According to TRL Local schools scrambling for dollars

County schools who lost hundreds of millions of dollars in their tax bases after state-mandated changes in the way farm land is taxed, and the elimination of taxes on cattle and farm equipment, are still doing a good job with their tax dollars, according to figures released by the Texas Research League.

The TRL report compares the budgets of all 1,086 school districts in the state for the 1983-84 school year - the most upto-date figures available. The TRL figures not only show what districts all over the state are doing, including their per-pupil costs for all departments, salaries and their tax structure, but also indicates what districts can expect when their new fiscal year starts Sept. 1.

Over the state, taxes went up in school districts an average of 14.3 percent, but in Dimmitt and Nazareth, the tax rate was actually slightly lower than the year before, .2 percent and .6 percent, respectively. Hart's taxes went up slightly, .5 percent.

dance (DMV/ADA) was 137,795, or 59 percent of the state average of $231,656. That is almost half of the Region 16 average of $279,048. In Hart, the DMV/ADA is $103,893, or 45 percent of the state average and 37 percent of the Region 16 average.

Nazareth, based on the DMV/ADA, is not only in worse shape than any other district in this region, but is also one of the most underfinanced schools in the entire state. Nazareth has DMV per ADA of $73,459 - 32 percent of the state average and just 26 percent of the Region 16 average.

The only other districts with a DMV/ADA as low as the NISD were in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and a few other economically-depressed areas in the state, but less than 50 districts in the state are at a level that low, according to the TRL figures.

The local districts were much closer, and, in some cases, above the state averages before cattle and farm equipment were taxexempted in 1982-83 and valuation methods for farm land were changed, taking over $300 million out of the total county tax base.

"I hate to point a finger at an industry that is suffering, but those exemptions and changes in valuations hurt all of us," said Dimmitt Supt. Robert Ryan.

Despite the lowered tax base. Dimmitt schools were able to keep their "local enrichment," the amount of money the local district provides for education, at levels before the 1982-83 exemptions were in place.

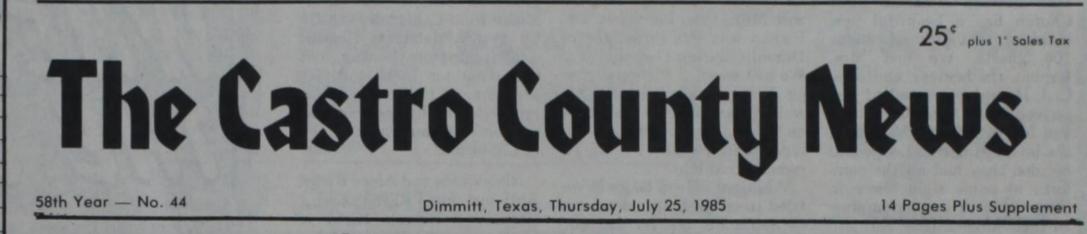

Teacher salaries, which have been a bone of contention for several years all over the state, are below both the Region 16 and statewide averages in the county, with the average teacher salary in Dimmitt lower than the average salary in both Hart and Nazareth.

The average classroom teacher in Dimmitt during the 1983-84 school year made $17,381, compared to $17,767 in Hart and $17,836 in Nazareth.

The payroll paid out per ADA was above the state average in Dimmitt and Hart, and slightly below average in Nazareth.

The Dimmitt payroll per ADA was $2,578, while Hart's was $2,572. In Nazareth, the payroll per ADA was $2,400.

The payroll per ADA includes all employees in the school system, and the statewide average was $2,487. The Region 16 average was $2,604.

local operators soon

If the operator starts sounding a little distant around mid-October, it's because the operator will be a little distance away.

Contel-Continental Telephone of Texas announced this week they will be phasing out the Dimmitt operators, including supervisor Tommie Poteet, five full-time operators and three part-time operators on Oct. 19, transferring operator services to AT&T.

It's all due to the breakup of the Bell System - something not really felt before in Dimmitt, Hart or Nazareth.

