Upton Wildcat Tests
In Ellenburger Top

A drillstem test was being run on the top zone of the Ellenburger at Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1 Powell, Central-North Upton County wildcat, two miles southeast of the discovery well of the Pegasus field.

The project was bottomed at 13,010 feet. The top of the Ellenburger is at 12,960 feet. The test is covering the zone No. 1 Powell is 452 feet low on the Ellenburger to the same marker in Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, the Pegasus field.

To Be Drilled Deeper

Samples from the section of the Ellenburger so far penetrated in the Republic Natural prospector showed some oil stains and some signs of fractures.

This exploration has previously indicated possibilities of production in the Devonian and in the Fusselman horizon of the Silurian.

It is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 44, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S.

After the section now being investigated has been checked on the drillstem test the development will be drilled further into the Ellenburger.

Midland Exploration
Tests Deep Pay Zone

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2-30 Glass, northeast outpost to the Pegasus field discovery, and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 30, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S, had run a drillstem test on the top of the Ellenburger at 12,613-561 feet.

The packer failed after one hour and five minutes. Gas showed at the surface in seven minutes. Maximum volume of the gas was 194,000 cubic feet per day.

No fluid showed at the top before the packer failed. Operator was pulling the tester at last report.

Other Project Drills Ahead

Top of the Ellenburger in this project was called at 12,611 feet to give it a datum of minus 9,718 feet, and make it 78 feet low to the same company's No. 1-A TXL, the initial producer in the Pegasus area.

No. 30 Glass is in the Central-South Midland County side of the field.

Magnolia No. 1-36 Glass, across the line in Central-North Upton County, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 36, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S, had progressed below 12,203 feet in Montoya lime and chert and was boring deeper.

Official top of the Montoya has not been reported. This venture has shown for production from the Pennsylvanian, the Devonian, and possibly from the Fusselman. It is a southwest flanker to the Pegasus discovery.

Mitchell Prospect Is Shutdown For Repairs

Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Dunn, prospective Canyon reef lime discovery, in the Mitchell County is shutdown while repairs are being made to the drilling equipment.

The rotary rig at this exploration was heavily damaged Sunday when oil was united to the bottom drill pipe and caught the motors on fire.

Before the blaze could be extinguished several pieces of the machinery were severely damaged.

It will probably be the last of the current week before the fire damage can be repaired and operations resumed at the wildcat.

To Stop Water, Test

When the equipment is back in condition to function a string of 7-inch casing will be cemented at approximately 7,685 feet. Operator will try to squeeze in sufficient cement around and below the pipe to cut off water from the section between 7,685 feet and the total depth of 8,225 feet.

Then the zone between 7,685 feet and 7,885 feet will be tested through perforations in the casing.

Many interested observers think that if and when the bottom water is controlled that an oil well and an important discovery can be completed at this wildcat, located five miles east of Vincent and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 40, block 29, Lavaca Navigation survey.

Gas Oil, Water

A corrected, official report of that test shows that the tool was open for five hours. Gas showed at the surface in five minutes. Drilling mud came to the top in 10 minutes and oil flowed out in 15 minutes.

The oil was flowed to pits for three hours and 45 minutes. That flow was not gauged and the recovery was not estimated.

At the end of four hours the oil was turned to tanks and in the last 60 minutes of testing a total of 60 barrels of fluid had been run to the storage.

C-E Lea Prospector Shows For Production

Shows of possible commercial production from the Tubb zone of the Permian have been developed at a wildcat in Central-East Lea County, New Mexico, six miles southeast of Hobbs.

C. L. Norworthy, Jr., No. 1 Shell-Waldrup, located at the center of section 6-206-39e, ran a two hour and 45 minute drillstem test at 7,000-7,100 feet.

Currency Cuts
Spread To 18
Other Nations

Devaluation of currencies across half the world sent traders in sterling areas scurrying for gold and commodity stocks Tuesday but brought little change in United States markets.

With France and Canada added overnight to the list of devaluing countries, making the total 19, others had still to fall in line. Western Germany is to reduce the value of its mark. The Hong Kong dollar fell into the devaluation lineup. Holland officially set its devaluation rate for the homeland and Indonesia at about 30 per cent, approximately the same as Britain.

The Labor government in Britain used its ranks for the fight of its life. Parliament is due to meet next week, on the demand of Winston Churchill and other opposition leaders. Labor unions were restive at the prospect of increases in the cost of living set off by rises in the price of bread.

Jurors Dig Deeper Into Senate Vote

ALICE —(P)—Nine more witnesses were subpoenaed Tuesday as a grand jury continued its investigation into the Texas Democratic primary of Aug. 28, 1948.

The day's first witness was Clarence Martens, chairman of the Jim Wells County Democratic Executive Committee at the time of the primary. In that primary, Lyndon Johnson, now U. S. senator, won nomination over former Gov. Coke R. Stevenson.

Stevenson charged 200 votes were added fraudulently at Precinct 13 in Alice after the primary polls closed. Johnson won the million-vote primary by 87 votes. Johnson was seated in the Senate and is serving his term.

"Voters" To Testify
The nine persons subpoenaed Tuesday were identified as "voters." Waiting to testify, shortly before noon, was Mrs. D. E. Lobrecht. Last September she testified at a federal court hearing in connection with the Box 13 controversy. She testified she voted in the election.

The grand jury reportedly was waiting for the testimony of Hector Cerda of Alice, now a student at Texas A&M College, Kingsville. A subpoena has been issued for him and efforts were being made to reach him in Kingsville.

Cerda also testified at the federal investigation at Fort Worth. Stevenson supporters contended at the hearing that he had been listed as a voter at Box 13. But Cerda said that he was in Kingsville during the election and did not vote.

Police School In

A police school, sponsored by the Midland Police Department and the FBI, opened here Monday. It will last two weeks.

In the opening day, addresses were made by D. K. Brown, special agent of the FBI from El Paso, and Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber of Commerce manager. Brown discussed Police Courtesy and Downing talked about Public Relations.

Hurt Critically In Train-Truck Crash

POTTSVILLE, PA.—(P)—A Reading Railroad passenger train crashed into a truck carrying 4,500 gallons of gasoline at a grade crossing near Pottsville Tuesday. The gasoline exploded, killing one man and injuring four others critically.

Flames swept through the front cars of the 10-car train enroute from Philadelphia to Shamokin, Pa.

The six passenger cars were to the rear of the train and apparently none of the passengers were killed. They were shaken up in the crash.

Killed was Clarence Goetz, 22, of Gap, Pa. He was the driver of the gasoline truck.

The injured were crewmen.

Peace Is Theme As UN Meets

NEW YORK—(P)—Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines was elected president of the United Nations Assembly Tuesday. He immediately challenged the 59 delegations to make this "the peace assembly."

Romulo was elected a few minutes after the assembly opened its fourth session in the packed blue and gold assembly chamber at Flushing Meadow Park, site of the 1939 World's Fair.

Romulo got 53 of the 59 votes. The Soviet bloc cast five votes for Vladimir Clementis, Czechoslovak foreign minister.

Romulo pleaded for cooperation among the big powers. He said world political conditions already were improving and it was the job of the assembly to see that this trend continued.

Turning Point
"This session," he said, "coincides with a turning point in post-war international relations."

"Though many formidable obstacles to world peace remain, the danger of a new war which overshadowed our deliberations in Paris a year ago has greatly abated. I hope this session will earn for itself the title, 'The Peace Assembly.'"

