Texas Daily Oil Allowable Is Increased By 63,814 Barrels

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—The Texas oil allowable for June was boosted 63,814 barrels over the production as of May 10 Wednesday by the Texas Railroad Commission, which also set production limits for July and August.

Heavier School Load Forecast Here This Fall

Midland public schools, already overcrowded, will have an even heavier student load next fall, according to a report prepared by Frank Monroe, superintendent, on anticipated membership for the fall of 1947.

The report's figures are based on present membership and do not take into account the expected increase in the city's population.

Midland High School will have an enrollment of 600 students—160 in the ninth grade, 110 in the tenth, 165 in the eleventh, and 165 in the twelfth. The high school building was erected about 20 years ago for a student load of approximately 450.

Larger Increase Predicted

The report indicates that on the basis of present membership in junior high school, the high school enrollment will reach a total of 760 students within three years.

The junior high membership next fall will be 600, the report shows. A total of 220 students will be enrolled in the sixth grade, 190 in the seventh, and 190 in the eighth.

Anticipated membership in the three elementary schools are as follows: North, 425; South, 484; West, 344, for a total enrollment of 1,253 students.

The recently completed West and South Elementary buildings already are filled to capacity, and Monroe said plans are to use the first floor of the old South Ward building next fall.

The first five grades are housed in the elementary buildings.

An enrollment of 200 students is expected at the Latin-American school and 320 at Carver School.

The grand total for all schools is 2,973, the report shows.

Odessa Voters Approve School Bond Issue For More Than $1,000,000

ODESSA (AP)—Odessa voters approved all four propositions of a $1,400,000 school bond issue in city election.

The propositions approved were:

1. The issue of $800,000 in bonds for construction of a negro school, a vocational training shop, additions to the South and East elementary schools and sites for future school expansion.
2. A $200,000 bond issue for purchase of teacher housing units.
3. A $400,000 gymnasium bond issue.
4. An authorization for the school board to increase the tax rate maximum from $1 to $1.50 on the $100 valuation.

IRISH FIELD STEP OUT

The Pure Oil Company No. 4 Preston, northeast stepout from production in the Irish field, in Southwest Hale County, and 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 12, block DT, HE&WT survey, had reached 6,027 feet in middle Permian lime, and was preparing to complete.

This project drilled about 50 feet further into the pay than any other well so far completed in that area has gone, and it is understood that it is still in the oil saturated lime at total depth. A recent drill-stem test on the bottom section is reported to have developed considerable free oil.

KEYSTONE EDGE GETS WELLS IN DEVONIAN AND SILURIAN

Flowing producers have been completed from both the Devonian and from the Silurian, in section 7, block B-2, psi survey, on the southeast side of the Keystone field, in North Winkler County.

R. Sharp No. 2-D-B Crum, 760 feet from north and 560 feet from west lines of lease in the section, made a 24-hour flowing potential of 237.84 barrels of 37-gravity oil, through a one-quarter inch choke, from pay at 7,629-7,800 feet, after treating that pay with 9,000 gallons of acid, through casing perforations. The pay section was the Devonian. The well drilled to 8,247 feet to test the Silurian. That section failed to make an oil well and the project was plugged back and completed from the higher formation. Gas-oil ratio was 600-1.

J. R. Sharp and R. C. Barnes No. 1-S Crum, 555 feet from west and south lines of their joint lease in section 7, block B-2, psi survey, made a daily initial production of 497.52 barrels of 37.9 gravity oil from pay at 7,875-8,120 feet, in the Silurian.

The completion test was taken through a one-quarter inch tubing choke. The pay had been treated with 2,000 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 734-1.

UNION WILDCAT IN COKE IS MAKING MORE HOLE

Union Oil Company of California No. 1 McCutchen, Central Coke County wildcat, about three miles east of Robert Lee, had reached 5,865 feet in an unidentified formation, and was drilling ahead.

CSOC TO DRILL WEST OF CROCKETT DISCOVERY

Cities Service Oil Company has filed application with the Railroad Commission for a permit to drill a west stepout from a recent discovery for flowing production from the lower Permian in West Crockett County.

The new exploration will be Cities Service No. 1 Mrs. W. L. Hobbs, and is 1,993 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 7, block GG, H&OB survey. It is to start drilling by May 17.

It is one-quarter of a mile west of Cities Service, The Plymouth Oil Company and Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B Owens, which was making hole below 7,500 feet in Ellenburger lime, at last report, as it drilled ahead to try to locate granite.

This discovery found salt water in the top of the Ellenburger. It has not logged any shows for commercial production of petroleum in that horizon. It will ultimately be plugged back and completed from the pay above 5,802 feet, which has shown for heavy oil and gas yields.

Ernest O. Thompson, commission chairman, said he believed the three-month order would tend to stabilize the industry.

June production was set at 2,489,922 barrels, of which 2,294,674 barrels would be crude and the remainder natural gasoline and distillate. This was 334,922 barrels over the Bureau of Mines demand forecast.

For July and August, production was set at 2,433,883 barrels, of which 2,238,588 would be crude. This is 58,588 barrels over the Bureau of Mines forecast for those months.

