Absentee Voting Slow For Sat. Elections

Twelve absentee ballots had been cast in the school board election early Monday morning. Absentee voting was over at 5:00 p.m. yesterday. As of Monday there had been no absentee ballots cast in the Water District Election which will be held along with the school board election Saturday, April 3.

Light absentee voting usually indicates a small turnout when the polls open. Ozona voters will all vote at the courthouse in both elections. The Powell Field box and the WTU Power Plant boxes will both be open for county voters. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Registration for the May 1, Democratic Primary closed at 5 p.m. yesterday with 2068 eligible voters on the rolls. Broken down in precincts, these include Precinct 1, 573; Precinct 2, 471; Precinct 3, 516; Precinct 4, 508. There has been a noticeable jump

PUTTING ON THE FINISHING TOUCHES for the Annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance at the Civic Center last week were Hope Phillips, 1., decorations chairman, Lisa Clayton and Pam Young. Looking on while the girls arrange the cannon balls are DeKlyn Cain, Marsha Kirken and Tammy

Handley. They are arranging the minute men. The auditorium was a spectacle of red, white and blue from floor to ceiling and from front to back. Junior class members, parents and sponsors worked all week to get the desired effect, and the results were outstanding.

Perry's Variety Store Opens In Shopping Center Here

A new Perry's store opened its doors this week after several weeks of preparation in the building which housed the bowling lanes in the shopping center. The building front has been remodeled to an all-glass front. Double glass doors form three entrances and exits all near the three check-out registers.

The store has been completely stocked and offers a variety of almost everything. The store is one of a chain of Perry Brothers stores throughout Texas and Louisiana. The chain has grown from a small store in Lufkin in 1914, to 124 stores in 1976.

Perry Brothers, Inc. began an expansion program in 1945 and has grown into Texas' largest variety store chain today. The local store has been outfitted with store fixtures manufactured by skilled craftsmen in the large shop in Lufkin, and has been stocked from the new warehouse in Lufkin. The large self-service store has almost 1,000 square feet of shopping space.

Formal opening ceremonies will be held today with several Perry officials on hand for the ribbon cutting. The grand opening sale also begins today, with big discounts in every department of the store. Customers may register this week and next for the bicycle, set of luggage, coffee maker and chime clock which will be given away at the drawing to be held at 5 o'clock

April 10.

Jim Adams, former store manager at Coleman, is manager for the new store here. He moved here with his family in February, and has been overseeing the remodeling. Local people have been employed to serve customers at the store.

Thunderstorm Brings First Rainfall

A booming thunderstorm during the wee hours of Wednesday morning last week, brought around a half inch of rain to Ozona, the first recorded this year.

Damage from lightning was reported almost all over the county and especially in Ozona. Television equipment was struck in the north section of town, but was repaired before daylight. West Texas Utilities linemen were on the job for 24 hours before they had repaired all the damage done to power lines and equipment. Several reports of damage to home appliances were circulated the next day.

Ozona Men Recieve Hwy. Safety Awards

Honors were received by a number of Ozona men at award ceremonies conducted Monday morning at the office of Resident Engineer William F. Dixon, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, at Ozona. The Driver No-Accident awards, representing the number of years of accident free driving, are presented annually to eligible employees who operate State vehicles in the performance of their duties. Rules governing the awards extend even to accidents caused by poor loads or mechanical failure, which helps to keep operators aware of vehicle maintenance and condition, and promotes safety-conscious teamwork throughout the Department.

Administrative Assistant Robert E. Stanford of San Angelo presented the awards. Qualifying were: Charles W. Roberts, 2 years; Robert A. Barfield, 3 years; William F. Dixon, 4 years; John A. Lowe, Donald F. Mahannah, James C. Montgomery, Freddie R. Nicks, Julius C. Schroeder, Jessie S. Segars, and L. B. Taylor, all 5 years.

Mecca McMullan Improved After Fall From Horse

Four-year-old Mecca McMullan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny McMullan of Big Lake, was in improved condition at mid-week in Medical Center Hospital in Odessa following days of semi-consciousness suffered in a fall from her horse at the McMullan ranch March 21.

Mecca was astride her mother's roping horse and Mrs. McMullan was leading the horse around a corral at the ranch when the horse became frightened, knocking Mrs. McMullan down and dashing off with the child. Mrs. McMullan called to Mecca to jump, but she did not know if the child did jump or was thrown from the horse. She suffered a concussion to the back of the head, and was transferred almost immediately to the intensive care unit in the Odessa hospital.

