Sheriff's office snuffs tobacco sales to kids

Survey Says:

A 1989 survey by the Texas Dept. of Health says that 70% of all boys who are seniors in high school and 13% of the senior girls have used smokeless tobacco.

Local merchants have been warned by letter about how selling tobacco to minors is illegal.

Now, they could be the subject of undercover work with minors making controlled buys to see if they can buy cigarettes, snuff and other tobacco products at stores in Castro County.

Sheriff CD Fitzgearld said Friday his department will be making "controlled buys" over the next seven months with minors attempting to buy tobacco products.

If minors are successful, charges will be filed against the vendor and the employee, with a fine of up to $500.

"Warning letters have been sent out to retailers in this area about the project, and include a copy of the applicable law," Fitzgearld said.

Deputy Richard Spears, the DARE officer in Castro County, is heading the project.

"This is not an issue regarding adult use of tobacco, but an issue about protecting our children from an addictive drug," Spears said. "Our department and local educators work hard to teach kids the dangers of tobacco use, so it's frustrating to see that local vendors are selling cigarettes and snuff to young kids."

Spears and Fitzgearld said the key is prevention, education, and getting stores to stop selling tobacco products to children.

"A lot of hard work lies ahead to turn around the current tobacco trend of minors and tobacco," Spears said. "Tobacco is more addictive than cocaine, and costs millions in health care costs. We can't ignore this issue—our children's health, future and quality of life are at stake."

About 3 million American children under age 18 consume 947 million packs of cigarettes and 26 million containers of smokeless tobacco annually. These tobacco products account for annual sales of $1.26 billion. About 3% of tobacco industry profits derive directly from the sale of cigarettes to children—activity that is illegal in more than 40 states, including Texas.

About half of the tobacco industry's profits, $3.35 billion a year, derives from sales to people who became addicted to nicotine as children, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association.

It's been against the law to sell tobacco to minors in Texas since 1989, but the law has been largely ignored. A TDH survey showed children are successful 60% to 80% of the time when they try to buy tobacco products.

"Contributing factors include a lack of knowledge about the law by vendors and employees, and a general attitude that it is not a law expected to be enforced," Fitzgearld said.

The local push is part of a statewide effort to crack down on illegal tobacco sales.

"The law enforcement officials of Castro County feel very strongly about protecting the children of our area from alcohol, tobacco and other drugs known to harm them physically, psychologically and mentally," Fitzgearld said.

"We hope that local retailers will cooperate and check the I.D. of all young people who try to buy tobacco products," said Spears. "Selling cigarettes to a minor is a mistake, and it could also be a very expensive mistake."

According to 357 news media executives responding to an Associated Press survey, these were the nation's Top Ten News Stories of 1994:

1. The O. J. Simpson case.
2. Revolution at the ballot box in the November elections.
3. Major league baseball and hockey labor troubles.
4. Susan Smith, who drowned her two sons and claimed they had been kidnapped.
5. The Nancy Kerrigan-Tonya Harding controversy.
6. The Haitian crisis and US intervention.
7. Failed health care reform.
8. Southern California earthquake.
9. Rwanda's ethnic massacres and refugee crisis.
10. Palestinians replacing Israeli occupiers in the Gaza Strip and Jericho.

The second 10, in descending order:

South Africa's first democratic elections make Nelson Mandela president; ongoing war in Bosnia; the death of Richard Nixon at 81; the US signing of the GATT world trade treaty; the rash of US plane crashes; Jackie Kennedy Onassis' death at 64; six interest rate hikes by the Federal Reserve; Lorena Bobbit deemed not criminal but crazy when cutting off her then-husband's penis; CIA veteran Aldrich Ames and his wife, Rosario, confessing to selling US secrets to Moscow; American Michael Fay caned for vandalism in Singapore.

A friend commented Sunday that the Top Ten list was depressing because it was mostly bad news.

Well, yes. We'll naturally crowd around a fight, but we pay little attention to people hugging.

To keep 1994 from looking like such a bummer, though, here are some of the past year's more whimsical tidbits about the media circus and the denizens who toil therein, compiled by Chip Rowe for the American Journalism Review:

Zero-tolerance policy

Police cracking down on curfew

After a rash of vandalism over the weekend, Dimmitt police have adopted a zero-tolerance policy towards violators of the curfew ordinance in Dimmitt.

If you're under 17 and caught out after hours, you will be picked up, your parents called, and a court summons issued.

The zero-tolerance policy was enforced beginning Monday night after 16 reports of vandalism in the previous three days throughout the city. Several cars were damaged in the vandalism spree, which will cost several thousand dollars, police said.

"A parent is in violation if they allow a child to be out past 11 p.m. on any day that precedes a school day," said Chief of Police Dewayne Haney. "On any Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday night, the curfew is midnight. On other nights, the curfew is from 1 a.m. to 5:30 a.m. The ordinance has been in effect since March 7, so everyone should be aware of it by now."

If a child is caught out after curfew, a parent is called to the scene. The parent is issued a summons to appear in municipal court on the court's next working day, and the child is turned over to the parents.

Dimmitt police were fairly lenient in their enforcement of the ordinance over the past 10 months, with only 34 summons issued. There was only one repeat offender. The leniency extended to one youngster who was "within hours of turning 17," Haney said. That youth was not written up. Several others were simply reminded of the ordinance and went home.

Dimmitt crime in '94

Here are some figures from the final crime stats for Dimmitt in 1994.

Total arrests:	234
DWI/alcohol cases:	108
Traffic accidents:	142
Vandalism:	95
Assaults:	98

Nominations due Friday for top citizen awards

If you know someone who has worked to make our community extra special, you can ensure that individual gets the recognition he or she deserves by nominating him or her for one of the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce's citizen awards.

Deadline for nominations for Citizen of the Year, Citizen Through the Years and Teacher of the Year awards is Friday, and the Chamber hasn't received a single nomination form, yet.

Forms have been picked up, but no one has returned a completed form. Anyone who wishes to nominate an individual can pick up a form at the Chamber office, and it must be returned by Friday.

Winners will be announced at the Chamber's annual banquet, which will be held Jan. 21 at the Expo Building. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students and may be purchased in advance at Sheffy's Western Wear, Tots and Teens or the Chamber office.

Theme for this year's banquet is Growing in Harmony. It will begin at 7 p.m. with a steak dinner catered by the Methodist Men.

Avery Thrasher and Cheryl Pybus will emcee this year's program and entertainment will be provided by the musical group, Harmony, which features former Dimmitt resident Zelda Ellison.

Inmates complaining about jail temperature

The temperature in the Castro County jail has sparked complaints from inmates during the last two months, but action by commissioners Monday should alleviate the problem.

Commissioners met Monday for the first time this year, with new county judge, Irene Miller, presiding over the meeting.

County Sheriff CD Fitzgearld told commissioners he has received several complaints from inmates about the temperature in the jail. He admitted the temperature had fallen below the allowed minimum of 65 a time or two, but added that it wasn't low for more than an hour. He had Newton Electric come in and service the heating unit.

Fitzgearld said the lines were "stopped up," and Newton "blew the lines out, and now we're getting heat."

He also told commissioners that part of the stationary units are rusted out and need to be repaired.

