Hungary Asks Recall Of U. S. Minister

Activities In Churchman's Case Blamed

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY—(AP)—Hungary announced Saturday night she has asked the United States to recall U. S. Minister Selden Chapin and to consider withdrawing an assistant military attaché.

Foreign Minister Laszlo Rajk accused President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Bevin in a statement of taking part in a "war of slander against Hungary."

Authoritative quarters said, however, a break in diplomatic relations is not intended.

"Some other representative of the United States will be welcomed here," one said, "but we do not want Mr. Chapin to remain."

Ivan Boldizar, undersecretary of state, said the recall of Chapin was asked in connection with the activities of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate convicted Tuesday on charges of treason, espionage and illegal money dealing.

The U. S. State Department announced Chapin will be ordered home "for consultation." The Department press officer, Michael McDermott, said the United States "reserved its position" in respect to his status. Hungary previously expelled two members of Chapin's staff on charges they were engaged in spying and smuggling men out of the country. The U. S. responded by expelling a Hungarian diplomat, First Secretary John O. Florian of the Hungarian Legation.

Diplomats Abuse Charged. The Hungarian Foreign Ministry suggested that the U. S. Legation "consider the necessity of removing" Lt. Col. Peter Kopsak, who is attached to the American military attaché's staff, "before the Hungarian government will request them to do so."

The note charged abuse of diplomatic privileges.

It said Kopsak and another American officer, Lt. Col. John Merrill, behaved clumsily on a trip last week to the country town of Szeged and the Yugoslav border.

The Foreign Ministry charged they left Szeged "rather intoxicated," failed to pay a garage bill and created an incident when a Hungarian citizen stopped them at the Yugoslav border.

Fire sweeps the Warwick Wax Company plant in Kilgore. The fire started in a trash bin and spread to a small tank farm. The tanks burned furiously several hours, destroying telephone lines and disrupting rail traffic.

Severe Norther Predicted

By The Associated Press
A mass of Arctic air, bringing freezing rain, snow and bitter temperatures, poured down on Texas Saturday night.

For the Panhandle, first point of Texas entry; for the South Plains, the Upper Pecos Valley eastward, and for the northwest part of East Texas, the forecast promised both freezing rain and snow on Sunday. Ranchers put out special feed for livestock.

And Monday, the U. S. Weather Bureau said, there should be occasional freezing rain or snow in all West Texas except the Rio Grande Valley, and freezing rain or snow in the northwest, west central, and extreme north parts of East Texas. Rains were expected elsewhere.

The forecast called for temperatures to 25 degrees for all the northwestern and southern parts of West Texas, from 12 to 22 degrees in the Upper Pecos Valley eastward, and below freezing weather in the northwest part of East Texas.

Rains Fall In Panhandle. Amarillo, in the Panhandle, braced for passage of the cold wave's front about Saturday midnight, was expecting a low of eight degrees. And Saturday, before the cold wave arrived, rains were general in the Panhandle, turning farm dirt roads to impassable quagmires in the eastern part. Light rains extended into the South Plains to Lubbock and below the Panhandle.

By Sunday night a hard freeze was expected as far over in the state as Dallas, with a low there Monday of near 20. The forecast called for early Monday readings of 10 to 25 degrees for all the northwestern part of East Texas. By early Monday, the forecast indicated, the cold front should reach the Texas coast.

Bulgaria Charges Church Leaders

The Very Rev. Dr. James H. Cockburn, left, director of reconstruction and inter-church aid of the World Council of Churches, and Cyril Black, right, professor of history at Princeton University, have been named by the Communist-led Bulgarian government as spy contacts for the 15 top leaders of the United Evangelical Church who were indicted on charges of spying for the U. S. and Britain.

U.S., Canada Plan Radar Air Defense

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A plan to wrap the United States and Alaska in a radar network against sudden air attacks advanced in Congress Saturday.

And a similar warning screen across the whole North American Arctic frontier is in the minds of Canadian and United States officials.

This came to light as Canada's Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent met for the first time with President Truman.

As the two men conferred, a House Armed Services subcommittee approved plans for a $161,000,000 radar intercept system tied in with fighter plane and anti-aircraft defense for this country. It would authorize outpost stations also. They were not designated.

It is across the frozen northern wastes that military planners think an aggressor might strike should a war develop.

But there was no indication St. Laurent's visit here was predicated upon any material change in the international outlook.

St. Laurent disclosed that this country has some radar, (long range said to navigation) and weather radars already operating in Canada, and would like more.

Canada Willing To Cooperate. At a conference with reporters, St. Laurent indicated that Canada would be willing to cooperate with this country on any reasonable basis for extension of radar in Canada if this country assumes the cost.

After a luncheon at Blair House, temporary White House, Truman and the Canadian Prime Minister conferred for an hour. Meeting with them were Secretary of State Acheson and U. S. Ambassador to Canada Laurence Steinhardt and Canadian Ambassador Hume Wrong.

Guests at the luncheon had included top military and congressional figures.

The radar network bill approved by the Armed Forces subcommittee headed by Rep. Durham (D-NC) Saturday will be discussed by the full committee Tuesday.

Prompt approval by the House has been forecast by Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), chairman of the Armed Services group. However, a separate bill to appropriate money still is required.

Bakery Announces Bread Price Cut. Effective Monday, Mead's Fine Bread Company will reduce the price of its large family size loaf of bread by one cent, officials announced Saturday.

Savings effected in the production of the large loaf is being passed on to customers, company spokesmen said.

Milk Price Cuts Spread Over State

By The Associated Press
A number of Texas cities reported retail milk price cuts of a penny a quart Saturday.

Among them were Sherman, Kilgore, Tyler, Paris, Fort Worth, Houston and Beaumont. Reductions at Dallas ranged from a half cent to a cent and a half a quart. One Fort Worth dairyman said he expected another penny cut this week.

One dairyman at Lubbock cut prices a penny a quart, effective next Wednesday. Others were expected to follow. It was the first such cut at Lubbock in 10 years.

Dairyman at some points also cut price of half pint of whipping cream. Lower feed prices were given as the cause.

Whipping cream cuts were five cents a half-pint at Dallas, eight cents at Kilgore, five to seven cents at Tyler and four to five cents at Paris.

B-36 Able To Drop Atom Bomb Anywhere On Earth

NORWALK, CONN.—(AP)—Air Secretary Symington gave a broad official hint Saturday night that the speed of the giant "intercontinental" B-36 bomber is being boosted by the addition of jet engines.

Moreover, he said, the plane, now powered with six reciprocating engines, is capable of reaching "any major industrial urban area in the world."

And it can hit a target with atomic or other bombs from altitudes above that used in the A-bomb destruction of Hiroshima, he contended.

Symington incorporated into an address prepared for a Lincoln Day dinner here another of a series of replies he has made during the last few weeks to criticism of the six-engine B-36.

The only way to place an atomic bomb on strategic targets "is the long-range, land-based bombardment airplane." He said the B-36 was the vehicle for delivering the bomb, adding:

"A B-36, with an A-bomb, can take off from this continent and destroy objectives which might require ground armies years to take—and then only at the expense of heavy casualties. The B-36 could do the job within 16 hours after a take-off from this continent, and then return non-stop to its home base—all this at the risk of 16 American lives."

Tornado Damages Stillwater, Okla.

STILLWATER, OKLA.—(AP)—A small tornado dipped into Stillwater here Saturday night and continued northeast to destroy a farmhouse two miles from town.

The police department estimated damage at "several thousands," but there were no reports of deaths or injuries.

Jack Shellhammer, owner of the farm home, was pinned in the corner of one room with his seven-year-old daughter when the twister tore the house from its foundation and crashed it against a tree.

Mrs. Shellhammer had to use a crowbar to free them.

Shellhammer said his barn was completely destroyed.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, for the last 26 years the Reserve Officers Association has observed the period of February 12-22, inclusive, as National Security Week, in which virtually every civic and patriotic group in the city has joined, and

WHEREAS, in the current unrest and uncertainty which grips the world, posing a constant potential threat to our nation and our traditions of freedom, and placing grave responsibilities upon our nation's leaders, and

WHEREAS, the needs for preserving our national strength, which must be recognized by all of our people, bring responsibilities not only of equal import to every state and every community, but also to every individual citizen, now

THEREFORE, I, R. H. Gifford, Mayor of the City of Midland, Texas, do hereby proclaim the period of February 12 through February 22, 1949, as National Security Week, urging support of the ROA and National Security Week and requesting citizens to give every cooperation to the observance and prayerful consideration to the duties facing us all.

Signed: R. H. Gifford, Mayor

Fugitives Declare Cardinal Convicted On Forged Evidence

SALZBURG, AUSTRIA—(AP)—Two fugitive Hungarians said Saturday night they have "final and absolute proof" the conviction of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty was "a farce built on a stack of forged and extorted documents."

Laszlo and Hanna Sulner, who describe themselves as official handwriting experts of the Hungarian government, fled to Austria earlier this week and now are in the protective custody of American occupation authorities in Western Austria.

The Sulners said in an interview they are waiting until they reach "a safe and peaceful spot on this earth" to make good a personal vow "to expose the trial of Cardinal Mindszenty for just what it was—a monstrous crime by the Hungarian government."

They said they brought with them microfilm copies of virtually every document used in the trial of the cardinal in Budapest.

With the documents, Mr. and Mrs. Sulner say they will be able to prove almost all the evidence used in the trial was obtained by a company of forgers, the use of drugs and hypnosis and by photographic tricks.

Byrd Says Junking Of T-H Act Would Lead To Depression

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va) said Saturday junking the Taft-Hartley Law for the Truman labor bill would be "little short of a tragedy" and could "lead to another depression."

Byrd predicted Congress will keep most of the Taft-Hartley Law, and especially the 80-day injunction provision to block "national emergency" strikes.

The Virginia told a reporter "many" Southern Democrats will line up with most of the Republicans to preserve the basic provisions of the present labor law.

Foes of the law, on the other hand, are claiming it is doomed.

Senator McClelland (D-Ark), in a separate interview, agreed with Byrd that the injunction section of the T-H measure should be kept.

The Administration measure would repeal the Taft-Hartley Act and substitute a modified Wagner Act with no provision for court orders against critical strikes.

Extradition Of Son Of Oilman On Bigamy Charge Is Blocked

PORT WORTH—(AP)—Oklahoma officials trying to extradite Thomas R. Turman, 23, for trial on bigamy charges were blocked here Saturday by Criminal District Judge Dave McGee.

McGee ordered Thurman released. He had been held on an executive warrant issued Tuesday by Gov. Beauford H. Jester of Texas.

Nancy Henry, 24, filed the bigamy complaint against Turman in Oklahoma City. She said in an affidavit introduced as evidence that she is Turman's common law wife and mother of his five-month-old son.

Turman, she contended, promised to go through a ceremonial marriage with her on April 10, 1948. She said he married Helen Ruth Stark instead.

Turman is the son of Luther C. Turman, Fort Worth Oilman.

Zoning Hearing Delayed

A public hearing, scheduled Wednesday night, on the suggested zoning ordinance included in the city's proposed Master Plan has been postponed until February 23, John J. Redfern, Jr., chairman of the Zoning Commission, said Saturday.

Certain revisions in the proposed plan and the need of additional time for study of maps and reports necessitated the postponement, according to Redfern. The zoning maps and reports were received Friday from Koch and Fowler, Dallas municipal engineers, who were engaged by the City of Midland to draft the Master Plan. The zoning map will be on display in the city hall prior to the meeting, Redfern said. It also will be printed in The Reporter-Telegram.

O. H. Koch of Koch and Fowler, addressed an all-civic luncheon here recently, explaining the value of zoning in a progressive and growing city.

Redfern said the purpose of the hearing is to acquaint interested persons with the proposed regulations and to offer them an opportunity to make suggestions concerning the plan. The purpose of zoning is to protect rather than to prohibit, he said, and all citizens are urged to study the program before it is submitted for adoption. Additional hearings will be held if necessary.

Following the hearing February 23, the Zoning Commission will consider suggested revisions, making changes if deemed advisable, before submitting the zoning program to the City Council.

The council then will advertise an official public hearing on the matter before considering its adoption in full or in part. After its adoption by the council, the zoning ordinance becomes law.

Redfern said Saturday few if any radical changes of the present zoning laws are included in the proposed ordinance.

Texas Will Greet Granitum Train

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas will be represented in Wichita Kan., Sunday night when France says "Thank You" for the friendship train.

Special welcoming ceremonies will be held at Wichita as the granite train enters the Midwest. The Texas representative will be Marlowe C. Fisher of Austin, Secretary of Texas Lions Clubs.

In naming Fisher Saturday at his personal and official representative, Gov. Beauford Jester commended Texas Lions clubs for their "magnificent contribution" to the friendship train.

The Texas car of the gratitude train will be welcomed Monday in Fort Worth, Tuesday in Dallas and Wednesday in Austin.

A New Approach

John L. Lewis' named figured prominently in a conversation between Secretary of Labor Tobin and the Senate Labor Committee the other day. This was quite natural. For the Administration substitute for the Taft-Hartley Law, which Tobin was trying to sell, says something about national emergencies created by strikes.

Now the Administration which used that injunctive power without any expressed regret or apology wants to abandon it. The proposed labor relations act shortens the cooling off period after a strike notice from 80 to 30 days.

We can't imagine much stronger expression of public opinion than that which greeted Lewis during the shutdowns that Secretary Tobin referred to. Nor can we imagine that Lewis has changed so much that he would now bow to public opinion after he had defied both the people and the President in the midst of a war for national existence.

Injunctions against labor are not desirable. But Lewis has repeatedly shown an absorbing concern for personal power and membership support, and a scant regard for how he gets them.

Storm Cellar

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Hoover Commission report indicates government medical muddle; VA's hospital program conflicts with government's policy; commission recommends National Bureau of Health.

The commission found that patients with the same diagnoses stay in government hospitals two to three times as long as in private hospitals. Furthermore, in the same Army and Navy hospitals, civilians stay only half as long as military personnel.

Sixty per cent of the beds in VA hospitals are filled with tuberculosis, syphilis and neurosyphilis, and the commission reported "as to each of these diseases, that the present organization is unsatisfactory; that it developed piecemeal, with little comprehensive planning; that it involves duplication and inefficiency; that there is an acute shortage of medical personnel, aggravated by the unsound organization; that there is imperative need for unification."

Free Medicine For Families The government also is going beyond bounds to care for beneficiaries, the Hoover Commission claims. More than 900,000 Army and Air Force wives and children are given complete care virtually free on no other basis than an appropriation act 60 years old which authorizes medical officers to care for dependents "whenever practicable."

Meanwhile, construction of new hospitals is far outrunning the number of doctors available to man them. A large percentage of the military doctors were educated at government expense during the war, and are now serving under obligation. Most of them will leave within the next six months.

Voluntary recruitment of doctors has failed, and a draft is necessary, states the commission—warning at the same time that a draft will bring in only young doctors who cannot provide high-grade special-care.

In civilian government agencies, no hospital has the medical manpower to meet its full responsibility—a condition that is "neither temporary nor self-correcting." In the Veterans Administration alone, 5,600 beds are now closed because they can't be staffed.

To clean up the government's medical muddle, the Hoover Commission recommends integrating all federal medical service under two systems—military and nonmilitary. The latter should be set up, the commission proposes, as a National Bureau of Health headed by a professional, career director general.

Other detailed recommendations also are given, but the one "transcending in importance any of our other recommendations," declares the commission, "is the need to outflank disease by giving the highest priority to research, preventive medicine, public health and education."

"Since the federal government now has wards totaling one-sixth of the nation and since it faces an enormous growth in veterans' hospitalizations as World War II veterans grow older, the Treasury can be protected best by using every means to prevent disease. We must not just treat patients. We must, and to a large degree we can, if we will control disease."

The British and French foreign offices are having quite an argument over who is to get the biggest share of American arms under the North Atlantic Security Alliance, believes its army is in worse shape than Britain's. However, the British disagree, arguing that it is extremely important to build a base

51st Legislature To Work Double Shifts To Speed Up Session

AUSTIN —(AP)—The 51st Legislature goes on day and night shifts starting Monday.

Proposed laws affecting the everyday lives of most Texans are among 75 measures up for public study in House and Senate committees. Last week bills were introduced, heard in committee or set for hearing that touch Texans who:

Vote, drink water, drive cars, pay city taxes; send their children to school; go to doctors, chiropractors or naturopaths to have their sicknesses treated; buy radios or cosmetics; try to drive to town on muddy roads; own homes; receive old age pensions; or who are war veterans.

Both afternoon and night committee hearings are booked from Monday through Wednesday and the afternoon hearings stretch out through Thursday. It is a matter of record the 51st session was slow starting. It also is of record that it now has gone to work in earnest.

Debate On School Bills Senate floor debate on what may turn out to be the session's hottest and most difficult issue—the public school reorganization bills—was set as top business for Tuesday. Hundreds of Texans, divided firmly for or against, sat in on the Senate Education Committee's hearing at which the measures were given a "do pass" okay.

Starting Monday night, the Senate Oil and Gas Committee takes up the controversial bill by Senator George Moffett of Chiltonville making it legal for oil operators to cooperate in field development. Clashing interests in the big oil and gas industry will collide on this one. Moffett said the plan is to hold hearings both Monday and Tuesday nights.

War veterans organizations all over the state have promised to have big delegations on hand for the Tuesday afternoon hearing on a bill to set up the Veterans Land Board. This measure is before the Senate State Affairs Committee. Doctors vs Chiropractors Medical doctors and chiropractors will fight it out Wednesday night before the Senate Public Health Committee on a bill that would require all who wish to practice any healing art to pass an examination on certain basic sciences. Chiropractors and naturopaths are against it. The State Medical Association is for it.

Establishment of a committee to study revision of the election laws is the objective of a bill the House Elections Committee will hear Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Livestock Roundup

FORT WORTH —(AP)— Prices for some classes of livestock sagged to the lowest levels since 1946 at Fort Worth and other market centers this week. Beef steers and yearlings were quoted 1.00-2.00 lower, cows and bulls about steady, stockers scarce, slaughter calves 50 lower, lighter stocker calves 50 higher, butcher hogs and sows 1.00 lower, feeder pigs 2.50 lower, slaughter lambs 1.00 lower, other sheep steady.

Fed steers and yearlings sold mostly from 17-21, practical top 23, common lots 17 down, beef cows 16-17.50, canners and cutters 11.50-15.50, sausage bulls 15-20, slaughter calves 16-24, stocker calves 18-24, butcher hogs topped at 19.50 at high time, 18.25 on low day and 18.50 at close, sows 13.50-14.50, feeder pigs 8-14.50, woolly slaughter lambs 20-22.50, shorn 18.50-21, aged ewes 11-12, top on aged wethers 11.50, feeder lambs 19-20.50.