After days of tests and semi-consciousness in the intensive care ward, Mecca began to regain use of her limbs, but was unable to speak. As of this writing, she had been transferred to a private room, was talking a little and able to walk around the room.

Mrs. Joe Friend of Ozona, Mecca's grandmother, returned from Odessa over the weekend and indicated the doctor's felt there was improvement in Mecca's condition.

25th Annual Ozona Invitational Track Meet To Be Held Friday

The 24th Annual Ozona Invitational Track Meet will get under way here Friday, tomorrow, with 22 teams competing in three divisions. Class AA schools will compete in Division I, Class A schools in Division II, and Class B schools in Division III. Division I will see Host Ozona competing with Alpine, Crane, McCamey, Sweetwater, Tulia and Van Horn. In Division II the Lion J. V. will compete against Balmorhea, Del Rio J. V., Marfa, Rankin and Stanton. Participating in Division III will be Buena Vista, Garden City, Comstock, Jayton, Marathon, Miles, Nueces Canyon, Sanderson and Water Valley.

A scratch meeting will be held at 2 p.m. at the old field house. Field Events in all divisions get under way at 2:15 and finals in these events finish with a session at 3:35. This will wind up the finals in all field events in all divisions, high jump, long jump, discus, pole vault and shot put.

The concession stand will be open throughout the meet and the OHS track queen will be crowned during a break between events.

The Lions, who come in to their own relays this year with one of their poorest records, will still be favored to win their own meet. They beat Alpine by a hair in the Fort Stockton meet, and have been unable to place first since. However, they have managed to place in all meets entered this year in their division. Rankin and Stanton will be heavy favorites to win the division II title, and the division III title will be up for grabs with the nine Class B schools entered.

The Lions placed third last week in the Queen City Relays in Del Rio with 95 points. They only managed two first places, Ronald Shaw won the 440-yard dash and the mile relay (Whitley, Pagan, Shaw and Crawford) won first with a time of 3:38. Other events and places were as follows:

Bicentennial Fair Is In The Offing

The Ozona chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority is organizing for the county fair which will be held in the park July 3. The sorority has chosen the fair as a Bicentennial Project and members are most anxious that everyone in the community participate.

All organizations and individual groups who wish to participate may contact Mrs. Jimmie Lott or Mrs. Charles Spieker, chairmen, by April 15. Any individuals wishing to participate by singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument or performing a skit should also get in touch with either of the above women.

Organizations already reserving space at the fair include the Home Demonstration Club with a country kitchen; Beta Sigma Phi, an arts and crafts booth; Girl Scouts, a lemonade stand; Womens League, a fishing pond, hot-dog stand and commemorative balloons; Eastern Star, a cake walk; 4-H Club, a watermelon booth. Three other local groups have requested a booth but have not decided what type yet.

There is room for everyone at the fair, and it will take the entire community to make it a real success. Sorority members want to make it a day to remember for all ages and everybody's ideas and support is solicited. They remind the community that this will be the last chance to celebrate the country's 200th birthday, and urge all to participate in Ozona's County Fair.

Placing third in the top flight was the Pecos team of Moss, Miller, Golden and Cox. They carded a 128 for the third place victory.

Powerline Hanger Not Impressive At 5 A.M.

By W. E. White

What with all the newspaper headlines devoted to the bizarre antics of those publicity seekers who sit on top of flagpoles for days, who walk on wires strung between 50-story buildings in the downtown of cities or who stand on ledges of high buildings in a suicide threat, it's little wonder that a truck driver would not be too impressed with a man hanging from a powerline pole by his arms in downtown Ozona at five o'clock in the morning.

The truck driver didn't consider it unusual that the crossarm hanger-on had flung down his hat in front of the oncoming truck in an effort to attract the driver's attention. He just barreled on through leaving the poor fellow hanging--and at five o'clock of a misty, rainy morning.

Fortunately for the crossarm hanger-on, a Crockett county deputy sheriff happened to be cruising by the area in front of the Ranch Theatre building and looked up when he saw a man's glove come floating down in front of his cruiser. He did pass on by a few yards--to the momentary dismay of the man on the pole--while the unusual facts penetrated his consciousness. He stopped and backed up.

