Midland-Upton Oil Field Staked With Three New Projects

The Pegasus oil field which straddles the line between Midland and Upton Counties has been staked with three out-side locations. In Central-South Midland County and one-half mile east of the most northern producing field well, Magnolia Petroleum Company will drill the No. 4-D-30 Roy Glass. Stated depth of 13,200 feet should tap the Ellenburger pay of the Pegasus.

The Midland County location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 30, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey, and 25 miles south of the city of Midland. Two in Upton. In Central North Upton County and one and one-quarter miles southwest of the Pegasus southern extension, Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1 Powell, Magnolia has staked the No. 1 Virgil Powell. This location is a quarter of a mile northwest of the Republic, and others No. 1 American Republics, now testing in the Fusselman section of the Silurian.

Projected depths of the No. 1 Virgil Powell are 13,200 feet, which will test the Ellenburger. Drillsite is to be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 48, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey. Magnolia has spotted the No. 1-D-TXL in the adjoining section to the one in which the No. 1 Virgil Powell is located.

The No. 1-D-TXL is one quarter of a mile north of the No. 1 American Republics, and 1,980 feet from south and 860 feet from west lines of section 43, block 40, T&P survey, T-4-S. It too will test the Ellenburger pay of the Pegasus with a projected depth of 13,200 feet.

GMOC 1 Peck Drills More Ellenburger General American Oil Company, and associates, No. 1 Peck, South-west Midland County discovery for flowing production from the Pennsylvanian lime, the Devonian and the top of the Ellenburger had a recovery of 6,030 feet of oil and gas cut drilling fluid during a two hour and 15 minute drillstem test at 13,205-265 feet. No fluid came to the surface while the tool was open. A 500-foot water blanket was used. That fluid was recovered along with the oil and gas cut mud, when operators reversed out the recovery from the drillstem test.

The project is to drill deeper. It flowed at the rate of 38 barrels of oil per hour during a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger at 13,128-205 feet.

Location is at the center of the northwest quarter of the north-west quarter of section 21, block 41, TP survey, T-4-S.

North Snyder Gets Another Strawn Well The second producer from the Strawn lime in the Permian has been completed in the North Snyder field in North-Central Scurry County at the Claud B. Hamill No. 4 Lois Sears Senter. This exploration well only slight shows of oil in the Canyon reef. It completed from open hole in between 7,300 feet and a plugged back bottom of approximately 7,426 feet in the upper Strawn.

On a 24-hour potential test, the well flowed 354 barrels of 39.8 gravity oil, with a 100 percent gas-oil ratio was 695-1. The project developed salt water in the Strawn in a drillstem test at 7,485-7,517 feet. That zone has been plugged with cement.

The Hamill producer is one location west of Sunray Oil Corporation No. 1 Senter, the discovery for Strawn production in the North Snyder region. The new well is located 467 feet from north and east lines of lot 3, section 26, block 1, J. P. Smith survey.

Another Canyon Test Spotted In C-S Kent D. D. Feldman, of Dallas, has staked a location one mile west of the Chapman & McFarlin No. 1 Cogdell, a Central-South Kent County Canyon discovery.

The new project, slated to go to 7,500 feet, will be the Feldman No. 1 Fuller. It is contracted to explore the Canyon.

Drillsite is to be 16 miles north of Snyder, and 467 feet from north and east lines of section 703, block 97, H&TC survey.

It will be seven miles north of production in the North Snyder field, and virtually on the line between Scurry and Kent Counties.

West Offset Staked To C-S Kent Opener Humble Oil & Refining Company is to start operations at once at its No. 1 Leroy Spires, Jr., which is to be a Canyon lime exploration in the Cogdell area of Central-South Kent County.

Location is 467 feet from south and east lines of section 717, block 97, H&TC survey. The venture is projected to 6,900 feet. It is one location due west of the Chapman & McFarlin No. 1 Cogdell discovery well of the Cogdell-Canyon field. The drillsite is 18 miles north of Snyder.

Collapse Of Talks Starts Coal Board Working On Report

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman's fact-finding board ended its hearings on the coal dispute Thursday and went to work on a report to the White House. The members said they hoped to make the report by Saturday—two days ahead of the deadline set when they took on the job.

Once the President gets the report he can ask Attorney General McGrath to seek a court order for the 370,000 striking coal miners to go back to work. The board cut off its hearings with an announcement by Chairman David L. Cole that the board's observations during fruitless direct bargaining negotiations Wednesday had given it needed information about the issues.

John L. Lewis, leader of the miners, and the coal operators talked issues for almost eight hours Wednesday under prodding from the board. But they couldn't get to an agreement. Pinch Grows Worse With almost no coal being produced, the pinch was tightening over the country.

Rail service by coal-burning locomotives was cut to 50 per cent of normal for passenger trains and 75 per cent for freight effective at midnight, Friday. The railroads estimated they had an average 15-day supply of coal on hand.

Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois, with only six days' coal supplies left, ordered 9,000 men on a three-week furlough starting Friday.

In Detroit, dwindling fuel supplies caused General Motors to cancel all plans for Saturday work and scheduled overtime. Lewis, during Wednesday's stormy session of the inquiry board, charged that operators had no intention of signing a new contract.

The mine owners, he said, believe they need only wait to get a "yellow dog injunction under this damnable Taft-Hartley Act."

State Senate Urges Defeat Of Proposed Depletion Rate Cuts

AUSTIN—(P)—The Texas Senate Thursday urged Congress to defeat the proposed elimination or reduction of depletion allowances now made in connection with income taxes on producers of natural resources.

A resolution passed by voice vote said any such change would cripple natural resource industries in Texas and seriously retard the search for and development of new sources of supply "vitally necessary to this country, particularly in case of war."

The Senate then quit until 11:05 a.m. Monday. The Senate resolution was introduced by Senator Wardlow Lane of Center. It noted that the state's economy "to a great degree" is tied up with the production of natural resources and that taxes from them furnish a large portion of the support for the state government, including its public school system and its welfare and other programs.

Copies of the resolution were ordered wired to House Speaker Sam Rayburn, Vice President Alben W. Barkley and mailed to all members of the Texas delegation in Congress.

Both the Senate and House marked time Thursday, waiting for (Continued on Page 10)

Run Over By Truck, Monahans Tot Dies MONAHANS — Alvie Lee Hood, two, died here Wednesday of injuries received when he was run over by a truck.

The child apparently died of shock. The accident occurred about 5 p.m. The infant died shortly afterward in a Monahans hospital.

Alvie Lee was the son of Mrs. Leola Hood, employed in the Ward County home demonstration office here. The father, Lesley Hood, resides in Levelland.

The Ward County sheriff's department said Wednesday night the truck apparently was driven by T. J. Boucher of San Angelo.

Boucher had backed the truck in at the Tom Cates Grocery here. He had unloaded his stock and reportedly had gone into the store with Cates.

A woman witness told officers the driver returned to the truck and started to drive off. When the truck started moving she said she saw the child crawling out from under the truck where he apparently had either fallen or crawled.

The dual back wheels passed over the youth's legs and lower part of the abdomen, a funeral home reported.

Houston Hill Is Awarded School Jobs

Houston Hill, Midland contractor, Wednesday afternoon was awarded the contract for construction of Carver High School and Northeast Elementary School. Final figure of Hill's bid was $334,700.

Awarded the contract for electrical work for Northeast Elementary School was Burton Brothers Electric Company of Fort Worth, with a bid of $15,612. Neill Sheet Metal Company of Midland was awarded the mechanical contract, for plumbing, heating and ventilation, with a bid of $31,490 on the elementary school.

Plumbing, heating and electrical work for the Carver school is included in the general contractor's base bid.

George T. Abell, president of the Board of Education, pointed out that Hill's bid was accepted in preference to lower bids, because of the importance of the time element.

Hill's contract calls for completion of classroom space in 200 days—in time for the opening of school in September. A penalty of $50 per day for each building is included in the contract for failure to fulfill the time requirement. Hill's bid promised completion of the two buildings in 240 days.

Total cost for the two buildings is $434,710.12, according to Abell. This figure includes $30,000 for equipment for the two buildings and $22,908.12 architect's fees.

Cost per square foot for the two buildings is the lowest in recent Midland school construction, according to Abell. Northeast elementary, with 35,666 square feet, will cost $7.21 per foot; and Carver, with 18,480 square feet, will cost $8.37 per foot.

Hill's bid, as originally submitted, was for $342,000, but school officials eliminated science laboratory equipment amounting to $8,300 to reduce the figure to $334,700.

Breakdown shown The breakdown of the bids shows construction cost for the elementary school as $190,000; electrical equipment, $15,612; plumbing and heating, $31,490; classroom, laboratory, auditorium and cafeteria (Continued on Page 10)

Holidays, Finances Discussed At Meet Of Retail Group Holidays to be observed by Midland business firms in 1950 were discussed Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, but action was deferred until the next meeting.

Firms not represented at the session will be contacted in the meantime. Six holidays were observed in 1949, including New Year's Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

It was suggested that Memorial Day be substituted for the Armistice Day holiday this year, but action on the proposal was deferred.

Henry Murphy, chairman of the committee last year, presided at the session.

A deficit of $892 in the committee's Christmas street lighting program was announced. Members attending the session voted to borrow sufficient funds to retire the indebtedness and to include the amount in the 1950 budget, which will be raised early next fall.

A majority of the merchants did not favor a proposal for earlier Saturday closing hours during the Summer.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Delbert Downing expressed appreciation to the retailers for their excellent support and cooperation during the last year.

Capture Of Ewald Johnson Climaxes Widespread Hunt

MUNISING, MICH.—(P)—Ewald Johnson, 32, wanted in Texas in the tourist camp slaying of a prominent oil man last June, was arrested here Thursday.

Munising police, tipped by Texas authorities, took the red-haired Johnson at the home of a sister here, nabbing him at 1 a.m. while he slept. He offered no resistance.

Officer T. J. Dowling said Johnson was being held in the Alger County jail "for extradition on a murder charge" in the killing of W. A. (Tex) Thornton, famed oil field explosives expert, at an Amarillo, Texas, tourist camp last June 22.

Formal charges of murder were filed Wednesday at Amarillo against Johnson and his young wife.

Michigan State Police Lt. Willard Wikom, of the nearby Marquette, Mich., Post said he had been advised Amarillo officers already are enroute to Munising to question Johnson.

