Jester Signs Rent Decontrol Bill

New Law Is Not Effective Immediately

AUSTIN—(P)—A bill abolishing rent controls in Texas was signed into law Thursday by Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

It will become effective 90 days after adjournment of the 51st Legislature plus 15 days for federal processing. Date of adjournment still was uncertain.

The measure that stirred up one of the session's hottest controversies went back to Jester's desk Wednesday with an opinion from Attorney General Price Daniel that it would stand up legally.

"The Legislature, in passing House Bill 808 (the decontrol measure) has declared federal rent controls are no longer needed in Texas and, in the same act, has provided that the governing body of any city or town may establish rent control for the duration of a housing emergency in Texas," Jester said.

"I am signing House Bill 808 xxx because it is according to a clear and well-reasoned opinion of the attorney general and the answers thereto to the questions in my request for an opinion, is a valid and constitutional law," Jester's statement said.

Home-Rule Right
The statement continued: "It is properly pointed out that the existing emergency must be one of such grave proportions as to affect the health, welfare, safety or morality of the city as a whole. Only under such conditions, indeed, could rent control by any authority be justified."

"Upholding of this home-rule right eliminates or modifies the objection to House Bill 808 that, while the need for rent control has passed in most places, some Texas cities still gravely need it. The opportunity exists for these cities to evaluate the emergency and prepare proper local regulations if they so desire. House Bill 808 will not become effective until 90 days after the 51st Legislature adjourns, and the federal law gives the federal housing (Continued on Page 5)

30 Or More Die In Crash Of Airliner

BARI, ITALY—(P)—A four-engined KLM (Royal Dutch Airlines) plane crashed in the sea off this Southeastern Italian port Thursday killing between 30 and 40 persons.

A Bari port official said 24 bodies had been recovered, many badly burned. These included 16 men, five women and three children, he said.

Recovery of other bodies believed trapped in the wreckage was hindered by choppy seas.

The plane crashed in bright, clear weather. Some accounts said the transport went down in flames from a height of about 15,000 feet.

KLM officials in Rome indicated the plane may have been off its course and possibly was trying for an emergency landing at an airport near Bari. The plane was enroute from Batavia, Java, to Amsterdam. Baggage and other effects recovered indicated at least some of the passengers boarded the aircraft in Batavia.

Spence Nominated To Interstate Post
AUSTIN—(P)—Gov. Beauford Jester Thursday asked the Senate to allow him to withdraw his appointment of E. V. Spence of Big Spring as chairman of the State Board of Water Engineers.

The Senate granted the permission.

At the same time, the governor submitted Spence's name for confirmation as interstate compact commissioner to represent Texas in negotiating compacts with New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana for the division of waters of the Canadian, Red and Sabine Rivers.

Councilman Quits As Odessa Hires New Police Chief

ODESSA—(P)—City Councilman Bill Hale quit Wednesday after J. J. Heaton was hired as chief of police.

Heaton was named to the post at a simultaneous meeting of the City Council.

Before the group took action Hale said "if this thing is passed I will resign immediately."

After Heaton was voted chief, Hale said, "Yes, I've resigned."

Heaton was acting as chief of police last year when his predecessor, S. O. Hamm, was hired. Hamm was dismissed by the council May 31.

When it fired Hamm the council said it wasn't satisfied with the way he was managing the department.

Plans For Electric Show Are Revealed At TESCO Banquet

Plans for the Texas Electric Show of '49 in Midland Tuesday through Thursday of next week were revealed Wednesday night at a dinner given by the Texas Electric Service Company in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

More than 150 electric appliance dealers and special guests from Midland and Stanton attended.

R. L. Miller, district manager of the utilities company, presided at the meeting, welcoming the guests and outlining plans for the annual electric show. He termed the 49 attraction the best ever presented in this area, and said more space is being provided for dealer exhibits than ever before.

In commenting upon the growth and development of West Texas, Miller said Texas Electric Service Company is furnishing service in character with the area.

Special features and added attractions of the Texas Electric Show of '49 were outlined by Bill Dunagan of the firm's commercial department in Fort Worth. He termed this year's show "completely new and different" and said more color has been added to provide a real county fair spirit.

He explained the show is free to all and no charge is made for dealer participation.

Tex Thornton Found Slain In Tourist Court

AMARILLO—(P)—W. A. (Tex) Thornton, renowned, death defying oil field trouble shooter, was found slain in a tourist court here Thursday.

Police said a shirt and towel were wound tightly about his throat.

The famed explosives expert, 57, was president of the U. S. Nitroglycerin Company of Amarillo. Justice of the Peace C. W. Carter said he had been killed about midnight.

Jessie May Walker, a negro maid at the Park Plaza Motel, found the body about 8:30 a.m.

Police said Thornton came to the tourist court late Wednesday night with a young man and a young woman. Fred Fairleigh, manager of the motel, said the woman, about 22, registered. The age of the young man also was estimated at 22. The time they left the tourist court had not been determined.

There was blood on Thornton's face and his shoulders.

The funeral home which took the body said there were two skull fractures.

J. L. King, chief of Amarillo detectives, said no weapon had been found.

Mixed drinks were in glasses on tables in the tourist court room.

Thornton's body was identified from cleaning marks on his clothing and from the large leather belt he wore marked "Tex."

Widely Traveled
Thornton's work as an oil field trouble shooter had taken him to fight over a wide area of the country. It was reported that he recently was at Farmington, N. M. on an oil field job.

A family reunion had been planned in Wichita Falls next Tuesday and he was to have been present.

Survivors include his widow, Sarah; one son, C. B. Thornton of Los Angeles; two brothers, Van of Los Angeles, Texas, and Dude of Seagraves, and three sisters, Mrs. Illa West of Fort Worth, Mrs. Howe Rattliff of Bowie and Mrs. Bob Gilliland of Odessa.

Police said there was no sign of a struggle in the tourist court room.

The young woman had registered as being from Detroit, Mich., but tourist court attendants told officers the party came to the motel in a car from Potter County, Texas, license plates.

The prize money will be split $100, $50 and $25. Kruger said a number of float entries already have been made, but many more are needed. He invited individuals, firms and organizations to participate, filling entries with him or at the Chamber of Commerce. Parade divisions also will be arranged for horseback riders, marching units, automotive equipment, and miscellaneous groups. Every Midlander who wishes to be in the parade is invited to do so, Kruger said.

The pioneer theme will be stressed in the parade, which will be led by the Midland High School Band.

43 Persons Aboard Airliner Survive Crash Landing, Fire

MEMPHIS, TENN.—(P)—A pilot's skill and split-second judgment were credited Thursday by the American Airlines crew bringing 43 persons alive through a jolting crash landing followed by fire.

Thirty-eight of those aboard the two-engine Convair were injured when the airliner crashed two minutes after taking off from Municipal Airport here Wednesday.

The crash, at Port Worth-ton, N. C., "City of San Antonio," nosed down three and half miles from here. When Captain Hatch brought it to a stop, company spokesmen said, a wing was smashed, an engine was ablaze, and its gasoline was loose.

He noticed one engine had failed shortly after the take-off and found his remaining engine running hot. He could try to crash land or make it back to the airport. He decided to land in the field. The plane narrowly missed striking high tension wires.

The plane smashed against the field and into the tree and a pig sty.

Wildcat Shows Free Oil In Lea Wolfcamp

Possibilities of the discovery of oil and gas from the Wolfcamp section of the lower Permian have been indicated in Central-East Lea County, N. M., at McAlester Fuel Company No. 1-A Denton.

This wildcat, located 12 miles northeast of Lovington, and 690 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 11-15-37e, ran a three hour and 40 minute drill-stem test at 9,038-9,150 feet.

Gas showed at the surface in one hour. The volume was not gauged or estimated.

Recovery was 1,710 feet of 38-gravity clean oil, and 1,170 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud. That fluid was estimated to have been 80 per cent oil.

The drill pipe unloaded fluid all the way out. No formation water was developed. The project is to core deeper.

Stanotex To Drill To Mitchell Ellenburger

Standard Oil Company of Texas has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting a permit to start drilling by June 29 on an 8,400-foot wildcat in extreme Northwest Mitchell County.

The venture will be Stanotex No. 1 B. F. Dunn, et al. It will be 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 64, block 20, Lavaca Navigation district survey.

That puts it five miles east of Vincent, the well surrounding the new wildcat driller is said to be on a seismograph high.

The projected destination of 8,400 feet is calculated to take the venture into the Ellenburger.

