Johnson Goes To Fred Allen For Some Sprightly Comments

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—And now let's peek in on Allen's Alley.

Just because Fred Allen doesn't have a radio show this season, there's no reason the Johnson Network can't bring him to you.

ANNOUNCER: "The Fred Allen Show!"

MUSIC: Fanfare to APPLAUSE.

ANNOUNCER: "Fred is packing his suitcase in his room at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel for the trip back to New York after a month of California sunshine and several radio guest appearances, including one with his old pal Jack Benny."

JOHNSON: "Tell me, Mr. Allen, why did you come to Hollywood?"

ALLEN: "I was sick for two months this winter and I worried about owing Jack Benny a guest appearance. In case I die, I don't want any trouble at the grave with Jack's attorney about owing him a guest spot."

JOHNSON: "Thank you, Mr. Allen. Now let me get your opinion on several subjects. For instance, Milton Berle."

ALLEN: "I'm mad at him. He didn't steal any of my jokes—he stole one of my people (writer Nat Hiken). I guess you'd call it 'artistic kidnapping.'"

Milton's television show:

ALLEN: "A formula that won't last. You hire six vaudeville acts and get a guy with five fingers—like Berle—to point at 'em."

California sunshine:

ALLEN: "The sun is all right if you are a tropical plant. The sun doesn't do anything for a microphone."

Television:

Out-Of-Date?

ALLEN: "I look great on kinescope. I straighten my out. Fortunate I should remain on kinescope and never come home. I look better than I do alive."

Television viewers:

ALLEN: "I know a fellow who hasn't even got a set, but his neighbors have, and he's sick of television already."

Television's pioneers:

ALLEN: "Pioneers never make any money. Take Daniel Boone. He went through all these forests and didn't make a dime. Then the lumber companies came in and cleaned up."

His radio version of "It's in the Bag" on the Screen Directors Playhouse on NBC:

ALLEN: "I broke a chair over the head of a radio M.C. The fact that he was the M.C. of a giveaway show is not coincidental."

Giveaway programs:

ALLEN: "They're tough on actors. All a sponsor has to do is hire an M.C. and eight ice boxes."

Hollywood:

ALLEN: "Ninety per cent of the people are living off 10 per cent of the people."

NBC executives:

ALLEN: "They're all shaking so that if there's ever an earthquake in New York the NBC men will be the only ones standing still."

Smart Reasoning:

Unemployment:

ALLEN: "There has to be unemployment. If everyone who is unemployed suddenly went to work, all the people working in the unemployment bureaus would be unemployed."

California smog:

ALLEN: "It's the reason no one ever leaves California. They can't find the railroad station."

The growth of Los Angeles:

ALLEN: "Everyone who gets off the train here is carrying a hammer and a piece of board and builds something."

Wrestling on television:

ALLEN: "If you can't afford a set, I know a couple of guys who will come to your home and wrestle in the living room."

His motion picture plans:

ALLEN: "I auditioned for the Paramount commissary but I couldn't make it."

Hollywood dinner parties:

ALLEN: "There's a regular circuit you have to play when you come out to Hollywood. You go to certain people's home for dinner and then you never see 'em again."

Jack Haley's ranch, where he spent several days:

ALLEN: "Jack raises cows. Cows are easier to get along with than people and besides, they give milk."

His own future in television:

ALLEN: "I'll probably go back on the radio next Fall. Then, when there are 15 or 20 million TV sets, I'll try television. Out of all this confusion will come a technique."

THE SELF-CENTERED AND THE SELF-DISRUPTED

The law upon which individuals and groups and nations break themselves when they become egocentric is this: "Whoever will save his life shall lose it"—concentrate yourself on yourself, and that self will go to pieces, not only spiritually, but mentally and physically as well.

The reason for this is obvious. The three driving urges or instincts are obviously self-regarding; the herd instinct is other-regarding; the sex instinct is partly self-regarding and partly other-regarding. So there are just two driving instincts—the egotistic and the altruistic, the self-regarding and the other-regarding.

Both of these must be fulfilled—and fulfilled in the proper proportion—of life will be frustrated and unhappy.

There are those who think that Christianity teaches that they must love others, but not themselves. This is a mistake. Christianity teaches self-love: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." If you did not love yourself, you would not develop yourself. So all attempts to eliminate the self end in hypocrisy and disaster. If you put your self out of the door, it will come back through the window, probably in disguise. Frankly and honestly you must love yourself—not as a master, but as a servant; for the self is a glorious servant, but a gruesome master. Those who love others and not themselves, allowing others to sap the life out of them, end in disaster. On the other hand, if one organizes life around himself and becomes self-centered, then, as sure as fate, disaster overtakes that self. Does God pronounce judgment from heaven upon that life? No; by the very

Wayland College Choir To Sing At Rotary Club Event

The Wayland College International Choir of Plainview will present a special program at a ladies night dinner-meeting of the Midland Rotary Club at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Percy F. Bridgewater, program chairman, said the program will be one of the most outstanding and most entertaining ever presented by a Midland service club at a ladies night event. He urged a full attendance of all members and their ladies. The club's regular luncheon will not be held Thursday noon.

Hilton Kaderli, Rotary president, will preside at the night session.

Popular Group

Bridgewater said the colorfully-dressed International Choir is composed of students selected for their musicianship, voice quality and interest in choral singing. It has given numerous performances in the Southwest and has won more invitations than it can fill. In keeping with the Wayland International program, the choir personnel includes students from many states and nations.

Shelby Collier, veteran Texas music director, is the director of the 32-member Wayland Choir.

A varied program of both religious and secular music is included in the choir's repertoire, and among the talented voices are excellent soloists and well-trained small ensemble groups.

Members of the choir wear the costumes of various nations, making it one of the most colorful-appearing musical groups in the nation.

Washington Was A Realist

For decades many Americans have cited George Washington's Farewell Address, delivered upon his retirement from the presidency, as a testament of isolationism.

This anniversary of Washington's birth is a fitting moment to re-examine these celebrated words and try to measure their worth for us today.

"Our detached and distant situation invites us to pursue a different course. . . . 'Tis our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world."

It thoroughly is apparent that Washington was moved to utter these cautions by the overwhelming eighteenth century fact of the country's real geographic separateness.

But Washington's remarkable record both as revolutionary general and as President reveals him to be a hard-headed realist.

Rash indeed are the men who dare contend that Washington would view the U. S. of 1950 as detached, distant and remote.

It is an injustice to Washington to continue to draft him in support of the isolationist theory of foreign affairs.

If we properly would revere him for his true qualities of greatness, then we must credit him with the elemental intelligence that fits policy to reality no matter how that reality is altered.

