Atlantic Schedules Devonian Wildcat In N-C Crane Area

The Atlantic Refining Company is to start operations at once at its No. 1-L, University, which is to be a 9,000-foot wildcat to explore the Devonian in North-Central Crane County.

The venture is to be on a block of 1,440 acres for which Atlantic paid a $400,000 cash bonus at the last sale of oil and gas leases on University Lands.

It is to be 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 6, block 31, University survey. That makes it 20 miles northwest of the town of Crane.

The new wildcat is three miles west of the nearest oil wells in the University Company No. 1-C Alma, which has production from both the Devonian and from the Ellenburger.

New Cogdell Pay Is Flowing Crude

J. A. Chapman Producing Company No. 6 Cogdell, discovery of a new and shallower pay on the northeast side of the Cogdell-Carson field in Central-South Kent County, flowed 27 barrels of new oil in 30 minutes, through open tubing from perforated section at 4,966-30 feet, naturally.

Operators were to flow the well for 72 hours and then move off the drilling rig and complete.

This development is 2,052.5 feet from north and 2,703.6 feet from east lines of section 716, block 97, H&CO survey.

It is bottomed at 4,970 feet. The seven-inch casing is cemented at that point.

Some geologists think the zone making the oil is the Wolfcamp of the Permian. Others are inclined to the belief that it is Cisco, upper Pennsylvanian.

Three Tests Slated For NE Crockett

Three wildcats have been slated in Northeast Crockett County. The deepest of the group is Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-C Alma Cox, an Ellenburger venture to 9,000 feet.

The No. 1-C Cox is to be one mile north of the same operator's No. 1 Cox, recent Ellenburger failure which was plugged at 8,221 feet.

The proposed venture will be 760 feet from north and 660 feet from most westerly east lines of section 72, block OP, G&SFP survey, and three and one-half miles west of Ozona.

Two Shallow Tests

Stanfield & Cousin of Midland No. 1 University will be a cable tool wildcat to a projected depth of 1,800 feet.

It will be three-fourths of a mile east of the Midway Lane Ellenburger pool and 330 feet from south and west lines of section 27, block 45, University survey.

Six miles west of Ozona, Dalport Oil Corporation of Dallas propose to drill a 1,250-foot wildcat.

The cable tool operation will be the No. 1 Guy Clark Couch, 330 feet from south and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 98, block OP, G&SFP survey.

Magnolia Picks Site For Pegasus Project

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 3-B TXL is to be a new 13,900-foot exploration on the south side of the original Pegasus field in Central-North Upton County.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of the south half of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S. That makes it 2-3/8 miles west of Magnolia No. 2-3/8 Glass, recently completed flowing producer from the Ellenburger.

Operations are to start soon at the new development.

Honolulu To Deepen NE Yoakum Failure

Honolulu Oil Corporation proposes to re-enter a 5,510-foot abandoned wildcat in Northeast Yoakum County and deepen it to 6,500 feet to test the Upper Clear Fork zone.

The venture will be the Honolulu No. 1 Charles B. Towns 660 feet from north and west lines of section 382, block D, John H. Gibson survey, T-4-S. That makes it 2-3/8 miles west of Magnolia No. 2-3/8 Glass, recently completed flowing producer from the Ellenburger.

The project is 13 miles east of Plains and one-half mile northeast of Honolulu No. 1 Cobb, recently completed Upper Clear Fork discovery.

Upper Clear Fork Opened In Yoakum

Honolulu Oil Corporation has opened a new Upper Clear Fork pay in Northeast Yoakum County.

Its No. 1 Cobb has potential on the pump for 180 barrels of 23-gravity oil, plus 72 per cent water in 24 hours. The production test was made after two acid injections of 2,000 and 3,000 gallons.

The venture is bottomed at 11,662 feet in barren Ellenburger. Top of the upper Clear Fork pay is picked at 6,035 feet. Production is from perforations at 6,035-6,200 feet. Seven-inch casing is set at 7,802 feet.

Location of the opener of the suggested Cobb field is 1,980 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 381, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

General Rains Taper Off In Most Of State

The rains tapered off in Texas Friday after bringing relief to drought-stricken fields and pastures in many parts of the state.

Drizzles fell Friday morning in the plains area and south portions, but there was little prospect for further heavy showers. Skies were clear in the El Paso area and the clouds were broken in North Texas.

Reports of drizzle Friday morning came from Midland, Laredo, San Angelo, Junction, Big Spring, Victoria, Wink and Lubbock. Amarillo had early morning fog.

Rain totals for the 24 hours ended at 6:30 a. m. Friday included: Amarillo .15 inch, Austin .73, Big Spring .05, Houston .26, Corpus Christi .17, Del Rio .01, Fort Worth .25, Palestine .58, Galveston .25, Dallas .45, Lubbock .11, Ozona .74, San Angelo .70, Victoria .88, Clarendon .39, Childress .20, Lufkin .08, Bryan .54, Wink .10, Mineral Wells .30, Junction .40, Marfa .36, Tyler .40 and Dalhart .03.

Warmer Weather Due

Warmer weather was in sight for West Texas. Amarillo, in the Panhandle, reported the state's low Thursday night—35 degrees.

Hardly a county failed to get at least a sprinkle in Thursday's croppings rain. In the Northern Panhandle, light rain turned into snow. The heaviest rains—up to two inches and better—fell in a swath from Dallas and Fort Worth west to Big Spring. This included the areas of Denton, Cleburne, Abilene, Cisco, Lubbock, Central Texas, young with good rains included Hillsboro and Corsicana. In the Panhandle the rain was light.

Spring Gets Slow Start In Wide Area

By The Associated Press

It's mid-April and Spring, sweet, gentle, Spring is three weeks old, and acting like Old Man Winter.

The season of light showers, soft winds, budding trees and flowers and green grass is way off the climatic beam over many parts of the country.

In the Midwest, it might as well be winter. The Eastern states don't feel too hot about their brand of Spring weather, either. There's too much zing and sting in the air, much like the winter season variety.

Little Spring Fever

There's not much, if any, Spring fever in the belt hit by the unseasonable cold—from the Northern Plains, across the Great Lakes region and into the Middle and North Atlantic region. Some of the chilly air has seeped into Southern states, too.

Temperatures are far off normal. Snow is on the ground in many areas. Furnace fires are getting the same back-breaking attention as in mid-winter. Kids are following the calendar and playing baseball dressed like ski-riders. Snowplows remained necessary equipment in the Dakotas and sections of New England.

