dropped a 14-8 decision to Shreveport, sliding into third place as a result.

In other games, Tulsa defeated the league-leading Oklahoma City Indians, 6-4, and Beaumont downed Houston, 6-3.

Sloan had a no-hit game going into the seventh inning against Dallas, only four men having reached first base.

The licking by Shreveport wasn't quite as humiliating to San Antonio as it could have been. Only 54 paying guests were in the stands to see it drop its second game of the series.

Chandler Refuses Plea To Re-Consider Lippy

CINCINNATI—(AP)—Four one-syllable words, "The case is closed," snuffed out hopes of the Brooklyn Dodgers that Leo DuRoche might manage the team at least part of this season.

They came from Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler Monday as he rejected a request by Branch Rickey, president of the Dodgers, and Ford Frick, National League president, that he reconsider the one-year suspension he imposed on the Brooklyn manager April 9.

White Sox And Cubs Win In Major Loops

By The Associated Press
Only two of the five scheduled major league baseball games were played Monday.

The limited action produced one big upset as the surprising Chicago White Sox, taking liberties with the lefthanded shoots of Hurricane Hal Newhouser, the Detroit Ace, slapped down the Tigers 6-4 to remain unbeaten atop the American League standings.

In the National League's only contest, the Chicago Cubs, behind Hank Wyse's three hit pitching, won their third straight by blanking the Cincinnati Reds 3-0 at Wrigley Field.

Rain washed out the scheduled games between Boston and Washington in the American League and Brooklyn-Boston and New York-Philadelphia in the National.

Helen M. Hosp Speaks At AAUW Tea To Honor High School Senior Girls

"Women's clubs and organizations have made invaluable contributions to American life and culture," Helen M. Hosp said Monday afternoon when she spoke at a tea given by the American Association of University Women to honor Midland High School senior girls and their mothers.

The seated tea was in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel. Miss Hosp, who is an associate in higher education on the national staff of the AAUW in Washington, D. C., emphasized careers for girls, pointing out the effect on the country of the present teacher shortage and the prospect for the improvement of the status of teachers in the future. She urged all girls to be alive to what is going on in the world today by taking advantage of their opportunities and by getting a broad education.

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unattractive weight and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Just get from your drugist, four ounces of liquid Baracetone (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without bank breaking exercise or starvation diet. It's easy to make and easy to take. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky weight and help regain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend massaging preparation helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any drugist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.

Your Electric Refrigerator is a Priceless Possession ... Give It Good Care

Your electric refrigerator is built to give long service. Like all equipment, it serves you best if you give it proper care. To help your refrigerator operate better and last longer, here are some timely suggestions:

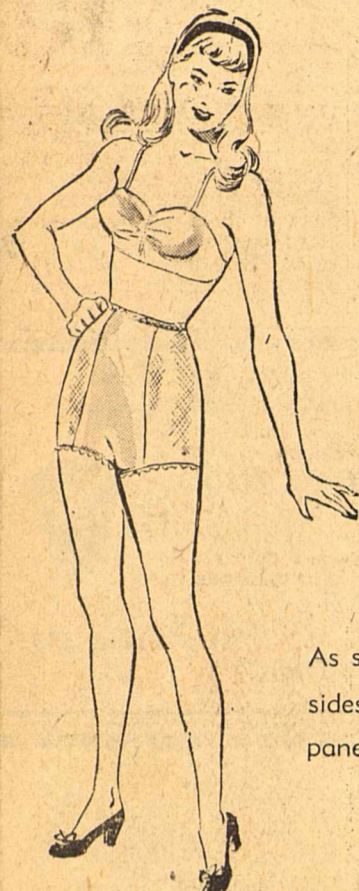

- Defrost your electric refrigerator regularly—at least once a week in the summer, or when the layer of frost becomes about as thick as a lead pencil.
- Your refrigerator needs breathing space. Be sure there is air space in back of the refrigerator, and over the top.
- Avoid using a knife, ice pick or other sharp instrument to loosen ice trays. You might puncture the freezing coil.
- If your refrigerator has an open type mechanism, it should be oiled according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Should your refrigerator need adjustment or repair, call the dealer from whom it was purchased, or some other reliable service man who is experienced with your make of refrigerator.

