A record number of voters turned out at the polls in Yoakum County in Tuesday's general election, with a total of 1,934 ballots being cast.

Unofficial returns showed that the county went for Adlai Stevenson by the narrow margin of 66 votes. The final tabulation gave Stevenson 989 votes and Eisenhower 923.

The county followed the trend in the South Plains where Stevenson was favored by more than 11,000 votes. Eisenhower carried only three area counties Lubbock, Andrews, and Hale.

In other issues on the ballot, Yoakum county voters—as well as those over the entire area—gave overwhelming approval to all eight of the proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The biggest margins were given to Amendments 1 and 4, providing compensation to person wrongfully convicted of crimes and revising the state teacher retirement system, respectively. The vote for the former was 1395 to 154, and for the latter was 1558 to 123.

Voting on the amendments by precincts may be found in the table on the front page.

Yoakum County approved Price Daniel for governor by giving him 1462 votes, allowing Republican William Bryant only 114, and W. Lee O'Daniel, unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination last summer, 235.

Martin Dies got 1625 votes for congressman-at-large, while his Republican opponent garnered 10. Democrat Will Wilson was favored for attorney general 1678 to 107 for Republican Leo Duran. Robert W. Calvert (Democrat) polled 1642 to Constitution Party hopeful John R. Anthony's 11 votes for associate justice of the supreme court.

For railroad commissioner, Democrat William Murray got 1656 votes to 11 for Constitution party candidate Joseph Rummel. Robert Calvert (Democrat) got 1649 votes for state comptroller, while E. G. Brown (Constitutionist) got 9.

Jesse James (Democrat) received 1676 votes for state treasurer; Bard Logan (Constitutionist) got 6. Agriculture Commissioner John White (Democrat) got 1643 votes, while Republican Sam Singleton polled 114.

Other voting included: Mahon, congressman 19th district, 1757; Williams, district attorney, 1733; Preston Smith, senator 28th district, 1752; Bowers, state representative, 98th district, 1742; Vernon Townes, county attorney, 1768; Robert Chambliss, county sheriff and tax collector-assessor, 1779.

Heaviest voting in the county was reported from Box 7 (elementary school in Denver City) where a total of 553 ballots were cast. Final counting at the box was not completed until midnight. Number voting exceeded the 553 on the eligible list by two, due to "over and under" who vote on exemptions.

Several write-in were made in the balloting. The popular "Joe Smith" received three votes for governor, one each in Boxes 7, 3 and 9, while George Parr polled two votes, one from Box 7 and the other from Box 9. J. P. Williams also received a write in vote from Box 5 for the office of county attorney.

TO CLOSE MONDAY

Postmistress Verda Lee Robertson announced this week that the Post Office would be closed all day Monday in observance of Veterans Day which falls on Sunday this year.

Romain, City Agree On Rental Of Poles For Phone, Lights

City of Plains and Romain Telephone Co., this week entered into a joint use agreement whereby the phone company will rent poles from the city's electric system. The poles would be part of the city's electric distribution system and be property of the city.

It is held that the agreement will be economical to both parties in that Romain would not have to install a system of poles inside the city and that the phone company would help pay the cost of those poles installed by the city.

Included in the terms of the agreement are that the phone company will pay 70 cents per year per pole for use of the system.

The city will require 35 foot poles and Romain only needs poles of 25 feet height. The city would use higher position and the phone company would attach to the lower section on the poles.

Mayor Roger Curry announced that work on the distribution system had begun. Lewis Construction Co. of Tahoka is contractor.

NEW EDITOR — Publisher H. C. Snyder this week announced the appointment of Rosa Lee (Mrs. Johnny) Myers to the position of managing editor of the Yoakum County Review. Mrs. Myers assumes the duties formerly performed by her husband who is now the news editor of the Lovington Press. There are no changes planned in the publication of The Review other than the change of personnel. —Review Photo

Okey $250,000 School Building Program Here

Contracts totalling $252,019 for the enlarging of the Plains schools were awarded Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the board of trustees.

The general construction contract was awarded to H. R. Bundock of Lubbock for $199,744. Electrical work was contracted with Rowan & Wallace of Lubbock for $13,240, while R. W. Gray of Odessa was awarded the heating and plumbing contract for $39,035.

The cafeteria is being built large enough to adequately serve quite a few more than can be accommodated by the one currently in use. Several items are included in the planning of this department to minimize the institutional atmosphere that usually dominated school cafeterias. It is felt, Supt. Kennedy said, that this cafeteria will be enjoyed by various community organizations as well as the student body.

