Clean Oil Found In Midland-Fusselman

More indications of the possible discovery of oil from the Fusselman zone of the Silurian in Central-South Midland County has been developed at Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-30 Glass.

This venture, a long northeast outcrop to the center of the Pegasus field in Central-North Upton County had a recovery of 555 feet of clean 45.3 gravity oil and 615 feet of very heavy oil and gas cut mud during a drillstem test at the top of the Fusselman, 11,950-12,000 feet.

The tester was in the hole for four hours, but the chart showed that the tool became plugged after 10 minutes.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was from 500 pounds to 4,900 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes, was 5,080 pounds.

Tool Was Plugged
The fact that the tool was plugged accounted for the high open flowing pressure shown, and that also is thought to have kept the recovery of oil from being more than the 555 feet which was brought out.

This is the second unsatisfactory test taken by this prospector in the top of the Fusselman. On the first investigation the packer failed after 22 minutes. In spite of that a considerable amount of heavily oil and gas cut mud was recovered.

On the first test gas showed at the surface in five minutes. It reached a maximum volume of 405,000 cubic feet per day.

Drill Pipe Unloaded Fluid
On the second test gas showed at the top in five and one-half minutes. Maximum volume was 79,900 cubic feet per day.

On the last test the drill pipe unloaded fluid regularly after 119 stands of pipe had been racked.

The prospector is making more hole. It is 1,200 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 30, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S.

It had previously flowed oil in commercial amounts from the Pennsylvanian and had indicated possibilities of making an oil well from the Devonian.

RNGC Tests Show In San Andres Lime

Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1 American Republics Corporation, Central-North Upton County well, three miles south and a little west of the discovery well of the Pegasus field, was taking a drillstem test in the San Andres lime of the Permian at 4,664-4,825 feet.

That zone had shown some oil stains, some porosity and had drilled soft. Results of the test had not been received at the time this report was prepared.

The venture is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 6, block 40, TP survey, T-5-S, and is to go to 13,000 feet to explore into the Ellenburger.

Weather Forecast Is Unfavorable For Big Thompson Race

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Pilots of the world's fastest competitive planes prayed as they worked Monday, pleading for good weather and a fair chance at the $16,000 first prize that goes with the Thompson trophy.

The forecast, however, was unfavorable. Late Monday thunder showers with gusty winds were predicted.

The Thompson, reduced in distance from 300 to 225 miles, is the outstanding event of the National Air Races. The planes will be shooting this year at a $2,000 bonus for beating the record of 396 miles an hour set by Cook Cleland of Cleveland in 1947.

The mark stood up last year when seven of the ten starters were forced out.

Air force jet fighters will fly the Thompson again this year after skipping one season.

The jet Thompson was scheduled for 1:35 p.m. and the propeller Thompson was to follow an hour later.

Holiday Death Toll Mounts To 326

Heavy Back Home Traffic Yet To Come

The Nation's Labor Day toll of holiday weekend accidental deaths reached 326 Monday, with the heavy home-going traffic yet to come.

The total included 259 traffic deaths, 23 drownings, and 44 deaths in miscellaneous mishaps.

The National Safety Council has predicted 280 deaths in traffic accidents alone during the holiday period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday.

In California, one woman was killed Sunday when the car in which she was riding was struck simultaneously by two Southern Pacific freight trains traveling in opposite directions.

Deaths over the weekend last year totaled 407, of which 293 were in traffic mishaps.

The death toll by states, with traffic, drowning and miscellaneous fatalities listed in that order in which they occurred:

Arkansas 7-1-2; Colorado 4-0-0; Louisiana 3-0-0; New Mexico 1-0-0; Oklahoma 7-1-0; Texas 5-0-5.

Everyone Lays Off—Almost

NEW YORK—(AP)—This is Labor Day, a holiday for all those who do America's work.

And everybody is off having a wonderful time except—The cops on the beat, firemen, motion picture operators, telephone girls, utility plane workers, bus drivers and pickpockets.

Yes, everybody has a grand feeling of freedom except—Bar tenders, busboys, chambermaids, airplane pilots, bellhops and mothers.

Oh, sure, everybody is blissfully relaxing from the daily routine except—Performing bears and other actors, train crews, lifeguards, night club entertainers, waiters, watchmen, dairy cows and the men who give them a hand.

What a gay day, indeed, it is for everybody except—Druggists, ice cream dishers-uppers, delicatessen owners, Chinese restaurant keepers, hatcheck girls, panhandlers, street cleaners and men who make a career of taking dogs for an airing.

Even the escalators in the department stores have a full day off. Who doesn't except—Wireless operators on ships at sea, agents of the SPCA, nurses, hospital internes, the man at the morgue waiting for careless holiday motorists, baseball players, racehorses, jockeys, weather forecasters, boys and girls trying to swim the English Channel, flagpole sitters and the men and women who produce your daily newspaper.

General Short To Be Interred At Arlington

DALLAS—(AP)—The body of Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short, who called himself the military scapgoat for Pearl Harbor, was enroute to Arlington National Cemetery Monday.

The 69-year-old commander of Army forces at the Pacific bastion struck unexpectedly on Dec. 7, 1941, died quietly at home Saturday night. He had been ill for some time of chronic heart disease.

Burial services probably will be held Wednesday.

Mr. Five By Five Goes Up

Ferry Coplon of Birmingham, Ala., climbs to his new home to spend 100 days, hoping that when he climbs down he will be 150 pounds lighter. Coplon, who tortures the scales with 357 pounds, decided to fast in the six-by-six house on a 20-foot pole—the only way he could remove himself from the temptation of his wife's cooking.

Gunfire Reported Between American And Czech Guards

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—German Border Police reported Monday that U. S. Constabulary troops and Czechoslovak Border Police exchanged more than 600 pistol shots near Hof Sunday.

The reason for the gunfire between American and Czech border elements could not be determined immediately.

German eyewitnesses reported that Czech Border Guards first opened fire on an American and German border patrol late Friday night.

The shooting was repeated during the night of Saturday to Sunday when an American Constabulary patrol approached the Czech border. German police said that, as far as they knew, nobody was hurt in the exchange.

One German official described the incident as "aimless shooting." The exchange Sunday lasted four hours, the police said.

Texas Death List Under Expectations

By The Associated Press
Texas was ahead of the grim guessing game on the number of persons who would die over the long Labor Day holiday.

Through Sunday night only 10 persons had met violent death—a much lower figure than the usual number of holiday deaths. It was even smaller than some ordinary weekends, when fatalities have run into the twenties or thirties.

Five persons died in traffic accidents, two in a plane crash, one from shooting and two by other causes.

Johnny Storm Plaza, three, was killed Saturday when a train hit his tricycle as he rode down the tracks on a make-believe trip to California.

Pic. Junious W. Stewart, 23, stationed at Camp Hood, started the holiday court Friday night when his car overturned near Taylor and he was killed.

Harold Jones, 26, of Austin was killed Saturday when his motorcycle hit a road spot and overturned near Austin.

Louis Hinnicut of Mount Pleasant died Friday night in an automobile wreck.

Joe Valdez of Lubbock was shot to death Sunday. Joe Berlango, Jr., was charged with murder.

Robert M. Lee, 22, of Memphis, Texas, was killed when his car overturned near Christmas Sunday.

Charles Phillips Maddox, 13, of Gordon was injured fatally Saturday night when a pickup truck and a flat-bed truck collided about three miles east of Strawn.

Two men identified as Herbert Reid and James Vaughn, Air Force cadets from Connally Air Force Base at Waco, were killed Sunday when their rented airplane crashed into the Gulf of Mexico off Galveston.

Lt. Edward L. Helmstetter, 27, stationed at Fort Bliss, was found dead in an El Paso driveway Sunday. An autopsy report said he was suffocated by blood pouring from a broken jaw into the upper respiratory tract. Officers and Army criminal investigation agents said they had no idea who killed Helmstetter or why.

No, falsies, the young hopefuls will be warned.

