Lider Leads Whirlwinds In 6 to 0 Victory Over Slaton Tigers Friday

Malcom Lider, playing quarterback and halfback for the Whirlwinds, led the green and white in a 6 to 0 decision over the Slaton Tigers in a game on Whirlwind field Friday afternoon. Lider's punting, passing and line plunging tactics were deciding factors in the Whirlwinds' win.

A large crowd was present to see the Whirlwinds trample their old time foe. Floydada business houses closed from 3:30 o'clock until after the game and turned out to see the local team in action.

To start the game Slaton kicked off to the Whirlwinds and Smith, Floydada end, returned. Floydada on the first series of plays made several nice gains, Lider carrying the ball. The first period went to the Whirlwinds, who made three first downs to two for the visitors.

The only score in the game came in the second quarter, when after a series of nice gains the Whirlwinds advanced to the Tigers' one yard line. Lider plunged the line for the counter. An attempt to convert extra point by a kick failed.

After the touchdown Lider kicked off to Slaton who returned the ball to their own 30 yard line. Held for downs the Tigers punted and after another exchange of the ball the first half ended with the score Floydada 6, Slaton 0.

The second half was listless as far as scoring was concerned. In the third period the Tigers strengthened to increase their yardage gained from scrimmage considerably over any other period. In the third quarter Lider tossed a neat pass to Rutledge for a nice gain over the right side of the line. During this quarter along in the latter part Lider was substituted by Lightfoot and the latter carried the ball for consistent although not extensive gains.

Lider was sent back into the game in the fourth period after the Whirlwinds had been backed deep into their territory by the Tigers. He carried the ball for two times for a first down and on the next play tore off 40 yards just as the game ended.

Lewis Hollingsworth, Whirlwind end, made a habit Friday of smearing the Tiger plays. Twice consecutively he threw the purple and white ball toters for losses, aggregating 22 yards. He seemed to get into every play and enjoy it. Smith, on the other end, played a quiet game but held his place well. Hollingsworth was replaced in the fourth quarter by Rainer after he had sustained an injury to his leg.

Summary: Passes, Floydada attempted 8 with 6 incomplete and 2 complete for 30 yards gain, Slaton attempted 5 with 3 complete for 44 yards and incomplete; Punts, Floydada averaged 36 yards, Slaton averaged 31 yards; Penalties, Floydada 0, Slaton 25; Yards lost from scrimmage, Floydada 8, Slaton 25; First downs, Floydada 14, Slaton 11.

Starting lineups, Floydada, ends Hollingsworth and Smith; tackles, Mooney and Wood; guards, Jones and Crawford; center, Montgomery; Lider, quarterback; Badgett, fullback; McClung and Lightfoot, halfbacks.

Slaton line-up, ends D. Gentry and B. Usery; tackles, Holt Waldrop and Basil Reynolds; guards, Byron Kirtsey and Conny Gentry; center, Greeley Sanders; Warren Henry, quarterback; Woodrow Simmons, fullback; Fred Perdue and Ralph Millican, halfbacks.

Roseland Boy Dies As Result Of Gun Wounds Inflicted By Brother

J. L. Kingston, aged 9, died Friday night at the family home in the Roseland community as result of gun shot wounds accidentally inflicted by his older brother, Raymond Kingston, aged 16 years. The accident occurred between 8:30 and 9 o'clock.

The brothers, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kingston, had with three other children gone to Sylvester, Texas, Friday morning, were preparing to retire for the night. According to Raymond Kingston, who fired the fatal shot, the boys had secured the gun, a 20 gauge pump shotgun, to place beside the bed for protection.

The younger lad stood in front of Raymond, who was seated on the bed, with the gun in his hands. Raymond pulled the trigger, thinking the safety catch was on, but the gun discharged with the bullets striking J. L. in the back. The younger boy stood about six feet from the end of the gun and near a dresser in the bedroom. The shot entered the boy's back about an inch to the left of the spine, traveling through the body and lodging near the navel.

