"Henry" The Great Will Appear At H. S. Auditorium Saturday

Work Order Issued For Grade Finish To Swisher County Line

MAGIC SHOW IS SATURDAY EVE

HUGE CROWD WILL PACK H. S. AUDITORIUM TO SEE GREATEST MAGICIAN

Indications point to a crowded house at the High School auditorium this Saturday evening when Henry The Great, world renowned Artist and Magician is presented at 8:45 o'clock, under the auspices of the Dimmitt Lions Club. Advance ticket sales have been steady and the last minute rush is expected to fill the spacious hall for the exhibition of magic, illusion, fun and remarkable artist presentations.

It is indeed seldom that towns the size of Dimmitt are accorded the opportunity and privilege of witnessing a really big time entertainment feature which has elicited praise from all parts of the world. Henry comes to Dimmitt direct from a showing at Texas Tech following a two-year tour of the Orient. Dimmitt and Castro County citizens can ill afford to pass up such an opportunity as Henry and his supporting company offers for high class, clean and breath-taking entertainment.

It has been the privilege and the extreme good fortune of this writer to witness a performance of Henry upon a like occasion in another Panhandle city. Without a doubt and barring no one or any other single performance the entertainment which will be given the people of this section Saturday evening is far superior to anything seen in this section of Texas since Henry's last appearance. The entire family will enjoy the show. Henry is a master showman and threads a romantic word picture throughout his whole evening's performance. His art pictures are remarkable whether they be by chalk, crayon or his inimitable sand creations.

Come early and bring every member of the family. A grand evening is guaranteed. Saturday evening, June 22 at the H. S. auditorium at 8:45 o'clock.

CLUB LADIES ENJOY CAMP TRIP

SCORE OF CASTRO COUNTY CLUB WOMEN ATTEND PALO DURO OUTING

Thursday, June 13 at 2:30 p. m. twenty ladies and one man all loaded in the Mulkey school bus and left for the Palo Duro Canyons.

Over rough roads, muddy roads, new roads, old roads, graded roads side roads and pavement, then we were in Canyon. We spent an hour going through the museum. Following this feature we all loaded again and were in a big hurry to get to the canyons because every one was hungry.

Ten cents around, let us all go down the long roads, winding, turning, steep grades, across rock bed creek crossing and on through the gorgeous canyons to the lovely cabins where we stopped for the night. We felt rather important as the CCC men told us we were the first to occupy the cabins as they were just completed.

Every one was starved but not for long. Hot roasted weanies, big chicken salad sandwiches, pickles, tomatoes, cookies, iced tea and numerous other things were served for the evening meal. Games of all kinds, even races

FATHER AND SON EVENT SUCCESS

SPLENDID SPIRIT MARKS THE INITIAL MEETING OF THE FATHER-SON BANQUET

Some seventy fathers and sons gathered together Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church for what is believed will result in a permanent annual affair to promote a better comradeship between dad and son. The Tuesday affair was sponsored by the Lions Club of Dimmitt and proved such a grand success that it was voted to plan for another next year.

Lion President Ozro Stephens presided as toastmaster for the occasion and very capably kept the festivities running smoothly. Following the introduction of guests he made a few very timely remarks relative to such an occasion and expressed the appreciation of the Lions at being the hosts to such a fine gathering.

Robert Singer very aptly responded with the sentiments of the sons and appreciation at being allowed to banquet with the business men of Dimmitt.

Orlin Gibbs entertained the group with a violin solo with Mrs. Ted Woods accompanying at the piano.

Harold Stephens gave a splendid reading which brought to mind the ease with which one might and does neglect his best friend.

Billy Kirkpatrick took a playful poke at the dads present with a humorous reading regarding the report cards to the delight of every one present.

Carlos Reynolds made a splendid and interesting talk on the hobby of stamp and coin collecting and further suggested the fine pastime of each with interesting exhibits and facts concerning the stamps and their worth in monetary value.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dean were presented as guests of the evening and response was made by Mrs. Dean.

The banquet was adjourned by the singing of "America" with Lioness Dean at the piano.

and contests were played and enjoyed by all and we all met the Green family. Dimmitt Club won a year's subscription to the Federation paper in a contest, "smart chap they had on their side, yes sir!"

