Folk Festival to be Sunday

THERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT about the view from the east lawn of Dimmitt High School—the home stands of the newly moved Bobcat Stadium, standing in the background beyond the cafeteria and the tennis courts. Workers this week are moving the final section of the visitors' stands into place across the field, and new steel light towers are stacked near the gridiron site, ready to be erected in place. Meanwhile, groundwork has started on the construction of a large new field house.

The third annual Nazareth German Folk Festival Sunday will kick off the county's 1975 Roundup activities.

THE POPULAR festival will include a baseball game, German snacks, an arts and crafts show, square dancing, the traditional Wurst Supper and an evening dance.

The baseball game at 1:30 will be the first event on the busy day's schedule, and will feature two Nazareth teams.

Beginning at 2 p.m., pick-up foods such as sausage on a stick, home-baked bread, cheese on a stick, wurst-kabobs, etc., will be available at the community hall.

A NEW attraction this year is the Nazareth High School home economics room, and is open to all artists and hobbyists who live in the county or who belong to an art club in the county.

Judging in the art show will be by popular vote, and the top three winners in each division will receive ribbons.

The arts-crafts show will be open from 2 to 8 p.m., and division winners will be determined by 6 p.m. Those entering paintings or handicraft items should indicate whether they are for sale by taping a price to them.

There is no entry fee for the arts-crafts show, but a 20% commission will be charged on items sold. Half of the commission will go to the County Activities Committee to help finance Roundup events, and the other half will be divided between the Nazareth Community Hall and Nazareth Volunteer Fire Dept. funds.

SQUARE and round dancing will begin at 3 p.m. in the school cafeteria, with Bill Campbell of Amarillo calling the square dancing and Les Grumpy of Amarillo calling the rounds. The dancing will continue until 5:30 p.m. Admission fee is $1 per person.

Those who served the Wurst Supper last year took a cue from the overflow crowd and set the big supper up an hour this year. Serving will begin at 4 p.m. Sunday and continue until 7:30.

ON THE menu will be German sausage, beef Stroganoff, German hot-potato salad, sauerkraut, fresh vegetable relishes, sauerkraut salad, homemade bread, German chocolate cake and apple strudel.

Price of the Wurst Supper is $2.25 per plate.

The Havlik Polka Band from Rowena—the same band that has played at the two previous Folk Festival Dances—will be here again Sunday night to provide live music for the evening dance.

THE DANCE, which will feature waltzes, folk-rock and traditional dances as well as "oom-pah" polka music, will get underway at 9 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m. Admission is $2 per person.

Ten percent of all the proceeds from the German Folk Festival will go to the County Activities Committee Fund to help pay expenses for the annual summer Roundup activities in Nazareth, Hart and Dimmitt. Of the remaining proceeds, 75% will go into the Nazareth Community Hall Fund and 25% to the Nazareth Fire Dept.

CHAMBER President Bob Caddell reported the progress of the project at the July CofC board meeting last Thursday. Planners hope to see 12 to 15 duplex units in the $15,000 price range built here to help alleviate the housing shortage for workers. The duplexes would be financed by the Farmers Home Administration and controlled by the County Housing Authority.

Crop Progress Report: Still one of the best ever at this season.

The most luxurious growth of weeds ever to adorn the vacant lots, and some that are not vacant, in Dimmitt are beginning to reach championship heights and density. Depending on the location, the height of weeds in Dimmitt could be described as knee high, hip high or shoulder high and still growing. So far as has been determined weeds have no commercial value, and they certainly do not add to the beauty of our city; therefore, we, B. M. Nelson, declare that everyone should slay the weeds on his property immediately while they are still juicy, full of sap and at a tender age. It should be done.

Americans and Russians are finally getting together high above the earth, while testing of atomic bombs continues underground. The astronauts were given a crash course in the Russian language, and no doubt the cosmonauts were taught a smattering of English. This could have been a mistake. If the language barrier had been allowed to separate the two nationalities in space there would be no danger of verbal misunderstandings and arguments.

President Ford continues to insist that the price of all crude oil should be decontrolled, thereby allowing prices to escalate, which in turn would bring about conservation of the natural resource and cause the oil companies to make an added effort to produce more. Most of us do not know the reasons for placing controls on the price of some types of crude in the first place, but removing whatever controls remain seems to be a poor way of combating inflation, and apparently a large percentage of the population hasn't been convinced that there is any shortage of petrol, the main reason given for conservation.

Art-craft show planned at Hart

Hart's Chi Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will sponsor an art and craft show during Hart Day activities Aug. 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

COUNTY artists interested in exhibiting or selling their artwork or handicraft items should call Mrs. Mack Steffey at 647-2439 or write her at Route 2, Hart, 79043, by Aug. 7. Fee for show space will be $10 per booth, with table and chair provided.

Little Leaguers lose in tourney

The Dimmitt Little League All-Stars were eliminated from the District Little League Tournament at Dumas Monday night when they lost their first game to Randall County.

HPRF trustees choose Riley, Love, McLeroy

Trustees of the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway have elected Ray Joe Riley of Sunnyside vice-chairman of the board.

ALSO, Edd McLeroy and Barry Love of Dimmitt were named to three-year terms as trustees of the foundation.

The action came at the foundation's recent annual meeting and election at Halfway.

Elected president of the foundation and its executive committee was Don Marble of South Plains. Other officers elected were J. B. Wheeler of Plainview, chairman of the board of trustees; J. D. Smith of Sudan, vice-president; Sam Thomas of Amarillo, secretary-treasurer; and Jack Cloude of Plainview, executive director.

OTHER trustees named to the executive committee were Don Anderson of Lubbock, Elbert Harp of Abertnathy, Virgil Patterson and C. I. Wall of Amarillo, W. B. Tilson and Graddy Tunnell of Plainview, Ralph Wheeler of Edmonson and Leo Witkowski of Hereford.

In accepting the presidency, Marble said, "We have a responsibility to the economy of West Texas to do the best job of agricultural research possible, and the High Plains Research Foundation can be very instrumental in helping achieve these goals, especially since the recent affiliation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. We will be working closely with Texas Tech and West Texas State University in an attempt to accelerate the total agricultural research program in West Texas."

More $$$ needed for cloud-seeding

James Welch, president of Better Weather, Inc., reported this week that $38,500 is still needed to finish the six-month hail suppression program here, but added, "Our board is optimistic that the money can be raised and the program seen through to its completion."

WELCH reported that Better Weather, Inc., has raised $115,000 toward the cost of this year's program, to be paid for cloud-seeding service by Atmospherics, Inc., planes. Payments were $50,280 in May, $41,900 in June and $36,870 in July, he reported.

"We need approximately $15,000 to meet the July payment and another $38,500 to complete the six-month program," Welch said in a recent report to participating farmers and land owners.

"If the money is not raised to meet the payments when they are due, the program will be terminated when the money runs out," he added.

HE APPEALED to all farm owners and operators in the control area to pay their share. The fee is $1 per acre, payable by check to Better Weather, Inc. Checks may be left at the banks in Dimmitt, Earth or Littlefield.

In their report to cooperators, Welch and other officers of Better Weather, Inc., said the control of hail this summer "has been very successful, with only a few small areas of significant hail within the control area. At this point, it looks like rainfall amounts are above average for the whole area."

The officers reported that Atmospherics, Inc., made 61 cloud-seeding flights and 18 observation flights during May and June, spending 89½ hours seeding storm clouds and 13 hours in observation.

A five-year resident of Dimmitt, Mrs. Nelson was the representative for Avon Cosmetics in this area. Her husband, Carl, is employed by Bruegel & Sons, Inc.

SUNFLOWERS are a significant crop here this year, and they're turning the countryside into a patchwork of bright yellow fields. Here, Fred Kuntz of Flagg compares a native sunflower with an eastern European hybrid variety being grown by Ernest Sammann. As the huge flowers mature, their blooms face northeast and ripen toward the center of the pod. When they're fully ripe, the heads start turning westward. The sunflower seed will go mainly into the production of polyunsaturated cooking oil.