Midland Schools To Open Tuesday

Vacation for more than 4,000 students of Midland will be over as the 1949-50 school term opens at 8:55 a.m. Tuesday. Supt. Frank Monroe Monday declared everything in readiness for the opening day.

Getting into full swing on the first day, a full program is planned in each of the eight schools. Both the high school and junior high school are in new locations.

High school students will attend their first day in the new plant on West Illinois Street. The high school buildings are not complete in all respects, but will accommodate the more than 650 students expected the first day.

Midland Junior High School is meeting in the West Texas Street building which formerly housed the high school. Officials anticipate at least 900 students the first day.

South and West Elementary schools each have four additional classrooms since the last school term ended. The old South Elementary building on South Main Street will be used as well as the new one.

Cafeterias for the three elementary schools will be open on the first day. High school and junior high cafeterias are not ready for use, but will be soon.

High school students are instructed to report to their first period classes at 8:45 a. m. Students who have failed to register are to go to room 202. Students who have lost their registration blanks must get duplicates from the office before attending classes.

New students who have Resters Are Pested
In junior high, sixth grade students should report to the gymnasium; seventh grade, to the auditorium, and eighth grade, to the cafeteria.

President Pledges All-Out Battle For 'Fair Deal' Program

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
PITTSBURGH—(AP)—President Truman Monday unleashed a blistering attack against the "selfish interests" opposing his "Fair Deal" program, and grimly promised a fight to the finish for its enactment.

In a scathing speech which apparently set the tone for next year's Democratic congressional campaigns, Truman declared that this fight will succeed despite a "scare word campaign" intended to "confuse the people and turn them against their own best interests."

The president said many of his proposals have progressed in the face of such "trumped up slogans" as "statism" and "collectivism."

These, he said, were thought up by "a lot of paid agitators, promoters and publicity experts who make a fat living by frightening the people in the higher income brackets."

Asserting that people have all along had to fight for progress, Truman declared "We still have a fight on our hands" against the "selfish forces of reaction and special privilege."

"The people of the United States have been winning that fight for 100 years," he added. "I am convinced that we will continue to win it through the years to come."

The President's free-swinging Labor Day talk at the Allegheny County Free Fair bristled with familiar 1948 campaign criticisms of the GOP-controlled 80th Congress— which he called "a threat to almost every bit of the forward-looking legislation passed during recent years."

In contrast, Truman sharply denounced the present Democratic 81st Congress, asserting it has "reversed this backward trend" by ending the "piecemeal destruction of the hard-won protections and benefits that the people have built for themselves."

He offered as refutation a list of measures passed during the present session "over the fierce opposition of the selfish interests."

And while he conceded that these interests have thus far prevented repeal of the labor-hated Taft-Hartley Law, he added this pledge: "That issue is far from settled. We are going to continue to fight for the repeal of that repressive law until it is wiped off the statute books."

Russian Campaign On Tito Backfires

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA—(AP)—A top government spokesman says Russia wants the people of Yugoslavia to rebel against Marshal Tito but that the Soviet anti-Yugoslav campaign has had an opposite effect and has unified the people behind Tito.

Moshe Pjadic, a vice president of Yugoslavia and a ranking member of Tito's Politburo, told a mass meeting Sunday that Yugoslavia does not fear Russia.

"They (the Russians) wanted to raise the people against the state leadership," he said. "They did just the opposite. They cemented the unity of the people and their leadership."

Pjadic said the economic blockade of Yugoslavia by Russia and her satellites also has proved futile.

'Cathy In Hollywood' Story Has Real Miracle Behind It

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Cathy Downs has red hair, a luscious smile and a sense of humor. She also has a story. I'm calling the story "Cathy in Hollywood."
It could happen to almost any New York model who takes a film test on Wednesday, wins a contract, and on Friday is rushed to Hollywood on the Super Chief.
It happened to Cathy five years ago. She was just 18.
The studio needing her in such a hurry was 20th Century-Fox. In three years she worked in only two pictures!
Then there was an economy wave and her contract wasn't renewed. Now she's free-lancing and doing very well. You'll see her next as the leading lady in "The Sundowners," with Bob Preston and John Barrymore, Jr. But I'm ahead of Cathy's Hollywood story.
George Jessel was on the same train that brought Cathy and her mother to Hollywood. Cathy remembers:
"By the time we got to Chicago, Jessel said he thought he was in love with me."

"By the time we got to Hollywood he said he WAS in love with me. He asked me for a date. I said I'd be glad to go out with him if my mother went along.
"He looked startled but he was game. The three of us went to dinner. He was just separating from Lois Andrews. I guess he wanted me to feel sorry for him. I felt sorry for him but not sorry enough. We had a couple of more dates and now when we meet we greet each other with a polite hello."
Charming Man
Cathy's first picture was "The Dark Corner." Maybe you remember. She played the wife of Clifton Webb. It was her first acting anywhere except in the studio of a dramatic coach.
"I was nervous but Clifton was very sweet to me. Later, when I went to see the picture, I realized why he was being so sweet to me. He was stealing scenes from me like taking candy away from a baby."
Then there was "My Darling Clementine." Cathy played the title role. But she's honest enough to explain that it was only a second lead. Linda Darnell was the star.
"For a year Cathy didn't even see a movie camera. Then her contract wasn't renewed. It wasn't at all like the agent from Hollywood said when he discovered Cathy with clothespins holding her together.
I know. An explanation quick. Every model knows the trick. When clothes are too big, they gather the material at the back and snap on the clothespins. Cathy just had snapped on a couple of clothespins on a dress a size too large when the agent said: "You should be in pictures."
"I was so startled," Cathy said, "the clothespins snapped off and the dress almost fell off. I was so embarrassed I couldn't even speak."
In two years of free-lancing, Cathy has had leads in five pictures. She's thankful for that sense of humor. "It can take care of any situation."
Around The Circuit
There are plenty of situations for a free-lancing actress in Hollywood, going from studio to studio and office to office for interviews. "It's the only thing she now finds confusing.
"At one studio I'm too young for a role. At another studio I'm too old. I lost a role because somebody said "You're too pretty and you look too healthy." Another studio didn't find me attractive at all. But I really don't care what they say about my looks as long as they are convinced I'm a good actress."
Occasionally—leave us face it—there's the movie executive who gives Cathy the old routine: "You'd be just too, too wonderful in this role. Would you have dinner with me?"
"So I go," Cathy said, "and I fight my way home. I look pretty bad in the morning anyway but I still can look at myself in the mirror."
Cathy has the most dramatic real life story in Hollywood.
At the age of three, at her parents' Long Island, N. Y., home, she was attacked by a maddened German shepherd dog. It took two men with baseball bats to rescue her.
A doctor put 29 stitches on her face and predicted she would die. If she survived, through some miracle, he said she would be blind, deaf or mute or all three. The miracle happened but she was left neither blind nor deaf nor mute. But she didn't speak for two months and her eyes weren't normal until she was six.

HOW TO PLAY CANASTA: 7 Wild Card Retains Own Value

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service
After completing the draw in four-handed Canasta, a player may meld, if he is able and willing to do so. (He must meld if he draws the up-card of the pack.)
Sequences are not melded in Canasta, only cards of the same rank; for example, three or more queens or three or more six-spots. Suits and sequences play no part in Canasta.
The initial legal meld of a side must conform to the minimum requirements outlined in the scoring table.
After an initial legal meld has been made, a player in his proper turn may make any additional melds or add cards to melds previously made by his side.
A meld of three or more cards always must have at least two natural cards, and not more than three wild cards.
WILD CARDS: The four jokers and the eight deuces are wild. A joker or a deuce may be used to help you lay down a meld. The value of a joker or deuce does not change to the value of the card for which it is used. For example, if you put down two sevens and a joker, the joker counts 50 points, and not 5 points as each of the other sevens does.
Once a wild card is melded, it cannot be taken back into the hand by the substitution of a natural card. In other words, there is no trading for a wild card.
Wild cards may be used to make a meld or to add to a meld previously made. Any number of wild cards may be added to a completed Canasta, but no other meld may contain more than three wild cards. Deuces and jokers cannot be melded by themselves.
MELDING OUT: A player melds out when he can legally get rid of the last card in his hand, either by discarding it, or making a meld, or playing it to a meld for his side.
CONCEALED HAND: An extra bonus of 100 points is given to a player who melds out with a concealed hand. To earn this bonus, he must meld all of his cards in one turn, not having previously melded any of his cards, nor can he play any of his cards on a meld previously made by his partner. (A concealed hand of course must not contain any red treys; they must be placed face up on the table at the player's first opportunity to play, and a card drawn from the stock pile to replace each red trey placed on the table.)
To go out with a concealed hand, either the player's partner must have previously melded a Canasta or the concealed hand must contain a Canasta.
TOMORROW: Four-handed play concluded.