UN officials listed 18 foreign ministers at the head of delegations, prepared to tackle 72 subjects already on schedule for debate.

Arguments, speeches, deals, votes and decisions are expected to keep the delegates here for nearly three months, although UN officials set November 30 hopefully as the date they should finish.

U. S. - British Pact
Cited As Solution Of Oil Import Problems

DALLAS —(P)—An independent oilman suggested Tuesday the industry take another look at the possibility of an Anglo-American treaty as a solution to the problem of oil imports.

Jake L. Hamon of Dallas, one of the nation's top independents, addressed the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors.

Hamon said the treaty proposal now pending in Washington might provide machinery under which domestic oil producers could accomplish their purpose of restricting imports of foreign oil.

He pointed out that Congress has killed an amendment to the reciprocal trade agreement that would have restricted imports of oil.

The treaty would give Great Britain and the U. S. to certain petroleum obligations and set up an international petroleum commission to work out oil problems. The proposal was a highly controversial one in the 80th Congress and the industry, itself was divided on it.

Better Late Than Never

WASHINGTON —(P)—President Truman received very belated congratulations on his November election victory Tuesday from Senator Glen H. Taylor of Idaho.

Taylor, who ran as vice presidential candidate on Henry A. Wallace's Progressive Party ticket, paid his first call on the President since the 1948 voting.

"I called to congratulate the President on his victory," he told reporters.

When he asked why he waited so long, Taylor replied: "I didn't want it to look like I was trying to jump on somebody's bandwagon."

Nine Others
Hurt; Flames
Sweep Plant

FORT WORTH —(P)—A terrific explosion rocked Magnolia Refinery No. 1 here at about 8:55 a.m. Tuesday, setting off a raging fire, killing at least two men and injuring at least nine others.

On-the-scene observers said that as late as 10:25 a.m. there was danger of another explosion, but city firemen were atop refinery structures battling the flames.

One of the dead men was identified as: George Aston, 42, refinery "still man," who lived in a company cottage near the plant.

E. R. Harris, refinery worker, is missing.

Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital: J. W. Polmar, 58, refinery superintendent who lives at Hodge Station, broken leg and hand and face burns and arm cuts.

Thomas W. Cooper, 39, burns. M. L. D. Smith, 52, burns. C. F. Urruh, 53, burns. W. T. Wallace, 42, burns, possible broken right leg.

W. A. Reagan, 46, burns. Lloyd Jamar, 26, burns. Murray O'Neal, shock and cuts. Charles R. Besbit, 20, face, head, arm and leg burns.

Reagan, a coker, said apparently a valve had been left open in the engine room and that gas possibly backed into the room. He said he found a leak, closed the valve and then ran outside, escaping full force of the explosion by a few seconds.

"I thought everybody was out," he said at the hospital. "I don't know what caused the explosion. I mean it knocked me down. Look at me now."

Reagan crawled away from the scene.

The blast was heard over a great area of the city, and police and newspaper offices were deluged with telephone calls for more than one hour later.

Smoke rose above the scene to a height visible over much of the city. Noel B. Macchibanks, assistant superintendent, said he believed the first explosion came from a gas compressor room, a vital part of the cracking unit.

A coker at the cracking unit, Morgen Engstrom, was 40 feet from the cracking tower, behind the corner of (Continued On Page 14)

Steel Union
To Prepare
Strike Plans

WASHINGTON —(P)—The CIO Steelworkers went ahead Tuesday with plans for a strategy meeting as the second day of government-sponsored peace talks brought no sign of an agreement in the steel dispute.

Philip Murray, leader of the steelworkers, said nothing has developed at the government mediation conferences to warrant postponing the Union Policy Committee meeting Wednesday in Pittsburgh.

The CIO chief said the 170 members of the policy group already are assembling in Pittsburgh for the session. Presumably, the committee will lay plans for a walkout Saturday midnight when the current truce ends.

Truman On Sidelines
Murray has warned that the 1,000,000 unionists will quit unless a settlement is reached in the labor-management talks here with Federal Conciliation Director Cyrus Ching.

President Truman, meanwhile, was keeping on the sidelines. Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Truman has "nothing in the works" to offer as a new formula for settling the dispute.

He said that also applies to the nationwide coal strike. "Nothing is in sight," Ross told a news conference.

Private presidential aide said privately that Truman is convinced there will be a steelmaking stoppage at midnight Saturday unless the industry and CIO Steelworkers Union reach an agreement by then.

Ken Regan Returns To Washington

Expecting to be "back home" within two weeks, Congressman Ken Regan left Tuesday morning by plane for Washington to attend the closing sessions of the 81st Congress. He has been in West Texas several weeks while the House has been in recess.

The Senate reportedly has about caught up with the House on various bills and he thinks Congress will adjourn soon after the first of October. Regan does not think committees will consider any new legislation during the remainder of the session.

He returned to Midland Monday after spending the weekend in El Paso and vicinity. While there he crowned the queen of the Cotton Festival in a coronation ceremony at Fabens. The congressman also attended several other special events while in the border city.

Barnum Of The Airways Pleads Guilty

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK — (AP) — Radio's "Truth-or-Consequence" man says it's true he pioneered the giveaway program.
But Ralph Edwards denies he's responsible for the present consequences.
"I originated the giveaway program in 1940, alas and alack," he says, "but that wasn't the intent."
"We outfitted a girl like Cinderella on one program—a kind of feminine Horatio Alger touch. That was just one stunt. But the giveaway started from that."
"Other programs picked up the technique and started giving gifts."
"Our giveaways were for charitable purposes. But others took the guts of our idea—without its heart. It turned out to be a greedy thing without any charity aspects. And now the whole business is on its knees. They are killing themselves." Approves FCC Ban
And Edwards said that, unless the giveaways returned to their original pattern, he would just as soon see the FCC ruling banning them upheld by the federal courts.
The red-haired, 36-year-old producer feels the ruling doesn't affect his own two NBC network shows—"Truth or Consequences," and "This Is Your Life."
The first program, a variation of an old-fashioned parlor game, won him the nickname of "The Barnum of the Airways" for its many stunts.
Edwards guessed rightly that—before America was full of people willing to try to fulfill any screwball assignment.
Ten months ago he thought up his second show, a half-hour program which capsules the life story of some unknown or famous American. Among those dramatized have been Sportsman Grantland Rice, Ex-Boxer Barney Ross, War Hero Audie Murphy.
The producer got the scare of his life when Murphy, surprised to be confronted by his old sergeant in the midst of the program, stammered: happily:
"Why, you dirty old... sergeant!"
Rags To Riches Career
Edwards' own career could serve as a model for one of his dramas. He came here from California to crash bigtime radio, but found the executives were pretty satisfied with the talent they had.
He quickly ran through his small savings and was sleeping in the Actors' Church and eating penny soup at a depression restaurant when he got his chance to compete in an audition for announcers. Edwards won—holding one hand over a hot iron in his sleeve as he talked into the microphone.
In a short time he was making $1,100 a week announcing 45 programs. But he found this too much for a man with only one set of vocal cords.
"I got so I was seeing box tips in front of my eyes," he said. "That's why I started looking for a program of my own."