Bed time and beds were everywhere. Snore, snore, snore, but there were some two legged rats in camp. They got into the cookies, walked up to the neighbors and carried off some of the fruit and never got caught.

A sunrise devotional was conducted on the top of a big rocky hill with Mrs. Earl Lust in charge. Breakfast was served and camp was broken and we went to the "old swimming hole". Those who could not swim went wading and oh, the pretty unusual sights.

About 11:30 we found an oven, some tables, seats and drinking water near the creek under some huge green trees. For dinner we prepared eighteen chickens, a variety of vegetables and so many other good eats that are too numerous to mention. Every one seated themselves around a large concrete table and ate. When we were finished, we had to be taken away from the table with block and tackle, but such good eats could not be resisted.

At 2 p. m. we went into our regular Federation Meeting. Reports from all communities were given and approved.

The new officers for the year

COVER SEED TO BE GIVEN AWAY

SEED FOR REPLANTING WILL BE AVAILABLE WITHIN A FEW DAYS SAYS AGENT

The County Agent has been advised by H. H. Finnell, Regional Soil Erosion Director, that an initial allotment of 10,000 lbs. of hegari and milo seed has been made to Castro County for late cover crop planting and will be available through the County Agent's office in a few days.

The Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. D. A. are supplying this seed to farmers who will use it to plant on land where the crop has failed or was not planted.

It is not intended for production purposes but to help fill the gap in erosion resisting vegetation caused by failure of crops and neglect of land.

For example, land now being summer fallowed for wheat with no returns of straw and stubble this year will enter the winter solely dependent on the fall sown wheat for protection. Both soil and wheat can be made safer if a wide row or strip planting of sorghum is made soon.

The agreement necessary to get this seed is a simple and honest promise to leave an effective cover on the land through the winter. The land which goes into the winter without straw, stubble or stalks will continue to blow away and damage nearby crops as long as it remains in an exposed condition.

Th more bare fields that can be got under cover before fall the safer the condition will be generally for the next blow season. Therefore, everyone who does not now have a crop on the ground capable of leaving an effective residue behind is urged to obtain seed and plant at the first seasonable opportunity.

were installed as follows:

Mrs. Mark Cowsert, president; Mrs. Sid Sheffey, vice-president; Mrs. Ray Cowsert, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Cleo Richardson, Reporter.

The meeting adjourned to meet September 10 with the Junior Study club of Dimmitt.

The bus loaded, to gradually creep out of the canyons. When we were on top we visited the beautiful lodge which is now under construction.

Roll was called and all aboard for Dimmitt. We arrived back where we started from with good spirits and hope to go again and visit the gorgeously painted Palo Duro canyons.

Perhaps you would like to know who these lively women were: Mesdames R. B. Boren, R. E. Cogswell, Ray Cowsert, Ray Sheffey, Goodwin Miller, Mark Cowsert, and Willis Jones of Dimmitt.

Mesdames Albert Walthall, Vernon Simmons, Hoyt Redwine, Sid Sheffey and Miss Rebeka Mosier of Flag.

Mesdames Kay Roberts, J. G. Davis, Jim Bagwell, Earl Lust, Ralph Simmons, George Bagwell, Vern Lust and Cleo Richardson of Bethel.

Mr. Hugh Watts, bus driver, was the only man on the trip.

SATURDAY MARKET

A Saturday market at which everything for your Sunday dinner may be purchased will be held at the Rothwell Grocery all day this Saturday, by Mrs. L. A. Ricketts' Sunday School Class. The ladies promise to have the best in chickens, pies, cakes and other delicious edibles for your Sunday dinner. A visit will be appreciated.

MUCH WORK AHEAD ADJOURN NEXT MONTH? FOLLOWS COURT OPINION ROOSEVELT'S POSITION

CRITICS ASSAIL STAND AT THE "GRASS ROOTS" ADMINISTRATION PLAYED HAILING THE CONSTITUTION GRADE CROSSING PLANS FUND MUST GIVE JOBS

Congressmen are very much interested in adjournment and while the pressure is not the same that would be felt in an election year, with members anxious to get back home and worry on their fences, the summer heat in Washington is known far and wide and besides the present session, in more than five months, has seen very little accomplished compared to the lengthened "must" list that has been placed before the legislative branch by the President.