"Prior to divestiture, independent telephone companies (like Contel) operated under the umbrella of toll settlements," said Bobby Wake, Director of Network Services for Contel. Bell Operating Companies collected the money for toll operations and then paid the independents revenue based on their expenses to provide toll (service), plus a return on investment."

In other words, the higher the company's costs to provide operator services, the more money companies like Contel collected. But when the old umbrella disappeared with the

A hundred hazy history lessons jumped to life for our family during the past two weeks as we visited some of the centuries-old provinces and cities of England and Scotland.

We didn't follow the mostbeaten tourist paths, nor did we see a fraction of the bestknown places. (In the British Isles, nearly every turn of path has a historic significance. It would take at least a year of touring to adequately visit, study and appreciate all the splendor that Great Britian has to offer.)

Except for four days in London, we spent our time in northern England, with a two-day swing through southern Scotland (rain prevented a planned trip into the Highlands). Our base camp was the parsonage of our daughter and son-in-law, Connnie and Larry Nelson-Daniel, divestiture of the Bell System, "it exposed all toll operations to the glare of the competitive world," Bell said.

In 1985, Contel and AT&T signed a five-year contract, authorizing Contel to handle AT&T's traffic on a per message basis. In Dimmitt and four other toll centers - Dumas, Andrews, Newton and Burnet, Contel gets $2.20 per message. In 1987 though, the rate will decrease to $1.19 per message, and will drop another nine cents in 1988.

At the $2.20 rate, all of the toll centers, except Dimmitt, will be profitable.

"Dimmitt's center has old cordboards which require a lot of manual work and time," Wake said. "It would not be prudent for us to replace these cordboards with mechanization.'

The other four centers will be closed by the end of 1986.

When the local office closes, all long distance and directory assistance messages will be routed to AT&T operators in Amarillo and/or Lubbock. Repair services will continue to be handled in the local office by Contel.

Lake, where Wordsworth once walked.

We met Connie's parishioners on our second day, and did a lot of smiling and nodding. The Yorkshire dialect proves Churchill's tongue-incheck statement that the British and Americans are two great peoples that have many things in common, and are separated only by the English language.

Two weeks later, after visiting castles, cathedrals and palaces, museums and pubs, theatres and shops, villages and metroplexes, we all agreed that it was the quiet Lake District in northeastern England that provided the highlight of our vacation.

The land of Wordsworth is $1,311.80 received last July, beautiful - not just his home and has received $11,738.42 for at Rydal Mount, but the entire the year, up 27% from last Lake District (Rydal Water, year.

County Treasurer Oleta Raper, County Auditor Reeford Burrous and County Judge Polly Simpson explained the checks were less because they were for a shorter period than under the old system, where checks were received on the 15th and the 27th of each month, and that employees would receive the same amount of annual pay as they have in the past.

Jerry Jansa and Jerry Bailey of the Castro County Sheriff's Dept. appeared before the commissioners, with Jansa saying Commissioners wrestled with an idea to go back to the old system until the new fiscal year begins Oct. 1, but decided to go ahead with the new pay periods.

Commissioners also agreed to pay half-time for overtime hours worked between April 15 and June 13 of this year.

The overtime pay is required under a recent US Supreme Court ruling concerning the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The overtime pay had originally been figured at time-

Commissioners also accepted a bid from Workman Machinery Co. in Tulia for $6,495 for a new shredder for Precinct 4, and heard a report from Maxine Tidwell on a possible bond election that would be called by the Castro Co. Hospital District for a prospective nursing home.

Tidwell explained to the commissioners that the county would have no obligation for the home.

Where in the world is Holland-Texas?

Would you believe between Flagg and Lazbuddie?

Thanks to the efforts of Izaak Van Zielst, Chuck Smith, Brom Neele and Virgil and Kenn Justice, Holland has come to the southwest corner of Castro County and the eastern portion of Parmer county in the form of several flowers that got their start in Holland but are being grown for seed and bulbs here.