Social Situations

SITUATION: You are sending out written invitations to a child's birthday party.
WRONG WAY: Give the time the party is to begin, but not the time when it is to end.
RIGHT WAY: Give both times, so that the parents can make arrangements for picking up the children afterward.

Tipplers Harangue Preacher For Booze
OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Baptist Minister Thomas R. Byford is a patient man, even when he is continually mistaken for a bootlegger.
It seems that customers of Harold Byford, convicted Oklahoma City bootlegger, mistakenly call the minister when they get low on spirits in this constitutionally dry state.
Night and day, for months, the slightly tipsy have been phoning for delivery service.
The minister thought it was amusing at first, but then it became more than annoying when he "One fellow even called me long distance from Detroit and said he had a truckload ready to leave," Byford explained. I tried to tell him he had the wrong number but I couldn't make him understand. Finally I told him I could give him a number to phone. I gave him the number of the sheriff."

For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.—Ecclesiastes 3:19.

Labor Has Responsibilities

Labor Day is the moment of the year when our politicians remind the workman that he is the backbone of the nation and recite for him the long list of rights and privileges to which he is heir.

We prefer to talk about the opposite face of those rights and privileges—the worker's duties and responsibilities.

There is no question that organized labor has achieved a fair measure of maturity since the first wild days of its new-found strength in the depression 1930's.

Labor wants a rising floor under wages, but no ceiling. It wants full protection in its right to strike but acts as if it should be exempt from penalty when people are hurt or property is damaged while a strike is on.

Admittedly, labor is not alone in this stress on getting instead of giving. The farmers too often have exhibited a similar attitude. And for a long span in U. S. history, businessmen behaved in the same fashion.

Too many labor leaders have fallen into the habit of identifying themselves with all humanity and thus labeling criticism as an attack upon "people" in the large.

They would do better to urge upon their members a responsibility to act under the same laws that govern others; to accept a role in society equal to their numbers, their ability and their character, rather than to try to be the whole show; and to develop a new pride of workmanship to replace that which vanished when the minutely subdivided tasks of mass production pushed the proud craftsman off the scene.

Workingmen with this sort of attitude greatly would enhance labor's stature and enrich their contribution to American living.

A survey reveals only 53 per cent of American men have pajamas and only 40 per cent have a suit of Summer clothes. Wonder what the other seven per cent sleep in?

Four little words too often lead a person to tell you all his troubles—"How do you feel?"

Many men boast of being self-made. Others have been working on more important things.

Every Man A King

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Robert S. Allen says: Bill Green keeps rolling along—has no thought of quitting AFL presidency; Senator Elbert Thomas thinks labor can win against Taft-Hartley law in 1950 elections; Phil Murray has overwhelming support in battle against Communists in CIO.

WASHINGTON—Like old man, William Green, grand old man of the American Federation of Labor, intends to keep right on rolling along.

He will be reelected for his twenty-sixth presidential term at the AFL convention in St. Paul starting October 2.

The 76-year-old one-time coal miner is hale and active. He travels extensively and speaks frequently. His prestige is at peak level in his own organization and with labor generally.

No union chief is more highly regarded in the White House and in Congress.

In recent years, reports have circulated from time to time that Green planned to retire. There was nothing to them, other than the fact that certain ambitious aspirants would like to get his job.

It looks like he will continue to be so for a long time to come.

As far as Senator Elbert D. Thomas (D-Utah) is concerned, the effort to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act is in its final stages.

The scholarly chairman of the Senate Labor Committee strongly favors repeal. He was in the forefront of the fight for that earlier this year.

In Thomas' opinion the issue will have to be battled out in the 1950 campaign that elects the 82nd Congress.

"I think labor has an excellent chance to win its case on Taft-Hartley in next year's election," Thomas said. "Labor has learned a lot in the last year. It has matured politically. Proof of that is that we now have labor unity such as never before has been attained in our country."

Labor has a legitimate case against Taft-Hartley and I honestly believe can win that case at the ballot box.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

The other day Alexander Weiss of New York came up to me and said, "Bill, I suppose everybody tells you about the hard luck they have had on one hand or another. They never tell you about the hands in which they get all the breaks."

If there ever was a hand in which every break was right, this is the one. He was playing with Benjamin O. Johnson of Spartanburg, S. C.

You will notice that Mr. Johnson's opening bid was one heart. With three four-card suits the rule of the better player is to bid the suit under the singleton. For example: with a singleton diamond bid a club; with a singleton club bid a spade. In today's hand the singleton is a spade, so you bid a heart.

Weiss did not bid a spade over a heart, but preferred to show that he held a five-card suit. Of course, the bid of two clubs does not necessarily say that, but when he later bid spades, this did show a minimum of five clubs and four spades.

When his partner bid three no trump, Weiss did not lose any time looking for aces, but simply jumped to six clubs.

When you look at the dummy, you can see that making the contract presents many problems. However, there will be no problem in the following situations existing: If the clubs break two-two, if the finesses of the queen of clubs is right; if the jack-ten and a small spade is in one hand; if the queen-jack and a small diamond is in one hand (the ten-spade can be set up for a discard); if the ace-queen of hearts is in front of the king-jack.

Now look at the hand and you can see that every one of these combinations actually exists. It is the type of hand in which it is almost impossible to make a wrong play.

Vitamin B Complex Has Many Important Parts To It

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

It is now well known that there is no single "vitamin B" but rather a group of several different substances which are different chemically and have different actions.

There are at least a dozen separate parts to what is known as the vitamin B complex.

One of the most important of these is known as thiamine. Some foods are particularly rich in thiamine, including peas, beans, whole wheat, oatmeal, enriched flour and bread made from it, peanuts, and lean pork.

There have been extensive studies carried out on all of these but it is impossible to mention more than a few important points about these interesting, important and complicated parts of the vitamin B complex.

Postman In Florida Finds Dogs Friendly

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—(AP)—Postman Johnny Jones, who has been carrying mail 14 years, has a few observations on dogs.

"I have no trouble with big ones. People are just scared of their size. It's the little ones that are yappiest and which will chase you."

"Ninety per cent of the dogs I've met are friendly; the others are the reserved type, not necessarily mean but stand-offish. First thing I do when I meet a new dog is whistle and talk to him in a friendly voice. The thing to do is be friendly, but don't push it."

"If you're riding a bicycle, remember it's the bike the dog is barking at. Get off and walk until the animal gets to know you. Never act afraid; don't threaten a dog. Don't pick up a stick because you may startle him into attacking you. Troubles with dogs are mostly caused by humans."

Anyways, handle a dog right and he'll respond in a friendly way.

Charles Kellogg, 80, Famous 'Bird Man', Dies In California

MORGAN HILL, CALIF.—(AP)—Charles Kellogg, 80, who could imitate almost any bird and put out flames with his voice through a locked door, died Sunday night at his ranch, "Ever Ever Land."

Kellogg's larynx had been declared more like a bird's than a human's. He could produce at will high frequency tones that would: Extinguish a two foot gas flame. Start an automobile equipped with a sound-sensitive starter ten miles away with his radiocast voice.

But most of all, he was known as the "bird man" for his voice could be that of a plover, a Canadian goose, a canary, or even a kiwi.