"Help," came the cry from skyward--and the lawman quickly grasped the situation. A ladder up which it was apparent the poleman had climbed, was standing askew, its base at a dangerous angle and the top out of reach of the outstretched toe of the suspended lineman. With the ladder replaced to the proper position and firmly held in place by the burly deputy the hanger was able to find firm footing and descended with a great sigh of relief.

He wasn't a "Lineman for the countee" he was Oscar Kost, manager of the Ozona Television System. The severe thunderstorm of the night before had knocked out a fuse in the television cable system and Manager Kost was out early to run down the location of the trouble. The pavement was wet and the crossarm was wet and Mr. Kost, working alone at that unearthly hour, sought to balance the ladder foot with a crescent wrench--the only thing available. Of course, the ladder slipped and Kost sought to bring it back with his toes. He succeeded once but then lost his gain and the ladder got completely away--and there he was hanging by his arms and no way to reach the errant ladder.

Some friends were due to pick up Mr. Kost at 6:30 that morning for a trip to Austin and that was the reason for the early morning repair effort. Maybe there was small comfort for him knowing that when 6:30 came his friends would be looking for him and he had a maximum of only an hour and a half to hang from the power pole.

Inheritance Tax Kills The Little Fellow

The highest standard of living enjoyed by the people of the United States has been due, in no small part, to the favorable economic environment provided for the small, independent, family-operated farms and businesses. However, over the years a combination of higher and higher taxes plus more and more inflation has destroyed thousands of these independent enterprises. Back in 1942, for example, there were over 6,000,000 family farms in the United States. Today, there are far less than half that number.

One reason for this disastrous turn of events has been the crushing blow of the Federal Estate Tax. The amount of personal and real property exempted from federal estate taxes was fixed by Congress back in 1942, and it hasn't been changed since that time. As a result, many children who have inherited family-owned farms or businesses have been forced either to sell them or go heavily in debt in order to pay the estate taxes — or simply fold up altogether.

The amount of the exemption allowed wasn't too bad, back in 1942, $60,000. But that sum doesn't go very far now. In actual dollars, the land, buildings and equipment that cost $60,000 back in 1942 will today cost you close to $240,000. Or, to put it another way, a business or farm which costs $60,000 today is equivalent to about $15,000 in 1942 dollars.

Well, you couldn't buy much of a farm or business for $15,000 in 1942, and you certainly can't buy much of a farm or business today for $60,000. But if you inherit that 1942-$60,000 business or farm today, IRS is going to sock you for over $42,000 in estate taxes.

Congressman Charles Thone of Nebraska had introduced legislation to raise the tax exemption to $200,000, and President Ford has proposed allowing more time to pay the tax — up to 20 years at 4% interest — but still limiting the exemption to only $60,000.

Neither one of these proposals, it seems to us, is enough. It's time for Congress, and the President, to come up with some genuine and meaningful help to prevent more of our small farms and family-owned business firms from being wiped out due to the present confiscatory tax structure.

SOFT ON CRIMINALS

Do the courts in the United States — a country renowned for its Constitutional guarantees to the right to life of its citizens — now consider human life to be so cheap and of such little value that thieves and murderers can destroy innocent lives, with little or no possibility that they will be punished for their crimes?

It is not an idle question. Consider:
— In Washington, D.C., a confessed murderer — who bragged, on tape and on camera, that he had committed murder as a paid "hit man" — was arrested and arraigned in the D.C. Superior Court early in March. Within hours after his arrest, the man was freed by the Court and back on the streets, having posted a mere $1,000 bond. The judge cited a technicality in the law.

— On October 11, 1974, in Rockville, Maryland, a young hoodlum with a sawed-off shotgun blasted away the life of a young, 18-year-old, clean-cut Montgomery College student, Mahlon McCracken. Indicted for first-degree murder and three handgun felonies, the killer "plea bargained" and pled guilty to second-degree murder. For this cold-blooded crime, the killer was given a four-year prison sentence, which, under liberal parole rules, means that he could be released in a year or less.

— Frank Carrington, in his book, THE VICTIMS (Arlington House Publishers) tells of a hideous rape-murder in Iowa. The defendant had been advised of his "Miranda" rights three times. But, because he voluntarily told the police where the body of his victim was buried, he was released by a Federal Court judge.