Correct Address But Wrong City

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — "Battalion Chief Elven," draped the fire Department dispatcher over the short wave radio. "Fire reported at 2838 Lake View Terrace."
Battalion Chief Elven returned the call a few minutes later.
"There's no such address," he said angrily.
"You mean to tell me I don't know my Los Angeles?" the dispatcher snapped back.
"There was a name. The party on the other end checked."
"You may know Los Angeles, but this is Cleveland, Ohio."
Sure enough, it was. A trick of the atmosphere had landed up the two fire departments. They operate on the same wave length.

Idea Of The Mighty V-2 Rocket Came From A Little Boy's Toy

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Due to military security regulations some details of the following story cannot be revealed. It involves the inventor of the German V-2 weapon, the incredible manner in which he stumbled onto the idea, his work on its initial development and finally Hitler's part in the project.
The man is now in the United States, working for Uncle Sam. At least he was in the U. S. up until early this Summer when a security cloak suddenly was thrown around him—after it was discovered that his part in creating the V-2 was known outside of tight official circles.
Military regulations governing reports on a German scientist brought here for work on military projects say that his name can't be used in any way that might injure his family or relatives back in Europe, and that any classified work he is doing can't be discussed.
This German scientist is working on classified projects. Thus, where he is employed now or what he is doing can't be told. He does have relatives in Europe who possibly might be injured if his proper name is revealed, so for purposes of this story a fictitious one, Hans, will be used. So much for security regulations. Here is his story:
In the early part of 1935 Hans was a struggling young physics instructor and father of a healthy young boy. One of his son's favorite games consisted of whittling a point on a straight stick of wood and throwing it into the ground to see how many times he could make it stand upright. Hans' son and the neighborhood kids used to play this game for hours and they all became quite skilled at it.
Curiosity Aroused
One day as Hans was watching a particularly spirited session he decided that a round, pointed, straight piece of wood had certain unusual aerodynamic properties. It aroused his scientific curiosity and he began making some tests.
First he cut a smooth version of the toy. He fixed it so he could put a rod through it and still have it swing free on one plane. With this

C. Of C. Members Contribute To Lamesa Road Fund

The Midland Chamber of Commerce Tuesday had received $37.50 from 11 members in response to a plea which went out late last week for additional funds with which to finance the construction of 25 miles of fence along the right-of-way of the proposed Midland-Lamesa highway in Martin County.
The road fund balance now is in excess of $10,500, but an additional $3,000 is needed to complete the project.
All Chamber members who previously had not contributed to the fund were asked by letter to invest in the road project. The letters were signed by John P. Butler, chairman of the Chamber's Highway Committee.
The right-of-way for the road, which will intersect the Andrews-Lenora highway north of Midland, was donated by land owners in the area. The paving will be done by the Texas Highway Department.

Crude Oil Production Dips 10,325 Barrels

TULSA, OKLA. — (AP) — U. S. crude oil production slumped during the week ended September 17, the Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday, averaging 4,836,825 barrels daily for a decrease of 10,325 barrels.
It was a week of minor changes either way, with Michigan reporting the greatest increase, up 1,500 barrels to 42,200 barrels.
Other sizeable gains were in Kansas, up 1,300 barrels to 250,000; Wyoming, 1,300 to 125,500; and Oklahoma, 1,050 to 387,350.
Continued activity in Utah brought that state another increase of 2,000 barrels to a total daily average of 2,100 barrels. Montana increased 300 barrels to 27,300; Alabama gained 300 to 1,450 and Louisiana was up 400 to 4,850.
The week's losses were scattered throughout the major producing areas, with the largest the 4,000-barrel slump to 177,700 reported by Illinois.
Other declines included Indiana, down 1,900 barrels to 27,400; the Eastern area, off 1,750 to 57,200; Kentucky 500 to 23,100; Mississippi, 3,050 to 95,550; Arkansas, 2,150 to 70,600; Colorado, 2,200 to 63,800; and California, 1,100 to 893,600.
The Journal reported Canada's daily average production up 5,195 barrels to 68,785 barrels, of which 65,785 barrels was in Alberta Province.

The body of Lt. Herman D. Styles, Jr., of San Antonio floated up the surface Monday near the spot where the plane crashed Thursday night.

Mrs. Salois Speaks To Church Group On Flower Arrangement

Flowers from Midland gardens were arranged in compositions appropriate for church sanctuaries as Mrs. John R. Salois of Dallas gave a lecture-demonstration in the First Presbyterian Church Monday afternoon. Presbyterian Women of the Church were hostesses.

Rules for arranging flowers for shows do not always apply to making arrangement for sanctuaries, Mrs. Salois said, emphasizing that church floral pieces should be bold, but with dignity.

More than a hundred women attended the program, many of them guests from other churches of the city. An entire class from Midland High School was in the audience also.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulky person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulge" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which mean cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. Buy as mentioned above, you can't keep this up, very long and when you quit—back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Texas druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Nearly one and a half million bottles of this preparation, called "Barocentrate" has been sold in Texas in the past four years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Barocentrate from any Texas druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoons twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you some relief, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Club 400 Fiasco

Thanks to the Navy, life gets easier and easier for the foreign spy. Time was when he really had to dig for his facts. But now he can slip into a quiet little saloon, order a drink and do his daily chore just by giving a close look at photographic murals on the walls.

Silly as this may sound, it's true. Anybody curious about how Washington looks from 49,000 feet, for example, can drop into the capital's Club 400, run by one Charles Bomze, and squint at what is believed to be the highest altitude photograph ever made.

The shot has been blown up to huge size, which will tend to reduce eyestrain among foreign agents. As a further accidental convenience, the stratospheric picture is flanked by a blow-up of the graceful Supreme Court building, providing a nice change of pace.

We have the word of Air Force veterans that any bombardier would rate this aerial shot of Washington a complete joy. It covers 121 square miles and clearly defines every military target in the capital, from the White House to the naval ordnance works.

Amazing as it may seem, at the time this picture was discovered in Club 400 by an enterprising United Press reporter it had not been released for publication. Its existence was known to the press weeks ago, but it was being kept "secret" for reasons which now have evaporated.

The Navy had planned to offer the shot as a "surprise exhibit" in the B-36 bomber hearings before the House Armed Services Committee. The idea was to show that Navy jet planes could climb high enough to intercept and, presumably, knock down the giant bomber.

Meantime, Proprietor Bomze acquired possession of the thing when a customer left it in a booth. He waited a while for somebody to claim the photograph but no one did. Then he decided it would look fine as a blow-up beside the Supreme Court shot.

The careless customer who forgot the picture is presumed to be a Navy man who was more concerned at the time with internal comfort than internal security. Or maybe he figured no one could ever derive the picture out. We must admit that to the layman it looks more like an X-ray of somebody's lungs than a prized view of vital targets.

The Navy's current position on the Club 400 fiasco is a trifle puzzling. While news photographers swarm over Bomze's premises snapping numerous shots of the mural, Navy officers firmly refuse to "release it for publication."

In another breath, they point out that the picture long ago was given security clearance. The weary citizen grasping for some thread of sense in all this perhaps ought to conclude—charitably—that the silly season installed for so many weeks on Capitol Hill has at least reached across the Potomac to embrace the Pentagon.

Silly questions are those that little tots ask—and mom and dad don't know the answers.

Being cheerful at the morning meal is just a habit, says a doctor. One that most people never get into.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1949, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Bevin is called "Ernie" at jovial Senate lunch; Secretary of State Acheson once sang "The Red Flag" with Soviet foreign minister; Senate will probably OK housing for middle-income groups.