Low Finishes North Barnhart Extension

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Brossman, one-half mile north of Barnhart - Ellenburger field, in Southwest Mitchell County, has been completed for a 24-hour flow of 45-gravity oil, and no water, from the deep pay.

The 24 hour figure on the well's production was calculated from an actual eight hour flow of 167 barrels of oil. The production was through a 20/64th inch surface choke. Gas-oil ratio was 2,066-1.

The production is from perforations some in the Ellenburger at 8,390-8,415 feet, which had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid. Total depth is 9,132 feet and the 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented on bottom.

Cities Service Dually Completes 1-E Cowden

Potential test has been completed in the Devonian at Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-E Cowden, one-mile north extension to production from that formation in the Dollarhide field of Southwest Andrews County.

Through perforations at 7,755-7,800 feet, the well flowed 292 barrels of oil per day through a 20/64-inch choke. Also present on the test was 3.5 barrels of water. Gas-oil ratio was 1,210-1. Gravity of the petroleum was 40.2 degrees.

This development previously was completed as a discovery from the Clear Fork section of the Permian through perforations at 6,546-6,830 feet for 24-hour potential of 492 barrels of oil, bringing to 784 barrels daily the initial production from the two horizons.

It found the Pusselman unproductive in drilling to 8,792 feet and reduced hole to the Devonian for the dual completion.

Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 14, block A-52, pal survey.

Benedum-Ellenburger Spread By New Well

Ellenburger production in the Benedum field of East-Central Upton County has been extended west by the completion of Slick-Treche Oil Company No. 1 H. F. Neal, exploration two and one-quarter miles west of the discovery well of the pool.

Flowing 24 hours through a three-eighths-inch choke, the project made a potential gauge of 593.98 barrels of 61.5-gravity distillate. Gas-oil ratio was 8,250-1, with no water.

Production followed a 3,000-gallon acid treatment in the open hole pay formation at 11,423-11,554 feet.

This new producer is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 14, block 41/2, GC&SF survey.

Atlantic Spots West Planker To Benedum

West outpost to the Benedum multi pay field of East-Central Upton County has been staked by The Atlantic Refining Company. It will be the firm's No. 1 A. D. Neal, et al., the company's first exploration in the area. Location will be 660 feet from south and east lines of the north half of section 38, block Y, TORR survey.

With rotary, drilling is starting at once toward 12,000 feet to test into the Ellenburger.

Nearest production is one location northeast at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B. Barnett, producer from the Pusselman section of the Silurian.

Bad Acting Makes People Root For Wrong Side, Says Backus

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Jim Backus, the off-beat comic, is back with today with an offbeat viewpoint on Hollywood historical gangster films. Backus just can't understand how the kids can grow up uncashed by them. He says he didn't.

"I was always on the wrong side. In Revolutionary War pictures the British always were the better dressed and better actors. I was on their side. Washington always looked to me like a second-rate ham in a toupee.

"I was always on the side of the Romans because the Christians got such awful actors. In Civil War films, they always hired a fine actor from the Theater Guild to play General Lee. General Grant was some guy they found in a drug store."

"What brought on all this is Jim's role of a policeman in 'The Ball and Chain'. Jim is always on the wrong side of the law in gangster films, too.

As he explains it: "The gangsters are the best actors—the fellows you remember. The 'Wanted' Jim—I'm a policeman. I've got one suit, a broken-down apartment and no girl friends. The gangster, George Raft, has three carloads of suits, a penthouse and 40 dolls. Do you blame me for wanting to be a gangster instead of a cop?"

Fighting Minister
Hollywood finally is putting a "human" Protestant minister on the screen. In 'The Ball and Chain' Joe McCrea plays the fighting pastor in M-G-M's 'Stars in My Crown,' a post-Civil War story.

Predicts Joel: "It's the Protestant 'Going My Way' with the nostalgic qualities of the best of Charley Ray's old films."

Those headlines from Cannes have put box-office wallop back into Rita Hayworth's old films. Six have been reassigned since the marriage and most theater marquee are spelling it out as "Princess Aly Khan."

Pecos Boosters Are Visitors In Midland

Boosters of the West of the Pecos Rodeo were in Midland Thursday morning letting the citizens know that they would be welcome guests at the annual Pecos event which is to be presented July 2, 3, and 4.

With their special bus parked at the Wall Street entrance of the Hotel Scharbauer, some of the leading citizens of the Reeves County city distributed literature and otherwise praised the value of the coming event. Some of the boosters attended the Rotary luncheon.

Accompanying the group were the Pecos Playboys, a string band that gave forth with some lively tunes to attract the attention of Midlanders.

Included in the group of boosters were Carl Holmes, Henry Blackwell, Austin Collins, Houston Connolly, Don Brooks, Joe Camp, Joe Camp Jr., Jim Hawkins, Dell Flowers, Sanford Tune, Bill Holloway, Mayor Glenn Stafford, Jess Bruner, Hood Hart and The Pecos Playboys members.

PERILS OF THE CITY
BUTTE, MONT. — (AP) — John Dunn of Price, Utah, thought Butte was a mighty hospitable town when a stranger entertained him in a local bar. He thought differently when he reported later to police that he'd like to have them find his shoes, hat and $15—also the friendly stranger.

For a quick four-o'clock pick-up on a warm day mix equal amounts of chilled prune juice and milk; add a scoop of vanilla ice cream to each glass, if desired, and serve with long spoons and straws.

News item: "Nine to 10 per cent of all candy sold in the United States is distributed through theaters. The kid behind me last night had six per cent of it."

Wichita Falls Still Without Police Chief After Officers Ballot

WICHITA FALLS—Wichita Falls still has no police chief. A deadlock between Mayor Harold Jones and the City Council on the replacement of Chris Jensen was not settled by a straw vote of the Police Department itself Wednesday night.

Twice the council has voted to oust Jensen. Each time he has taken his case to court. The latest ruling by District Judge Frank Ikard blocked the council's choice of Traffic Officer R. A. Nelson for the post.

Wednesday, the mayor and council informally agreed to accept the decision by the Police Department. After Capt. S. J. (Baker) Lawrence received 38 of the 51 votes cast, the council met and adjourned with no action.

Nelson received five votes. Jensen none.

Alderman J. R. Ray talked of "compromise" but the mayor, who has offered Lawrence's name before, said he would re-submit his nomination.

Lawrence, 32, was a nominee of Jensen for his captaincy. Nelson, 36, is a long-time foe of the de-moted chief.

When you buy Barconrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barconrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconrate. Pour this into a pink bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Principle vs. Reality

Sometimes politics is called "the art of the possible." It is a way of saying that in this imperfect world of compromises among men, ideal solutions and 100 per cent devotion to principles cannot always be achieved.

The phrase may apply to General Eisenhower's comments on federal aid to education. He took a stand on principle—a habit that is one of the reasons he is so much admired by Americans generally.

But practical-minded citizens may question whether the general in this instance is facing the realities.

Writing to a New York congressman, Eisenhower, as president of Columbia University, expressed opposition to pending bills that would grant from $260,000,000 to $300,000,000 in federal funds to the states to help pay teachers' salaries and other school costs.

He made plain his protest was against general aid to all states. He views that plan as promoting what he considers a dangerous trend toward centralized government and possibly socialism.

But the general added that he does favor federal grants to the neediest states, those now unable to maintain proper minimum education standards. He would like to see those states raised to a plane of equality with other more fortunate sections.

That, then, is the principle on which Eisenhower is standing. Not aid to all, but to the poorer states so they may equalize their minimum educational opportunities with the wealthier states.

Now, actually, the general aid to education bills before Congress embody this principle. They would use a rather complex formula to attain the very equalization Eisenhower seeks.

But these same measures go beyond that and offer a flat grant for each-school-age child, so that all states will get some benefits regardless of their wealth.

The general bills are a frank compromise between the equalization idea and a broader approach. What led to it? Senator Taft and other backers of the federal aid plan decided Congress would not support it if benefits were to be limited to perhaps a dozen poor states, mostly in the South.

They reasoned that richer states, plagued by educational troubles of their own and yelping over shrunken tax revenues, would not like paying the freight for poor states and getting nothing for themselves.

In other words, their decision was in recognition of what they considered the political realities. They were trying to legislate according to "the art of the possible."

Even with all states included, New York and a few other wealthy areas protested against the measures on the ground they were not getting enough in return for their big payments to the federal treasury. These outbursts made the compromising senators look very practical.

