Farmers in the region are still in a quandary as to what to do with their 1986 crops as continued wet weather and accompanying scattered hail damage have played havoc with crops in some sections of the county.

Officially, 5.31 inches of rain fell in Dimmitt during June, making last month the seventh-wettest June on record, according to the National Weather Service. However, two showers apparently "missed" KDHN, the location of the official weather station for Dimmitt. An unofficial observer recorded over two inches of rain more than KDHN, although the unofficial observer lives less than a mile away.

The unofficial observer recorded .80 of an inch on June 22, while KDHN reported only .01 of an inch. The observer also recorded 1.50 inches June 28 for showers that covered almost all of the county Friday afternoon, while the official observer received only .07 of an inch.

However, the 5.31 inches, or

"This ad staff found a few new ways and I salute them for their efforts!"

It was the second award received by the News for its advertising this year, as the News was also honored by the Panhandle Press Association, where the News also captured the general excellence award.

The general excellence and Sweepstakes awards were captured by the Cooke County Leader in Gainesville for the TPA contest.

If you've ever seen her up close, you know the feeling. It rekindles every time you see a picture of her.

Miss Liberty. What a majestic piece of art. What a masterpiece of engineering. What a lady.

Verbie and I first saw her six Julys ago, when we flew to New York to meet our son David after his year in France.

The first time we set eyes on her was from the observation deck atop the tallest of the two World Trade Center towers on the southern tip of Manhattan. She seemed a long way off, out there in the harbor.

Later, we took the seven-hour Gray Line tour of New York (which I highly recommend to any first-time visitor).

As we approached Liberty Island on the ferry, she looked smaller than I had expected. And the reflection from the water emphasized the light green patina of her oxydized copper skin. I don't think I had ever seen a picture of her in her true, sunlit color, and most replicas of her are in bronze or white.

It isn't until you get right on her little island with her that you realize how huge she really is.

She stands 151 feet, 1 inch from flame-tip to toe. But she's on a pedestal that's 89 feet high, and the pedestal is atop a museum-foundation structure that's 65 feet tall. So when you look up at her from grass level, the distance between you and her torch is the length of a football field.

She's the world's largest metal statue. Her waist is 35 feet thick, her right arm is 40 feet long, her index finger is eight feet in length, each of her eyes is 2½ feet wide, her mouth is three feet wide.

Those statistics are impressive enough. But they're not what Miss Liberty is all about.

She's the symbol of a yearning so deep and so universal in mankind's spirit that she has become the most famous statue in the world — more famous than the Sphinx, than Venus de Milo, or than Michelangelo's David or The Pieta.

That's what she's about. Liberty. Freedom.

"In one stunning image recognized around the world, the Statue of Liberty says America."

—Alice J. Hall
National Geographic

She was a gift a century ago from freedom-loving Frenchmen who, under the rule of Napoleon III, didn't enjoy much freedom. It was their statement to the young nation whose freedom France had helped achieve.

When you look up at Miss Liberty, you can feel the passion that drove her creator, Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, and the pride with which the French artisans constructed her in loving, hand-wrought detail. The more you study her features, the more you come to realize that, even if you had the power to do so, you wouldn't change a single detail — not her stance, nor any feature of her determined face, nor her majestic seven-pointed diadem, nor her classic torch, nor her book, nor her hair style, nor a single fold of her clothing. She is a complete, classic being, who makes a dramatic statement to the soul of everyone who sees her.

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame, With conquering limbs astride from land to land; Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand a mighty woman with a torch, whose flame is the imprisoned lightning, and her name Mother of Exiles.

'Together, We Can!'

Spirit rally planned

"Castro County—Together, We Can!"

That will be the theme of a county-wide outdoor spirit rally on the courthouse square Thursday, Aug. 7, complete with hot dogs and Coke, music and soap-box speeches.

People from all the county's communities are being urged to come and take part—and get on the soap box, if they wish, and tell why they're proud of Castro County.

Planning is being done by a committee representing the cities of Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth.

Planners so far have decided to hold the rally at 7 in the evening, to serve old-fashioned beef hot dogs and Coke for 50 cents per serving, and to call in a representative from each city to help emcee the event.

But for the main part of the program, the audience will be asked to take over.

"We've been going through some bad times," committee chairman Walt Hansen said, "and we thought it would be good for us just to get together and remind ourselves of what's good about our county, our communities and our way of life, and to show some support for each other. We've got a lot to be proud of here, and we need to remind ourselves of that, and show our pride."

Anyone with anything to say will get his or her minute or two at the microphone, Hansen said. The rally will be "open-ended," with no scheduled cutoff time.

"We'd like to recognize some three- and four-generation families here," committee member Jim Killingsworth said. "We've got a lot of people here who have paved the way for their children and grandchildren, and some who have built on what their parents, grandparents and great-grandparents did, and we'd like to recognize them and just tell them, 'Thanks!'"

"If we all get together and work together, maybe we can help each other weather our current problems," Hansen said. "That's why the committee picked the theme, 'Together, We Can,' for the rally."

SOME YOUNGSTERS will do anything they can to make the Fourth of July a little more colorful, like Wayne Birkenfeld, who was caught in the act by his sister, Anne Acker of the News. A safer way to enjoy Independence Day, though, will be at the practice field at Bobcat Stadium Friday night with the annual fireworks show sponsored by the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce. The show begins with a watermelon feed at 8:30, with watermelon served for 50 cents per person. Patriotic music will follow, with the fireworks starting after sundown. A youth dance will be held at the Expo Building after the fireworks. Many businesses in the county, including the News, will be closed from Friday through the weekend, while others will only be closed on the Friday holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Westin establish new home in Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alton Westin are home at Rochester, Minn. after their June 21 wedding and a wedding trip to the Bahamas.