Raymond, after the accident, ran to the house of C. L. Robbins, a neighbor, to summon aid and the latter returned with him to the Kingston home. Judge D. C. Lowe, justice of the peace in precinct 2, Lockney, conducted an inquest and Sheriff E. S. Randerson, of Floydada and County Attorney Tony B. Maxey, together with Lockney deputies conducted an investigation. Further investigation will be conducted by agrandjury in Floyd County district court this month, although it is believed the shooting was accidental.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingston, with the other three children, two girls and a boy, returned Saturday morning from Sylvester to their home, which is 14 miles north of Floydada. The body of the slain boy was carried to the Arch Crager Funeral Home in Lockney to be prepared for burial.

Mr. Cottingham, who with his family had moved to Greeley, Colorado, where his daughter, Agnes, was attending Colorado Teachers College, was enroute from their former home at Memphis, Texas, to Greeley. Mr. Cottingham was driving a truck and was thought to have accidentally drove the truck off the road into a ditch. He left the truck and was walking down the highway when struck by a hit-and-run driver, it is believed. Mr. Cottingham was dragged about 63 feet by the automobile and sustained a broken right leg, smashed right side and cuts and bruises on the head.

The Whirlwinds have, thus far this season, defeated Crosbyton in a practice game, Tulia and Slaton. Plainview's Bulldogs with a heavier Class A squad are expected to be a tough foe for the local gridsters.

Friday night's game will be played on the Plainview Junior High School field under the floodlights. The kick-off will be at 8 o'clock. Many fans from Floydada are expected to be present for the game.

Farmers May Borrow From Production Credit Association At 4%

Loans at four per cent interest will be made to farmers by production credit associations on the security of stored cotton, according to Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. The loans will be made in accordance with the Commodity Credit Corporation plan, under special authorization just received from Washington.

"While full details have not been developed," said Mr. Garner, "it is evident that this deviation from our standard interest rate reflects the smaller risk involved in loans against a staple product in storage and the same commodity in process of production. Associations will carry these loans without risk, since they are eligible to be transferred to the Commodity Credit Corporation."

"Crop production loans bear a standard interest rate three per cent above the discount rate of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, which during recent months has made it possible for production credit associations to make loans at the rate of five per cent per annum."

There are thirty eight production credit associations in Texas, located in all parts of the State, offering convenient short-term credit for practically all agricultural purposes.

Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, Mrs. J. I. Hammonds, Douglas Hollams and Mrs. Maud Hollams, visited in Plainview Saturday with Carroll V. (Ted) Duncan who is in the sanitarium recuperating from a recent automobile accident injuries.

Mrs. W. M. Dillworth left last mid-week to return to her home at Waco after having visited in Floydada for several days with her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Cline and Mr. Cline. Mr. and Mrs. Cline took Mrs. Dillworth to Childress, visiting there with Mr. and Mrs. Hal Drace.

Strenuous Effort Being Made To Get Community Cannery For Floydada

County Relief Administrator Clifford Rhoades said this week that a strenuous effort was being made to secure a community cannery for Floydada, to provide employment for relief roll clients.

In order that labor will be furnished for such a project a building, lights, heat and water must be furnished without cost to the State Relief Commission. Mr. Rhoades said that a building and grounds had been offered and he felt sure that the local governments would do their part in securing the essentials.

The cannery, if one is started here, will be operated on a 60-40 basis. Any person having a cow, hog or vegetables or fruit they wished canned will get the animal or vegetable ready and notify the relief administration offices. The canning will be done with the relief commission furnishing cans, seasoning etc. Sixty percent of the canned products will be returned to the person owning them and forty percent will be retained by the relief administration as food for relief roll clients.

Inspect Plainview Plant. All the members of Floyd County's Commissioners Court, County Judge J. W. Howard, Clifford Rhoades, relief administrator, W. C. Hanna, mayor, J. M. Willson and W. N. Jones went to Plainview Friday afternoon and inspected the Plainview community cannery. They reported that the operation seemed satisfactory.

All work done in the cannery is by relief clients, who will be directed by a trained inspector from A. & M. College Extension Service.

Bankhead Exemption Certificates Now Being Issued In County

Bankhead exemption certificates are being issued now to all persons who signed applications except those having cotton on their places for the first time in 1933 or 1934 and those who have had temporary certificates issued to them.