SAN ANGELO MAN SUFFERS STAB WOUND E. J. Shehan of San Angelo was admitted to Western Clinic-Hospital Friday with a stab wound in the right chest. Attendants reported he would be confined to the hospital for some time.

THE STORY: Assigned to Cottage 15 at the hotel, John Henry and Sin Cooper, who show winners, received an interesting letter from a woman named Angela. Angela, soon after their arrival, later, she appears where the two lovers have been dining and tells Johnny "You already got it," before she returns to her cottage. Returning to their cottage, the lovers find it deserted by the police. They find their luggage moved after being taken to Cottage 14, next door to Cottage 15, he came to the wrong one. Johnny decides to "get back on top of the mystery," but Sin is just a little jealous.

XII THE morning sun had already sent golden rays like soft-tipped arrows to invade the palm-shaded grounds of the hotel upon the hill. Vernon, the depressed bellhop, departed from Cottage 14 with the dirty dishes and few remnants of breakfast. Sin returned to the living room a moment later, her hair brushed into a smooth page-boy that glistened like a ruby.

JOHN HENRY'S grin had vanished. He put a slow hand into his breast pocket and pulled the pencil into view again. His forehead had crumpled into puzzled lines. "Funny," he said.

"Johnny, it's something wrong?" He didn't raise his eyes from the pencil. "This isn't mine." "You sure?" "Of course I'm sure. Never saw it before in my life. It was an ordinary mechanical pencil, colored black and sea-green with a gold point and a removable eraser. That's what's meant."

"Who meant? What are you talking about?" "Anglin. You already got it! This is what I've got, Sin. Anglin stuck this in my pocket when he fell against me last night." He turned it over and over, while his brown eyes scrutinized its scratched surface. He gave an impatient grunt. "What are you looking for, honey?" John Henry took off the removable eraser and peered into the dark recesses of the cylinder. There seemed to be something wrapped tightly around the pencil's lead cartridge. He probed for

WASHINGTON COLUMN Columbia Valley Authority Act Faces Squabble In Congress

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—President Truman's request for a Columbia River Valley Authority faces a lot of political squabbling in Congress.

First, senators and representatives from the four states in the valley—Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana—are divided on the project by almost straight political lines. With a few notable exceptions, the Democrats are for it and the Republicans either haven't made up their minds, want to revise the plan, or are against it.

Second, there is a big argument about what committees will have jurisdiction over the CVA bill when it gets to Congress. Army Corps of Engineers program to build navigation and flood control projects would dictate that the measure be handled by the Armed Services Committee. Department of Interior's interest in reclamation, irrigation, power, national parks, Indian affairs, fish and wildlife would indicate that the CVA bill should be referred to Committee on Interior. Committee is vital.

This seemingly technical matter of what committees handle the bill is tremendously important. Majorities of the Public Works Committees are considered hostile. Majorities of the Interior Committee are considered favorable. Armed Services Committees usually reflect the sentiment of the Army Engineers, who are interested only in their own activities.

Though there are these big differences in opinion on the merits of CVA on Capitol Hill, there is a difference in the ranks of the executive agencies down town. When CVA was before Congress in 1946 the then-Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes made a big grab to have all valley authorities put under his direction. He was opposed by David Lilienthal, then chairman of Tennessee Valley Authority, and many others. But it was the Ickes attitude, as much as anything else, which killed the Columbia project four years ago.

This year, with both Interior Secretary J. A. Krug and Assistant Secretary C. Girard Davidson agreed on giving up some of their powers to a Columbia Valley Authority and making it an independent agency, the Ickes obstacle is removed.

President Truman has designated Charles S. Murphy, one of his administrative assistants, to co-ordinate the job of preparing new CVA legislation. Working with him are representatives of seven government agencies—Agriculture, Commerce, Interior, Bureau of Census, Economic Advisers, Federal Power Commission and TVA.

The bill which they produce may be considerably different from both the CVA bill of 1946 and the original TVA bill of 1934. For one thing, the areas are different. In TVA, erosion was a big problem. It is likely that the new CVA bill will go a long way to protect existing water rights. By so doing it will remove one of the principal points of opposition to creation of a centralized Columbia River Authority.

Another idea is to give the four northwestern state governments a larger voice in determining policies and programs. But Congressman Harris Elfgren (R-Ore) points out a four-state compact with control over federal agencies might be unconstitutional. Congressman Walt Horan (R-Wash) would get around this by creating an advisory board of 25 to be appointed by the four states and the federal government.

Congressman Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash) has introduced a CVA bill of his own which is criticized by the Republicans as giving the federal government too much power. The new Administration bill may be sponsored by Congressman Hugh it with a forefinger, then borrowed one of Sin's bobby pins. A couple of grunts later, he breathed out in satisfaction and pried a long narrow strip of tightly rolled paper from the interior of the pencil. "Well," he announced.

"The paper was oiled and the tight rolling made it hard to handle since it kept coiling up between John Henry's fingers. The Conovers perused the column of writing on the paper strip and then looked at each other for an answer.

"What do you make out of that?" John Henry wanted to know. Sin took the narrow strip of oiled paper from her husband and read it off slowly, carefully. "R-1, L-3, R-2, L-1, R-2, L-3, R-1, L-2, R-1, L-1, R-2, L-3, R-2, L-5, L-1, L-3, R-2, L-1, R-1."

"Must be a code," John Henry muttered. "R and L usually stand for right and left, but maybe this is a cipher." "I don't know," Sin admitted. "Then she added, 'I don't want to know.'"

John Henry wound up the oiled paper and replaced it in the barrel of the pencil. This done, he pulled open the center drawer of the small redwood writing desk, deposited the instrument reverently in the pencil trough, and closed the drawer again. "Psychology," he explained, "is concealing. The best place to hide anything is right under people's noses. They never think to look in the obvious places."

Sin remembered her own luck along this line in parlor games but said nothing. The sooner the pencil was stolen and gone, the better. "Hey, where you going, Johnny?" "Back in a few minutes," John Henry said from the doorway. "After all that's happened, I want to grill this Jordan woman."

"Johnny, you come back here!" "I won't be long." "John Henry—I warn you—!" "I know you'll be reasonable," Sin.

John Henry Conover closed the blue door in time to block the pencil hurled by his reasonable wife. (To Be Continued)

Building Boosted To $272,900 Mark

Midland's 1949 construction got a boost during the week ended Saturday when $83,700 in permits were issued to bring the year mark to $272,900.

A $20,000 permit went to Mrs. Evelyn Lineberry to alter a residence, adding servant quarters, at 802 South Main Street. Sizes of units of construction are 22 by 40, 16 by 40, 23 by 30 and 20 by 30 feet.

George Vannaman received a permit for $10,000 to build a brick veneer duplex at 606 North Carrizo Street. Size will be 32 by 44 feet.

A permit for $9,000 was received by J. C. Hall to build a brick veneer residence with detached garage at 1702 North Louisiana Street. Size will be 33 by 48 feet.

W. D. Ladd took an $8,000 permit to build a frame residence with attached garage at 1706 North Big Spring Street. Size will be 29 by 49 feet.

G. C. Ponder received a permit for $6,500 to build a frame residence with attached garage at 1402 North Loraine Street. Size will be 24 by 56 feet.

Mrs. Mahotah Muldrow was issued a permit for $5,000 to alter a frame-stucco residence, adding garage apartment, at 1908 West Highway Street. Sizes will be 22 by 36 and 12 by 12 feet.

Other permits of the week included: Midland Land and Development

Company, $2,000, frame office structure at 509 South Loraine Street, 24 by 28 feet; D. R. Carter, $2,000, frame apartment structure at 807 South Big Spring, 20 by 20 feet; A. E. Cameron, $1,200, concrete and tile detached garage at 1011 West Tennessee Street, 24 by 28 feet; Lee McKenzie, $1,000, frame residence at 809 East Kentucky Street, 16 by 28 feet; Murray-Young Motors, Ltd., $1,000, alter brick and tile structure at 223 East Wall Street, cutting door; W. M. Harrison, $1,000, frame residence at 304 South Lee Street, 10 by 24 feet; Eliser Gonzales, $1,000, concrete and tile residence at 511 North Lee Street, 16 by 48 feet.

M. S. Ware, $850, alter frame residence at 916 North Edwards Street, 12 by 14 feet; Mrs. Nellie Allen, $750, alter frame residence at 1011 South Main Street, 14 by 16 feet; James K. Wilson, $600, alter frame residence at 911 West Kentucky Street, 8 by 24 feet; Arthur Wilson, $600, frame residence at 807 East Washington Street, 14 by 28 feet; W. M. Harrison, $600, frame residence at 509 1/2 North Terral Street, 10 by 24 feet; J. W. Prothro, $600, alter tile-stucco residence at 410 North Marienfield Street, 8 by 12 feet; and Henry Squire, $500, frame residence at 108 North Adams Street, 12 by 24 feet.

Mrs. Mahotah Muldrow was issued a permit for $5,000 to alter a frame-stucco residence, adding garage apartment, at 1908 West Highway Street. Sizes will be 22 by 36 and 12 by 12 feet.

Atom Defender

In its semi-annual report to Congress, the Atomic Energy Commission said that it has a powerful defense army of its own to combat enemy attacks or sabotage. This guard force, which has its own tanks, planes and guns, is commanded by Rear Adm. John E. Gingrich, above, the commission's security officer.

Illustrating— Tags Can Aid Locating Pet

One of the advantages of tagging your dog is assistance it may prove in helping to locate the pet if it gets lost, Chief of Police Jack Ellington reminded citizens Saturday.

He reported this example: A letter was received by the police department from San Diego, Calif., and it read: "I have in my possession a beautiful black cocker spaniel male dog, 1948 Midland, Texas license number 474, also rabies tag number 371. Please advise as to ownership. Signed: Mrs. R. T. Shuffin.

Checking the dog tag, Midland police found that the dog belonged to Mrs. F. C. Fitzgerald, who had moved from Midland to Palm Beach, Calif.

C. of C. Directors Will Meet Monday

Directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce will hold their first meeting of the year at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Hotel Scharbauer. President R. D. (Bob) Scruggs said Saturday the officers and directors for 1949 were elected at the Chamber's annual membership meeting last month.

Scruggs said he will submit a list of standing committees for the approval of the directors. Lists of the proposed appointments have been mailed to the board members.

The directors also will consider a program of work for the year. The Highway Committee will submit a report concerning the proposed county bond issue for highway improvements.

Scruggs urged all directors to attend the session.

T&P Authorized To Discontinue Trains

Discontinuance of Texas and Pacific passenger trains No. 5 and 6 has been authorized by the Texas Railroad Commission, it was learned Saturday.

The railroad's application to discontinue the trains was granted provided that trains No. 7 and 8 between Dallas and Monahans are extended to a Dallas-El Paso run. No effective date for the change was announced.

Trains No. 5 and 6 were put on last fall on an experimental basis with cities served by the schedule agreeing not to protest in event they were not profitable.

WANTED FOR BURGLARY

Lamesa officers Friday asked Midland police to watch for a man wanted for burglary in Lamesa. He was not seen here.

1948 Swedish Beauty Queen Is Victim Of Hotel Room Shooting

PARIS—(AP)—The blonde Swedish beauty queen, Betty Bjurstrom, lay near death Saturday from bullet wounds inflicted in a hotel room shooting.

The police detained her Italian-born husband, Renato Senise. They said he told of shooting her Friday night because she wanted a divorce and custody of their four-year-old son. Senise is 44, his wife 26 years old.

Even if Miss Bjurstrom recovers, she may be paralyzed for life, police reported. Two bullets struck her spine. An operation removed a third.

Miss Bjurstrom, daughter of a taxi driver, won the beauty queen crown and title "Miss Sweden of 1948" in her country's annual contest.

FIND STOLEN CAR

Midland officers early Saturday found a 1939 Ford pickup truck which had been stolen from Walter Tredwell. The pickup was parked at a residence when taken.

Texas Livestock Losses Not Heavy, Says USDA Report

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas livestock suffered comparatively small losses during the most severe January freeze in many years, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported Saturday.

Grazing throughout the state benefited from the additional moisture and early Spring grazing prospects are good, the USDA said.

There was heavy shrinkage in cattle from the bad weather but losses of older animals were light. However, losses of new-born range calves were "very heavy." A strong demand for stocker cows and calves is expected as soon as pastures respond to the improved moisture.

Many cattle on wheat pasturage in the Plains countries have been shipped. Ewes and yearling lambs born during the last week of January were lost, the USDA said.

Reuther Proposes House Manufacture By Aircraft Plants

DETROIT—(AP)—Walter Reuther proposed Saturday that America's surplus aircraft plants be converted to the mass production of 20,000,000 pre-fabricated houses.

The CIO United Auto Workers president said his double-barreled program would keep plants tooled and manned for an instant shift to plane building in case of war.

The plan has been submitted to President Truman. Reuther said the CIO was going to press for federal action to put it over.

According to the red-haired union leader, you'd be able to buy one of these mass-produced, two-bedroom homes for less than $6,000. The government would take care of the down payment through a loan. Your installments would be little higher than present rentals.

"We'd stamp out whole bathrooms and kitchens just as we do auto bodies," Reuther said. "There's no doubt we could put this over."

ARMED MAN WANTED

Midland police Saturday were alerted by Odessa police to watch for two armed subjects wanted in that city. The two men were not seen here.

Arms And Training Not More Soldiers, Called Europe's Need

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Official Washington is about convinced that what Western Europe nations need is more arms and coordinated military training rather than more soldiers.

This trend in thinking became evident Saturday in the light of discussions in authoritative quarters. As a result, there is no apparent disposition here to press the countries of Western Europe to build up a large number of divisions this year. Rather, they will be encouraged to provide their present force with the best equipment and training possible under the circumstances.

And, if an aggressor should strike in an effort to roll westward to the Atlantic, it would be assumed his front line forces would be fully equipped and virtually self-sufficient for the first phases of such a campaign.

Costs Not Determined
Thus, it is reasoned that even a heavy aerial blow at his supply centers far behind the fighting line would be of little immediate avail. So such a speedy march might best be prevented on the ground.

Now and for some time to come, the role of the United States in the Atlantic defense program is likely to be chiefly that of military adviser and furnisher of weapons.

Because estimates of the total cost to the United States in dollars and equipment must be ready for submission to Congress soon, American military authorities here and in the London sessions of the Western European defense organization are striving to come up with some reasonably concrete figures. Unofficial guesses have ranged between $1,000,000,000 and $2,000,000,000.

What the United States is trying to do now is to find out the extent of this deficit, determine how much of it can be met by withdrawing equipment from existing stocks, and estimate how much new production will be necessary.

Blockade-Busting Ex-GI Given Fine And Prison Term

BERLIN — (AP) — Edward J. Lada's mission of love got him a $70 fine and seven-month prison sentence in a U. S. Military Government court today.

The 28-year-old former parachute trooper from Newark, N. J., was convicted on charges of conduct "prejudicial to good order" of the occupation forces in Germany. He said he was apologetic.

Lada had won a lot of sympathy when he was arrested last August after having cracked the Soviet blockade. He said he came here to see his sweetheart, Ruth Rickie, 23, whom he had wooed when he served with the U. S. Army in Germany.

Gets Valentine By Roundabout Route

DALLAS — (AP) — Joe Bob Binford, 11, addressed a valentine to his girl friend, stamped it and hitched it to a pair of helium-filled balloons.

Several days later, Sybil Herbst, a month younger than Joe Bob, received the valentine. It came by mail from Corsicana.

With it came a note from two older men—Alan Gaines and Randall Jackson, students at Navarro Junior College in Corsicana. They wrote:

"We found the balloons x x about eleven miles southeast of Corsicana, lodged in a tree top. Rescued the valentine and sent the balloons on their way."

Joe Bob had figured something like that might happen. He had enclosed this note with the valentine: "If you love girls, please add your name and drop this valentine in mail box."

Texas Citrus Loss Now Thought Heavy

AUSTIN — (AP) — Processors of Texas' citrus belt are working night and day to salvage as much of the freeze-damaged grapefruit and orange crop as possible.

A special report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture Saturday estimated that 38 per cent of the unharvested grapefruit crop will be lost. The entire orange crop before the late January freeze, will be down about 24 per cent.

The USDA said unharvested orange crop losses will run about one-third. The freeze will cost growers about 15 per cent of the total estimated orange production.

Federal Spending To Maintain Prosperity

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Expected federal spending increases should uphold prosperity this year, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics said Saturday.

The agency has a favorable record of forecasting changes in business conditions. Its 1949 prediction was conditioned on congressional approval of the higher expenditures proposed by President Truman in his budget message.

The Oil Tool Pusher

Howsley To Be Featured Speaker At API Session

Andrew M. Howsley, independent oil operator of Albany, and general counsel for the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association will be the featured speaker for the first 1949 meeting of the Permian Basin

Andrew M. Howsley

Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute. The program will be at 6 p. m., February 25 in Odessa. Howsley's address will cover the legislative problems which are facing the Texas oil industry, both on the state and national level. He is in touch with all those matters, and W. D. Lane, chairman of the chapter and Howsley's attorney, said he can assure all members of the organization that they will benefit from hearing the address.

Howsley has served as general counsel for the association since 1946. Prior to that appointment he was retained as attorney for the organization.

Following law school training at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., and the University of Texas, Howsley began practicing law in 1923 at Albany, Shakerfork County, and later served as county attorney of that county for two terms. He also served as a member of the 42nd Legislature in the House of Representatives.

His career in law and in the operation of stripper wells in West-Central Texas has given Howsley wide experience with legal, legislative, and production problems of the Texas oil operator.

Following the talk in the Ector County Auditorium, a barbeque dinner will be served.

Time And Strip Teasers Threaten Old World Charm Of New Orleans 'Quarter'

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — New Orleans is trying to save the old world charm of its French Quarter from the inroads of time and strip teasers.

Thus far, there has been significant progress. New buildings are featuring the eighteenth century architecture. In recent months repairs have been made to hundreds of picturesque but crumbling old structures.

Meanwhile, a number of night spots have been persuaded to tone down or eliminate their risqué girl shows. But the crucial battle of this front is expected when the crowds come for Mardi Gras, which falls March 1. Visitors will be looking for fun and some will prefer it raw.

"If we can get through carnival okay, we've got this thing licked," says the chairman of a businessmen's committee striving to clean up the quarter.

Burlesque Battle
The battle on burlesque and strip shows is an old New Orleans problem—how to blend the city's quaintness with its reputation for lusty sport. As Police Superintendent A. A. Waters puts it:

"The city government realizes that visitors and some local citizens expect to have a good time here. We don't want to make a Boston Comm. of the quarter. We believe it is good community advertising to permit this area to degenerate into the atmosphere of a cheap and noisy badway house."