Commissioners agreed to contact Johnson and Johnson, who recently worked on the courthouse's heating and cooling system, about checking out the system and giving an estimate of needed repairs.

Fitzgearld also alleged that some of the prisoners have been "turning the heat off at night, then they complain in the morning that it's cold. They take sheets or linens and tie them together, then tie a cup to the linens and throw the cup over the switch and are able to turn it off," he said.

Commissioners asked Fitzgearld if it was possible to cover the switches, and he said he was checking on options.

Commissioners also took a step toward eliminating some of the county's expenses Monday when they agreed to go out for bids for vending machines for the courthouse.

Castro County has been paying to stock soft drink and candy machines, and had budgeted $6,000 this year for the beverages and snacks.

The county has been paying more

Landlords talk trash with city

Two owners of multi-family properties had some trash talk with the Dimmitt City Council on Monday.

They said rates charged for garbage service were inconsistent and probably unfair—for the city and property owners.

In fact, Jerry Stump told the board he is probably being undercharged for trash service at Stafford Apartments.

Stump and Lyman Schroeder asked the city to consider how rates are determined and asked that rates be the same for multi-family dwellings.

Schroeder said he is paying a rate of $21 apiece, for dumpsters at a duplex he co-owns at NW Fifth and Halsell. The dumpsters are shared by the duplex occupants, a dentist office, a beauty salon and a private residence. However, at Country

Arms Apartments he is charged $8 per tenant.

"At Country Arms, we also share dumpsters with people who live around there," Schroeder said. "...There needs to be some way where we don't have to do that or somehow that is recognized."

The dumpsters at Stafford Apartments are also shared, Stump said, with "trash from out in the county."

Stump said he couldn't understand the rate structure. He said the way he is charged at Stafford Apartments is not the same as Schroeder is charged at Country Arms.

"I came down here to get some help to figure it out and the ladies in the office gave me a copy of a mobile home ordinance," Stump said. "My interpretation is that we're talking about two different things here."

Stump and Schroeder suggested that a rate be devised for multi-family dwellings so that apartment complexes, duplexes, triplexes and others have similar rates.

"Even though it would cost me more, maybe it should be so much per tenant," Stump said. "There just needs to be some consistent way."

"Let us look into it and see what we need to do," Mayor Wayne Collins said. "We'll get some recommendations. We want to look for more uniformity so you know where you stand."

Joey Waldo is PSHOF tennis coach of the year

Nazareth tennis coach Joey Waldo will be honored by the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame as tennis coach of the year after guiding three players to the Class A state tournament last year.

Waldo coached Scott Brockman and Alston Farris to the Class A doubles crown while Melinda Schmucker finished as a Class A singles semifinalist. Brockman's and Farris's title was the school's 20th state championship in tennis.

Waldo will be honored on Feb. 12 during the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame Ceremonies at Amarillo College's Ordway Auditorium. The ceremony is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. and will feature inductions into the hall of fame, with the late Kenneth Cleveland, longtime Dimmitt boys' basketball coach, among the inductees.

Waldo took over the reigns as Nazareth tennis coach in 1991 and he has taken at least three players to state each year. In 1991 Adrian Farris won the boys' state singles championship while Jodi Johnson competed in girls' singles and Stephanie Farris and Natalie Schmucker played doubles. In 1992, Johnson and Natalie Schmucker teamed to win the girls' doubles title and Adrian Farris finished as a state finalist. The 1993 season saw Adrian Farris claiming his second state title under Waldo's coaching, with Brockman and Alston Farris reaching the doubles finals.

Waldo joins a list of several Nazareth tennis coaches to be honored by PSHOF. Among those are Brenda Durrett Schulte, who won the award in 1977 and 1981; Joe King, who was honored in 1973; and Sandy Oliver Heiman, who was named coach of the year for the 1986, 1987 and 1988 seasons.

Naz opens district play with sweep

Nazareth opened District 7-A play Tuesday with a sweep of Bovina teams at Nazareth.

The Swiftettes blitzed the Fillies, 66-33, while the Swifts corralled the Mustangs, 81-40.

Melinda Schmucker had 27 points while Amy Pohlmeier and Kelley Boyd each canned 11 to lead Naz to the 33-point win in the girls' game. Naz rolled to a 28-9 lead at halftime.

In the boys' contest, Nazareth raced to a 23-8 lead at the end of the first quarter and coasted to the 41-point win.

Colby Pohlmeier had 24 points and Scott Brockman added 17 to lead Naz.

Letter Apologies

Dear Editor:

The success of the Dimmitt High School choir program has resulted from broad community support in all that we do. From our candy sales to our annual spring dinner theater, we depend on the community to help us participate in contests and to take trips to these contests.

We wish to explain the condition of the poinsettias that the public faithfully purchased.

The greenhouse people we did business with fired their experienced personnel and hired people who knew nothing about flowers. Because of their inexperience they killed a whole house of "Jingle Bells" poinsettias and gave the rest poor treatment. When we sent in our first order, the workers did not reserve our flowers. Plainview Choir sold 10,000 plants and went to Amarillo to pick up their order. When they did this, no one was around and they took most of the flowers that belonged in our order. Hence, we did not receive two colors, and the rest of the flowers were the runts of the bunch.

We wish the public to know the reason behind the sorry condition of the flowers. We have canceled our contract with this greenhouse for next year. We have already contracted with a San Antonio greenhouse that guarantees each plant and ships them in a refrigerated truck. This greenhouse promises to provide a better quality of service and flower. In fact, they are developing a new flower for next Christmas. It promises to be something new and very unique.

We want to express our apologies to those who bought flowers this year, but hope for your continued support in the future.

"I think it's costing too much," said Pct. 4 Commissioner Vincent Guggemos. "We need to let a vendor put the machines in and service them."

Pct. 3 Commissioner Bay Baldrige told commissioners several citizens at Easter had approached him about the possibility of installing some type of signal light at the intersection of FM 2397 and FM 1055.

"There have been many hits and near misses at that intersection and the residents feel that something tragic may happen soon," Baldrige said. "There is a lot of traffic in that area, mostly from trucks, and there's a new business out there—Raincat International—and that will increase traffic, too."

Baldrige said he had contacted the highway department and a study will be performed on the site, recording traffic, accident history and other data, and that information will help determine if there is a need for a signal light.

Castro County's DARE officer, Richard Spears, will receive a new computer.

A $2,000 grant is available this year for the purchase of a computer for the DARE program, but to receive the money, the county must match that amount.

Commissioners agreed to do that, using some donated funds from local organizations with the county funding the rest.

Hospital Board appoints Sides

In a called luncheon meeting last Wednesday, the Hospital Board appointed Carolyn Sides to fill the unexpired term of Garland Coleman, former board chairman who resigned in December.

The term runs until May 1. During the luncheon session, the board also voted to make job offers to two physicians on its list of applicants, and interviewed Dr. Richard W. Naylor, a Navy osteopath who has applied for a post with Castro County Community Clinics.

Board Chairman James Welch said the board is now awaiting a reply from the two doctors.

Lady 'Horns back in first in District 3-2A

Hart's girls are back in first place today after they dumped Lockney, 56-31, on Tuesday and Springlake-Earth outlasted the Abernathy girls in triple overtime, 48-47.