The certificates for 1933 and 1934 places have not come in yet.

Those who have temporary certificates are taken up from the gins before they can be issued the remainder of their permanent ones.

The landlord and the tenant each have to sign for their certificates personally unless they have given some one the power of attorney on a Form B. A. 5 to act for them. Then when it comes to ginning the cotton the landlord and the tenant both have to furnish their certificates in proportion to their interest in the crop.

Local sales of certificates have to be registered in the office of the assistant in cotton adjustment.

If no local sale can be found persons wishing to do so may turn their surplus certificates in to the assistant in cotton adjustment starting the latter part of next week, and they will be turned into the National Pool for sale.

In the National Pool the certificates will be sold where they are needed until the end of ginning season. When ginning is over the pool will be closed out. All certificates sold will be prorated among all parties having interest in the pool and checks issued to them in proportion to their interest in the pool. All unsold certificates at the close of the pool will be reissued proportionally to each person interested in the pool. That means that each person interested in the pool will get a check and a few certificates back.

Funeral Services For E. A. (Gus) Garner Held Thursday Afternoon

Funeral services for E. A. (Gus) Garner, 68, were held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. I. A. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church, conducted the services at the graveside in the Floydada cemetery.

Mr. Garner who operated a black smith and machine shop in Floydada for a number of years, died in the Plainview sanitarium Wednesday night about nine o'clock. He had undergone an operation Tuesday for prostate gland trouble and had been in the hospital for ten days for treatment.

E. A. Garner was born sixty-eight years ago near Copenhagen, Denmark. From the time he was a small lad he was in the service of the Danish army. He first was given training in the arts of dirt farming on the outskirts of Copenhagen but later worked under government supervision in the machine and blacksmith shops of his native country.

About forty-two years ago he left the army and came to the United States, landing at New York City. He first came to Floydada about ten years ago to engage in the blacksmith business. About five years ago, during the Hobbs, New Mexico, oil boom, he went to that city and established a machine and welding shop. He later returned to Floydada and had since that time been in the Floydada Welding Works on South Main street.

Mr. Garner never married and very meager information is available locally concerning his relatives, however, it is reported that he heard from a brother and sister occasionally who live in New York.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of F. C. Harmon funeral directors. Friends of the deceased were pallbearers.

HARDIN-SIMMONS VS. ST. EDWARDS IN GAME AT WICHITA FALLS SATURDAY

Wichita Falls.—Texas Conference football will see one of its most bitter rivalries renewed here Saturday night, when the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys of Abilene meet the St. Edwards University Tigers of Austin under the floodlights of Coyote Stadium.

Nine years of competition have brought three victories to the Tigers, three to the Cowboys and three games have resulted in scoreless ties. Saturday night's game should be the finest of a fine series of games as each of these highly touted aggregations fight for an advantage in games won and lost. Added to this traditional rivalry is the fact that this game will be the first conference game of the season for both teams.

Great plans have been made in Wichita Falls to inaugurate this first annual college game, one of which will be offered each year. A capacity crowd is anticipated and every detail has been taken care of to insure full comfort for the fans. Coyote Stadium, seating over 5,000, is one of the most beautiful football fields in Texas, with every seat between the 30-yard lines. The finest lighting equipment gives a daylight atmosphere to the playing field.

An added feature of the game will be the appearance of the world-famous Cowboy Band from Hardin-Simmons University. This musical organization, 100 strong, will arrive here Saturday afternoon on a special train from Abilene to participate in the football parade and to play during the game that night.

A low schedule of prices has been put in effect.

'Starving' Chinch Bugs Checks Loss

Legume Crop Diet Good Plan to Minimize the Threatened Raid.

By W. P. Flint, Entomologist, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

What threatens to be one of the most destructive invasions of chinch bugs can be headed off and widespread damage prevented or at least minimized if farmers will starve the bugs by limiting them to a "diet" of legume crops.

Unless the weather during May and June is wetter than usual, so as to drown out the bugs, they threaten to cause more damage than they have caused in any year during the past 50.