South Texas Favored

The freezing line hit into parts of the South with forecasts of readings of near 32 as far south as the Carolinas and Tennessee.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said cold air from Canada now extends over the eastern two-thirds of the country except for Florida and Southern Texas.

Temperatures were below freezing all day Thursday over much of the Great Lakes region, Eastern Indiana, Ohio and the Western parts of Pennsylvania and New York. The day's low was two below zero at Grand Forks, N. D. Many cities reported record low readings for the date. The high was 91 at Yuma, Ariz., with readings in the eighties along the Rio Grande Valley and in Florida.

More Rain; Two-Day Total Is .77 Inch

A drizzle of rain continued to fall intermittently Thursday night and early Friday in Midland and vicinity, adding more moisture to Wednesday night's total.

The C&A office at Midland Air Terminal reported .04 inch was recorded there during Thursday night. It brought to .57 inch the total for two days.

The gauge at the City Barn here showed .77 inch for the two-day total to 77 inch in the city.

An overcast prevailed Friday and the weather report said more rain is probable.

Defiant Lovers Hold Off Posse 12 Hours

QUEENSLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA

(AP)—A defiant pair of lovers—a 19-year-old youth and a 16-year-old girl—stood off a posse more than 12 hours before a Friday on a high plateau in the Northern British Columbia wilderness.

Police smoked the couple out of a lonely trapper's cabin with tear gas bombs but the two fled to the bush. The posse finally tracked them to a stony ridge, where a police bullet felled the girl as she prepared to open up a fusillade on the police. The girl was nicked in the leg.

The couple—Bert Lagace was the only one identified by police—holed up in the cabin 18 miles west of here after fleeing their Queensland homes Tuesday night and breaking into isolated wilderness cabins. This village is about 400 miles north of Vancouver.

Police had a warrant charging Lagace with abduction. They added, however, the high-school girl had fled with Lagace, her own will, defying her parents' orders to stay away from the youth.

The posse waited till dawn before attempting to rush the cabin. Then they met the Naval attaché, other officers and the girl shouted from the cabin to her father as he pleaded with her to come out: "I'll see you in hell first."

The boy yelled to police: "If you want me, you'd better bring a coffin."

WARSAW, POLAND—(AP)—The United States Embassy Friday sent 10 of its military staff personnel out of the country in accordance with a demand by the Polish government.

Discharged Soldier Shoots Three In Dallas Night Club

DALLAS—(AP)—A 19-year-old discharged soldier who wrote a note on a picture frame that "Tonight I'm going to kill," then shot three persons in a Dallas night club, was held in jail Friday.

He was captured by an off-duty detective, R. T. (Moon) Mullins, after an exchange of shots at the doorway to a small downtown hotel Thursday night.

The youth, who was discharged from the Army in the State of Washington March 27, was identified as Arthur W. Gittings of Bethlehem, Pa.

The man fired wildly into a crowd in the night club for no apparent reason. Kenneth Leon McRight, 25, of Dallas, was shot in the chest and spinal cord and may be paralyzed from the wound.

Guillermo Texeira of Lima, Peru, a Braniff International Airways employee, was shot in the chest and arm from a 19-foot Dallas, suffered an abdominal wound. Both were seriously but not critically wounded.

Has Strange Accident

Detective Captain Will Fritz said the youth worked up to the bar in the night club and sat down next to L. B. Deason who reported the man spoke with a strange accent and said he was from New Zealand.

Deason related the man moved to a table with Texeira where he pulled a gun and started firing wildly. Then he ran from the place.

Police pursued and Mullins, noting the man running down the street with a gun in his hand, chased him to the hotel where he was registered. The youth fired at the detective and Mullins fired back. The youth tried to shoot again but his gun jammed. Mullins then closed in and held the man until other officers arrived.

The officers were puzzled by the note found in his hotel room. It read: "Tonight, I'm going to kill. Who? I don't know. I have communicated with my superior as a deceased individual. I can't help myself."

'World Citizen' Forsakes Freedom

Following a romance by mail, self-styled "World Citizen" Garry Davis and Hollywood dancer Audrey Peters were married in a public ceremony witnessed and participated in—by about 500 persons. Friday they planned a second wedding—a civil ceremony, in private. Davis recently returned to the United States from Paris, where he had renounced his U. S. citizenship in order to become a citizen of the world.

Proposed Change Might Result In Selective Buying

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Railroad Commission was asked Friday to deviate from its policy of across-the-board changes in Texas crude oil allowables.

The request came from Humble Oil and Refining representatives who said the company would be short 18,486 barrels per day on its low cold test crude oil demand even if the commission grants an extra producing day in May.

U.S. Is Told 'Point Four' Insufficient

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The United States was challenged Friday to help bring about a "social revolution" in the "underdeveloped countries of the world."

President Truman's Point Four program is not enough, the American Academy of Political and Social Science was told by George Hakim, counselor of the Legation of Lebanon.

Hakim was one of a half-dozen speakers at a symposium on Point Four at the academy's fifty-fourth annual meeting.

The Point Four program, as conceived by the President, would supply U. S. economic know-how to the war-ravaged countries of the world. The President called it a "bold new program."

Hakim said the program is "too small to provide any effective contribution" to the economic development of poverty-stricken nations.

Masses Not Interested

The masses of the underdeveloped lands, Hakim said make up two-thirds of the world's population, "are not interested in concepts of free enterprise, free competition, democracy and human rights, x x x it is necessary first to live and not to starve," he asserted.

And, he said, Point Four imperiled places too great an emphasis on "great" (Continued on Page 12)

Truman Grants Full Pardon To Convicted Mayor

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman has granted a pardon to former Mayor James M. Curley of Boston, convicted of mail fraud.

White House officials announced his action Friday. They said details would be given out later from the Justice Department.

In 1947, Truman commuted Curley's six to 18 months sentence, releasing him from the federal prison at Danbury, Conn. Curley had served five months.

The pardon serves to restore all civil rights to Curley, a former Democratic Congress member as well as mayor of Boston.

Curley, now 75, was convicted of mail fraud by a federal district court jury here in January, 1947, along with two other former officials of Engineer Group, Inc.

Colorado River Projects Talked At Meeting Here

City and Chamber of Commerce officials Thursday night heard an informative discussion concerning the proposed Bureau of Reclamation water impounding project on the Colorado River near Robert Lee, by bureau engineers who came here to explain further the program which was announced last month.

Water from the proposed reservoir would be used in meeting the domestic needs of Midland and area cities.

