About the only thing we learn from history is that we don't learn from history.

The teaching of patriotic principles is in a quizzical situation these days. That the need for such training is needed became evident by the actions of a handful of turncoat prisoners of war in Korea and by Francis Powers conduct after his U-2 was shot down. It is probably a fact that prior to the end of the Korean war it was a patent conclusion to all of us that every American put his country only after God and certainly before self. Nonetheless we have found that such unquestioned acceptance of everyone as a true patriot could lead to embarrassing results, for we have seen plenty of Americans go over to or sell out to the Communists.

Yet these accounts are infinitesimal when compared with the true picture of the stature of national patriotism. This has been amply proven through many wars and through many actions of common citizens. Few people flout their patriotism, yet we would believe without question that everyone in Dimmitt regardless of church, political party, race or background loves his country and its concept of individual freedom. The depth of his feeling depends on many things but mostly it is the extent of his understanding of history, various types of governments, current events and general world conditions.

It might be said that American patriotism is a desirable emotion whose depth in the individual can be measured by his appreciation for what his country has offered him in comparison with that offered other people in other lands. Every nation has its patriots, but no nation ever deserved a deep abiding faith from its citizens as does the United States. The more an American learns, studies and thinks about the accomplishments and goals of his country the greater patriot he must surely become.

At no time in the history of mankind has such a tremendous opportunity been offered a people. Man's long tortuous ascent to the present from the vast civilizations of Sumer, Egypt, Greece, Rome, the Incas, medieval Europe and on up through the more enlightened frustrations of history has reached the point where humanity can begin to burst forth in full bloom. The only form of government and economic ideology that can give man this opportunity is democracy and capitalism.

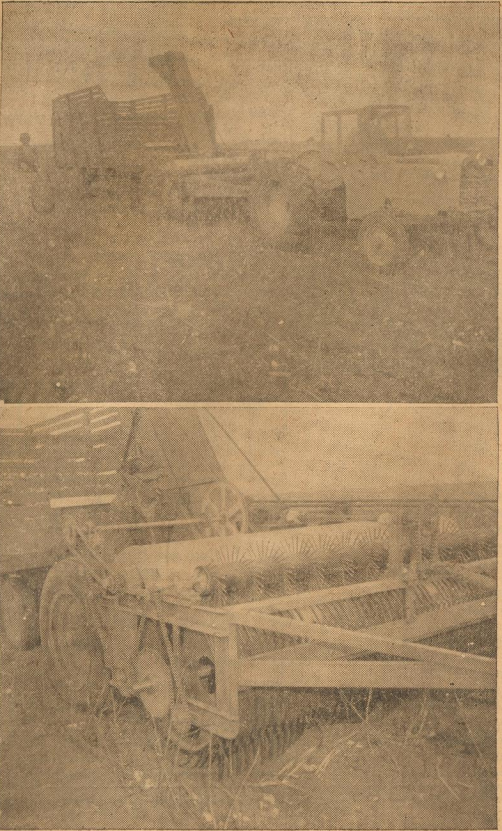

With these things in mind we must conclude that the preservation of this precious heritage is worth any price. All Americans should understand this and a genuine, educational program in our opinion should be incorporated into every school curriculum and American heritage speakers should be in basic use as after-dinner speakers. Schools have generally been doing a fair job, but the program should be upgraded from a portion of several courses to a regular course of study. An informed, alert public, fully cognizant of its precious but vulnerable democracy should stand ready to defend it at any and all times. Through the long and agonizing cold war such a program could help keep alive the American ideals of the national purpose, goals and patriotism.

An American should be deeply patriotic even if there were not a communist in the world, for this country holds the nucleus of the hope of the future of mankind.