Van Zielst came to this area in 1982 after getting in touch with the Justices. Van Zielst had been a custom farmer in The Netherlands and was living in the Paris, Texas area, where he got in touch with Kenn Justice.

Kenn got in touch with his father in Dimmitt and they started the Holland-Texas connection with Smith, who has been farming between Flagg and Earth and in the Lazbuddie area for several years.

'Before we got in the flower business we were growing a variety of crops and still are," Smith said. "We grow peppers, cucumbers, potatoes, wheat, corn and cotton, plus about 450 acres of flowers."

The flowers include leatrice, zinnias, gladiolas, sweet peas, evening primrose, molucella (Bells of Ireland), tall and short marigolds, delphiniums, statis and mirabellas. All but the gladiolas will be harvested for their seed, with the seed then shipped to Holland. The gladiolas were cut beginning Wednesday morning, and the bulbs will be harvested using the same equipment used to dig potatoes. The bulbs will be sold in the US.

So complete is the Holland connection that Van Zielst, Neele and Smith spent part of their afternoon Tuesday unloading a special flower cutter imported from Holland that was used Wednesday morning to cut the gladiolas.

"Most of the flowers are ready earlier here than they are in Holland," Van Zielst said. "It's because of the sunshine and higher temperatures. In Holland, it is not as warm, there is more rain, there is more humidity and there is less sunshine.'

Neele pulled a gladiola out of the ground and admired the bulb, which was about the size and color of a small bermuda onion.

"I can't believe how big it is already," Neele said. "It's not even August yet. Usually, they are not as big as this in Holland until the last part of August.

'The gladiolas grow in three stages - from the single seed the first year, a small bulb the second year, and a large bulb ready for seed the third year."

The operation doesn't currently include any flowers grown for florists or other businesses who use flowers, except for the evening primrose. The oil from the seeds of that plant is used in pharmaceuticals and cosmetics.

"It takes 45,000 pounds of seed for one gallon of oil,' Smith said. "We have about 300 acres of primrose, compared to only about 50 acres of gladiolas.

'We started this last year with just six acres of gladiolas, because Brom's son, John, was scared to ship us any more than that, but it was successful last year, and we plan to keep Nazareth's July check is for $1,163.66, up $250 from last July. Nazareth has received seven percent more from sales tax than a year ago, $9,777.73. Friona was the only area city to show a reduction in city sales tax rebates, with the loss only $238. Rebates for the year in Friona, Muleshoe, Tulia and Hereford are all ahead of 1984 levels.

Cities receive 20% of the 5 1/8 percent sales tax.

with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Six women from the WMU of the First Baptist Church went to Glorieta, N.M. for the Women's Missionary Union Conference that was in session from July 19 to 25. Maxine Tidwell and Mary Edna Hendrix spent the weekend and Walter Maynard, Dorothy Hopson, and her mother, Mrs. Lola Jewell from Hereford, and Roberta Cole, the new pastor's wife at FBC, spent the entire six days.

Glorieta is such a beautiful place with the pine trees and all the lovely flowers. The weather is cool and there is usually a refreshing rain sometime every day.

We were fortunate to stay in the Hereford Lodge while we were in Glorieta (thanks to Mrs. Jewel!). Amarillo First Church has a beautiful new building that accommodates 100 guests. We met Mrs. Rankin, the hostess, and Mrs. C. J. Humphreys who had just arrived from Amarillo with a van full of women. We toured the lovely Amarillo Lodge and decided they had all the comforts of home right there in their cabin in the mountains. In their kitchen they had two Jenn-air stoves, two refrigerators, two trash compactors, two dishwashers, but we didn't see any microwave ovens - so we decided they were really "roughing it!"