City Manager W. H. Oswalt termed the meeting a fact-finding session. No action was taken at the gathering, which was held in the City Hall.

The Midland group also discussed this city's participation in the Colorado Municipal Water District, which proposes to build a dam on the Colorado River north of Big Spring to supply water to Midland, Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder. The district now includes Odessa and Big Spring, with Midland recently having been extended a final invitation to join in the project.

New Clue To Lost Navy Plane Raises Brief False Hopes

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK—(AP)—Equipment dropped by aerial searchers raised brief false hopes Friday of a clue to the U. S. Navy Privateer patrol plane missing with its crew of 10 since Saturday.

At 16 U. S. planes continued to comb the Baltic area, search authorities identified a piece of wood found by fishermen as part of a smoke-flare box, dropped last Wednesday when a searching B-17 pilot observed what he thought was a life raft.

An inscription in English on the gray wooden piece, half a yard long, earlier led Swedish naval authorities at the Karlskrona Base to believe it might be part of the missing plane.

Friday's search activities were hampered by thick fog rolling across the North Sea, although later in the day the misty blanket lifted slightly.

HOLLYWOOD — Closeups and Longshots: Andre Previn, MGM's young musical whiz, is about to hit the ripe old age of 21 without having dashed off a single sonata up in his attic to Ava Gardner, Lana Turner, Arlene Dahl or any other studio beauty. Texas Qualifies Near-Record Total To Vote In 1950

AUSTIN —(AP)—Politicians will have another big field of potential Texas voters to woo this year. State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert said Thursday that his count from county reports show 1,662,599 qualified voters with either paid poll taxes or exemption certificates. That is the second highest total in the state's history, even though it is more than 500,000 under the record-breaking 1948 presidential election year when 2,251,391 voters qualified. Last year—when no state races were on the calendar—the total was down to an estimated 1,302,089. Calvert said there are still some exemption certificates for this year unaccounted but they are not expected to change the total voting strength appreciably. Calvert's count showed 1,552,945 poll taxes paid and 109,644 exemption certificates issued. Harris County held the biggest potential vote with 155,749 poll taxes and 24,823 exemptions. Running next in order were Dallas County with 93,243 poll taxes and 66,950 exemptions, Bexar County with 82,920 poll taxes and 11,084 exemptions, and Tarrant County with 55,063 poll taxes and 1-536 exemptions reported.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES
John 16:22-24: 14.2.
RESOLVE TO ACT ON NO FEAR
(3) So I resolve not to act on any fear, but to wait till I can act on faith. Never act on a fear, for fears are usually false. "See that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount." Note that the pattern was seen "in the mount." Don't build your life according to any pattern shown to you in the valley of fear. Wait till you get to the mount of faith and then build your life plans. A strong healthy wife was afraid to have a baby, and so allowed an abortion. There was no physical reason why she shouldn't have had that baby, but fear paralyzed her creative instinct. And now her arms are forever childless. Fear left that emptiness. Nothing that could have happened in childbirth would have been as hard as the lifelong pain of empty arms, the mother instinct frustrated. She loved herself; and hence had nothing to love except herself. And the self she had to love was a bitter self. One of the greatest souls of this age says, "Whenever I get down, I shut off my mind from decisions—no decisions until I am on top of things!" All my decision moments, then, will be faith moments, not fear moments. I will instruct my mind that no decisions are to be made except in faith. And there are to be no exceptions. I therefore use a mind purged of all acting on fear. It is marvelous what the mind will do when it is single-pointed and decisive. In college I decided I would act on no fear. It happened one night that I was in a shower of stones which were raining all around me in the dark. My first impulse was to get behind a tree; but I remembered my resolve and stood there in the open, letting them fall all around me, with my face turned toward the falling stones. I was surprised at my own boldness, for I'm not naturally courageous. My resolve, made beforehand, never to act on fear had held me in that crisis. Make a life choice of faith as a permanent life attitude. O Thou living Christ, Thou didst never act on any fear; so Thy course was always forward. I, too, would do the same, for with Thee life has no retreats and no regrets. Give me the simple impulse of faith in every circumstance and help me to act on nothing else. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Experts Will Speak On Garden Subjects At Night Meeting

Two experts on subjects of interest of garden club members will speak at an open meeting of the Spring convention of District One, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. at 8 p.m. Friday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Mrs. Claude Keeton of Lubbock, whose hobby is growing flowers and then using them to make corsages, will speak briefly on "Corsages for Milady" and illustrate her talk by showing the audience how she makes attractive bouquets to wear for various occasions.

Mrs. Claude Keeton

The other speaker is an authority on landscape gardening and will discuss that subject. He is E. J. Urbansky, college landscape architect at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, and a professor there. He has had many years of experience as a teacher and in practice of landscape architecture.

Mrs. Urbansky accompanied him to Midland and they are visiting friends here. Mrs. Keeton arrived Thursday to register in time for pre-convention entertainment with other garden club members from Lubbock.

MRS. BASSHAM HOSTESS FOR DYT CLUB PARTY

Members of the DYT Club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. L. V. Bassham and played canasta and sewed. Attending were Mrs. John A. Sewell, Mrs. J. P. Carson, Jr., Mrs. E. P. Birkhead, Mrs. E. M. Watkins, and Mrs. T. S. Henderson. The next meeting will be held April 27 with Mrs. Watkins.

Garden Club Convention Sidelights

Mrs. Lyle Blanton of Hereford, the immediate past councilor of District One garden clubs, was among the early arrivals at the registration desk Thursday afternoon and was busy greeting friends before she could receive her registration packet. She still is on the district Executive Board, as advisory member.

Representing one of the new clubs is Mrs. A. F. Legatski of Cactus Station, who is a suburb of Dumas— "with some space in between." The garden club was organized last Fall in the thriving community where a wartime ordnance plant has been converted to a chemical plant. Mrs. Legatski says she is a gardener of the dirt variety and thinks this week's rain is just the thing needed by her peas, which were planted during a dust storm last week.

Convention visitors and the Midland hostesses were equally cheerful about the change of plans for the Thursday program caused by the rain. Everybody agreed that a rain covering West Texas is worth the cancellation of a garden pilgrimage which had been anticipated with pleasure. Even Irma Lowe, who had worked hard on the arrangements, smiled broadly as she explained the shifted plans.

Mrs. Helman Owens, one of the Thursday afternoon arrivals from Phillips, said she drove out of that north Panhandle city in a flurry of sleet and snow, so they decided the above-freezing weather in Midland was quite balmy. Mrs. Joe Krejci was another of the Phillips delegation.