WASHINGTON—Over steak and apple pie, British and American leaders kidded each other merrily the other day at an off-the-record luncheon given by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Vandenberg set the mood by greeting British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin with a breezy: "Hello, Ernie."

Later Chairman Tom Connally of Texas pretended to be solemn, but the twinkle in his eye gave him away, when he called upon Bevin for the usual "few remarks."

"Whenever the British come over here," Connally declared in his introduction, "we always feel a little elevated, a little lifted up—a little lighter."

This playful reference to Britain's success at lighting the U.S. Treasury wasn't missed by Bevin. "I have heard it said that a blood transfusion is good for both the donor and the donee," he retorted with a wry smile. "It relieves the donor of excess blood and relieves the donee by putting new blood in his veins."

"The only worry is whether the blood is of the same type. But there is no concern about the blood of our two countries being of the same type," Bevin replied.

Thanks to George III Then the British foreign secretary referred to King George III, whose tyranny started the Revolutionary War. "There is a picture of George III hanging on the wall of the foreign office," twinkled Bevin. "Every morning I used to lift up my eyes and thank George III. For if it had not been for him, the United States wouldn't have been populous or wealthy enough to help win the war."

But Bevin was dead serious as he added: "There are some who believe we are still living in the age of George III. It has been spread around that we are an old nation, but I want to tell you we are not old. We are young and vigorous."

So they say

Thank God, I've reached my second childhood.—George Bernard Shaw, turned 92.

I don't think the people on the East Coast quite realize what went on in the Pacific. I don't think we had more than 500,000 or 750,000 men (out there, but) with those 700,000 we contained somewhere between two and three million Japanese, and notwithstanding the dropping of the atomic bomb—and that was a great mistake—we defeated the Japanese nation.

When one man can, before leaving his office in the evening, dictate a message of one short paragraph to a small group of individuals throughout the country, go home and to his bed with the full knowledge that when he awakens in the morning 500,000 men will remain away from their customary employment, millions more will be indirectly affected and every part of the nation's economy jeopardized, it's time to do something about it.

Freedom to indulge in constructive criticism of the occupying powers is part and parcel of the democratic process and the Germans cannot be denied this privilege if they are to establish a truly democratic system.

The opportunities for peace in the Near East between Israel and Arab states through diplomatic negotiations appear to be dim.

Mass Blood Tests Will Help End Venereal Disease Scourge

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service. Almost everyone knows that a test can be made of the blood which will show whether or not a person is infected with syphilis. With the aid of this test, extensive campaigns have been made against syphilis because this disease could be eliminated altogether if all cases were discovered and made non-infectious early.

Tests made on large groups of the population in this country have shown anywhere from about one person in a thousand to five persons in a hundred to have this infection.

Required Before Marriage This blood test is also required in most states now before marriage. Premarital tests are particularly important because they help to prevent the transmission of the disease to an uninfected spouse and also check the possible development of the disease in children.

There is no doubt that these mass blood tests on large groups of the population uncover cases of syphilis which might have been unrecognized or years. Also this serves to cut down the number of cases of this disease which otherwise as a source of infection for others.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

Bridge teaching is a vocation followed today by a great many people. I suppose that practically every city in the nation has a bridge teacher, and most of them make a comfortable living out of it.

I was pleased to learn that Charles H. Goren is going to hold a teachers' convention at the Park Sheraton Hotel in New York City on October 18, 19 and 20. At this convention Goren will inform teachers on the latest developments for teaching contract bridge.

Goren gives us a good example in bidding in today's hand. It has to do with the proper interpretation of the jump raise by the opener's partner after second hand has made a take-out double.

When West doubles South's opening bid of one spade, North first of all knows that West has a strong hand and that probably if there is a gain to be made, East and West have the cards to make it.

South makes a mistake in bidding four spades. If he correctly interprets his partner's bid and passes three spades, West will find himself in a fix, and it is doubtful that he will have the nerve to come into the bidding at this high level.

South should realize that North's raise is pre-emptive, for if North wished to indicate strength, he could redouble. The jump raise in this situation is generally regarded as a barricade against the opposition, and on this particular hand it would work, as East and West can easily make four hearts.

THE STORY: Jenny Polatska met Liz Conover when he returned from a hospital, where he was treated for a football injury, to a convalescent home. Liz Conover, who had been a close friend of Tod's, when Tod heard the news, he believes that Liz thinks that Tod will always be her Joe having told him the news.

Jenny Polatska met Liz Conover when he returned from a hospital, where he was treated for a football injury, to a convalescent home.

When Jenny toyed with a cocktail, sipping it slowly and making it last, Tod downed three drinks in quick succession.

She had to keep explaining it over and over to him, just what Liz had said on the phone. He couldn't quite believe it. But after the drinks, he quit talking about Liz all at once, and seemed to notice her for the first time.

"You look cute, Jenny. I like that little hat with the whatchamacallit tied under your chin." He grinned at her amiably, signaled the waitress for another drink, and continued to talk, his voice blurred over so slightly now.

"Remember when you and I and your Pop used to go out Sundays to the shack and fish all day, and go swimming?"

She nodded. She knew he was tight, but nonetheless it pleased her that he recalled how things used to be between them.

Community Theater Play Of This Week Is Frothy Comedy

Comedy of the frothy sort which occasionally ventures into slapstick will be presented in "My Sister Eileen," the Midland Community Theater's first production of this Fall, which will open a five-day run in the City-County Auditorium Wednesday night.

It has none of the experimental stage effects which characterized some Community Theater plays of last season; it has no message, very little plot, and not even the tautness of feeling that was achieved in the most recent production of the theater, the mystery drama "Lulu."

Episodic in treatment, it has a relaxed sort of plot and is light enough even for the warm days which Midland has experienced recently.

On Broadway And Screen

The play, based on stories by Ruth McKenney, was produced at the Biltmore Theater in New York in December of 1940 under direction of George S. Kaufman. Joseph A. Fields and Jerome Chodorov are the authors and Max Gordon was the producer.

After a successful Broadway run "My Sister Eileen" became a popular motion picture starring Rosalind Russell.

Most important roles are those of Dorothy Smith and Billie Love, playing Ruth and Eileen Sherwood, sisters from Ohio who reach New York with high hopes of careers, one as a writer and the other on the stage. The remaining 24 members of the cast and several bit players enact the assorted persons, from a husky Swedish janitor to a sand hog, whom the sisters encounter.

Roles Are Varied

A reporter who promises Ruth a newspaper job, an athletic neighbor who wanders about the Greenwich Village apartment house dressed in track shorts, an ambitious young manager of a chain drug store who admires Eileen, a man in Cossack uniform who cannot be convinced that the previous tenant has moved from the apartment, six Brazilian naval cadets from a training ship who can speak only Portuguese, and the harassed policeman on the beat are among the characters who make up the play.

The stage setting remains the same through the play, the combination living room-bedroom-dining room of a half-basement apartment with a large window opening to an area-way and the street, where the feet of passersby are seen occasionally.

Lloyd McSpadden is stage manager for the production, and Bill Adam, assistant stage manager. Both also will appear in bit roles. McSpadden has worked backstage on a number of Community Theater productions, and Adam had a leading role in "Laura" last Spring.

Klonkie Johnson is in charge of lighting, Julie Rindig of painting and Bob Fitting of set construction.

MAJOR LEAGUES— Bums Narrow Gap As Cards Stumble

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Brooklyn's "B" twins—Ralph Branca and Rex Barney—have hit their old stride again and the Dodgers' pitching staff appears at peak strength for the stretch run in the tight National League pennant race.