TOMMY KENWORTHY of Dimmitt steals home from third base on a passed ball as Olton pitcher Sammy Palacios misses the tag in the second game of the District Junior Babe Ruth Tournament here Monday night. The plate umpire is Buddy Dotson. Kenworthy's successful steal gave the Dimmitt All-Stars a 5-0 lead in the second inning.

IT ISN'T OVER YET—Kenworthy has barely gotten off the plate when Dimmitt's Tim Fewell, racing from second, catches the Olton players off guard and slides in behind Kenworthy to make the play a double steal and increase Dimmitt's lead to 6-0 in the opening-round game. The Olton catcher, Brad Alcorn, Olton rallied later, but Dimmitt won the game, 9-7.

Dimmitt and Plainview are the 'teams to beat'

Dimmitt and Plainview emerged undefeated at the halfway point of the District Babe Ruth Tournament and were due to meet each other in a showdown Wednesday night at 8:30 at Dimmitt's Babe Ruth League Park.

FIRST casualty of the tournament was Olton, which lost its first game to Dimmitt 9-7 Monday night, then was eliminated by Muleshoe, 13-10 Tuesday night.

Muleshoe, which lost its opening game to Littlefield Monday night, 11-10, stayed alive with its Tuesday night victory over Olton. A survival rematch between Muleshoe and Littlefield was set for 6 p.m. Wednesday, with the loser to be eliminated.

Three teams will continue playing tonight and Friday— and Saturday evening, too, if necessary—until two of them have two losses each.

THE TOURNAMENT switches from a two-a-night schedule to one game per night starting tonight (Thursday). The Muleshoe-Littlefield winner will meet the Plainview-Dimmitt loser at 8:30 tonight, then the Plainview-Dimmitt winner will meet the victor of this game at 8:30 Friday. If a tie-breaking game is necessary after Friday night, it will be played at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

HERE ARE the results of the tourney's first four games:

MONDAY NIGHT
Littlefield 11, Muleshoe 10
The Littlefield All-Stars broke open a tie game with a run in the bottom of the sixth to capture a close 11-10 victory over Muleshoe in the tourney's opener.

Littlefield jumped to a 4-0 lead with two runs in each of the first two innings, then the teams scored three apiece in the third. After holding Muleshoe scoreless again in the top of the fourth, Littlefield recorded the tourney's first home run when second baseman Jeff Birkelbach blasted the ball over the fence, giving Littlefield an 8-3 advantage.

BUT MULESHOE bounced back with a big seven-run inning in the fifth to go ahead for the first time, 10-8.

Littlefield retaliated with two runs in the bottom of the fifth, then scored the tie-breaker in the sixth. Both teams went scoreless in the seventh.

Winning pitcher was Little-

Jeep Shanks of Muleshoe led in runs batted in with five.

Dimmitt 9, Olton 7
Dimmitt third baseman Durwin Huseman made all three put-outs in the top of the first inning, then catcher Tommy Kenworthy slammed Olton's first pitch into the fence for a double to start a scoring parade that carried the Dimmitt All-Stars to a 9-0 lead before Olton could cross the plate.

Dimmitt scored two runs in the first, five in the second and two in the fourth to take a commanding lead in their beautiful home park.

OLTON GOT on the scoreboard with a run in the top of the fifth, then put together a six-run rally in the sixth to give the Dimmitt All-Stars cause for pause.

Dimmitt went scoreless in the last three innings but shut off Olton with no runs in the final frame to preserve the 9-7 victory.

Dimmitt pitchers Tony Gonzales and Alejandro Navarro posted five strikeouts while walking eight. Olton's Sammy Palacios and Rene Saldiver gave up 13 hits and seven walks while fanning seven.

Glovers take song-and-dance tour through six states

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Nashville, Tenn. was the place Ralph and Amy Glover have been to. His mother Mrs. C. H. Glover and his sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Martin of Clovis went along. They stopped in Oklahoma City to visit a sister Mrs. Al Krieger and family. They did not get to hear the opera. It is sold out till October, but they went to Lebanon, Tenn. to see the 4th of July square dancers, the Tennessee Whirlers, and Amy and Ralph were dancing and the TV camera caught them. I would like to see that!

On to Kentucky, just to see the place. They saw the homes of Johnny Cash and Kitty Wells, lovely Southern homes but not toured, also the Wright place. They went through the states of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi; back across the big Texas, stopped in San Antonio to visit their son Darrell and his family. Ask them about the interesting things they saw and heard.

KAY ESTES Cotter and children of Los Angeles were here for a visit with her aunt Helen Richardson. They went to Dallas Monday from where Helen and a group will go to Hawaii. Kay will go to Hugo, Okla. to visit her parents Bob and Jeannie Estes.

Mrs. Ed Manning and her son Sam and his wife from WTSU in Canyon went to Dallas recently to visit Mrs. Manning's mother Mrs. R. N. Grubbs who had her 89th birthday and a visit with 30 of the kin who came in for the reunion dinner. Mrs. Manning brought three of her grandchildren home with her. They are Eddie, Scott and Samantha. Rev. Ed Manning is at San Antonio doing work toward his Doctor of Theology degree. Ed is pastor of the Presbyterian Church here.

Goldman Dyer is recuperating from surgery he had last week at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. The family has been with him.

AND ONE evening Ted and Dorothy Sheffy had a steak and hamburger cookout as a bon voyage to Virginia who goes to Canada with Tanya DeVaney as guests of the Lions Club and the Sheffy's son Graham who goes to Lake Tahoe, Nev. to attend a two week training in the Marine reserves. We were at supper as were Rachel Graham, Beth and Rick Wallace and Shay from Tulia, Karen and Graham.

The company I work for has a retirement pension plan and although I could participate in it, I would rather have my own. Is this possible?

Yes, it's possible but not very practical. Under IRA you make the entire contribution...under most companies' retirement plans, the employer contributes most of the money that goes toward the pension plan. An employer-designed plan will accomplish more because of the reduced administration costs per individual participant. It would seem you may be attempting to trade a lot of benefits for the sake of mobility. Your employer's pension plan automatically takes care of most of the paperwork, time and money needed to set up a comprehensive retirement pension plan.

Carolyn Lane says for me to tell you that Jesse's ole plug race horse name of "Tax Rebellion" came in first at Ruidoso Downs. Really, he is a good horse.

MARTHA JO'S mother Mrs. Roy Baccus and brother Randall of Seminole were guests this week in the home of Harold and Martha Jo Hyman. The mother helped with the paint and paper job at the "Tots and Teens" shop that will open soon. It is north of the Rawlings Hotel. They all visited a friend Mrs. Emma Lou Whitaker at Floydada on Tuesday.

Jean Morris (Mrs. Larry) and children Scott and Ann visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hilburn in Stephenville last week. Mr. Hilburn was superintendent of schools here a few years ago. Mrs. Hilburn taught in the grades.

Kay Kellar and son Ty and friend Midge Settle went to Six Flags at Fort Worth for the 4th of July holiday. Poor Tommy had to stay on the farm and work. Cut weeds or wheat or both.

JAN AND Louis Querze went to Big Spring to visit their daughter Loretta and husband Bud. The grandchildren came home with them. They are expecting the sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Eskholme to come this week. They live in New Hampshire, but have been to Las Vegas and the west coast. Came here enroute home.

Mrs. David Behrends had surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Monday. Our good wishes go with all our sick ones.

Gladys Cleavinger and her brother Ray and Mattie Axtell of Earth are spending a few days in Durango, Colo. and other places. Gladys has a place at Tres Ritos.

Other guests were Martha Jo Hyman, Bobbie Damron, Cheryl Glidewell, Jean Morris, Jan Querze, Kathy Hewett, Opal Bearden, Kay Kellar, Dorothy Elder, Shirley Wise, Josie Bradford, and I, Myrtle, played in the p.m.

Their guests were the Cowboy Johnsons, the Harold Hymans, the Bob Joneses, the Bill Clidewells, the Bob Huckabays, the V. C. CHERYL Glidewell and girls Lori and Amy spent last weekend and the 4th holiday with her folks Joe and JoAnn Newman at Denton. Bill, the husband, went for the weekend and brought his girls home. He was tired batching, I guess.

