Upton Strike Flows Oil In Ellenburger

Magnolia Petroleum Company has proven for flowing production from the Ellenburger at its No. 1-A TXL, wildcat in North-Central Upton County, 32 miles south and a little west of Midland, and about one-quarter of a mile south of the Midland County line.

This important development flowed 231.75 barrels of 53 gravity oil in 18 hours, through a one-quarter-inch choke during a production test which started late Sunday. Early Monday morning it was flowing at the rate of 142 barrels of oil per hour.

The production is coming from the bottom 40 feet of the Ellenburger pay, at 2,700-2,800 feet. That zone had been washed with 1,000 gallons of mud acid. It is perforated with six shots to the foot.

After the acid had been lifted, the swab was pulled two times, and the well kicked off and started flowing. The fluid went to the pits for 30 minutes to clean, and was then turned to tanks.

During the first 60 minutes of flowing, the well made 12.4 barrels of oil, with gas-oil ratio of 1,003-1. Gravity of that oil was 51.2 degrees at 60.

Then in the following 17 hours the production was 219.35 barrels, or an average of 12.9 barrels per hour during that period.

Pressure increased. Flowing tubing pressure at the start of the 18-hour period, at the flowing tubing pressure had risen to 1,215 pounds, and it was holding fairly steady at that point.

No formation water has developed. This discovery is 650 feet from north and west line of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S. It drilled to a total depth of 13,296 feet and found water in the bottom section.

It is now plugged back to 12,825 feet, the bottom of the Ellenburger section which showed for possible production. The 7-inch casing is cemented at 13,087 feet.

Top of the Ellenburger is at 12,530 feet. Elevation is 2,890 feet. Should Be Better.

The section of the Ellenburger which showed considerably more free oil and more gas, on drillstem tests, than was developed by the drillstem tests run on the zone which is now making the oil.

That fact, together with the way the production from the currently perth and west line of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S, in a manner the pressure increased and is holding, leads many observers to the belief that if and when the upper zones of the Ellenburger are tested, that a considerably larger production likely will be developed.

As the test now stands, it is a major discovery for the Midland Basin—and particularly for Midland.

Humble Discovers Canyon Production At Scurry Wildcat

A new discovery from the Canyon line of the Pennsylvanian developed in Southwest Scurry County for Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Bishop, wildcat 13 miles southwest of the town of Snyder.

On a one-hour and 20-minute drillstem test in the Canyon at 1,49-70 feet, gas reached the surface in five minutes and oil in 54 minutes.

It flowed through a 5/8-inch bottom hole choke and a one-inch top choke for 26 minutes, producing 35 barrels of oil per hour. Gravity of the petroleum was 41 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 310-1.

The venture has now drilled ahead to 6,800 feet and was run another drillstem test, then attempt to complete as the opener of a new field.

Nearest production is at Lion Oil Company No. 2 McLaughlin, also a Canyon discovery, four miles to the north.

This new Humble strike is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 164, block 97, H&TC survey.

Coke Ellenburger Yields Salt Water

The North-Central Coke County Ellenburger finally showed water for Union Oil Company of California No. 1 Jack Frost, wildcat four miles west and a little south of Blackwell and 1,960 feet from south, 660 feet from east line of section 269, block A-1, H&TC survey.

Following two drillstem tests in the top of the Ellenburger which made some free oil, and two others with no shows, the prospector investigated the Ellenburger zone at 6,940-6,955 feet.

The tool was open two hours and had gas in one hour and 10 minutes. Recovery was 100 feet of drilling mud and 80 feet of salt water. There were no signs of oil or gas. The venture was making hole below 7,055 feet in dolomite.

Oil Companies Face Anti-Trust Suit

Billions May Be Asked For Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The State Department hopes to present to Congress in about one month a power packed North Atlantic security treaty. It would be re-inforced by a multi-billion dollar military aid proposal for the countries of Western Europe.

Secretary of State Acheson, Canadian and European negotiators will enter the final stage of treaty negotiations this week. They plan a conference at the State Department Tuesday or Wednesday.

Acheson then is expected to have another talk with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Its members have convinced him that the Senate can be expected to approve a strongly worded commitment to Europe, even though any automatic war commitment is out.

Parall with this work, the State Department is coordinating plans for the arms mutual aid program. This is expected to require more than a billion dollars in appropriations the first year, to net the Europeans upwards of $3,000,000,000 worth of arms with the help of surplus Army stocks now available.

Meanwhile, the weekend brought these other developments: 1. Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) declared the Atlantic Pact must carry a most important commitment that the United States will act in event of an aggression against any of the treaty countries. He reasoned that no such things as a legal commitment is possible. Senator Smith (R-N.J.) indicated that he is urging that the treaty should leave no doubt that the United States would move.

Egyptians May Reject Peace Plan

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL—(AP)—The Israeli cabinet has accepted a draft of a compromise armistice agreement with Egypt, an authoritative source reported.

There was no immediate indication whether Cairo officials would also endorse the draft for the Egyptians.

Delegates of the two nations, meeting at Rhodes since January 13 under United Nations auspices, were said to have accepted the armistice agreement in principle except for one controversial point, Egypt and other Arab nations went to war against Israel soon after the Jewish state was proclaimed nine months ago. Actual fighting ceased around the first of the year after a strong Jewish offensive.

Point of Controversy. The Tel Aviv informant said the armistice draft approved by the cabinet provided for a withdrawal of main military forces from the Israel and Egyptians only in the Western Negev—a desert area on (Continued on page 12)

Hill Hudson Favors Gilmer-Aikin Bills

State Senator Hill D. Hudson Monday told The Reporter-Telegram in a long distance telephone call from Austin, he thinks Bills 115, 116 and 117, concerning the Gilmer-Aikin Committee Report on Education, need some amendments to fit local situations, but he favors each of the three bills in principle.

"I believe that on the whole the bills will benefit more persons in our territory and will be of value to the state at large," the senator stated.

Hudson said he has received more than 150 messages from Midland citizens concerning the proposed legislation, and that it is physically impossible to answer all of them immediately. Telegrams and letters received from over the district totaled more than 500, he said.

The senator further indicated he is opposed to passage of the Fair Trades Bill on which he also has received numerous messages from Midlanders.

Pleads Her Own Case

Mrs. Ines Horton Gay sits with her husband, Arturo, in a New York court, where she acted as her own lawyer in a suit to recover $5,000 worth of personal property from her parents. After bonding up in a law library, Mrs. Gay did a workmanlike job of cross-examining defense witnesses and pleading her case.

Oregon River Is Major Flood Threat Again

Near Eugene, Ore., the Willamette River, swollen by warm rains and melting mountain snows, begins to push out of its banks. Patrick M. Flynn watches as the waters cut away precious top soil and the base of a road. The Red Cross has evacuated 1,000 persons in fear of another disastrous flood such as the valley suffered last year.

Congress Shoves Along Money For Disaster States

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress shoved along $44,000,000 in lending money Monday for snowed-in farmers and ranchers in the Western disaster belt.

It gave push to a $16,000,000 donation to the United Nations to help displaced Jews and Arabs in the Middle East.

House leaders ticketed the loan bill for quick passage right at the start of a light week on Capitol Hill. Then the Senate must act.

House leaders gave the signal for action on the displaced persons fund. Then, in turn, it will be up to the House on that.

Republicans and Democrats have a gentlemen's agreement to hold down on business while many members take a few days off or make speeches about George Washington, Andrew Jackson and politics.

Business As Usual. It's business as usual for committees this week. But nothing big is down the stage of a final showdown. Senate committees will be working on foreign aid, housing, continuing the reciprocal trade agreements act and what to do about the Taft-Hartley labor control.

The House Armed Services Committee began a new project Monday—hearings on a bill to raise pay all along the line in the military services. Secretary of Defense Forrestal topped the witness list.

Proposed Bond Issue Defeated In Martin

STANTON—Martin County voters turned down a proposed $400,000 road bond issue in a special election Saturday, according to complete unofficial returns. County Judge Jules McMorris said the vote was 231 for and 161 against the proposal, falling short of the needed two-thirds majority. The voters approved a plan for re-allocation of county funds by a vote of 315 for to 86 against.

The bond issue had been proposed for participation in a 75-25 per cent program for construction of farm-to-market roads with the state.

Judge Thomason Is Speaker At Dinner For Bar Association

Federal Judge Ewing Thomason of El Paso was the guest of honor and principal speaker at a dinner of the Midland County Bar Association in the private dining room at Hotel Scharbauer Saturday night. Thomason spoke on his service while a member of Congress. President Paxton Howard presided.

New members of the Association were introduced. Ray Lynch was program chairman. Other guests included Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa and Judge G. C. Olson of Kermik. Maxie Hart, clerk of the Federal District Court at El Paso, and Lee P. Boone, court reporter for the 70th District Court.

More than 40 lawyers were present.

Bandleaders' Wife Seriously Burned

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—(AP)—Bandleader Jimmy Dorsey's wife, Jane, 39, was burned seriously Monday as fire destroyed their home in Toluca Lake Estates.

After emergency treatment, she was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, Burbank, where doctors reported she suffered burns of her hands, neck and chest.

Frank H. Rothman, deputy battalion chief, said the fire may have started in a faulty fireplace. Dorsey was on tour at the time.

Price Daniel Charges Gas Price Fixing

AUSTIN—(AP)—An anti-trust suit was filed against 10 major oil companies in 98th District Court Monday by Attorney General Price Daniel.

The suit alleges that the refineries and marketers have "combined their capital, skill and acts" to increase, fix and maintain uniform prices on gasoline delivered for sale to Texas filling stations since July, 1946.

The defendants charged with fixing and maintaining uniform tank wagon prices on gasoline in Texas are: Arkansas Fuel Oil Co., Cities Service Oil Co., Continental Oil Co., Gulf Oil Corp., Humble Oil and Refining Co., Magnolia Petroleum Co., Standard Oil Co. of Texas, The Texas Co., Sinclair Refining Co., Phillips Petroleum Co.

The suit alleges that eight of the defendants combined their efforts after the unsuccessful Phillips' crude price increase on Sept. 28, 1948, to keep the price of crude oil down for the purpose of "maintaining the abnormally large profits existing as a result of the wide spread between the crude oil prices and the selling prices of refined gasoline."

All but Phillips and Sinclair, both of whom posted a 35 cents per barrel boost on crude oil last year, are alleged to have been in collusion to prevent a general increase in Texas oil prices so as "to maintain the presently existing spread."

The suit climaxed 18 months of investigation of gasoline prices under the direction of Daniel and Charles D. Mathews, chief of the Attorney General's Anti-Trust Division, and Assistant Pat T. Peyton, Jim Bryan and Willis E. Greenham. Also signing the complaint were Special Assistant Folk Shelton of Austin.

Daniel said he would press for immediate trial of the case before District Judge Charles O. Bettis.

More Suits. Daniel filed two additional anti-trust suits Monday. One named the Simmons Company and the Montgomery Ward Co., alleging retail price fixing on mattresses, springs and beds, and the other named the Gold Seal Co. and its distributors, alleging retail price fixing on a house hold wax polish.

The suit against the Simmons Co., and Montgomery Ward was filed in 53rd District Court, and that against the Gold Seal Co., was filed in 98th District Court. It was filed in 98th District Court, and that against the Gold Seal Co., was filed in 98th District Court. It was filed in 98th District Court, and that against the Gold Seal Co., was filed in 98th District Court.

Monday's suits brought to 17 the total of such actions filed by Daniel against 45 corporations and 23 individuals. Judgments have been rendered in nine cases, all for the state. Milk, bread, butane gas and clothing were items covered in previous anti-trust actions brought by the attorney general.

The gasoline suit alleges that the companies named eliminated competition between themselves on the (Continued on page 12)

Chimney Sweeps Complain Of Dirty Deal And Strike

BERLIN—(AP)—Berlin's chimney sweeps went on strike Monday. They said they are getting a dirty deal.

The chimney sweep in Germany, with his black face, top hat and armful of brushes, is a good luck symbol. Strollers touch him for luck.

Four hundred sweeps met in a beer garden and voted to strike. They included the sweeps from the Soviet sector. This kind of unity in Berlin hasn't been seen for a long time.

They want a pay boost from 55 to 77 marks a week—a raise from the current $16.50 to $23.10. They also want one-fourth of their pay in West marks so they can buy soap. They say Soviet-backed East marks won't buy soap.

General Motors Loses NLEB Case

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The National Labor Relations Board Monday found General Motors Corporation guilty of an unfair labor practice for trying to put into effect a group insurance plan without consulting the CIO United Auto Workers.

The board ruled unanimously that General Motors violated the Taft-Hartley Act by not bargaining with the union before attempting to apply the plan to its 228,000 employees Feb. 1, 1948.

NLRB General Counsel Robert N. Denham had obtained a court injunction to block General Motors' proposed action last year.

* LATE NEWS FLASHES *

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army, Navy and Air Force asked Congress Monday for continued rent controls to keep rents on "a reasonable basis" in areas of defense activity. The military establishment also told the House Banking Committee the services "have an interest in the continuance of rent controls in certain industrial areas."

ATHENS—(AP)—Military planes dropped thousands of leaflets in the Peloponnasus Monday calling on guerrillas to surrender. The pamphlets said 1,029 guerrillas had been killed and 915 captured.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The proposed North Atlantic Pact will give its members strong assurances that the United States will not stand idly by in case of attack, it was learned Monday.

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Almost 1000 straw huts in Shanghai's Chapei slums Monday were destroyed by fire which left 5,000 homeless.

Mrs. L. H. Thawley Dies At Home Here. Mrs. Leonard H. Thawley, 52, a resident of Midland for a year, died at her home, 1408 West Tennessee Street, at 7:45 a.m. Sunday. Her husband, L. H. Thawley, is a geologist with Phillips Petroleum Company here. Mrs. Thawley was born Nov. 6, 1896 in Minneapolis, Minn. She moved to Midland from Amarillo in January of last year. Funeral services will be conducted in the Ellis Funeral Home Chapel at 3 p.m. Tuesday. It will be a Christian Testament service with Mrs. Ralph Trost officiating as reader. The body will lie in state at Ellis Funeral Home until Tuesday noon. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery. Survivors are the husband and a sister, Mrs. J. E. Bogn of Bartlesville, Okla. Pallbearers will be S. E. Anderson, Dean Graham, Dean Chadwick, John Rawner, Dan Miller, Russell Hayes, Ed Vandenberg and R. W. Baker. Agnes Park Heads Credit Managers. Mrs. Agnes Park, manager of the Midland Retail Merchants Association, was elected president of District 2 of the Credit Bureau Managers of Texas at its annual meeting Sunday in San Antonio. Other officers are Mrs. Dwayne Byrd, vice president, and Mrs. Laura Ferguson of Kermik, secretary. New directors are C. P. Pennington of Abilene and Jim Evans of Odessa. Abilene was selected as the 1950 convention city. Mrs. Park invited the convention to meet in Midland next year, but withdrew in favor of Abilene, with the announcement Midland will seek the 1951 meeting.

Three-Way Shank Half Of Ham Meals

From a shank half of ham, you can make three delicious fresh-cooked ham meals. A simple job of cutting will convert this economy buy into the following ham dinners, all of them top favorites: Baked and glazed ham with broiled peaches, fried ham slices with apple rings, and ham in a "boiled" dinner with vegetables.

There's more to a shank of ham than meets the eye! Three different fresh-cooked ham dinners, all of them top favorites, are possible from this economy meat buy. A simple job of cutting in your own kitchen will produce from a shank half of ham the following fresh-cooked ham meals: Baked and glazed ham with broiled peaches... fried ham slices baked with scalloped potatoes... ham with vegetables in a "boiled" dinner.

Buying and Cutting a Shank Half of Ham
 In order to get three or more generous dinners from this cut, buy a full-cut shank half of ham—one from which the center slices have not been removed. This will weigh around six pounds. Have your meat man cut off a generous shank end with enough meat on it for one meal. This is for the "boiled" dinner with vegetables. Divide the remaining piece of ham in half. Cut down the center, just below the bone, to make a boneless piece for slicing and a piece with bone-in for baking.

Baked Glazed Ham
 Place chunky piece of ham with bone in on a rack in an uncovered shallow pan. Bake at 325 degrees F. for about an hour. Half way through the baking period, score the fat cut in shallow crisscross gashes, stick with cloves, spread with honey, jelly, or brown sugar moistened slightly with fruit juice. Serve ham garnished with marsh-malino cherry halves, if desired.

"Boiled" Ham Dinner
 Cover ham shank with water and bring to a boil. Turn down heat and simmer, covered, about one hour. Add wedges of cabbage, whole medium sized carrots, and small whole onions. Cook gently until vegetables are tender, about 3/4 of an hour. Potatoes also may be added, if desired. The ham and vegetables exchange flavors nicely during cooking. Salt probably should be added, as most hams on the market today are of mild cure. These ham dinners need not be served on successive days. Just cut off the piece needed for one meal and store the rest of the ham in the refrigerator for several days. Always refrigerate ham, both the ready-to-eat and cooking before eating types. Be sure to use ham within a week to 10 days.

Postponement of two meetings of Chamber of Commerce committees was announced Monday by Assistant Manager DeWayne Davis.

The Conventions and Tourist Committee, scheduled to meet at 4:30 p. m. Monday, postponed its gathering until later in the week, and the City and County Affairs group, H. Winston Hull, chairman, postponed its meeting from 4:30 p. m. Wednesday until 4:30 p. m. Thursday.