Hart, S-E and Abernathy are all tied at 4-1 with two games to play in the first half. Hart has already beaten S-E in the first half.

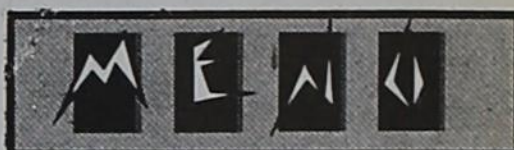

The Hart girls dispatched the Lockney girls with ease Tuesday. Hart rolled to a 13-4 lead at the end of the first quarter, and led 27-13 at halftime. The Lady 'Horns went on to lead 43-21 after three quarters.

Shea Bennett led Hart with 23 points. Traci Knox was next with eight.

The Hart boys lost their second-straight conference game Tuesday with a 68-52 loss to Lockney.

J.R. Lee had 25 points to boost Hart. The Hart boys were behind by just one, 14-13, at the end of one but the Lockney bunch steadily pulled away during the game.

On Friday, the Hart boys fell to Abernathy, 69-41.

On the Go

With Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Visiting recently with Bill and Dee Brisco were Jimmy, James, Jeff and Jody Gothard of Arlington. They enjoyed pheasant hunting.

Bill and Dee Brisco spent Christmas in Wichita, Kan. with their son and his family, SFC Rick and Sandy Yates, Sean and Linzy.

Lois Timmons of Whitney visited with Bill and Dee Brisco the week after Christmas.

The Hubert Edwards family gathered on Dec. 11 for a Christmas dinner and celebration, complete with a Christmas tree.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tunnel of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Edwards of Tahoka and Mrs. Leroy Edwards of Adrian, who came on Saturday and spent the night. The grandchildren all came with their families on Sunday. The 39 people enjoyed dinner, the tree and visiting through Sunday.

On Sunday, Dec. 18, Hubert and Willie Mac went to Lubbock for open house at the home of Hubert's nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Edwards.

On Christmas day the Edwardses went to Amarillo to have Christmas again, this time with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tunnell. It was another great time.

Jewell Connell and Joy Jones were on the go the week before Christmas. They went to Odessa where Jewell visited her daughter and Joy visited a cousin and aunt. The day after Christmas they left for Grand Junction to visit more family and to attend the wedding of Jewell's grandson, Corbin Connell, and Karen Farena of Grand Junction, Colo. Corbin is the son of Richard and Johnna Connell, formerly of Dimmitt, and grandson of Odus and Emma Lou Hastings.

Jewell got to visit another grandson from California, who was in Colorado for the wedding, Jarin Connell. He left on Jan. 2 for Yuma, Ariz., to start a six-weeks training session at the police academy. He will teach scuba diving at Lake Havasu.

Ruth Cochran went to Texarkana during the Christmas holidays. She and her stepmother, Margaret, served lunch to ten friends from the Presbyterian Church of the Redeemer on Wednesday, Dec. 21. On Christmas Eve, Ruth and Margaret went to Rockwall to spend Christmas with Margaret's daughter, Elise LaRue and her family. Ruth, Margaret, Elise, and Elise's daughter, Dawn, attended the Christmas Eve Communion Service at First Presbyterian Church in Rockwall.

Ruth spent the next week helping her aunt, Ovida Orr, with some things. Ruth traveled to Childress on Dec. 31 and picked up Maxine Myers and they returned to Dimmitt on New Year's Day.

On Monday, Jan. 2, Betty and Ed Freeman entertained Ruth and Maxine with a birthday luncheon in Ruth's honor. It was the perfect end to a wonderful holiday vacation.

Maxine Myers rode as far as Childress with Ruth Cochran as she was going to Texarkana. Maxine spent the holidays with her aunt, Martha Lou McKee and her family.

Decimae Dennis of Midland drove several miles from place to place for her Christmas holidays. She went to Goldthwaite to be with her sister-in-law and family, Mona Dennis and sons, Brent and Eric, who are both in the Marines and were home for Christmas.

She traveled to Dimmitt and enjoyed being with the "little ones," Connie and Coby Gilbreath and children; and Debbie and Danny Underwood and children. She also enjoyed spending time with her brother, Edgar Dennis and his wife, Leta, who moved into a new home. One day Decimae went to Amarillo to visit her aunts, Jauvada Curtis and Mary Pyatt.

Mable Brock enjoyed Christmas with her son and his family, Dr. Bob and Pat Brock, in Palestine. Reb and Leslie Brock and children, Logan, Cooper and Tanner, came in from Las Cruces, N.M. and Shea Brook came from Dallas. Ramona Brock, who is attending college at Nacogdoches, came in to be with the family.

Jay Lee and Reba Touchstone went to Washington, D.C. to visit Jay Lee's sister, Maxine Childers, for their Christmas celebration. Maxine's son, Truitt Childers of Austin, was there for all the fun as well. Maxine is a former Dimmitt resident and we will have more news about her later.

Kate Beecher attended the wedding of her niece, Beverly, who married Mike Hendrix (we don't know if he is related to me). The ceremony was performed in the beautiful home of Beverly's parents, Dr. Ben and Betty Bowden of Dallas. A delicious meal was catered to the 50 invited guests, along with a wedding cake and champagne. Later, another reception was held in a larger place for many other friends. Beverly has four brothers, Barry, Brian, Brad and Blakc. This family is known as the "Seven Bs," even the dog and cat have names that begin with the letter "B."

Alvin Frazier told me he had word that Gene Hollums had died. Gene and his family were former Dimmitt residents and were living in Missouri now. The Hollumses were members of Lee Street Baptist church and Gene worked for me when I had to manage our store, Dimmitt Implement, after my husband died in 1961.

Most of the college kids have returned to school after the holidays. I saw some including Ty Annen, Barry Hill, Matt Sims and Nikki Kenley. I know there were many more. Let me know if your student was home for the holidays.

Several from Dimmitt attended the Community Concert in Hereford on Saturday night. Brenda Boozer, a Mezzo Soprano, was the guest artist and she was accompanied by Ford Lallerstedt on the piano. She sang a few familiar songs that we enjoyed including Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair, Habanera from Carmen, Let us Break Bread Together, He's Got the Whole World in His Hands and Amazing Grace.

We need to know if Miss Boozer is related to the Boozer family that we know in Dimmitt. She is from Atlanta, Ga.

The next concert in Hereford will be Feb. 5, with John Bayless and the next concert in Plainview will be at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 22 with the New York Vocal Arts Ensemble performing. If you are a member of the Community Concerts Association, please use your tickets.

If anyone ever had a Merry Christmas, Ida Mae Moore did this year.

She went to El Paso to be with her oldest son, Wendell, and his family. She spent two weeks there, but said time flew by fast.

Her first party was on Dec. 19 when Pat's family (her daughter-in-law), had a Christmas party for younger children. Everyone provided a covered dish and we provided karaoke and Christmas music. The older folks watched the children sing and play for the first hour, then had a sit-down Christmas dinner and fellowship. After finishing the feast, the children continued to sing Christmas songs while the older folks enjoyed visiting and listening to the music. The real fun came when the Joly Old Elf himself dropped in for a visit. Santa brought gifts for all the kids and some of the adults.