Guests were Cowboy and Jeannie Johnson, Harold and Martha Jo Hyman, Edgar and Betty Dennis, Brenda Andrews and Loranel Hamilton, Bob and Betty Huckabay, Durward and Betty Patterson, V. C. and Dorothy Hopson. The food was ham salad, green bean casserole, and Edgar Dennis says if it hadn't been for Dorothy he would have won. Thanks go to Jeannie, Martha Jo and Dorothy for helping with a good party.

And Martha Jo says she is still mad. She and the girls had a Weiner roast in the back yard while Harold played golf instead of going to the mountains.

Gary and Kathy Hewett visited her sister and family in Odessa over the 4th. And the Hewetts have moved into a house on Front Street. They came here from Maryland or Massachusetts, forget which state now.

WHY DON'T all of you folks come in to the many sales going on in the Dimmitt stores? Bargains and good buys. You can see your friends and not burn a lot of gas going out of town.

And do drive by the home of Darliß and Dawn Goolsby at 602 SW Pine Street and see the big century plant in bloom. The 4-inch diameter stem goes to the top of the house with flowers like big plates full of tiny yellow petals sticking out. 'Tiz worth seeing.

Dr. B. D. and Phylis Murphy and sons and her mother Mrs. Jo Jones of Littlefield and two nieces Katrina Vaughn of Tucson, Ariz. and Shannon Crews of Littlefield went to Ruidoso last weekend. They plan to ride horses over the trails, rest and whatever you do there besides see the horses.

Tonya Clark, daughter of the Bill Clarks, leaves this week for Tech in Lubbock where she will take courses in English and government. Tonya will work in public relations in the Development office at Methodist Hospital on the side of her studies.

MR. AND MRS. G. T. Sandage Jr. of Tarpley and Paul Pelison of Walnut Springs were weekend guests of Janna Sandage. Janna is youth and choir director at the First United Methodist Church for the summer.

BARBARA Wheat was joined by a friend from Midland, Wilma Ashworth, for a 9-day tour from Dallas to Hawaii sponsored by "Texins" Association. Highlights of the trip included an air tour of all eight islands and landings on the islands of Hawaii, Molokai and Kauai, as well as Oahu, a Pearl Harbor cruise, a tour of the city and Punchbowl Crater, the Polynesian Cultural Center, the Polynesian Spectacular floor show, the Don Ho Show, the Platters, and Al Harrington's luau (Hawaii 5-0's Ben Kooka). After Barbara became horribly seasick on the Pearl Harbor cruise, they cancelled their moonlight dinner cruise. The weather was perfect, and Aikiki Beach was beautiful. They met a lot of very nice people on the tour, and the people of Hawaii were very friendly and always said "Have a nice day." One of their unexpected thrills occurred in the Los Angeles airport where they saw George Peppard (Banacek), who was very pleasant and friendly. Of course, they each took his picture so they could prove it later. The International Market Place and Ala Moana Shopping Center were big attractions for hours of window shopping. Van Earl and Waurayne Hughes were guest speakers Wednesday of the Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo, giving the monthly missions program. Two friends who were with the Hughes on the [See CHATTER, Page 3]

RARE BLOOM—The century plant got its name from folklore because of the rarity of its bloom. Mr. and Mrs. Darliss Goolsby, 602 Oak St., planted this one when they built their home eight years ago, and it's now in the final stages of its first blooming. "It started putting up its shoot a month ago, and was in full bloom two weeks," Mrs. Goolsby said. Now the plant will go back to being a flowerbed ornament again for—how many years?

SQUARE DANCE TIPS

By Tommy & Karren Fowler

The Dimmitt Promenaders met July 8 at the Country Club with Johnny Gillenwater calling for us.

WE MISSED our club members who were on vacation, and look forward to seeing them next meeting.

All of us are excited about the Street Dance to be held Aug. 12 to help celebrate the Roundup. The dance will be on the courthouse square, and we would like to extend an invitation to the public to come and watch, and to all of you who like to dance to come and join us in a few tips. The dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m. Bill and Paula Harman served refreshments at our last meeting.

THE OTHER day a teacher sneezed in school and a little girl said "God bless you," and the teacher said, "You'd better cut that out or we're both in trouble."

Welch, Smithson receive Lone Star Farmer degree

Mark Welch and Randy Smithson of the Dimmitt FFA were awarded Lone Star Farmer degrees at the Texas Future Farmers' 47th annual convention in Houston's Astro Arena.

WELCH is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Welch. Smithson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rayphard Smithson.

Howard Smithson of Dimmitt, president of the Texas Association of Young Farmers, was one of the convention speakers and presented some of the awards earned by the state's FFA members.

The Dimmitt FFA Chapter's voting delegates at the three-day state convention were Steve Anthony and Thomas McGuire.

Accompanying the youths were Chapter Advisors Larry Gray and Ed Standlee.

"FFA, A CHANCE for Growth" was the theme of the convention. More than 5,000 FFA members, advisors and guests from 900 FFA chapters throughout the state attended the convention.

Keynote speaker was Dr. Walter Kerr of Tyler, member of the President's Advisory Council for Vocational-Technical Education. National FFA President Alpha E. Trwette of Ladysmith, Va., and Dr. William Kemp of the State Board of Education also addressed the convention.

More about Tournament

McAlister's sparkling display ushered the Plainview All-Stars to a lopsided 17-0 shutout over Littlefield.

PLAINVIEW'S batters tagged Littlefield pitcher DeWayne Hayes for 12 hits and six walks, scoring in every frame but the final two. Plainview ran up a 14-0 lead in the first three innings but Littlefield's coaches waived the 10-run rule and opted to play it out.

Judge revokes probation on two local men

District Judge John T. Boyd revoked the probation of two men Tuesday and ordered them to serve the remainder of their sentences in the Texas Dept. of Corrections at Huntsville.

THEY WERE Clementa Quilimaco, 21, of Hart, and Maurice Limicy, 23, of Dimmitt. Both men were transferred to Huntsville Tuesday.

Quilimaco was under a three-year probated sentence after having been convicted of aggravated assault last March. He pleaded guilty in District Court Tuesday to a drunkenness charge, a violation of his probation.

Limicy, who was convicted of burglary in April, was under five years' probation when he was arrested in Amarillo May 20 and charged with carrying a handgun. Adult Probation Officer Rex Cowart also filed charges against him of leaving the county without the permission of his probation officer, and of carrying a pistol. Limicy pleaded guilty to the charges Tuesday.

Both men are to serve the remainder of their sentences at Huntsville, subject to parole board review.

Three men plead guilty to felonies

Three men were sentenced to probated terms ranging from three to 10 years after pleading guilty to felony charges Monday and Tuesday in District Court.

DISTRICT Judge John T. Boyd sentenced Bobby Bossett, 20, to a 10-year probated term after Bossett pleaded guilty to the Jan. 9 strong-arm robbery of Andy McAfee.

Charles R. Mills, 19, received a five-year probated sentence after he pleaded guilty Monday to forging a check at Taylor & Sons Grocery.

Manuel Lopez Ortiz, 33, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated (subsequent offense) and was sentenced to three years' probation.

Judge Boyd ordered all three men placed under the custody of Adult Probation Officer Rex Cowart.

Colorful End May Await Fire Ants

Fluorescent dyes may prove to be the death of the imported fire ant.

This dangerous insect — a hazard to farmers, animals, and crops — has brought quarantine restrictions in six southern states.

Previous control efforts have relied largely on insecticides, but some of these are now under attack as environmental hazards.

Now a Mississippi State University scientist has come up with a novel approach for controlling the ants.

In lab tests, Biochemist James Heitz feeds the ants a diet of fluorescent dyes mixed with a sugar solution. When the ants are subsequently exposed to light, the dyes are transformed into toxic substances that kill the insects in less than four hours.

The exact mechanism of how the light and dye act isn't clear, but scientists believe the combination results in lethal photo-oxidation.

The imported fire ant is believed to have arrived in this country from South America in about 1919.

Besides attacking humans and wildlife, it builds huge mounds that interfere with farm machinery operations.

County to pay CA's award trip

The County Commissioners' Court voted Monday to pay for County Agent Charles Hotel's trip to Milwaukee, Wis., in September to receive a national award.

Spider mites can severely damage garden

Spider mites cause severe damage to many vegetable gardens in many Texas counties.