Folks in the Washington, D.C., area were shocked by a mass murder which took place in early March of this year. Five innocent victims, including a Nigerian couple studying at Luther Rice College to prepare themselves for missionary service in their country, were slaughtered at a popular family restaurant by (at this writing) an unknown killer. But, why not? Surely, murderers are encouraged by the fact that convicted and confessed killers are being given prison sentences less than that which they might have received for cheating on their income tax.

District of Columbia Police Chief Maurice J. Cullinane calls our criminal justice system a "revolving door for criminals." Isn't it about time that we begin to remove those judges from our courts, by impeachment or other means, whose sympathies are clearly with the criminals rather than with their victims?

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Pressure is on Gov. Dolph Briscoe to call a special legislative session in an effort to get relief from rising gas and electric bills.

Electric cooperatives and legislators publicly have urged emergency action. Briscoe said he is keeping an open mind on the subject and would consider special session action if presented a program that might accomplish anything — and which could pass.

Most proposals advanced to date have centered on outlawing fuel adjustment allowances which permit gas companies to pass along costs of their supplies to customers regardless of long-term contracts.

Others have included repeal of the sales tax on gas and electricity and reforming the occupation tax on gas production.

House Speaker Bill Clayton called a two-day workshop session for April 1-2 on legislation to shift more of the gas production tax to out-of-state users.

Clayton estimated Texas consumers might save $25 million a year if the tax were shifted to a flat rate rather than percentage of price basis.

The Senate's consumer affairs sub-committee also set hearings April 12-13 on the entire range of natural gas problems including price, supply, taxation, the price pass-through and regulation.

Funds "Vanish" Millions of dollars in Duval County funds have "simply vanished," Comptroller Bob Bullock said in a new audit report on the stormy South Texas county.

Bullock said Duval faces financial crisis, is "going broke" and cannot meet its August 1 payroll at current spending levels.

Highlights of the report included an account of an "unknown depositor" who walked off with a quarter million dollars in public funds with no accounting.

Bullock also said Duval County Conservation and Reclamation District has collected $11 million in revenue and has only $1.6 million in improvements and fees to show for it. He said the county ignores millions of dollars in tax delinquencies and has "excused" major taxpayers of hundreds of thousands of dollars in taxes.

Study Ordered The State Welfare Department is seeking an outside opinion on how it can improve its $1 billion-a-year operations.

The Welfare Board April 15 will consider a proposal to hire a national management consultant firm to take on the job.

Top state officials recently told agency heads they should review their financial needs and find new ways to improve their productivity.

Completion of the evaluation would be expected early in 1977.

Bob Krueger Reports
U. S. Representative 21st District

When I was back in the district last weekend, I walked door-to-door in San Antonio to hear firsthand some of the concerns of the people I represent. I find that I have the opportunity to meet some people by speaking before various groups, but if I wish to get the broadest spectrum of views I need to seek out directly people who may not be members of service groups and other organizations that invite congressmen to speak.

One of the concerns I found frequently in my house-to-house visits was puzzlement and resentment over increasing utility costs. In particular, people are concerned by the fuel adjustment clause, which often is higher than the utility charge itself. I have been working since coming to Washington to promote fairness and equity in energy costs and to promote decisions that will address not only the immediate problem, but also the need for wise planning for the future.

First, I consider it essential that we require other states to pay as much for our energy as we pay ourselves. We have for some years in Texas been subsidizing these states, which buy our energy more cheaply than we can get it at home. Now that those states are beginning to run out of cheap supplies of energy, they wish to extend federal controls into our state in order to allocate the oil and gas produced in Texas among all states, producing and consuming. If they succeed in this (and, surprisingly, some people in Texas actually favor giving them such power) we will suffer shortages such as they do and our power to attract industry and jobs, and to meet our own needs, will be diminished. My deregulation bills would have made those states pay their fair share and would have increased their supplies, and our own.

If we can even-out our use of electricity during the day, we can save vast amounts of money in the construction of new facilities. Today, many electrical generating plants have the capacity to produce twice the power normally being used just so they can meet the needs of "peak times." All consumers will save money if we can balance our electrical use.

WASHINGTON—Nothing is certain but death and taxes, and no taxes are more unfair or more counterproductive than the taxes on death.

Some amazing miscalculations have been made in tax law, but none have ever been wider of the mark than the federal estate tax.