In our own opinion any program of patriotic education should assume that all Americans are dedicated to their country. Doubts, fear and suspicions only help fortify our enemies' convictions that we don't believe in our system or each other. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

The brand of super patriotism that has broken out recently has been a slap in the face to many of our basic principles. An army general has asserted that civilian control of the armed forces is a mistake and that a sense of aggression plus an independent, ambitious army is the best route to self preservation. Others want to hang supreme court justices. One college professor said we helped the communists by going to war with Germany and Japan, that Hitler and the Japanese were the most militant adversaries of communism and he blames Roosevelt for World War II. Others daily make wild and unsubstantiated accusations that generally involve Americans. As President Kennedy said, they equate liberalism with Democrats and Democrat with socialism and socialism with communism. Despite the conservative banner of these people, we suspect that liberal democrats are probably the greater foes of communism than the so-called super-patriots. That may be debatable because both types of people despise communism. At any rate, so long as we devote ourselves to what's good about this country and why we should want to preserve it, we're much better off than trying to find things wrong with each other and trying to change system to a military dictatorship.

County Farmer Invents Machine to Pick Up Cotton left by Stripper

Steffens, who has worked on the machine for several years, still has some work to do on it but it has been picking up as much as a hundred pounds and more per acre of cotton normally plowed back under. Although he has a patent pending, Mr. Steffens says he does not plan to produce the machine commercially at this time.

At first appearance it is a complex machine, although the principle is simple. Pulled by a tractor and operated by a power take-off, it is essentially a drum rolling against the direction of pull several inches off the ground.

On the drum are attached scores of small saw segments which are attached to the surface of the drum at one end. As the drum rotates the saw segments drop their loose end as they rotate to the bottom, dragging their teeth along the ground, snagging loose cotton bolls and scraps. The cotton is carried up and over on the surface

Youth Injured in Bicycle Accident

Clifford Lockhart, 13, received minor shin injuries Tuesday afternoon when his bicycle collided with a pickup driven by George Zetsche of Hereford. According to City Marshal W. W. Jones the Lockhart youth made a left turn off of Bedford north onto seventh street and instead of starting his turn from the center of the intersection he cut across the corner and into the Zetsche vehicle. The fork and front wheel of the bicycle were badly bent.

In our own opinion any program of patriotic education should assume that all Americans are dedicated to their country. Doubts, fear and suspicions only help fortify our enemies' convictions that we don't believe in our system or each other. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

The drum by the saw segments where it is brushed off and carried through a chute back to the trailer. Steffens is still encountering some difficulties and he plans to work on his machine some more. There are other machines still in the experimental stage which will do this type of work, but most have design limitations which have kept them off the market.

Mr. Steffens farms seven miles north and a half west of Nazareth. Part of the work involved in building the machine required Mr. Steffens to go to Victoria to have a sheet of quarter-inch steel rolled into a cylinder.

No More Shooting at City Dump Grounds

Firearms at the city dump will be prohibited from now on, according to a statement this week by Dimmitt City Marshal W. W. Jones. Boys with BB guns may continue to plink tin cans and bottles but it is now considered too dangerous to permit the use of firearms. Hogs housed near the dump grounds have been shot and the caretaker was inside a bus body one day when someone started shooting at it. The new ruling also includes peace officers.

Sheriff Nabs Four Youths In Burglary

Sheriff Jack Cartwright was called out about 6 a. m. Sunday to check on a call that someone was battering down the door of Cut-rate Store in East Dimmitt. Arriving on the scene he gave chase to an automobile fleeing from the store and captured four youths who were pulling the last job of a four-burglary session.

The boys were turned over to Tulia police to face charges of breaking into a supermarket there and a service station in Kress. Charges of burglary were filed against Regino D. Silvas, 17. The three other boys will be handled as juveniles. No charges had been filed here as of Tuesday.

Silvas and the other Latin American boys, ranging in age from 14 to 16, also admitted burglarizing James Garage at Halfway and also stealing a car in Plainview Saturday night. The car was stripped of all accessories and damaged heavily by tire tools wielded by the four. A lug wrench was found in Roger's Superette by Swisher County officials and this provided a clue to the Plainview damage.

Silvas, according to Swisher county Sheriff Derrell Smith, has a juvenile record and was recently released from Gatesville.