Oil & Gas Log-

SPOC 12-A WALTON DUE TO PRODUCE FROM "BURGER"
Sinclair Prairie Oil Company No. 12-A Walton, 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east line of section 20, block 77, psi survey, and on the northwest side of the Keystone-Ellenburger field, in North Winkler County, was bottomed at 10,060 feet—about 200 feet in Ellenburger, and has indicated it will be completed as a producer.

A string of 5 1/2-inch casing had been cemented near bottom. Operator will drill out, test and complete through perforations. This explanation had shown for commercial production from both the Devonian and the Silurian, before drilling into the Ellenburger.

MID-CO PLUGS 1-N TXL IN N-E WINKLER AREA
Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 1-N TXL, Northeast Winkler County wildcat, 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east line of section 21, block 46, TP survey, T-1-N, and four miles northwest of the TXL field in West Ector County, has been plugged and abandoned, as a dry hole on a total depth of 8,605 feet, in shale, likely Silurian.

Operator reported that the zone at 8,065-8,145 feet had a slight show of oil. Tests in that zone failed to develop production.

Texas Sidelights

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

Number one among the pests you'd like to see sprayed with DDT are those who think they know more about business than you do, and continually try to tell you how to run it.

But down in the lower Rio Grande Valley two men who spent a lot of time telling each other how to do it-better solved the whole thing by simply swapping jobs. And it's working out well.

Dick Peters of Rio Hondo owns a drug store. S. W. Patrick of Brownsville owns Delta Laboratories. Patrick would call on Peters to sell him cosmetics. He'd tell Peters how he could improve his drug store. And Peters would tell Patrick how he could sell more cosmetics.

One day the argument waxed warm, and as a climax the two agreed to swap jobs for 30 days.

Now Patrick loads up daily at his Brownsville establishment with hair oil, lipstick and other items and drives to Rio Hondo, where Peters gets behind the wheel and takes off, leaving his store to Patrick.

"We both seem to have gotten along better," Peters said. They may extend the deal.

Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas shifted jobs, too, for an unusual few minutes.

She was supposed to greet incoming delegates to a convention but awoke later than she had planned. She hastily dressed in an informal outfit, and without makeup, rushed to the depot.

On her way down the depot stairs to the train she noticed an elderly woman struggling with three suitcases.

Judge Hughes offered to assist, and the woman thanked her and handed her two of the largest and heaviest bags. At the top of the stairs, the woman thanked her and smilingly handed her a dime. Judge Hughes kept it.

And in Hillsboro R. W. Calvert, state Democratic Executive Committee chairman, spent an afternoon selling candy, poppicles, sandwiches, ice cream and cold drinks at a state basketball tournament. He said later he had a lot to learn about the racket.

Odessa Store Robbed Of Almost $8,000

ODESSA—Three thousand dollars in cash and $4,861 in checks was carried from Furr's Food Store here, in a 350-pound safe sometime between the closing of the store Saturday night and Monday morning. Thieves gained entrance by breaking a rear window.

The safe was removed through the rear door.

This is the second burglary reported here in five days. The warehouse of the Badger Lumber and Drug Co. was entered last Thursday midnight by burglars who knocked the combination from the safe and secured about $2,000 in cash.

Firm Sees Puerto Rica Raw Sugar Output Rise
By the Associated Press
Central Aguirre Associates estimated that Puerto Rican raw sugar output this year would approximate 104,000 tons, an increase of about 20,000 tons over 1946.

The company said gross earnings from a crop of this size, on the basis of a 5.75 1/2 cents a pounds price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corp. for the current crop, would be nearly $12,000,000 compared with earnings of $6,506,560 derived from sugar sales in the fiscal year ended July 31, 1946.

It estimated revenue this year from molasses—now bringing around 30 cents a gallon compared with four or five cents previous—at approximately $1,000,000 compared with sales last year of $533,047. New England Alcohol Company, which is 55 per cent owned by Monsanto Chemical Company and 45 per cent by Central Aguirre, purchases all the molasses.

Through a series of circumstances, Mrs. McEvinney said, her husband had been unable to send for his family until now, but every week had dispatched her $12 and "a long letter telling how he missed me and the children." She told reporters her husband had been a caretaker in the Empire State Building since 1932, and had an apartment for them at 827 Quincy Street, Brooklyn.