Midland Student Will Attend McMurry Event

ABILENE—Bill Wolfe of Midland is to be one of 20 students attending the annual officers' retreat sponsored by the student council of religious activities at McMurry College. Wolfe is vice president of the McMurry Forum.

The retreat will begin at noon Saturday, with planning sessions to be held that afternoon and evening. Delegates will attend church and worship services Sunday and are to be an official welcoming committee for new students arriving during the week.

Included in the business plans will be a unified action program for religious emphasis week, deputations and mission tours, and spiritual and social projects for the 1949-50 school year. Officers of the Christian Foundation, Ministerial Forum and Life Service Volunteers are to attend.

The dining room is operated by nationwide food service company of Chicago. It pays a minimum rate of 45 cents an hour. Some of the older waiters get up to 55 cents an hour. They also get tips.

But there is a hitch to that. The waiters say senators are notoriously stingy tippers. A dime is a big tip for many of them.

Note—Bus girls, who get no tips, also are paid 45 cents an hour.

The United Mine Workers welfare fund, most grandiose in the country, is in trouble. It is running in the red.

House Members May Wish They'd Stayed On Job

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—So the House of Representatives decided to go home for 26 days. So the representatives wanted to give the senators time to catch up. So distinguished members of the Lower House felt they had nothing to do. How interesting.

A look at the House calendar for August 26—last work day before the boys' went home on vacation—shows just how much unfinished business they left behind them.

First importance is the aid to education bill. The Senate has passed a bill on this subject. Chairman John Leshak's House Committee on Labor and Education is snarled up on a religious side-issue and is making no progress. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

This same committee similarly is fouled up on labor legislation. The Senate has passed a bill making some changes in the two-year-old Taft-Hartley bill. The House passed a quite different bill, then voted to recommit it. The House Labor Committee has done nothing to break the deadlock. Instead, it has gone on strike. It ought to be here thrashing it out.

A bill to increase social security benefits finally has been approved by the House Ways and Means Committee after four years of monkeying around. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

Similarly, President Truman's proposals for national health insurance have been before Congress for several years. The Senate Labor Committee has held partial hearings and recessed. The House Commerce Committee hasn't even begun to hold hearings. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

Legislation to provide home rule for the District of Columbia—another issue that has been kicking around a long time—has been kicked in the House District Committee all year. The measure has been given up for dead again this year. But they ought to be here thrashing it out.

Legislation to grant statehood to Hawaii and Alaska has been reported out by the House Public Lands Committee for some months, but there has been no progress. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

Also, the Marshall Plan and the Army civil functions appropriations bills were in conference. Stop-gap legislation has been passed, authorizing expenditures on these programs until October, but this doesn't clean up the business. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

By the time the House comes back to town, the Senate will have completed action on military establishment appropriations, military assistance for Europe authorizations and Interior, deficiency and supplemental appropriations legislation in all, more than $2,000,000,000 worth of money bills for this year's government expenditures will be hung up, three months after the fiscal year has begun. They ought to be here thrashing it out.

Only Short-Range Programs There were 70 reported bills on what's known as the House "Union Calendar," unacted on as the representatives went fishing. They ought to be here thrashing them out.

Museum Will House Government Office

BONN, GERMANY.—(AP)—Some officials of the new German Federal Republic will have stuffed lions, pre-historic mammoths and rare butterflies as neighbors. They'll all be together in the Alexander Koenig museum in this first capital city of Western Germany.

Bomb-battered Bonn is woefully of office space. New buildings are blossoming amid the war ruins. But until it will be years before enough space is available to house all the ministries of the infant republic. If they stay here permanently, so one ministry probably will settle in the museum. It will have one wing—and the relics of the past will have what's left.

An electric battery that will start an engine at a temperature of 65 degrees below zero Fahrenheit has been developed.

Steps to the Moon

By Adelaide Humpries

It into his handsome head that he'd like to be her third matrimonial experiment? Denny might not be any too pleased when he learned that she was going to marry Fritz, instead of Barry. But of course that was different.

Barry said, "Mrs. Day may have something to say about that. I think you should meet her."

"Good heavens, Barry, anyone would think you had been taken by this female, too!"

Barry smiled. "You know better than that. But really, my dear, I think you're borrowing trouble. Madeline Day is a good influence for Denny."

"I hope you're right," Gaynel said. He usually was. And, as always, just talking it over with him had made her feel better.

They were nearing the University. Barry turned in toward the bowl. Cars were jammed on all sides in the wide fields that served as parking lots.

"There'll be a nice jam afterwards," Barry observed. "We'd never get out if we'd tried to come closer. May take an hour or so, at that."

Gaynel said all of that was part of the fun. The crowd to be was as thrilling as the game. She always experienced a prickle down her spine at the spectacular sight the big bowl presented, the rainbow of colors surrounding that smooth green carpet it enclosed.

Their seats were on the 40-yard line in the sixth row. By the time they reached them the players had come out, amidst frantic cheers from each side, to begin a few preliminary formations.

The first half was thrilling and its end brought out the bands for their turn at providing a thrill. They spelled out Michigan and then Ohio State; the drum majors were magnificent in pompous dignity, with their antics with their batons.

"Isn't that Denny down there?" Gaynel had been employing Barry's field glasses. "Near the 50-yard line. . . Here, Barry, take a look. No. . . wait. . . it is Denny, speaking of the devil—and it that Mrs. Day with him?"

Bulldogs Scheduled In Scrimmage Monday; Will Polish Offense, Defense This Week

The Midland High School Bulldogs will face the Monahans Lobos in a scrimmage at Memorial Stadium Monday afternoon in the final head-knocking session against outside competition before the season opens. The scrimmage was scheduled at 3 p.m.

Cochman Tugboat Jones Monday indicated the Bulldogs will settle down to polishing their offense, especially passing, in other sessions this week. The opening game is Friday night in Yaleta.

Several boys who have been on the injured list are scheduled to return to the lineup Monday or Tuesday.

Cecil Stephens, a back; Jimmy O'Neal, center; Graham Mackey, end; Charles Crowley, back, and possibly others are due back before the opening game.

The Bulldogs scrimmaged the Andrews Mustangs here Saturday afternoon.

Indians Beat Ballinger 6-3

The Midland Indians go against the Ballinger Cats in a double-header in Ballinger Monday night. The Labor Day bargain bill will start at 7 p.m.

Ernie Nelson may attempt the iron-man stunt in the two seven-inning tilts to give the Indian pitching staff a little rest.

If he is unable to go both ends, Rookie Bob Harrel probably will hurt the final game. Claude Horton will do the relieving.

BALLINGER—The Midland Indians loosed an attack of extra-base hits here Sunday night to down the Ballinger Cats 6 to 3. Claude Horton, the Indians' commuting pitcher, helped his own cause with a home run in the fourth inning. He allowed the Cats only nine hits.

Bob Rose, flashy little second baseman, also homered for Midland.

Warren Sliiter and Rose, with three hits each, held up the top end of the batting order while Kenny Peacock, Gus Pena and Horton collected two hits each on the bottom end of the order.

Kenny Jones got one bingle. Peacock's big blow was a triple which drove in an Indian run.

Horton blanked the Cats all the way except for the eighth inning when they touched him for five straight singles to count three runs.

The win kept the Indians in third place and moved them a half game closer to the second-place Vernon Dusters, who split with Roswell in a double-header.

Western Plastic To Meet Joe's Gulf In Joan Benefit Game

The Joan Edwards Recovery Fund will get another boost: forward Wednesday night when Western Plastic and Joe's Gulf meet at Indian Park in a benefit baseball game.

The two teams recently met in the finals of the Midland Softball League playoffs for the championship. Western Plastic won the title after a hard fight.

Wednesday night, they lay aside the softball and take up the hard baseball for the benefit tilt.

Since the teams are evenly matched, it is expected to be one of the best exhibition games of the season.

Bulldog Boosters To Meet Tuesday Night

Members of the Midland Bulldog Booster Club will hear a report from Tugboat Jones again Tuesday night at the regular weekly meeting in the Junior High School (old high school).