A meeting of the Wholesale Committee was to be held at 2:30 p. m. Monday. Lionel Craver is chairman. Members of the Health and Safety Committee will meet at 1 p. m. Tuesday in the Chamber office. Members are Dr. Homer B. Johnson, chairman; H. C. Jones, Ernest Sidwell, Dr. R. M. Golladay, H. F. Fox, Newnie Ellis and Jack Ellington. The Education Committee will meet at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday. Jack Jones is chairman. Other members are Ray Lynch, Cal Glass, H. A. Thomason, Frank Monroe, Clarence Scharbauer, Jr., and Charles F. Mathews.

Texas Has Eleven Violent Deaths During Weekend

By The Associated Press
 Traffic accidents accounted for at least six of the 11 violent deaths in Texas over the weekend. Two persons suffocated, one died in a plane crash, one by asphyxiation and another drowned. Fatalities since 9 p. m. Friday included:

R. H. Aileen, an employe of the Bill Hanes Shows, was killed Sunday when he was struck by an automobile in Fort Worth.

Smoke from a smoldering mattress was blamed for the suffocation death of Jeff Davis McCarty, 46, at Fort Worth Saturday night. Justice of the Peace Whit Boyd said McCarty, alone at his home, apparently fell asleep while smoking.

W. B. Andrews, about 30, of Little Rock, Ark., was found dead in a tourist cabin at Aransas Pass Saturday. A physician attributed death to asphyxiation.

Killed in Plane Crash
 Sgt. Dewey Ham, 22, of Fort Worth crashed in a private plane six miles northeast of Weatherford and died.

Mrs. Carrie Garner Miller, 48, of Columbus Grove, Ohio, was killed Saturday night when struck by a car on the outskirts of Odessa.

Joyce Elaine Jacobs, 26, University of Texas student from Baytown, was killed Friday night in a truck-car crash 15 miles south of Fairfield in Frasnstone County.

Mrs. J. E. Hughes died in a Crockett hospital Saturday of injuries suffered in a Friday collision near Grovton. The collision claimed one other life instantly before the week and tabulations began.

Dallas Man Drowns
 O. J. Maples, 48, of Dallas, drowned in White Rock Lake at Dallas Saturday. J. L. Hamner, in a boat with Maples, said Maples fell out when the boat made a sharp turn.

William Jetton, 11 months old, was found dead in his bed at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jetton, in Dallas Saturday night. Examination at Parkland Hospital indicated he died of suffocation.

Charles Rogers Campbell, Jr., 22, of Dallas was killed early Sunday when his automobile overturned near Dallas.

Jim Canales, 37, was killed Sunday night as he crossed a street in Dallas.

Texas City Striker Faces Charge Of Assault To Murder

TEXAS CITY—(AP)—An assault to murder charge has been filed against one striking employe of the Carbide and Chemical Corporation plant and a company spokesman claimed all major units were back in operation.

Calvin R. Wheeler, Texas City, was freed on $1,000 bond after he was charged with assault to murder in connection with the beating of a non-union Carbide worker outside the plant Saturday.

E. J. Fox, assistant superintendent of the plant, said all major units of the plant were in operation. He said other units would be put into operation soon.

A flurry of fist fights broke out Saturday between union and non-union workers outside the plant here.

On January 29, 1,400 union workers walked out in support of wage demands.

The company announced Saturday it was reopening the plant "with or without union labor."

The plant produces Prestone, an anti-freeze product. Wheeler is accused of beating Thomas J. Downs, Galveston, after Downs left the plant Saturday for his home.

Another non-union worker said he also was beaten by several strikers.

Other Workers Idle
 Two-thousand Ford, Bacon and Davis construction workers have been idled by the strike. They were employed on an expansion program.

Fox said several citizens of Texas City and La Marque had called Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety, asking that rangers be sent to the strike area.

Garrison said he had been called, but had no other comment.

Average annual rainfall in Egypt amounts to only two or three inches.

Rib Roast Of Beef—King Of The Feast

Rib roast of beef is tops in meat lovers' circles. What's more, it's a good choice for special occasions as it needs no attention during cooking, not even basting. Use a moderately low oven temperature when cooking this king of roasts and you'll have meat that's deliciously tender and juicy. Place roast in an open pan, fat side up, and cook at 325 degrees F. about 26 minutes to the pound for medium rare beef.

It's king of them all—the royal rib roast of beef. Purple-velveted, scarlet-plumed Henry VIII sang noble phrases to this handsome meat. And there'll be praises from your family, too, when they eat the tender, juicy slices. Because rib roast is so easy to cook, it's a good choice for special occasions when you are particularly busy.

Keep the Temperature Low
The secret of cooking a rib roast to juicy tenderness is to use a low oven temperature of 325 degrees F. Low temperatures are best for cooking all cuts of beef since there is less shrinkage and less loss of juice. Rib roast cooked rare or medium is juicier than well-done meat.

Use a Meat Thermometer
A meat thermometer, which can be purchased for a reasonable sum, is the most accurate way of determining the degree of doneness of a roast. The "minutes-per-pound" method is not entirely accurate as it does not take into consideration the difference in long, rangy roasts and small, chunky ones. An important rule to follow in using a meat thermometer is to be sure the bulb does not touch either bone or fat. Please—No Water, Cover or Flour! Water should not be added to the rib roast before or during cooking. The roast should not be floured, nor cooked with a cover. The less tender cuts of beef such as pot roasts, flank steaks, etc., are the ones which should be cooked by braising (with added moisture and with a cover). Flouring a roast tends to scorch the meat. Although the drippings from an unfloured roast do not make a deep colored gravy, rich brown gravy may be obtained by browning flour in the drippings.

Preparing the Roast
Wipe meat with a clean, damp cloth. Season with salt and pepper. Place roast fat side up in an open roasting pan. A rib roast does not need a rack as the bones form a natural rack. Roast in a preheated, moderately low oven of 325 degrees F. Insert a meat thermometer through the outside fat into the center of the thickest muscle (not touching bone or fat).

Time Table for Rib Roast

Internal Minutes	Temperature Per Pound
Rare.....140 deg. F. 22 to 26	Medium.....160 deg. F. 26 to 30
Well Done.....170 deg. F. 33 to 35

(The above table for minutes-per-pound is for meat taken chilled from the refrigerator.)
After the meat has been cooked, place it on a platter and garnish either with a few simple carrot flowers and parsley or a more elaborate garnish of orange slices and cranberry jelly. For the rest of the meal serve creamy whipped potatoes with gravy, Frenched green string beans, fruit and nut green salad, assorted relishes, and chocolate pudding pie.

Washington Birthday Program Outlined In 20th Century Club

"Turning Back The Clock" is the program subject for the Twentieth Century Study Club at its meeting Tuesday, which falls on George Washington's Birthday. It is one of the programs on the year's theme, "Looking at America."
Mrs. L. E. Patterson, Jr., will discuss "George Washington and Mount Vernon;" Mrs. M. S. Metz will have the topic, "Williamsburg," and Mrs. Carl O. Hyde will show a sound film on Washington, D. C. Members will answer roll call with "Grandmother's Favorite Recipe."
Election of officers for next season, and a delegate to the Eighth District Federated Club convention of next month, will head the business agenda.

Party Is Given For Troop No. 7

Virginia Kromlein was hostess to Girl Scouts of Troop 7 with a party Saturday night in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kromlein, 710 West Louisiana Street.
Troop members and their guests played games and danced, and the hostess served refreshments. Peggy Wilson is leader of the troop.
Pat McCall of Houston was an out-of-city guest of her cousin, Roberta Stewart, and Sylvia Kromlein, sister of the hostess, was another guest. Others present were Charlotte Frasher, Marilyn Dunagan, Phyllis Fryer, Frances Hefner, Sara Cameron, Judy Edwards, Dona Lee Ingham, Glenda McNeal, Ann Hughes, Anne Grayum, Millicent Smith, Margaret Gibson, Mary Ann Hill, Simone Walker, Elizabeth Sprinkle, Paul Davis, Bobby Proctor, Bill Crenshaw, Milton Jones, Paxton Howard, Darrel Spivey, Steve Thorson, Rex Wilkes, Sammy Parker, Billy Snow, Bill Sims, Jimmy Mashburn, John Blackman, Don Roderick and Bill Cox.

Patriotic Holidays Supply P.E.O. Topic

The program for the BS Chapter, P. E. O., at its meeting in Mrs. Tom L. Ingram's home Friday afternoon was inspired by February birthdays of two American presidents. Pat Burke was introduced as a new member, who has transferred from a P. E. O. chapter in Missouri.
Mrs. Mittle Norman, vice president, was in charge of the business session. Announcement was made that officers for a new year will be elected at the next meeting.
For the program, Mrs. Clint Dungan told a story about Martha Washington; Mrs. Tom Head presented a sketch of Abraham Lincoln, and Mrs. F. C. Cummings discussed a member of the present presidential family, Margaret Truman.

The business session and program followed a luncheon at which Mrs. Ingram was hostess in the Private Dining Room of the Scharbauer Hotel. The centerpiece was an epergne holding blue and lavender flowers with blue candles.
Members present were Mrs. J. M. Devereux, Mrs. Herbert A. Hemphill, Dr. Louise Pillman, Mrs. W. D. Henderson, Mrs. G. E. Merson, Mrs. L. E. Patterson, Jr., Mrs. James E. Sprinkle, Mrs. Horace Skinner, Mrs. Elliott H. Powers, Mrs. Vernon Yearby, Mrs. George Turner and those on program.

Mrs. Miller Guest For Troop Program
Mrs. Bob Miller, a former resident of Berlin, Germany, was the guest of Girl Scout Troop 26 Wednesday afternoon, when members gained first-hand information about life in another country. She spoke informally and answered questions, giving her reactions to life in the United States as well as facts about Germany.
Girls present were Jill Bethell, Jo Ann Cunningham, Eva Dillon, Lurline Floyd, Jan Scott, Helen Bhaden, Mary Wynn, Norma Hart, Peggy Hoover, Patricia Chambers, Ruth McIndra, Martha Calhoun, Mabel Nix and Carol Waldmann. Mrs. H. W. Mathews, leader, and Mrs. E. R. Andres, assistant leader, were also present. Peggy Hoover served refreshments to the group.

Wichita, Kans., has a resident named Mrs. Orange Marmalade Lemon.

More Communist Purges

An outraged Christian world scarcely had time to catch its breath after the sentencing of Hungary's Cardinal Mindszenty before the familiar pattern began again in Bulgaria.

Once again there were accusations of treason, currency manipulation and spying for the United States and Britain. Once again came the official announcement that the accused had "fully confessed" their alleged crimes.

The closeness and similarity of these two events might be due to carelessness, but it seems more likely that they result from indifference. It is as if the Kremlin's agents in Budapest and Sofia were saying, "You denounce these charges as trumped up. You say they are part of a Communist campaign to wipe out religion wherever it can. You say the charges are a baseless insult to the American and British governments and their citizens. All right, what are you going to do about it?"

And what, indeed, can be done? These half-secret mock trials and the ensuing punishments are violations of the terms which gave Hungary and Bulgaria a limited sovereignty under their peace treaties. The terms include freedom of religious worship, speech and political opinion, and freedom from discrimination because of race, sex, religion or language.

Under normal conditions, complaints of this sort would be settled by the treaty signatories, Russia, Britain and this country. But under present conditions it is almost certain that the Communist heads of government in Hungary and Bulgaria would say that the accused were tried under laws applying to all citizens and that, moreover, they had confessed their crimes.

Even if the signatory powers did go through the motions of meetings and discussions, there is no chance of their agreeing. Moscow obviously ordered these travesties of justice. And Moscow just as obviously isn't going to admit that it was wrong or permit its decisions to be reversed.

So the prospects are for more persecutions and purges of religion and its leaders in the Soviet satellite states. One may wonder, in that connection, why Russia permits its own war-revived religions to continue operating with no more apparent hindrance than the usual denunciations in the Communist press.

The answer can only be guessed at. But it seems likely that the Russian churches have been allowed to continue only on condition of prescribed behavior. In the satellite countries both Protestant and Roman Catholic churches are threats to the Communist dictatorship, just as they were to the Nazi dictatorship when it existed in the same countries.

Cardinal Mindszenty and the Bulgarian clergymen are to the Communists what Cardinal Hlond and Pastor Niemoller were to the Nazis before them. They are champions of the rights and freedom and dignity of man. They are foes of atheism. They are believers in truth, justice and charity. As such they are enemies of the Communist state. Their light must be extinguished.

It's A Watchdog's Life

Governor Dewey and Senator Vandenberg have advised the GOP to resume its position in the middle of the road and its role of governmental watchdog. We seem to recall that the GOP was sitting in the same spot and performing the same duty in '36, '40, '44 and '48 when that big, fast Democratic machine came whizzing around the corner and smacked it.

DREW PEARSON ON 'The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND'

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Benzadrine-inhaler dope craze, begun during war in disciplinary barracks, spreading; survey reveals prison inmates' many methods of using drug; Alabama Congressman Grant drafts bill to restrict sale of inhalers.

WASHINGTON — What appears to be a harmless medicament for clogged-up noses has started a new dope craze which is creeping across the country. The dope is found in ordinary benzadrine inhalers—available for a few cents at most drugstores.

Not only are inmates taking dope from inhalers smuggled into the prisons, according to a prison survey, but the practice is spreading on the outside, particularly among young people. It was first brought to light by Alabama Congressman George Grant, who stumbled onto the shocking use of benzadrine inhalers at Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Ala.

In spite of rigid regulations to keep benzadrine inhalers out of the prison, Congressman Grant interviewed prisoners whose skin had turned yellow from using the drug, and who were able to get benzadrine-treated paper torn out of the inhalers and smuggled in to them.

One sharpshooting spittal sniper had even flipped the paper into the closely guarded cell. In most cases the Benzadrine-saturated paper was soaked in water, then the mixture was injected into the blood stream with a hypodermic needle, the congressman said.

Warden George Alexander, Oregon State Penitentiary—Most of the benzadrine which is brought here is purchased by guards and turned over to the inmates or sold to them. Superintendent Ray Ryan, Washington State Reformatory—Have had considerable trouble in the past with benzadrine inhalers being smuggled into this institution by officers on our staff. Certain officers were found to be peddling inhalers to various inmates.

Warden W. E. Miller, Wyoming State Penitentiary—We had considerable trouble with guards smuggling benzadrine into the cell house and giving the guilty ones were apprehended and dismissed. Since then, we have had some trouble with relatives and friends sending it in, buried in peanut butter or some other foods. We have even had one conviction of a relative sending narcotics inside the walls.

To check the spreading benzadrine-inhaler dope craze, Congressman Grant is drafting a bill to restrict the sale of benzadrine inhalers except on a doctor's prescription.

Warden R. P. Balknew, Georgia State Prison—Benzadrine has caused us more trouble within this prison than any other form of contraband. We have had several lose their minds completely by the use of this drug.

Superintendent L. F. Chapman, Florida State Prison—In recent years the use by prisoners of these inhalers has been a major curse. The ease with which they can be purchased in any drugstore makes the effort to keep the inhalers out of prison most difficult.

Superintendent O. M. Smith, Washington State Penitentiary—We, like every other penal institution in the country, are having a difficult time controlling traffic in this harmful and habit-forming drug. It is definitely established here that the use of benzadrine contributes to the development of perverted practices. The use of benzadrine as a stimulant by thousands of persons not confined in institutions also is becoming a growing national menace.

It is a well-known fact that many college students use the drug as a stimulant during periods of examination. It is further established that many persons in the entertainment world, who are required to be awake and vivacious during all hours of the night, have become addicted to the use of Benzadrine.

Warden E. E. Snyder, Sing Sing Prison—Regulations prohibit benzadrine inhalers but some inmates recently procured some through improper channels.

Dr. B. L. Stewart, Arizona State Prison—I feel that if benzadrine inhalers were put on the prescription list 98 per cent of our trouble with inmates would be eliminated.

Warden E. T. Senon, Maryland State Penitentiary—While the use of benzadrine inhalers has been prevalent for a number of years it appears, since the war, their use

Missing Airplane Is Reported Safe

Location of the plane was announced by air route traffic control of CAA Sunday. No reason was given for the change in flight plan or failure to notify officials of the landing Saturday.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Corns And Warts Differ, And May Require Some Treatment

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D. Written for NEA Service. Corns and warts, because they frequently look somewhat alike, are often considered in the same breath. Actually, they are quite different because corns are caused by injury and warts are essentially infections.

The skin has an outer layer which is quite tough, as everyone knows. It is made up of several layers of skin is pressed upon or irritated so that it continues to grow and becomes horny. These growths are called corns. Two kinds of corns are recognized—hard corns which are thick and develop on the prominent parts of the foot where a shoe pinches upon it, and soft corns which generally appear on a toe which has been rubbing against another one.

Most corns disappear when the cause is removed. In the case of warts, however, they are replaced by properly fitting ones, they will go away. There are various ways of softening corns and removing them by cutting or scraping. In a few cases, a small operation is quite effective.

Warts are of several varieties but are believed to be caused by infection with one or more viruses. They are more or less infectious and people frequently transfer a wart from one part of the body to another by rubbing or scratching, the virus presumably being carried by the fingers. There is no truth, however, to the belief that handling a toad will produce warts.

In spite of the fact that warts are infectious, they can be successfully treated by a wide variety of methods. Local treatment by freezing with liquid nitrogen is the most effective. Injections of various substances have been used also. Even a form of mental treatment seems to have been successful in curing warts although why this should be true is something of a mystery. In very difficult cases, treatment with X-ray and even removal by operation have been used. Of course, warts are not serious to life, but very large numbers of people have them at one time or another.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

One of the most interesting radio personalities I have met in a long time is Red Benson, who is heard every afternoon over the Mutual Broadcasting System on the program called "Red Benson's Movie Matinee."

I asked Red if he is not confronted with a problem at times on his quiz program, and he told me

Bridge hand diagram showing a deal with cards and suits.