ALTHOUGH tomatoes and green beans are the favorite targets of these insect pests, they also feed on and damage most other garden crops, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Spider mites are red and extremely small. They are usually found on the underside of leaves and cause damage by sucking plant juices. Large populations of mites can build up rapidly. Severe infestations can cause leaves and flower buds to fall from the infested plant.

Control of spider mites is often difficult. The Texas Agricultural Extension Service offers these suggestions for control:

1. Select a pesticide that is registered for use against spider mites—diazinon, kelthane, sulfur or ethion.
  2. Do not allow infestations to build up to large numbers before applying a pesticide.
  3. After initial applications of pesticide, inspect plants to determine if live mites are present. Generally, two to four applications are needed to control an infestation of spider mites.
- As with all pesticides, be sure to read the label and follow all directions.

Rites are held for youth, 14

Funeral mass was said Saturday at 2 p.m. in St. Michael's Catholic Church in Levelland for Baldomero Rodriguez, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Severiano Rodriguez, former Dimmitt residents.

THE YOUTH, who was the grandson of Mrs. Martina Reyes of Dimmitt, died last Thursday morning in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston following a brief illness.

Born Feb. 25, 1961, in Abernathy, he lived with his family in Dimmitt for three years before moving to Levelland. He was a seventh grade student at Levelland Junior High, and was a member of Boy Scout Troop 612.

His other survivors include four sisters, three brothers and his paternal grandmother, all of Levelland; and uncles and aunts in Dimmitt.

WHEN consumers return warranty cards to manufacturers for products bought, this activates the warranty and enables the manufacturer to notify the buyer if the product turns out to be hazardous or defective. Also, buyers of used appliances or ones traded with friends or family should be sure to notify manufacturer of the new owner's name, advises Lynn Bourland, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Beet Sugar Association urges 'clear program'

The US presently has no clear program to assure consumers an adequate supply of sugar at reasonable prices, a spokesman for the US Beet Sugar Association told the House Agriculture Committee in Washington Tuesday.

THE PRESENT situation is hazardous for American consumers and the domestic industry, according to President John B. Bunker of Holly Sugar Corp.

The House committee is trying to determine whether present legislation provides sufficient safeguards for sugar consumers and the domestic sugar industry or whether further federal legislation is needed.

The Sugar Act, the nation's formal sugar policy for more than 40 years, expired Dec. 31, 1974.

CURRENT prospects indicate that returns to domestic producers for sugar crops currently being grown will likely be below production costs, Bunker said. In that event, farmers may decide to cut back next year, with subsequent impact on prices to consumers, he said.

Minimum requirements advocated by Bunker for a national sugar policy are assured supplies at reasonable and stable prices for consumers, the capability for handling both shortage and surplus situations, provisions for a significant portion of the supply from domestic sources as a matter of national security, and simplicity in approach and ease in administration.

The beet sugar industry supplies about 30 percent of the country's annual sugar requirements.

SUGAR IS one of the few foods the nation does not produce in sufficient quantity to meet its own needs. The US presently imports about half its requirements, Bunker pointed out.

According to Bunker, the nation's balance of payments deficit is significantly affected by the importation of sugar. He cited Department of Commerce data showing 11.5 billion pounds of raw sugar was imported in 1974 at a cost of $2.25 billion.

In 1974, beet sugar processing plants purchased 22.1 million tons of sugarbeets valued by the US Dept. of Agriculture's Crop Reporting Board at $971 million, Bunker pointed out. Industry payrolls and purchases of other raw materials by the nation's beet processing plants amounted to more than $200 million annually.

In addition, the industry spent $316 million during the last 10 years for new capital expenditures, Bunker said.

More than 160 million acres in the United States have gone out of farm production since the late 1800's. That's the equivalent of about three-fifths of the nation's harvested cropland today.

Chemical breakthrough seen against corn borer

The Southwestern corn borer has plagued growers in the Texas Panhandle for a long time. Unfortunately, crop rotation has been the only defense against the pest.

BUT RECENT research by N. E. Daniels, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist at Bushland, has changed the situation. Experiments at the USDA Research Center at Bushland and on the F. W. Thomas farm at Spearman showed that two spray applications of azodrin and carbofuran at the middle and end of July reduced borer populations and increased yield. Azodrin reduced corn ear worm populations only 29 percent.

Daniels said that the first record of the Southwestern corn borer in the Panhandle was 1922. In 1929, scientists observed five fields in Lamb County that were 96 to 100 percent infested. He noted that the Southwestern corn borer was first observed in the United States in 1913.

The entomologist and his technician, Louis Chedester, started experiments in 1971 and 1972, and results were promising enough with azodrin and carbofuran at one pound per acre to continue in 1974.

AT BUSHLAND, sprays were applied June 27, July 9 and July 25 on corn planted May 1. Corn was planted April 20 at Spearman and insecticides applied July 3, 16 and 30. At each location corn was treated one, two or three times to determine the optimum number of applications. Two treatments applied on July 9 and 25 at Bushland with each of the two chemicals gave 80 percent borer control and increased yields from 110 to 115 bushels per acre. At Spearman, two applications in middle and late July controlled 93 percent of the borers and increased yield from 111 to 123 bushels per acre.

In addition to spray treatments, Daniels applied granular formulations of disulfoton, dasanit, carbofuran and thiofanox at Bushland. Three quarters and 1.0 pound per acre active ingredient of each insecticide was spread on July 10. Borer control varied from 4 to 67 percent, but corn grain yield was not increased.

"We are starting to make progress against the Southwestern corn borer. Unfortunately, spray treatments with azodrin and carbofuran are not labeled and should not be used in 1975. We hope our results will help manufacturers obtain labels for 1976," Daniels said.

Sunflower tour set at Halfway

A sunflower field day at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Halfway, 14 miles west of Plainview, has been set for this afternoon (Thursday).

NEW developments in sunflower research will be spotlighted.

Sunflowers were grown on 5,000 acres in this area last year. This season the acreage is estimated at 300,000.

Activities for the afternoon event are from 2 to 5. A series of tours plus a farm machinery display are featured attractions.

Tours of research plots will include stops at test sites ranging from hybrid trials, fertilization and irrigation studies to insect and weed control tests.

Lubbock-based TAES scientists will join the Halfway research staff in interpreting the studies for guests.

BETWEEN now and Sept. 1 when the new law takes effect, any and all items purchased by these young sports groups will continue to be subject to the sales tax.

As the date of the new law's effectiveness nears my office will be contacting as many sporting stores as possible and explaining the new law. We want to give them as much information as possible so they will know for certain when the exemption applies and when it doesn't.

Little League groups also will receive property tax relief from the new tax bill effective Sept. 1. Under this provision all property owned by any non-profit organization which uses that property for youth sports programs will be exempt from all ad valorem property taxes.

I expect that the state will lose very little revenue because of these new exemptions. On the other hand, these exemptions can mean a lot to the groups involved in making ends meet.

The Postal Rate Commission is the body which determines, for the most part, just what the cost of sending all mail will be, both for private citizens and publishers. The commission recently published a new schedule of postal rates which would cut first-class postage to 8 1/2 cents from the present 10 cents and would sharply increase rates for other classes of postage, including a 67% jump for parcel post.

THE POSTAL Service and several large publishers are violently opposed to the new rate schedule, fearing a drop in the quality of overall postal service. They fear a sharp drop in the volume of second, third and fourth class mailers would in turn force more of the operating cost of the Postal Service on the first class mail users.

The Postal Service is most anxious to get a rate increase, any rate increase, through as soon as possible because it is faced with massive deficits now and expects to lose even more when a new labor contract is signed with postal workers. About 85% of the Postal Service budget is labor costs. An attorney for the Reader's Digest Association, Inc. estimates that Reader's Digest, the nation's largest first-class mail

Texas Taxes
By BOB BULLOCK
State Comptroller

Little leagues and other youth sports organizations across Texas will get a couple of tax breaks starting Sept. 1. THIS TAX relief comes as the result of a small tax reduction bill passed by the Legislature.

The sales tax division of my office will prepare rules and regulations for provisions in the new law which will exempt little league sporting groups from having to pay sales tax on the uniforms and equipment they use.