If they have gauged the realities correctly, a bill based strictly on the equalization principle will lose out. And if the House takes to heart Eisenhower's warnings about a more general plan, the outcome could well be no aid of any kind for any state.

By asking Congress to act on principle alone, the general has put that body in an uncomfortable position it usually manages to avoid.

Every man gets his share of bad breaks, says a professor. Well, why not get them relined?

Our Planned Economy

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson Says: General Bradley fights backstage battle with General MacArthur; Dan Tobin warns teamsters against unwarranted strikes; short-sighted oil industry conducts anti-highway lobby.

WASHINGTON — An important, backstage battle has broken out between two of the nation's highest-ranking generals—Douglas MacArthur and Chief of Staff Omar Bradley.

General Bradley wants to withdraw American forces from all the Pacific except Japan and Hawaii—even out of the Philippines. In case of war, Bradley argues that American forces caught in the Pacific outside Japan or Hawaii would be sacrificed immediately in another Bataan. Therefore, he wants all troops withdrawn to positions we can maintain.

General MacArthur, on the other hand, wants American troops strung out around the Pacific to create spheres of influence to stem the spread of Communism. MacArthur definitely is opposed to withdrawing American troops from the Philippines and South Korea.

The tone of his cables has become so strong that mid-mannered General Bradley has been forced to remind him that he, Bradley, not MacArthur, is the Chief of Staff.

Dan Tobin, head of the powerful Teamsters Union, has sent a confidential letter to all Teamsters' locals, cautioning them against strikes and urging a conciliatory policy toward employers.

Tobin, intimate friend of the late President Roosevelt and a long-time power in the A. F. of L., started his letter by saying that he was fearful of today's economic situation and cautioned his locals against pushing good employers for wage increases.

Tobin commented at some length on the foolishness of the Ford strike at this time. He recognized that Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, was under compulsion from union membership, but said that Reuther would have been wiser to have ruled the situation with an iron hand and forbidden the strike.

Referring to his own union, Tobin was critical of the West Coast teamsters' strike and also of the teamsters in New York City. In the latter city bakery drivers had struck for an unwarranted increase, on the assumption that people had to eat bread so there must be bread deliveries. But with the strike many weeks old, consumers get along by buying from chain stores and independent bakeries, Tobin said.

Communist agitation inside labor unions also came in for criticism from the forthright teamsters' boss. He said he had received reports of active communist leadership in one teamsters' local— which he declined to name. An investigation was being made, Tobin said, and these agitators would be fired from the union whether they signed non-Communist affidavits or not.

Tobin also warned his teamsters that one trouble in union organizations was the inability and unwillingness of rank-and-file members to understand economic laws. He pointed out that while members of his union are unskilled, they receive annual returns higher than bricklayers, plasterers and skilled mechanics because of the fact that the latter suffer seasonal layoffs.

Thoughtful President Truman. A group of 47 club youngsters waited on the White House portico to see the President while representatives Robert Secrest and Earl T. Wagner were inside presenting him with a petition from the Ohio congressional delegation to name George Rogers, an SEC attorney, to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

"I'm going to be photographed with those young people in the Rose Garden outside," said Truman.

Just then a sudden cloudburst tattooed the windows of the President's office.

"Stick around," he told his callers. "If I take those kids out in the rain to be photographed, their fathers and mothers will be after me."

Congress now is probing the fact that the oil industry, which owes its prosperity to the gasoline burned on highways is so shortsighted that it opposes new highways. Reason: To pay for the roads, many states are boosting gasoline taxes.

The extra taxes aren't paid by the oil companies, but by motorists. Yet the industry already has boosted "gas" prices so high they fear the public won't stand for both higher prices and higher taxes.

So, believe it or not, the oil lobby actually is fighting against building new roads.

Take North Carolina, for example: Gov. Kerr Scott, a hard-hitting liberal, submitted a $200,000,000 road program to the voters. To finance it, he proposed a one-cent-per-gallon increase in the state gasoline tax. The oil lobby immediately and bitterly opposed, appealed to city voters to block the program.

When the vote finally came, city people did vote 5-1 against new rural roads. But the farmers amassed 225,000 votes to the urban voters' 175,000.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Economic Barometers Holding Above Depression Storm Zone

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—With unemployment rising and the stock market in a slump, there is natural concern over a possible recession. But these are only two of the economic indicators. A look at every sign and portent on the horizon gives a somewhat different impression.

For this general view, the June issue of "Economic Indicators," published by the Joint Congressional Committee on the Economic Report, provides a reliable and as up to date a set of charts and tables as can be found. And the figures themselves tell the story, without any interpretation or prediction. Here are a few highlights:

Cost of Living—After reaching a high of 174.5 last August and September, the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumers Price Index started to drop. It went down five and a half points, to a low of 169 last February. Then it started to climb again, to 169.5 in March and 169.7 in April. Watch for the May figure, which is expected to be announced.

Apparel, fuel and house furnishing prices are down. But food and rent prices have advanced more, and are continuing upward.

Wholesale Prices—They likewise reached a high last August—169.5—and continued downward to a low of 165.2 for the week ending May 3. Then they started upward or leveling off at 165.5 for the week ending May 24 and to 166.1 for the weeks ending May 31 and June 7. The rise is in farm products and foods. Other commodities are down from the high of 153 last Fall to 145 today.

Stocks Have Dropped The Standard and Poor index on 416 common stocks reached a high of 135 in June, 1948, and has dropped steadily ever since.

Corporate Profits—The drop in stock prices is a reflection of the drop of corporate profits. Preliminary estimates by the Council of Economic Advisers on first quarter 1949 earnings are at the annual rate of $17,200,000,000 after taxes. Compared with the high of $20,200,000,000 for 1948, but only $12,800,000,000 in 1946 and $8,400,000,000 in 1929.

Dividend payments in the first quarter of 1949 remain at the annual rate of $3,000,000,000, as for the last quarter of 1948, which is an all-time high.

Unemployment—While Bureau of Census estimates show unemployment up to 3,290,000 in May after a slight decline in March and April, the figure is still below the 1941 average monthly unemployment of 5,560,000.

The rise in unemployment is in sarcasm. In a matter of hours, word came to Peronista congressional chieftains from Dona Evita's office that "this is it"—the long-awaited moment of revenge had arrived. And this time, the yes-men knew better than to say no.

When on June 10 the expulsion motion reached a vote, Rodriguez Araya knew the outcome was cut and dried. So he quietly left the Chamber and went to the Uruguayan embassy, where he requested and received asylum.

Roberto Mac Eachen, Uruguayan ambassador to Argentina, at once took a plane for Montevideo to consult President Luis Batlle Berres regarding his controversial guest. Meanwhile, the Chamber of Deputies, having voted on a strict majority-minority basis—107-42—to throw Rodriguez out, approved by the same margin motion to instruct the attorney general to institute criminal libel proceedings against the ex-deputy.

Thereupon the Argentine Foreign Ministry advised the Uruguayan Embassy that Rodriguez Araya was subject to arrest and consequently "not entitled to asylum." Less than an hour later, however, word came from Montevideo that Uruguayan President Batlle would insist on a safe conduct for the political refugee.

Being their bluff called, the tough-talking Peronistas hastily backed down. A communique issued by the foreign ministry called the whole thing a "misunderstanding," said that Rodriguez Araya could "remain in Argentina or leave, as a free man." The latter promptly made his choice and flew to Montevideo.

The government-owned press next morning duplicated the entire affair as a "comic opera." Evita's personal mouthpiece, "Democracia," commented:

"Dramatic criticism would have a hard time deciding whether Rodriguez Araya or Uruguayan Ambassador Mac Eachen is the better comedian."

More impartial observers inclined toward the opinion that the laugh, if any, was on Peron & Co. The total implications of this new affront to democratic procedure, however, tended to overshadow its humorous side.

THE STORY, Mike McTag, a mining engineer, who told this story, had been planning a beautiful and high-spirited daughter of Parbelled Parnell, an old friend of Mike's. Cory had inherited the Dark Angel, a good producing gold mine, after Parbelled's death. Now the production has been dropping off from $15 a ton. Mike, convinced that no woman can run a mine, had taken her out to dinner. The next day Mike visits Dewey, a lawyer friend who had brought about the meeting between Mike and Cory, and Mike tells Dewey he's going to go to the mine and look around for the trouble.

I KE Cory, the Dark Angel mine had changed considerably since I had last seen it 15 years ago. At that time, the mine was a kid's hand-picked high-level ore down the mountain in rawhide sacks, digging out perhaps 500 pounds a day.