Neighbors from this end of the district did not arrive until Friday morning. Mrs. Henry Ringhoffer of Amarillo, who is a member of the club, brought with her a display of the first session Friday morning, while Mrs. W. J. Stipp and Mrs. Borden Bristow of Big Spring were registering.

Mrs. Joe Deason of Amarillo, wearing a becoming pastel tailored outfit, was a serene figure in the gay hub-bub out at the Velvin home during the very informal supper Thursday night. Mrs. Velvin was expressing regrets that the rain moved the supper, planned for outdoors, into the roomy double kitchen until someone reminded her that nobody ever needs to apologize for rain in West Texas, and anyway the garage was a suitable setting for the Western style meal.

Forty-Niners Club Holds Square Dance

Two new members and nine visitors were entertained by the Forty-niners Square Dance Club in the Midland Officers Club Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wood were received as new members. Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Michener, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nelson, Mrs. W. E. Hill, Mrs. J. Johnson and Mrs. Foster. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cardwell were hosts and J. Johnson called.

Members present included Mr. and Mrs. Angie Augustson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bohn, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nance, Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Saurd and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wecker.

Luncheon And Pre-Convention Supper Entertain Delegates

A luncheon in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel at noon Friday was the first social event of the convention of District One, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., which is in session here this weekend, but pre-convention entertainment started Thursday afternoon for visitors from over the district who arrived early.

Mrs. Ralph Lowe and Mrs. Hal Rachal were in charge of arrangements for the luncheon, and Mrs. Lowe also was chairman for the pre-convention pilgrimage. Entertainment for convention delegates and visitors has been planned by the six garden clubs of Midland which are convention hostesses.

Mrs. J. D. Dillard, chairman of the Midland Council of Garden Clubs, is general chairman. Plans for the Thursday afternoon program were changed after the rain which fell earlier in the day made the scheduled garden pilgrimage impossible. Only two of

Welcome, Garden Clubbers

Midland this weekend is host to hundreds of women visitors who are here to attend the Spring convention of District 1, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc.

It is a distinct honor to Midland to have been selected as the 1950 convention city, and all Midlanders join in welcoming the visitors and in wishing for them a most successful and worthwhile convention.

District One, which embraces 59 West Texas counties, plus two or three in New Mexico, is the largest and one of the most active in Texas Garden Clubs, Inc.

The growth and activities of Midland garden clubs have been most remarkable during the last few years, the Midland affiliates doubtless having set the pace for others in the huge West Texas district.

Likewise, throughout the confines of District 1, scores of garden clubbers are working hard to beautify their respective communities. They are interested in their programs and as a result are interesting others in home and community beautification.

West Texas cities now are blossoming as never before—thanks to its hard-working garden clubs.

