

C-SW Kent Wildcat
Develops Oil Shows
In Pennsylvania

Barnsdall Oil Company and Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 Spires, Central-Southwest Kent County wildcat, six and one-half miles north of the Cogdell-Canyon field, developed some shows of oil and gas in a Pennsylvania lime at 6,760-6,800.

Those shows came during a three-hour drill test. Gas flowed at the surface in 39 minutes. The gas volume was at the rate of 150,000 cubic feet per day.

No fluid came to the top while the tester was open. Recovery was 985 feet of fluffy, heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud, with no signs of water.

Gravity 39 Degrees

Gravity of the oil was 39 degrees. Some observers estimated the fluid to have been 60 per cent oil. Others say the mud was about 10 per cent oil.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 385 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes was 2,820 pounds.

It is understood that operators plan to continue the test. This exploration is 3,300 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 22, block 4, H&GN survey, and six miles northeast of Poliar.

Operator representatives have not officially identified the lime which developed the petroleum indications. Some geologists think it is probably Strawn.

When 11 stands of the drill pipe remained to be pulled from the drill stem test at 6,760-6,800 feet, fluid was unloaded from the top three of those 11 stands. It was a part of the 985 feet of oil and gas cut mud which constituted the total recovery from the test.

Crockett Test Sprays
Distillate-Cut Mud

More signs of petroleum were developed at Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Clayton, Southeast Crockett County wildcat, nine miles southeast of Ozona.

Those shows came in a drill stem test in the Ellenburger at 8,567-8,595 feet. The tool was open four hours. No water cushion was used. Gas showed at the surface in 10 minutes. Minimum gas volume was at the rate of 250,000 cubic feet per day.

After the tool had been open one hour and five minutes, a very light spray of distillate cut mud appeared at the surface.

That had changed to a spray of mud cut distillate at the end of the test. Recovery was 1,320 feet of gas and distillate cut drilling mud. There were no signs of formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was 200 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure, after 15 minutes was 3,830 pounds.

The venture is to core deeper. It is 1,320 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 12, block GC, G&SF survey.

Top of the Ellenburger is at 8,489 feet, which is on a datum of minus 6,000 feet. The section of the Ellenburger between 8,494 feet and 8,567 feet had shown between two and one-half and three and one-half million cubic feet of gas with very little shows of oil or distillate.

Magnolia No. 2 Parks
Continues Drilling

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2 Parks, discovery in Central-West Midland County for flowing production of 23.38 barrels of 44.6-gravity oil in two hours, through a five-inch bottom hole choke from section at 10,398-10,468 feet in the Pennsylvania lime, is making hole below 10,701 feet in lime and shale.

The project has not reported logging any further signs of pay since going below 10,468 feet. The pay section at 10,398-10,468 feet showed a gas volume of 485,000 cubic feet per day.

This exploration took an electric log survey when total depth was at 10,690 feet. Some sources had reported that operator would stop drilling at that point and plug back to 10,468 feet and set a liner and make a production test of the section above that point.

That report appears to have been in error—at least for the time being. The wildcat was originally started to dig to about 13,500 feet to explore the Ellenburger.

Location of this prospective field opener is 11 1/4 miles southwest of the city of Midland and 660 feet from north and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 10, M. Daugherty survey.

Offset In SE Terry
Runs Low To Opener

Time Water Associated Oil Company No. 1 Tapp, northwest offset to the discovery well of the Nystel-Silurian log in Southeast Terry County, has topped the Spraberry of the Permian six feet low to the same operator's No. 1 Nystel, opener of the pool.

Top of the Spraberry on the No. 1 Tapp has been picked at 7,450 feet. On a drill stem test in that formation at 7,440-7,527 feet, recovery after 30 minutes was 30 feet of mud with no shows. There was a weak blow of air, which died after five minutes.

The venture was last reported to be cutting below 7,858 feet in lime (Continued on Page 11)

Millions Say Prayers For World Peace

By The Associated Press
It's an old story, and most people heard it when they were so young it seemed like just another story, but it was a story they would never forget. And especially Friday, they were remembering it.

All over this land, and in countries across the seas, Christians paused to give renewed homage to the Man of Galilee who on this day 19 centuries ago died on a wooden cross on a hill outside Jerusalem.

There were special prayers on the lips of many Friday, and sermons from high prelates and from country preachers. They were ceremonies, and candle-lightings, processions and plays and heads bowed together.

Business houses in many cities ordered their doors closed, at least for the period of special devotion from noon to 3 p.m.—the hours of Christ's passion.

In Rome, thousands of Holy Year pilgrims knelt in reverence in St. Peter's Basilica, the world's largest church. In Jerusalem, other pilgrims filled through battle-scarred streets on their Good Friday march over the route Christ took to the crucifixion.

Jerusalem jammed
The ancient city was jammed with travelers from all parts of the world—Roman Catholics, Protestants and Eastern orthodox followers alike—all there for the observance of Holy Week.

Friday night, a burial procession will wind through the dark and narrow streets of the Via Dolorosa, past the 14 "Stations of the Cross" where Christ paused on his way to Calvary. At the Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S., said in an annual Holy Week message that Christians should find in Christ's death the "redeeming and conquering love of God which brings life; gift of hope."

Remembering the "heroism and self-sacrifice of Calvary," he said, Christians "will view our distraught and fearful world with open eyes, and in compassion to the will of God, strive to do something about it."

Easter Fires To Burn Again This Year In Fredericksburg Hills

FREDERICKSBURG, TEXAS.—(P)—The Easter fires will burn again in the hills around Fredericksburg on the eve of Easter—as they have for more than 100 years.

The fires, and the legend that the Easter rabbit cooks his eggs over them and then dyes them with wild flowers, constitute Texas' most unusual Easter tradition.

