

Lilley assigned to West Germany

Army Pvt. Johnny B. Lilley, son of John B. and Vadine Lilley of Hart, has arrived for duty in Garlstedt, West Germany.

Lilley, an infantryman with the 2nd Armored Division, was previously assigned at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

He is a 1977 graduate of Hart High School.

Police calls

Law enforcement officers arrested six men and one woman during the week, mostly on alcohol related charges.

A 51-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested on DWI charges last Wednesday. A 44-year-old Dimmitt woman was arrested Saturday for DWI. She was fined $250 and sentenced to three days in jail.

A 24-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested Monday for DWI and for driving while his license was suspended. He was sentenced to three days in jail on each charge, and fined $225 and $150.

A 20-year-old Amherst man was arrested Friday for failure to drive in a single lane, possession of marijuana and possession of a criminal instrument. He posted a $750 bond. Two men were arrested on public intoxication charges.

A 24-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested for disorderly conduct, public intoxication and resisting arrest Tuesday. He was fined $275.

Police are investigating an incident involving $8.67 worth of gas which was stolen from the Fast Stop, 419 N. Broadway. Two females driving a maroon-gray 2 door car (possibly a 69 or 70 Impala) left the scene without paying for the gas.

A minor traffic accident was reported Monday evening. A car and a van were traveling side by side south on S. Broadway. The car, driven by Vinaben Nanubhai Patel, was in the inside lane. Patel made a right turn and hit the front bumper of the van. No one was injured.

The three ladies that shared our dorm were from Austin. There were eight single beds in our dorm. There were 126 people registered for The October Fest. They made a group picture of all of us. One night Marshall told us and showed on the screen how we could grow tomatoes in big pots the year round. All of it was very interesting and a lot of fun. They will start their next fest in April and we plan to go to one in May as they always have five weeks of it, or three days out of each week. My friends and I agreed it was the best vacation we ever had. I'm gonna fish next time too! They have two station wagons to haul you anywhere you want to go. That's about it, Lewella Maxwell.

FmHA assists Texas farmers

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) provided loans to 6,700 Texas farmers in fiscal year 1983 which ended Sept. 30, FmHA State Director J. Lynn Futch announced recently.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It provides loan assistance to farmers who need credit but cannot get it from a private bank or other lending institution. The loans are to be repaid in full, plus interest, to the U.S. Government. FmHA has over 2,000 field offices throughout the country with 137 offices in Texas.

Early, preliminary figures show that nationally the Agency provided about 75,000 loans to farmers across the country. The total amount loaned through FmHA farmer programs was approximately $3 billion.

The breakdown of farmer program preliminary totals show that Texas FmHA provided 4,790 farm operating loans for $174,160,000; 220 farm ownership loans for $18,902,000; 1,580 natural disaster emergency loans for $88,637,000 and 27 soil and water loans for $325,600 for a total of 6,617 loans for $282,024,600. "Some farmers received more than one type of loan," J. Lynn Futch said.

