H. M. Baggerly, publisher of the Tulia Herald, considered by right wing conservatives as a wild eyed liberal, had considerable to say in his column, "Country Editor," about the conservative establishment in Lubbock promoting an unnecessary freeway from Lubbock through Tulia. H. M.'s contention is that money is being wasted in the construction of a super highway to replace an existing highway that is more than adequate for present needs and probably as good as will ever be needed.

Even though it is a fact, I'm not trying to make the point that so-called liberals are more economically minded than self-proclaimed conservatives. Baggerly contends that the conservative establishment in Lubbock is promoting the expressway from Lubbock to Amarillo to serve as a status symbol regardless of need or cost. It all boils down to common sense spending of taxpayers' money.

The proposed paving of Highways 86 and 385 through Dimmitt will probably cost Dimmitt merchants enough in loss of business to pay for the paving project. The new pavement will be replacing pavement that is as good, or better, than the average streets in most towns.

The fact that two thirds of US Senators voted for the Panama Canal treaty should be of some solace to the people who were confused or undecided about the wisdom of the treaty. Unless you have completely lost faith in our system of government, and the people who are elected to office, you must conclude that when a two thirds majority of a governing body passes a measure, chances are that they made the right decision. If we are to ever have any peace of mind, we must believe that a preponderant majority of the people we elect to office are patriotic and have the best interest of the nation at heart. Members of the US Senate were in a better position to have all of the in-

Ginn named tour singer

Lelon Ginn, Dimmitt High School student, has been selected to participate in the concert choir for a tour of Europe by a group called "America's Youth in Concert" sponsored by Universal Academy of Music.

Ginn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ginn and a DHS choir member. He has consistently won honors in UIL music competition the past two years, including all-regional and all-area contests this year.

For membership in the concert tour, any winner in regional UIL competition may apply to be auditioned. Ginn made the application this spring and prepared a 20-minute audition tape which was sent to the academy for judging.

He will join choir members selected from every state in the United States for the month-long tour, leaving the last week in June. A performance in New York City's noted Carnegie Hall will be presented by the students before they leave for Europe.

STRAINING as they come off the curve onto the straightaway, Dimmitt's Joe Martinez and Hart's Leonard Washington battle for the lead in the finals of the seventh-grade 220-yard dash in the Dimmitt Junior Relays Thursday. Martinez won the race by .2 of a second. More than 250 junior high and freshman athletes from six cities competed in Dimmitt's first track-and-field meet in more than a decade. Visiting coaches were highly complimentary of Dimmitt High School's upgraded facilities, and also praised local coaches, Kiwanians and others who kept the big meet running smoothly. For results of the meet, see Page 12.

Deposits top last year's

Deposits in Castro County banks at the close of the first quarter of business were up substantially over the same date a year ago, with a combined total of $45,077,378 on deposit in the two financial institutions as of March 31.

First State Bank in Dimmitt shows a total of $33,171,612.42 deposited, compared with $28,467,787.86 on March 31, 1977, an increase of $4,703,825.44. The first quarter total in 1976 was $29,662,391.

Deposits of $11,905,766.59 in the Farmers State Bank at Hart compare with $10,209,370.21 a year ago, up $1,696,396.38. It is also higher than the 1976 figure of $8,436,893.

Bank deposit figures are a generally accepted index of a community's financial health.

The Dimmitt bank's deposits also show a small gain over the yearend report for 1977, 946,643, much higher than the first quarter report.

First State Bank shows total resources March 31 of $36,612,280, compared with $32,013,688 on March 31, 1977. Loans and discounts stood at $17,241,759 compared with last year's $22,092,069.

Total assets of Farmers State Bank are $13,112,474, up from the 1977 report of $11,314,596. Loans and discounts of $4,918,695 compare with $4,806,758 at the end of the first 1977 quarter.

Bain funeral is conducted in Missouri

Funeral services for Patter-son Bain, who had been a Dimmitt resident the past two and a half years, were conducted Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church at Columbia, Mo. and burial followed in the Columbia Cemetery.

Mr. Bain, a native and long-time resident of Missouri, died Thursday at Friona, where he had been a nursing home patient for a few weeks. Local arrangements were by Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home of Friona.

Born Nov. 25, 1888 in Ferguson, Mo., he married Marjorie Jones March 5, 1920 at Columbia, where he was an apple grower until his retirement. Mrs. Bain's death occurred Dec. 25, 1975, after the couple had moved to Dimmitt.

Mr. Bain was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Rotary Club. He was a veteran of military service in World War I.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. George Rush of Dimmitt; two sisters, Mrs. P.J. White of St. Louis and Dr. Katherine Bain of Washington, D.C.; a brother, Ustick of Chapel Hill, N.C.; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

City names sergeant, approves land lease

Ronnie Ballew, a patrolman with the Dimmitt Police Dept. for several years, was promoted to the rank of sergeant by the city commission at its Monday night meeting.

The promotion, requested by Police Chief Alan Newman, is retroactive to April 15. Ballew succeeds Santos Perez, sergeant since November of 1976, who resigned recently.

Ballew will be raised to sergeant's pay, an increase of about $50 per month.

The commission also decided to accept the $25,476.50 bid of EMCO Ford of Plainview for supplying the city with a new trash compactor truck. The $25,000 bid of Packmore of San Antonio was rejected because the Alamo City would be too far to go for repairs.

The commissioners also agreed to grant a two-year lease on its newly acquired land near the city sewer lake to Hamilton-Maples Cattle Co. of Dimmitt for $4,000 per year. Other bids on the lease were for $3,500 per year from Weldon Jones of Hart, $2,051 per year from Melvin Barton of Dimmitt, and $1,748.77 per year from Bill Dannevik of Dimmitt.

Recently re-elected commissioners Chet Braafladt and J. R. Brown reaffirmed their oath of office.

Other items discussed at the meeting included:

—The project of repairing the roof of the fire station. The commission decided to delay action until more information could be obtained.

—Construction of additional tennis courts in the city, probably on land donated by the schools. Mayor Elmer Youts and Commissioner J. R. Brown were scheduled to tour several different tennis courts in the area, particularly a cement court in Plainview.

—The progress of other improvements at the city park. Preparations are almost complete for the placement of three additional basketball goals on the west end of the paved courts in the park.

—Use of Lots 9, 10, 11 and 12 of Block 17. Mayor Youts said that Dimmitt Agri Industries has expressed interest in the lots. City Manager Garnett Holland said that additional land will be needed for water storage facilities in the near future. The commission decided to look into whether a trade could be made.

Dimmitt has an opportunity to have two students from overseas to live in local homes this year, instead of one as in past years, at no extra cost to the city, according to Janice Bell, AFS Chapter president.

With one family already approved to host a student, a girl, there is an opportunity for a boy from Austria to spend the school year here under an AFS Reverse Placement program which resembles a "two-for-one sale," Mrs. Bell said.