The arrest here climaxed a widespread hunt developing after a pretty blonde young woman, who claims to be Johnson's wife, told Washington, D. C., police Wednesday her husband killed Thornton. Denies Everything She was listed by authorities as Mrs. Diana Heaney Johnson, 18, and booked in Washington, D. C., on charges of fleeing across state lines to avoid prosecution for murder. Officers quoted Fort Worth police as saying she also was wanted there on car theft charges.

Thornton was killed, Washington police said she told them, while the police and Johnson were hitchhiking. Dowling said the 32-year-old Johnson "denied everything" upon his arrest, but refused to go into details. He was being questioned further Thursday.

Wife Attempts Jump The 18-year-old Mrs. Johnson attempted to jump from a fifth-story window at Washington Police Headquarters while awaiting arraignment on a federal fugitive charge Wednesday. She was dragged from a sill by police.

She was held under $40,000 bond on charges of alleged car theft and fleeing across state lines to escape prosecution. Mrs. Johnson first went to Washington police a week ago with a story about the unsolved murder of Thornton. After being committed to a hospital for observation, she came back with the same story: That Thornton was slain during an argument by Johnson, whom she married in Utah in 1947.

The FBI and Texas authorities immediately began an intensive search for Johnson which culminated here.

Reds Have Most But Not Best Airplanes, Says U. S. Expert WASHINGTON—(P)—An American aviation expert said Thursday Russia is ahead of the United States in aircraft production and in the number of military planes it has in service.

However, said John F. Victory, executive secretary of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (NACA), this country isn't disturbed because it feels it has the better planes.

"We think we still have supremacy in the air," he said, "because of the superior performance and military effectiveness of our aircraft."

Victory said in a prepared statement that neither the United States nor Russia has a practical military plane of super-sonic speed. U. S. planes can go faster, than sound now only when unarmed, he said.

Struggle For Survival Victory, first employe of the NACA when it was founded in 1915 as the nation's chief agency for basic air research, addressed the Cosmopolitan Club.

"The struggle for the survival of civilians is now underway in the research laboratories of our land," he said. "There the outcome of our present campaign to hold communism in check and prevent another world war is being decided."

He said the atomic bomb "is solely an offensive weapon—of no value without a means of delivering it to its target."

Appointed

John Ben Shepperd

Shepperd Named To State Post AUSTIN—(P)—Gov. Allan Shivers Thursday announced appointment of John Ben Shepperd, Gladewater attorney, as secretary of state.

The appointment, effective Friday, is subject to Senate confirmation. Shepperd will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of former Senator Ben Ramsey, who announced last Sunday he would leave the post. Ramsey announced no future plans but he is generally considered a probable candidate for lieutenant governor in this year's elections.

Shepperd, 34, recently was selected by a national magazine and the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of the nation's 10 outstanding young men of 1949. He is a former national president of the Jaycees. He was selected three times among the Texas Jaycees' "five outstanding young men in Texas." He is immediate past president of the Gladewater Chamber of Commerce and is president of the Gregg County Bar Association. He is married and the father of two boys and twin girls.

Governor Shivers has convinced me that this job offers a real opportunity for service to the people of Texas. I am happy to become a part of his progressive and humanitarian administration," Shepperd said of his appointment.

Tax Assistance Given On Mondays, Fridays

The internal revenue office here will be open on Monday and Friday of each week for assistance of income taxpayers, it was announced by John Robinson, deputy collector.

The remainder of the week will be devoted to working of the office files, he added.

The office is located on the third floor of the courthouse.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A British offer to soften proposed restrictions on American oil sales in Britain was reported Thursday to be unsatisfactory to the State Department, but officials said it may open the way to a compromise solution.

Postal Rate Hike Given House Okay

WASHINGTON—(P)—The House voted Thursday for hikes in postal rates expected to bring the Post Office Department $130,000,000 more a year.

A voice vote passed the bill and sent it to the Senate. The Administration-backed bill intended to take at least a short stride in the direction of cutting the Post Office Department's operating deficit of half a billion dollars—was driven to the brink of passage Wednesday.

A technicality raised by opponents forestalled the final vote. They demanded a reading of the engrossed bill—the formally printed measure with all amendments in the right place, so the final action was put off until Thursday.

The bill would provide more revenue for the Post Office Department from these sources: Post and postal cards, $36,000,000; second class matter, $15,000,000; third class, $23,600,000; fourth class, $40,000,000; registered mail, $4,000,000. The rest of the $130,000,000 would come from services not extensively used.

YOUTH SHOT, KILLED In Attempt To Flee BIG SPRING—(P)—A young man was shot and killed here Wednesday night as he tried to escape after being arrested at an outlying cafe.

He was identified as Ronald Williams, about 20, a brother of Roy Williams, Walters, Okla. Deputy Sheriffs Bill Finley and Kirby Cook said they were bringing the man in from the cafe when he broke away. Finley said he fired but the prisoner escaped. Later he recaptured the young man but he fought free again and fled.

Cook said he fired as the man ran and he fell mortally wounded on a downtown street.

Cook was charged with murder without malice. He posted $2,000 bond.

STANTON To Ballot On $125,000 Issue STANTON—The City Council here Tuesday night approved the calling of a $125,000 bond election early in April. Contracts have been made with a bonding company to draw up necessary legal papers for calling the election.

The bond issue is proposed for water and sewer improvements and extensions.

Mayor Poe Woodard said it is hoped the bond issue can be placed on the ballot when the regular city election is held April 11.

There will be no more acting," Michel said firmly. "Our baby is going to lead a normal, happy childhood."

Still pending is a complaint by sheriff's juvenile officers that Mrs. Michel deprived Lara Lee of food to keep her weight down so she could play small girl parts in films. This is scheduled for trial March 21.

Undecided is Mrs. Michel's demand for a battery complaint against Mrs. Ona Wargin, the child's former agent. Mrs. Wargin is a friend of Mrs. Brunson.

Electrical Storms, Light Rains, Mark Cold Front's Trail

Spectacular electrical storms marked a weak cold front's passage through Texas overnight, but there was little of the rain which farmers need.

The cold front reached into South Texas by mid-morning at which time the line stretched through Lufkin, Bryan, Cotulla, Laredo and Eagle Pass.

Rainfall for the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a.m. included Austin 30 inch, Dallas 24, Corsicana 52, Waco 65, Palacios 42 and Tyler 87.

Some hail fell at Dallas, where lightning and thunder woke many residents. An electrical storm at Marshall tumbled temperatures 32 degrees overnight and brought 47 inch of rain.

Temperatures fell to freezing again in the Panhandle. Low readings Thursday morning included 25 at Cleburne, Dalhart and Lubbock and 28 at Amarillo.

Scattered showers were expected to continue Thursday night in parts of East Texas and east of the Pecos Valley in West Texas. Slightly cooler weather was predicted for East Texas and for all parts of West Texas except the Panhandle and South Plains.

Screen Career Of Texas Child Closes In Courtroom Slugfest

For all her talent, however, (Lora Lee has appeared in 17 films), the child is destined to leave Hollywood and live a normal life.

Judge Scott ruled Mrs. Brunson no longer had any right in the child, but suggested that the Michels take her out of the movies and go back to Texas. The foster parents quickly agreed.

Miss Hendrix was in court to testify for Mrs. Michel. Miss Hendrix was not involved in the struggle.

Mrs. Brunson's attorney said she will begin action in Texas to nullify the adoption, which Judge Scott ruled was legal. The lawyer said she had signed the papers only because Lora Lee's stepfather threatened her with harm.

The whole affair started last January 12 when Lora Lee was removed from the Michels' home by Deputy Sheriff Bess Bailey. The officer said the child weighed only 45 pounds and complained she was hungry all the time. Mrs. Bailey said Lora Lee told her she once was whipped for gaining a pound. The charges have been denied by Mrs. Michel.

Clifton Webb Is Out To Prove He Can Play Role Of A Father

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Clifton Webb has survived a ghastly experience. For three months he served as disciplinarian to 24 children, 24 mothers, two school teachers, a welfare worker, a dog and a canary.

With customary Belvedere fortitude, he buttoned up the kids' pants, read them comic books and helped them with their lessons—when the teachers weren't looking.

"I was caught twice," he said, "and lectured about it."

In spite of some harrowing trials, he still insists he likes children. "And they like me," he said. "Mothers see this and think it can't be true. They don't know the real Clifton Webb."

He took to his bed on the completion of the picture. "Cheaper by the Dozen," he stoutly maintains the little darlings had nothing to do with his collapse—"I have a glare that makes children obedient."

His friends have another tale to tell.

I interrupted Clifton at an artist's easel in his den. He was busy painting. "Naturally," he said, "I didn't want to waste any time painting something inconsequential. So I chose the best subject available. Myself."

Likes A Challenge

He said he was hesitant about running a broken field of 24 youngsters every day until he heard that the 20th Century-Fox studio had received protests about playing the father of 12 children.

"People did not think that I, a bachelor all of my life, could be fatherly," he said. "Even the book's authors were a little surprised that I was going to play their father."

"But the more you protested, the gayer it was. I like a challenge. I like to do something unexpected. So I set forth to show these people who see me only as Mr. Belvedere."

He held that sharp, acridulous tongue which etched its way through "The Razor's Edge" and, for the record, he didn't strike a child once. Only once was he injured.

He hurt his hand when he spanked eight-year-old Anthony Sydes. Anthony played an old trick on him. He put a book in the seat of his pants.

"I told Anthony I considered that a very low deception," said Clifton, who reported Anthony was far from being apologetic.

Since the real life character he plays in "Cheaper by the Dozen," Frank Gilbreth, was a corpulent man, the studio wanted to stuff Clifton with padding. He refused.

"I am too good an actor to depend on such artifices," he said. "Pillows give you weight in the stomach but not in the face. He put on 18 pounds to get the right kind of a paunch. The added weight didn't worry him."

"I've lost most of it already," he said. "It's all mind control. You decide you want to weigh a certain figure and that's that."

A few women, he admitted, might take exception to his theory, but that would be only because of their minds.

Used To Succeed

Clifton Webb never has been a modest man.

He says: "I have nothing to be modest about." He states it as a matter of fact and with no hint of egotism.

"A friend said to me after the last Belvedere picture, 'I don't suppose you will be speaking to your friends now that you are such a success.'"

"I said: 'I have always been a success.'"

"I confess I cannot understand the world. Some people must set out to be failures. I set out to be a success."

Clifton was a success at 17. He was singing in such operas as "Mignon" and "La Boheme."

In his twenties, he was a dancing rival of Vernon Castle. He migrated to musical comedy where for more than a decade he was a star in such shows as "Sunny" with Marilyn Miller, "She's My Baby," and "As Thousands Cheer."