The commission fixed 27 general producing days for June, July and August.

The Panhandle Field remained exempt from the shutdown days all three months, while District 8, West Texas, was given a 21-day schedule and the East Texas Field a 22-day schedule.

Some purchasers protested the length of the 90-day order, saying it would cause confusion when the new maximum efficiency ratings for each field are issued July 1.

Matson Nixon, Corpus Christi independent operator, asked elimination of shutdown days. He said that future demands indicated the need for all the crude Texas can produce and transport. He advocated making the maximum efficiency rate the allowable for each field.

New Deadlock In Telephone Negotiations

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Negotiations to end the strike of telephone workers in the five-state area of the Southwestern Bell Company were stymied Thursday by a new deadlock over arbitration of wages and other issues.

The latest impasse continued through intensified joint and separate negotiations sessions which lasted well in the early morning hours Thursday before being adjourned without any indication of progress.

A proposal by the union to end the strike by arbitrating wage differences and eight other disputed issues was rejected by the company whose spokesman declared the union consistently had refused arbitration before the strike and now "was attempting to pyramid arbitration on the company's final offer."

The union, in a surprise move late Wednesday, proposed to accept the company's offer, previously rejected, of a $4.27 weekly basic pay and fringe increase provided it was agreed arbiters would determine if the workers were entitled to an additional amount as a "cost of living" increase. The strikers have sought a raise totaling $8.

D. L. McCowan, president of the Southwestern Telephone Workers' Union, in a statement following the company's rejection of arbitration said:

"Before the strike, we asked the company if it was willing to arbitrate all or any portion of this dispute.

"The company said it was unwilling, for the reason it did not care to have outsiders come in and tell it how to run its business. Later it did offer to arbitrate on a limited basis.

"The union plans to stick by arbitration and has no other proposals to make."

DISTRICT MANAGER HERE SAYS TELEPHONE COMPANY HAS MADE FINAL OFFER

H. F. Fox, manager of the Midland District of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Thursday issued the following statement for the company concerning the telephone strike situation:

"This company offered arbitration two weeks before the strike began and for three weeks after. We urged it upon union leaders to avoid this strike. It was consistently refused. D. L. McCowan, president of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Workers Union, told us in Washington, 'You people might as well forget about arbitration. You are barking up the wrong tree.'

"The union insisted before negotiations that we withdraw our offer of arbitration and agree to make a cash offer. To settle this strike we agreed. We have negotiated. We have raised our offer. Now the union is attempting to pyramid arbitration on top of the company's final wage offer. Our last offer was $4.27 per week. That's as far as we are going."

Lewis Agrees To Try To Negotiate New Wage Contract With Operators

John L. Lewis agreed Thursday to try to negotiate a wage contract with operators representing about 75 per cent of the nation's soft coal production.

The Southern Coal Producers Association, which refused to go along on industry-wide bargaining with Lewis' united mine workers, asked for separate negotiations.

Lewis replied he wanted a chance to discuss the southerners' request with his policy committee before giving an answer.

Those major developments in the long-troubled coal industry were announced by Navy Capt. N. H. Collisson, federal coal mines administrator.

Lewis' agreement to negotiate with a part of the industry represented an about face on his previous insistence on industry-wide bargaining, in line with a policy adopted at the UMW convention last year.

Most of the nation's soft coal mines are under government operation, but must be restored to private ownership by July 1. Collisson called the UMW chief and the operators together several weeks ago in the hope it would produce a contract which would avert a major strike when the private owners resume control.

The owners, who will start wage talks immediately with Lewis, include operators of northern and western pits and of "captive" mines in the South—that is, mines controlled by such companies as U. S. Steel.

CC Directors Adopt Report Of Lenorah Disaster Committee

A report on the disaster situation at Lenorah was heard by directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce at a called meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Scharbauer Hotel. A special committee, including Delbert Downing, Barney Greathouse, James L. Daugherty and Judge Clifford C. Keith, had been appointed to visit Lenorah to investigate the situation and needs there.

The members said the American Red Cross is handling the relief and rehabilitation program and recommended that the Chamber of Commerce again investigate the community's needs after the Red Cross program has been completed.

The directors approved the report and adopted the recommendation, while again urging Lenorah residents of Midland's willingness to assist the tornado-stricken community in any way possible. The special committee was asked to continue its investigation.

Directors voted to join with Midland JayCees in subscribing to a sustaining membership in the International Junior Chamber of Commerce of which Taylor Cole of Midland is president. The sustaining membership fees will be used in printing and distributing proceedings of the International JayCee convention held recently in Dallas.

Southern Coal Producers Ask Separate Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's boost-the-minimum-wage recommendation Thursday won Republican as well as Democratic support in the Senate.

But chances for action this year appear dim.

Even among backers of the Chief Executive's proposal there is controversy whether a new pay "floor" should be fixed at 65 cents an hour as urged by Truman, or at 55 cents, 75 cents or some other figure. The present minimum is 45 cents. It applies to all workers covered by the wage-hour act, in general those whose output moves across state lines.

While this issue simmered, House-Senate conferees on labor disputes legislation assembled for their first try at ironing out differences in two bills designed to check strikes and restrict some union practices.