The count-down to Christmas was heating up. Thousands of people were in the malls, Christmas music was playing, Santa was talking to children, lights and decorations were everywhere. Moore said they probably shopped at 50 stores the week before Christmas. They ate everything from Mexican food to seafood. They went to CiCi's Pizza, which has a one-price all-you-can-eat buffet. Another restaurant was Home Town Buffet, which featured all the food and drink you can handle for one price, with a buffet including salads, meats, vegetables, breads and desserts.

One evening while driving home after shopping, they decided to see homes in the East Ridge area. The lights and other decorations were really something to see. There were so many lights and displays, even driving very slow it was difficult to see everything, but Moore said it was absolutely beautiful.

They drove through Phelps Dodge, a copper smelter, and enjoyed the decorated trees and bushes on the main street to the plant.

On Christmas Day she enjoyed another family meal. There was a lot of fun and fellowship, and she enjoyed it all, and said the "greatest thing about all this is that I was there and was made to feel like one of the family. That is the most wonderful feeling."

Thank you for shopping Dimmitt!

Bradley, Axtell exchange vows on Christmas day

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Axtell are home in Lubbock after their Christmas wedding and a honeymoon in New Orleans, La.

The double-ring ceremony was held Christmas Day in the home of Lee and Louise Bradley of Sunnyside with Johnny Robertson, of the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt, officiating.

The bride is the former Sharon Bradley, daughter of Lee and Louise Bradley of Sunnyside. Parents of the groom are Charles and Diane Axtell of Dimmitt.

The couple recited their vows while standing before a mantle decorated with mauve roses, burgundy beads, greenery, brass candlesticks with hunter green candles and a coordinating wreath, which hung above the mantle.

A Christmas tree was placed to the left of the couple and it was decorated with burgundy bows and beads, mauve roses and mauve glass balls.

To the couple's right stood two brass candelabras with hunter green candles and a candlelight hand-carved unity candle with tapers.

The groom's father sang What Child Is This as the couple's mothers and grandmothers were seated. Pianist Harold Dean Carson, the bride's great-uncle, played a medley of Christmas carols and classical music by Beethoven as the bride descended the staircase. Bonnie Carson, the bride's aunt, sang Surround Me With Love, and joined the groom's father in performing To Me as the couple lit the unity candle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of antique candlelight lace designed with a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and a chapel-length train. The gown featured pearl accents. Satin covered buttons were down the back of the gown to the lowered basque waistline.

She carried a bouquet of candlelight magnolias accented with gold beads and white, gold and burgundy ribbons. Attached to her bouquet was an antique handkerchief from Paris, France, which was sent to the bride's grandmother by the bride's grandfather during World War II. She also wore a ring which had been given to the groom's mother by the late Stefanie Love.

Matron of honor was Heather Bradley of Sunnyside, the bride's sister-in-law. She wore a hunter green penne velvet dress with long sleeves, a boat neckline and princess style waistline. She carried a single magnolia and single burgundy rosebud accented with white and gold ribbons.

Best man was Michael Ethridge of Canyon, friend of the groom. The groom and best man wore dark red rose boutonnières.

Welcoming guests at the front door were Jack and Justin Bradley, brothers of the bride; and Deakon Carson, cousin of the bride. Guests were registered by Greg George of Austin, brother of the bride.

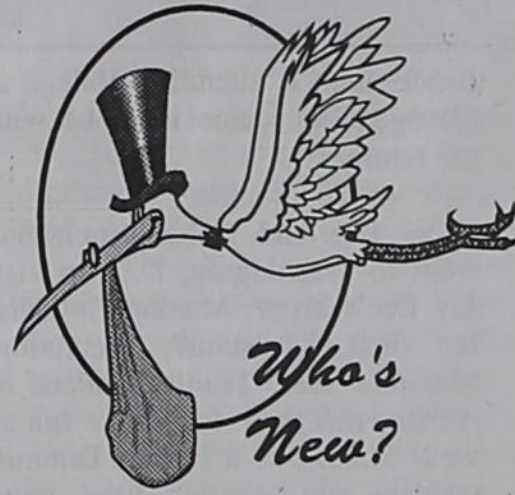

A reception followed in the Bradleys' home.

The groom's table was covered with an off-white cloth and it held a burgundy and rose silk floral arrangement with burgundy candles. Pick-up foods were served from the table by Holly Axtell, sister of the groom.

The bride's table was covered with a candlelight cloth, and a hand-crocheted overlay. Her table held a three-tiered candlelight wedding cake served by Kassi Bradley of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride. A brass tea and coffee service was used for spiced cider and coffee, and it was served by Greg George, brother of the bride.

The bride graduated in December from West Texas A&M University in Canyon with a bachelor of applied arts and science degree. She is employed as an administrative assistant with the accounting firm of Robinson, Burdette, Martin and Cowan in Lubbock.

The groom is a senior at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, majoring in animal science. He plans to further his studies in veterinary medicine at Texas A&M University.

MRS. KEVIN SCHOLL
... nee Traci Hill

Hill and Scholl wed in Holy Family Church

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Scholl are home in Wichita Falls after exchanging wedding vows on Dec. 30 in Holy Family Catholic Church at Nazareth.

The bride is the former Traci Rancee Hill, daughter of Charley and Beverly Hill of Nazareth. The groom is the son of Guy and Yvonne Scholl of Wichita Falls and Jonathan and Jeanette Gaddy of Ardmore, Okla.

Father Neal Dee, pastor of Holy Family Church, officiated at the nuptial service.

Music was provided by Mary Lynn Olvera, who accompanied soloists Greg and Glenda Birkenfeld of Nazareth, the bride's aunt and uncle.

Deanna Baker of Burkburnett, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Marla Ramackers of Canyon, Stephanie Behrends of Amarillo, Michelle Zuege of Wichita Falls, Missy Klemman of Nazareth and Misty Maxfield of Lubbock, all friends of the bride; Natalie Grosser of Houston and K'Lynn Gerber of Nazareth, cousins of the bride.

Best man was Guy Scholl of Wichita Falls, the groom's father. Groomsmen were Todd Hill of Dallas, brother of the bride; Shawn Scholl of Oklahoma City, Okla., brother of the groom; Kendall Roberts of Wichita Falls, cousin of the groom; Wade Hoelting of Nazareth, cousin of the bride; Harold Gerber of Plainview, uncle of the bride; and James Achilles of Wichita Falls, friend of the groom.

Junior bridesmaid was Lindsey Scholl, the groom's daughter, and she was escorted by Ian Bradburn, a friend of the bride.

Flower girl was Lauren Scholl of Wichita Falls, daughter of the groom.

Serving as ring bearer was Kyle Bradburn of Wichita Falls, a friend of the bride.

Barry Hoelting, Monty Hoelting and Jason Birkenfeld, all of Nazareth, cousins of the bride, were mass servers. Readers were Cory Hoelting of Tulia, a cousin of the bride, and Debbie Russell of LaGrange, friend of the bride.

Lighting candles were Jenny Gerber of San Marcos, cousin of the bride; and Krista Brown of Scott City, Kan., the bride's niece.