If a Dimmitt family will volunteer to act as host, and is given AFS approval, Hannes Sammer of Graz, Steiermark, Austria, may come to attend Dimmitt High School next fall.

He is an 18-year-old high school student who plans to attend law school when he enters the university after serving his time in the army. In his personal statement to the AFS he describes himself as "venturesome and happy-go-lucky" but "disciplined" and a person who enjoys outdoor physical activity.

City sales tax rebate shows gain

Dimmitt's city sales tax rebate for March was up over the same month last year, according to the report just released by the state comptroller's office. The check this month is for $7,623.62 compared to last year's $7,032.19.

However, the total rebate, paid by the state on the one percent city retail sales tax, is less than last year's 1977 than it was at this time in 1977. The figures are $38,871 compared to $48,632.

Hart's rebate check for March amounted to $522.41, and Nazareth's to $663.76. Comparisons are not available with last year, since neither city made a report in March of 1977.

Both the other Castro County towns followed the same pattern as Dimmitt's in comparing the year's total to date. Nazareth received $3,268 in total rebates compared to $3,318 last year and Hart received $4,297 compared to $4,459.

Statewide, the comptroller's office reported city sales tax rebates for the past month up 24 percent over last year.

Amounts received by other cities in this area for the month include $987 to Bovina, $2,606 to Friona, $15,710 to Littlefield in a jump from $6,387 last year, $1,333 to Olton and $5,192 to Tulia.

Crop residue: fuel for future?

The type of alcohol that usually comes in labeled bottles could help ease the nation's fuel shortage as a high-octane additive to gasoline. But can it be produced cheaply enough to be used for fuel?

That's what the federal government would like to know. And the USDA is willing to invest a lot of money in low-interest loans to find out.

Area grain growers would like to know too, and three Dimmitt men were among interested persons who met with state officials in Austin recently to discuss how to land a $15 million research project to develop ethylene alcohol from agricultural products or from crop residue such as stalks and leaves.

Carl King, president of the Texas Corn Growers Association, Bill Clark, general manager of Dimmitt Agri Industries, and Doug Lapins, manager of the Dimmitt Amstar plant, sat in on the conference.

In addition to the local industries, which are concerned with grains, Rio Grande Valley Sugar Growers were also represented.

Four research and development projects have been authorized by the USDA under a program aimed at expanding markets for farm products and increasing the nation's supply of industrial hydrocarbons.

At the Austin meeting, House Speaker Bill Clayton noted that 90 percent of industrial alcohol in the nation was formerly produced from natural hydrocarbons and now 90 percent comes from ethylene and "the largest potential market for alcohol is as an additive to gasoline."

Clayton said two of the federal projects have been awarded to Nebraska and Louisiana, and that Texas could apply as a state, or an industry could apply, or a joint state-industry application could be made.

All three Dimmitt men emphasized that present talks are of an exploratory nature, and Clark said he believes plans are "eight or 10 years away from practical use, and much research is needed, but I believe it will be practical."

King said the TCGA, which "explores every avenue to expand the use of corn and also every avenue dealing with federal or state grant money," may pursue the possibility of using corn to produce the alcohol.

He said that if Amstar—which was suggested as a possible firm to conduct the research in this area because it already has the wet milling plant here—is not interested, the TCGA "may go after the low-interest loan to set up a pilot plant here."

Farms of this area also provide beet tops, manure and other agri-byproducts which might produce alcohol, he pointed out.

Clark said he was especially interested in research on using crop residue, and "is intrigued with the idea of using waste for

Carl King 'roast' set by chamber

A "tongue-in-cheek" poke at Carl King will highlight the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce's "fun" breakfast Wednesday, May 3, at the Castro County Expo Building.

King, who has been active for a number of years in Democratic Party politics and various farm organizations, is currently serving as the 31st District Committeeman of the Democratic Party and is also president of the Texas Corn Growers Association.

Maxine Childers, chairman of the chamber's Special Events Committee, said King will be sharing the spotlight with several local Republicans at the event. "Several local speakers are getting their 'slings and arrows' ready now for the event," she said.

In addition to the "roast" of King, several other surprises are also being planned.

Those attending the breakfast will be treated to a meal of scrambled eggs, sausage, bacon and hot biscuits, prepared by volunteer cooks. Admission will be $2.50 per plate with everyone in the community invited to attend.

Serving will begin at 6:30 a.m. with the program scheduled to begin at 7. Mrs. Childers said the breakfast should be concluded by 8 a.m.

Sheffy's Chatter

South Texas spots are on tour route

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Hazel Waggoner, Millicent Davis and Geraldine Garrison of Amarillo, Bernice Amerison of Muleshoe and Eva Davis of Vega have been visiting in south Texas with friends and kinfolk. The first stop was at Killen to visit Pearl Johnston. She said to tell everyone hello and sure did miss her Dimmitt friends. Then on to Rockport for a visit with C.J. and Irene Fowlkes. From there to Padre Island for a night's stay and back to the valley visiting the Leon Campbells at Weslaco. Millicent says many fine hotels have been built on the Padre sand bar. They liked seeing the water of the bay.

Gary Moore is a first lieutenant in the Texas National Guard. As of April he is the commander of the Tula Infantry Detachment. For the past year he has been commanding the Plainview unit. Besides his grain company job, Monday Gary went to Wichita, Kan. at the Kansas State University to attend the OSHA Training Seminar for Grain Elevators. His wife Paula is a very good nurse at the Plains Memorial Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Houston Pearson came up here Sunday from Lubbock to attend church and have dinner with his sister Myrtle Lois and Russel Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. B.M. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Nelson attended the Panhandle Press Association Convention in Amarillo Friday and Saturday at the Hilton Inn. The convention voted a resolution to support agri-business and the need for support prices for grain and farm produce. The main speakers were Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon and Sen. Bob Price of Pampa and Austin. They had good food and a special show.

Charles and Ruby Hastings, his sister Gladys Wright and sisters, Leona Daniel and Millicent Davis attended the funeral of their uncle in Bovina Monday.

Aural Davis spent Thursday night in Amarillo with her daughter Susie Ellis and family.

Sunday visitors in the James Bradford home were Mrs. Vera Cooper of Paris, Clyde Bradford of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradford, Mrs. Tom Davis and Buster Cooper. Vera spent several days with in-laws George and Josie.

Tonya Hampton, Cindy Kelley, Jean Bradford and Jo Beth Bates spent Saturday night in Amarillo visiting Jo Beth's sister, Martha McBrayer and family.

Little Rala Byrnes was the three-year-old birthday girl Wednesday, April 19. So a party was given at Grandmother Geneva Schaeffer's house. Probably 20 little ones came and Mama Mrs. Stanley Byrnes had Sunshine Sally come up from Lubbock to entertain the young ones.