New Tax Plan Eyed For Up And Down Incomes By Lawmakers

Nation's Taxmakers Mull Over A Plan

... For Taxpayers With Fluctuating Income

In a huddle over old tax problems is a veteran who still wears the shirt that went with his Army days of no taxable income. Plan now being studied would allow him, and others whose income varies, to balance lean years with the good.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Many Congressmen are enthusiastic about a new method of computing income taxes which is designed for the benefit of veterans, small businesses, and others whose incomes vary greatly from year to year.

The plan has been offered by the national legislative committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which presented it to the Ways and Means Committee. Legislators who have studied it say that it might become the GOP's No. 1 tax program.

For want of a better name it is referred to as an "averaging plan." It would permit any taxpayer, if he chose, to base his tax payment on his average income over a five-year period, instead of forcing him to pay each year on what he earned that year.

The proposal can be illustrated like this.

Jones served a year in the Army, and had no taxable income to report. His first year in civvies he started a little business; his net income was $2,500 and his income tax $510. The next year business improved; he took out $5,000 net, and his tax is $1,100. The third year as a civilian brought him $7,500 net, on which he must pay $1,810. And on the fourth year's $10,000—the business now being established and prospering—he must shell out $2,640.

During these five years he has earned a total of $25,000 net, and has paid a total of $6,060 in income tax.

Under the VFW's "averaging plan," he would average the five years' net income at $5,000 a year, on which the tax would be $1,100 a year. This would total $5,500, and save him $560 over the period.

Another example would be an author, who spent two years in service and then two years writing a book. During these four years he has no taxable income and pays no tax. During the fifth year he completes and sells the book, it is published and makes a hit, and he takes in $25,000 net.

The present law permits him to consider the two years of writing, and distribute his income over that period. But the proposed law would take account also of the two years in the Army, and let him split his $25,000 five ways, paying $5,500 in all.

The privilege of spreading income like this is restricted now to a few cases, such as authors, artists, inventors, who work for some time and then reap their reward all at once.

It does not apply, as the proposed law would, to baseball players, movie and stage actors and others who work every year, are paid at once, but have great variations in income from year to year.

As suggested, the plan would provide a "moving average." That is, the taxpayer each year could average in the past four years if that would reduce his tax, however he may have filed the previous year. Or, if he chose, he could ignore the average and consider only his current income.

If the taxpayer's income should drop materially, by averaging in the past four years he could get a refund.

John C. Williamson, a VFW spokesman who presented the plan to the Ways and Means Committee, explained its purpose like this:

"Veterans as a group will experience wide fluctuations in their incomes for the next few years of readjustment. The present income tax system is designed for persons whose income is fairly steady from year to year. This averaging plan will make it possible for persons to balance lean years with good years."

"Under the present system a person whose net income alternates between nothing and $10,000 will pay about 50 per cent more taxes, in the long run, than a person whose net income remains constant at $5,000, even though they both end up earning the same amount of money."

A recent poll of leading tax experts revealed that 86 per cent favor some system of averaging yearly earnings. But previously suggested plans have been rejected for one reason or other.

Some experts believe that the VFW plan is more workable because of its optional nature, because it provides "a moving average," includes refund, and permits use of a simple short form return. They say that the present pay-as-you-go (Ruml) plan, with refunds, would care for most of the administrative troubles that previously have been stumbling blocks to an averaging plan.

J. C. Dockery of the Department of Commerce's Office of Small Business, in an article on "The Finance and Tax Program for Small Business," has urged the desirability of an averaging plan for businesses whose incomes fluctuate greatly from time to time.

Author of the VFW's plan is Richard A. Mullens, tax attorney and former Army captain who served in the Pacific in World War II. He is special tax consultant to the VFW's National Legislative Committee.

Truman Wants Nation To Be Able To Decide Who Can Purchase Arms

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman wants this government to be able to decide what nation can or can't buy arms here.

Which means: We can help arm a nation we consider a friend and keep our arms away from one we consider an enemy.

Truman has asked Congress to give the government that power by law. This request has quite a history behind it and probably a big future.