This is discomfiting news for the St. Louis Cardinals, who saw their lead chopped to a game and a half Monday night and who have a three-game series with the pursuing Dodgers coming up Wednesday.

Barney turned in one of the best pitched games of the season Monday in shutting out the Cubs on one hit 4-0. He faced only 28 men, none reached second and the only blow off him was Phil Cavaretta's single opening the eighth.

It was his eighth victory against eight defeats but a vital one for the Dodgers.

A few hours later the Cardinals ran afoul a couple of Philadelphia rookies and lost to the Phillies 4-3, to have their advantage whittled to one and one-half games.

Branca, who pitched only 20 innings since August 1, showed top form in setting down the Cubs Sunday 7-1.

While the National League was growing tighter, the American began to loosen up a bit. The New York Yankees increased their lead to three full games over the idle Boston Red Sox by trimming Cleveland 6-0.

Lopat Beats Feller
Lefty Ed Lopat pitched a five-hitter in shutting out the Indians, recording his fifteenth victory of the season.

The options sell for $50 each and assure the purchaser of the right to buy one ticket to all games for a 20-year period.

The performance of the Midland B Bulldogs on Saturday night's game against the Brownfield B team was a credit to Coach Red Rutledge and the football program being instituted here.

The Midland boys were in better physical condition than the Cubs. There were no injuries, consequently.

Little Jimmy Adams and Larry Lynn got marvelous blocking for their end runs, allowing them to break into the clear time after time.

The defensive signal calling and centering of Bill Gray was perfect all the way. He led the ball carriers just enough with his passes from center.

Good coaching could be seen in evidence all the way. It'll pay big dividends in the future.

The adjusting of lights at Memorial Stadium is more of a process than we ever dreamed. We discovered it when we inquired of Supt. Frank Monroe the reason lights were on at the stadium Friday night.

The pole-climbers from Texas Electric Service Company were busy at the task of making necessary adjustments then.

Monroe says 80 common china plates—the kind we use on our tables—are used in the process.

The plates are placed at exact points down on the playing field. For each plate used, there is a light in one of the eight batteries along the sides of the field.

A man goes aloft and sights each light until it is pointed directly at a specified plate down on the field. When all lights are shining on their respective plates, the lighting system is in exact focus.

Two Clutch Hits By Jones Do Job

The Midland Indians and the Vernon Dusters tangled in the last game of the playoff series to be played in Vernon Tuesday night. If the Indians take the decision, it will give them the first round and eliminate Vernon.

If the Dusters win, the series will return to Indian Park for the finish.

Lefty Leon Hayes or Ralph Blair will pitch for the Indians. Lloyd Trip or Darwin Chriscio will go for the Dusters.

VERNON—The Vernon Dusters just couldn't overcome the pitching of a veteran and the hitting of a rookie here Monday night and dropped a 4 to 3 decision to the Midland Indians in the fourth game of their playoff series. The win gives Midland a three-to-one edge in the four-out-of-seven series.

The veteran Ernie Nelson, although in trouble most of the time, used his years of experience as a hurler to nip the Dusters in the pinches and notch his second playoff victory.

Kenny Jones, the Longhorn League's top rookie, supplied the bingles in the clutches for Midland. He drove in the winning run in the first of the ninth with a single.

Vernon Goes Ahead
Vernon took a one-run lead in the second inning but it only served to fire the Midland offense.

The Indians came back in the top of the third with two runs. Stan Hughes singled to open the frame and Bob Rose beat out a slow roller off the center. Julian Pressley doubled off the third-strike wall to score both runners.

Midland counted another run in the fifth with Kenny Jones supplying the bingle. The Indian loaded the bases with one away and Jones planned a Texas League to score the runner from third. A double play stopped the rally at that point.

Dusters Tie Score
Vernon stormed back with two runs in the last of the eighth to knot the score. Bob Huntery singled and scored on Lou Ehlinger's double. Lupo Gonzalez singled Ehlinger home.

The ninth brought the clincher for Midland. Warren Sitter got on by an error after two were out. Pressley walked. Jones hit a change-up pitch right back through the middle to score Sitter with the winning tally.

Nelson got the Dusters in order in the last half of the inning.

Lefty Crain, a Vernon's starting pitcher, Al Richardson relieved him. The box score:

BOSTON—(AP)—The 7,800-ton freighter Mormacfir rammed and sank the wooden fishing trawler Corinthian of Gloucester, Mass., Monday night in dense fog 80 miles southeast of Halifax, N. S.

Coast Guard officials said five of the 11 crew members of the fishing trawler, including the captain, were rescued by the Mormacfir, operated by the Moore-McCormack Lines. Six crewmen were missing.

The freighter, the Coast Guard said, still was seeking other survivors, according to latest reports.

The Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay was enroute to the scene from a weather station 250 miles to the east.

Robinson, Slaughter Battle For National Loop Slugging Toga

NEW YORK—(AP)—Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn and Enos Slaughter of St. Louis are hooked up in a man-to-man battle for the National League batting title.

Robinson's lead, once some 35 points, has melted to three points under Slaughter's persistent attack. Jackie has faded a bit, to be sure, but Slaughter's sensational rise has been the main factor.

Slaughter is smashing the ball at a .341 clip, close behind Robinson's leading .344. Averages include Sunday's games, with only two weeks to go.

Stan Musial of the Cards is third at .332.

After the first three, it's strictly a race for fourth position. Only nine points separate Bobby Thomson of New York, fourth at .310, and Red Schoendienst of St. Louis, tenth at .301.

WT-NM League— Gold Sox Win One To Stay in Playoff

By The Associated Press
Amarillo jumped back into the West Texas-New Mexico League's championship playoff series Monday night, beating Albuquerque 5-3. The victory was Amarillo's first in three games.

Steve Lagormarino limited the Dukes to four hits, including homers by Dick Gyselman and Jim Ficalini, but fanned seven and walked only three.

Paul Halter hit three singles to drive in four runs for the Amarillo Gold Sox. Dick Gentskow also homered for the victors.

The teams play the fourth game of the series Tuesday night at Amarillo.

Lew Wallace, author of Ben Hur, was a Union general.

Consolidations Cut Teams Competing In Six-Man Football

AUSTIN—(AP)—School consolidations have cut the rolls of teams that will play six-man football in the Interscholastic League this year.

Only 67 teams will play, compared with 186 last year. The league's figures show only 845 schools in all will have league teams this year, compared with 847 last year. The number of City Conference schools competing remained the same, 26.

A gain of one school in Class AA resulted when Thomas Jefferson High School of El Paso entered competition this year. Class A lost one school to drop to 227.

Class B showed the largest gain, with 340 schools competing for an increase of 16 over last year.

SMU's Matty Bell Sings Blues About Wake Forest Battle

DALLAS—(AP)—"Well, here we go again," quoth Matty Bell, head man of Southern Methodist's footballers, Tuesday as he heard some disturbing stories about Wake Forest.
Bell was told that the Deacons last week weren't even playing Duquesne, a team they beat 22-7. They were just whiling away the time before meeting Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl here next Saturday.
"Wake Forest started practicing for SMU the first day out," Bell declared. "They never gave Duquesne a thought."
"But," mused the Methodist mentor sadly, "that's the way it will be every Saturday. They all want to beat us. And some of them probably will."
The coach of the two-time Southwest Conference champions would not hazard a guess on Saturday night's score. But he did say he'd be well-satisfied to win by a point or two.
Wake Forest's squad will fly in Friday afternoon in time for a work-out.