The bride is the former Lesley Marie Franks, daughter of Richard and Carla Franks of Hart. Parents of the groom are Stanley Westin of Kasson, Minn., and the late Rosemary Westin.

The couple were wed in the First Baptist Church in Hart with Jack Lee, pastor, officiating at the nuptials.

Musicians included soloist Gabe Grewell of Odessa and pianist Jennifer Davis of Hart.

The couple stood underneath natural wood lattice archway entwined with English ivy and flanked by bouquets of white gladiolas and Boston fern.

Pews were marked with gladiolas and English ivy.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk organza gown trimmed in Venice lace. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline edged in re-embroidered Venice lace. The bodice was styled with a basque waistline and featured Venice lace appliques over Seville lace material. The short sleeves were puffed and were accented with silk flowers gathered midway at each sleeve. The full A-line skirt flowed into a full cathedral-length train edged in re-embroidered Venice lace.

She wore a profile hat covered with Venice lace and silk flowers which enhanced the turned-up brim of the hat. A fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from the hat completing the headpiece.

She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and English ivy.

Matron of honor was Laurey Franks Gilbert of Lubbock, sister of the bride.

She wore a tea-length gown of ivory silk shantung. The dress featured a fitted bodice and rolled collar of Seville lace that extended to a low V-neckline in the back and formed elbow-length sleeves. A sash of Seville lace accented the natural waistline.

She carried a bouquet of English ivy and stephanotis. Steven Erickson of Kasson, Minn., was best man.

Rice bags were given out by Becky Lee and Tanya Leibel of Hart.

Guests at the ceremony were seated by Mark Gilbert of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the bride; Lance Franks of Lubbock, the bride's cousin; Todd Franks of Odessa, the bride's cousin; and Rodney Jones of Lubbock.

A reception followed at the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church.

The bride's table was covered with an ivory Spanish tea cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with fresh flowers.

Hors d'oeuvres were served from another table along with various finger foods and fresh fruit. The centerpiece was a fresh flower arrangement and ivory tapered candles.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Tracy Rich.

Reception assistants included Mrs. Andy Smith, Mrs. Rodney Carpenter, Robin Bowden, Linda Washington, Mrs. Brent Hamby, Mrs. Matt King, Mrs. Randy Popejoy and Rhonda Brooks.

The bride is a graduate of Hart High School and the groom is a graduate of Kasson-Montorville High School of Kasson. The couple both attend Rochester Community College in Rochester, Minn.

Police Calls

Officer Garold McDaniel was treated at Plains Memorial Hospital for abrasions to his right leg and a cut to the left abdomen after attempting to apprehend a man for fighting at the Azteca Apartments Sunday night.

McDaniel, who was on routine patrol, observed two men, one identified as Victoriano Munoz, fighting outside the Azteca complex.

According to reports, McDaniel identified himself to the men and ordered them "to stop fighting and to stay put."

The men then began to run off. The unidentified man took off to the north while Munoz began to run in the direction of the apartments with 500 numbers.

McDaniel proceeded to follow Munoz and caught him at apartment number 505.

According to reports, Munoz began knocking on the rear door of the apartment saying he "needed in."

McDaniel then ordered Munoz to "halt and stand against the wall." Munoz attempted to run by the officer toward the stairs but was seized and placed against the wall of the building. McDaniel then reportedly advised Munoz he was under arrest for evading arrest and assault.

As McDaniel attempted to place handcuffs on Munoz, a woman reportedly came out of apartment 505 and pushed at the officer. Munoz then pushed himself off the wall and, according to reports, struck McDaniel in the chest.

Another woman then came out of the apartment and attempted to struggle to get Munoz out of the officer's custody.

McDaniel reported that he had ordered the persons to release Munoz and attempted to explain that Munoz was a prisoner, but the persons continued to fight him.

Police said that another man arrived and proceeded to strike McDaniel with his fist. McDaniel ordered the persons to release Munoz when he noticed the flash of a "possible shiny metallic item swing by

McDaniel stated that he then backed off from the suspects and requested assistance from other units.

Munoz reportedly retreated into apartment 505 with the assistance of the other persons.

Approximately two minutes later officer Phil Provence arrived at the scene and joined McDaniel in returning to the apartment.

Reports indicate that the people inside the apartment told officers that Munoz could be found in apartment 504.

Searches of apartment 504 by the two officers revealed Munoz was hiding in the bathroom.

Munoz was apprehended and was placed under arrest for assault, evading arrest and aggravated assault on a police officer.

Nazareth By Uirgle Gerber, 945-2669

The Holy Family Parish Council and the Council of Economic Affairs treated Father Harold to a dinner at K-Bob's Monday evening before their meeting.

Derek spent this time with his uncles Mike and George Schulte. While in Rhineland they also visited Rose's brother Joe. They returned to Lubbock Wednesday and spent the night at the Bryan Birkenfeld home. Bryan is still recuperating from an accident he had a couple of weeks ago.

Fonsa Huseman is recuperating after having knee surgery at the Hereford hospital. She is presently staying at the home of her daughter, Dolly Schulte.

Cornelia Annen enjoyed a week's visit in Indiana with nieces and nephews, Judeen Peifer and family of Sureville, Richard Thiel and family of St. John and Susie Braun and family of Plymouth.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated for Arthur Kleman, 88, in Holy Family Church with Rev. Harold Waldow, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Holy Family Cemetery. Survivors include two daughters, Agnes Schilling of Dimmitt and Leola Ramaekers of Nazareth; six sons, Elmer of Canyon, LaVern of Des Moines, Iowa; Bernard of Amarillo, Urban of Tulia, Carl Dean and Alphonse, both of Nazareth; 38 grandchildren and 45 great-grandchildren.