The groom is employed by the Wichita Falls Fire Dept. and the bride works for the Petrolia Independent School District.

Sports

Dimmitt teams blast Floydada

Dimmitt squelched Floydada's girls in their district opener, 55-19, then downed the Whirlwinds 87-62 in the boys' game Friday at Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium at Dimmitt Middle School.

The boys' contest was a little closer than the 25-point margin indicated, but the girls' game was a blowout from the second minute of the contest.

Between Floydada's second and third points in the game, every fan could have left, got a soft drink at any local drive-in and gone back to the game. The Lady 'Winds went scoreless from 7:10 in the first quarter, when Dana McCandless scored to make it 3-2 Dimmitt, until the 2:13 mark in the second when Floydada made a free throw to slice the score to 22-3. Floydada didn't score another basket until 7:06 left in the third, when McCandless scored another basket to make it 26-5.

"We really got after them on defense," said Dimmitt coach Richard Wood. "I was a little worried after we went over to Clovis and didn't play very well, but we really got after them."

Kara Josselet gave Dimmitt the lead early when she made a three-pointer to open the game. After McCandless's basket to make it 3-2, the Bobbies ran off to a 9-2 lead in the first four minutes. The Bobbies then missed six straight shots before scoring again late in the quarter to make it 11-2 at the end of the quarter.

The Bobbies slowed things down in the second quarter, becoming more methodical on offense and rolling to a 22-2 lead with 3:19 to go in the half. Meanwhile, the Dimmitt defense forced over a dozen Floydada turnovers. Bobbie defenders stayed in the face of Floydada's shooters so that when shots were attempted, they were bricks.

Floydada came on to score 16 points in the second half (eight in each quarter), but the Bobbies turned their offense up to score 31 points in the last two quarters.

Kim Thomas led Dimmitt with 16 points, while Josselet chipped in 12.

The boys' game wasn't a nail-biter over the last three quarters, but the Bobcats didn't put the Whirlwinds completely away until the fourth quarter.

The pesky 'Winds were led by junior post Zack Abshier, who scored 30 points. Abshier was almost on his own underneath though, and that left Justin Newman and Chad Ellis plenty of chances to score. They led Dimmitt with 21 and 18 points, respectively, while Brandon Smith came off the bench for 11 points.