In his forties, he became a movie star with "Laura."

Today he ranks among the top 20 box-office players, leaving far behind him a good many bobby-sox heroes.

"Mr. Belvedere Goes to College" is one of the studio's top money-making pictures of all time.

Clifton's eyes went back to the painting of himself.

"Handsome fellow," he said.

One Killed, One Injured When Pickup Overturns

McCAMEY — One man was killed and another man injured Wednesday when their pickup truck overturned about 8:35 p.m. three miles north of McCamey. Both men were residents of Ozona.

Police have been alerted to be on the lookout for a second car reported to have struck the survivor after the accident and failed to stop and render aid.

John Vickers, about 35, was killed instantly when his 1948 Studebaker pickup left the road and overturned twice. His companion, Chester Robinson, suffered head and face lacerations, a fractured leg and possible internal injuries.

Robinson was brought to a McCamey hospital by L. D. Koonce of Ozona and Deputy Sheriff Jack Hallmark.

He told investigating officers that he had been thrown clear of the pickup. After the accident, he had attempted to flag down a passing motorist for assistance. The car struck Robinson on the right side, causing the leg injury, and rolled over without stopping, he said.

The injured man's condition is not believed to be critical, hospital authorities reported.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

Released and releasing come now to the final step of your ladder. (9) Release. This release is in two directions. First, there is release within. All your tied-up conditions—your inhibitions, your fears, your gults—are now being released. You have now entered abundant living.

But, second, there is release in another direction. You are released to serve. You are released from and released to—fears to folks; from inhibitions to inspirations, from gults to guidance. The doors now turn outward. From being an introvert, you become an extrovert—not entirely, of course, for in reality you are now an introvert-extrovert, an ambivert. You turn inward, no longer to mull around in useless regret over failure, but to get quiet in "The Trysting Place," so that communion with Him will recoup the soul and make

Slayer Of Deputy Dies In Electric Chair Thursday

HUNTSVILLE—(AP)—The slayer of a Harris County deputy sheriff, inaudibly murmuring a prayer, died in the electric chair at the state prison early Thursday.

James W. Morrow, 29, of Fort Worth, who had been denied last-minute clemency, was strapped into the chair at 12:05 a.m. He was pronounced dead seven minutes later.

A Harris County jury returned a death verdict against Morrow Nov. 25, 1948, finding him guilty of murder in the shooting of Deputy Sheriff E. E. (Eddie) Shofner, 31.

Shofner was shot to death at a Southern Pacific Railroad telegraph station near Houston early the morning of July 13, 1948. Morrow had escaped from the Blue Ridge State Prison Farm only a few hours earlier.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Stammering and other nervous disorders often get their start that way with children.

From where I sit, if a man wants to use his left hand—that's his business. It's not such a good idea to make anyone do things our way, just because we think it's right. Personally, I think a mellow glass of beer is the finest beverage on earth. If you happen to prefer a Coke—why, go to it! Only leave me the good freedom of choice, won't you?

See where a bank in Denver is putting in left-handed checkbooks. They figure their southpaw depositors deserve just as much consideration as the right handers.

Time was when it was believed that left-handed people had no right to exist at all. If a youngster showed signs of using his left hand, his parents were supposed to break him of the habit—to force him to use his right.

But today most doctors will tell you that changing a child's natural left-handed tendency usually causes more harm than good.

Equal Rights

From the women's angle few things ought to sound as attractive as a guarantee to them of equal rights set forth in the federal Constitution.

Yet more than 30 national women's groups don't want that kind of a guarantee without a big proviso attached. And labor leaders are on the same side of the fence.

They all wish to be sure that no equal rights clause shall in any way endanger the rights, benefits and exemptions now enjoyed by women under existing state and federal laws.

What this means is that while they believe the principle of equal rights should be proclaimed, it should be recognized that women actually are in need of extra privileges and safeguards. The feeling is that a woman's physical nature and characteristics are enough to justify special status.

On the books today are a wide variety of laws governing wages, hours and conditions of work for women. These include protections for those needing maternity care. In addition, women enjoy alimony rights, dower rights and similar legal advantages partly in recognition of their problems as mothers.

Labor and many women's groups know many of these statutes were won only after bitter struggle. They hesitate, therefore, to endorse an unqualified equal rights clause which might furnish a legal basis for the ultimate destruction of these safeguards.

The Senate now has approved, 63 to 19, a constitutional amendment guaranteeing equal rights to women but stating that the guarantee shall not be construed to impair any present rights women have.

The equal rights' proponents, sensing victory after 27 years of fruitless trying, want the House to kill the extra proviso and leave just a flat guarantee. Offhand their chances don't look too bright, for the weight of labor and the same 30 women's groups will fall upon House lawmakers when they begin debating the proposal.

It seems safest to spell out assurances to women that they will not lose their hard-won protection both at work and in the larger social setting. Maybe this would make the term "equal rights" sound a trifle empty, but we think something would be gained by its mere assertion in the Constitution. Many good principles are modified in practice. That doesn't lessen their value as principles.

The Cold War On The Home Front

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND. (Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Senator McMahon urges propaganda campaign to Russian people to prevent atomic war; Weather balloons and friendship messages to Russia urged two years ago; General Marshall once considered Russian propaganda campaign.

WASHINGTON—Quoted from a speech by Senator McMahon of Connecticut: "Building the hydrogen bomb does not promise security for the United States. It only promises averting for a few months or years well-nigh certain catastrophe. Our diplomacy must tap the roots of our imagination and ingenuity. We may choose between moving heaven and earth to stop the atomic armaments race. Or imitating our totalitarian rivals. We must blame ourselves for failing to bring our message of peace to the people behind the Iron Curtain. We must not only crack the Iron Curtain and gain the ear of the Russian people, we also must gain the ear of the people on the near side of the Iron Curtain. We spend $20,000,000 a year on what we call the Voice of America, though it should be called the Whisper of America. Yet we spend over $30,000,000 a year to advertise cosmetics. Listless mediocrity have characterized our attempts to sell what America is, what America wants and what America intends. I favor printing millions of leaflets for worldwide circulation explaining a new United States proposal on atomic peace. We should publicly and repeatedly challenge the Kremlin to make public the terms of our proposal to newspaper readers and radio listeners in Russia. This is a time for soul-searching, for launching a moral crusade for peace which alone can save us." (Date of McMahon's speech, Feb. 2, 1949.)

Quoted from this column—July and August, 1948—"When one nation is in trouble with another nation, wise leaders concentrate on the weakest point in the other nation's armor. The weakest point in Russia's armor is her own people. We must go over the Kremlin's head to the Russian people in order to convince them that the United States is composed of people who do not want war. During the war we spent millions of dollars dropping leaflets, cakes of soap, packages of tea over nations. It shortened the war and saved lives. How many more lives could be saved by preventing war in the first place by going over the heads of the Kremlin and getting to the Russian people? Balloons To Russia. "Let American planes over Germany drop weather balloons which the wind currents would float over Russia carrying friendship messages. Imagine the difficulty the Kremlin would have in explaining away these balloons! During the war, the Japanese took advantage of weather currents to float balloons all the way across the Pacific carrying explosives. They were balloons of death. We can reverse the process with balloons of friendship. "F. W. Danner of Akron, Ohio, has offered to print 1,000,000 copies of a message to the Russian people without charge. Percy Smith of Los Angeles writes that he would be glad to supply bars of soap imprinted with a message. The Eagle Rubber Company of Ashland, Ohio, International Latex of Dover, Del., and the Devey-Almy Company of Cambridge, Mass., have offered to supply 100,000 balloons free. The Ingersoll Watch Company has offered to contribute Mickey Mouse wrist watches—over which the Russian people go crazy. These are just a few of the patriotic Americans who want to help their country prevent war. "One of the surest ways to prevent war is to show the Russian people that we, the American people, aren't what the 14 men in the Kremlin say we are. As long as

THE DOCTOR SAYS Cure Of Fibrositis Depends Mostly On Apparent Cause. By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service.

A kind of rheumatism affecting the soft tissues such as the muscles and ligaments often is called fibrositis. Pain in several parts of the body, lessened ability to move easily, and stiffness are characteristic. Muscular rheumatism and lumbago are really varieties of fibrositis. There are many causes for fibrositis. The most common is associated with some infectious or toxic condition. This is one kind of rheumatism in which removal of an infected tooth or infected tonsils is quite likely to be of benefit. Injury is also a common cause but sometimes the injury may have been so slight as hardly to have been noticed. Cold over-exertion and over-exposure are commonly at fault. In the end the word, "itis," means inflammation. Consequently fibrositis implies that there is a slight inflammation of certain of the soft tissues. As one would expect, therefore, fibrositis may start suddenly for no apparent reason. At other times it may begin gradually with fatigue coming before the soreness, pain and stiffness. Around the shoulder and lower portion of the back, the neck, the tissues around the large joints, and the chest wall are common locations. Pain almost always is present but swelling is far less constant. Tenderness to pressure is the rule. Nodes or little bumps under the skin frequently are felt in the tender region. If the fibrositis is associated with an acute infection, then rest and the appropriate treatment for that infection is needed. If it comes with upset of the stomach and intestines, perhaps a liquid or soft diet is in order. The removal of an infected tooth or tonsils may be indicated in some cases. Drugs play a part but have to be used with care. If the cause is repeated small injury, then, of course, that should be eliminated. If the cause is bad weather or exposure, then staying indoors and avoiding exposure may be enough. The rest of the treatment depends on what appears to be the cause and what can be done for it or them. Many people have had attacks of this condition at one time or another. Most people recover without any treatment. However, most attacks of fibrositis are rather painful and quick relief is desired. Aspirin, of course, helps a little. Heat treatments or other forms of physical therapy also are useful in bringing about temporary—and sometimes permanent—relief.

Questions and Answers. Q—Who was the first President to pay income tax? A—The first President to pay income tax was Woodrow Wilson. His official salary was exempt but he paid a tax on his income from other sources. The first President to pay tax on his official salary was Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Q—Is it a fact that the word news is derived from the four points of the compass? A—Although this explanation is sometimes given, the word actually comes from the Latin word nova, meaning "new things."

Q—What is meant when it is reported from Washington that senators are paired? A—Paired, in legislative parlance, means that two members of opposite party or opinion have agreed not to vote on a given question during a specified time. The reason, ordinarily, is that one of them expects to be absent.

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Director of NEA Service

I received today's lesson on the play from Mrs. Augusta Cantor of New York. In her letter she said she recently had changed her style on opening leads of three-card suits. She used to lead the six spot, if she had three small, say the 6-5-2. Then she would play the five and her partner would have to guess whether she held the deuce. But now she leads the low card if she is leading a three-card suit, even though she does not hold an honor.