The shop building will be adequate in every respect including a mechanical drawing or drafting department.

The nature of the project, the superintendent pointed out, is such that it is almost imperative that it be completed by the opening of the 1957-58 school year. Its completion will give the Plains School district a plant for which it can be justly proud.

Supt. Kennedy explained that on October 31, the Plains Independent school board passed a resolution authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds in the amount of $350,000. As a result of this action, the bond issue approved on July 7, 1956, will be retired over a 10-year period instead of 15 years. This action which has been completed will save the taxpayers of the Plains Independent School District over $40,000 in interest payments.

Yoakum County's cotton harvest is moving into the second stretch with about 15,000 bales already ginned in the county's six gins. The crop is expected to exceed 19,000 bales.

All ginneries contacted stated the grade of cotton has been steady all year and prices are good. Grades are mostly middlin with only light spots and some has graded out strict middlin with about one-third spots.

Ginning figures at the northern gins are:

D. C. Newsom, 3,319.
C. G. & S. Gin, 2,700.
Bronco Gin, 2,200.
Hilburn & Spears, 3,431.

JACK FLINT

Jack Flint Asks Release from Co. Hospital Position

Jack Flint, manager of the Yoakum County Hospital here since June, 1955, was to submit his resignation to the hospital board of directors at their regular meeting tonight (Thursday).

The resignation will be effective December 15. Mr. Flint has accepted a position with Southwestern Surgical Supply as manager of the company's branch store in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He will begin his new duties on January 2nd.

Flint said he will take three or four weeks special training at the company's main store in El Paso before beginning his duties at Albuquerque. The family, including his wife and two small daughters, will move to Albuquerque shortly after the middle of December.

Mr. Flint came to Denver City from Fort Sumner, New Mexico, where he had been administrator and x-ray and lab technician at the hospital.

Action on a successor to Flint as manager of Yoakum County hospital is expected to be taken by the board in the near future.

Cowboys Face Ropesville Friday In Final Home Game Of Season

The Plains Cowboys entertain the Ropesville Eagles Friday night on the local gridiron in the last home contest of the season. Game time is 8:00.

The Ropesville team has had its ups and downs this year, but evidently can be plenty tough when the occasion demands, as they gave Frenship all they wanted to handle before finally falling. However on the other hand, Seagraves defeated them rather handily.

The Cowboys look to be in good shape for the battle, and although they are out of the district title picture, will be battling hard to finish as high in the league as possible.

Last Friday night, the Seagraves Eagles finally dumped the Cowboys, 52-41, in a tremendous display of offensive power by both squads.

A 19-point second quarter surge gave the visiting Seagraves eleven an advantage the Cowboys could not overcome despite a 14-point final period.

The phenomenal passing of quarterback Harold Smith kept the Plains hopes alive even though they trailed for more than half of the contest. Smith completed seven out of 15 passes for five touchdowns and better than 300 yards. His favorite target was big Jimmy Williams, who snagged three aerials for scores, and speedster Jackie Bass also caught a pair for touchdowns. The other Plains score came when Jim Roy Robertson intercepted a Seagraves pitchout and scampered 30 yards to pay dirt. Dwain Row-

OVER $28,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE AT NEWSOM GIN THURSDAY

Fire, originating in a waste bur pile, last Thursday got out of control about 9:30 p. m. and consumed two trucks, 50 bales of seed cotton, 41 remnant bales of cotton and 22 trailers at D. C. Newsom & Son Gin Co. at Plains before it was brought under control.

Damage was estimated at $28,420 by Mr. Newsom. The fire began about 11 a. m. and was controlled until the wind shifted that night. All members of the Plains Volunteer Fire Department and the city's two trucks answered the fire call. The new fire truck which only last week passed the state fire commission test was put into use.

By 10 a. m. Friday morning the gin yard had been cleared of fire

SHIFTING AND HIGHER WINDS, fanning a blaze which was controlled until that time, resulted in a fire which raged out of control at the D. C. Newsom & Son Gin Company last Thursday night. The blaze originated in a waste bur pile, but spread to destroy two trucks, 22 trailers and numerous bales of cotton. It was reported that the loss was fully covered with insurance. —Review Photo

There will be another across the state. However of just having an amendment to the state constitution to Yoakum County voters before them the proposition of some $90,000 in for the construction, e- and maintenance of a library at Denver City and at Plains.

and issue also has a tax proposition on the ballot you will be taxed for ences I advise you to get and vote your choice. If in favor you had better because those against the issue will certainly vote you are against the issue and better be at the polls it's assured that a large of those in favor of the will vote.