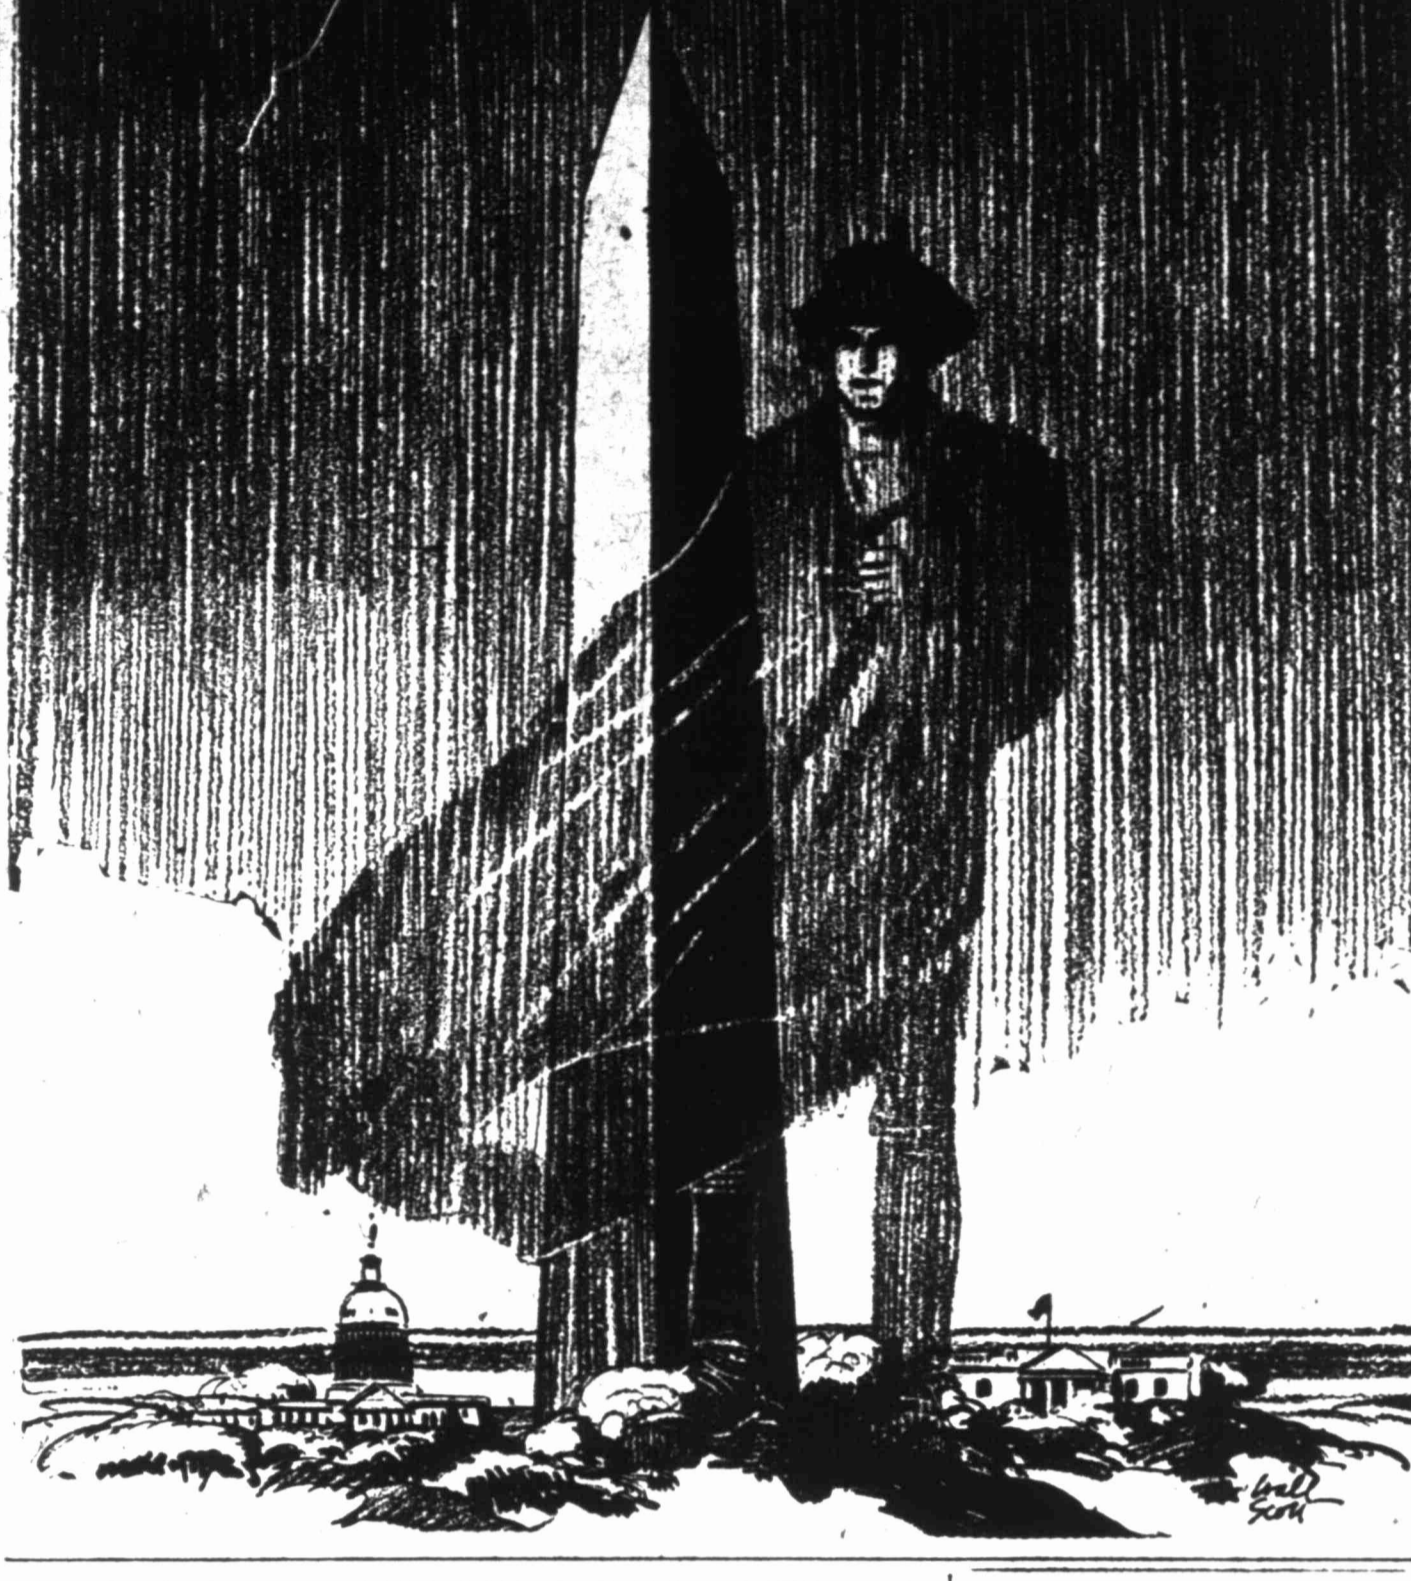

A zoo python suffering from toothache attacked two attendants. It could have been worse, though, if the snake had had a pain in the neck.