Estimates as to when adjournment will be possible range from some time in July to the first of September, with the chances being that the latter date will be nearer the end if all of the administration's measures are acted upon by the Senate. House Rules and machinery are such that measures can be jammed through but the debating Senators will take more time. Moreover, there is wide difference of opinion in the Senate, where individuals have reputations to maintain along certain lines and this requires speeches. Last week, however, the Senate showed signs of speeding its work. . . an indication of adjournment fever.

With the NRA-extension out of the way Congress faces new tasks in the comprehensive transportation control bill, the Wagner labor-disputes bill and the Guffey measure to control soft coal production—which were added to the "must" list when NRA blew up—and measures heretofore mentioned in these columns as urgently insisted upon besides a number of others, somewhat routine but necessary all the same, along the line of taxes and government contracts.

Meanwhile the President is apparently intent upon steering the New Deal along the lines marked out by the epochal decision of the Supreme Court, with some interesting speculation resulting. His mild NRA measure fails to please Labor leaders and there are those who hint that the Chief Executive is willing to see the country have a set-back in order to show the necessity of Federal control, denied by the Court. Some critics taunt him with backing down after declaring that his earlier announcement that the Court's decision had created an issue which the people must decide was subversive of orderly government. Friends of the President, however, insist that he strongly feels that his first duty is to seek recovery regardless of political effects.

In fact, it seems that Mr. Roosevelt is striving to work within the limits of the Court decision, while at the same time convinced that wider powers must be secured for the Federal government if social and economic problems of the present day are to be solved. He does not, of course, see anything to the "save the Constitution" cry of his opponents, believing that amendments to tie instrument are necessary and inevitable as the nation moves into its future, and that the surest way to preserve American government and the

FOUR TEAMS ARE TIED IN LEAGUE

FOUR TEAMS TIED FOR SECOND PLACE FOLLOWING SURPRISE UPSETS

The past week packed a wallop in the local softball league as surprise upsets occurred galore and left four clubs tied for second place with averages of 500 each while the High School lads maintained their 1000 percent standing and the Lumbermen turned in their initial win of the year Thursday afternoon in a startling upset by downing the Bakers, one of the circuit favorites in a well played decision 9 to 7, featuring a last minute attack which brought a rise in their percentage. The News machine jumped from the bottom of the heap in the most spectacular rise of the season with wins over the Lumbermen and the touted General Motors teams.

In last Thursday's game the undefeated Baker's and General Motors tangled in a thriller which saw the lead switch several times before the Baker's defense cracked permitting the winning tallies to trickle across the plate.

The Lumbermen and the News staged a battle royal for the cellar position before the largest gathering of the year and proceeded to give the fans the best and closest game of the league with the Printers humbling the Carpenters in the last half of the ninth inning.

The High School blasted out another win at the expense of a jittery Druggist team in the Monday offering while the News returned to the diamond Tuesday afternoon to wallop the favored General Motors club in a slow game. Imbued with a bit of confidence the Newsmen rang up their third straight victory Wednesday afternoon over Big Square in a free-swinging contest by a score of 21 to 15.

Constitution itself is to make both answer what he considers a demand from the average citizen for a bigger share of the nation's resources to support a better standard of living.

Critics of the administration, however, were sure last week that the people would respond to a demand that the Constitution be preserved and that no amendment be passed that will broaden the scope of Federal power or nullify the decision of the Court. Former President Hoover reiterated his charge that an effort was being made to build up an European government and the conference of Republicans at Springfield heard the suggestion that the party name be changed to "Constitutional" in order to emphasize adherence to the document. Plainly, the line-up last week indicated that the battle cry of 1936, on the Republican side, will center about the Constitution, with the assertion that it must be preserved against the Roosevelt attack.

Members of the Republican party from the Midwest States met last week in Springfield, Ill., to

LOSS IS SHOWN IN SCHOLASTICS

JUDGE ESTES WELL PLEASED WITH COUNTY SHOWING DESPITE CONDITIONS

A glance at the current scholastic census might make the average Castro citizen a bit worried for in the last three years scholastics have dropped some sixty-four.