In 1846 colonists here traveled to the headwaters of the San Saba River to make a peace pact with the Hill Country Indians. But Indian scouts feared trickery and kept watch on the colony. They used smoke signals from fires on the hills to transmit messages to their chief.

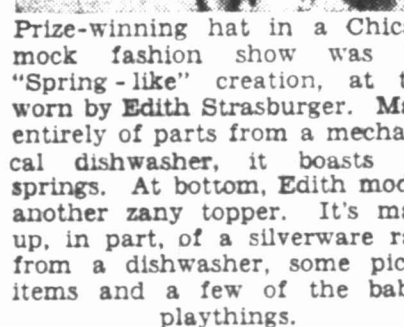

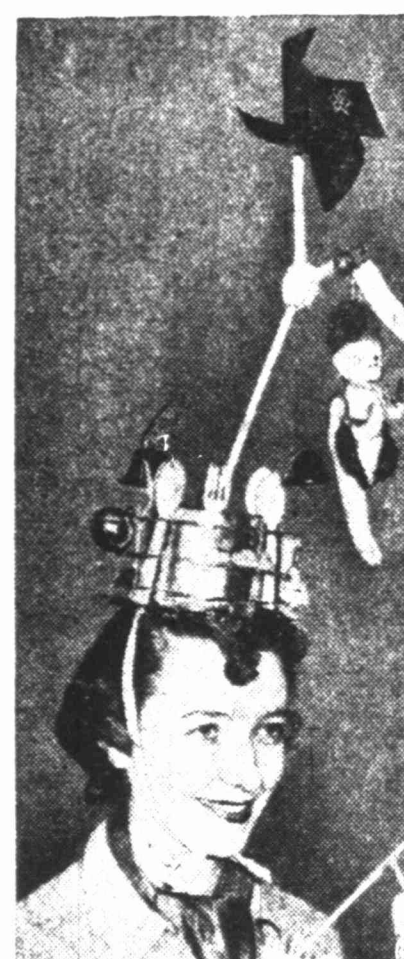

The fire-frightened children of the colony, one mother, fearing an Indian massacre if the children were not quieted, recalled tales of her old German home, where they were told fairies danced on a mound, about fires, certain nights.

She told her children the fires had been built by the Easter rabbit who was cooking his eggs in great kettles while the little rabbits scampered about gathering wild flowers to dye the Easter eggs. Soothed by the story, the children fell asleep.

The fires have been lighted on Easter Eve ever since. Saturday night, Boy Scouts, church and school groups and descendants of families which saw the first fires will kindle the fires in the hills. A pageant with a cast of more than 300 will enact the century-old story, to which some elaboration has been added. It is built around a great lighted cross visible for miles through the hills at night.

Each year thousands of spectators drive through the winding hill roads to see the fires. The children are told to watch carefully if they are to see the rabbit stir the kettle or heap flowers over the eggs to attain a new color for the Easter eggs.

Accused Mercy Slayer Found Guilty Of Manslaughter

ALLENTOWN, PA.—(P)—Harold Mohr Friday was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter in the mercy-killing of his cancer-wracked brother.

The jury of eight men and four women recommended mercy. Judge James F. Henninger said Thursday such a recommendation is not mandatory on the court. The maximum term for voluntary manslaughter is 12 years in prison.

Mohr stood to hear the sentence with no visible display of emotion. He stared, dully, at the floor.

The verdict was returned at 9:55 a.m., an hour and 25 minutes after the jurors resumed deliberations. Five hours of study Thursday failed to bring forth a verdict.

The jurors had a choice of four verdicts—first or second degree murder, voluntary manslaughter or acquittal.

Defense Counsel Harry C. Creveling promptly made an oral motion for a new trial. Judge Henninger did not sentence Mohr pending the appeal.

District Attorney Kenneth H. Koch had asked the jury to convict Mohr to "bring mercy killings to a halt."

Mechanic Admits Gruesome Slaying

HOUSTON.—(P)—Lupe Vasquez, 39, an unemployed mechanic, told officers he stomped a 20-year-old girl in the stomach and head, then set fire to her dress when he saw she was still alive.

"I took my cigarette lighter and put fire to her dress and I saw some rubber inner tubes and picked some of them up and threw on her to make the fire burn," Vasquez said in a signed statement.

He was arrested and charged with murder Thursday night soon after Miss Hernandez was identified by a friend who recognized some jewelry found near the body.

Capitol Cool Toward Boost In Jobless Pay

WASHINGTON.—(P)—President Truman got a mixed and uncertain reception in Capitol Hill Friday for his new proposal to (1) blanket 6,000,000 more workers under employment insurance and (2) pay bigger benefits to the jobless for a longer time.

Truman cited an average of almost 4,500,000 unemployed this year and said prompt action is urgent.

Democratic leaders were not enthusiastic at the prospect of putting the plan through Congress this year, however, and some Republicans signaled that they are ready to do battle against it.

In a special message to Congress from Key West, Fla., the President asked:

1. A $30-a-week nationwide minimum in jobless pay, plus additional money for dependents, with these payments forthcoming for each unemployed person, if needed, for 26 weeks.

2. That taxes on employers be increased to carry the enlarged program.

The 6,000,000 new workers blanketed under the program, if it is approved, would bring the total covered workers to about 36,000,000.

The newly insured would be employees of firms with fewer than eight workers, also civilian employees of the federal government, about 500,000 persons who work on a commission basis, and 200,000 in industrial work connected with agriculture—all now exempt.

"Another Grab For Power"
Republicans began blasting the program as soon as it hit Capitol Hill.

Representative Arends (R-Ill.) said: "This is an admission by the President that hard times and serious unemployment are in the offing as the result of the Truman program."

Said Representative Brown (R-Ohio): "Another grab for power! This is strictly a CIO program."