This is the way Mrs. Cantor plays the play of the hand. Sitting West, she opened the six of diamonds, dummy played low and her partner won the trick with the ten-spot. Her partner then cashed the king of diamonds.

When Mrs. Cantor played the five-spot, her partner definitely knew that she was out of diamonds. South had been careful to play the seven and the eight of diamonds, concealing the deuce. East safely cashed the high diamond and led the fourth diamond.

Declarer ruffed high, shutting out Mrs. Cantor's ten-spot. There was no way now that declarer could play the hand to keep from losing a club trick.

Mrs. Cantor said the hand provides the following lesson: No. 1—Lead the top of a two-card suit, but lead the bottom of a three-card or longer suit. No. 2—If in doubt about a lead open your short suit when you are short in trump, but lead a long suit when long in trump.

Mrs. Cantor further stated that many players might make the normal lead of the ten of clubs in this hand, but if so, the hand could not be defeated. She followed lesson number two; being short in trump she led the short suit.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Congress Has Final Word About Spending For H-Bomb

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—President Truman's decision to keep the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission at work on development of a hydrogen super-bomb, perhaps 100 or 1,000 times more powerful than the original atomic bomb, provides American democracy with one of its greatest tests.

The original A-bomb was developed under somewhat dictatorial and decidedly undemocratic processes. President Roosevelt made the decision on that one. It was in wartime, when the President had extra powers and could impose an iron-clad censorship. Congress appropriated the $2,000,000,000 to build the A-bomb in complete secrecy, without even knowing what the money was for.

That is the way the Russian Soviet government will make the decision to try to build a hydrogen bomb. Premier Stalin will decide it in complete secrecy, and that will be that. The Russian people, except for those directly concerned with its production, will never know anything about it till it explodes.

H-Bomb In Different Light The American position on the H-bomb today is entirely different. The country is now democratically at peace. The normal processes of democratic government are supposed to be in effect. That means everything pretty much out in the open for full and free public discussion.

Military security regulations will apply just as they do on details of A-bomb construction. But Congress will have to authorize expenditures after open debate. Appropriations will be made the same way. And the authorization is going to stick out a lot bigger in a $13,000,000,000 military appropriation than it did in wartime, when appropriations were running from $70,000,000,000 to $80,000,000,000 a year. Also, what this budget increase goes to do to tax reductions, deficit financing, and expenditures for other governmental activities? Those will be subjects for full and free debate.

Up until President Truman made his brief announcement that the United States would carry on H-bomb research, there had been no clear statements from high government officials in the know on this preliminary planning. First Things Should Come First "To build the bomb, or not to build the bomb, is not the question," says AEC chairman, David Lillien-thal, paraphrasing Shakespeare. He won't clarify this further. But he points out that in similar circumstances in the past, decisions have had to be based on how the United States could best employ its resources—its brains, manpower and money. Putting it more simply, no man must make over whether to get his teeth straightened or to buy that new car.

Initial congressional reaction to this question has been all in favor of buying the new car—the bomb—and never mind about the teeth straightening. All the congressional statements about cutting down on government spending and the need for balancing the budget are tossed right into the wastebasket when the H-bomb is being considered.

An Administration which last year thought it couldn't spend a couple of hundred million bucks for a super-aircraft carrier or a 70-group Air Force now finds itself in a position where it may have to spend a few billions to make a super-bomb before the Russians or anybody else can.

The psychology of this probably would baffle any alienist. Politicians rant that the country can't afford to spend more money for "teeth straightening"—social security, schools, health insurance, good roads or public works. But to build an instrument of destruction that will lay waste to an area of 50 or 100 square miles—the sky's the limit.

So they say

Lenin exerted the strongest influence on the world because he changed Marxism from an academic philosophy into a practical creed of first class importance. Lenin ruled chiefly through his personality. —British historian Arnold Toynbee.

People don't want the kind of car you would have to make in order to price it under $1000. —President Charles E. Wilson, General Motors.

It would be most unfortunate if in these critical times, we allowed the bipartisan foreign policy to be destroyed. That must be allowed to happen. —Chairman John W. (D) West Virginia, House Foreign Affairs Committee.

If we are convinced, as we are, that the democratic way of life is the best way to the greatest degree of human happiness and the best security against any form of tyranny we must spare no effort to make that way of life vigorous and strong both now and for years to come. —King George of England.

Many small businessmen, although still operating at fairly high levels, are suffering a substantially reduced profit margin. These reduced earnings make continued expansion of plant and equipment somewhat less attractive. —Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer.

ROOSEVELT SHRINE NEW YORK—The Sagamore Hill the old home of Theodore Roosevelt, is to be made a shrine to the memory of the President under a plan of the Roosevelt Memorial Association.

That was how it had been. And there was some psychological theory that dislike—bitter envy—and love were actually akin, needing only some slight adjustment of the delicate scale to throw the balance one way or the other. But could she, Alice Pine, hit onto normal and sensible, be falling in love with a man capable of definite cruelty?

And yet the idea of cruelty didn't square with Brent's lowly, sincere-sounding request for her to see to Rick.

But nothing squared. And Brent was a creature of moods. Tonight he had revealed his utter selfishness. He could summon others. She thought again of his face, black with anger, confronting the surly Sloan during the tree episode.

At that point sleep actively mocked her. She got up, lit a cigaret, and a solution seemed to come.

SHE would pack tonight. Then in the morning she would have an honest showdown. And not with Brent. With Muriel. "Because I can't stay here," she encouraged her own idea. "Feeling as I—I think I do."

But a more lucid interval followed. And she saw that she could not walk out of Grosvenor Point without looking like a presumptuous fool. Brent had done nothing more than to infer that, under other circumstances, he might possibly have been fond of her. On the strength of which, plus her own nebulous indeterminate feelings, she was considering a showdown with Muriel.

Well! Tonight, Muriel had laughed at her own idea. But if she went through with this program tomorrow, Muriel would hoot. Alice stumped out the cigaret with fingers that trembled slightly. She had come close, alarmingly close, to making a complete idiot of herself. Nonetheless, it was just as well that Brent Halleck was leaving. (To Be Continued)

"Oh, that?" Muriel snapped her fingers. "I haven't the slightest sympathy for him on that score. Brent is doing it strictly on his own hook. He knows darn well he doesn't have to." "But he wasn't complaining." Alice said quickly. "He shouldn't," said Muriel. "Alice didn't reply. She had involved herself in the Hallecks' affairs quite enough for one evening. Now all she wanted was to get to her own room, and begin thinking things out. For she recognized that she had to think clearly, sanely, if she was to have any chance of success."

And the knowledge, perhaps, made Muriel's tolerant attitude the harder to bear. If Muriel, stumbling upon what must have seemed to her a strange situation, to say the least, had flown into a rage, become accusing, this sense of guilt might not be so strong. But Muriel had laughed it off.

Walking across the lawn, Alice felt like some kind of petty thief. SHE did not escape for another hour. Muriel insisted upon getting beer from the refrigerator. They called it "the study" when she reigned Alice with the foibles of the Tolliver Garden Club. It was as if the episode of the beach had never been.

Upstairs at last Alice threw off a bathing suit completely dry now and got into her nightgown. She knew, however, that she would not sleep.

Wide-eyed in the darkness, she gradually made herself face the truth. The truth was startling. She was dangerously, inexplicably close to being in love with Brent Halleck. With a man for whom at first she had felt dislike and, later, the next thing to repulsion.

Woman's Worst Crime Is Just Being A Bore

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The American woman has been accused of just about every crime in the book except the one she is most guilty of—the crime of being a downright bore.

Yet, it's apt to say that out of every hundred women taken just as you meet them, busy mothers, pampered wives of successful men, career women, club women, etc., there won't be more than ten who are anything but out-and-out bores, both to men and other women.

They are boring in different ways, of course.

The boring mother doesn't have anything to talk about but her house and children. Her husband listens to her politely, and other women listen to her just so that she will listen while they talk about their children and their houses.

Many women who have too much leisure and too many luxuries are boring because they spend their lives killing time instead of using it. One season they're "mad" about a new game. The next they are ga-ga over some new diet. And so on. And always they have their problems to make conversation of, the servant problem, the entertaining problem, the clothes problem.

Taken With Own Importance.

The career woman who is boring is too impressed with her job and its importance. She can't seem to get over the shock of having amounted to something on her own and she wants both men and women to be as impressed with her as she is with herself.

The club woman who leaves you yawning is the woman who runs from club meeting to club meeting to escape her own boredom with herself and to escape from the haunting question: "What am I doing with my life, really?" If she is on enough committees she has no time to think—so she gets on a lot of committees.

The women in all these groups who are interesting, entertaining and charming have two things in common. They really are interested in people and ideas, instead of just pretending to be, and they aren't afraid to think. The combination that creates the bore is a woman's complete absorption in herself and her family and her refusal to think things out for herself.

Civic Music Cards Will Admit Members To Sunday Concert

Admission to the Sunday afternoon concert by the National Male Quartet, which will open in Midland Tuesday afternoon in the Civic Music Association season in Midland, will be by membership card only.

Because it is the first program for the association this season and because it will be presented in the new Midland High School Auditorium to inaugurate its use for public performances, attendance is expected to reach practically the total of the more than 1,400 memberships.

No single admissions are sold to Civic Music Association concerts and the membership cards can be obtained only at one period of the year, the week of the annual membership campaign. That campaign was conducted in Midland last fall for the 1949-50 season, which did not start in 1949 because the auditorium was not completed.

Membership cards in the association are transferable and may be loaned by the holder. It is the custom in Civic Music Associations over the nation to admit holders of cards from other cities, and the Midland association can give that courtesy this year. It was not possible at concerts last year, because the membership totaled the full seating capacity of the junior high auditorium.

The concert will start at 3 p.m. Sunday. Daytime programs have not been given by the association previously in Midland, and remaining concerts of this spring will be at night. The National Male Quartet is a popular attraction in concerts over the United States and its members won individual reputations as singers in opera, musical comedy, concert hall or radio performances before they combined their talents in the ensemble.

Past presidents in the meeting were Mrs. Dave Elder of San Angelo, Mrs. R. O. White, Mrs. Midkiff, Mrs. Ralph Daugherty and Mrs. Harral.

An anniversary cake, iced in silver and white, and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. G. C. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Campbell White, Mrs. Jeff Ray McSpadden and Mrs. Walter Clay McSpadden.

