Mickey Rooney Calls Off Suit; 'Old Friends' With His Partner

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Two weeks ago Mickey Rooney said he would sue his manager, Sam Stiefel, and demand an accounting of the profits in their partnership.

Today Mickey and Sam are patting each other on the back as co-producers of Mickey's new movie, "Quecksand."

The Mick says he's forgotten the suit and that he and Stiefel will produce two more films, "Ricochet," a western which Mickey will direct, and "Buckaroo," a comedy story in which he'll star.

"Sam and I are old friends," Mickey told me. "That should explain everything."

Well, not everything. It didn't explain whether Mickey's lawyer told him he didn't have a chance to break his contract with Sam or whether Mickey had cooled down and changed his mind.

All he'd say was: "We're old friends."

But the Mick was willing to talk about his romance with Martha Vickars. They're looking for a home in the valley. "We'll get married," he said, "as soon as our divorce is final."

Mickey's divorce is final in May, Martha's in September.

"The Cleveland Story," based on the pennant-winning Cleveland baseball club, will be filmed at Republic. The entire team will be seen along with owner Bill Veck. Only actor cast as yet is George Brent.

Misrepresentation
In "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College," Clifton Webb gives a sweater girl, obviously padded, a long, lingering look and says: "Young lady, I suggest you don't make any claims you may not be able to live up to."

It's all set for Vaughn Monroe to make his debut as a western star in "Singing Guns" in September. Yep, Muscles will ride a horse while warbling... Marie Windsor is getting a big build-up at Republic. John Wayne picked her for "Strange Caravan" after seeing her work in "Hellfire."

"Now, Rod Cameron has picked her as his steady girl friend."

Latest Goldwynism:
Someone asked Sam when his kid star, Gigi Perreau, went to school. "Oh," said Sam, "I think she went to a colloquial school."

"The Fighting Marines," a 12-chapter serial filmed 13 years ago, just completed a run on a local television station. Grant Withers and Ann Rutherford were co-stars. I talked to Grant about it and he's still chuckling.

"Friends called me up every night and demanded to know what happened in the next chapter so their kids would go to sleep. I told them: 'What happens next? It was so long ago I don't even remember making the picture!'"

Permanent Role
Since Bill Boyd's Hopalong Cassidy pictures have been clicking on television, every studio in town is paging him to sign on the dotted line. But Bill says he'll stick with Hoppy and not step out of character in any other kind of film. One of Hollywood's biggest studios asked him if he'd like to star in a big picture.

"Yes," said Bill, "a BIG Hopalong Cassidy picture."

Success note: The new congressional directory lists two ex-Conover models as congressional wives.

Nice story behind Hollywood's new Blue Danube Restaurant. Mrs. Joe May, wife of the film director, was such a good cook at home that two dozen filmtown friends decided she should be in the restaurant business. She put up her cook books, they put up the money.

Here's a close-up of his two-piece creation of two-way stretch elastic fabric, studded with black beads. A floor-length organza stole and a transparent evening skirt complete the outfit. When wearers feel the urge for a dip, she just discards the accessories and heads for the water.

Still The Labor Law

It's up to the Senate now. But as far as the House is concerned, the Taft-Hartley Act is still the labor law of the land. The Administration's compromise between brave campaign promises and practical reality came too late, and the best Truman's cohorts could do was to kill the Wood bill, a sort of super-Taft-Hartley piece of legislation, and leave things as they were.

The last-minute compromise was whipped up when the Lesinski bill clearly was doomed. This was 90-odd per cent Wagner Act, with a few minor changes, and at the end even its best friends didn't give it a chance.

One of the most interesting things in this connection is that the Administration bill seemed to lose ground during the Easter vacation when most congressmen went back to talk to the home folks. The constituents are pretty good lobbyists themselves, since they are the ones who keep the members in steady work. And there didn't seem to be any overwhelming evidence of a "people's mandate" to repeal the T-H legislation.

Truman certainly received a "people's mandate" to go back to Washington for four more years. But it does not appear that this mandate was a blanket endorsement of everything he promised in the heat of the campaign.

Possibly the President, smart politician though he is, misinterpreted the people's sentiment. Possibly he was deceived by the excitement and glow of victory which persisted from Election Day to the day that the new Congress convened.

It was pretty well established, even before the election, that the intensive publicity campaign against the Taft-Hartley Law was only partly successful. A great many people bristled at its very name. But when poll-takers broke it down for them and asked them what they thought of this provision or that, it developed that the hatred for the whole greatly exceeded the hatred of the sum of its parts.

The Taft-Hartley Law has its imperfections and inequities. But it never has been the monstrous legalization of slavery that its opponents pictured it. In fact, the contrast between what the labor people said would take place under the law and what actually happened caused their propaganda to backfire. Labor may have sustained some minor injuries, but it also made substantial gains.

The hysteria of organized labor's anti-T-H campaign didn't do Truman any good in the long run, either. He took the keynote of labor's campaign for his own. But the picture of enslaved labor never was there to back him up. The labor bill, in the light of succeeding events, obviously wasn't the crucial issue in his victory.

So all the pressure and threats of patronage loss were of no avail. The Administration waited too long to pull in its horns and offer the Sims compromise bill. This bill, as Speaker Rayburn said, was "about what the Lesinski bill should have been in the first place." But the GOP-Southern Democrat coalition, with its dander up, didn't agree.

All For Love?

The attorney for Miss Judith Coplon says her association with Valentine Gubitchev was one of kissless, spyless affection. The Justice Department says it was for the purpose of giving the Soviet representative secret government information.

This really puts the issue in doubt. Until it is settled one may only speculate. But we can't help wondering if Miss Coplon was simply trying to prove that the quickest way to a man's heart is through his dispatch case.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Secret of why Curtis Calder delayed accepting secretary of Army is revealed; prospective Army secretary has his utilities company snarled in litigation before SEC; Truman reverses FDR re Electric Bond and Share.

WASHINGTON—Today will be unfolded the inside story of why Curtis Calder, tall, handsome head of giant Electric Bond and Share, delayed 60 days in accepting President Truman's bid to be secretary of the Army.

It will be unfolded before the Securities and Exchange Commission in what on the surface may appear to be humdrum hearings, but which beneath the surface, means millions in dividends to stockholders.

Beneath the surface also, lurks the most important economic question before the American and Foreign Power (1927-1944). It then went on to head up the parent company, Electric Bond and Share.

In 1932 Roosevelt picked the big banks and utilities as his principal target of economic attack. He pointed his ablest men to enforce them—Justice William O. Douglas now of the U. S. Supreme Court, Justice Ferdinand Pecora now of the New York Supreme Court, Leon Henderson, James M. Landis and Justice Jerome Frank of the U. S. Court of Appeals.

The company which fought hardest against these laws, especially the holding act, was Electric Bond and Share, which took to the Supreme Court almost every SEC move to protect small investors.

Then came the administration of Harry Truman, and FDR's crusading policy was changed almost overnight, when Truman selected the head of the corporation which so bitterly fought Roosevelt, Curtis Calder, to be secretary of the Army.

Actually Truman continues to be the great advocate of public power—at least on paper. But as in so many other cases, Truman's selection of personnel undercuts his policy. For as secretary of the Army, Calder would control the Army Engineers, who build the big dams, and who swing powerful influence against government power projects.

Reasons for Truman's sudden reversal of Roosevelt's policy by selecting Calder for this vital post probably were: 1. Calder is the intimate friend of big investment banker Floyd Odlum, largest contributor to the Truman campaign fund, and head of the world's largest investment trust—the Atlas Corporation. Atlas long has dominated Electric Bond and Share, while Odlum served as its attorney and vice-president.

Blood Rid Of Excess Red Cells With Radioactive Phosphorus
By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

In contrast to anemia, in which there are too few red cells or too little iron in the blood, there is a condition known as polycythemia in which red cells in the blood may be too numerous. In this disease the number of red cells may be more than twice normal.

Other treatments include the use of drugs aimed at destroying some of the excessive red cells. In some cases this kind of treatment has been quite successful.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

Finding out how a person plays the game of life is always more interesting to me than learning how good his bridge is. I had a chat recently with Robert Merrill, young baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

One of the things that interested me most is the fact that each year Merrill takes a prominent part in the show at Madison Square Garden given for the benefit of the Israel Orphan Asylum.

Going back in his life, I learned that Bob used to play semi-pro baseball in Brooklyn. When he told me he had earned his first "buck" on a cruise boat to Havana,

I remembered that I had done the same thing. He has gone a long way since he decided that he wanted to be a crooner—and his mother persuaded him to become an opera star.

Mr. Merrill used a little poker psychology when he went to six no trump on today's hand. His partner's bid of four no trump was intended as a Blackwood bid, asking for aces.

The opening lead of the jack of clubs was won with the king. A small club was led to the ace, East showed out. This marked West with five clubs originally.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS
By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
QUESTION: Is it safe to drink soft drinks when one has too much sugar in the urine?

ANSWER: This is certainly not safe because practically all soft drinks have sugar in them. This makes it impossible to watch the diet properly in the presence of diabetes, which is the disease probably present if there is sugar in the urine.

