Training School Instructors

Lucille Rucker, left, and Mrs. Uel D. Crosby, Miss Lucille Rucker, left, and Mrs. Uel D. Crosby, both of Lubbock, will be in Midland next week to serve as instructors in a training school in the First Methodist Church for workers with children and youth in all churches of the city. The school will begin at 3 p. m. Sunday, and daily sessions from 4 to 5 p. m. will continue through Thursday.

Five-Day Training School Will Begin Sunday in First Methodist Church

A training school will start in the First Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, to which workers with children and young people in all churches of the city are invited. The first session will begin at 3 p. m. and classes will continue each day through Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m. in the Scharbauer Educational Building. Instructors will be Mrs. Uel D. Crosby, director of children's work for Methodist churches of the Northwest Texas Conference, and Miss Lucille Rucker, conference youth director. Both are from Lubbock. Mrs. Crosby's classes will be for teachers and parents of children under teen-age, and Miss Rucker's for workers with girls and boys between the ages of 12 and 23. Registration has closed for persons who are to ask for credit on the training course, but all the sessions are open to visitors who wish to be present for a single class or the full course, the Rev. Howard Hollowell, pastor, announced.

LIBRARY GETS PAPER Beginning Monday, the Midland County Library will be a subscriber to "The Wall Street Journal," Mrs. Lucille Carroll, librarian, announced. With other periodicals, the Journal will be available to readers in the library reading room, and back copies may be used for reference. Ellis-Donnell Vows Exchanged In Church

The marriage of Kitty Gene Ellis, member of a pioneer Midland family and William Robert Donnell was solemnized in the First Baptist Church at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, with the Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor, reading the single-ring service. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Ellis, Sr., and the late Mr. Ellis, and Donnell is the son of Mrs. James Lilburn Donnell of Sikeston, Mo., and the late Mr. Donnell.

Before the ceremony Wallace Wimberly, organist, played a program of love songs while the ushers, Howard Chamlee, Tom West, Charles Barr and Donald Oliver, lighted the candles at the altar as best man. Selections were "Annie Laurie," Scott; "Love's Old Sweet Song," Molloy; "Calm as the Night," Bohn; the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," Mascagni; "Romance," Rubenstein, and "Serenade," Schubert. Mrs. DeLo Douglas was the soloist, singing "All for You," Bertrand-Brown, and "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte. Brother Gives Bride

The couple and their attendants, Mrs. Nellie Ellis, Jr., as matron of honor, and A. E. Pettit as best man, entered to the professional music from Wagner's "Lohengrin," and the organist continued playing "To a Wild Rose," MacDowell, as the ceremony was read. The recessional was to Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Given in marriage by her brother, Newrie Ellis, Jr., the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white satin, the high round neckline outlined with a band of imported Alencon insertion to form a square yoke of illusion and the full skirt falling from the long torso bodice, lengthening in the back to a cathedral train. Her finger tip length veil of bridal illusion was held by a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

The matron of honor was dressed in chartruse satin in long torso design with full skirt, and a soft fold of the material around the low neckline, draped in front and extending over the shoulder line. Her flowers were Talisman roses in a colonial bouquet. White Altar Setting The bride's mother wore a formal gown of elephant grey, the skirt draped to the side and a clip of brilliants at the neckline. Mrs. Donnell's dress was of aqua crepe. Both wore corsages of pink camellias. Six candelabra of graduated height, holding white tapers, were set together to form a wide arch before the wedding party stood. Woodwardia was matted in the center background, with two vases of white gladiolus set on tall standards on either side. Bouquets of gladiolus were tied with white satin ribbon to the candelabra. A reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy G. Bedford, who received guests at the door, followed the wedding. In the receiving line were the couple and their mothers, and Mr. and Mrs. Nellie Ellis, Jr. Mrs. G. M. Graham presided at the registry. Mrs. A. E. Pettit poured coffee, and Mrs. William Beckers served the wedding cake from a buffet setting arranged in a large wall mirror. Cake G. M. Graham Shaped A fan-shaped arrangement of white gladiolus was set before the mirror on the lace-covered table. In the center was the heart-shaped cake, decorated in pale pink and white with figures of cupids, wedding bells and hearts. The house party included Mrs. Paul McHargue, Mrs. Hayden Miles, Mrs. Walter Dunn of Mart, Mrs. Tommy Wilson, Sr., Mrs. Tommy Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Percy Mims, Mrs. Aldredge Estes, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. Mollie McCormick, Mrs. L. W. Taylor, Mrs. Bill Pomeroy, Jr., Mrs. Howard Chamlee, Mrs. Lamar Eschberger, Mrs. Tom West, Mrs. Donald Oliver, Mrs. Wilson Bryant, Peg Donnell of Sikeston, Mo., Louise Cox and Ann Tolbert. In addition to Mrs. Donnell and her daughter, Peg, a wedding guest from Sikeston was Donnell's uncle, J. D. Renner. Mrs. Dunn is the bride's aunt. In accordance with wedding tradition, the bride threw her bouquet at the close of the reception, and it was caught by Louise Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Donnell will reside at 311 1/2 North Carrizo Street when they return from a trip to New Orleans. She is a native of Midland, educated in the schools here and in Baylor University. He is a geologist with the Anderson-Fritchard Oil Company and has lived in Midland three years. An alumnus of the University of Missouri, where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, he served in the Naval Air Force during World War II.