House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts immediately introduced a bill embodying the President's suggestions, and some Democrats gave statements agreeing with the President on the need for such legislation.

But the men who must handle the bill if it gets anywhere were non-committal.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means Committee said: "We've got our hands full trying to write a tax bill. I don't suppose anybody wants us to drop the tax bill now and take up something else."

Grand Jury Returns Eight Indictments

A 70th District Grand Jury returned indictments in eight cases Friday as it wound up its first session for the April court term.

The jury was excused at noon Friday, subject to call by Judge Paul Moss.

Indictments include one for murder, three for burglary, three for theft and one for forgery.

Clearing Skies Dim Hopes For Showers

By The Associated Press
Hopes of April showers to wet down thirsty Texas fields faded Friday as overhanging clouds thinned out and climbed higher in the skies.

Forecasters of scattered showers for Thursday night and Friday morning failed to materialize. No rain was reported in the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a.m. Showers were held in prospect for Saturday only in the extreme northeast portion of the state.

Winds which stirred up dust in the Panhandle and South Plains Thursday afternoon died down at nightfall.

A new cool wave was expected to move into the Panhandle Friday night.

Air Searchers Find Wreckage Of Plane Near San Angelo

SAN ANGELO.—(P)—Air search parties from Goodfellow Air Force Base here and Biggs Field Air Force Base at El Paso sighted the wreckage of a T-6 trainer plane Friday about two and one-half miles northeast of San Angelo.

The plane had been overdue at Goodfellow Field since 3:30 p.m. Thursday. The pilot's name was not released immediately.

The Midland Police Department had been alerted early Friday to search for the plane.

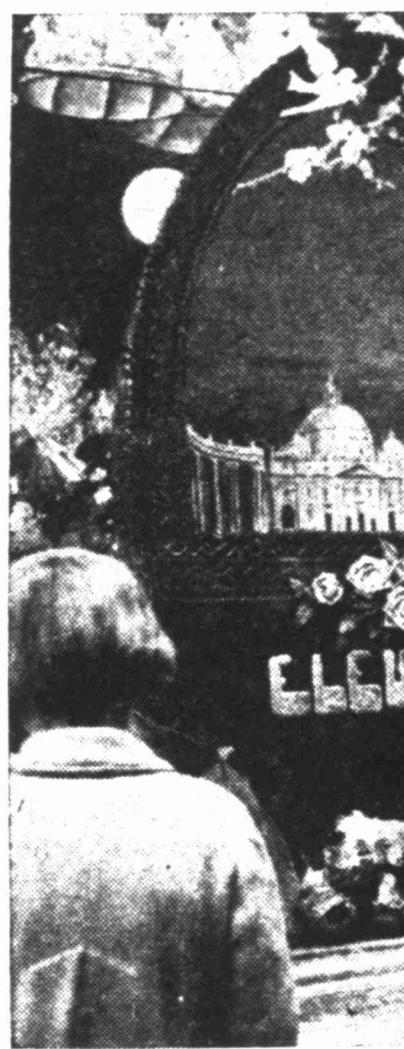

A police report here said the plane last was seen over Sweetwater and return to San Angelo.

Goodfellow sources indicated the plane was piloted by a student on a solo flight to Big Spring. Sweetwater and return to San Angelo.

Dulles Appointment To Strengthen U. S. Hand In Cold War

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson and his new Republican adviser, John Foster Dulles, will meet soon to decide on the specific foreign policy problems Dulles will tackle.

This was disclosed by Acheson Thursday night in a statement which also announced that Ambassador at Large Philip C. Jessup will lead an advance party to Europe for the diplomatic conferences to be held in London next month.

These conferences will bring together Acheson, British Foreign Minister Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman for talks on the cold war strategy of the major Western powers and the foreign ministers of the 12 North Atlantic Treaty nations for an effort to broaden the practical aims of their alliance.

State Department officials expressed confidence that as a result of the appointment of Dulles as Republican consultant to Acheson, the American secretary will go into the London meetings in a much stronger position than seemed likely a few weeks ago. This will be due, they said, to what they called the new evidence of a determination by leaders of the Truman Administration and foreign policy leaders of the Republican Party to run this country's foreign policy on a bipartisan basis.

One of the underlying fears of America's cold war Allies always has been that domestic political rifts or party differences over major foreign questions might produce some sudden twist in U. S. policy and leave other nations out on a limb.

The statement which Acheson issued Thursday night after clearance with President Truman showed this lineup among his principal policy advisers:

1. Jessup, who is on leave from Columbia University, eventually will return to the university and "be subject to a possible successor is under consideration."

2. John Sherman Cooper, former Republican senator from Kentucky, is to serve with Acheson temporarily, as consultant in connection with the forthcoming London meetings.

3. Dulles will serve in the State Department as a consultant "on broad problems in the field of foreign affairs and on specific lines of action which this government should follow. It is not planned for him to participate in the London meetings."

Woolworth Building Damaged By Blaze

NEW YORK.—(P)—Fire swept part of the twenty-third floor of the Woolworth Building early Friday, and flames from the windows could be seen for miles.

Firemen carried hoses in elevators to the twenty-third floor and rigged them to standpipes. Two pipes burst, and heavy water damage was caused in the 60-story skyscraper.

Two workmen were overcome by smoke, and a fireman was injured slightly.

The fire was discovered shortly after 1 a.m. in the executive offices of the F. W. Woolworth Company, owner of the building on Lower Broadway.

The northwest portion of the twenty-third floor was gutted before the fire was under control at 2:30 a.m. Dense smoke seeped into other floors. Origin of the blaze was not determined immediately.

About 100 employees fled from the 39-year-old building, once New York's highest structure and a mecca for sightseers for many years.

Fire Damages Truck On Tex-Harvey Lease

A fire broke out at 2 a.m. Friday on the Tex-Harvey Oil Company Lease on the Floyd Ranch 25 miles southeast of Midland.