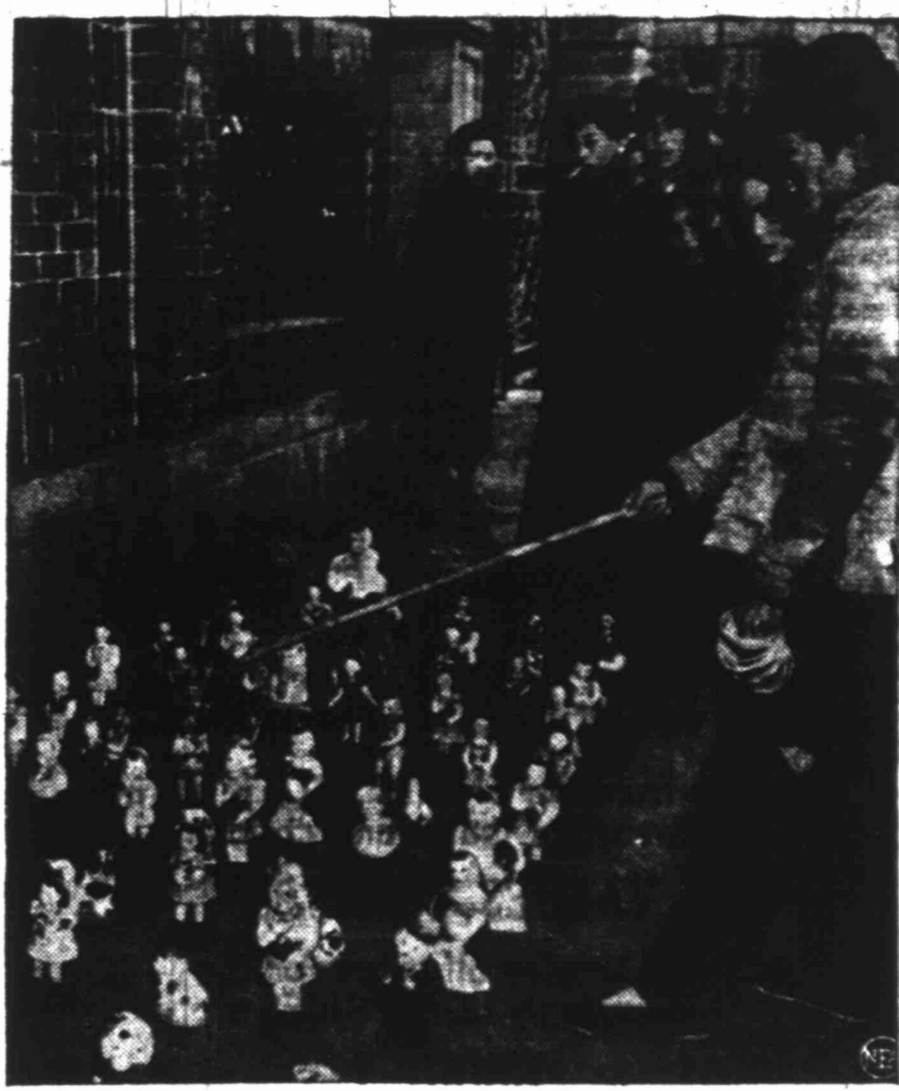

THE STORY: Fred Silwell, small movie producer, and three members of his company are stranded on Spears Island, where Henry Gough Harding is testing four women candidates for wives to become his bride and found a "New Idea" on the island.

Mollie Stark began crying. The clinging black of the dress she wore outlined the convulsive movements of her body. "I didn't do anything bad," she whimpered. "I don't want to be put on any old jury."

"There, there," Harding soothed, abandoning his official tone of voice. "We all know you wouldn't do anything bad."

What's This? Dogs Eat Better Than People?

CHICAGO—(P)—What's this? Dogs eat better than people? Dr. C. E. Poling, a nutritionist, says a lot of dogs do. He puts it this way:

"Dogs that eat commercially prepared dog food eat better from a nutrition standpoint than humans do." Dr. Poling recently made a scientific test of both kinds of vitamins.

One was a typical meal for a man. It included half a grapefruit, a 4-ounce slice of ham, mashed potatoes, peas, a slice of bread, butter, lettuce, pear and cream cheese salad, coffee with cream and sugar and ice cream. It weighed one and a third pounds.

The other was a 1-pound can of dog food. It contained meat by-products such as hearts and kidneys, cereals, legumes, minerals and vitamin supplements.

The serving of "ham and" came out ahead in four classifications—calories, fat, carbohydrates and Vitamin A. The dog's grub rated higher in seven—the essential proteins, calcium, phosphorus, iron, thiamin, riboflavin and niacin.

One nutrient, Vitamin C, was in the human dinner but not in the dog's lunch. Dogs don't need it in their diet. They manufacture it in their bodies.

"I tested several other typical menus," he said. "The results were about the same."

Sentencing Of Drug Chain Scion Delayed

KANSAS CITY—(P)—Sentencing of Marvin S. Katz, 32, on a guilty plea to a charge of altering a U. S. Treasury check, has been deferred.

Federal Judge Albert A. Ridge accepted the plea of the Kansas City drug chain owner's son Monday. He ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Katz was arrested in San Antonio on a charge of altering a $19,130 check drawn in favor of his father, Michael H. Katz.

Clean Up Suggestion—Give It To Theater

A Clean Up Campaign suggestion is offered by Art Cole, Midland Community Theater director, to residents who wonder what they can do with all the junk which is crowding the attic, garage or storeroom—just give it to the theater's properties department.

In staging a season's plays, the Community Theater needs practically all types of furniture, household articles, sporting goods and clothing. The properties department is building up a collection of stage furnishings so that scenes can be set with less frequent borrowing, and almost anything can find a place in the collection for use as it is, or after remodeling. Anyone who wants to get rid of Grandma's enlarged photograph, Junior's old baseball mitt, that broken desk clock, the not-quite-antique chair with a crack in the frame or a slightly moth-eaten fur neckpiece, is invited to notify the Community Theater office, telephone number 3010, which will accept it with thank and perhaps star it in some future play.

★ WE, THE WOMEN ★

Women Face Problem When They Arrive At 'Awkward Age'

By MUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

"I guess I'm just at the awkward age" I recently heard a woman nearer 40 than 30 remark. "I'm too old to be a young woman and too young to want to give in to being middle-aged."

She's right. There is an "awkward age" for women. It is when they are beginning to realize that they are approaching middle-age. It's an awkward time for a number of reasons. They suddenly realize that one type of clothes and hair styles is too young for them and that what is offered the "mature woman" makes them feel too old.

So it's at this time that they say discontentedly, "If I could only figure out a new way to wear my hair," and drive saleswomen crazy by objecting to everything they try on: "It's too young," or "It looks so maternally."

Their social life may be just as unsatisfactory. They may try hard to be young and gay at parties, only to discover they don't carry it off too well. On the other hand, they're not yet ready to accept without a struggle the fact that they are settled, middle-aged women and might as well start acting like it. The age may be awkward as far as their pattern of living goes, too. They no longer belong to the young married crowd who can be gay about living on a shoestring and big plans for the future. They are at the age when they begin to "want things nice"—and yet they may not be able to live the way they feel they should.

It's at this time, too, that a woman faces the problem of finding some satisfying outside interests. Her children are probably all of school age and she knows she needs some outside activity. But just what shall it be?

So don't feel you are alone if you are facing these problems now. Just conclude that you are at the "awkward age" and realize that you'll new way your way out of it. After all, you came through adolescence to young womanhood. And you will come through the awkward age to a contented middle-age, too. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

TEXAS LADY LOSES 47 POUNDS

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcontrate DOES take off fat. It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger. Barcontrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is proof

Here is what Mrs. H. P. Bishop, Route 1, Stamford, Texas, wrote us: "I am very glad to endorse Barcontrate, so please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for the great benefit I derived from its use. I not only lost weight, but also looked and felt better in every way. "I had to have a very serious operation and was told that I must lose a lot of weight before the operation could be performed. I went on a diet and tried very hard to reduce, but wasn't losing much weight until I heard of Barcontrate. I began taking it and could soon tell the difference in the way I felt and the weight I was losing. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and I lost a total of 47 pounds and was able to undergo my operation. I can truthfully recommend it to others, since it did so much for me."

At all drug stores

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcontrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoons twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

High blood pressure, if not controlled can be a very serious condition. In the realm of Chiropractic, the cause of high blood pressure is the result of improper nerve supply to the blood vessels. Contraction of the blood vessels causes reduced space for the blood to occupy, and therefore, increased pressure.

Restoration of the normal nerve supply causes relaxation of the constricted vessels. Through Chiropractic, many people have obtained permanent relief from distressing symptoms of high blood pressure.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTHY SHELburne

We read in the report of a recent housing conference here that Midland has more than 100 vacant dwellings, according to a survey made by a citizen. Here's a chance for someone to put one of those dwellings to good use: Julian Pressley, hard-hitting outfielder of the Midland Indians needs an apartment or small house for his family. His wife and new daughter will be ready to move to Midland soon.

Anyone wishing to get an outstanding tenant may do so by contacting Sports Slants. We will relay the information to Pressley.

He's a veteran—
J. N. Woody, the former state and national pistol champion who is a barber in Stanton in his spare time, tied with Col. Charles Densford of Chicago in the Southwest Open Pistol Tournament in Dallas Sunday.