Coming Events SATURDAY Annual conference of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of District 8 will open at 4 p. m. with registration in the Scharbauer Hotel, and a dinner will begin at 7:30 p. m. in the Crystal Ballroom. Children's Story Hour will start at 10:30 a.m. in the Children's Library of the Midland County Library. Moment Musical Junior Musical Club will meet at 11 a.m. in the Watson Studio. Halloween Stories On Library Program The first of two special Halloween programs at the Midland County Library's weekly Children's Story Hour is scheduled for 10:30 a. m. Saturday. The story will be "Hansel and Gretel." It will be accompanied by recorded music from the Children's Frayser from the opera by Humperdinck, based on the story of Hansel and Gretel. Mrs. K. G. Heald, Jr., will be the story teller. She will tell more about Halloween, with some tales of witches, at the story hour next week. POWERFUL HAMMER The University of Southern California has a giant hammer that can exert a force of 2,000,000 pounds.

"Runnin' Higher" Will Be Presented Two More Nights

Two performances, on Friday and Saturday nights, are scheduled for the Kiwanis Club Community Theater musical and revue, "Runnin' Higher." It is being presented nightly at 8:30 o'clock on the City-County Auditorium stage. Comedy and music are featured in the show, which opens with a rapidly-moving revue and after intermission becomes an old-style minstrel, partly in blackface, with songs by soloists and the men's chorus.

Audiences the first two nights of the production applauded the performers, and also appreciated the staging, costumes and lighting which helped make an entertaining performance. A large production staff has worked with the actors to stage the show. Art Cole is the director and Mary Williams the pianist. Bill Pomeroy, Jr. contributing original songs and skits which bring current Midland humor to enliven the production. Duke Jimerson, director the men's chorus, also appears as a vocal soloist. Production Staff General chairman of production is Lee Flood. "Klondike" Johnson, stage manager, has James Morris as his assistant. In charge of costumes are Virginia Flood, Mrs. George Sharp, Frances Schneider, Mrs. M. Ellison Muldrow, Dorothy Smith, Billie Neuhardt, Mrs. William Y. Waters, Marguerite Greath and Sue Moore. Pauline Shelton directs make-up. Marjorie Gagin and Jimerson are in charge of talent, Tracy Ansel and Loyd McSpaden of publicity and Albert Kelley of tickets. Kelley also serves as house manager, assisted by Ernie Grites and members of the Kiwanis Club. Responsible for publication of "The Prompter" are Joe Koegler, Riley Parr, James Morris, Lionel Craver, Dr. D. L. Patton, Reese Cleveland and Jack Peleton. The stage crew includes Koegler, McSpaden, Harvey Herd, Coe Mills, Parr, Lionel Craver, Thornton Hardie, Clyde Davidson and Lee Weathers.

The number of sheep and lambs on Canadian farms is approximately 2,628,500.

Rice-Texas, Baylor-Aggie Tilts Head Gridiron Menu

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Southwest Conference football campaign hits the halfway mark Saturday with a chance to go ahead in inter-sectional strife and with two teams likely to be eliminated in the championship race.

Four games are scheduled, two of them conference affairs. Texas goes to Houston to battle a Rice team that must win to stay in the title picture. Texas A&M journeys to Waco to play Baylor in a game with the same complexion. The Aggies will be out of the race if they lose.

Meanwhile, two conference members have night games against highly-regarded outside foes. Southern Methodist collides with Santa Clara in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. Texas Christian runs into Oklahoma at Fort Worth. The conference needs victories in both to go ahead in inter-sectional play for the season.

Prospects are considered bright for SMU to win but TCU definitely is the underdog against an Oklahoma outfit that has won three out of four, including a 20-14 decision over Texas. The Sooners, who dropped their opening game to Santa Clara 20-17 and then took three straight, will be throwing a backfield at Texas Christian that has romped for an average of 363 yards per game. This terrific ground power makes things pretty dark for the Horned Frogs, who, however, have gone up against other teams that looked just as tough in inter-sectional play and come through.