The estate tax was supposed to keep the rich from becoming unduly richer through accumulating vast estates and passing them on, virtually intact, to their children.

But that isn't what's happening. The estate tax has had very little impact on the truly wealthy, who have the wherewithal to hire lawyers clever enough to circumvent its provisions.

But the estate tax is massacring the family farmers and the small businessmen who wish to leave their property to their sons and daughters.

For a long time, the estate tax did apply only to the truly wealthy. The middle class was exempted from its confiscatory bite. But the estate tax exemption hasn't been raised in 33 years, and its effect on the middle class has been devastating.

In 1942, when the federal estate tax exemption was raised to its present level of $60,000, it applied to only the top one per cent of all the estates in the country.

Today, thanks to inflation and the rise in real incomes, ten times as many estates—and fully 75 per cent of all Americans—now feel the bite of the estate tax. Even some elderly retired people who have never earned more than $4,000 or $5,000 a year in their lives have estates worth more than $60,000.

The effect on the family farmer and the small businessman is brutal. Frequently, the business must be sold off or the farm split up in order to pay the estate tax.

Meanwhile, the larger farmers and the big businessmen avoid the estate taxes by forming corporations, which live forever.

Thus, the estate tax in its present form doesn't tax the people it is supposed to tax, and taxes people it isn't supposed to tax.

The economic hardship the estate tax imposes on family farmers and small businessmen isn't compensated for by generating large revenues for the federal treasury. Last year it produced only $5.1 billion, 1.6 per cent of all revenues. In 1930, when the tax hit only the genuinely wealthy, it produced 1.8 per cent of all federal revenues.

Clearly, the time for reform is long overdue. President Ford has proposed raising the estate tax exemption to $150,000, to be phased in over a period of five years. I have cosponsored a bill to raise the exemption to $200,000. Congress should act soon on one or the other of these measures.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

April is a favorite month and one to enjoy the results of autumn planning and planting...

With a late Easter this year it may not be safe to plant tender bedding plants...

Perennials should be divided and replanted this month to get a root system established before summer heat...

Feed roses with a rose food, and be sure to follow directions on the label...

Summer vacation trips will cost more this year, and specific planning now will save over-dependence on "plastic money"...

For a couple, meals will average about $20-25 a day, and room costs will be about $25 per day...

Families can figure approximately how much it will cost and set a goal to save that amount...

Specific ways to save for people who can't save include: --put aside at the end of the day all the change left in your pockets...

Don't forget April clean-up this month, so start getting trash ready for the pick-up. Dates will be given later. The draws through our city are being littered by careless dumping when there is no reason for this. All trash will be picked up if placed in trash cans and placed available to trucks.

One Bi-Centennial project that has brightened Ozona is the painting of the fire plugs, red, white and blue. Maybe the high school student council will join in our April clean-up. Congratulations to them.

Improving Rural Life Is Theme Of National Rural Health Week

"Improving the Quality of Rural Life Through Better Health" is the theme of National Rural Health Week, April 4-10, which is being sponsored in Texas by the American Medical Association and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Aim of National Rural Health Week is to focus attention of the medical profession and the public on rural America's health needs," points out Jack Jones, resources development specialist for the Extension Service.

Sul Ross Rodeo To Host Hi Schoolers

The Sul Ross State University Rodeo Club will host the Regional High School Rodeo finals at the Sul Ross Rodeo Arena May 7-9.

According to Dr. Paul Weyerts, Sul Ross faculty member and Rodeo Club sponsor, winners from this Region II rodeo will be allowed to enter the Texas High School Rodeo Finals at Hallettsville, Texas, June 15-19.

All high school boys and girls who are interested in the Regional High School Rodeo must apply for membership in the State and National High School Rodeo Association at least 30 days prior to the rodeo in order that applications can be processed by State Secretary Paul Cook of Hallettsville. Deadline for the Alpine Region is April 15.

There are 37 counties in the Alpine region. They include El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Reeves, Brewster, Pecos, Terrell, Crockett, Val Verde, Schleicher, Sutton, Edwards, Menard, Kimble, Ward, Crane, Upton, Reagan, Irion, Tom Green, Concho, Loving, Winkler, Ector, Midland, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke, Runnels, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Nolan and Taylor.

The need for rural health care in Texas is "desperate" for many small Texas communities, notes Jones. The woes are several, from lack of proper equipment in hospitals to not even having a hospital or a doctor for many, many miles.