The big job is what to do about the many curbs which are in the House bill but not the Senate's. A near blanket ban on industry-wide collective bargaining, for example, and an authorization for private employers to seek injunctions against some strikes and boycotts.

Greece-Turkey Measure Sent To White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress Thursday sent to the White House legislation authorizing a $400,000,000 program of financial and limited military aid to bulwark Greece and Turkey against Communism.

The House, and then the Senate, quickly approved the bill comprising minor differences between the House and Senate measures.

On another bill to provide funds for relief of six counties in Europe and Asia, President Truman urged Congress again to vote the full $350,000,000 asked, saying "the peace of the world can be realized only when people are free from the fear of hunger."

Truman's appeal was contained in a letter transmitting the tenth quarterly report of UNRRA. It reached the capitol as Senate and House conferees sought to resolve differences in their respective bills. The biggest point at issue is the amount to be provided.

The joint committee failed to reach a compromise at initial talks, then scheduled an afternoon session. The House voted to cut the fund to $200,000,000 but the Senate favors providing the full amount.

Texas House Refuses Soldier Bonus Vote

AUSTIN (AP)—The House by a close vote Thursday slapped down a second attempt this week to push through the 50th Legislature some sort of soldier bonus proposal.

The vote was 61 to 85 against referring the proposed bonus amendment from the committee on constitutional amendments to the committee on veterans' affairs.

Members Give Program At Fine Arts Club Meeting

Mrs. Tom C. Bobo spoke on "Textiles for Tomorrow" and Mrs. J. G. Carner discussed "Housing and Postwar Planning" at the meeting of the Midland Fine Arts Club Wednesday.

Mrs. Selman Lones, 1803 West Wall Street, was hostess for the meeting with Mrs. Nelson Puett, president, in charge.

Mrs. Bobo discussed the new materials now being produced and those being developed for the future. She closed her talk by saying "Whatever develops in these numerous new processes our clothing and fabrics are running headlong into a revolution."

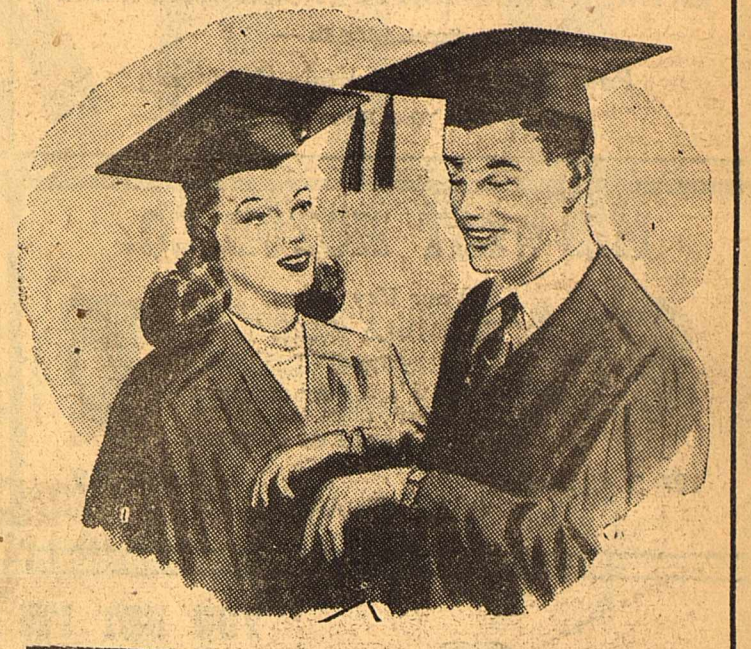

"A recent survey of America's housing turned out to be a report of our greatest peace time failure, so far. This failure is measured in terms of unfinished houses," Mrs. Carner pointed out in her discussion. She also told of the urgent need for 3,000,000 houses and apartments.

The next club meeting will be May 28 in the home of Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, who will review "The Miracle of the Bells" by Russell Janey.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. T. Paul Barron, Mrs. L. G. Byerley, Mrs. C. J. Hubbard, Mrs. George Kidd, Mrs. Nelson Puett, Mrs. Harvey Sloan, Mrs. B. R. Scharbaum, Mrs. Y. D. McMurry and Mrs. D. C. Haskins.

RADIO STATIONS KECK is proud of the Friends it has and the Companies it keeps. In January, 1947, when KECK went on the air, it had 23 advertisers, and in April it soared to 70 advertisers, who had faith in the "Music and News" idea and the great coverage that KECK promised. This upward trend proves conclusively that most business firms are taking advantage of KECK'S complete WEST TEXAS COVERAGE, and the fine Music and News programming that is a relief from "soap operas" and daytime network drudgeries. When you want to cover West Texas with an advertising message, use the station. "Most people listen to MOST in West Texas."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Industry Looks at Our Town

Maybe you read how a group of industrial experts have decided that the small town is the place for industry—not big cities. Reasons they give are better housing, pleasanter living, and more opportunity for wholesome recreation.

Well, looking around our town I'd say that was about right. Most of us own our homes, and keep them looking nice; and our recreations are mostly simple outdoor sports, and in the evening a mellow glass of beer with pleasant company.