The Bulldogs will participate in a "Kickoff Dinner" at The Colony, downtown Midland restaurant, before the Booster Club meeting.

All Boosters are urged to be on hand when the regular meeting opens at 8 p.m.

Longhorn League—
Colts Kick Oilers Twice To Tighten Fourth Place Hold

By The Associated Press

Four double-headers are on the Labor Day menu for teams in the Longhorn League.

The San Angelo Colts strengthened their grip on fourth place in the standings by winning a twin bill Sunday from the sixth-place Odessa Oilers 2-1 and 4-1.

Ted Squillante's homer in the top of the second extra inning gave the Colts the opener. The Colts tallied three runs in the fifth to take the nightcap.

Vernon split a double-header with Roswell, dropping the opener 3-0 and winning the nightcap 12-3. Mel Neuse's home run during a two-run Roswell rally in the third inning was the first game. A ten-run rally in the first gave the Dusters the second game.

Pat Stacey and Ray Vasquez collected six of Big Spring's eleven bingles as the loop leaders downed Sweetwater 7-2.

The Midland Indians defeated the Ballinger Cats 6-3. Sparking the Indian attack were Claude Horton, Midland hurler, and Rose, Sliiter, and Jones.

West Texas Open Skeet Shoot Ends

The Third Annual West Texas Open Skeet Shoot came to a close here Sunday with the champions showing their colors and stamina in nerve wrecking shootoffs for some of the important championships. Mrs. Ann Martin continued to distinguish herself by putting up a championship battle down to the last bird.

She fired a 75-straight in the 20-gauge shootoff against Mickey Michales, the national 20-gauge champ, to annex that title. He could muster only a 73.

The two met again Sunday afternoon in a shootoff for the runner-up spot in the All-Bore and Michales came out on top by one bird. He broke 150 straight while Mrs. Martin was dropping one bird in her last 25. She had run a string of 200 straight in the 20-gauge shootoff and the first 125 of the All-Bore shootoff previous to that.

Conway Wins

D. W. Conway of Clint stopped all competitors in the All-Bore shooting Saturday by breaking 199 out of 200 for the championship.

Wright Cowden of Midland lost out in the All-Bore shootoff early to drop back to runner-up in the Class AA division. Mrs. Martin's second place finish gave her the Class AA championship.

The Galveston two-man team of Michales and Bill Eggers, who travel the skeet shoot circuit together, whipped the Midland team of Wright Cowden and George Glass, Jr., by one bird to annex that title in a shootoff.

The Galveston boys broke 100 straight to 99 for the Midlanders.

H. L. Armstrong bested Jack Garrett 25 to 24 for the Industry All-Bore (pro) championship in a shoot-off.

Bear Betts annexed the Industry Overall.

Congressman Ken Regan awarded the 69 trophies in impressive ceremonies at the Midland Gun Club clubhouse following the shootoffs.

Rules Clinic Here Draws Coaches And Officials From Area

Poss. Yearly, noted Southwest Conference and college football official, covered the Interscholastic League football rule book backward and forward here Sunday as more than 50 coaches and officials from this area met for the annual rules clinic. The meeting was especially important this year since high school grid rules were reclassified during the off season. There are some 32 changes.

Yearly took the rule book page by page and directed a discussion of the changes while coaches and other officials fired questions at him. He also covered the mechanics of officiating grid games.

The old District 3-AA Coaches and Officials Association was disbanded officially at the meeting and money in the treasury was split equally between the Abilene, San Angelo and Midland-Odessa chapters. A change in the participating schools in 3-AA brought about the move.

It was decided the new districts will form their own associations at a later meeting.

The morning session of the clinic was held at Hotel Scharbauer. The Midland Bulldog Booster Club was host for a luncheon at the North Elementary cafeteria at noon and the afternoon session was held there after lunch.

All schools in this area were represented at the meeting by at least one delegate.

WT-NM League Dukes, Blue Hose, Gold Sox, Lobos Are Playoff Teams

By The Associated Press

The Amarillo Gold Sox and the Lamesa Lobos have earned the final two berths in the playoffs in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Paul Haller's thirty-second homer of the season helped Amarillo to defeat fifth-place Pampa Sunday 16-5.

Borger downed Lubbock 8-5 to kill the Hubbers' chances for a play-off berth. Lubbock's Royce Mills walked in two Gassers in the seventh.

Albuquerque, which has already clinched first place in the standings for the second straight year, defeated Lamesa 6-3. Nino Barrise, Duke hurler, pitched and batted the loop leaders to victory.

Abilene, with a play-off berth already won, beat Clovis 13-4. Will Roca walked ten men, but was tight in the pinches on the mound for the Blue Hose.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Red Sox Close Up Gap, But Schedule Favors New York

By JACK HAND
 Associated Press Sports Writer

Labor Day finds the schedule favoring the league-leading New York Yankees and St. Louis Cards in their race toward the World Series.

New York's lead is only 1 1/2 games after Sunday's loss and Boston's victory, but Casey Stengel's battered crew plays 21 of its last 27 games at home.

In marked contrast, the Boston Red Sox, a terrific home club, will appear at home in only 11 of their last 22.

It's the same story in the National, where the Cards play 16 of their remaining 25 contests at Sportsman's Park, nine of them at night. Brooklyn, now trailing by 2 1/2 games, is at home for its next eight starts, but the Ebbets Field total is only 16 of the 24 to go.

Mickey Harris, a Red Sox castoff, did his old mates a good turn Sunday by pitching Washington a 3-2 edge over the Yanks. Although clipped for 11 hits, Harris was tough with men on base, leaving nine Yanks stranded in whipping Eddie Lopat.

Young Chuck Stobbs gave the Red Sox a clean sweep of the 11 contests against Philadelphia at Fenway when he bested Dick Fowler 4-2.

Mike Garcia gave Cleveland's hopes a lift with a four-hit shutout job on the St. Louis Browns, striking out nine enroute to a 5-0 triumph.

Cards Pull Ahead

Hoot Evers' two-run homer in the eighth rescued Detroit 5-4 from Chicago, giving Hal Newhouse his fifteenth win. The Tigers now trail the Yanks by 6 1/2 games.

Max Lanier and Fred Martin pitched the Cardinals to a pair of victories over Cincinnati, 6-4 and 11-2. Despite Brooklyn's 6-2 victory over New York, the Cards widened their lead to 2 1/2 lengths.

The Phillies marched into third place by taking two slugfests from the Boston Braves, 9-8 and 8-7. Willie Jones' two-run homer with two out in the ninth gave Reliefer Ken Trinkle his first win of the season in the opener.

Chicago, putting on another big inning, scored eight in the fourth to drug Pittsburgh 11-7 in a game called after seven innings because of rain.

Texas League—

Shreveport-Dallas Battle For Playoff Berth Gets Hotter

By The Associated Press

The eyes of the Texas League are on the bitter battle for fourth place—and a play-off berth—between the Dallas Eagles and the Shreveport Sports.

The Sports climbed to within half a game of the Eagles Sunday by defeating San Antonio 4-2. Dallas dropped a 4-3 decision to the third-place Oklahoma City Indians.

The second-place Tulsa Oilers downed the loop-leading Fort Worth Cats 8-5 and Houston won a double-header from Beaumont 7-5 and 8-4.

Howie Auman hurled six-hit ball to give Shreveport the win over San Antonio.

Jerry Witte hit his forty-seventh home run of the season—eight under the all-time league mark—and Buck Frierson also homered for Dallas. But Tom Reis, Oklahoma City hurler, scattered four other hits to edge the Eagles.

After Houston won the opener from Beaumont by a two-run margin, the second game was highlighted by a free-for-all in the second frame. The fight, involving several players on both sides, began when Bud Hardin of Houston slid into second base, bumping Jerry Snyder.

Cuban Fails Again In Channel Effort; Shirley Is Ready

CAP GRIS NEZ, FRANCE—(AP)—Jose Cortinas of Cuba gave up on his third attempt to swim the English Channel Monday after battling the icy waves about four hours. The Cuban clothing store salesman's third try was his least successful. He previously had made the half-way mark and then betore about three miles from Dover before he gave up.