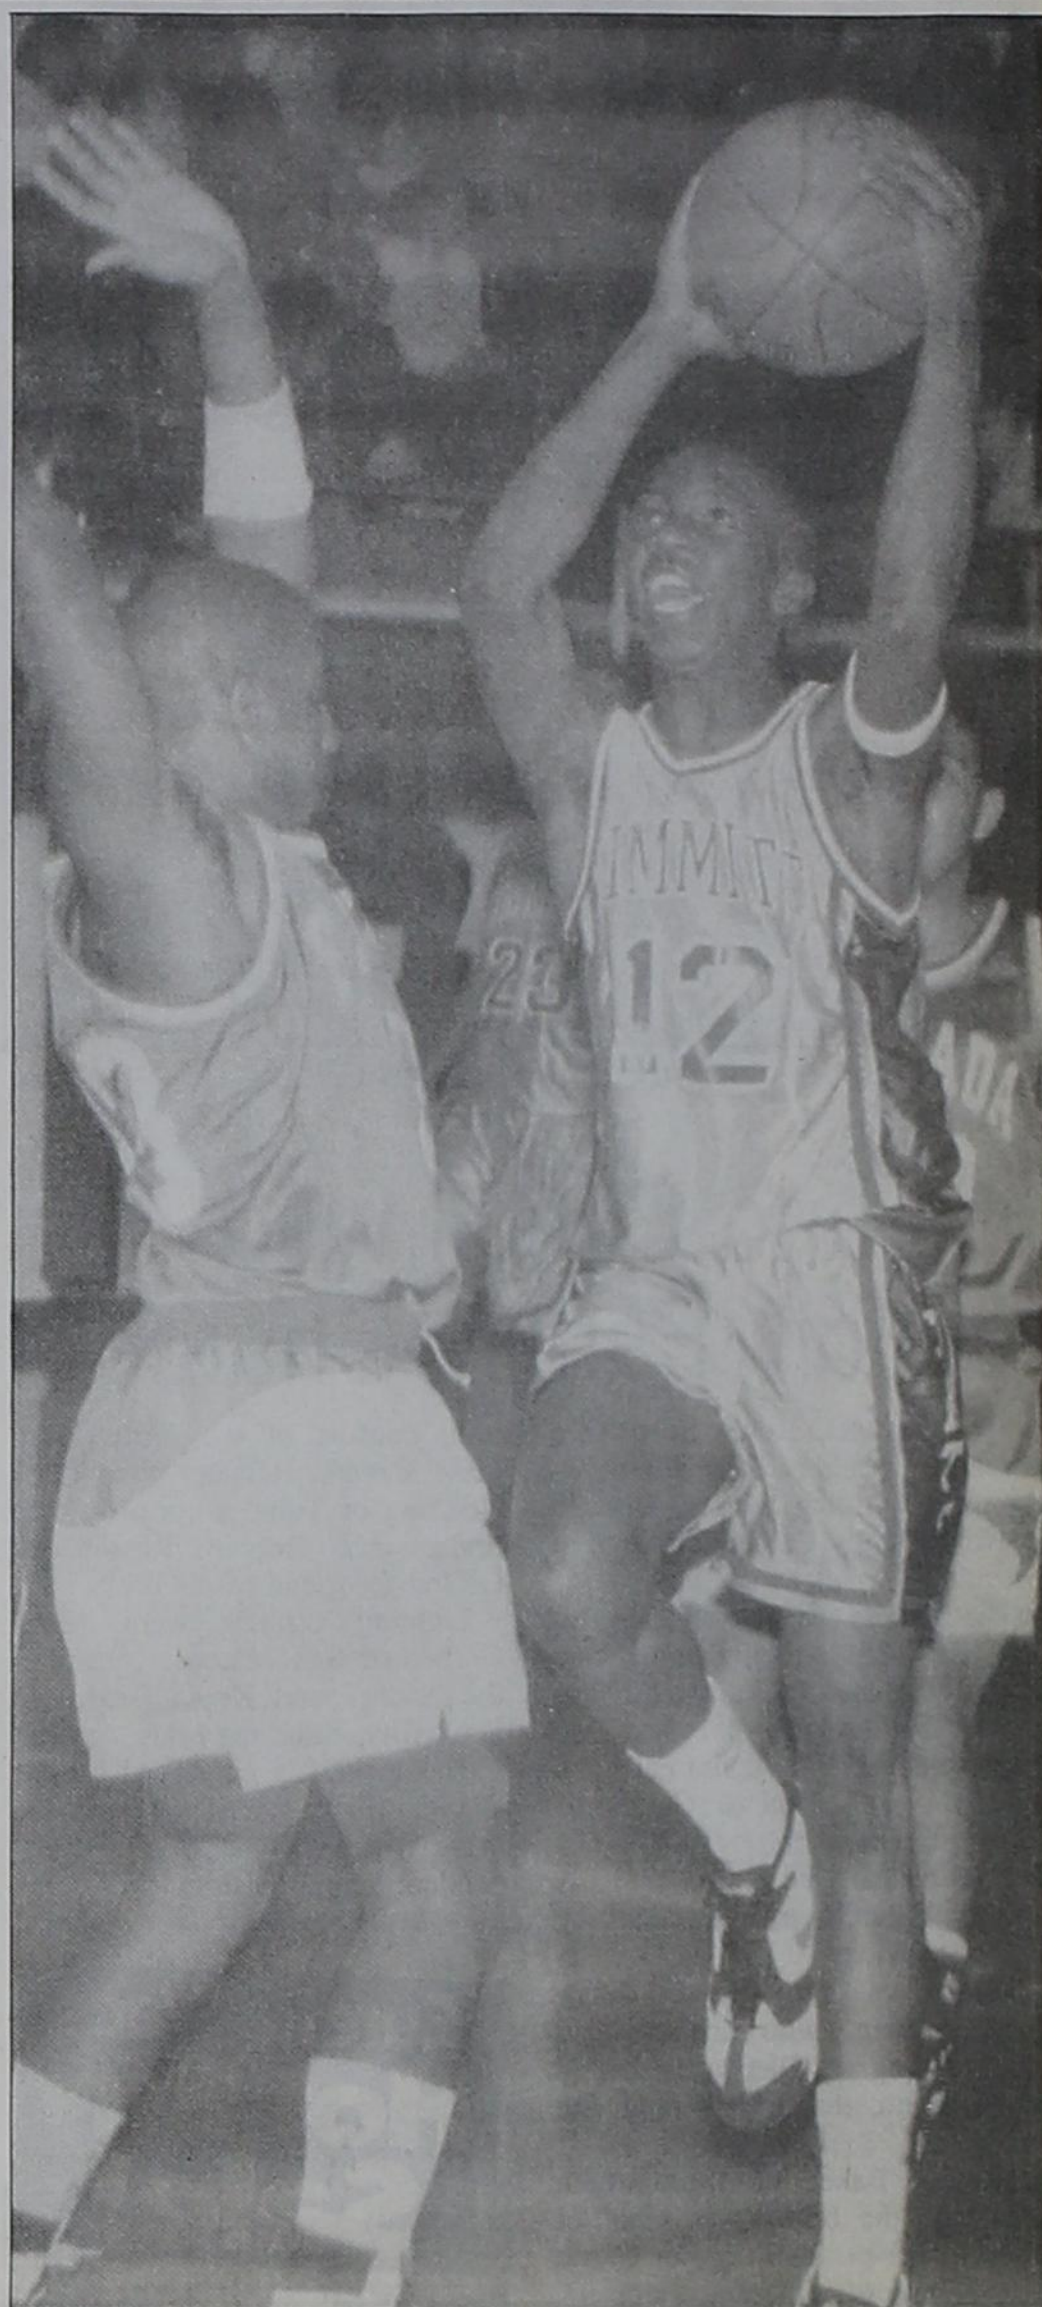

Dimmitt took an early five-point lead, 7-2 on a three-pointer by Derrick Thomas with 3:40 to go in the first period. Floydada then took off on a 15-3 run. Dimmitt coach Alan Steinle had used his usual tactic of sending in his "second five" for the last half of the first quarter, but disgustedly pulled them from the floor with over a minute left in the quarter as the unit gave up eight points on four straight turnovers in one run.

Floydada scored early in the second stanza for a 19-12 advantage, but Dimmitt went on a 10-0 run for a 28-24 advantage midway through the second quarter. Dimmitt then outscored the 'Winds 12-5 over the last half of the period for a 40-29 halftime lead.

Floydada came back again in the third quarter to get within three points at 44-41 and 46-43. Each time, the Bobcats hit two free throws (Ellis, then Smith) to hold the Whirlwinds at bay. Floydada didn't get closer than six the rest of the quarter, and Dimmitt led 59-51 at the end of the quarter after a baseline drive by Smith past brothers Vernon and Pete Cooper.

In the fourth quarter, the Bobcats slowly pulled away, going up by as many as 26 points before settling for the 25-point win.

Dimmitt also won the junior varsity games with ease. Jacy Buckley had 19 points and Amy Mathews added 10 for the JV Bobbies in a 58-34 victory. The JV Bobcats blew out Floydada, 80-29.

HANGIN' WITH MR. COOPER—Dimmitt's Brandon Smith (12) drives past Floydada's Pete Cooper for a basket during the second quarter Friday at Kenneth Cleveland Gymnasium. Smith spurred a Dimmitt rally from a seven-point deficit in the second quarter, then helped the Bobcats hold off the Whirlwinds during a third quarter run. He had 11 points as the Bobcats went on to down the 'Winds, 87-62. It was the first game of District 2-3A play. Photo by John Brooks

Nazareth splits pair with Clovis

The Nazareth Swifts overcame a horrible first half to beat Clovis while the Swiftettes suffered through a miserable fourth-quarter shooting performance and fell to the Lady Wildcats Saturday night in New Mexico.

The Swifts, down by 27-20 at intermission, outscored Clovis 42-21 in the second half for a 62-48 victory behind Scott Brockman's 23 points.

The Swiftettes and Lady Wildcats each owned the lead several times in their game, and the score was tied at 26 early in the fourth quarter. But Nazareth went ice cold for a five-minute span in the final stanza and Clovis managed to pull out a 42-31 win.

A different Swift team took the floor Saturday after intermission.

The second-half team passed well, shot the ball well and rebounded. They played defense, too.

"We just got after it in the second half," said Nazareth Coach Mark Makeover. "We had one foul in the first half—we just weren't hustling on defense. We changed that in the second half. They only had three points in the third quarter until Cruce hit a three-pointer from the hash mark at the buzzer."

"I also think we did a better job of looking for cross-court passes. Then we were able to work the ball inside and our post guys drew a lot of fouls."

The Swifts sank 25-of-35 charity tosses, with 18 of those coming in the fourth quarter on 21 attempts.

The score was knotted at 12 after the opening quarter, and the Wildcats caught fire in the second quarter to go up by seven at halftime.

The Swifts began chipping away at that lead in the third quarter, with Brockman, Colby Pohlmeier and Gaylon Schilling all picking up points to tie the game at 29 midway through the period.

Brockman scored nine of his points in the third quarter to spark the Swifts' comeback, and with seconds left in the stanza, Jaret Schulte nailed a basket underneath to give Naz 36-30 lead. Cruce's long bomb at the end of the period made it 36-33 with the final eight minutes still to come.

Schilling, Pohlmeier and Brockman became permanent fixtures at the free throw line in the fourth quarter, though, and most of their attempts counted toward the 14-point win.

Schilling hit eight free throws in the quarter while Brockman and Pohlmeier added four apiece.

That trio scored most of Nazareth's points, with Brockman picking up 23, Schilling adding 16 and Pohlmeier contributing 15.

Clovis' three-pointers hurt the Swiftettes.

The Lady Wildcats nailed six treys, including three back to back shots in a two-and-a-half minute span stretching from late in the third quarter to early in the fourth quarter.

Before those shots, Nazareth held a one-point lead.

Two of those threes were made by Clovis' Taj Mangaroo, and her second shot in 49 seconds started Nazareth's drought. The Swiftettes were only 3-of-16 from the field in the fourth quarter while Clovis was 5-of-6.