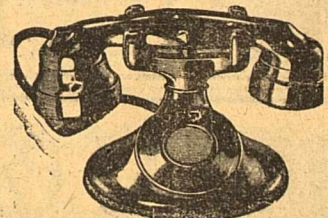

As Doc Walters says, that sort of life just naturally sets you up for work the next day... whether it's in office, mill, or field. And Doc should know. He works fourteen hours, but never misses his morning "constitutional" or his evening glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, any industry could profit from being in a town where wholesome living, temperance, and friendship are the rule.

Joe Marsh

The Telephone Company's Final Wage Offer

Every employee represented by the union offered $4 weekly increase.

Hoping to hasten termination of the strike, the company made its maximum and final wage offer to the union negotiating committee last Monday, May 12.

There is some confusion reported as to the terms of this offer.

Omitting discussion of all but the main wage item, the company's offer is to give every one of its 42,000 employees represented by the union an increase in wages of $4 per week.

Houston Breezes Along At Texas League Top

By The Associated Press
The Houston Buffs scored their eighth consecutive victory and third night, taking their series opener from Dallas, 5-0. The Buffs now have a lead of 3 1/2 games over the second place San Antonio Missions.

In other Texas League games San Antonio downed Fort Worth, 3-2. Beaumont defeated Oklahoma City, 6-1, and Shreveport outscored Tulsa, 6-5.

Clarence Beers turned in a three-hit game in shutting out Dallas for the second straight time. It was the Houston hurler's fifth win against no defeats. He allowed only 30 men to face him and only two Dallas men got into position to score.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Tall Tales Fly When Helicopter Fans Meet

No gag, but a practical use for helicopters is pictured here. Magnetic device, like a mine detector, was installed in the plastic "teardrop" ahead of this helicopter's cabin. It was used by Lundberg-Ryan Air Explorations, Inc., to detect ore deposits in South and Central America.

Igor Sikorsky making first official helicopter flight in Western Hemisphere, Stratford, Conn., April 15, 1941. His earliest models went up, down, sideways and backward—but forward flight remained a puzzle for a long time.

Members of the American Helicopter Society met in Washington, D. C., with other leading helicopter experts and enjoyed a fanning bee that produced some weird ideas on new uses for the "wind-mill" planes. A couple are sketched above. But there were also tales of really practical uses, and reminiscences by pioneer inventor Igor Sikorsky on how he created "heel-co-peter" history.

Heinz Company Ships 3,000,000 Baby Food Packages To Europe
 PITTSBURGH—As a result of H. J. Heinz Company's recent offer to contribute supplies of baby food to the hungry children of war-torn countries, H. J. Heinz II, president, announced a total of 3,000,000 Heinz baby food packages is being shipped abroad by the American Friends Service Committee, a Quaker relief organization.
 Early in April, Heinz announced the company was contributing outright 1,000,000 packages of baby food and that the firm stood ready to contribute an additional package for shipment abroad for each package purchased by American mothers during the week of April 6. More than 700 daily newspapers, as well as leading foreign language publications, carried the advertisements in which mothers were asked to join with Heinz in making possible the shipment of additional packages. Due to the response, the company is tripling its original contribution, making the total 3,000,000 packages. The first shipment was made April 16.

Income For 'Middle' Brackets On Increase
 WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The median income for American families living under one roof rose by $169 during 1945 to a total of $2,378, the census bureau reported Thursday.
 Median means middle: half of the 40,075,000 family units got more income than the median figure, the other half got less.
 About one-third of the total number of families had incomes between $2,500 to $5,000. About one in 10 got $5,000 to $10,000, and only 13 out of 1,000 got more than that.

Yes, We Have Plenty Of Bananas, Thanks To Mexico, Brownsville

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

A fortune was spent educating American housewives to never, never, never put bananas in the refrigerator.

And you know what? Down in the valley where they handle bananas by the ton, they ship the things in refrigerated cars!

It isn't that they haven't heard the singing commercials down there. They have. Everybody has.

They ship the bananas in refrigerated cars to keep them at an even temperature. In summer, they're cooled. In winter, they're shipped in refrigerated cars to keep them warm as they roll through sub-zero zones.

Brownsville is muscling in on New Orleans and New York as a new tropical fruit center.

Most of Mexico's bananas, pineapples and coconuts are shipped through that port now.

Started During War

It started during the last war when bananas from the West Indies and South America just didn't exist because of the shipping shortage. For a long time the United States had no bananas.

Yes, we have no bananas was a national theme song until somebody found that the Mexican banana was pretty good, and could be shipped by rail and by barge easily.

In the last year of the war, bananas rolled through Brownsville by the million, and provided the country with all the bananas it had. Today, the industry is still growing.

Last season, 215,098,553 pounds of bananas, pineapples and coconuts were handled at Brownsville. Of this, 89,000 tons were bananas. Most of them today come by barge from the Vera Cruz, Tampico and Port of Mexico areas. Then they are shipped by rail (in refrigerated cars) and by truck all over the nation.

In fact, the industry is expanding so fast that a special tropical fruit dock is being built at the port of Brownsville.

Complete with refrigerators.