Midland firemen who answered the call said a truck was damaged heavily. More than 900 gallons of water were used in extinguishing the blaze.

It was the second fire in the last few months at that site.

Visitor From Kenya Colony Likes Midland; 'Might See Oil Well'

By DALMON McNAIR
A 20-year-old college student from East Africa, currently visiting Independent Oil Operator John I. Moore here, has found West Texas sunshine comparable to that in his native Kenya Colony.

He is Abdul Ghafor Sheikh, a student of Dartmouth College, in New Hampshire, who is taking a short vacation from his studies in order to get a glimpse of the United States.

Sheikh, a member of a prominent Moslem Indian family, is in his second year of study in the United States. He recently completed speaking engagements at Ann Arbor, Mich., and Austin College, at Sherman.

A close friend of Moore since the two were introduced by a mutual acquaintance two years ago in the New York Explorer Club, Sheikh telegraphed Moore Monday that he was coming to West Texas. He arrived by plane Thursday night.

What has he found in West Texas? Some of the friendliest people in the world, a wonderful climate, and a country similar to his own.

Abdul's family holds large interests in ranching, mercantile and furniture stores, leather tanning, lumber and import and export businesses in Kenya. Most of the profits go to the Sheikh Charitable Trust which promotes the homeland in his both educational and economically. His brothers, two going to Switzerland and one in India.

Yucca Club Compiles Box Of Suggestions

A "suggestion box" was filled during the business session of the Yucca Garden Club which met Thursday morning with Mrs. Nelson Puett. In it, members put their suggestions for officers for next year as well as the lists of the things they would like to do, what programs and committees they would care to be on, and when and if they would like to entertain other members.

From the suggestions turned in at the meeting, the Executive Board will prepare a slate of officers which will be presented for a vote at the next meeting, April 20.

Plans for the Yucca members' part in the convention of District 1, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., were discussed.

Guest Speaker
C. W. Green, Midland County Agricultural agent, was a guest speaker and discussed "Pest Control." He said some insects are beneficial and therefore no attempt is made to control them. Among these are the lady bug and the wasp.

Green said the three types of pest control are legislative—moving out plants—physical—the heat and cold of the weather—and chemical—poisons which kill the bugs.

The flower arrangement was brought by Mrs. Otis Baggett and was of pink and fuchsia crab apple branches arranged in a blue boat shaped pottery bowl.

Other members attending the meeting were Mrs. W. H. Black, Mrs. John S. Braun, Mrs. C. M. Dunagan, Mrs. R. E. Gillespie, Mrs. J. A. Koehler, Mrs. B. R. Mathews, Mrs. J. Guy McMillan, Mrs. Henry F. Mrs. Wallace announced that In-Ai Yang, a student from Seoul, Korea who is doing graduate work at Vanderbilt University on an Altrusa Club scholarship, will visit the Midland club shortly before she sails for her home in mid-June. Altrusa Clubs of the Seventh District, in which Midland is located, gave the scholarship which has enabled her to continue her study of nursing and hospital administration and members of the club here have sent gifts to the student and written to her.

Maurine Mims, Nettie Romer and DeAlva Brewer were appointed on the nominating committee to present a slate of officers for the annual election late in May.

Critical Gap In Senate

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg's recent proposal for a non-partisan commission to study foreign policy points up how sorely missed in the Senate these days is the voice of the Republicans' leading foreign affairs spokesman.

Presumably ill health will compel Vandenberg to keep to the sidelines most of the time from now until his term expires in 1952. He does not intend to run again.

There's no doubt Vandenberg is the man who made the bi-partisan foreign policy a working formula in Congress. That service has been of inestimable value to the nation at a time in history when the United States needed to show a united front to a world plagued by communism.

Vandenberg uniquely was fitted for this role. He dedicated himself in recent years almost entirely to foreign issues. As a specialist he gained stature in the eyes of both parties. His remarks took on added weight because he was not constantly embroiled in the daily brawling on domestic questions.

Strangely, too, his influence seemed the greater because he was an isolationist before he was an internationalist. His colleagues felt in him something of the fervor of the convert. His dramatic shift, made in response to the realities of atomic and guided missile warfare, was the real beginning of his leadership in the Senate.

Within the Senate Republican group there developed a sort of division of labor. Vandenberg carrying the burden in the foreign field and Senator Taft piloting domestic policy.

Though many of his colleagues didn't go the whole way toward sharing his internationalist views, the Michigan senator often was eloquent enough to persuade them to follow him on key matters like the Marshall Plan and the foreign arms aid program.

Up to now no other Senate Republican has showed similar power to command the support of his party colleagues for a broadly internationalist foreign program. The internationalists in both parties, who constitute an overwhelming majority in the Senate, are regretful that no one is yet rising to take Vandenberg's place.

Hopes once had been pinned on Senator John Foster Dulles, veteran of many an international parley, but his defeat in New York last Fall dashed them.

Some talk of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts as a likely successor, but thus far he has not made great strides toward establishing himself as a foreign affairs leader.

It will be unfortunate if strong new leadership does not emerge to fill the gap Vandenberg is leaving. For the United States has not yet won the cold war. It still has great need of presenting to Europe and the rest of the world a single determined front.

Too many drunken drivers use the excuse that they didn't know they were loaded.

McKenney on Bridge. By William E. McKenney. America's Late Card Authority. Written for NEA Service. While it is true that you cannot always count on players at the table bidding their hands correctly, nevertheless there are certain sound principles which few players disregard.

Mr. Tolley. Mr. Tolley has a hand of cards: ♠A K 6, ♠K J 10 4, ♠A Q 9 2, ♣Q 3, ♣10 9 4, ♣2, ♣8 3 2, ♣J 10 8. He is playing a game of bridge.