Now a modern 200-ton ball-mill filled the air with noise, and a dismal gray tailings dump fanned out halfway across the valley, making the place hideous.

The mine itself was in Umbrella Mountain, so called because innumerable ravines cut the sides, and the ridges between stuck out like ribs.

Dark Angel was between the biggest two ribs. The vein system, as I remembered it, was a honey. It struck right through the mountain, almost vertically, so that all a miner had to do was cut ore chutes between the different working levels and gravity did the dirty work.

The stuff tumbled down to the main haulage level, about 100 feet above the valley floor, and was carted out and dumped right into the mill bunkers. You couldn't have asked for a nicer set-up in a small mine.

Cory came around to the company boarding house after breakfast next morning and took me over to the office. The mill superintendent was there, a kind-faced old boy who could have played loyal-family-retainer parts without benefit of make-up. I judged he was between 50 and 60.

"THIS is Uncle Jake," Cory said. "Jake Whinnaker, that is—he's not really my uncle. Uncle Jake has been with the Dark Angel from the very beginning."

Uncle Jake was pleased to meet me, but it took a little while for him to get it out because of his asthma. He shook hands and I turned to the other party present, a young fellow.

"This is Archie Trask," Cory said. "Archie, Mike McTag, Archie is in charge of everything underground. He's been with us for 10 years."

Trask was an open-faced, good-looking lad in his early 30's. I didn't see why Cory dragged in the length-of-service angle, and I wondered what had kept him out of the late, great unpleasantness, and why he shook hands anyway, and

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Writer for NEA Service

Today's hand might be regarded as rather uninteresting to rubber bridge players because in many groups contracts of one are conceded. However, in tournament bridge part-score hands are very important. A championship is more likely to be decided on the results of part-score hands than on game or slam hands.

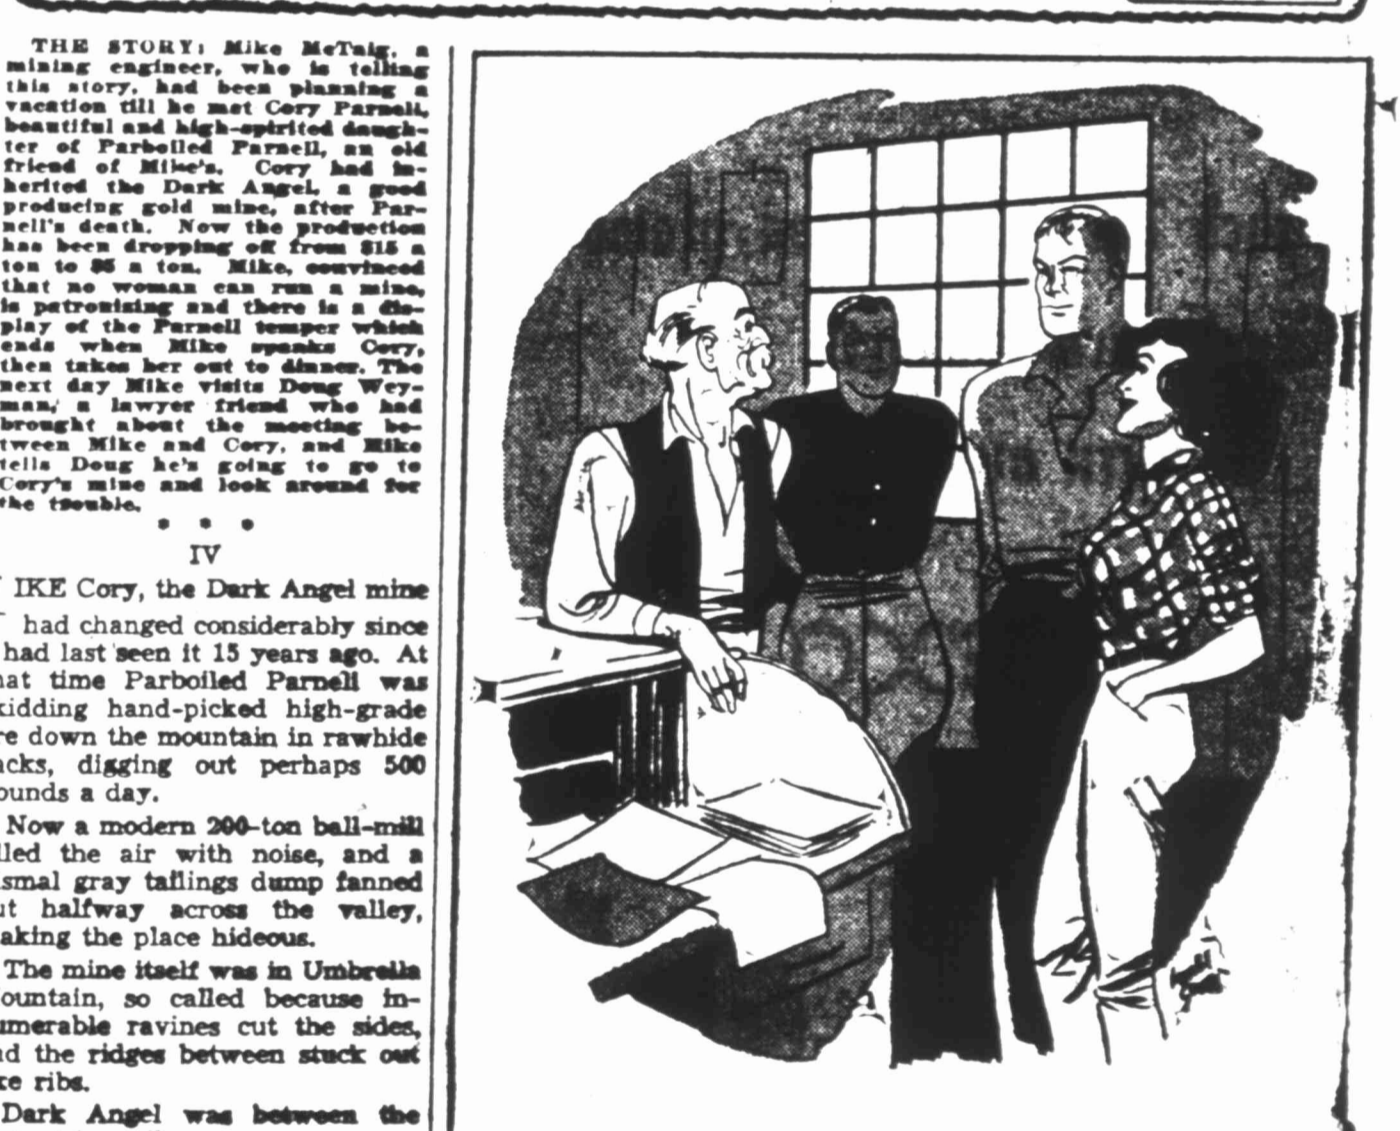

I selected today's lesson hand from one of the Wednesday night duplicate games at the Mayfair Bridge Club in New York, because there you will find some of the finest bridge players competing. It was interesting to note that good tournament players found the correct timing on this hand, while rubber bridge players missed it entirely.

The opening lead of the deuce of spades should be won in dummy with the ace. Now at many tables the jack of clubs was the next play, and from then on declarer could not make one heart, because East jumped in with the ace of clubs and returned the jack of hearts.

The correct timing on the hand is to lead the three of spades from dummy at trick two, and ruff it. Then lead a small club toward the jack. East will win this and return the jack of hearts which declarer should win with the ace. Now declarer ruffs the four of clubs with the six of hearts, ruffs dummy's six of spades with the five of hearts, ruffs the eight of clubs with the nine of hearts, and ruffs the ten of spades with the eight of hearts. Thus by correct timing the contract can be made.

The Bureau of Reclamation's first major storage dam was the Roosevelt, on the Salt River in Arizona, which was dedicated in 1911.

CLIPPED ANGEL By Clive Grierson Cornish

The mill superintendent was there, a kind-faced old boy who could have played loyal-family-retainer parts without make-up.

The four of us sat down around the office table. "Well, I said, 'suppose we get down to prosaic details like sampling, assaying, the mill-flow sheet and things like that.'"

I outlined what I had in mind, then I asked about assays and who'd been doing them.

"We have our own assayer," Uncle Jake said. "He's a good man; I picked him out myself."

I said I doubted if he could handle all the work I'd have for him during the next week.

"I wouldn't worry about that," Trask put in. "Riggs is fast and he's accurate. Besides, if we have to send samples to Seattle it means delay and extra expense."