Princeton Looks Ahead

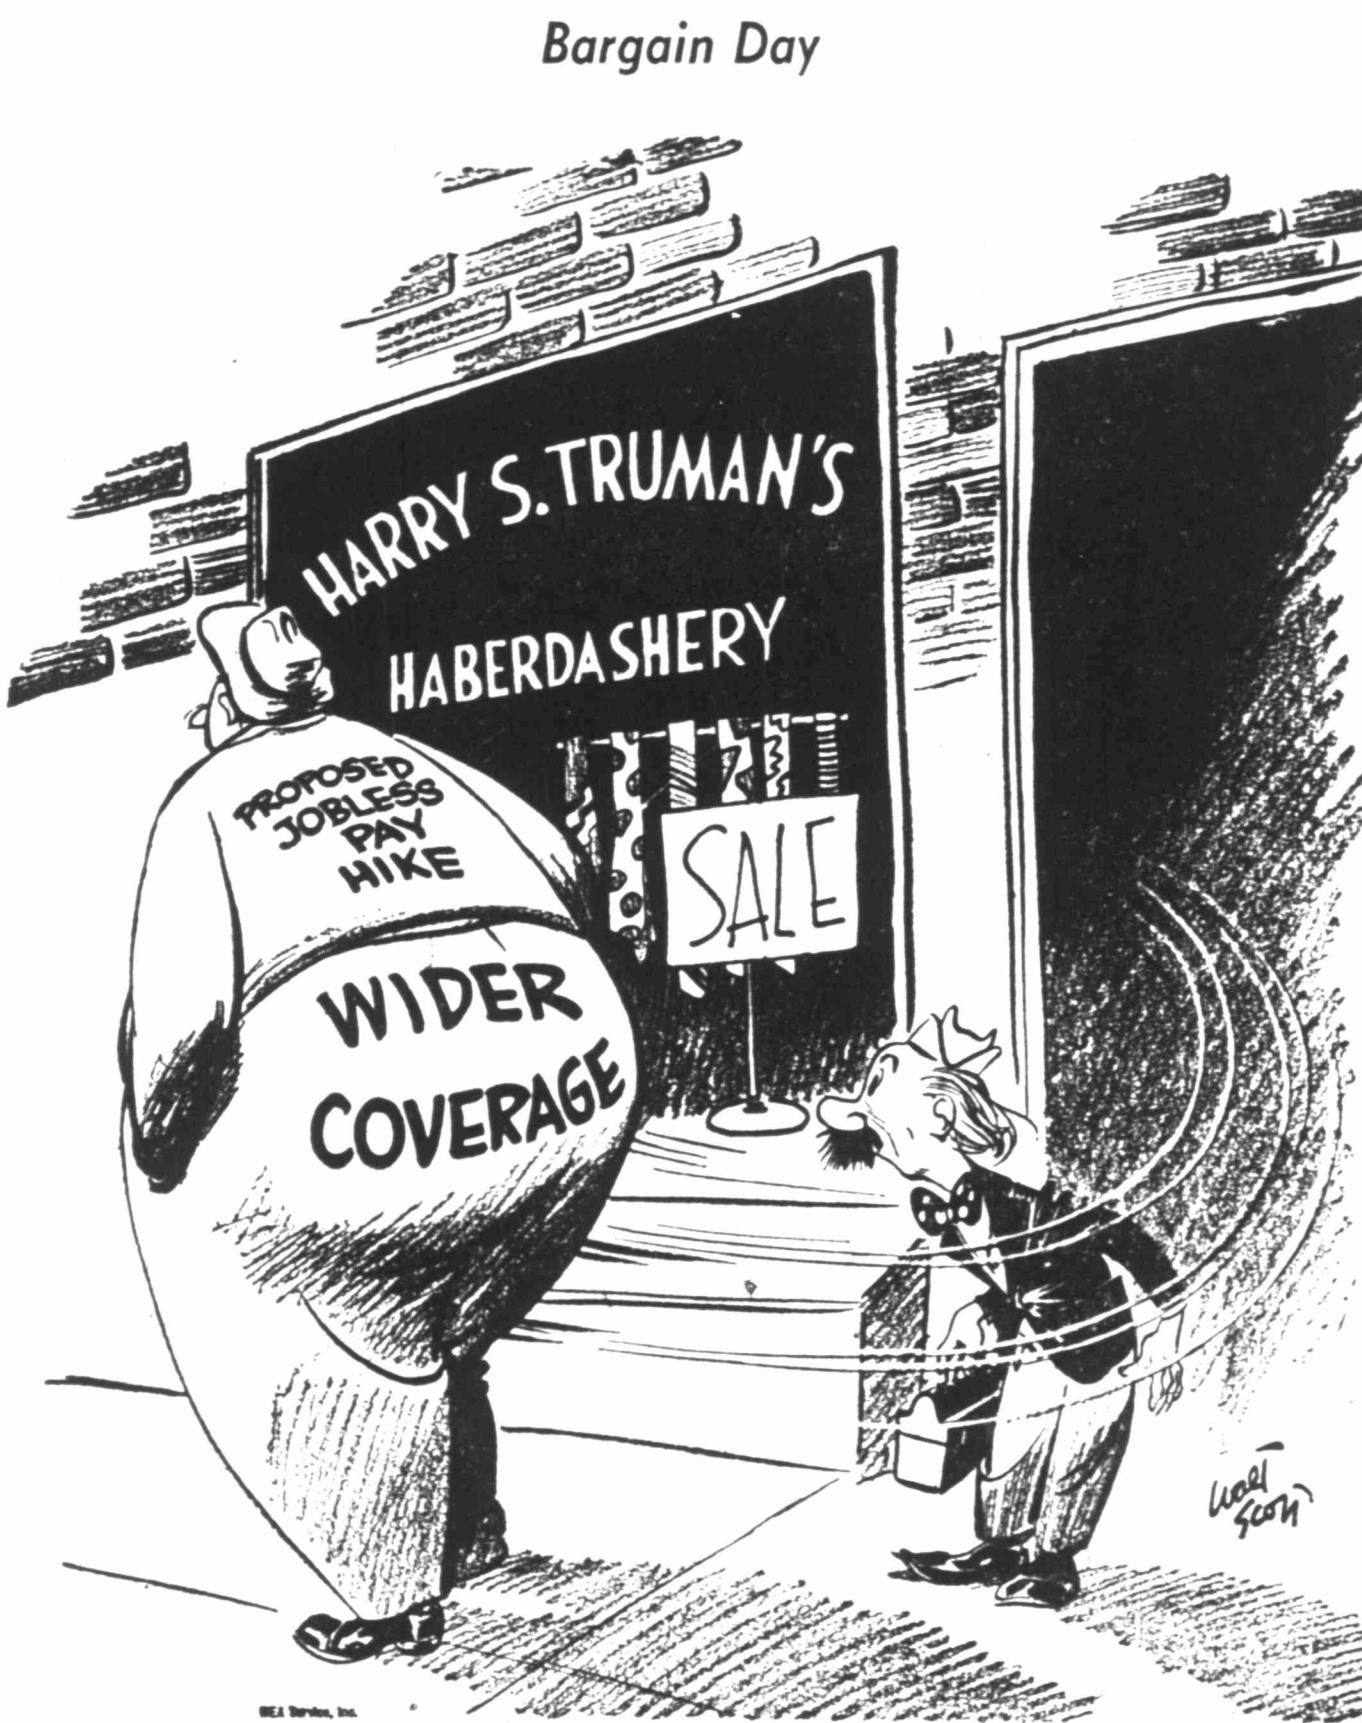

Princeton University has announced it will publish the papers of Thomas Jefferson. It calls them the "richest treasure house of historical information ever left by a single man."

The whole thing will take about 20 years and will cost about $1,000,000. There'll be 52 volumes of some 750 pages each.

What we liked most about this announcement was a little touch that showed the university's far-sightedness. Recognizing that a man might grow old and die before he finished collecting these ambitious works, it tried to meet that eventuality.

A Tennessee gas station attendant laughed and walked away from an armed bandit. What, not even oil and polish for the bandit's gun?

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Oil for lamps of China to run low if Soviets succeed in frantic efforts to get more for their war machine; British may cancel recognition of Chinese Communists.

WASHINGTON—The American Embassy in Moscow has cabled that a giant Soviet bureau has been set up to find oil for the Russian war machine.

Oil fields in the Russian caucuses have started to run dry, and the Russian general staff frantically is trying to develop new sources.

Foreign Minister Bevin, he says, is burned up because three months have passed and the Chinese Communists haven't even bothered to acknowledge Britain's announcement of recognition.

That announcement now is considered one of Britain's worst diplomatic boners, causing her to lose prestige throughout the world.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

'Eighty-Worst' Congress Goes Into Stretch With Little Done

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Maybe Congress will come back after its Easter vacation, full of jelly beans and determined to do something. But as the score stands at the beginning of April, and no foolin', the lawmakers in March only enhanced their record as the Eighty-Worst Congress.

This session is now about half over. In January the Congress passed no legislation at all. In February, 10 public laws were enacted. In March, 21. Just look at what some of them were:

- Transfer of the Vigo ordnance plant property to the U. S. penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind. Extension of vocational education to the Virgin Islands. Extension of the period in which Veterans Administration employees may be detailed for research in medicine and surgery. Increase in the number of patent office examiners. Are you satisfied? Get another load of the laws which President Truman has had to sign this last month while trying to run the country from Key West.

Sale of some Indian lands in Utah. Creation of the new National Cemetery at Fort Logan, Colo. Approval of the Idaho-Wyoming compact on disposition of the waters of Snake River. Authorization for the secretary of interior to build airports in certain cases. Authorization for the erection of a monument to Henry Milton Brainerd at Cape Arago Lighthouse, Coos County, Ore.

If you're still not convinced on how hard the congressmen have been working around here, you will be when you read that two other laws they passed last month provided for incorporating the Girl Scouts of America under a federal charter, and for authorizing the removal of sludge in District of Columbia.