Another mistake, said Keyserling, is to think that the recent leveling and leveling of prices has been a general deflationary decline. It is true that some prices have softened. In the last two months the cost of living has dropped two points from its all-time high. But it is still 74 per cent above 1939 levels.

West made a pretty good opening. If he had led a heart, there would not have been much of a problem, but his opening lead was the four of spades which Red (South) won with the jack. Now he cashed all of the clubs, then cashed the king of hearts from dummy. West was a little excited and dropped the eight of hearts, indicating that he held the queen.

West had had to bare down to the blank king-queen of diamonds and the queen-four of hearts. Red cashed the ace of diamonds, then threw West in the lead by playing the seven of diamonds, forcing West to lead from his queen-four of hearts into Red's jack.

Another mistake, said Keyserling, is to think that the recent leveling and leveling of prices has been a general deflationary decline. It is true that some prices have softened. In the last two months the cost of living has dropped two points from its all-time high. But it is still 74 per cent above 1939 levels.

Keyserling gave six areas of maladjustment needing attention: 1. The cost of living is still higher than at the beginning of last year.

2. The relationship between farm and industrial prices is out of joint. Since 1946 wholesale farm prices have risen 24 per cent, while industrial prices are 45 per cent. The problem is to bring down the cost of living without driving farm income further downward.

3. The price of metals and metal products has increased nearly 25 per cent since 1947 and is still 24 per cent above December, 1946. The result has been reflected in such developments as decline of residential construction in 1948.

4. Consumer expenditures have dropped. Correspondingly, compensation for business expansion investment has dropped from 96 per cent of the national income in 1939 to 61 per cent in 1948, while business and professional income have risen.

5. Corporate profits have been running higher than needed to maintain business expansion investment. Corporate dividends, however, went back to the drawings with labels.

Sin squinted at the 1905-07 map in the brown light and then held it up to catch a little of the brightness filtering through the Venetian blinds.

"Bad for your eyes, Mrs. Conover—reading in the dark," Vernon lisped. He leaned sorrowfully in the doorway, his hand still on the light switch.

Sin swallowed and tried to say something. All that came out of her dry throat was a croak. Vernon moved toward the desk. Sin backed away, her hands quivering, stretched to ward him off. The maps floated to the carpet. "I'll scream," she whispered.

Vernon shook his head mournfully and Sin saw for the first time that he was pointing a gun at her—a short gray automatic that matched the lapels and trousers-ripes of his maroon uniform. "Don't scream," he said, looking the happiest that Sin had seen him. "Keep quiet and you might be all right." He raised his voice. "All right."

Gayner stepped through the open doorway and regarded the captive with a shifty amusement. "I hope we didn't give you too much of a shock, Mrs. Conover," he said pleasantly. "But you can understand we had to take certain precautions. Vernon, I believe you may put away the gun. Mrs. Conover realizes that she'll have to do as we say."

Vernon appeared displeased as he slipped the automatic under the tail of his tunic into a hip pocket. "What do you want from me?" Sin quavered, her eyes darting between the two. Her lips were trembling so that it was an effort to form the words.

Gayner said heartily, "That's exactly what I was going to ask you. And I wouldn't be surprised if Mr. Barcelos didn't repeat the same question. Don't make him repeat it too often."

"Start thinking up a good answer," Vernon advised her in a familiar. She said these words and

WASHINGTON COLUMN Experts From All Over Give Solons Economic Short Course

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) WASHINGTON—Leon Keyserling, vice chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, has begun what amounts to a short course for Congress on the economic facts of life.

It isn't such a short course at that. Before Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney's Joint Congressional Committee of seven representatives and seven senators set through with its hearings, it will have heard six cabinet officers, three heads of agencies on banking, housing and social security, and 15 economists and executives from private business.

If the lawmakers aren't completely confused by all this expert testimony, then they should have some better idea of what the President's long-winded and involved Economic Report to Congress was all about, and what they are expected to do about it. Also, they should be able to appraise economic changes in the last six weeks.

It is very easy to misinterpret these developments, Keyserling told the congressmen in his opening two-hour lecture. For instance, to report that unemployment increased 700,000 from December to January is an accurate statement of fact. But it ignores the interpretive fact that unemployment is no higher than it was last February and that employment is higher than at any time before.

Mixed Situation Another mistake, said Keyserling, is to think that the recent leveling and leveling of prices has been a general deflationary decline. It is true that some prices have softened. In the last two months the cost of living has dropped two points from its all-time high. But it is still 74 per cent above 1939 levels.

Also, other prices are continuing to advance. Some prices reached all-time peaks in January. Rents are still creeping upward. Average wholesale prices, other than food and farm products, are now at near peaks. All major industrial items except textiles are up.

What it all adds up to, says Keyserling, is that the economy is in a mixed situation. It needs selective anti-inflationary controls and it needs some anti-deflationary measures.

The general economic outlook is bright. It can be kept bright if there is some affirmative action now. The situation would be still brighter today if there had been some of this affirmative action a year or more ago. If nothing is done now, the situation can decline.

Six Areas of Maladjustment Keyserling gave six areas of maladjustment needing attention: 1. The cost of living is still higher than at the beginning of last year.

2. The relationship between farm and industrial prices is out of joint. Since 1946 wholesale farm prices have risen 24 per cent, while industrial prices are 45 per cent. The problem is to bring down the cost of living without driving farm income further downward.

3. The price of metals and metal products has increased nearly 25 per cent since 1947 and is still 24 per cent above December, 1946. The result has been reflected in such developments as decline of residential construction in 1948.

4. Consumer expenditures have dropped. Correspondingly, compensation for business expansion investment has dropped from 96 per cent of the national income in 1939 to 61 per cent in 1948, while business and professional income have risen.

5. Corporate profits have been running higher than needed to maintain business expansion investment. Corporate dividends, however, went back to the drawings with labels.

Sin squinted at the 1905-07 map in the brown light and then held it up to catch a little of the brightness filtering through the Venetian blinds.

"Bad for your eyes, Mrs. Conover—reading in the dark," Vernon lisped. He leaned sorrowfully in the doorway, his hand still on the light switch.

Sin swallowed and tried to say something. All that came out of her dry throat was a croak. Vernon moved toward the desk. Sin backed away, her hands quivering, stretched to ward him off. The maps floated to the carpet. "I'll scream," she whispered.

Vernon shook his head mournfully and Sin saw for the first time that he was pointing a gun at her—a short gray automatic that matched the lapels and trousers-ripes of his maroon uniform. "Don't scream," he said, looking the happiest that Sin had seen him. "Keep quiet and you might be all right." He raised his voice. "All right."

Gayner stepped through the open doorway and regarded the captive with a shifty amusement. "I hope we didn't give you too much of a shock, Mrs. Conover," he said pleasantly. "But you can understand we had to take certain precautions. Vernon, I believe you may put away the gun. Mrs. Conover realizes that she'll have to do as we say."

Vernon appeared displeased as he slipped the automatic under the tail of his tunic into a hip pocket. "What do you want from me?" Sin quavered, her eyes darting between the two. Her lips were trembling so that it was an effort to form the words.

Gayner said heartily, "That's exactly what I was going to ask you. And I wouldn't be surprised if Mr. Barcelos didn't repeat the same question. Don't make him repeat it too often."

"Start thinking up a good answer," Vernon advised her in a familiar. She said these words and

Connally Says Russia Is Not Ready For War

WASHINGTON —(AP)—U. S. Senator Tom Connally does not believe war with Russia is on the horizon.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said, "I do not think that war with Russia is imminent within any foreseeable date in the future."

Connally spoke on the Texas Forum of the Air, a transcribed program for broadcast over 19 Texas State Network radio stations Sunday night.

His views on a possible conflict with Russia was in answer to a question by Rep. Wright Patman, Johnson also speaks.

Connally said "Russia doesn't want war. She knows that we have the atomic bomb. She knows that we can fight. She knows that we are preparing for peace first, but that if war comes, we will be ready."

POP Goes the QUEEN By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

THE STORY: John Henry and Sin Conover, vacationing at a swank resort, witness the death of a man named Homer August. Later their cottage is occupied by Faye Jordan in a "reservation" which she calls "The Desert."

The leather-paneled room was melancholy in the scant bars of sunlight that fell across carpet and desk top. Cigarette smoke still hung in the air.

There was nothing interesting in sight, so Sin tried the desk drawers. They were unlocked. In the center drawer, under an open pack of cigarettes, was a sheaf of papers held together by a wire clip. She sat down in the big chair and liberally sheets from the imprisoning clasp.

The papers were all maps apparently of the area surrounding Azure, the Salton Sea and Borego Valley. The first one was labeled in ink: "Flood of 1949." Pencilled under this was the handwritten notation—"Very rough reconstruction—prob. inaccurate."

A large area of the drawing had been shaded, most of it lying south of Azure. The next map was no more explicit. The date was 1891. Against the background of the map was a portion of the map was shaded but Sin discovered by comparison that the area was slightly smaller than on the first map, and more oval.

The date on the third map was 1806-07 and it was titled: "Formation of S/S." The familiar darkened area was present, but the topography was drawn in greater detail, with place names added. Sin recognized Highway 99 which they had followed north from Brawley to Azure. At the southern tip of the Santa Rosa Mountains, another and smaller section had been shaded, its vertical lines superimposed on the horizontal stripes of the larger expanse. A cross had been drawn in pencil at a spot in this area, and a notation made.

The rest of the papers were heavier and glossier—serial photographs of desert country, on which she distinguished nothing familiar. She said these words and

"I see Congress is doing what you wanted 'em to, Mr. Perkins—now you won't have to go to Washington and tell them a few things!"

Winter Of 1949 Is Writing New Railroad Legend

OMAHA —(P)— Casey Jones, the railroader, had better move over. The Winter of 1948-49 is writing new railroad legend.

The legend will revolve around such incidents as the two stalled locomotives near O'Neill, Neb.

It was on December 29 that the locomotives, on snowplow duty, got stuck in an 18-foot drift.

They're still there.

On January 3 two of the Burlington's biggest engines rumbled, a snow plow into a 40-foot drift near Ashby, Neb., and disappeared.

In the next 96 hours they were dug out in what has come to be called the "Battle of Ashby cut." People who fought it say it will become a railroad legend fit to rank beside the saga of "Casey Jones."

Trainmen Killed

January 18 a Union Pacific double-header snow plow smashed into a 14-foot drift near Stapleton, Neb. The plow carried off the top face of the drift, buckled back and sheared off the sides of the two locomotives.

Eight hours later workers with acetylene torches finished cutting away the twisted mass of steel which entombed a trainman killed in the accident.

Incidents like this have made the blizzard of '49 the roughest, toughest and longest blizzard in railroad history.

Other storms have tied up railroads for a few days.

"They were all compared with this one," says W. L. Mueller, Western Division superintendent for the Chicago and Northwestern. He's been railroading 35 years.

One branch of 115 miles hasn't been completely opened since January 2 despite 24-hour a day work by rotary plows, wedge plows, dynamiters, and men with picks.

They Were His Best Friends

One of the dogs met a rescue party and led it to a clearing where Rickey slept. The boy suffered no serious effects from his all-night outing.

Taft Attacks Plan For Government Medical Insurance

PITTSBURGH —(P)— Senator Taft (R-Ohio) Saturday night assailed proposed government medical insurance as in reality a tax leading to free medical care for all people. He asked:

"Why not provide them with free transportation, free food, free housing and clothing, all at the expense of the taxpayer?"

The Ohio Republican presented arguments against President Truman's proposal for "prepaid medical insurance" in a speech prepared for the Pittsburgh Academy of Medicine. Truman is expected to detail his ideas in a special message.

Wichita Falls Bus Strike Is Ended

WICHITA FALLS —(P)— City bus service returned to normal here Monday.

Striking union drivers accepted an immediate five cent-an-hour wage increase and the promise of an additional two and one-half cents per hour boost as soon as a new fare becomes effective.

The City Council approved a new fare at a meeting Sunday night, removing the last barrier to resumption of bus service.

The strike started last Tuesday. When all raises are put into effect, drivers will receive $1 per hour.

The new fare will be ten cents straight for adults and five cents for children.

Under the old fare, tokens could be purchased four for 30 cents and school children received 30 rides for $1.25.

Red Complaint On U.S. Trade Policy Downed Decisively

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND —(P)— Western Europe rejected decisively recently a Communist complaint that the trading policy of the United States works against the Communist bloc.

Communists in the Trade Committee of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe had sought to indict the American "discrimination policy"—the export licensing system—as harmful to the economic recovery of Europe.

In its last action of a six-day session, the committee rejected by a vote of 11 to 6 a Czechoslovak resolution demanding an investigation of the American practices. The U. S. and 24 European countries took part in the discussions, but only UN members were entitled to vote.

Communists Get Fujen University

PEIPING —(P)— The control of famed Fujen Catholic University of Peiping, which has about 2,800 students, has passed from foreign to Chinese hands.

(The Communists run Peiping. This means that control of the Catholic institution undoubtedly now is in the hands of the Communists.)

The foreign Catholic fathers who run the university have agreed to give up the main posts in favor of the Chinese. These include the jobs of rector, business administrator and director of studies.

NEW KIND OF HEARING AID

Transmits 2 TO 6 TIMES MORE SOUND INTENSITY

Look again at the picture! Here is a hearing aid complete in one unit so small it fits the tiny watch pocket of a man's trousers! A new Bellone record!

Made possible by a new kind of "silver circuit," combining 45 parts and connections into one moistureproof, trouble-free unit.

Yet, the receiver transmits 2 to 6 times more sound intensity than any of 12 other hearing aids tested. Twice as much as even the former Bellone model! This is far more sound intensity than you probably need—or even can stand!

But note this: it means almost unbelievable clarity with the power turned way down. This means glorious hearing comfort. And cuts operation cost to a new low—less than a penny an hour.

It Adds a Hundred Miles to the Day!

Owners of the 1949 Cadillac are going to get a pleasant surprise when they take it out for that first cross-country run. Without any extra effort whatsoever, they are going to wind up that first day's touring about a hundred miles farther from home than they expected to be! For here, beyond any doubt, is the greatest "mile-eater" that ever rolled over a highway. We are not talking about excessive speed—because, regardless of the power they have at their command, sensible people observe the laws of the road and the rules of safety. But the 1949 Cadillac is so cat-quick and eager—so smooth and easy and effortless—that it covers an amazing amount of distance inside the safe and legal limits. You take the hills as fast as the level stretches—you make the first hundred yards away from a stop light as fast as you make the second hundred—and the car's matchless agility enables you to avoid many of the pockets in slow-moving traffic. The secret, of course, is found in the great new Cadillac V-type engine—plus the marvelous new engineering in the Cadillac chassis. Actually, you almost seem to move by automatic propulsion. There is no performance like it—anywhere in the world.

Directors Adopt 140 Game Schedule For Longhorn Loop

SWEETWATER—Directors of the Longhorn Baseball League adopted its 1949 schedule at a meeting here Sunday afternoon. Harold Webb, owner-manager of the Midland Indians and first vice president of the league, presided in the absence of President Hal Sayles.

The new schedule calls for opening-day games at Roswell, Big Spring, Odessa and San Angelo. Midland will open at Roswell, Sweetwater at Odessa, Vernon at Big Spring and Ballinger at San Angelo. The schedule calls for 140 games.

The Sweetwater franchise officially was transferred to the ownership of Cy Fausett, who also operates the Albuquerque club in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

The all-star game will be played in San Angelo July 18 with the opposing teams to be picked from the Eastern and Western clubs of the league. Vernon, Sweetwater, San Angelo and Ballinger compose the Eastern division and Roswell, Odessa, Midland and Big Spring are in the Western division.

The league voted to charge one dollar per adult for any and all games in the championship playoffs. One quarter from each dollar will be placed in a player participation fund for the first four games of the play-off series.

Directors cleared all details concerning the Sweetwater franchise in a closed session previous to the regular meeting.

Oklahoma Aggies Have Chance At Second Position

NEW YORK—(AP)—Oklahoma A&M and St. Louis play a return engagement Saturday night, with second place in the national basketball rankings hanging in the balance.

The Aggies, currently rated No. 3 behind Kentucky and St. Louis, also could wrap up the Missouri Valley Title with a victory.

The last time the two clubs met the Aggies pulled out a 29-27 victory in overtime at Stillwater. The loss knocked St. Louis from first place in the Associated Press poll.

Elsewhere in the conference races go into their final two weeks without a sure-fire champion in sight. Must Win Tourney

Even Kentucky (22-1) has to go through the formality of winning the Southeastern Conference tournament starting March 3. The Wildcats have beaten league opponents 11 times in a row and wind up against Georgia Monday night and Vanderbilt Saturday.

North Carolina State also has to win a tournament to retain its Southern Conference crown, although it has won 12 of 13 games with league foes.

The Big Nine has narrowed to Illinois and Minnesota. Four teams—Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri and Kansas State—still have a chance in the Big Seven. Wyoming is in front in the Big Six, but Utah and Denver still are fighting.

Yale appears on its way to the Ivy League crown, but defending champion Columbia isn't out of it entirely. Arkansas leads the Southwest, Arizona the Border and Oregon the Northern division of the Pacific Coast, but none have the titles clinched. The Southern coast loop lead is held jointly by U. C. L. A. and Southern California.

Talking Dogs On Brotherhood Program

It will be overalls or khakis and no ties Monday evening when the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church meets at 7 p. m. in the recreation hall.

Opening the evening's entertainment will be two educated dogs billed as the "world's greatest talking dogs." Also advance notices say one plays the piano while the other sings.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. B. J. Martin of Ballinger.

President Duke Dimerson said all men of the church are invited to attend and bring a guest.