But let me point out that the legislation is very specific in stating that the new exemption applies only to a league organization itself and does not apply to individuals who play in that league.

This means that league officers can go to the sporting goods store and buy uniforms and equipment for everyone playing in the league and that purchase won't be subject to the sales tax. But Johnny or Johnny's dad will still have to pay the sales tax when they make purchases individually.

Another very important part of the new law specifies that this exemption applies only to organizations in which all participants are less than 19 years

Use work list for hot days

By IRENE KEATING

It is already only a month until classes start for our children. Probably this next month will be hectic as we preserve foods, prepare for school and sneak in a vacation. I am on annual leave this week. When I return it'll be time to prepare annual reports and work on 4-H record books.

ARE YOU having trouble with a work "slow down" in this hot weather? Managing time to get work done but still have time for leisure and outdoor activities is the problem. This evening list all the tasks you need to do tomorrow. This will help provide the needed motivation to make you get busy on those chores. If you're like me you'll enjoy crossing off each job as it's completed—it is a visual way to see that you are getting the job done.

REMEMBER the County Fair Sept. 5-6 in the County Exposition Center. There will be entry categories for every age and taste. If you want the rules come by the office in the courthouse basement.

SELF-SERVICE WASH BAYS FEATURE JET-WAND SPRAYS
... At right is Dimmitt Car Wash Manager Tommy Fowler

Dimmitt Car Wash can give you cleaning services at all prices

When you need your car or truck cleaned or filled with gas, you can find any service you want at Dimmitt Car Wash, and you can set your own price from a quarter up. DIMMITT CAR WASH, located at 208 N. Broadway, offers two self-service coin-operated wash bays, a Turbo-Brush automatic wash, coin-operated vacuum cleaner and towel dispensers, your choice of Shamrock gasolines, and professional polishing, waxing and upholstery shampooing service.

A quarter in the slot at either of two self-service wash bays will get you five minutes of hot, sudsy wash water and clear rinse water through a jet wand.

(Washing down your car is just one of many uses for these self-service bays. They're the handiest way to keep your engine clean, and are also used to wash everything from lawn mowers to dog houses.)

IF YOU FILL your car with Shamrock Trail Master (regular) or Cloud Master II (unleaded) before you have it washed, your Turbo-Brush automatic wash costs you only 75 cents.

If you just want your car washed quickly and automatically, without a fillup, the price is just $1.75. The Turbo-Brush automatic wash not only cleans your car, but applies a cold wax during the washing process to provide protection for your car's finish.

And you can even get professional waxing and shampooing at Dimmitt Car Wash. $15 will get you a complete polish-and-wax job that will keep your car beautiful and weather-protected for months.

And a shampoo will restore your soiled upholstery to like-new condition again. Prices on upholstery shampooing vary, depending on the size of the job.

TOMMY FOWLER is operating manager of Dimmitt Car Wash. He bought an interest in the business in May 1974 and moved here to operate it. Previously, he ran an Amarillo "detail shop"—an automotive service specialty business.

Fowler is the new treasurer of the Dimmitt Lions Club, and he and his wife Karren are the publicity co-chairmen for the Dimmitt Promenaders. They have a daughter, Juanita, 5, and live at 606 NW Seventh St.

Since it opened in May 1973, Dimmitt Car Wash has provided approximately 35,000 wash jobs for local cars and trucks. In an average week, 250 vehicles go through its bays and come out shining.

But there's still room for more. Next time your car needs any kind of cleaning, drive it to Dimmitt Car Wash. It's quick, convenient—and you can name your own price.

31st is deadline for tax reports

Comptroller Bob Bullock reminded 225,000 retail businesses this week that July 31 is the deadline for sending in quarterly sales tax reports.

"LATE REPORTS are nothing but headaches for the taxpayer and for the Comptroller's Office," Bullock said. "I'd like to see every quarterly report filed on the deadline."

Reports due July 31 cover the April-May-June quarter. Forms for the reports were sent to all sales tax permit holders by Bullock's office in June.

"Most of the delinquent or tardy reports are just oversights and simple mistakes but the consequences under the law are just the same," Bullock said.

WTSU starts ticket drive

Nine members of West Texas State University's athletic department were in Hart Monday and in Dimmitt Wednesday to kick off the season ticket drive for 1975 Buffalo football.

HEADING UP the trips were Gene Mayfield, athletic director and head football coach; Jim Campbell, business manager; Bill Cousins, sports information director; and Assistant Football Coaches Jerry Behrens, Jim Crossland, Jim Dawson, Ronnie Mankin, Bill McKinney and Earl Wood.

"We feel that personal contact is the best way to sell season tickets," said Campbell, who is in charge of the 23-city campaign.

WTSU will play one of its most attractive home schedules in years in 1975. The Buffs will meet Missouri Valley Conference foes Tulsa, Drake and New Mexico State in Kimbrough Memorial Stadium, as well as non-conference foes UT-Arlington and Louisville.

MOST pre-season football magazines have tabbed the Buffs to challenge for the MVC championship this year.

Busy builders

NEW HOMES continue to go up throughout Dimmitt as busy builders attempt to meet the demand for housing in the growing city. Here, two new Don Hargrove homes in background, ready for bricking, overlook the slabs for two more new homes being constructed for Justice Real Estate on Ruskin Circle Drive in Southwest Dimmitt. More new homes reportedly are being planned across the paved farm road from South Hills Manor nursing home, in far background of photo.

MOST NEW HOUSES in Dimmitt are being started on speculation by the builders, but a few custom homes are being built, too. This two-story custom Cape Cod home [rear view] is being constructed by Tommy Stafford on West Bedford Street. New-home construction is also continuing along Northwest 12th Street. All new homes built so far this summer are single-family dwellings, but still more new housing in the form of duplexes, quadruplexes and apartments are reported to be in the planning stages.

Koreans expect new war, Streets learn on missions

The main change that Rev. John Street of Dimmitt noticed in South Korea during his second trip there in three years was political tension—the fear among the people that a new war is likely to erupt in their country at any time.

REV. STREET and his wife, Dorothy, returned last week from a mission crusade sponsored by the World Evangelism Foundation, a Baptist-sponsored organization headquartered in Dallas.

It was Mrs. Street's first trip to Korea. For Rev. Street, who is pastor of Dimmitt's First Baptist Church, it was a return trip—he served on a similar mission to Korea in 1973.

"The political situation is considerably more grave now than it was in 1973, I think," he said. "It's a constant topic of conversation among the missionaries, the news people and the natives."

THE CRUSADE lasted eight days, and the Streets stayed busy from early morning to late at night with their evangelistic work and visitations in the Seoul area.

But during the intensive crusade, the 240 Baptist mission workers (most of whom were from West Texas) took time for a tour of the nearby demilitarized zone (DMZ), conducted for them by the Central Intelligence Agency.

"We were there on the 25th anniversary of the outbreak of the North-South Korean hostilities," Rev. Street said. "That may have had something to do with the tension we observed. Also, since the end of the war in Vietnam, I think the people of South Korea expect that they'll be the pressure point again."

BUT IT'S more than just a feeling, he said. The Americans' tour and CIA briefing showed that the North Korean forces could launch an attack anytime—even from underground. And comments from soldiers there—both Korean and American—plus an attack on an American office by North Koreans, all lend substance to the fear.

"We had a directed tour of the DMZ, and they brought us back to Seoul that afternoon for a three-hour briefing with films, maps and talks by the CIA," Rev. Street said.

"During the bus tour we were warned to stay in the group when we got off. We were watched constantly through binoculars by the North Vietnamese guards, and were told we would be beaten if we were caught wandering by ourselves. As it turned out, the American Army officer (Maj. William D. Henderson) was attacked just a few days after we were there."

"AN AMERICAN soldier said we had lost nine GI's in the time he had been stationed along the DMZ. They're under United Nations command. They said that the North Korean guards fire on them fairly regularly, but that they can return the fire only if they're actually hit. They also pointed out illegal North Korean gun emplacements inside the DMZ."

"The only two American GI's I talked with in the DMZ were very bitter. They had some very pointed things to say about Jane Fonda, Sen. Edward Brooke and others who had consorted with the North Koreans without coming to South Korea to see the other side of the situation."