Jimmy Cleavinger, a freshman at Tech, is taking scuba diving lessons. So he and 20 other students went to Possum Kingdom lake last week to practice diving. Three Dimmitt boys, Steve Myatt, Steve Anthony and David Malone, joined the Tech boys for water skiing.

Mrs. Ceal Carlile went to a hospital in Lubbock for a diagnostic check-up. The Jack Pattons go with her. Ceal has been in Plains Memorial for a couple of weeks for treatment of various pains.

Norman Hays has an outsiders basketball team and last weekend they went to Cotton Center to play a tournament and came in with consolation. Boys playing are Norman, Jerry Schaeffer, Charles McLean, Steve and Gary Nutt, Steve Myatt, Darrell Buckley, Danny Ebeling and going down to watch were Stanley and Geneva Schaeffer, Kim Miller, Cindy Dyer, Jill McLean and little Todd Braafadt. Steve and Vickie Buckley have moved into Ruskin Circle from the (Coke) Buckley farm southwest of town.

Mrs. Roland Laws came up from Louisiana to visit her daughter Lana and Trent Downing and to attend the shower for daughter Catherine or "Kippy." And I saw Mrs. Bobby Crooks and daughter Libby here from Childress visiting school teacher friends and here for the shower for Kippy and Kyle Broderson. This was Saturday afternoon in the home of Ann Murphy. Kerry Broderson and Leisa Dannevik of Lubbock registered the gifts. Debbie Dannevik, Joylyn Broderson served punch and cookies from a pretty table. The centerpiece of apricot color silk roses in a silver dish was the hostess gift to Kippy. The wedding will be July 15.

The Brodersons will be in Louisiana for the summer where Kyle will be working off-shore for an oil company then back to Tech at Lubbock to finish his studies in petroleum engineering.

Geneva Dennis spent last week in Memphis visiting her sisters-in-law, Zettie Baker and Jeanette Irons. Geneva says she is ready to go fishing again.

Betty Dennis visited her aunt Lottie Bailey in Oklahoma. I forget the town, or didn't hear which one.

Bob and Jean DuLaney went to A&M University at College Station to visit son Brad last weekend.

Swain and Katy Burkett went to Raton, N.M. to meet his brother J.C. and Mrs. Burkett from Loveland. This is a visiting meeting. I suppose the horse racing hasn't started yet?

Mr. and Mrs. Emroy Sadler of Sunnyside were hosts at a steak dinner Thursday at K-Bob's for Mildred Sheffy of Hereford, Ann Bolger, teacher and I. Mrs. Sadler and Mildred are artists using oils mostly. Emroy and I are farmers, or at least my living comes from the farm. So we had an interesting talk.

Aural Davis went to Amarillo Friday to babysit for the little granddaughter. Susie is a school teacher there, and so Aural had the pleasure.

Wes and Helen Brown of Hereford were dinner guests of her sister, Gladys and Joe Benson. The Browns lived in Minnesota for awhile but decided to come back to Texas.

We visited Harold Stephens who is in the hospital, much better now, also G.B. Duncan, a heart flare-up, Ceal Carlile and Artie Cone. Several other folks, forget who all.

John Gilbreath tells me "he is not an Aggie - he is a Longhorn." Went to school in Austin at UT, but his Dad Sam, his Uncle Punk (W.W.) and Brother Zay are Aggies. "I told it the way I heard it."

Carolyn Mitchell and a friend Lota Mae Shirley came up from Houston for a visit with her parents J.M. and Ruth Wright. Carolyn and husband Joe Ben Mitchell moved back to Houston after a short stay in Dimmitt. He is a court reporter.

Koma and Glen Ratcliff cooked a good supper for Marge and M.E. Cleavinger who are moving from Dimmitt to Amarillo. Other guests enjoying the food and visiting were Weldon and Ruth Lois Moran, Evie Froehner and Helen Richardson. Sunday evening the Cleavingers were honored with dessert after church service in Fellowship Hall. They were given a money tree. We will miss the folks in the choir and the many activities they were involved in.

Friday I had a group of friends in for lunch and bridge. Each lady brought her favorite salad or cookies. It made for a good dinner. Four tables of bridge and guests were Bobbie Damron, high score; Ruth Jackson and Edna Riley, next high; and playing good were Ruth Coleman, Ruth Wright, Opal Bearden, Carolyn Copeland, Bessie Elder, Betty Renfro, Josie Bradford, Cletha George, Tina Rawlings, Helen Richardson, Dorothy Elder and Ina Cleavinger.

The Senior Citizens Advisory Board met at the school cafeteria Thursday at noon. After dinner they went to the middle school library. Those attending were Virgil Justice, M.A. Pennington, Jimmy Ross, Weldon Bradley, Gene Ivey, Emigio Nino, Leola Haber, Ruth Coleman, Anna Margaret Moss and Helen Richardson.

Laura Downing was one of a group of junior horse judging teams at Lubbock at the Livestock Pavilion last Saturday. They were judged third overall in judging. Others were juniors Jerri Ka Clark, Janet Sammann, Robin Cluck, Janet Sammann, Robin Cluck. Going to judge from the senior division were Scott Bagley, Kelly Nelson, Connie Dennis and Monty Johnson. These people win in the horse shows also - you remember last fall's horse shows.

P.P. and Madge Robb attended the 50th high school class reunion of Guymon at the Panhandle State University at Goodwell last weekend. Some 26 members of that class were there on Friday night, then 65 were there for the college alumni banquet Saturday. They had a wonderful time talking about the old days.

Garnett and Polly Holland were hosts at an evening

A SYMBOL OF SAFETY. When the ship is in danger, we can depend on the life-boats to take us over the seas to safety. It is comforting to glance at the life-boat when the seas are rough. Our Armed Services are a symbol of safety when our country is in trouble. There is a special Day each year when we remember and honor our servicemen who have died in the defense of our blessed country. Let us not forget, as individuals, to honor these dead and give thanks to God for those who protect us even now. Remember them as you attend church this week.

Charles Heck cited at A&M

Charles Lee Heck of Nazareth has been cited by the firm for which he works in Texas A&M University's cooperative education program. A junior nuclear engineering major, Heck was cited with an outstanding employer's evaluation from Swearingen Aviation Corp. in San Antonio. Evaluations consider learning ability, attitude, personality and dependability, among other qualities.

Heck is the son of the Charles Hecks of Nazareth. Awards were given at the college of engineering cooperative education convocation.

Co-op students alternate on-campus studies with a semester of work for which they can get academic credit. The program also helps students earn their way through school. Employability of the student upon graduation is enhanced by the combination of academic work and contact with the working world.

Formerly limited to the college of engineering, cooperative education degree programs are now also possible at Texas A&M in the colleges of agriculture, architecture, liberal arts, science and veterinary medicine's biomedical option.