The theme for the conference was "Multiply the Vision." On Friday night Carolyn Weatherford, from Birmingham, Ala., and some of the WMU Southern Baptist Convention staff members gave a short program with each one carrying a huge sign telling of the "Preview of the Week." Dorothy Sample, from Flint, Mich., and president of the Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention gave the welcome to the several thousand women who had come from nearly every state in the United States, including Alaska, and several missionaries who were in the states on furlough. Letha Crough from San Antonio was the organist, Walter Knapp from Birmingham, Ala. was the pianist, and Ellen Shaler from Mount Pleasant, Mich. was the music director. A clever skit, "Alice in Visionland" was presented to the enjoyment of everyone. Alice came through the door and into a land of excitement. Along came a cute little rabbit who was interested and excited about all the opportunities she would have for the coming year! Saturday evening we left Glorieta and went in to Santa Fe and on past the Santa Fe Opera House and on north past Nambe and about 35 miles through beautiful country to Chimayo, N.M. where we enjoyed a delicious Mexican dinner at the Rancho de Chimayo. This is a beautiful restaurant where most of the tables are set outside - some on the patio and others on three levels up an incline — it was a perfect place to eat in pretty weather.

the Foreign Mission Board in Richmond, Va., brought the message. A memorial service was given in memory of Mrs. Marie Mathis who had served in many, many positions of the WMU organization all through the years, including the president of the Women's Department of the Baptist World Alliance. The funeral service for Mrs. Mathis was held in the FBC in Dalhart on July 15, 1985. Dr. Winfred Moore was one of the persons to give a tribute to Mrs. Mathis, also Bro. David Walker a former Amarillo pastor.

Charles and Esta Vandiver had been in Santa Fe over the weekend so they attended the church services at Glorieta on their way home. We also saw Dr. Ivy Loy Bishop and his wife Millie from Plainview. Dr. Bishop was interim pastor in Dimmitt during the late 50's. We had seen Dr. Bishop earlier on Friday while he was out walking and since he had a hat on he had to tell us who he was, but after he took his hat off, we remembered him.

While we were in Glorieta we tried to call Jeff Isaacs who is in Santa Fe, but he was out when we called. We wanted to invite him to have dinner with us at the Rancho de Chimayo.

Beral Hance was in Tulia Thursday and had lunch at K-Bob's with her grandson, Boyd Hodges. She met Dr. Neal Bryson, a Tulia dentist. He is the son of Dimmitt's N. A. and Thelma Bryson.

In the afternoon Beral visited a friend, Kathleen Loring. They were neighbors in the Union Hill community in 1933, when the Hances came to West Texas from Fannin County.

went to Amarillo over the weekend to help their daughter Debbie celebrate her birthday. They ate out, played miniature golf, and watched Debbie play ball in a tournament. Debbie's brother, Brad, was with them to help celebrate.

Jewell Kirby of Dimmitt went to Kerrville last week for a reunion of her family. Accompanying her was Cora West of Dimmitt.

All 10 children were there, 22 grandchildren out of 31, 52 great grandchildren out of 65, and three great great grandchildren. Vaden Kirby's family was 100% in attendance.

Attending were Murl Carrell, Tony Gelene McGee, Devin, Regina, Stacy and Tracy of Houston; Clifford and Becky Kirby from California, son Orvil Peggy, Jennifer, Heather and Miggin from Gearing, Neb. and daughter Lolla and Ken McMurry of California: Hulon and Helen Kirby and daughter Sharon and Paul Kramer, also of California.

Also Vaden and Alene Kirby, Anthony and Kathy Kirby, Dean, and Belinda Kirby of Dimmitt, Roland and Lana Kirby, Dennis, Asia and Kye, Mary and Anthony Mays, Sabrina, Cory and Wesley Mays, Vada and Rick Wilcox and Tiffney and Aaron; Lavern Simmons, Kethia, Nolan, Brandon and Michel Welborn, Shelly and Michel Gordon and Sharon Wilyard.