Man O' War Picked Top Thoroughbred Of Last Half-Century

MIAMI, Fla. —(AP)—Whenever horse lovers meet sooner or later the talk turns to the greatest of them all, the immortal Man O' War. They talk of his 20 victories in 21 starts; of his five record-breaking races and of the only time he was beaten, by a horse named Upset.

But memory of the big red stallion, acclaimed the greatest race horse of the last half-century in The Associated Press poll, probably is most vivid in the mind of the man who bought him, trained him, raced him and retired him to sire the greatest family of Thoroughbreds the world has ever known.

Samuel D. Riddle, now 88 years old and still racing horses, smiled as he was told Man O' War had been picked as the horse of the half century.

Overwhelming Favorite
"They're right," he beamed. "They picked the right horse. There hasn't been a horse like Big Red before or since. There have been many great horses, you understand, but none quite like Man O' War."

Man O' War was an overwhelming favorite of sports writers and broadcasters participating in the AP poll. He received 363 of 368 votes and almost left his closest challenger, the great Citation, at the post.

The Calumet speedster, now earning a million dollars in earnings, received 36 votes. Then followed Whirlaway, 15; Seabiscuit, 12; Exterminator, six; Dan Patch, the pacer, five; War Admiral, four; Equipoise, Assault, Protector, Roseben and Gallant Fox, one each.

Midland Pair Sets Women's Open Pattern

PALM BEACH, Fla. —(AP)—The Bauer sisters—Alice and Marlene—from Midland, Texas, continued to pace the field in the fortieth annual Palm Beach Women's Golf Championship Thursday.

The Bauer girls, who led qualifiers Tuesday with par 72's over the Palm Beach Golf Club course, won their first round matches Wednesday by convincing margins.

Alice, who is 22, defeated Betty Bush of Hammond, Ind., 4 and 3, and her 15-year-old sister, Marlene, beat Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore 3 and 2.

Thursday Alice met Helen Hampton of Chattanooga, Tenn., who won Mrs. Genevieve Lenczyk of Hartwood, Conn., in 20 holes. Marlene's opponent in the second round was Betty Dodd of Fort Sam Houston, Texas, who eliminated Mrs. Sophie Entmeyer of New York City 5 and 4.

Defending champion Peggy Kirk of Findlay, Ohio, seeking her third title, defeated Catherine Fox Park, Glen Ridge, N. J., 3 and 1, and Thursday played Edna Anderson, Helena, Mont., who turned back Mrs. George Wilcox of Miami 3 and 2.

Betty Mackinnon, Mount Pleasant, Texas, who defeated Pat Devany, Grosse Ile, Mich., met Mary Agnes Wall, Menominee, Mich., who beat Bonnie Randolph, Columbus, Ohio, 3 and 2.

Bulldogs Meet Lubbock Friday

The Midland Bulldogs, fired by Tuesday night's victory over the Odessa Bronchos, are pointing toward the Lubbock Westerners now. The two teams tangle in the Lubbock Gym Friday night.

Coach Jack Mashburn has indicated he will call for the same type of basketball against Lubbock that was employed in whipping the Bronchos.

Reed Gilmore combined brilliance on both offense and defense to lead the Bulldogs to the win. He moved the ball fast and picked up Odessa dribblers all over the court.

Ralph Brooks and Buddy Johnson both are helping the Bulldogs greatly. They will be in the starting lineup in Lubbock Friday night.

The Westerners currently are tied with Lamesa for first place in the standings. A win by Midland would boot them out of the race.

The 'B' Bulldogs will meet the 'W' Westerners in a game preceding the varsity clash.

Friday night's encounter will be next to the last of the season for Midland. Only Brownfield remains on the schedule.

Denver Scores Upset Win Over Louisville

NEW YORK —(AP)—Denver upset Louisville 79 to 70 at Denver Wednesday night and afterwards college basketball officiating in the Rocky Mountain area was criticized.

Forty-one personal fouls were called against Louisville, ranked thirteenth nationally in this week's Associated Press poll. Six Louisville players were banished on personal fouls in the last 10 minutes.

"The officiating out here (in Denver) doesn't give the defense a break," declared John Dromo, Louisville assistant coach. "The emphasis on the officiating out here seems to be to protect the ball dribbler or the one in possession of the ball. The 41 fouls were the most fouls called on us in the last two years."

Bill Juengling and John Lloyd, the officials, said they were bound by Skyline Six Conference rules not to comment.

Kansas Wesleyan, which had won 13 straight, was knocked out of the unbeaten ranks by Fort Hays (Kan.) State 73-43, but Heidelberg and Oneonta (N.Y.) Teachers continued undefeated. Heidelberg beat Oneonta 61-46 for its tenth straight win. Oneonta took Utica Tech 63-46.

Snead Favored As 313 Tee Off In Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO —(AP)—Swollen by the largest brigade of touring professionals in golf history, the Texas Open's 313-man field moved out Thursday in the first 18-hole round of the oldest tournament along the Winter trail.

Starting at 8 a.m., the seekers of $10,000 in prize money were due to wind up the opening round about nightfall, playing on two courses.

Balding Sam Snead, riding the hottest winning streak in golf at this time, was a heavy choice to drag down first place money of $2,000. The picture swinger from West Virginia has pocketed $5,558 in five tournaments this year and could finish out of the money here and still be the leader in earnings.

But Brother Snead hasn't failed to win something in a tournament in quite a stretch.

Burke Second Choice
Ralph Burdick also liked the chances of young Jack Burke, Jr., the Houston star now playing out of White Plains, N. Y. They called him the most consistent player on the tour next to Snead. Nois of them are hitting the ball like Slammer Sam.

"That guy is really something," said Fred Haas, Jr. of New Orleans, who rates fifth in money winning thus far with $2,420. "Everything he does is right."

The 313-man field starting play Thursday on the Brackenridge Park and Fort Sam Houston courses is the biggest the storied Texas Open, which started back in 1922, has known. About 125 are players making the tour.

Low 60 To Qualify
The big names, headed by Snead, are playing the Fort Sam Houston course Thursday. Friday they will be at Brackenridge Park.

Saturday, the low 60 and ties (with 10 amateurs required) will be that many fall to make the low 60 will concentrate on Brackenridge for the final two 18-hole rounds.

Snead lined up with a two-under-par 69 over the Fort Sam Houston course Wednesday but complained that his putting wasn't up to snuff. He looked good enough to the others, however.

Sam had quite a gallery following him on the practice round and on the eighteenth green so distracted 1,200 fans watching a golf clinic nearby that Chick Harbert, Detroit pro serving as master of ceremonies, yelled: "Sam, please hurry and get away. You're ruining our show."

Walsh recently moved to Midland to enter the oil business. He was connected with college and professional football for 20 years. He played college football at Notre Dame under Knute Rockne, and coached at the University of St. Louis before going into pro ball.

In the professional end of the sport he managed and coached the Cleveland Rams and the Los Angeles Rams. He also was the key figure in bringing peace between the National and All-America Conference.

JayCee President Irby Dyer has invited the public to attend the meeting.

Rotary Engineers Notch Sixth Win; Mobil Routs Vets

Rotary Engineers scored victory number six in the City Cage League Wednesday night but the capable JayCees made 'em go all out to win. Watkins Mobil used a second half splurge to rout the VFW.

Rotary was held to its closest score of the season as the Jakes battled but lost 55 to 48.

Watkins rallied to run up a 54 to 34 margin over the Veterans.

Watkins sent its brother team, Howard and Roy Price, to the front lines. They cut loose with their big guns and collected a total of 39 points between them. Roy banked 23 while Howard counted 16.

The score was knotted at 18-all when the half ended. But the Prices and Hall all had a big second half while the Vets were faltering.

Chuck Lamb and Bill Hopkins led the JayCee assault which almost handed Rotary Engineers a first defeat. But Rotary still has guys like Charlie Kelly, Leland Huffman, Frank Brahaney and Tom Schalk.

As long as it has them, the Engineers team will be double tough. Rotary led the tilt all the way and had a 40 to 24 edge going into the final period.

Hopkins and Lamb went on a quarter scoring spree to close the gap.

Lamb was high point man of the tilt with 18. Hopkins scored 13. Huffman and Kelly were high for Rotary with 14 and 13, respectively.

Jersey Joe Wins By Kayo As Opponent Collapses In Third

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)—The Pennsylvania Athletic Commission called a hearing Thursday in the sudden collapse of Harold Johnson during Wednesday night's fight with Jersey Joe Walcott.

The 22-year-old Philadelphia negro heavyweight dropped to the canvas in the third round of a scheduled 10-rounder at the arena—unable to continue because of a back injury.

Walcott, the Camden, N. J., negro veteran who tried unsuccessfully three times to grab the world's heavyweight crown, was awarded a knockout victory.

John O'Leary De Gross, state athletic commissioner, said after examining Johnson in the ring and later at Presbyterian Hospital, he was convinced "the boy was in too much pain to go on fighting."

"Nothing irregular," he said. "I am sure that there was nothing irregular in the fight," Da Gross said, "but just to be on the safe side, I'll talk it over with all concerned today."

Da Gross said Walcott told him he believed Johnson twisted his back as he fell under a left hook in the second round.

In the early moments of the third round Johnson, 180, stopped short, and sank to the canvas. His face was a mask of pain as he rolled over and over.

Referee Dave Beloff waved Walcott, 197, to a neutral corner and counted out the stricken Johnson.

Dr. Joseph I. Levy examined the prostrate fighter and announced it looked like an injury to the vertebral disc located in the small of the back. He had Johnson removed to a hospital.

Chill Walsh Speaks To JayCees Friday

Chill Walsh, nationally-known professional football coach and executive, will address the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce at a meeting in Hotel Scharbauer Friday noon.

Walsh recently moved to Midland to enter the oil business. He was connected with college and professional football for 20 years.

He played college football at Notre Dame under Knute Rockne, and coached at the University of St. Louis before going into pro ball.

In the professional end of the sport he managed and coached the Cleveland Rams and the Los Angeles Rams. He also was the key figure in bringing peace between the National and All-America Conference.

JayCee President Irby Dyer has invited the public to attend the meeting.

Stanton Favored In District 23-B Meet

FORSAN — The District 23-B cage tournament gets underway here Friday. Stanton's all-winning Buffaloes are top-heavy favorites to cop the crown.

Stanton finished the conference season with a victory over Sterling City Monday night, giving the Buffaloes a record of 25 straight wins.

Coahoma and Forsan are considered the only teams strong enough to give the Stanton hot-shots a fight in the district tourney.