Farmers that are known to be in the heavily infested chinch bug area are being warned to include all the legumes possible in the field crops they grow during the coming season. This is one of the most effective and at the same time one of the least expensive methods that farmers can use in fighting the bugs.

If chinch bugs could be confined only to legumes during the coming season, they would not live any longer than a meat-eating animal would live on this same diet. Chinch bugs will not feed on any of the legumes, including alfalfa, soy beans, compass, field peas, red clover, sweet clover, wetch or lespedeza. Neither will they feed on such other common field crops as rape, buckwheat, flax, sunflowers or stock beets.

The crops that are "meat" for chinch bugs and the only ones on which they feed are the grasses, and these grasses must be green with the sap flowing in them, as the chinch bug is a sucking insect and takes its food not by biting off and chewing up a bit of the leaf surface, but by inserting its beak in the grass plants and sucking out the sap. They feed on all the small grains, including barley, spring wheat, winter wheat, oats, rye, emmer and spelt. They will also feed on sorghum, broom corn, field corn, sweet corn, sudan grass and millet.

If corn and soy beans are planted together and a good growth of soy beans is obtained so that the beans shade the lower parts of the cornstalks, such shaded stalks will have fewer bugs than corn without soy beans. A heavy stand of sudan grass and soy beans will suffer only slightly from chinch bug damage, whereas sudan grass alone would be killed.

Urge Sanitary Measures for Control of Garget

No one can estimate the economic loss caused by mastitis, commonly known as garget, say Prof. D. H. Udall and S. D. Johnson of the New York State Veterinary college. In some dairy cattle herds the loss is slight, they say, and in others it is severe.

Each herd, however, pays an unnecessary toll, and the total loss is enormous. Because of the hidden nature of the disease it may often go unnoticed.

When an owner says that a certain cow made a high record but was "burned out" by high feeding and never produced well again, the usual cause is mastitis. The disease is marked by repeated attacks that tend to appear when the cow is drying off, or shortly after she freshens, or when she is fed on a high protein diet, or when exposed to unusual strain. If the disease is active the milk may become watery or contain flakes.

The best evidence shows that infection occurs during milking, and extra precaution at milking is urged. Garget spreads less readily in herds milked by hand than in herds milked by a machine.

Home Lard Production

When lard is rendered at home, it should be graded and as much neutral lard as possible produced, says Miss Flora Carl of the Missouri College of Agriculture. Neutral lard is the lard rendered from internal fats at such low temperatures that it is almost, if not entirely, free of taste and odor. Neutral lard is of high quality but it is seldom that it can be purchased for cooking purposes, since most of it goes into the manufacture of oleomargarine. More lard can be extracted at a lower temperature if the fat is run through the sausage mill instead of chopping before rendering. The fat from the rinds is more difficult to extract and gives a softer and a cheaper grade of lard. The rinds can be rendered by roasting in the oven.

Rehabilitation Project Now Underway In Floyd County

Floyd County's rehabilitation project, under the direction of the relief administration, is now underway. The project is one to house people on the relief rolls and furnish them land to grow their own living.

T. K. Brannon, district supervisor, will be in Floydada three days each week to direct the project. He will start Monday securing lease contracts from house and landowners who will agree to lease their vacant houses under rehabilitation provisions.

A maximum of $75.00 will be expended for improvement of the houses. If a well or out-house is to be repaired slightly more than $75.00 will probably be allowed.

Relief roll clients will be placed on the rehabilitation farms thus created and a cow, chickens, farm equipment, in meager form, some work stock will be provide dfor them. These clients will be compelled to become self-supporting. Leases and estimates on cost of repair of houses will be submitted to the relief commission at Austin before any money is appropriated. Any landowners, who have a tract of land 5 to 40 acres, and have a house that can be used in conjunction with the land and who are willing to give a lease are asked to file at the county relief administration offices.

Houses will be repaired up to the maximum of $75.00, without cost to the owners, and after the lease expires in January 1936, the houses will be turned back to the owners with the improvements. This plan affords an opportunity for house and landowners to get their property in better condition and at the same time carry on the rehabilitation project.
