Magnolia No. 2 Parks Flows 86.37 Barrels Of Oil In One Hour

Midland County's latest oil discovery, Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2 Parks, 1 1/4 miles southwest of the city of Midland, flowed 86.37 barrels of 54-gravity oil in the first hour of flowing to tanks, on a production test, for completion, and was still flowing at last report.

The production is natural and it is from the top 15 feet of the Ellenburger between 12,955 feet and the total depth at 12,970 feet.

The 5 1/2-inch oil string is cemented at 12,944 feet in the joints dolomite on top of the soft Ellenburger.

Kicked Off Naturally
After completing the running of electric log surveys, operation loaded the hole with oil. The well kicked off without swabbing and flowed out the load oil in three hours.

In the next 60 minutes, flowing through a three-quarter inch choke, the discovery produced the 86.37 barrels of new oil.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,022-1. Flowing tubing pressure was 450 pounds. There was a vacuum on the casing. Shalton was 1 1/2 per cent drilling fluid. There was no formation water.

Operator will probably flow the well until it is thoroughly cleaned and then take potential test and complete.

This important development is 660 feet from north and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 10, M. Daugherty survey. It is four and one half miles south and slightly east of the Texas Company No. 1, Schaubauer, discovery of the Warfield-Ellenburger field, which was completed early in 1949 for a small pumping production from the Ellenburger.

More Pay Indicated
The Magnolia No. 2 Parks flowed oil from the Pennsylvanian lime and also indicated production in the Fusselman section of Silurian.

Top of the Ellenburger in the new producer is at 12,955 feet, which is on a datum of minus 10,120 feet. That makes it 183 feet higher, structurally, than the Texaco No. 1 Schaubauer.

The Magnolia discovery flowed 123.71 barrels of clean oil during a drillstem test at 12,944-970 feet, before the casing was run.

The flow was through a five-eighths inch bottom hole choke and a one inch top opening.

SW Kent Discovery Gets Second Offset

Kewanee Oil Company has staked a one-half mile northwest offset to its recently completed Pennsylvanian lime discovery in Southwest Kent County.

Its No. 2-D Wil (Connell) is to be 660 feet from north and 2,180 feet from west lines of the northwest quarter of section 3, block 4, H&GN survey, and 15 miles southwest of Clairmont.

Kewanee already has staked a one-location north offset to the discovery well, which is potentialed for 326.5 barrels of 38.2-gravity oil daily from perforations at 6,853-71 feet.

Operations on the No. 2-D Wil (Connell) are to begin immediately.

Outpost Is Staked To Deep Pool In Gaines

Magnolia Petroleum Company has staked a southwest outpost to the North Russell Devonian pool in Northwest Gaines County.

Its No. 1-496 H&J is to be 660 feet from south and east lines of section 496, block G, C&D&G&NG survey, and 16 1/2 miles northwest of Seminole.

Projected depth is 11,200 feet. Operations are to begin by July 3.

NW Andrews To Get 8,000-Foot Wildcat

Garret M. Smith of Fort Worth has staked an 8,000-foot wildcat in extreme Northwest Andrews County, 10 miles east of Eunice, New Mexico.

Smith No. 1 McWhorter will be 660 feet from south and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 8, block A, 20 psi survey.

Projected depth of 8,000 feet should test through most of the Permian sections in that area.

Nearest production to the proposed venture is the Union-Permian pool, approximately eight miles to the east.

Operations on the No. 1 McWhorter are to begin immediately.

York and Harper Stake Tester In Tom Green
York & Harper, Inc. of Midland has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas for permission to drill its No. 1 Ed Funk estate wildcat in Central-West Tom Green County, 11 miles southwest of Carlsbad.

U. S. Planes, Ships Halt Red Tide

NORTH KOREAN REDS drove within 10 miles of U. S. military headquarters at Suwon (1) after the capture of Seoul (2), capital of the South Korean Republic. American jet fighters and bombers from Fukuoka, Japan, (inset) carried out bombing and strafing attacks on the Red invaders, confining their action to ground support in the Red-held area south of the thirty-eighth parallel. President Syngman Rhee's government fled to Taiden (3) (Taejon), 85 miles south of Seoul.

UN Fleet Building Up In West Pacific To Aid South Korea

NEW YORK—(AP)—A powerful United Nations fleet was building up Thursday in the West Pacific to aid Communist-invaded South Korea.

British commonwealths have rallied behind Britain with offers of ships to help the U. S. fleet.

Australia announced her naval units in Japanese waters—a destroyer and a frigate—were available to support American forces.

New Zealand also voiced readiness to make her Navy of one cruiser and six frigates available. They now are on maneuvers near Fiji, and are understood to be in constant touch with their headquarters at Wellington.

Britain already had placed her Far Eastern Naval forces at the disposal of the U. S. commanders. The British have 22 or 23 ships in Japanese waters, including an aircraft carrier with 40 fighter planes, and an unspecified number of land-based Navy planes.

The United States now has 18 warships in the Far Pacific. Thirteen of these are in the Seventh Fleet, which President Truman directed to protect Formosa. They include an aircraft carrier and a heavy cruiser.

Scattered Rains Cool North Texas

Moderately heavy, scattered rainfall in West and North Texas made cotton farmers beam Thursday. It brought slightly cooler weather to the northern part of the state during the night.

The rainfall during the night measured as much as 1.21 inches, the amount recorded at Amarillo. Dalhart reported 1.15 inches and Texarkana 55 inches. Other West and North Texas points reported traces.

Wichita Falls had a 87 inch rain downtown, while the official measurement at the Weather Bureau, some distance away, was only a trace. The Wichita Falls Daily Times reported that rains measuring about an inch fell at Quannah, Childers, Vernon and some parts of Southern Oklahoma.

Relief from the heat was expected to be of short duration.

★ LATE NEWS FLASHES ★

TOKYO—(AP)—A North Korean radio broadcast asserted early Friday that 27 U. S. bombers blasted Pyongyang, the Communist capital, and dropped 300 bombs, ranging in weight from 100 to 1,000 pounds.

AN AMERICAN AIR BASE IN SOUTHERN JAPAN—(AP)—Nine unidentified planes found on the radar sent this base into a 45-minute blackout Thursday night. The unidentified craft disappeared before American planes could make contact.

NEW DELHI—(AP)—India agreed late Thursday to go along with the United Nations Security Council's call on member nations to help invade South Korea.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senate members of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee voted 5 to 4 Thursday to ask the Senate to reject the nomination of Acting Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Sumner T. Pike for a new four-year term.

House Puts Approval On Excise Cuts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House Thursday approved the $1,010,000,000 excise tax-cutting, "veto proofing" it with a $433,000,000-a-year boost in new levies on big corporations.

The vote was 375 to 14 for the measure.

But the ultimate fate of any tax reduction at all may be tied to the Korean war.

The House action tossed the bill over to the Senate, which may take it, revise it, or kill it, depending on developments—whether more money for American fighting equipment will be needed.

Just ahead of its final vote the House rejected 238 to 147 a Republican move to split the bill in two.

Republicans Give Up
Assailing the bill as a "phony" tax reduction, the Republicans tried to get separate votes on one bill reducing excises, and then on another dealing with the tax increases and the loophole plugging provisions of the one-package measure.

But falling in this effort, many Republicans, committed to excise reduction, joined with Democrats in the final vote for the bill.

The House, with this vote and with its work far ahead of the Senate, then made ready to begin Friday a 10-day July Fourth recess.

The tax bill would slash the excises, many of them imposed in War II, on jewelry, furs, pocketbooks, movies, baby bottle warmers and scores of other items.

These cuts might become effective September 1 or October 1.

While slashing the excises—sometimes called nuisance or sales taxes—the measure would make up the revenue loss by the boost on big corporations, loophole plugging and other tax law revisions.

This is the "veto proofing" process for President Truman warned Congress long ago he would approve no excise cutting bill which did not offset the revenue loss by higher taxes in other directions.

Eight More Screen Figures Sentenced In Contempt Cases

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Eight Hollywood writers were convicted Thursday of contempt of Congress for refusing to answer questions about communism.

Fined $10,000 and led off to serve one-year jail terms were Ring Lardner, Jr., Lester Cole, Albert Maltz, Alvah Bessie, Herman Biberman and Edward Dmytryk.

The court deferred sentencing of writer-producer Adrian Scott and screen writer Samuel Ornitz.

Ornitz is to appear in court Friday, while Scott's appearance was put off until after mid-August because the defendant is under medical treatment.

In brief statements to the court, those sentenced renewed their defiance of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Lardner asserted "There is only a minor difference of degree between forcing a man to say what his opinions are, and dictating what those opinions should be."

The defendants are among the so-called "Hollywood Ten" cited by the House committee for refusal to answer questions at a hearing on alleged Communist influences in the film industry.

Others already have been convicted and are serving one year terms with $10,000 fines.

Former Midlander Dies In Odessa

ODESSA—Mrs. M. L. Parrish, 63, a former Midland resident, died early Wednesday at her home here. She had been ill several weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at 5 p. m. Friday in the Belmont Baptist Church, West Eighth Street, here. Interment will be in an Odessa cemetery.

Survivors include two sons, W. E. Mobley of Midland and R. T. Mobley of Odessa, also former Midland residents. Two brothers and four sisters also survive.

Crossing Crash Kills Woman; Three Hurt

AMARILLO—(AP)—Mrs. Lewis D. Massengale, 22, of Amarillo was killed and three other persons injured early Thursday when an east bound Fort Worth and Denver passenger train struck an automobile at a crossing in East Amarillo.

Injured were: Mrs. Ruby Delgado, 20, who still was unconscious several hours after the wreck; Jeanne Robinson, 19, minor injuries; and Jack Rutherford, seriously injured. All are Amarillo residents.

MacArthur Says Korean Front Stable

TOKYO—(AP)—General MacArthur returned late Thursday from a dramatic tour of Korea and his headquarters said the front had been stabilized along the Han River just south of fallen Seoul.

U. S. Superforts and American Naval units from Japan thundered into action.

The B-29's blasted Seoul's airfield, which was reported reoccupied by Southern troops.

No Combat Troops For Korea Asked

A headquarters announcement said U. S. warships hit North Korean naval and ground units near Inchon, the port of Seoul west of the lost capital of South Korea.

MacArthur returned from the fighting front after seeing for himself what the situation was. He saw the Southern front had stiffened and appeared heartened.

An American fighter drove off a North Korean plane that tried to attack the unarmed C-54 transport in which the commander of all U. S. forces in the Far East flew to Korea and back 15 hours later.

MacArthur and his key officers drove by automobile to the edge of Seoul and saw the toughening Southern resistance—a direct result of mounting American aid.

The main battle has stabilized along the Han River just south of the capital which fell to the Reds Wednesday, reported Associated Press Correspondent Russell Brines, who made the trip with MacArthur.

This was the encouraging picture reported by Brines: American bombing and supply operations have been stepped up.

South Korean forces have lost some of the Korean peninsula. They are regrouping hundreds of infantrymen, who were cut up by the Red drive, spearheaded by Russian-built tanks, that rolled over Seoul Wednesday.

MacArthur appeared heartened and so did the Koreans. MacArthur's officers said they believe the South Koreans can hold their present line. Some 25,000 of them face an equal force of Reds along a 75-mile front.

Among the high officers accompanying MacArthur was Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, commander of U. S. Far East Air Forces.

Russia Condemns UN Call For Armed Support Of Koreans

LONDON—(AP)—Russia Thursday condemned as illegal the United Nations Security Council's call for armed support of invaded South Korea.

The Russian note, addressed to UN Secretary General Trygve Lie and broadcast in a Tass dispatch by Moscow radio, was the first official statement by the Soviet government on the Korean question since fighting started there on Sunday.

The council resolution was illegal, the note said, because:

1. Unanimous approval of the five permanent council members was needed. "Two permanent members, the USSR and China, were absent."

2. Seven votes were needed for adoption of the resolution. It was adopted "by six votes with the participation of a seventh, Kuomintangist Chiang Ting Fu, who had no lawful right to represent China."

"It is quite plain that such decision of the Security Council on the Korean problem has no legal force," the Soviet note concluded.

The council action gave international endorsement to President Truman's previously announced plan to send U. S. military forces to aid the South Koreans. After passage of the resolution, Britain, and later Australia, announced naval aid would be furnished. UN officials have begun canvassing other members to determine what forces they can make available.

Fair Sex Rushes Recruiting Office

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—The Navy Recruiting Office here reports a rush business as a result of the Korean situation.

Chief Gunner's Mate Sidney A. Brahlin said that since Monday he had had 25 applicants for enlistment—all women. Six were accepted, the others turned down because they were too young, he said.

The men? "Hardly any inquiries," said Brahlin.

Russian Public Unruffled By Reports From Korea

BY EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW—(AP)—The fighting in Korea has made the Russian people neither excited nor nervous.

For all the behavior of the men and women in the street would indicate, this week has been just like any other. Moscow residents follow the Korean situation in the newspapers and on the radio. People go about their business in their usual fashion.

Nothing even resembling undue agitation among the people has appeared.

The city's Summer social season is at its height for the diplomatic corps, with numerous parties being given. Wednesday night black ties and bare shoulders scurried to radios to hear President Truman speak to the American Newspaper Guild. Reception was good.

The newspapers have continued to follow the Korean situation closely. Here are some of Thursday's headlines:

"Aggressive Actions By United States In Korea."
"American Reports On Military Actions In Korea."
"How Aggression Against Korean Peoples Democratic Republic Was Prepared."

DOWN NO. 1—Lt. Robert H. Deward of Atlanta, Ga., a member of the 8th Fighter Group, is credited with shooting down the first North Korean fighter plane over South Korea during the evacuation of Americans. Deward was piloting an F-80.