Austin Maroons Get Nod Of Scribes As Top Schoolboy Team

DALLAS—(AP)—Austin is Texas top high school football team, in the opinion of most of the state's sportswriters.
The Maroons nosed out Port Arthur for the honor in the weekly poll of sportswriters conducted by the Dallas Morning News.
Johnny Kitchens' capitol city eleven rated 194 points. Port Arthur had 192.
Last week Port Arthur held first place in the poll and Austin was second.
Amarillo jumped into the third place. Lubbock was fourth and Wichita Falls fifth. Others in the top ten were Abilene, Baytown, Breckenridge, Marshall and Jeff Davis of Houston in that order.
Lamar of Houston and Odessa tied for eleventh. Others in the second ten were Corpus Christi, Grand Prairie, Pampa, Kerrville and Sunset of Dallas (tie); Temple, Sherman and San Jacinto of Houston.

Episcopal Bishop Speaks At Lamesa Annual Banquet

LAMESA — "American home life and education must be redeemed if we are to keep our republic," the Rt. Rev. John Hines of Austin, bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas, said here Monday night.
Hines, principal speaker at the fourth annual Lamesa Chamber of Commerce membership banquet told the 250 West Texans in attendance that there is an inevitable tie between our home and national life.
"The home," he said, "is the basic unit of our society. It makes our natural life secure. By the same token, we must weld unbreakable ties around our educational spokes if we are to strengthen the bonds of national security."
Attending the event from Midland were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Downing and Mr. and Mrs. DeWayne Davis. Bishop Hines returned with them to Midland, where he was to catch a plane for Austin.

Farmer Takes 'Bull By Horns,' Saves Rubberneck Ferdy

CLEBURNE —(AP)—Ferdie the bull is a little puzzle and vastly hurt, by the ways of man.
The 1,200-pound Holstein was ambling around late Monday. He ambled right on when he saw some planks.
Both side first he went crashing through the planks. He thudded to a stop—at the bottom of a 40-foot abandoned well.
He stayed there all night.
When he looked up he saw Farmer Jim Cryer peering down. He looked into a face as puzzled as his own.
Cryer didn't know what to do.
"Take the bull by the horns," Cryer said to himself. "Take the bull by the horns."
Tuesday his friend, Gene Reed, pulled up with his auto wrecker. It has a winch on the back.
The winch line was lowered into the well. It settled snugly around Ferdie's ample horns.
A little grinding and Ferdie's neck began stretching. But he didn't budge.
A little more grinding and a little more stretching. Ferdie's eyes protruded glassily. He started upward.
He was limp by the time his bottom side cleared the bottom of the well. His neck was longer than it had ever been before.
At the well lip, Ferdie collapsed. But he kept on breathing.
"Darn near pulled his head off," commented Reed.
"Yeah, shore did," said Cryer. "Ferdie got up, very shakily, and ambled away."

Bulldogs Take Three-Hour Workout, Skull Practice

Any trace of foolishness or nonsense that might have lingered among the Midland Bulldogs up to Monday afternoon made a fast exit when the boys took the field for a three-hour workout. Every man was down to brass tacks in the lengthy offensive and defensive drills as coaches demanded and received plenty of leather popping.
Coach Tugboat Jones put his first string on defense and set up an offensive team in the T formation. Austin High plays were run with Jones himself in there as the man under.
The Bulldog first stringers stopped most of quick opening stuff, took care of the flanker plays well and looked better on pass defense.
Harrie Smith and Dwane Bush rolled with the plays well and recovered in time to get several tackles.
Bob Wood had his troubles at times but corrected them as he went along and ended up playing good defensive ball.
Big Al Baze got a hand from the coaches as he stacked the opposing line and charged the passer hard.
Byerley Top Lineman Dalton Byerley was in the right place at the right time to do the most good. He still is faster on the charge than any other man in the line.
Jackie Mobley bore down on the middle of the opposing line and made hash out of interference.
Jimmy O'Neal is improving as a linebacker. He followed the ball well on fakes and reverses, enabling him to get his tackles.
Reed Gilmore, L. C. Thomas, Ralph Brooks, Bob Conner and Larry Friday threw up a tight pass defense in the secondary.
Following the session against the "Austin High" T, Coach Jones turned his single wing loose on offense.
The backs showed more polish than ever. They found the holes well and got perfect blocking going downfield. Jack Burris looked especially good at setting up his blocks. He rolled over the opposition for four "touchdowns" and L. C. Thomas made good yardage on line plays.
Stephens Back Cecil Stephens, recovering from an arm injury, ran several plays and looked good.
Ralph Brooks and Burris split

Williams Grabs Sixth Top Bracket In American Loop

CHICAGO —(AP)—Boston's Ted Williams is tightening his monopoly on American League batting marks, taking the lead in six divisions of play.
He topped five brackets a week ago and now has added a sixth—most runs batted in, in statistics through Sunday's games. Williams is ahead in batting with 351; scored the most runs, 143; slammed the most hits, 188; most doubles, 39; most homers, 40, and has hammered across 133 runs.
Dale Mitchell of Cleveland was tops in three-batters with 23 and St. Louis' Bob Dillinger continued in the base-stealing lead with 18.
Second to Williams in batting was George Kell of Detroit with 341. He was followed by Dillinger with 316; Dom D'Amagio, Boston, 313.
Boston's Ellis Kinder took over the top pitching percentage record with 21-5 for .808.

One-half of the field for the Texas League's championship play-off was decided Monday night and it could be completed Tuesday night.
Port Worth gained the finals by beating Shreveport 5-0.
Tulsa took a three-games-to-two advantage over Oklahoma City with a 12-3 decision.
Bob Milliken spaced four Shreveport hits as the Cats wound up this series in five games. Shreveport won only one.
Walker Cross set Oklahoma City down with seven hits while his mates pounded out 19.
It was the third straight victory for the Oilers in five games. The sixth game will be played at Tulsa Tuesday night.

Willie Pep Is 1-4 Favorite To Clobber Challenger Compo

WATERBURY, CONN. —(AP)—A late rush for seats promised to make a financial success of the Willie Pep-Eddie Compo world featherweight title bout here Tuesday night.
Municipal Stadium, the scene of the scrap, has been mapped to seat exactly 15,812—just in case. Ten thousand paying customers would mean a gate of approximately $40,000, a profit for everybody, says Promoter Rocco Mara.
The all-Connecticut fight in which Willie is to defend his crown for the ninth time since he won it late in 1942 from Chalky Wright, is slated to start at 8 p.m. (EST). There is to be no radio broadcast or television.
For Pep, the 1 to 4 favorite, the bout—his first since he recaptured the 126-pound title from Sandy Saddler last February, has double significance. Tuesday is his 27th birthday.

Moscow Says British Workers Penalized

Acheson Asks Latin Nations To Assist In Ending Turmoil

NEW YORK. —(P)—Secretary of State Acheson has called on Latin America to join the United States in a concerted move to end the years-long warlike turmoil in the Caribbean area.

Acheson made the declaration Monday night in outlining this nation's Latin American policy.

He addressed a dinner meeting of the Pan American Society of the United States, which brought out the biggest gathering of high-ranking Latin American diplomatic and economic leaders in many years.

Acheson declared the United States is determined to encourage the growth of democracy in the western hemisphere and to help its economic development.