The two most intriguing aspects of the DMZ tour were the sight of a Communist "false-front" village on the North Korean side, and the information that the North Koreans have dug an ominous system of "attack tunnels" underneath the DMZ itself.

"THREE tunnels recently were discovered which had been dug by the North Koreans into South Korea under the DMZ," Rev. Street explained. "A defecting North Korean officer said there were 16 under construction, that each can accommodate so many men and so much light artillery, and that they run as deep as 200 feet under the ground."

"Because of topography, there are only two surface attack zones, so the North Koreans went to underground tunnels. Big new defenses are being put up now in both of the attack zones."

"A colonel in the South Korean Army, who was a member of the church where we served, told me they have reason to believe North Korea will launch an attack by Oct. 10."

"THEY FIGURE that if the North Koreans attack, Seoul will have only a two-minute warning because it's so close to the DMZ. They had a practice air raid in Seoul while we were there, and they cleared the streets within two minutes after the sirens went off."

About the false North Korean village, it was comical to the Americans.

"On their side of the DMZ, the North Koreans have a big columned structure—a resort or office building type of thing—and there's a pretty village and several outlying farm houses."

"BUT THIS huge, beautiful building is just 14 feet deep, and nobody lives in the village or the farm houses. They bring farmers in at night to tend the crops, then move them out during the day. It's all just a propaganda scene set up by the North Koreans."

"Of course, our boys play the propaganda game, too. One of the guards explained to me that you have to be 6 feet tall to be a guard on the South Korean side of the DMZ, that all our guards are a foot taller than theirs. It's mental harassment on both sides."

FROM THE constant eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation along this hotspot by North and South Korean troops, the tension spreads across the South Korean countryside, Rev. Street said.

"This ominous cloud pretty well hangs over everybody's attitude—among the soldiers, the citizens, the church members, the missionaries. I didn't feel this in 1973. I want to think it was because I just had more contact with them this time than I did on my first trip. But I don't think that's so."

DURING the Christian crusade in the Seoul area, Rev. Street was assigned to serve the Sin Lim Baptist Church, which serves a section of Seoul that's inhabited by 250,000 people.

But his evangelistic work also took him to boys' and girls' schools, the South Korean Air Force Academy, Osan Air Base, and to a large prison in Seoul. The interpreter for his team was a South Korean army officer who's a graduate of Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Street worked with another team that concentrated on home visitations, and she saw first-hand how the Korean people live, cook, preserve and prepare food, and how they go about their daily activities.

REV. AND Mrs. Street both returned with a high respect for the Korean people.

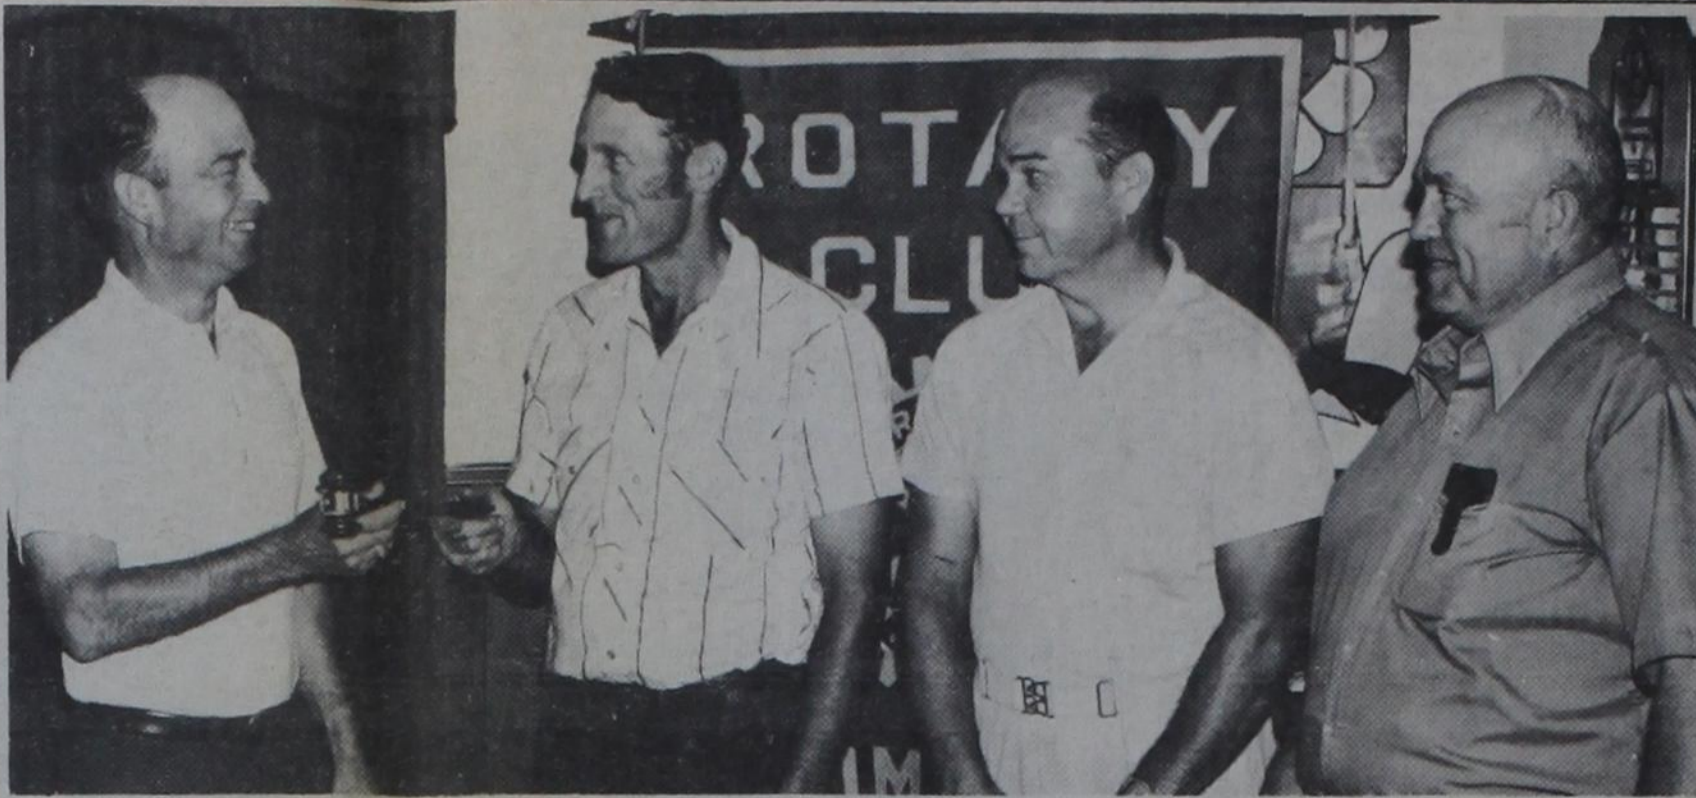

"Our main impressions are that they are among the hardest-working people we've ever observed," they said. "We had occasion to observe their businesses, schools, farming operations, and they are a very industrious and very diligent people. And we had the overshadowing impression that Americans are among friends in Korea. It was pointed out to us that you won't hear a South Korean saying 'American, go home.'"

The Streets feel that the eight-day Christian crusade was a huge success.

"THE CRUSADE actually started in May, and our work was a part of it," Rev. Street explained. "From the beginning of May to the final segment of the crusade, 40,000 commitments were made by Korean people. The spiritual revival among the Koreans, evidently, is at fantastic proportions. We don't know exactly why. I was told that Korea today is at the same stage that Japan was 25 years ago, from an evangelistic standpoint."

"There's no way to explain the response we received to anyone who hasn't been there," he added. "I've preached in India, in Japan, but I've never preached anywhere where the response was as great as it was in Korea."

WINSTON Churchill was against peace at any price: "Look at the Swiss! They have enjoyed peace for centuries. And what have they produced? The cuckoo clock!"

Relieves the stress in your system.

You're looking at Lindsay's patented Uni-Knuckle. It works on the same principle as a universal joint. Allows overhead pipe to move up, down, back or forward with no stress on the system.