In previous marches to morality, the city has eliminated more extreme forms of vice. A wide open red light district, the practice of keeping squadrons of mistresses, and various pastimes associated with lusty waterfront neighborhoods.

However, those were native-grown evils. Even gentler folk tell visitors about the city's wicked past.

But the burlesque, say the natives, isn't a part of the city's life and charm and never can be. The owner of one place, tired at complaints, re-

Sauer Resigns Post With Cities Service

Joe G. Sauer, district landman in the Permian Basin for Cities Service Oil Company, has resigned and is leaving that concern on March 1. He has not announced his plans for the future, other than to say that he will remain in Midland and in the oil business. Sauer went to work in the oil business almost 20 years ago. He started with the old Indian Territories Illuminating Oil Company. When that concern was absorbed by Cities Service in 1941, he went along in the merger and has been on the Cities Service payroll ever since.

Nine years in Permian Basin territory in 1940. The first four years of that service was spent as a scout. He has been district landman for West Texas and Southeast New Mexico for the past five years.

During the last two years of his scouting work Sauer served as a vice president of the Midland Oil Scouts Association.

Before coming to the Permian Basin he worked in Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Mississippi, and in other areas of Texas. Sauer has been made by Cities Service executive regarding the identity of the person who will succeed Sauer on the Permian Basin district landman's job.

Oil & Gas Log-Flanker Spudded To Reagan Bend Strike

Plymouth Oil Company has spudded an offset to its No. 1-46 Elliott, discovery from the Bend section of the Permian in West-Central Region County.

The new semi-wildcat is the concern's No. 1-50 Elliott, 690 feet from north and west lines of section 50, block Y, TCRW survey, about one and one-fourth miles northeast of the Benedum field in Region County.

It was set 215 feet in red beds and making new hole. The last swabbing gauge on perforations at 13,049-139 feet in the Ellenburger showed 55.56 barrels of oil and three barrels of water in nine hours.

A bridging plug has now been set at 10,700 feet and the venture was operating at 10,520-10,635 feet in the Strawn. In case that formation proves unproductive, operator may return to the Ellenburger and try to make a well there.

Location is 960 feet from south and west lines of section 20, block 40, T-2-S, TP survey.

Barnes Abandons Andrews Wildcat

J. C. Barnes was unofficially reported to have plugged and abandoned his No. 1-1520-10-285 and West-Central Andrews County wildcat, 690 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 1, block A-41, pal survey, about 12 miles west and a little south of the town of Andrews.

Total depth was 7,507 feet in lime. No showing shows of oil or gas were reported.

Sun Deepens After DST In Tom Green

Sun Oil Company, et al., No. 1 Pullman, Central Tom Green County wildcat, to 6,000 feet to test into the Ellenburger, was making hole below 1,190 feet in lower Permian lime and shale.

The project took a two-hour drill-stem test at 762-87 feet on a zone in the Clear Fork which had some slight oil stains.

There was a slight blow of air at the surface for three minutes. Recovery was five feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water.

Hole Wildcat Drills On With No Shows

Cooper-Hemphill Oil Company No. 1 Alley, Central Hale County wildcat, near the town of Hale Center, and 690 feet from north and west lines of section 10, block A-3, ELBER survey, had reached 5,022 feet in black shale, which is unofficially identified, and was drilling ahead. So far it has not reported having logged any possibilities of production.

Russell To Work In Geological Consultant Field

Harry J. Russell, Jr., is a new geologist consultant in Midland. He has established offices at 109 Wilkerson Building.

He recently resigned as consulting geologist for the Midland Trading & Production Corporation. He had been with that concern approximately one and one-half years.

Russell took his B. S. degree in geology from the University of Iowa in 1938. He did graduate work at that institution through 1939, and then put in a hitch with the Iowa Geological Survey.

Was An Air Officer
He went from that assignment to job with Gulf Oil Corporation in Wichita, Kans., and remained there until he went in the U. S. Army during the war. He served as an Air Force intelligence officer and was released with the rank of major.

When he left military service in 1945 Gulf assigned him to Hobbs, N. M., and he worked there until he joined American Trading & Production Corporation in 1947. During his first six months with that company he was assigned to work in Virginia. Following that he came to Midland and has been here since.

tion 24-36, had reached 11,222 feet in black lime, thought to still be Mississippian, and was drilling ahead.

This development is one location south of the Crossroads discovery. It is extra low geologically, but has found possibilities of making a new discovery for the area from the Mississippian in a section above the present level of operations.

Testing Devonian
Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Sawyer, 690 feet from north and east lines of section 33-36-36e, and a southwest outpost to the Crossroads field, topped the Devonian, according to samples at 12,710 feet. Elevation is 4,043 feet. According to geological correlations it is approximately 500 feet low on the top of that formation to the initial producer from the Devonian in the Crossroads field. The exploration was taking a drillstem test at 12,705-745 feet, at last report.

Informal sources said the zone being investigated did not show any evidences of petroleum in the drilling samples.

Oil Development Company of Texas No. 1 Santa Fe Pacific, an outpost to the Crossroads field, and 1,980 feet from north and 690 feet from west lines of section 27-36-36e, was due to have spudded at the end of last week. It should get surface casing set and cemented and be ready to drill ahead by the end of the current week.

Sets Intermediate Pipe
Stanolind No. 1 Leonard-Federal, in extreme Southeast Lea County, and 680 feet from south and east lines of section 11-26-37e, had cemented a string of 9 5/8-inch casing at 3,762 feet with 1,200 sacks of cement. It is now waiting for the cement job to cure before drilling ahead.

Tomlinson Elected President Of AAPG

C. W. Tomlinson, independent petroleum geologist and oil operator of Ardmore, Okla., has been elected president of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists for 1949-50. He succeeds Paul Weaver of Gulf Oil Corporation at Houston.

Also elected to offices for the next term were T. A. Lind, Toronto, Ontario, vice president; H. N. Toler, Jackson, Miss., secretary-treasurer; and Alfred H. Bell, Urbana, Ill., editor of the A. A. P. G. Bulletin.

The new officers will assume their duties during the annual meeting slated for St. Louis, Mo., March 14-17.

Retiring officers other than the president are Roy M. Barnes, Continental Oil Company, Los Angeles, vice president; J. V. Howell, independent of Tulsa, secretary-treasurer; and Clarence L. Moody, The Ohio Oil Company, Shreveport, editor.

Dinner Gong Upsets Favorites At 'Nila

ARCADIA, CALIF.—(AP)—Dinner Gong won the $50,000 San Antonio Handicap Saturday before 48,000 fans at Santa Anita Park.

Dinner Gong raced the mile and one-eighth over a muddy track in 1:49 3/5 and won by about five lengths.

He is owned by Abe Hirschberg of San Francisco and was the longest shot on the board.

Autocrat was second in a photo finish with War Trophy.

Dinner Gong paid $23.60, $10.10 and $5.30; Autocrat $6.60 and $4.50; War Trophy $6.50.

On Trust, the heavy favorite as an entry with Ace Admiral, ran fourth in the seven-horse field, and Ace Admiral also failed to get into the money.

The winner collected $36,700 net out of a gross purse of $60,300.

Four candidates were scratched out because of the muddy track. They were Rose Beam, Sleepfather, Solidarity and See-Te-See.

The winner was ridden by Jackie Westrope.

VFW Tops City Loop

The VFW team holds the lead in the City Basketball League.

But the improved JayCee quintet beat the Vets in a feature game last week. The Jakes won two games during the week, whipping the VFW 44-37 and Magnolia 61-29.

Other scores of the week were: VFW 35, Ranch House 28; Thompson Agency 62, West Texas Office Supply 23.

Games now are being played in the MHS gym for the convenience of fans. Former site was the VFW recreation hall at Midland Air Terminal.

Games scheduled this week include: (Tuesday night) Magnolia vs. VFW, Ted Thompson vs. JayCees; (Thursday night) West Texas Office Supply vs. Ranch House, Ted Thompson vs. Magnolia.

Starting time for first games is 8 p. m.

A meeting of team managers and captains was called for 3 p. m. Sunday at the VFW hall. Discussion included league rules and the holding of a tournament at the end of the season. Each team was urged to have representation at this meeting.

—With TANNER LAINE

If anyone had told Coach Jack Mashburn at the beginning of the basketball season that his 1948-49 cagers would win 11 games he would have thought the informant crazy.

But, by the way, the Purple did win half of its games and scored 777 points doing it.

It is true the MHS team did not gain the District 3-AA playoff tourney. However, it wasn't such a bad season at that.

Mashburn opened the campaign with one of the most inexperienced squads you can imagine. One boy had varsity experience. The others were just an ambitious bunch of kids up from the ranks. But they were eager.

The 1948-49 basketekers won 11, lost 11. They won five district contests and lost seven. They were the first to beat Big Spring at home.

COACH MASHBURN

into one of the greatest guards in Midland High history. And among these others were hustlers, all the way: Kent Miller, Lloyd Henderson, Reed Gilmore, Don Bissell, Harrie Smith, Larry Buckingham, Mickey McGee, Don Deel and Jimmy Conine.

The "B" boys didn't win many but they picked up valuable experience for next year. Watch for these boys: Arnold Drake, David Weaver, Billy Phillips, Oliver Phillips, Walt Spiller, Bob Burks, Bill Branch, Buddy Johnson, Dwayne Bush and Jimmy Chaucery.

To the coaches and the boys, you did a good job!

The Longhorn League is ambitious to cut some of the drag out of games of the 1949 season.

Uprock's alert batboys, who will supply the mumps with pellets plenty pronto.

Also urged are faster strides to the plate by pitchers. Pitchers are ball players, too. They should be ready to bat their turn with no prima donna acts, one manager has wisely said.

The Longhorn League could stand a lot of "hurry" Plans to cut 15 or 20 minutes per game would be appreciated indeed by all. We will see if it can and will be done. Hope, hope, hope!

There is an old saying that has been handed down through the years which goes, "Sometimes we can live so close to the forest that we cannot see the trees."

Perhaps we can't see the trees any more but America has turned to a product of the forests for its recreation in such numbers that a major business has sprung up in the land in the last decade almost un-noticed.

For, you see, a great number of these trees are being fashioned into bowling pins, and America has become a nation of bowlers to bring about one of the greatest transitions in sports.

Each week, across this land of ours, more than 20,000,000 persons step to the foul line in the various bowling establishments and make their bid to topple all of the pins. Reduced to simple statistics this means that one person in every seven miles away to the bowling alley at least one night a week.

The transition reached its peak during the war years. During those days with such things as gasoline rationing and around-the-clock work in the defense plants, the bowling lanes offered the best opportunity for relaxation and friendly competition, inasmuch as there was an establishment in almost every neighborhood.

Battling Levinsky, Former Light Heavy Boxing Champ, Dies

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Battling Levinsky, who fought 560 bouts in his 19-year ring career and once held the light heavyweight championship, died Saturday at the age of 59.

An illness of several months was aggravated by a recent automobile accident. Levinsky then sank rapidly until he died at home.

Levinsky's real name was Barney Lebowitz. He began his boxing career as Barney Williams and three years later changed to his more renowned name.

Managed by Dumb Dan Morgan, Levinsky grabbed the world's light heavy crown in 1916 by beating Jack Dillon in a 10-rounder at Boston. He lost it four years later by a fourth-round knockout at the hands of France's Georges Carpentier in Jersey City, N. J.

The battler continued fighting and in 1922 lost a 12-round decision to Gene Tunney in a bout for the American light heavy title. His last fight was in 1929 when he was knocked out in five rounds by Otto Von Porat at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Bill Edwards Named Coach At Vanderbilt

NASHVILLE, TENN.—(P)—Vanderbilt University officially announced Saturday appointment of William (Bill) Edwards, line coach of the Cleveland Browns, as head football coach and director of intercollegiate athletics. Edwards takes over the same job that Henry (Red) Sanders held when he moved to UCLA as head coach recently. Vanderbilt Vice Chancellor C. M. Sarritt said the contract is for three years and allows Edwards to pick his own staff. The size of the salary was not disclosed, in accordance with Vanderbilt policy, Sarritt said. Edwards said he had not picked his assistants yet but he wants "men who can teach boys fundamentals of blocking and tackling." And he added: "You can't win without those two."

CLINIC REPORT

GALL BLADDER:
The lady had spent seventeen years in constant misery. Pains in the right side grew steadily worse and she spent most of her nights pacing the floor or hunched up in bed. There were terrible spells of vomiting that left her faint and despairing. Of course there was an endless volume of medicine, with its usual results. An operation was half-heartedly suggested as a possible solution. Chiropractic, Neurocalometer and X-ray examinations found the point of nerve wave interference. Precision adjustments released the pressure. Result: Skin clear and normal health. It's as simple as that.

LUMBAGO:
This man's job as a carpenter necessitated much bending and stooping and he was in constant agony with lumbago and sciatic pains while working. An ad in the paper, similar to this, aroused his interest in Chiropractic. Neurocalometer and X-ray examinations of his spine were made, finding the point of nerve interference and this man now works at his trade free from pain. Is YOUR lumbago going to stay with YOU? It is your choice.

STOMACH ULCERS:
A middle aged lady was underweight and bothered with severe headaches. Medical diagnosis: gall stones, stomach ulcers, and chronic appendicitis. A careful analysis was made with Neurocalometer and X-ray, followed by precision adjustments. Now, in her own words, "Today I feel like a new woman, thanks to the Neurocalometer and X-ray system of health building."

I AGREE WITH THIS PHYSICIAN!
Under spinal adjustments, diseases are cut short and chronic diseases recover which have been believed to be incurable.

Odessa Is Host City For Baseball Clinic Scheduled Monday

AUSTIN.—(P)—Thirteen one-day baseball clinics will be held in Texas as this week with major league scouts conducting the meetings for high school and amateur baseball coaches and managers. The first clinic is being held Sunday at El Paso. Gus Mancuso, former major league catcher and now scout for the St. Louis Browns, and John Hudson, scout for the New York Giants, form a two-man team to instruct in clinics in half of the state. Jack Knott, scout for the Cincinnati Reds, and Bob Bragan, Brooklyn Dodger scout, will form another team. North, West, South, Latin Win Contests

North Elementary beat South Elementary 14-9 and West Elementary beat Latin American School 20-14 in sports program basketball games Saturday in the MHS gym. In girls volleyball, South Elementary defeated North Elementary 5-0 and Latin American School beat West Elementary 51-18. Jerry McOee poured in eight points to spark the North attack in its basketball win. Gary Howard scored nine points in West's win over the Latins in a hard-fought ball game.

Midland Junior Quint Dropped

ODESSA.—Midland's freshmen cagers (ninth grade) lost in the semi-finals here Saturday afternoon of the Odessa junior tourney. The Purple's loss was to Pecons 23-26. It was a hard-fought contest. Midland advanced to the semi-finals with a first-round victory 22-17 over Big Spring. Pecons defeated McCamey in the first round. Playing in the finals Saturday night were Odessa and Pecons. Odessa advanced with a win over Monahan and over the winner of the Andrews-Crane Battle.

Ellis Parts Wins Upton Cage Tourney

RANKIN.—Ellis Parts of San Angelo copped the championship of the first annual Upton County Independent Basketball Tournament by defeating News Publication Company of McCamey 59 to 39 in the finals here Saturday night. Imperial took third place honors by outlasting Rankin 53-45. The San Angelo entry advanced to the finals with a 61-56 win over Imperial, with the McCamey News-men drubbing Rankin 64-47. In the final tilt, Hopkins of Ellis Parts was high point man with 20 tallies. Counts of San Angelo had 18 and Benson of McCamey was

Four Pros Split Texas Open Lead

SAN ANTONIO.—(P)—Four professionals—Johnny Palmer, Dave Douglas, Sam Snead and Dick Metz—would up in a tie for first place Saturday at the end of 54 holes in the $10,000 Texas Open. Palmer, the Badin, N. C., star, came into the eighth lead but he went one over on the hole and dropped into a deadlock with the other three at 70. He had a one-under-par 70 for the last round.

Webb To Preside At Loop Meeting

Harold Webb, owner-manager of the Midland Indians and vice president of the loop, will preside at a scheduled meeting of the Longhorn League at 2 p. m. Sunday in the Bluebonnet Hotel at Sweetwater. The meeting was booked to discuss the 1949 schedule Hal Sayles, league president, is unable to attend the session. The Duke of Wellington, with a purchased commission, became a lieutenant-colonel in the English Army at the age of 22.

Upton County Stock Show Winner

Mona Sue Branch of Rankin, high school freshman and 4-H Club member, showed the grand champion and reserve champion lambs at the recent Upton County Livestock Show at McCamey. The grand champion, a mutton, weighed 134 pounds and brought $2.50 a pound at the auction which followed the judging. The C. W. Brown Motor Company of McCamey was the purchaser. The reserve champ was a heavy Rambouillet. Mona Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guy Branch of Rankin.

He Carries A Lot Of Weight

Rep. C. O. (Fats) Baker carries a lot of weight in the Georgia House of Representatives. So much, in fact, that the state had to have a special chair built to hold the gentleman from Clarke County. Rep. H. Doyal Salter from Upton County lights Baker's cigar. The large representative keeps his weight a secret.

Alfred Petty Is New Allis-Chalmers Agent In Midland

J. K. Redden, district manager for the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company, Tractor Division, Saturday announced the appointment of Alfred (Red) Petty of Midland as sales and service agent in the Midland trade territory, including Midland, Ector, Andrews, Upton and Crane Counties, and adjacent areas in the Permian Basin.

Temporary sales headquarters have been established at 400 South Main Street where some equipment now is on display. Petty plans to erect a new and completely modern building at 401 South Main Street, with construction scheduled to begin shortly. The new dealer has the latest type tractor equipment available for immediate delivery at factory established list prices.

Petty has resided in Midland the last four years and has been active in civic affairs. He is a Jaycee and a Rotarian and has assisted in most civic campaigns during his residence here.

Allis-Chalmers products include tractors of all sizes, industrial engines and harvesting equipment, including a complete line of farm machinery. The branch here will stock a complete line of parts and factory trained personnel will be on duty to service all Allis-Chalmers units.

Petty invites farmers and others to inspect the new "WD" tractor which now is on display at his temporary location.

Dirt, Squirt and Quirt

— FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS —
By DON MCGREGOR

The Board of Directors of the Midland County Farm Bureau met Tuesday evening to select and appoint a public relations committee. Bethal Graham, president, was in charge of the meeting. More than 1,500 head of livestock will be exhibited.

Everett Colborn, producer of the World Championship Midland Rodeo, will present the rodeo performances at San Angelo, beginning at 2 p. m. daily. Many top contestants of the rodeo world will compete in the event.

Thirty-two outstanding breeding animals will go on sale at Big Spring Monday at the fifth auction of the Howard County Registered Hereford Breeders Association.