Densford declared the winner through a technical ruling. Just the same their total scores were the same.

Woody naturally would have liked being the champ but he's not the type fellow who will lose any sleep over the thing.

Chances are he's won more titles and now is in possession of more trophies than Densford. And Woody won the Southwest event last year.

If you don't think so just visit his barber shop in Stanton. It's jam-packed with things he has won with his trusty shootin' irons.

There's something going on in Big Spring which definitely should be stopped at once. Tommy Hart, the oracle of the Big Spring Herald, announces "Potato" Pascual is being backed for "Rookie Of The Year" honors.

Brother, that's the best one we've heard in a long time.

Kenny Jones, Midland Indian catcher, is 15 lengths ahead of any rookie in the Longhorn League. He's one of the top catchers in the circuit, he's hitting well over .300 and there just isn't enough hustle in all the other rookies on any club to compare with his. Besides all that, he's as clean as Spring showers on the field and off.

First thing we know, Blondy Cross will be nominating Sam Harshauer for rookie honors.

—SS—
Speedy Moffett, assistant coach at San Angelo since the war, has been given a three-year contract as head coach at Snyder High School. He'll take over there June 1.

Speedy is a better coach now than at any time in his career. We're glad to see him get the top job. He will produce a "wildcat" next Fall.

The Lamesa Tornados won another victory Saturday. Coach Bob Harrel won the toss which decided the site of the Bi-District baseball playoffs between Lamesa and Bowie High of El Paso.

It will be a two out of three series in Lamesa, running Thursday through Saturday if all games need to be played.

Lamesa has the pitching to win. Bowie has the hitting. It should be a real series.

It took Friday the 13th to change the lousy luck of the hapless Sweetwater Swatters. They whipped San Angelo on that night then repeated the treatment Sunday.

We don't know what they have over at Big Spring where Sweetwater played just before their change of luck, but all the Swatters returned home, according to Bud Worsham, saying, "It's a new ball club throughout." There wasn't any noticeable changes in personnel so it must have been something Pat Stacey's men did.

Whatever it was, Sweetwater's win-starved fans undoubtedly are thankful for it.

HALF SLANTS . . . The Lubbock Hubbers of the West Texas-New Mexico League are becoming known for their brawling ability more than they are for their baseball playing. It wasn't long ago Manager Jackie Sullivan and Hank Melillo were in a beef down in Lamesa. Then last week, a Lubbock hurler tangled with the manager of an opposing team after the game . . . Martin Diaz, the rookie Odessa Oiler hurler, rapped out a pinch hit homer in Roswell last week . . . Bert Baez, a Big Spring hurler for the last two seasons, is bowing out of professional baseball. No particular reason has been given, but the reports say he's dropping out . . . The Tri-County League, a semi-pro circuit in Howard, Mitchell and possibly some other counties, has produced no less than four no-hitters this season. Lefty Shelton of the Forsan Oilers has hurled two. He whiffed 21 men to set a new record not long ago . . . Stanton High School athletic officials have announced a long range improvement program for Buffalo Stadium. Steel bleachers are included in the plan.

Bill Voiselle of the Braves drew a $500 fine in 1945 as a Giant when he tossed a home run ball to Johnny Hopp, then with the Cardinals.

Big Top Has Blind Man Troubles, Too

The month-old baseball season has been packed with odd turns and unexpected happenings, but one piece of script remains unchanged from last year. The managers are having a trying time of it.

This season rapidly is becoming known as the "year of the blow-up" for the harried skipper, many of whom have been on the receiving end of criticism and abuse.

Others, free of such form of censure, have come to "blowing their top" because of fights with opposing players, lack of the same by their own, and disagreements with umpires.

Joe McCarthy of the Boston Red Sox, one of the milder masterminds, is the latest to blow off steam.

McCarthy's explosion Monday was directed at the umpires. It came about after the final out was made in the Washington-Boston game, won by the Senators 3-2.

Plate Umpire Joe Paparella had just ruled that the final out was made before the potential tying run had crossed the plate. This brought a rattle from the entire Boston team out on the diamond, protesting that Tom O'Brien had crossed the plate before Lou Stringer was tagged after rounding second on Pinch Hitter Sam Mele's single. Of course, the decision stood.

Every club with the exception of Western Plastic and Rotary Engineers notched wins Monday night as the second week of play got underway in the Midland Softball League.

Western Plastic used some heavy stick work and the one-hit pitching of Jack Dunlap to stop Shell 13 to 0. Dunlap was stingy with everything good all night. Home runs by Rolla Hargrave and Kenneth Baker derided in the Midland Softball for Shell.

Rotary Engineers went on a scoring spree behind the pitching of C. D. Oxford and W. C. Hammit to win a 12-6 decision from the Rensselaers. Oxford worked six innings, allowing four runs on five hits. Hammit finished, giving up two runs on two hits.

Wednesday night's card at Wadley Field schedules the Rebels against Shell in the first game and Standard against Rotary Engineers in the finale. First game starts at 7 p. m.

There are believed to be less than 35 whooping cranes left in the world.

Ernie Nelson Blanks Odessa Oilers 2-0 On Five Hits

McAllen Ball Club Has New Owner

McALLEN —(P)—The McAllen baseball club in the Rio Grande Valley League has a new owner. Earle Halstead, business manager of the club, purchased the franchise from Andrew J. Paris Monday.

Southpaw Lets Only One Man Reach Second Base

The Midland Indians, holding a one-game edge, continue the series in Oiler Park at Odessa Tuesday night. The series will last through Wednesday. The Indians return home for a two-game series here with San Angelo Thursday and Friday.

ODESSA—The Midland Indians got in the first shot as the feudin' started anew between Midland and Odessa in the Longhorn League this season. Lefty Ernie Nelson took careful aim and blasted the Oilers with a masterful five-hit, 2 to 0 shutout in Oiler Park Monday night in the first of a three-game series between the rival teams.

Nelson turned in by far the best pitching performance the Indians have seen this season. In going the distance for his second victory, he allowed only one man to get past first base. He struck out nine Oilers and chipped in with a base hit and three assists.

The only time Odessa threatened was when a former Midlander, Emil Ogden, tripled in the eighth with one out. Pinch-hitter Belsche grounded out to second base and Nelson whiffed the next man just to show A. D. Ensey's yanigans he wasn't kidding. Indians Score

The Indians bunched two singles, a base on balls and a wild pitch to give Nelson the slim two-run margin he needed for victory. Of course, one run would have been enough but the other was handed to the Indians on a platter. Who could refuse it?

With two away in the seventh inning, Gus Pena singled. Lowell Adams, the walkingest man on the roster—walked. Bob Rose slapped a single past first base to score Pena and Adams went to third. Rookie Hesse then uncorked a wild pitch and Adams scored.

That was the ball game. Nelson continued to matter the situation and protect his two runs. The Indians chipped in with a double play, Hughes to Sitter, as another means of showing the Oilers how.

Ernie Nelson showed them his pick-off movement, too. He nailed Bob Doe, Oiler didn't like 30 feet at first base. Another time he trapped Manager Al Monchak on the same movement but he got away in a rundown.

The contest was acclaimed the best of the season by all Midland fans. Odessa fans didn't like the outcome but they too approved the brand of baseball displayed. Midland played errorless ball affair.

Amarillo, Abilene, Lamesa, Lubbock Win Easy Victories

By The Associated Press The winning team in the West Texas-New Mexico League usually doesn't leave any doubt about the results. Take these Monday night: Amarillo 14, Pampa 7; Abilene 19, Clovis 3; Lamesa 8, Albuquerque 1; Lubbock 25, Borger 13.

The loss for Albuquerque was its first home defeat of the year. The Dukes got only four hits off Eulis Rosson.

Lubbock got four home runs and Borger three to show you just what kind of slugfest this was.

Amarillo's park had no right field fence, because of Sunday's tornado, but the Gold Sox found it was easy to aim at the other two.

Seven Clovis errors helped Abilene win.

The Tribe's short-stopping strategist broke into the International League with Buffalo under the veteran catcher and manager 10 years ago.

'Off The Record' Means Anything; Johnson Has Troubles With Press

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Pentagon reporters say they now have identified five kinds of "off the record" remarks by Defense Secretary Louis Johnson. (1) "Completely off the record. You can't use anything. Okay boys?" (2) "Off the record, but you can use it if you don't attribute to any official source." (3) "Off the record, but you can say you got it from a high authority." (4) "Off the record, but you can say you learned it from me." (5) "Off the record!"

Press Relations Strained
Johnson is having plenty of trouble with his press relations in spite of his efforts to get to know every reporter by name and a series of uncoincidental meetings with bureau chiefs. On the stopping of construction of Navy super-aircraft carrier, Johnson didn't say enough and could easily have made a statement. On appointment of Curtis Calder as secretary of the Army, Johnson said too much. Calder next day denied he had accepted the job. One cause of trouble is that before Johnson's appointment there was heavy press editorial criticism against too much service rivalry and not enough unification. Now that Johnson has moved to end this bickering, reporters don't like it because officers are afraid to talk.

Rank Injustice?
Washington hostesses are all confused for lack of a ruling on who ranks whom in the armed forces.