"Statistically, health care in Texas is in critical condition," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist. A 1970 study by the Office of Comprehensive Health Planning in Texas found the average physician-to-population ratio for rural areas of the state to be one doctor per 1,467 persons.

The osteopath-population ratio for rural Texas was found to be one per 11,806. In June, 1973, 17 Texas counties with a total population of 29,004 were without physicians, according to the Texas Medical Association.

Jones cites other facts to illustrate the need for rural health care in Texas. In January, 1967, the federal government under the Medicare program classified 248 hospitals in small Texas towns as "7-C" facilities, indicating they were either understaffed or under-equipped. In June, 1973, the number of "7-C" hospitals had been reduced to 63, largely because 101 hospitals closed when they could not meet federal standards.

Statistics also reveal the urgent need for improved emergency health care, says the specialist. A 1972 survey by the Texas State Health Resource's Civil Defense and Traffic Safety Division showed 29 Texas counties without emergency rooms and 13 counties without ambulance service. The survey also showed about 20 per cent, or more than 2,25 million Texans in 178 counties, have neither local, county or state public health programs.

During National Rural Health Week Jones urges Texans to familiarize themselves with the National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-641) and the 12 newly formed health service areas in Texas. These areas are designed to provide better delivery of health care for both rural and urban Texas. Citizen understanding and involvement in these regional health care planning organizations should result in improved delivery of medical services to the Texas citizenry.

NOTE OF THANKS

I would like to thank the hospital staff, the doctors, the nurses and all for the care given me during my recent stay in the hospital. I received excellent care from the doctors and nurses, the food was always tastefully prepared and I feel I would not have received better care anywhere. For this I extend my deep appreciation.

Sincerely,
Victor L. Pierce

Ozona Man Represents FLBA At Meet

Pleas L. Childress, Jr., of Ozona, has just returned from Houston where he represented the Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora at the annual stockholders meeting of The Federal Land Bank of Houston. The meeting held at the Houston Oaks Hotel, was attended by members of 66 Federal Land Bank Associations in Texas. There were about 550 persons in attendance.

George W. Cunningham, President, in his annual report to stockholders, reported that the demand for new loans declined from the previous two years; however, 1975 was still the third largest year in the bank's history and also the third consecutive year that loan closings had exceeded $200 million. Dr. Phil Gram, Economist on Leave of absence from Texas A & M University and B. K. Johnson, a prominent South Texas rancher and director of the King Ranch Corporation, also addressed stockholders and guests during the meeting.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long-term loans on farms and ranches throughout Texas and currently has 35,000 loans for more than $1,145,000,000 outstanding.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora makes and services loans in this area. Members of the Board of Directors are Frank Bond, Pleas L. Childress, Jr., Otis Deal, Frank F. McMullan, Jr., and James T. Williams, Jr. Others attending the meeting from this area were A. E. Prugel, Manager.

Savings Bonds 1% Of Goal For January

According to Mr. Lowell Littleton, Chairman of the Crockett County Savings Bonds Committee, the 1976 Savings Bond goal for the county is $30,000. January sales of Series E and H United States Savings Bonds totaled $1,870 for 1% of the sales goal.

The 1976 sales goal for Texas is $272.4 million. During the month sales were $24,118,300 compared to January 1975 sales of $23,290,606.

Easter Seal Support Urged

A further request for support of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its program of services to the handicapped was issued today by Roy H. Thompson of Ozona, who is the County Easter Seal Representative, for Crockett County.

The Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services for 10,768 physically handicapped children and adults in Texas last year, and this program needs to be expanded. Many people are going without services that would increase the productivity of their lives and make them happier. Increased public support of the Easter Seal Society will enable more and more of these people to be reached.

The Society is carrying out a continuing program to seek out the disabled who are doing without services and see that they receive the help they need. The Easter Seal Representative is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society.

The Easter Seal Society of Texas helps support treatment facilities in Texas where crippled children and adults who are not eligible for help from any other source are treated, regardless of their ability to pay. A complete referral program to ensure equal rehabilitation services to every person in Texas is a major Easter Seal Society service. Physical, occupational and speech therapy and orthopedic equipment purchases are also offered to help the handicapped overcome their disabilities.

The Easter Seal Appeal continues through Easter Sunday, April 18 and full support by every citizen was urged.