SING FOR A BRIDE

Natives of eastern Nepal, Asia, have the unique custom of singing for a wife. The prospective bride is led before the chief and the young Limbu tribesman bursts into song. If his repertoire pleases, the maiden is his.

The city of Marseilles established a 40-day quarantine for incoming visitors for health reasons.

TRUMAN ASKS VISITS TO GRAVES

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman suggested Tuesday the government make it possible for next of kin wishing their World War II dead to remain overseas to visit the permanent cemeteries abroad.

Of the 21 amino acids which have been identified as components of proteins, only about half have any real nutritive value.

PARISIAN STREETS

There are more queerly named streets in Paris than in any other city of the world. These names include such as Ash Trays street, The Street of the Bad Boys, Fishing Cat street, Lovely Leaves, Son-in-Law, Hot Cat, Little Mugs, and Big Bottle street.

In the 18th Century, children as young as five years often worked 16 hours a day in dark and ill ventilated factories.

DISASTROUS HABIT

The ruffed grouse's habit of burying itself in a snowdrift, and spending the night under the warm protecting blanket of snow, often ends in disaster. A rain, followed by a quick change of temperature, frequently seals the bird beneath the crust, and it is unable to break out.

The human heart pumps enough blood in an hour to equal more than three times the weight of the body.

EAT MUD

Natives living near the Orinoco river of South America eat mud. They scamper down to the banks after a flood and roll the sediment into small balls about the size of an orange. These are dried and eaten in bowls of soup at their feasts.

In 79 A. D. there were nine different water lines supplying Rome, some of them as much as 50 miles long.

GOD BELIEF

Ancient Peruvian Indians believed that whenever a trepanning operation was performed a new variety of potato would be found in that area. More trepanned skulls and more different varieties of potatoes have been found in Peru than in any other place in the world.

The public baths of Rome were first built for poor people who had no baths in their home, but were later patronized by the rich.

CARS FOR POLAND

WARSAW, POLAND—(AP)—The semi-official newspaper "Rzeczpospolita" says it won't be long now until another touch of normalcy has added to the Polish State Railways. The journal said 20 new sleeping cars soon will run on Polish southern and eastern railways and five dining cars and several club cars also will be put into operation.

Here's Company If You Fret Over Road Delays

DALLAS—(P)—People who fret when delayed at railroad crossings by long trains or halted trains had a pair of champions today who were willing to use fists or guns to express their pique.

Three people waited in an automobile while a switch engine moved cars back and forth at a Dallas crossing the other morning. The switchmen broke the train to allow the automobile to pass, but just then another train puffed up, again blocking the crossing.

The driver climbed out of his car and took up the issue with his fists against the noggins of one of the switchmen.

A woman in the car had her say with three shots from a pistol. The shots broke up the fight. The switchmen dodged behind their engine. The automobile driver ran back to his car.

By that time the crossing was clear and the car sped away.

Family Ownership Of Farms Is Encouraged

WASHINGTON—(P)—Congress was asked Tuesday to preserve a continuing opportunity in agriculture for American families qualified to earn a living on their own farms.

Father William J. Gibbons, a director of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, told the Senate Irrigation Subcommittee there is no reason "why corporations and large landowners should be permitted to take over our agricultural production when family farmers are perfectly able to do the job."

Father Gibbons was one of a half-dozen witnesses opposing a bill by Senator Downey (D-Calif.) to exempt the central valley of California and two other reclamation projects from the law prohibiting delivery of water from a federal project to more than 160 acres in a single ownership.

He contrasted the economic security of the farm family working its own land with the hired migratory workers upon which he said the corporate farm is dependent exclusively. He said he could not see why the federal government, through reclamation benefits, should "encourage a system" dependent on seasonal labor.

J. T. Sanders, legislative counsel for the National Grange, reaffirmed the Grange's belief in the "fundamental soundness of the family size farm as the basis for settling and developing agricultural land."

He said the Grange is "unalterably opposed" to removal of the 160-acre limitation.

Can't 'Sass A Fras' Wails Missouri Ed.

PARIS, MO.—(P)—Editor Jack Blanton of the Monroe County "Appeal" is lamenting the absence of sassafras root on the market. The root brewed into a palatable tea is a recognized Missouri antidote for spring fever.

In turning down the request of a California woman, Blanton wrote that "unfortunately sassafras root no longer comes to the local market. People seem to have all the money they need and digging like other forms of work has gone out of style. As a result the public's blood goes unpurified and unscientific things like sulfa drugs, penicillin, castor oil and voodoo charms are being used as unsatisfactory substitutes."

Wonder What It Will Be Like 15 Years From Now?

By HAL BOYLE

COLUMBIA, MO.—(P)—Here is a sample of modern co-ed campus slang at the University of Missouri: "I'm bushed! One of the yo-yo boys sitting next to me in a basket course tried to pass me his gasket told him because I didn't think it was a good lick."

"He was a four-wheeled personality but I would only go with him strictly from hunger. Yeah, one of those 'get me' boys. Told me he had been breaking in a new ulcer and had the clanks from purple passions."