Before unification, an Army officer had precedence over a Naval officer of equal rank. After unification, it was assumed that Army, Navy and Air Force officers of same status, with the social honors going to the one who had seniority. But protocol experts have refused to decide the issue.

AMA Fires Both Barrels
American Medical Association apparently isn't doing as well as expected on getting $25 from every doctor to fight health insurance. It hoped to raise $4,000,000. First quarter collections were only a little more than a million. In Washington, collections rain into a snag when invitations were sent to negro doctors, who aren't admitted to District of Columbia Medical Society. One piece of AMA literature now being left in doctors' offices misses no bet. It claims health insurance was invented by Bismarck, who was a German, was introduced into America by Communists, will lead to Socialism.

Comes The Dawn
Public power development always has been something of a mystery, since the power generated at dams pays the major cost of irrigation projects. Partial explanation is given by published financial statement of Washington State Reclamation Association. It shows receipts of $3,000,000 from its own members and $5,250 received from three big private power companies.

Little Black Book
Labor union lobbyists in Washington have been checking up on the votes against rent control and the votes against sending the Wood labor bill back to committee for redrafting. They find much similarity between the two votes. Against rent control were 81 Republicans and 52 Democrats. Against recommitment of the Wood bill were 146 Republicans and 71 Democrats. Names on both lists are being checked and will be watched on future important votes for compiling.

a list of congressmen against whom the unions will campaign in 1952.

Legion Turns 'Angry'
American Legion and Hollywood dance director LeRoy Prinz are now partners in show business. Prinz sold Legion's National Executive Committee this bill of goods: Local Legion posts are to sponsor talent contests. Prinz will travel around and be judge. From top winners, Prinz will assemble a musical show which will tour the country under Legion sponsorship. Three hundred wealthy Legionnaires were nicked for $1,000 each to finance the production. Prinz says show should net the Legion $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. If it pays out, the 300 angels will get their money back with no profit. If it doesn't, well—that's the show business.

Vandenberg Introduces Himself
Shortly after Defense Secretary Louis Johnson stopped construction on the Navy's super-aircraft carrier, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan was invited out to dinner. He was seated at table next to a woman who immediately opened up on him with a broadside.

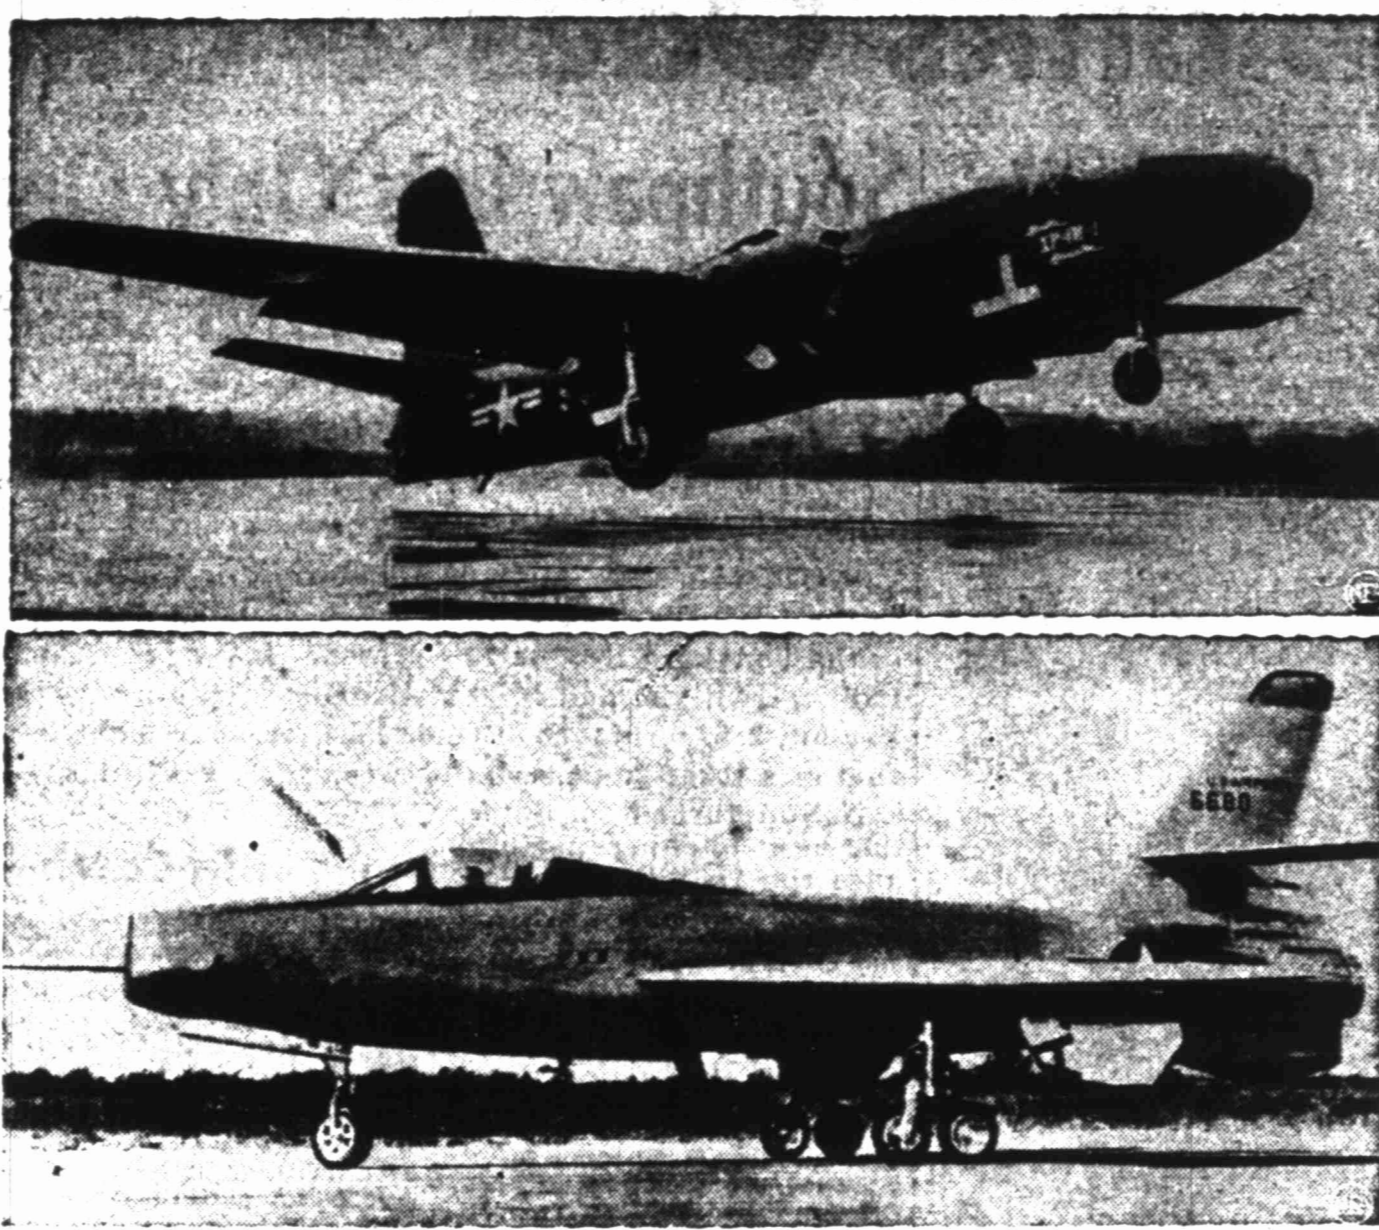

"I want you to know who I am," she began. The senator replied that he knew who she was, having seen her name on the place card. "But you don't know my background," the woman went on. "I am the wife of a vice admiral and the daughter of an admiral. And on this day of infamy for the Navy, I think you should do something to this man Johnson for what he has done in stopping work on the super-carrier."

Vandenberg broke in there with, "Wait a minute. I want you to know who I am." The woman said she knew perfectly well who he was. "But you don't know my background," said the senator. "I'm the uncle of the chief of staff of the United States Air Force."

Keep 'Em After School
As Speaker Sam Rayburn was leaving the House chamber after the bitter fight over labor legislation, he ran into Republican Congressman J. Harry McGregor of Ohio. McGregor was formerly speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives. Rayburn called him over. "Mac," he said, "what would you do with that bunch if you had 'em?" McGregor just laughed.

Couldn't Bear The Strain
Winthrop Brubaker of Chance Vought Aircraft Corporation tells the story of a "hump" pilot on the China-India run during the war. He had a pet Himalayan cub bear that he was hauling. When fighter craft came alongside to identify the plane, the transport flyer turned on the automatic pilot, strapped the bear in the pilot's seat and then ducked to a rear window to see what happened. The fighter pilot circled the transport several times to make sure he was seeing a bear flying a C-47. When he reported this back to his base, he was immediately shipped back home. Extreme case of combat fatigue.

Two New Jet Planes Take Bows

Lifting its nose from a wet runway in Baltimore, Md., after a remarkably short run take-off, the Navy's first jet-powered patrol plane, the Martin Mercator, top, gets airborne. Noted for its high rate of climb, the swift, hard-hitting plane can fight its way into and out of tight places. Below is the Air Force's newest jet fighter, the Republic XF-91, after completing tests at Muroc Dry Lake, Calif. The plane is powered by a turbojet and will also have rocket motors, for accelerated take-off and climb and for operation at high altitudes.

