Conferees Agree On 70-Group Size

For U. S. Air Force WASHINGTON-(AP)-An authorization for a hardhitting, modern combat Air Force of 70 groups was agreed upon Wednesday by a Senate-House Conference Committee.

The compromise appeared to pe a victory for air-minded House members who for several years have been demanding specific permanent authority for the 70-group Air

Senators, until this compromise, had urged a more general air power goal, based upon 24,000 serviceable aircraft or 225,000 airfram: tons. An airframe ton is the weight of the plane, not including such things as engine, landing gears, guns and special equipment.

The senators argued that "a group" could mean anything as new planes are developed and strategy and size of air units changed.

But House members won their battle for use of the term "70 United States Air Force groups." The compromise now goes to the House and then the Senate for expected approval.

it isn't an old rule. It isn't a rule at all. A few little groups follow this as a sort of local understanding. There's even one book out that gives it as the proper way to play. However, the official rule is that you can take a discard that matches your closed canasta. If you have a canasta of jacks and the player at your right throws a jack, you can take the jack and add it to your canasta. You also can take the rest of the discard pile.

MILK HANDLING!

Regardless of the milk you buy, you will find that if that milk is a pure milk, unadulterated with chemicals to prevent souring, that milk will become blinky when exposed to warm weather of summer months, if only for a short period of time. You know, however, if your milk does sour, when not kept under refrigeration, that you have a wholesome, pure milk. The souring of milk effects it's flavor, but in no way effects the purity of the milk in the bottle. Therefore, knowledge of the fact that your milk WILL sour is, in effect, a safeguard to your family's health. For confirmation ask your family doctor.

IF YOU ARE A BANNER CUSTOMER . . .

You may have purchased a bottle or carton of Banner Milk which was sour or blinky. Here is the probable reason. Recently during a change over at the Midland Plant to double capacity of that plant's milk vaults, the engineers lost refrigeration on the vault for a short while. A shipment of milk was distributed before this loss of refrigeration was discovered. If you purchased part of this shipment you may have received a sour or blinky bottle of Banner Milk. If such was the case, Banner wishes to apologize and ask that you present your bottle or carton to your dealer, or direct to your routeman or the Banner Plant for replacement or refund!

YOUR MILK COMPANY ASSURES YOU OF REFUND ON ALL MILK WHICH MAY BE BLINKY, SOUR OR OFF TASTE!

Milk companies are one of the few food companies which will guarantee you full replacement or refund if you are not pleased with the product. Regardless of the brand of milk you buy, you may rest assured that your milk company will be happy to make any replacement or refund that you desire.

Economic Weathervane

Another business scare seems to have vanished in air. Once more the economists are flying their brightest flags; some even profess to see fair economic weather clear through 1951.

This year, of course, there's been no serious downturn in business activity like that in 1949. The biggest storm warning was the unemployment figure, which kept mounting until by February it hit better than 4,600,000.

There was talk of 5,500,000 out of work by Fall, and higher totals later. The great labor federations were getting ready to demand huge public works programs to take up the slack.

Now it's all different. Unemployment has fallen to around 3,000,000. Actually, more than 2,700,000 additional workers are employed today as compared with gloomy February. But the U.S. labor force is growing swiftly, and many of those who have found jobs are new workers.

The Federal Reserve Board has just struck a cheerful note. It foresees continued heavy demand for automobiles, homes, and the durable products that go with the home-furniture, iceboxes, stoves, and the like.

If the board is right, and it has a lot of company in this forecast, the solid basis exists for maintenance of high level business activity for many months.

Does all this mean we can stop worrying about a depression? We've shrugged off so many false scares since the war ended that no one could be blamed for thinking maybe we can stay out of trouble for a long time.

And perhaps we can. Some experts point out that who, as this column revealed, tap- the taxpayers' money to tour the the foundation for much of this encouraging growth of business lies in two fundamental facts: the marked in- Hughes. crease in population, and the still greater rise in the number of new family units.

It is this latter, especially, which helps account for Maine. The senator explained that officials, McCarthy pleaded for more the unprecedented demand for housing and household goods. #### To Teach

In-Ai wants to devote her life to the teaching of nurses in Korea. Since the war, the profession has become one of honor and many daughters of the upper class families are turning to it as their life

She established her school of nursing in 1946, and since then has been working to make it as modern and efficient as she can. "It is an old school, lacking a lot of things," she said, "but I know I can give a good education if I have to do it without anything. I will teach good nursing and high deals." In-Ai explained that it is her hope that soon nurses will be able to receive college degrees as well as professional certificates. "I hope to teach Christianity to my students," she added, "not by preaching or asking them to go to church, but by telling them about the history of nursing and about the ethics of the profession." "I know I can make them love it as I do."

COLUMBUS, OHIO. -(AP)- A lot of Ohio's voters were in an awful state of mind Wednesday, although the November election is nearly five months away

There was anguish, anger, delight and confusion.

This condition followed Demoeratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche's unprecedented statement that he had not decided whom to support for U. S. Senator . . . his party's nominee, Joseph T. Ferguson, or Republican Robert A. Taft.

He likes Ferguson as a state auditor, he said, but admires Taft "for his seriousness and forthrightness" as a U.S. senator.

This political heresy, voiced by the titular leader of Ohio Democrats (who is normally expected to point the way for the party members), did this:

Senate Crime Probe Set To Bear Down On Chicago, Midwest In the Scurry-Kent reef area,

WASHINGTON-(AP)-The Senate Crime Investigating Committee is preparing to bear down on big-time gambling and crime in Chicago and the Midwest. A committee source told reporters the Senate inquiry will shift to the Chicago area early next monthwith both public and secret hearings in Chicago and Washington. Virgil Petersen, director of the Chicago Crime Commission, tentatively is booked as the first witness. Petersen has made a longtime study of national crime and much of the information he has assembled is in the hands of the committee. Chicago has been named by federal officials as a center of narcotics and counterfeiting rings and gambling operations. Before the hearings are ended the investigation may spread out

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman has reported to Congress that counterfeiting is at a 10-year highand Chicago is one of the operating centers of a gang turning out bogus money at the rate of $100,000