"Personally, I just thought he had rocks in his head—zero gizmo. You should have heard his snow job! Could he bioviate! Said he liked my lipsmack. Asked me to put my feet in the trough, but I knew he just wanted to play kiss on the mouth."

"I gave him the fluff but he tried to twist my arm. Finally I had to tell him to drink his beer. What kind of a bimbo did he think I am? I've got my own switty. I'd never get the deep undying hots for that rah rah collich."

Slang changes quickly. Here is the way a co-ed might have said the same thing when I was learning the King's English on this same campus 15 years ago:

"I'm beaten down to the ankles! A wise guy sitting next to me in a tough course wanted to pass me his crib notes during a snap quiz. 'Nuts,' I told him because I thought it was a bad go. "He was a jalopy jockey but am I that hard up for a meal ticket? Yeah, one of those 'big I' boys from way back. Told me he had the hangover willies from too much bottle worship."

"He was a screwball—a real washout. You should have heard his line! Asked me to put on the feedback with him but I knew he just wanted to neck."

"I told him to go peddle his papers but he came back for more. Finally I just told him to dry up. What kind of a floozie did he think I am? I've got my own one and only. I'd never fall for that Joe college."

A new packaging device wraps two halves of sliced bread separately with an overwrap, thus keeping the bread fresher longer. The waters of the Gulf Stream are about eight inches higher than those of the surrounding Atlantic Ocean.

Both Europe and Africa had populations of approximately 100 million persons 300 years ago. Today, Africa's population is 156 million, but Europe has increased to about 540 million.

Maude Coons, well known Omaha food editor, gives her favorite grapefruit juice recipe

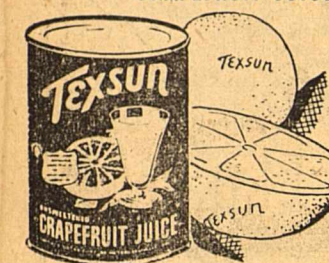

GRAPEFRUIT SPONGE PUDDING

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 2 eggs
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/4 cup grapefruit juice
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Cream butter and sugar. Add flour and mix. Add egg yolks which have been beaten until light and the milk. Add grapefruit, lemon juice and rind. Lastly, fold in beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased baking dish, place in a moderate oven, 350 degrees. (This mixture makes a thin batter but when baked it has a cake-like top with a custard bottom.)

Hotel Theaters Are Planned In England

LONDON—(AP)—A club where the ordinary man can eat, sleep and be entertained under the same roof is to be started in an eighteenth century playhouse in colorful Soho, the heart of London's theaterland. The National Theater Club, launched last week, will be non-profit-making and non-highbrow. It will be the first of what it is hoped may one day become a chain of clubs throughout Britain, where people of all types and all tastes can get entertainment, restaurant service and club accommodation.

Alfred Barnes, minister of Transport, is its first Chairman and President. "We'll give the members the sort of entertainment they want," he said. "If they ask for music hall—then we'll give them music hall. Or if they want modern tragedies, we'll give them that. Or Shakespeare, or boogie-woogie. But we'll see that it's the very best. And we hope to get first class international talent as well as British."

Cigarette Boom Hits In Russian Zone Area

NEUBRANDENBURG, RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED MECKLENBURG—(AP)—The American cigarette is the most valuable commodity in the black market of the Soviet occupation zone in Germany. The fount of this black market is Berlin. That's where the cigarettes come from and there go the barter materials—cameras, gold, etc.—sent from as far north as Ruegen Island in the Baltic sea.

A German employe in a Soviet Army mess here offered American correspondents twelve marks for a single cigarette. That meant one dollar and twenty cents even by the low U. S. military rate of exchange.

It meant also that with a carton of two hundred American cigarettes, sold at blackmarket prices, a German could go out and buy himself a farm such as is provided under the Soviet-sponsored land reform scheme. These farms range from seven to ten hectares (eighteen to twenty five acres) with a top price of about 250 marks per hectare.

One tenth of the population of Philadelphia perished in a yellow fever outbreak in 1793.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT

By Gwen Davenport Copyright by Gwen Davenport; Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

XXXV
AFTER she got home from the Bagots', Sophie was so tired she went back upstairs to lie down. It was good to rest. In the back of her mind, as she relaxed, was a little nagging consciousness that she might have secured Vicky's happiness at the price of her own soul, and yet—she had not lied, she had not actually told an untruth. Godfrey's mother had been named Ida Victoria Jubb. Thus reminded of Godfrey, she rang for Bridget and asked to have him sent up. She must insure his silence.

When he strolled into her presence, unaffected by the events of the day and self-assured as ever, she sighed with impatience. Truly she was atoning now for whatever she owed him!

"Come in, Godfrey. Shut the door."

He did so.
"I have been to see Mrs. Bagot. Young Salty and Victoria are to be married as soon as possible." Godfrey looked incredulous. "I must say, she began, 'you seem to have taken matters out of my hands entirely. I am, after all, the child's grandfather.'"

"Stop!" she cried, facing him with a hand raised. "You are not her grandfather!"

"Come, come," he protested, "when you wanted a father for our child I would do quite well enough. You can't change about now because for some reason it happens to suit your convenience."