Arkansas Nears Conference Title

By WILBUR MARTIN

Associated Press Staff
Arkansas is just two steps and a jump away from the Southwest Conference basketball championship.

Texas Christian, Rice and Texas A&M are the only remaining barriers in the Razorbacks' path. And only Rice is rated capable of beating the Porkers.

Arkansas moved into a strong position to grab the crown last week while Rice, Texas and Baylor were knocking each other around.

Baylor nosed out Rice, 55-54, but lost a share of the lead on a 31-36 loss to Texas.

Two Major Games
Texas, Baylor and Rice are deadlocked for second place and the outcome of the weird conference race practically hinges on the results of two games this week: Rice-Texas and Rice-Arkansas.

Arkansas opens the week's six-game schedule Monday night in Fayetteville against lowly Texas Christian. The Porkers are figured to take this one easy.

Wednesday, Rice and Texas battle for survival in the title chase.

The loser can just about close its hope chest.

No matter the outcome of the Texas-Rice game, the race hinges on whether Arkansas can whip Rice. A victory for the Razorbacks will just about clinch the title.

Other Games
Baylor meets Southern Methodist Wednesday at Dallas and Texas A&M Saturday at Waco.

Texas faces Texas Christian Saturday at Austin.

The season will end next week. Rice's star center, Bill Tom, took over leadership in individual scoring for season and conference competition.

He shot ahead of Slater Martin of Texas in season scoring with 337 points to 308. He replaced Julius Dolnic of Texas Christian in conference scoring, 165 points to 146.

In other games last week, Rice dumped Texas Christian, 62-44; Texas beat Texas A&M, 56-44; and Arkansas downed Southern Methodist, 47-39.

England is said to contain 8,000,000 dancers.

DIESEL LOCOMOTIVES HAUL MORE GOODS AND PASSENGERS...

... WITH GREATER SAFETY AND COMFORT FOR EVERYBODY

BECAUSE OF ITS MODERN, ALMOST FOOLPROOF DESIGN,
THE DIESEL IS PRACTICALLY AUTOMATIC!

Yet leaders of two railroad unions demand extra men on diesels!
Just plain feather-bedding—here's why!

Here's the truth about diesel locomotives.

Diesel locomotives are equipped with every modern device for maximum safety. They have automatic controls. They can be operated safely by one man. But two men—an engineer and a fireman—are now employed on a diesel road locomotive.

Diesel locomotives—adopted by the railroads as one way of improving their service to you—have hauled millions of passengers in recent years with one of the best safety records in railroad history!

They have pulled millions of tons of freight millions of miles—also with one of the best safety records in railroad history!

Full Pay—No Work!

Leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen are now demanding an extra engineer and an extra fireman on diesels, claiming the extra men are needed. But the facts prove these men are not needed. They would just be drawing full pay for doing no work.

The railroads are placing an ever-increasing number of diesels in service—both passenger and freight. These trains are operated at speeds consistent with safety and good service—and on both counts their record tops all public transportation.

Feather-Bedding Is Against Public Interest!

If the ridiculous demands of these union leaders were granted, it would mean paying out millions in wages to men not needed in diesel locomotives.

The leaders of the Engineers' Union have threatened to call a strike to enforce their "feather-bedding" demands. Nevertheless the railroads are resisting—and will continue to resist—such "make-work" schemes which require payment for work not done—schemes which are contrary to the interest of the whole American people.

HERE ARE THE FACTS!

1. The safety record of trains pulled by diesel locomotives is the best of all public transportation.
2. Diesel locomotives provide the best working conditions locomotive engineers and firemen have ever enjoyed: comfort, cleanliness, ease of operation, maximum safety.
3. Diesel locomotives are maintained at peak operating efficiency.
4. The diesel is virtually automatic. It is equipped with the most modern safety appliances.
5. The diesel locomotive is the last word in railroad efficiency, safety and comfort.

Wildcats Near Second Straight Conference Title

By The Associated Press
Ahlens Christian College and Howard Payne tangle Friday in the first crucial game of the Texas conference basketball season. ACC, undefeated in conference play so far, can assure itself a perfect season and a second straight title by thumping the Yellow Jacks.

Last week the ACC Wildcats polished off Southwestern, 47-41, and McMurry, 58-47.

Howard Payne nudged Austin, 42-40, in its only conference tilt and McMurry smashed Southwestern, 71-48.

Southwestern meets Howard Payne Tuesday in another league game.

McMurry and Hardin play Tuesday at Wichita Falls and Austin and Hardin Friday at Wichita Falls in non-conference tilts.

Palmer Wins Houston Open Golf Jackpot

HOUSTON (AP)—Johnny Palmer won the $2,000 jackpot that went with first place in the Houston Open Golf Tournament by the skin of his teeth.

He beat Memphis' golfing dentist, Cary Middlecoff, one stroke Sunday when the Tennessee pro went one over par on the seventeenth hole and missed a chance to tie the match on the eighteenth by inches.

Palmer toured the 6,710 yard, par 72 Pine Forest Country Club course in 67 strokes in Sunday's second round of play to end with a 272.

The Badin, N. C., pro used a series of steady iron shots to offset putting that at times was spotty.

Jim Turnesa, Briar Cliff, N. Y., followed the two leaders with a 274. Close behind was Jim Ferrier, San Francisco, and Marty Furgol, Albuquerque, at 276. E. J. Harrison of Albuquerque posted a 277 for sixth place and veteran Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was next with 281.

Lloyd Mangrum, Niles, Ill., finished eighth in the tournament with a 283, but the $415 prize shot him past Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., as pro golfer's top money winner.

Mangrum now has won $6,170 compared to $5,862.50 for Demaret. Demaret withdrew after posting a 71-76 for two rounds.

The final round was Palmer's third 87 of the tournament. He fashioned it with some fancy shots—like the one which dropped to within a foot of the pin for a birdie two and another which landed inches from the cup for a birdie three.

Middlecoff, who won $1,400 for second place, led through much of the tournament. He held a two stroke advantage at the end of 54 holes.

The next stop on the Winter tour is the Rio Grande Valley Open starting at Harlingen Thursday.

High School Cage Champions Bid For Tournament Berths

By The Associated Press
High school district basketball champions—Class AA, A and B—this week bid for places in the state tournament at Austin.

City Conference schools—those from Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and Fort Worth—will compete in their own tournament at Houston March 11-12.

The lineup for bi-district play in Class AA is completed.

Some of the district champions in Class A and B have not yet been certified by the Interscholastic League office. All, however, will be in action in tournaments or series this week which will determine the field for the state tournaments next week.

Brownwood, winner in Class 7-AA, and Texas City, winner in Class 12-AA, are assured spots in the AA state meet. They drew byes in bi-district play.

Series Line-Ups
The lineup for Class AA bi-district series: (some series sites not set)

Lubbock (District 1 champion) vs. Childress (2).
Lamesa (3) vs. Bowie of El Paso (4). Three game series starts Thursday at Lamesa.
Bonham (5) vs. Highland Park of Dallas (6). First game of three game series at Dallas Tuesday night.
Texarkana (8) vs. Waco (9). First game of three game series at Texarkana Tuesday.
Nacogdoches (10) vs. Port Arthur (11).
Austin (13) vs. Harlingen (14). First of three game series at Harlingen Tuesday.

Most of these series will be on a home-and-home basis, with the extra game—if needed—at the site of the second tilt.

Added Problem
Harlingen won its third straight title in as many years, but Cardinals have an added problem now. Center Buddy Caulk broke out with chicken pox Sunday.

Some of the Class A and B champions which have been recorded are:

Class A
District 6, Colorado City; 7, Coleman; 9, Olney; 10, Nocona; 11, Birdville; 12, Pleasant Grove (Dallas); 13, Cooper; 14, Hooks; 18, Canton; 19, Gatesville; 21, Cameron; 24, San Marcos; 26, French (Beaumont); 29, Sinton; 30, Mercedes; 31, Hot Wells (San Antonio); 32, Uvalde.

Class B
District 1, Stratford; 3, Samnorwood; 4, Carey; 10, Dawson; 15, Eula; 18, South Taylor; 19, Hermleigh; 28, Prairie Valley (Nocona); 30, Seagoville; 36, State Home (Corsicana); 39, Crawford; 41, Preston; 42, Blossom; 44, Omaha; 45, Holes Home; 47, Maydelle; 48, New Diana; 50, Sabine (Gladewater); 51, East Mountain; 53, Cayuga; 57, China; 61, A&M Consolidated (College Station); 70, Bartlett; 77, San Felipe; 80, Port Lavaca; 85, Port Isabel; 888, Pyote; 89, Clint.

MONDAY MORNING ROUNDUP

... The work of deciding district champions in schoolboy basketball will be completed this week. Class AA, A and B champs will battle in their respective divisions at the state tournament in Austin the first week in March. ... West Tex meets Magnolia in the curtain-raiser at 8 p. m. and Ted Thompson takes on Ranch House in the second game. ... The Vanderbilt football team will be led by Ohioans next season. Bill Edwards, head coach, is a native of Hamilton and Carl Copp, captain, hails from Dayton. ... Michigan State fullback Frank Waters is so quick he is a varsity sabre man on the fencing team. ... Back in 1867, the Cincinnati club recruited two young women to make baseballs by hand, machine made balls being scarce. The name of one of the women was Margaret Truman. ... The Chicago Bears have had 29 former East-West Shrine Game football players on their rosters. ... Lamesa is making early preparations for entering a team in the Golden Gloves meet next year. The Jaycees in that city have recruited several young boxers and now have them in training. ... Joe Haynes, pitcher acquired by the Washington Senators during the Winter, will be right at home with the Nats. He is a son-in-law of President Clark Griffith and brother-in-law of Vice President Cal Griffith. ... Coach Johnny Vaught of the Mississippi football team practically creates a traffic jam every time he calls for Bobby or Billy during Spring practice. Seven candidates answer to each name. He has only two with the last name of Poole this year. ... Figures show that less than 350 of the estimated 9,000 thoroughbreds, due at breeding farms in 46 states this Spring, will win a stakes race. ... 30 for today, cowboys recovering from a Saturday-night spree.

Quaker Oats Plant Employes Strike

SHERMAN (AP)—More than 300 union employes of the Quaker Oats plant here stayed off their jobs Monday to back up wage demands. Only office personnel and an emergency plant crew were on the job.

The union employes, members of the American Federation of Grain Millers, seek a hourly increase of nine cents. The management had offered an six-cent increase per hour.

The strike, voted last week, began Monday.

The World Is Her Oyster

At 5 months, Juanita Evans is believed to be the youngest traveler ever to fly around the world. Her father, Kenneth Evans, is a ceramics engineer in Calcutta, India. With her parents, Juanita paused halfway in her globe-girdling expedition to visit relatives in Cleveland, O. Clutching her suitcase, she examines her route—Calcutta, Bangkok, Manila, Guam, Wake Island, Midway, Honolulu, Los Angeles and thence to Cleveland. The family will return to India via Europe.

UN Staff Members To Visit Angelo Stock Show, Rodeo

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Thirteen members of the United Nations Military Staff Committee have indicated they plan to attend the 16th annual Fat Stock Show and Rodeo here March 3-6.

A special plane will fly the high military leaders, representing China, Great Britain, and France, from their Lake Success, N. Y., headquarters to San Angelo. Gov. Beauford Jester also will attend the four-day cattle classic.

U. N. officers who will attend the Rodeo and Fat Stock Show are: Lt. Gen. H. R. Harmon, United States Air Force; Lt. Gen. W. D. Crittendon, United States Army; Rear Adm. W. K. Harrill, of the United States Navy, all of the United States delegation.

Lt. Gen. Mow Pong-tau, Chinese Air Force; Maj. Gen. Tai-Chien, Chinese Army; Commodore Kao Jui-fon, Chinese Navy; Rear Adm. R. Weitzel and Commander V. Marchal, of the French Navy; Maj. John Fournier, French Air Force; and Lt. Gen. Pierre Billotte, head of the French delegation.

Air Vice Marshal G. E. Gibbs, Royal Air Force; Gen. Sir Richard McCreery, Royal Army; and Rear Adm. Lord Asbourne, Royal Navy of the United Kingdom delegation.

Dog Returns After Six Year Absence

★ WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

If your husband doesn't approve of one of your friends maybe it is for one of these reasons:

Does she influence you to be extravagant so that when you go shopping with her you come home a bit chagrined over the fact that you've spent more money than you should have?

Does she make you dissatisfied with your life as it is, so that after an afternoon with her you are down in the dumps?

Is she a manager, who is always getting you into jobs you have to work your way out of?

Is she an advice-giver, who knows just how you should paint the living room, where you should be sending Junior to school, etc.

Unhappily West?
Is she unhappily married herself and because of that, convinced and eager to try to convince her friends that men have to be "managed"?

Is she an eternal gadabout, who always is persuading you to go places with her?

Is she so curious about your life that she digs out information from you that is really none of her business at all?

Often when a husband disapproves of a woman his wife sees a lot of it isn't actually that he dislikes the woman, but that he senses that she isn't a good influence on his wife.

And sometimes a husband can see the bad effect when the wife, herself, never even suspects the friend is making her unhappy, dissatisfied, or mixed up in her sense of values.

Broad Agricultural Program Is Drafted

DES MOINES (AP)—The Department of Agriculture will present a broad agricultural program to Congress in about 30 days, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan said.

He said the department had not made up its mind yet on how the program would shape up in connection with the current conflict between supporters of the 90 percent of parity level and supporters of a flexible support price program.

He said the program to be offered to Congress would be much broader than the price support area.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Toot! Toot!

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail has a story about a peanut. A peanut is good for people to eat. It is also good for an elephant to eat at a circus. Yes, and a peanut is good for making peanut butter with. Just smash a peanut to pieces, and there is your peanut butter.

But this peanut that Daddy Ringtail tells the story about, didn't want to be food for people to eat. He didn't want to be food for an elephant to eat. He didn't want to be peanut butter.

He wanted to be a someone who makes a wreck of a train. Yes, he wanted to roll himself away and across the field. He rolled and rolled and rolled some more. What fun it was! Oh, but the greatest fun was going to be in the finding of a railroad track, and at last the peanut found one. Up on the track he went before he stopped rolling.

Really now, he shouldn't have done it. No one should want to wreck a train. A train is a friend to everyone. It carries food and clothes and toys to people who need them. Besides, any wrecking of a train might hurt the people in it with a terrible crash and explosion. But the peanut didn't care about this. He was thinking only of himself, and the fun of wrecking a train. He waited.

There came a train from down the mountain. "Toot! Toot!" said the whistle, because the train was an important train. Its many cars were filled with people going for a vacation. Besides, there were bananas on the train for the children in the city, and clothes to wear and toys to play with. "Toot! Toot!"

The peanut waited with a wicked smile, thinking of all the mischief he was going to cause, and closer and closer came the train—closer and closer to the peanut who wanted to be a wrecker of trains. And can you guess what happened? "Clickety click," said the wheels of the train. "Toot! Toot!" said the whistle, and the train smashed the peanut into peanut butter. There wasn't a wreck at all. On and on went the train to the city, and that is the happy ending of the story. Happy day!

Atlantic Pact—

(Continued from page 1) quickly if Russia decided to march. 2. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said in a speech at Kenton, Ohio, that he was "inclined to favor" some such treaty as the Atlantic Pact, but in the absence of details "I don't know exactly what it's supposed to be like." Taft added that of course, any agreement will have to meet the Constitutional provision that only Congress can commit the country to war.

3. The Washington Post said in a copyrighted article that a poll it took showed the Senate would vote overwhelmingly to fight should Russia attack any one of the North Atlantic Treaty countries.

4. Senator Caphart (R-Ind) called for a slash in European recovery funds, now up for appropriation. He proposed thereby to make money available to finance the projected new military aid program without increasing this nation's total dollar output to Europe. He predicted he would get "some" support.

5. The Foreign Policy Association declared the greatest weakness of the Atlantic Treaty, from the European viewpoint, is its lack of an automatic war pledge. Nations which antagonize Russia by joining the alliance, this private association said, want assurance of instant American help, not a congressional debate in the event they are attacked.

6. Norway's dominant Labor Party gave the government at Oslo a 330 vote of approval on steps to put Norway in the Atlantic security system. This was despite clear warning from the Soviet Union that the Russians would take a serious view of such action.

Oil & Gas Log-

(Continued from page 1) wildcat, 30 miles southeast of Seagraves. Last report had it below 12,879 feet. The current formation, which made water on a lesser depth, was thought by some observers as possibly Silurian-Devonian. Many geologists think it is Ellenburger.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of tract 16, league 273, Loving CSL survey.

Pure Locates Two Tests In Dollarhide

The Pure Oil Company is to start operations at once on two more Ellenburger explorations in the Dollar Hide field of Southwest Andrews County. Those projects are to go to 10,500 feet, using rotary tools.

Pure No. 7-E-B-E P. Cowden, will be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 24, block A-52, psi survey.

Pure No. 23-E-A-E P. Cowden will be 1,983 feet from west and 1,594 feet from north lines of section 24, block A-52, psi survey.

Tom Green Venture Recovers No Shows

American Republics Corporation No. 1 Harrington, South-Central Tom Green County wildcat, adjacent to the town of Christoval, and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 1,229, L. Strauss survey, took a 30 minute drillstem test at 6,255-68 feet.

There was a very slight blow of air for three minutes, and it then died. Recovery was five feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water.

Operator is now running a drillstem test at 6,268-83 feet.

Hunt Runs Another Borden Investigation

Another drillstem test was run in the Northwest Borden County Pennsylvania at H. L. Hunt No. 1-B Clayton & Johnson, possible discovery from the Spraberry sand section of the lower Permian.