However it must be remembered that the past three years have been anything but conducive to an increase in the scholastic population of the county. According to figures compiled by Judge Percy Estes the census for 1933-34 showed Dimmitt with a total of 265 scholastics and the rural section a total of 978 making a total of 1243 for the year. In 1934-35 Dimmitt registered a gain with a total of 297 while the rural total dropped to 944, for a combined total of 1241, a loss of two from the previous year. This year (1935-36) finds Dimmitt with a total of 298 while the rural total fell to 887, making a grand total of 1185.

According to a report from State Superintendent Woods the state apportionment has not been fixed entirely but is likely that it will be as good as this year, which was $16.50 per scholastic. This together with the county apportionment of $1.00 will make a total of $17.50 each.

catch the Lincoln spirit and to give utterance to a fiery denunciation of the Roosevelt administration, the reaffirmation of party principles of the past and to make plain that they want no alliance with disgruntled Democrats or change of party name. The throng that gathered was remarkable tribute to the party and evidenced renewed conviction that victory can be won next year.

The orators selected flayed the administration and the resolutions committee set forth an 18-point indictment, complaining against Mr. Roosevelt because he abandoned his platform for "dangerous and unsound" measures. His record was declared "subversive of our institutions," "conflicting, confusing and contradictory" and has retarded recovery. In brief, he did not economize, maintain a sound currency or stop borrowing; the government competes with private business, Congress is a body of "time servers" and the States are reduced to "provinces," crops have been reduced, food destroyed and land reclaimed at the same time, home markets are lost, competition destroyed and the Federal Reserve System is being reduced to a "political agency," a supine Congress votes huge sums for "secret purposes" and the President would scrap the Constitution for a "collectivist form of government."

The issue, says the resolutions, "is local self-government against centralized power; individual liberty against regimentation and collectivism." Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois and unsuccessful candidate for his party's nomination for the Presidency, keynoted that the G. O. P. must fight for the Constitution and other speakers followed the same line, with heavy attacks upon the administration, along the line of the usual convention oratory. Generally, the Republican Old Guard strength, with little representation given to leaders of the progressive wing.

It is too early to say whether the Springfield gathering speaks for the Republican party or not, but

OTHER WORK IS LIKELY TO BEGIN

CASTRO HIGHWAYS LIKELY TO RECEIVE NEEDED ATTENTION AT ONCE

A work order has been issued by the Texas Highway Department and the Texas Relief Commission for the completion of the grade on Highway 86 to the Swisher County line, work to begin this Monday morning. The work will be a continuation of the old relief project "B1-9" which was halted some months ago.

The project calls for three 4-up teams, 60 men and 1 truck with the finished job to cost approximately $10,000. The work will include some 6 miles remaining ungraded on Highway 86 East.

Only relief labor will be used to complete the work and these must be certified and issued work cards from the local relief office, according to Administrator Wade Dent.

In a telephonic conversation with Judge B. C. McCasland told The News editor that Swisher County had secured the entire right-of-way for Highway 86 and everything was being rushed by the Swisher county Commissioner's Court to insure a quick job of grading and drainage which will complete the proposed East and West Transcontinental highway.

Judge McCasland requested The News to carry greetings from the Swisher county citizens to the Castro citizenship and pledge their whole co-operation in securing a completed highway between the neighboring county seats.

Highway work also is being done on Highway 194 to Plainview as survey crews are nearing completion of the route from the end of the finished grade and drainage structure 8.8 miles south of Dimmitt to the paving 4.4 miles north of Plainview. The survey will follow closely to the south side of the Fort Worth & Denver railroad.

Surveyors state they will cover approximately eighteen miles in Hale county, two miles in Swisher and sixteen miles in Castro county.

The location survey is expected to be completed within about six weeks. Commissioners courts of the three counties through which the proposed project runs will secure their right-of-way through the various properties before the appropriation of funds for construction is made.

if it does the outlook for the 1936 campaign is plain, with a strong conservative course being followed to attract those opposed to the liberal policies of the administration. Observers saw the hand of Mr. Hoover moving behind the scene and some of the earlier promoters of the convention, like William Allen White, were apparently crowded out.