Absentee voting to end Friday

Hornets force Cats into 2-AAA cellar

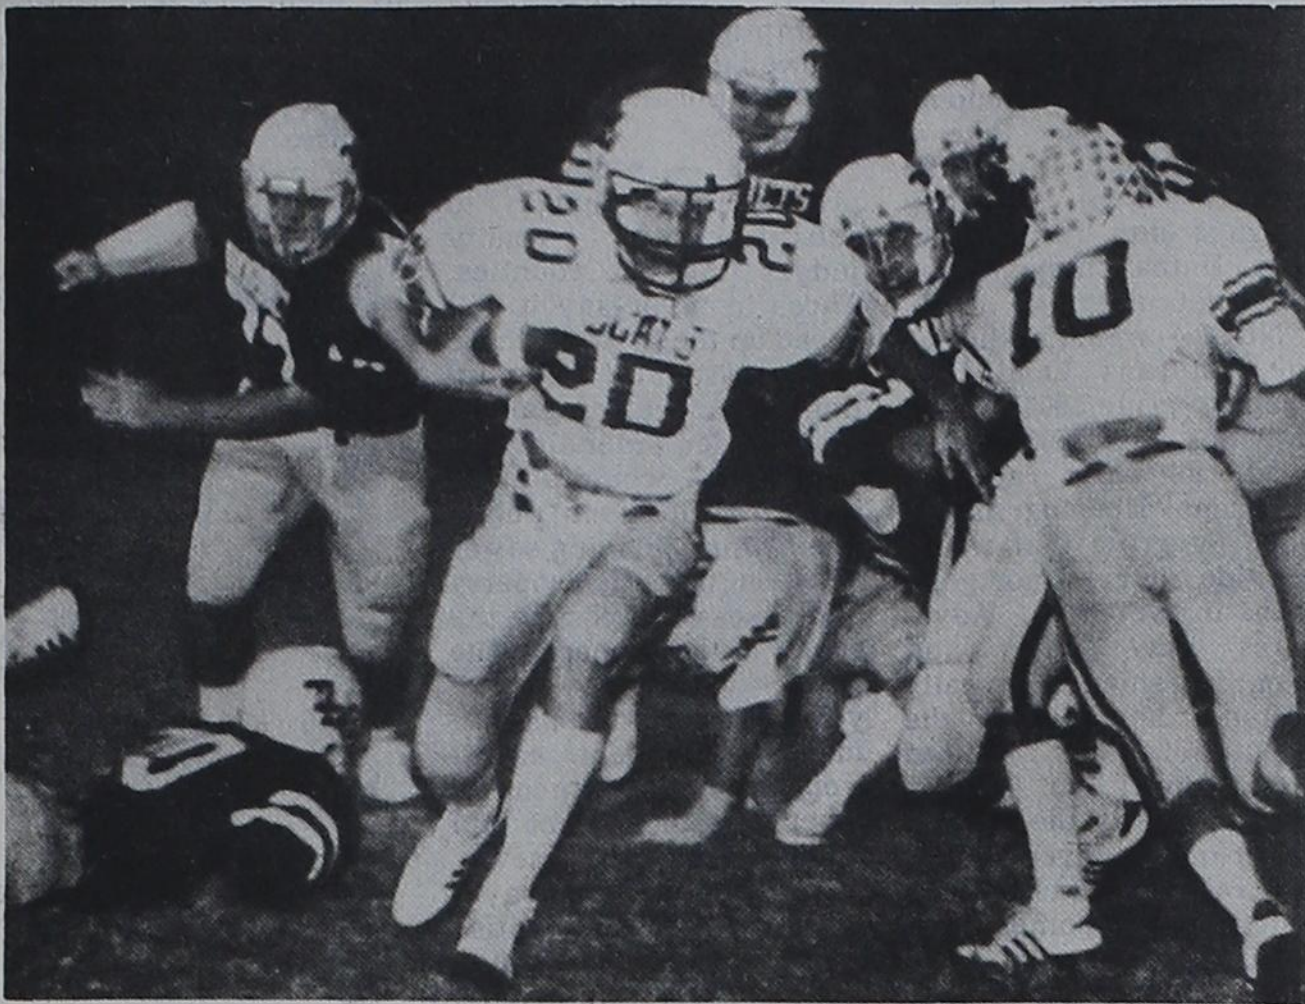

By DON NELSON

Tulia went to the air to turn around an otherwise even-up game in the fourth quarter Friday night, then used a time-consuming ground march to preserve a 6-3 conference victory over Dimmitt's Bobcats.

The two teams were equal in rushing yardage, but the Hornets amassed 105 yards through the air to the Bobcats' 31. Seventy-six of Tulia's passing yards came on two tosses from quarterback Jeff George to 6-2 senior end Dane Laci in the fourth quarter — a 55-yarder that moved the game to Dimmitt's end of the field and a 21-yarder later that set up the Hornets' winning touchdown.

Dimmitt's Bobby Nino broke a scoreless deadlock when he booted a 27-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in the second quarter to give the Bobcats a 3-0 halftime advantage. Despite a lot of driving up and down the field in the second half, that lead held up until Tulia punched its TD across with 8:37 remaining in the game.

