44th Anniversary Of Floyd County to be Celebrated Monday When Old Settlers Meet Here

Monday, May 28, 1934, marks the 44th anniversary of Floyd County's founding and in honor of this event the Floyd County pioneers will meet in their annual reunion in Floydada.

On May 28, 1890, Floyd County became a county officially. An election was held with Crosby county officers presiding, who had called the election. At that time the county was attached to Crosby county, and this election in addition to electing officers for the county severed Floyd County from Crosby county.

Judge Arthur B. Duncan, pioneer landowner and ranchman, was elected as the first county judge. He received 55 votes, that being more than any of the other candidates. Judge Duncan's work as county judge and pioneer county officer was a prime factor in the development of Floyd County.

Officers of the Floyd County Pioneers said that they were expecting the largest crowd ever to attend a reunion to be present Monday. The meeting will be held at the City Hall on the lawn. In previous years the reunion was held at the court house lawn but this lawn has been dug up and re-planted to grass.

The program for the day will begin with the registration which will be in charge of a committee appointed by the board of directors. Each guest after being registered will be given a badge, in colors, according to residence in Floyd County.

Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, pioneer resident of Floyd County, will give the welcome address of the day. Elder J. J. Day, Mrs. Duncan's twin brother, will give the response.

Claude V. Hall, professor of history in the East Texas State Teachers College, and pioneer school teacher of Floyd County, will give the main address of the day.

All of the old timers and their families and visitors present will enjoy a basket dinner on the grounds Monday at noon. This basket dinner gives occasion for a friendly get-together, by pioneers and the discussion of events of by-gone days.

In the afternoon a street parade will be held when pioneers, dressed in the costumes of an early day, will ride horseback, in pioneer vehicles or walk down the streets in a huge array which will be both colorful and interesting to those of the modern day.

Featured in the afternoon also will be the old time square dance which attracts huge crowds for several hours. Music will be by old time fiddlers who know their music.

Floyd County's annual reunion is expected to attract crowds both from this and other counties. Several hundred old timers register during the gathering every year.

Officers of Floyd County Pioneers: Geo. L. Fawver, president; R. E. L. Muney, vice-president; Tom W. Deen, secretary-treasurer; Glad Snodgrass, Dr. C. J. McCollum, Miss Anna Sims, Mrs. A. A. Hollis, and R. E. Fry directors.

Registration committee: Mrs. S. W. Ross, chairman; Mrs. Joe McCollum, Mrs. Robin Baker, Mrs. Maud Burrus, Mrs. J. D. Starks.

Badge Committee: R. E. Fry, chairman, Business manager, Glad Snodgrass.

THE GOAT COLUMN

Number, number! What's your number! These words rang in our ears all last night. Yesterday was "treasure hunt" day at the neighbor day gathering in Floydada. And did they hunt? People came by ones, twos and in Sunday school classes, to know, what's your number?

We would estimate at least 1000 people came to our office to know, what's your number? And frankly, folks, none wanted anything except to know, what's your number?

It is our guess that the "treasure hunt" was the most successful idea ever handed out for the shoe men of this community. It seemed to us that thousands of people were in the hunt—and look what this meant to shoes.

Some of the merchants reported better business for the day. The weather was ideal, a good crowd was in Floydada, and all of the visitors must have took part in the "treasure hunt". Whatever else might be said about neighbor day, there is one thing settled—"treasure hunt" was a "howling" success, if it is to be judged from the number taking part in the hunt.

C. P. Looper handed the following item to a reporter of the Plainsman and suggested that it might good for a reprint:

"Ever stop to think, that hard times mean nothing to a hen? She keeps right on digging worms, regardless of what the newspapers say of conditions. If the ground is hard, she scratches harder; if it is dry, she scratches deeper; if she strikes a rock, she digs around it, but she always digs up worms and turns them into hard-shell profits, as well as tender broilers. Did you ever hear of one starving to death waiting for worms to come to the surface? Did you ever hear of a pessimistic hen? Not on your life. She saves her breath for digging, and her cackle for eggs."

Figure It Out For Yourself Conversation heard on street between small boy selling magazines and strange gentleman:

"Oh, come on Mr., buy a magazine. Of course I can't trade with you, but buy a magazine."

"Here," said the gentleman, "is a quarter. Keep your magazine, I can't read. You will be a customer later."

A quartette selection, "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day," was given by O. T. Williams, E. C. Potter, Roy Cothorn, and Roy Holmes. Following this selection Superintendent A. D. Cummings introduced the speaker of the evening and Judge Lattimore made his address.

Why Doctors Favor a Liquid Laxative

A doctor will tell you that the careless use of strong laxatives may do more harm than good.

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you needn't take a "double dose" a day or two later.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is little "convenience" in any cathartic which is taken so frequently, you must carry it with you, wherever you go!

Its very taste tells you Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. All druggists, ready for use, in big bottles. Member N. R. A.