Included in the consignments are 25 bulls and seven cows. The animals will be judged at a special showing and the sale will begin at 1 p. m. at the former Big Spring Army Air Field. Bill Read, Sterling City Rancher and a Texas A&M graduate in animal husbandry, will be judge, while Walter Britten, College Station, will be auctioneer.

Sam Buchanan is president of the Howard County Registered Hereford Breeders Association, while Tom Roden is vice-president, and C. A. Walker is secretary-treasurer.

Concerning the moisture, the U. S. Department of Agriculture releases the following about the state as a whole:

Benefits anticipated from increased supplies of moisture over the state will be much more than compensate for losses attributed to recent frozes. Practically all areas of the state now have an abundance of moisture. Winter grains are, of course, mostly dormant, but were already showing better color and should respond rapidly to warm weather. Snow cover prevented any appreciable freeze damage to winter grains and cover crops. Winter weeds and rescue grasses were also beginning to grow and ranchers were encouraged by prospects for early grazing. Death losses were surprisingly light.

As the snow covering receded during the week with moderating temperatures, farmers and ranchmen found losses limited generally to animals weakened by earlier inadequate feed supply or old age, and to some new born calves and lambs. Overall losses were lighter than had been anticipated while the storm was in progress. All livestock continued to be fed as range and pasture feed was still short. Soil moisture reserves are now adequate to excessive in all parts of the state and winter weeds, clovers, rescue grass and small grains that will make rapid growth as soon as temperatures moderate further.

Most persons connected with agriculture agree that now a good time to begin thinking about means of preventing wind erosion, but just what to do is another problem. Experts tell this writer that one of the best means of preventing land blowing and improving the soil at the same time is to plant cover crops and turn them under. However, that doesn't work too well here because there is usually not enough fall moisture to support cover crops.

County listing seems to be one of the most popular methods. While it doesn't supply the soil with organic matter, it does keep the wind from blowing straight down the rows and picking up soil as it goes.

Many farmers leave stubble on the land.

Since J. A. Boyd has taken on the added duties of ACA administrative officer of Ector, Crane and Andrews counties as well as having charge of the Midland County office, he spends each Wednesday in Andrews. He hasn't had a chance to work out a definite schedule as yet. The remainder of the week is divided between Odessa, Midland and Crane.

County committeeman W. E. Pigg moved from his farm into Midland last week.

The Midland County Committee will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday to review the performance of the ACA program thus far and to approve reconstitution of farms.

J. R. Cuffman, Midland High School vocational agriculture teacher and FFA advisor, took the Midland FFA judging team to El Paso for the Southwestern Livestock Show judging contests sponsored by Sul Ross State College.

Judges who made the trip were Frank Merritt, James Land and Joe Winkler. Alternates were Ervin Baumann and Earl Flowers.

The annual Palomino Horse Breeders of America meeting will be held in Mineral Wells 3-5 along with the Palomino show.

The Hardin-Simmons University Interscholastic Rodeo will be held April 28-30 with E. W. Ledbetter as manager. Assistants will be Carl Myers and Paul T. Bailey.

Plans are nearing completion for the annual San Angelo Fat Stock Show and Rodeo, March 3-6. Tuesday is the deadline for entries in the show, one of the largest in West Texas. More than 1,500 head of livestock will be exhibited.

Talmadge Opponents Claim Formation Of Super-Long Dynasty

ATLANTA — (P) — Talmadge forces are pushing through legislation in Georgia which opponents say could create a political dynasty like the late Huey Long regime in Louisiana.

Day after day the program of young Gov. Herman Talmadge has met cries on the floor of the Legislature of "Tyranny . . . dictatorship . . . invasion of the Bill of Rights."

In five fast-moving weeks, the assembly has approved many bills extending the governor's power and his opportunity for reelection.

Talmadge said Saturday the opposition charges "are only what is expected. They would cry dictator if I signed an order for mother's day."

If upheld, the bills as passed or in the process of passing would: 1. Place the State Democratic Executive Committee, which Talmadge controls, above the courts in deciding if Talmadge is eligible for reelection, a much-debated question.

2. Give the committee power over all other questions of eligibility and nomination for all state offices.

3. Give the Legislature sole power to determine who is elected governor and who is qualified.

Inauguration of a governor by the Legislature would not be subject to challenge by courts.

Two years ago, Talmadge was elected and installed as governor illegally by the Legislature. After 67 days in office he was tossed out by a Georgia Supreme Court decision.

4. Reduce the number of voters. Present registration lists of 1,200,000 voters, including about 150,000 negroes, would be wiped out. Citizens would have to register again every four years. Registration would be packed into four months—just before the governor's race. Secretary of State Ben Fortson said this would cut the voting list more than half.

5. Extend county unit system. 6. Impose tightened registration procedure, requiring voters to read "intelligibly" or write "legibly" to the satisfaction of registrars. Illiterates would be given a chance to qualify by answering 10 of 30 questions specified in the bill. Talmadge forces say this is designed to prevent mass voting by negroes.

7. Give Talmadge power to designate which banks shall hold state funds on deposit and the amounts. The power was transferred from the state treasurer, a constitutional officer bonded to $100,000. The governor is not bonded. Banks in turn may invest a portion of the deposits at large profits.

8. Tighten newspaper libel laws. Opponents charged this was an effort to stifle criticism.

Add a little garlic salt to the flour in which chicken for trying is to be rolled for a new and piquant flavor. Paprika also may be added.

Britain Has the Folies, Too

Paris isn't the only city that has a Folies Bergeres, with a chorus line of scantily-clad beauties. There's a Folies in London, and these girls are trying out for the chorus. The audition was held in a London theater.

Medical Prices Will Increase

Shortages always raise prices. The Texas Medical Association, by restricting enrollment in Texas medical schools to barely enough to replace deaths and retirement has cut down our supply of doctors, especially in our rural areas, thereby causing a shortage and higher fees for services, while 3,000 pre-med students find the gates barred against them. They want to relieve that shortage but can't.

This same Medical Association now plans to get control of the supply of all competitive healing professions, medical and non-medical so they can cut off replacements in these healing professions and make the shortage even more acute and thus raise the prices even higher than they are today.

The medical "Basic Science" bill (Senate Bill 63) is designed to give them complete control of all branches of the healing arts and it is being pushed by unlimited funds and a high-priced lobby. If we the people do not write, phone or visit our senator and representative we will have this infamous legislation forced upon us. Let us stop it.

This is a call for action. If you do not know the name of your senator and representative in Austin you can phone this newspaper for their names. Address your letters to them at "Capitol Station," Austin, Texas.

Write, wire or phone today. Stop that "Basic Science" bill.

Approval Of Full ERP Budget Forecast

WASHINGTON —(P)— Chairman Bloom (D-NY) and Connally (D-Texas) forecast Saturday that the House and Senate Foreign Affairs Committees will approve the $5,580,000,000 second installment of European aid without a cut.

Connally predicted the Senate committee wouldn't even make a token cut, like a five per cent slash in all government spending recommended by Senator George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

Foreign Minister Rajk said the Western Powers cannot influence the Hungarian government in the Mindszent affair and "we will face the discussion of the case before the United Nations."

In a statement to the official Hungarian news agency, MTI, he said President Truman, Acheson and Bevin "pretended to be the defenders of freedom of religion and human rights, but camouflaged their brutal attempts to interfere with the internal affairs of this free and sovereign country."

Midlanders Invited To Garden City Show

Midland citizens, through the Chamber of Commerce, have been invited to attend the annual Glasscock County Livestock Show at Garden City February 25. The invitation was extended by the Garden City Lions Club, sponsor of the annual event.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Delbert Downing said an effort will be made to have a large delegation from Midland in attendance at the show. Midlanders will wear special hats.

Judging in the show will start at 10 a. m., to be followed by a free barbecue at noon. An auction sale will be held in the afternoon.

Midland representatives the last several years have outnumbered those from other cities at the Glasscock County show.

Small squares of fish fillets may be dipped in the same covering batter you would use for fried chicken and cooked in deep fat.

Dick Kryhoski, who will try out with the New York Yankees this spring, also has his eye on Alice Renner, his fellow student at Bergen Junior College, Teaneck, N.J. A steady campus twosome, the couple smile happily as the first baseman records their romance in the time-honored fashion. He batted in 87 runs hitting .394 for the Kansas City club of the American Association last season.

Plans Shaped For New Kermit Hotel

KERMIT—Further plans on Kermit's proposed hotel-office building were made Thursday night when the 20-man temporary organization committee heard a detailed report of how Borger recently has completed a similar project. After hearing the report, the committee, with Ben F. Meek, general chairman, presiding, voted unanimously to contact the same firm which worked with Borger, Hockenbury System, Inc., Harrisburg, Pa., specialists in hotel financing, relative to a survey in Kermit.

Charlie Green, manager of the Kermit Chamber of Commerce, had been in the Panhandle city earlier in the week investigating and obtaining information as to how the program was worked there.

Donald Tracy, secretary of Kermit's 20-man organization committee, was instructed to contact the Pennsylvania firm.

FIRE DAMAGES AUTOMOBILE

Firemen were called to extinguish a blaze in an automobile about one mile south of Midland at 2 p. m. Friday. Extensive damage was done by the fire before firemen arrived.

Midland Gladiolus Dealer Named Head Of Six-State Unit

J. M. Ratcliff, Midland gladiolus grower and dealer, received notice Friday from the North American Gladiolus Council of his appointment as district membership chairman for the Commercial Growers Association, a subsidiary of the international council.

He will serve in the area known as District 14, including the states of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and Utah.

The North American Gladiolus Council is made up of approximately 5,000 gladiolus growers, both amateur and commercial, in the United States and Canada.

Dance Confers Title, Reveals Engagement

The Nu Phi Mu Chapter's Valentine dance Saturday night was the occasion for announcing the engagement of a member and of honoring another with the designation of Valentine sweetheart.

Bye Louise Fry's engagement to Paul Haskins was revealed to the members and guests who danced in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel in a setting of hearts and flowers.

Miss White received a bouquet of roses from the chapter head, and then with Hoyle McWright, her escort for the evening, led off the dancing. Music was by Jerry Roberts' Latin Americans.

Gay Decorations

Red hearts were suspended on ribbon streamers from the ceiling over the ballroom, and a huge heart backed the band platform.

On the punch table, the outline of a heart made of red carnations was set upright in the center, and the name of the sorority written below it in white carnations.

The dance is planned as an annual event by the Midland chapter, which was organized last Fall as the Texas Alpha Theta Chapter.

Officers in addition to the president are: Verna Lou Blissett, vice president; Janie Manning, treasurer; Elizabeth Murray, recording secretary; and Mrs. Stephens, corresponding secretary.

Other active members are Nadine Manning, Louis Harless, Norma Jean Sinclair, Rita Livingston, Betty Hays, Fanny Burrus, Dortha Reising.

'News Party' Held By Training Union

A "nose for news" party was held in the First Baptist Church Educational Building Friday evening for the Winsom Training Union.

Games included identifying pictures in the "morgue," writing feature stories from newspaper excerpts and others. A tour of The Reporter-Telegram building concluded the recreation activities.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to 25 persons. A sing-song rounded out the evening's entertainment.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Medders, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Don McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Newsum, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weems, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neill, Mr. and Mrs. James Colvin, Mr. and Mrs. Yates Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Davis and the Rev. Raymond Hall, associate pastor.

Representatives present from "big sister" Beta Sigma Phi chapters were Mrs. Charles Reeder of Beta Delta Chapter and Lafara Harbison of Iota Beta Chapter.

Chaperones for the dance were the advisor, Mrs. Bryan L. Denison, and Mr. Denison, Mrs. G. H. Higdon, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Reising of San Angelo.

Betty Richards To Be Married On March 3rd

Announcing the engagement of her daughter, Betty, to Morris Howell, Mrs. E. B. Richards entertained Thursday evening in her home, 204 East Ohio Street. March 3 was revealed as the wedding date for the couple.

The names, Betty and Morris, were printed in red on white tea napkins, and the date of the wedding was inscribed inside a heart traced on the cake icing.

Guests calling were Mrs. Lucille Howell, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. J. C. Miles, Mrs. A. J. Corder, Mrs. B. M. Hays, Mrs. George Gray, Anne Grayum, Mrs. Jack Bryan, Betty Lee Hays, Dortha Reising, Rosemary Johnson and a June Higdon.

Both Miss Richards and Howell were graduated from Midland High School last Spring, and both have been employed with the Shell Oil Company.

Music will be by the Jimmy Furman orchestra. Arrangements are in charge of three co-chairmen, Maudie Roberts from Xi Theta Chapter, Ruth Baden from Beta Delta Chapter, and Myra McReynolds from Iota Beta Chapter.

Tickets are being handled by a committee with Elizabeth Knox as chairman and Mrs. G. B. Hall, Duffy Stanley, Mrs. B. Denison, Clyde Parnelly and Mrs. A. E. O'Neill.

On the refreshment committee, with Mrs. Alton Brown as chairman, are Mrs. Don DeBerry, Lillie Mae Stovall, Lou Lemley, Mrs. J. W. Rhoads, Mrs. Gerald Keeler and Mrs. W. O. Stallings.

The properties committee is headed by Mrs. Lloyd Zelner, and has as members Norma Stice, Faye Powers, Mrs. A. H. Dimmy, Mary Rogers, Mrs. Randy Rubin and Mrs. R. E. McKnight.

Guests are to be presented on the program of the North Elementary Parent-Teacher Association at 3:45 p. m. Tuesday, at a meeting in the auditorium.

Mrs. D. E. Carter, district chairman of educational relations, will be the speaker with the subject, "Meeting the Needs of Boys and Girls of Elementary School Age."

Mrs. J. J. Black will conduct a short ceremony honoring Founders Day in the organization.

Boys of the Cub Pack sponsored by the school will open the meeting with a special program.

Couple Married In Church

May Catherine Sheen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sheen, 801 South Marnefield Street, and Johnnie Spruell, son of Mrs. W. B. Moore, 809 South Colorado Street, were united in wedlock Saturday at 10 a. m. in the parsonage of the First Christian Church in San Angelo.

The officiant at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. G. N. Goldston, pastor.

The bride wore a coral rose wool suit-dress with navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley circled with pink rosebuds.

The bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whittenburg of San Angelo, served the bride and bridegroom as their only attendants for the ceremony.

Mrs. Whittenburg was attired in a navy dress and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds left by plane for San Antonio on a short wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Spruell chose a cream de cocoa wool gabardine suit. Her accessories were brown, and pink rosebuds made up her corsage.

Mrs. Spruell is a graduate of the 1928 class of Midland High School and is a member of the Nu Phi Mu Sorority. The bride is employed by Magnolia Petroleum Company. Spruell is employed at Johnson News Agency and is also a 1948 graduate of Midland High School and is a member of the National Honor Society.

Following the wedding trip they will reside at 207 East New York Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Leaving For Cruise

A cruise which will take them down the east coast of the United States, along Caribbean waters and into the Summertime countries of South America is in prospect for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rhodes, 1111 West Texas Street, when they leave this week on a trip.

They plan to leave Wednesday for New York, and spend a week there before sailing February 25 on the SS Uruguay. The trip will take them to Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Montevideo and other cities along the east coast of South America.

While they are away their eight-year-old daughter, Ranelle, will visit with Mrs. Rhodes' sister in Little Rock, Ark., and attend a private school there.

French and Russian composers will be featured in music for the program, which will include an ancient Russian church chant arranged for singing by a mixed quartet. Tickets for a Texas Day concert by John Seagle of San Antonio, which the club will sponsor on March 1, will be distributed to members to go on sale Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Cummings will act as program director, substituting for Mrs. Charles Linehan and using program notes prepared by Mrs. Linehan. Opening numbers will be two Debussy compositions. Mrs. Joe H. Roos, who is a new member of the club this year and making her first appearance on one of its programs, will play the familiar "Gollwogs' Cake Walk."

Dressed For Role

Adelle Penn, dressed for the title role of "I Remember Mama," is ready for the first performance of the Midland Community Theater production scheduled Wednesday through Saturday in the City-County Auditorium. In playing the lead of the John Van Druten comedy, she is following in the footsteps of Mady Christians, who created the role on Broadway, and Irene Dunne, who played it in the successful movie version. A cast of 22 persons assists her.

Civic Music Club Program Slated Monday

A change of meeting date for the Civic Music Club has been made for this week, and the semi-monthly concert will be presented on Monday instead of Tuesday at 8 p. m. Open to the public, it is scheduled in the North Elementary School Auditorium.

The change was made to avoid conflict with the "Wings Over Jordan" choir appearance Tuesday night.

French and Russian composers will be featured in music for the program, which will include an ancient Russian church chant arranged for singing by a mixed quartet. Tickets for a Texas Day concert by John Seagle of San Antonio, which the club will sponsor on March 1, will be distributed to members to go on sale Tuesday.

Charlene Cook And Billy King Married

Charlene Cook of Midland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cook of Gorman, and Billy Dee King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus King of Abilene, were married at 6 p. m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church of Gorman.

The couple left on a trip to East

Texas, and expect to be back in Midland on February 21 to make their home at 503 South Baird Street. Mrs. King is a teacher in the South Elementary School, and King is employed with the Shell Oil Company in Odessa. Both have attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene.

Mr. Cook gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony read by candlelight. Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Joe England of Monahans, who before her recent marriage was Molly Hinds of Midland, and Mrs. Don Nelson of Sweetwater, as bridesmaid.

Midlanders in Party Mack King of Strawn acted as best man for his brother. The ushers were E. H. Hamilton and F. Frost, both of Abilene. Miss Emilie Long and Miss Leita Moore, both of Midland, lighted the white tapers at the altar.

Aisles of the church were marked with lighted candles, and a background for the wedding party was made of palms and baskets of white gladioli.

The bride wore white satin, in a gown with a rounded yoke of silk lace, long sleeves, a full skirt rounding into a short train. A lace poke bonnet held the veil to her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of orchids and pink roses.

Costumes Aid Color Mrs. England was dressed in blue and Mrs. Nelson in soft yellow, each with a lace headdress matching her dress in color.

Music before the ceremony was by Miss Sylvia Brummett of Gorman, who played "I Love You Truly," Jacobs-Bond, as a violin solo, and Miss Rosemary Bruce of Ranger, who sang "Always." Berlin. Mrs. Lois Buchanan of Gorman, pianist, accompanied both and played the wedding marches.

The couple and Mrs. Cook greeted friends after the ceremony at an informal reception in the church's educational building. Women in the wedding party served the bride's cake and punch.

Children's League Members Working On Easter Seal Sale

Work on the Easter seal sale which is conducted annually in the Children's Service League started Friday when envelopes to be addressed for mailing were distributed to members at a business meeting in Mrs. C. H. Atchison's home, 940 North Baird Street.

Mrs. H. L. Beckmann, sale chairman, asked that the addressing be completed as early in March as possible. The seals are sold to benefit a fund for assisting crippled children.