The tool was open 30 minutes at 7,575-7,620 feet. The test had a faint blow of air for five minutes and recovered 15 feet of drilling mud. There were no shows of oil, gas or water.

Humble Completes Flanker To Lutrick

Humble Oil & Refining Company has completed its No. 2 T. E. Lutrick oil well in the Lutrick field of South-Central Hale County, 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from north lines of section 17, block D-8, ELARR survey.

Following a 17,000-gallon acid treatment on the pay at 7,912-7,957 feet, the project pumped three barrels of oil on a 24-hour potential test.

There was no water. Gravity of the petroleum was 40 degrees. Gas volume was too small to be of consequence.

Total depth is 8,000 feet. Plugged-back depth is 7,957 feet.

Egyptians—

(Continued from page 1) the Jewish-Egyptian frontier. He said it did not apply to the Eastern Negev, where Beerseba, only important Negev city, is located.

A Rhodes dispatch said the one point in controversy was the question of Beerseba, considered the mother city of the Arab race. Israeli forces occupied the city — a strategic road junction — last October. The Jews have insisted on retaining it.

The Beerseba dispute was referred to Cairo by the Egyptian delegates after the agreement in principle was reached in conference with Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting U. N. mediator. It was understood the Egyptian representatives regarded the draft as satisfactory but wanted Cairo to pass final approval.

Details of the 4,000-word agreement were not made public either in Tel Aviv or in Rhodes. It was generally agreed in Rhodes that Sunday's session ended negotiations and that all that remains is rejection by Cairo, or acceptance and formal signing of the agreement. Israeli sources in Rhodes said there would be no further discussions.

Firemen Extinguish Two Minor Blazes

The Midland Fire Department answered two calls Sunday. A blaze in a storage closet at the Midland Country Club did a small amount of damage about 8 a. m. It started when mops and other cleaning equipment stored in the closet with a water heater ignited, according to firemen.

A fire in the negro section at noon damaged slightly a residence. It started while an oil stove was being refueled.

Fists Fly At Negro Church Here Sunday

Three negroes were fined in Police Court here Monday as the result of a disturbance in a church in the negro section Sunday. It all came about as the result of an effort last year to ex-communicate the pastor, according to testimony at the court hearing.

The story never was clearly established due to conflicting testimony and outside remarks from the estimated 50 church members who attended the hearing.

It seems a deacon, who is also the Sunday School superintendent, and on the pastor's side, made some remarks at Sunday School to which a member took exception. It ended up with the deacon and the member engaging in a fist-fight in the church.

After they had been lodged in the City Jail things continued to happen. The pastor spoke to the wife of the man who challenged the deacon. She answered with a right to the jaw. Police booked her and released her on bond.

The entire congregation crowded into the court room Monday to take sides. A lawyer, a negro moderator from Lubbock, a white minister, the city attorney, City Judge J. DeArmond, Police Chief Jack Ellington and all the others entered into the discussion.

The fact remained that there had been some fights, however, and the judge levied fines totaling $55 for the violations. At the last report, the pastor still has his church and the church still has its troubles.

Pope Pius Again Blasts Communists

VATICAN CITY—(AP)—Pope Pius XII told 250,000 cheering Italians Sunday the imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in Communist-ruled Hungary was religious "persecution" by a "totalitarian and anti-religious" government.

The pontiff made his fifth public condemnation of the cardinal's sentence to a huge crowd gathered in the square in front of St. Peter's Church.

He hinted strongly that the Hungarian government, by some secret means, had wrung from Cardinal Mindszenty a confession of crimes of which the primate was innocent.

The pope clearly warned in his fifteen-minute address that the peoples of Communist-dominated countries should shun any agreement and maintain their independence, which might limit the activity of the Roman Catholic Church.

High School Choir Sings For Kiwanians

The Midland High School A Cappella Choir, directed by Elizabeth Cope, music coordinator of Midland Public Schools, entertained members of the Kiwanis Club at their meeting Monday noon in Hotel Scharbauer.

The selections presented by the choir were "God's Highway," "The Singers," "The Song of the Soul," "Deep River," "Dry Bones," and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The program was introduced by Don Moore. The Rev. Matthew Lynn, president, presided.

Joe Koeger announced the Kiwanis Club now is sponsoring the Cub Pack at the West Elementary School.

JURY IS SELECTED FOR DAMAGE SUIT TRIAL

Testimony was being heard in 70th District Court here Monday in the case styled Roy Drickson versus J. B. Terry, a suit for damages resulting from an automobile collision. Judge Paul Moss is presiding.

The jury selected for the case includes Sidney P. Hall, Melvin Harty, Walter C. Hester, F. W. Hicks, Cecil E. Hodges, E. A. Hoekendorf, Clifford E. Hogue, Ebin Holman, R. V. Hollingsworth, I. E. Hood and Harlan Howell.

School Principal Is Beaten And Two Men Are Arrested

LAMESA — (AP) — Two men have been charged with aggravated assault after School Principal Ray Culp was beaten badly at his home here last Friday night. Earlier that day, Culp had whipped a son of one of the men as a matter of school discipline.

County Attorney Vernon Adcock said the men charged are R. D. Taylor, a farmer, and Jack Aldridge, a trucker. Adcock said the charges were filed in County Judge R. W. Herndon's court. Taylor was released on $1,500 bond and Aldridge on $1,000.

Adcock said his investigation showed the following occurred: Culp struck Taylor's son five times with a rubber hose after the boy ran through a second-floor hall in the school building shouting. The principal said he previously had disciplined the boy several times.

Friday night, two men appeared at the Culp home. One beat Culp severely while they were on the front porch. The other held Mrs. Culp when she attempted to go to her husband's aid.

Culp was treated at a hospital for a badly cut forehead, bruises and three broken ribs. He had returned to his home Monday.

Red Cross Campaign Group Has Meeting

OUR THANKS to you and the thousands of others whose willingness to "share the line" has made it possible for so many of your friends and neighbors to enjoy the protection and convenience of a telephone.

Three of every four home telephones today are party lines.

Yes, party lines have "stretched" hard-to-get telephone equipment in a time of shortages and a big demand for service.

Our goal, of course, is service for everyone—the kind he wants, when and where he wants it. For the time being, though, in many neighborhoods we must continue to say:

"We can offer only party-line service to new customers. It's the fair way for everybody while we're still working to get telephones to hundreds of people who are waiting."

Ellenburger In Crane
Develops Oil And Gas
For Humble Wildcat

A small amount of free oil was developed from the Ellenburger at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Jax Cowden, Central-East Crane County deep wildcat, six and one-half miles west of Crane.

The prospector took a three-hour drillstem test at 10,795-905 feet. Recovery was 25 stands of gas, 30 feet of 42-gravity oil, 150 feet of heavy oil and gas cut drilling mud, and the 900-foot water blanket.

There were no signs of formation water. The venture drilled deeper to 10,925 feet, and is now taking another drillstem test.

Operator has not released the official call on the top of the Ellenburger. Some sources picked it to be at approximately 10,500 feet. The oil and gas signs developed on the recent drillstem test were the first indications of petroleum which the project has logged since it entered the Ellenburger.

Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 58, block X, CCS&RGNG survey.

Upton Deep Strike Continues Flowing

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, North-Central Upton County Ellenburger discovery, continues to flow clean oil from the section at 12,780,820 feet.

In the first full 24-hour flowing test, the well produced 305.5 barrels of 53.8 gravity oil, plus one per cent drilling mud and acid water, flowing through a one-quarter inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,300-1, and flowing tubing pressure was around 1,300 pounds.

During the next 18 hours, still flowing through a one-quarter inch choke, the section produced 201.5 barrels of oil. That was at the rate of 11.2 barrels per hour.

Continuing To Test
Gas-oil ratio during that 18 hours was 1,395-1. Flowing tubing pressure ranged between 1,300 pounds and 1,650 pounds.

Operator is to continue to flow and test on the 12,780-820 foot interval for some time. No official information has been reported regarding plans for perforating 201.5 barrels of oil. That was at the rate of 11.2 barrels per hour.

The project is one-quarter of a mile south of the Midland County line, 30 miles south and slightly west of Midland, and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S.

Humble No. 1 Bishop Develops More Oil

More indications of a new oil field shown on a second drillstem test in the Canyon line of the Pennsylvania at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Bishop, wildcat, 13 miles southwest of Snyder.

The examination was for 42 minutes at 6,665-80 feet. Gas reached the surface in four minutes and oil in 25 minutes. It flowed for 17 minutes at the estimated rate of 50 barrels of oil per hour through a 5/8-inch choke. It had previously flowed at the rate of 35 barrels of oil per hour from the zone at 6,649-70 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was estimated as 700-1. Flowing bottom hole pressure was 900 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure after 17 minutes was 3,050 pounds.

A Schlumberger survey was to be run prior to cementing pipe on bottom. It is then to attempt completion as a new discovery.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 164, block 57, H&TC survey.

Lynn Wildcat Drills
In Unidentified Zone

In West Lynn County, McAlester Fuel Company No. 1 Edwards, slatted Ellenburger wildcat, 440 feet from south and west lines of section 58, Georgetown RR survey, was drilling ahead from 11,217 feet in dolomite with no shows.

The current formation is unidentified. Some observers think it might be Ellenburger.

Second Shafter Lake Deep Well Completes

The second producer from the Shafter Lake-Ellenburger pool in North-Central Andrews County has been completed at Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 1-F University, 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 13, block 13, University survey.

On an initial production test, the well flowed 24 hours through a 3/4 inch choke to make 1,561.18 barrels of oil. Gravity of the petroleum was 42.5. Gas-oil ratio was 297-1. There was no water.

The Ellenburger pay at 11,690-11,819 feet was previously accented with 7,000 gallons.

Lone Star Prepares To Acidize In Scurry

Lone Star Producing Company was preparing to acidize the lower Canyon line of the Pennsylvania at its No. 1 Maule, apparent west extension to the North Snyder field of North-Central Scurry County.

Operator perforated at 7,066-74 feet and ran tubing. After the acid injection, production tests are to be started. Total depth is 7,129 feet. This prospect is 660 feet from (Continued on Page 11)

Solons Strive For 'Teeth' In Atlantic Pact

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON—(P)—A group of senators prepared Tuesday to fight any move which might water down the terms of the proposed Atlantic Defense Treaty in Senate debate.
Five members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said privately they are ready to demand individually the strongest sort of pledge possible—short of an automatic war declaration—that this country will back its friends in Europe if they are threatened by Communist aggression.
It is their view that the tentative treaty language on this point, as shown the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week by Secretary of State Acheson, is satisfactory—if it is not weakened in Senate debate.
The exact language has remained secret but an influential Democratic senator said it will give signatory nations assurance the United States will not stand idly by in case of attack.
Some other senators said they fear the drive to get approval of the treaty by the necessary two-thirds Senate vote might bring some between-the-lines interpretations that would destroy its usefulness as a psychological weapon.
Psychological Value
Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) already has told the Senate what he thinks about the psychological value of the proposed agreement between this country, Canada, Great Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, and Luxembourg.
He said, in effect, that any country which will hesitate to move in a military way so long as there is treaty notice that the United States will take a vital interest in any aggression.
Some supporters of strong commitments may say in outside speeches before the treaty arrives formally in the Senate that this country will have to fight Russia if the Soviet move to take over Western Europe.
Senator Knowland (R-Calif) gave a hint of this when he told the Senate this country couldn't sit back "twiddling our thumbs, so to speak," while nation after nation in Europe "was being overrun by an aggressor power."

Senate Quits In Midst Of School Row

AUSTIN—(P)—The Senate adjourned Tuesday in the middle of stubborn debate on how the Gilmer-Aikin financing plan would work to give Texas a better school system.
Adjournment came on the motion of Senator Gus Strauss of Hallettsville, opponent of the Gilmer-Aikin proposals.
Senators said they were confused over the so-called "economic index" which the Gilmer-Aikin Committee on education said would make school districts pay their fair share of the cost.
Discussion arose as the second of three bills on reorganization of the school system came to a floor test in the Senate.
It was Senator Otis Lock's measure providing a minimum foundation program. Lock and the Gilmer-Aikin Committee which originated the idea said the bill would give each school child the best possible opportunity for education.
Disagreement was voiced by Senators Rogers Kelley of Edinburg and Gus Strauss of Hallettsville last week when the Senate set Lock's bill for special hearing by 21-to-5 vote.
Both men said the minimum program bill would hurt rural schools.

Motorcade Arranged For Garden City Trip

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a motorcade to the annual Glascock County Livestock Show in Garden City Friday, and citizens are asked to join in the goodwill trip arranged by the Chamber's Trade Territory Relations Committee. Efforts are being made to have a large delegation in attendance at the Garden City show, barbecue and a sale.
The motorcade will leave from Hotel Scharbauer at 10:30 a. m. Those who can make the trip are requested to contact the Chamber office before Friday. Handbills will be furnished members of the delegation.

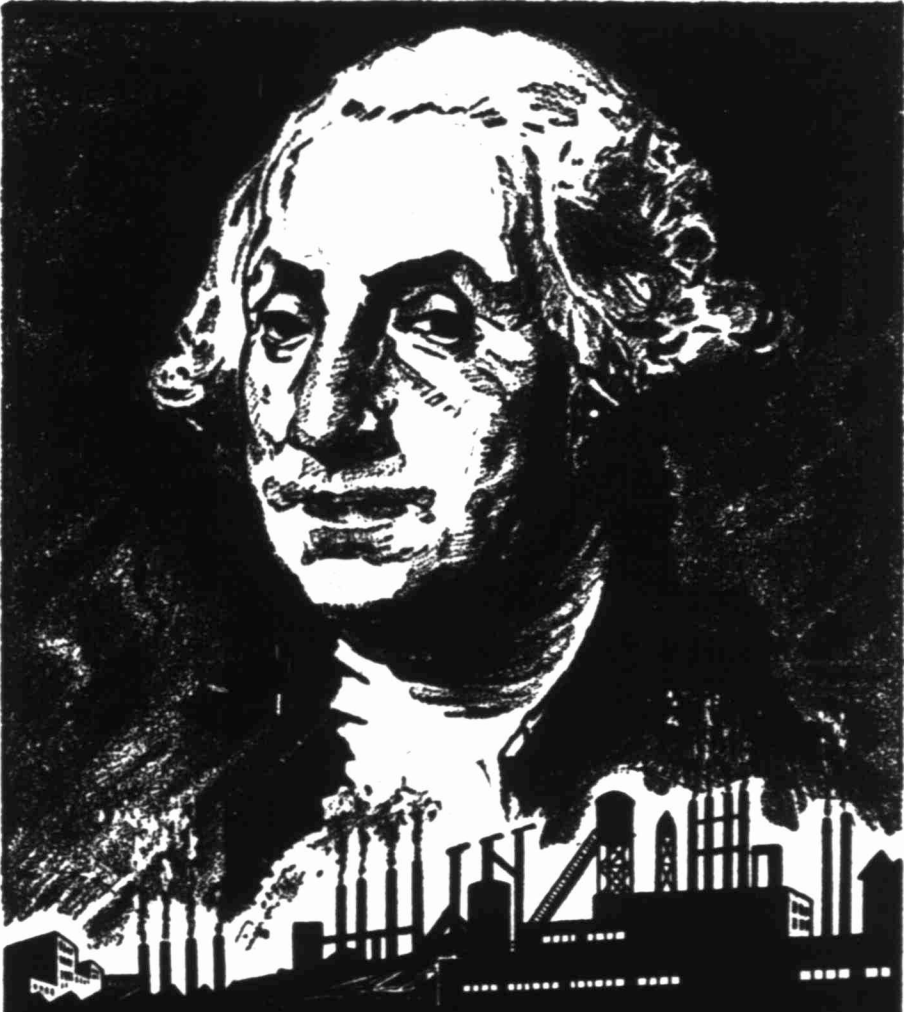

Deported American Woman Leaves Poland

WARSAW, POLAND—(P)—Anna Louise Strong, American journalist deported from Russia, left Warsaw Tuesday for an undisclosed destination.

Mackey, McDonald Seek Reelection To School Board

L. G. Mackey and D. W. McDonald have filed for reelection for second terms as trustees of the Midland Independent School District in the April election, George T. Abell, secretary of the Board of Education, announced Tuesday. The terms are for three years.
The terms of Mackey, McDonald and Percy F. Bridgewater expire in April. Bridgewater has not announced whether he will seek reelection for a fourth term.
Mrs. Ernest Sidwell last week announced as a candidate for a trusteeship on the school board.
Trustees, at a meeting Monday night, called the school election for Saturday, April 5, Supt. Frank Monroe said. Candidates must announce 30 days prior to the date of the election.
Holdover members of the board are V. C. Maley, president, Abell, Mrs. W. H. Gilmore and R. W. Hamilton.

German Court Frees Former Bond Leader

MUNICH, GERMANY—(P)—Fritz Kuhn, former leader of the German-American Bund, was freed Tuesday by a German appellate court. He said he would try at once to regain his American citizenship, lifted during the war.
A denaturalization court had sentenced him to 10 years as a major Nazi.

Madland Boy Reported Much Improved Tuesday

The condition of Michael Madland, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Madland, is reported to be much improved Tuesday. Dr. Robert C. Noble is the attending physician.
The Midland Fire Department administered oxygen to the lad for several hours when his condition became critical.

Haymon Krupp, 74, Dies In Minnesota

EL PASO—(P)—The man credited with helping start the development of the fabulous University of Texas oil lands in West Texas is dead.
Haymon Krupp, 74, died Monday afternoon in a Rochester, Minn., hospital.
Krupp and his associates brought in the first gusher in 1923 for the University oil lands which became known as the Big Lake field. In 1936 the American Legion called him "the most useful citizen in Texas."
His philanthropies included giving free coal to the poor before natural gas came to El Paso.