I looked at Cory and she nodded. "All right," I said, "we'll use your lad. Now, if you'll let me have a look at your flow-sheet..."

against federal regulations and controls in time of peace preponderate in favor of my signing the bill. With possible exceptions noted in the preceding paragraphs, it is my considered belief that Texans generally do not want or need a continuation of rent controls.

Appeals To Landlords
"As I sign this bill, I appeal to the fairness of Texas landlords. I also point out that if landlords, by charging inordinate rents, cause or contribute to a housing emergency, House Bill 808 stresses that the existence of a housing emergency authorizes the governing body of a city or town to enact local rent controls."

Jester requested the opinion from Daniel after Federal Housing Expediter Tigue Woods flew here to ask that the bill be vetoed. Woods questioned legality of a provision of the bill authorizing cities to re-establish their own rent controls if they find it necessary to deal with a housing emergency.

West Texas Oil & Gas Log—

to be started in the immediate future in South-Central Runnels County as Woods Drilling Company, E. K. Burt and E. M. Burt, all of Wichita Falls No. 1 Woodrow Wilson.

The drillsite is 1,600 feet from north and 380 feet from east lines of the 115 1/2-acre lease in R. A. Smith survey 2, about eight miles southeast of Ballinger. That puts it approximately 1,280 feet south of Globe Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Wilson, 2,510-foot dry hole.

Elevation of the new prospector is 1,988 feet.

Lion 108 Feet High In Sharon Ridge-Canyon
Lion Oil Company No. 1 Marchbanks, one location west of Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-A Bishop, the discovery well of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field, in Southwest Scurry County, topped the Canyon reef 108 feet high to the pool opener, and is coring ahead into the pay zone.

The Lion project, located 1,914 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 164, block 97, H&TC survey, topped the reef at 6,554 feet, on an elevation of 2,313 feet.

At last report it had reached 6,610 feet and was coring deeper.

Up to now no drillsite tests have been run since the Canyon was encountered.

No. 10 Is Low
Lion No. 10 McLaughlin, one location south of a completed Canyon producer in the Diamond M field, also in Southwest Scurry had reached 6,752 feet in the reef, and was finishing a drillsite test.

The Canyon reef was topped at 6,732 feet, with an elevation of 2,373 feet. That made it lower than any other of the wells Lion has completed in the Diamond M area.

However, in the test to the total depth at 6,752 feet, gas showed at the surface in four minutes, and oil started flowing at the top in 28 minutes. No gauge had been reported on the flow and the test was still in progress at last report.

Collins Rumored On Scurry Canyon Test
J. L. Collins, et al, No. 2 Parks, on the northeast side of the North Snyder-Canyon field, in North-Central Scurry County, and eight miles north of Snyder, was reported by unofficial sources to be bottomed at 7,078 feet in Canyon lime, and to be taking a drillsite test.

The recovery was said to have been 90 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud; 70 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud, and 2,520 feet of salt water.

The venture is located 990 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of section 42, block 97, H&TC survey. It has had indications of possible production in the Canyon from 6,851 feet down to the current level, and likely could make a well from that zone.

It is due to continue to the Strawn.

Ellenburger Topped At Fisher Wildcat
The Ellenburger has been entered by Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 1-A Leeper, Southwest Fisher County wildcat, nine miles southwest of Roby and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 186, block 3, H&TC survey.

Top of the deep zone was called at 6,799 feet, on an elevation of 2,116 feet. Drilling was continuing from 6,806 feet in dolomite.

Barnsdall Completes North Snyder Well
Third producer in the south end of the North Snyder field, approximately two and one-half miles from the original pool, of North-Central Scurry County has been completed at Barnsdall Oil Company No. 1 A. L. Wren, west out-post to production.

The well flowed 20 hours through a 20/64-inch choke to make a 24-hour potential of 8824 barrels of 43-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio 996-1. Total fluid developed had a shakedown of three per cent drilling water.

Production was natural from the open hole Canyon-Pennsylvanian pay at 6,800-6,860 feet.

Sunray Slates New Scurry Exploration
Sunray Oil Corporation, et al, are starting within 15 days on a 6,900-foot, rotary oil exploration in the south end of the North Snyder pool of North-Central Scurry County.

The drillsite is 660 feet from north and west lines of tract 13, section 20, block 1, J. P. Smith survey. It is to be a Canyon test.

Manning Has Strawn Prospects In Runnels
Production prospects from the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian made a showing as testing started at Fred M. Manning, Inc., No. 1 S. L. McNay, Northwest Runnels County wildcat, six miles southwest of Shep and 2,882 feet from southwest, 3,925 feet from north lines of J. J. Jeffries survey 293.

After drilling to 5,620 feet and finding the Ellenburger barren, operator plugged back to attempt completion in the Strawn. Through casing perforations at 5,252-80 feet, opposite the Strawn, which had been washed with acid, the well was being swabbed clean. It was showing considerable oil and gas along with acid residue.

The venture also has possibilities in the top of the Strawn at 4,604-22 feet. When drilling through, a drillsite test of that interval showed 2,250 feet of gas in drill-pipe, 110 feet of heavily gas and slightly oil cut drilling mud and 50 feet of heavily oil cut mud.

Winkler Test Gets No Devonian Shows
The Devonian again made no shows on a drillsite test at Richardson East and Southland Realty Company No. 1 Wallace, wildcat one and one-quarter miles south of the Flying-W field, recently opened from the Devonian in Northeast Winkler County.

The examination was for two hours at 2,974-2,923 feet, recovering 120 feet of drilling mud, with no signs of oil, gas or water. Preparations were being made to drill ahead.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 88, Barbara Hill survey, about 13 and one-half miles northeast of Kermit.

Humble Prospector Has Water In Coke
After showing oil prospects in the upper part of the Palo Pinto section of the Canyon-Pennsylvanian, Humble Oil & Refining Company drilled ahead and has developed water at its No. 1 Brunson, wildcat two miles southeast of the Bronco pool in East-Central Coke County.

A one-hour drillsite test at 4,990-4,720 feet recovered 100 feet of drilling mud and 4,200 feet of sulphur water. Operator was drilling ahead, planning to test in the Strawn-Pennsylvanian.

Location is 2,019 feet northeast and 700 feet west of the southeast corner of N. Eastland survey, section 331.

Ohio Plugs Wildcat In Kent Ellenburger
The Ohio Oil Company has officially plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Emery estate, Northwest Kent County wildcat, after recovering water in the top of the Ellenburger.

A 30-minute drillsite test was run at 7,807-7,835 feet, recovering 7,065 feet of salt water.

The dry hole is 819 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 191, block 1, TP survey, about 15 miles southwest of Spur.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Cards Gain Full Game On Brooks

Vernal (Nippy) Jones collected three hits Wednesday night to help the St. Louis Cardinals defeat the Giants 11-8. The victory moved the Redbirds to within a half game of the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers, who were defeated by the Reds in Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings.

A trio of homers by Herman Reich, Hank Sauer and Pitcher Dewey Adkins helped the last-place Chicago Cubs outlast the Boston Braves 9-8.

Dino Restelli, rookie Pittsburgh outfielder, celebrated the end of his first week in the majors by blasting two homers—his fourth and fifth—to lead the Pirates to a 12-3 triumph over Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Detroit Tigers regained second place from the Philadelphia Athletics, defeating the Red Sox in Boston 13-4 while the A's were bowing to the Cleveland Indians in a 14-inning thriller 7-3.

The New York Yankees received a scare from the cellar-dwelling Browns who whipped them 5-1 in the opener of a twin bill. However, the Yankees came back to outscore the Browns 10-4 in the nightcap. In the other American League game, the Chicago White Sox, behind the steady hurling of Southpaw Bill Wight, defeated the Senators in Washington 4-1.

Dawson, Nipp, Jones, Pena, Lead Late Uprising

The Midland Indians and the Roswell Rockets will meet in the "Pennant Raising" game at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in Indian Park. Ernie Nelson is scheduled to pitch for Midland. Vic Michalec is the probable starter for Roswell.

Ceremonies for the pennant-raising will start at 8:15 p.m. and the game will get underway at 8:30. City officials, outstanding fans, baseball officials and other prominent guests are to participate in the ceremonies.

The Midland Indians won the Longhorn League pennant last season.