The U. S. spends about $4 a minute for insect control. Almost as much as we spend for bite remedies.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Dictator Franco criticizes Acheson's loyalty to Alger Hiss; Secretary of state's defense of a friend has interesting historical precedents; FDR would have used different strategy.

WASHINGTON — Secretary Acheson's refusal to "turn his back" on Alger Hiss is now criticized not only by GOP senators but by Dictator Franco's official radio.

It also may be significant that the Spanish attack on Acheson and the State Department came soon after Acheson had quit "turning his back on Franco and had indicated that he was willing to extend him full recognition.

Andrew Jackson—When Aaron Burr was being tried for treason in Richmond, Andrew Jackson was one of the few to support him unreservedly.

White House Sympathizes David Cole, chairman of the White House fact-finding board, informed President Truman and his top assistant John R. Steilman in an off-the-record talk last week.

Charles Evans Hughes — Cool, calm, and cautious Secretary of State Hughes did pretty much what Acheson did when Michigan's Senator Truman H. Newberry was convicted of violating the Corrupt Practices Act.

partners responded with five clubs, showing no ace. I have given you the bidding as I think it should have gone.

Dr. Ziemlak asked me several questions about the hand. First—Did I think North and South should arrive at a slam contract?

Fur Flies As Airlines Battle Over Trans-Atlantic Business

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Bitter oral arguments on rejiggering of U.S. trans-Atlantic air routes will be heard by the Civil Aeronautics Board March 1.

There will be no appeal from this order. For the Supreme Court decided two years ago in the Chicago and Southern Airlines-Waterman Steamship case that presidential orders through CAB are final.

This will be the first big test on U. S. international aviation policy adopted in 1945. This policy has been to foster competition between a number of U. S. commercial airlines as opposed to having one American-flag, "chosen-instrument," monopolistic carrier.

The specific case which brings reconsideration of this policy to a head at this time is Pan-American World Airways' petition for CAB approval to purchase American Overseas Airlines' New York-to-Europe routes for $17,450,000 cash.

TWA is backing Pan-Am's application to buy AOA's American Export Lines, which owns 20 per cent of AOA's stock, is opposed. CAB public counsel Brian O. Sparks has opposed the merger.

When North jumps to three spades over South's offer of one spade, South should realize the hand is good for at least a small slam.

Some tournament players would take the hand back to six spades, while at rubber bridge, if this hand came up, the average North player would let the contract stand at six diamonds.

American Overseas wants to sell because it claims its present route is uneconomic. It has had to compete with Pan-Am for London business.

TWA claims Gene Rosenberg, TWA on the other hand claims that the Pan-Am-AOA merger is but the first step toward Pan-Am President Juan Trippe's ultimate goal—a complete monopoly of all U. S. international air transport.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Catching People

The Huffen Puffen is really a friendly wolf, but one day he was wanting to be a Monkey Catcher. All to catch the Monkey Catcher who lives at the zoo. Yes, but the Monkey Catcher from the zoo was wanting to be a Wolf Catcher, all to catch him a wolf. And so there was the Huffen Puffen, and there was the Monkey Catcher, creeping through the forest and trying to catch one another.

They bumped their heads together as they came creeping around a tree on their hands and knees. Their heads were hard, and the noise was "klunk," but it didn't hurt. The Monkey Catcher giggled. "Gotcha!" he said to the Huffen Puffen. The Huffen Puffen chuckled. "Gotcha!" he said to the Monkey Catcher. The Huffen Puffen laughed and began to tie a rope around the Monkey Catcher. The Monkey Catcher that each of them forgot, I think, that he was caught himself. The Huffen Puffen forgot that he was caught. The Monkey Catcher forgot that he was caught. And anyone would have seen there was going to be plenty of trouble. Daddy Ringtail saw it.

"Huffen Puffen!" Daddy Ringtail said. "Do you want to be carried off to the zoo and have to live there in a cage?" No, he didn't, and so the Huffen Puffen stopped trying to tie the rope around the Monkey Catcher. He began to untie himself as fast as he could.

A few minutes later, the Huffen Puffen ran away down the Elephant Path to get away, and the Monkey Catcher ran away up the Elephant Path to get away. And both of them knew at last, I think, that catching people isn't fun—not when you are the people to be caught. Happy day!

laughed and began to tie a rope around the Huffen Puffen. The Huffen Puffen was glad to have caught somebody to live at his house in the hollow tree. The Monkey Catcher was glad to have caught somebody to live at his zoo. But each of them was so very busy with his catching and tying

Building Remodeled To Solve Problems Facing Solon's Wife

AUSTIN—(AP)—It never quite came to hanging baby diapers outside the second floor windows of the state old state Capitol Building. Where to dry the family wash was just one of the problems for a speaker's wife living in the speaker's apartment behind the House of Representatives in the west wing of the Capitol. Most of those problems have been solved with a remodeling job, and that job includes a nook fitted with an automatic washer and dryer. It's now a six-room air-conditioned apartment. The contractors job cost $12,268.66 and the air-conditioning $4,890 for a total cost of $17,158.66. That includes a new office for the speaker and fixing up a new cloak room and committee room. In addition, most furnishings and new drapes are being bought. Money for the remodeling job came from the regular appropriation for the board of control last year.

The apartment is a mecca for coffee drinkers. Mrs. Manford, wife of Durwood Manford, present speaker of the house, buys 10 to 12 pounds of coffee a week. In the remodeling, she had a shallow cupboard built just inside the kitchen door off the corridor behind the House of Representatives. In the cupboard are rows of cups and saucers and a coffee fiend can pick them up on his way in a little farther to the coffee pot, always kept full. Legislators, state employees, members of the press and visiting dignitaries drift in. "I guess I easily have 50 persons come in a day," Mrs. Manford said. "Now it's a place they can be proud of." The apartment "just grew." Fats Up Cot It began when a speaker who had to work late at night put up a cot in one of the committee rooms and slept there. Then in 1933 Coke Stevenson was speaker. Mrs. Stevenson in ill health, wanted to be with him. A sitting room and small kitchen were added for her convenience. When Manford became speaker last year, the apartment had one bath, two bedrooms, a small breakfast room and a nook for a kitchen. It was crowded for the three Manford children. A new bedroom was made by taking in an old cloak room. The south end of the hall behind the house was walled off, making a private office for the speaker. The Manfords will get less benefit from the remodeling project than families of future speakers. Manford will be speaker until his successor is determined at the regular session next January.

lines of the south half of section 33, block 25, H&TC survey.
This places the drillrite 18 miles southeast of the town of Gall on an elevation of 2,945 feet.
Projected depth for the No. 1 Whitaker is 8,000 feet.