Inside the Uni-Knuckle is a split sleeve coupler and rubber boot. This keeps the joint water-tight, even when the system is running over extremely rough ground. The boot is a special compound, selected for long life.

Of course, as time goes by, you may have to replace a boot or two. That happens with any coupler. But with a Zimmatic you don't need 10 men and a boy to do the job. There's no internal joint to worry about. No need to prop up and disconnect the line. The Uni-Knuckle stays in place, supporting the line. You just reach in, remove the split metal coupler and old boot. Slip in a new one, put the coupler back in place, you're in business again. When it comes to making repairs, the Uni-Knuckle relieves the stress on your system, too.

In case you're wondering how the Uni-Knuckle handles twisting action in the line caused when one tower is going downhill and the next is going uphill—it doesn't. Lindsay takes care of that with a separate flex feature. It's patented, too. We'll be glad to show you how it works, tell you about all the other features that make Lindsay Zimmatic the new leader in center pivot irrigation systems.

WATCH IT!—With tall crops obstructing the vision at many county-road intersections, the accident hazard is high. It took only two seconds at 15 mph for this vehicle to "come out of hiding" between the two cornfields and start crossing the intersection. To cut down on the danger of a serious accident, honk twice as you approach an obstructed intersection, slow to 10 mph [or stop if you see dust above the approaching road], and be prepared to yield to another vehicle. As a general rule, the first vehicle to reach an intersection has the right-of-way.

History of a thunderstorm

THESE RADAR overlays, compiled by Atmospherics, Inc., show the lifespan of the June 23 thunderstorm that dropped two-thirds of an inch to more than two inches of rain over Castro County. The pinpoint in the center of the scope shows the location of the radar unit, just west of Littlefield, with 10-mile grid lines circling out from it. The smaller circles within the scope show the locations of the area's visual omni-range [VOR] navigational radio transmitting stations. The heavily bordered area is the territory contracted for weather modification by Atmospherics, Inc., with the western half of Castro County at the top. The control area also covers portions of Parmer, Lamb and Hale Counties. The shaded areas show the heaviest part of the clouds at different times, where significant rainfall was received. The black spots inside the shaded areas indicate the potential for hail—where the tops of the thunderheads reached the highest altitudes. The first overlay shows Dimmitt receiving a localized afternoon rain while a heavier thunderhead starts building southwest of Earth. The other overlays show the spread of the clouds and rainfall during the next 7½ hours. Planes operated throughout this period to seed the hail cells with silver iodide. Heavy hail that night wiped out crops outside the control area, near Littlefield, but no significant hail was recorded inside the control area.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

Ever see a child's face light up when he or she is given that first puppy or kitten? It's enough to make the training period that follows almost bearable. BUT OUR Attorney General's Consumer Protection lawyers say that some persons who purchase pets occasionally get more than they expect—or want. They may get animals that appear healthy but quickly get sick; they may discover that an animal is not as represented to them; or they may find for some reason, perhaps size or temperament, that the animal simply doesn't fit into the family. In cases where misrepresentation of merchandise or other false, misleading, or deceptive sales practices have occurred, consumers who purchase pets have recourse under the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act.

But otherwise, if a consumer just has second thoughts about the purchase, there could be some disappointment. That's because no store is required to give refunds or exchanges, although many do so to maintain customer good will. Our Consumer Protection Division has had complaints from several pet purchasers. In one case, a man ordered and paid in advance for a lion cub. Later, after talking it over with his wife, he changed his mind and requested a refund. The pet store owner refused, saying he had already ordered the cub from a supplier and couldn't cancel the order. Another complaint involved an out-of-state consumer who ordered a woolly monkey from a Texas seller. After arrangements and payment had been made, the seller backed out of the deal. Even though the consumer's money was refunded in this instance she still was

Here are week's best food buys

Fresh fruits head economy buys in the market this week, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, reported.

CURRENTLY soft fresh fruits—plums, nectarines, grapes, apricots, Bing cherries and peaches—are available in varying amounts at various price levels, the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said.

"Other good fruit values are Valencia oranges, bananas, lemons, cantaloupes, watermelons and honeydew melons.

"Increasing supplies of fresh vegetables make this an ideal time to can extras. Those worth considering, pricewise, are soft shell squash, corn, carrots, snap beans, cabbage, green onions and potatoes."

MORE economical vegetable buys are lettuce, tomatoes, radishes and green onions.

Nonfat milk will continue in heavy supply for at least a month or more.

Fryer chickens are in good promotional favor, and Mrs. Clyatt suggested either chicken or an economical small turkey would make a good barbecue treat.

Grade A large size eggs continue to offer the best combination of quality and economy.

TURNING to beef, she reported prices about the same as last week. In general, best beef values are round steaks and roasts, ground beef and chuck roasts and steaks.

Pork prices remain relatively high, but some good buys can be found by comparison shopping from newspaper ads, she said.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: Consider the many forms of fish available. They add variety to the menu and protein for good nutrition.

unhappy since what she really wanted was the monkey.

SUCH examples illustrate the fact that, with pet purchases, as with all others, the consumer should check refund and exchange policies in advance.