Baptized in Holy Family Church Sunday morning with Rev. Harold Waldow, pastor, officiating, were Jaci Jo Rie, infant daughter of Glenn and Jan Ramaekers with Renee and Bryan Ramaekers and godparents and Chelsea Elizabeth, infant daughter of Larry and Tammy Ramaekers with Kenney and Doretta Gerber as her godparents.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated for Rudolph Braddock, 77, in Holy Family church with Rev. Harold Waldow, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Holy Family Cemetery. Survivors include his wife, Margaret; three sons, Ronald of Crook, Colo., Bernie of Amarillo and Don of Alvin; one daughter, Genevieve Ward of Amarillo; two sisters, Christine Braddock and Lucille Schacher; a brother, Vincent, all of Nazareth; and six grandchildren.

Many parishioners and friends of Father Harold's from Nazareth, Hart, Tulia and Dimmitt attended the farewell party given for him on Sunday afternoon at the Nazareth Community Hall, hosted by the Parish Council. Father will leave this week for his new assignment as Pastor of St. Lawrence Cathedral in Amarillo. He will be missed by all of us, having shared in everyone's ups and downs for the past four years, he is family and friend to all, young and old alike.

Rose Birkenfeld and her grandson Derek Birkenfeld of Lubbock drove to Rhineland on Friday. They then went with Rose's sister, Mary Redder, to Wichita Falls to attend the wedding of Gloria Redder. Mary, Rose and another sister, Lena Haggard of Fort Worth, spent several days at the home of Philip and Jimmie Redder.

Father Ralph Zinser will be our Pastor until the 16th of July when Msgr. Kevin Hand will be back from a vacation in Ireland and will be the new Pastor of Holy Family Church.

Insect workshop is Tuesday

Cotton, corn and sorghum producers in Castro County are invited to the second part of the annual High Plains Scout Training Workshop to increase the effectiveness of their pest management programs.

The last two workshop sessions will focus on mid- and late-season pests and will be held Tuesday at the Magee Regional Heritage Center (Llano Estacado Museum) on the Wayland Baptist University campus in Plainview, Allen Knutson, Extension Agent-Entomology, said.

The first workshop in June covered mid to late-season crop pests. The second workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m. with Dr. Pat Morrison, Extension Entomologist, outlining the scope of the training and explaining general concepts.

Dr. James Leser, Extension

Entomologist, will then open the cotton pest section with information on the growth and development of cotton.

Greg Cronholm, Extension Agent-Entomology headquartered at Plainview, will discuss cotton bollworms. Beet armyworms, loopers and aphids will be discussed by Leser.

Corn pests will be covered by Knutson, who is based in Dimmitt and Morrison. Information on the identification and scouting of sorghum pests will be presented by Cronholm and Knutson.

The daylong workshop will conclude with a field session in which participants will identify pests and beneficials and practice scouting techniques.

Insects of interest

Control bagworms now

Bagworms are one of the major pests of junipers and other trees and shrubs in Texas. Spring hatch began in mid-May in the Lubbock area this year and is now complete. Insecticide control is most effective in late May and June when the bagworms are small, says Allen Knutson, Extension Agent-Entomology.

In the spring, bagworm larvae emerge from hatching eggs inside last year's bags and begin feeding on leaves. They soon begin to construct their own protective bag of silk, twigs and leaves, making them camouflaged and hard to see. As the larvae and their bags continue to grow, control becomes more difficult.

Bagworms feed throughout the summer months, building their bags until the bags are about 1 1/2 inches long. In the fall, the bagworms become adults, mate and the females lay eggs inside their bags. They then overwinter in these bags in trees and shrubs. Each overwintering female bag on a tree contains from 500 to 1500 eggs.

"Since the bagworm only completes one generation a year and spreads very slowly from plant to plant, picking the bags off infested plants in the winter will help a lot toward controlling this pest," says Knutson. "But if bagworms were present on the plant last year and control measures were not applied, chances are very good that an insecticide will be needed this spring."

Insecticides which can be used to control bagworms include sevin, dursban, diazionon, malathion, dylox and orthene. The biological insecticide Bacillus thuringiensis can also be used. To obtain effective control, thorough coverage of the foliage is important. The addition of a small amount of liquid soap or surfactant to the spray solution will improve control because it helps adhere the insecticide to the treated trees and shrubs. Always read and follow label instructions when applying insecticides.

DPS issues holiday warning

As many as 45 persons may die in traffic accidents in Texas during the long July 4 holiday period, according to an estimate by the Texas Dept. of Public Safety.

"The mixture of lower gasoline prices and increased travel this summer could prove to be deadly over the July 4 holiday," said Col. Jim Adams, director of the DPS. "In addition to these factors, travel during the holiday will be made hazardous by the continuing problems of drunken driving and excessive speed."

Last year, 25 persons died as a result of traffic mishaps during the July 4 holiday, but because of the day of the week on which July 4 fell, the holiday period was only 30 hours. This year, the period will be 78 hours, from 6 p.m. Thursday to midnight Sunday.

Of the traffic fatalities during the July 4, 1985 period, 72% occurred in accidents involving excessive speed or drinking.

As in years past, in an effort to hold down the number of holiday traffic deaths, the DPS will conduct "Operation Holiday," in which additional troopers from the Department's uniformed services will be placed on Texas highways for heightened traffic law enforcement and to assist motorists.