Andrews Man Held In Shooting

BROWNWOOD—(AP)—Luther L. McConnell, 36, Brownwood oil field worker, was wounded critically Wednesday night in the living room of Mrs. Elizabeth Harwell's apartment here.

Held in jail Thursday was Mrs. Harwell's estranged husband, Yates, 51, of Andrews. No charges were filed immediately.

Both McConnell and Mrs. Harwell are former residents of Winters and Andrews.

'Come In Shooting'
Mrs. Harwell, 51, told Sheriff Otis Shaw the following story:

She and McConnell were in the living room about 10:45 p. m. when she heard someone rattling the locked back screen. She admitted a man who came in shooting, hitting McConnell twice in the head and twice in the body with 22 caliber slugs. He was in a critical condition Thursday.

When a neighbor came after hearing Mrs. Harwell scream, she found Harwell in the living room holding the couple's three-year-old daughter, Barbara Joe, in his arms. Harwell told the neighbor to call officers.

The daughter had been living with her mother. Mrs. Harwell said she was not divorced but that the couple had discussed divorce action.

Truman, MacArthur Names Are 'Booed' At Communist Rally

NEW YORK—(AP)—The names of President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur were booed Wednesday night at Communist-endorsed rally opposing U. S. intervention in Korea.

Some 9,000 persons half-filled Madison Square Garden at the "Hands Off Korea" rally sponsored by the Civil Rights Congress and editorially promoted by the Communist newspaper, "The Daily Worker."

The Civil Rights Congress has been labeled subversive by the attorney general's office.

Among the speakers were: Gus Hall, one of the 11 convicted Communist leaders; Negro singer Paul Robeson; Ring Lardner, Jr., one of the "Hollywood 10" cited for contempt of Congress for failure to answer questions concerning Communist affiliations; Rep. Vito Marcantonio (American Labor Party-NY), and the Rev. Richard Morford, executive secretary of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, also cited by the government as a Communist group, "Wall Street Agents."

Hall urged the group to unite to stop the warmakers in their tracks and added: "Even in this zero hour, World War III is not inevitable."

Robeson told the crowd, "We might as well tell the ocean waves to stand still as to stop the tide of freedom in the Far East."

The new Far East policy of the U. S., he said, "means war in the name of an idiotic campaign against communism."

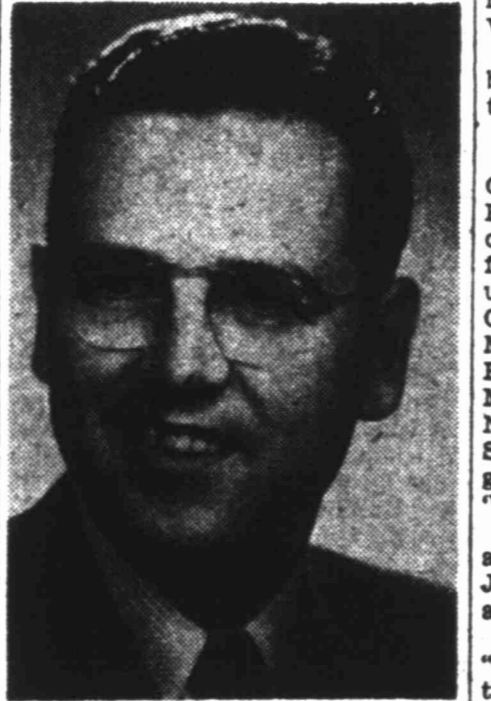

Marcantonio shouted that President Truman had violated the Constitution by intervening in Korea.

Morford told the group U. S. leaders are making "a desperate drive to regiment the American people for a shooting war because the cold war has failed."

Alice Faye Is Passing Up Hollywood For TV Series

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusive-ly Yours: The official announcement read: "Alice Faye and 20th Century-Fox canceled their contract by mutual consent." But the lowdown is that Alice is passing up Hollywood for video.

She owed the studio one picture on a contract which prohibited her from appearing in front of a camera elsewhere. Now she's free for a TV series, on film, with hubby Phil Harris.

Dick Powell will bill himself in the 'future as Richard Powell. He tried to get MGM to make the switch in ads for "Right Cross," but was overruled. There's a TV series cooking for Harold Lloyd, Jr., under the James Schwartz production banner. And the elder Lloyd has decided to star the chip-off-the-old-block in a remake of one of his own comedy hits. Papa will produce and direct. Dorothy McGuire's next will be "The Bright Scarf"—a modern Joan of old heroine in blue jeans with short-tails flying. King-Vidor directs.

It was a year ago that Ronald Reagan broke his leg in six places during a charity baseball game. He's still checking in for treatments but the leg is within 10 per cent of normal.

More and more of Hollywood's action and chase scenes are being filmed from a helicopter. Ace pilot Vaughn Krup of Pacific Helicopter is the boy behind the controls. It was Krug who dropped thousands of red feathers over L. A.'s Pershing Square Park to signal opening of the last Community Chest drive. He still laughs about it. A drunk blinked at the cascading red feathers, called the police department and hiccuped: "Shay, there's a guy up in a helicopter here murdering all the park's pigeons. Bloody feathers are dropping all over."

RKO's latest guess is that "Stromboli" will gross about $2,500,000. Profits will be nil despite its hit and run showings. Keefe Brasselle, once a band drummer, will sit in—minus billing—on one of the Mill Herth trio's London recordings. Best juvenile performance I've seen in a long time—nine-year-

CARNIVAL

The Janet Leigh-Lee McGregor pairing, I hear, is strictly at the request of RKO. He'll be with her in the picture, "Two Tickets to Broadway."

Big fight scenes in the first "Wild Bill Hickok" film found Guy Madison slugging it out with the villains while his side-kick, Andy Devine, was tied to a chair. Cracked Andy, as a prop man started to untie him between scenes: "Fox Lord's sake, don't untie me or I'll have to get in the fight."

Look for Mickey Rooney to be the next top star looking at TV camera. . . RCA-Victor is tempting Janet Blair with a terrific recording contract. . . Reason Hollywood hopefuls are storming offices of local TV film producers and offering even to kick back their salaries is that video film is replacing expensive screen tests as a way to crash movie studios.

Alan Wells, who plays the killer in Jack Warner, Jr.'s "The Gun," landed the part on the strength of his performance in a TV film. Elaine Barrie says she'll tell "John" in a book about her life with John Barrymore.

The words to the patriotic hymn, "America," were written in 1832 by a theological student, Samuel Francis Smith, to the tune, "God Save the King," which he found in a German song book.

"Dis? Why, dis is me gavel wit' which I rap for order whenever discussions get too heated!"

Recoilless Artillery Boosts Defenders' Anti-Tank Strength

WASHINGTON (AP)—Recent progress in recoilless artillery and "shaped charges" accounts for much of the current optimistic talk of American officials on the subject of Western European defense. In the last year they have become confident, they say, that enough defensive power can eventually be built up in Western Europe to halt the Russians if they should attack.

The recoilless weapons vastly increase the power of defenders to stem the advance of mechanized armies spearheaded by masses of tanks. A great tank force is one of the chief Russian assets. Officials say they have 40,000 of them, compared to America's 6,000. Some observers, however, say the Russian tank force is much larger than that—perhaps 100,000 or more.

To knock out tanks from ground level, you need a lot of artillery. But artillery is costly, and peace-time armies are unlikely to have enough of it at the outbreak of war to hold a broad front against tanks. Recoilless guns are so relatively cheap that they can be manufactured in large quantities. They can be carried by infantry troops and can be fired by two men. Yet they can do as much damage as conventional artillery.

The fire team normally is two men. The 75 weighs 106 pounds and takes four men to carry. It is fired from a machine-gun tripod. The 105 will be mounted on a light, two-wheel carriage.

Drawn By Tractor You can appreciate the feather-weight qualities of these weapons by comparing them with conventional artillery. One of the lightest field pieces, the 75-millimeter pack howitzer, weighs 1,850 pounds. Much of the weight is in the heavy carriage and shock-absorbing mechanism in a can of great weight and recoil. The weapon must be drawn by a tractor or a mule, and four or five men are required to serve it.

The light, recoilless weapons, which infantry troops can carry along with their small arms, can be distributed as to within reach of every man on the ground. When tanks attack, the soldiers can knock them off at 2,000 to 4,000 yards, instead of helplessly ping-pong away at them with their rifles, while the heavily armored juggernauts mow them down. Military men say the new weapons will stimulate greatly the courage and fighting spirit of the foot soldiers.

The bazooka was designed for this kind of work, hurling a powerful, tank-busting projectile. But the bazooka's range is too short. The soldiers firing it have to wait for the tank to get within 75 yards before they can be sure of a knock-out. The recoilless principle of the new rifles is an old one, but it was not well developed until the closing days of the last war. Instead of the projectile's being shot out of the barrel with the full force of the explosive charge, which causes recoil, the recoilless principle of the new rifles is an old one, but it was not well developed until the closing days of the last war. How to turn a family vacation into hard work:
Be too ambitious about the distance you plan to travel each day. It's the last 50 miles of a too-long driving day that start the children fighting and make Mom and Pop wonder if a vacation is really worth the effort.

Plan the kind of vacation that keeps Mom as busy cooking and looking after her family as she is at home. If the family is going to

Mears-Edwards Vows Repeated In Garden

In a garden ceremony in the home of her parents, Dixie Ann Mears became the bride of Howard Ray Edwards Wednesday night. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mears, 411 West Nobles Street, Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards, 1805 North Bryant Street. The Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. An archway covered with vines and tied with a bow of blue mullin formed the background for the ceremony.

Dephne Tabor was the maid of honor and Bobbie Rhea Dalley of Odessa was the flower girl. Don Mears, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Yates E. Brown, Carl Harding and Bobby Greer of Odessa.

Musical Program
Mrs. Joseph Mims, organist, played "Clair de Lune," Debussy, during the ceremony, and the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" for the processional, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," for the recessional. Wesley May sang "Always," Berlin, and "I Love You Truly," Jacobs-Bond.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue organza ballerina length dress fashioned with a stand-up collar, a V-neckline and an apron effect in the front of the skirt. She wore a blue horse-hair braid picture hat with white flowers around the edge of the open crown. Her only jewelry was pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations.

Her maid of honor wore a yellow organza fashioned like the bride's dress without the apron effect. She wore white shoes and carried a bouquet of lavender asters. The flower girl wore a dress of white dotted swiss over a pink slip and a bandeau of pink carnations in her hair. She carried a small basket with rose petals in it.

Reception Held
Mrs. Mears chose for her daughter's wedding a gray and white blimberg sheer with navy and white accessories. Mrs. Edwards wore a navy and white dotted Swiss dress with navy and white accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Shirley Bunt presided at the bride's book and Mrs. Jess Pierce of Kermit, Nadine Dalley of Odessa, Carolyn Clabornie and Mary Lynn Manning served. An arrangement of white Esther Reed daisies centered the table. The wedding cake was iced in blue and white.

Out-of-city wedding guests included persons from Pecos, Odessa, Grandfalls, Kermit, Monahans, Hemphill and Abilene.

Will Live In Midland
When the couple left on a wedding trip to San Antonio, Mrs. Edwards was wearing a brown and white dotted swiss dress with brown and white accessories and a carnation corsage. They will be at home at 403B West Cowden Street after July 2.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were graduated from Midland High School. Mrs. Edwards attended Hardin-Simmons University and is employed by the Skelly Oil Company. Edwards is an employee of the Furr Food Store.

Parties Are Given For Nell Thompson And W. S. Blackman
A rehearsal party for the Thompson-Blackman wedding party was held Tuesday night in the backyard of the home of the bride-to-be.

Nell Thompson and William Stanley Blackman will be married at 6 p.m. Thursday in the First Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mrs. L. C. Mooney of Brownwood and R. J. Gruening of Midland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Blackman of Midland.

Mrs. Jimmy Davenport, Peggy Gruening and Mrs. James Hill complimented the bride-elect with a shower in the Gruening home Monday.

Fuschia shasta daisies and white stock appointed the table. The honoree and hostesses wore white and fuschia split carnation corsages. Guests included Mrs. C. C. Mooney, Betty Silver, Billie Womack, Mrs. Kenneth Baker, Mrs. Charles Hill and Jean Hughes.

Altrusa Club Follows International Plan
Bertie Boone, Midland Altrusa Club president, has announced that the local club will adopt a program for the year following the outlined program released by the Altrusa International.

Nylon Zips Play Clothes

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—Streamlined play clothes owe their practical and handsome styling to colored nylon zippers which make functional contrast trimmings for togs.

Zippers are used as closings for pockets as well as plaquettes and jacket fronts to eliminate any flaps or frou-frou which might interfere with action. Yellow cuffed shorts and brief bolero, left, have dark brown zippers as contrast trim. A beige zipper closes the front of the sleeveless brown vestee, right, which is paired with gold pedal pushers that have brown zippered pockets on the hip.

Colbert's Report To YOU

Good will is a kind of a bloom on a store.

If it has it . . . it doesn't need anything else.

If it doesn't have it, anything else it has doesn't matter.

You really can't buy it and you can't sell it.

But if you lose it, you're through.

It's the one thing we want most at Colbert's.

That's why we insist you get 100% satisfaction from anything you buy in our store.

That's why we want to give you those little extra attentions, those little additional services.

That's why we tailor our easy credit plans to suit your individual needs.

That's why we're delighted to send out-of-town as well as Midland customers clothes on approval, without obligation.

That's why we pride ourselves on being a friendly store where you can come in, browse at leisure, sip a coke, meet your friends.

That's why we keep a constant stream of fresh, bright merchandise flowing into our store daily. All to earn the thing we want most—

Your Good Will.

New Title Would Help

Seldom in American history has a program with high aims had a title so sterile and empty-sounding as "Point Four."