Drop of the cards. First of all the spade overall on the part of East warned Tolley that he must have the king of clubs. Now watch Tolley's deduction in the play of the cards.

So at this point the queen of clubs was led. East was forced to win the trick with the king, and West's ten fell. East returned the ten of spades, which was won by declarer with the ace.

McCarthy Chagrined As Tydings Declares Lattimore No Spy

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Tydings' assertion that FBI records fully clear Owen Lattimore of "Communist spy" charges left Senator McCarthy completely dispirited Friday.

Tydings, Maryland Democrat, heads the Senate committee investigating the contentions of McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, that Lattimore is Russia's top espionage agent in the United States.

Lattimore, an American authority on Far Eastern affairs, Thursday spent more than three hours in the witness chair blasting at McCarthy's accusations. His sworn testimony boiled down to saying McCarthy had uttered "base and contemptible lies."

Then Tydings leaned back and faced Tydings across the table. And Tydings told him:

"I think, as chairman of this committee, I owe it to you and to the country to tell you that four of the five members of the committee, in the presence of J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, had a complete summary of your files made available to them."

McCarthy Fires Back. "Mr. Hoover himself prepared these data. At the conclusion of the reading of that summary, in great detail, it was the universal opinion of all the members of the committee present and all others in the room, of which there were two more, that there was nothing in that file to show that you were a Communist or ever had been a Communist, or that you ever were connected with any espionage information or charges."

"So that the FBI puts you completely, up to this moment at least, in the clear."

McCarthy, out of the hearing room at the time, later fired back to newsmen:

"Either Tydings hasn't seen the files, or he is lying. There is no other alternative."

Oklahoma Orders Overproduction Halt. OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Oklahoma oil operators who already have exceeded April's allowances have orders to halt production.

The directive was issued Thursday by Walker T. Pound, Corporation Commission conservation officer.

Submarine Service Plans Observance. NORFOLK, VA.—(AP)—The Submarine Service of the United States Navy will observe its fiftieth anniversary Tuesday, at a time when:

1. The submersible, a top strategic trump, is introducing decisions at political conference tables.

2. The "silent service" is getting top attention in our Navy's planning rooms.

And the Submarine Service, Atlantic Fleet Headquarters said Friday, is marking its anniversary "by being a past that saw it break the back of an enemy power's Navy and by girding for the potent future."

On April 13, 1900, migrant Irish Schoolmaster John Holland became the first pioneer in submarine development to see his craft accepted by the Navy.

Submarine squadrons, nestled alongside mother ships at Atlantic and Pacific bases, will observe the service's golden jubilee by preparing for coming war games.

Stanton Baptists To Open Revival Meeting. STANTON—The First Baptist Church of Stanton will open a revival meeting Sunday, with two services to be held daily through the following Sunday.

The series of meetings is being held in connection with the Evangelistic Crusade planned and sponsored by Southern Baptists.

The Rev. T. R. Hawkins, pastor, will do the preaching, and Thomas D. Risk of Fort Worth will direct the music.

The public is invited to attend all services.

Holy City Easter Pageant Expected To Draw 100,000

LAWTON—(AP)—The trumpeter's call and prayers for a peaceful world—under one God—will open the Wichita Mountains pre-dawn Easter services Sunday at nearby Holy City.

More than 100,000 persons of all faiths are expected on the gently sloping hills to observe Easter in their fashion and view the annual Pageant depicting the story of Christ.

A volunteer cast of 300 will present the four-hour religious program beginning at midnight with two hours of recorded spiritual music.

Pantomimers will act the story of Christ in 75 scenes on the huge amphitheater stage at the base of Mount Roosevelt and Mount Sheridan. The voices will come from other, concealed actors over powerful hidden loud-speakers.

Two hours of Biblical scenes—mostly from the life of Christ—will precede the "Passion Play" beginning at 4 a. m. It shows his conflict with the high priestly party, his refusal to compromise, his arrest, crucifixion and resurrection.

Ends Before Sunrise. This year's service—the twenty-fourth since it was founded by the late Rev. Mark Wallock and a group from the First Congregational Church here and the Methodist Park Union Sunday School—is timed to end 16 minutes before sunrise.

Holy City, 22 miles northwest of Lawton, is a reconstructed Jerusalem.

Money for that work—and for the once a year services—come from donations. It costs nothing to attend the services.

Officials think this year's services will be the most successful ever—weather permitting. Spring weather has been forecast.

Boy Nine, Shoots Sister, Seven, In Cops-Robbers Game

CHICAGO—(AP)—A seven-year-old girl was shot and wounded fatally by her older brother in a game of "cops and robbers" in their home Thursday.

Police said Theodore (Teddy) Pibolis, nine, admitted shooting his sister, Mary, with their father's .38 caliber revolver. They were playing the game with a younger brother and sister in their northwest side home while their mother was shopping. The father was at work.

Police said Teddy told them he had unloaded the revolver before the game started and later he reloaded the weapon. He said when he pulled the trigger he had forgotten the gun again was loaded.

Authorities said that under the law prosecution of the boy is barred. He was held by juvenile authorities pending an inquest.

Hagedorns To Give Surplus To Church

LOCKHART, TEXAS—(AP)—William Hagedorn, a German-speaking farmer who neither reads nor writes English, got back almost $2,000 above the amount taken from him in a court judgment over a surplus.

The 77-year-old man says the surplus will go to the church. Mr. and Mrs. Hagedorn were guests Thursday at a barbecue dinner given in their honor. District Judge John R. Fuchs, from whose court the default judgment was handed down, gave the Hagedorns a contributed purse of $4,583. It replaced $2,632 taken from them by court order.

"We appreciate and thank you all over Texas and every other state," said Hagedorn. "We hear collections more than we expect. What is more, we give it to the church."