By SHORTY SHELBERNE

Harold Webb's Midland Indians waited until the last minute, then turned on a burst of power to cop a 12 to 11 decision over the Roswell Rockets in the opening game of a two-game series in Indian Park Wednesday night. The Tribe went into the ninth inning trailing the Rockets 5 to 11. A total of 11 men went to the plate in the ninth and eight of them got base hits.

It was a night when the Indians just wouldn't give up. Lou Dawson drove in the winning run with a mighty poke all the way to the leftfield fence. He had collected a single in his first appearance at the plate earlier in the inning.

Carroll Nipp blasted a home run over the leftfield fence with Dawson on base to open the scoring in the big ninth.

Austin Started
Buck Austin was the starting toser for Midland. He worked well for six innings and then the roof fell in Roswell touched Austin for three runs in the fourth on a double and three singles. They came back like a guided missile in the seventh to score six more.

The Rockets put together two doubles, two singles, three walks and a Midland error to ring up the six tallies.

The visitors then added one in the eighth on a triple and an infield out when Glenn Patton came in to relieve. A double, a single and a Midland error gave them their final run in the ninth.

Midland scored one in the first on singles by Rose and Nipp. A walk to Sliter and a double by Nipp produced another run in the third. Still another was added in the fifth when Rose got life on an error and Sliter singled him home.

A walk to Presley, singles by Coss and Pena and a double by Kenny Jones brought in two runs for Midland in the eighth and made the score 11 to 5 in favor of Roswell.

Big Ninth

Came the ninth for Midland and Lefty Watling, Rocket starter, was shelled from the mound.
Dawson singled and Nipp homered.

Cats Win No. 10 To Hold Slim Edge Over Dallas Eagles

By The Associated Press
Fort Worth bids for its eleventh straight victory Thursday night, one that would match a mark set by Dallas at the season's outset.

The Texas League leaders made it ten in a row Wednesday night by sloshing to a 5-3 win over San Antonio.

The decision kept the Cats a half-game in front of the Dallas Eagles, who downed Houston twice, 7-6 and 3-2.

In other games, Tulsa and Beaumont divided a twin bill and Oklahoma City edged Shreveport 3-2. Beaumont won the first game 5-4 and Tulsa the second 8-5.

The last four innings of the Fort Worth-San Antonio tilt were played in rain. Chris Van Cuyk went the distance for the Cats, winning his eighth game of the season and his third in the string of ten.

Dallas came from behind three times to win the 13-inning opening game. Ralph Rahmes drove home the winning runs in both games.

Two home runs and Jack Hallett's five-hit pitching won for Oklahoma City. Mickey Burnett and Grant Dunlap hit the homers. Beaumont had a big three-run seventh inning in the first game, and Tulsa had a four-run outburst in the fourth frame of the nightcap.

Charles Decisions Jersey Joe Walcott For Disputed Title

CHICAGO—(AP)—Ezzard Charles, who wanted to be a ring champion ever since he started boxing at the age of 14, has realized his burning ambition.

Wednesday night, after 18 years of slugging his way to the top, the lithe, 27-year-old Cincinnati negro won the NBA version of the world heavyweight title vacated by Joe Louis by defeating Jersey Joe Walcott in a 16-round battle.

Charles won the unanimous decision of the three officials, approval of the National Boxing Association, the consent of Louis and the blessing of the newly formed International Boxing Club, promoters of the bout.

But now Charles has to convince the New York Athletic Commission, which is on record as favoring a tournament among contenders, and Massachusetts, which does not belong to the NBA. England, too, will have a champion of its own September 6 when the British Board of Boxing Control, recognizes the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock bout for the crown.

The contest was fought in Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox, who were in complete accord with Referee Miller in scoring the fight.

Charles at 183.4 gave away 13.4 pounds to Walcott, who scaled 195.2.

The two judges were in complete accord with Referee Miller in scoring the fight. The announcement of the unanimous verdict knocked Jake Mintz, one of Charles' four managers, into a complete faint. He collapsed in a neutral corner when Charles was proclaimed the new champion. He recovered quickly, however, and left the ring under his own power after a stretcher had been hustled in to carry him out.

Wary Walcott told a dressing room crowd that "Charles is not a great fighter—he's a sneaky puncher who hit coming out of the clinches. When the referee broke us, I stopped fighting, but that dirty fighter kept banging away."

White Sox, who 12 years ago to the night, Louis won the championship by knocking out Jimmy Braddock.

The crowd of 25,392, which paid $246,546, was not disappointed to Arthur W. James D. Norris and Louis, who formed the IBC.

Charles' victory over the 35-year-old Walcott was the 27-year-old Charles' victory over the 35-year-old Walcott.

Attorney Hints At Sabotage As Cause Of Texas City Blasts

GALVESTON—(AP)—A government attorney says the explosion of the SS Ocean Liberty at Brest, France, and the devastating Texas City explosions may have been caused by saboteurs.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Joseph Cash made his statements Wednesday during the trial of $200,000,000 in damage suits against the federal government growing out of the Texas City disaster.

Cash hinted at the possibility—at the time of the Texas City explosions—of a long range plan to disrupt shipments of ammonium nitrate fertilizer from the United States to foreign lands.

He said the series of blasts at Texas City may have been started with a device similar to a "candle stick" found last year at New Orleans in a load of ammonium nitrate.

MARINE CORPS RECRUIT DEPT. POT. SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—Marine Pfc. James Edwin Dickinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dickinson, 206 Ridgela, Midland, Texas, has completed his initial 10-weeks of training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Upon completion of this training Dickinson was promoted to the grade of private first class, an honor bestowed upon every man who finishes his training with a clean record.

The Midland devildog spent his first three weeks of training here at the post where he received small arms, first aid, field sanitation, map reading, military courtesy and infantry drill instruction.

The following three weeks the young Marine spent at the Marine rifle range where for two weeks he was taught the fundamental principles of marksmanship and during the third week he made practical use of his training by firing the Marine Corps basic weapon, the M-1 rifle, for a record score.

He spent his last four weeks in the Recruit Depot "boning" on additional subjects necessary to a Marine. These included bayonet fighting, combat formations of a rifle squad, digging of fox holes and a series of field problems where practical experience was gleaned through the application of classroom work.

Upon his return here after leave Dickinson will be transferred to one of the many duty stations where Marines stand always ready to protect their country in time of need.

Questions and Answers

Q—How could a base runner steal third safely with a man already on that base?

A—The only way would be for the umpire to call a balk on the pitcher during the play. The man on third automatically goes home.

Q—What was "Seward's Folly"?

A—The purchase of Alaska from Russia by the United States was known as Seward's Folly. At the time it was thought by many a very foolish bargain, and Secretary Seward, to whom the purchase was largely due, was made the object of much ridicule.

Q—Is the moon changing in size?

A—The moon, slowly receding from the earth, is growing smaller in apparent size. Some day in the distant future it will not be able to cover the disc of the sun, and then we will no longer have total solar eclipses. They will all be "annular," with a ring of the sun's surface visible around the dark moon.

Q—Who were the magicians who stood in Pharaoh's court when Moses asked for the release of his people?

A—According to the Second Book of Timothy the two Egyptian magicians were Jannes and Jambres.

Q—Which animal attains the greatest speed?

A—The cheetah found in Asia and Africa is the fastest animal in the world. It has been timed at a speed of 70 m. p. h.

Age Levels For Scouts Lowered

The entrance age level of Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Senior Scouts has been reduced by one year each it was revealed in a bulletin to Midland Scout officials from Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

The action is effective September 1, 1949. This means that boys eight years of age may join the Cub Scouts; boys 11 years of age may join the Boy Scouts and boys 14 years of age may join the Explorer (Senior) Scouts.

Dr. Schuck reported this action as taken by the National Council at its meeting in Boston May 23rd and 24th, following a three-year study and the unanimous recommendation of a committee appointed in 1945, composed of Justice Owen J. Roberts as chairman, Frank L. Well and James H. Douglas, Jr., H. Lyman Wren, president of the Buffalo Trail Council and P. V. Thorson, council executive hail the step as one of progress and to meet an ever growing demand. They stated that immediate steps are being taken to accommodate the new eight year old boys in the Cub units as well as the 11 year and 14 year old boys in the Scouts and Explorers.

Charles Lindbergh's famed flight to Paris in 1927 took 33 hours and 39 minutes.

Roosters Help In Guiding Fishermen

HOBBART, TASMANIA — (AP) — You have to know your dogs and roosters to go fishing off the southeast coast of Tasmania. They help you to thread your way through reefs close to shore.