He said the U.S. will strongly oppose "aggression or plotting against any nation of this hemisphere," and added: "The security system which culminated in the Rio Treaty is now facing a crucial test." This treaty by American republicans pledges each to assist if another is the victim of armed attack.

Approaches Turmoil
The entire Caribbean area has at times "approached a state of political turmoil," Acheson told the dinner gathering.

He mentioned recent plots and counterplots which have disrupted the area, and increasing "military adventures."

"The nations of the western hemisphere," Acheson said, "must abide by our regional commitments and maintain peace in our own midst." He said that "if all xxx proceed along these lines, as we in this country intend to do, there is no reason why any nation in the hemisphere should fear aggression."

Acheson pledged that the United States will "use our strongest efforts, in keeping with our international commitments" to oppose any actual or threatened aggression or plotting against any nations in the hemisphere.

Discussions of the controversial issue of diplomatic recognition of revolutionary governments in Latin America, Acheson explained: "Recognition is not synonymous with approval" and U.S. policy is not inconsistent with "our encouragement of democracy."

Sending an ambassador is not intended to show approval of a government, the secretary said, but is to provide "a channel through which to conduct essential government relations and to protect legitimate United States interests."

Woman Charged In Slaying Of Daughter; Held Without Bond

KINGWOOD, W. V. —(P)—A 65-year-old woman is in jail here on first degree murder charges after authorities quoted her as saying she killed her 25-year-old daughter and kept the body at home for a week.

Mrs. Jennie McIntee was ordered held without bond for the Preston County Grand Jury after she pleaded innocent at a hearing in Magistrate's Court Monday.

Sheriff J. H. Benson said Mrs. McIntee told him she shot her daughter, Mrs. Mae Piper of nearby Grape Thicket, last Tuesday because "she perted me."

Mrs. Piper's body was found Monday on a cot in the home she shared with her mother, Benson said she had suffered a 22 caliber bullet wound in the head.

The officer reported finding the body after a neighbor asked Mrs. McIntee about her daughter and was told:

"She is out back lying on a bed. I shot her."

The reason for the shooting, Benson quoted Mrs. McIntee as saying, was, "She perted me last Tuesday." Listed in the Funk & Wagnalls New College Standard Dictionary as an adjective meaning "disrespectfully forward or free," the word "pert," is used in these West Virginia hills as a verb.

It means the same thing, though.

City Dads Cut Off Suds For Drinking Dogs Of Prestwich

PRESTWICH, ENGLAND. —(P)—With bloodshot eyes and trembling paws the drinking dogs of Prestwich scuttled into their favorite saloons Tuesday. They got a shock. Their drinks are cut off.

Dr. C. H. T. Wade, the city health officer, said the wave of tilting by dogs at the local pubs has got to stop.

"They have dirty habits," he said, "and most pubs only rinse the glasses."

Alderman A. L. Williams of the health committee agreed.

"We don't say our dogs are drunkards," he told a reporter, "but too many of them are drinking beer from the same glasses used by other patrons."

Bernard Hadfield, proprietor of The Ostrich, said most of the drinking dogs he knows were moderate about it—half a pint or so a night. But he said he had seen at least one who'd had a drop too much.

"Mind you," said Hadfield, "he may have been new to it, but he certainly staggered home."

Barkley In Heated Attack On Critics

SAN FRANCISCO. —(P)—Vice President Barkley made a vigorous attack Monday night on critics who accuse the Administration of developing a welfare state.

After completing his prepared address to the Western States Democratic Conference, the vice president pounded the table and declared:

"If as charged we are on the last mile toward a welfare state, we might as well properly ask who started us on the first mile."

He said he would like to ask critics to look at all the accomplishments of his party and then see if they would want to repeal the social legislation and the remainder of the program.

In his prepared speech, Barkley said it is difficult in these complex days to separate our domestic and international concerns.

Veteran Oil Man Dies At Austin

DALLAS. —(P)—Last rites were to be held Tuesday for Oswyn Mowers, veteran oil man and once a co-worker with Luther Burbank in plant experiments.

Mowers, in his middle seventies, died Monday after a long illness.

As a young man, he was a neighbor of Burbank at Santa Rosa, Calif., and experimented with him on crossing various kinds of plants.

He came to Texas in 1900 and entered the oil business as a research engineer in the old Spindletop field near Beaumont.

Mowers designed many oil field machines and drilling tools, among them the Guberson oil well swab. Interment will be at Houston.

Death Asked For 14-Year-Old Boy Who Slew Father

BUCKHANNON, W. VA. —(P)—The death penalty has been asked for a 14-year-old boy accused of killing his father because he wouldn't buy him a bicycle.

Upshur County prosecutor, P. D. Jennings asked the death sentence Monday in opening remarks to a jury convened to try Jerry Riggs, 14, of nearby Tallmansville for the fatal shooting of his father on August 9. Jerry pleaded innocent.

Jerry's younger brother and sister found the body of their father, Harry L. Riggs, 48, in a cornfield with a bullet wound in his back.

State Police Corporal R. C. Culp quoted Jerry as saying he shot his father because he spanked him and wouldn't give him money for a bicycle.

Culp said the boy told him later he bought a bike after he had taken $1,225 from a cache in his home and hidden all but $60 of it.

LAREDO —(P)— Laredo police are holding William Lincoln Bales, 28, of San Angelo on a federal complaint charging foreign transportation of a stolen automobile.

Bales was arrested after the present Mexican owner of the automobile was stopped Saturday afternoon for questioning by a policeman who noticed the car bore out-dated license plates.

The complaint against Bales was filed Monday before the U.S. commissioner in Dallas.

Bales was free on $2,500 bond on a charge of interstate transportation of stolen cattle and a $5,000 bond on a charge of intimidation of a witness. He was indicted on those charges by a federal grand jury in Lubbock.

Mexican States Plan Good Neighbor Panel

McALLEN —(P)— Some Mexican states soon may form an organization similar to Texas' Good Neighbor Commission.

Raul Guerra, a member of the Texas commission, said Monday the possibility is strongest in Mexico's border states, particularly Tamaulipas. He said Gov. Raul Garate of Tamaulipas may discuss his state's plans at a meeting of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission in Austin October 11.

The Good Neighbor Commission is an official Texas agency set up to work for better relations with Mexico.

A STEEL STRIKE IS NOT JUSTIFIED

Philip Murray, President of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) threatens a steel strike on September 25, 1949. Why? Simply because we and other steel companies will not bow to his unreasonable demand that unless we now agree in advance to the recommendations of the Presidential Steel Board, the Union will not resume collective bargaining with us. Before the Presidential Steel Board was established, the President of the United States gave express assurance that the recommendations of the Board would not be binding upon either party. It was upon that understanding that United States Steel appeared before the Board.

United States Steel has several times notified the Union of its willingness now to resume collective bargaining with the Union for the purpose of attempting to arrive at some mutually satisfactory solution of all of the issues in dispute. Collective bargaining is the method established by law for the negotiation of labor contracts. We renew such offer to resume collective bargaining with the Union.

United States Steel has already stated its willingness to join with the Union in a joint study of pensions, such study to be concluded by March 1, 1950, if possible, so that there may then be intelligent bargaining over a pension program. Furthermore, United States Steel previously has stated its willingness now to negotiate with the Union for a contributory program of social insurance, toward the cost of which United States Steel will contribute up to 4 cents an hour as its proper share.