Another SE Borden Venture Tops Reef

R. E. Smith No. 1 Thompson, a Southeast Borden County wildcat in the vicinity of the Amersda Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Von Hoeder, a Canyon producer, has topped the Canyon reef at 6,818 feet, at a minus datum of 4,495 feet.
A drillstem test run in that formation at 6:16-26 recovered 270 feet of oil, 390 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud and 60 feet of salt water. The tool was open one hour and 30 minutes. Gas surfaced in six minutes, the volume of which was not gauged or estimated.
Operators were last reported drilling deeper.
Location of this venture is 600 feet from south and west lines of section 102, block 25, H&TC survey, and four miles southwest of Knapp.

Vealmoor Steput Flows Oil On DST

A one-half mile northeast extension to Vealmoor Canyon oil field, which straddles the Borden and Howard County line, appears assured in the Thomas W. Dowdwell, and associates, No. 1 W. J. McAdams.
On a drillstem test in the reef at 7:18-40, gas surfaced in five minutes and oil in 45 minutes. The oil flowed for 15 minutes to pits for an estimated rate of 50 barrels an hour. The tool was open one hour.
By electric log, the reef was topped at 7,818 feet, with an elevation of 2,548 feet.
Operators are to set seven-inch casing, then drill deeper.
Location of the possible extension is 600 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 27, block 32, T-3-N, T&P survey.

Three New Scurry Oilers Completed

Completion of three new oil producers from the Canyon reef in Scurry County have been reported. The new wells are equally divided among three of the Canyon fields of the county—one each in North Snyder, Kelley, and Diamond M.
In the North Snyder area, Sunray Oil Corporation, No. 11-B R. B. Brown, 467 feet from north and west lines of section 21, block 1, J. P. Smith survey, made a daily initial potential of 1,327 barrels of 44.4 gravity oil, flowing naturally through a one-half inch tubing choke.
The gas-oil ratio was 760-1. The production was from open hole between 6,782 feet and the total depth at 6,890 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 6,872 feet. Top of the pay is at 6,648 feet.

In the Diamond M field, Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Patterson, 330 feet from south and east lines of the lease in section 215, block 97, H&TC survey, reported a 24-hour flowing gauge of 1,280.54 barrels of oil, plus 1.2 per cent water.
Gravity of the oil was 43.1 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 577-1. The production was from open hole between 6,803 feet and 6,884 feet.

A corrected location for the recently reported A. S. Johnson No. 1-A E. B. Barron, a shallow wildcat in North Pecos County, is 330 feet from southeast and southwest lines of tract 15, survey 17, block 3, H&TC survey.
This location will place the venture one and one-half miles southwest of the Imperial townsite.
It will be a cable tool wildcat with a projected depth of 2,300 feet.

Dobyns Tells PBGS How To Plot Reefs With Seismographs

Ray Dobyns of Dallas, seismic supervisor for the Petroleum Company Tuesday night discussed the problem of finding reefs with the seismograph at the February meeting of the Permian Basin Geological Society.
He used the Jameson Crane reef oil field in Northwest Cooke County and the North Snyder pool in Scurry County as illustrations of how such formations could be seismically plotted.
Approximately 175 members attended the Tuesday meeting. Nominees for district representatives to the national organization were named and will be voted on at next meeting. The candidates are Fred Forward, with Phillips Petroleum Company, and John Cathey, with Seaboard Oil Company.
Lavern Shock, society president, announced that next month's session will feature a round table discussion on velocities.
Dobyns and Ed Gideon of Midland, with Humble Oil & Refining Company, were the city's honorary members of the society.
The meeting was held in the City County Auditorium.

Bulgarian Break May Lift Pressure On U. S. Diplomats

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials expressed hope Wednesday that the American diplomatic break with Bulgaria will bring improvement in the treatment of U. S. diplomats and their employes in other Russian satellite countries.
There was no immediate indication of further break with any of those nations.
There was, however, speculation on the possibility of rupture in American relations with Hungary as a result of the conviction there of Robert A. Vogeler, an American businessman accused of being a spy against the Red regime in Budapest. Vogeler was sentenced to 15 years in prison and fined $10,000. Tuesday the State Department said the trial was "devoid of justice, inadequate as to evidence and replete with falsehood."
The hearing is expected to last another three weeks.

Unions List 1,400 Complaints At T&P

DALLAS (AP)—Representatives of four railway unions which have threatened to strike on the Texas and Pacific Railway continued presenting testimony to a presidential fact-finding board Wednesday.
The unions Tuesday began listing some 1,400 grievance cases they said had piled up against the company. The company contends many of the grievances are barred from consideration because the time for them to be settled has run out. The unions claim there is no proper procedure in handling grievances.
No strike can be called during the 30 days allowed for the emergency board's hearing nor for another 30 days afterwards.
The hearing is expected to last another three weeks.

the United Mine Workers, and his top lieutenants.
A federal contempt of court citation—which named the striking United Mine Workers as a union but not the officers—has brought no results in two days except further fuel famine, more plant shut-downs and scattered violence.
Negotiations here droned on. The bargaining sessions grew shorter and the recesses longer. No progress was visible; demands grew for federal seizure of the mines.
But a responsible government official said the Justice Department must try "filing some more papers" to broaden the contempt case.
He suggested that Federal Judge Richmond B. Keech may be asked to add the names of Lewis and some of UMW's 24 district presidents in the soft coal areas to the contempt citation.
FBI Agents Busy
This official said the government, when it obtained the contempt citation Monday, lacked evidence to do more than make a blanket complaint against the 370,000-member union. Now, he said, more specific charges may be lodged.
"This dovetailed with reports that FBI agents have been busy in the coal fields, assembling evidence on the union's effort to comply with the court's back-to-work order."
Lewis, who twice has wired his defiant men to resume digging, smiled gently as he left each bargaining session, and said not a word.
Reports of spreading unemployment, closing schools, hardship and violence built up the tension here.
Cleveland turned off almost 4,000 street lights. Pittsburgh suspended all night school classes, as Washington, D. C., did Tuesday.
The Indiana Public Service Commission authorized the state electric utilities to cut service as much as 25 per cent upon a showing of emergency.
Goon Squads Operating
Idleness in the steel mills and other coal-fueled industries totaled 35,500. Another 23,000 steel workers were due for furlough Wednesday night.
Senator Taft (R-Ohio) reported receiving word that "organized gangs" were operating in Ohio to prevent miners from working. An official of the West Virginia Coal Association reported, "Goon squads are the order of the day."
In Albany, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey asked the New York State Legislature for power to seize coal in "non-essential" private stocks. He also sought authority to put price ceilings on the dwindling supplies.
There was no sign from the coal fields that the miners were impressed either by the government's orders or by angry denunciations. Their unflinching reply to questioners was: "No contract, no work."

