Robert Lee Observer Now In 90th Year of Publication

Did you notice a change in our flag this week? The flag of a newspaper is usually the top line that sets forth the name, date and other information.

We decided since The Observer is the oldest continuous business in Coke County and is now in its 90th year, we would dress up a little to celebrate the occasion.

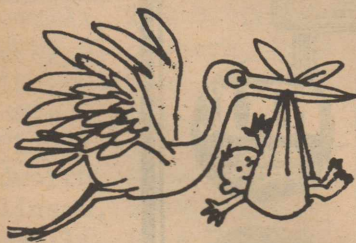

The change really should have been done in the first issue of July, but when one is 90 years old, it's easy to put off to next week the making of change.

Our emblem marking the 90th year of the Observer was drawn by Keith Corley, San Angelo artist and former resident of the Norton and Blackwell communities.

The enlarged version of the emblem printed above will not be run every week, but we do plan to run the small one during the coming year.

The Observer was founded at Hayrick and was moved to Robert Lee when the county seat was moved. It has been operated in the county seat of Coke since that time.

We plan to run a short history of the paper in the next few weeks.

"Ole Coke County" Set For Tonight, Saturday

Those who attended the first performances of "OLE COKE COUNTY--Home of the Rabbit Twisters" last Friday and Saturday nights were loud in their praise of the historical musical pageant. The production will be presented again Friday and Saturday nights of this week, and even larger crowds are expected to be on hand for the final two performances for 1979.

A report on a popular area TV program dubbed the Coke County production as being in a class with the famous production of "Texas" which is produced at Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo. The main difference it was stated, was not in the quality of the presentation, but only in the quantity of the cast, props, equipment, etc.

The pageant will start Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and will be presented in the Mountain Creek Amphitheatre at Robert Lee. More than 150 persons are in the cast. Tickets are $4.00 for adults (those who are 13 and over). $2.00 for those who are 6-12 years old, and children five and under will be admitted free.

The pageant was written by Lucile Bryan, who used much of the information contained in a history of Coke County written by Mrs. Jessie Yarbrough. Mrs. Bryan wrote the script and most of the music

A large crowd of approximately 128 persons attended the Silver Homecoming last Sunday.

The invocation was given by the Rev. H.L. Bloodworth, of Silver, and those attending were treated to a barbecue meal and a period of visiting.

A short business meeting was held following the noon meal with Tommy Hendry, president of the Homecoming Association for this year, in charge. J.P. Jameson was elected to serve as president for the 1980 Homecoming with his wife, Marie, to serve as secretary-treasurer.

Persons attending were from Snyder, Wilson, San Angelo, Colorado City, Sundown, Sulphur Springs, Sterling City, Early, Midland, Wall, Carlsbad, N.M., Denver, Colo., Plano, Robert Lee and Silver.

The Homecoming is held on the fourth Sunday in July each year with the 1980 gathering scheduled for Sunday, July 27.

12 New Housing Units Approved for Robert Lee

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has approved 12 new housing units for the Robert Lee Housing Authority. The information was received Monday in a letter to Mrs. Golda Smith, executive director of the housing authority.

The letter stated that a Houston firm, Fitch, Holdridge, Bisone & Holcomb, will be developer of the project and will be responsible for it until construction is completed and approved. Then the new housing will be turned over to local management.

The new units will be located across the street west of the present Robert Lee housing project.

Eight of the units will be two bedroom homes, with two of them constructed to accommodate handicapped persons. The other four units will have one bedroom.

Mrs. Smith said she was pleased to have the project approved, since many months have passed since application was made. She said she had no idea when actual construction will start.

with some assistance from Bonita Copeland and Doak Snead.

Don Masters, former San Angelo television celebrity, is narrator for the two-hour show. Live ragtime piano music by Leroy Moore of Ballinger and fiddle music by Arnold Samuelson of Robert Lee are provided.

Coke County Pageant Association, producer of the pageant, still would like to have more paid memberships in the organization. Several types are available and may be purchased at the city hall in Bronte or Robert Lee. All donations to the association are tax deductible.