Additionally, the Department will conduct its "Operation Motorcade" effort, in which periodic releases will be made throughout the holiday to keep the public informed about the number of traffic deaths occurring across the state.

This will be the first July 4 period since the new Texas safety belt law went on the books. Last year, 82% of those killed in traffic accidents during the holiday period had not been restrained, either by a safety belt or child safety seat.

"The message in that safety belt statistic is clear," Adams said. "The chances of being seriously injured or killed in a traffic accident are greatly reduced by wearing a safety belt and using a child safety seat for children under four years of age."

Adams said the two restraint laws, coupled with increased awareness of the dangers of drinking while driving, are contributing to an overall decrease in Texas traffic fatalities.

"Preliminary figures indicate the number of traffic deaths statewide was down 1.6% in the first quarter of this year compared with the first quarter of 1985," Adams said. "We hope that trend will not be reversed this July 4 period with a number of senseless tragedies."

TALK about your big fish stories. Biologists at Michigan State University are exploring ways to produce 70-pound salmon by placing eggs in warm water, reports International Wildlife magazine. The higher temperature prevents fish from undergoing a key growth stage, making them sterile and overdeveloped.

MENTION cricket and you think of an insect about the size of a paper clip, but in New Guinea, there are crickets longer than 10 inches with a wing span to match, says International Wildlife magazine.

From her beacon-hand glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command the air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame. "Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp," cries she with silent lips. If you donated any money toward the renovation, or bought any of the products that benefited the renovation fund, then you're a part of her now.

She is the reason why this July 4 will be different than any Independence Day before. This is Liberty Weekend, the Lady's 100th birthday.

The Liberty Foundation has already over-commercialized the event, and much of the party will be done in basic show-biz tacky—with Elvis Presley look-alikes, Miss Liberty look-alikes, foam-rubber crowns, deodorant commercials.

Much of the celebration, though, should be quite impressive—the tall ships, the huge fireworks display, the rededication ceremonies.

But Miss Liberty will not notice any of this man-made pageantry or clap-trap. When you see her up close, you realize that she is above all this.

With her gleaming, freshly buffed finish and her new struts, she will continue to stand tall in the harbor, and to send forth the message and spirit that she was created to

WBU sets benefit tourney

A softball tournament to benefit Deanna Shelton of the Wayland Baptist University Flying Queens will be held July 11 through July 13 in Plainview.

Shelton, a sophomore from Fritch, was stricken with Guillain-Barre Syndrome last month, and has been hospitalized since May 10. She was in the intensive care unit at High Plains Baptist Hospital until two weeks ago. The affliction is a paralyzing disease, with full recovery time from the rare affliction varying from patient to patient.

"Deanna's extended hospital stay has left her family with tremendous hospital bills and no insurance," according to Scott Green, a WBU student who is organizing the tournament.

Entry fees are $85 per team, with entry deadline next Wednesday. Persons wishing to enter the tournament should call Beverly Thurman in Plainview at 293-8018.

THE HOME GAME
BY VIRGINIA TRUAX

SHOT IN THE ARM — For a bumper crop of tomatoes, work a teaspoon of Epsom salts into the soil as you plant. Later in the season, add a little more of the salts around the plants as a fertilizer.

STORE-BOUGHT — To keep those fine sweaters as soft and fluffy as the day you bought them, add a bit of hair creme rinse to the final rinse water as you hand-wash them. Then carefully pack away for the summer.

LONG STEM — Iced-tea spoons are handy to use for large jars, such as mayonnaise, etc. So keep several in your kitchen drawer to use year-round.

COLDER'S BETTER — Remember to use cold water when operating your garbage disposal. This tends to congeal any grease that has built up so that it will drain out of the sewer system better.

EASY ON THE EYES — To thread a needle with greater ease, dip the end of the thread into colorless nail polish and wipe off. This stiffens and flattens it so that it slips into the eye of the needle much more quickly!

HURRY-UP MEAL — When time is of the essence, chop the baking time of meat loaf in half by forming individual "loaves" and baking in your muffin tin.

Local residents attend state GOP convention

Don and Ann Ethington and Bill and Deanne Clark, all of Dimmitt, served as delegates and alternates at the Texas Republican State Convention last weekend in Dallas.

Also attending were Jamie Baker, Deena Richards, Jo Hyman and Brian Stewart, who served as convention pages.

4,067 delegates from across the state voted on "a conservative, traditional values platform, rather than separate resolutions," said Deanne

Clark, county Republican chairman. George Strake was re-elected as vice-chairman after withdrawing from the chairman's race. She bested Kay Danks of Austin by 67 votes.

Over 9,000 guests, delegates and alternates heard speeches by former Gov. Bill Clements, Vice President George Bush, Sen. Bob Dole of Kansas, Sen. Phil Gramm of Texas, former Secretary of Defense Alexander Haig, and US Rep. Jack Kemp of New York.

The local delegation attended a "Traditional Values" breakfast and worship service Saturday with Kent, Carol and Susan Hance, Clark said.

more, was enough to cause major problems to young milo and cotton stands, some of which had been re-planted for the second or third time.

"Some of the cotton is real good, while some of it got washed away again by the rains last week," reported County Agent Seth Ralston. "Some of the cotton, though, is in real good shape — it just depends on who you talk to, because it may be real good at one place, and be real poor two miles down the road.

"Some of the producers in the county went back in with lister-busters and planted milo under the Treflan they had in the fields, or planted in the furrows, then got their new stuff washed out. Some folks are still planting this week.

"Some producers are planting soybeans, and some are talking about pinto beans. They're just looking for ways to get their investments back — everything would be alright if the prices were better."