What is it? A plan to give backward, undeveloped parts of the world the benefit of this country's technical know-how in health, sanitation, farming and other fields.

The program acquired its dry-as-dust name from the fact President Truman, in his inaugural address in 1949, listed it fourth in a series of proposals for world peace and recovery.

Congress already has authorized the plan and its initial funds, so the case for it need not be argued as a general idea.

Secretary of State Acheson, whose public utterances are not often eloquent despite his incisive mind, nevertheless made a start in this direction in a speech the other day.

As he sees it, the world now has grown too small for any powerful, healthy country like the United States to view without worry the existence of areas plagued by disease, poverty and ignorance.

"We must make the world understand that it is not only the Communists who will send people out to live among them," he said.

The program needs specialists who will go into the backward lands fired with missionary zeal, with a willingness to endure hardships to "carry on a people-to-people kind of diplomacy."

As a small sample of what could be done, Acheson noted that a handful of expert outsiders had in four years cut the malaria rate in Greece from 2,000,000 cases a year to 50,000.

"If you could improve the quality of the rice seed in Asia, you would almost solve the (Asiatic) food problem—it's that simple."

Cast in these tangible terms, the program takes on vivid life and impact. That's the way this story must be told if it is to win the full support of the American people, as it must to succeed.

As long as the majority of human beings have to go through a brutal daily struggle for enough to eat it is foolish to talk of world peace.

The state of Israel is a living thing—it is a nation. I am proud our government was the first to recognize it.

The supreme challenge of the second half of the 20th century is presented by that great majority of the population of the world—over 1,600,000,000—whose poverty, hunger and insecurity must be substantially remedied.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written For NEA Service There are some hands that the average player can play every bit as well as the master...

North should have passed at three notrump. His partner's bidding showed a balanced hand, and North should have realized that his long spades would be just as good at notrump as at spades.

When the hand was played, at four spades, West opened the deuce of hearts, East put up the king, and Crawford won with the ace.

Like every top expert, Crawford does not depend on fitness when he can avoid doing so. His method was to lead the king of spades and then a trump to dummy's ace, exhausting the trumps of the opponents.

Next he led dummy's remaining heart. When West played low, Crawford finessed his nine of hearts, hoping to force out the queen.

As it happened, West was able to win with the ten of hearts. West returned the deuce of clubs, hoping his partner would win and would return a diamond. East put up the ten of clubs, and South won with the ace.

Crawford next led the jack of hearts, and West played the king. Instead of ruffing in the dummy, Crawford discarded dummy's remaining club!

Now there was no way for West to give his partner the lead. When he led a second round of clubs, dummy could ruff. Crawford got back to his hand with a trump to ruff out his last club in the dummy.

He was then in position to sacrifice the diamond.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Dirksen Relies on Hard Work To Spill Scott Lucas in Illinois

By PETER EDSON NEA Service Correspondent SPRINGFIELD, ILL. — Ex-Congressman Everett M. Dirksen is running all over the state in his campaign to defeat the incumbent Democrat, Scott Lucas, for U. S. senator from Illinois this November.

Up to the April 11 primary, Dirksen held 580 political rallies. He hopes to hold that many more between primary and final election.

Dirksen already has scheduled three-a-day mornings, afternoon and evening political meetings for September and October, the last two months of the campaign.

He is trying to speak to as many non-political organization meetings as possible, in order to reach the non-Republicans who aren't already convinced that he should be elected.

So he talks to women's clubs, parent-teacher associations, farm meetings, Rotary, Kiwanis and the service clubs, to Germans, Poles, Danes, Elks, church groups, Irish unionists, the many negro organizations in Chicago's negro wards.

In the Fall he'll hit the country in direct support. It is a tough life, though perhaps no tougher than that faced by any other political "out" trying to defeat an "in." Dirksen looks fine. He has fully recovered from the illness and eye trouble which forced his resignation from Congress two years ago.

His beret is strong. He is tanned. His hair is a little grayer, though just as unruly as when he moved his mane in the well of the House in Washington. He beams on the platform. He greets local candidates and celebrities with a heartiness that is somewhat overwhelming. To the ladies he is courtliness itself.

Busy Campaigner On most of his journeys up and down the state, he travels by car, to save money. Mrs. Dirksen drives for him. She also serves as his secretary. When he wants to handle mail, he drives the car and dictates to Mrs. Dirksen. They were so busy campaigning that they couldn't attend the recent graduation of their daughter Joy, from Bradley College in Peoria, July underfoot.

Dirksen never has to read a speech. This makes him an effective campaigner. In Congress, Dirksen was one of only about three representatives who were in command of the undivided attention of the House when he spoke. The other two are Speaker Sam Rayburn and James W. Wadsworth of New York.

Dirksen carries with him at all times a little black loose leaf note book. His staff says he has about 70 of these little black books now. They're kept up to date with facts and figures. And when Dirksen wants to make a speech on any subject, he can cite from the book, and flibbing between the lips.

So far in the campaign, Dirksen hasn't had to get too specific on most issues. Dirksen's program won't be spelled out, in full, until after Labor Day. In the hot summer months he believes it will be hard for the voters to grapple with deep issues. He is convinced, however, that the campaign will be fought out on national issues—Washington issues—and not as a conflict of personalities.

Among the issues he has touched on so far in his campaign are high taxes and government spending, the Plan in government, the Marshall Plan and foreign aid, FEPC, aid to education, socialized medicine and creeping socialism in general.

He feels that the Taft-Hartley act and the Taft amendments to that act—which he was for—are no longer an issue. The Brannan plan he does not consider an issue in Illinois since the Illinois Agricultural Association—the local Farm Bureau Federation organization which is 90,000 strong—voted against it.

Dirksen has been in a somewhat ticklish position on the Marshall Plan. It was Dirksen who took the floor and saved the Truman administration from a $1,000,000,000 cut on the original Marshall Plan appropriation. Dirksen says there was a surplus in the Treasury then and the national debt was being reduced. Now the situation has changed. The government is on a deficit financing and it's time for another look at what's to be done next.

Because of this, Dirksen has been accused of catering to Chicago Tribune editorial policy, which has opposed the Marshall Plan from the start. But Dirksen says he never has asked the Tribune for support. The Chicago Daily News is for him.

In recent speeches, Dirksen has been stressing the moral and the ethical crisis that faces America in such things as the charges of perversion among government employees, the Kansas City ballot box thefts, the income tax exemptions granted to contributors to the Democrat, Jefferson-Jackson rallies in Washington and Chicago, the President's "non-political tour," and so on.

In the Illinois primary, the Democrats polled 912,000 votes, the Republicans a total of 877,000. The Democrats carried Cook County by 536,000 to 331,000. The Republican carried the rest of the state 545,000 to 376,000.

Who wins therefore will depend on who gets out the most of the 1,000,000 to 3,000,000 non-voters.

Questions and Answers

Q—Did the Japanese government pay for the sinking of the Panay? A—The Japanese apologized and assumed financial responsibility for the death of the crew and property losses sustained as a result of the attack on the USS Panay.

Q—What is meant by the Knickerbocker school of writers? A—The term refers to a group of writers including Irving Berlin, Fats Waller, and Joseph Rodman Drake.

Q—Where did Rutherford B. Hayes receive news of his election to the presidency? A—He was probably the only president who received news of his election while riding on a train, because formal declaration of his election had been delayed by the Electoral College. This incident occurred on March 2, 1877, while Mr. Hayes was enroute to Washington, D. C.

Q—Do the Aleutian Islands belong to the United States? A—Yes. They were purchased as part of Alaska in 1867.

Q—Are parking meters increasing in number? A—The number of communities with parking meters has more than doubled in the last three years, being installed in at least 2,240 localities. Boston leads with 5,000 meters.

from damage suits against their assured. By the state law the insurance liquidator Colonel Winton automatically had taken over the company when it fell short of the minimum deposit requirement. So far as I could see, W. G. McGregor had gone broke simply because of bad luck in having an abnormal number of damage suits filed against the people he had insured.

"Does Mr. Waring seem to think that McGregor should be prosecuted?" I asked innocently. "I certainly do!" Waring said with loud emphasis. "The record shows that McGregor held back for 30 days a complete report on the number of outstanding damage suits in Keever's possession, violated the law in doing so and permitted scores of other people to buy policies of his company."

Keever frowned. "It's as serious as for a bank cashier to accept deposits after he knows that his bank is insolvent. Why didn't you mention this in your report?" "Because that much was already in Mr. Waring's report," I answered coolly but with an undertone of anger.

KEEVER was not plicated. "I, Mr. Waring had not come to me with a vigorous protest I never should have noticed your serious omission. I don't know how you could have white-washed McGregor when he unlawfully sold policies after he knew his company was insolvent!" "Sure, he knew it would be insolvent if those buzzards in the insurance division closed him down! He was trying to stave off collapse till he could scrape up the required deposit. If he had been given a little more time, he might have done it. Nobody would have lost a nickel!"

Waring sneered. "Personally I can't believe Corbett's naive theory that neither McGregor nor his daughter ever took anything out of the business. I'll bet my shirt that they've both got plenty of money salting away—and plenty to buy their way out of a jam!" I faced Waring. "Are you saying McGregor bought me off?" Waring returned my glare. "The idea has occurred to me." (To Be Continued)

MURDER LIQUIDATED

Then where will I be without the evidence? No, Shelle, I'm hanging onto the four grand. The inter-office unit cracked alive. Kay Kennedy said: "Mr. Keever wants to see you, Ben. At once!"

PAUL WARING, first assistant attorney general, was with Keever. Waring, one of the few men around the office who didn't look insignificant in Keever's presence, was an old hand at politics, having held several important appointive jobs. I had a hunch that he had been quietly building up a statewide following through the years. He fixed a coldly critical gaze upon me. He had brought Keever a beef, and I knew it.

Keever eyed me sourly, and I saw that he had a file open in front of him. "What's this I hear about the McGregor case? Paul tells you I gave McGregor a clean bill of health!"

W. G. McGregor was the president and almost sole owner of the McGregor Mutual Casualty Company, an outfit specializing in automobile accident insurance. The state insurance division had declared the company insolvent, taken over the assets and started liquidation.

I had investigated the criminal aspect of McGregor's activities, with a view to prosecution if he had defrauded his stockholders and policy holders. In a mutual company a policy holder is as liable as a stockholder for deficiency assessments, more so in many states.

McGregor and his daughter, Sylvia, who had worked in his office as his private secretary, had lived frugal lives, taking no money from the business and putting every penny back into it. A series of bad breaks had reduced their resources to a point where they no longer could cover the outstanding liability claims resultant

"I think the best thing would be to go to Keever and put all your cards on the table," Shelton watched me worriedly. "I shook my head. 'Keever would think I had an acute case of trigeminal. If I'd gone to him before he got the phone call, he might have believed me. But not now.'"

Shelton's brow furrowed, and finally he came up with: "Get rid of the money and the envelopes it came in." "Sound idea, but it's two-edged. Someone may use that money to prove a bribe attempt was made, or it may come to pass that I'll be the one to prove that point."

'Characterization' Is Discussed In Writers Meeting

"Characterization" was discussed in a meeting of the Creative Writers Group of the American Association of University Women Wednesday night in the home of Mrs. F. L. Conyers. Mrs. Conyers and Mrs. Leonard Swords discussed the topic. Points brought out in the discussion included rules for characterization. Some of these were: know your character and his background well; in the development use conflict in desires of person; and use a contrast in characters. Original works of the members were read. It was decided in the business session to have quiet reading of the members' writings rather than oral reading as has been done. The next meeting was announced for July 12 in the home of Mrs. Ernest Sidwell, 1907 West Indiana Street. Members present included Nell Shaw, Mrs. Norman Sax, Mrs. Sidwell, Mrs. Brandon Rex, Mrs. J. C. Carl, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. R. S. Bogardus, Mrs. Paul Oles, Mrs. Terry Tidwell and Mrs. B. L. Denison.

Both Old And New Players Will Be Seen In 'Ten Nights'

W. H. Pomeroy, Jr.

Norris Creath

Lee Flood

Addie Penn

Both old and new workers have had a hand in preparations for "Ten Nights In A Barroom." Summer Mummies melodrama which will open for the public Friday night. A private showing is being given Thursday night. A full dress rehearsal was held Wednesday. All performances will be held in the American Legion Hall. Curtain time is 8:30 p. m. Table reservations may be made at Tailorline, Inc. from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on days of the show—Friday, Saturday, Monday, and July 6, 7, and 8. The Summer Mummies is composed of a group of Midlanders interested in the Community Theater. Their shows are given each Summer for the benefit of the theater. Last Summer, "The Drunkard," the Summer Mummies first production, was given last year. Julie Rindsig, head of the painting crew for "The Nights," has, for the past several weeks, been designing sets and supervising the work of her crew members. She has worked in a number of Community Theater shows. Bill Pomeroy, "Ten Nights" director, is a well-known Community Theater worker. He is remembered for his performances of leading roles in "Command Decision," "Pygmalion," and "State of the Union." He directed "The Drunkard" last Summer. He has been active in the yearly Kiwanis Club minstrel shows, and has written lyrics for many of the songs in them. While at Amherst University, Pomeroy was a member of the Amherst Players, and toured with them to Vienna, Austria, before the war. Assistant Director Betty Simpson, assistant director, is a well-known Midlander as Isabel Lambert in "Miranda." She was in many plays in Southern California during the war and has worked with the El Paso Little Theater, the Long Beach Community Theater and the Long Beach Playmakers. E. J. Elliott, stage manager for the show, has worked with the Community Theater for some time and has stage managed several of its shows. W. F. Pennebaker, who has worked as head of the directing committee for the Summer Mummies, has been active in various phases of Community Theater. He was one of the principal workers in "The Drunkard." While attending Harvard University, Pennebaker was a member of the Harvard Dramatic Club. Otto Director Bob Richards is directing the olio numbers after the play and will have a dance routine. Richards and his wife, Audrey, recently have moved to Midland.

where he is setting up a dance studio. During the war, Richards was in the motion picture division of the Air Corps and after that, was with the Republic and Eagle Lion Studios for two years. During the 1930's, he had a chorus line in the San Francisco World's Fair. Among his pupils have been Ann Miller, and Belita, the ice skating star. "Girl of the Golden West" is one of the motion pictures he worked with. In "Ten Nights In A Barroom," Norris Creath will play Joe Morgan; Addie Penn, his wife; and Sally Lees, his pitiful child. Lee Flood will be tavern keeper Simon Slade. Other members of the cast are Charles Dixon, Lew Hoey, Jr., Toby Hilliard, John DeFord, Marymargaret Corbett and Bobby Perry.