Fog, Clouds Dot Texas Weather Map

By The Associated Press
"Patches" of fog gave the eastern half of the Texas weather map a crazy quilt appearance Tuesday.
The U. S. Weather Bureau said the pattern of fog patches extended as far south as Brownsville and as far north as the Red River on the Texas-Oklahoma border.
Cloudy weather prevailed in the western part of the state.
During the night light rains fell at Austin, Houston, San Antonio, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Victoria, San Angelo and Alice. Temperatures were generally mild.
Cloudy weather was forecast for both East and West Texas. Not much change in temperatures was predicted.

Some, Not Whole Thing, May Pass, Leaders Believe

WASHINGTON—(P)—Lawmakers gave this answer Tuesday to President Truman's request for a vast expansion of the Social Security System: Some of it may pass—but not the whole thing.
The bill Truman sent to Capitol Hill Monday proposed (a) providing direct "home relief" to all needy persons; (b) blanketing 20,000,000 more persons under old age insurance; (c) greatly increasing the benefits; (d) raising—in some cases, tripling—the tax on paychecks and pay rolls.

Compromise May Scuttle 'Rights' Bills

WASHINGTON—(P)—Talk arose in the House Tuesday of a possible compromise which would scuttle most of President Truman's civil rights program in return for repeal of about one-fourth of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law.
While party leaders remained silent, both Northern and Southern Democrats gave that version of an agreement as tentatively accepted by Dixie lawmakers, who hold the balance of voting power in the House.
Republicans told of offering—unsuccessfully—this counter-proposal: The GOP House members would vote against the entire civil rights program if the Southerners agreed to help them smash efforts to repeal the Taft-Hartley Law.
Administration "Concerned"
Under the Democratic agreement, only an anti-lynch bill would get through the House. There would be no action on President Truman's request for anti-poll tax and anti-job discrimination measures. In exchange, the Southerners would vote for a Taft-Hartley repealer which actually would keep "about three-fourths" of the law.
Administration Democrats have made no secret of their concern over the fate of new labor legislation, even after forcing a change in House rules to prevent a Republican-Southern Democrat coalition from bottling up a labor bill in the Rules Committee.

Odessan Listed As Victim Of Argentina Army Plane Crash

BUENOS AIRES—(P)—The bodies of eight Americans, killed in the crash of a U. S. Army plane last Thursday, will be shipped home for burial after funeral services here, it was announced Tuesday.
The plane, piloted by Col. Gerald Williams, assistant air attaché of the U. S. Embassy in Buenos Aires, crashed in mountain terrain 80 miles west of Salta. It was enroute from Buenos Aires to Panama.
The dead included M/Sgt. Robert C. Frazier, Odessa, Texas.

Woman Plunges To Death From Hotel

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—An aged woman leaped to her death from the ninth floor of an apartment hotel here Tuesday during a thunderstorm.
She was identified as Mrs. Flora Ullman, in her 70s. Her body was found on the terrace near the hotel entrance.
Justice of the Peace M. D. Jones returned a verdict of suicide.
An acquaintance said Mrs. Ullman came here from Cincinnati in 1928, and that she had sisters residing in Cincinnati and Los Angeles.

Oldtime Cowboy Of Midland Area Dies

Relatives and friends here of Thomas M. (Uncle Tom) Warren, 79, oldtime cowboy, were notified of his death in an Austin hospital early Tuesday.
Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the Ellis Funeral Chapel. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.
Warren was born in Bolivia, Mo., Oct. 12, 1869. He came to Texas many years ago and was a cowboy in the Midland area for several years. Warren was retired.
He is survived by a niece, Mrs. Leo Baldrige of Midland, and a nephew, Billy Baldrige of Midland. Warren never married.

Proposed Boost For Military Pay

Defense Secretary James Forrestal, right, was the first witness before the House Armed Services Committee in Washington on a bill to boost military pay. Rep. Paul J. Kliday, Democrat from Texas, author of the bill, uses chart to illustrate new pay plan, under which all, but the private would benefit.

Antique Dealer-Collector Will Display Valued Items In Modern Study Club Show

Entries in the antique and hobby show which the Modern Study Club will sponsor March 20-22 are open to antique dealers as well as to amateur collectors, and Mary Harwit's display will represent both.

As a dealer, she plans to show a representative group of antiques from the shop in her home, 405 North Big Spring Street, and she also will enter some articles from her personal collection which she has made as a hobby.

Mrs. Harwit admits that the line between her hobby and her business is a thin one, and that an article which she bought with the intention of selling sometimes appeals to her so strongly she adds it to her own collection.

Amusing Pieces
On the borderline is a pair of Chelsea Derby figures which are dated from the 1770-1800 period, amusing little dwarfs fantastically decorated with flowers.

Definitely in her personal collection are several pieces of American pottery, a cream pitcher in the Bennington ware, of the 1847-1890 period. Its warm brown and tan colors and high glaze add charm to the quaint shapes of the pieces—a hand-molded pitcher with a horseman's figure, a cream pitcher in the shape of a cow, a covered pitcher with a hunting scene and a mug with the raised figures of a man and woman and a design of foliage on the outside, and inside, the figure of a jumping frog fixed to the side so that he appears to be leaping toward the drinker. There also is a tiny toy whistle with the figure of a bird on a nest, and a door stop in the shape of a dog.

Another type of Rockingham ware is seen in a fragile white vase, and an example of English Rockingham is a small open box decorated with delicately molded flowers, which was made about 1800.

Over Century Old
Dating from about 1830 is a Staffordshire cottage, and in the same ware is a Toby teapot and a dish with the cover in the shape of a hen.

In lustre ware Mrs. Harwit is proud of two mugs and a small pot, and a Wedgewood lustre pitcher. An unusual item is a Lithopane cup, which, held to the light, reveals a picture in the translucent bottom.

This type of ware was made in Meissen and Berlin, Mrs. Harwit says. Representing other types of china and glass, Mrs. Harwit has a sandwich glass platter with a train design molded into the bottom, a bowl and plate painted in a colorful butterfly design which dates back to the 1880's, a white fluted cup and saucer of Irish Belleek ware, a satin glass vase of delicate blue and many other pieces equally interesting.

Exhibits Included
There are other items: a double Lincoln rocker of walnut wood which can be unfolded to make a bed, an old brass fat-lamp, a copper foot warmer, and a pewter coffee pot of graceful lines, footed and with a leaf decoration on the lid are among the number.

Not only large collections, but single pieces of historical interest, family heirlooms and other old items are wanted for the antique show. Hobby displays may be on any subject, and from persons of any age. The club expects to have some interesting articles from junior collectors and craftsmen.

The club is making this a regional show, with emphasis on exhibits from Midland and neighboring cities. Mrs. Earl Johnson is in charge of antique entries. Mrs. C. C. Keith of hobbies.

Funds raised from the show will be used for club projects and to contribute to a Woman's Club Building Fund. All 24 members of the Modern Study Club are working on various phases of the show.

Study Completed As Asbury WSCS Hears Last Book Chapter

Review of lessons from the Bible study book, "Newness of Life," Carver, by all members of the Asbury Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service followed a discussion of the final chapter by Mrs. J. P. Carson, Jr., Monday afternoon.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Floyd Countiss. The chapter presented by Mrs. Carson was titled "Discipline and Discovery." Mrs. Jess Hooper reviewed a chapter from another book, "Religious Living," Georgia Harkness.

Mrs. Ida Merle North was a guest. Members present in addition to those on program were Mrs. George Damon, Mrs. Lawrence Whitmore, Mrs. Grace Wright, Mrs. Elvis Hughes, Mrs. Loy Busby, Mrs. Katie Williams, Mrs. Carmel Pirtle, Mrs. Preston Pirtle, Mrs. Harrison Bickley, Mrs. J. A. Andrews, Mrs. Marvin Franks, Mrs. Jim Moore, Mrs. Odell Ponder, and Mrs. Theo Ferguson.

Study Of Missions Held For Sunbeams

The Annie Armstrong Home Mission program for Sunbeam Bands was carried out in a meeting of the Sunbeam Bands of the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon in the church. Posters and pictures were used in presenting the program.

Mrs. Roy Herrington, counselor, reviewed the opening chapter of a new mission study book, "Anthony Becomes Eagle Heart." Mrs. C. W. Wallis, counselor, led songs with Mrs. Raymond O. Hall at the piano.

Junior High 4-H Club Calls Meeting

A called meeting for February 25 was planned by Junior High 4-H Club at a meeting Friday. Members are to bring cartoons and jokes to the called meeting, to be used in scrapbooks for Midland police patients in the Abilene treatment center.

Plans also were made for selling sandwiches at the Midland Livestock Show. The program was on hairstyling, and Carolyn Gray was the leader.

Others present were Mary Rowe, Alma Dell Byerley, Eleanor Smith, Judith Cole, Leora Greenwalt, Barbara Munson, Audra Young, Hortencia Robledo and Cheryl Yancy.

The organization of a woman's rights movement in the United States in 1848 was an out-growth of the anti-slavery struggle.

TEXAS LADY LOSES 47 POUNDS

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barocentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger. Barocentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you eat as plenty.

Here is proof

Here is what Mrs. H. P. Blesch, Route 2, Stamford, Texas, wrote us:

"I am very glad to endorse Barocentrate, so please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for the great benefit I derived from its use. I not only lost weight, but also looked and felt better in every way."

"I had to have a very serious operation and was told that I must lose a lot of weight before the operation could be performed. I went on a diet and tried very hard to reduce, but wasn't losing much weight until I heard of Barocentrate. I began taking it and could soon tell the difference in the way I felt and the weight I lost. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and I lost a total of 47 pounds and was able to undergo my operation. I can truthfully recommend it to others, since it did so much for me."

At all drugists

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barocentrate. It fits in the palm of your hand and grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoons twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Elder, a room mother in the West Elementary P-TA, has the topic, "Lesson Trouble," in which she will discuss the parent's role when the child is not getting the most from his school work.

Studies Pre-School Child

The group sponsored by the council for a study of pre-school children's needs and problems, open to all mothers of pre-school children, will meet at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in Mrs. J. J. Black's home. Mrs. Stalcup announces that there will be a nursery for small children.

Mrs. J. H. Doran will discuss the topic, "The Inseparables—Body and Mind," with emphasis on bodily health as the cornerstone for mental alertness; and Mrs. Waldo Leggett has the subject, "Brothers and Sisters," which deals with the causes of friction and how it can be handled to build companionship.

North Elementary P-TA has already started its parent study course, which will meet on first and third Thursdays of the month.

Social Situations

SITUATION: You become acquainted with a much older man who from the start calls you "Jim" and you wonder whether to call him "Robert" or "Mr. Smith."

WRONG WAY: Call him by his first name.

RIGHT WAY: In deference to his age call him "Mr. Smith" unless he asks you to call him by his first name.

Episcopal Guilds Continue Study, Hear Announcements

Three guilds of the Trinity Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary, meeting Monday in the homes of members, continued a study of the book, "The Episcopal Church," with reviews of chapter four titled "Baptism and Church Membership."

They also heard announcements that the convocation which was scheduled this month and postponed, will be held March 13 in Big Spring and that tickets for the Spring tyle show sponsored by the auxiliary will be distributed this week.

Mrs. Hal Peck presided for the meeting of St. Catherine's Guild in Mrs. J. K. Hazlip's home, and members completed plans for serving a dinner Wednesday night to the Men's Club of the church. Mrs. Peck reviewed the study chapter, and Mrs. Henry Shaw poured coffee afterward.

Also present were Mrs. H. W. Mathews, Mrs. N. B. Larsh, Mrs. Cooper Hyatt, Mrs. D. M. Fink, Mrs. Edwin Alstrin, Mrs. Frank Ashby, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. R. L. Penn, Mrs. Roger Northup, Mrs. Hal Rachal, Mrs. Ed Warren, Mrs. Franklin Whitaker and Mrs. Don Thompson.

St. Cecilia's Guild met in the home of Mrs. John Darden. Mrs. J. P. Ruckman was in charge of business, and Mrs. Carl Westlund introduced Mrs. W. L. Kerr, who reviewed the chapter on "The Prayer Book and Public Worship" as well as Chapter Four of the study book.

Other members attending were Mrs. W. W. Studdert, Mrs. K. C. Slough, Mrs. D. C. Sivalis, Mrs. R. M. Oviatt, Mrs. James Mascho, Mrs. Fred Kotzka, Mrs. W. D. Hamm, Mrs. Duane Aldridge, Mrs. J. P. Butler, Mrs. John Fletcher and Mrs. W. D. Gleye.

A guests, Mrs. V. P. Stutter, met with members of St. Margaret's Guild in the home of Mrs. R. W. Hamilton. Mrs. Jack Bliss presented the devotional, and Mrs. S. P. Hazlip the book review.

Others present were Mrs. William Potts, Mrs. C. O. Puckett, Mrs. W. A. Schaeffer, Mrs. F. N. Shriver, Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. W. A. Yeager, Mrs. Robert Stuart, Mrs. J. L. Brown, Mrs. Eric Bucher, Mrs. Taylor Cole, Mrs. W. D. Henderson, Mrs. Harvey Herd, Mrs. Dan Hudson and Mrs. Eugene Hanes.

Ballinger Pastor Speaks To First Baptist Brotherhood

The Rev. E. J. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ballinger and guest speaker on the Brotherhood program at Midland's First Baptist Church Monday, told the group one must not only live but must leave something besides material wealth when he dies.

The speaker said a knowledge of God is the most important thing in the world and without that knowledge all else is of little good.

Preceding the speaker on the program were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. West of Kermit and their talking dogs. The dogs talked, performed tricks, struck post characteristic of humans, one "played" the piano and the other "sang."

A meal of steak and potatoes was served to approximately 65 men of the Brotherhood and their guests.

Missionary Is Speaker For Presbyterians

Scenes of the country and people among whom he worked as a missionary in the Belgian Congo were presented by William F. Pruitt to approximately 200 members of the First Presbyterian Church here Monday night. Projection of slides illustrated his talk after a Family Night dinner in the West Elementary School cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt and their sons, Bobby and Billy, were present to talk informally about the work and life of missionaries in their section of Africa. The two boys sang a group of songs in the native dialect, and Pruitt showed some of the sleight-of-hand tricks which he uses sometimes to get the attention of a native audience.

The program opened with a devotional talk by Miss Louanna Roach and hymns by the group.

Mrs. John B. Mills headed the committee which was in charge of the dinner. Other members were Mrs. Andrew Fasken, Mrs. R. C. Spivey, Mrs. William Hester and Mrs. J. A. McCutchin.

★ WE, THE WOMEN!

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Want your husband to shine as a host? All right, then give him half a chance.

When you invite guests over for an evening, be sure they are people he likes as well as you do.

Don't keep reminding him of his duties, the way you remind Junior in his manners. Give him a chance to notice that glasses need refilling, instead of pointing it out to him.

Don't set yourself up as a censor of his conversation. If he starts to tell a story, let him tell it. If he wants to talk shop, let him talk shop.

If he's the quiet type, don't talk constantly to try to "cover up" for him. That will just make him draw further into his shell.

He's Top Man

Treat him like the head of the house. If you don't, you can't expect your guests to.

Don't deflate him if he's in an expansive mood.

Don't jump on him, after the guests have gone, for pulling what you regard as a conversational boner. If he is happily unaware of it, let him stay that way.

Don't insist on entertaining only at your convenience. Remember most men are better hosts when they invite the crowd over on the spur of the moment than they are at more formal parties their wives have worked days to get ready for.

Give him the chance to be the kind of host he wants to be and he'll be a good one. Try to turn him into your idea of the perfect host, and he'll let you down.

Washington Foresaw Dangers

For almost three-quarters of his life George Washington was the subject of a British crown which still granted considerable power to its monarchs.

It would have been easy for Washington, had he been a lesser man, to perpetuate himself in office. He was not only the first President of the United States, but the only one chosen unanimously.

The spirit of independence in Washington's America was intense. But the spirit of democracy as we define it today was not unanimous.

So Washington might have made himself dictator or even king. But with a wisdom prophetic in its depth of vision, he did not.

He relinquished the presidency at a time when the infant republic was still struggling for recognition and survival.

Such a bargain is not for the American people. It never has been. Only once, in time of grave crisis, has a President sought and the people granted a longer period in office than the two terms Washington chose.

Half the necessary legislatures already have ratified the proposed 22nd Amendment, which would limit any President to two terms in office.

If that happens, then the country will have decided that while there have been many military heroes, there has been only one Washington, and that the instinctive wisdom that guided him had best be put into law lest some future generation choose and support a President who will yield to the temptation which Washington spurned.

The Santa Fe RR invited the French Merct Train visitors to be its guest at the Grand Canyon for a day, and since they have been traveling all hours of the day and night and needed a rest, I urged them to take the day off and see America's greatest scenic sight.

Picard agreed. However, as the day wore on, Jokester Picard became more solemn, and at supper, perhaps thinking had taken him seriously, he made a little speech.

"My eyes," he said, "are all the way open now, and I have seen things I never could have seen in France. Like most Frenchmen I thought that all things beautiful were in France, but today I have seen that the most beautiful thing of all is in America. I thank you for helping me to see it."

THE DOCTOR SAYS Fats In Diet Are Desirable In Right Kinds And Amounts

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service. Fats are not used by the body as easily as the starches or proteins.

Fats used by the human body are generally divided into those of vegetable origin and those of animal origin.

Butter and cream are well worth while in addition to their fat value, because they are good carriers of vitamins A, which is so important to good health.

Fats make excellent heat insulators and are present in many parts of the body.