The $200,000,000 to be used in eliminating grade crossing hazards will be apportioned to the States on the basis of railroad mileage, with high-speed electric lines counted on the same basis as railroads. Ninety per cent of those employed on any project must be from relief rolls and forty per cent of the total cost must go to labor directly employed or on the basis of $1,400 total expenditure per man per year's work. The rules have been promulgated by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. Funds may be used for separation, reconstruction, protection or relocation of crossings.

THE WAY TO HAVE PEACE

The world has had some excellent object lessons in the past few years about how little the talk about peace will accomplish in preserving peace. Of course, the Japanese are giving the globe the premier example of the impotence of objection not backed by power and Italy appears on the sidelines, about ready to go and do likewise.

Maybe, in the course of a few years the people of the world will realize that if they expect to have world peace, with the observance of the rights of others, they must have armed forces ready to pounce upon a violator of pacts of peace, or other treaties stating definite rights and obligations.

For example, if Great Britain and the United States had joined navies when Japan took her first step in Manchuria and announced that they would be used, if necessary, to maintain the open door in China and the territorial integrity of that country there would have been no occasion to use them. Japan would have known just how far she could go.

THE CONSTITUTION

The people of Castro County have been interested in recent discussion of the Supreme Court's decision in regard to the NRA and have been hearing suggestions that the Constitution be amended in order to give to the Federal government undisputed power to deal with social and economic questions.

Inasmuch as the issue will no doubt be directly before us in the course of the next few years it might be well to understand a few things about the Constitution, the Courts and the government. The right to amend the document of our liberty is as aluable as the instrument itself and no founder of our government ever intended to deny to the people that privilege.

It is the function of the Supreme Court to interpret the Constitution and apply it in relation to new laws. That this was done in the NRA case cannot be doubted, nor does any person have the right to assail the judges because of their interpretation of interstate commerce.

It is, none the less, the right of the President, or any political group in this country, to propose amendments to the Constitution, and no one has any particular ground for criticism when such amendments are proposed. The sanctity of the Constitution is acknowledged when change is proposed through constitutionally provided methods.

It is, lastly, the right of the people of the United States, acting as provided by law, to amend, abolish or alter their Constitution. Whenever the required number of citizens of this republic believes that their welfare would be better safeguarded by such changes it is their perfect privilege to act and no one should criticize or attempt to abridge that right which is of vital importance. The Constitution is a great document of liberty only so long as it serves human needs and whenever it fails to do so reform is imperative.

There will most certainly be quite a battle in regard to widening the powers of the Federal government. The News believes in the Constitution and will fight to keep the fundamental principles of our forefather's government the sound and safe foundation of today's government.

Sunday School by HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS

International Sunday School Lesson for June 23, 1935.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation." Mark 16:15.

(Lesson Text: Acts 1:6-8; 13:1-12)

Other lesson material: Genesis 12:1-3; Isaiah 45:22; 49:6; Jonah 3:1-10; Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 16:6-10; 26:12-20.

At the eleventh and last appearance of Jesus to his disciples, after his resurrection, described in Acts 1:6-8, at the time of his ascension, he commanded his disciples to be witnesses "in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

The persecution which followed the martyrdom of Stephen caused the disciples to flee from Jerusalem. Some of them went to Antioch in Syria. This city was the capital of the Roman province of Syria, and was situated on the river Orontes, about twenty miles from its mouth.

Antioch was several centuries old and followed Rome and Alexandria in importance to the world of its day. Its main street, paved with marble and lined with a double colonnade, ran five miles. To it came the trade-laden caravans from Persia and India. Yet, with its luxury, it was known for its wickedness and corruption; so much so that the Roman Juvenal to signify the degradation of Rome said that the "Syrian Orontes has flowed into the Tiber."

The Christians who fled from Jerusalem to Antioch first preached the doctrine of the new faith to Jews only. Then they took a forward step and began preaching to the Greeks in Antioch, as well. The church at Jerusalem sent Barnabas to investigate the new development but he rejoiced in the work when he recognized the genuineness of the experiences of the Gentiles.