It is another example of how deeply into world affairs and how far we have moved from our pre-war isolation.

President Roosevelt in 1937 asked Congress to fix the Neutrality Act so it would cover civil wars, too. Congress did.

So Roosevelt banned arms shipments to either side in the Spanish civil war, even though we recognized the Loyalist government as legitimate.

But Russia, Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy sent men and supplies into Spain; Russia to the Loyalists, the other two to Franco.

So Spain and Ethiopia were a testing ground for World War II. It showed how slow the democracies would be in stopping aggression.

Aided Fascists

Meanwhile, Hitler was dragging Europe closer to general war. Nazi Germany had been arming furiously.

It was far better armed than Britain or France when World War II broke out Sept. 1, 1939.

It was now plain that the Fascists were out for blood. This also was plain:

Our neutrality act so far had made Fascists' victims easier victims.

Although it had deprived them

Henrietta Doesn't Like Sooner's Law

HENRIETTA—(P)—Down in Clay County they're about to declare war. Civil war, that is. A war between the States.

The Clay County leader of Henrietta, in a column written by Jerry W. Sitton, says: "We got worked up and almost declare civil war every time somebody reminds us that Texans must have an Oklahoma fishing license to stand in Texas and catch fish in the Red River, which separates Clay County from Oklahoma. There's absolutely no justice to it."

"Doesn't it sound unreasonable for a man who owns land in Texas, with the Red River as his boundary, not to be able to stand on the ground he owns and cast his rod and reel into the Red River without paying Oklahoma for the privilege?"

Sitton is so confused about the inconsistency of the law that he's even worried about a friend's cow that killed a duck that flew in for a bath in the stock tank at his ranch. He's wondering if the owner has to have a duck stamp for his cow to make the thing legal.

Hock-day or Hock Tuesday—the second Tuesday after Easter—is a traditional English festival day commemorating the date on which the English many centuries ago arose against Danish invaders.

WHAT'S THE WORRY?

Worry undermines the health and hastens the time when you shall go somewhere else or shall have no place else to go.

On the road you travel, health is your greatest asset because it enables you to put more into the day and, therefore, to get more out of life.

Chiropractic is a boon to those who are ill. It is a medium by which the life forces within the body are released through the nervous system so the glands and organs can function more freely and completely.

When you have health, you have a fuller life and when your life is used for greater good, you have nothing to worry about.

V. L. CASE NO. 10,693—Woman, age 46, had headaches, was quite nervous; her ear hurt and her eyes were red and inflamed. Besides this she had indigestion and faulty elimination. Nothing she had done seemed to do one bit of good until she tried Chiropractic. Now the woman says she feels like a different person and is working regularly.

Slight Setback For Mr. Lewis

The country saw a strange sight recently. John L. Lewis backed away from an established position of his own accord, without court order, threat of government action, or any other dramatic outside pressure. And strangest of all was the slightly balky behavior of his United Mine Workers.

Usually Lewis' slightest request gets unquestioning obedience from the miners. But thousands of them ignored his order to stay out of all but two of the country's soft coal mines, allegedly for reasons of safety.

This was one apparent reason for Lewis' withdrawal of the order. The other was Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough's refusal to refund $2,800,000 of the $3,500,000 fine which he imposed on the UMW for contempt. The judge questioned the mine union president's good faith in issuing the stay-away order, and expressed doubt that safety was his first concern.

The dollar sign loomed large in the miners' decision to go back to work. Some returned to mines which apparently had failed to pass inspection on technicalities which involved no great hazard. Others went back to pits where real danger undoubtedly exists.

It is a sad thing that miners must often risk their lives needlessly in order to provide a living for their families. It is no less sad because they have been doing it for years. The hazards of their work are a challenge to the operators, state mine inspectors, the federal Bureau of Mines, and to the law which permit dangerous conditions to go uncorrected.

Lewis could help greatly in lessening these hazards. But he has consistently overplayed his hand. For all his shrewdness as a tactician, his self-seeking methods and dictatorial manner have become increasingly apparent. He has brought things to a pass where most of the country now looks with suspicion on his activities in the worst of causes.