That last one seems particularly appropriate. All this legislation may be for good and worthy causes. But in the whole March record there are only four laws passed that by any stretch of the imagination may be considered nationally important.

One was a deficiency appropriation bill. Another was a law to increase appropriations from $4,000,000 to $13,000,000 for the construction of airports in Alaska. A third was repeal of the oleomargarine tax. The fourth was the cotton-peanut potato bill. And a case can be made that the last two of these are bad legislation.

The oleo tax repeal bill was well intentioned and it was passed after years of effort. But the law now has been found to be a joker in the Food and Drug Administration may find it impossible to enforce. At the least it will be awfully expensive to enforce, since it puts the U. S. government in the business of inspecting all margarine.

For once in their lives, President Truman and Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia seem to agree on something. It is that the advantages of the new farm bill outweigh the disadvantages. It may save $75,000,000 on potato price supports, but it gives at least $20,000,000 more to cotton and peanut planters.

This legislation admittedly is so inadequate that President Truman has asked Congress for still another new farm bill this session. The odds are 99 to 1 against anything like that happening. The more messages the President sends to Capitol Hill, the less attention Congress pays to them. That's how bad their relations are.

'Fair Deal' Lost In Fog The Truman program hopelessly is bogged down. You can get bets in Washington there won't be any tax legislation passed at all. There may be a token cut in excise taxes near the end of the session. But having herself — to be brought downstairs after tea. By the time her charge was safely up for the night, the weather showed signs of clearing; but even then the rain had still been torrential. Clemency knew that she could not have stayed in another minute. Warning Louille to listen in case Baba woke up and wanted anything, she put on her mackintosh, and tying a handkerchief over her head, sallied forth.

Clemency hesitated. It would soon be very dark and though somewhere up there a moon was growing towards the full, its light would probably be dimmed. And she felt she needed more freedom of exercise that just walking round the tiled paths of the courtyard gave scope for and decided to go along the road; she would hardly be likely to meet anyone unfriendly.

About half a mile along, the road forked, one portion of it running down to the banks of the small river which watered the oasis. There were some flat stones and sitting down on one of them, Clemency pulled the handkerchief off her hair, and raising her face took a deep breath.

She remained musing while the African darkness which falls like a suddenly dropped cloak, had come down over the land. She was trying to make up her mind to move when the sound of a quick, firm step on the road behind her made her turn her head sharply.

"Good gracious, I thought you were a ghost! What on earth are you doing here, Miss Norton?" exclaimed Piers Amberley.

Reading between the lines, he understood too clearly that she would have given him credit for doing.

"I gather there was a spot of trouble today," Clemency felt that she did not want to discuss it with him. "Oh—nothing very much," she said and could have kicked herself. Why must she sound so prim and "gobernosity," just because she was talking to Piers Amberley?

"My niece can be something of a handful," said Piers. And that was his sole comment. "I won't get into mischief," she promised when they were in sight of the outer walls of the house now. "I will go in this way. Good night, Colonel Amberley, and thank you."

"Good night—" But she had already opened the door leading to the nursery courtyard. It closed swiftly and she was gone.

Piers paused to light a cigarette before he resumed his walk. An odd young woman. Difficult to get to know. (To Be Continued)

Bride To Live In Midland

Mrs. Harold Williams

Peggy Locklar And H. Williams Marry

Peggy Locklar Thursday evening became the bride of Harold Williams in a ceremony read in the home of his sister, Mrs. A. W. Jones, 410 West Parker Street. Mrs. Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Locklar of Odessa and Williams' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams of Asheville, N. C.

The Rev. C. A. Johnson, retired minister of the First Christian Church of Odessa, read the double-ring ceremony before a picture window decorated as an improvised altar. Baskets of pink gladiolus and snapdragons were used on either side of the window, as were floor candelabra with pink candles.

Mrs. Jones was the bride's only attendant. Jones was best man. The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of pink eyelet organdy over pink slipper satin. The fitted bodice had short sleeves and a roll collar, high in back. The skirt was very full. Her only jewelry was a strand of white pearls.

Her white hat was trimmed with pink roses and a nylon tulle veil. Her pink rose bouquet was tied with loops of pink pearls, which formed streamers.

Yellow Dress
Mrs. Jones was wearing yellow frosted organdy over yellow taffeta. The deep-cut neckline extended to a roll collar and cap sleeves. Her ballerina skirt was full and she wore a small white hat. Her bouquet was of yellow roses tied with yellow satin ribbon.

A reception was held in the Jones home after the ceremony. A pink cloth and pink candles were used on the table. The wedding cake was pink, in the shape of two large bells topped with a pink bow and sweetheart roses. Punch was served from a crystal bowl. Emma Hale and Helen Holly, both of Odessa, served.

The couple left immediately on a wedding trip to Fort Davis. On returning, they will be at home on the Rankin Highway.

Mrs. Williams was graduated from Odessa High School in 1948, attended Texas Technological College in Lubbock and was graduated from Odessa Business College. She recently has been employed at the Midland Floral Company.

Williams is a 1944 graduate of Clearmont High School in Burnsville, N. C. He served two years in the Army and was graduated from Cecil's Business College in Asheville. He is employed by the Scharbauer Cattle Company.

Anniversary Of Altrusa Marked With Program

The contributions of Altrusa International, Inc., toward world friendship were emphasized as the Midland Altrusa Club observed the thirty-third anniversary of the organization at a luncheon in the Private Dining Room of Hotel Scharbauer Thursday and members gave to a Founders' Fund.

Altrusa, its membership limited to one outstanding woman in each business or profession in a city, started on April 11, 1917, in Nashville, Tenn. It has grown to nearly 10,000 members in half a dozen countries. The Midland club was organized in the Summer of 1948.

A brief history of the organization was sketched at the luncheon by Sue Coleman and a contribution was made to the Founders' Fund which is used by the international organization to further vocational information to young women just starting to work and older women who must go to work for the first time. Estella Brown was in charge of the program.

Hilda Ray, member of the club's committee on library assistance, reported the secretary of state's office has approved issuance of a charter for the Friends of the Midland Public Library, an organization which the Altrusa Club will sponsor. Actual formation of the group is planned for next Fall.

Information concerning the organization will be obtained on May 11, when the librarian and the chairman of the Friends of the Library at Alpine are to be guests of the Altrusans at a dinner and program. The Friends of the Library group was organized recently at Alpine and has been very active.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And The Shiny Dime

Bigger Monkey got out the checkerboard and put it on the table. He began to play checkers with Uncle Bunkum. But Bigger Monkey has a terrible temper, and Mugwump likes and likes to make noise. "Mugwump! Bigger shouted. "Stop running and shouting through the house!" Mugwump stopped but not for long. He began to run and shout through the house again. He was only playing, but it did make a lot of noise. "Mugwump! Bigger shouted. "Quiet now! I said QUIET!"