Also Troy and Billie Kirby, Bobbi Wooten, Kent Kirby, all of Dimmitt, and Keri Jo and Gaylon Jack, Holly and Kelly of Friona; Olan and Louise Kirby, Jan, Jason, Kim and Jane Adams; Debbie Kyle and Jerry Newton of California; Twila and Jess Parker of Olton. Sunday morning we attended church services in the beautiful Holcomb auditorium. Keith Parks, the president of

Rosa Acker brought her two granddaughters to the museum one day last week, Heather Garrison and Ashley Acker from Huntsville. Heather is Alice's daughter and Ashley is Arnold's daughter. Ashley visits her other grandparents, Jack and Mary Flynt when she is in Dimmitt. The Ackers took their granddaughters to Santa Fe while they were out this way

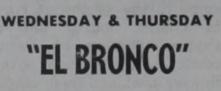

Tyson Eubanks from Afton, Okla. visited the museum on Monday, July 15, while he was in Dimmitt attending to business.

Jeff Lantz and his family were in Dimmitt visiting his parents, John and Carol Lantz, for a few days. They attended church on Sunday.

Guy and Oleta Walser went to Ardmore, Okla. last week. While they were in that area they went to McGeehee's to eat that good fish in the restaurant that is located in a beautiful surrounding. They went on to Plano to visit their daughter, Kathy and John Poer. They always have fun while they are there. They visited Weirs in downtown Dallas in the Highland Park area. Weirs has furniture and beautiful handcrafts - antiques and country canned foods. The manager asked them if they knew Pat Bagley and Geneva Schaeffer. Kathy took the Walsers to eat Chinese food and then to a show. They also ate German food at Hofbrau on another occasion. They visited Guy's relatives as well as Oleta's grandson, John Gallehon who has built a new house in west Fort Worth. John works for the Post Office there. John visited his cousins Tobin and Angela Touchstone in San Diego recently. Bobby and Wanda Murdock

Mrs. Kirby's nieces and nephews attending were Ned Young and Jane of California, Jack and Grace Young of Oregon, visitors Kim Parker's friends, Louise's mother and daughter and Una's niece from Odessa, Elsie and Hub Smith of Dallas, Geline and Vanessa Laya of Dallas.

Just a reminder for all of you to go to the Tour of Tables Sunday at the Expo Center. It is sponsored by the Castro County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

A&M gives freezing hints

Many people have discovered that freezing is a quick and simple way to save the surplus from their home gardens and help stretch the family food budget.

"When you have a freezer. there is no out-of-season period for fruits and vegetables," says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Marilyn Haggard.

Home frozen foods can have a color, flavor, texture and nutritive values much like the fresh product, if you follow recommended practices for freezing foods, she points out.

Whether you're freezing products for the first time or simply need to brush-up on old techniques and learn what's new, Haggard offers the following pointers:

•Get your freezer ready. To maintain high quality frozen foods for any time, the temperature of the freezer must be 0 degrees F or below. •Select high quality products to freeze. Freezing can only maintain the quality of the product. It will not improve it.

•Use proper packaging materials designed especially for freezer use. Materials should be airtight, moisture and vapor-resistant, clean and durable, and not add flavor or odor to the food.

Suitable containers include standard freezing or canning jars, polyethylene freezing bags, rigid plastic containers designed especially for freezing, and heavily-waxed cardboard freezing containers. Heavy duty aluminum foil, freezer paper, or plastic freezer films with overwraps are sometimes used for corn-onthe-cob.

Social Security ... in Castro County

By TERRY J. CLEMENTS

Social Security reaches a major milestone on Aug. 14. It was 50 years ago that the Social Security Act was signed into law. It set into motion a major institution that is just as much a part of America for people who have grown up since the depression as public education or the post office.

Just about everyone is affected by Social Security. Over nine out of 10 workers pay into the program. And well over 36 million people - more than one in seven persons - receive monthly disability, survivors, and retirement benefits.