Soon after the Pilgrims arrived in America, friendly Indians taught them to make all-leather moccasins which were exported back to England beginning with the middle of the 17th Century.

Distant Star BY HERMINA BLACK

THE WHOLE Clemency series young man to travel goes with Piers Amberley as he sets to be his last home in the North Atlantic. He is a busy executive of a firm which manufactures...

It was impossible for Clemency. She who was forced to watch the far side of the street. Piers Amberley's quick eye saw and the tightening of her husband's embrace as he deliberately drew her closer and held her his mouth against hers.

Then Jon released Syrie "Sorry I wasn't there to greet you wrong!" Piers told her. "I'd been out in the middle sun."

"He mentioned it. Are you all right?" Syrie was smiling at him now. "I was afraid you might be really ill when you didn't turn up at the airport."

"No! Far away Piers Amberley sat reading a magazine—very distinguished-looking in his orthodox black and white Jon was standing by the big record player. He looked less naggard in the shaded golden light of the lamps.

This room was as Eastern as the wall silver pillars again, but the walls of lapis and silver—the upholstery and hangings almost barbaric in their vivid hues. The witness of Syrie fitted into it—put the men in their perfect-cut clothes struck an alien note. And yet she felt that the picture before her ought to have been a perfect conversation piece—only there was no conversation.

VISION OF THE CROSS

A great stone cross rises from the rugged peak of a lofty mountain, and pious people often journey there to pray. As some devout women prayed, the cross suddenly seemed to be transfigured, and a bleeding figure appeared stretched upon its stony surface.

The suppliant stared in wonder, but the drooping figure lifted its head and said softly: "I suffered much for thee."

The vision vanished and the devout women went away strengthened in mind and soul. They had seen a vision of the Christ.

People who suffer for others are too often unappreciated. We do not see them in our visions and dreams. Yet millions of lives have been redeemed or have been blessed and strengthened because somebody loved them and suffered for them.

The Cross—glorified by Jesus—is the symbol of this suffering too. For those who bear the burdens of others, and suffer for their sakes, are His brethren and partakers of His sacrifice.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Good Luck

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, came walking along the Elephant Path. "Happy day, Huffen Puffen," Daddy Ringtail said in his happiest voice.

"Happy day to you, Daddy Ringtail," said the Huffen in a voice that wasn't happy at all. The Huffen explained the trouble he had been having. "I found a horseshoe. I did. I did," said he, "and that is how my trouble started." Oh, the Huffen didn't understand it at all, he didn't. A horseshoe brings good luck, people say, but bad luck—or unhappy things—had started to happen the very minute the Huffen picked up the horseshoe.

Why, he had found it on the Elephant Path, he had, and of course that wasn't happy at all. The Huffen explained the trouble he had been having. "I found a horseshoe. I did. I did," said he, "and that is how my trouble started." Oh, the Huffen didn't understand it at all, he didn't. A horseshoe brings good luck, people say, but bad luck—or unhappy things—had started to happen the very minute the Huffen picked up the horseshoe.

"Crash!" That was the noise that the horseshoe made when it crashed through the window of someone's house. Yessir, it looked like the Huffen shouldn't have thrown it, for there a someone threw it back at him. "Kerbong" it went against the Huffen's head.

Yes, and that was only part of the bad luck that happened. Back at home, the horseshoe fell on the Huffen's head "Kerbong" when he tried to nail it over his door. "Crash!" through the window was the noise it made when he tried to throw it away.

"Ooooooh!" said the Huffen as he thought about it all, for it had indeed been so much trouble. "And remember," said the Huffen, "a horseshoe brings good luck, it does, or at least that is what I have heard people say."

Well, Daddy Ringtail said he thought that people must be mistaken. A horseshoe doesn't bring good luck, or else the horse would never have lost it. Daddy Ringtail was right when he said it, too, because a zebra came along just then, looking for the shoe he had lost from his foot. He explained he had trouble with that old shoe because it wouldn't stay on. Have you found a zebra shoe lately? Happy day!

Training Camp Briefs

By The Associated Press
The exhibition baseball chatter Friday was mostly about pitching performances, including one by the $100,000 bonus baby, Paul Pettit. Pettit is the 18-year-old California lad recently acquired by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Paul was shipped to the Pirates' farm club, New Orleans. Just a few days ago he hurled five hitless innings against minor league opposition.

Thursday, he was sent in to pitch against major leaguers—the boss Pirates. Perhaps young Paul had a case of stage fright. At any rate before the first inning was over, he had given six runs. Three straight walks filled the bases. Pettit then allowed three singles, a double, a wild pitch and a balk with a double steal sandwiched in.

But Paul stayed in there for three more innings and, indicating he may yet prove his mettle, blanked by the major leaguers over that stretch. Pittsburgh won the game 10-7.

Mel Parnell, ace Boston Red Sox moundsman, showed the kind of form that won 25 games last year as he let down the Jacksonville Stars of the Sally League with no runs and four hits in a full route won by Boston 12-0.

Bob Kuzava, Chicago White Sox southpaw, came within a few inches of pitching a no-hitter against the Houston Texas League club. Chicago got only three hits in winning 2-0.

The lone bingle off Kuzava came in the fifth inning. Nick Adzick belted one down the left field foul line for a two-bagger, that barely stayed inside the white line.

The New York Giants also got an all-the-way pitching stint from their Sheldon Jones, who led his team to a 5-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Jones gave nine hits but never allowed Cleveland to bunt them.

The $58,281 purse of the 1949 Little Brown Jug at Delaware, Ohio, was a record for a pacing race.

Skee Riegel Takes Lead In Masters

AUGUSTA, GA. (P)—The stars of the fourteenth Masters Tournament field tried again Friday to break the spell of a championship course and find the way to glory on its rolling greens.