Everyone is invited to attend the pageant this weekend, Mrs. Bryan said. "We are proud of the production," she added, "and want to share it with everyone in the area and particularly in the county."

A concession stand will be open during the presentation.

Of the study club's 26 members there is 100% participation in pageant and/or the pageant association. Members serve as officers in the association, participate in the pageant as singers, choir director, sell memberships and tickets, take care of the programs, and serve on various other committees such as telephone and communication. Alice Beaty, club member, drew the "Rabbit Twister", and designed the cover for the programs.

Answers Given on Control of Fleas

By Sterling Lindsey

We have received a few calls about fleas - in the yard and in some cases, in the home. We had a perfect spring for flea development. The recent rains probably gave another hatch, particularly if you have them in your lawn.

Fleas are blood feeders in the adult stage and can become a health problem. In the immature stage, fleas feed on organic matters in the soil. The larvae worm stage of the flea hatches from a small egg into a pearly white worm about one-sixteenth of an inch long. Fleas produce a new generation every two weeks to two months, depending on weather conditions.

Successful control procedures must include both population reduction and continuing preventive measures. This two-phase control program must include good sanitation and chemical applications as follows:

1. Chemical control of adult fleas on pets and in and around the home is the first order of business. This all must take place at the same time. Wash pets with a medicated soap or dust them with an approved flea preparation. Extend residual kill with a flea collar. It may be desirable to contact a licensed exterminator to treat infested carpets. Use propoxor (Bagon), for spot sprays in the home. Use ronnel, malathion or dursban as an area spray.

2. Treat infested yard areas with carbaryl (Sevin), propoxor (Bagon), ronnel or diazinon. Be sure not to contaminate food stuff or pet feed.

3. Give special attention to treating resting or bedding areas used by pets. Replace old bedding material.

4. To rid fleas from the home, begin with a good cleaning before applying insecticides. Vacuum carpets and remove any debris from cracks and crevices. Be sure to properly discard trash collected in the vacuuming process.

5. Retreatment of infested premises is extremely important to keep fleas under control. Retreat at 10-14-day intervals until flea problems have been eliminated. A thorough effort will reduce the number of treatments required.

As with all chemicals, be sure to read the label on the chemical container and follow the label instructions.

If you would like a bulletin or leaflet on fleas, drop by the County Extension Office and ask for L-1738 "Fleas".

Ticks are very similar to fleas in predation and environment preferences. I would keep on the look out for ticks if you have a pet around the home.

We have mentioned the white grub in a previous article - we would like to again mention that now is the time to be checking for white grub infestations. The adults (June bugs) began laying eggs in the soil several weeks ago. The first hatch into white grubs occurred between July 10-15, but, some June bugs are still laying eggs. Check your lawn at weekly intervals. Dig in several locations in your yard (preferably one square foot at each location). If you find two or more grubs per square foot, chemical control measures are suggested. Treat your lawn according to instructions with dursban or diazinon.

If you would like a leaflet on white grub control, give us a ring. We will be glad to mail you a copy.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Things go better when you're ready for whatever happens. A good while before an important occasion, inspect the outfit you'll wear. Not having to make frantic, last-minute repairs will help the evening get off to a better start.

Things should also go better in marriage if you're ready for the effects of aging or of occasional stress. To be sure you'll have extra lubrication when you need it to make marital relations more pleasurable, keep greaseless, nonirritating ORTHO* Personal Lubricant on hand.

It's often believed good luck to dream of onions.

and Brad on a flight from Houston to Philadelphia, Pa. The group went on to West Chester, Pa. where they visited their other daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Behan and daughter, Erin, for 10 days. While there, they reportedly enjoyed historical sight-seeing in the West Chester area.

Before returning home, Mr. and Mrs. Heuvel also visited relatives in the Houston and Brenham areas.

The World Trade Center towers are 103 feet taller than the Empire State Building. Chicago's Sears Tower is 101 feet taller still, making it the world's tallest building.