Bobbies Win Championship Of Duncanville Tournament

The Dimmitt Bobbies won the top girls' basketball tournament in the state during the weekend when they were crowned champions of the Southwestern Amateur Athletic Union Tournament in Duncanville, Texas.

With the exception of the state finals tournament the SWAAUmet is considered the toughest, open only to outstanding teams from over the state.

The Bobbies, paced by the deadly shooting of Doris McDermitt, left five defeated teams in their wake on their way to the championship. Miss McDermitt broke two tournament records by scoring the most points for one game and by a two-game scoring record of 83 points. Coach Bill Culpepper's charges started out by defeating Duncanville 49-41 with Miss McDermitt leading the way with 39 points.

Miss McDermitt was again high point—this time with 44—in the game against Lingleville in which she set several records. The score in this game was Dimmitt 74, Lingleville, 57.

The Bobbies then defeated Central Summer 67-36 in the easiest waltz of the weekend. Miss McDermitt was high with 28, followed by Ina Messenger with 21.

In the fourth game Dimmitt defeated Bowie 51-40 with Miss Mc-

Dermitt again high point with 31. The final game saw neighbors Dimmitt and Muleshoe clash with the Bobbies coming out in the lead 51-40 with Miss McDermitt scoring 35.

There were 24 teams entered in the tournament and from these the referees picked the outstanding guard and forward. Both from Dimmitt, they were LaDawn Kemp and Miss McDermitt, respectively. Judy Bock and Ina Messenger were on the all-tournament first team.

Friona won consolation first place. The Bobbies won a total of 20 awards.

In the boy's division, the going has not been so easy. The Hereford Whitefaces came from behind in the first quarter to defeat Dimmitt 58-48 in a game in Hereford Tuesday night. Dennis Hodges, accurate Whiteface guard, paced the 3-A school in their defeat of 2-A Dimmitt with 18 points. Dimmitt's Mike Calvert scored 21 points followed by Jim Ratcliff with 11. They meet again Saturday night here for a rematch.

D. Damron to Conduct Experiment On Paperback Books for Schools

A Dimmitt High School graduate, John Douglas Damron, will have charge of a state Board of Education experiment to see if paperback textbooks would be practical in Texas schools.

Damron, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Damron of Dimmitt, served for four years as school superintendent at Claude and is now working toward his PhD degree at the University of Texas.

Damron will head up the experiment that may lead to the most significant change in Texas school books since the introduction of free textbooks 43 years ago. It will be launched in 13 selected school districts next month.

It is a pilot program to determine whether paperback textbooks would be practicable and economical for use in Texas schools. The idea originated with Rep Henry Grover of Houston, a high school history teacher, who pushed a resolution through the Legislature calling for such a study.

The Texas State Board of Education approved the experiment at its September meeting, and now the textbook division of the Texas Education Agency is completing its plans to start the test program in the spring semester, which begins about mid-January.

Texas is one of the first, if not the first state to try such an experiment, and if it proves successful it could mean the savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in textbook costs. On the other hand, it may prove entirely unfeasible.

As was pointed out by J. B. Golden, director of the textbook division, many unknown factors are involved, and the answers may point one way as well as another. Even the length of time required for the experiment is indefinite, though at least a progress report must be made to the 68th Legislature as soon as it convenes in January, 1963.

"I think we ought to continue until we have arrived at some firm conclusion," Golden said.

The districts chosen for the paperback experiment lie within a 100 mile radius of Austin, in order to make the supervision easier from the TEA headquarters. They were selected by a staff committee, which took into consideration such other factors as climatic conditions, a wet climate reacts differently than a dry one on a textbook; rural and urban schools; whether the books are carried two and fro by school bus, and different ages of pupils.

John D. Damron will have immediate supervision of the paperback experiment. He will visit every school involved in the test at least twice during the spring semester, and will personally inspect every book to ascertain the wear and tear. In fact, an IBM punch card will be set up in TEA headquarters on every one of the 3,675 textbooks, so that a complete history of its use and degree of wear can be recorded.

Director Golden said there has been full co-operation in the experiment from the publishers as well as from the superintendents of the districts selected.