Clothing which has been collected for the league by Girl Scouts of Midland this month was presented by top representatives at the league's workshop preceding the business session.

Copies of the league's purposes and policies, recently revised and published, were distributed to members and will be given to other social agencies of the city. A report on a meeting last week of representatives from all Midland social agencies was made by Mrs. W. A. Waldschmidt.

Other members attending were Mrs. Fred Cassidy, Mrs. Norris Creath, Mrs. Robert Dewey, Mrs. Lee Flood, Mrs. John M. Hill, Mrs. B. S. Jones, Mrs. Alan Leeper, Mrs. Vaughn Maley, Mrs. L. S. Page, and Mrs. C. P. Yadan.

Lorraine Collins Is Honored On Birthday

Lorraine Collins was the honoree at a party given by her mother, Mrs. Bill Collins, 1900 West Texas Street, on her ninth birthday Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. Gerald Keeler assisted in the entertaining.

Games were played, pictures taken and favors distributed during the party hours. Gifts were displayed in the entertaining rooms. Special gifts were a bouquet of carnations from her grandmother, Mrs. A. E. Collins; of San Angelo, and a Valentine-birthday cake from Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Phillips.

Birthday cake and ice cream were served to Dick and George Cason, Ann Harrison, Jerry and Donna Keeler, Charles and Walter Leeper, Penny May, Mike and Eve Northup, Ebb, Glen and Elizabeth Ann White, and the honoree.

Public Invited To Afternoon Recital

The public is invited to a recital 3 p. m. Sunday by violin and piano pupils of the Watson Studio Music. It will be presented in the First Baptist Church auditorium, seven of the more advanced students of Miss Lydia Watson and Ned Watson.

Barbara Glenn Long will play Grand Valse Caprice, Engelmann, and "Waltz in A Flat," Brahms; Vanda Lou Steele, two movements from a Haydn sonata; Carolyn Gray, "Pig" of the Bumblebee, Rimski-Korsakov, and "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn; Dorothy Wolfe, Spanish Dance, Granados, and Prelude, "Rachmaninoff;" and Vanda Lou Moore, "Valse Arabesque," Lack, and "Petite Hungarian Thapsody," arranged by Thompson, as piano solos.

The violin numbers will be an arrangement of "Martha," Winner, by Jan Houck, and "Little Symphony," Jancia, which Jan will play as a duet with Ned Watson. "Chardas," a solo by Billy Evans, and "Holy City," Adams-Henley, a duet by Billy and the teacher.

Steps To Spring In Open-Toed And Lacy Shoes

TOES will be out by spring. This freedom is promised by the revival of open-toed shoes which are returning in greater numbers on platform soles. Such shoe styles fit like a foot into a pump into the general spring picture of airy, lacy fashions.

Even shoes with closed toes manage to look lacy with straps that criss-cross above an instep or around an ankle. The walking shoe which answers to that name with low heels and square, roomy toes sports a little "lace" of fringed tongues, tiny leather tassels or a bit of open work.

—EPSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

These spring shoe fashions are examples of new lacy styling of footwear. Fringed tassels soften the overlaid tongue on walking shoes of bamboo beige calfskin (center). Platform soles build up open-toed, ankle-strap sandals of navy blue suede (top left) which have openwork bands across throat and heel. For the open-toed platform sandals (upper right) strips of red, white and blue kidskin are gathered on a leather cord which laces across the instep. Scallop-ed cut-outs give delicate detail to green suede platform sling pumps (bottom right). Fawn-colored suede shoes (bottom left) have straps buttoned to form a butterfly design over the instep.

UNDERGOES SURGERY
Mrs. Frank Johnson, 911 West Missouri Street, underwent major surgery in Houston Thursday. Her daughters, Mrs. Waldo Grossman and Jane Marie Johnson; her son, James Frank Johnson, and Mr. Grossman are in Houston to be with her.

G. E. Thompson Makes 'Flying Class' Trip
KERMIT — G. E. Thompson, superintendent of Kermit schools, has been authorized by members of the school board to take part in a "flying classroom" trip for the purpose of studying and planning new school building construction and cooperation between business, industry and education.

The tour will be for six days, beginning February 20, and will include stops at Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis. Sponsored by the American Association of School Administrators and Michigan State College, the trip will provide two DO-6's for the 126 school superintendents from all states.

Choose Proper Time To Request Favors
By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

If your family seems unsympathetic to your requests for favors, the fault may be yours, not theirs. The difference between having a reasonable request granted or refused is often the difference between timing your request at an opportune or inopportune moment.

Supposing you want an advance on your weekly allowance. If you ask your dad for the money when he is hurrying out of the door to the office, don't accuse him of being unsympathetic if he refuses. Because he cannot give the matter his proper attention at that time, he is justified in refusing. A better plan is to wait until the evening, after working hours, to make your request. Then he will have more time to discuss the matter and to consider your needs.

If you want your mother to help you alter a dress, don't interrupt her in the midst of housework with the request to pin up a hemline. Time your request so that it will be convenient for her to help you. If you are in a hurry for your pin-up, offer to give her a hand with the housework which will speed up her routine and give her the minutes to spare for your request.

Xi Theta Chapter Has Travel Study
One of its series of programs on exotic places and peoples who are out of the way of travel lanes, was presented for the Xi Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Thursday night in the home of Mrs. W. I. Pratt. The subject was "The Barbary Coast."

Adleen Maxwell discussed one topic, "When the Glory That Was Greece Knew These Sandy Shores," and Dorothy Hamilton the other, "Tripoli, Wicked City of the East."

Miss Maxwell, Mrs. L. H. Gollwitzer, Mrs. Tom Potter and Mrs. Jack Doran were chosen to form a nominating committee to present a ticket of chapter officers.

Other members present were Mrs. Arnold E. O'Neill, Mrs. Juanita Sherrod, Faye Powers, Madaelee Roberts, Lillie Mae Stovall, Mrs. Cecil Waldrep, Mrs. James H. Walker, Mrs. Lloyd Zellner, Mrs. A. L. Barr, Mrs. Art Dimney, Mrs. J. H. Fine, Mrs. Lucille Johnson and Mrs. A. A. Jones.

Ribbon Tricks Give Lift To Spring Togs

Easy-to-make ribbon accessories which pep up simple spring costumes include the polka-dotted nylon ribbon umbrella sheathe and matching hatband on straw sailor (left). Two lengths of red-and-white checked taffeta ribbon sewed together and fringed at the ends make the stole (right) which is ensemble with a matching bow-tied band on straw bonnet.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Clever ensembling tricks which will spruce up Spring togs are yours for the investment in a yard or two of ribbon. Crisp ribbon accessories can be whipped up in a few minutes and may be used to lift the simplest costume into high-style company. New nylon, taffeta, and grosgrain ribbons offer you a dazzling variety of polka-dots, checks, stripes, plaids, iridescent weaves and multi-colored combinations from which to choose for your accessories.

You might, for example, ensemble a polka-dotted ribbon sheathe made for your umbrella with a matching hatband used to encircle the crown of last year's straw sailor. For the sailor, select ribbon as wide as the crown of your hat to make a bold show of polka dots. Tack down, band, tie ribbon in back and let streamer ends float. Buy four-inch wide ribbon in a duplicate polka dot for making a matching umbrella sheathe.

To make, pin ribbon around umbrella so that finished sheathe will fit tightly from rib to tip of stick. Now, slip off pinned cover and stitch. Hem-cut edges, top and bottom—most sheathes can be made to fit tightly without the need for a snap or button closing at the top.

You can turn a simple blouse and skirt combination into a Spring ensemble by mantling your shoulders with a luxuriously fringed ribbon stole. Plan to match stole to a bow-tied band on a Spring bonnet. All you need to do to make a stole is to sew lengths of ribbon together. Before stitching, line up ribbon lengths so that print patterns are exactly matched. You can either fringe the ribbon ends or you can hem the ends and sew on harmonizing silk fringe of extravagant length.

Music Club—

gene Vanderpool, pianist; Mrs. E. S. Hitchcock, violinist; and Mrs. Charles Henderson, cellist.

Rachmaninoff, Russian composer known for his piano works rather than for his songs, will be represented on this program by both Elizabeth Cope, contralto, will sing "O Thou Bellowing Harvest Field," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Miller; and Mrs. Joe Koenig will play a piano solo, "Elegie."

Another French musician, Faure, is represented in the selection "Sicilienne," played as a solo by Mrs. Hitchcock. The Russian church music, "Hospodi Po Milui," Svoisky is programmed next. Usually sung by a chorus, a cappella, it will be presented for the club by Betty Gaines, soprano; Mrs. A. C. Smith, alto; Bill Cobb, tenor; and Malcolm Gibson, baritone, with Mrs. Vanderpool as pianist.

Closing the program, Mrs. Frank Thompson, soprano, will sing the jewel song from "Faust" by Gounod, a Frenchman, and "Lullaby" by Gretchaninoff, a Russian.

J. Lee Wersts Will Return To McCamey

KERMIT — J. Lee Werst, advertising manager and mechanical superintendent of The Winkler County News for the last year, and Mrs. Werst, who has been society editor, resigned this week and have returned to McCamey where they will enter newspaper work.

Miss Helen Mackni is replacing Mrs. Werst, and the editors have not yet employed an advertising manager.

Another change in personnel of The News is the employment of Mrs. C. H. Pridmore as bookkeeper, replacing Mrs. Helen Sprull who also resigned. Mrs. Pridmore's husband is employed here with Gulf Pipe Line Company.

Stanton News

STANTON — Members of the Stanton Cub Scout met in the home of their den mother, Mrs. Edmond Tom, Thursday. Present were Norman Blocker, Ronnie Gilbreath, Sadler Bridges, Corky Blocker, John Terry Bennett, Johnny Speed, Jimmie Butcher, Granville Graves, Rufus Tom and Mrs. Tom.

Mrs. W. G. Morrow has returned from a three-weeks visit with her daughter in Texarkana.

Mrs. Ann Davis has returned from a visit with her daughter in Kermit. The Stanton Study Club honored the girls of the senior class of Stanton High School at a tea in the home of Mrs. Bob Whitaker Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McWharter of Midland were recent visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hill, here.

R. A. Bennett is under medical treatment at a Big Spring hospital.

War Vet Injured In Automobile Mishap

George Franklin Davis, 27, of Odessa suffered injuries in an automobile accident eight miles West of Midland on U. S. Highway 80 about 12:15 a. m. Saturday. He was traveling alone.

State Highway Patrolman W. B. Dixon who investigated the accident said Davis apparently lost control of automobile and it turned over several times.

Davis was rushed to Western Clinic-Hospital where doctors said he is suffering from a compound fracture of the right arm, a fractured shoulder, lacerations and bruises.

Davis is a veteran of World War II and has spent much time in hospitals for treatment of war wounds. One leg has been amputated as a result of war injuries.

He was transferred from here to a veterans hospital in Dallas Saturday afternoon.

Downing Back From North Texas Tour

Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, returned Saturday after a week's tour of the Panhandle and Northeast Texas areas with State Highway Commissioner Fred Wemple and Dewitt C. Greer, state highway engineer.

The tour, which started Monday in Amarillo, ended Friday at Blossom, Texas, when the chairman of the Highway Commission was honored with a "Wemple Day" celebration by citizens of his "old home town." Mr. and Mrs. Wemple remained in Blossom for the weekend. Other cities visited included Borger, Pampa, Clarendon, Memphis, Wichita Falls and Nacona. Lunches, banquets and special meetings honored the trio at most of the points.

Downing was wearing a flashy new pair of cowboy boots Saturday—a gift of the Nocona Chamber of Commerce. Wemple and Greer also received similar gifts.

Twentieth Century Club's Cookbook Supply Sold Out

All copies of the cookbook, "What's Cookin' in Midland," had been sold by the close of the week, and the Twentieth Century Study Club, which compiled the book, was unable to fill all requests for it. Mrs. James O. Simmons, Jr., president, reported Saturday.

The club had the book published and sold copies to raise money for a contribution to the Woman's Club Building fund. More than a thousand copies made up the printing, which went on sale February 5.

Recipes with a regional flavor were stressed in the book, which had as a preface a brief history of Midland written by Mrs. Robert Cox, with humorous comments by Delber. Downing and Ray Howard.

Miss Upham Is 'A' Student At College

Virginia Anne Upham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Upham of Midland, was on the honor roll with a "straight A" record for the semester at Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton, her parents have been advised.

Miss Upham is a freshman student, majoring in Home Economics. She was valedictorian of her classes upon graduating from grammar school and high school.

Tips for getting more warmth and pleasure from a wood-burning fireplace are supplied by foresters of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Ashes kept level with the andirons will provide a bed of glowing charcoal which helps to maintain a steady heat. The experts recommend using both split and whole round logs and both soft and hard wood for a fire. Split wood kindles rapidly, round logs keep fire burning steadily. Soft woods like pine make a quick, hot fire; hard woods burn longer.

So they say

I don't know how my music gets that way. I simply can't analyze it. I can analyze the music of others. The word for Dick Rodgers' melodies, I think, is holy. For Jerome Kern, sentimental. Irving Berlin, simplicity. For my own, I don't know.

—Cole Porter, composer.

There is no reason for businessmen to fear the prospect of a "buyers' market." It is a healthy and invigorating blood transfusion which today's business really needs.

—Joseph A. Hoban, B. F. Goodrich Company official.

It is a basic error to believe that communism can be beaten by bullets alone. . . . Neither can the battle in western Europe be won solely by operations on the economic front. . . . Ours must be a three-front operation, and that means military preparedness, as well as political and economic stability.

—Paul G. Hoffman, ECA administrator.

It probably takes more endurance, more patience, more intelligence, more healthy emotion, to raise a decent, happy human being than to be an atomic physicist, a politician or a psychiatrist.

—Dr. M. R. Sapirstein, in his book "Emotional Security."

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests, have proved that S&S Tonic is a remedy for increasing the flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-gastric stomach disturbance. This is due to the S&S Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, S&S Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—to with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is S&S Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people S&S Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of S&S Tonic from your drug store today. S&S Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

'Kid Party' Given By Methodist Class In Church Building

The Fellowship Class of the First Methodist Church had a "kid party" Friday night in the Scharbauer Educational building. Those attending were dressed in children's costumes.

The group sang "Happy Birthday" to the teacher, Noel Oates, and Mrs. Oates, and a large decorated birthday cake was presented.

Decorations were in a Valentine motif. During the social, the Valentine king and queen were elected. Tom Ingram was elected king and Mrs. Charles Jones, queen. When the "royal party" was introduced, they broke through a large white paper heart.

Various games were played during the evening and refreshments were served to the 62 that were present.

CONDITION 'SATISFACTORY'

The condition of Fannie Bess Taylor of Midland, who underwent surgery last week in a Dallas hospital, is reported to be "satisfactory."

Kids, Cars and High Speeds Don't Mix

Teenagers, who think it's smart to breeze along highways at 70 miles an hour, should take a good, long look at this picture. In Berkeley, Calif., four youngsters, two boys and two girls under 21, were sailing along, doing better than 70. They failed to make a curve and hit a tree. This wreck was the result—and the four youngsters were killed.

CARNIVAL

"The way you guys are getting appropriations, I'd think you'd pick up the check once in a while!"

Questions and Answers

Q—Which president re-established the custom of speaking personally to Congress?
A—Woodrow Wilson was the first president since John Adams to deliver his messages in person. His first address was in April, 1913.

Q—Who introduced the custom of the old and new presidents riding together to the capitol for inauguration?
A—This custom was first introduced by Martin Van Buren. On the way up, Jackson sat on the right side, and on the way down, Van Buren sat on the right. This seating arrangement has been followed since.

Q—In what form was "Uncle Tom's Cabin" first published?
A—It was first issued as a serial story, 1851 to 1852, in the National Era, an anti-slavery newspaper published at the city of Washington.

Q—What are the eight weight classes in boxing?
A—In ascending order they are: flyweight, bantamweight, featherweight, lightweight, welterweight, middleweight, light heavyweight, and heavyweight.

Q—In what year was the first shipment of cotton exported from the United States?
A—In 1784 eight bags of cotton were exported from the United States, the first shipment of the kind which had ever been made. The eight bags were about equal to one bale.

Girl Scouts Make Large Contribution At Half-Way Mark Of Clothing Drive

More than 1,500 garments and several dozen pairs of shoes were delivered to the Children's Service League clothing room Friday afternoon and Saturday morning by Girl Scout troops of the city.

The girls are conducting their annual clothing drive for the league this month, under direction of Mrs. Robert Payne, and will make another delivery to the storage room February 26.

Senior Scouts troops 1 and 12 had representatives at the room Saturday morning to mend the garments, sew on missing buttons and polish shoes so the clothing will be ready to outfit children where the league finds it is needed.

Carlton Maley and Diane Anderson photographed the troop representatives as they arrived with the bundles of clothing, and the work group Saturday was also photographed. Workers from Troop 1, of which Mrs. M. B. Arick is leader, were Marian Sevier, An. Arick, Emily Hamilton and Diane Anderson; from Troop 12, with Mrs. I. A. Searles, leader, were Barbara Long, Mary Anne Searles, Betty Pitzer, Leila Norwood, Joan Turner and Jane Beakley, assisted by Mrs. Albert Norwood.

Representatives who delivered the Brownie and Intermediate troop collections Friday were: Mrs. A. L. Morgan, Troop 27; Barbara Carroll, Linda Kay Murray, Susan Jones and Holiday McOutehin, Troop 29; Judy Fogus, Troop 9; Barbara Grimes and Ruth Marie Adams, Troop 38; Dorothy Simpson and Sharon McEachern, Troop 16; Eve Dillon, Troop 36; Barbara Horton and Ramona Hynd, Troop 6; and Mrs. Neal Marks, Troop 24.

Open House Fetes Crane Woman On 96th Birthday

Mrs. Georgia Ann Lewis

CRANE—In just four more years Mrs. Georgia Ann Lewis will be in a position to tell the world if that old saying "the first hundred years are the hardest" contains any truth, for by that time she will have passed the century mark.

She was born Feb. 12, 1853, in Lounds County, Ga., where her father maintained a large plantation. She was eight years old when the Civil War started and recalls many interesting incidents of that period.

Mrs. Lewis migrated to Texas soon after her marriage to William Lewis and raised nine children, six of them still living. They are Emma Ingram, Dallas; Ola Pollock, Corsicana; W. E. Lewis, Tyler; Mrs. Willie Merrell, T. E. Lewis and Mrs. Lula Scott, all of Crane. Besides her own children, Mrs. Lewis has 25 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

On the occasion of her ninety-fifth birthday last year a number of her friends presented a stained glass window to the Methodist Church, of which she is a very active member, in her honor. Mrs. Lewis is shown standing beside the window in the accompanying picture. Since that time Mrs. Lewis has crocheted a large picture of the Lord's Supper that is framed and has been hung over the door of the same church.