Bigger looked at the checkerboard and was almost happy again. There wasn't any noise at all and the Mugwump began to whistle. "Mugwump!" Bigger shouted again. "I said quiet now!"

"Bigger! Bigger!" said Uncle Bunkum. "Don't lose your temper with the boy! Uncle Bunkum said to do it, while Uncle Bunkum said, "Mugwump, could you sit still for a minute and not make any noise. If I gave you a shiny dime?" Mugwump said he could. He could sit still and quiet a minute to get it. He sat very, very still, and the checker game began again. Bigger almost forgot about Mugwump. I think, for Mugwump kept sitting still and quiet, watching and watching the clock. Of course he could be still for a minute for a shiny dime. A minute isn't very long. It was almost—almost—almost over. The clock said it was. And then the minute was over. Mugwump has earned his dime by sitting still.

"Eow!" shouted Mugwump. "Yippee! Yippee! Give me my dime! He shouted it in a loud voice, and the noise was more than ever before. It made Bigger jump. He even jumped over the table. Mugwump's noise was so loud, you know. And there wasn't quiet again until Mugwump took his shiny dime out in the forest to play. Then it was very quiet in the monkey house, for Mugwump took his noise with him. He used up the noise before he came back and there wasn't more trouble at all. And if ever there's too much noise at your house, maybe you can get someone to take it outside and use it up before they come in again. I hope so. Happy day! Shhh!—when it's time to "shhh." I mean.

Opportunities In Oil Industry Cited

WASHINGTON—AP—The government's Bureau of Labor Statistics Thursday painted a rosy picture of growing employment opportunities in the petroleum production and refining industry.

The bureau based its prediction on a continuing rise in demand for petroleum products.

It said approximately 400,000 workers are now employed in petroleum production and refining—out of a total of about 1,500,000 persons employed in all branches of the petroleum industry.

The bureau's views were expressed in an article in a Labor Department publication, the April issue of the Monthly Labor Review. It said more than 200,000 workers are employed in petroleum production, either exploration, drilling and rig building, or operating and maintaining the nation's 445,000 producing wells.

Texas leads in the number of oil field jobs, followed by Oklahoma, Kansas, Illinois, California, Louisiana and Pennsylvania.

JAPAN HAS MORE PEOPLE

TOKYO—AP—Japan's population keeps on going up and up. The Welfare Ministry reports the population on last January 1 was 83,073,518. The population a year earlier was 81,191,664. At the present rate, the population on these crowded islands will exceed 100,000,000 by 1961.

Kermit News

KERMIT—Mrs. O. M. Stewart, Kermit High School librarian; Mrs. Letta Blundell, elementary school principal; and Tommy Thompson, Kermit school superintendent, were in Fort Stockton last week to assist in the evaluation of the public schools in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Desnet recently moved to Kermit from Ponca City, Okla. He is connected with the El Paso branch of the Retail Credit Company.

Jess Ann Estill, a freshman student at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, has been selected to play a supporting role in the school Little Theater's production of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The play will open April 24. Members of the Kermit American Legion and Legion Auxiliary have been invited by the Monahans Legion to attend a special meeting Tuesday to discuss "The Hoover Commission and Socialized Medicine." Several guest speakers will be present and a barbecue dinner will be served.

Syble Higgins and Jenny Lynn Rucker, students at East Texas State College, spent the Easter holidays with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hagler have returned from Fort Worth where she has been under the care of a physician. Although much improved, Mrs. Hagler still is unable to resume her work as home economics teacher in the Kermit High School. Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin are visiting in Houston this week while there they will attend the convention of the Associated Plumbing Contractors of Texas.

Dr. Conrad R. Lam of Detroit, who is receiving national recognition for performing a delicate operation last week, is a brother of Elie and Rabbon Lam of Kermit. He has visited here several times and is well known to Kermit residents.

STONES GO TO SYNAGOGUE

JERUSALEM—AP—Stones from ancient Mount Zion are to form part of a new Jewish synagogue to be built in New York City. They are being handed over to a delegation of "Young Israel" representatives from New York.

Potatoes were brought to Europe from South America by Spaniards.

ROCKY ROAD TO KNOWLEDGE

Education comes much easier today than it did a generation ago. Before the advent of the school bus and other modern facilities, rural children often walked several miles to a little country schoolhouse where they acquired the rudiments of knowledge.

Conditions in the cities and towns were some better, but were far below present standards. Vast strides have been made in the field of education, both urban and rural.

But hard work and diligent application are just as essential in the acquisition of learning today as they were a generation ago. There is no royal road to knowledge. The path to learning is through rugged areas and over crude, rocky roads.

The basis of true education is spiritual, not material. Schools that fail to inculcate a knowledge of God and a spiritual interpretation of life are failing in their highest purpose. The Church and the school are co-workers in the field of human knowledge. We must give them our support.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a church survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Training Camp Briefs

Major league teams, back from the sunny South, hoped Friday they wouldn't have to play with snowballs instead of baseballs. You couldn't blame a lot of the lads who returned to home surroundings, nicely toasted, for griping about the frigid welcome they received from the weather men. Two games had to be called off Thursday because of snow, and for the same reason, the Brooklyn Dodgers had to skip a scheduled workout at Ebbets Field. Snowed out were the New York Yankees at Pittsburgh and the Philadelphia Phillies at Cincinnati.

IT'S CHESNES OR CHAMBERS
PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Bob Chesnes or Cliff Chambers will start on the mound for the Pittsburgh Pirates when they open their National League season at St. Louis Tuesday night.

BABY, IT WAS COLD
KANSAS CITY—(AP)—It was so chilly at the Cleveland Indians-New York Giants exhibition baseball game here Thursday, some of the fans started small fires in the stands to warm themselves. They used such things as paper boxes, scorecards and popcorn as fuel.

LEMON, NOT FELLER
INDIANAPOLIS—(AP)—It was official Friday, Bob Lemon and not Bob Feller will be on the mound when the Cleveland Indians open this year. Feller has been almost a fixture at the job, hurling three inaugurals before the war and four since he returned from service in the Navy.