Drainage—

drainage survey and report, Homer A. Hunter of Dallas and William W. Studdert of Midland, told the Council of the project could be carried out over a long period of time. Asked about relative urgencies of the projects in the report, Hunter named the drainage of North Park Hill and the Country Club, via storm sewer, into Midland Draw to the north as first in importance. The key project to ease the downtown section, which involves paying South Garfield Street with an inverted crown, laying a storm sewer along West Front Street to Mineola Street, and an open drainage ditch from there to Midland Draw south of the T&P tracks, east of the city was recommended as next in importance. These two projects would cost more than a half-million dollars.
In addition to Mayor Neely, Councilmen S. M. Erskine, R. I. Dickey and Frank N. Shriver and City Manager W. H. Oswald were present. H. E. Chiles, Jr., and W. F. Hejl were out of the city. Present were representatives of the City Planning and Zoning Commission, Finance Commission, Civic Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Park Commission, and Midland County Commissioners Court, headed by Judge Clifford G. Keith.
Enlisted men of the Continental Marines wore green shirts, green coats with red facings, breeches of light-colored cloth, woolen stockings and round, green hats with white bindings.

Skies Brighten As Cold Front Passes; Winds Whip Coast

By The Associated Press
A fast-moving cold front that swept into Texas Tuesday bore down on the Texas coast Wednesday.
Brisk winds whipped the front along and prompted small craft warnings along the coast.
Thunderstorms continued to form ahead of the front. But behind the front, skies cleared rapidly as temperatures fell.
The Weather Bureau predicted even colder weather for the entire state Wednesday night, but said slightly higher readings are expected in West Texas and the northwest portion of East Texas Thursday.
Temperatures dropped far below freezing in the Panhandle overnight. Dalhart's 16 was the state's low, while Brownsville, in the extreme south, had a low of 69.

Vets Slate Protest At Hospital Closing

EL PASO (AP)—A protest meeting of war veterans against the demobilization of veteran's beds at William Beaumont General Hospital is scheduled here Wednesday night.
The hospital was closed to veterans last week by a special order received by Dr. G. A. Leonard, medical officer of the Veterans Administration here.
Speakers for the meeting Wednesday night are Barney Gates, Denver, Colo., national field secretary of the American Legion, and Johnny Crooks, Odessa, 16th District commissioner for the Legion.

Murder With Malice Charged In Slaying

DENISON, TEXAS (AP)—Murder with malice charges were filed Wednesday against William Morris (Frosty) Jones, 26, in the slaying Tuesday night of R. H. McLean, 43, of Dallas. Jones is from Pottsville, Texas.
McLean, a retired automobile dealer who owned a resort on Lake Texoma, was shot late Tuesday on a road seven miles west of here.
Sheriff Merkle Dicken said the Pottsville resident admitted the shooting and was being held in jail.

Cafe Patrons Witness Murder And Suicide

SPOFFORD, TEXAS (AP)—While several surprised patrons watched, a man and his wife were shot to death Tuesday night in a Spofford cafe where the woman worked as a waitress.
Justice of Peace O. F. Seargeant ruled Wednesday that David O. Chaney, about 60, shot and killed his wife, Otis M., 49, and then killed himself.

Selected to serve on the jury are Wayne Blankenship, E. A. Douglas, Jr., J. E. Dickinson, L. L. Bevil, Charles A. Haynes, Kenneth G. Anderson, R. N. Griffith, Fred Girdley, W. L. Crothers, C. R. Hines, H. T. Brady and C. H. Ervin.

Washington's Day And Today Compared By Lions Speaker

"Our world today compares and contrasts with the day of George Washington," W. B. Neely, Jr., told members of the Midland Lions Club at their luncheon meeting Wednesday in the Scharbauer Hotel—on George Washington's birthday.
The speaker discussed some of the criticisms and harassments directed at Washington, which generally are not discussed with his greatness and accomplishments. He explained Washington's farewell address in the light of its outline of future policies of America.
"Washington was confronted with a national debt, as we are today," Neely said.
Roy Minear presided. John B. Mills was program chairman. Joe Winkler was introduced as Junior Lion of the Week. The club membership voted to amend the constitution to allow earlier elections.
The nominating committee for this year's election will consist of past presidents of the organization. March 15 was announced as nomination date and March 22 is election date.
Larry Trimble announced the "Battle of the Bands" event scheduled at the VFW Hall March 3 as a benefit to help send the Lions Club Orchestra to the Lions International Convention.

arrests should bring in 90 million dollars over the seven and one-half year period of its effectiveness, primarily for buildings but some for support of the state hospitals.
A Senate minority fought a bitter lost-in-advance fight against the cigarette tax bill. The showdown test came on an amendment proposing that the terms of the bill cover just 18 months, like the omnibus tax, instead of seven and one-half years.
The Administration won 25 to 5.

Daniel challenged Perlman's claims both to the Tidlands and the harbors as being "far from what was intended in the 1845 Texas annexation agreement."
"After the agreement of 1845, the United States obtained deeds of cession to everything it claimed under the annexation agreement, the only ports and harbors intended to be covered were those owned and operated solely for the Texas Navy which was transferred to the United States," Daniel said. "The United States obtained its deeds in 1845, all property intended to be ceded and these deeds did not cover ports, harbors or Tidlands."
"After 100 years it is rather late for Mr. Perlman to make a new interpretation and ask for more property than was sought by those federal officials of 1845-46 who made the agreement with Texas."

The Ballinger Cats, rightly considered by many the weakest link of the Longhorn League, do some things.

Recently the ball club owners honored a $10-per-plate dinner to use enough money to get the Cats out of the hole. The club was that poor.

But instead of training at home here it would cost less than anywhere else in the state. T. J. Man-til, president, announces the club will train at Lufkin.

Watch for more dinners like the one recently held.