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam Street, Covington, Ky., says that she didn't realize how wonderful it is to be without those unbearable aches and pains of neuritis and she thinks HADACOL deserves only the highest praise— Mrs. Kitchen was suffering deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains. Unlike most remedies HADACOL doesn't give temporary relief, but instead treats the real cause of the sickness due to such deficiencies. Mrs. Kitchen's statement: "So far I have taken three bottles of HADACOL and I am just starting on my fourth. Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back, my arms; I could hardly move without having those terrible aches and pains. I seemed to have a cold all the time and worst of all I couldn't eat anything to give my system a balanced diet. Then I heard about HADACOL from a very good friend of mine. After taking the second bottle the aches and pains were about gone and my appetite had improved. Now I am on top of the world. I eat well, I have gained weight and, best of all, the aches and pains are gone completely. I heartily recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

TEC Handles 305 Applicants In June

A total of 305 applications for positions were filed during June with the Midland office of the Texas Employment Commission, J. D. Bechtol, TEC director here, announced Thursday. This represented an increase of 32 over the previous month. Referrals to jobs during June totaled 496, Bechtol said, 89 below the May figure. Three hundred sixty-nine was hired during the month. Many of the new applications were May college graduates. These included applicants with degrees in accounting, electrical engineering, petroleum engineering, geology and chemistry. Several draftsmen also have applied for work in the area. Openings existing include positions for automotive and truck mechanics, Chrysler mechanics, auto, appliances and insurance salesmen, men's furnishing salesmen, office machine servicemen, truck drivers for a large service organization, experienced oil field clerks, dry cleaners and pressers, stenographers, clerk typists and two experienced sales ladies. The hottest area of Australia is the northwestern part; the coolest, the southeastern part.

Committees Are Announced By Twentieth Century Club

Department heads and standing committee chairmen for the Twentieth Century Study Club's 1950-51 season have been announced by Mrs. W. G. Epley, president. Department chairmen are Mrs. Duke Jimerson, American home; Mrs. L. E. Patterson, American citizenship; Mrs. Frank Monroe, education and cancer; Mrs. Ray Howard, fine arts; Mrs. W. E. Shipp, Jr., international relations; Mrs. Charles Snure, legislation; Mrs. Carl O. Hyde, youth conservation; and Mrs. J. B. Bain, motion pictures. Mrs. R. T. Cox, Mrs. Harlan Howell and Mrs. James L. Daugherty will be on the membership committee while Mrs. Edwin C. Hall and Mrs. Jimerson will have charge of telephone work. Ways and means will be under the direction of Mrs. B. R. Mathews, Mrs. H. S. Collings and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. A. C. Elliott and Mrs. Tom Edgington will prepare the scrap book. The hospitality committee will have Mrs. H. H. Redding, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Raymond Leggett, Mrs. Snure and Mrs. Shipp as its members.

Working on the year book, which nearly is completed, are Mrs. C. E. Nelson, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. G. E. George, Mrs. Robert Donnell, Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Jimerson. Other officers, who will begin their work in September, are Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Redding, vice presidents; Mrs. Edgington, recording secretary; Mrs. Hall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mathews, treasurer; Mrs. Elliott, reporter; Mrs. Howell, parliamentary; Mrs. Bain, federation counselor, and Mrs. Daugherty, historian. RED CROSS MEETING Interested Midland citizens are asked not to forget the annual meeting and election to be held by the Red Cross chapter here at 7 p. m. Thursday in the ARC building on West Indiana Street.

2,070 Americans Are Taken Out Of Korea

TOKYO—(AP)—American evacuees from war-torn South Korea reached a total of 2,070 Thursday. Others are expected to arrive in small boats during the next 10 days. Most of the evacuees are housed at Camp Hakata in Southern Kyushu. Some 335 arrivals have been sent by train to the Kyoto-Osaka area.

Worry of FALSE TEETH

Slipping or Irritating? Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEREIN on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEREIN at any drug store.

Sidney Nicks To Be Monahans Banker

MONAHANS — Sidney P. Nicks, executive vice president of the Citizens State Bank of Roby, will assume duties as vice president of the First State Bank at Monahans July 1, it was announced Wednesday.

Nicks was assistant examiner with the National Bank Examining Force, working out of Dallas headquarters, when he accepted the position of cashier in the Roby bank 26 months ago. On August, last year, he was promoted to executive vice president.

His other bank experience has been with the Clovis National Bank at Clovis, and the First National Bank at Amarillo. He served three years and eight months in the Army, with two years overseas duty.

Giant Auto Industry Set For Quick Shift To Arms, If Needed

DETROIT —(AP)—The nation's giant auto industry built $29,000,000 worth of armament in World War II; it could build much more much faster if another emergency arose.

That's the view of high auto industry sources Thursday. Nobody doubts the industry has a tentative program for arms production in another war. But its executives don't talk about war production possibilities excepting in generalities.

Yet it probably isn't much of a secret that just about every auto industry plant has been surveyed as to its adaptability to armament production and that every manufacturer knows what he will be asked to make.

The auto industry likes to think of itself as "freedom's arsenal." Perhaps it has a right to that designation. In World War II it made almost every type of armament from bullets to 80-ton tanks. It built small arms and long range guns, torpedoes and aircraft engines, tank destroyers and bomb sights.

Bombers—One An Hour
And before the war's end it had one plant alone turning out bomber planes at the rate of one every hour.

The industry also had a share in development work on the atom bomb. This secret work, incidentally, was carried on in what appeared to be a department store building in the process of alteration in the heart of downtown Detroit.

The industry's productive capacity has been expanded greatly since World War II. It spent more than $1,000,000,000 for new buildings and new manufacturing equipment. It leased many wartime installations from the government.

And just about all the leases contain "national security" clauses. This provides for a quick return of the installations to armament work if needed.

Right now industry sources generally profess to have heard not even a rumor that some of their factories may soon be converted to arms production.

But informed sources say that if another emergency arises the conversion to arms production will be quick and decisive. And, once again, there would be no civilian car and truck production.

U. S.-Mexico Flag Exchange Urged To House Committee

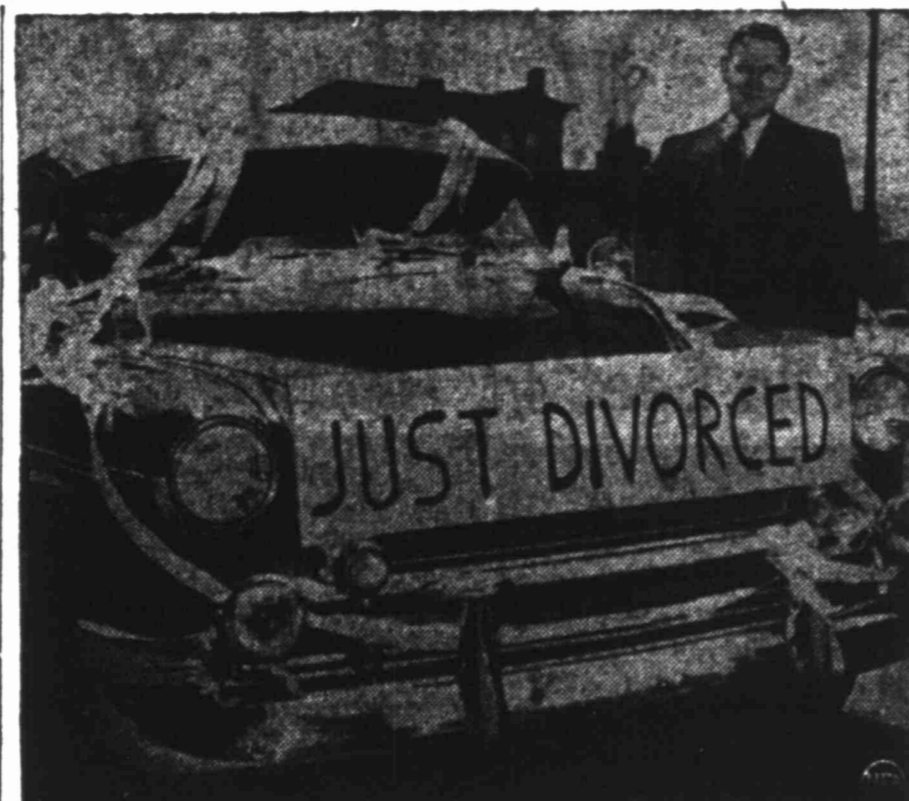

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee was asked Thursday to approve a bill for an exchange between the United States and Mexico of battle flags each captured from the other in their war a century ago.

The committee is considering a Senate-passed bill to authorize return to Mexico of a number of flags and troop banners seized by U. S. soldiers at Monterrey, Mexico City and other historic fighting points in the Mexican War of 1846.

Rep. Ken Regan of Texas said he was going to urge approval of the legislation, and recommend it also provide that Mexico return to this country some American colors which she captured and still holds. He suggested that the ceremony take place at the Big Bend International Park.

CONDITIONED IMPROVED

George Bailey, Midlander who was seriously injured when a brick fell three stories and hit him on the head Wednesday, was reported greatly improved Thursday following surgery by a Dallas brain specialist. Bailey was given emergency treatment at Western Clinic Hospital before being flown to Dallas in an ambulance plane. The Dallas doctor reported no injury to the brain from a bone fragment.

Rankin News

RANKIN—Peggy Owens, who has been in a San Angelo hospital since last Thursday receiving treatment for burns, is convalescing satisfactorily. Second and third degree burns covered the little girl's thighs and legs when her clothing caught fire from burning gasoline spilled on her at a barbecue fire in the yard of the Owens ranch home near Crane. Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Owens.

Mrs. S. O. Langford who has been a San Angelo hospital patient several weeks underwent surgery for a spinal condition on Saturday. She is reported "doing satisfactorily."

T. H. Blue and children left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit in Shamrock with relatives.

Helicopter Service Plans Are Approved

LONG BEACH, CALIF.—(AP)—The Harbor Commission has approved plans for helicopter service between inland California points and ships at the Matson Navigation Company's $6,000,000 Marine Terminal, now under construction.

Arthur Eldridge, general manager of the harbor department, said Wednesday it would be the first helicopter-to-ships service in the world.

Under the plan the aircraft would pick up passengers at airports, and rail and bus stations and fly them to a landing area at nearby Wilmington.

Parisians To Hold 'Texas Square Dance'

PARIS —(AP)—Some of Paris' best-dressed people will turn out in blue jeans and checkered shirts August 6 for a "Texas square dance."

Jacques Fath, Paris designer who learned square dancing during a visit to Texas, will be host—in his newly acquired 400-year-old chateau near Paris.

Fath has arranged to fly six square dance musicians from Texas for the occasion, and has hired 32 young dancers to show the rest of his guests the steps. Fath and his wife, Genevieve, will help with the teaching, he said.

Philip Murray Okays Truman Korea Action

CLEVELAND —(AP)—CIO President Philip Murray approved of President Truman's action on Korea as a "courageous and forthright" stand.

In a telegram read at the annual convention of the CIO Communications Workers Wednesday, he added:

"We have learned from other aggressions during the last 15 years that if we had permitted this to continue unchecked, it would only lead to further wars."

"President Truman has done everything possible to aid the peace-loving people in South Korea and merits the support of every CIO man in this country."

Murray is in a Pittsburgh hospital.

Petroleum Products Exempted From Hike

AUSTIN —(AP)—Exemption of intrastate freight rates on petroleum and petroleum products, except liquefied petroleum gas, from the recently granted eight per cent increase was announced Wednesday by the railroad commission.

The order was effective Thursday. Several other commodities had been exempted from the increases previously.

Georgia's Unique Unit Voting System Reelects Talmadge

ATLANTA —(AP)—Georgia Wednesday reelected a governor who failed to get the most votes—red-galvanized, tobacco-chewing Herman Talmadge.

A unique county unit election system headed Talmadge toward four more years of "white supremacy" rule in an era of growing unrest over racial problems.

But former Gov. M. E. Thompson, a last-ditch scraper, who refused to concede defeat, stunned many observers with his strength in Georgia's democratic primary.

Thompson held a steady lead in popular votes but that isn't what counts in Georgia—it's county unit votes.

And returns from 1,179 of 1,704 precincts, and 154 of 159 counties, gave Talmadge a lead in 116 counties with 272 unit votes; Thompson led in 38 counties with 126 unit votes.

Geese Renominated
Thompson's popular vote margin was 175,751 to 165,678.

Conservative Senator Walter George, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and senior member of the Foreign Relations Committee, swept all 107 counties reported. He was challenged for renomination by Atlanta Attorney Alex McLellan.

The unit system is one of the nation's strangest political devices. No other state has anything like it.

Under a scheme somewhat like the National Electoral College, each county is assigned from two to six unit votes. Candidates winning a majority of all that county's units, a majority of units—206—is needed to win.

County Packs Power
In effect, it packs power in a host of small rural counties, where Talmadge traditionally is strong.