Southern Methodist's aerial circus is expected to handle Santa Clara, which has lost only one game out of five—to a mighty California

Midlander Sets Pace In Open Skeet Shoot

Tight Defense

Midland's own Bobby Parker set the pace in the opening events of the West Texas Open Skeet Shoot here Thursday. Parker took the sub small (40 gauge) event with a 94-100 and captured the small (28 gauge) event with a 92-100.

A star-studded field is entered in the big four-day shoot which continues through Sunday. Shooters are here from Fabens, Dallas, San Angelo, Abilene, Tulsa, Waco, and the states of Oklahoma and New Mexico. And there are plenty of local competitors.

The shoot is being held at the Midland Gun Club's setup at Midland Airport. A wide porch of the clubhouse overlooks the skeet fields and the public is invited to visit and watch the shooters. Some of the greatest names in skeet shooting are here.

Henry Adler of Dallas with a 92-100 was runner-up in the sub small event. George Glass, Sr., of Midland, Hugh Bradford of Dallas and Herman Ehler of Dallas all tied with 82 in the sub small for third-place honors. In the shoot-off, Ehler broke 23 straight targets to take the third spot. Glass broke 23 targets as did Bradford. When Glass and Bradford shot off for fourth, Glass broke 24 targets and Bradford 23.

Other sub small scores: D. W. Conway, Fabens, 81; Wright Cowden, Midland, 80; Ty Catron, Dallas, 80; Bill Fields, Fabens, 80; Ocie Watson, Dallas, 80; J. C. Adams, Dallas, 80; Janice Jenkins, Dallas, 81; Goldy Stratton, Waco, 87; T. B. Eberan, Dallas, 85; Ish McKnight, Midland, 84; B. Bickers, Dallas, 84; Charles Prentiss, Fabens, 80; Lucretia Hamon, Dallas, 79; Bob White, Midland, 78; Bill Chancellor, Midland, 75; Fred Alford, Jr., Dallas, 70; J. Louis Thomas, Midland, 69; Mrs. Alford, Dallas, 64; Gilly Pfeuger, San Angelo, 60; Bum Cowden, Midland, 58.

Parker shot 22-23-24-34 (94) to take the sub small. He shot 24-25-23-25 (99) to take the small gauge event.

Pfeuger was runner-up in the small gauge event with 92-100. Bob White of Midland was third with 92-100. (Pfeuger beat White in a shootoff.) Stratton was fourth with 92-100.

Other scores in the small gauge event: McKnight 92, Mascho 87, Glass 89, Thomas 87, Chancellor 81, Watson 88, Humphill 88, Beard 84, Conway 84, Fields 83, Prentiss 83, Alford 78, Bradford 80, Bickers 88, Ehler 86, Eberan 86, Adler 86, Jenkins 86, Conway 89 (Mrs.), Hamon 84, Mrs. Fred Alford 89, Catron 82, Epley 82, Goddard 71, and Mrs. Pfeuger 82.

Friday's Schedule

Scheduled to begin Friday is the big event, the all-bore open (20 gauge). Fifty targets of the main event will be fired Friday. The all-bore event includes 250 targets. A 20-gauge single event was slated Friday morning. It was to include 100 targets.

Firing continues through Saturday in the all-bore and a special event—Dasher Special—may be held. L. B. Barron of Dallas has been appointed to the grounds committee replacing Joe Frost of San Antonio, who could not be present. D. W. Conway of Fabens and Ish McKnight of Midland are co-workers with Barron.

The shoot, a registered NBSA event, offers many trophies and over $1,500 in added money.

Crippled Bulldogs To Invade Abilene

The patched-up Midland Bulldogs invade Abilene Friday night for a 2-A-A conference game with kickoff time slated at 8 p. m. in Fair Park Stadium. Coach Pete Showell's Bulldogs are in top physical shape for the encounter. Coach Barnes Milam's Bulldogs are shot full of injuries.

The MHS Band and Gold Jackets (girls) drill squad will follow the team to the game and will perform. A large supporting group of fans also is expected to go along. The Bulldogs departed Friday morning and were in Abilene at the Hotel Windsor in Abilene. They will remain overnight Friday.

Abilene takes the field with a season record of two wins, three losses. Midland has won one game and lost four. Abilene has played much better competition. Abilene is smarting from a 29-0 drubbing administered last week by Odessa. Midland also is smarting from a 24-7 loss to Brownwood. Last year, Abilene beat Midland 28-0 with a last half surge.

Trophy Presented To Amarillo Marine

QUANTICO, VA. —(AP)—Marine Master Sergeant Thomas R. Mitchell of Amarillo, Texas, was presented with the William Randolph Hearst Trophy cup Thursday for scoring 284 out of a possible 300 in the International Pistol Tournament.

The tournament, held in Teamcock, N. J., in August, was open to all corners.