Texas League—Rained-Out Buffs Lead Loop As Cats, Eagles Win At Last

By The Associated Press

The weather and a couple of incidents in Oklahoma combined Friday to put lightly-regarded Houston on top of the Texas League. The Buffs boasted the only unbeaten record in the circuit after three nights in which they got in only one game. Thursday night, rain postponed their contest with Shreveport. Meanwhile both Tulsa and Oklahoma City were taking licks. Fort Worth turned on Tulsa after a couple of whippings from Oklahoma City and won a thriller 2-1 as Manager Bobby Bragan singled to score Frank Brown with the deciding tally in the ninth. Oklahoma City meanwhile was being toppled by Dallas, which finally got its siege guns operating. The Eagles roared back for nine runs in the seventh and eighth innings to hand the Indians their first defeat of the youthful season 11-10.

Attendance Mark Set
Beaumont's young upstarts had two four-run innings to nose out San Antonio 8-7 with Bob Courtney personally batting four of the tallies across. San Antonio, however, furnished the most power, some of it misplaced. Joe Frazier and Joe Lutz socked homers in a 14-hit barrage. Heinz Becker, big Dallas first baseman, was the leading hitter of the night, rapping five blows in five trips. The three games Friday night—all home openers—netted 9,655 attendance, bringing the league's opening attendance total to 82,861 with Houston still to have its opener. The league record was 70,414 set in 1928.

Indians-Broncs To Try It Again Friday Night

The Midland Indians and the Big Spring Broncs, rained out again Thursday night, will try to resume their Longhorn League series at 8 p.m. Friday in Big Spring.

Manager Harold Webb still aims to start Harold Wearne against the Broncs. He is a right-hander.

The Indians are one-up on the Broncs, having won the opening game Tuesday night at Indian Park. Ralph Blair hurled the 14-6 victory.

The Indians return home Saturday night for a two-game stand against the San Angelo Colts. Donald Hines or LeRoy Jarl will start Saturday night's tilt and Blair probably will go again Sunday.

Kermit Is Host For 5-A Track Meet Saturday

KERMIT—The District 5-A Track and Field Meet will be unreeled Saturday at the Kermit High School stadium with nine teams scheduled to send thinly clad into battle. The district contenders range from very strong to weak this year.

The Pecos Eagles, headed by the "sprint twins," George Christian and Jerry Fairley, will be favorites to cop the title. Buddy Card, Orlando Gutierrez and several other capable performers will join Fairley and Christian to aid the Eagles' fight.

Pecos already has been in competition with most other teams in the district in invitation meets at Fort Stockton and Odessa. The Eagles have outclassed their 5-A cousins consistently.

Hubbard In Mile
Christian and Fairley shone in sprint events and will lead a crack sprint relay team.

Monahans, with Mickey Hubbard almost a shoe-in in the mile, could give out plenty of trouble. The Lobos will pick up points in field events, also.

Coach Frances Tubb has some good material at Andrews and could come through in the high hurdles, distance events and relays.

Don Floyd and Jack Smith are the top track candidates for the Mustangs. Kermit, Wink, Denver City and Seminole are expected to be tough in spots.

McCamey and Crane will be short on man-power but should collect a few points here and there.

Ranchland Hill Election Friday

New officers will be elected at 8 p.m. Friday at an annual membership meeting of members of Ranchland Hill Country Club in the club house.

Nominations will be heard from the floor during the election. Members who are unable to attend the meeting may vote by proxy by designating some other member to deliver their ballots.

Midland-Lubbock Tilt Is Postponed

The Midland Bulldogs were to shoot for their first District 3-AA victory against the potent Lubbock Westerners at 3:30 p.m. Friday in Indian Park.

The Bulldogs are winless in conference play, having lost to Odessa and Lamesa in two starts.

Smith is a control artist with good stuff on his soft pitches. He hurled two no-hit innings against Odessa and three no-hit frames against Big Spring in exhibition games. He has not pitched in league play.

Coach Beauchamp said Bill Meadart, right-handed fast baller, is first in line for relief work.

The only possible change in the Midland infield was at first base. Charles Crowley, outfielder-pitcher,

The baseball game scheduled Friday afternoon between the Midland Bulldogs and the Lubbock Westerners was postponed due to wet grounds. Coach Garvin Beauchamp announced Friday noon.

Beauchamp said the game possibly will be played at the Memorial Stadium practice diamond Saturday.

was a possible starter in right field to allow Loren Roberts to move to the initial sack.

Robert Melton was to be at second. Bill Branch at shortstop and Norman Drake at third base. Jimmy Chaucery was to do the catching.

Thomas, Roberts and Chaucery have been furnishing most of the hitting power for the Bulldogs. Melton, Culp and Drake have chipped in with occasional bingles.

It was to be Coach Beauchamp's last ball game as mentor of the Midland nine. He will depart Saturday for Abilene, where he becomes head football coach at Abilene Christian College.

Crooner Bing Departs For Golfing Wars

NEW YORK —(AP)— The most amateur of American athletes, a chap named Bing Crosby, departed Friday for the British golfing wars.

An amateur, says the dictionary, is one who practices an art (or sport), not as a livelihood or professionally, but for the love of it.

That's Bing. He is competing in the British Amateur Golf Tournament at St. Andrews May 22-27.

"I've played in the American Amateur," said Bing by way of explanation.

"How far did you get?" he was asked.

"Got beat in the first round."

"How far do you expect to get in the British Amateur?"

"Same thing—but I want to watch the tournament."

Bing's European tour—on which he will make no stage or movie appearances—will last eight weeks.

"Can you afford it?" someone asked.

"I couldn't afford to miss it," he said.

Just get yourself down to THE STORE this minute, they have everything under the sun to keep your little hands occupied this Sunday! And don't slam the door on your way out. And so we leave our overjoyed little gardener... will be find the right tools... or will we see him dubbing around the links this Sunday? Just drive around the neighborhood and see our busy little man... uh cutting, a digging and a resting and a planting and a resting... isn't he a happy little fellow?

Dramatic Scene From 'Command Decision'

War Realities Portrayed In Grim Style, Eased By Comedy, In 'Command Decision'

Making some of the realities of World War II live again in the lives of many Midlanders, the Midland Community Theater presented William Wister Haines' "Command Decision" to an almost full house for the opening night Thursday in the City-County Auditorium. Art Cole is the director.

An all-man cast of 18 presents the gruesome but realistic phase of the war taking place in the Fifth American Bombardment Division, Heavy, in England. A bit of American wit here and there in the three acts saves the production from becoming too heavy.