So today there is a fear that Lewis may use his power to force through a law which would give him the deciding voice on questions of mine safety. With a different leader some such law might be acceptable. But if Lewis were given that power it is highly probable that he might use it to punish a stubborn operator or further his own ambitions.

Lewis scarcely visits the mine fields once in a decade, and he may have forgotten some of the hard facts of a miner's life. But this hint of rebellion by some of the rank and file may remind him that every work stoppage called for reasons of personal strategy still takes wages from the miners.

The only real threat to an authoritarian leadership like Lewis' comes from the rank and file. Fines and injunctions may stop such a leader temporarily. But it is only when the dues-payers start thinking and questioning and raising their voices that the leader has cause for serious concern.

We hope, for the good of the miners and the country, that Lewis is feeling a little of that concern. We hope, too, that it may cause him to trim the billowing sails of his egoistic ambition.

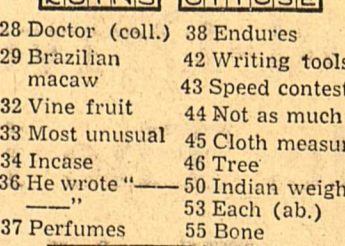

Just sitting around waiting for an opening is an easy way to get into a hole.

A happy medium is a fortune-teller who guesses right.

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Two traveling salesmen from Ohio picked the wrong way—and place—to pare their expenses. They ate a large $4.50 meal at a Fort Worth restaurant, then walked out without paying the check. Police were called, and gave chase.

A way to end the telephone strike

We did our best to avoid this strike and we're doing our best to get it settled.

Agreement on arbitration offer on wages could be the means of ending the telephone strike.

Wages are the big issue.

The company believes that wages paid its employees are good.

The union says they aren't and wants much more. Their demand totals 66 million dollars per year, or an average of 3 dollars per month per subscriber.

The company has said, therefore, "lets decide by putting it before an impartial board of arbitration and have both sides abide by the decision."

The union has refused.

Acceptance would hasten the end of the strike.

It would get employees back on the payroll.

The public would get normal telephone service.

THE STORY: Vicky is weeding the garden when a stranger comes up. She takes him for Godfrey and brings him into the house. Sophie is amazed when she sees him. "Basil!" she whispers. "Can it be?"

XV
IN the momentary silence Victoria said gently, "Another one of your old friends, Grandmother?"

Sophie looked at her granddaughter over the top of Basil's head. "But, darling, excuse me," she said, breaking away. "This is the great Basil Vasilov. You're too young to remember, but he's one of the most famous dramatic critics who ever lived."

Sophie drew him to a sofa and sat, pulling him down beside her. "But sit down, Basil, and tell me about yourself. What are you doing here? How long have you been in America? Where have you been all this time?"

"I have been staying near here. Working."

"Working?"
"My book, 'The Doom of the American Stage,' in seven volumes."

"But how clever!" cried Sophie. "To stretch one book into seven volumes. It must have taken years."

"Eleven," he admitted proudly. "Of course I am not nearly finished yet."

Vicky saw that her grandmother and Mr. Vasilov had drawn together in the intimacy of old friends, shutting out anyone else. Without speaking, she left them alone and went back to the garden.

Sophie and Basil were absorbed. "I want to see your book, as soon as I may," said Sophie.

"Hal!" he said. "I doubt the book ever gets done. I cannot work. These people with whom I have been staying in Boston do not provide a congenial atmosphere. At first it was well—now they have lost interest—"

Basil, who had once left home and wife to follow her, was now neglected and unappreciated.

HE paused significantly. And in the pause Sophie's conscience began working again within her. She thought of Basil, who had left home and wife in Russia to follow her, being now neglected and unappreciated; the thought smote her conscience. There was still a good bedroom vacant at Gray Shingles.

She did not hesitate. "Basil!" she exclaimed. "You must stay here! Where could you find a more congenial atmosphere? We've plenty of room—and we can all help with your book."

"No, no," he protested, kissing her hand. "You are too kind, as always. I came merely to call—"

Sophie began an eloquent plea urging Basil to consider his own comfort no less than her wishes. She was being so persuasive, handling her voice with all the skill she possessed in the use of its range and depth and resonance, that she felt sure she would have received a grateful acceptance after another sentence or two had not Marcel and Sir Charles come bumbling down the stairs into the hall, dragging suitcases and all the paraphernalia which the artist had taken with him from Paris to Buenos Aires, to Cairo, to Chicago and Denver, Melbourne and Sydney, Budapest, Vienna, Sofia, Rome and the French Riviera. Sophie stopped impatiently.