Fifteen years of the Christian era had passed and Antioch was to become the second birthplace of Christianity through its vision and wisdom in sponsoring the first missionary program of the new faith. Leadership in the Antioch church was in the hands of five men, named in the first verse of the thirteenth chapter, including Barnabas and Saul. Barnabas, after witnessing the activity of the Christian believers in Antioch, had remained in that city and become a part of this religious movement. A few years before the date of our lesson he had sent to Tarsus and influenced Saul to join him in Antioch, where they labored together.

The church at Antioch became convinced that Barnabas and Saul were destined for missionary work and after divine services these two leaders, with Mark, sailed for Cyprus, the birthplace of Barnabas. As Basil Matthews says: "Historically, this is the precise moment at which the foreign missionary enterprise actually began. The fact that we are Christians ourselves, dates back to the obedience of those men in that little ship. They took the little tree of Christianity and transplanted it from the cramping flower pot of Judaism into the soil of humanity of the whole world. It is apparently a tiny act which, in simple fact, when looked at down the perspective of the centuries, is seen to have changed the history of the world.

Cyprus was a large island, 150 miles long and 60 miles wide, and the missionary party worked it thoroughly from Salamis, a city on the eastern coast, to Paphos, on the western coast. Here they had their encounter with Elymas, the sorcerer, who attempted to prevent the Roman proconsul from becoming a convert. Here, Paul, steps to the forefront and is the agency by which the divine disapproval is made effective, and the conversion of Sergius Paulus made complete. This name is listed in profane records as a Roman official and in a Christian cemetery at Rome this name, with a slight variation, appears, thus substantiating the divine story.

While the miraculous punishment of Elymas played its part in the conversion of the Roman official we should remember that this was not the effective agency. As W. L. Watkinson says: "The miracle had its place as the bellman of the church, but the preacher's message was the secret of salvation. If the miracle had been more surprising than the message, Christianity would not have occupied the place that it does today. The doctrine of Christ is infinitely more convincing than any miracle he ever worked. If the great truths of the gospel do not find us, no sign or specter will avail. The grand appeal of the gospel is not to our wonder, but to the conscience and heart."

HAPPINESS

He builds his happiness out of these; Birds and blossoms and friendly tree; Books that stood on a little shelf, Three or four neighbors, much like himself, Th wife and children who bore his name And he asked no favor from wealth or fame.

He found delight in his garden plot, Knew marigold and forget-me not He walked the hills, and he fished in the stream With friends he trusted he shared his dream. He was sometimes merry and some times sad, But he made the most of what joys he had.

He found his thrills in the lesser things, The joys a blossoming peony brings The merry songs and the kindly The merry songs and the kindly mirth Of the gentle woman and men of earth. He thanks his God for the right to live, And he never asked more than life could give.

Seekers for happiness wander far And, oh, how jaded and tired they are, Forever pursuing the strange new thrill They never have caught and never will! But he found friendship and flowers and trees, And builded his happiness out of these.

PARKS WINS OPEN SOCCER TOUR ENDS CAMPBELL TO RETURN HEAVYWEIGHT BOXING BOUT CUP TEAM CROSSES RUTH'S MANY RECORDS IN SHORT—BASEBALL NOTES

Sam Parks, Jr., young 25-year old Pittsburgh professional, scored an unexpected victory over the cream of the American Golfing crop (minus Lawson Little) as he took first place honors in the National Open tourney at Oakmont, Pa. Parks was not thought of as a winner until the final round, when the continuation of his steady tournament play won for him over brilliant golf players of other tournaments who failed in the final test. Alvin Krueger led the field after the first days play with a round of 71, the only sub-par showing of the day. Close behind with a par 72 round was Roland Mackenzie, Washington, who has always listed the tough Oakmont course among his favorites.

The second day's play found Jimmy Thompson, Pacific Coast shotmaker, ahead of the pack by two strokes, with Krueger two strokes behind. Thompson finished that day just ahead of a rainstorm that wrought havoc with the nerves of the players who started their rounds later. The final day found Parks, continuing his steady play, coming up to tie Thompson in the first round of the day, and clipping a stroke from Thompson's performances in each of the last two nines, winning by that margin—2 strokes. Walter Hagen finished in third place with 302, one stroke behind Thompson and three behind the winner.