is no advice from here to vote, except that people around Plains (those that benefit most from the Plains) should study the plans carefully. There is equity in sums of money sent with Denver City to a tentative two-thirds of State law prohibits a city building and library is the same proposition—so plan to build a com-building-library for Plains. But, in Denver City library plans show a meeting room nearly as the entire Plains and in addition it will clinic and county tax of- falled. Judge H. K. Ben-

TIMELY TIPS

By LA RUE GILMORE
County Home Demonstration Agent

The age in which we live can truly be called the jet age. This is not only true in business and industry but also in the field of home economics and homemaking. For approximately two years home economists have been anticipating some things which would shorten the cooking period and thus eliminate so much time spent in the kitchen. About a year ago one company came out with an electronic range for home cooking. It is a heatless oven that roasts, bakes, boils and steams in a matter of minutes or a matter of seconds by high frequency micro-waves.

At the time of this demonstration of the first electronic range a 4 pound roast of prime ribs of beef, usually requiring three hours to cook took 30 minutes to prepare. Potatoes baked in 8 minutes; a 14 pound turkey cooked in 90 minutes; and a 2 layer cake in six minutes. There are now five companies which have electronic range models; General Electric, Hotpoint, Kelvinator, RCA-Whirlpool, Westinghouse and Tappan. One producer estimated that the sales for the electronic oven production for 1956 could easily reach 3500 units. By 1960 some are expecting to sell 100,000 such units per year. Right now the main drawback to these ranges is the item of cost. Very few average people are now ready to pay $1,000 to $2,000 for a range. If this range begins to be predominated in the American home it will alter many practices which are now accepted as being standard information. For instance techniques of cooking will be altered, new types of cooking equipment will be needed. Recipe books will be obsolete especially with regard to timing. Some manufacturers are now making utensils strictly for use by the electronic range.

Dorcias Class Meets In Curry Home; Halloween Party Held After Meeting

The Dorcias Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night October 30, in the home of Mrs. Rogers Curry for a regular class meeting. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. W. M. Overton.

A devotional was led by Mrs. Cleo Longbrake from the verse "study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." II Timothy 2:15.

Mrs. L. O. Free, class president conducted the business meeting. The class voted to participate in donating toys to children in the various orphanages; cards were signed by each one present to be sent to members who were ill; and plans were discussed concerning the December meeting which is to be a family affair.

Appropriate games, carrying out the Halloween season were conducted by the social chairman. The house was decorated in the Fall theme which included a lovely arrangement of large yellow mums and dock on the dining table which was covered with a lace cloth.

The Halloween motifs were carried out in the refreshment plate of chocolate cupcakes, frosted with orange and chocolate icing into Jack-o-lanterns, miniature candy pumpkins, sandwiches, olives, pickles and spiced tea.

Present were Mesdames G. D. Kennedy, Neil Parks, C. J. Coffman, Roger Harvey, Joe Curry, Vicie Hinkle, Amos Smith, Sherm Tingle, Bert Bartlett, John E. Fitzgerald, K. O. Hendricks, a guest and Rojana Harvey, Renau Hendricks, Kathy Curry and the hostess.

The next meeting will be in December at the home of Mrs. Roger Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Swann of Idalou and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Belvins of Wilson were guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swann.

Many establishments have now installed electronic cooking so it is possible that you have eaten some without knowing it. Speaking from personal experience the food has no different taste than that which you are now enjoying. The electronic range is absolutely safe. By safe it is meant that there is no burning because when the oven door is opened the rays are immediately and automatically turned off. Thus there is no way of being burned by the rays.

The range is cool. For instance if food is cooked in serving dishes it may be taken from the range by hand and set on the table. This is done because the micro-rays only heat the food itself and not the dishes or cooking utensils. Utensils only become hot when heat from the food is transmitted to them. Hot pads are seldom required—only when the special broiling elements is used.

When the ranges first came on the market, the meat would not brown and it was a gray color instead of the accepted golden brown. Browning is especially desirable for some meats because it enhances the flavor and adds to the attractiveness. Thus a browning device has been added by placing a highwatt heating element inside the oven which can be operated simultaneously with the micro-wave unit. It is clean, too. Since the foods cook so fast they do not stick to the pans or utensils. Since foods may be cooked in the dishes in which they will be served, there are fewer dishes to wash. Also when foods are spilled the oven is not hard to clean because the sides do not get hot. Since the sides do not get hot they may be wiped with a damp cloth.