"Ferrault!" exclaimed Basil, not without a trace of jealousy. "I was just going to inquire about him."

"Look who has come, boys!" Sophie called out. "A surprise."

When they appeared in the doorway, she displayed Basil with a proprietary air, as if she had produced him from an opera hat. "Look—it's Basil! Isn't that wonderful?"

"Basil," acknowledged Sir Charles. "So it is. But I thought it was Godfrey who was expected."

"How are you, Sir Charles?" Basil said. "Still in livery, I see. And Perrault. I didn't think I'd ever meet you again."

Marcel put down the suitcase he was carrying and advanced into the room.

"Why did you not expect to see me?" he inquired. "Did you expect heaven here below—oh? How are you, Basil? I regret you find me just leaving. Perhaps you know Godfrey is to come."

"Dear Marcel!" Sophie pleaded, pulling out all the stops. She began to wonder if he might really mean to leave. "Won't you stay if Basil does? You two always got along well enough. Ah, please! I could never rest again if I had to think of both of you with nowhere to go—"

The little Frenchman sniggered, worrying his mustache to hide the trembling of his lips. He hesitated. "Well—"

"You will!" she urged, pressing her advantage.

"Don't let Mansbridge frighten you off, Marcel," said Sir Charles, kindly. "You should be able to stand it if I can."

"I'll stay if you will," Basil said suddenly. "Since Sophie seems to wish it so much."

Marcel allowed himself the luxury of being persuaded to remain after another sentence or two had Perhaps we had better mark down in our book the name of Charles Groden of New York as one of the coming star players. Last January he and Peter Leventritt flew out to St. Paul, Minn., and won the Winter Carnival open pair championship there. In the recent Eastern States tournament, Groden won the team-of-four title and the Reisinger Trophy with his teammates, Dr. William Lipton and Jerry Friedlander of Brooklyn. The entry was the largest in the history of the Reisinger Trophy event.

When interviewing Groden on the radio after his victory, I asked him for his best tip to the beginner at bridge, and he replied, "Count your tricks." This happens to be a favorite topic of mine, and Groden uses it to good advantage in the bidding of today's hand.

As you know, the forcing two-bid is made with the intention of going to game. I often have been asked if, according to the rules, when a forcing two-bid is made, the bidding must continue until a game is reached.

Convention has it that the two-bidder expects the bidding to be kept open until game is reached, but the rules do not require that it be kept open. As long as you do not have a convention with your partner, the bidding may be dropped by either side when doing so seems justified.

Groden stopped at four diamonds on today's hand because of the opponent's bidding. He knew that West would open a club in response to East's bid, and East would return a spade. The odds were very much against his partner holding the queen of spades. So he dropped his own game demand bid below game level. As you can see, it was a wise pass on his part.

Railroads Are Spending $250,000,000 To Give You A Good Train Ride

Game Department Moves Antelopes

By The Associated Press
 More than 600 Texas antelope are now playing in different surroundings. The State Game and Fish Department decided they needed a new home.
 All of the animals were taken from the Trans-Pecos region and removed to counties in the Panhandle and Lower Plains country.
 W. C. Glazener, director of the division of wildlife resources, doesn't think that removal of the antelope will have too big an effect on the annual antelope hunt this year.
 "A number of ranches which had not been included in the previous hunts will probably participate this year, allowing us to issue sufficient permits to offset those lost through the trapping operation," he said.

 Fifty-two of the 690 antelope taken from ranches in Brewster, Presidio and Jeff Davis counties died in transit. Four others died as a result of being injured in the trap.
 Reason for the removal of the animals was a tendency to decline as a result of grazing on ranches which were stocked with sheep.
 Counties which received antelope are as follows:
 Potter, 66; Dallam, 54; Hemphill, 51; Borden and Dawson, 82; Hutchinson and Roberts, 23; Armstrong, 49; and Andrews, 23.