We Salute Freedom . . . Our Precious Heritage

On July 4, 1776, a formal statement written by Thomas Jefferson, signed by 56 other statesmen and adopted by the Second Continental Congress, declared that the thirteen American Colonies were free and independent of Great Britain . . . this document was the Declaration of Independence.

We Americans have celebrated July 4 as our Independence Day . . . different people celebrate in different ways, but the 4th of July is almost always recognized with fireworks, picnics, parades, and family get-togethers. Many people just relax at home and enjoy their day off from their places of business.

However you chose to celebrate July 4, we hope that you take a moment to think how fortunate you are to be an American, living in a free country, free to choose in which manner you spend your holiday. We must be eternally grateful to the thousands who have given their lives in numerous wars to insure our freedom . . . and we must preserve this precious freedom. We can picnic on the 4th of July or go fishing, or play ball, or have a barbecue, or watch a parade . . . we can do anything we wish . . . and we do it as a matter of course, because we have always been free to do as we choose. How would we react to being told how to spend our holiday?

The next time you see Old Glory flying, the next time you join in a pledge of allegiance to our flag, think . . . it is more than just cloth shaped into a design. It is the emblem of the greatest sovereign nation on earth and the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives . . . it has led American sons into battles from Valley Forge to the bloody rice paddies of Vietnam . . . the Flag has flown through peace and war, strife and prosperity, and amidst it all, it has been respected. Its white stripes signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons and daughters . . . its red stripes symbolize the blood spilled in defense of our nation . . . its blue field is indicative of God's Heaven under which it flies, and its stars, clustered together, unify 50 states as one, for God and Country.

This July 4 let us pause to remember how greatly we have been blessed in this nation of ours . . . we hope you have a glorious holiday, doing just what you want to do, as is your privilege in this great country.

Blackie and Mary Blackwood and Sonny and Ann Armstrong went on a big fishing trip to Rockport and Corpus Christi. They went deepsea fishing and Blackie told me he caught two Kingfish weighing 14 pounds each and it nearly wore him out bringing them in. (Is this a big fish story, Blackie?) A nephew, Houston Carroll, from Houston was among the group.

Helen Richardson, Cleo Forson, and Elizabeth Huckabay attended a meeting in Tulia last Wednesday, the Silver Haired Legislature with Poppy Hulse as speaker. Helen visited with some former college classmates at WT in Canyon, Oleta (Huckabay) Bates, and Raymond Wilson's sister, Mrs. Ford. They stayed after the meeting to listen to the Senior Citizen Band practice.

I attended a World Book meeting in Amarillo last Saturday that was held at Memorial Park. About 50 World Book representatives and their families enjoyed a barbecue lunch and watermelon and a training session. Vina Briggs from Amarillo who is retiring as District Manager was made Queen for a day with a throne, gold robe and a red crown. She was presented with a bouquet of red roses. The children were entertained with a Treasure Hunt.

Geneva Dennis honored Irene Carpenter on her birthday with a fish supper at Al's Restaurant on Friday evening. Other members present were: Mauzee Youts, Ruth Hays, Oleta Walser, Connie Ivey, Mary Edna Hendrix, and guests Gene Ivey, Guy Walser, and my granddaughter, Lauren Lankford from Amarillo.

Oleda Schumacher was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge. Cleo Forson won high score and Johnnie Vannoy won second high. Others playing were: Elizabeth Huckabay, Ferne Dickey, Virginia Crider, Louise Mears, Opha Burks, Neva Hickey, Polly Holland, Era Heckerson and Edith Graef.

More grandchildren visiting grandparents are: Allison Noble from Lubbock spent the day with her grandmother, Evelyn Noble, last Thursday. Flora Stanford's guests were her daughter, Arvalee Saul, and great-granddaughter, Kindel White, from Houston.

Joy and Elvis Barker have had their daughter Pam Crookham and grandchildren Chris 6, Jason 3 and Jennifer 1½ visiting for two weeks. The Barkers took a vacation the last week and all went to Sayre and Erick, Okla. to visit Joy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lamm and Elvis' sister and brother-in-law Ola Mae and Junie Coop at Erick and his brother, the Rayford Barkers at Sweetwater. On Friday, husband and daddy James Crookham and his parents Don and Tomy Cookham from Conroe and his sister Donna Whiles, Richard and Megan from Midland, came to Dimmitt for lunch and picked up Pam and family to go to Angel Fire, N.M. for a week's vacation. The Crookhams are in the process of moving from Evansville, Ind. to Corpus Christi. The Barkers returned to Sayre over the weekend to be with Joy's Dad who was in the hospital there.

Carole (Cowsert) Farris, a former Dimmitt resident and now living in Dalhart, has been recognized as an outstanding 4-H Leader. Carole and Sharon Scroggs from Dumas were honored as the top adult volunteer leaders in the Panhandle district. Carole received the Texas 4-H Salute to Excellence Award. Carole has been a 4-H volunteer for seven years and she helped develop a program to promote leadership and citizenship. She has worked with food and nutrition projects, method demonstrations, fund-raising activities, and the Dallam County 4-H Council.

Carole is a teacher at Dalhart High School and she serves as a liaison between the school and the 4-H program. She is active in a 4-H recruiter and with the Volunteer Leaders Association of Texas and the Dalham County 4-H Parents association. She and her husband, Ronnie Farris, (also a former Hart resident) are regular buyers at the annual Dallam County Junior Livestock Show. Carole is the daughter of Myrna Cowsert and Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Farris of Hart.

Robert Barrera and his family, Karen, Bonnie and Robert, Jr. have been visiting in Dimmitt for several days. They live in Farmington, N.M. While they were in Dimmitt they brought their nieces and nephews to the museum: Elizabeth Gutierrez, Fidel Barrera, Drana Galvan, Roy Galvan, Albert Charles, and Sally Ann Barrera.