Open house will be held Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:50 at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. A. E. Galloway, in the Gulf Camp in Crane, and all her friends are invited to attend. A number of her children are to be in Crane with her on this occasion and five generations will be together at that time.

Gifts Of Memorial Books To Library Shelves Increasing

An increasing number of memorial books is being presented to the Midland County Library as a result of the Woman's Wednesday Club's designation of February as Memorial Book Month. Mrs. Lucille Carroll, librarian, reports.

The club urges that Midland residents give books to the library in memory of relatives or friends and adds that the person memorialized need not have lived in this county.

Two of the books given in the last week were in memory of Mrs. John M. Cowden, old-time resident of the city who died recently. One of the volumes, "Handel's Messiah," by Robert M. Myers, was presented by Mrs. Ida Faye Cowden, and the other, "The Story of Jesus in the World's Literature," edited by E. C. Wagenknecht, by the Althean Class of the First Baptist Church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cowden.

Other Contributions
Mrs. B. M. Vick has given the library a copy of H. B. Millhollen's "Presidents on Parade" in memory of Dr. B. M. Vick. In memory of Dr. Vick is the book, "Alaska Now," Herbert Hilscher, given by Mrs. Allen Cowden.

A two-volume set, "The Book of Costume," Millia Davenport, was a gift of Mrs. Phillip Scharbauer in memory of Mrs. Chris Scharbauer. Mrs. J. M. DeArmond gave "Poems," Joan Murray, as a tribute to Claire Miller Duffy, and Judge and Mrs. DeArmond joined in the gift of "When the Mountain Fell," by C. F. Ramuz, a story of the epic struggle of man against nature, in memory of Henry M. Half.

Valley View Home Demonstration Club honored the memory of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Branham with the presentation of "The Big Fisherman," Lloyd C. Douglas. The Board of Directors of the Midland Library Association, in tribute to Clarence Scharbauer Sr., a former trustee of the association, gave the first volume of "The Album of American History," James Truslow Adams.

Mazza To Continue Classes In Painting For Two More Weeks

In the two additional weeks in which Rene Mazza will conduct classes in painting here under sponsorship of the Palette Club, he will teach landscape painting, he announced. He finds this phase has the widest appeal for amateurs, many of whom are interested in producing decorative pictures for their homes.

Mazza teaches in the Palette Club studio, 604 North Colorado Street, with classes at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. In response to requests from prospective students in Odessa, he is conducting classes there on the remaining days of the week. Mazza is a native of Italy and resides in Dallas.

Regional Display Is Planned For Club's Hobby-Antique Show

Invitations to collectors and antique dealers in nearby cities were mailed this weekend from the Modern Study Club, asking entries in the hobby and antique show which the club will sponsor March 26-27. Local entries also are being sought, and any Midland hobbyist or collector who wishes to arrange for a display at the show is invited to notify a member of the arrangements committee, Mrs. Earl A. Johnson, Mrs. W. S. Nelson, Mrs. Lamar Lunt, Mrs. R. E. Morgan, Mrs. P. R. Schenck, Mrs. Carl Westlund, Mrs. A. C. Buines and Mrs. J. M. Devereux. In the case of a hobby display, inquiries may be made of Mrs. C. C. Keith, chairman of the hobbies committee.

Area Events
Cities to which invitations have been sent include San Angelo, Lubbock, Odessa and Big Spring. A dealer from Austin and one from Dallas have asked for exhibit space at the show, although the club plans to make this primarily a regional show.

Club committees are completing their plans for the event, which will be staged in the City-County Auditorium. Proceeds will be used for regular club projects and for a contribution to a Woman's Club Building fund.

One interesting collection already assured for the show is of pitchers, Mrs. Charles Sherwood, show publicity chairman, has announced. It includes pitchers of many sizes and materials, some of American make and some imported.

Scout Committee To Meet Monday Night

A meeting of the El Centro District Committee, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the Scout council headquarters building on North Colorado Street, Dr. H. Gier, Walker, chairman, said Saturday. Dr. Walker said organization of the district committee will be perfected at the session.

Plans Announced For Garden Plan Memorial Park Here

The purchase of a 50-acre tract of land immediately north of the city for use as a memorial park was announced Saturday by Bill Worley, Jr., president of Resthaven Memorial Park, Inc. and Robert Jones, a director of the concern. Worley and Jones are from Lubbock, but Worley plans to establish his residence here. The corporation has opened an office in the Wilkinson Building.

The property was purchased from Jeff King and is only a five-minute drive from downtown Midland. Resthaven Memorial Park, the sponsors said, will be the only completely modern burial estate in this vicinity. It will be developed on the popular garden plan, which means its natural and developed beauty never will be marred by marble or granite monuments or other symbols of death and sorrow, Worley said. He stated a park of this type will not be just another cemetery, but a beautiful burial estate filled with living things such as trees, flowers, shrubbery and sodden lawns. A definite landscaping and development plan will be started immediately.

A perpetual care fund governed by laws of the State of Texas will insure permanent and perpetual care forever, Worley stated.

Belmont Class Has Lesson From Bible

A lesson from the book of Chronicles was presented in the Belmont Bible Class Friday night by Mrs. W. L. Sutton, teacher, in whose home the interdenominational group met.

Prayers were by Mrs. R. Chanslor and Mrs. Velma Smith, and Bertie Sexton directed a short business meeting. Others present were Mrs. W. M. Craft, Mrs. Bernice King, Mrs. J. E. Pharis and Mrs. W. P. Collins. The weekly meeting next Friday will be with Mrs. Sutton, and all women interested in Bible study are invited.

THE BIBLE IS A CATHOLIC BOOK

People differ radically in what they think about the Bible.

Some seem to think it was handed down from Heaven written in English and bound in morocco. Many accept it as the inspired Word of God without knowing why they are justified in doing so. And others say that the Bible is full of contradictions and must be taken "with a grain of salt."

A proper understanding of the Scriptures can exert a tremendous influence for good in your personal life. You should, therefore, know where we get the Bible... what it means... why you can believe its every word.

Nowhere in the Bible text will you find a list of the 73 inspired books of which it is composed. This list was given to the world by the Catholic Church almost three full centuries after the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Between the time of the Crucifixion and the time that the Scriptures were gathered into a single Book, millions had received and accepted the teachings of Christ... and had died without ever seeing the complete Bible.

Established by Christ Himself and rapidly spread among the nations of the world, the Catholic Church was carrying on Christ's work for the salvation of men some 60 years before the Apostle John wrote his book of the New Testament.

For more than a thousand years afterward, the Scriptures were preserved and circulated by Catholic monks and scholars who laboriously copied the sacred text by hand. And the Bible authorized by the Catholic Church was the first book produced by Gutenberg upon the invention of printing. Yes, the Bible is truly a Catholic book. They were members of the Catholic Church who, under God's inspiration, wrote the New Testament in its entirety. It was the Catholic Church which treasured it and gave it to the world in its original and unaltered form. It is the infallible authority of the Catholic Church that always has been the only sure guarantee of its inspiration.

There are obscure and difficult passages in the Bible, some of which may seem confusing. But with the complete revealed truth of God, delivered to her from the beginning, the Catholic Church has faithfully unfolded the meaning of the written Word of God to past generations of mankind—and does so today.

Those who are familiar with the Bible, as well as those who are reading it for the first time, will find many important questions concerning it clearly answered in a free booklet which we shall send you on request. Ask for Pamphlet No. 3-N.

Reserve Officers Arrange Security Week Observance

The Reserve Officers Association, as in every year since 1920, is taking the lead in observing National Security Week, February 12-22. The several hundred Reserve leaders in Midland are in charge of the observance here.

The regular training period of Midland's First Logistical Division (Reserve) from 2 to 4 p. m. Sunday in the Officers Club at Midland Airport, will launch the special event here.

ROA leaders stressed the fact that National Security Week is most important patriotic activity since the nation traditionally and constitutionally relies on civilians to furnish manpower and leadership in times of national emergency.

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Cramer of Midland recently visited their daughter, Margie, at Radford School for Girls in El Paso.

School Principals Employed At Kermit

KERMIT—Contracts for supervisory personnel of Kermit schools were renewed this week when trustees met in regular session, according to G. E. Thompson, superintendent. These included: Gerald McGuire, principal of high school; W. T. Varnell, principal of junior high school; O. M. Stewart, elementary school principal; and G. T. Gilligan, band director.

Darrell Mayer, who is completing his first year as head athletic coach, was re-employed on a two-year contract several weeks ago.

The board accepted resignations of two teachers, employed two to replace them, and also employed two additional faculty members. Teachers recently resigned are Miss Jacqueline Theis, junior high school choral director, who has returned to her home in Midland where she is employed with Shell Oil Company, and Mrs. Granville Murphy, third grade teacher, whose husband is being transferred to Dumas.

Midland Girl Travels With Cowgirl Band

ABILENE — Barbara Brown of Midland is a member of the All-Girl Trio which will accompany the Hardin-Simmons Cowgirl Band on a four-day tour of North and Central West Texas cities this week. The musicians will leave Monday morning and will return Thursday night.

BOB BAKERS RETURN TO MIDLAND TO MAKE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker and son have moved back to Midland from Sonora and will make their home here. Baker will take over the management of the C. O. Morrison Company store here, replacing Austin Oullin who will become manager of the firm's store in Pecos. Baker has been manager of the Morrison store in Sonora, having moved there from Midland about two years ago.

Kermit Newspaper Installs New Press

KERMIT — Installation of a high-speed printing press is underway this week at the Winkler County News, according to Nev H. Williams, general manager and editor. The press, a Duplex, is capable of printing and folding 3,000 eight-page newspapers per hour, Williams said. The Winkler County News, which only recently moved into a new brick and concrete building, plans to hold open house in the near future.

Keith Miller Named Security Week Head

Ewing R. Hill, president of the Permian Basin Section of the Reserve Officers Association, Saturday announced the appointment of W. Keith Miller as general chairman of the National Security Week committees. National Security Week is February 12-22.

Miller has appointed the following men to head the various committees: Boyd Laughlin, speakers bureau; David Cole, radio; Cliff Matthews, newspaper; Dr. H. G. Walker, churches; E. R. Andres, civic; Bob Oviatt, displays and advertising; and Jim Martin, social.

Hill said that civic clubs or organizations interested in programs or talks concerning Security Week or the relationship of the Reserves to national defense should contact Miller at Laughlin.

FATHER SERIOUSLY ILL

Ray Howard is in Baytown, where he was called because of his father's illness. He has notified Mrs. Howard that his father's condition is critical and that he will remain in Baytown indefinitely.

MIDLAND GIRL ADMITTED TO SCOTTISH RITE HOSPITAL

DALLAS—Little Miss Carol Lee Fraser, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Fraser of Midland, was admitted to Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas for treatment recently.

The Scottish Rite Hospital, which is supported by individual contributions, offers the best possible medical care and attention to Texas crippled children who are accepted for treatment.

Why not get all this in YOUR new car?

Owners of low-built Hudsons have it!

Owners of New Hudsons are seeking for themselves that the lower a car can be built, the more graceful its lines can be made, the better it will ride, the more surety it will handle, and the safer it will be!

Because people who drive Hudsons "step down" into an exciting, new kind of automobile, they enjoy more head room and roomier seats—in an automobile only five feet from ground to top—than in any mass-produced car built today! Yet Hudson has ample road clearance!

But roominess is only one of the wonderful advantages that go with the automobile that is so far ahead it's a protected investment in motor car value.

Here are more: Authentic beauty—the "step down" principle is so basically right it frees designers of the need for makeshift styling, enables Hudson to achieve pleasing proportions, symmetric, free-flowing lines. A hug-the-road ride, and a smooth, steady way of going, because Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car! Performance? You bet! Hudson's all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine—or the masterful Super-Eight, get every chance to perform at their brilliant best, because this car is so low-built, so streamlined!

A new measure of safety, because you ride completely enclosed by the sturdy, box-section steel girders of Hudson's Monobilt body-and-frame.

We invite you to visit your nearby Hudson showroom, to see all the advantages you are entitled to in your new car!

Clear the Track for a Hero

When Jimmy Colcough reported a broken rail to New York Central railroad officials, he averted a possible train wreck. So the 11-year-old Canastota, N. Y., boy became a full-fledged hero. Among his rewards, the one he prized most was a 150-mile ride in the engine of the Empire State Express from Albany to Syracuse, with a slow-down at his home town where a crowd cheered him on. He also got a set of electric trains, a $100 check, and a promise of a job when he reaches 21.

Present Water Controversy Recalls Founding Of TWCA

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN—(P)—The surface water controversy brewing in the 51st Legislature recalls another scrap that resulted in the organization of the Texas Water Conservation Association.

The TWCA was formed in Austin Oct. 2, 1944, and it has been active in water and similar legislation on both state and national levels. J. E. Sturrock, former attorney for the state board of water engineers, is the TWCA's general manager and has been its executive head since the organization was formed.

Sturrock said the association was set up by water users and water agencies after Texas and other western states protested the consideration of a rivers and harbors bill then in Congress.

"The Army Engineering Corps was trying to get every stream that would float a skiff designated as navigable," he said. "When a stream is used for navigation you can't use it for irrigation and municipal purposes."

Classified Memberships
Sturrock said the membership of the association can be classified as to five types of water users with the majority of members in the irrigation class. Next come industrial users. Third is municipalities and cities. State river authorities and navigation districts make up the other classes of membership.

Sturrock said the TWCA has about 1,000 contributing members, representing about 20,000 water-users over the entire state.

The primary purpose of the association is "the promotion of the continued improvement and development of the state's rivers, harbors, lakes, water and land resources and the investigation and approval of practical and economically feasible projects throughout the state."

It is "non-partisan and non-profit."

By-Laws Cited
The by-laws of the association lists these purposes of the TWCA:

- "1. To promote and support the development, conservation, control, protection and utilization of the water resources of Texas for all beneficial purposes.
- "2. To promote and assist in the proper coordination of plans proposed by agencies of the federal, state, and local governments, associations, and private enterprises, to control, protect, and utilize the water resources of the state.
- "3. Through all means of publicity open to the association to create a widespread interest in water resources development and conservation by the citizenship of Texas, and to keep all members of the association fully advised on all matters pertaining to or affecting water resources development and conservation in this state.

"4. To encourage in all ways possible needed legislation, both state and nationally, to carry out the association's objectives."

The TWCA has two types of memberships. Individual membership is open to any citizen of Texas or elsewhere on payment of $25 annually. Sustaining membership is open to all districts, authorities and associations set up for utilization of water resources and to individuals, firms, corporations, cities, towns, associations or groups who desire to contribute funds for the TWCA's objectives. Sustaining membership is $100 or more. Each sustaining member has four votes at the annual meeting.

Individual and sustaining members must declare their classification at the time they join—irrigation, industrial, municipal, navigation, or river authorities.

The board of directors includes 35 members—seven from each of the five water use classifications.

Any matter that comes before the board goes first to the water use section affected. If that section approves the matter, then it goes to the executive board of 11 members.

The association has three active committees—mapping, water pollution control, and water laws. The proposed changes in state water laws that have brought protests from West Texas were drawn up by the water laws committee and approved by the association at its annual meeting last year in Austin.

'100% Wright,' Says Teresa Of Her Boss, Sam Goldwyn

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Sam Goldwyn's "unco-operative" actress, Teresa Wright, almost gave him a shock the other day. She read Sam's statement in his feud with movie czar Eric Johnston and thought it was wonderful. She told me: "I agreed with Sam 100 per cent and almost wrote him a letter of congratulations."

But Teresa isn't happy with those billboards with which her ex-boss is advertising her movie, "Enchantment." The busy heroine in the yellow dress is supposed to be Teresa, and she's taking a terrific ribbing from her friends.

Teresa confirmed my recent report that studio economy rather than her alleged "unco-operative" attitude towards publicity inspired the breaking of her $3500 a week contract. "That was obvious," she said, "throughout the negotiations."

Right now she's looking for a good story in which to make her debut as a free-lance star. This summer she hopes to do some stage plays on the straw hat circuit. She thinks the dumb chorine in "Born Yesterday" would be a terrific change of pace for her.

In the spotlight: Lon Chaney, currently co-starring with Jean Parker in the road company of "Born Yesterday." He's the son of the late Lon Chaney, whose mother and father were both deaf mutes. Lon knows the sign language and frequently "talks" to deaf mutes when he knows they are in the audience.

New Due: Patty Andrews of the Andrews Sisters and Bob Crosby are a new Decca recording team—but the Andrews Sisters aren't breaking up the set. . . . Liz Scott's sister, Justine, is kidding when she mixes those film offers.

She's back at school in New York.

Sonny Tufts will play a heavy again in "Nightmare," a spy story he just bought for filming in Rome this summer. . . . There's a big deal cooking for Harry James to star in a western. After all these years on a bandstand, he wants to switch to a horse. If Dick Haymes can do it, so can Harry.

Hope you heard Fred Allen's radio signoff: "This is Fred Allen of the National Broadcasting Co. No other comedian can make that statement."

(Explanation department for snowbound readers: All of NBC's comics except Fred have moved to CBS.)

Hollywood's social habits continue to amaze Kirk Douglas and his wife. When they first came out to the coast from New York they were invited to a formal dinner party. The invitations read 7:30 p. m. They arrived at 7:15. The house was dark. They sat in their car and listened to the radio, finally rang the bell of the still dark house at 7:45 p. m.

The host, a famous star, greeted them with a razor in one hand and a face full of lather. "Hello," he said. "Come in and have a drink. I'll be right down."

The guests, Kirk said, started to arrive along about 8:40. The host arrived at 9. They all sat down to dinner at 11:15.

Blanket refusal of the major studios to produce movies for television finally has been broken. United Artists expects to start selling films for video by March—and that means producing them, too. The French film industry, meanwhile, is shooting like mad on films for release to American TV. One of the stars of these will be Julie Gibson, formerly under contract to Paramount.

War-Torn Towns We Aided Overseas Ask 'What Can We Do In Return?'

By S. BURTON HEATH

NEW YORK (NEA)—Borculo is a little Dutch town, population 6,000 near Arnhem, where Allied paratroopers wrote glorious history in 1945. Borculo was wiped out by fire in the 14th century, destroyed by a tornado in 1925, badly damaged by the Nazis.

When the good burghers of Borculo heard that Warren, Ark., had been devastated recently by a hurricane, they cabled their sympathy to Mayor James Hurley. They appointed a committee, which made a house-to-house canvass and raised money for new furniture for the Warren City Hall, which is to be made by the skilled furniture workers of Borculo.

"That," says Charles L. Todd, executive director of Operation Democracy, "is just a dramatic illustration of a new spirit that I found all over France, Holland and Luxembourg during a two-month visit in which I spent time in some 30 communities afflicted with American cities and towns in our movement."