Supreme Court, Ruling Riot-Inciting Talk Free Speech, Creates City-Police Problem

By PAUL M. YOST
WASHINGTON—(AP)—How far may your city go in punishing a public speaker whose remarks tend to work up mob violence?

Five Supreme Court justices—such a conviction, the majority of the tribunal—say you can't convict him of disorderly conduct simply because his speech stirs people to anger, invites public dispute or brings about public unrest.

Such a conviction, the five said Monday in brief opinion written by Justice Douglas, violates the Constitution's free speech guarantee.

Justice Jackson took up the fight on behalf of the city with a 7,500-word dissenting opinion. It declared there is danger the court may convert the Constitution's Bill of Rights into a national "suicide pact."

Jackson said a "drive by totalitarian groups and the effectiveness of local Democratic governments is advanced whenever either of them can win from this court a ruling which paralyzes the power of the officials. This is such a case."

Justice Burton agreed with Jackson. The two also agreed with a separate dissent by Justice Frankfurter. Chief Justice Vinson also wrote a dissent which emphasized what he considered an error in the high court's procedure in the case.

Douglas Writes Opinion
Douglas, in speaking for himself and for Justices Reed, Black, Murphy and Rutledge said the function of free speech is to invite dispute. It may indeed best serve its high purpose," Douglas asserted, "when it induces a condition of unrest, creates dissatisfaction with conditions as they are, or even stirs people to anger.

"Freedom of speech, though not absolute, is nevertheless protected against censorship or punishment, unless shown likely to produce a clear and present danger of a serious substantive evil that rises far above public inconvenience, annoyance or unrest."

That, protested Jackson, was exactly the thing involved in Monday's case.

Arthur Terminiello, a Roman Catholic priest from Birmingham, Ala., was fined $100 for a speech he made in a Chicago auditorium Feb. 7, 1946. The charge was disorderly conduct. Terminiello appealed to the high tribunal after Illinois' court upheld the conviction.

Suspended Catholic Priest
At the time of the speech Terminiello was under suspension from his duties as a clergyman for political activity. His speech was under the auspices of the "Christian Veterans of America" and the meeting was called by Gerald L. K. Smith, who formerly teamed with the late Huey P. Long of Louisiana. Terminiello's speech blasted the New Deal and Jews, called Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt a Communist and applied terms as "slimy scum" and "bedbugs" to his hecklers.

Now, Terminiello is assistant pastor of a Catholic parish at Pensacola, Fla. He was reinstated by his bishop in 1947. He said the Supreme Court majority decision vindicated him and the right of free speech. He said Communists caused the disturbance that led to his arrest.

Stink Bombs, Ice Picks

"The local court that tried Terminiello was not indulging in theory. It was dealing with a riot and with a speech that provoked a hostile mob and incited a frenzied one, and threatened violence between the two."

Stink bombs, ice picks, rocks and bottles were thrown Auditorium windows were broken. Jackson said police were unable to control the mob.

In the face of such a situation, he added that the Supreme Court majority "fixes its eyes on a conception of freedom of speech so rigid as to tolerate no concession to society's need for public order."

Clean Up Parade Attracts Interest

A Clean Up Campaign parade through the streets of downtown Midland Monday afternoon attracted considerable interest while calling attention to the community-wide Clean Up-Paint-Up-Fix Up drive sponsored by the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce. The campaign will continue through May 31, with the support and cooperation of all citizens urged.

The Midland High School Band, under the direction of Jerry Hoffman, led Monday afternoon's parade. Members of the Health and Sanitation Committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce rode in an automobile.

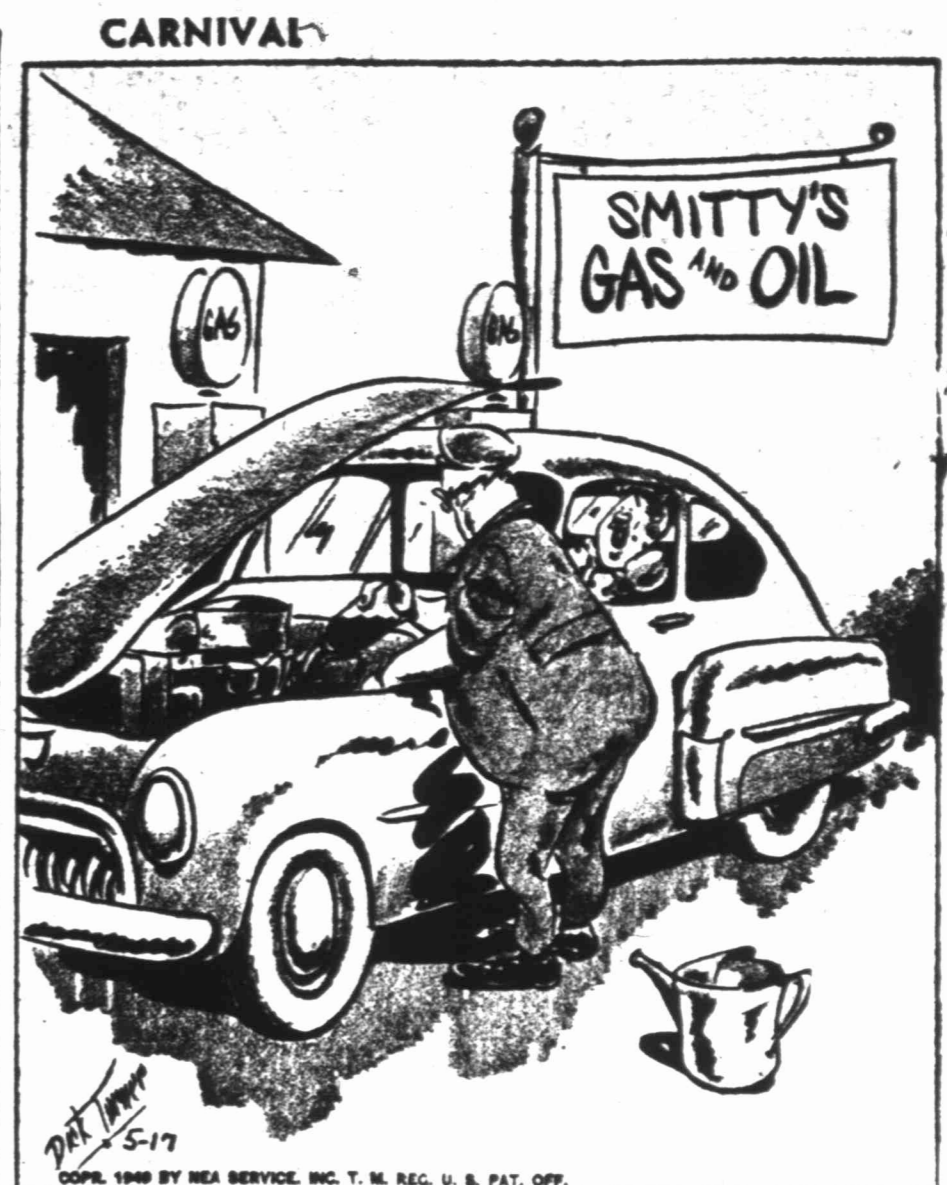

Fire trucks, followed by students of the Latin American school were next in the line of march.

City equipment, including a maintainer, DDT machine, street sweeper and garbage truck, formed the next section of the procession.

The Midland Hardware and Furniture Company and Basin Supply were among the business firms having parade entries.

SECRETARIES TO MEET

The National Secretaries Association, a newly-organized club in Midland, will have its first regular meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the large studio of KORS. A report will be given from an executive board meeting held last Thursday in the home of Mrs. Laura Self, president.

House Members Grumble As Senate Loafs; Lieutenant Governor Is Absent From State

AUSTIN—(AP)—House members were grumbling Tuesday because the Senate has not taken action on any of the major money bills.

Rep. Bill Fly set the pattern Monday when he wisecracked to Speaker Durwood Manford that the House should adjourn for two weeks because it seemed the Senate was not doing anything.

"I move the House stand adjourned until 10:30 a.m. Tuesday," he said later. "There's no sense in our sitting here working when the lieutenant governor isn't going to let the Senate take up the appropriations bills for a week."

The speaker turned down the motion, but other representatives said Fly had the right idea.

Gov. Allan Shivers was out of town, and several legislators said his absence was the reason for delay in taking up the bills providing funds for the state departments, colleges, hospitals and courts for the next two years.

House Anxious To Go
The House has passed all these bills, and most members are growing anxious to bring the session to an end.

Shivers' office reported he was in Michigan and would go from there to Washington, D. C., before returning to Austin. He is expected to be gone about a week.

The Senate didn't have enough members on hand to do business Monday afternoon so it adjourned until Tuesday morning.

The House worked until 8 p.m., passing six bills during the afternoon.

Finally passed and returned to the Senate for action on House amendments was a bill giving county commissioners power to increase county officers' ad valorem tax which the state will cease levying after Dec. 31, 1949.

Funds could be used for soil and water conservation, flood control, or county road building.