About $1.54 trillion in retirement and survivors payments were made from 1940 through June 1985, and about $191 billion in disability benefits were paid from 1957 through June. Without Social Security it is estimated that 15 million needed changes and responsive persons would be in the pover- to challenges. It is a program from today's workers finance benefits for current beneficiaries. Using Social Security as a mechanism, it's a way for one generation to care for another.

The impact of Social Security on the lives of our citizens has been nothing short of revolutionary. Benefits provide a modest base of income for most retirees who are able to live more independent lives. Millions of children can count on benefits should a parent die or start getting retirement or disability checks. And four out of five workers are insured for disability benefits and can get payments if they are unable to work for at least 12 months.

Social Security has come a long way in five decades. The program works because it reflects the needs of people. Social Security is sensitive to

It has come to our attention that ABC Television is planning to film a mini-series in the panhandle. They are seeking an old two-story farmhouse that can be restored, used for filming and then destroyed. If you know of an old farmhouse in Castro County that might fit this project, call the Economic Development Commission at 647-2524.

Before you laugh, consider these facts:

Texas has become one of the most popular places in the country to make movies.

TV and film projects produced more than $204 million for the Texas economy last year.

The state's growing popularity with filmmakers has been especially noticeable in recent award ceremonies.

Places in the Heart captured two Academy Awards.

Three of the five pictures nominated for Best Picture in 1984 - Silkwood, Tender Mercies and Terms of Endearment - were filmed in Texas.

Cities have learned that filmmaking can bring immediate and highly visible benefits to a community.

It is estimated that film and tape production generated more than $144 million for the Dallas metroplex in 1983.

San Antonio reports that during a recent six-day location, the cast and crew of TV's General Hospital spent $40,000 on hotels alone.

Six feature films shot in El Paso pumped almost $25 million into that city's economy.

Waxahachie, a town of 17,000 received worldwide publicity with the success of Places in the Heart. The filming lasted two months in 1983 and put $1 million into the local economy.

Claude is one of the few panhandle towns that has made an effort to attract film projects. Since the success of Hud several years ago, other films and commercials have been made in the community. They have learned in Claude that filmmaking means money!

Texas is now being touted as the "Third Coast," the leading center of the film industry after California and New York. Who knows, we might look pretty good on TV.

Bronco teams erupt at 'Tater Town'

THAT HOME RUN SMILE-Adam Cline comes beaming across home plate as he gets a high five from Scott Acker after nailing a two-run homer against Amarillo I Monday. The shot tied the score at 2-2, but the next two batters, Jesse Garza and Robert Ruiz, also homered to give Dimmitt a 4-2 advantage. Dimmitt won the contest, 12-10.

In baseball parlance, a home run is known as a "tater."

At George Howell Memorial Park, 13 taters were mashed in the first two nights of the Sectional Bronco Baseball Tournament in Dimmitt.

The cozy field, which is just 208 feet at the deepest point, saw six balls hit out of the park Monday night and seven more hit Tuesday night.

Muleshoe, who hammered five home runs including three by Larry Gonzales in a 14-8 win over Hereford Tuesday, and Amarillo III, who had a pair of home runs in the first inning in their 13-3 win over Dimmitt Tuesday, will square off in a winner's bracket contest at 8 p.m. Thursday, with the winner to go into the championship game at 2 p.m. Saturday in the double-elimination tourney.

Wednesday night, Dimmitt faced Amarillo II at 6 p.m, while Amarillo I squared off against Hereford at 8 p.m. The losers of those two games will be eliminated while the winners will meet Thursday at 6 p.m.

The winner of the early game Thursday will face the loser of the late game on Friday night at 6:30, with the winner to face either Muleshoe or Amarillo III in the finals.

Dimmitt never got a fighting

Dimmitt, meanwhile, scored all three of their runs in the fourth when Roger Gauna singled, Thomas walked and Garza hit his second "tater" of the tournament.

Dimmitt had runners at second and third in the fifth on a double by Scott Acker, a sacrifice by Matt Cozbey and a walk and stolen base by Armando Arce, but Freddie Fernandez struck out to end the inning and the game, which was called by the 10-run rule.