A welcome "New Neighbors" coffee was given Saturday to all Sunset Circle ladies and a special open house for Louise Kemp. They surprised Louise by inviting all her painting buddies from Hereford along with many of her hometown friends. Everyone had a good time touring Louise's lovely new home. She invites you to visit her anytime.

Joe and Joyce King have had their family visiting for the past few weeks. Daughter, Kim, has been here teaching tennis as well as visiting the family and daughter, Judy and Malcolm Heffey and grandson, Heath, joined the family. Son John and wife Diane and the children came in and the entire clan went to "Texas" and have played tennis and visited. Diane and Johnny are from Dallas.

Ann and Don Ethington met Ann's relatives, Jane and Joe Jarrett and the Stolenwercks while the Ethingtons were in Dallas at the Republican Convention. They dined together and then shared photos and tales of the past.

Jamie Baker went as a page to Dallas to the Republican Convention this past weekend, and then went home with Sherri Bruegel Young for a visit before the ladies return to Dimmitt for KaKa's wedding.

The Bill Clarks' children, Tonya and Kirk and Adam Brewer and Toni and Greg Clark, joined them in Dallas for a visit while the Clarks were attending the Republican Convention.

Margaret and Percy Parsons had their grandchild, Michael Parsons from Dallas, visiting this week. They took Michael and his brother, Blair, to "Texas" during the visit.

Pete and Mary Dove stayed two weeks with their daughter, Peggy Beebe, and family in Bayfield, Colo. While the Beebes work in town, Mary took care of the housework and the cooking. She had fun learning to cook again for more than two. There were from 6 to 14 every evening for the meal. Pete helped with the irrigating. They also helped with cutting up the meat, a service they have out of their home. They also visited with Pete's brother, Jess, who lives in Bayfield.

Norma Markham of Missouri spent the week in Dimmitt visiting Polly Simpson and other relatives and friends. Norma grew up in Dimmitt and graduated from DHS in 1945. She was the daughter of the late Faye and Finis (Bruce) Hunter and lived in the Jumbo community. Polly and Norma were roommates at Texas Tech and ran around with Marilyn Gollehon, another Dimmitt girl. Polly married Norma's cousin M. L. Simpson, Jr. in 1964, so now they are friendly cousins. Norma and Frank and their children Butch and Marsha lived in Castro County when they first married, later moving to Sunray and then to Missouri. The girls had fun all week—went to Clovis with Louise and Karen Nelson one night, ate with "Aunt Rachel" Hunter one night, went to Hereford for fajitas with Norma's sister-in-law and husband, Helen and James Higgins, visited with aunt and mother, Naomi Simpson, at Kings Manor and ended the week with a grand finale — going to see "Texas." And "Texas" is really good this Sesquicentennial year. Now they are already planning a trip for later to Des Moines, Iowa, to visit Orval and Della Pierce, Norma's brother. They are hoping Aunt Rachel can go with them. Ann Rodgers from Paducah has been visiting her mother Oleta and Guy Walser.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure. Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

Preparing for the future

We parents are very careful to teach our children thrift and industry so that like this little girl they begin early in life preparing for the future. We sometimes are not so careful though to point out that there is a great deal more to the future than "a penny saved is a penny earned" or "early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

We need the Church to remind us about the real values of life and to help us teach our children what life is really all about. Your nearby Church will be glad to answer any questions, religious or otherwise, you have about your child's spiritual training. The Sunday School is maintained to help you help your children. Use it!

B.F. Yeates endowment to benefit 4-H programs

The Texas 4-H horse program has come a long way in the past 20 years under the leadership of B. F. Yeates, horse specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. And now individuals who have benefitted from the program are laying the groundwork to insure its future success.

The B. F. Yeates Endowment, with a goal of $100,000, is being established to garner additional support for the 4-H program being conducted by the Extension Service.

"We hope to hire an Extension assistant and to generate additional educational materials in horse production for both youths and adults," points out H. T. "Tom" Davison, state 4-H program leader with the Extension Service.

"The 4-H horse project is one of the most popular in the total state 4-H program," Davison notes. "We currently have some 13,000 4-H members enrolled in that project. It is an excellent project area for learning not only horsemanship but also citizenship, responsibility and leadership. After all, that's what the 4-H program is all about."

According to Davison, a special committee is contacting all former 4-H members and leaders who have been involved in the horse program in the past 20 plus years. All of these individuals are being invited to the Texas 4-H Horse Show which will be held in Abilene, July 21-26, for a special reunion for Yeates and establishment of the endowment. A special program honoring Yeates the evening of July 25 will include an auction with proceeds going to the endowment.

Gifts for the endowment may be sent to the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation, Texas A&M University, College Station, Tex. 77843.

The state 4-H horse show is an annual event that culminates the 4-H horse project, explains Davison. Some 300 4-H'ers competing in the qualifying part of the show must have won in county and district competition. Several hundred other 4-H members compete in the open portion of the show.

Couple feted with shower

Karen and Brad Sanders were honored with a wedding shower Saturday in the home of Katy Wright.

Guests were greeted by the honorees, Wright, Polly Simpson, mother of the groom and Jean Broughton, mother of the bride.

Wright was joined by 22 other women serving as hostesses for the shower.

The hostesses presented the couple with a vacuum cleaner.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and featured a centerpiece flower arrangement of white daisies.

Diane Sanders and Lori Lemons served fresh fruit kabobs, kalaches, orange juice and coffee on handpainted china snack plates and mugs.