The House tabled Rep. Deno Tufares' bill to expand the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission from a six to a nine-man board. The measure is subject to call, but Monday action indicated slim hope for its final passage.

Debate of a liquor control bill by Rep. Sam Hanna of Dallas was cut off by adjournment of the House. Hanna said his bill would plug loopholes in the present act. Several members said some of the provisions would weaken the Liquor Control Act.

East, West Get Set For Biggest Battle Of Current Cold War

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Under cover of the "peace" brought about by the lifting of the Berlin blockades, the Western Allies and Russia are preparing intensively for resumption of the biggest battle of the cold war—the struggle for control of Germany.

The conflict will be joined again Monday in Paris with resumption of the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Council.

The Western Democracies are standing pat on carrying out their program for creating a federal republic comprising their three zones of occupation. It is their hope that Eastern Germany, now under Soviet control, will join this federal government.

Russia, on the other hand, is against a federal government. She wants a unified country under a centralized government. She also calls for the withdrawal of Allied troops of occupation.

Germany Recognize Threat
Such a setup would be ideal for Russian purposes. She already has sovietized Eastern Germany and, with a centralized German government, she would be in excellent position to extend Communism throughout the Reich by fifth column tactics.

That would to all intents put the Soviet right up against Germany's eastern border.
However, the German leaders as a whole are said to recognize fully the threat of communism—which they definitely don't want.

The indications in Washington are that U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and his assistants will want actions rather than words as proof Russia has undergone any change of heart along with the lifting of the blockade.

The cornea of the human eye consists of five layers.

Zach Miller Cools Heels In Georgia Jail

DANIELSVILLE, GA. —(AP)— A Wild West buddy of Will Rogers, Buffalo Bill Cody and Tom Mix is cooling his Texas heels in a Georgia jail.

And by a Longhorn steer, says Col. Zach Miller, in the police he'll stay. Stay, that is, before he'll dig down in his jeans for $250 bond.

The colorful old boss of the 101 Ranch Wild West Show ran afoul of a couple of hard-riding state troopers Fridays night.

Troopers H. B. Magnus and D. S. Harris, Jr., rounded up the round, 71-year-old colonel and another man and led them off to jail.

They said Miller and his driver, James Colbert, were pounding leather at 75 miles an hour. The limit is 55.

Colbert was charged with speeding and driving without a license. The colonel got a ticket for allowing an unlicensed operator to drive his panel truck. Bond was set at $250 each.

"This fella," said Sheriff Pat Colie, "swore he'd rot in jail before he paid a dime."

Miller refused to stand trial. He refused to plead guilty. He refused to give bond. He said he would spend $3,000 to beat the charge.

The sheriff said the old gentleman from Valley Mills, Texas, is welcome to his barred room as long as he likes.

Sally Annes Get New Look

Women of the Salvation Army won't be wearing those quaint, blue bonnets, right, much longer. The Army recently adopted a trim, navy blue felt hat, left. The stiff old-fashioned chapeau was made with a high arch in back to fit the "bun" of hair women wore at the nape of the neck. Up-to-date-looking Sally Annes agree it's definitely passe now.

A Rhapsody In Brown

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK —(AP)— My mother-in-law had a wise old saying:

"A woman convinced against her will is of the same opinion still."

In my twelfth year of marriage to this dear lady's daughter, Frances, I am beginning to understand the truth of this saying.

For the more you try to change a lady's mind the more you change your own.

I discovered this rather late in life. I must admit, after my wife started having an affair with Brown. I am referring to brown, the color.

One morning Frances announced to me suddenly at breakfast:

"Black has gone out of my life."

"Whom?" I asked, I always say "Whom" to my wife now, because every time I say "Who" she accuses me of being ungrammatical.

"Anything black," she said, "I'm not going to wear anything black any more. It has gone out of my life forever."

Frances blossomed out at first in dark blue. I liked that. Then one day I came home and found her dressed in a flappy new look suit. And under the blue jacket was a brown blouse—a very brown brown.

"Donate it to a rummage sale," I suggested. "Brown is for woodchucks. It's duller than a kitchen knife."

"Is that so?" queried my hausfrau. "Well, brown has come into my life to stay. I like brown."

Brown, Brown, Brown
Then began the busy business of making me like brown, too.

First, my clothes. . . brown as the feeling you have when you ask the boss for a $5 raise and all you get back is a $10 explanation.

Next came the problem of furnishing the second bedroom in our apartment. The original idea was it was to be a kind of bargain basement library and workroom for me, a refuge all my own.

The other day Frances came home and showed me the fabric samples. The draperies were to be a deep sea green, drowned in a heavy rust brown. The easy chair—a cerise brighter than a baby left too long in a July sun. The couch—brown, brown, brown, brown all over.

"You'll love it, rover boy," said Frances. "I even have a name for the room now. You call it your brown study."

Hammtown Takes Off For Texas Harvests

PERRY, KAN. —(AP)— Hammtown took off for Texas Tuesday.

Its first stop will be a 10,000-acre wheat harvesting tract on the Wagner Ranch, near Vernon.

Hammtown is a specially-built 10-combine harvesting unit dreamed up by Norman R. Hamm of Perry. It carries 26 men and one woman in its mobile sleeping quarters, dining room and machine shop, complete with electricity.

It is scheduled to reach Vernon May 20 and will follow the wheat harvest in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and on to the Canadian border.

Death May Cheat Gainesville Man Of Vacation At Texoma

DENISON, TEXAS —(AP)— Death may cheat Gainesville's W. W. Brown out of his vacation at Lake Texoma. The 51-year-old Gainesville man, seriously ill with cancer, was sent to a hospital last Thursday.

Earlier, doctors had given him but six months to live.

Brown's Texoma vacation came as a result of his writing a letter in a recent contest sponsored by the Lake Texoma Sportsman's Club.

"I'd like to spend the rest of my life on Texoma," wrote Brown, "and I only have six months to live."

Brown was given a special award of a week's paid vacation on the lake at Ernie Zink's Island View Camp. Brown wrote he would like to take it in June "so my family could be with me."

No $10,000 To Spend
Unlike Oklahoma City's Mrs. Heart, Brown has no $10,000 to spend during his remaining days.

First a motorcycle cop, then a creamery employe, and for the last 11 years custodian of the Gainesville Public Schools, Brown is unable to leave his family much.

"Worried about myself?" Brown was asked early last week before he entered the hospital. "No I'm not. But I am worried about my family. I don't know what they'll do."

Brown's family consists of his wife, a semi-invalid since an auto accident several years ago; a 14-year-old daughter, Leta Ruth, a freshman at Gainesville High, and a married daughter, whose husband, Charles Nelson of Denton, is recovering from an attack of polio.

Brown has one last hope. That his case will be given widespread publicity as a warning to the public to be ever mindful of the danger signals of cancer.

Four years ago, Brown had a mole removed from his right leg. It broke out a year later higher on his leg and has since spread to his pelvis area and liver.

His wife has known of his condition for a year, but Brown didn't learn until a few months ago.

Talented Wood Carver
When he purchased a home on Red River four miles from Gainesville less than a year ago, his wife didn't try to stop him.

"He'd dreamed of it too long," she reported.

Brown, a talented wood carver who has sold his products all over the world, had hoped to retire and set up a small stand on the highway and sell his curios to visitors to Texoma-Land. Now, however, he's selling his home and all of his tools. The proceeds will be his total to his family.

And as for Brown's Texoma vacation, the answer will be up to his doctors. His family may have to take it later—without him.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And The Boy Baboon

It happened far away in the Great Forest, where the trees are tall and the grass is green, and beautiful flowers grow everywhere.

It happened close by the Elephant Path where Daddy Ringtail's monkey house sits in the top of the very tall tree.

Sammy Ringtail, the monkey oop, played and played with a boy baboon all afternoon. He played with the boy baboon until the sun began to go down behind the trees.

"Boy baboon," Mother Ringtail said, "it's time for you to go home now. Your mother will have your supper ready."

But Boy Baboon was very stubborn. He had never been taught to mind, or to do anything that he was told. He sat down on the ground, right underneath the very tall tree where the monkey house was. He wouldn't get up and he wouldn't go home.

Mother Ringtail asked him please, please to go home, and to come back tomorrow when there would be light to play. But he wouldn't do it. Sammy asked him, and still he wouldn't do it. Mother Ringtail didn't know, and Sammy didn't know, what they were going to do.

While they were thinking about it, here came the baboon mother. "Maybe he would go home," she said, "if you gave him some scrambled coconut to eat."

That's what Mother Ringtail did, but Boy Baboon only ate the scrambled coconut, and still he wouldn't go home.

"There's only one thing left to do," Mother Ringtail said. "We'll have to wake Daddy Ringtail up from his nap, and ask him to talk to Boy Baboon."

Daddy Ringtail yawned, but he listened carefully while everyone told him what had happened. They said that Boy Baboon just wouldn't go home.

"Oh, yes he will," Daddy Ring-tail said. "He just needs for me to talk to him." And Daddy Ringtail leaned over and whispered something to the little fellow. He whispered: "Boy Baboon! You'd better get up, or I'll have to get a switch from the switch tree!" And up jumped Boy Baboon, ready to go.

And I guess that some little fellows will never do what they are told until you scare them with a switch. You'll know what I mean, if you ever have a boy baboon of your own. Happy day!