Harold Webb, probably the smartest operator in the league, wouldn't sink of training anywhere except in Midland. He knows what it would cost to go here or there and truck long 25 of 30 ball players to feed and house at the other guy's price. Here in Midland they can live in the clubhouse, eat at their regular place and get along well—at a minimum cost.

Things like that help keep a ball club up of the red.

You never have seen or heard of Harold Webb asking anyone to contribute money for the operation of the Indians. And you won't hear it.

Dick Snider, the genial Odessa scribe, made a feeble attempt to explain why the Oilers will use Cuban players in a majority this season.

But between the lines you could read his dislike for the idea.

What will the Odessa fans think of it?

We would say their opinion might hinge on whether or not the Oilers win with the Cubans in the lineup.

Ballinger and a member of District 5-A meet again Friday night and folks in these parts are hoping the outcome will be different from what it was the last time Ballinger took on a 5-A member.

The Bearcats kicked the tar out of Wink in a regional grid game at Wink last November.

But it will be Crane which meets Ballinger this time.

The Golden Oranes and the Bearcats get together in Coleman Friday night in a regional basketball tilt.

Frank McAlexander, a guy who played a lot of third base for Midland in 1947, was in town to visit the Ernie Nelsons recently.

Frank reports back to Corpus Christi this year but he doesn't especially like it.

He doesn't keep it a secret that he would like to play for Harold Webb again.

Revisions In NCAA Sanitary Code Hinted

CHICAGO—(AP)—An interchange of ideas on the NCAA Sanitary Code, possibly with a view toward revisions, has been made by Secretary-Treasurer K. L. (Tug) Wilson of the National Athletic Association and commissioners of the Southeastern and Southwestern Conferences.

James Stewart of the Southwestern Conference and Bernie Moore of the Southeastern huddled with Wilson Tuesday in an unheralded meeting.

There were no official announcements, although it was reported the three met to discuss a revision of the code.

"We were just talking around a few ideas," said Stewart. "We talked about NCAA matters generally. There were no formal conclusions. The future may develop something, we hope before the 1951 annual meeting at Dallas. But there is nothing to say now."

The session was held four days before the newly-elected 15-member NCAA Council, over-all policy making group, meets in Chicago.

Rain Washes Out Slated Trial Run In Houston Open

HOUSTON—(AP)—Most of the big names of golf will begin the $10,000 Houston Open Thursday without having made a trial run of the course.

Tournament officials decided to close the revamped Brae Burn Country Club layout until at least mid-afternoon Wednesday after a heavy rain threatened Tuesday's qualifying play.

Bayous which criss-cross the 6,725-yard, par-72 course began to rampage as almost two inches of rain fell in less than an hour.

The order to shut down left most of the big names without much more than a hasty look at the course.

Amateurs and the lesser-known pros had their day Tuesday and the big boys, exempt from qualifying play, were to have taken over Wednesday.

Most of the amateurs and lesser-knowns figured they received no special privilege. In fact, 31 of the 137 players who sought to qualify withdrew before finishing their 18 holes. The rain-swamped course was too much.

Eighty-four of the remaining 106 qualified by turning in scores of 83 or lower.

The medalist of the day was Amateur Bill Shields of Albany, N. Y. He played only three holes in the rain and turned in the only sub-par score of the day, a one-under 71.

More than 60 reports on washing coal have been issued by the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Razorbacks Clamp Firmer Hold On Top Spot In Southwest

By The Associated Press

Texas A&M slipped into fourth place in the Southwest Conference basketball race Tuesday night with a 69-56 overtime victory over Texas Christian.

The Arkansas Razorbacks clamped a firmer hold on the loop lead with a 61-38 defeat of Rice.

Third-place Baylor came from behind to win 43-41 over the University of Texas.

The TCU-aggie game ended 57-57 at the end of the regular period. Not a field goal was made in the five-minute extra session but A&M's Bill Turnbow sank three free tosses while George McLeod made a good one for the Frogs.

The loss dropped TCU to fifth place.

Baylor was behind in the final two minutes, but Substitute Gerald Cobb hit a field goal and sank a free throw to add the winning margin. Texas led 23-17 at halftime.

Arkansas jumped into a strong lead a few minutes after the opening whistle and Rice never headed the Razorbacks led 28-18 at the half. The Porters added up 44 points in field goals.

Texas Obeys SWC Code, Says Bible

NEW YORK—(AP)—Dana X. Bible, famous as a football coach and now director of athletics at the University of Texas, declared Wednesday in answering an Associated Press questionnaire that college sports "will lose the educational value if subsidization continues unchecked."

Texas, one of the powers of the Southwest in college football, last year won six and lost four games.

Bible's reply to the questionnaire, made on behalf of R. T. S. Painter, president of the university, follows in full:

"1. The University of Texas is a member of the Southwest Athletic Conference and conforms to the Southwest Conference code as outlined: Financial aid to any athlete, originating from any source other than persons on whom he may naturally or legally be dependent for support, shall be permitted without regard to eligibility only if approved and awarded by a regular faculty faculty established in his institution or granting of such aid. Such aid shall not exceed tuition for instruction and for stated incidental institutional fees, except when the total aid awarded is restricted to a governmental grant or a scholarship not used on athletic ability, which is announced in an official publication of the awarding institution.

77 Major Leaguers On Holdout List

NEW YORK—(AP)—Seventy-seven major leaguers, including such stars as Hal Newhouser, Howie Pollett, Bob Lemon and Vern Stephens, still haven't come to contract terms with their employers.

Many still may be yelling for more dough when Spring training begins one week from Wednesday.

A survey by The Associated Press showed the St. Louis Browns have the most malcontents, 15, while the New York Giants have none, the only club able to claim that distinction.

Newhouser, one of five Detroit Tigers out of the fold, is reported ready to sign. The brilliant left-hander reportedly has been asked to take a $10,000 cut, reducing his paycheck to $50,000.

Pollett also reportedly is on the verge of submitting. The St. Louis Cardinal 27 game winner is asking $25,000. Card President Fred Saigh said in St. Louis Tuesday both had agreed on the basic salary but are at odds over attendance bonus clauses.

Lemon, who won 22 games for the Cleveland Indians last season, is angling for $35,000.

Stephens, who bats cleanup for the Boston Red Sox, supposedly is peeved over his 1950 contract which calls for the same salary he made last season, approximately $25,000.

This Scene Could Be In Midland

These Girl Scouts are having the time of their lives at an unidentified Scout camp. Midland's Girl Scouts can have the same great time right here in Midland if folks support the Little House and Park program now underway. A good way to lend your support would be to attend the benefit basketball show in the Junior High Gym Wednesday night. All proceeds go to the Girl Scout Little House and Park fund.