Only stocky Skee Riegel managed sub-70 shooting among the 65 golfers Thursday in the first round. Riegel celebrated his first major tournament try as a professional by firing a 69.

Just seven other golfers broke par 72, at the great Augusta National course, which has seen the best and conquered most of them.

Favorites Score High
Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, Horton Smith of Detroit, Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif., and Herchel Spears of Huntsville, Ala., got under par with 70's.

Little's Tony Penna of Cincinnati and Defending Champion Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had 71's. Johnny Palmer, the Badin, N. C. pro who was picked to win the Masters by fellow golfers, managed a round in par.

Many another great of golf was left with the kind of score hardly worth whispering about—Jack Burke, Jr., Lloyd Mangrum and Chick Harbert with 76's and Byron Nelson, Herman Keiser, Cary Middlecott and Herman Baron with 75's.

Ben Hogan and National Amateur Champion Charlie Cox tied with George Fazio at 73.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, APRIL 7, 1950-7

Ocee Indians Win; Ballinger Slated Here Friday Night

The Ballinger Cats visit Indian Park Friday for an exhibition game with the Midland Indians. Game time is 8 p.m. Manager Harold Webb has announced John Singleton, rookie right-hander, as the starting pitcher.

The Odesa Oilers play here Saturday night and the Berger Gassers are scheduled here Sunday afternoon.

By SHORTY SHELBURNE
Reporter-Telegram Sports Editor
Take away a bad sixth inning for the Midland Indians in which Oklahoma City scored 10 runs on one hit, and Thursday night's exhibition game between the two clubs at Indian Park would have been a thriller.

Oklahoma City, strutting its Texas League power at the plate and using Leland Crissman on the mound, whipped the Midland team 16 to 3. But it wasn't as bad as it sounded.

Ernie Nelson started for Midland against Crissman and matched him pitch for pitch for five innings. Nelson allowed only four hits and three runs.

Crissman was touched for four hits by Harold Webb's boys and gave up two runs.

Bad Sixth
Ralph Blair, in training only a few days, took over for Nelson and had control trouble. He walked four, hit one and gave up a bases-loaded homer to Mutchry. Three errors behind Blair put him in the hole.

LeRoy Jarl came on to replace Blair and showed plenty of stuff. He allowed seven hits and five runs but considering it was his first trip to the mound this season, he made a great showing.

Big Jarl has the easy motion of a big-time hurler and his control was 100 per cent.

Zeb Wicker finished for Oklahoma City and was touched for five hits and a run by Midland.

Lou Dawson was Midland's big stuffer with a double and two singles in four trips.

Jim Prince drove in two runs with a double and Charles Stephenson got an RBI with a timely single.

Seattle Officers Nab Alleged Jewel Bandit
DALLAS—(P)—Homicide Captain Will Fritz was notified early Friday that Seattle police have arrested Lester Emmett Bennett, wanted in Dallas on a charge of taking part in a $40,000 jewel robbery.

Also charged in the robbery are William Trent Jarrette and Thomas J. Schwartz.

Bennett and Jarrette are accused of ransacking the William W. Shortall home in the fashionable Lakewood section of Dallas after tying up two servants and locking Mrs. Shortall in a closet.

Schwartz, a Dallas pawnbroker, was charged as an accomplice.

Seattle police said they also were looking for a woman known to be Bennett's companion.

SPORTS SLANTS

by SHORTY SHELBURNE

This thing in baseball called a "balk" by the pitcher is due to produce more beefs this season than ever before in the history of the game.

Steve Sadowski, West Texas-New Mexico League umpire who winters in Midland, said a total of 14 balks were called in a game at Abilene last week.

The new rules which go into force this season make it very emphatic that a pitcher must come to a complete stop with his hands in front of him before delivering the ball.

We asked Sadowski and Umpire Red Eller how the hurlers in the Odessa-Midland exhibition game looked Wednesday night.

Both answered that Harold Wearie and Lefty Max Harris of the Indians were well within the rules on their deliveries to the plate.

They found no fault with the Odessa hurlers, either.

The two umpires were watching closely for a balk because they—along with all other minor league umpires—have strict orders from Commissioner George Trautman to start calling balks now—in exhibition games.

Mickey Burnett, Berger Gasser manager, yelled to the sports writer at Berger about Ernie Nelson's pick-off movement following Sunday's exhibition there.

Burnett says he believes Nelson balks.

He may believe it but there were a dozen umpires in the Longhorn League who didn't believe it last season. He just has a good, fast movement to first.

Witness his pick-off of two Berger players.

Clyde Perry, the former Indian who has been so prominent in the news this year while with the Dallas Eagles, took another big step upward Wednesday when he blasted Brooklyn Dodger pitching all over the park.

Perry laced a triple to the wall off the Dodger's negro ace, Don Newcombe, to drive in two runs and tie up the ball game in the third inning. He later hit another liner on which an outfielder erred and Perry got two bases.

Note to Crane football fans:
A worthy move is underway in your city. It's the proposed organization of a Quarterback Club to back the Golden Cranes during football season.

In addition, the Quarterback Club will be in sponsoring other sports in your city.

A strong club will mean a strong sports program for Crane. Join in and lend a hand.

Harold Webb found out two pleasing things in Thursday night's game with Oklahoma City.

Ernie Nelson showed he still can do a first-class job of pitching.

LeRoy Jarl showed enough that he can be singled out as the rookie most likely to land a starting pitcher's assignment. His stuff is good and his motion is easy. He is one of those pitchers who looks like he could throw forever without it hurting him.

And, he has masterful control.

Ten members of Oklahoma's starting eleven during 1949 were natives of Oklahoma.

Bulldogs Lose To Odessa

The Midland Bulldogs held the Odessa Bronchos to a 1-0 ball game for five innings Friday afternoon in Odessa, then let in three more to lose 4-0. It was the District 3-AA opener for both teams.