Cortinas was the fourth swimmer to fall in two days. A bumper crop of channel aspirants tried unsuccessfully Sunday. They were two Egyptians, Fahma Attallah and Abdel Momen Abdu, and a Frenchman, Francois Perez.

The current American hopeful, 17-year-old Shirley May France of Somerset, Mass., went for a tria swim Monday morning. Shirley May's coach, Harry Boudakian, said she would take a good workout and be ready to plunge into the channel as soon as her father and manager advised her from Dover to "start swimming."

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Missing Man

MacDonald wasn't there. "Yes," Daddy Ringtail said in a serious voice. "Old MacDonald is a missing man."

"Sir?" asked Mugwump. He didn't understand.

"I mean," Daddy Ringtail explained, "that Old MacDonald is"

Old MacDonald has a farm, but there he wasn't on it. He wasn't anywhere that Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, could find. Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, couldn't find him either.

They looked down by the barn where the cow was. They looked over by the pig pen where the pigs were. They looked around in the orchard where the chickens were cratching for bugs to eat. Old

"Oh. Oh," said Mugwump, because he was sorry to hear that Daddy Ringtail would never be seeing Old MacDonald again.

"Oh me, and oh, my, my," said Daddy Ringtail, because he was very worried about it all.

"Yoo-hoo!" said a stupid voice nearby. The voice belonged to the Shagganappy, a monkey who always has trouble remembering things. "Yoo-hoo!" said the Shagganappy very stupid-like. "Happy you-hoo to you folks!"

"But Shagganappy," Daddy Ringtail said, "you mean to say a 'happy day!' Anyhow, have you seen Old MacDonald?"

The Shagganappy tried to remember. He remembered as hard as he could. "Duh!" he said, while he tried to do it, but at last he said, "Yup, I have seen Old MacDonald, and he told me he was going somewhere, except I don't remember where he said he was going."

"Oh me," said Daddy Ringtail. On me indeed, because people who don't remember are such a nuisance, but don't you worry about it. Everything's going to be right tomorrow. I promise.

The paper said: "Dear Daddy Ringtail, You will never see me again—"

just as gone as though he had never been here."

Those were sad, sad words to say and hear, but sadder still were the words that were written on a piece of paper they saw just then on the door. The paper was torn, but the writing on it was from Old MacDonald.

The paper said: "Dear Daddy Ringtail, You will never see me again—"

"Oh me," said Daddy Ringtail. On me indeed, because people who don't remember are such a nuisance, but don't you worry about it. Everything's going to be right tomorrow. I promise.

More American Dollars Declared Vital To Remedy Money Troubles Of Britain

After a decade of austerity—a decade of standing in queues like this—the British people are physically and morally tired. Great Britain won one war, now faces a fight against bankruptcy.

LONDON—(NEA)—Even in the view of the most ardent supporters of Labor, it is already too late to remedy the British situation without additional U. S. aid. Will the American people, it is

Parents are urged to check the room numbers listed in order to prevent confusion Tuesday. Information desks will be maintained by the Parent-Teacher Associations. Beginning students and students new to the school who have not registered should report to the office for room assignment. End of school times for the elementary schools are: First grade, 2:30 p.m.; second, 3 p.m.; third, 3:30 p.m.; and fourth and fifth, 3:40 p.m. High school and junior high will dismiss at 4 p.m. Principals Listed

The 1948-50 term opened Thursday for all faculty members of the Midland school system, with teacher meetings continuing through Friday. Most other schools in the Permian Basin Empire also will open Tuesday, although several called students to classes Thursday.

asked here, give and give again? Are they ready to embark upon bigger and costlier Marshall Plans? Those who believe that the security of a democratic Europe depends largely on a strong Britain hope that the United States—for its own security if for no other reason—will be generous a third time.

In order to achieve a mythical socialist Lenin (and Stalin after him) thought little of sacrificing the Russian people. In the Soviet "experiment," the ordinary Ivan became a tiny screw in a vast totalitarian machine. But Britain was and remains one of the most democratic states of our time.

The common people count in the concerns of those who govern them. And the British people, after a decade of austerity and belt-tightening, are physically and morally tired. The top labor leaders are tired, too. The casualty list among them is extremely high. Little new blood has been injected into the Labor Party during the last four years. Should the present leadership be forced to retire, there would be none to replace it.

Midland Men Will Judge Horse Show

POST—Roy Parks, Jr. and Buster Cole of Midland will judge the first annual Quarter Horse Show scheduled here Saturday, officials announced. The event is sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce. The show is open and horses do not have to be registered in either of the Quarter Horse associations, but judging will be done on Quarter Horse conformation. Entries must be made before 10 a.m. Saturday for the halter classes and before 8 a.m. for the performance class.

A matched roping between Willis Brunson and Billy Kirk of Crosbyton and Jimmy Bird and Sonny Vance of Post will be a feature of the night show. A jackpot roping also is scheduled, as is an outdoor dance.

JUSTICE RUTLEDGE REPORTED IMPROVING
YORK, MAINE—(AP)—Some improvement in the condition of Supreme Court Justice Willey B. Rutledge was noted Monday by his physician. Dr. Elmer Tower said the 55-year-old jurist, victim of a cerebral hemorrhage, seems to be emerging gradually from a coma into which he sank last Friday.

Sam Leslie of the New York Giants cracked out 22 pinch hits in 1932 for a major league record.

Boy Sits As 'Jury' For Judge

INDIANAPOLIS—(NEA)—Silence in the court; the judge—and his self-appointed sidekick—are approaching.

These who come before Judge George M. Ober's Magistrate's Court find that the judge is not alone on the bench. Sitting beside him, usually, is freckle-faced, 12-year-old Chester Poor. Chester has been a court regular since he first came to court in April.

"He said he was interested in court procedure and law and wanted to know if he could sit and watch. I said, 'of course,' Judge Ober recalls. "He wanted to know if it would cost anything. I told him if he'd be quiet and behave, he could stay for free. After awhile he wanted to know if he could sit up on the bench with me. I said yes and he's been coming in steadily ever since."

"During school months, Chester came only on Friday evenings. With vacation season, he attends every day and evening session. "A couple of weeks ago," said the judge, "I was delayed about 10 minutes. When I came in, Chester was already there. He told me I was late and asked me why." Chester displays quite a bit of legal savvy for a 12-year-old, the judge said. He listens attentively, scrawls a lot of notes, and occasionally, asks pertinent questions.

"If more teen-agers came into court under these circumstances, I'm convinced that a lot less of them would come into court as delinquents," said Judge Ober. When the youth declared a recess for himself—he was going away for a two-week vacation trip with his parents—Judge Ober had a serious request to make. "Let us know where you'll be in case we need you," he asked Chester.

Just as seriously, Chester promised he'd send a picture post card.

Powerful Typhoon Sweeps West Pacific
TOKYO—(AP)—One of the most powerful typhoons in recent years swept across the Western Pacific Monday. It surged 100 miles east of the American island base of Iwo Jima and apparently will miss Japan's main islands. The typhoon carries winds up to 130 miles an hour. Velocities of nearly 95 were recorded on Iwo Jima, 780 miles southeast of Tokyo. The center was 600 miles from Tokyo at noon and moved north-northeast at 15 miles an hour. There were no reports of damage from Iwo Jima. Weather observers followed the typhoon's course carefully in case it should change direction and move toward the Japanese home islands.

PROWLER SURPRISED
A Midland resident reported to police late Saturday he had surprised a prowler in his home on West Illinois Street. The intruder made his getaway but police were given a description. Nothing was missed from the house.

Trio Is Sentenced In Soviet Spy Case
MOSCOW—(AP)—The labor union paper "Trud" recently reported that sentences had been meted out in the Urals to officials of a quarry in Mias at which safety rules had been violated. The chief of the quarry was sentenced to three years deprivation of freedom, a shift foreman to two years and a safety engineer to a fine of 1,500 rubles. "Trud" said because of the negligence of these persons workers in the clay quarry had to work in difficult and dangerous conditions.