Hereford was dumped by Muleshoe, who got 15 hits off Hereford pitching and the performance of Gonzales, who had seven RBI and surrendered just one run in three innings on the mound.

Abel Barron and Daniel Rodriguez also homered in the contest.

Hereford, who had just one hit in its 8-6 win over Amarillo II Monday night, had seven hits, but further aided Muleshoe's cause by committing five errors.

Dimmitt advanced to Tuesday's winner's bracket game against Amarillo III by dumping Amarillo I 12-10 Monday night in the tournament opener.

Johnny Espinosa singled in two runs in the top of the seventh inning for the gamewinning RBI off losing pitcher Casey Mann, who came in to relieve Tom Sell after Sell had walked two, given up two base hits and had two costly errors committed by his defense in the seventh. The first five Dimmitt batters - Jesse Garza, Robert Ruiz, Johnny Rodriguez, Scott Acker and Armando Arce - all reached base and scored in the seventh as 11 batters went to the plate.

Amarillo went out to an early lead on back-to-back homers in Hereford had just one hit but the second inning by Cole Webb and Sell off Dimmitt starter Scott Acker, but Dimmitt jumped out in front in the fourth in three consecutive home runs by Adam Cline, strike zone in the bottom of the Garza and Ruiz.

Webb scored for Amarillo in the fourth after a bases-loaded error by first-baseman Cline, and Chris Stull tied the score for Amarillo in the fifth on a sacrifice fly by Mann.

Dimmitt jumped back in front, 7-4, on a bases-loaded double by Billy Ray Thomas, but Amarillo answered with six runs in the sixth inning when Ruiz, who came in to relieve Garza, had a crucial error behind him by Espinosa in center to allow one run, then gave up a walk and two singles before Mann hit a grand-slam over the left-centerfield fence to give Amarillo a 10-7 lead going into the seventh.

The loss dumped Amarillo I into Wednesday's late game in the loser's bracket.

In Monday's second contest, still edged Amarillo II, 8-6.

Brant Hoving led off the game for Amarillo II with a home run, but Amarillo pitching had trouble finding the third, and once they did find the plate, Hereford's Anthony Mondragon hit a grand-slam home run.

Hereford then scored four more runs on a hit batsman, four walks, a sacrifice fly and two steals.

Amarillo II scored single runs in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings and scored two runs in the sixth on two singles, a sacrifice fly and a ground out, but pitcher Robert Rico, who picked up the win, came back with a vengeance in the top of the seventh after Hoving scored on a Jeff Clark single to force two pop ups and a strikeout to send Hereford into Tuesday's winner's bracket game against Muleshoe.

Amarillo II played in the first losers bracket game Wednesday.

Wordsworth described its beauty in his 1800 poem, Home at Grasmere:

How vast the compass of this theatre, Yet nothing to be seen but lovely pomp And silent majesty: the birch-tree woods

Are hung with thousand thousand diamond drops Of melted hoar-frost, every tiny knot capital. I found myself surprisingly intrigued by the architecture and the use of stone throughout northern and central England. Although the Romans were succeeded by later conquerors, it was their stonebuilding methods that prevailed in the permanent structures of the country (They even knew how to make clay brick.)

Castro County News

Most English people live in "detached" homes of Victorian architecture – duplexes three and four stories high - and their "gardens" in the cities are the size we would devote to a patio. In the cities, the homes are brick. In the countryside, the architecture is the same, but the homes are built of quarried native stone. New homes are built to resemble the old. Each village and metropolis has its rows and rows of houses jammed together.

It's a crowded way to live, but theirs is a crowded island. In the areas we visited, the shingles are all chipped of slate. When a roof needs rebuilding, they simply take the slate shingles off, stack them aside until the structural work is done, then put them back on.