More fats are desirable for people doing heavy labor as fats furnish such a good source of energy.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Truman Economic Advisers Set Goal Of Two Hundred Billions

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON.—An output of goods and services valued at $200,000,000,000 has just been revealed by the President's Council of Economic Advisers as a target goal for the American economy by 1958.

This target goal was given by Leon H. Keyserling, vice chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, in testimony before the Joint Congressional Committee on the Economic Report, whose chairman is Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming.

Keyserling appeared before the committee to support the President's contention that the government has a definite role to play in promoting business confidence under the Employment Act of 1946.

Keyserling told the committee, are: First to promote economic stability, leveling off the peaks and valleys of economic growth.

Second to promote economic growth, as fast as resources and an increasing labor force can produce them.

Third to promote economic expansion, running into how much such things as steel, aluminum and electric power generating capacity must be increased to meet this target goal.

One school of business executives believes that everything is now going along fine and that if matters are just left to private enterprise, to expand in a normal way, everything will be all right.

The position of President Truman and his Council of Economic Advisers is exactly opposite to this somewhat negative view.

This is the crux of the whole dispute over President Truman's Union message proposal to put the government in the business of expanding productive capacity where private enterprise can't or won't do the job.

To support this theory, the Council of Economic Advisers has made a comparative study of gross national product and steel production.

Reduced to simplest form, the comparison looks something like this, with the steel figures given in millions of tons and gross national product given in billions of 1939 dollars:

Year 1919 1929 1939 1948 1958 Target Steel 1.1 1.1 1.1 1.1 1.1 GNP 65 84 90 116 (Est.) 230 Steel Now Short

It is the contention of the President's Council of Economic Advisers that steel production for 1948 was about 10,000,000 tons below demand.

Surveying industry plans for expansion of steel-making capacity, the council estimates production will be 90,000,000 tons in 1949, 92,000,000 tons in 1950 and 93,000,000 tons in 1951.

This increase of from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 tons a year is far below the 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 tons expansion per year needed to obtain production of from 112,000,000 to 119,000,000 tons by 1958.

The same type of calculation has been made for aluminum production and electric power generating capacity.

high-pitched voice called, "Yoo-hoo! Mrs. Conover!" "You don't hear him," Gayner muttered and quickened his steps.

"Mrs. Conover!" Tires whirred on cement and the Gayner's eyes alongside the trio, perched on a bicycle. Coming up behind him was the chunky figure of Thelma Loomis, also pedaling energetically.

The Bry-Ter representative showed all his bad teeth in a waggish grin. "Ah, Mrs. Conover—you were trying to run away from me!" "Not from you," Sin choked.

VERNON and Gayner pushed against her from either side. Gayner said hurriedly, "We're in quite a rush, Mr. Trim, so if—" Sin wriggled forward frantically. "Don't wait for me, Mr. Gayner. The streets are too crowded today for what you had in mind."

Vernon's hand strayed under the tail of his turtleneck sweater's eyes were startled, but he said smoothly, "Oh, we wouldn't think of going without you, Mrs. Conover."

"I've been wanting to talk to Mr. Trim, anyway," Sin put a hand on Vernon's arm, pulling the little bellboy's hand away from his hip pocket. "It was nice of you to offer me the ride."

Thelma Loomis clapped Sin on a trembling shoulder. "You and Trim have a good time." She strode chucking up the street toward the Lux Danes.

Crude Oil Output Gains In Nation

TULSA, OKLA. —(P)—The Oil & Gas Journal Tuesday reported that during the week ended February 19 the country's daily average production of crude oil increased 12,450 barrels over the previous week. The Journal gave the total daily production as 5,349,100 barrels.

The greatest increase was Kansas' jump of 9,000 barrels daily to 284,350. Other sizeable gains were in the Eastern area, up 1,500 barrels to 61,500; Indiana, up 3,500 to 24,300; Illinois, 6,300 to 179,100; Oklahoma, 2,200 to 414,950, and California, 1,200 to 945,800. Michigan increased 750 barrels to 48,650, Arkansas gained 150 to 85,050 and New Mexico was up 150 to 134,000. Mississippi was down 3,750 barrels to 105,600 for the largest loss. Other states with major declines were Kentucky, off 2,600 barrels to 22,500; Colorado, down 2,100 to 60,050 (including an unchanged 150 barrels of Utah production), and Wyoming, down 2,900 to 132,100. Louisiana's production dropped 900 barrels to 504,950, and Alabama declined 50 barrels to 1,250. Production was unchanged in Florida, 1,200 barrels, Texas 2,320, Nebraska 300, and Montana 23,500.

Committee Members Lash Out At Jester

AUSTIN—(P)—Questions of policy on money bills Monday night prompted several members of the House Appropriations Committee to lash out verbally at Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Rep. W. A. (Bill) Miller, Jr., of Houston set off the fireworks. "I'm of a humor to give priority to those bills that were killed by executive action after the last session ended. I don't know what we would have done if he had killed those bills before we adjourned but I think we would have looked them over again and passed them," Miller said.

He referred to the so-called "ghost bills"—measures which were approved by both House and Senate last session but never reached the governor's desk because the comptroller would not certify there was sufficient money in sight to cover the proposed outlays. "I feel it's our duty to pass out those bills again," said Miller. Port Arthur Chimes In

Rep. Otis Lee of Port Arthur took a crack at Jester. "To my personal knowledge—now listen to this—since the governor submitted an emergency message for a $70,000 appropriation for microfilming state records, the State Library has hired employees to do that work," Lee said, continuing, "I defy any governor's right to tell a man to go ahead and hire employees before the Legislature has taken final action."

"Otis, he's been running the Legislature for two years, and I reckon he wants to keep on," remarked Rep. C. S. McClellan of Eagle Lake, vice chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Commodity Prices Sag In Germany

BERLIN—(P)—A sag in prices, similar to that in the United States, is developing in Germany, the American Military Government reported Tuesday.

The "small but significant" drop was noted in the semi-monthly report of Gen. Lucius D. Clay for the period ended February 14. Analysts credited the break in prices to an increase in production and a post-Christmas "sales-resistance" on the part of the public.

Five Texas Glovers Win Chicago Bouts

CHICAGO —(P)—Heavier classes of the National Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions go into action here Tuesday night.

Slugging Texas Golden Glovers won five of their seven fights Monday night, drew a bye in one and lost one by a close decision.

Two of the Texas victories were knockouts. Fred Morales, two-time flyweight king of Texas, won his second scrap with a sledgehammer right to the head. His first round victim was Alec Anglin of Danville, Ill. Morales, from Allen Academy, represented Temple in the state tournament at Fort Worth.

Morales won his first fight by defeating Harry Martoy of Los Angeles. Tony Mariana, San Antonio, substituted for Edward Stephens of Port Arthur who failed to make weight in the 118-pound class.

He drew a first pairing bye and then defeated Jess Mongia, Denver, in a thrilling three round decision. A government spokesman said the coup was "planned on Peruvian territory with the cooperation of the Peruvian minister of industry, Alfonso Lloza."

Bolivia To Form Coalition Cabinet

LA PAZ, BOLIVIA — (P) — The Republican Socialist cabinet of Bolivia resigned Monday to permit President Enrique Hertzog to form a coalition of all groups which supported the revolution of 1946.

This broadly representative cabinet is believed to have a better chance of meeting renewed threats of an extreme right wing coup d'etat.

Bolivia has been under an official "state of siege" since Saturday, when the government claimed to have thwarted a plot by the Nationalist Revolutionary Movement (MNR) to seize power.

A government spokesman said the coup was "planned on Peruvian territory with the cooperation of the Peruvian minister of industry, Alfonso Lloza."

FFA, Speech Class Entertain Students Of South Elementary

The Midland High School Future Farmers of America Cowboy Band entertained students of the South Elementary School with a concert Tuesday morning.

Vocalists on the program were Frank Merritt and Earl Flowers. Bobby Evans is director of the organization and Roy Floyd is technical engineer in charge of sound equipment.

The radio speech class of Midland High School, under the direction of Miss Verna Harris, entertained the South Elementary students earlier in the morning with a production, "Robin Hood," over the school's intercommunication system.

Guatemala To Honor Former A&M Official

GUATEMALA CITY, GUATEMALA — (P) — E. H. Kyle, former dean of agriculture at Texas A&M College who retained his farmer's simplicity even when appointed an ambassador, was to receive Guatemala's highest honor Tuesday night. Kyle was appointed American ambassador to Guatemala in May of 1945. He filled that post until recently.

While in Guatemala he was instrumental in the introduction of new agricultural techniques to aid the farmers in this Central American republic.

For his work he is to receive the highest award the government of Guatemala can confer. It is the Order of Quetzal.

Mrs. Kyle is in Guatemala with her husband for the presentation ceremonies.

OLD-TIME COMPOSER DIES IN HOLLYWOOD HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Death has taken James J. Lucas, 61-year-old composer of such old time song hits as "I Love My Wife, But Oh You Kid," and "Smile and the World Smiles With You."

The onetime vaudeville star died Monday after an illness of two years.

Washington Lawyer Patents 'Sure-Fire' Oil Finding Device

WASHINGTON — (P) — A man has patented an oil finding device which might qualify as an electronic version of the old peach or willow twig divining rod.

Many acres of arid America have been tramped by water wizards holding their favorite twigs in search of water deposits.

The oil finding device inventor, Walter Armstrong of Washington, D. C., told a reporter, "By using this method of locating oil well sites, it will be useless to drill a dry hole."

He said tests have proved reliability of the system. Government experts, however, expressed doubt.

Armstrong claims his device measures radiant energy. Experts at the Interior Department said as far as they know, petroleum contained no elements capable of radiating any distance through the earth.

Petroleum experts said gadgets similar to Armstrong's device now exist to measure the structure and substance of sub-surface oil or shallow rock formations. They added no other method in existence uses the system patented by the Washington man.

Petroleum Radiation Armstrong said he has found "petroleum radiation does exist."

His patent states: "This invention involves the discovery that subterranean petroleum deposits emit penetrating radiant energy in amounts proportionate to the nature and quantity of the petroleum deposits and will pass through intervening rock strata to the surface of the earth."

The apparatus, the inventor said, works on an electronic principle of shielding the device from "known ionization radiations such as alpha, beta, gamma and other rays."

The patent did not state and Armstrong did not identify the radiating elements he claims for oil. He asserted the method will locate oil and accurately forecast the amount of the supply.

Armstrong is an attorney by profession. He said his method of oil discovery followed 20 years of surveys and research. He first applied for an oil prospecting patent in August of 1944.

More than one-third of the accidents each year on American farms occur in the homes.

Steak House Lives Up To Name In Area

When a business has a distinctive name, it usually tries to live up to it, and the Steak House, 611 West Wall Street, does so in a magnificent manner.

Not only are the best steaks in this area served there, but all the trimmings that go with a steak dinner as well as just about any other food one might desire are served around the clock.

The customer may step up to the counter or sit in one of the booths and order anything from a sandwich to a complete dinner for his entire party, receiving courteous and speedy service as well as some of the best food to be found.

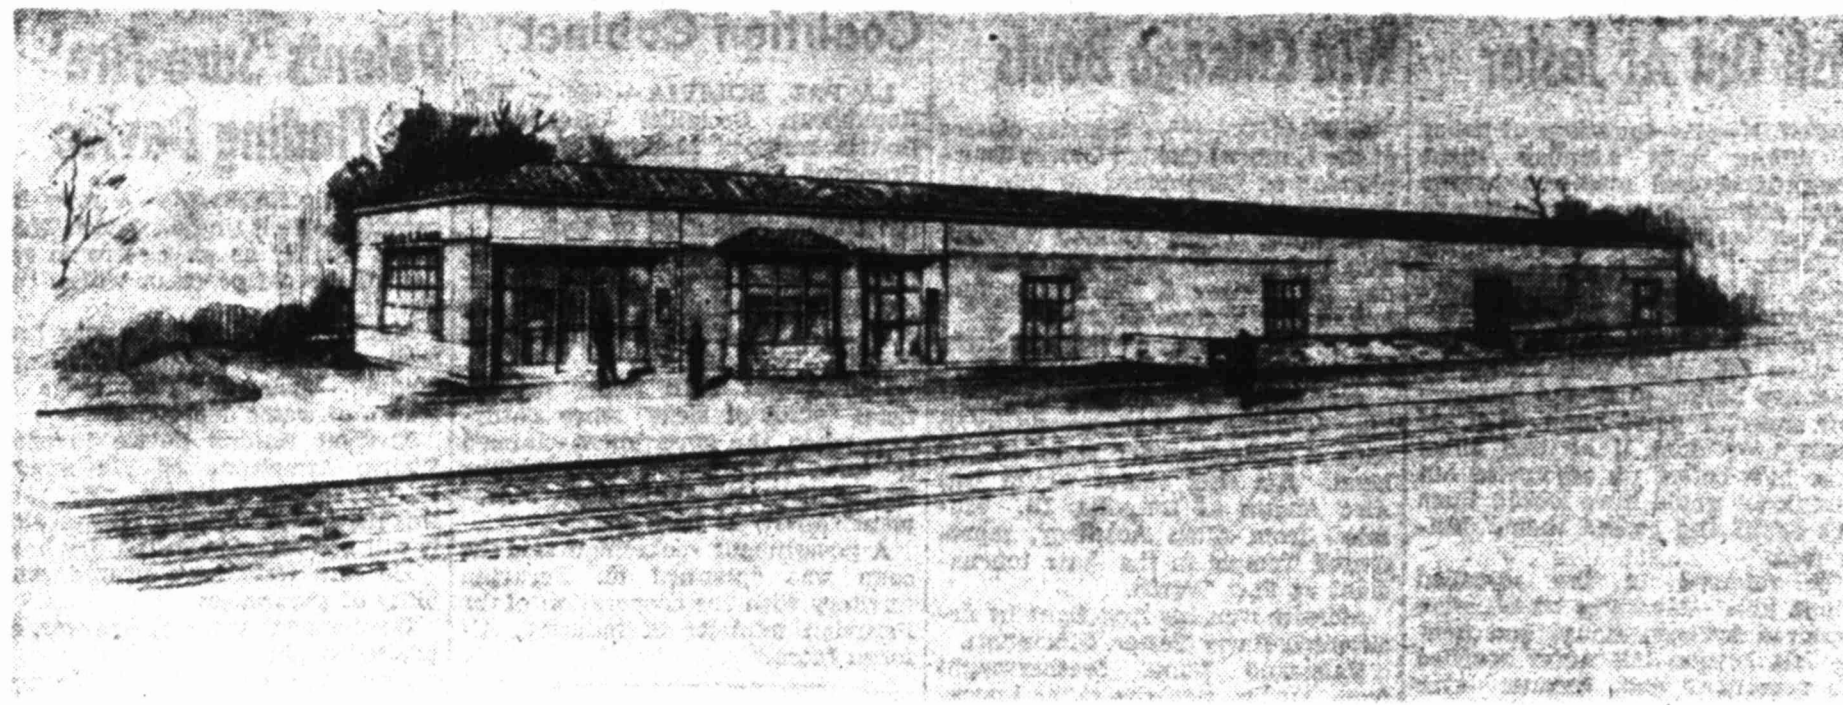

Perhaps the customer is an early riser who must get on the job very early in the morning and needs breakfast before the rest of the city is awake. The Steak House doors always are open and a wholesome and nourishing breakfast will be ready for such a customer in very short order.

Willing To Serve
Or perhaps the customer is one who works late or has just finished a long trip and arrives in Midland at a very late hour after the rest of the city has gone to bed. The Steak House still stands with doors open, ready and willing to serve him with fine and pleasant service.

The location at 611 West Wall Street is a convenient spot and parking space is to be found off the street right at the Steak House door. So at night or anytime in the daylight hours drive out to the Steak House for a truly delicious meal.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, FEB. 22, 1949-7

New Coach Speaks To Feeder Teams

Thurmon (Tugboat) Jones, head coach at Midland High School, Monday night told members of football squads of the elementary and junior high schools, "You have to put forth effort and have a desire to sacrifice in order to be good in athletics."

The high school mentor was the principal speaker at the first annual banquet honoring gridsters of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of West, North and South Elementary Schools and John M. Cowden Junior High School in the North Elementary cafeteria. More than 200 juniors, many of them future MHS Bulldogs, were in attendance.

Wesley Martin, West Elementary principal and coordinator of the elementary sports program, president, and Supl. Frank Monroe was master-of-ceremonies. The invocation was by W. D. Ladd, North Elementary principal. Mrs. Inez Luce, South Elementary principal, and Gabe Massey, junior high principal, were in attendance.

Visitors and special guests, including school trustees, were introduced by Charles Mathews, high school principal.

Certificates Awarded
"M" certificates were presented by the elementary school coaches to members of their respective grid squads—Martin, West Elementary; Charles A. McDonald, South Elementary; Charles Tubbs, North Elementary; Lloyd Curlee, sixth grade; and Wilson Blurton, seventh grade.

Dale Scott introduced members of his eighth grade team who previously had received awards. The West Elementary team was recognized as the 1948 champion.

Coach Jones, in his address, outlined what is in store for the young athletes during their sports careers in Midland, and explained what the boys may expect to get out of the game of football. Sportsmanship, physical development and mental training were stressed.

He said high school coaches are looking for boys with good attitudes and fine spirits. Jones emphasized that training is the most important thing in the life of an athlete.

Pointing out that education comes first and sports second, the coach urged the boys to learn something besides football.

"Be good sports at all times, and never take advantage of a situation because you are an athlete," he said.

Jones lauded the elementary sports program and complimented the youths and their coaches upon their accomplishments last season.

Are major league baseball contracts fair to the player?