The victory improved the Hornets' season mark to 3-5-1 and boosted them into fourth place in District 2-AAA with a 2-2 conference mark. The loss dropped the Bobcats to the district cellar with a conference mark of 0-4 and a season record of 4-5. "We knew Tulia had a good defensive team, and that they were improving every week," Dimmitt Coach Gene Griffin said. "But we made over 200 yards against them, so we aren't that displeased with our offense, except that we didn't score more. We had bad field position all night, and had too far to go on all our drives."

Dimmitt started from its 36, 21, 11, 12, 15, 38 and 48 in the first half, with the final drive leading to Nino's field goal just before the first-half buzzer. In the second half, the Bobcats started from their own 32, 34, 33 and 6. Still, they appeared headed for a TD on their first drive of the third quarter, but they stalled out on Tulia's 13-yard line and Nino missed a 30-yard field goal attempt. That was Dimmitt's only other penetration of the night.

"Defensively, we gave up too many yards — way too many," Coach Griffin said. The Hornets gained 172 yards on the ground to go with their 105 passing yards, for a total of 277, and were able to use up almost six of the last seven minutes in a final drive to protect their lead. That drive finally stalled out at the Dimmitt 6, leaving the Bobcats with 94 yards to go and 1:10 to do it in, and they couldn't turn the trick.

David Barton was Dimmitt's leading carrier again as he gained 120 of the Bobcats' 170 ground yards on 20 carries. Tulia's leading ball carrier was 185-lb. senior fullback Rusty Hooper, who gained 85 yards on 16 totes.

A recovery by Charlie Perez at the Dimmitt 48 late in the second quarter set the stage for Dimmitt's only scoring drive. Quarterback Woody Glass faked a handoff inside 21 yards to the Tulia 31. Barton added 14 yards on the next play with a determined run to the Hornet 17. Then the Bobcats gained their third first down in three plays as they gave Barton some good blocks to get through and he cut to the outside and raced to the Tulia 3-yard line.

But then came a series of miscues — an offside, a couple of missed blocks, a high pitch-out, an incomplete pass — that left the Bobcats facing fourth-and-goal from the 10-yard line. That's when Nino came in to split the uprights and give Dimmitt a 3-0 lead.

After a scoreless third quarter that saw a Dimmitt drive stall out at the Tulia 14, Jeff George hit Laci on a 55-yard pass-and-run play that carried to the Dimmitt 20. After two turnovers — an interception by Dimmitt (Perez again) and a fumble recovery by Tulia at the Bobcat 38 — George and Laci teamed on another big clutch play when they converted a third-and-nine situation with a pass completion to the Dimmitt 12 for a first down.

Three plays later, George exercised a keeper around left end and scored from four yards out with 8:37 to play. The extra-point kick was low.

Tulia stopped Dimmitt after the kickoff, then launched a 58-yard ground attack that started with 6:45 remaining in the game and didn't end until only 1:10 was left on the clock.

Here are the pros, cons on proposed amendments

Here is a rundown of the 11 amendments to be on the ballot Tuesday, and arguments for and against each amendment.

NO. 1 — would authorize counties with less than 30,000 population to have fewer justices of peace and constables. Now each county must have at least four precincts with a constable and justice of peace for each, and those in favor of this change say many counties don't need all those officials. Castro County Judge Polly Simpson favors the change. "I think in counties under 10,000 we only need one justice of the peace," she said. Those opposed say if the jobs are abolished it'll mean more work for already overburdened county officials.

NO. 2 — would change the homestead protection provision for urban lots from a $10,000 maximum valuation to a one-acre limit. From 1869 through 1969 the urban-homestead exemption was $5,000; with rising real estate values it was increased to $10,000 in 1970. Those in favor say basing the limit on size rather than value would preclude the need for future amendments due to inflation. Those opposed contend that the current limits are sufficient.

NO. 3 — would allow groups of farmers-commodity associations — to collect fees from growers and use the money to market and promote that agricultural product; the money would be refundable to producers who don't want to participate, but each non-participant would have to write a letter to get a refund.