THE DISTRICTS which will participate in the pilot program include seven rural and small town, and six suburban and city.

In the first category are Cuero, Edna, Georgetown, Fredericksburg, Port Lavaca, Round Rock and Taylor. In the second are Austin, Brownwood North East (San Antonio), Temple, San Antonio and Victoria. Waco was originally included, but the textbooks selected for schools there could not be obtained in time.

No figures are available yet—even a guess—on how much money could be saved if paperback textbooks are adopted throughout the school system. Last year the state spent $9,291,078 on new books and replacements, so there is a likelihood the saving will be considerable if the plan proves feasible.

AN INKLING of the possible economy that may be effected was given this year when the textbook division asked that paperback music books for the seventh and eighth grades be submitted by the publishers, instead of hard-cover books. The cost was about 25 cents less on $2.50 books, or exactly 10 per cent.

Golden said it would be unsafe to project a 10 per cent savings to the total cost of textbooks, until the experiment is completed. Cost is one of the unknown factors, for which an answer is being sought.

Roger Owen Assigned To Missile Range

S. army artillery and air defense elements. A supply clerk in the battery, Owens entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Securities expert, Bob Estes explained the necessity for a tax measure to be attached to the school bond before voting. Hospital representatives reported Dimmitt's chances to receive Hill-Burton aid was dim. C. W. Anthony produced some interesting facts on agriculture in Castro County that week. He told about the number of head of livestock, the bushels of grain, the bales of cotton, and the variety of vegetables produced in this county and gave examples of what each of these quantities represented by telling how many people can be fed and clothed with products grown in Castro County.

During the week of September 28 it was announced by Bill Reisdorph that a drive to replenish the Castro County Scholarship Fund had brought in a sufficient amount to continue the scholarship for another year. Mrs. Ivez Robinson was named "Outstanding Biology Teachers," by the National Association (See 1961, Page 7)

Castro County's beet harvest got underway last week and because of the small number of acres it will not last very long. First State Bank Farm Representative Edd McLeroy is shown here holding two beets and the other photo shows them being machine harvested on the Joe Scott farm 10 miles north of Dimmitt. Mr. Scott had 20 acres and general estimates were that he would make 20 tons per acre with a 15 1/2 percent sugar content. There is still some harvesting in the county.

Major addition to Southwestern Public Service Company's facilities in 1962 will be the second 112,500 kilowatt generator at Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. The new unit is pictured at right. The electric light and power company will invest approximately $20,000,000 in this area in 1962 to meet expanded needs for electric power.

Southwestern Public Service Plans $20 Million Expansion

Southwestern Public Service Company will invest approximately $20 million in its service area in 1962, A. R. Watson president of the electric light and power company has announced.

1962 will be the second year of a five year expansion program, announced at the start of 1961, which anticipates the investment of $117 million of new money in the region by the end of 1965. At that time the Company's investment in plant and equipment will be nearly $400 million, or ten times greater than it was in 1942, when the company took its present form.

Two major generating stations projects call for almost all of the 1962 construction budget. The second unit at the company's Nichols station, located northeast of Amarillo, will go into service in early summer, while at Plant X, near Earth, Tex., construction will start this spring on the fourth unit at that station.

The number two unit at Nichols, a 112,500 kilowatt generator, will double the capability of that plant. Also, when it goes into service the generating capability of the twelve plants in Southwestern's system, will pass the one million kilowatt mark.

"There is no more accurate evidence of the growth of a region than the increase in the amount of generating capability necessary to meet its electric service needs. You can readily see the ten year growth in this area when you realize that our tion has been completed on line segments capable of carrying 230,000 volts from the River-view Plant, at Borger, to Plant X. And from Cunningham Station to Artesia, New Mexico.

When the section from Plant X to Cunningham is completed and necessary substations are installed, the entire main transmission line extending from Borger, Texas, to Artesia, N. M. CAN BE OPERATED AT THE 230,000 volt capacity.