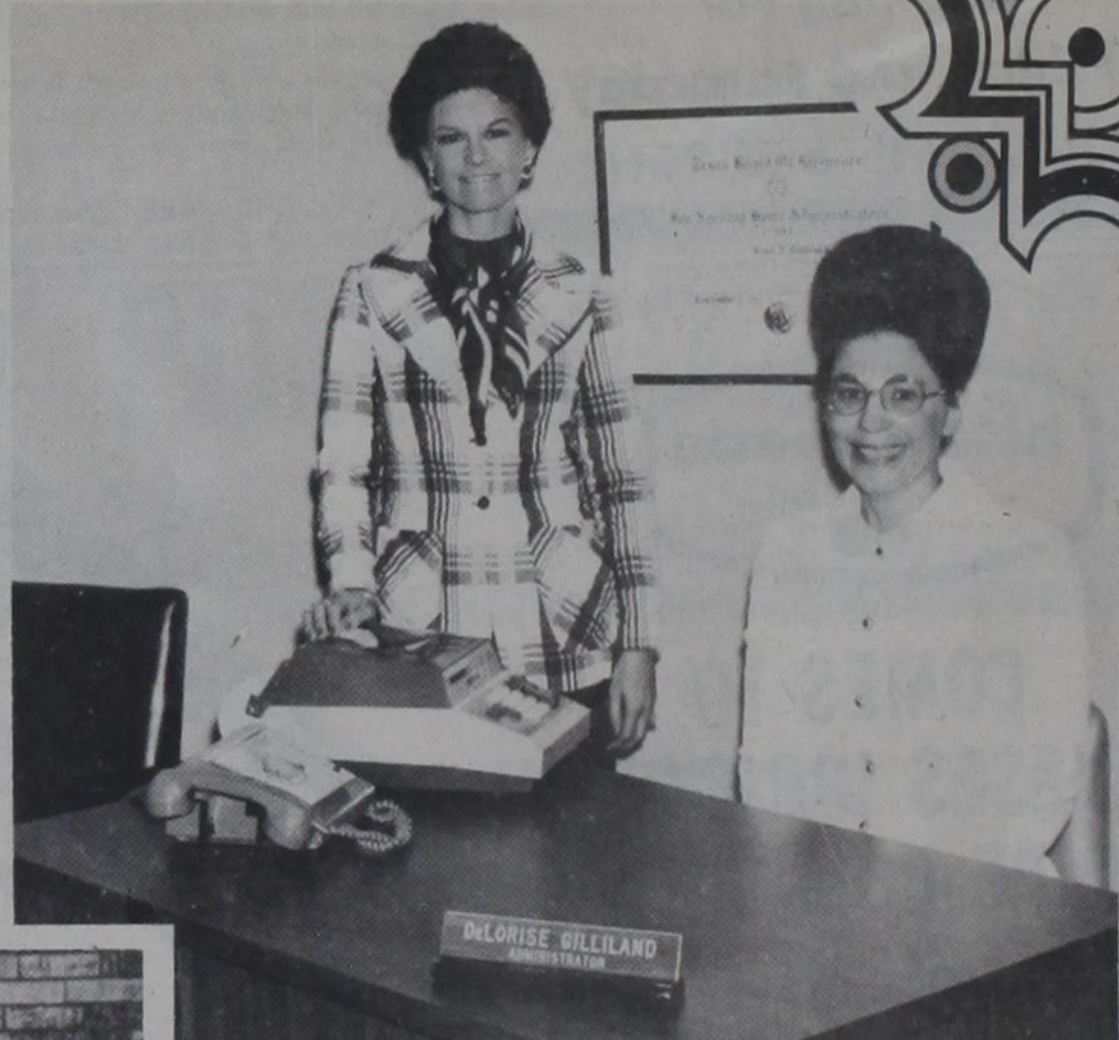

Far more common than complaints involving exotic pets such as these, however, are problems some consumers have with purchase of domestic pets. In some cases, purchasers of expensive pedigreed dogs or cats are told proper registration papers and "family trees" will be sent by mail, but never receive the information. Without such papers, an animal may be less valuable for breeding, and may be unable to enter shows and competitions. Other problems can arise when an animal becomes ill after it is taken home. While many pet stores or individual breeders offer money-back guarantees if an animal gets sick a few days after purchase, some diseases don't show up for weeks. Some conditions, such as hip dysplasia, a disabling condition affecting certain large dog breeds, may not show up for a year or more.

HERE COME THE SPUDS!—Potato harvest is underway in the county, with excellent quality reported on both white and red potatoes. Here, workers dig a field of white potatoes grown by Bob Anthony of Flagg. Officials of La Mantia, Cullum,

TEXAS TALK

By David Hays

Movie stampedes not being what they were, and the price of feed being what it is, the Longhorn may be moving back to the pasture. The Longhorn has retained all the characteristics which made them the bedrock of the western beef industry. Number one on their list of appealing traits is their foraging ability. With pasture land being depleted by grass guzzling steers in near record numbers, producers are renewing their appreciation of any animal that excels on the least possible pasture. That's the Longhorn. An ability to not only survive but to gain on rations consisting of cactus or mesquite and whatever kind of grass is available made the Longhorn a Texas trademark in the days of the trail drive. That same quality obviously was on the minds of cattlemen early this year for the first annual Texas Longhorn Breeders Association of America sale. While exotic breeds were drawing little attention the Longhorn sale was described as standing-room-only.

Federal quarantine added to state's

The federal government added its hog-cholera quarantine to the state's last Thursday on a 100-square mile area in Castro and Deaf Smith Counties.

THE FEDERAL quarantine halts interstate movement of feeder and breeder swine and requires prior inspection and permit to move swine to slaughter. The state quarantine puts similar restrictions on swine movements within the state.

Officials of the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service joined the state in setting these boundaries on the quarantined area:

FROM THE intersection of Farm Road 809 and US 60 in Deaf Smith, 10 miles south-western to FM 2397 in Castro County, then 10 miles west to FM 1057, then 10 miles north to the junction of FM 1062 and US 385 in Deaf Smith County, then 10 miles east on FM 1062 and FM 809 to their junction with US 60.

A state-federal task force is in the area working to eliminate the disease and investigate the source of the outbreak and any possible spread.

The hog cholera was first diagnosed July 4 in a herd near Hereford.

Dr. R. E. Omohundro, director of APHIS Veterinary Services Emergency Programs, asks all hog breeders in the quarantined area, and elsewhere, to watch their herds carefully and to report sick animals immediately to local authorities. He also urges farmers to not feed uncooked garbage to swine.

HOG CHOLERA is a virus disease that's highly infectious and often fatal among swine, but does not affect other farm animals and is not transmitted to humans. Man can, however, carry the virus from affected farms to other areas on shoes, clothing and vehicles.

Donna Gerber and Phyllis Murphy were delegates to the Texas Affiliate Annual Assembly recently at the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio. Miss Gerber is on the board of directors of the Castro County Unit of the Heart Association and Mrs. Murphy is on the Education Committee.

"PROBLEMS in Cardiology 1975" was the theme of the session. Dr. Willis Hurst, Chairman of Emory University Department of Medicine in Atlanta, was the featured speaker. He is a former president of the American Heart Association.

The Castro County delegates also attended workshops Saturday on helping stroke victims and heard of the research being done in San Antonio on cardiovascular diseases.

Veterinarians Vie For Schools

It's hard enough to get into medical schools these days, but students seeking admission to veterinary colleges have an even harder row to hoe.

Latest statistics show that 1 in every 2.7 students applying are now accepted by the nation's medical schools. Veterinary colleges, on the other hand, have room for only 1 in every 7.4 applicants.

The crunch is so bad at Kansas State University, says one official, that some of the state's students have sought admission to a veterinary college which KSU helped organize recently in Nigeria.

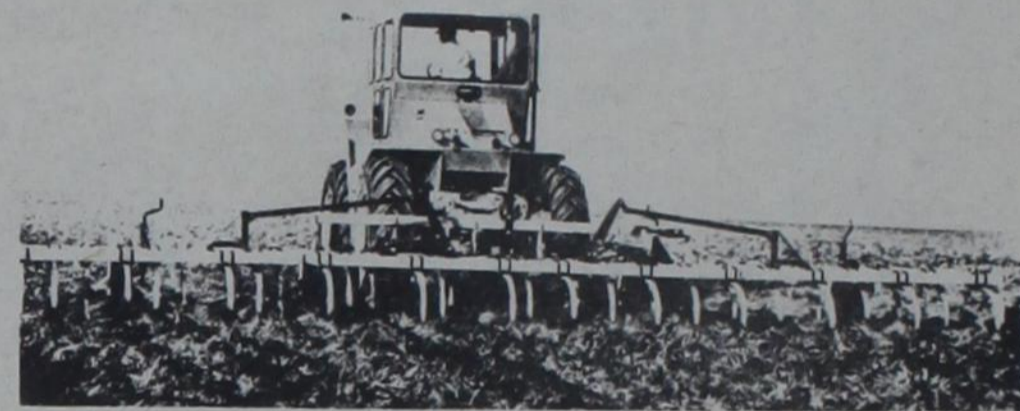

Average enrollment in the nation's 19 veterinary colleges is now about 325. And concern is being expressed over the fact that only about 1,300 new veterinarians are being added annually to the 28,300 now practicing in the United States. Agriculturists point out that the nation's food losses due to animal diseases amount to $2.7 billion annually.

Here are week's best food buys

Demand for beef, particularly for quick-cooking cuts, is influencing the price, one consumer marketing information specialist said this week.

"FOR REAL economy, select the less tender cuts such as chuck roasts, chuck and round steaks. Other good choices are ground beef and liver, price-wise," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

Another economical possibility is fresh fish and shellfish. Many varieties will be available in the coming weeks, adding to good supplies of fresh frozen seafoods. This means attractive buying opportunities at prices substantially below a year ago, the specialist reported.

"Increasing supplies of peaches, nectarines, plums and grapes have resulted in slightly lower prices.

"FRESH vegetables soon to be arriving on the market in canning-size quantities are purplehull peas, soft shell squash, carrots, corn, cucumbers, cushaw, green onions and radishes."

Prices are slightly higher on fryer chickens.

Eggs are in good supply at reasonable prices. Compare large and medium sizes for the best value for egg money.

Bushland to host sunflower tour Friday

People interested in sunflower production are invited to tour research plots at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland Friday. DR. PAUL Unger, acting center director, said the tour will start promptly at 1:30 p.m. and is sponsored by the Agricultural Research Service, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and Texas Agricultural Extension Service. At the start of the tour, Dalton Gandy, production specialist with the National Cotton Seed Products Association, Inc., from Memphis, Tenn., will discuss the future and prospects for sunflowers. Visitors will then be shown a plant population and planting date study on dryland, irrigated plots treated with manure or commercial fertilizer, irrigated planting date study, 13 varieties or hybrids, and irrigation timing experiment. During the tour, there will be short discussions about weed control, insect control, and harvesting procedures and principles. A sunflower harvester mounted on a combine will be displayed. Harvesting sunflowers requires different techniques and equipment than sorghum or wheat. Perhaps we can save people a little trouble by discussing some possible problems." Dr. Unger stated. CHILDREN have more need of models than of critics.