Girl Scout Cage Benefit Scheduled Wednesday Night

It's basketball time and for a worthy cause Wednesday night at the Junior High School Gymnasium.

The much-heralded Girl Scout Little House and Park fund benefit will be played with some of West Texas' finest cage teams participating in a double-header.

The curtain raiser will be between the JayCeers and Sandhills Gulf of Crane. It will be another way the JayCeers are helping the Girl Scouts to get their project going.

Already the Junior Chamber has contributed toward the construction of fireplaces at the park site, between D and E Streets on West Washington Street.

The Crane Builders, also contributing their services for the benefit, hold a victory over the JayCeers from a previous meeting in Crane.

The feature attraction sends Midland's talented Rotary Engineers against an equally rugged team of Seagraves Independents. The two outfits scrapped to a draw in a regulation game at Seagraves recently and an overtime period was needed to settle the issue. Rotary won by two points.

The Engineers are loaded with veterans from several major colleges and service teams.

Leland Huffman, Frank Brahaney, Tom Schalk, Paul Haskins, Charlie Kelly, Henry Pyle, Will Salmon, Leonard Sheppard, Les Hodges, Dwight Fleming and Wendell Thomason are on the roster.

All proceeds from the benefit will go to the Girl Scouts and will be used in the Little House and Park project.

A capacity attendance is expected. Starting time will be 7:30 p.m. for the first game, and the finale will follow.

District 5-A Will Work Out Football Problems At Meets

ODESSA — District 5-A, which recently appointed a commissioner to select officials for grid games during the 1950 season, will work out problems now outstanding at meetings early in March.

A. B. Patterson of Odessa, commissioner, said members of the Midland-Odessa Chapter of the Southwest Football Officials Association will meet at 8 p.m. March 8 in the Elliott Hotel here to discuss officiating problems in 5-A.

A special committee representing schools in the district will meet in Kermit March 8.

Patterson said he will call a joint meeting of the two groups later to bring out solutions to the problems. He will attend all meetings.

Big Squad For Track

More than 80 track hopefuls got in their first laps at Memorial Stadium track Tuesday afternoon. Coach Tugboat Jones was pleased with the big turnout.

Tuesday's session was confined to jogging and practicing starts. No heavy work will be ordered until the boys are in shape for it.

Harrie Smith, a track letterman, turned out Tuesday but won't be ready to start drilling on the high and low hurdles for several days. A recent illness has slowed him down in athletics.

However, Smith is counted on to form a key part of the track and field team. In addition to the hurdles, he probably will take a heat in the relays.

Recd. Gilmore, Ralph Brooks, Robert Keating, Dwane Bush, Roy Kinsey, Jack Burris, Larry Friday, Dan Black and L. C. Thomas are others who show promise.

Holy Cross Notches 26th Victory; Near Record Win Streak

NEW YORK —(AP)—The pressure gets stronger and stronger; nevertheless Holy Cross keeps on winning.

The nation's only unbeaten major college basketball team won its twenty-sixth straight game Tuesday night by smacking Boston College 71-63.

It was the Crusaders' twenty-third in a row this season, plus a carryover of three from last year.

Coach Garrin Beauchamp had his entire baseball team on the track for conditioning. He worked the pitchers and catchers for an hour following the track session.

Jimmy O'Neal, Bill Medart and Freddie Bilbo may make the hurling staff.

Several lettermen from last season's diamond squad will be back but the infield will have to be revamped. A catcher also is needed since Ronnie Eschell suffered a leg injury, benching him for the season.

The feature attraction sends Midland's talented Rotary Engineers against an equally rugged team of Seagraves Independents. The two outfits scrapped to a draw in a regulation game at Seagraves recently and an overtime period was needed to settle the issue. Rotary won by two points.

Bauer Sisters Miss Medalist Roles In Two-Ball Trial Run

ORLANDO, FLA. —(AP)— Match play eliminations started Wednesday in the International Mixed Two-Ball golf tournament, which provided a couple of surprises in Tuesday's qualifying round.

Marilyn Smith of Wichita, Kan., and Herb Smith of Gary, Ind., shot a six-under-par 65 which tied the favorite couple for low medal score.

Favorites Louise Suggs of Lithia Springs, Ga., and Toney Penna of Cincinnati narrowly missed setting a new tournament record.

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore and Bill Goldbeck of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., were next with 68. Two teams tied at 69, Ann Sparrow of Tampa and Bill Jellise of Denver, and Alice Bauer of Midland, Texas, and Al Besselink of Detroit.

Marlene Bauer, woman athlete of 1949, and her partner, home Professional Denny Champagne, had 71. It was the first time in three weeks on the Florida circuit that neither of the Bauer girls was in a medalist role.

Court Throws Out Texas Cotton Suits

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The suit of ten South Texas farmers against the government's 1950 program of administering the cotton quota law was dismissed Tuesday in U. S. District Court.

The Texas cotton growers had asked an injunction against Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan to keep the 1950 allotments from going into effect.

The judge's ruling left congressional action the recourse of cotton farmers who feel they were not given proper credit for war crops in the allotments.

The decision means Carter and Mrs. Douglas are entitled to seats on the committee.

Labor Leader Hurls Pay Cutter Charge At Highway Panel

AUSTIN —(AP)—A Texas State Federation of Labor official Wednesday accused the Highway Commission of acting as a "wage standard breaker in El Paso County."

The charge was made by Paul Sparks, state executive secretary of the federation.

His statement was based on Tuesday's commission decision which in effect denied organized labor's claim that the prevailing wage rates for highway work in the El Paso area should run from 85 cents to $2.25 per hour.

A wage scale of 75 cents to $1.625 per hour has been adopted by the commission.

It appeared likely the labor federation was paying the way for a court suit against the minimum wage levels set by the commission for road work throughout the state.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

Channel swimmer extraordinary was Gertrude Ederle, left, who became the first woman to make the treacherous 19-mile swim in 1926. Hopeful aspirant of 1930 is 17-year-old Shirley May France of Somerset, Mass., right. "Trudy" Ederle gained fame and fortune when, at age 19, she swam the Channel in a record 14 hours and 31 minutes. The welcome given this daughter of a New York butcher on her return home surpassed, "in numbers, noise, spontaneity and variety," any reception ever given by the big city to a distinguished visitor. After the mid-twenties, public interest in Channel swimming died out, but was revived with a bang in 1949, when Shirley May France announced she would tackle the Channel. Unsuccessful last year, she will try again this Summer.

Young Britisher Predicts Socialist Win In England

By ERIC W. SORENSON

(Sorensen, a native Britisher, left England January 7, to make his home in the United States. He arrived in Midland February 12 to visit friends, and since has accepted employment here.)