Newspaper Appeal Motorized Him

Ever since he broke his back six years ago, Floyd Nowak, 12, of Denver, Colo., has moved around in the hand-powered wagon at left. When he outgrew the wagon, Floyd appealed to the Rocky Mountain News for help in getting a motor-driven invalid chair, which he couldn't afford. Denver's response came quickly, and now Floyd has the dandy motor-powered chair at right. With Floyd as he tries out the new vehicle is Tom Killian, right, Denver businessman who bought the chair for him, and at left, Tom Murray, who arranged to get the chair at wholesale price from a Cleveland, Ohio, firm.

Mother Of Six Is Scissors Stab Victim

Midland police reported two stabbings in the negro section over the weekend but neither resulted in serious injury. Parties involved were to appear in court Tuesday morning.

Amvets To Hear Talk By Truman, Elect Officers

DES MOINES—(AP)—President Truman was scheduled to address the fifth national Amvets Convention Monday afternoon as the climax of the three-day meeting which already has produced its share of fireworks.

Also on the slate for Monday was election of officers by both the Amvets (American Veterans World War II) and their auxiliary. The convention Sunday by a near-unanimous standing vote rejected a proposal to merge with American Veterans Committee (AVC), and by a narrow margin adopted a resolution asking a bonus up to $4,500. The meeting spent two hours in debate on each measure.

Among the candidates for Amvet commander are Dwight Oliver, Kalamazoo, Mich., past state commander, and Harold Russell, Watertown, Mass., who won a Motion Picture Academy award for his performance in the picture "Best Years of Our Lives." President Truman was scheduled to address the convention at 4:11 p.m.

Rites Set Monday For Murdered Dallas Girl

DALLAS—(AP)—Last rites were to be held Monday for Carolyn Schofield, 20, shot to death by a rejected suitor.

The pretty secretary was killed Friday in the downtown office where she worked.

Keith Petersen, 21, Southern Methodist University journalism student, told officers he shot the girl after she told him she was going to marry another man. He is charged with murder.

SHAKE HANDS WITH AN AD!

IT HAPPEN to be an advertisement. And goodness I know, you've read hundreds of ads. The object of an ad is to sell somebody something. And what I have to sell today is advertising itself. Just look at all the other ads all through this paper. You usually look at them to find out what you want to buy. But look at them a little differently today.

Look a little more closely and see the job they're doing. Every ad is selling something—goods, an idea, services. And every job in America ultimately depends on somebody selling something to somebody else. That's what makes the wheels go 'round. And advertising is the lowest cost way yet devised to sell goods. So no matter what kind of job you have, be thankful to the ads like me. The advertising you see and hear is selling goods. And in the last analysis, that's what makes your job secure.

- OTHER WAYS ADVERTISING HELPS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY
- 1 Brings you better goods for less money.
 - 2 Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
 - 3 Gears consumer demand to production, to create prosperity.

Air Force Cadets Die In Crash Into Gulf

GALVESTON—(AP)—Divers hunted today the bodies of two Air Force cadets, killed Sunday when their rented airplane plunged into the Gulf of Mexico.

The cadets were identified as Herbert Reid, pilot of the plane, and James Vaughan of Connally Air Force Base, Waco.

Air Force officials would not divulge the cadets' home towns until next of kin had been notified.

Scientists Studying Mud For U.S. Army

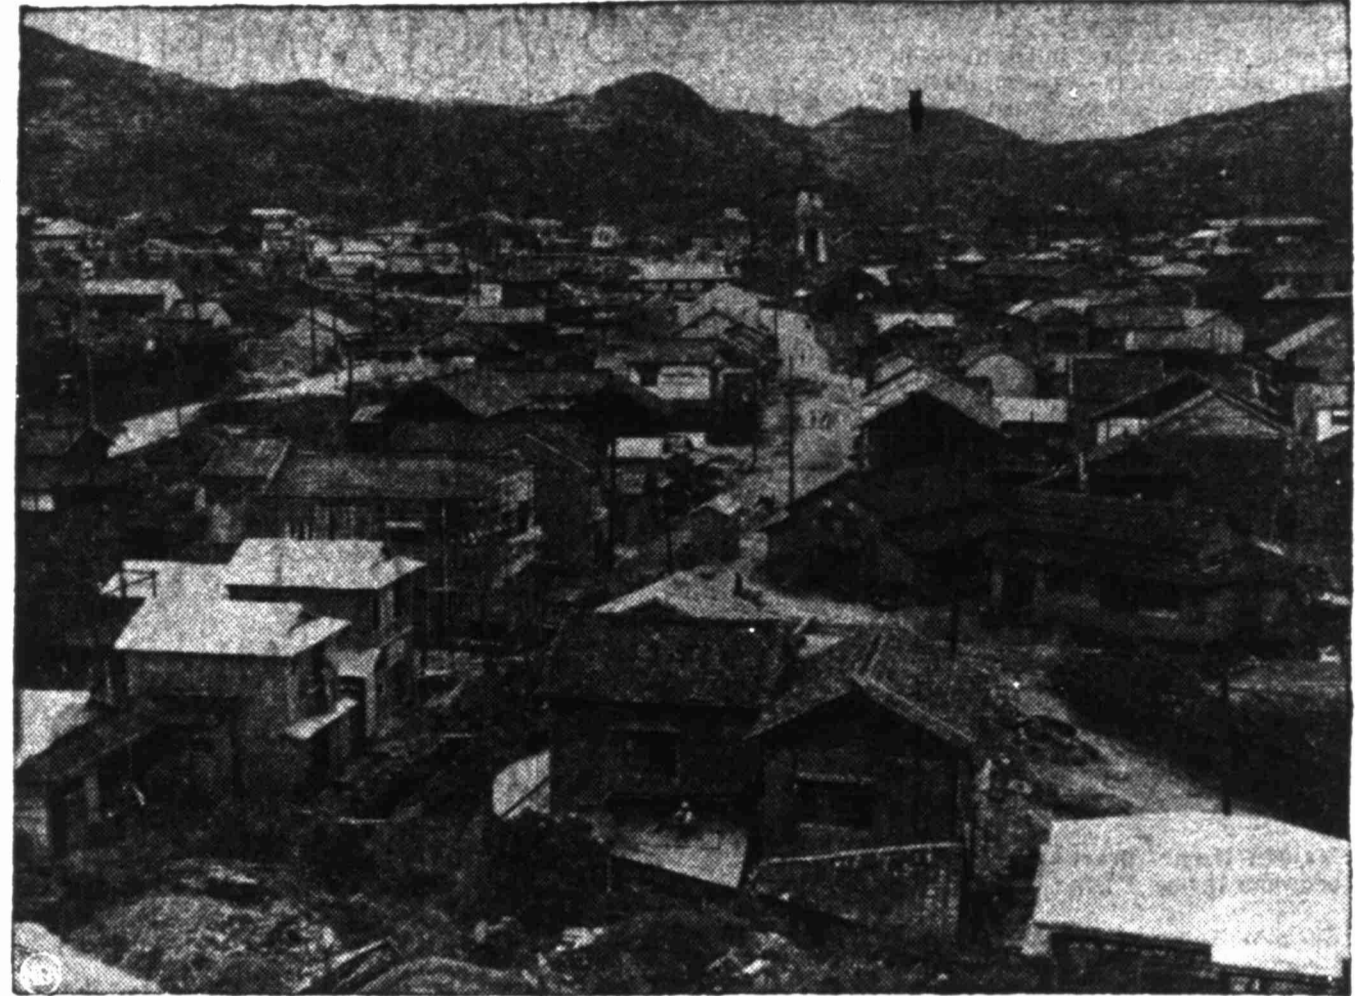

IITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—A team of Cornell scientists is studying mud for the U. S. Army. They have found some hitherto unrecognized forces at work in common dirt. The purpose is to learn to strengthen soil without tons of cement or other mixtures.

Ever since men used mud to make dwellings most everyone, including engineers, believed that soils made of particles of the same sizes acted about the same. But clay soils with particles of exactly the same sizes may behave differently.