Forsan will be the first round opponents for the Buffs. The tilt is carded at 8 p.m. Friday.

Entered in the tournament will be Stanton, Forsan, Courtney, Coahoma, Garden City, Sterling City and Knott.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, FEB. 9, 1950-7

David-Thompson Tilt Friday Night

The basketball show of the season comes to the Midland High School Gymnasium at 8 p.m. Friday when the world-famous House of David appears against Ted Thompson's Terrors of the Midland VFW City League.

The two teams will tangle under the sponsorship of Midland schools and proceeds will be used in the purchase of a public address system.

Copper Daugherty, who heads the Thompsonmen for the tilt, has indicated his team will be out to give the Davids a fight. The famous bearded five has averaged playing 200 games a season against all types of opposition. In the last six years they have played 1,279 games, winning 1,201 of them.

Roth Coming
Clever Bobby Roth, known in basketball as the fastest breaking forward in history, leads the offense for the bearded boys. He also doubles as clown for the team. "Toss" Heavner, six-foot, six-inch guard, shines at controlling the backboards.

Frank Mekules, the other guard, is one of the leading scorers on the club and hustles the ball on rebounds.

Bud Scott holds down the forward position opposite Roth. He is a specialist at one-handed shots from the corners.

Tickets On Sale
Towering above everyone on the court will be long Moose Ludka, seven-foot, three-inch center. He is one of the tallest men in basketball. Tickets for the tilt are on sale at the high school principal's office and fans are urged to make their purchases by noon Friday. A capacity crowd is expected for the tilt.

Hornsby Signs As Beaumont Skipper

DALLAS—(P)—Rogers Hornsby is coming back to where you remember him best—to a baseball diamond.

The graying, husky Hornsby Wednesday night signed a one-year contract to manage Beaumont of the Class AA Texas League.

Hornsby never has really dissociated himself from baseball, but conducting baseball schools or broadcasting games the last few years is still pretty alien for a guy who hit more than 400 for three years and managed four different major league ball clubs and a few minor league teams. Beaumont Owner Guy Airey refused to reveal salary terms. But Hornsby—and Airey—positively beamed over the document.

Hornsby's return to baseball as a manager, and to the Texas League, was no great surprise. Since the death of Beaumont Manager Marvin (Chick) Autry last month, he had been considered the most likely candidate.

He'll report to Beaumont March 3, for the opening of Spring training. What he'll do as a manager this year is a question he leaves unanswered.

A product of sandlots at Fort Worth, Hornsby broke in organized baseball with Hugo, Okla., in the old Texas-Oklahoma League. That was in 1914. The next year he went to St. Louis of the National League and it was with this club he slugged his way to a niche in baseball's statistical storehouse.

From 1915 to 1933 he compiled a lifetime batting average of .358. He led the National League in batting from 1920 through 1923 and again in 1928. Three times he hit better than 400, 424 in 1924.

The "Rajah," who spent 23 years in the major leagues and was regarded as one of the greatest right-handed hitters of all time, was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1942. He will be 54 years old in April.

As a slugging second baseman he quickly became a star and, as a manager piloted St. Louis to a National League pennant and to a World Series victory. That was in 1926.

Between that year and the time he retired to the fringe of baseball a few years back, Hornsby managed Chicago and Boston in the National League, St. Louis in the American League, Baltimore in the International League, and Oklahoma City and Fort Worth in the Texas League.

Now a resident of Chicago, he has been conducting baseball schools and broadcasting.

Beaumont is the second Texas League club to sign a former major league manager for the 1950 season. Charley Grimm, another ex-Chicago Cub pilot, recently was hired for three years by Dallas at $50,000 a year.

RAPE CHARGE FILED AGAINST FORMER BOXER
FORT WORTH—(P)—Billie George McCune, 21, former amateur boxer from Waco, is charged here with raping a 39-year-old Fort Worth woman.

The charge was filed Wednesday.

Boxing one-time great, Al Ketchell, is the owner-trainer of a three horse racing stable this Winter at Hialeah.

Canadian Rescue Team Starts After Search Plane Crew
WHITEHORSE, Y. T. —(AP)—A Canadian Army rescue team started an assault Thursday on a treacherous Yukon mountain to rescue 10 occupants of a crashed C-47 plane.

The Canadians spent the night side two snow weasels several thousand feet below the stranded ash victims. Three of the five U. S. Air Force men aboard the plane suffered leg and arm fractures when the C-47 crashed Tuesday during its search for a C-54 which vanished January 14 with 44 persons aboard. None of the five Canadian soldiers aboard was injured.

Another American search plane left the C-47 Wednesday on the snow-covered mountainside 84 miles northwest of here.

Wacker was born in Ellinger, Texas. Later he moved to Ballinger, where he lived 11 years. He came here in 1922 and has served as Pauls Valley's mayor and city councilman.
Wacker was owner of a variety store chain which has branches in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana.

Senate—
a tax bill to hit the floor of the House.

Three tax measures to provide funds for operation of state hospitals and special schools and for a state hospital building program await House action.
Wednesday, the Senate passed two bills to provide $20,658,828 to operate the state's eleemosynary and juvenile institutions until Aug. 31, 1951, and sent them to the House for consideration.
The Senate Committee on Governor's Nominations met but took no action on several appointees named by Gov. Allan Shivers. It asked J. W. Edgar, recently chosen state commissioner of education, to appear for a conference Monday.

The House Revenue and Taxation Committee set for public hearing Thursday afternoon another tax bill. By Rep. Deno Tufares of Wichita Falls, it would levy a flat-rate tax on the gathering of natural gas.

Permian Basin Oil & Gas Log
West Crockett County, and 1980 feet from north and west lines of section 29, block GG, HE&WT survey, flowed an average of 30 barrels of fluid per hour, through a one-half inch tubing choke, for eight hours, and is still flowing to test.

The fluid was 50 per cent oil and 50 per cent water of an undetermined source.
The oil and water is coming from perforated section at 3,943.5-61 feet, in the upper Clear Fork, which had been treated with 500 gallons of acid. After the acid injection the well was swabbed one time and it kicked off and started flowing. Flowing tubing pressure is 200 pounds.
Bottomed in Ellenburger
This venture drilled to a total depth of 7,280 feet in the Ellenburger. The zone made only water. It was plugged back to 4,750 feet and 5 1/2-inch casing was cemented at 4,640 feet to test the lower Clear Fork. That section also proved barren of petroleum.
Operator then plugged back to test the upper zone which is now showing the oil and water.

The regular pay section in the Noelke field in the Seven Rivers section of the upper Permian above 1,500 feet.
Source of the water being developed at this prospective new discovery has not been determined. It may be coming from the lower section of the Clear Fork.

SW Concho Strawn Is To Be Explored
A Strawn prospector projected to 4,000 feet will be drilled by M. D. Moore of Sonora, and associates, in Southwest Concho County.
It is the No. 1 Robert Wilson estate to be 527.8 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 76, block 8, H&TC survey, and ten miles southwest of the town of Eden.

Drill site is 857 feet north and 1,033 feet east of an abandoned Strawn producer, which was drowned by water after producing on the pump for several months. Discovery was in the summer of 1949.
Several outcrops were drilled at that time without success.

San Andres Has Oil Signs In C-W Gains
W. H. Black Drilling Company of Midland No. 1 Brown Central-West Gaines County wildcat, 18 miles west of Seminole, and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 10, block A-10, psi survey, showed some signs of oil and gas production in a drillstem test in the San Andres-Permian lime at 4,920-90 feet.
The tool was open one hour. There was a small show of gas during a part of the period. Recovery was 660 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud.

The venture has drilled to 4,910 feet and is now taking another drillstem test. It is three miles east and one mile south of a recently completed small discovery from the Clear Fork of the Permian at Mid-Continent Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Niehois.

Hunt Is To Drill Two More In West Pecos
Hunt Oil Company of Dallas has filed applications with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting permits to drill two more 3,200-foot cable tool wildcats on the large Elsinore Royalty Company block in West Pecos County which is owned by Hunt and Gulf Oil Corporation.

Hunt has already drilled several wildcats on the spread and has not released any official information regarding any oil shows those projects might have had, or any geological information which has been developed.
It is understood that the present development program is being carried on primarily to secure subsurface structural information on which to base a program of deeper drilling for that region.
The new locations are:
Hunt No. 20 Elsinore to be 1,320 feet from north and west lines of section 12, block B, four and one-half miles southeast of Chancellor.
Hunt No. 22 Elsinore to be 1,320 feet from south and east lines of section 97, block D, GC&SF survey, and 19 miles east of Chancellor.
Drilling is to start at each prospector at once.

Tom Green To Get Two New Wildcats
Locations for two wildcats in Tom Green County, both of which are to explore the Strawn line of the Pennsylvanian, have been officially reported. Drilling is to start at each of the prospectors in the near future.
Sun Oil Company, J. J. Perkins of Wichita Falls, and Howard Green of San Angelo, No. 1-A Mark B. Pulliam will be two miles northwest of San Angelo.
The drill site is 5,000 feet from southwest line and equi-distant from the northwest and the southeast lines of section 196, J. Seiler original grantee.
On Big Block
That puts the venture three and one-half miles east-northeast of the same operators No. 2 Pulliam, recently completed discovery from the Strawn line which is pumping an average of 22 barrels of oil per day

Police Grill Five Arrested With Bag Containing $37,150
DETROIT —(AP)—Police grilled four men and a woman Thursday on their possession of a paper bag containing $37,150 in cash.
Whether there was any evidence linking the five with the $1,500,000 Brink's, Inc. robbery in Boston, however, police refused to say.
The five, arrested in a parked car here Wednesday, insisted the money represented gambling proceeds.

Beyond that, they weren't talking, said Police Inspector Walter Wyrod.
Brink's in Boston was robbed January 17 by nine men who escaped with $1,500,000. A day earlier holdup men took $48,000 from the Statler Hotel in Boston.
Held on a technical "for investigation" charge were John Gach, 35, and his wife of three weeks, Dorothy, 22; Merico Depietto, 29; Steve Settas, 29, and Steve Vitale, 25.

$1 Per Day Due U. S. War Prisoners
WASHINGTON —(AP)—Americans captured by the Japanese and Germans during World War II are to receive $1 for each day they spent in captivity.
This decision was reached Wednesday by the War Claims Commission which said that American prisoners of war in German and Japanese camps did not get food equal to the quality and quantity agreed on in the Geneva Convention of 1929.
Payments probably will begin about March 1. The commission has received 75,000 claims out of an expected 120,000 claims.