HD calendar orders taken

Orders are being taken by Home Demonstration Club members of Castro County for calendars which list family birthdays and anniversaries, civic club and church events and school holidays.

The clubs issue these calendars each year, using profits from their sale for various club projects. The price of $3 entitles the buyer to list birthdays and wedding anniversaries of all his family.

Calendars may be ordered from any HD club member or by telephone from the County Extension Service office at the courthouse, 647-4115.

STUDENT IN ITALY—Theresa Kern of Nazareth, who studied and traveled in Europe for a semester as a University of Dallas student, views part of the city of Sorrento and the Bay of Naples. Mt. Vesuvius rises in the background to the right.

Semester in Europe is 'unforgettable'

Theresa Kern, a student from Nazareth at the University of Dallas, calls her recent semester of study and travel in Europe "an education in places and people as well as the courses we studied."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kern of Nazareth, Theresa was one of 70 sophomores from the university who participated in this travel-study program. Her brother Tommy, who also attends the university, will go to Rome in the fall for the semester abroad, which is based in that city.

"We would study during the week, go into Rome on the afternoons, then leave on a train Wednesday or Thursday afternoon for Switzerland, Germany or wherever we felt like going," Theresa explained.

The students purchased Eurailpasses, available to students up to age 26, which may be used for unlimited train travel for two months. They can only be purchased in the United States.

The Nazareth student traveled in Italy, Greece, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, France, Belgium and England, and figured her total mileage at about 13,000 on the trains.

"We slept overnight on the pulled-out seats in the compartments," she said. "I met a lot of interesting people from all over the world while riding trains."

In October the students took a 10-day cruise to Greece, visiting such historical places as Olympia, home of the original Olympic games; the burial place of Agamemnon, the Trojan War hero; Athens and Delphi.

"We were in Athens three days and admired the majestic and severe Acropolis. Delphi, where the ancient oracle was located, is one of the most beautiful mountainous areas of Greece," noted the girl from the Plains.

Study was rigid and conquered, since the students traveled 52 days of the 105 in the semester, and all were required to take 15 hours of university courses.

"We would study about Greek and Roman civilization, then visit the places where the history was made. You remember it better when you can see it. It becomes more real," the coed said.

She visited cities including Paris, London, Munich, Salzburg, Brussels, Cologne, Zurich, Lucerne and Athens, and noted, "We became very independent; we would get off the train in a huge city and have to find a place to stay, then go sightseeing."

"London, Paris and Munich have very good subway systems. Rome badly needs a better public transportation system. We got around in overcrowded buses where as many people as possible were packed in. I once saw a nun hanging out a door which had closed on her."

The students had an audience with Pope Paul in November. Theresa saw Queen Elizabeth while she was in London for the opening of Parliament.

"She passed by in her Cinderella carriage, along with her horse guard in their costumes and about a thousand Bobbies. It was quite a parade."

During Thanksgiving holidays Theresa and 14 others went skiing in the Alps below the Matterhorn.

"If you took the cablecar all the way to the top, and skied down the other side, you would be in Zermatt, Switzerland. We were in Cervinia, Italy; skiing is much cheaper there than in Switzerland," she said.

"People ask me what my favorite place was, but it is very hard to say," Theresa commented. "I think it lies between Assisi, Italy, and Munich, Germany. Assisi is very old and has a medieval look, and hasn't changed much since St. Francis lived there."

"Munich has a special Bavarian charm of its own. I went there twice, in October and December. The first time the leaves were just turning but in December there was snow on the ground and there was a large Christmas market in the square where they sold hand-made ornaments, nut-crackers and mugs.

"German beer is the best in the world and the students couldn't go to Munich without visiting the Hofbrauhaus, a huge beer hall. The beer was served in liter mugs—over a quart. The waitresses could carry 10 at a time.

"It was between Salzburg, Austria and Munich that I rode the famous Orient Express. It was the only train I rode where the first class was more crowded than the second class."

The Texas student found many adjustments needed to cope with the European lifestyle.

"You had better forget there is such a thing as ice in cold drinks," she said. "They just don't use it. The water they serve is not tap water but 'acqua minerale,' which tastes like Alka-Seltzer."

"Cokes cost 400 to 600 lira in Italy, or about 75 cents. Wine is cheaper than water; a big bottle costs about 89 cents.

"Forget about shopping between 1 and 4 p.m., too. Everything shuts down tight for the siesta. There are no hamburgers in Italy, but there are McDonald's in Munich, Paris and London. In Munich they serve beer at McDonald's."

"Even if some Europeans don't like Americans they do like Texans. When you tell an Italian you are from Texas he will invariably say one of two things, 'Cowboy' or 'Boom-boom' while pretending to pull guns out of a holster."

"They remember Dallas as the place where Kennedy was shot. Texas to them is full of oil, cowboys, horses, ranches which are huge, and very rich people. We are bigger than life in their eyes."

"The Europeans are very friendly to students. Most of them do speak at least a little English, except for the French. They expect you to speak French in Paris and they can be very hostile if you don't."

"My semester in Rome was one of the things I'll never forget. The University of Dallas has an excellent study program abroad, and all the students should take advantage of it," is the opinion of the student who tried it.

She is a psychology major at the university, which she explains is a private Catholic school located next to Texas Stadium in Irving. It is rated academically as second only to Rice University in Texas, she adds.

President's 'glee' at low farm prices is deplored

"We are disappointed in the inability of the Congress to hear the plea of the farmer to come up with workable changes in the farm program that would allow producers to be a viable part of our national economy instead of remaining 'shock absorbers' for inflation."

These were the sentiments expressed by Otis Harman, president of the Texas Wheat Producers Association after the recent defeat of farm legislation in the House of Representatives.

"Our biggest disappointment," the farm leader added, "is in the great glee and satisfaction being expressed by the president in the farm measure's defeat and prospects for continuing low grain prices."

"It shows us just how much work lies ahead for producers and their organizations in not only getting legislative and administrative action to strengthen the farm and rural area income situation but also the need to be alert to preventing actions which may depress it further."

"The fact that there has been absolutely no changes in the farm bill passed by Congress and signed by the president last September despite the unprecedented efforts by farmers with outstanding press and public support," Harman added, "makes us more aware and appreciative of the tremendous job done by commodity groups and farm organizations in getting that bill through the legislative process."

"Accordingly, we urge wheat producers to use the provisions of the current farm programs to the maximum extent possible on their farms to cut production, reduce carryover stocks and remove grain from current market availability in a self-help effort to strengthen wheat prices and farm income." The Texas Wheat Producers Association is a voluntary producer-funded organization with membership throughout the commercial wheat producing area of the state and is a member of the National Association of Wheat Growers through which it works on legislative and administrative matters affecting wheat producers.