The people of these three countries, Todd says, are getting fed up with being on the receiving end of charity. They have recovered enough so that, from now on, they want to make giving a two-way street.

Very Hostile "I found both officials and Red Cross very hostile to any form of relief that smacks of charity," he said. "As long as Americans send old clothes, thoughtlessly selected foodstuffs and the like, it will be distributed to the needy. But their pride is hurt by such things. They would much prefer to have us send things that would help their people understand the United States—and, in return, they want to send things back that will make Americans understand the Dutch, the French and the Luxembourgeois."

Burgomaster Charles Matzer of Arnhem took half an hour to emphasize that his people should not get more charity—this time has come for them to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps. "Wilkes-Barre, Pa., has 'adopted' Arnhem as a protegee. Said Matzer: "If the people of Wilkes-Barre really want to help, won't they please send us things that won't wear out—little trunks of America—magazines with pictures of all your wonderful gadgets, or a projector and films or slides—things that will teach us the truth about the United States, help us to understand her better?"

Todd found the new spirit in the little Luxembourgian town of Delkirch, which was shot up when Patton's artillery on one side and von Rundstedt's on the other each thought the enemy was in Delkirch.

and tried to shell him out. Delkirch is "affiliated" with Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

Modern Home Mayor Alphonse Greisch showed Todd his new home—modern, comfortable, with electric refrigerator and range and washing machine—and introduced Todd to his smartly-garbed wife.

"Surely we have poor, and any old clothes or food Mt. Vernon sends will be distributed to them, and we will appreciate the spirit," he said. But he took Todd to City Hall, and pointed to paintings by Lily Under, a favorite Luxembourg artist, hung to cover shell-holes in the walls.

"What we'd rather do than get old clothes and food," he said, "is give Mt. Vernon one of these paintings for its City Hall. Then perhaps Mt. Vernon would send us a sample of the work of the famous Iowa artist, Grant Wood. That would give each of us something permanent as a token of the other's friendship."

"Everywhere I went," Todd said, "the question was the same. What can we do in return?"

"Don't misunderstand. There are plenty of very poor, and I wouldn't want to say that all relief in the form of food and clothing should stop. There are places like the old Replacement Depot outside Le Havre, where maybe 500 dock workers' families live in mud and misery. These, and others like them all over Europe, need charity."

"But the French, Dutch, Luxembourgeois have excellent social workers. They are trying to help their own poor. I am convinced, from my studies here, that American gifts of clothing and food should be handled by organized agencies in this country and over there."

"What the hundreds of American towns that have 'affiliated' with European communities should do now, I think, is build international understanding through the two-way cultural exchange that the Europeans kept telling me they really want."

Single Legislators Keep Bachelor House

By MARTHA COLE

AUSTIN (AP)—Three bachelor representatives who share an apartment in Austin during the Legislature's session admit it's all right but "sorta like Grand Central Station."

"Everybody ends up at our place after every meeting or every party, I do believe," said Tom Whiteside of Tyler.

Whiteside, George Watson of Paris and Walter Caven of Marshall are the three bachelors who decided three could live as cheaply as one.

Whiteside says he's "chief cook and bottle washer." "I do the cooking. I was on KP in the Army enough to know what to do," Whiteside explained. "And the rest let me alone."

"Why, I bet I get more compliments on my cooking than the average housewife. My best dish—or the one they seem to like best—is a sort of chili and steamed rice confection."

Whiteside says he's the maid, too. "Can't say the apartment's neat as a pin," he admitted, "but we live in it."

Milk Bottle Kitty The three keep a milk bottle in a conspicuous place and every once in a while everybody chips in six bits or a dollar. That's for groceries and incidental expenses.

The apartment is a mighty nice one. "We figure it costs us about $50 a month each for rent and such and that's quite a lot cheaper than the $75 they pay to stay in hotels," Whiteside commented.

Sixty-five of Texas' 180 legislators stay in Austin hotels during the session for anywhere from $65 on up to $150 a month, depending on how expensive their tastes are and how much money they have. That takes a sizeable hunk out of the $10 a day the legislators get for pay. The rest live in private homes or apartments.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Battle over more brass takes place in House Armed Services Committee; "Missouri highwaymen" spill needed milk; Senator Anderson takes a duck seat—and loses five cents.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressman Dewey Short of Missouri gave a star-studded delegation of Pentagon generals the bawling-out of their lives at a secret session of the House Armed Services Committee the other day. The issue under debate was not the 70-group Air Force, but an increase of both ground and air officers.

Before the razor-tongued Missourian finished his lecture, the generals seemed only too happy to settle for a compromise increase of 3,500 Army officers and 7,500 in the Air Corps, instead of 21,000 new officers as requested.

"The trouble with you fellows is that you are always clamoring for more rank, more stars and more pay," bluntly asserted Short. "Your only interest in peacetime is your air rank."

"I'm a strong supporter of 70 air groups, but what we need now is more planes, more weapons and more enlisted men—and fewer colonels and generals. This senseless yammering for extra rank is becoming more than the taxpayers can bear."

"If it was needed for security—yes, I'd be for it, but I'm not going to approve any further robbing of the taxpayers when the current officer strength is sufficient to meet the present-day emergency, which the State Department tells me isn't too serious."

Chairman Carl Vinson of Georgia heartily agreed, though Rep. Paul Kilday of San Antonio held out for the 21,000-officer increase.

"You can't justify the increase in view of present conditions," said Vinson. "It's too big. The taxpayers are carrying all they can bear, short of an actual war emergency, and that is not in prospect at the present time. If we gave you fellows all you want, we might wreck our economy."

Missouri Highwaymen Joseph R. Gilmore, a Philadelphia dairyman, has lodged a stiff protest with President Truman about the way the Missouri State Highway Department treats non-Missourians.

Gilmore reported to Truman that a Missouri Highway patrolman stopped one of his trucks at Gray Summit, Mo., and poured 1,800 pounds of its milk cargo out on the ground because the truck was overweight, due to ice accumulation on the undercarriage. The truck was making an emergency trip to Tulsa, Oklahoma, to help relieve a milk shortage there.

The Philadelphia dairyman reported that the Missouri State Highway Department wouldn't even let the truck proceed a few miles to a milk station—where the overweight milk could have been unloaded and sent to a hospital or

"You were in Congress before me," Kerr deferred. "Go ahead and draw."

"But you were governor of a state," Johnson protested. "That's higher than a congressman. You draw first."

Finally they agreed to reach in the hat the same time—and got the only two front seats available to freshmen.

Johnson also collected a nickel from Anderson.

A closed-door caucus of House Republicans this week revealed the significant fact that the high-tariff Grundyites of the Republican Party are losing out. Many GOP congressmen expressed support for the reciprocity treaties, previously managed by the 80th Congress. Here are the highlights of the secret GOP session:

Representatives Robert Kean of New Jersey and Hal Holmes of Washington explained why they joined Democrats in voting for the reciprocal trade measure in the Ways and Means Committee. The reciprocal program is a vital part of our international trade relations, said Holmes, who comes from the great apple-growing section of

Virus Pneumonia Bows To New Drug

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEY
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK—The drug aureomycin brings quick recoveries from virus pneumonia, three New York physicians report. Aureomycin is made by thread-shaped molds that live in the soil. They belong to the same family as those that make streptomycin, another potent antibiotic.

Given in pill form, aureomycin knocks the fever in virus pneumonia down to normal within 12 to 48 hours, the physicians said. They are Drs. Yale Kneeland, Jr., Harry M. Rose, and Count Dillon Gibson of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, and the Presbyterian Hospital.

The drug worked for people who weren't helped by penicillin or sulfa drugs, they said in a report in the "American Journal of Medicine." It not only brought the fever down, but brought general improvement. Patients recovered without trouble when they received the pills for four or five days. In two patients, the fever returned when the drug treatment was stopped too soon.

Virus pneumonia differs from the more common types of pneumonia, which are caused by germs, the pneumococci. Just what causes the rarer "virus" pneumonia isn't exactly known, but doctors suspect it may be a virus. Viruses are organisms, tinier than bacteria, which lives only in tissue cells.

Aureomycin's quick action in this kind of pneumonia suggests that it may have some kind of anti-viral effect, the New Yorkers said. Many drugs work against bacteria, which live outside the body cells. But scientists have been searching for some which will go farther and hit at the viruses, which do their work so differently.

Aureomycin was discovered last year by Dr. Benjamin M. Dugan of the Lederle Laboratories Division, American Cyanamid Company. It is effective against many bacteria. But it goes farther. It cures diseases caused by organisms tinier than bacteria, and known as Rickettsias. Among these diseases are Rocky Mountain spotted fever, typhus and scrub typhus and Q fever. On the ladder of disease germ life, the Rickettsias lie somewhere between bacteria, at the top, and viruses at the bottom.

Mixture Of Fable, Allegory And Satire Uses Child Book Technique In Air Power Appeal

"Once upon a now there lived in a far country a Big Black Bear," begins the fable of "The Bear Facts." He had drawn an iron curtain across his cave, and when other animals outside "called to him to come out and play ball, the Big Black Bear only stuck his head through the iron curtain long enough for a gruff, 'NO'."

Outside, the Little Squirrel and the Little Chipmunk were gathering nuts. The Lion, the Wolf and the Fox were asleep, the Eagle was nowhere near. The Big Black Bear thought how handy it would be to have the Squirrel and the Chipmunk to gather nuts for him, so he declared they were bears and shut them in his cave.

PHILADELPHIA—(NEA)—"Write a story for the air forces, Mom," Roger Culbertson told his mother.

So Polly Culbertson sat down in her Pennsylvania farm house, where she divides her time between Hollywood writing jobs, and did the story Roger wanted.

The result is "The Bear Facts," a combination of fable, allegory, and satire that utilizes the present-day format of good children's books.

Like many a story for youngsters its cast of characters is from the animal world, but the Big Black Bear has replaced the Big Bad Wolf as the villain.

Like "The Animal Farm," which was a best-seller a few years ago, it uses its animal cast to tell a story about the battle between two political ideas. One big difference is that "The Bear Facts" will probably be read by children and grown-ups with equal enthusiasm.

For grownups, the book's dedication to "all alerted air-minded Americans" is perfectly apparent in the story. Mrs. Culbertson, with tongue in cheek, says "any resemblance in this fable to any person, place or thing is . . . just the result of your imagination, but it will take little imagination to figure who she means by the Big Bad Bear—or the Eagle—the Lion, and most of the others.

There may be some argument over the Little Squirrel and the Little Chipmunk. The argument, however, will be over which satellites they are meant to be, rather than what they represent.

"The Bear Facts," copyright by Mary Haesler Culbertson, is published by the John C. Winston Co., Philadelphia ($1.25). Illustrations, by Paul C. Fennell, are reproduced here by permission of the publisher.

Then the Big Black Bear decided it would be just as easy to grab some honey from across the Pond. He buckled on his Schnorkel tube, but a smart Little Snooper Bee spotted him and flew straight to the Eagle. As the Bear clambered ashore, the Eagle screamed defiance, warned him not to "stir up the Little People."

The Big Black Bear guffawed, sure that no bees could get through his tough hide. But the Bees gunned his tender nose, bombarded his rear until he lay there pleading for mercy. The Bees skinned him alive, and "some energetic young jet jobs flew with the body into the stratosphere and left it there for good and always."

Texans In Washington— Lyndon Johnson's Office Busiest On Capitol Hill

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON—Probably the busiest office on Capitol Hill is that of Texas new Senator Lyndon B. Johnson.

Hundreds of letters pour in daily from all parts of Texas, and as many as 2,000 on a single day have been received since he took oath January 3. He has a staff of 16 employees to help him hew close to a self-set rule that every letter be answered within 24 hours.

Johnson took over the same three-room suite occupied by his predecessor, former Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, but he has rearranged things.

The large center room which served as a reception office for O'Daniel now has been taken over completely by Johnson's administrative assistant, John Connally of Floresville, and the latter's own staff of stenographers and legislative trouble-shooters.

Among those in the latter unofficial category are Walter Jenkins of Wichita Falls, Glynn Stegall of Graham and Warren Woodward of Coleman. All experienced men in the ways of Washington, having served with the senator when he was a member of the House, they handle innumerable queries by getting on the telephone and contracting the proper federal officials.

Visitors enter the suite now in the smaller end room which heretofore was occupied by O'Daniel's secretaries and stenographers. Miss Mary Rather, formerly of Sugarland and Austin and for many years a secretary to Johnson, usually welcomes them.

When Miss Rather is engaged in other matters, Mrs. Dorothy Nichols, Jr., of Cotulla or Doris Seeliger of Lockhart may be the ones to welcome the visitors.

Behind a desk at the back of the reception room sits Horace Busby of Fort Worth, former Texas newspaper and radio man, who serves as Johnson's press relations official. He is the one to whom the reporters first go with their queries. If he can't supply the answers, or if for any reason the newsman wants to see the senator, he gets prompt admission into the inner sanctum.

An analysis of the huge volume of mail Johnson receives, says Busby, shows that more than half is from individuals asking for aid in their own personal problems which have a connection with the federal government. The remainder is largely from individuals expressing their views on matters such as pending labor or social security legislation.

Others on Johnson's staff include: Mrs. Henry Long, Lubbock; Mrs. Christine Moore, Dallas; Mrs. Goldie Ruth Brians, Bryan; Barbara Cunningham, Austin; Sarah Jones, Humble; Norman Heine, Lampasas; Bob Brill, Austin, and Walter Bayer, Dime Box.

Congress appropriates funds to pay for a senator's staff, and the amount each is allocated depends partly on the population of the state he represents. Every administrative assistant gets a fixed salary, which with a cost-of-living bonus approximates $10,000 annually. For the rest of his staff, Johnson receives about $56,000 yearly. Salaries range upward from approximately $250 monthly received by some of the stenographers.

Around The Capitol
One of the most impressive receptions this winter in Washington was one given in honor of Speaker Sam Rayburn by Rep. and Mrs. Clark Thompson of Galveston. Numerous Cabinet members and others high in government, including General Omar Bradley, attended.

Here visiting old friends and taking part in both pre-and-post inaugural activities has been Mrs. Beatrice Peebles Conlin of Dallas. Her husband, Maj. Paul Conlin, is on duty in Stuttgart. She returned from Germany recently with their two children, Emily and Harriet.

Former Dallas Mayor Frank W. Wozencraft and Mrs. Wozencraft, now residents of Washington, have just returned from New Haven, Conn., and a visit with their son, Frank M. The son has been chosen editor of the Yale Law Review for the last half of the school year.

A rich vein of uranium-bearing pitchblende has recently been reported on the eastern slope of the Rockies in Colorado.

Minute Of Peace Found In Club

OGUNQUIT, Me. —(AP)— If you need a minute's peace in a hectic existence, you might join a club here that glorifies that very thing. The "Minute of Peace" Club is going strong—and placidly—in its fifteenth year as a haven for harassed Ogunquit men.

Wives of the 46 members can't call up their peace-loving spouses because—by design—there's no phone in the clubhouse. A large placard, reposing in the window, proclaims in triumph: "Men's Club. Minute of Peace. No Telephone Conn."

George Ramsdell, fisherman and lobster dealer started the club but the wife of a member uttered a phrase which still lives in the organization's name.

Mrs. Burton L. S. McAfee, who had two lively children in the early days of the club, often was heard telling them "When you grow up I may get a chance to have a minute of peace."

One day when her husband left the house their daughter, Anne, five asked "Where are you going, Daddy—to get a minute of peace?" McAfee related the incident to fellow clubmembers, and they decided the phrase would suit them perfectly for a name.

Small Shrubs Best With Low House

Dwarf trees or low-growing shrubs are best for landscaping the plot around a low ranch-style house. Evergreens should grow no higher than the window sill, and a variety of plants that will spread its foliage, or grow slender and spiced. Dwarf varieties last a generation or more, do not shut light out of rooms nor destroy the effect of picture windows. Ordinary evergreens grow their positions within 10 years, require annual pruning. A normal flowering shrub requires a space 5 feet across; dwarf variety 3 feet. Three plants of either type in 15 linear feet are enough. Replanting on a small plot with a large number of varieties gives a crowded effect. Choose symmetrical, slow-growing plants and avoid freak shapes with startling foliage color; dark green is best. Plants which seed abundantly require yearly removal of new seedlings.

Pearson—

(Continued from page 1) Washington. Both Holmes and Kean argued for an amendment to give the U. S. Tariff Commission authority to make recommendations to the President on tariff reductions, which caused elder statesman Jim Wadsworth of New York to inquire.

"By the way, just what does the Tariff Commission do any more? Maybe we ought to put it to work to justify its existence."

Reported Rep. Robert J. Corbett of Pennsylvania: "For years my Pittsburgh district was a stronghold for the high tariff, but now the majority of my people are for this reciprocal program and against high tariff. That includes, I might add, not only labor, but many industrial leaders. They want to see the program extended."

"They'll live to regret it," countered Corbett's fellow-stater, Dick Simpson, dean of the Pennsylvania GOP House delegation. He announced that he would fight to the last against "this program to penalize American industry and undermine the spirit of 'free enterprise,'" which, he said, had made us the "greatest nation in the world."

New York's Dan Reed also tossed some verbal harpoons, claiming the Administration had discriminated against American business by failing to put an "escape clause" in the bill whereby trade treaties could be opened up and renegotiated in cases where American producers were injured by foreign competition.

In general, however, the debate showed that the GOP had learned a lesson from November when it came to the subject of tariffs.

Yard Lighting Is Good Protection

One of the convenience features included in plans for new homes is an exterior outlet located under the eaves on a corner of the house, to provide for a flood lamp that will amplify light the yard.

Don't deny your family the protection and safety of yard lighting when it's so easy and inexpensive to add it to most older homes.

Have a weatherproof outlet installed on a corner of the house as shown in the sketch above. Place a 150-watt hard-glass projector flood light in the socket and control it from both the garage and house, if possible.

Age Is No Secret If Woman Recalls Events Of 1920's

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The 1920's may have been a fabulous era, but the woman who doesn't want to be considered middle-aged doesn't talk too much about those years.

You can find middle-aged women who dress as snappily as their trim and who keep their figures as trim as the woman who passed up a cosmetic which helps to stave off any mark of age. Yet, these same women will unwittingly betray their age by identifying themselves with an era that is long past.

The woman who doesn't want to be typed as "getting along" in years will be more interested in what is going to happen in the 50's than what took place in the 20's.

Young people are apt to be visibly bored by reminiscences. A woman's middle-aged friends who don't want to advertise their age are apt to be irritated by her habit of harking back to an era in which they also spent their youth.

Small Home Has Unusual Feature

The large spacious living room is an unusual feature of this attractive and strictly modern small home. Ample dining space is provided in the dinette. The house contains two large bedrooms, either of which will accommodate twin beds. The house width is 46 feet, and the living area totals 932 square feet.