Their roadways, also, were all made originally of granite blocks (now paved over with asphalt), and they are uniformly smooth and good, if narrow. All streets and roads are lined with curbstones, each about 6x6 inches square and three feet long, either of quarried granite or concrete molded to resemble granite. Most roadways also have paved walkways alongside.

The things the English have done through the centuries with carved stone – from the immense cathedrals to the majestic Parliament buildings are not just impressive, but breathtaking.

The sights, the scenery, the history, the art, the people, all made it one of the best vacations we've ever had.

We wanted to spend a week in Edinburgh, a month in London, a year in York. But after two weeks, we were ready to come back to good old Dimmitt, and glad to get home!

"For the Best Deal in the Country"

Referendum, director election underway

Four grain sorghum producers of the Texas High Plains area are candidates for re-election to the office of Director of Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board. Their names will appear on the same ballot as referendums to establish a uniform grain sorghum checkoff throughout Texas.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board was established in 29 counties of the Texas High Plains in 1969. Since that time, it has financed most of the promotion and market development for Texas sorghum. In this election, sorghum producers outside the current TGSPB area will vote on a proposal to join TGSPB and expand the program statewide.

The High Plains candidates are: Dennis W. Anthony of Friona in Parmer County, Albert Scheele of Lockney in Floyd County, Weldon Shelton of Lamesa in Dawson County and Loyall Turner of Spearman in Hansford County. If the referendum to expand the program is approved by twothirds of the producers voting, seven directors will be elected at-large from a slate of 23. The seven directors-elect will join eight who are serving unexpired terms on the existing board. Directors are elected to six-year terms with one-third responsibility of the TGSPB programs within limits approved by the voters. They have the authority to set the rate of the assessment but may not exceed the maximum specified in the referendum. They also hire staff, decide projects and determine collection procedures. They are elected officers of the State of Texas. They are not paid for their services but provisions have been made to reimburse them for travel expenses.

While farmers in counties outside the TGSPB area vote on the checkoff, those in the High Plains area will vote on a referendum to raise the maximum limit of the assessment from 1/4 cent per hundredweight to one cent. The proposition is to allow adjustments in assessments to meet the operating costs of the 1980's. If approved, the board of directors will have the authority to set the assessment at any rate which does not exceed one cent per hundredweight.

The TGSPB checkoff funds are used to finance the promotion of Texas grain sorghum in markets throughout the world. In recent years, TGSPB has concentrated most of its efforts in Mexico. Due largely to those efforts, Mexico is now buying a livestock feed. One such pro-The directors have the full ject persuaded USDA to raise the loan rate and price support of sorghum from 92 percent of that corn to 95 percent. That project has added from 10 to 15 cents per hundredweight to sorghum's price each year since 1972.

> The proposed TGSPB checkoff is a uniform way to finance the sorghum promotion for the benefit of all sorghum farmers. Participation is voluntary. Any producer who does not wish to pay the assessment simply requests and promptly receives a refund.

Anyone who has produced sorghum in Texas during at least one of the past three years is eligible to vote in the election. Ballots will be mailed to more than 60,000 Texas sorghum producers on the ASCS roll. Any producer who does not receive a ballot by August 1, may obtain one at his County Extension Office or calling toll-free by 1-800-692-4169. Farmers are also advised to use the toll-free number with any questions about the referendum or checkoff program.

Hance says he'll be in gubernatorial race

Former US Rep. Kent Hance Monday said he will be making an announcement soon that he will run for governor and downplayed rumors there is a rift in the Republican Party because of his gubernatorial ambitions.

Hance also denied that support by long-time Republicans for the candidacy of Tom Loeffler was a message for him to back away from the governor's race.

DANCE to the music of The Outlaws

"We're pretty well committed to the race," Hance said Monday. "We'll probalby make a formal announcement in August or September.'

Hance said he was surprised that one of three Republican congressmen who announced their support for Loeffler said that Hance had given too much support to Lloyd Doggett and Walter Mondale in last November's general election.

"That . . . disturbed me because anyone who followed the race knows that I only said