Those in favor say it would create jobs and help the state's agricultural economy; those opposed say it places a new tax on farmers. Area farm leaders are for its passage.

NO. 4 — would provide a line of succession for legislators. The state Employees Retirement System would submit a list of former senators and representatives for each Senate and House district. The Lt. Governor and Speaker would rank the former members according to seniority. If there were a vacancy, those with the most seniority would be picked. The lists would be updated annually. Proponents say the system would provide some normalcy in the panic and confusion that could occur following an enemy attack. Opponents say the federal government most likely would take total control of governmental functions following a serious enemy attack. Also, they say the system would result in placing persons in office that had been previously defeated by voters.

NO. 5 — would allow the Permanent School Fund and its income to be used to guarantee bonds issued by school districts. The guarantee would allow the school bonds to get a higher bond rating and lower the interest on the bonds. Proponents say it would help school districts finance new construction without risk to the state; those opposed say it would open the door for future attacks on this multi-billion-dollar fund. All three county superintendents support the amendment, saying it can only help, and won't cost anyone anything.

NO. 6 — would allow courts to order up to a third of a person's paycheck seized and used to make overdue child support payments. Those in favor say it will save millions of dollars in welfare payments; opponents say if you take a person's wages before he receives them, you discourage him from working. If that happens, the child gets nothing.

NO. 7 — would authorize the Veterans Land Program to issue $800 million in bonds with $500 million used to start a new Veterans' Housing Assistance Program that would provide home mortgage loans for veterans. Advocates say the land program should naturally include homes as the population has shifted from rural to urban; opponents say the federal government already has several programs to help veterans buy homes.

NO. 8 — would allow local governments to exempt certain veterans and fraternal organizations from property taxes, after local option elections. The legislation specifically names the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans. Those in favor say it will allow local governments to exempt groups that perform worthwhile civic and patriotic functions; opponents say exemptions should not be allowed groups that devote only part of their energies to charity.

NO. 9 — would allow probate court judges to substitute for county judges in other counties. Those in favor say it will speed up the system; those opposed say the substitutions are already legal . . . no need for amendment.

NO. 10 — would authorize cities to spend public money for replacing sewer lines on private property and assess the cost to the owner of the property. The owner would have five years to pay the assessment. Proponents say it would be too expensive otherwise to replace old and dilapidated sewer pipes; those opposed say it is not the business of cities to lend people money they could borrow from private sources.

NO. 11 — would increase the size of the Board of Pardons and Paroles from three members to six, and to take away from the governor the authority to approve or reject paroles and pardons, leaving it entirely in the hands of the board. Advocates say the role of the governor is duplicative and slows the process, and expanding to six members will spread out the workload; opponents say the "sensitivity" of the paroles process requires the governor's participation, and so far the system has worked all right.

Farmers' plight...

Association. "Once that happens, not only will the farmers be out of business, the American consumer will be paying through the nose to get food."

"People haven't seen anything like the high prices they would have then," Riley said.

Riley said corporate giants are already moving in on some areas of agriculture.

"They are moving into the seed production industry, some into cotton and grain merchandising, soybean oil mills, corn processing plants, feedlots, integrated production and service industries. As the smaller producers are forced out, it looks like this is one direction it will go.

"There have been some corporations buy up land in other areas," Riley said. "We have seen less of this in Texas, but in the West, and Midwest, corporate entities are buying farm land."

Whatever has happened to the farm economy, and whatever might happen if farmers are forced out of business, the issue at hand is: What needs to be done to turn the situation around?

"The solution is simple," said B.M. Nelson. "A government program is needed which will control supply in proportion to demand, with enough surplus to take care of emergencies."

"It is imperative to establish a long-range farm program of supply management which will boost agriculture prices to the producer, in order to have a healthy agricultural and national economy," King said.

"Farmers will have to get involved and let their views be known to congressmen or senators, in order to survive," King added.

"Farmers must participate in the farm programs," Harp said. "But, more than that, there is a need to rally behind a farm program that will hold production in line with consumption."

What is needed, he said, "is a long-range government program which would balance supply and demand, in order to maintain strong market prices equal to or more than the cost of production."