Most economists and forecasters see that our inflation rate is accelerating. In fact, this week the economist for one of the large New York banks predicted a 10% inflation rate in the last six months of 1978. That would give us an overall inflation rate of 8% plus for the year.

All economists become concerned with an accelerating inflation rate. Many economists believe that we will always have some inflation in our system, but when it accelerates they get alarmed.

The consequences of accelerating inflation are a different matter. Some economists see a direct tie to a loss in consumer purchasing power to the point where the consumer stops buying and our economic recovery grinds to a sharp halt. In fact, it could lead to another recession.

If you adjust inflation into retail sales, you will find that retail sales have been very weak in January and February. To an economist, this threatens inventory dislocations because business is producing more goods than it is selling. When unwanted inventories pile up, then production slows down and there is the threat of an inventory recession six months later.

A number of economists expect the weakness in the inflation-adjusted consumer spending to continue for some time. One index, the index of consumer well-being dropped by more than 6% in February after dropping 3% in January.

There could be a box rebound in consumer spending when weather improves and the effects of the coal strike disappear. But any optimistic forecast has a short life when economists look at the prospect of sharply higher inflation in the months to come.

Killingsworth appointed to NFIB council

Announcement was made today of the appointment of James Killingsworth Jr. of the Killingsworth Construction Company in Dimmitt as an action council member to the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) in San Mateo, Calif. and Washington, D.C.

NFIB is a non-profit, non-partisan organization representing the needs of small businesses across the country. Founded in 1943, it was designed to promote the concept of free enterprise and to give independent business a greater voice in shaping the laws which govern business and government.

The idea of the action council member was developed to allow members to take a more active role in the furthering the cause of small and independent business at the grass roots and federal level.

An enthusiastic businessman, Killingsworth reflects the involvement and interest of the action council members.

Printed Circuitry
We're plugging it in to keep your rates as low as possible.

No one is happy when we have to ask our customers to pay higher rates for telephone service. Not you. Not we. And that's why we fight inflation — the number one cause of rate increases — every day in every way we can.

One of the ways we hold inflation at bay is to look for new and better ways to serve our customers more efficiently.

Printed circuitry is one of the new and better ways. Your radio and television sets probably have it, and you get better service with minimum maintenance because of it.

Now, in many of our exchanges, plug-in modules eliminate many of the tubes that burned out with such monotonous regularity. Plus thousands of hand-soldered connections. And miles of tiny wires that had to be traced to the source of any problem.

Plug-in circuitry is requiring a tremendous investment, but it's an investment that helps Continental control its operating costs and hold the line on rate increases.

Your rates for telephone service are based on our costs of doing business. With printed circuitry and other proven technological advancements, we're doing our best to do more for you.

View from the Library

The library wishes to express appreciation to those of you sending in your Friends of the Library memberships. Your support will allow us to have a good summer program for the kids when school is out.

Announcement: To High School seniors — Did you know that you can earn college credit before you ever step foot on a campus? It's true. Such a way is the CLEP college entrance exam. If your scores on this exam are good your college may give you college credit. A maximum of 45 hours of course work can be earned this way. CLEP exams will be April 21, May 19, June 16, 17 and July 21. More information may be gained by contacting Dr. Foy Kilpatrick at Lubbock Christian College or the Admissions office there. There is a small fee required for taking these exams. Rhoads Memorial Library has limited copies of the study manual for CLEP exams.

And now... What makes a rare book rare?

Just the other day several people came in with boxes of old books and asked me to go through them and see if they were worth anything. They all were looking for rare books. I bought a book about collecting rare books and it has a good chapter on what makes a book valuable.

The book is mostly about book collecting. Its title is "Collecting Rare Books for Pleasure and Profit." It is by Jack Matthews. He concentrates on the pleasures of collecting but concedes that rare books can be quite profitable.

Matthews notes that book collecting has begun to be fashionable and everyone from cowboys to kings are doing it. Furthermore, there are many more books on the market to be sold. Books are so commonplace now that most of them are worthless from an investment point of view.

What makes a rare book rare is a matter of taste, scholarship, aesthetic appreciation, sentiment, as well as the numerical analysis of surviving copies.

Each book which is considered rare is considered so for all different reasons, all unique for itself, and the dollar value will change from dealer to dealer.

The law of supply and demand generally is the criteria, by which one decides whether a book is rare. There may be only one first edition left of an old novel but if enough second and third editions still exist and if the novel is undistinguished anyway, the book is not considered rare.

Therefore, just because a book is old, a first edition or from a limited printing does not make it rare. Although there are some rules for judging rare books, they are not absolute and are only general guidelines. Some of them are: any book printed west of the Appalachians before 1860, any book printed in the U.S. before 1800, any books printed in editions of 300 or less, any book with an auction record of 25 dollars or more, any book which a professional bookman believes might be rare or valuable, any book over $50 when it was for sale and any book which fits some of the above conditions and is in good condition.

The Frio Church pastor, Rev. Johnny Tims, is preaching in a revival in Woodrow Baptist Church near Lubbock this week. Cliff Hargrove is filling the pulpit here during

Visiting the Freddie Caro family for a few days were his mother, Mrs. Pauline Caro of Grand Saline and her sisters, Mrs. Bulah Gipson and Mrs. Leta White, both of Van. They attended church at Frio with the Caro family on Sunday. Don Mobley of Farmington visited his mother, Mrs. H. M. Mobley, in Hereford Wednesday night of last week. Coming this week to visit her mother, Mrs. Earl Springer, and others of the relatives in the area is Mrs. Clyde Swartzell of Jacksonville, Fla. She is the former Leta Dene Springer, who grew up in this community until the family moved to Hereford in 1941.

Ladies of Frio Church have been busy painting Sunday School rooms. They plan to have carpet laid in the rooms not already carpeted. Several were working on Friday there.

Leon Martin of Camarillo, Calif. was here during the weekend visiting his wife, Glenda's relatives, the Robbi families. He stayed at the Weldon Stephan home and the others around here went there to visit him. Also the E. H. Littles from Texline came and the Danny Morrisons from Dalhart also came to see him. He visited others of the family in Amarillo as he was on his way Tuesday. Martin had been to the East Coast and was here on business and had visited his mother in Clovis and also with a sister, Glenda.

Friends of the E. H. Littles will be interested to know that he was injured the first of the week when he fell from a tree while helping trim it. He suffered head injury and was in the hospital at Texline this week, but was improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Floyd Vinson had major surgery on Thursday and was improving satisfactorily the last of the week. She was in the Hereford hospital.

Among those attending Vacation Bible School Instruction School in Amarillo last week were Mmes. Earl Harkins, Andy Axe, Weldon Stephan, Floyd Cole, Charles Self and Richard Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harder and Lee Ann have gone to California on a planned vacation trip. They hope to visit other places on the West Coast also.