Robert D. Vaughan, Mayor of Robert Lee and stockholder of Heart O'Texas Savings Association, has been named a director of the association and will oversee the branch office recently opened in Robert Lee.

Vaughan was born and raised in Victoria. He spent several years as chief clerk and dispatcher for Barnsdall Pipe Line Co. in South Texas. He moved to Eastland in 1941 and owned and operated a Western Auto Store until 1952 when he moved to Robert Lee as the Chevrolet dealer here and retired in January of this year.

Vaughan served as mayor of Robert Lee from 1962 to 1968. During his term the city acquired a new sewer system, the low rent housing district and a considerable update on the water system. He again took the job as mayor when Wilson Bryan, mayor, was forced to resign the office due to press of business.

Vaughn has served as a director of the Upper Colorado River Authority for six years and also as a member of the Chevrolet Dealer's Dallas Zone Council. He is a member of the First United Methodist Church, a past president of the BCD, and while in Eastland, was president of the Lions Club. During the war Vaughan was civilian manager of the Post Exchange System at North Camp Hood, Gatesville, having supervision over 19 PX's and 2 field PX's, approximately 200 employees serving from 25,000-50,000 soldiers. Vaughan has four years of college, the last two at Texas Tech. He majored in structural and hydraulic engineering.

He and his wife Pauline have four daughters: Eileen Watson of Arlington, Mary Bessent of Robert Lee, Vernay Lomas of Delhi, La., and Paula Vaughan of Waco. Vaughan says that he is proud to represent and serve the Heart O'Texas Savings Association that is dedicated to serving the people of Central and West Texas since 1890.

PAELLA SALAD

A cool idea for the cost-conscious food shopper with gourmet tastes is aromatic Paella Salad, made with nutritious, satisfying rice.

It takes its cue from Spanish paella, combining low-calorie rice with healthful seafood, chicken and green peas, seasoned in the traditional manner and best presented cold and garnished with red, fresh tomatoes.

PAELLA SALAD

- 1 package (6 ounces) frozen cooked, peeled, and deveined shrimp
- 3 cups cool cooked saffron rice*
- 1 can (8 ounces) minced clams, drained
- 1-1/2 cups diced cooked chicken
- 1-1/2 cups each sliced celery and cooked green peas
- 1/2 cup diced green pepper
- 1/3 cup sliced green onions with tops
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 2 tablespoons dry white wine
- 3 tablespoons capers, optional
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon each garlic powder and pepper
- 2 medium fresh tomatoes, cut in wedges

Thaw and slice shrimp in half lengthwise. Combine with rice, clams, chicken, celery, green peas, green pepper, and onions. Blend mayonnaise with remaining ingredients except tomatoes. Pour over shrimp mixture and toss lightly. Chill. Use tomatoes for garnish or toss with salad before chilling. Makes 8-1/2 cups, or 6 to 8 servings.

* Cook rice according to package directions in chicken broth with a pinch of saffron, turmeric, or paprika.

YOU BE THE JUDGE!

HOW MUCH GOVERNING SHOULD AN AVERAGE FAMILY BUY?

We buy governing just like any other commodity. What we get for our money is a set of rules that tell us how to behave. How much governing do we really need? How much are we willing to pay for it? An answer to that question is suggested by a business and civic leader.

By C. Hoke Leggett

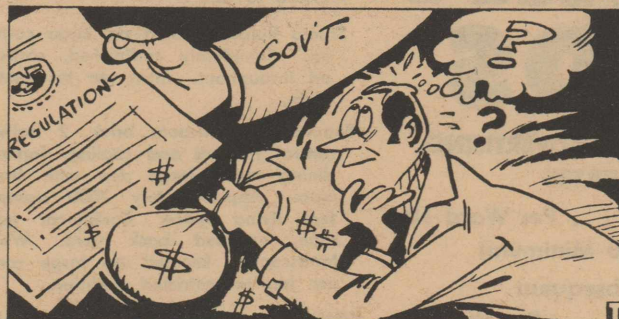

Who's the big decision-maker in your family? Maybe you think you are—or maybe you think your spouse is.