Melinda Schmucker, who finished with 17 points to lead the Swiftettes, scored with 7:42 left in the game to tie the score at 16, but Nazareth didn't score again until Schmucker converted a steal into a layup with 1:51 left in the game. By that time Clovis had mounted a 38-28 lead and Nazareth couldn't recover.

The Swiftettes also had problems in the first quarter, and were down 11-3 before Schmucker hit a three with 25 seconds left to make it 11-6, Clovis, after one quarter.

Nazareth got two good baskets from Jill Ramackers, on assists from Schmucker, and cut the lead to two points early in the second quarter, and tied the game at 14 with 3:05 left on a basket by Schmucker.

Mandy Pyle, who gave the Swiftettes problems inside, scored with 1:12 left in the half to put Clovis up by three, then Amy Pohlmeier hit a pair of free throws to make it a one-point game at half.

The Swiftettes came out sharp in the third quarter with Courtney Hoelting hitting a three and Kelley Boyd scoring within the first two minutes to put Naz up 23-20.

Clovis tied the score at 23 with 2:52 left in the quarter on a basket by Mangaroo, then went ahead when Mangaroo hit her first three with 18 seconds left.

It was downhill in New Mexico for the Swiftettes after that.

POST MOVES—Nazareth's Kelley Boyd drives around a Clovis defender and puts up a shot during action Saturday in New Mexico. The Swiftettes hung with the Lady Wildcats, a ranked AAAA New Mexico team, and held several leads before falling behind in the fourth quarter and dropping the non-conference game, 42-31. After tying the game at 26 early in the fourth quarter, Nazareth missed eight straight shots and didn't score again until less than two minutes remained on the clock. By then Clovis had mounted a 12-point lead which the Swiftettes couldn't overcome. Photo by Anne Acker

Hart girls fall at Abernathy

Yes, you have to score points along the way, but basketball coaches will tell you that great defense will win lots of games for you.

For a half Friday, the Hart girls played great defense.

For a half Friday, the Abernathy girls played great defense.

The problem from Hart was that their defense was best in the first half. Abernathy's was best in the second half, and the Lady 'Lopes took a 36-31 win over the Lady 'Horns at Abernathy.

The win gave the Abernathy girls a 4-0 record in the first half of the District 3-AA race and all but secured a playoff berth. Hart's loss was its first in four district games.

Hart had a 20-13 lead at halftime, but scored just three points in a devastating third quarter. When the smoke had cleared after 24 minutes, Abernathy had rallied for a 27-23 lead.

"We won the first half, but I feel like we beat ourselves in the second half," said Hart coach Rachelle Wilcox. "We had too many turnovers and a lot of unforced errors in the second half."

"We came out in the third quarter and basically lost it in the first 60 seconds. We threw the ball out of bounds for no reason, just a lot of crazy things."

Wilcox cited a "great team effort" the first half as the Hart girls built their seven-point halftime margin.

"It was a really great effort by the girls, and our fans really helped us in the first half, too," Wilcox said. "It was the best support we have ever had from our fans and was a tremendous boost to our girls."

"We had talked about what we would have to do to take away the homecourt advantage, including playing great defense. We did that in the first half, but didn't in the second half."

"They came out at halftime and picked up the tempo on us, and we did some things I really can't explain, like turn the ball over with no one on us."

Shea Benett was the only player from Hart in double figures with 14 points.

MINDING YOUR OWN BUSINESS

By DON TAYLOR

Name your price

Recently, a client explained how he sets prices for his products and services. "What my suppliers charge me determines how low I can set my prices. My competitor's prices establish the ceiling. Generally, I try to be somewhere in-between," he said.

I've watched small-business owners for nearly 30 years. In that time, I've found that this "somewhere-in-between" pricing policy is a common practice. I feel that using this system ignores some of the most important elements you should consider when making pricing decisions.

In this column I'd like to help you take an objective look at your pricing strategies. Are your prices helping you grow a successful business? Or, are they steering you toward the poor house?

The fundamentals

There are four fundamental factors you must consider as you evaluate your pricing strategy. They are:

1. Cost. You can't build a successful business without knowing all about your cost structure. Your price must cover both direct and indirect costs. I find that few small-business owners factor in all costs when they set prices. Most owners consider cost of goods sold and operating expenses when they establish price levels. I believe you also need to consider your income (opportunity costs), a return on your business investment (money costs) and future cash needs for growth and renewal (longevity costs).

2. Value. Regardless of costs, your customers are the ultimate judge of value. If your customers feel that your price is too high, it is. They don't care about your costs or your longevity.

If this is the case in your business, you have three choices. You can lower costs so you can reduce prices, lower prices and give up profits or find customers less sensitive to higher prices.

Not long ago, I visited a very successful small business in Texas. The owners told me they had refocused their marketing efforts to attract a different customer base after new price competition came to town.

"We targeted and went after customers who care more about quality and service than price," one of the owners told me. The re-focusing strategy is working. "Our sales are up 20% this year and we're having our best profit year ever," the owner said.

3. Competition. Yes, competitors do play a role in fundamental pricing policies. However, they should not set an artificial ceiling for your business.

You should be aware of competitors' prices for obvious reasons. You may choose to compete on price or you may decide to add value for your customers and not worry about having the lowest price.

I recently consulted with a business owner who chose to "out value" his prime competitor. He studied his craft, acquired new knowledge and skills and raised his prices by 50%. (Yes, I said 50%.)

What happened? Did he lose customers? Did he price himself out of the market? No, because of the newly acquired knowledge and skills, customers feel that they are still getting a bargain. Through word-of-mouth promotion only, his business has doubled.

4. Overlap. We need to realize pricing impacts many areas of business performance. The pricing overlap affects marketing decisions, sales levels, financial factors and profit. You need to consider the overlap factor when you set goals for this year. Will a price increase slow sales or increase profits? If we reduce prices, will we increase market share and drive out competition or just lower margins?

Keep these four pricing fundamentals in mind as you establish your pricing policies this year. Remember, there are two foolish positions in which you can find yourself: Priced too high or priced too low. You lose something either way.

Nationally-known speakers slated for Olton cotton meet

Nationally-known speakers and local experts in the cotton industry will be featured at the 1995 Llano Estacado Cotton Conference, Wednesday at Olton.

The meeting will begin at 8 a.m. at the Olton Ag Pavilion at US Highway 70 and Ave. D, southeast of the J-H Restaurant.

The program will feature presentations by experts in cotton marketing, crop management and environmental concerns. Speakers will include:

—Adam Ballinger of Memphis, Tenn., editor of Fiber Magazine, on the history of cotton production.

—Dr. Jackie Smith, Extension ag economist from Lubbock, on 1994 federal crop insurance reform.

—Mark Lang of the National Cotton Council in Memphis, an update on environmental regulations.

—Nicholas Hahn, CEO of Cotton, Inc., New York, on his group's activities.

—Dr. Harold Kaufman of Lubbock, Extension plant pathologist, managing cotton seedling disease.

—James Esty of Littlefield, an inspector with the Texas Dept. of Agriculture, on worker protection standards.

—Bedford Forrest, with TDA in Amarillo, on value-added cotton marketing.