Brass appointments completed the table decor.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lenora Broughton of Odessa; Carol Pruitt of Morton; Barbara and Sheryl McCamish of Muleshoe; Sandy Carter of Lubbock; Frances and Kevin McQuiston of Amarillo; Mrs. Ed L. Harris of Tulia; and Mrs. Rue Ford, Mrs. Cory Walden, Mrs. Dick Hill, Macy and Alyssa, G. C. Graves and Carolyn Andrews and Amy, all of Hereford.

G/T classes to begin at WT

The fall session of the Gifted and Talented institute at West Texas State University in Canyon, will begin Sept. 14 on the university's campus, and will continue each Saturday morning through Nov. 8.

Staff and faculty members from the university will offer a variety of enrichment classes at all grade levels, pre-school through the 12th grade.

Reading, writing, the sciences, foreign cultures, the fine arts and a variety of hobbies will be taught in creative new ways with plenty of hands-on experience.

Any students who have been identified by their school districts as being gifted/talented, or whose principals or counselors will recommend them as capable of high-level academic performance, are eligible to participate.

Classes are two to nine weeks in length and meet each Saturday beginning Sept. 13, from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Tuition ranges from $25 to $70, depending on the length of the course. The Gifted and Talented Institute is partially funded by a grant from the Rockwell Fund.

For more information call Mary Jane Reeves, director of the G/T Institute at 656-2031.

FUMC sets film series

The First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt will sponsor Turn Your Heart Toward Home, a new film series by Word Publishing and Focus on the Family, Inc.

The series, built on nationwide interest in Dr. James Dobson's Focus on the Family, will begin July 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the church.

The series will feature six films, with the remaining five films to be shown on Sundays, July 20 through Aug. 17. Each show will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone is welcome to come and view the series.

Babysitting will be available, and parents need to make reservations at the church office at 647-4106 so enough babysitters may be obtained. Children will also have an opportunity to view a children's film while in the nursery.

The first film in the series, A Father Looks Back, emphasizes how swiftly time passes and appeals to all parents to "turn their hearts toward home" during the all-important child-rearing years.

The second film, Power in Parenting: The Young Child, will be shown July 20.

This film offers many practical helps for facing the battlegrounds on child-rearing, — bedtime, mealtime and other confrontations so familiar to parents.

Power in Parenting: The Adolescent, the third film, will be shown July 27. It stresses father/daughter and mother/son relationships and the importance of allowing children to grow and develop as individuals.

Family in the contest of today's society where a "civil war of values is being waged" is the focus of the fourth film, The Family Under Fire on Aug. 3.

Dr. Dobson urges parents to look at the effects of governmental interference, abortion and pornography and to get involved.

The fifth film in the series, Overcoming a Painful

Childhood, includes Shirley Dobson's intimate memories of a difficult childhood with her alcoholic father and the influences which brought her to a loving God.

The fifth film is scheduled for Aug. 10.

The final film will be shown Aug. 17.

The Heritage represents Dr. Dobson's powerful closing remarks. He speaks clearly of four traditional values which can help assure happy, healthy, strengthened homes and family relationships in the years to come.

Molly Waggoner elected to GS office

Molly Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Waggoner of Dimmitt was elected Precinct 2 Chairman of Pecan County at Bluebonnet Girls State held in Seguin.

Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. The purposes of the non-political program is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults.

They learn the problems of government by simulating the duties of city, county and state officials.

Each year, citizens are elected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school.

The 1986 session of Girls State has grown from an experimental conference of 94 girls, held at Baylor University in 1941, to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas.

Waggoner, who was sponsored by the local Unit #445 branch of the American Legion Auxiliary, joined 580 other girls in attendance for the 1986 session.

She will be a senior at Dimmitt High School.

FDA requires sodium content be listed on nutrition labels

Consumers should find it easier to cut back on sodium in their diets, thanks to a new Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulation which went into effect Tuesday. According to Mary K. Sweeten, Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist, the FDA now requires that the sodium content be shown on any food that provides nutrition information on the label. "The regulation should be of real help to people who are concerned about the hidden sources of sodium in processed foods, Sweeten said.

Sodium content will be listed in milligrams per serving. Consumers can use that information to see if they are staying within the recommended sodium intake of 1,100 to 3,300 milligrams a day. In addition, Sweeten says the FDA has defined the various terms that manufacturers may use to describe the sodium content of their products. These terms include: •Sodium Free—less than five milligrams of sodium in each serving. •Very Low Sodium—35 milligrams or less in a serving. •Low-Sodium—140 milligrams or less per serving. •Reduced Sodium—the usual level of sodium for this product has been reduced by at least 75%.

"Sodium-conscious consumers should keep in mind that a product with little or no salt is not necessarily sodium free, since at least 70 sodium compounds, such as monosodium glutamate or sodium bicarbonate, are used in processed foods," Sweeten cautions. She also points out that an FDA survey shows about half the food products available would already qualify as being low-sodium products.

VA warns of old hoax

The Veterans Administration is once again warning World War II veterans not to be misled by false information regarding the payment of a special life insurance dividend. VA Administrator Thomas K. Turnage, responding to a reappearance of a hoax that has plagued the agency for almost 40 years, reiterated that the VA "does not pay dividends on lapsed insurance policies."

The bogus application also claims that Congress has passed a law authorizing the dividends. There has been no such action nor is there any pending.

FFA members attend sessions

Six members of the Dimmitt High School chapter of Future Farmers of America attended the Area I Leadership Conference last week at Clarendon College. Mark Standlee, Kim Gleghorn, Stacy Wilson, Anessa Scott, Kevin Bruton and Cinnamon Cox of the local FFA chapter attended five different sessions during the conference, where they learned about leadership, increasing chapter membership and motivation.