"How dare you!" she exclaimed, fixing him with burning eyes. "If you even mention Vicky's ancestry again I shall turn you out, lock, stock and barrel. And I shall cut you off without a cent in my will."

He looked frightened and wary. "Don't get so upset. What does it matter, my dear?"

"It matters a very great deal. I am through. Through with you, at last! I will not stand one more insult or one more evasion. You are to promise solemnly that you will never mention your relationship to Vicky—or you are to leave this house today and never return."

"Melodramatic," he murmured. "Anything you wish, my dear. I have never wanted to do otherwise than make you happy—"

"Promise!"

"Very well, my dear, I promise." Sophie collapsed. "And now—please—leave me alone." The door closed behind him and she sank back on her chaise, sobbing. She was through with him at last! She had sent him out of her life, out of her heart, laid his ghost, at last, at last! Her heart knew now what her mind had always known: that he had never been worth one salt tear.

"So you do remember!"

"I have been to see Mrs. Bagot. Young Salty and Victoria are to be married as soon as possible."

"What is it, Sir Charles?" "Mr. Adam Bagot is downstairs to see you."

Sophie gave her toilette a hasty glance and hurried down. She found Adam Bagot in the drawing room standing in front of the portrait of Juliet, leaning on his cane, looking very distinguished in his spare, bony way. He greeted her with his usual punctilious and rather long-winded courtesy.

The formalities taken care of, he said, "Serve her right if Victoria refused to make up with young Salty now."

Sophie knew at once that "her" was Mrs. Bagot. "Vicky won't refuse," she said. "She was half sick with love." She sighed, indicating a place for him beside her on the sofa.

"It's a good match," the old gentleman said. "Bring a little new blood into the family."

"Yes," agreed Sophie. "And such blood, too!" She looked sideways at Adam with a twinkle in her eye and he gave her a solemn wink. They both laughed aloud.

"The money, at any rate," she added, "is legitimate. I was married to Max."

"The money will not come amiss," said Adam. "Yes, it is a splendid match, and a great satisfaction to me." He fixed her with his fierce, sunken eyes. "As you can well understand, Sophie, I need not tell you why."

Sophie clasped her hands at her breast. She felt suddenly giddy, as if she might be going to faint.

"They must not make the same mistake we did."

"Was it a mistake, Adam?" she asked, very low, knowing beyond a doubt that the final piece was being fitted into the pattern of her past.

"Not to get married was a mistake, I mean."

"I didn't know you ever wanted to marry me," she said simply. "I was only sixteen, I came from the wrong side of the tracks—"

"So you do remember!" she nodded. "Certainly I remember! After all—" she laughed shakily—"you were what is known as 'my first false step.' No woman could ever forget what happened to her at sixteen."

"I, too," he assured her solemnly, "have never forgotten. Nor forgiven myself. That is why I have never married. Many a night I have lain awake thinking that but for me you would never have run away from home, never gone to Paris, never put on grease paint. . . ."

He bowed his head. "It is a terrible responsibility to have had on one's conscience for sixty years!"

Sophie laid a hand on his silver hair. "Oh, Adam—my dear! I am the one who should feel remorse. It was your life that was ruined, not mine. I have had fame, success, a rich, full life. While you—you've had nothing. And all because of me!"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

In the Western Pennsylvania Tournament at Pittsburgh there were 29 teams-of-four, and four of them tied for first. Under regulations of the American Contract Bridge League, all four teams receive full Master Point awards.

Closeness of the match will probably result in even larger attendance at the Pennsylvania State Tournament to be held in Pittsburgh in November.

Today's hand helped Clare H. "Corky" Smith and his teammates tie for first place in the Western Pennsylvania team event. I know that rubber bridge players will not advocate going down 1400 points to save anything, but in tournament bridge if your opponents can make a small slam vulnerable for a total of 1430 points, your side can go down five tricks vulnerable and you will be minus only 1400 points. Therefore you can win that board by 30 points.

Smith said he had not expected to go down five. North's overall of three diamonds showed at least a five-card diamond suit, and Smith (East) held five diamonds himself. Therefore his partner could not have more than one or two losing diamonds. The bid of four spades and the jump to six spades gave North and South most of that suit, and South's original bid of two hearts marked him with six or seven hearts. West's vulnerable overall of three clubs indicated at least a seven-card club suit.

So Smith reasoned that even if they lost a spade, two hearts and two diamonds, they would be down only five, and he was quite sure that the opponents could make six spades.

Of course he was correct. The only trick that East and West could take against six spades was the ace of clubs, while at seven clubs East and West lost the diamond ace, a diamond ruff, two hearts and a spade.

The first steam engines were used chiefly in pumping operations.

AP Newsfeatures

PONTAGERAS ISLAND, ULITHI ATOLL—Less than two years ago Ulithi atoll provided one of the great fleet anchorages for American operations against the Japanese. Now it is a lonely, almost forgotten outpost, manned by less than two dozen Navy and Coast Guard personnel.

Battleships, carriers, cruisers, destroyers and countless other craft once found refuge from submarine attacks and storms by entering one of two narrow channels into Ulithi's huge lagoon. Navy men swarmed ashore to the tiny islands for recreation. Supplies were piled high on the coral.