If a strike occurs, the Union must assume the responsibility.

Daddy Ringtail and Clock Turnum Back Too Much. "I know what to do, I do," said the Huffen. "I know what to do for mischief."

It was the clock that Daddy Ringtail was going to turn back, back to the day when he was a boy. "Here's what we'll do for mischief," said the Huffen. And he began to work with the clock.

That was the mischief the Huffen was planning. Mugwump was planning it too. Oh, they didn't mean for the mischief to be serious mischief, but only play-like mischief for fun. Away they slid to the ground to hide and wait. A few minutes later, they heard Daddy Ringtail climbing the tree.

Technicality Delays Hanks Tax Case Trial

AUSTIN —(P)—Trial of Raymond N. Hanks, charged with making false tax-refund claims against the state and with forgery, was postponed Tuesday until October 10 in 126th District Court.

Postponement was on motion of the state, represented by District Attorney Bob Long. Long told the court some technical question has been raised regarding the validity of the indictments.

Defense Attorney Paul Holt said the indictments failed to allege that Hanks had done anything illegal in Travis County, where the indictments were filed, or that statutes had placed venue in Travis County.

Volunteers Seek Christmas Street Lighting Funds

Volunteer workers were out early Tuesday soliciting merchants, utility companies and professional men and women for contributions to the Christmas street lighting fund. They hoped to reach the $3,500 goal by nightfall.

The solicitors are members of the Retailers Committee of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, of which Henry Murphy is chairman. Arrangements for the drive were mapped at a meeting of the committee last week. The workers will report at a meeting at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Efforts are being made to obtain funds to purchase new street lighting equipment to decorate an 11-block area in the downtown sector. Officials said the project, if carried to completion, will make Midland the best-lighted city in West Texas this Christmas.

The lights will be turned on Tuesday night, November 29, when Midland's Christmas shopping season officially is opened.

Mean Old Tomcat Wins Liars' Toga For Dutch Minister

REINHOLDS, PA. —(P)—A minister who also is a state senator is the best Pennsylvania Dutch liar in these parts.

The Rev. Frank Ruth of Bernville won the first annual contest of the Pennsylvania Dutch Liars Club Monday by telling a story about a mean old tomcat who couldn't be killed.

When ropes and guns didn't eliminate the critter, Ruth said in dialect, a posse went out after him, cut off his head and buried him under a pile of rocks.

Three days later the old cat trotted home, carrying his head in his mouth.

Coal Strike—

"I intend to leave the state capital in January and I don't intend to leave it cold."

There are about 80,000 tons of coal above ground, enough to keep industry going anywhere from 40 to 60 days.

It's a different story in Eastern Pennsylvania's anthracite (hard coal) fields, where 80,000 diggers walked out.

Industry leaders said the hard coal supply will be choked off in three days to a week. Heavy runs on coal above ground already have developed.

The anthracite walkout is a sympathy move.

Currency—

(Continued from Page One) idea of letting the free enterprise system determine how many francs the U. S. dollar will bring.

Neither Canada nor France slashed currencies as drastically as Britain. The dollar-short British cut their pound 30 1/2 per cent—from $4.08 to $2.80—in a drastic effort to start a buying boom by Americans, who now can get British-made goods at cheaper prices.

A Russian radio commentator declared that Britain had "surrendered to the United States."

Here is the list of countries that have devalued their currencies: Britain, South Africa, Ireland, New Zealand, Canada, France, Australia, Egypt, India, Burma, Ceylon, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Iceland, Finland, Malaysia and Holland.

Wholesale Arrests Of Priests Reported From Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE—(AP)—The Czechoslovak government has jailed dozens of Roman Catholic priests and nuns in a big new wave of arrests aimed at breaking spreading resistance to state control schemes, a statement from church sources said Tuesday. The report, given to correspondents here and enumerating at least 20 arrests, was termed only a partial list. It said more arrests were expected as the long-state-church fight neared a showdown stage.

In one case the entire personnel of a monastery was reported seized. In another the staff of a theological seminary were taken, together with their office printing equipment.

In some cases the reasons for arrests were not known. But, according to church sources, the campaign apparently was a widespread crackdown instituted after offers of salary increases and other blandishments had failed to win the priests over to the government's side in the state-church controversy.

Peasant Uprisings
The government has published a proposed church law, to be enacted by Parliament this Fall, which would give the state power over all church appointments and administration. Meanwhile reports reached Prague that a local Communist official had been killed by angry peasants in Moravia following the arrest of a Catholic priest.

The news stirred speculation whether fresh peasant uprisings are being.

Big Three Officials Open Atomic Talks

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The United States, Britain and Canada opened negotiations Tuesday for a new agreement on exchanging atomic secrets and sharing the uranium from which the A-bomb is made. Their war-bond A-bomb partnership is at stake.

The negotiations at this stage are wholly "exploratory" because President Truman has promised that he will not make any commitments until after consulting Congress.

In an atmosphere that was only slightly less than completely secret, representatives of the three governments were called together at the State Department at 12:30 p.m. American officials are closely restricted as to what they can do or say about atomic energy information—even within the conference with the British and Canadians. They were reported anxious to try to bring some three-way understanding as to the progress each nation has achieved in atomic energy and atomic bomb research and development in the last two years or so.

Real Estate Board Hears Attorney

Members of the Midland Real Estate Board heard Emil Rassman, Midland attorney, discuss the national constitution Tuesday, at their luncheon in the Private Dining Room of the Hotel Scharbauer. Rassman pointed out that the 55 men who met in Philadelphia 162 years ago to form the constitution had many problems that seemed to them insurmountable. "Today we face many problems in government policy which seem impossible to overcome but the present generation can do it just as their forefathers did years ago," Rassman said.

"Though the delegates at the convention were not satisfied with the result of their labors it now has been recognized as one of the greatest governmental documents in the history of the world."

The meeting was presided over by Floyd Boles, chairman. Plans were being discussed for sending delegates to the convention of the National Real Estate Board in Chicago in November.

Optimist Members Hear Centurettes

Members of the Optimist Club were entertained by the Centurettes, a girls sextette from Big Spring, at its luncheon meeting Tuesday in Hotel Scharbauer. The Centurettes were here to publicize the Big Spring Centennial October 2-8.

Al Dillon of Big Spring accompanied the Centurettes to Midland. Optimist committee reports were given by Walter Bodenman and Jerry Monroe.

The weekly attendance gift, provided by Monroe, went to Bob Wainwright.

Jack Chase was in charge of the program.

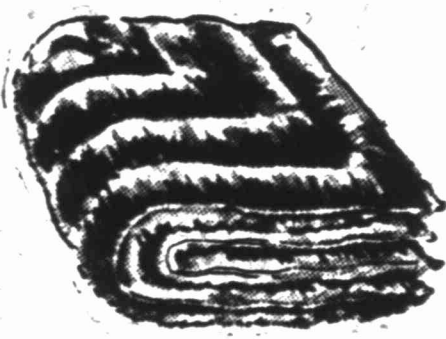

Says 'Boo' And Makes It Stick

SUNDERLAND, ENGLAND—(AP)—Mrs. Violet Geldart, 53, was fined one pound ($2.80) Monday for saying "Boo."

Two-year-old Ian Park's mother told the judge little Ian was so frightened by the "Boo" from over the back fence that he no longer sleeps at night.

"He thinks Mrs. Geldart is in every room," said Mrs. Park.