Everybody Works In Hospital Emergency

Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo works on an all-night alert as victims of the tornado are brought in for emergency treatment. Civilians girls are working side by side with the hospital nurses to administer to the injured.

General Clay Given Decoration On Return Home From Germany

WASHINGTON—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, retiring American military commander in Germany, returned home Tuesday and received from President Truman a decoration for services "of supreme value to his country and to humanity."

The citation read by the President said the retiring military governor in Germany "added new and unperishable lustre to his record."

Clay, the citation went on, "proved himself not only a soldier in the finest tradition of our American arms, but also a statesman of the highest order—firm, courageous, dedicated to the cause of peace."

The President spoke from the Rose Garden of the White House, where upward of 150 notables and virtually the entire White House clerical staff were gathered to honor the general.

The plane bringing him and Mrs. Clay from Berlin landed at the National Airport at 8:13 a. m. Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson and top-ranking Army, Navy and Air force officers greeted Clay at the airport.

A 17-gun salute awaited him, as did a rousing welcome in the House of Representatives, where he was scheduled to speak Tuesday afternoon.

On the other side of the capitol, the Senate had before it President Truman's recommendation that Clay wind up his 31-year Army career with his temporary rank of full general made permanent.

The 52-year-old officer climaxed his long service with the successful Berlin airlift. He stepped down from his post with the expressed wish to "go back to Marietta, Ga., and go catfishing."

Leaders To Hold Up Arms Program Until After Big Four Meet

WASHINGTON—Administration leaders Tuesday decided to move slowly on the $1,130,000,000 program for re-arming North Atlantic Pact nations while working closely the Big Four foreign ministers meeting in Paris.

Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Democratic Leader Luce (Ill) agreed there is no pressing need at this time for quick action.

They gave a reporter their views on the treaty and arms program. Connally disclosed a group of Republicans will try to get $200,000,000 in military aid for China's battered Nationalist forces.

Knowland said the China aid will be latched on to the $1,450,000,000 total which the Administration proposes for the pact nations plus Greece and Turkey.

Fact Hearings Near End "I think we'll get enough votes on the Senate floor to put the China aid in the foreign military program," Knowland said.

The Foreign Relations Committee is near the end of hearings on ratification of the Atlantic treaty. A total of 13 witnesses were scheduled Tuesday—all of them opposed to the treaty and arms program.

The committee hopes to wind up the hearings Wednesday. Connally said it might be well to "let the arms program simmer for a while" before bringing it before the Senate for debate.

"I think it would be a good thing to see how the foreign ministers get along in Paris on their negotiations on the German question," he added.

Dr. F. E. Sadler, director of the Midland County Health Unit, Tuesday offered some timely suggestions in line with the clean up campaign being sponsored by the Jaycees.

Urging the thorough cleaning of all back alleys, Dr. Sadler said the breeding places for flies, mosquitoes and rats should be found and destroyed. He suggested the purchase of garbage cans recommended by the city.

He also urged the general clean-up of yards, homes and vacant lots. Painting and beautification of homes and surroundings will help combat diseases such as typhoid, scarlet fever, typhus fever, tuberculosis and many others, he said.

Lewis Offers To Talk New Contracts

PITTSBURGH—U. S. Steel Corporation Tuesday announced receipt of a letter from John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers in which he "offered to meet" on a new coal contract.

A spokesman for "Big Steel" said the letter was received by Harry Moses, president of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, a subsidiary. In the past Moses has been a principal figure in negotiations between the UMW and the steel companies which own coal mines.

Moses declined to comment on the letter other than to say one had received the text of the letter or say when he would answer it. The current contract, now identical for all three groups, expires June 30.

Chairman Reports On Optimist Project

Pete Van Horn, chairman of the Optimist Club committee in charge of the house numbering project, reported at the noon luncheon Tuesday that the program was going successfully. The meeting was held in Hotel Scharbauer.

He said that he is getting many calls from residents, who have not yet been contacted, on how to get the number plates. Mrs. James Hewley, Jr. reported on the Midland clean up campaign now in progress and told club members how they could assist.

The club expressed itself in favor of sponsoring an Optimist Club in Odessa, which is to be organized soon. Fred Wasglen, representative of Optimist International, was a special guest.

Two representatives of the French Heels Club solicited Optimist members to purchase tickets for the barbecue and square dance to be held May 25. Proceeds are to go into the Youth Center fund.

Two Killed, Another Hurt In Auto Mishap

SWEETWATER—A young Sweetwater couple was killed Monday night and a third person injured when their car overturned on Highway 70 eight miles south of Bronco.

Killed were Marjorie Anderson, 24, and Travis Dickens, also 24. Robert Rice of Sweetwater was taken to a Bronco hospital in critical condition. Rice's injuries included a broken neck and severe internal injuries.

Child's Shooting Is Ruled Accident LAS VEGAS, NEV.—A 10-month-old baby girl by her soldier father was termed accidental by a coroner's jury.

Flood—

(Continued from page 1) ation some time Tuesday. He added that the old pump can handle only a fraction of the city's needs.

Families Flee In Dark The Lone Star Gas Company said some of its mains were washed out. Hundreds of families fled their homes before dawn Tuesday after the first of four major levee breaks sent loudspeaker-equipped police cars through Crestwood and Linwood Additions. Evacuations had begun before midnight in White Settlement, Liberator Village and several other tributary bottoms sections. Rescues were made by boat, rope, a fire department hook-and-ladder truck and swimmers.

Homes, ranging from shanties to a six-room house, swept down the river Tuesday morning to smash into Van Zandt Viaduct on West 7th Street, swirl under the partially flooded structure and emerge on the north side bridge to kindling. The concrete bridge shook with the impacts. The flood raged 10 feet deep at the west end. The Montgomery Ward Building was reported flooded past the first floor.

Storm Front Moves East Severe lightning accompanied the storm, but there were no reports of damaging wind. The storm which hit Fort Worth and Dallas Tuesday night, which sent a skipping, lashing tornado through Amarillo in the Panhandle Sunday night, killing four persons and injuring 83.

The storm front was moving slowly eastward. Although there were reports of high ground winds at Dallas and Fort Worth, airline pilots said there was unusually strong "turbulence" aloft. Fort Worth's city water was cut off after the principal pumping station was inundated. The Arlington Heights area and Northern Fort Worth were cut off from the rest of the city at intervals by the overflowing Trinity and its tributaries.

Three levees were washed out at Fort Worth, flooding four major residential areas. Fort Worth's city schools were closed until further notice because of the shutdown of city water.

At Dallas, flood waters made several underpasses impassable. The Trinity River, normally low, was swollen to its levees where it threads through the town. Emergency Aid Stations At Fort Worth, the Red Cross established two emergency first aid stations, one at North Side High School and another at a store near which police rescued some people marooned in trees.

A major flood also threatened at Elasmville in Young County, where a fork of the Brazos River was rising after heavy rain Monday. At Breckenridge the Brazos River also was rising steadily. Elasmville, built near the river around the site of an old grist mill, is not protected by any levees, though a railroad embankment does provide some protection. It has a population of about 1,200.

At Cleburne, the flood situation eased after Monday night's high creek. Creeks which burst their banks were subsiding. But the Nolan River, which runs four miles west of Cleburne, was two miles wide and carried in its flood waters hundreds of cattle and poultry.

Rains Hit Wide Area Heavy rains fell over a wide area in Texas. The 24-hour totals at 6:30 a. m.: Bonham 2.02 inches, Ranger 2.79, Denton 3.97, Decatur 2.14, Valley View 3.50, Boyd 3.82, Muenster 1.53, Trenton 1.85, Sherman 2.02, Salina 4.50, Cresson (west of Fort Worth) 5.30, Roanoke 3.70, McKinney 3.99, Gunter 3.99, and Farmersville 1.75.

Denton's 3.97 inches of rain was accompanied by a lightning storm which narrowly missed killing James B. Anthony, 18, North Texas State College student. A lightning bolt struck Anthony while he was in the bathroom and he suffered severe shock. The rain-weighted roof of a Denton food store caved in during the night—but no one was in the store at the time.

At Ranger, where 2.79 inches fell, water was running two feet over the spillway of Lake Hagaman, which was at its highest level in more than a year. Trailer Cook Flooded Fort Worth's flood struck first at a Liberator trailer cooking alongside Farmer's Branch, tributary of the Trinity's West Fork. Farmer's Branch broke out of its banks after 5.04 inches of rain fell on Fort Worth and surrounding communities.

Three persons from the trailer cook were brought to St. Joseph's Hospital shortly after midnight. They were G. J. Flatter, 45; his wife, 44, and their son, Gerald Edward Flatter, 3. Another son of the family was missing.

Flatter was swept 50 yards to safety and did not remember what happened before he found himself in the water. Mrs. Flatter was found in shoulder deep water, holding her son above her head on a bridge at Grant's Lane. Rubber collapsible boats manned by airmen from Carswell Air Force Base cruised the area of the trailer cook. They reported taking persons from trees and the tops of trailers.

Cleburne Suffers Deluge The waters of Buffalo Creek boiled out of their banks at Cleburne as a windstorm and torrents of rain lashed the Central Texas town of 10,588 persons. Sandbag dykes were thrown about the threatened Western residential section, but the flood waters crested near midnight and the threat appeared over.