CHICAGO (NEA)—American railroads are spending more than 250 million dollars, as fast as they know how, to give you a good ride.
 They are being delayed by shortages of material, by after-effects of last year's strike wave, by scarcity of experienced workmen in the car shops. But deliveries are beginning to roll in. And the roads are exposing the trump cards—they hope—with which to keep you off planes and out of buses, and induce you to leave your own car in the garage while you ride the rails.
 Having ridden in some of the trains of tomorrow, and watched others being built in the Pullman-Standard's plant here, I can tell you some of the bait being prepared to get you to travel by railroad.
 Sleeper or day coach, on any good through train of tomorrow you'll enjoy air conditioning, improved lighting, softer seats, better toilet and lounge and eating and drinking facilities, more speed, smoother rides.
 If you want to pay first class rates, premium fares and pull-

You can smoke in any seat. There is an in-the-arm ash tray for you. For each individual seat there is a reading light, so placed as not to trouble your seat mate if you want to read until midnight but he wants to sleep.

The cars are joined by a new tight coupling, made possible by the power of the Diesel locomotives, so that the train starts without jerking. From 90 miles an hour the fastest speed attained on our trial run, we slowed and stopped so smoothly that few of us were aware it was happening.

The seats on these are 11 inches farther apart than on old-style main line coaches. The back leg rest, in the back of the seat ahead, can be pulled out until you can almost lie down and be supported from head to toes.

Texas adopted the run-off primary system in 1918.

man charges on the Santa Fe's Super Chief, the New York Central's Twentieth Century Limited, the Pennsylvania's forthcoming modernized Broadway, the Rock Island-Southern Pacific's projected Golden Rocket, you will be able to enjoy luxuries comparable to those of a really good hotel.

A bedroom to yourself or a family suite; a public shower on the Century or maybe your own on the Broadway; valet, barber and stenographic services on several luxury trains; radio, recorded music and announcements about scenic and historic sights on many; telephone service to home or office, while bowling along at 85 miles an hour, as soon as pickup services are established. These are some of the de luxe privileges already being built into railroad cars.

But suppose you cannot or will not pay extra fares for the privilege of averaging more than 60 miles an hour from New York to Los Angeles, and enjoying valet and secretarial service? What then?

Try the Chesapeake & Ohio's new streamlined day train between Washington and Cincinnati, now being built by Budd in Philadelphia. It is to have a movie theatre, art and industrial exhibits, library service, a family car, news ticker, matron, porters and a railroad passenger representative aboard—all at regular fare.

The Chicago & Northwestern is providing a nurse's room on at least one train. The Illinois Central is having Pullman Standard build two women's toilets in each car. All new Southern Pacific trains are to have radio, music, announcements.

You can pay pullman prices to ride in an astral dome car, with seats under a glass dome above the car level. Or you can ride them at day coach rates on the Chesapeake & Ohio, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Burlington—perhaps others.

The handsomest train now building is the Golden Rocket, which for $15 above first class fare will take you from Chicago to Los Angeles in 39 hours 45 minutes, the same as the Super Chief, El Capitan, the City of Los Angeles and the City of San Francisco.

Passengers will sip coffee in a lounge like a Mexican patio. He can order drinks at a bar of adobe with tile inset, representing a quaint fountain. All metal work is of copper, some hand-tooled. Mission style furniture has leather facings. The observation car will be decorated to portray outdoor life on the California coast.

Of three day coaches (2.2 cents a mile, plus the surcharge) two will be decorated in tones of Paradise Valley gray, Arizona sky blue, Grand Canyon red. The other will feature turquoise blue and the red of the Sun Cerous cactus. There are more such details, but you get the idea. The Rock Island and the Southern Pacific want to make you happy when you ride the Golden Rocket.

The Burlington-Great Northern's new Empire Builder, scheduled to operate in 45 hours between here and Seattle (shaving 13 1/2 hours off the old time) is a good illustration of what the regular fare train of tomorrow will be.

It has the first postwar civilian sleepers delivered. On each of the five 12-car trains needed for daily two-way service, will be four sleepers. The rooms will range all the way from duplex roomettes, costing $20.08 for the trip, to drawing rooms costing $63.88 for two persons. There will be a few uppers for $13.87 and lowers for $18.25.