Even though it has so many features it is not a "one minute wonder" and should be used for the things which it does best. That is, probably supplemented with surface cooking. An electronic range will not do these things—bake an angel food cake, do well with tougher cuts of meat bake biscuits well, cook frozen food packed in aluminum containers, cook eggs in their shell "as is".

Picture Story Of Bible Is Scheduled

The Bible story in pictures and teaching will be presented by Mr. M. F. McKnight at the Hillside Church of Christ, Plains, November 11 - 18, at 7 each evening.

Mr. McKnight has traveled in the Near East and has toured the Bible Lands taking pictures of Bible scenes. The pictures and scriptures from the Bible will be shown on a large screen as Mr. McKnight tells the Bible story from Genesis onward.

The Church of Christ extends to you a cordial invitation to attend each evening.

placing a highwatt heating element inside the oven which can be operated simultaneously with the micro-wave unit. It is clean, too. Since the foods cook so fast they do not stick to the pans or utensils. Since foods may be cooked in the dishes in which they will be served, there are fewer dishes to wash. Also when foods are spilled the oven is not hard to clean because the sides do not get hot. Since the sides do not get hot they may be wiped with a damp cloth.

Even though it has so many features it is not a "one minute wonder" and should be used for the things which it does best. That is, probably supplemented with surface cooking. An electronic range will not do these things—bake an angel food cake, do well with tougher cuts of meat bake biscuits well, cook frozen food packed in aluminum containers, cook eggs in their shell "as is".

County Attorney Townes Explains Library Vote Eligibility Requirements

Just who is eligible to vote in next Tuesday's election on a proposed $90,000 bond issue to erect and equip libraries in both Denver City and Plains, has caused considerable questioning during the past few days.

In an effort to clarify the point, The Press requested County Attorney Vernon Townes to prepare a statement explaining eligibility of voters in the bond election. It was pointed out that the following has no bearing on the special state amendment election which will be held on the same day; anyone eligible to vote in the general election just past may cast a ballot on the amendment.

County Attorney Townes' statement is as follows:

Article 701 provides that the bonds of a County, City or Town shall never be issued for any purpose unless a proposition for the issuance of bond shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters who are property tax payers in such County, City or Town.

Article 5.03 of the election code provides that when an election is held by a County for the purpose of issuing bonds or otherwise lending credit only qualified voters who own taxable property in the County where such election is held, and who have duly rendered the same taxation, shall be qualified to vote, and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence.

I emphasize that the above statute which is a part of the fairly recently enacted election code, having been enacted by the acts of legislature of 1951, provides that property must have been rendered for taxes. It is my understanding that in prior years voting was based on the question of whether or not the individual had actually paid taxes. Under the present law the payment of taxes does not affect the question of being a qualified voter on a County bond issue, but the rendition of property for taxes is the controlling question. Also, a person would be a qualified voter if he had rendered personal property for taxes, regardless of whether he owns real estate. The mere rendition of property for taxes is all that is required. See Handy vs Holman 281 S. W. 2nd. 356. Also the same case states that in determining whether electors have duly rendered property for taxation so as to be qualified to vote in a Bond Election, the amount of property rendered and the motive prompting such rendition are immaterial, and such matters, in and of themselves, cannot constitute fraud.

Voters who have not duly rendered property for taxation are disqualified absolutely from voting in Bond Elections. See Rouw vs Harrington 281 S W 2nd 746.

The voter himself must be without fault and must have used due diligence to qualify himself for voting, see the same case.

The ownership of property or the payment of taxes is not the controlling question; a voter must be otherwise qualified and in addition must have rendered his property for taxation, and signed a rendition sheet so showing.

Cowboys

land converted after five of the touchdowns.

Fullback Jerry Blakely was the big man for the Seagraves eleven, as he scored three times for the Eagles, on two and one yard plunges, and on a five yard carry. Bobby Roberts, R. E. Duggan, Freddy Jetton, and Pat McAdoo also scored for the Seagraves team, but their longest touchdown came on a pass from McAdoo to Carroll Phillips, the play covering 50 yards. Phillips also caught a pass for one extra point, and Jim Hamilton kicked two more. The fourth conversion by the Eagles came on a run by Blakely.

In the first down department, the visiting Seagraves club had 13, while Plains earned eight. The local team was penalized three times for 21 yards, and Seagraves had 35 yards stepped off against them in five penalties. The Cowboys intercepted one Eagles aerial, and Seagraves nabbed two of Plains passes.

Mrs. Elsie Limmer and son John Paul, also Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newsom all of Lubbock were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Newsom.