But a lot of the decisions that directly affect the air you breathe, the clothes you wear, the car you drive or even the kind of house you build aren't being made by you or your spouse.

They're being made for you by an army of more than 100,000 government regulators in Washington. And they're costing you plenty: they're costing you in terms of tax dollars, in terms of the prices you pay for products, and the products you can't find at any price. And they're costing you in terms of your right to make your own decisions.

Did you know that today federal regulations are adding $666 to the price of the average new car? More than eight cents a pound to the price of ground beef? Ten dollars and seventy-five cents a day to a patient's hospital bill? As much as $2,500 to the cost of a typical new house?

The Federal Office of Management and Budget estimates that government regulations currently cost each man, woman and child in the U.S. about $600 a year. And it's no wonder. The combined budget for federal regulatory agencies in fiscal 1979 amounts to $4.8 billion.

We need some regulation. But I believe every thinking American needs to ask if all of these regulations are really necessary? Do their benefits outweigh their costs? Du Pont, for instance, estimates that by 1985, it will be spending $1 billion a year to meet all of its environmental requirements—and yet three-fourths of the money it will spend between now and 1985 for pollution control will yield no practical benefit to the environment at all.

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) has proposed rules for controlling noise in the workplace. To comply with these rules will cost industry $18-1/2 billion in capital costs and about $1 billion a year in operating costs. Yet a study commissioned by OSHA showed that earmuffs and ear plugs for workers could do the same job for less than 1/20 the cost.

OSHA has announced an overly stringent standard for controlling cotton dust, even in nontextile sectors, where no dust-related health problems have ever been substantiated. OSHA's rush to regulation—unless halted by the courts—will cost over $2 billion and could cause thousands of people to lose their jobs.

Ironically, a 1975 study revealed that for every 100 workers, the number of work days lost to injuries or illnesses had actually increased since OSHA and its rules came into existence!

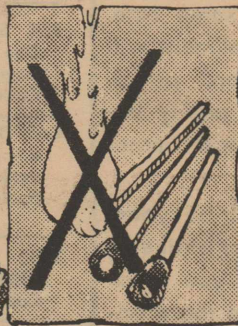

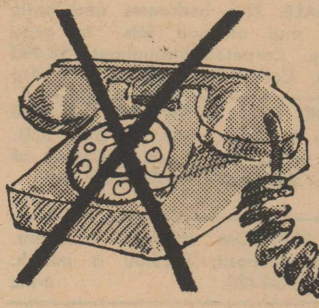

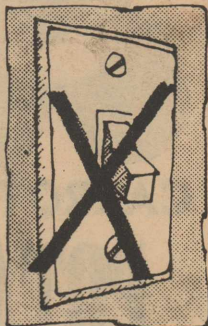

People who work for the Council on Wage and Price Stability—which monitors the inflationary impact of regulations—are frank to say that their experience has convinced them that this country is paying far too much for what it's getting in the way of benefits from regulations.

And the trouble is, we will keep on paying this high price until the average citizen wakes up to what regulations are costing in the way of inflation, loss of productivity, increased taxes, unemployment and, eventually, loss of freedom.

Mr. Leggett is President of the National Cotton Council.

NOTICE

IF YOU SMELL NATURAL GAS, FOLLOW THESE 3 STEPS TO SAFETY.

The natural gas industry has an excellent safety record.

The fact that you can smell natural gas is because we add a harmless chemical to it as an extra safety feature. Otherwise, it would be completely odorless. If you detect faint whiffs of what you think may be gas, investigate. It may be something that is as easily and safely corrected as a pilot light that has gone out, or a burner valve that's partially open.

If your equipment seems to be working properly and the odor intensifies and seems to be everywhere, please follow these precautions:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use the telephone in your own home. Do not strike a match. Do not do anything that might cause a spark.

2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open to help ventilate.

3. Go to a nearby telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the source of the odor to determine whether it's safe for you to return to the house.

You may never have a natural gas leak, but we want you to be informed in case one does occur. Please make sure your family is aware of these precautionary steps. And we suggest that you keep this message for future reference.