A LITTLE planning and organizing can help farmers and ranchers cope better with their intensive operations. This includes having equipment ready when it is needed, increasing field efficiency of equipment, changing cropping systems to avoid competition between crops, changing production systems, increasing working hours per day with parttime help, and using custom operators.

W's issue statement on endorsement

Due to an "unfortunate event" which occurred at last week's meeting, the Association of the W's has issued the following public statement:

"The Association of the W's does not as an organization endorse any candidate for public office.

"We do however, urge people to study the issues and vote for the candidates of their choice, individually, as we feel this is the duty and responsibility of every citizen.

"The W's was formed to educate on issues which affect the moral and spiritual welfare of families, to determine specific things each person can do and to unite our efforts to bring about more effectiveness in the legislative processes of our nation.

"We believe in the Constitution of the United States, the strength of the family, the rights of women to equal opportunities in employment and education, in a manner consistent with the employer's right to determine the employee best qualified, the right of women to be full time homemakers if they choose, and the right to be engaged in physical labor protected by laws that recognize differences in physical abilities between men and women, the rights of parents (not the government) to train children, and in the right to life of all innocent persons from conception to natural death.

"We invite all who subscribe to the above beliefs to become members of the W's, but again, we as an organization are not endorsing any candidate for public office in the upcoming election."

LIBRARY FAMILY OF THE YEAR for 1978 is the Don Reeve family of Dimmitt, who received the plaque at last week's meeting of the Friends of the Library. In announcing the winners, Librarian Brick Autry explained that the award is based on the use of Rhoads Memorial Library's facilities by all the family members. From left are Julie, 12, Lavon [holding award plaque], Don, Jamie, 9, and Jay, 14.

Friends of Library open new year with reorganization and awards

Officers headed by Margaret Womack as president were elected at a reorganization meeting of the Friends of Rhoads Memorial Library last week, when the 1978 Library Family of the Year was announced and the librarian's report showed continued rise in use of the facility.

The Don Reeve family — parents and Jay, 14, Julie, 12 and Jamie, 9 — was presented a plaque by Librarian Brick Autry as Library Family of the Year. They were chosen for use of facilities by the entire family during the past year.

Rena Richard was elected vice president, Violet Barton secretary and Linda Roberts treasurer to complete the slate of officers as previous nominations were accepted by acclamation.

Also elected were four directors, Stephanie Love, Sandra Bagwell, Jeanette Johnson and Carole Dyer.

The period from October, 1976 to the present was covered in Autry's report, which showed monthly circulation standing at 1,406 in 1976, rising to 2,700 in 1977 and 2,800 in 1978.

He said 1977 saw the library enter the Dimmitt United Way, funded at $1,500, "which was very fortunate because inflation rose 15 per cent that year."

The two Green Thumb workers, Louie Allen and Myrtle Behrends, also the three MTA staffers "are a big help to us and enjoyable to work with," Autry said. He paid tribute to Mrs. Tylene Perry, major benefactor of the library, who died this year.

"We wanted to see the Friends reorganized so we could have a larger summer program this year," the librarian said. "Also they will enable us to increase the circulation of our movies, books and other media, and make the library more visible throughout the county."

Introduced as speaker at the meeting was Jane Wheeler, director of education for the West Texas Historical Museum at Canyon, who discussed the museum's library and archives.

She called that department "a major center of research for many Panhandle historians. We have a fabulous collection of material on the Plains Indians and James Michener did much research for his best-selling book, 'Centennial' in our archives."

A new collection she mentioned is the Bob Wills Memorial Archives of Popular Music which she said would become the largest collection of its type anywhere and include items of the big band and swing music eras of Wills' time.

The WT library lately acquired one of the largest collections of documents on windmills, to add to its vast store of material including old court records from Panhandle counties, 14,000 historical volumes, photos, bound volumes of pioneer newspapers, ranch and business records, rare books, papers of many Panhandle legislators and autographs of many people of worldwide prominence, the speaker said.

She added that the museum had 150,000 visitors last year including 10,000 school children.

Mrs. Wheeler urged the importance of a start in collecting and preserving materials and records in preparation for Castro County's written history, saying family and business pictures, original records, minutes, yearbooks, scrapbooks, brochures, posters and newspapers should be collected.

She advised that "these archival collections be made by Friends of the Library rather than by the library staff. Go ahead and start collecting now, then start processing when you can," she added after giving advice on how the material should be assembled and preserved for the future.

Summer camping available for 4-H'ers

Summer is camping time, and for 4-H members, it's time to start thinking about taking advantage of some of the many great experiences in store at the Texas 4-H Center this summer.

The center, located near Brownwood, offers a special camping program for 4-H'ers during the period July 9-28, according to Seth Ralston, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H.

Theme of this year's camping program is "Texas Heritage and Horizons."

Summer camp at the Texas 4-H Center can be a unique experience, Ralston said. It provides an opportunity to meet new friends, learn new skills and have a great time. There are nature activities, folk games, folk arts and crafts, outdoor sports and recreation, music and planned social recreation along with many other things.

Instruction relating to Texas' cultural heritage will be provided by qualified college-age counselors and resource persons. Adult 4-H leaders and county Extension agents will serve as supervisors.

The camping program will be conducted according to age groups, with the schedule as follows: July 9-12, 15 years and older; July 12-14 and July 26-28, 10-11 years old; July 16-19 and July 23-26, 12-14 years old.

Cost of the camp is $35 per individual except for the 10-11 year-old-groups, which is $30.

Parents and leaders who will be providing transportation for 4-H'ers may make reservations to stay at the center for the same fee as the youth.

Kids, Inc. sets 'All Star Night'

Dimmitt Kids, Inc., will stage an "All Stars' Night" Friday, with four games on tap in the Middle School gym. The all-star games—one for each league—will take the place of a post-season tournament, and will be followed by the announcement of the 1978 Dimmitt All Stars in each league.

According to Boys' Basketball Chairman Ewell Kelley and Girls' Basketball Chairman Marshall Young, there wasn't enough time to conduct post-season tournaments this year because they would overlap with the junior baseball season and conflict with the Dimmitt schools' spring break. So Kids, Inc., officials and coaches this week decided to choose two all-star squads from each league to play in the "All Stars' Night" Friday as a season finale.

Game times will be 5 p.m. for the Minor League Girls game, 6 p.m. for the Minor League Boys, 7 p.m. for the Major League Girls, and 8 p.m. for the Major League Boys. The regional meet will be held at Texas Tech Friday and Saturday with field events beginning Friday morning and preliminaries in the running events slated to begin at 1:30 p.m. Finals in the running events will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Elaine Schulte

Queens look to Schulte for '78-79

With the Wayland Baptist Flying Queens losing three of their top six scorers, including two starters, from a 33-5 team, Coach Dean Weese hopes former Nazareth all-stater Elaine Schulte can take up part of the slack next year.