Ice Storm Damages Held Deductible By Tax Collector, If—

William H. Harrison, deputy collector of internal revenue here, reports his office has been flooded with inquiries concerning allowable "casualty losses" as the result of recent ice storms. The storm did much damage to trees and shrubs throughout the county.

Harrison says the large number of taxpayers involved makes it imperative that correct procedure be followed in determining the loss for income purposes. He has issued a notice taken from existing regulations.

For income tax purposes, loss by such casualty will be determined and allowed on the following basis for orchards, trees and shrubs: "If storms damage trees or ornamental shrubs, the measure of the loss is the reduction in the value of the property. It may, or may not, be the value of the particular trees or shrubs. When trees and shrubs are planted, they become part of the real property and have no value for income tax purposes except as their value is represented in the value of the real property. The value of the entire property before the casualty and the value after the casualty (plus the insurance received) must therefore be compared in order to determine the deductible loss. Such loss can not exceed the adjusted basis."

A taxpayer claiming such casualty loss, must be able to substantiate such a claim by a written appraisal from a qualified authority, which must clearly set forth the value of the property immediately prior to the casualty and immediately thereafter, according to official data on prior cases settled in court, Harrison said.

Rankin B&PW Club Has Luncheon-Meet

RANKIN—Twenty one members and four guests attended the Business and Professional Women's Club luncheon Thursday noon in the City Cafe.

The Valentine motif was carried out in decorations with red carnations in a white pottery bowl and eight lighted red tapers in crystal holders adorning the table. Favors were Valentines.

This month being the first anniversary of the issuance of the Rankin club's charter, the president, Mrs. Tom Workman, presented the charter to the club in an appropriate frame, as her gift.

Luncheon music was furnished by three school students, Miss Genevieve Poage, Miss Jan Daugherty and Larry Nettleship, who played two accordian numbers, accompanied at the piano by their sponsor, Mrs. C. H. Nettleship.

Mrs. Leah Johnson, International Relations chairman, read a letter from a Hollander thanking the club for the box sent to the family in December.

New Member Mrs. Opal Dixon of the Rankin school faculty was voted into the membership of the club and announcement was made by Mrs. Nan Daugherty, chairman, of the anniversary program to be held February 20.

Attending Thursday's meeting and luncheon were Leola Hurn, Rosalee Shiller, Leah Johnson, Gertrude Rhortek, Mary Ann Workman, Opal Nix, Irene Nettleship, Gena Johnson, Louise Murchison, Blanche Johnson, Elizabeth Rain, Alma Adams, Clois Barker, Mae Price, Polly Stephenson, Monnie Ray McSpadden, Nan Daugherty, Leola Workman, Lella King, Evelyn Kozimor, Zola McSpadden, and guests, Sara Lee Stephenson, Genevieve Poage, Pan Daugherty and Larry Nettleship.

Uses Cited For Extra Pieces Of Building Material

If you're having your home sided, roofed or otherwise improved with asbestos cement materials, save the leftovers. They can be utilized for various purposes. Here are a few household tips. Here are a few household tips. Here are a few household tips.

A small piece of the material placed at the end of an ironing board, serves as an excellent base for resting a hot iron.

When using a torch on a pipe, the immediate wall and floor area can be protected from the flames by pieces of asbestos cement board or shingles.

Likewise, when soldering, the hot iron can be laid directly on an asbestos cement shingle without danger of igniting the surface beneath. Moreover the soldering can be done right on the material.

Asbestos board can be used back of stoves, to build flower boxes and for scores of home uses. It can be sawed or cut by scoring and snapping. A jack knife, awl, ice pick or the like can be used for scoring. For best results a straight edge, such as a 2x4 clamped to a bench or table, should be used as a scoring guide.

Religious Emphasis Week Set At A&M

COLLEGE STATION—The seventh annual Religious Emphasis Week will begin at Texas A&M College Monday. Dr. Clifford E. Barbour of Nashville, Tenn., is chief speaker.

He is pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church at Nashville and dean of the school of religion at the University of Tennessee.

The Rev. Grady Hardin, associate pastor of the First Methodist Church of Houston, will conduct similar services at Bryan Air Field Annex, where college freshmen are housed.

JUNIOR'S BEDROOM CAN BE MADE INTO PLAYROOM

A home with an active child but without a playroom usually means unhappiness for the small-try and confusion for the homemaker. The problem can be solved, in most cases, by making Junior's bedroom do double duty as a playroom.

In providing equipment and furnishings for the room, safety is of prime importance. Lamp cords should be securely fastened in sockets and kept from trailing across the floor. Avoid small throw-rugs which are likely to slide when the youngsters decide to frolic.

Extra All-Purpose Room Back In Favor

The general purpose room for sewing and doing other odd household chores which was an accepted feature in Grandma's home or on its way back, builders report. A victim of the trend to smaller houses, this handy extra room is coming back into popularity thanks to modern space-saving ideas and equipment.

Not the least important factor in its return is the introduction in recent years of new, compact heating units.

A general purpose room of this type makes an excellent play spot for children. It can be used as a work room for sewing, ironing or any of the many extra tasks that require a little extra space or equipment. In an emergency it can also double as a guest room.

A big advantage of the extra room is that it need not be put in order after every use. Closing the door is sufficient to shut it off from the rest of the house when there are visitors.

Flow to Keep Warm in Berlin

With 25 pounds of coal her entire ration for the winter, this aged Berlin housewife has to comb through heaps of rubble searching for bits of fuel to keep her warm. Heat, not food, is the biggest worry for Berliners this winter, despite the aid given by the Anglo-American airlift. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Joe Schuppe.)

Modern Bathroom Helps Family To Start Day Right

NEW YORK—Today the modern tiled bathroom contributes just as much to a good beginning for the day as the first cup of coffee, the first cigarette or getting out on the right side of the bed. A well-planned, well-equipped bathroom can help start the day right for the whole family.

Best gage of the bathroom's efficiency is the service and atmosphere it provides during the early morning rush hours. Bathroom fixtures, appliances, space allotment and color must be modern to supply both.

Postwar bathrooms, tending to be larger than their predecessors, offer the ingenious home owner many opportunities to make this most-used room also the most efficient. Here are some "The Council of American Suggestions for Improving the Usefulness and Looks of the Bathroom":

1. Compartments, with shower, tub and toilet in separate sections, will help eliminate early morning traffic jams.
2. More shelves—one for each member of the family, for instance—will prevent jumbled medicine cabinets and annoying mix-ups on the toothbrush rack.
3. Extra electrical outlets—for razors, hair driers and hair curlers—will permit two or more heating and drying services at the same time.
4. Two Wash Basins
5. Clay tile wainscots at least three feet four inches high all around the room will provide maximum moisture-proofing and out cleaning chores.
6. Two wash basins may seem a luxury but they can double the efficiency of a large bathroom.
7. Towel rods staggered at different heights will hold face and bath towels for the entire family.
8. Built-in storage cabinets will accommodate overflow from the linen closet.
9. Bathrooms will work more efficiently for Small Fry if provided with a step stool enabling Junior to wash his hands properly and see into the wash-basin mirror.
10. A low towel rack will enable him to hang up his own towels.
11. A clay tile inscribed with such messages as "Have You Brushed Your Teeth?" and substituted for one regular wall tile will remind Junior of his personal hygiene duties.

Recruiting Sergeant Believes It Himself

Sgt. Shelby Wheelus has been telling prospective recruits about the advantages of the Army and Air Force so long he has talked himself into joining up in the regulars.

Sergeant Wheelus has been in the reserve corps on active duty at the Midland Recruiting Station about a year.

He has returned from El Paso where he enlisted in the Regular Army for a period of three years, selecting the Signal Corps as his branch of service.

Sergeant Wheelus first entered the Army in December, 1942, in Shreveport, La., and was stationed at Camp Maxey, Texas, for a time. He has been in the Army six years, 23 months of that time being spent overseas in the European Theater in Ireland, England, France, Germany, and Austria. He has been awarded the EAME Medal with four bronze stars, American Theater, and World War II Victory Medals.

Sergeant and Mrs. Wheelus reside at 1407 1/2 West Ohio Street with their son, Charles.

The nearest infected foot-and-mouth disease territory is now 372 miles below the United States border. That is 124 miles further south than at the high point in the northern advance of the plague.

Nobody Wins In A Rat Race

By MAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—Once upon a time there was a young smart alec rat called Sharpy. Yes, a real four-legged rat.

One night as Sharpy was nosing around the nursery of the home in which he was a non-paying guest he came upon a strange sight.

A little old man only half-a-foot high sat on a footstool bathed in moonbeams. He was blowing upon a small reed. And the music he made was sweet and sad and wonderful.

Said the little man complacently, "I'm a Leprechaun—an Irish fairy. I heard a baby crying in this crib, and I thought it would put the poor thing to sleep. You see, this is a magic reed. When I blow on it and wish somebody to do something—why, they just have to do it."

"Anything?" asked Sharpy.

"Yes, anything," said Mac, the Leprechaun.

Sharpy immediately belted the fairy in the stomach and grabbed the reed. He blew upon it and wished: "Get going, Mac."

Sharpy Piped The Tune

The Leprechaun hesitated a second and then floated up a moonbeam and disappeared, his face still surprised.

Sharpy ran down to the basement and told his family their troubles were over.

So they crept into the cook's bedroom. Sharpy piped his tune and wished for her to get up and put some cheese on the kitchen floor. She did. The cat came prowling round. Sharpy blew again and wished: "Stand on your head."

Up went the cat on its head—and stayed there.

Overnight Sharpy's dream of power grew greater.

He decided—to start with—to get rid of all the cats, dogs and people in New York City. Early the next morning he began the great rat crusade.

Sharpy transfigured a taxi driver with his magic music, and commanded the cab. He crawled up on top. As six giant rats held a megaphone before him, he blew upon his reed and thought: "Cats, dog and humans—follow me!"

And they did. Out from the houses, shops and skyscrapers poured cats, dogs and people, capering together in the streets behind Sharpy. Brokers forsook their ticker tape, bums left the Bowery, Wise Old Men spoke up.

But when the tremendous mass of cats, dogs and people reached the waterfront up spoke a grey, wise old rat:

"If you get rid of all the people, who will rule the world?" cautioned

How To Tell 'Em With Tonsils Out

KANSAS CITY, MO.—(AP)—Talking about your own operations may be easy enough—but what do you say about other people's operations?

A sentiment for almost any surgical occasion—even for Junior's operation tonight—is now on tap at Hall Brothers, greeting card publishers.

Greeting card copywriters have delivered "get well" cards in six different varieties to send to youngsters newly separated from their tonsils.

Harlem, now a negro center in New York, was once a village on Manhattan Island.

The wise old rat. "Why will we have to—the rats. And do you know what that means? It means that in time rats will become tame—like people. We'll have to work for a living. Do we want that?"

Sharpy hesitated. But the lust for power was strong in him. He raised the reed to blow again. Instantly the wise old rat snatched the magic instrument from his paws, broke it in half, and threw it on the ground.

That broke the spell. The rats ran for the nearest holes. The cats began to chase the rats. The barking of dogs began to chase the cats. The people started to run after their dogs.

Moral: Nobody wins in a rat race.

Irish Immigrants To U. S. Increase

DUBLIN, IRE.—(AP)—Irishmen are leaving for the United States by the thousands.

In one recent week nearly 700 of them caught American-bound boats at Cobh and the United States consulate in Dublin reported it has a waiting list of "several thousand" applicants.

Last year 6,872 cut their ties with Erin's green isle for a new transatlantic home. The number of Irish immigrants to the United States has increased swiftly since the end of the war.

In 1945, 546 of them went west. Migration climbed to 1,338 in 1946 and 5,562 in 1947. Last year's migration list reminded Irishmen of the high tide of migration to the United States in the late 1890's.

The principal food of the sperm whale are squid and cuttlefish.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And The Marshmallow Girl

Sammy and Bobby, Daddy Ringtail's monkey boys, had gone down in the forest to play with the other animal children before they ate their picnic supper. But Pattycake the little monkey girl had stayed behind in the monkey house, there in the top of the very tall tree, to help Daddy Ringtail put the supper in the basket.

Now Pattycake was hungry. She was very hungry indeed, and maybe Daddy Ringtail should have known about it and given her something to eat right then and there; but he didn't give her anything, because he didn't know and Pattycake didn't ask for something, because she expected Daddy Ringtail to take care of her without her having to ask.

They climbed down the tree, and so Daddy Ringtail went back to the picnic supper under a tree, while he played a game of hide-and-seek with all the animal children. The game was fun, and up and down the trees everyone was scampering.

But at last it was time to eat, and so Daddy Ringtail put the basket to the picnic supper under a tree, while he played a game of hide-and-seek with all the animal children. The game was fun, and up and down the trees everyone was scampering.

Yes, it was really Pattycake who had done it, and she was sorry now she had. Oh, but Pattycake was unhappy to have made Daddy Ringtail unhappy. She promised to try to do it never again, because she knew that he expected her to be the best little girl in the whole forest.

Puerto Rico Turns Rum To New Jobs, Sends It After More Yankee Dollars

In Puerto Rico's sugar fields, they grew the cane that made the rum that made the money . . . to finance a long-range development plan for that makes new jobs like this.

By S. BURTON HEATH
SAN JUAN, P. R. (NEA) — That rum you bought during the war—often as the only way to get whiskey—is being turned into permanent jobs in Puerto Rico. Jobs that are bringing new hope to what used to be known as Uncle Sam's Caribbean Poorhouse.

The making of rum creates little employment. A few men in a distillery can make more rum than all of Washington's cocktail parties could use. Moreover, the rum business is in the doldrums right now here and everywhere else. An industry that brought more than $71,000,000 into the insular treasury in 1943-44 was good for less than $10,000,000 last year.

But instead of spending its big wartime take on passing fancies or letting it line somebody's pockets, the regime bossed by Luis Munoz-Marin used its gusher millions to finance a long-range development program that now is really getting into full swing.

As head of the dominant Popular Democratic Party and President of the Senate, Munoz fathered and nurtured the program over an eight-year period. Now, as the island's first elected governor, he is in position to do even more with it.

Intriguing Feature
The most intriguing feature of the Munoz program, and the one whose effects are easiest to describe and measure, is that for industrial development. More than $50,000,000 has been spent or pledged for this purpose. Such funds temporarily are exhausted and Munoz's advisers are going over finances with a fine tooth comb to see if they can find some more money to put into the program.

By the end of this year, the industrial development program will have made jobs for about 7000 of Puerto Rico's 50,000 unemployed. That makes only a big dent in the over-all problem, of course. It leaves well over 40,000 out of work at the height of cane harvesting, and maybe 65,000 at the low point. Meanwhile, close to 20,000 job-seekers are added to the rolls every year.

The problem, Munoz explains, is to keep providing enough jobs for the 18-20,000 newcomers each year, and then to keep hammering away at the big backlog of unemployment, 1,000 workers.

Five government-operated factories give jobs to almost 1000 workers. Fifteen new plants to which the government has given financial help should be employing almost 5000 by the end of the year—many are operating already. Another 18, which the government has helped but has not financed at all, will be giving work to more than another 1000.

But this is only part of the program. Agriculture, traditionally, has been Puerto Rico's mainstay. Production of crops, particularly sugar cane, has been increased tremendously, but because of technological advances, employment of farm workers has not increased. An Agricultural Development Company has been handed funds, with the assignment of finding new crops, new uses for old crops, and building up agriculture in fields where manpower can be used to advantage.

"We realize," Munoz says, "that technological improvements have to come, and that through them production can be increased. But our job now is to make work for men. It is more important, temporarily, to get a small income for everybody than to get big incomes for a few. Therefore we are concentrating on the use of human labor—and only after we have made enough jobs for all, if we are smart enough to do that, will we worry too much about the more efficient use of each man's labor."

Money Needed
In such a program money, and more money, always is needed. Aside from the increased government income that would come from expanded industrial and agricultural activity, Munoz is probing two sources of increased revenues. One is, again, rum. An appropriation has been made by the Development Company of $750,000 to finance an advertising and sales campaign in the States.

"Our goal, for the moment, is to raise government revenue from rum by around $20,000,000 a year," the company says.

The other almost new source in mind is tourists. A far-reaching campaign is under way, not only to encourage tourists to visit Puerto Rico but also to provide facilities to make their stay pleasant, so that they will come back and send their friends.

Tricks to Help Older Careful Woman Avoid Signs Of Fatigue

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer
The mature career woman who feels "dragged out" by the end of a working day can employ simple tricks to banish the telltale look of fatigue.

When the zero hour arrives, take 10 minutes out to renew makeup—not just a dab of powder on the nose but a complete from-the-skin-out application. A treatment which includes stroking on cleansing cream and patting on an astringent is refreshing to the skin and helps to relax tense facial muscles. The foundation cream and powder kept in an office kit should be of a rosy tint; than the one you apply at your dressing table. Brush and comb your hair to restore an every-hair-in-place look of immaculate grooming. The fresher you look, the fresher you will feel.

For another pick-me-up, take a brisk walk—even if it's only around your office. A walk taken outside, of course, is better. Even a slight amount of exercise taken in the fresh air will stir up circulation and help to release tensions.

If you know you must stand or walk a great deal, or if you must go direct from the office to a dinner party, take to the office an extra pair of stockings and shoes for change of footwear. There's nothing like a change of shoes and stockings to revive feet when they're tired and to give a woman a brighter outlook.

Pilots Will Lie Down on the Job

When the Air Force pilot of the near future says "Well, I've got to go and stretch out on the couch," he'll mean he's going to work and is about to take a ship up. The "couch" is the bed pictured above, which may soon replace the conventional seat in the cockpit. Tests at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, indicate that operating controls from this prone position is easier on pilots than the old sitting posture. Flying fatigue is said to be lessened and danger of blackouts reduced.

More Turkeys For Pennsylvania Farms

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania growers predict they will raise 1,441,000 turkeys in 1949.

The state agriculture department reports that if the growers' plans are carried out, it means an Autumn crop within 19,000 of the all time record raised in 1945.

Major factors fostering increased production include a plentiful supply of feed and the strong demand for turkeys before and during the holiday season.

A federal-state survey discloses there will be a 25 per cent increase in turkey growing nationally.

Poland Studies Its Meat Problem

WARSAW, POLAND (AP)—The Polish government plans to buy 1-125,000 hogs from owners of small and medium farms this year to increase the flow of meat supplies to city and town markets.

Poles for the last several weeks have been complaining about "meat shortages." The government says there is no shortage and contends the lack of supplies in some districts is due solely to "faulty distribution."

Nevertheless, Polish housewives still stand for hours in long queues from dawn until late morning to buy meats in Warsaw butcher shops.

The economic committee of the council of ministers said $13,000,000 would be spent in 1949 for the improvement of cattle breeding.