Bill Medart, fastballing right hander, stopped the Bronchos cold for three innings.

Pearson lofted a fly over the head of a Midland outfielder in the fourth and stretched it into a home run.

Three walks, two singles and an error after two were out in the fifth allowed three more Odessa runs.

Medart struck out seven and allowed six hits.

Jimmy Chauncey, with a double, led the Bulldogs at the plate.

Jerry Culp and Bill Grissett collected singles.

Culp and L. C. Thomas played outstanding ball in the outfield, each making a great catch to save more runs being scored.

The Bulldogs play the Lamesa Tornados in Lamesa Tuesday.

Judge Takes Child Actress Away From Her Foster Parents

HOLLYWOOD—(P)—You can take the child out of Hollywood, but can you take Hollywood out of the child?

Judge A. A. Scott, who proposes to find the answer to that one, Thursday made nine-year-old Actress Lora Lee Michel a ward of juvenile court. Temporarily taking the $100-a-day miss from her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michel, the judge said:

"The glamor is being taken out of this child. She must find out that she is not the center of attraction."

Lora Lee is leading a normal life at Juvenile Hall, playing with children her own age, said Judge Scott, and probation officers are seeking a suitable home for the child.

"She's improved beautifully just being with the kids in the hall," the judge said.

Lora Lee had run away from home and into the arms of juvenile authorities again.

He did not indicate how long the child will be kept a ward of the court, but the Michels' attorney, Oscar Cummins, said "I think there is no question that ultimately Lora Lee will be restored to the foster parents." They agreed to the court action. The Michels adopted Lora Lee in Texas in 1945.

Lora Lee told conflicting stories of mistreatment and starvation last January, which first brought her to court attention. Mrs. Michel, however, was acquitted of mistreatment charges March 24, after Lora Lee had run away from home and into the arms of juvenile authorities again.

never had visited the United States.

Since his first trip to the United States more than two years ago, Sheikh has been elected the New Hampshire delegate to the United Nations Collegiate Council. He was chosen last Summer. In his own words, he has found in the United Nations the last hope for doing public service on an international basis.

Sheikh, who may be qualified as a world traveler, has been on many big hunting expeditions. (His family's estate includes 250,000 acres of land harboring every type of game animal in Africa), pilot, (he has flown around the world twice), UN organizer and world student.

"May See Oh Well"

Abdul first studied at New York University, then transferred to Dartmouth in order to attend a smaller liberal arts school. He plans to complete undergraduate work in this country, and then? "I haven't decided. I may study in England, or stay in the United States to get my master's degree," he said.

Moore plans to show Sheikh around Midland and the Permian Basin Empire, introduce him to everyone possible (because Sheikh enjoys meeting people), and "I may even show him an oil well." Friday night the two will attend a program at the Petroleum Club in Midland.

Sheikh discounted reports he is on a speaking tour. "I just enjoy talking and hearing others talk. That is why I had the engagements at Ann Arbor and Austin Colleges." He said he particularly enjoyed his stay in Sherman, three days of it, and a one-day visit in Dallas before flying to Midland.

He is scheduled to leave in Dartmouth April 10, but his plans call for a few days in Detroit, where he has hopes of acquiring an American-made automobile.

Scouters To Hold Cooking Session

Scout leaders will hold another in their series of training meetings at 5 p.m. Monday in the Rotary Scout Hut at Maiden Lane and Lorraine Streets, according to Ed Pierce, chairman of the leadership training committee of the El Centro District.

The meetings are being held for Scout leaders, to improve organization and leadership, as a part of the national Scouters roundtable and training course.

Scheduled for the Monday session is a cooking period. Pierce said. Leaders attending will cook hamburger on a stick, Indian style chicken wrapped in aluminum foil, and will see a method for cooking on a hot rock, and a method of cooking a complete meal in a coffee can.

Course Follows Meal

The organization and leadership training period will follow the meal.

Scouters attending are asked to bring one-quarter pound of hamburger, two cups of corn flakes, one egg, one apple and one small onion.

Pierce stressed the fact that all Scouters—committees, Scoutmasters and assistant Scoutmasters—are urged to attend the meeting.

Young Germans Get Glider Pilot Training

BERLIN —(AP)—Soviet-occupied Germany openly embarked Friday on a program of training thousands of young Communists as glider pilots, despite a four-power ban.

Seven Japs Hanged For Killing Americans

TOKYO —(AP)—Seven Japs—convicted of killing a Texan and two other Yank airmen in 1945—were hanged Friday.

Their victims were Aviation Ordnanceman First Class Robert Tugle, Jr., Brownwood, Texas; Lt. V. L. Tebo, Pensacola, Fla., and Aviation Radioman First Class Warren H. Loyd, Forest Hills, N. Y.

Forty-one members of the Japanese Imperial Navy assigned to Ishigake Island, near Okinawa, where the torture and beheading of the airmen took place, originally were convicted. However, all the sentences were commuted except for the seven executed at Sugamo Prison Friday.

Indications Point To Wintry Easter

By The Associated Press

It looks like Winter garb will be appropriate in the Easter Sunday parade over much of the Eastern half of the country. And maybe in parts of the South, too.

The Weather Bureau isn't ready to predict the brand of weather the country may expect Sunday. But indications are there'll have to be lots of warming—soon—if the Spring togs are to be worn Sunday.

Friday's freezing line covered wide areas of the Midwest, the North-eastern states and into some sections of the South. The chilly air breezed into Southeastern Florida and sent the mercury to 45 in Miami, a record low for the date. That is shivering weather for Miami, where the top reading Thursday was only 63.

The cold air covered Alabama, Georgia, the Carolinas and it was colder north into the New England states. Temperatures were from 10 to 15 above in Maine and in the 20's over other Northeastern States.