This question will be argued a lot on the street and even in the courts between now and the next year.

It is the result of Danny Gardella's $300,000 suit against the New York Giants for whom he played two years during the war.

The Court of Appeals reversed a dismissal and sent the case back to District Court for trial on Gardella's two principal charges:

1. That baseball is a "monopoly" because the "reserve clause" in contracts of all players under the jurisdiction of organized ball binds him to one club and prevents him from bargaining with another club.

2. That baseball should come under the jurisdiction of the Clayton anti-trust law because teams in organized ball, with the large fees received for broadcasts and telecasts of games, are now engaging in interstate commerce when accounts of games are transmitted across state lines.

"The case will take six months to a year to go to trial," says Frederic A. Johnson, Gardella's lawyer.

Gardella, 29, is a $36-a-week hospital orderly in Mount Vernon, N. Y. He his 272 for the 1948 Giants, driving in 71 runs in 121 games, was subsequently suspended by the Giants and "jumped" to the Mexican League. This led to a five-year suspension from organized baseball and made Gardella virtually ineligible to play even semi-pro ball.

Leave it to Hollywood:
Seeking to substitute a 10-minute in-emission after the fifth inning, the Hollywood Stars wanted to give up the seventh-inning stretch this Spring.

President Pants Rowland of the Pacific Coast League and George Trautman, head of the minors, nixed the proposition.
As one guy said: "Leave it to Hollywood to attempt to break a baseball game into takes."

And another said: "If Hollywood should wind up in last place, they wouldn't say we are in the cellar, but would say, 'we are a trailer.'"

Now girls, we didn't say this, it was two other guys:
Two jockeys were talking about reincarnation.

One said he'd like to come back, in the next life, as a race horse, preferably a Citation.

"But you won't," said the other. "Only women get to be race horses."

"Why?" asked the first.
"Because they make the best nags," replied the second.

Boston College is ambitious next Fall. Five teams which played in bowl last season will be tackled. On the grid card are Wake Forest, Oklahoma, Villanova, Clemson and William and Mary.

And to top it all, none of these "bowl" teams lost in the big classics except Wake Forest.

Kentucky's Wildcats Roll On As Tulane, Bradley Hub Upsets

NEW YORK—(AP)—Kentucky's top-ranked Wildcats continued their winning habits Monday night, but two other members of college basketball's top ten, Tulane and Bradley, failed to follow suit.

Tulane, sixth in the rankings by virtue of 20 victories and two losses to Kentucky, lost a Southeastern Conference game to Vanderbilt 56-54.

Bradley, No. 10 in the latest Associated Press poll, fell before Drake by an identical margin, 56-54, in a Missouri Valley Conference upset at Des Moines.

Kentucky, No. 1 in the poll, won its 23rd victory in 24 starts this year, rolling over Georgia 95-40. Big Alex Groza scored 38 points to break the Southeastern Conference individual scoring record.

The previous high was 36 points scored by Billy Joe Adcock of Vanderbilt.

The Illinois and Minnesota, which are battling for the Western Conference championship, both came through their assignments, although the Gophers' victory won't count in the Big Nine standings.

The Illinois trounced Iowa 80-49 with big Duke Eddleman pouring 19 points through the mesh.

Minnesota thumped Michigan State, which isn't officially counted in conference competition, 57-47.

Illinois is fourth in the standings and Minnesota is fifth.

Duquesne, 17th in the poll, triumphed over Akron 81-43. Loyola of Chicago, No. 12, trounced Western Michigan 66-44. Brigham Young upset Wyoming 50-48.

In other leading games, Nebraska defeated Missouri 47-46 in overtime; Holy Cross downed Boston College 66-48; City College of New York beat St. Joseph's of Philadelphia 65-53; Michigan downed Purdue 64-53; Wisconsin defeated Northwestern 57-46; Indiana won over Ohio State 65-45, and Tennessee downed Louisiana State 81-72.

Odessa Will Be AAU Track Site For Fem Events

NEW YORK—(AP)—Secretary Dan Ferris of the Amateur Athletic Union said Monday the National AAU Women's Track and Field Meet had been awarded tentatively to Odessa, Texas, this year.

Ferris said the AAU executive board made the decision at a meeting here, granting the meet to the South Texas Association "provided all conditions are met."

Among the conditions listed were first class hotel accommodations and adequate transportation for contestants to and from the scene of the meet.

The date will be left to the Texas Association, Ferris said, adding it probably would be held in July or August.

Mashmen Start Valley Open Warmup

HARLINGEN—(AP)—A hundred amateur golfers began shooting for low scores here Tuesday to determine the 15 who will play in the $100,000 Rio Grande Valley Open. The tournament will begin Thursday.

The Valley Open will be played over the 6,086-yard, par 71 Harlingen Municipal Golf Course.

Johnny Palmer, winner this week of the Houston tournament, is among the favorite professionals planning to play.

The wolverine is a member of the weasel family.

Razorbacks Hurdle Frogs In Drive For Loop Hardwood Title

By The Associated Press

Arkansas' Razorbacks Monday night cleared the first of three hurdles in their path to the Southwest Conference basketball championship. They beat Texas Christian 67-52.

The victory gave the Porkers eight victories against two defeats. They face Rice Saturday and end the season next week against Texas A&M.

Bob Ambler and Ken Kearns paced the Arkansas victory. Ambler got 15 points and Kearns 14. High point man for Texas Christian was Julius Dolnic with 15.

Two games are on tap Wednesday. Texas and Rice tangle at Houston and Southern Methodist and Baylor at Dallas.

Static At Waco
The hectic conference race reached some sort of a climax last Saturday night at Waco when a group of fans shoved referee Ziggy Sears after the Texas-Baylor game, which Texas won 36-31.

James H. Stewart, executive secretary of the conference, termed the incident an "indictment against the supporters of intercollegiate athletics."

Stewart witnessed the action. A group of fans surrounded Sears after the game and shoved him back against the scorers' table. Baylor Athletic Director Ralph Wolfe and Baylor Coach Bill Henderson came to his aid and escorted him to the dressing room.

Stewart said "The athletic authorities at Baylor are to be commended for their prompt control of the situation which averted a possibly more serious incident."

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And Return Of Skeney Wienie

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail listened. Hickey Pickety, his black hen, was the one who told him about it. She said that somebody was getting the eggs from out of the nest as fast as she could lay them there.

Daddy Ringtail looked around inside to see how the somebody could ever get in with the door locked. "Oh!" Daddy Ringtail said, because there was a hole in the wall of the chicken house. It was about as big around as a baseball bat.

"Why," Daddy Ringtail said, "there's only one somebody in the whole forest who is small enough to crawl through the hole and carry the eggs away."

Hickey clucked as fast as she could. She knew who the somebody was who could crawl through a hole that small. The somebody's name was Skeney Wienie.

Could Skeney be the one who was getting the eggs? Daddy Ringtail thought about it. Why, Skeney was such a friendly dog. His tail wagged always from side to side. His eyes were big and brown, but if anyone could ever go through that hole in a baseball bat, and just about as little around.

While Daddy Ringtail thought about it, and while he looked at the hole in the wall, who should crawl through but Skeney Wienie. He came all the way inside before he saw Daddy Ringtail standing there. He started to turn around again and go out, but Daddy Ringtail stopped him with a whistle. Skeney wagged his tail.

His nose was pointing straight ahead, while he looked up with his eyes so brown. He barked a friendly little bark that seemed to say no and no indeed, and of course he hadn't been getting the eggs! But why had he come to the chicken house if not to get them again? How could he not be the one, since only he was small around enough to crawl through the hole? I'm going to tell you the rest tomorrow, but if you think Skeney is the one—let's not be sure until we know. We mustn't be quick to decide an unhappy thing about anyone.

NOTICE OF ROAD BOND ELECTION THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF MIDLAND TO THE RESIDENT QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF MIDLAND COUNTY, TEXAS: YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT YOU HAVE DULY RENDERED THE SAME FOR TAXATION.

TAKE NOTICE that an election will be held on the 26th day of March, 1949, in Midland County, Texas, to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued by said County to the amount of $150,000 for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof, in Midland County, Texas, and whether or not ad valorem taxes shall be levied on all taxable property in said County, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity.

ORDER PASSED by the Commissioners' Court of Midland County, Texas, on the 14th day of February, 1949, and which order is in words and figures as follows:

ORDER FOR ROAD BOND ELECTION THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF MIDLAND ON THIS 14th day of February, 1949, the County Commissioners of Midland County, Texas, convened in regular session at the regular meeting place thereof in the Court house at Midland, Texas, the following members of said Court, to-wit: CLIFFORD C. KEITH, COUNTY JUDGE, Presiding; and SHERWOOD O'NEAL, COMMISSIONER, Precinct No. 1; WARREN SKAGGS, COMMISSIONER, Precinct No. 2; W. M. STEWART, COMMISSIONER, Precinct No. 4.

Being present and participating; there came on to be considered the petition of E. H. Barron and sixty other persons, for an election to be held in said Midland County, Texas, to determine whether or not bonds be issued by said Midland County, Texas, to the amount of $150,000, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, in Midland County, Texas, and whether or not ad valorem taxes shall be levied on all taxable property in said County, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity.

IT APPEARING to the said Court that said petition is signed by more than fifty (50) qualified property tax-paying voters of said Midland County, Texas, and

IT IS THEREFORE, CONSIDERED AND ORDERED by the said Court that an election be held in said County on the 26th day of March, 1949, which is not less than thirty (30) days from the date of this order, to determine whether or not the bonds of said Midland County, Texas, shall be issued in the amount of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($50,000), in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, for the purpose of the construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, in Midland County, Texas, and whether or not ad valorem taxes shall be levied annually at a rate not to exceed THREE PER CENTUM (3%) per annum, and to mature serially over a period of years not to exceed Ten (10) years from the date thereof; and whether or not an ad valorem tax shall be levied annually upon the property in said Midland County, Texas, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the annual interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds at maturity.

THE SAID ELECTION shall be held under the provisions of the Acts of the Legislature of the State of Texas, Called Session, Chapter 16, as amended.

ALL PERSONS who are legally qualified voters of said Midland County, Texas, and who are qualified property tax-payers of said County and who have duly rendered their property for taxation shall be entitled to vote at said election.

ALL VOTERS desiring to support the proposition to issue the bonds shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words:

FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND THE LEVY OF AD VALOREM TAXES IN PAYMENT THEREOF.

And, those opposed to the proposition shall have written or printed upon their ballots the words:

AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND THE LEVY OF AD VALOREM TAXES IN PAYMENT THEREOF.

THE POLLING PLACES and election officers of said election shall be, respectively:

National Grange Wants Taft-Hartley Law Kept On Books

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Grange, a farm organization, has told Congress that those who claim the November election was a mandate for outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law are in "error."

The Grange said farmers played "fully as decisive a role" in the "re-election of President Truman as any other group, and that farmers believe the Taft-Hartley Act has had "a corrective effect" on labor-management disputes.

J. T. Sanders, legislative representative, presented the Grange's views to the Senate Labor Committee.

The committee is considering the proposal of the Truman Administration to junk the Taft-Hartley Act and replace it with a law more like the original Wagner Labor Relations Act.

The Senate is expected to be the main battleground on the issue.

On the House side of the Capitol, Democratic leaders predicted that the House will approve most of the Truman labor program.

Sanders' argument to the Senators was in direct conflict with one they got in a letter from CIO President Philip Murray.

Murray's letter said also that the labor bill is the "keystone" of the entire Truman "fair deal" program, and complained that "not a single one" of the Fair Deal proposals has been enacted in the first 50 days of the 81st Congress.

Murray's complaint drew an indirect reply from Democratic congressional leaders after they met with President Truman.

Speaker Rayburn told reporters "The program isn't lagging in the House and isn't going to."

Senate Majority Leader Lucas said the administration has encountered "dilatatory tactics" from foes of its program on the Senate Labor Committee, but added: "We are moving along—all committees are functioning and are at work."

Murray Blasts Taft
Murray said, too, that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has made "a long list of concessions and retreats" adding up to a "reluctant confession" that the Taft-Hartley law is unworkable. Taft, asked by reporters for comment, said he wanted to study Murray's letter before replying.

After Sanders read his statement for the Grange, the senators questioned him.

There have been no hearings on the bill yet on the House side of the Capitol and the labor committee there is in recess until March 1.

After a nose count, however, House administration leaders told reporters privately that they are confident that most of the bill will go through.

Lovable Guy With Wardrobe To Match, That's Bing Crosby

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Bing Crosby landed two more honors recently—most popular movie star in the U. S. (in the annual Photoplay Magazine awards) and the title of Hollywood's best dressed man.

Bing Crosby? Well dressed? The news startled me right out of my Argyles.

But movie fashion designer Bonnie Cashin, who picked Bing, was adamant. She wanted to put me straight.

"Bing belongs up there," she said. "Men's clothes should be functional. They should fit their professions and personalities. Fifty suits tailored by a Bond Street specialist won't get them on my list. Crosby's loud, open-throated sports shirts go hand in hand with his trademark as a relaxed, easy-going entertainment star."

Adolphe Menjou will be awfully mad at you, Bonnie.

Five-Time Winner
Bing nabbed the Photoplay popularity award for the fifth consecutive year. Ingrid Bergman was the feminine winner for the third straight year. After "Arch of Triumph," people still love her. America's most popular movie in '48, according to the same poll, was "Sitting Pretty."

It's just about set for the Ronald Colman to replace Jack Benny on the air this Summer. . . . Don DeFore gets the role of the boy friend in "My Friend Irma."

... UI is after Vic Mature to star in "Paradise Lost, 1949," to be filmed in Italy this Summer.

Every time I see a movie mother leading a tiny tot into a casting director's office, I think of Baby LeRoy, who co-starred with W. C. Fields at the age of about 11 months and who rated this fan magazine headline at the age of 3: "Is Baby LeRoy Washed Up?"

Jennifer Jones is telling friends that she and David O. Selznick are not getting married until he sells all his properties and disposes of his holdings in the film business.

This is a switch. Most couples wait until the groom is working before they get hitched.

The Jackie Coopers apparently have not yet settled their differences. He wired from New York to a real estate broker instructing that his home be sold immediately.

Mrs. Cooper found out about it, went to the broker and nixed the deal.

Sub For Cheeta
Cheeta, the chimp in the Tarzan pictures, is in bed with virus X and is unable to attend the premiere of "Tarzan and the Fountain of Youth" in New York.

The studio is sending another chimp instead. (You read all the vital news in this column.) . . . Those pictures of Georgia Carroll (Mrs. Kay Kyser) on the current cigarette billboards were taken six years ago. . . . If you're looking for Howard Hughes, he has moved into the old Charles Boyer home.

Look for Alice Faye to return to the screen in the near future—in all likelihood to co-star with hubby Phil Harris. He feels a good movie will help their radio show which is NBC's last remaining bulwark on Sunday nights.

Pola Negri is wondering what they are going to do about her in the Valentino film biography. No one has approached her about it, but her romance with Valentino fills quite a few chapters in her book about Hollywood.

Anna Roosevelt came to interview Ida Lupino on the subject of "Not Wanted," the semi-documentary Ida is producing, then whipped out an autograph book.

"No, it's not for me," laughed Anna, "it's for my son. It'll make him a big man around school."

Funeral Services For Mrs. Thawley Held Here Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Leonard H. Thawley, 52, were to be conducted in the Ellis Funeral Home Chapel at 3 p.m. Tuesday. It was to be a Christian Science service with Mrs. Ralph Troseth officiating as reader. Interment was to be in Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. Thawley, a resident of Midland for a year, died at her home, 1408 West Tennessee Street, Sunday. Her husband, L. H. Thawley, is a geologist with Phillips Petroleum Company here.

Mrs. Thawley was born Nov. 6, 1896 in Minneapolis, Minn. She moved to Midland from Amarillo.

Survivors are the husband and a sister, Mrs. J. E. Bogn of Bartlesville, Okla.

Funeralbearers were to be S. E. Anderson, Dean Graham, Dean Chadock, John Ruwwe, Don Miller, Russell Hayes, Ed VandenBark and R. W. Barker.

Accidents on U. S. farms kill some 19,000 persons annually.

Questions and Answers

Q—What is the Comedie Francaise in Paris?

A—It is the national theater of France and is supported by public funds. It does not have a star system for its actors, the parts being shared among the players arranged by mutual agreement.

Q—Why are English policemen sometimes called Pealers?

A—Sir Robert Peel originated the modern English police system.

Q—When you speak of the Douay Bible, what do you mean?

A—It means the Douay version of the Bible translated at Douai, Flanders, into English in the 16th century and revised in the 18th century. It is commonly used by Catholics in English-speaking countries.

Q—Who was the first woman in this country to receive a patent?

A—The first recorded patent granted to a woman was received by Mary Kites in 1809 for a method of weaving straw with silk or thread.

Q—For how long have men worn gloves?

A—Cave men fashioned rude gloves of leather to protect their hands and arms. A child's long linen glove, perhaps not quite so old as the Pyramids, was found in Egypt in the tomb of King Tutankhamun, who reigned about 1350 B. C.

Boy Friend's Tattoo Marks Lead To Arrest Of Hit-Run Suspect

DALLAS (AP)—A stoutish, 40-year-old woman was arrested Monday night for the hit-run killing of Jim Canales, 57, because her boy friend happened to have the letters, "Babe" tattooed across the fingers of one hand.

Police Capt. L. M. McKinney said police got a tip from customers at a beer joint where the woman had been before and after the accident Sunday night. They had noticed blood on the front of the beige colored convertible but could identify the woman only by the tattoo on the hand of her escort.

Police set a trap at the beer joint, hoping she would return. She finally showed up Monday night.