D. V. Button told about the helpful dogs and roosters at a Returned Soldiers League Congress. He asked the Congress to campaign for small lighthouses on the Tasmanian coast. He said that if inshore fishermen knew the bark of Bill Jones' dog, the bark of a few roosters, then they knew where the reefs were.

Another speaker told how the war veterans came into the problem. The trouble he said, is that young ex-servicemen fishermen do not know which dog is which.

Midland Spudnut Shop Sets Formal Opening Friday

Another shop in the rapidly growing system of Spudnut Shops opens formally in Midland Friday, according to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chase, co-owners and operators. This is the first Midland Spudnut Shop, in the coast to coast system, now in 31 states and in more than 225 cities. Each shop is individually owned and operated under an exclusive franchise arrangement with Pelton's Spudnuts, Inc., of Salt Lake City, Utah. The Midland shop is located at 515 West Texas Street.

An outstanding feature of our opening day," Chase said, "will be free Spudnuts and coffee from 2 to 4 p. m. We would like everyone in Midland to try Spudnuts, because they're truly 'America's finest food confection'—a new and exciting taste thrill for every member of the family.

"Except for physical appearance," he continued, "Spudnuts have no relation whatever to other similar shaped products. Spudnuts are large, fluffy, and airy, and are never soggy or greasy. They are made of a special blend of finest wheat flour, dehydrated potatoes — from which the name Spudnut is taken — milk solids, whole, fresh eggs, and other vital ingredients—all mixed and blended perfectly to the secret Pelton formula.

"Spudnuts are 'raised' in a proof box, just like all fine pastries; then, they are cooked, at an exact temperature, in highest quality shortenings; and finally, glazed, and sugar-coated or chocolate-iced."

Homes For 100,000 DP's 'Down Under'

SYDNEY —(AP)— One hundred thousand displaced persons will move from Europe to Australia in the next 18 months.

They will come here under two-year contracts to the Australian Government to take jobs that the government directs. After that they will be free to select their own employment.

The Australian Government has issued a booklet to prospective employers of this migrant labor. They will be placed only where they can be accommodated. They can live in hotels and boarding houses in Sydney, Newcastle and Port Kembla if their work helps to provide more homes. They can be housed elsewhere if they do not displace a member of the Australian public.

Employers who can provide living room for an entire family of migrants will get first priority on their labor. Domestic may be assigned to doctors or to families where there are two or more children.

Displaced men work in the production of iron, bricks, tiles, cement, building materials, food processing, and rural work.

They are paid ruling rates for Australians.

The first steam carriage on record was made in 1769 by Capt. Nicholas Cugnot, a French soldier.

Then why not try some tasty marrow from a woolly mammoth aged for 10,000 years in nature's northern icebox? You'll never forget it.

Charles R. Knight has remembered the sensation 25 years. He is an artist famous for his pioneering paintings of prehistoric life.

"About a quarter of a century ago the American Museum of Natural History got some bones and flesh from a woolly mammoth, trapped in the Alaskan ice perhaps 10,000 years before," he recalled.

"We are curious as to what it would taste like, so we tried some of the marrow. It tasted like rancid grease."

Nobody asked for a second helping.

All the world's a graveyard to this 74-year-old artist, who perhaps as much as any one man has helped the past come alive. Since 1894 he has specialized in painting prehistoric men and animals, and he was the first to do it scientifically—based on reconstructed fossils.

Little To Brag About

His 55-year study has convinced him modern man doesn't have too much to brag about.

"And the Cro-Magnon was just as good a man as we are, mentally and physically. The Cro-Magnons averaged five feet, nine inches tall, but some were six feet, three or four inches.

"You could bring a Cro-Magnon man to New York City today and after you had shown him a few wonders, he'd be able to get along all right."

Knight is convinced mankind's biggest defeat is his failure to develop spiritually.

"With all our advantages we haven't advanced spiritually, as we can't avoid and must," he said. "I don't think that spiritually we are better than Cro-Magnon."

"Confucius, Christ, Mohammed—these and other messiahs have told us a thousand times what to do. We know what to do—but we don't do it."

Kipling's Daughter Would Ban Biography

LONDON —(AP)— Rudyard Kipling's daughter declared she "will never permit" publication of a biography of her poet-father written at her request. She flatly refuses to say why.

Mrs. Elsie Bambridge, Kipling's daughter, said her decision to ban the book is final.

The biography, 160,000 words long, was written by the Earl of Birkenhead. He said she had supplied him with a stack of her father's letters, notes and manuscripts, including six unpublished poems.

Supplemented Data

He supplemented the data, he said, with extensive research and a trip to Brattleboro, Vt., where Kipling once lived.

Lord Birkenhead, now in a hospital for a minor foot operation, was quoted by London newspapers as saying:

"I know of no reason Mrs. Bambridge has refused to allow the book to be published. We had disagreed on some points in the manuscript, but I did not know she planned to ban it entirely."

Post-War Decline Of Shanghai Clubs

SHANGHAI — Oldtime night club operators moan that their business now mainly consists of brewing coffee to keep musicians awake and serving "tin roofs" to former good patrons who have gone broke.

The "Tin Roof" is a free drink, so called because it is "on the house." Usually it consists of cheap vodka and water. Night club business often has been called Shanghai's economic barometer. It once was highly prosperous.

In recent years it started to decline, along with Shanghai business in general under the Nationalists. Now that the Communists have taken over, there are fewer easy spenders than ever.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And The Tree Walkers

Sammy and Bobby and Mugwump, the monkey boys, were walking along by the creek one day. Soon they came to a place where a tree had fallen down, all the way across the creek.

Let's play like it's a bridge, said Bobby, and he walked out on the tree, over the water, all the way across the creek.

It was fun to be a tree walker. Sammy and Mugwump thought so too. They walked back and forth, wondering when and if they would fall in the water.

Here I come! cried Snuzan, and she put another foot on the tree. It started to bend down to the water.

WONDER WHAT GOT INTO THAT CHARACTER SELLING THE JUMPING BEANS TO GIVE ME AN EXTRA PACKAGE?

so everyone laughed about it later. And the thing to remember, I suppose, is that big folks sometimes can't do things that little folks can.

Oh, but a happy day now to you at your house, and tomorrow I'll tell you about the adventure Daddy Ringtail had with the ant policeman.

Americans Cut Down On Liquor Spending

WASHINGTON — Americans apparently drank less intoxicating liquor last year. It's certain they spent less on their drinking.

This was reported by the Commerce Department, which said the total 1948 outlay for whiskey, beer and wine was an estimated $8,000,000,000.

Hot? Try Tropical Sea Food Salad

SEA-FOOD SALAD—Served in chilled pineapple shells; an ideal hot-weather dish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Pineapples are still plentiful. Fish, both fresh and frozen, is on the list of July plentifuls. And the weather is hot—so that all leads to serving this beautiful new seafood salad:

Tropical Fish Salad
(Serve as main dish for 2 or side dish for 4)

Two large pineapples, 1 small can shrimp or 1/2 cup fresh-cooked shrimp, 1 cup cooked flaked fish, 1/4 cup diced cucumber, 1/4 cup diced celery, 1 tablespoon grated horseradish, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise.

Slice tops off pineapples. Remove pineapple pulp and save to use for dessert another day. Mix all ingredients and pile into hollowed-out pineapples.

Here are other delicious fish salads, ideal for warm weather meals:

Molded Sea Food Salad
(Serves 4)

One tablespoon unflavored gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1 cup boiled salad dressing, 2 cups flaked cooked fish fillets, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1 pimiento, minced, lettuce, thinly sliced cucumber, sour cream, salt, paprika.

Soften gelatin in cold water, then dissolve over boiling water and add to dressing. Fold in fish, celery and pimiento. Turn into previously wet mold, chill, unmold and garnish with lettuce cups filled with thinly sliced cucumber blended with seasoned sour cream. (Tuna fish or salmon may also be used for this salad.)

Flaked Fish Salad
(Serves 6)

Two cups flaked fish (cooked or canned), 1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, 1/2 cup celery, diced, 1/2 cup peas (cooked or canned), 2 tablespoons sweet pickle, chopped; 2 tablespoons onion, chopped; 3 hard-cooked eggs, diced, lettuce.

Combine all ingredients except the lettuce, being careful not to break the fish into too-small pieces. Serve on lettuce cups, and garnish with sliced eggs.

Traveling Teen-Ager

By JUNE HAZLIP
NEW ORLEANS, LA.—Well, we're here again, you lucky people! And this week we're coming in from Grand Old New Orleans, La., Gulfport, Miss., and Austin, Texas.