Now the island is visited only twice a month by a ship which brings food, beer and other supplies to the men who operate a weather station and a loran (long range navigational aid) for ships and planes.

The island commandant, Navy Lt. Ernest H. Goldman, directs 22 enlisted men.

Most of the men say they are contented, however, preferring the loneliness with its personal freedom to the stricter spit-and-polish atmosphere of larger bases. Each tour of duty is for six months.

The men play softball, badminton and volleyball during their spare time, or go on outrigger canoe trips with inhabitants of other islands. Fishing and swimming are good.

When the supply ship appears virtually everybody piles into a seagoing duck and rides out to gossip and to trade old movies for new ones. Sometimes the ship's crew goes ashore to play softball against the Ulithi team and to have a beer party under the palms.

"The men get along unusually well," says Goldman. "There is rarely any trouble and many of them would prefer to stay here."

'Speed Tax' Starts At Forty Miles Per Hour

HARTFORD, CONN.—(P)—Motorists who habitually operate their cars at high speeds are paying a heavy "speed tax" as well as risking their lives, the Aetna Life Affiliated says.

An increase in speed from 40 to 60 miles an hour will increase gasoline consumption 50 per cent, tire wear 350 per cent and oil consumption 400 per cent. The wear and gasoline and oil consumption increase comparatively slowly at this point, making higher speeds extremely wasteful of rubber, gasoline and oil.

This Weatherman's Report Was 'Hot'

FREDRICK, MD.—(P)—Weatherman Victor Palmer was figuring out a forecast the other day when he got some first hand information. A bolt of lightning struck the building, knocking out the telephone, and electric lines. And Palmer watched a ball of fire emerge from a wall switch two feet from where he was standing. The meteorologist was shaken, but unhurt.

SPRING THOUGHTS

CHICAGO—(P)—Things stolen this spring in this area include two sacks of grass seed, ten lengths of garden hose, eight lawn mowers, two tons of hay and a canoe.

There's Something Squirrely Here!

CARTHAGE, MO.—(P)—On top of his meat counter in Hales' market, Dick Long set up a scale-size display with a stuffed red squirrel wearing an apron and a white butcher's cap with the name "Dick". The squirrel, stuffed as part of a taxidermy course Long studied by mail, holds a knife and sharpening steel and there are other knives on the meat block with sawdust on the floor and a background of tiny refrigerators.

"The hardest part of the display," said Long, with a straight face, "was finding a left-handed squirrel. I'm left-handed and I wanted the display to be lifelike."

CURIOUS WEAPON

The strangest of modern pistols is the one which looks like a pipe and which may be carried in the mouth like an ordinary tobacco pipe. A .25-caliber bullet is fired through the innocent-looking stem, while the bowl is a magazine for five extra cartridges.

Mexico Begins To Joins Ranks Of Exporting Lands

By JACK RUTLEDGE
 Associated Press Staff
 A new era is dawning for Mexico, the land of manana. Manana is here—and the land whose major export used to be mesal is beginning to make its mark in American markets.
 Possibly inlanders haven't noticed it yet. But ask those who live on the border.
 American-made goods used to pour into Mexico through Brownsville, Laredo, El Paso. Today a trickle of goods is flowing back. It's a healthy sign for Mexico.
 You can find Mexican-made items in almost any town now. Much of them come under the heading of curios, probably, but they're made in Mexico, and they're selling. You find blankets, huaraches, silver trinkets, baskets, serapes, pottery, vases, pictures—all sorts of things. The Mexican motif is discernible in many women's styles.
 That banana you may be peeling right now—it could be a Mexican banana. Brownsville, Texas, has become a major import center for bananas, pineapples, coconuts, other Mexican tropical fruits. Durthe war, about the only bananas the U. S. got were from Mexico.
 Mexican beer, made in the huge breweries at Monterrey, is popular in the U. S. It's sold at a premium.
 Mexican fabrics can be bought in the United States. The Indians are artists.
 Raw materials from Mexico constitute probably the country's largest take. Metals, lead, iron, manganese which feed the foundries at Monterrey, the Pittsburgh of Mexico, are finding their way in increasing tonnage to the U. S. Mexican oil still lubricates much American machinery.
 Cotton, citrus, other farm products find hungry markets. Mexican handicrafts find more. The growing silversmith industry, encouraged by Americans but operated by Mexicans, is important.
 Mexico is on the move, and "made in Mexico" is going to be seen oftener on articles sold in the U. S.

ODD LOTS OF ITEMS ARE OFFERED FOR SALE BY WAA
 DALLAS—(P)—Poultry wire fence, garbage cans and step-ladders will be included in approximately 20 lots of miscellaneous government surplus to be offered at spot bid sale at the War Assets Administration warehouse in Grand Prairie, May 21, it was announced Wednesday by the WAA's regional office.
 Other materials consist of cardboard cartons, soldering iron tips, lift trucks, meters, rotating cylinders, expansion joints and an eighteen chain hoist.

UNUSUAL INSTRUCTION
 OKLAHOMA CITY—(P)—Scout car officers were pondering these instructions from the chief today: "In case you're involved in an accident, call a policeman."