"We shall continue, as we have in the past to make the investment necessary to provide electric service for this growing area well in advance of the actual need. And we shall make every effort too to keep electric service the biggest value in our customer's budgets. I think the fact that the unit cost of our service has decreased more than 20 per cent in the last decade, while the cost-of-living has risen 23 per cent is proof of our efforts to accomplish this goal" Watson said.

Sammy Kirk visited his grandmother, Mrs. R. C. Kirk at Hobbs, New Mexico last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Slough and family visited relatives at Darrozet and Perryton during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beaden returned home Monday from Port Neches where they visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fry, Steve and David Transmission lines construction and planning will call for for 1962 investment of nearly $7,500,000. The majority of the projects are designed to provide additional transmission circuits for the region, and to have the facilities available for anticipated increasing loads in industrial, agricultural and commercial fields.

A transmission line investment in 1962 with a long-range view is the engineering and survey work and right-of-way purchase for additional lines capable of transmitting 230,000 volts. The company is in the process of increasing its major transmission voltage from 115,000 to 230,000 volts. Doubling the voltage of a line increases the amount of power that the line can carry by four times.

Here are a couple of paragraphs from Sydney J. Harris, contemporary practical philosopher appearing, for the present at least, in the Amarillo Globe-Times.

"A super-patriot is someone who loves his country but cannot stand 99 percent of his countrymen, whom he accuses of being fools, scoundrels and almost treasonable in their political views."

And for people who think there's a communist behind every bush, he must have aimed this paragraph: "Opinions are mostly viral diseases of the mind—we catch them from others without comprehending their causes or their consequences, and when they have us most firmly in their infectious grip we think we possess them."

And the great ancient Greek Playwright Aeschylus had this comment in his day and time, no doubt about his friends calling each other Spartans or something: "What bird is clean that preys on fellow bird?"

It would be hard for a super-patriot to change, though. After all a man's best friend is his dogma.

Don't get us wrong. A super-patriot who spent all his spare time publicizing his country's virtues and the greatness of its people has our warm appreciation. Our only contempt goes out to those who seek to destroy the country's goals and its citizens faith in each other. We certainly can't afford to be naive, but without some token of faith in this country and its citizens we wouldn't seem to be getting anywhere.

Kings Receive Letter From Norwegian

From time to time various people in Dimmitt receive letters from the foreign students who stopped over here for a couple of nights last summer. The following is a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Bill King who were hosts to a member of this group.

Dear Family King,
Quite a long time has passed by since the time I stayed with you in Dimmitt. But to me it seems as if it were yesterday. I remember the wonderful time I had in Dimmitt so well; and it will always stay in my memory. You were so nice and kind to me, thank you for being so friendly and hospitable.

In the beginning it was a little strange to be back in "ordinary" conditions but now I am completely adjusted again, and I enjoy being at home again. Here we have fall winter now, and last night it snowed a tiny bit. Today it looks so pretty and peaceful outside with the ground completely covered by a white "carpet" I made a long trip to the mountains this morning and afternoon, it was really wonderful.

With all the best wishes for X-mas and the New Year. With love from Benit Bjorussen of Skien, Norway.
P. S. Please give my regards to the nice citizens of Dimmitt.

In Dimmitt Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Loudder visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ott in the Big Square community.

HERE ARE 2 OF THE NEW JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLETS

WHICH ONE IS THE CONVERTIBLE AND WHICH THE HARDTOP?

Top one's our new Impala Sport Coupe whose steel roof line is a dead ringer for the Impala Convertible's below. But after rich new styling, what? In glamor and go, comfort and craftsmanship, here's all you'd reasonably expect of an expensive car. Except the expense.

Slip inside a Jet-smooth Chevrolet, relax and just notice how good you feel. Ready for action? Just flick the key and let'er purr (your choice of two standard engines—a 185-hp 6 or 170-hp V8—or optional-at-extra-cost V8's way up to a 409-hp mile-shrinker). That gentle cradling motion you enjoy is Jet-smooth ride at work. And the rich interior and neat craftsmanship are Body by Fisher at work. Have your dealer give you the whole story. That's the work he loves best.