The monthly rummage sale to benefit the American Cancer Society will be held Monday, April 5, from 2 until 5 p.m. The sale will be held at the Thrift Shop behind Jack's Super Market.

Texas To Gain One Million Jobs In Next Ten Years

Texas will gain at least one million jobs between now and 1985, predicts Texas Employment Commission chairman Harold K. Dudley. "A preliminary trend projection shows that employment in Texas is expected to be over six million in 1985," Dudley said. "That's approximately one million more than are working now. Future developments could result in even greater gain. "In my estimation, Texas has the best economic potential of any state in the nation," Dudley said. "With this situation, we can expect new job opportunities in the future." The TEC chairman cited several indications that Texas is on the upswing: --Bureau of Census figures show that Texas has moved from fourth to third position in population among the 50 states. --A study made by the Illinois Manufacturers Association shows Texas leading the nation in new manufacturing jobs over a seven-year period. --The Fantus Company, a subsidiary of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., rates Texas as having the best business climate of any state in the nation. --The Family Circle magazine late last year listed 49 good places to live and work, and the first nine named were Texas cities. "These are but a few of the many indications that this state can look forward to prosperity," Dudley observed. "Texas is in an enviable position, as it has four areas of powerful growth potential: industry, agriculture, energy resources, and the fact that it is a good place to live and work."

"Texas has the best industrial potential of any state in the nation," the TEC chairman declared, noting that while the present concentration is mainly in metropolitan areas, there is great opportunity for industry in other parts of the state. The absence of corporate income taxes and low unemployment insurance taxes--the third lowest in the nation--enhances business climate, he said. "Then there are Texas' vast agricultural resources," he continued. "Governor Briscoe has wisely called for expansion of agricultural production. Not only is agriculture important to the state, but it is becoming increasingly vital throughout the world. It is our nation's only means of balancing foreign trade and is a key factor in our international diplomatic and political affairs. The number of Texas farm workers may not rise, but there will be additional jobs created as result of expansion of agricultural production."

"For energy resources," Dudley said, "Texas is also fortunate. We have petroleum, sunlight, coal, winds, tides, and geothermal resources, all either present or future sources of energy. Texas has long been a leader in petroleum production, and this state has a preponderance of technical knowhow in the energy field. With our potential energy resources, this state could well lead the nation in energy production. "Broad scale expansion of industry, agriculture, and energy production--or any one of these--will bring new job opportunities and new technology to the state," the TEC chairman declared. "In addition," Dudley continued, "Texas is a good place to live. A lot of people are realizing this, as there is a migration into the state. Houston, is the fastest growing of the 10 largest American cities. A number of other Texas cities, including Killeen, Belton, Fort Worth, Dallas, and Austin, are also showing rapid population gains."

"In my estimation, Texas' time has arrived," Dudley declared, "and this situation should last as long as we maintain a good economic climate and properly plan to take care of the growth."

April S. S. Visit Set

Garland Gregg, social security representative for the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his April visit to Ozona. He will be at the County Courthouse on Wednesday, April 21 from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time. Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo. Residents of Ozona may call toll free by dialing "Operator" and asking for "Enterprise 2058."

For Good Conversation, Learn To Listen Well

A conversation has to have at least two parties--the speaker and the listener. Nearly everyone can be a speaker, but it takes extra attention to be a good listener, Mrs. Ilene Miller, a family life education specialist, contends. "Many people listen far below their potential. But following some guidelines can help improve listening ability at least 25 per cent," she said. Mrs. Miller is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. "Develop a positive attitude about listening to what others are saying. Concentrate on the person who is talking--rather than be preoccupied with your own thoughts and problems. Also, it takes concentration on the message to understand exactly what the person is saying," she explained. Listeners need to consider the accuracy and source of what is being said. Is the speaker stating facts or giving his own opinion? Analyze his ideas and try to determine whether the speaker's feelings, experiences or position are influencing his statements, she added. "Keep an open mind--and let the speaker finish what he is saying. You may not always agree with what he says, but it is important to keep an open mind and try to understand why the person thinks as he does. Asking questions may help him explain some statements which seem unclear to you. "Be an active listener. Let the speaker know that you are interested in what he is saying by remaining alert and keeping eye contact. Facial expression often lets the speaker know whether he has his audience 'tuned in' or 'tuned off', the specialist said.