In some clays the tiny particles are held in position by forces that act at a distance. These forces presumably are electrical. Recently a similar force acting between living particles has been discovered by biologists.

Differences in mineral composition affect the behavior of clay particles. Many forces originate at the surface between a particle and water around it. Through these forces, fine clays may have a large influence on the solidification of a mixture. Clays also can change their strength, according to what contaminates their surfaces.

Atom-Blasted Nagasaki Takes Title Of 'City Of Culture' As Consolation Prize

City of Culture: Nagasaki is happy with the name, although the city planning director says there are too many plans and ideas for culture. He'd like to see more "reconstruction, rehabilitation and re-conversion."

decades and is not steeped with culture."

Plans for the city's future, to keep in step with the cultural motif, are not complete. But among the first suggestions was one calling for the erection of an international hospital to replace the Nagasaki University Hospital, which was destroyed by the bomb. Another possibility is a huge auditorium and library to hold international meetings.

But, says City Planning Director Morizo Shinohara, "We have too many plans and ideas. Everything depends on the condition of the national treasury. I am interested in making Nagasaki a 'City of Culture,' but I think we should devote our efforts to reconstruction, rehabilitation and reconversion at the present time."

Shinohara, a 36-year-old former bank official, pointed out that the once-prosperous city was now seeing dark days. Unemployment is growing, reconversion has been proceeding very slowly and "the city's economy has suffered severely."

While Hiroshima is teeming with researchers, studying the effects of atomic radiation on the people and the city, there is apparently only one such project underway in the "City of Culture."

That is the work on vegetables and grains being conducted by Dr. Takeo Furuno, who was Agricultural

Director of Nagasaki Prefecture before he resigned to devote full time to his research. The project began when the bomb exploded not far from Furuno's experimental farm.

Since that day, he has planted produce in gardens as close as 100 yards from the actual scene of the blast. His results show that the first year of planting brought no blossoms, the second year saw blossoms but not fruit, and the third and fourth years—bringing him up-to-date—most plants were normal.

On a visit to Nagasaki, Emperor Hirohito, himself an amateur botanist, asked Furuno three questions, a rare sign of verbosity for the quiet Emperor. He inquired whether Furuno is studying the effects of heredity (yes, he is); whether the results are being compared with Hiroshima (no, because no similar experiments are being conducted there); and did Furuno think the sterility of plants was due to food going into foliage instead of fruit (maybe so).

After four years of planting fruits, vegetables and grains, and comparing them with previous yields on the same land, Furuno has concluded that the crops now are better.

"I firmly believe," he says, "that radioactivity from an atomic bomb hastens the growth and increases the yield of most vegetables."

Remodeling? Free Estimates on Perma-Stone

It seems likely that somebody in Ohio State University's entomology department is going to get called on President Howard L. Bevis' carpet—the handsome living room carpet with the big hole in the middle.

While OSU's chief executive and his wife were away on vacation, the entomologists—they study insects—performed their annual chore in the Bevis' impressive official residence.

"Each year," says Dr. Bevis, "it has been the custom for the entomology department to bring chemicals here to destroy the house."

This year, the scientists tried out a new chemical, using the president's home as a homey guinea pig.

Result of the experiment: the chemical ate holes in the living room carpeting as well as rugs in other rooms, including some upstairs. It ate a hole in the rug on the sunporch and damaged woodwork and tiling in a bathroom.

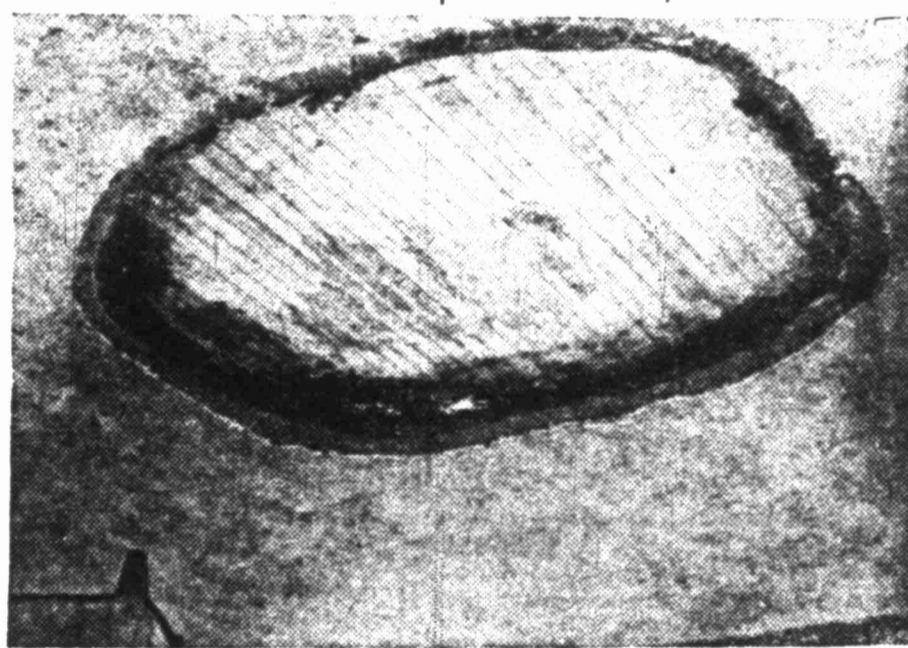

Dr. Bevis and his horrified wife, who returned from their vacation to discover the house had been de-rugged, summoned rug experts. All they could do was trim the ragged edges of the holes.

The head of the department of zoology and entomology, Prof. David F. Millere, didn't know what chemical had been used. But he would look into it.

Meanwhile, the state of Ohio, which furnished the residence to the president of the university, is out a few pieces of expensive carpeting.

And the moths? They seem to have been a success, after all.

No More Moths, But There's Not Much Carpet Left, Either

Life can be rug-ged for a carpet. This one, in the home of the president of Ohio State University, was a guinea pig in a de-mothing test. The result is obvious.

Chinese Loyalists Reel Under Setbacks

CANTON—(AP)—The Nationalist government reeled Monday before a successful revolt in Yunnan Province and a disastrous fire that killed 1,000 persons in Chungking.

Hard on the heels of these blows came a Chinese Communist drive to cut the railway between Canton and Hengyang, base for South China's main defense force.

The revolt of Gen. Lu Han, governor of the Indo-China border Province of Yunnan, apparently was bloodless. But the rebel governor held the provincial capital of Kunming, famed in World War II as the terminus of the air hop over the hump—the Himalayas—from India.

Lu acted speedily and apparently in a deal with the Communists on Saturday.

All flights to Kunming were suspended Monday. American interests there are in the charge of Consul La Rue Lutkins of New York City, whose wife and two children flew out Sunday enroute to America.

Fire swept the banking and Yangtze River front area of Chungking, destined as the next provisional capital of Nationalist China if the Reds take Canton. Besides the 1,000 killed, 100,000 were left homeless.

Cause of the fire was not known here but arsonists with Red sympathies were suspected. Two accused Red agents were executed.

Home Construction Sales Show Upturn

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Business is getting better for the men who build houses and those who sell them.

Separate reports issued over the weekend by the National Association of Real Estate Boards, the Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Commerce Department, show:

1. Home sales have increased in the last 30 to 60 days.

2. General building activity rose three per cent in August. Private home building shared in the increase. New construction was estimated by the Commerce Department at $1,900,000,000.

3. City construction came within three per cent of the 1948 high during the first six months of this year. More than half of this construction went into new homes valued at $1,800,000,000.

The Real Estate Association got reports of "slight" to "decided increases" in home sales from all but three of 22 cities it surveyed. The upswing was attributed to a "return of confidence on the part of prospective buyers and the realization that prices are not going to break sharply."

Lamesa Rodeo Plays To 13,000 Persons

J. Homer Beal, president of the Dawson County Rodeo Association, termed the event a success financially.

The Lamesa Rodeo again will become an annual event, Beal said. The shows were discontinued during and immediately following the war years.