We saw so much in New Orleans we hardly know where to start—so, we'll just dive in and start talking. (Which isn't hard for us!) Of course, the first thing we did upon arriving in the "Crescent City" was to drive down historic old Canal Street, one of the widest thoroughfares in the United States. Canal street was named for the canals which at one time ran down the middle of the beautiful old street. However, these old canals now have been replaced by the trolley car tracks.

Canal street is the "Main Street" of New Orleans, where the old New Orleans meets the new. Going south from Canal Street, we could see the residential section and in the opposite direction we saw the Vieux Carre, (Old French Quarters).

Historical Spots

Being most interested in the old and historical side of the "Crescent City," we decided the Vieux Carre was the place for us—so we started the most unusual "hike" of our sweet young lives! We saw all the quaint old shops and eating places we had read about! A few were: The Court of the Two Sisters, Old French Market, Antoine, the Jean Lafayette "old hangout," The Dueling Oaks, Jackson Square, and just loads of other fascinating things! Here the "Teeners" speak French as fluently as we speak "Midland High Slang." (And with a southern accent, no less!) You should hear your "reporters" . . . we are even speaking a little French now! We hope someday we will be able to visit New Orleans during Mardi Gras, as we are now positive it is the "World's most fascinating city!"

Mississippi Visit

Leaving New Orleans we jumped over the border into Long Beach, Mississippi, (didn't think I could spell it, did you?) a small town on the Gulf Coast. Life was so rough here. All we did was eat, sleep, fish, and swim! Yep, we even went fishing—we hauled in two sharks and a sturgeon while everyone else pulled in trout!

We were lucky enough to get to visit the Gulf Park Camp at Gulf Park Junior College. It is a Summer camp for teen-age girls. On meeting the director of the camp, we nearly fainted. She proved to be Margarette Savage, an old friend of a great many Midland girls and former counsellor of Camp Waldemar. With our cute guide, June Browder of Pensacola, Fla., we toured the camp. Here we found Teeners enjoying swimming, tennis, boating, crabbing, dancing (with the Gulf Coast Military Academy boys!) acrobatics, crafts, and a million and one other things! We were so interested we had to be dragged away!

In the small towns along the coast the Teen-agers have quite a choice of recreation! These towns are so close together they seem to be one big town. It is a common practice for the Teeners of the Gulf Coast to drive several miles until they find a center or show, or something which will prove exciting! We want to thank the Teeners of the Gulf Coast for making us feel right at home!

After leaving Long Beach, we strolled back over to Louisiana, Baton Rouge, the capital of Louisiana was our "target" this time. Here in Baton Rouge, is one of the most beautiful and modern state capitals in the United States. We found that the larger cities, such as Baton Rouge, Austin and New Orleans, have several youth centers. Churches and young peoples organizations usually have their own. We would like to tell you more about these Centers, but we didn't get to visit them due to limited time.

Back To Texas

Completing our Baton Rouge visit, we picked up our bags and "straggled" back across the border to good old Texas, Austin again this time! Arriving in Austin we decided the heat was too much for us and proceeded to take a "dip" in Barton Springs! (And, incidentally, the water there is about the coldest in the country! Brrrrr!) We were only slightly shocked to run smack into Bud Aldridge, taking a sunbath at the edge of the pool! After picking up our teeth and talking to Bud, we found he is attending Summer school at Texas University! Barton Springs is one of the places in Austin where you always will find a gang of Teeners all day long!

Well, thanks for taking time to read this, and next week we hope to say "Hi" from Junction, Texas. If we should happen to run into any Midlander Teeners, which is quite likely, since several are in camp down "haha's" way, we'll let you know just how life is treating them! So, 'til next week . . . Adios.

Total meat consumption in the United States in 1948 was about 21.3 billion pounds.

Serve East Indian Curry For Variety

CURRIED LAMB OR CHICKEN—Served with rice and cranberry chutney makes a grand hot-weather meal.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

"Salt of the Orient," or curry, was the feature of the recent American Spice Trade Association annual luncheon in New York. Given for food writers, it stressed the significance of curries in both cold and hot weather, and a low-cost chutney to go with it, which substitutes the available American Indian mango.

Curry powder, the basis of the sauce, is a blend of numerous natural spices, whose synthesis produces the single exotic and aromatic flavor we know as curry. This flavor is equally delicious with lamb, veal, pork, poultry, fish, game, egg or vegetables.

It is always served with rice and a great variety of relishes. They are mixed with the rice and sauce in the proportion desired, and eaten. Relishes include chutney, grated coconut, chopped peanuts, chopped egg whites, chopped crisp bacon, chopped sweet red and green peppers, tart plum jam, chopped sweet pickles, minced onion and Bombay duck, a salted and cured

Sympathetic Dog Adopts Opossums

MIAMI —(AP)—A sympathetic dog has adopted two baby opossums. Snigs brought them home in her mouth from nearby woods and persisted in trying to feed them along with her own eight puppies.

Snigs' owner, Garnette Negee, said the inches-long opossums were too small to obtain nourishment from their foster mother in the normal way. So they were given food through an eye-dropper.

Female Motorist Gets Last Laugh

LOS ANGELES —(AP)—A wife who contended her driving mistake was "all my husband's fault" had the last laugh.

Mrs. Cora Elizabeth Stately was first convicted of failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian in a crosswalk. The appellate court reversed the conviction on her testimony that her husband, Julius, had told her to "go ahead, there's plenty of clearance."

The case was ordered back to city court.

City Judge Leo Aggeler, heard to murmur something about women and backseat driving, dismissed the case.

Love Is Stronger Than Prison Bars

SINGAPORE —(AP)—Lee Sun, 32, and Low Sei Mui, 16, were awaiting repatriation to China under emergency regulations. They wanted to be wed. Authorities checked on their story with their parents while the couple were still in separate detention camps in Johore.

Once their stories were shown to be true, the two were brought to Outram prison here and the wedding was arranged.

An official of the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs acted as master of ceremonies while the official public relations department photographer served as a witness.

Bryce Canyon Bad Place To Lose Cow

BRYCE NATIONAL PARK, UTAH —(AP)—To the tourist, Bryce Canyon is an amphitheater filled with pink formations resembling people, spires and minarets, castles and bridges.

To the first man to settle near its mouth, it was also something quite different. It was made a national park in 1928 and named after Ebenezer Bryce, a Mormon pioneer.

Asked for his reaction to the scenic spot, Bryce was reported to have agreed it had fantastic beauty and to have commented: "I remember it was a bad place to lose a cow."

Judith Anderson Has Gardener's Urge To Develop Black Rose

By GEORGE TUCKER
AP Newsfeature Writer

NEW YORK — There is a strong, old-fashioned, Luther Burbankian tinge to the ambitions of Judith Anderson, one of the real first ladies of the theater.

It concerns a garden by the sea in Santa Barbara, California.

"I'm going to try to develop a black rose," she said. "I'll start with the darkest red rose I can find. I've tried before, but I didn't understand all the mysteries that are tied in with developing it. I think I know now."

The trick, according to Miss Anderson, lies in sinking a certain mixture of chemicals deep in the earth, well below the roots.

Mixture Is Secret

The chemicals are slow-acting. Day by day the petals on the succeeding rose buds get darker and darker. Sounds simple, if you know what chemicals to use. But that's Miss Anderson's secret.

She was playing a return engagement of "Medea" in New York after a long road tour. Miss Anderson portrayed a frustrated woman who strangles her children in a fit of depression. Though two thousand years old, it still is a modern play, she said.

"It's about a man who takes a woman and uses her until he is tired of her and then looks elsewhere. Isn't that modern?"

She wants to play a comedy now, she said.

"I want to be gay, and make people laugh. After playing villainous women so long, I feel like a change. It doesn't affect my private life. But on the stage the hissing and hate after months and months builds up.

Wants Good Plays

"I don't want to preach my plays," Miss Anderson went on. "But I want to do good plays, and I want people to go away enriched."

What little time the actress has been able to claim from the constant train rides has been divided between hook-rugs and reading.

The actress planned to wind up her tour and fly to Honolulu to present the play.

"I was there so much during the war," she said. "I found things so pleasant and everyone was so nice that this is my way of saying thank you."

Then to her cottage in Santa Barbara, to laze and sun, soaking up some of the energy she used up in "Medea."

"There by the sea, in a little garden, I'll pray for the blooming of a big black rose," she said.

Production of canned meat totalled 1,099 million pounds in 1947, most of it being pork products.