Experts See Labor Victory In British Vote

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
NEA Staff Correspondent

The experts foresee a far closer election in Britain this time than five years ago, when Labor swept the boards to win a commanding edge in Parliament.

Right now the leading public opinion poll gives Labor a slim one and a half per cent advantage. A few months back the Conservatives led by 10 per cent, but Labor's recent rush has more than closed the gap. It will be the distribution of the vote, however, that will tell the story on election day.

When Britain balloted in 1945 the Conservatives were enjoying a 200-seat margin in the House of Commons, the important lower chamber. A 12 per cent swing to

Anthony Eden: Aging, but still a dashing figure.

Labor put that party in power with a similar 200-seat edge. This time the experts think an eight per cent shift is needed to return enough Conservatives to afford them good working control of Parliament. A narrower swing would leave them vulnerable for under the British system a government may be tossed out any time it fails to win a vote of confidence.

The present consensus among the forecasters—and the people too—is that the Conservatives won't make the grade. The belief is that there will be a turn toward them, but that Labor still will win by a fair margin. Labor itself talks of a 60-seat lead.

Deadlock Possible

Any outcome much closer than that might throw the two parties into virtual deadlock and hand the balance of power to the Liberal party. The Liberals now hold but 10 seats in the House, but they have entered 400 candidates in the election. Even 50 seats would make them a potent factor in a tightly balanced alignment.

For the Liberals, it's do or die this time. The once great party is making a stubborn comeback bid. If it fails, observers agree it's through. Ironically, more than one analyst contends many Britishers would rather vote Liberal than Conservative or Labor. But they think their votes would be wasted, it is said, because they doubt the Liberals' chances.

The Conservatives are enraged at the Liberals for entering 400 names. They argue that the net effect will be merely to split the opposition vote in many areas and let the Labor candidates ride in. Some Conservatives are running under joint Conservative-Liberal labels in an effort to lick this problem.

This year the spoils of political war are fewer. Voting districts, called "constituencies" in Britain, have been remodeled to accommodate population changes. The result is the new Parliament will have just 625 House seats against a present 640.

Rest Scattered

The final lineup in the old one showed Labor holding 382 seats, Conservatives 202, National Liberals 13, Liberals 10, Communists two. The rest were scattered among splinter groups and independents.

The Communists incidentally, have entered 99 candidates this time, as compared with 21 in 1945. But no one concedes them much chance of boosting their representation.

There's another new factor in the 1950 election. The government has limited a candidate's campaign expenses to $1260 plus a small allowance for each voter in his constituency.

British industries facing nationalization have been propagandizing, however, for a long time. Candidates fear that money spent for this purpose in their areas may be charged against them. Should they win, court action to unseat them might follow on the ground their expenses were illegally high.

Conservatives are not alone in worrying over this. Labor men are afraid the expenses of Labor's daily press might be assigned to their campaigns.

Industry Puzzled

Industry is definitely puzzled. Some billboard posters have been covered up, while others still blazon their message. The steel industry, already marked for public ownership, defiantly insists on "informing" the voters of its case.

The symbols of this phase of the battle are a little crew of imaginary characters that might be compared to America's "Howdy Doody," except that political significance has been added.

There's Mr. Cube, a belligerent little square of sugar eager to fight the government. Mr. Mix, his counterpart in the cement field; Sir Loin, a doughy battler who thinks Labor means to squeeze the juice out of him by nationalizing the meat trade; and Miss Pru, demure darling of the insurance world, who is trying hard to resist the government's "advances" in her direction.

But back of these Disney-style performers is the real cast of characters in Britain's 1950 campaign show.

Prime Minister Clement Attlee, who, though long pictured as weak and colorless, now has his party's confidence as a fair-minded, efficient leader and an impersonal icicle able to cool down Labor's often overheated prima donnas.

Winston Churchill, his Conservative opposite number, old John Bull himself, still a glamorous figure, a stirring orator who can breathe fire and brimstone (though his friends hope he won't because they think his 1945 tirades hurt his party).

Bik, beefy Ernest Bevin, Labor's foreign minister, onetime trolley car driver and dockworker, who brought a new backbone to international diplomatic combat.

Anthony Eden, aging and not so well now, but still a dashing figure, to take Bevin's place in event of a Conservative triumph.

Sir Stafford Cripps, Labor chancellor of the exchequer, so thoroughly the embodiment of Britain's economic "austerity" and self-denial that a foreigner quipped as he left a European conference to go home: "There he goes, back to his bed of nails."

Lord Woolton, the Mr. Fixit of the Conservatives, who was the chief rebuilder of the party's machinery after its 1945 debacle and would rank high in a new Conservative government.

There are many others. But these are the best known. They're all mounting the political barricades now to do battle over the big issue: Is it to be more—or less—socialism for Britain?

Sir Stafford Cripps: Back to his bed of nails.

Ernest Bevin: A new bluntness in diplomatic combat.

Youth Center Chatter

By Joyce Howell and June Haslip

Only four more days until St. Valentine's Day. Have you bought all your Valentine cards? Boys, have bought a present for your best girl? Better get busy! Yes, once again the day for "expressing your fond affection for others" is almost here. We won't say any more about it, though for the Bulldog is going to have a long article on Valentine's Day Sunday.

Time has come for another dance and because Valentine's Day is so close at hand, there will be a bang-up event at the Center. This coming Saturday night is The Big Night and the time is from 8 p.m. until midnight. There will be free refreshments and free music (a la Juke Box). The Optimist Club will supply the chaperones. Don't forget 8 p.m. Saturday night! Hope we'll see you there.

While we are on the subject of dancing—dancing lessons will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Ballroom, tap, square, everything but ballet will be taught. Lessons get busy! The lessons will be given free of charge each Tuesday night for 10 weeks. Be sure to sign up now.

Fuzzy-Wuzzy

Have you ever heard the poem about Fuzzy-Wuzzy the bear who had no hair? Well, Charles Hendrix reminds us of the poem. Something new has been added—or to be more accurate, something has been subtracted. Charles is going to get a haircut over the weekend and what haircut! One almost needs a magnifying glass to see what is left of it. Wonder what his mother said?

It's a bird—it's a plane—It's Superman—Nope, it's Anna Bess Doby. While sitting outside the Band Hall the other day we saw Anna Bess run madly across the yard and into the Band Hall. Then, came Daffy Taber—"We did overhear Anna Bess cry out, 'No, No, Daffy.' We're still wondering, 'Who Hoppen?'"

After a brief trip to Dallas to see her father, Gloria Anguish is back. Her father has been in the Medical Arts Hospital for an operation, and Gloria went to Dallas to spend the weekend with her mother, who also is there. She brought back several cute things from Dallas. On Monday she wore a very unusual dress to school—it was made of wicker! Well, the pockets, at least, were of wicker. We just wonder—what would happen if someone dropped a match in one of the pockets?

While we're on the subject of unusual things, here's another item. Bet Studder picked up a very different sign a few days ago and was seen carrying it with her through the halls of MHS. A lot of people stopped her to find out exactly what the sign said and more than one teacher looked twice at her. In case you're interested, here is the exact wording: "Anyone who likes work will certainly have a hell of a good time in this institution!"

Little children certainly do grow fast—or so we believe. It seems like just yesterday when Rosalynn Leggett and Lois and Gail Black were bragging about their new brother and sister. A few days ago we saw Roger Black and we hardly recognized him. He was at the Center with his mother. Another future YC member, Betty Lynn Leggett also has grown a lot. She now talks and looks quite a bit like Rosalynn. Someday we'll probably be patting them on the head and saying, "I remember when you were just a very small child."

Junior Birdmen (?)

Anyone visiting the Youth Center or MHS these days might well wonder if the teeners are in their right minds. Watching the "inmates" of either place, one might doubt their sanity. A typical example is the student who runs around pretending to be a flyer and using a peculiar hand position to indicate goggles.

The cause for all of this is the "Junior Birdmen Song" (Only seniors are privileged to say Senior Birdmen!) The words of the song are:

"Into the air, Junior Birdmen, into the air, upside down. Into the air Junior Birdmen, keep your noses off the ground. When we, the Junior Birdmen, have our wings of tin—you'll know, the Junior Birdmen have sent their box-tops in!

It Just Takes Three!

Recently Peggy Charleton was seen running around with only one "goggle" and saying, "I've broken a goggle—I've broken a goggle."

And then, of course, we have some people who like to be outstanding. The latest fad seems to be new socks and matching sweaters which are specially treated to shine. Needless to say they may be seen for miles around if you think we are exaggerating, try looking at three or four of the girls.)

Dick Monroe is the only boy we have noticed who has come out in "glowing" socks. (Mix a design on socks and glowing colors and you really have a sight.)

Hats comprise another addition to the garb of Midland teeners. (At least we think that's what they are.) You probably have seen the little "springing" birds that some folks put on cars—now they are appearing on hats. The effect really is very funny since everytime the person moves, the bird jumps around like a live animal.

We aren't certain about whether these are to be used as wearing apparel, but we saw Pifi Pryor carrying a pair of freshly painted gloves with her. They have been painted with an iridescent paint and are to be used during the basketball games, as we understand it.

Year Ago In YC Chatter

A year ago, Square Dancing lessons were just beginning in the Youth Center. Herb Gregerson, a professional teacher from El Paso, gave lessons once a month on Friday afternoon. Square dancing still is a popular recreation and as we mentioned before, dancing lessons again will be starting next week.

Remember these? "Gorilla," "Casy," "Moe," "Pancho," "Idiot," "Hare," "Ears," "Totem Pole," "Babe," "Dizzy," "Kitten," "Christmas," "Raid," "Napoleon," and "Co-9" were a few of the names signed in the register.

The Youth Center has several nicknames—Different ideas for nicknames were discussed with Mr. Engel, ex-director, and two of the most original were "Engel's Doghouse" and "Willie's Nut House."

Then, as now, (or rather, now as then) new records for the juke box were welcomed with open arms.

Well, back to the present now—Last Sunday's band concert was broadcast at four p.m. instead of at three, due to a slight mixup in the program schedule. The band

Conoco Introduces Super Motor Oil

Continental Oil Company Thursday revealed development of a new motor oil—the result of eight years' laboratory research, two winters of testing in Montana and Colorado, and a 50,000-mile road test along the Mexican border, Hub King, Midland agent for Conoco, said.

The new oil, called "Conoco Super Motor Oil," now is available in Midland and Stanton, he said.

"The remarkable performance of the oil under severe and exhaustive road testing, plus the fact that it has met every challenge of the laboratory for preventing wear and keeping engines clean," said King, "convince all of us with Continental that this new super motor oil is as nearly perfect as it is possible today to develop a lubricating oil."