The 5-11 sophomore post player saw action in 31 games this past season, hitting 58.6 percent from the field (second best on the team), 58.3 percent from the line, averaged 2.7 rebounds a game and 3.9 points. She had a high of 13 against Missouri in the Plainview Queens Classic at Thanksgiving which the Queens won for the second straight year.

She had 12 rebounds as the Queens beat Hardin-Simmons in the zone tournament at Abilene. The Queens also won state and regional titles, then won the Central Satellite Tournament at Denton for the right to advance to the National AIAW Finals in Los Angeles where they fell to Maryland, 90-85 and to Montclair State, 90-88 in overtime.

Graduation of All-American center Marie Kocurek and power forward Breana Caldwell leaves two big gaps for the Queens to fill and Schulte's experience may pay off next year.

Basketball isn't over for the Queens, though. They will go to Hong Kong in late May on a basketball-religious emphasis sponsored by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Each girl is having to raise part of the money for the trip.

Elaine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schulte. She's majoring in P.E. with a minor in biology.

ART CLUB MEETING

The Nazareth Art Club will meet in the basement of the Holy Family Catholic Church at Nazareth at 7:30 p.m. Monday. A painting demonstration will be given and guests are invited to meet with the members, according to Beth Schulte, president.

Nazarenes to observe 3rd anniversary

The Dimmitt Church of the Nazarene will celebrate its third anniversary Sunday with special services at the church building, NW 5th St. and Halsell. Rev. Delbert Fish, pastor, and the congregation invite the public to help them celebrate.

Especially invited are all who were present when the church began services here. Sunday meetings begin at 10 a.m. for Sunday school, 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. for worship hours.

A preliminary to the Sunday observance will be a service at 7 p.m. Saturday by a group of young visitors, the West Texas Ambassadors. This is a large group of teenage members who travel to various churches and assist with services. This meeting is also open to the public.

All-Sports banquet set Monday at Hart

Heart Association names '78 officers

Dr. Bill Murphy will serve as president of the Castro County Unit of the American Heart Association this year.

Announcement of the new slate of officers was made by Jerrold Welborn, chairman of the nominating committee, at the annual business meeting of the organization Thursday of last week.

Other new officers include Jimmie George, vice president; Yvonne Wilcox, secretary; Welborn, program chairman; Delores Ivy, memorial chairman; Beral Hance, publicity and public relations; Mary Emma Matthews, Heart and Home Sunday chairman; and Bettye Huckabay, Dr. Bill Lee and Lela Vaughn, board of directors.

Mrs. Huckabay gave the financial report for the past year. A total of $3,569.88 was collected in Castro County. Of that total, $1,854.88 was from Heart and Home Sunday, $306 in memorials, $85 in special gifts and $1,324 from the Heart Square Dance. In a break-down of how each dollar is spent within the association, 26 cents goes to research, 27 cents to public education, 21 cents to community service, nine cents to professional education, 11 cents to fund raising and five cents to management and general expenses.

"The Heart Association's major efforts will be to help the citizens of this area know more about ways to cut down the risk of heart attack, stroke and other diseases of the circulatory system," said Dr. Murphy.

Kiwanis Club hears speaker on crop food

A new type of crop fertilizer, which puts live bacteria into the soil to fix nitrogen, was described to Kiwanis Club members at their lunch Monday by Carl Armstrong, who said the product was developed in East Texas and has been tested in midwest states.

He showed slides comparing crop production with the new product and with conventional fertilizer, saying it hastens maturity of plants grown under irrigation and in dryland areas. Its chief advantage is its much lower cost, Armstrong said.

The speaker pointed out that the bacteria culture adds only nitrogen to the soil so that other plant nutrients must be supplied where they are needed, and he warned that it cannot be mixed to apply with other chemicals. Armstrong was introduced by Carl Bruegel, program chairman.

Reports were given on assistance given by Kiwanians in the Junior High Relays here last week, and members agreed that they would be pleased to help with another next spring.

Randall Craig reported 20 reservations made for Dimmitt High School Key Club members and four adults to attend the coming regional convention in Dallas. Kiwanians sponsor the Key Club and are helping make the trip possible.

Crop residue: fuel for future

fuel. I don't believe enough research has been done on this, and if it is developed to the practical stage the High Plains is the ideal place for a plant."

The group at Austin did consider the plans feasible, Clark added, and "the state will keep the door open on applying for a research project. Grain growers will all keep an eye on developments."

Lapins said Amstar "isn't especially interested in government guaranteed loans," and that what the Amstar plant would do under the proposal "isn't pilot plant type of work, because corn wet millers in other parts of the US are already producing alcohol."

"One of the ground rules of the program is that you can't use more energy than you produce, and that's one of the problems of producing grain alcohol—high energy cost," he added, explaining that ethynol can be made from either a petroleum base or fermented grain, and was originally made from grain.

"It is mostly petroleum-based now, used in cosmetics and polyethylene products, and sells for about $1.20 a gallon. We could make it for about 85 cents a gallon, at our best guess, and produce 16,000 gallons of 180-proof alcohol a day. Such production would kick our grind up from 30,000 to 35,000 bushels a day."

He noted that the Amstar plant has lost money the past two years, "so I don't think we'll spend any massive amount of money on producing alcohol anytime soon. Maybe in five years or so, if the market justifies it."

Lapins explained that the main research now is on the use of crop residue, and added, "If we could find a source that's going to waste now and make a usable product, that's a legitimate area for research."

"As far as trying to blend ethylene with petroleum fuel, Nebraska has already done that with a super program, Lapins said. "Why duplicate their efforts?"

I have never seen a profit and loss statement on the operation of the canal, but it is doubtful if it ever showed a profit. It is possible that the Panamanians can make a profit on the canal operation without increased fees, while the US would lose money on its operation. We have to keep military bases in the area, and no doubt the people we send down there are paid a premium salary as it is not, according to our standards, a desirable place to live. Then, too, we preach a good neighbor policy. We should bite the bullet and practice what we preach. The people in Central and South America are our land mass neighbors.

Fire calls

A mobile home on the Richard Connell farm one-half mile east of Flagg was destroyed in a blaze of unknown origin Wednesday night of last week, according to Fire Marshal Guy Waldrop.

The Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department answered a call to the location at 10:30 p.m., but the mobile home was a total loss before firemen reached the scene. Belongings of a tenant family who occupied the home were also destroyed.

Another call at 11 p.m. Friday came from 707 E. Halsell, where improper venting of a hot water tank caused a house fire that damaged the inside of the bathroom and the roof, also caused smoke damage through the other rooms.