Populous Fulton County (Atlanta), for example, with six units, has one unit for about 10,000 votes. Rural two - unit Chattahoochee County gets one unit for about 127 votes. Thus a single popular vote in Chattahoochee counts as much as 122 votes in Fulton.

The late Gov. Eugene Talmadge, who left son Herman his potent political organization, pulled a similar victory in 1946. He trailed his closest opponent by 13,000 popular votes but won with 242 unit votes.

The unit system has been attacked repeatedly in federal court as a violation of equal rights under the Constitution. But the U. S. Supreme Court a few months ago, in the latest case, refused to intervene.

Mrs. J. W. Shanor Dies At Crane

CRANE—Mrs. J. W. Shanor, 74, died early Wednesday at the home of a son, Ralph Shanor of the Gulf Camp. She had been in ill health since last September.

Survivors include the husband; four sons, Ralph of Crane, Orville of Monahans, Lawrence of Sterling City and Turney McCool of Bear Falls, Pa.; and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Grenell of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Charles Hammonds of Yuma, Ariz.

Funeral services are not set definitely. Tentative plans call for services at the First Methodist Church here with interment in Crane Cemetery.

Sander Is Blocked By Another Hurdle

CANDIA, N. H.—(AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander Thursday had his medical license back again—but still another hurdle blocked his path to full practice.

The New Hampshire Board of Registration in Medicine Wednesday restored the license it suspended last April 19, more than a month after the 41-year-old physician was acquitted of murder in the death of Mrs. Abbie Borotto, 56, a cancer patient.

However, he must regain membership in the Hillsboro County Medical Society—which dropped him when his license was revoked by the state body—before he can use the facilities of at least two hospitals.

Solon Compares His Colleagues To Wild Geese Set For Flight

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Have you ever pictured Congress as a flock of wild geese preparing to migrate? Well, Rep. Cottore (R-NH) pictures his colleagues that way in his weekly letter to constituents.

"Did you ever see a flock of wild geese getting set to fly south for the winter?" Cottore asked.

"Do you remember how restless and noisy they were; how they milled about with much honking and flapping of wings, suddenly dashing off on short flights; returning to sputter and quarrel with each other, keeping everybody disturbed within a radius of several miles, until they finally got into formation and start the long flight south?"

"If you have seen this you have a fairly good picture of the Congress during these pre-primary, pre-election pre-adjournment days."

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service says there is some evidence roosefish migrate considerable distances.

Murder Verdict Is Returned In Probe Of Hurst Shooting

DEKTER, N. M.—(AP)—A murder verdict was returned here Wednesday night in the death of Belle Hurst, wealthy Texas and New Mexico ranchwoman. Mrs. Hurst was found shot to death in her home here Sunday.

The coroner's jury ruled she died "at the hands of a person or persons unknown."

Despite the coroner's jury report, however, District Attorney Randolph Reese reported that "a great deal of the evidence points toward suicide." He said he and other officers were continuing an investigation.

Other officers said apparent ransacking of the Hurst home was "not the work of a professional," and the death has them puzzled.

Mrs. Hurst was shot through the heart. Three other bullets had been fired from the .38 caliber revolver found by her side. Two empty shells were found outside her bedroom window.

The house showed evidence of having been searched.

The only new testimony was given at Wednesday night's hearing by Mrs. Blanche Pollock, a neighbor of Mrs. Hurst.

She said she was awakened Friday night by shots. She testified there were "two or three shots," followed by silence and then a "final shot." She said she saw a light in Mrs. Hurst's bedroom but saw no activity there.

Mrs. Pollock found Mrs. Hurst's body Sunday after she became concerned because the ranchwoman did not attend church.

Abundant Living

John 14:16-17, 26; 16:7, 13; Acts 1:8

STEPS IN RECEIVING THE HOLY SPIRIT We come now to the ladder for receiving the Holy Spirit. Before we begin to take these steps, we must breathe a prayer, an inward one at least, that you may not stumble on these steps; for bungling or skillfulness in climbing will make all the difference between a life of defeat and one of victory. The steps are simple.

(1) Believe it is in the divine intention for you to receive the Holy Spirit. Fix it in your mind that the gift of the Spirit is not an exceptional gift for exceptional people who are in exceptional work, but a gift which is the birthright of every Christian. "But this speaks of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive." (John 7:39) Note: "were to receive"—receiving was in the divine intention and program for them. For whom? "They that believed on him." Here, then, is no exception. You, the ordinary Christian, are to receive the Holy Spirit, for you are counted among those who believe on him. "Ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off." (Acts 2:38-39) You belong to those "afar off." You are in the stream of the divine intention.

Now She Shops "Cash and Carry"

Without Painful Backache As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—helping the 18 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Custom Slaughtering Processing and Quick Freezing for Your Home Freezer. MIDLAND PACKING CO. East Highway 80 Phone 1234

2. Make sure that to receive the Holy Spirit is your intention. When I use the word intention, I mean will—not wishes, or passing emotions, or mental concepts, but will. Do you will to receive the Holy Spirit, not as a passing influence that may get you out of spiritual difficulties, give you momentary satisfaction in the thought that you have preached will, lift and inspire you in a crisis moment—not that, but as an abiding Power that will take over the citadel of yourself and reign there as a lifelong, and an eternity-long, proposition? (3) Bring the matter to a crisis. The soul grows by a series of crises. These is usually a crisis in conversion; there is usually a crisis here in receiving the Holy Spirit. Wall yourself in on both sides, so that there is no way around—you have to go forward or backward. The crisis moment has arrived. O Spirit of God, I have come to the crisis hour. I do hedge myself about, so that I shall not sidestep into lame facilities and half-way compromises. I want nothing less than Thee—Thee—Thee. I cannot be satisfied with gifts; I want the gift of Thyself. For the marginal doesn't satisfy me. Amen.—The Center calls. JayCees To Inspect Hospital Building

A near-record attendance at the weekly meeting of the Jaycees is forecast for Friday, with the announcement that the group will meet for luncheon in the cafeteria and to all that are afar off. (Acts 2:38-39) You belong to those "afar off." You are in the stream of the divine intention.

Here's How Renewed Draft Act Affects Youths 19-26

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON —(AP)— This is an ABC of the new draft act—the Selective Service Act—which Congress okayed this week. President Truman will sign it into law July 9, 1951. It is the same draft law which has been in effect since 1948, except for a couple of changes, only one of which need be mentioned here. The new law means: 1. Every youth must register with his draft board, or a place designated by it, within five days after reaching his eighteenth birthday. But he can't be drafted until he is 19, and all between those ages must be registered—can be drafted into the armed forces for 21 months' service, unless deferred or exempted for one reason or another. Actually, although this draft law has been on the books since 1948, no one has been drafted in the last 18 months. Why? Because enough youths have enlisted voluntarily to make drafting others unnecessary. Enlistments are running about 34,000 a month.

Some Are Exempt

Some will be exempted from the draft because they are: 1. Ministers and students studying for the ministry. 2. Physically, mentally, and morally unfit. 3. Aliens who have not declared themselves interested in becoming citizens. 4. State governors or others elected by the people of an entire state; members of Congress and state legislatures; state and federal judges. 5. Sole surviving sons of families which lost one or more members due to service in the armed forces. 6. Conscientious objectors who say, because of their religious beliefs, they can't perform any kind of military service, combat or non-combat. They will have to prove this to the draft board's satisfaction. 7. Youths now in the armed forces. Since they're already in military service, they can't very well be drafted for military service. 8. War veterans who served in the armed forces at least 90 days between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 12, 1945. 9. Service veterans who served 12 months between Sept. 8, 1940, and June 24, 1948, when this draft law first went into effect.

About Deferments

In addition, anyone reaching 26 is exempt from the draft since only those under 26 can be drafted under the law. There are other youths who can get deferment from induction into the armed forces for various reasons. Under the law an exempt person can't be drafted. But a deferred person is one who is kept out of the draft only for the period of such deferment. Deferments: 1. Conscientious objectors whose conscience won't let them fight although they're willing to do non-combat duty in the armed forces. 2. Youths who are in important farm work or some occupation considered necessary to the national health, safety or interest and can't be replaced. 3. Youths living with a wife and child; or youths whose drafting would mean a real hardship for someone dependent upon them. 4. Members of a reserve outfit, like the National Guard or the Officers' Reserve. But—and this was the only important change made by the new law—the President can call them into active service anytime he thinks they're needed. Also, to get deferred because you're in the National Guard, you must have been in it since before June 24, 1948. This means you can't duck the draft, if you're needed, by running to join the National Guard now. 6. College students in advanced courses in the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Each such case will be judged on its merits. A student just beginning ROTC training couldn't escape the draft simply by being in ROTC. What of a youth who wants to finish his schooling? The boards will defer a youth in high school or college until he has completed a year of school in the year in which he otherwise would have been drafted. This really is not a deferment, but only a postponement. Anyone disliking a board's decision can appeal to the appeal board in his state. If turned down there, he can appeal to a three-man final appeal board appointed by the President.

The Mature Parent: 9—Nagging Destroys Children's Affection For Their Parents

By HAROLD F. STRONG Written for NEA Service

An apparently harmless habit, continual "nagging" of children, can erode and destroy their respect and affection for parents. Boys of the Village voted "nagging" the most objectionable trait of parents. There is no point in deluding ourselves. A "nagging" father or mother is hard to live with. He is hard to live with because he is refusing to shoulder an adult responsibility. Unpleasant as it is to face, a "nagging" parent is one who places the responsibility of seeing his orders obeyed upon his child, instead of assuming the obligation himself. That is why children resent it. They know we have passed them the buck. It is unfair. Parents whose youngsters criticize them for this habit sometimes find it helpful to take their children into their confidence. Usually they will readily recognize our right to reject the humiliating role of the "nagger." If we defend our position as we should, we will generally find them pretty co-operative in working out a new understanding of our obligations to see that orders are obeyed. "Nagging" refuses children the security of knowing we mean what we say. Our approval is children's greatest satisfaction. "Nagging" is harmful because it sustains constant conflict and disapproval between us and our youngsters. We have no right to deprive them of our approval because we ourselves, through fear, disinterest or apathy, refuse to take responsibility. Tomorrow: You're a bad parent if you never make mistakes.

Texas A&M To Get Liberty Bell Replica

AUSTIN —(AP)— The full-scale replica of the Liberty Bell used in the current Independence Savings Bond Campaign in Texas will go to Texas A&M College. Gov. Allan Shivers announced Wednesday that A&M had been granted its request of several months ago that it be made the depository for the permanent care and display of the trophy. Arrangements have been made for a ceremony at College Station July 5 in which Nathan Adams of Dallas, chairman of the Texas drive, will present the bell to the state on behalf of the Treasury Department and Governor Shivers in turn will present it to Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of A&M.

WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF FAT?

When you buy Barcetrane, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for a printed diet. Barcetrane is not a vitamin tablet to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment, while reducing with Barcetrane. It contains no harmful drugs, but does contain ingredients to make you feel better. Barcetrane when mixed with grapefruit juice does this: First, cuts down your desire for sweets and fatty foods, but you do not have to FORCE yourself. Barcetrane takes care of your DESIRE. Second, dehydrates and eliminates, so that water is carried away—almost like melting fat. At the same time you feel better, more peppy, more alive, but never starved or hungry. NO STARVATION DIET "I have taken lots of medicine but none to compare with Barcetrane. It's tops. Have lost 10 pounds in 2 weeks and no starvation diet." Signed, Mrs. J. E. Deaths Seal Art Secrets In Hong Kong

HONG KONG—(AP)—The British buried 25 valuable paintings when the Japanese seized Hong Kong early in the war—and the paintings may have to stay buried. Austin Coates, assistant colonial secretary, said three men buried the paintings in the grounds of the governor's residence. Only they knew where.

All three men died. Each believed the other two would tell where the pictures were buried. A search of government files has afforded no clues.

DELAYED SEVEN YEARS
JERUSALEM—(AP)—It's hard to get a telephone in Israel. When you do, it costs $134.50 for installation and the first year's service. A reader of the "Jerusalem Post" probably holds the nation's "waiting" record. He wrote to the newspaper:

"I would like a phone in my lifetime! I have been on the waiting list for seven years."

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Night On The River

The night had come to the Great Forest. It filled the sky and covered the trees and the river, while the stars in the sky were like a thousand eyes that looked and winked and winked and looked down on Daddy Ringtail in his riverboat.

The monkey family were all asleep, there in the boat, except Daddy Ringtail and Mother Ringtail and little Mugwump Monkey.

It was vacation time, the time when you get to something you can't do when it isn't vacation time, and Mugwump knew just what he wanted to do. Mother Ringtail had said he could do it that very night, and Daddy Ringtail said it too.