Warren Kelly, general manager of the New York Mirror, sponsor for the tournament, made the presentation to Mitchell, who is stationed here.

Aggie Starting End To Miss Baylor Tilt

COLLEGE STATION.—(AP)—End Wray Whitaker will be out of the Texas A&M lineup for at least ten days.

Doctors have ordered the gridder not to take part in any scrimmages next week because of a blow he received on the head during the Texas Christian game last week.

Either Cedric Copeland or Andy Hillhouse will start at left end against Baylor in place of Whitaker.

DOWN SPORTS LANE

with TANNER LAINE

Here is the 3-A-A slate for Friday night: Midland at Abilene, Odessa at San Angelo, Sweetwater at Lamesa.

The way we pick 'em: Midland to go down fighting under the Warbirds, San Angelo to rise up and upset mighty Odessa (five-star special, no extra charge). Sweetwater to roll over Lamesa.

The eighth grade Bullpups of Midland's junior high were slated in Crane Thursday but the bout was postponed. Rains at Crane wet the field causing the re-slate. The game will be played November 24.

Fans should not forget three football games to be played in Memorial Stadium Saturday. The sixth grade Bullpups will play Crane at 1:30 p. m. The seventh grade Bullpups engage the Odessa Junior at 3:30 p. m. And the "B" Bulldogs try the "B" Bobcats of San Angelo at 6 p. m.

Midland's own Bobby Parker is setting the pace at the West Texas Open Skeet Shoot now in progress. Parker shot the first two events Thursday—sub small and small gauge contests.

He has won many national titles and is bringing much attention to Midland and the Gun Club here.

A negro football team that watched an official score the winning points for it in a game at Houston may have to settle for a tie.

It happened when Jack Yates of Houston defeated Central of Galveston 15-13 last week.

Central drew a clipping penalty when it had the ball on its own 15-yard line. An official picked up the ball and started stepping off 15 yards.

He hesitated at the goal line, but then took two steps across it and signaled a safety.

The public address system announcer told the crowd: "The rule book says that can't happen, but it did just now."

L. A. Morgan, principal at Central and chairman of District 3 of the High School Negro Football League, said he has discussed the matter with Principal W. S. Holland of Yates.

"As far as we are concerned, the score should be a 13-13 tie," Morgan said. "We will recommend that such a score be recognized when the committee meets."

Disraeli, English prime minister, predicted his own success in his maiden speech in the House of Commons.

Australia Lifts Some Ceilings; Prices Up

SYDNEY.—(AP)—The Australian government lifted prices recently on about 30,000 items. These are some of the reactions in Sydney:

Used cars sold at 20 per cent over the pegged prices, but at less than black market prices.

Land prices went up to twice the former fixed prices and even higher than black market prices.

Shrimps rose from a fixed price of 10 pence (16 cents) a pound to 3 shillings 10 pence (76 cents).

BRITISH TO SEEK STRONGER BEER

LONDON.—(AP)—Beer is flooding the London market, an official of the Brewers' society said here.

Demand is down and the pub keepers are refusing to take their quotas.

The brewing official said the only remedy is to obtain larger supplies of barley and sugar to brew beer with more kick. The kind now on sale runs less than 3 per cent alcohol.

WELL? WHAT FLAVOR?

ANY ARE YOU PASTING THOSE SLICES OF BREAD TOGETHER, GORHAM?

WELL? I SAID TEST THAT GLUE, NOT TASTE IT!

Hank Barrow presents a cartoonist's eyeview of future products and services in THINGS TO COME—one of the entertaining features of the new eight-page COLOR COMICS supplement coming

SIDE GLANCES

"This boy says he never writes mushy letters because so many girls' parents like to peek at them—does he think we're sneaks?"

CARNIVAL

"Who's a brute? I'm just teaching him once and for all not to put slugs in his piggy bank!"

Daddy Ringtail And The Worry-Bird

By WESLEY DAVIS

A Worry-Bird can look like any other bird that it wants to look like. Now that would be all right, except when you see a Worry-Bird it makes you worry and fret about whatever you're doing. That's what it did to Daddy Ringtail.

Ringtail asked. "Oh me! Oh my!" Daddy Ringtail said again. "Just look! Every time I bend my elbow, my mouth comes open!"

IT'S A FACT

AND WE CAN PROVE IT. (PROOF NEXT SUNDAY)

Is your insurance program on a sound basis—do you know whether or not you are covered adequately? Check any improvements or additions to your home—any purchases made since your policy was written.

PROOF OF LAST WEEK'S AD: According to the Minnesota Mechanical Ability Tests, published by the Univ. of Minnesota Press in 1930, there are "no sex differences in mechanical aptitude."

FUNNY BUSINESS

"If you're so clever at imitating birds, how about imitating a homing pigeon?"