—Dr. Kater Hake, Extension agronomist in Lubbock, reviewing the 1994 cotton crop.

—Dr. Dan Krieg, agronomist with Texas Tech University in Lubbock, rainfall management in cotton.

—Dr. Jim Leser, Extension entomologist in Lubbock, with a cotton pest outlook for 1995.

—Roger Haldenby from Lubbock's TDA office, boll weevil update.

Cost for the conference is $10, which includes door prizes, exhibit hall admission, a free cap (to the first 200 to register) and lunch.

Sales tax seminar is Tuesday

A free seminar on state sales taxes will be held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in Lubbock.

The seminar will be held in the Godeck Library Community Room at 6601 Quaker in Lubbock. Taxpayers who can't attend the seminar but have questions about their taxes may call the comptroller's toll-free tax hotline at 1-800-252-5555.

"Texans shouldn't have to contact Austin when they need to have a tax question answered," said State Comptroller John Sharp. "Not everyone can get to Austin for tax assistance. So, we are taking tax services to the people."

"Our agency experts will be delighted to sit down with you, one-on-one, detailing which state taxes may affect you as a business person, assist you with sales tax forms, or provide information that can be useful in the future," said Sharp.

The seminar will be led by Kay McCall of the Lubbock field office.

The nominating committee for the board of directors at West Texas

Keenan new manager at SW Feedyards

George Keenan, longtime assistant manager, has been named manager at Southwest Feedyards near Hereford.

Keenan replaces Steve Johnson, who is now manager of Stratford Feedyard. The Stratford and Hereford yards are owned by Cactus Feeders.

Paul Engler, president of Cactus Feeders, said Jack Rhoades, former manager of the Stratford yard, will turn his full attention to duties as Feedyard Division vice president for Cactus Feeders. Rhoades had been holding both jobs.

Rural Telephone Cooperative will meet Jan. 21 at 10 a.m. at the cooperative's offices in Hereford.

The terms of Jimmy Cockerham, Tharp; Carl Strafuss, Milo Center; and Ernest Flood, Westway, are expiring. The nominating committee, made of members throughout the WTRT system, will propose two candidates for each of the positions. Incumbent directors with expiring terms are eligible for re-nomination.

The election of directors will highlight the annual membership meeting in March. Members of the cooperative will receive letters informing them of the meeting and listing the nominees.

Cooperative directors serve three-year terms. In order to serve as a director, an individual must be a member of the cooperative, live in the exchange area in which they are nominated, and can't work for or have a financial interest in a competing enterprise or a business engaged in selling phone service or supplies, or constructing or maintaining telephone facilities other than a business operating on a cooperative non-profit basis for the purpose of furthering rural phone service.

Any 15 or more members acting together may make additional nominations by petition not less than 20 days prior to the annual meeting and the secretary will post the nominations. The secretary will also mail with the notice of the annual meeting (or separately, at least 10 days before the date of the annual meeting) a statement of the number of directors to be elected and the names and addresses of the candidates, and specifying the nominations made by the committee and the nominations made by petition.

Farmers Union slates annual meeting today

A chicken-fried steak lunch and an educational program are in store for those attending the annual meeting of the Castro County Farmers Union today (Thursday) at Hart.

The meeting will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in the Hart Golden Group Building. The Golden Group will cater the lunch.

Assistant County Extension Agent Pammy Millican will present a program on the Worker's Protection Program. The program offers two Continuing Education Units (CEUs) to farmers attending.

County FU President Daniel Higgins of Hart said the business meeting will include discussion and adoption of county policy resolutions for the state FU convention, election of county delegates to the state convention, and consideration of an amendment to the bylaws.

The state FU convention will be held Jan. 27-28 in Austin, Higgins said.

County FU officers, in addition to Higgins, are Rex Ramaekers of Nazareth, first vice-president; Richard Jackson of Dimmitt, second vice-president; and Kent Birkenfeld of Nazareth, secretary-treasurer.

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS AND PARTIES:

DIMMITT FEEDYARD, INC. has made application with the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission for Air Quality Permit No. 26581 to operate an existing Cattle Feedyard in Dimmitt, Castro County, Texas. CARD OF THANKS
It is difficult to find the appropriate words to express our gratitude and appreciation for the many visits, telephone calls and your presence during the illness and passing of our loved one, Fay Cline. We thank all of you for your caring and concern during our time of grief. If we personally missed expressing our thanks to you, it was unintentional. A special thanks to the First United Methodist Church pastor and the ladies for the lovely luncheon.

CONSTRUCTION PERMIT TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS AND PARTIES:
You are hereby notified that DIMMITT FEEDYARD, INC. has applied for Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC) Air Quality Permit No. 26581. This permit, if approved, will authorize operation of an existing Cattle Feedyard in Dimmitt, Castro County, Texas. The location of the existing facility is six miles west on Texas State Highway 86 and one-quarter mile north on Farm-to-Market Road 1055 of Dimmitt, Castro County, Texas. This facility will emit the following air contaminants: particulate matter, sulfur dioxide, carbon monoxide, nitrous oxide, unburned hydrocarbons and odors.
A copy of all materials in the public file is available for inspection and reproduction at the TNRCC Amarillo Regional Office, Air Program, located at 3918 Canyon Drive, Amarillo, Texas 79109-4996, telephone (806) 353-9251, and at the TNRCC Central Office, 12124 Park 35 Circle, Austin, Texas 78753, telephone (512) 239-1000. The facility's compliance file, if any exists, is available for public review in the regional office of the TNRCC. Inquiries about the permit application and any information concerning any technical aspect of this application can be obtained by writing Mr. Eric S. Chasteen, TNRCC Office of Air Quality, New Source Review Program, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas, 78711-3087 or the TNRCC Amarillo Regional Office.
You may submit written comments concerning the permit application to the Office of Air Quality, New Source Review Program in Austin. All written comments received within 30 days after the second publication of this notice shall be considered by the Executive Director in determining whether to issue or not issue the permit. All written comments will be made available for public inspection at the TNRCC Central Office in Austin. This notice is to be published on Jan. 12, 1995, and Jan. 19, 1995.
Any person who may be affected by emissions of air contaminants from the proposed facility may request the Commission to hold an informal public meeting and/or contested case hearing on the permit application pursuant to Section 382.056(d) of the Texas Health and Safety Code. The Commission is not required to hold a contested case hearing if the basis of a request is determined to be unreasonable. All requests for a contested case hearing must be received in writing within the 30-day comment period regardless of whether an informal public meeting has been held or scheduled on this matter. If you wish to request a public hearing, you must submit your request in writing. You must state (1) your name, mailing address and daytime phone number; (2) the permit number or other recognizable reference to this application; (3) the statement "I/we request a public hearing"; (4) a brief description of how you, or the persons you represent, would be adversely affected by the granting of the application; (5) a description of the location of your property relative to the applicant's operations; and (6) your proposed adjustment to the application/permit which would satisfy your concerns and cause you to withdraw your request for hearing. Requests for a public hearing on this application should be submitted in writing to Office of the Chief Clerk, Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711-3087, telephone (512) 239-3300.

Before a permit can be issued for this facility, the applicant must demonstrate that all emission sources are in compli-