"We have failed to get the government to have a program which will accomplish that goal," Harp added. "But it should be done. It has to be done. The only thing is to convince Congress it has to be done."

Decision is made final

The final order of the Texas Railroad Commission denying the request of Burlington Northern Railroad to close its agency at Dimmitt and handle the agency work through Plainview was issued Oct. 17.

Originally filed jointly with a request to also close the agency at Petersburg and dismantle the depot there, the case was granted a severance from the Petersburg action as requested by the railroad. However, the company's request for reconsideration of the issue and for oral argument were both denied by the commission.

The commission's final order stated that "the applicant's proposed alternative methods of handling the agency functions . . . at Dimmitt will not be adequate given the large volume of traffic handled at Dimmitt."

Figures were given that showed Dimmitt handled 5,986 carloads of traffic in 1982, a traffic volume which exceeded that of either Plainview or Lubbock.

By TERRI LOUDDER
Ladies, I want to talk to you today about the most dreaded phrase in the English language — the two little words that strike terror in the hearts of every mother. They are not "nuclear holocaust," not "football season," but, dare I say it, "Daddy's babysitting."

We all know the pain of leaving a perfectly normal household in Daddy's tender loving care for an hour or so and returning to find that the living room looks like the explosion scene from "Airport 75." The one or two patches of carpet you can see peeking through the sea of toys, diapers and dishes are the places where they've spilled something.

There are no children in sight, (children are smart enough to hide when Mommy opens the door.) and there Dad sits, surrounded by open Dorito sacks, the remote control clenched in his hand and his ashen face staring blankly at the TV set. "What happened?!!," you exclaim.

"White just threw another interception," he groans. "I mean, to the house. Did you get the license number of the truck that hit this livingroom?"

He slowly turns his attention to you and tersely explains that the Cowboys are down by 10 points and there are four minutes left in the game — couldn't you please have your breakdown in the other room.

To this you calmly reply that if you could get to the other room without snow shoes, you wouldn't be having a breakdown.

By now you start to wonder where the previously unseen children are — especially any small helpless ones. You begin to look under the larger toys and behind the furniture, but all you find are two Twinkies and a half-eaten peanut butter and jelly sandwich.

"Where's the baby?" you ask bravely.

"She was here a minute ago. Just follow the Cheerios and you're sure to find her," he mumbles.

After a quick room-to-room search you find your little one or little ones asleep amidst the rubble of their bedrooms, and you go back to the living room to sit quietly and tremble for awhile.

The house is quiet. The game is over. The Cowboys have pulled it out again. Then your husband turns to you smiling proudly like Fleming after he discovered penicillin and says, "Did you know that cherry Jello won't come out of upholstery fabric?"

Smokeout to be Nov. 17

Smoking cigarettes is no laughing matter; neither is quitting. But once a year thousands of serious quitters do have some fun as they try to make it through the day without a cigarette. The occasion is the Great American Smokeout, an annual celebration when the American Cancer Society and its Castro County chapter urge smokers to go a full 24 hours without cigarettes.

This year, Smokeout Day is Thursday, Nov. 17. The local committee is Richard Stahl, Doug Pybus, and Jim Killingsworth.

The Surgeon General has labeled cigarette smoking "the chief avoidable cause of deaths in our society." Statistics bear this out. Smoking has been shown to be responsible for more than 75 percent of all lung cancer, the number one cancer killer of men. By the end of the 80's, lung cancer is expected to replace breast cancer as the number one cause of cancer death among women.

Larry Hagman of "Dallas" will serve a third year as national Great American Smokeout Chairman. This year Hagman has a special message for non-smokers eager to help smoking friends through the day: "Give 'em sympathy, give 'em understanding, but don't give 'em a cigarette."

This is the seventh anniversary of the Great American Smokeout. This unusual national event continues to make an enormous impact on smokers. Last year, according to the Gallup study, three out of 10 cigarette smokers either cut down or cut out smoking for the day. Close to 4.5 million smokers actually quit for the day. About 2.3 million of these quitters were still not smoking one to 11 days later.

Join the Great American Smokeout, Nov. 17.