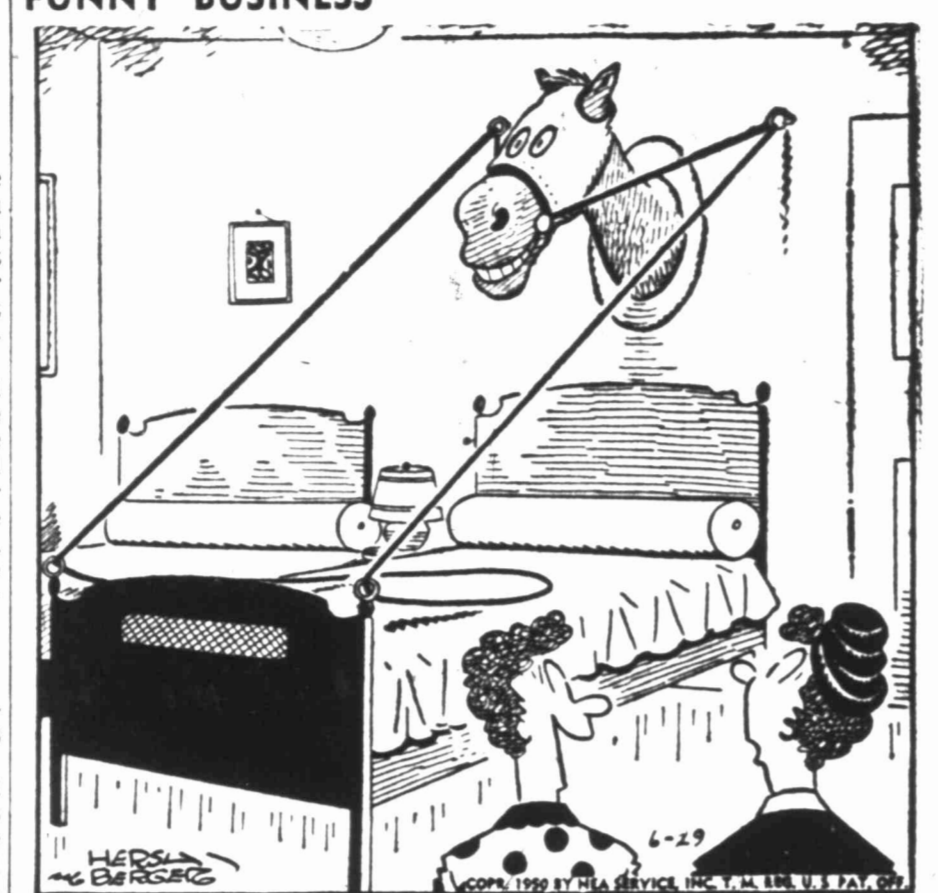

"I'm going to do it, I am," said Mugwump, and he crawled to the other end of the boat where he could sit and look and listen at all the things there are to see and hear on the river at night. He saw the stars that were bright in the sky. He saw the trees way over on the

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Big Leagues Full Of Pitchers Who May Win 20 Tilts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rabbit ball or no, the 20-win club for pitchers is headed for a big year.

Johnny Sain of the Boston Braves, Bob Lemon of Cleveland and Art Houtteman of Detroit hit the 10-mark Wednesday. And the season won't be half over until July 9, the all-star game break.

Eight more are one step back. Another dozen still have a chance to crash the exclusive lodge.

Now 10 wins in June are no guarantee of 20 come October. But it's a good bet. Even old customers like Bobby Feller (7-8), Hal Newhouser (6-4) and Howie Pollet (7-5) still are in the running.

Only seven made it last year, five in the American and two in the National. Back in 1931 the National didn't have a single 20-game winner. You have to burrow back to 1928 to get into double figures—11 for both leagues. The high is 17, set in 1903 and matched in 1905 and 1920.

Sain, staging the "comeback of the year" for the Braves, made No. 10 a big one. He knocked the Philadelphia Phillies out of first place in the National League with his 3-1 decision, spacing eight hits.

Brooklyn, a 5-3 afternoon winner over New York, slid back into the lead when the Phillies bowed at night. The Braves used two hits, two walks and an error to score all three runs off Russ Meyer in the third inning.

Roe Notches No. 9
Preacher Roe, a 20-game candidate, copped his ninth for Brooklyn on Gene Hermanski's first homer of the season. Hermanski's clutch hit came in the seventh inning, breaking a 3-3 tie between Roe and Sheldon Jones.

Carl Furillo, hit on the head by a Jones pitch in the eighth inning, hammered a two-run homer and single in earlier appearances. Furillo had been hitting .500 since the Brooks returned home.

Chicago massacred the St. Louis Cardinals 15-3 the Cubs' biggest total of the season. Despite the loss, the Cards are only a half game behind the Brooks and two percentage points back of the second-place Phils.

Stan Rokej's eighth-inning double enabled Pittsburgh to edge Cincinnati 6-5 before a sparse crowd of 12,040 fans. Murry Dickson, a non-winner since May 2, picked up his third victory in relief of Bill Werle.

Talented young Houtteman, Detroit's fine 22-year-old right-hander, actually was the first major leaguer to win his tenth. He did it in the afternoon, whipping Chicago 6-2. Both Sain and Lemon joined him at night.

Procters League Lead
Detroit needed the win, too, to protect a four and one-half game edge over the New York Yankees. Hoot Evers' 420-foot inside-the-park homer with a man on broke a 1-1 tie between Houtteman and Ken Holcombe. Don Kolloway added two more in the sixth with his third homer.

Everything happens to the St. Louis Browns. Now Cleveland has run up a whopping 18-2 score against them, scoring 11 runs in the seventh inning. That made it easy for Lemon to ride home for win No. 10.

The Boston Red Sox won their sixth straight under the direction of Manager Steve O'Neill, trouncing Philadelphia 6-2. Ted Williams hit his twenty-third homer, Vern Stephens his seventeenth and Dom DiMaggio his third in the attack on Lou Brisse. It was Brisse's twelfth defeat, his first in the big leagues. Ellis Kinder went all the way with an 11-hitter.

Allie Reynolds cut down Washington with three hits as the Yanks won a 5-1 game from Rookie Al Sima, just up from Chattanooga. Sima, a 27-year-old southpaw, was in the thick of things until Jerry Coleman hit a two-run homer in the eighth.

Odessa-Ackerly Game Saturday Will Be Topper

Another full weekend of first class semi-pro baseball is in store for Permian Basin fans Saturday and Sunday at Indian Park. The semi-finals in the National Baseball Congress District Semi-Pro Tournament will be unreel.

Three out-of-city teams and four from Midland will battle for the titles in two divisions.

The Midland Glaziers, strongest local entry in the meet, cinched a finals berth in the championship bracket with a pair of victories last week. They defeated the Hobbs Oilers 13 to 6 in the first round and clipped the Grandfalls Eagles 8 to 5 in the second set-to. The other three Midland teams are fighting for the consolation bracket championship.

Saturday Feature
The featured championship division title Saturday will send the Ackerly A's against the talented Odessa Stars at 4 p.m.

Ackerly took out the Midland Colts by a 14-7 count in the first round and the Stars whipped Joe's Gulf 12 to 5. The Saturday afternoon tilt will be a semi-finals affair with the winner to meet the Glaziers for the championship at 4 p.m. Sunday.

The opening fracas Saturday afternoon, scheduled at 2 p.m., will see Joe's Gulf and Ray Williams' Midland Cats in a consolation semi-

Williams Defeated In NCAA Tourney

ALBUQUERQUE—(AP)—Galleries looked Thursday for more upsets and minor reversals like those which spoiled first rounds Wednesday in the fifty-third annual National Collegiate Athletic Association Golf Classic.

A trimmed down field of 32 headed into second rounds. The championship will be decided Saturday. Dave Dennis, 23-year-old Kansas University sharpshooter, fired a five-under-par 67 after beating Oklahoma's Jim Vickers 5 and 4 in one of the upsets.

Highly-regarded Morris Williams, Jr. of Texas was knocked out of the running by Len Kennett of Southern California 2 and 1. Billy Maxwell of North Texas, another favorite, stayed in the running. Seven extra hole matches were played in first round events Wednesday. It took sub-par golf to stay in the meet in some instances.

Barney Hightower Hurls Three-Hit Win Over Plastic

Left-hander Barney Hightower dropped Western Plastic from the loop lead with a well-pitched, three-hit 6-2 victory and Shell outlasted The Reporter-Telegram 9-6 in softball games played Wednesday night in the City Major League.

Western Plastic never got started against Hightower and his Rotary Engineers' mates and trailed all the way.

Hightower's control was almost perfect as he gave up only one base on balls and forced the Plastic hitters to hit into 17 infield outs. He struck out one man and had a no-hitter until the top of the fifth, when big Harold Wilson smashed out a home run.

Rotary jumped on Phil Brock for two runs in the first inning. Tom Flournoy and Dwight Flemming bunted safely and Bob Møser scored both with a ringing double.

The loss dropped Plastic into a second-place tie with Rotary Engineers while Idle Standard was pushed to the top of the league.

It took a freak double play to quell the Reporter-Telegram nine's six run, fifth-inning rally against Shell with one man out, six runs across and runners on second and third. Ben Crites flew out to Left-fielder James Griffin. The runner on third headed home before the catch and was an easy out on Griffin's throw to third.

Centerfielder McCormick homered for Shell in the third inning and Bodie Neill and Jimmy Chauncey hit consecutive triples in the fifth for The Reporter-Telegram.

The line scores:

Shell 203 31-9 9 3
Plastic 006 6-6 6 2
Salmon, Freeman, Ovid and Ladner; Collyar and Crites.

Junior American Legion Tilts Set

The Midland and Stanton Junior American Legion teams swing into action again Friday. Stanton plays Odessa at Odessa in a night game and Midland travels to McCamey for an afternoon encounter. The Stanton team whipped the Midland Junior Indians 25 to 11 in their last outing with Ken Henson and Earl Heald sharing pitching duty for the winner. Bill Medard, Harold Robbins and Leo Hatfield chunked for Midland.

The Colorado Derby was first run July 24, 1887, at Jewell Park, Denver. In all, a program of twelve stake races have been scheduled for the inaugural meeting, which starts July 4.

Texas League—

Dallas Gives Cats Taste Of Own Base Running In 3-2 Win

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Eagles stole the Port Worth Cats fire Wednesday night as they showed the Texas League leaders some shifty base running and squeezed out a 3-2 victory.

The second-place Tulsa Oilers also failed to gain a fourth-place Oklahoma City won 7-2. The San Antonio Missions, in third spot, scored four times in the eighth inning to tie the Beaumont at five-all and set the stage for Rocky Ippolito's two-run homer in the tenth frame and a 7-5 victory. Shreveport whipped the cellar-dwelling Houston Buffs 5-2.

The Eagles' Lou Farotto showed the Cats a sample of their own base path activities when he went from first to third on Bill Kraus' sacrifice down the third base line. Then Grant Dunlap gave the Cats another look at flying spikes when he padded from first to third on Morton's single into centerfield. Wayne McLeland hung up his tenth mound victory for the Eagles but weakened in the ninth and allowed the Cats their only runs, one of which was unearned. The Eagles scored their three runs in the fifth inning on four hits, two errors and a walk.

The defeat was the sixth in the last eight games for the Cats. Big Bob Lemon slammed out a three-run homer for Oklahoma City in their defeat of Tulsa. The Indians scored seven runs before Tulsa could settle the matter.

Homer (Hoot) Gibson, making his fifth appearance on the hill in six days, got credit for the Missions win. Zeke Melignano, third Beaumont hurler, worked only two frames, but was charged with the loss.

Lee "Bobo" Holloman took the mound laurels for the Shreveport Sports. The Sports rapped out 11 hits off loser Elroy Joyce and gave Holloman a three-run edge in the opening inning. The Sports hurler pitched shut out, ball until the eighth, when the Buffs shoved across two runs.

Big Shoes To Fill
Curdice is leaving some big shoes for Brombelow to fill. During his four regular seasons at Texas Western he has won 27, lost 11 and tied three. Curdice-coached teams have won the national ground-gaining title two consecutive years, been among the top contenders for the opening inning. The Sports hurler appeared in two post-season bowl games.

Brumbelow has indicated that he

Mike Brumbelow Steps Into Big Job At El Paso

EL PASO—Mike Brumbelow will step into his role of head football coach at Texas Western with the cards stacked against him.

The ex-gridiron great from Texas Christian University is faced with the toughest schedule Texas Western ever has signed, a line disintegrated by graduation, and the fact that he doesn't know the players.

Brumbelow was selected from among more than 30 applicants at a special meeting of the Texas Western Athletic Council June 23 to fill the position of athletic director and head football coach when Jack Curtice resigned to take a similar post at Utah University. He will take over his duties in mid-July.

Brumbelow is no stranger in this area as his first coaching assignment after graduating from TCU in 1930 was at El Paso High School. He went to Lufkin High in 1934, and in 1936 returned to TCU as line coach. He held this position through 1942 and then followed a three-year stint in the Navy.

Returning from the Navy, Brumbelow signed on as line coach at Mississippi University during the '46, '47 and '48 seasons. Last year he was a scout for Southern Methodist University and was given much credit for the Mustangs' upset win over Kentucky and their amazing showing against Notre Dame.

During the last couple of years Brumbelow has been in the sporting goods business in Midland and Odessa.

Curdice gave high praise to his successor. "Dr. Elkins (W. H. Elkins, president of Texas Western) and the Athletic Council made the finest selection possible," he said. "I know Mike is a great guy and a great coach."

The No. 1 Hill is 330 feet north and east lines of section 30, block B-19, psi survey.

Abell Area In Pecos Gets Two Projects

Two more explorations have been started for immediate drilling in multiple Abell area of extreme North Pecos County.

Deeper of the two is George T. Abell No. 3. B. A. Hall, which is slated to be drilled in the Abell-Northwest pool three miles north-east of Imperial.

The No. 3 Hall will be 330 feet from north and east lines of section 12, section 21, block 9, H&G.N. survey. Stated depth is 6,000 feet. This is calculated to tap the Simpson sand pay in that area.

C. H. Murphy & Company No. 1 Ben Denaby is scheduled for the Abell Silurian-Montoya pool. It will be 330 feet from north and west lines of section 28, block 9, H&G.N. survey. Stated depth is 5,000 feet. Operations are to begin by July 3.

Warren Completes SW Scurry Outpost

Warren Oil Corporation has completed its No. 3 J. M. Reynolds on the southwest edge of the Sharon Ridge Canyon pool in Southwest Scurry County.

Officially daily potential is 1,884 barrels of 48.8-gravity oil through a 10 1/4-inch choke. This is an exceedingly large gauge through such a small choke.

Pay was topped at 6,581 feet, and total depth is 6,701 feet. Seven-inch casing is set at 6,658 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was 647-1. Tubing pressure was 975 pounds. The daily capacity was calculated from an actual four-hour flow.