Each of six cars and four trucks, during the 70-day road test along the Mexican border, covered more than 50,000-miles at an average speed of 60 miles an hour for the cars, and 50 miles an hour for the trucks. The cars were run for 14 hours each day, six days a week, in the scorching South Texas heat which at times reached 110 degrees in the shade.

At the end of the 50,000-mile run, equal to five years' mileage for the average family car, engines of the cars showed no wear of any consequence.

Try Smooth Brown Velvet Pie

MELTS IN YOUR MOUTH—Rich and smooth, this Brown Velvet Pie is something that the entire family will about about.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

It's rich, it's smooth and it melts in your mouth, this marvelous new chocolate pie. So let's sit right down and get first-hand instructions.

Bits Brown Velvet Pie
(Makes Deep 9-Inch Pie)

Pastry shell: Measure 1 1/2 cups packaged pastry mix, or same amount of homemade pastry mix, before liquid is added. Blend into dry mix 1 1/2 cup finely ground or chopped pecans or walnuts. Continue as for plain pastry. Roll out and shape pastry shell with high fluted, or built-up rim. Prick thoroughly.

Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 12 to 15 minutes. Cool completely before filling. With a cookie cutter, cut stars of leftover pastry for decorations.

Let stand about 5 minutes to soften: one tablespoon unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water.

Combine together in top of double boiler over hot water: three egg yolks, 1/3 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1 package (1 cup) chocolate bits.

Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and smooth; remove from heat; add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Cool mixture completely. Add 1/2 cup undiluted evaporated milk, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Chill until mixture is thickened and almost ready to set.

Fold in 3 egg whites, beaten stiff, but not dry. Blend lightly but thoroughly. Pour into cooled nut-pastry shell; chill until firm. Flute with a band of chilled whipped cream just for extra delectation.

The event is sponsored by the Upton County Sheriff's posse, ranchmen of Upton County, McCamey Chamber of Commerce and businessmen of McCamey and Rankin.

All West Texas is invited to attend the annual attraction.

Classes in the 4-H Club sheep division include Fat Mutton Lambs, Cross Breed Lambs, and Rambouillet Lambs (single and pen of two in each class). There also is a capon class for club members.

Adults may enter horses in the Colt Show, which has three classes—Quarter Horse, Half Breeds and Thoroughbreds.

Prizes range from $3 to $7.50 in the various club classes, with champions and reserve champions to receive $10 and $7.50, respectively. Ribbons will be awarded in the colt show, with the top winners to get $7.50 and $5.

Judging in the show will be held Saturday morning, with an auction sale scheduled in the afternoon. A barbecue will be served at 5 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Sheriff's posse.

W. W. Herral of Rankin is the general chairman of the show. Other committees are: Finance—Lloyd Yocham, Tom Workman, Jack Ott and W. H. Carter; Show—J. D. Shipp, Bill Brown and Preston Patton; Sales—Max Schneeman, Oliver Jacobsen and H. E. Echols; Publicity—F. L. Stapp and Cahal Clinton. W. M. Day, Jr., is the Upton County agent.

Special trophies will be presented by the Stanton-Midland Farm Loan Association of Stanton.

Proceeds from concessions will be used to send the winners of the three club classes to the Kansas City Royal Livestock Show.

Sponsors said the purpose of the show is to encourage 4-H Club members in their work and to give more recognition to the demonstrations they are carrying out, and also to give recognition to the type and quality of sheep produced by the ranchmen of Upton County.

Te Midland Show

Many of the lambs will be shown at the annual Midland Livestock Show, March 6-7.

Rankin club members who are expected to have entries in the show are Mary Anderson, Amayalis Herral, Mona Sue Branch, Barbara Herral, Mac Yocham, Linda Herral, Genevieve Poage, Gene Yocham, Gentry Holmes, Marlene Holmes, George Broyles, Mary Beth Shipp, Janie Shipp, Frank Boyd, Jr., and Bud Poage, all of Rankin. Those from McCamey who will enter fat lambs include Wayne Dillingham, Paul Brown, James Lyles, Quinton Lyles, Janet Pauley, Sam Helmers and Scottie Howard.

'Take A Dip, Pal'

Oswald, the duck, flaps his wings blissfully and tries to lure his pal into the swimming pool at Madison Square Boys' Club, New York. The pool is closed to members during the water shortage, but officials have allowed club pets to take advantage of the water already in the pool.

Even the CIO United Auto Workers strike kitchens were practically deserted as the union pursued its policy of no pickets during its "fireside strike" against the Chrysler Corporation. DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Happy Is The Donkey

The two wagons met at the bottom of the very tall tree—the one with Daddy Ringtail's monkey house in the top.
"Happy day, Old MacDonald!" shouted the Featherman, because he was Old MacDonald's friend. "Happy day, and a happy day yourself, Mr. Featherman!" shouted Old Mac Donald, because he was the Featherman's friend.

The two friends jumped down from their wagons and hurried to shake hands with one another, and to say "happy day" again.
"How is Archibald, your donkey?" the Featherman asked Old happy with each other any more at all. The Featherman was quite, quite sure that Happy, his donkey, was the happiest donkey anywhere. Old MacDonald was quite, quite sure that Archibald, his donkey, was the happiest donkey anywhere. And those two friends, Old MacDonald and the Featherman—shame on them—were about to lose their tempers about it. They were standing there with their noses touching, almost ready to do some whisker pulling, and so Daddy Ringtail slid down to the ground in a hurry.

"Gentlemen! Gentlemen!" Daddy Ringtail said to Old MacDonald and the Featherman, although they weren't acting like gentlemen at all—not with all their fussing about which of the donkeys was the happier. "Gentlemen, just look at your donkeys," Daddy Ringtail said.

MacDonald. He asked it to be polite.
Said Old MacDonald: "Archibald's doing fine—fine. Why, he's the happiest donkey there ever was."
"Isn't either!" said the Featherman!
"Is too!" said Old MacDonald. And the two friends didn't look

The Featherman looked. Old MacDonald looked. Happy wasn't happy any more. He was unhappy, and so was Archibald. And who could be happy? Nobody—not with Old MacDonald and the Featherman doing their fussing, and so they decided not to do it. They decided to take turns about whose was the happier donkey. Archibald could be the happier on Mondays and Happy could be happier on Tuesdays, and everyone was happy to hear it. Happy is the donkey, you know—happy is the anyone when he doesn't have to hear any fussing around him. Happy day!

Army Hero Is Made Of Stern Stuff

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—A young Army hero who won the nation's highest award for valor at the age of 18 now is attacking an educational objective.
"I want to finish grammar school," said M/Sgt. James R. Hendrix. "After all, I'm 24 now, and I ought to be getting on with my schooling. I want to learn all I can."
The stocky, red-haired, freckle-faced paratrooper, who came here to appear in a film short for the American Cancer Society, plans to attend a school at Camp Campbell, Ky., his present base.
"I only got to the fourth grade before the war," he grinned. He said he quit to go to work so "the younger kids" could have a chance. He is the oldest of 14 children in the family of a Lepanto, Ark., cotton farmer.
Daylong Battle Rampage
Hendrix is a man for whom death has taken a holiday.
He went through eight months and 21 days of doughboy combat overseas without a scratch. On Christmas Eve, 1944, in Belgium, he went on a daylong battle rampage that won him the Congressional Medal of Honor.
1. Pulled three wounded American soldiers from flaming vehicles.
2. Drove the crews away from two 88 field guns by his rifle fire.
3. Destroyed two enemy machine gun positions.
4. Killed seven Germans with his rifle.
5. Captured 13 other Germans.
"All I got was a few bullet holes through my clothes," he recalled. He transferred out of the armored infantry into an airborne division. Last September he had another miraculous escape from death. While making his eighth jump from a plane, both his chutes failed to open, and he plunged 1,000 feet to the ground. The durable Hendrix wasn't even dented.
Since then he has made six more parachute jumps without incident. "I feel sure now I'm going to die of old age," he said.

McKenney On CANASTA

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written For NEA Service
In today's article I will describe some interesting situations that came up during the match between Oswald Jacoby and John R. Crawford vs. Sam Fry, Jr., and Theodore Lightner.
Lightner drew a card from the stock pile. Then there was some confusion, and before discarding, he drew another card from the stock pile and placed it in his hand. What was the penalty and the proper procedure?
The penalty for this is quite severe. Lightner was not allowed to make any melds, but he had to make one discard. At his next turn to play he was not permitted to draw, nor to pick up the pack, nor to make any melds. All he could do was to discard.
If he had drawn more cards by mistake from the stock pile, he would have had to follow this same procedure for as many turns as the number of extra cards he had drawn.
This situation is covered in Law 26, Section D, of the new Official Canasta Laws.
One of the most unusual situations that ever came up in a Canasta game occurred during this match. Nobody had been able to get the pack. The stock pile was down to four cards, so that the pack was very large. Crawford discarded a king. Lightner, sitting on his left, laid down two kings and took the discard pile.
He really had a "basketful" of cards. He sorted them out into different piles, finally made his melds, and had left in his hand three or four black treys, a couple of nines and five deuces.
Now Lightner asked how many cards were left in the stock pile. The stock pile was spread out on the table and each player counted four cards. "That means," said Lightner, "that I get another draw, doesn't it?" Jacoby, his left-hand opponent, said "Yes." Fry, Lightner's partner, also said "Yes." So Lightner kept his five deuces, and did not complete three other canastas that he could have completed. Then he discarded.
At this point Crawford rose from the table, went to the referee and said, "My partner has told Lightner that he gets another draw, but he may not, because there still is one red trey among the four cards in the stock pile."
The referee ruled that since both the player's partner and an opponent had agreed that Lightner would get another draw, and since Lightner himself could have seen that there still was a red trey out, he had completed his play, and it would have to stand.
Lightner did not get another draw and his side lost more than 1,000 points because of his failure to complete the other three canastas.

Andrews School Bonds Approved In Election

ANDREWS — Voters of Andrews approved $400,000 in school bonds in a special election by a count of 188 to 59, according to an announcement by N. E. Watkins, election judge.
Only one-seventh of the registered voters in the county voted in the election.
Bonds approved in the election are to be used to add several rooms to the Junior High School. The building, formerly the Senior High School, was built to accommodate 150 students, and now has an enrollment of 230. Also planned is the construction of a new shop building and a gymnasium to seat 1,500.
Haynes and Kirby, Lubbock architects, will be instructed to proceed with plans for the building, said Superintendent Thomas D. Hamilton.