146 area students attended the conference. The Plainview District, of which Gleghorn is president, won the Sweepstakes Award for the most people in attendance.

Babbling Brooks

By JOHN BROOKS

I have figured out where I want to move when I retire. The YO Ranch. In case you don't know where the YO Ranch is located, it covers 55,000 acres near Ker-ville, and, besides a few Longhorn cattle, is home to more deer than you can shake a .22 at.

The bogus application also claims that Congress has passed a law authorizing the

It's not just plain old white-tailed deer, but Axis and Ibex, Iranian Red and Indian Blackfaced, plus elk, moose and wildebeest. Yes, I hunt a little bit, but that's not the real reason why I want to retire to the YO.

The real reason I want to retire to the YO is... well, I was sitting on the front porch of the lodge at the ranch headquarters last Friday, recovering from the best barbecue meal I've had in a long time, and gazed out across a lush, green pasture and saw a sight that took my breath away.

As the sun sank slowly in the West over their right shoulders, three giraffes, about 300 yards away, were grazing on the trees. Six ostriches and four emus lended their majestic ugliness to the splendor, while a herd of a hundred zebras thundered across the valley below.

Of course, to retire to such a scene costs you money—about $1,500 per acre, with tracts ranging from 34 acres (only two available!) to 214 acres (we have several of these choice lots!). You can't haul your brother-in-law's old house trailer up there—you can't even put in a new trailer. The deed restrictions read like Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills.

There are, fortunately, no restrictions about carrying a personal air conditioning-dehumidifying system on your back while enjoying the pleasures of the YO Ranch. Besides, for $225,000 (principal only) for a 150-acre spread I can't even really call my own, I ought to get to carry that stuff on my back.

Especially when I go out and sloop the giraffes in the morning. Or milk the ostriches.

No, we didn't get an honorable mention at the Texas Press Association convention last week. Instead, we got fourth place in advertising.

That was it. Of course, this is a terrible statement about the state of the press in Louisiana—members of the Loui-

Six local Green Thumb workers and sponsors recently attended a training seminar at the Senior Citizens Center in Tulia.

Lucille Follis, Billye Wesson, Mary Edna Hendrix, Jewell Connell and Paulene Davis attended the seminar which featured Harold Kennamer, Kennamer spoke on the Silver Haired Legislature while Pitman discussed osteoporosis. Workers also heard a safety program presented by Green Thumb staff members.

Green Thumb, an older worker's program, is funded by the Dept. of Labor through Title V of the Older Americans Act.

Sponsored by the Texas Farmers Union, Green Thumb provides part-time work opportunities for seniors in rural areas.

The program was started in 1970 and currently includes 126 counties employing over 1,000 older Texans who are placed with local non-profit organizations to provide needed community services.

Treat children's vitamins as prescription medicine

Children's chewable vitamins are designed to appeal to youngsters with bright colors, animal and cartoon character shapes and a candy-like taste.

They're so appealing, in fact, that last year more than 8,500 children under six swallowed large number of pills at one time.

"The greatest danger of vitamin pill overdosing is iron toxicity," says nutritionist Dr. Dymple Cooksey. "The symptoms include bloody diarrhea and vomiting, which can occur in a 30-pound child after eating 15 to 20 tablets of a children's multivitamin-plus iron."

Parents need to treat children's vitamins as though they are a prescription medicine, says the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service specialist. The child-proof cap should be tightly fastened and the vitamin bottle placed in a locked cabinet or a shelf out of reach.

Since children may still get access to vitamin pills in spite of these precautions, she says parents should also teach their youngsters that vitamins may look like candy, but they are not.

"Parents may also want to consider if they even need to be giving children vitamins," remarks the specialist. "After infancy, most children do not need routine vitamin supplementation."

According to the nutritionist, children who eat a balanced diet containing protein foods such as meat, poultry, fish and peanut butter; cereals and grains; dairy products; and fruits and vegetables should not need vitamins.

Preschoolers often do have spells of not eating well, or wanting to eat only certain things. But over the course of several days their nutrient needs are likely to be met.

Parents who are particularly concerned about children getting enough iron should be sure to include red meats in meals, notes Cooksey. Iron-fortified breads and cereals are another good source of this mineral.

Social Security

...in Castro County

If you are a young person about to take a summer job, there are some important things to know about Social Security.

First, you probably need a social security card because most jobs today are covered by the program. If you do not have a card, apply for one at any social security office at least two weeks before starting work. Bring with you proof of age, identity, and US citizenship (or immigrant status).

A little over seven cents from each dollar earned (up to $42,000 for 1986) will be deducted from your pay for social security. Your employer matches this amount. These taxes help to finance monthly benefits for about 37 million Americans of all ages, as well as medicare hospital insurance for most older people and some with long-term disabilities.

Some day benefits also may be paid to you and any dependents if you have worked long enough under Social Security. Monthly payments partially replace income that is lost or reduced because of disability, death, or retirement.

When you work, the amount of your wages or self-employment income is recorded on a lifetime earnings record under your name and social security number. You earn credits that will be needed before benefits can be paid.

In 1986, you are credited with one-fourth year of work (called a "quarter of coverage") for each $440 earned, up to a maximum of four credits for the year.

As a young worker, you build protection fast. In some cases, monthly benefits may be payable with as little as 1½ years of work if you become unable to work for at least a year due to disability, or if you should die and leave a spouse and surviving children.

About every 3 years you should request a statement of your earnings record to make sure all earnings have been properly reported. You can get a request form at the social security office.

If you have any questions you may contact us at 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview, or call us at 293-9623.