Soccer, a game that is gaining fast in popularity on this side of the Atlantic, was seen in this country recently played as only the Britons can play it. A Scottish soccer squad has just completed a tour of the Eastern States and Canada in which many games were played with furious teams of this continent. The Scottish crew won eleven straight victories over its opponents, and ended with a perfect record as it defeated a select squad at Newark, 4 to 1. Experts say that soccer's popularity over here is only just beginning, and that soon the whole America will be adopting it, just as the Japanese have captured our national sport, baseball.

Sir Malcolm Campbell, who is the present holder of the automobile speed record, has announced his intentions of attempting to improve his present mark of 276.816 miles per hour, made at Daytona Beach, Florida, March 7 of this year. Speaking before an advertising club lunch gathering in London, Campbell stated that he may make his attempt at Salt Lake City within the next two months. In explaining the change from his customary plans of using Daytona as a speedbed, he disclosed that it would be impossible for his car to reach the 300-mile speed on the Florida sands, and that his new location is sure to provide for him more perfect conditions than at the unsure beach.

Jim Braddock's startling victory over champ Maxie Baer goes to show that ballyhoo of just a so-so boxer will give said competitor just the confidence needed to start him on the road to victory. Experts contended before the Baer Braddock set-to that all the talk of Jesse J's sudden ability as a fighter was just what was needed to bring out the cash customers to the bout. As it is, Braddock has made them all look sick and is now on top of the boxing world. It is generally rumored that his next opponent will be the winner of the Joe Lewis-Carnera battle scheduled for Wednesday, June 26, or Max Schmeling, former title holder.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dean and son, Harold, are visiting in Clinton Oklahoma.

The United States Davis Cup tennis team is now in England where it will soon undertake to bring back to America the elusive cup. Members of the official party making the trans-oceanic trip were Wilmer Allison, Sidney B. Wood, John Van Ryn, Gene Mako, and Donald Budge, players; non-playing captain Joseph W. Wear, Trainer Harry Hillsan, and Mrs. Wood.

At this writing, Babe Ruth is not officially connected with baseball, though rumors go the rounds of managerial jobs which the Babe is said to be considering. During Ruth's twenty-two season's in baseball, he amassed a total of no less than seventy-six records. G. W. Daley of the New York Times, has compiled these records through official statistics including last season. The chief of these follow:

- Most home runs--708
- Most home runs in a season--50
- Most runs in a season--177
- Most runs batted in--2,197
- Most bases on balls--2,036
- Most strike-outs--1,306
- Most world series played in--10
- Highest world series batting average--.625
- Most runs batted in, total series--33
- Most home runs, total series--15
- Most home runs in series game--3 (twice)
- Most total bases, total series--96
- Most bases on balls, total series--33
- Most strike-outs total series--30
- Pitched most consecutive scoreless innings, total series--29

Rounding the bases—Hug Walker, outfielder, has been repurchased by the Tigers from Toledo, while Fred Marberry, ace pitcher of several years ago, has been released. . . . Only one hit was made in a recent Kitty League game won by Union City, 1 to 0. Bubba Mason was the no-hit hurler and Buford Taylor, Jackson pitcher. . . . Alabama Pitts, paroled from Sing Sing, was given the right to play professional baseball by Judge Landis after quite a squabble. . . . Dizzy Dean is "on the spot" as a result of his recent outbursts of temperament thrust toward fellow Cardinals.

Consumers who are yelling about the price of meat might be interested to know that cattle and calves on farms, as of Jan. 1, 1935, totaled 60,667,000. There were only 56,701,000 head in 1928 and the ten year average is 61,257,000. While retail beef prices were 39 per cent higher during the first four months of this year than they were in 1933, they were still about 24 per cent lower than in 1929.

mittee on Allotments is meanwhile studying plans to spend the $4,000,000,000 fund voted by Congress, with the idea of finding projects which will provide maximum employment. The first billion dollars worth of projects approved, it is realized, included many calling for skilled labor and heavy cost for materials but the emphasis is being placed now upon job-giving qualities. Incidentally, the PWA interest rate on loans to States and communities has been put back to four per cent, where it was when the Federal donation was raised from 30 to 45 per cent. Grants, says Mr. Ickes, will be made only where states and cities are able to supply the remaining costs from their own funds or through private loans.