Hospital food system, respirator are gifts

Two items of equipment will be added to Plains Memorial Hospital as gifts from the PMH Auxiliary, purchased with proceeds of the annual holiday bazaar and Christmas Greeting project, it was announced at the Auxiliary meeting last week.

A complete food delivery system and a respirator designed for infants will be the Auxiliary's contributions to the hospital this year. They will be purchased as soon as the hospital administration decides on the exact models, it was announced by Dorothy Elder, Auxiliary treasurer.

The holiday projects are carried out each year to raise funds for equipment given to the hospital -- items needed for better service to the community but not provided by the regular hospital budget.

The Auxiliary also operates the gift shop in the hospital lobby, which is open from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p.m. each day, to add to its funds. New items are added to the stock each week and the public is invited to patronize the shop.

MRS. BILLY CHET PHILPOTT
... Formerly Carol Ann Welch

Miss Welch weds Billy C. Philpott

Carol Ann Welch of Dimmitt and Billy Chet Philpott of Lubbock exchanged marriage vows in a late afternoon ceremony Saturday at the First United Methodist Church here.

Travis H. Gilliland, Church of Christ minister at Memphis and an uncle of the bride, officiated for the double ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Claudia B. Welch of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Philpott of Lubbock. Her father gave the bride in marriage.

She was attended by her sister Beth, of Levelland, as maid of honor and Delese Ellison of Lubbock as bridesmaid. Johnny Philpott of Waco was his brother's best man and Dale McDougal of Hale Center was the groomsmen.

Bami McDougal of Hale Center was the flower girl. The bride's cousin, Jason Ray Vaughan of Lubbock, carried the rings and her brothers, James of Alanreed and Frank of Dimmitt were the ushers who lighted candles at the church altar before the ceremony.

The blue candles were set in spiral candelabra flanking the bride's candle on the sanctuary table, and a large bouquet of blue and white flowers. Blue silk roses with white bows marked pews down the central aisle.

Mrs. Gary Wise, organist, played wedding selections and the marches. She accompanied Mrs. Ann Murphy, whose vocal solos were "We Have Just Begun" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride's gown with fitted bodice, long puffed sleeves and flowing skirt, had a lace ruffle around the circular neckline, lace and pearl touches on bodice, skirt and attached train. A lace mantilla was draped over her dark hair.

Her bouquet was carried on a white Bible. As luck pieces she wore her grandmother Welch's wedding ring and carried her mother's blue handkerchief. Her traditional blue garter was a gift from her second-grade teacher, Mrs. L. A. Tucker.

The bridesmaids were dressed in blue crepe A-line gowns with matching lace capes. Their bouquets of silk roses were made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bill Long of Silverton.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the wedding. Serving cake and punch at the bride's table were Diane Vaughan and Joanne Wright of Lubbock and Darla Underwood of Hart.

Kitty Reeves of Irving and Vickie McDougal of Hale Center poured coffee and served cake at the groom's table. Also in the houseparty were Wanda Kay, Jo Hamilton, Ann Armstrong, Angel Garibaldi and Rubie Lee.

Leaving on a wedding trip, Mrs. Philpott wore a spring green pantsuit with a corsage of white silk roses from her bouquet. The couple will be at home at 8412 Flint St. in Lubbock after the trip.

The bride, who graduated from Texas Tech University in December with a degree in home economics, is employed by John Collier, attorney. She completed high school studies in Dimmitt.

Guess what kind of contest Reeve-Fleming is running now!

Come in and find out!

We have another "Shower of Savings" contest underway, with a prize to be awarded. But you'll have to come in to Reeve-Fleming to see what it's all about. Visit our showroom before noon Saturday and enter the contest—there's no obligation. The winner will be announced at noon Saturday.

DEADLINE: NOON SATURDAY

LAST WEEK'S WINNER

Believe it or not, there were 2,250 pounds of corn in the new long bed of that Chevy LUV pickup last week. [That's more than twice its rated load capacity, but it held up fine because it's built tough.]

Gene Trotter and Bob Berry, both of Hart, and Mike Odum of Dimmitt all guessed within 30 pounds of the actual weight of the corn, and tied for first place. Gene won the coin flip and received the Thermo picnic set. You may be a winner, too, if you enter Reeve-Fleming's "Shower of Savings" contest this week!

Piano Guild auditions scheduled for May 1-3

The Dimmitt chapter of the National Piano Guild will sponsor the 1978 Guild Auditions for piano pupils May 1-3 in the United Presbyterian Church here.

Pianists who will participate are pupils of Mrs. Charles Welker, Mrs. Leon Sanders and Dwight Joiner.

Each will play specified piano selections for an adjudicator who will evaluate and rate the performance according to the soloist's age and years of training.

The judge for this year's auditions is Mary T. Guerrant, an adjudicator for the National Guild. She recently judged in the Lubbock Music Teachers' sonata-concerto competition.

She has been a guest soloist at Lubbock Christian College and Austin College this year and gave recitals at several colleges while she was teaching piano and composition last year at Tunghai University in Taiwan. She has also taught private pupils, and at Austin University. She earned master of music and Ph.D. degrees in fine arts at Texas Tech and has studied piano with Rosalyn Tureck in London as well as with well-known teachers in the United States.

Cool desserts are tasty

By IRENE KEATING

Spring is evident in all the pretty blooms. Trees are green now and so are yards. And there is still the constant problem of dandelions. I've read that in England, there are no dandelions anymore. Wonder what they did?

The problem is that they must be sprayed as each crop germinates and seeds flow from everywhere. I'm sure I'll do my share to get rid of them in our lawn by frequent spraying.

If any of you have any questions regarding your lawn or landscape plants, be sure to call the Extension office at 647-4115 or come by our office in the courthouse basement. We're here to help you.

Our thoughts turn to cooler foods at this time of year and more of us are serving homemade ice cream and other light "cooler" desserts. Here are a couple of quick low-calorie desserts that I'm sure you'll enjoy...men too.

HONEY GRAHAM PEARS
4 canned Bartlett pear halves

- 2 tablespoons honey
- 2 tablespoons graham cracker crumbs
- 2 teaspoons butter
- cinnamon

Place pear halves in baking dish. Drizzle with honey. Sprinkle with crumbs and dot with butter. Bake at 425 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes. Serve warm sprinkled with cinnamon. Makes 2 to 4 servings.

PEAR-YOGURT DELIGHT
1 can (16 oz.) Bartlett pear halves

- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1 carton (8 oz.) orange-flavored low-fat yogurt
- 1 egg white

Drain syrup from pears into saucepan. Add orange juice and sugar. Sprinkle with gelatin. Let stand 5 minutes. Heat until gelatin dissolves, stirring frequently. Cool. Fold in yogurt. Chill until partially set. Add egg white. Beat at high speed for 3 minutes. Dice pears. Fold into gelatin mixture. Spoon into dessert dishes. Chill. Makes 4 servings.