Two of the five bridges over Buffalo Creek were washed away and all but one of the other were under water. Dead hog and cattle from small stock farms above the city and inside the city limits, tumbled down the stream which runs through part of Cleburne. McAnear Creek, just outside Cleburne, spread over pasture lands in the dairy farming section toward Glen Rose. And several houses between Cleburne, 30 miles southwest of Fort Worth, and Godley, 12 miles to the Northwest, were flooded.

Oil & Gas Log-

(Continued from page 1) from east, 7,430 feet from south lines of league 282, Lynn CSL survey. It was under 13,275 feet, penetrating a lime formation thought by observers to be Devonian.

Fusselman Prospects Fade Near Dollarhide Prospects of an extension to Fusselman-Silurian production from the Dollarhide field of Southwest Andrews County appear to have faded for Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-E Cowden, 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 14, block A-82, psi survey.

After testing through perforations at 8,784-89 feet and making water, operator squeezed off that section and perforated casing at 8,645-99 feet with 216 shots. That zone was swabbed dry and acidized with 1,000 gallons. Oil and drilling mud then were swabbed, and the formation was re-acidized with 3,000 gallons.

Swabbing recovered 286 barrels of fluid in 29 hours. Shakeout was 10 per cent acid water at the start of the period and 50 per cent sulphur water at the end. The venture was swabbing ahead and waiting on orders. In all probability, it will plug back and attempt completion from the Devonian, which showed good prospects when penetrated. Total depth is 8,792 feet.

Stray Sand Makes Water At Coke Test Southern Minerals Corporation and Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware recovered water on a drillstem test in a stray sand formation below the Palo Pinto-Pennsylvania at their No. 1 Rawlins, wildcat in Southeast Coke County, seven miles southwest of Bronco and 3,300 feet from south, 660 feet from west lines of section 23, C. Rubio survey.

The examination was for three hours at 5,034-49 feet, showing a strong air blow throughout and recovering 1,050 feet of salt water. The venture was drilling ahead.

Dalport Abandons Wildcat In Pecos Dalport Oil Corporation has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Cordz & Juul, wildcat in North-Central Pecos County. The failure was left on 2,015 feet. No prospect of oil or gas production developed.

The dry hole is 990 feet from south and east lines of section 101, block 8, H&GN survey, about four miles south of Grandfalls.

Murray Discusses Tank Corrosion At Meeting Of AIME

Approximately 100 persons heard H. D. Murray, of Midland, district petroleum engineer with The Texas Company, speak on "Selection and Maintenance of Lease Production Tanks in Sulphide Areas" at a meeting of the Permian Basin Section of The American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers held at the Hotel Scharbauer Monday night.

Murray's paper enumerated and discussed the principal factors that should be considered in selection of lease production tanks in sulphide areas and told of the various developed methods of obtaining improved results. It stressed also the importance of a properly designed maintenance program, and compared the advantages and disadvantages of the types of tankage available to the user.

Prepared discussions on the same topic were voiced by Jack Hamilton, of Crane, with Gulf Oil Company; Ken Williams of Odessa, with Shell Oil Company; Ike Lovelady, of Odessa, with Sivalts Tank, Inc.; and Bill More, of Midland, with Humble Oil & Refining Company.

At a short business meeting preceding the program, the membership voted to amend the by-laws so that officers of the section might be elected in December rather than January. Section Chairman Tom C. Frick, of Midland, with the Atlantic Oil Company, presided.

Five Brazos River Dam Projects Mapped

MINERAL WELLS—Plans for the construction of five dams in the Brazos River watershed on its tributaries have been sent to Gov. Beauford Jester.

The Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District Monday approved the Army Board of Engineers plan.

The dams would include a new one for Lake Waco; Proctor Dam on the Upper Leon; one on the Navasota River, just east of Bryan; Lampassas Dam on the Lampassas River in Bell County, and the Laneport Dam on the San Gabriel River below Taylor.

Looking for a Home?

The world's largest private housing development—5000 homes—is rapidly nearing completion at Puerto Nuevo, on the outskirts of San Juan, Puerto Rico. Started little more than a year ago, 3500 dwellings have already been completed by L. D. Long, Charleston, S. C., builder. Each concrete house has five rooms and bath and sells, on the average, at $4000. This is the first of several low-cost projects designed to relieve the housing shortage in overcrowded Puerto Rico.

Chiropractor Eases Sneezes, But London Youth Still Achoo's

LONDON—(AP)—The London schoolboy who can't stop sneezing still can't stop. But an Indianapolis-educated chiropractor has him in his hands and says he can cure the achoo's for good.

Michael Hippisley, 14, has sneezed about every three seconds for 10 days, except when he's asleep from drugs or exhaustion.

Leslie W. D. Jelfs, the chiropractor, entered the case Monday night. He said Tuesday he has already eased the sneezes.

Michael wandered around Jelfs' big apartment and office, sneezing quietly and regularly into a series of white handkerchiefs.

His own verdict, expressed to a reporter while Jelfs was out of the room: "I think I'm a little better."

Mike's parents called in Jelfs when doctors, a hypnotist, a faith healer and sundry telephoned suggestions from well-wishers had left Mike still sneezing.

Jelfs said Mike has had sneezes and hay fever since he was three. "Probably had a fall or a severe bump when he was small," he said.

Neck Joints Out Of Line

That, said Jelfs, knocked six neck joints of his spine too far to the right, pinching some nerves and causing irritation in the nose. He says X-ray pictures prove the point.

To cure the sneezes, he will have to get the neck bones lined up straight again. He won't say how long that may take, because, he says, the muscles have shrunk on one side and stretched on the other. To cure the sneezes, they'll have to be trained properly again to hold the bones straight.

"Probably take several months?" a reporter suggested.

"Can't say—might not take that long," Jelfs answered.

Jelfs gave him a treatment for the benefit of the press. He laid Mike on a long table, pressed down and sideways on his head. Mike sneezed. Jelfs twisted his head a little farther, pressed a little harder. For about a minute and a half, there wasn't a single achoo.

The Jelfs let him up. Mike sneezed, a little less frequently.

Chinese Reds Seize Hankow, Push Within 225 Miles Of Canton

CANTON—(AP)—The Communists were reported Tuesday walking one army into the evacuated Central China industrial center of Hankow and plunging another within 225 miles of Canton, Nationalist refugee capital.

The Reds were building up a new threat to embattled Shanghai, striking into Pootung, dock and warehouse area facing the famed bund across the Whangpoo River.

Reports from Hankow said Red Gen. Lin Piao's Fourth Field Army of Manchurian veterans was taking over China's greatest inland port on the Yangtze River 600 miles west of Shanghai and about the same distance north of Canton.

Other reports said the Communist Second Field Army's southeast drive through Kiangsi Province had carried to Luichin, 225 miles northeast of Canton. The main body of Gen. Liu Po-Cheng's 70,000-man army was reported at Ningtu, 275 miles from Canton.

Neutral military men here say there is little between the Reds and Canton except "mountains and space." They have arrived time estimates for the Reds' revival in Canton downward from six months to "two months at the outside."

Fire Hazards Found In State Hospitals

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Legislature was told Monday of numerous violations of fire prevention statutes found in inspecting the state's 27 hospitals and institutions.

The inspecting report was submitted by Paul H. Brown, state fire insurance commissioner. It was ordered last month by the Legislature shortly after the disastrous midnight fire in St. Anthony's Hospital, Effingham, Ill.

The report recommended that state institutions provide separate fire escapes for bed-ridden and mental patients, hold monthly fire drills and inspections, and set up auxiliary fire fighting units.

Eugene Sanders, state fire prevention chief, who directed the inspections made by local city fire inspectors, said many of the reported violations were corrected immediately.

"We got excellent cooperation from everyone," he said.

Frequent violations included: insufficient or no fire escapes, bad electrical wiring, no known inspections of gas pipes for leaks, accumulated trash and rubbish in buildings, overcrowding, inadequately protected paint rooms and X-ray rooms, locked doors with the keys in the possession of only one person, and improperly adjusted or leaking gas stoves.

Other violations included: Abilene State Hospital—Chemical extinguishers need recharging, exits to fire escapes in two buildings locked.

Gainesville School for Girls—No fire escapes for three-story building, linseed oil stored in basement, fire extinguishers in locked closet.

Gatesville School for Boys—Not enough fire escapes.

Waco State Home—Doors to fire escape locked at night.

French Reds Reported Planning New Strikes

PARIS—(AP)—Some government circles said Tuesday they believe French Communists are quietly planning a strike offensive to coincide with the start of four-power talks on Germany here May 23.

The strikes, they said, probably will be aimed at public utilities and transport, including the railways and the Paris subways.

A 24-hour strike hit gas plants in the Paris region Monday, and the tieup may spread through France, crippling industrial plants as Parliament returns to session.

No Shipping Instructions

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Coast Guard Headquarters received a letter from Cambridge, Neb., Tuesday which left it completely baffled.

"Dear sirs," the letter read, "Will you please send me some of your free airplanes and ships. I would appreciate it very much."

The signature on the hand-penned letter was not made public.

The Coast Guard promised to reply as soon as it can think up a good answer.