This new producer is 517 feet from east and 581 feet from north lines of section 101, block 25, H&T.C. survey. This places it 26 miles southwest of Snyder.

C-S Terry Wildcat Drills In Permian

Amerasia Petroleum Corporation No. 1 N. W. Willard, Central-South Terry County wildcat to 12,000 feet to test the Silurian, had reached 7,481 feet in the Spraberry lime and sand in the lower Permian, and was drilling deeper.

This prospector called the top of the Spraberry at 7,370 feet, to give it a datum of minus 4,838 feet, and according to some geologists makes it 777 feet high to the top of the Spraberry to the same marker in the Anderson-Frithard Oil Corporation No. 1 Bevers, flowing discovery from the reef lime at 9,997-9,761 feet.

That discovery is now drilling about 900 feet and when it reaches 9,811 feet it will stop and run another drillstem test.

The Anderson-Frithard project is several miles west of the Amerasia wildcat, which is 14 1/2 miles south of Brownfield, and 600 feet from north and east line of the north-west quarter of section 6, block C-37, psi survey.

It is 1 1/2 miles west of the two-well Corrigan-Fusselman field.

Texaco Now Major Operator In Scurry

It first appeared that The Texas Company would be totally left out of the Scurry County oil play, but it is now certain that this company will be one of the largest operators in that area.

The reason is Texaco has under lease practically all the area between the north portion of the Kelley-Snyder field and the north edge of the Cogdell Canyon pool, a distance of some seven miles, almost

It is to include the 37,000-ton carrier Philippine Sea, two cruisers, a squadron of destroyers and a full sea train of supply ships, permitting long-range missions if necessary. In Canberra, the Australian capital, a high government source said it was "highly probable" the 3,000 Australian troops now in Japan would not be recalled home as previously announced. Earlier other government sources said the withdrawal would be postponed until the Korean situation was clarified.

The troops are being returned to Australia to form the nucleus of the commonwealth's new home defense force.

Australia's offer of aid for Korea aroused speculation that the squadron of Lincoln bombers of the Royal Australian Air Force being readied for transfer to Malaysia might be diverted to Japan. Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies said, however, the bombers were being sent "readily" for the Malayan operations."

Criminal Appeals Judge Candidate Is Visitor Here

William E. Myers of Fort Worth, candidate for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals in Texas, was a Midland visitor Thursday.

He is on a tour of West Texas and was to proceed to Odessa from here.

Myers has practiced law for 40 years and formerly was assistant criminal district attorney of Tarrant County. He served six years as city attorney of Cleburne.

Myers has four children, one of whom is a Baptist minister.

Complete Count In 19th District Shows 364,585 Population

By The Associated Press

Census figures were completed Thursday for two more Texas congressional districts. Both showed big gains.

The 19th District, made up of 25 Plains counties in West Texas, grew from 375,339 in 1940 to 364,585, a gain of 89,246.

The Second District, comprising 11 East Texas and upper coastal counties, climbed from 811,069 in 1940 to 899,284, a gain of 88,198.

Much of the 19th District's gain was in Lubbock County and the City of Lubbock. The City of Lubbock grew from 31,853 to 71,582, a 23 per cent gain of 39,729. Big Spring in Howard County gained 4,654, from 12,804 to 17,458.

Most of the Second District's gain was in two counties—Jefferson (Beaumont and Port Arthur) and Orange. Beaumont alone grew from 89,061 to 93,875, up 5,814. Port Arthur climbed from 45,140 to 57,374, a gain of 12,234. Orange, in Orange County, grew from 7,473 to 21,000, up 13,527.

Both the county-by-county breakdown for the 19th District: Andrews 4,985, up 1,708 over 3,277. Bailey 7,378, up 1,280 over 6,098. Borden 1,100, loss of 396 from 1,496. Cochran 5,909, gain of 2,174 over 3,735. Crosby 9,246, loss of 800 from 10,046. Dawson 19,059, gain of 3,992 over 15,067. De Witt 7,847. Floyd 10,514, loss of 145 from 10,659. Gaines 8,882, gain of 746 over 8,136. Garza 6,259, gain of 581 over 5,678. Hale 28,123, 9,310 gain over 18,813. Haskell 13,891, 404 loss from 14,900. Hockley 20,420, 7,202 gain over 12,993. Howard 26,647, gain of 5,897 over 20,990. Kent dropped from 3,413 to 2,246, a loss of 1,167. King 868, loss of 198 from 1,066. Lamb grew from 17,906 to 19,953, a gain of 2,047. Lubbock 100,549, gain of 48,787 over 51,762. Lynn 10,971, loss of 960 from 11,931. Martin 5,521, loss of 35 from 5,556. Mitchell 10,838, loss of 1,839 from 12,477. Scurry 22,713, gain of 11,158 over 11,545. Stonewall 3,668, loss of 1,921 from 5,589. Taylor 13,074, gain of 1,914 from 11,160. Yoakum 4,322, loss of 1,022 from 5,354.

Four Fliers Killed After Directing 26 Paratroopers Safely

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Four Air Force men directed 26 paratroopers to a safe jump Wednesday night, then died heroically in the crash of their plane.

They were identified as First Lt. Arthur R. Bush, 26, pilot of Brooklyn; Second Lt. King T. Wilson, Jr., 22, co-pilot; Newnan, Ga., S/Sgt. James P. Carter, 22, crew chief; and Mountville, S. C., and Sgt. James C. Hicks, 27, radio operator, of Marlinton, N.C.

The plane was one of a flight of 32 C-47 transport-carrying packs which flew troops of the 11th Airborne Division for a night parachute jump at Fort Campbell, Ky.

One of its two engines conked out over Bowling Green, Ky. To the throbs of the emergency bell, the paratroopers jumped with military precision in open-country near Greenbrier, Tenn., 40 miles south.

The crew stayed with the troubled pack, successor to the C-53 flying boxcar, trying to get it to home port at Stewart Air Base, Smyrna, Tenn.

It crashed across the Cumberland River from Old Hickory, Tenn., indicating the pilot had veered eastward to avoid the solid metropolis. The area of Nashville and Old Hickory. The plane exploded in three shattering loads.

Lt. Col. Duff W. Sudduth of San Antonio, Texas, led the paratroopers in the jump. He told of the tense moments preceding it.

State Examinations Scheduled In July

Announcement of competitive examinations for several positions with the State department of Public Welfare and the Texas Employment Commission has been made by J. D. Bechtel, director of the Midland TEC office.

Examinations for field workers, stenographers, clerk typists and junior tabulating equipment operation, all to be employed by the Department of Public Welfare, and for auditors, interviewers and stenographers for employment with the TEC will be given.

Application blanks for the examinations may be obtained at the Midland TEC office, 200 East Wall Street. All applications must be submitted to Charles S. Gardner, Director of the Merit System Council, 1000 San Antonio Street, Austin, not later than July 15.

The examinations will be given either at Big Spring or at Odessa, Bechtel said.

U.S. Planes—

Superficial Get Results

FEAF headquarters said the Superforts, presumably based on Guam, attacked primary targets "with good results."

There were three other disclosures: 1. The U.S. airlift had delivered more than 600 tons of munitions to the South Koreans.

2. The U.S. cruiser Juneau had been ordered to patrol Korea's east coast and stop reinforcements to Communist beachheads.

3. The front has been fairly stable for two days in the rugged country between Kapyon, about 25 miles northwest of Seoul, to Kangnung across the peninsula near the east coast.

4. American fighter pilots shot down two Red planes Thursday, bringing their confirmed total to at least 11 so far.

The Korean diplomatic mission in Tokyo earlier said South Korean forces had gone back to the offensive with the aid of the Superfort assault in the Seoul-Kimplo-Inchon-Ulujong area.

The mission announced after contact with the South Korean government that Republican forces were driving back the heavy Red tank concentrations from the western sector of the capital.

It is to include the 37,000-ton carrier Philippine Sea, two cruisers, a squadron of destroyers and a full sea train of supply ships, permitting long-range missions if necessary. In Canberra, the Australian capital, a high government source said it was "highly probable" the 3,000 Australian troops now in Japan would not be recalled home as previously announced. Earlier other government sources said the withdrawal would be postponed until the Korean situation was clarified.

The troops are being returned to Australia to form the nucleus of the commonwealth's new home defense force.

U. S. Not Discussing Curbs, Official Says

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government has no power to seize, freeze, or ration any commodities, and has not even discussed the possibility of asking voluntary curbs, a top official said Thursday.

H. B. McCoy, chief of the Office of Industry and Commerce, in the Commerce Department, made the statement when questioned about scattered rumors of impending "freeze" orders on rubber, zinc and other materials.

Experts Gird For Worst Polio Summer In History

From the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation's equipment pool, iron lungs like this one are shipped by train and plane to areas hard hit by polio.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Officials of the U. S. Public Health Service and National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are preparing for what looks like the worst polio Summer in the history of the U. S.

Last year's epidemic was the worst the country has ever experienced, with 42,173 cases—double the average for the previous five years. So far this year 1,781 cases of acute polio have been reported, as compared with 1,481 during the comparable period last year. And the weekly reports show the number increasing at a faster rate than last year.

Both the Public Health Service and the Polio Foundation report they now have established maximum alerts to send aid to any area where an epidemic might strike. Officials of both agencies say they are better prepared for what might come this Summer than they were for last Summer's disastrous epidemics.

Epidemic Coordinator

The Foundation has established an epidemic coordinator in New York, ready at a moment's notice to send all available doctors, nurses and equipment into any area of the U. S. During the winter, polio institutes were held in all states, instructing and training thousands of doctors, nurses and physiotherapists in the latest polio diagnosis methods and treatment. These trained workers will undoubtedly be called upon to take part in this Summer's fight against the disease.

The Foundation's co-ordinator has at his fingertips the names and locations of all available personnel and necessary equipment such as iron lungs. He keeps a careful check on the Public Health Service's weekly statistics and as soon as an outbreak nears epidemic proportions, or help is needed, the emergency machinery goes into action.

A similar set-up is set in motion in the Public Health Service. Teams of doctors and scientists are immediately sent to an epidemic area. Their first job is to help in diagnosis. This is important, to determine whether or not local doctors have made an accurate evaluation of the seriousness of the outbreak.

There are several diseases which resemble polio but which do not have its crippling effects. Outbreaks of these less serious diseases have sometimes been incorrectly called polio epidemics, panicking a city or area. Local doctors have also made the reverse estimate of an outbreak, not realizing its seriousness.

Services Are Held For Midland Doctors

Funeral services for Dr. Abner Mackey, 34, who was killed in an automobile accident between Garden City and Sterling City late Monday, were to be held Thursday in Okemah, Okla., where he formerly resided.

Services for Dr. William I. Waters, 37, prominent Midland physician and surgeon who was killed in the same accident, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in West Lafayette, Ohio.

Dr. Mackey was killed almost instantly when the car in which he and Dr. Waters were riding overturned. Dr. Waters died about 30 minutes after being rushed by ambulance to a Midland hospital.

Dr. Waters had been a Midland resident since 1946, and recently had been appointed first chief of the surgery division of the new Midland Memorial Hospital. He was active in civic and service club affairs and was particularly active in the work of the underprivileged children's committee of the Kiwanis Club.

The Professional Building, established and operated by Dr. Waters, will be closed Friday afternoon in respect to his memory, according to Dr. Leonard Dixon, who has assumed management of the building.

Dr. Mackey had arrived in Midland only last Sunday to establish an office and to become associated with Dr. Waters, rather than to take over the operation of his clinic as was reported in Wednesday's Reporter-Telegram.

Firecrackers Have Record Of Being Holiday Hazard

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Somehow noise always is associated in our minds with celebrating. So far as fireworks are concerned, however, the death, blindness or loss of a finger or hand is so serious that the slight pleasure which we might get out of it is not worth the risk. There are other safer ways of enjoying life on the Fourth of July. Blindness is a heavy price to pay for celebrating. Yet firecrackers or other fireworks have caused loss of vision of one or both eyes to many people in recent years. The eyes are not the only organs which have suffered injury from Fourth of July fireworks explosives.

Fingers, hands and legs have been lost and injured in large numbers. In 1937, 20 people were killed by the effects of fireworks and although this fell to six killed in 1946, the pleasure of seeing a firecracker explode hardly justifies such carnage.

Many of these accidents have been heart-rending. In 1946, for example, a 17-year-old Milwaukee boy was killed while in swimming when a large firecracker was tossed in the water near him. The explosion caused a ruptured lung from which he did not recover. The same year in Fall River, Mass., a 16-year-old school boy lost his left hand because of the explosion of a homemade bomb.

Laws Helped
In order to cut down the toll of firecrackers and fireworks injuries, many states have adopted laws forbidding the sale and distribution of these explosives. The results of these laws have been excellent. A steady reduction in fireworks accidents has occurred since state legislatures began taking an interest in the problem. In 1939, for example, 7,933 accidents were recorded from fireworks on the Fourth; in 1946, only 903 were reported. Fireworks are not the only dangers of this summer holiday. Drowning, automobile accidents and other disasters occur all too frequently on the Fourth. Accidents are high on the list of causes for death and disability. Many of them could be avoided by a little caution and thoughtfulness.

Polio Deaths On Increase In Texas

AUSTIN—Forty-seven Texans died of polio in the first five months of this year compared with 38 during the same period of 1949. The report on polio deaths came from Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer. He also reported the heaviest incidence of polio for a single week this year—107 cases the week ending June 24. Hidalgo County has suffered 18 polio fatalities, six times as many as any other county. Dr. Cox said 824 cases of polio have been recorded in 116 counties compared with 570 in 86 counties for the same period a year ago.