The year 1945 was an eventful one in world history. The years of suffering and striving were over, humanity looked to the dawn of a new future with renewed hopes. Once again the spirit of freedom-loving nations had conquered the forces of might.

To the people of England, however, the cessation of hostilities meant more than just another victory over evil. To them it meant the end of their coalition government, which so successfully had brought them through the dark days of the war—it meant the choice of new rulers at a general election. The choice was not an easy one. They had to choose between socialism, with the so-called "welfare state" and regimentation of the individual, and conservatism and private enterprise.

Chosen By Destiny
The result of that election is well known. Winston Churchill, the man chosen by destiny to defend his country so gallantly in the hour of its greatest need, was rejected. In his stead was elected the myth of the welfare state, with its bright but empty promises for the future. They have been years of bitter disillusionment and despair. The greatest happiness of the greatest numbers has become the greatest misery of the greatest numbers.

On Thursday the same choice again will be before the English people. Will they again choose to be mis-ruled by waffled idealists or will they elect their wartime leader, perhaps the greatest Englishman that has ever lived?

To prophecy is dangerous, more especially in view of the unexpected results of the last election in the United States, but if the situation is regarded in the light of cold logic, it would appear that the Socialists, or Labor Party as they choose to call themselves, will be returned to power.

Chaotic Scene
To one who surveys the chaotic scene from a comfortable distance of a few thousand miles, this may seem a little strange. Why then, has socialism gotten such a grip on the country? Briefly, the reasons are as follows:

Firstly, socialism must be regarded as a disease, a cancerous growth that spreads and attacks the will of the individual, affecting not only his ability, but indeed his desire to think and act for himself. The spirit of obtaining something for nothing is attractive, but nevertheless it is a rotten and demoralizing spirit. It is also a myth and a mathematical impossibility. It is the tempting bait, the poisoned berry of socialism to which the Conservatives have no effective reply. Churchill can only offer the distasteful medicine of "blood, toil, tears and sweat" to cure that lethargic disease. To the diseased and misguided mind, the pains of illness often are more acceptable than the administration of bad-tasting medicine.

Secondly, the Conservatives lack a really positive policy. They proclaim their intention to de-socialize as much as is possible—to destroy rather than to construct. That is neither an attractive policy or a vote-winning policy. Most mortals are not in favor of a policy which advocates the payment for goods and services which hitherto have been free, or at any rate apparently so.

Churchill Is Popular

There is no personality more popular in England today than Winston Churchill. Nevertheless, it is probably true that no person is more greatly feared by the working class than Winston Churchill. They fear, quite unjustifiably, that he will implement the threat of unemployment as an incentive to harder work and greater production. At the moment there is a shortage of labor in the English market—unemployment is practically non-existent. A man fired today is hired tomorrow. The "Socialists" proclaim "work for all" and swing, firstly to the vast post-war reconstruction program, and secondly to the hundreds of thousands of clerks unproductively employed in the filling in and stamping of unnecessary forms. They have retained successfully their policy of the possible slowing down in post-war reconstruction and the wholesale dismissal of bridges of white collar workers should the conservatives be elected, deters many from casting an anti-socialist vote.

Three Parties

Finally the fact that there are three parties contesting the election will without doubt affect the chances of conservative candidates. The Liberal Party, who themselves are violently anti-socialist and not far removed from conservatism, whilst admitting that they have not the slightest chance of being returned to Parliament, stubbornly refuse to withdraw and allow the Conservatives to poll all the anti-socialist votes. As it is there will be an overwhelming anti-socialist vote,

Adopted Duck's Feed Is Deductible Item

SCARSDALE, N. Y.—If you adopt a duck, the bird's board bill is "de-duck-tible" on your income tax.

That's a feature claimed by the Scarsdale Audubon Society for its "foster parents" plan for wild ducks.

It seems that thousands of hungry ducks cluster in winter time on the cold banks of Bronx River from Mount Vernon to Valhalla, N. Y. To help pay for feed for the fowls, the society has been letting them out for adoption at 50 cents, or more, per duck. Society President Cyril V. Miller said more than enough money to feed the flocks for the rest of the winter now is available.

Some 500 persons, from throughout the country, from London, Paris and Canada, have contributed. Each got a foster-parent "duck-ument."

Dr. Charles Goodman, New York dentist, also is a book collector. Some of his customers are authors, including Christopher Morley. When they come to him for a filling they must also be prepared to autograph their books for him.

Funds Are Needed In War On Heart, Blood Vessel Diseases

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

High blood pressure and hardening of the arteries are two dangerous enemies of health. Not only are these conditions serious in themselves, but they also affect the heart and therefore, can be grouped among the serious heart and blood vessel diseases.

Hardening of the arteries is caused by gradual deposits of calcium in the walls of these blood vessels. It is what causes the deposits of calcium is not known, but they do occur in the older years. These deposits of calcium decrease the elasticity of the blood vessels and this, in turn, increases the resistance to a flow of blood. As a result, the heart has to work harder and people with advanced hardening of the arteries, or arteriosclerosis, therefore are liable to failure of the heart and to high blood pressure.

The deposits of calcium do not take place in all the arteries at the same rate. If, for example, they develop seriously in the blood vessels of the heart itself, angina pectoris or coronary thrombosis are likely. If they are in the arteries of the legs, the circulation to the legs is lessened and a person may develop severe pains in the calf muscles after walking a little.

Unfortunately, as yet there is no thoroughly satisfactory treatment for arteriosclerosis. What can be done depends largely on what arteries are involved and to what degree this has taken place. Consequently, the outlook for health and for life varies a great deal in people with hardening of the arteries.

Arteriosclerosis is, as I mentioned, one of the causes for high blood pressure, but it is by no means the only one. In some cases diseases of the kidneys can produce high blood pressure, and there are a number of other known conditions which will cause hypertension. One of these usually is known as essential hypertension. This is a form of high blood pressure the causes of which are poorly understood at the present time.

Difficult To Treat
Because its origins are unknown, its treatment is also not entirely satisfactory. Some people seem to have been successfully treated with diet, particularly one low in salt, of which the well-known rice diet is one form. In others diet does not seem to have been of much help but giving substances which cause a fever may be useful.

In hardening of the arteries as well as in different forms of high blood pressure, it is important to carry out investigations which will discover the cause or causes, try to develop new methods of preventing their appearance, and develop treatments which will bring better results than any which are so far available. To do these things will take brains, equipment, and money. None of these are in excess supply, but it is only in this way that we can ever expect to conquer these serious conditions of the blood vessels. Anyone can help in this battle by supporting the campaign of the American Heart Association.