Bike Crashes Grow; Parents Are Cautioned

Police yesterday issued emphatic warnings to forestall another major outbreak of accidents involving children on bicycles. Cycling accidents reached a peak Saturday, when 10 out of 19 persons injured in traffic were children on bicycles. Parents must take the initiative in counseling children on traffic safety if another death or injury was to be forestalled, the police accident investigation unit advised. Between 1:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Signal left turn by pointing and turning head to left. Avoid sharp turns.

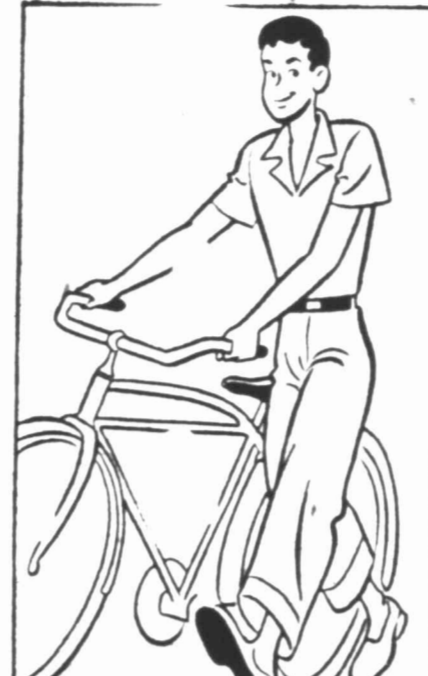

Signal for right turn. Note arm angle and open fingers. Don't wave your arm.

Signal stops like this. Note angle of arm and open palm. Avoid sudden stops.

Don't ever do this. It obscures vision, makes steering hard, and makes balancing difficult.

Always walk bike across heavy traffic. A dozen steps may save an ambulance ride.

HEY KIDS, BE CAREFUL!—It is not always the motorist's fault when his car runs into a bicycle. Plenty of youngsters wheeling around the streets don't know that they risk injury or death by stunts, careless riding and failure to give the proper signals. Study the pictures above, learn the hand signals and use them.

GOP Senators Push For Passage Of Red Registration Laws

WASHINGTON—Republican senators Thursday applied pressure for congressional action on a "Communist control" bill before Congress adjourns. They claimed wide public support. The issue was one of many that might upset plans of Senate Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois and other congressional leaders to wind up law-making July 31. A strategy session late Wednesday of the Senate Republican Policy Committee produced the new move, apparently timed to the U. S. ultimatum against communism in the Far East.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) of the Republican policy makers told reporters the proposal to require the registration and restriction of Communists in this country is "sufficiently important" to ask that it be added to the list of "must legislation." Old Munday-Nixon Bill Taft said Republicans would support a Communist registration bill reported favorably more than two months ago by a 12 to 1 vote of the Senate Judiciary Committee. Taft said Republican Leader Wherry of Nebraska would ask Lucas to add it to the pre-adjournment legislative schedule. Lucas, asked about this, said he must consult the Senate Democratic Policy Committee before any decision.

The pending Senate measure is a revision of a former anti-Communist measure, known as the Mundt-Nixon Bill, that won overwhelming approval in the House two years ago but died in the Senate. It would require registration of all members of the Community Party and all officials of so-called "Communist Front" organizations. It would deny government jobs or passports to Communists and impose heavy penalties for violations.

Lions Club Will Install Officers At Outdoor Meet

The annual officer installation program of the Midland Lions Club will be held at a family night barbecue at Cole Park, Monday, July 10, officials announced. All Lions and members of their families are invited and urged to attend. C. Ed Prichard will be installed as president of the club for 1950-51, succeeding Roy Miner. Other officers are: J. P. Carson, Jr., first vice president; L. V. Bassham, second vice president; Duke Johnson, third vice president; C. E. Nelson, secretary-treasurer; R. H. (Rusty) Gifford, Lion tamer, and Rocky Ford, tail twister. New directors are Joe Conkling and H. W. Hull.

Tapestry making was a well developed art as early as 1500 B. C., according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Midland Credit Grantors Association Unit Organized; L. V. Bassham Chosen President

L. V. Bassham was elected president of the Midland Credit Grantors Association at an organizational dinner Wednesday night in Hotel Scharbauer. At the close of his address the Odessa chapter conducted a business meeting. Richard Kitchens was elected vice president of the new Midland chapter. Mrs. Mae Baumgartner, secretary for the Midland Retail Merchants Association, was named secretary. George Stewart was elected treasurer. Ugo Hamblett was named to head a membership committee. Objectives Listed The Credit Grantors have seven objectives—eliminate the undesirable credit consumer, promote prompt payment of accounts, stop the bad check passer, locate missing debtors, provide legislation for the protection of credit grantors, promote retail credit procedure educational courses, and sponsor a training course to promote a greater volume of credit business.

Traffic Expected To Take 385 Lives In Holiday Period

CHICAGO—Three hundred and eighty-five persons may die, and the biggest traffic jam in history will pile up in the 102 hours between Friday evening and midnight of July 4, the National Safety Council predicted Thursday. Of the millions who take to the highways for the holiday about 385 won't get home. They'll be the unfortunate victims whose trips will end in morgues and mortuaries, victims of their own or "the other fellow's" carelessness. "Nearly all drivers know by now that holidays demand extra caution and behave accordingly," the council said in a statement. "But a certain reckless minority will cause about 385 deaths and uncounted injuries if past experience is repeated again this year."

Lattimore Belittles Korea Chief's Prestige

BALTIMORE—President Syngman Rhee of South Korea is losing his hold "over the imaginations and loyalties of the Korean people," Owen Lattimore declared Wednesday night. The Johns Hopkins University expert on Asiatic affairs said Rhee "should not be made a personal symbol of American policy" during the present crisis or thereafter. He reiterated that he believes the United States has been right in "making every effort to associate itself as closely as possible with the United Nations in every step it has taken in Korea."

Common Carrot Has 350 Variety Names

MOSCOW, IDAHO—The names they think up for carrots. You could, conceivably, ask for a hamburger or a streamliner and wind up with a sample of rabbit fodder. Those are just two of the 350 variety names for carrots, reports a recent circular from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Jim Kraus of the College of Agriculture here helped write the pamphlet, which appears after some confusion has been reported among carrot growers and buyers about the right names for the different kinds. Other fancy names for carrot are orange ice, braunschweiger, airliner, stump, oxheart, and narrowshouldered. The earliest known printing about America is the Columbus Letter, printed in 1493, a two-leaf news sheet announcing the discovery of the islands of the Indies to the Spanish court.

Pair Reindicted In Twitchell Slaying

KOUNTZE, TEXAS—Darius Golemon and Alex Leviness were reindicted Wednesday by a Hardin County grand jury for murder in the death of Mrs. Eloise Twitchell of Beaumont in September, 1948. The two recently won a reversal of their conviction of murder in the case. Both men also were reindicted for robbery with firearms. The big horn sheep well deserves its name. The great spiral horns of the adult ram may weigh 20 pounds each.

UN Could Learn Few Tricks From Scouts At National Jamboree

VALLEY FORGE, PA.—(AP)—The United Nations could learn a few tricks from the Boy Scouts. Walk around the 625-acre site of the Scouts' Second National Jamboree and you'll see sights that make the trouble in Korea all the harder to understand. A killed Scout from Scotland solemnly explaining the ritual of cricket to an enthralled 12-year-old negro from Mississippi wide and 24. A grinning Filipino youth swapping his Scout knife for the pocket camera of a lanky Eagle Scout from Maine. A boy from Austria learning how to crack a bull whip, with an Oklahoma City Scout as his patient teacher. They spoke different languages, they came from homes of every sort, but the 35,000-and-some Scouts and Scouters already encamped on George Washington's one-time Winter headquarters were getting along like brothers. By Thursday night some 47,000 will be on hand, for the week-long jamboree opens officially Friday with President Truman scheduled to come from Washington—the Korean crisis permitting—to deliver the welcoming address. World Fair Appearance As the last arrival, flow out of special trains and buses, Valley Forge is taking on the appearance of a boy-size world's fair. There's spirited competition in the building of elaborate entrances to the various sections of the camp grounds. New Englanders have put up a lighthouse, complete with white sand. North Carolinians have erected a giant-size Boy Scout. Pennsylvania's own Columbia-Montour Council has installed a country scene 17 feet wide and 24 feet long to mark its area. The "Buckskin Men" from West Virginia and Ohio have marked their territory with early American block-houses, rifle slots and all. The Texas contingent lived up to expectations, bursting into camp with cowboy yells and joyous song. What song? That's right: "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You." Their railroad cars bore Texas slogans in conservative reds, yellows and oranges. Seventeen-year-old John Piercy of Dallas, a senior patrol leader with that city's 243-member delegation, looked over the gently rolling countryside for a long time before bestowing the highest praise a true Texan can give. "You know," he said, "it's almost as pretty as Texas."

U. S. Oleo Taxes To End Saturday

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The 64-year-old federal taxes on oleomargarine will vanish Saturday. Most of the price-cutting already has been done. Many manufacturers have cut yellow margarine by about 10 cents a pound within the last week or two, anticipating the end of the 10-cent federal tax on that product. The manufacturers, seeking to get themselves in good competitive positions for an expected upsurge of sales of tax-free yellow margarine in July, have absorbed the 10-cent tax for the last part of June instead of passing it on to the wholesaler, retailer and consumer as they used to do.

Grand Jury Indicts Teen Gang Member

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—A slender, 17-year-old member of a teenage crime club is under indictment by the county grand jury Thursday for murder, robbery and attempted robbery. He is Tommy Cook, accused of shooting fatally Dominic Calarco, 26, during the May 12 holdup of a Long Beach liquor store. The panel returned a true bill Wednesday after listening for two hours to a succession of witnesses.

Family Loses Three Kiddies In Two Years

TOLEDO, OHIO—(AP)—Just two years ago this month, four-year-old Eugene Hackney was killed by a truck. Thursday his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huey Hackney, mourned the deaths of their other two children, Howard, eight, and his sister, Shirley, four. They suffocated in an abandoned icebox in a shed at the rear of their home Wednesday. Corner Paul Holly said she two months ago died a few minutes after they got inside the box in the morning. Their mother, he declared, told him she left them playing in the yard and found their bodies in the evening.

OLD SCHOOL GRAD—James C. Hornberger, Jr., of Succasunna, N. J., spent five years in the Pacific war, and returned to grammar school at the age of 24. This year, he graduated from Roxbury High School at age 29. He's seen with two of his teachers who are younger than he is—Mrs. Adeline Taylor, left, and Mrs. Celeste Mendes. Hornberger, known as "Pop" to his schoolmates, is headed for a technical school.

W-T Area Reports Total Of 101 New Locations

Locations for 101 new petroleum explorations in district No. 8 of Texas were reported to the Midland office of the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas during the last week. This is an increase of 14 over the previous week's total.

Sourry County again led the list with a total of 39 new locations. Ector was second with 11 new drillites.

Pecos County reported seven new projects. Andrews and Borden each reported six new explorations. Five new locations were listed in Kent County.

Crandall and Garza Counties each gained four new drillites. Cochran and Gaines each reported two projects.

Two new locations were listed in each of Hockley, Loving and Winkler Counties.

The remaining location were staked one each in Dawson, Howard, Midland and Sterling Counties.

Three new locations for wildcats were listed among the total number of sites. They were distributed one each to Howard, Lynn and Pecos Counties.

Nine amended applications were filed. Three of these went to Midland County and two each to Ector and Sourry Counties. Borden and Cochran each reported an amended application.

STANTON NEWS

STANTON—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Butcher and sons, Earl Henson and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gregg recently visited in Odessa.

Mrs. Edna Davidson was a recent visitor with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Baugh of Coahoma.

Mr. Jim McCoy and Beanie spent Tuesday night in Lubbock with his mother, Mrs. M. J. McCoy.

Mrs. George Wilkerson and daughter of Monument, N. M., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hastings and family.

Funeral services for Bradford Lee Ledbetter, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Ledbetter, were held June 16.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bridges had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Baston Bridges and son of Big Spring. All equipment has arrived and is now being installed at the plant of the Whitaker Manufacturing Company, which opened Monday. Equipment included 35 sewing machines. The plant will employ about 40 persons while operating at full capacity. A sales organization is being formed to introduce and sell the output of the plant.

Services were held June 24 at the First Methodist Church for Garland Brewer, Martin County treasurer for eighteen years, who died June 22.

Moved To Blackwell
Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stephenson and children have moved to Blackwell, Texas. Stephenson was principal of Stanton High School.

Commencement exercises for the Daily Vacation Bible School for Latin-American children were held June 23. E. R. Hammock, Baptist missionary for Stanton, conducted the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graves and Granville have returned from a trip to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Charlie Craven has returned home after being hospitalized in San Angelo.

The First Baptist Church Brotherhood will meet the first Thursday of each month.

Speedy trick in removing old nail polish is to place a cotton ball soaked in polish remover over the nail. A few seconds helps soften the old polish. Then a quick downward swipe whisks off the softened nail enamel.

PHILIPPINES Plan New Code Of Laws

MANILA (AP)—President Quirino is studying a new "code of crimes," which, among other things, provides penalties for gossip columnists.

The proposed code also classifies as crimes such various practices as discourtesy to the aged and cohabitation without marriage (now legally condoned).

Under the sub-head, "more rigid standards for public office," the code provides heavy penalties for use of abusive language by public officials, dishonest accumulation of wealth, delays in carrying out the public business, and nepotism (the placing of relatives in public jobs).

The code forbids discrimination against women in wages, gross discourtesy and assignment of work beyond their strength to the weaker sex. A single act of adultery, instead of proof of concubinage, will constitute an erring husband.

Los Angeles Gets Animal Laundry

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Beauty treatments for anything from elephants to hummingbirds, that's the motto of 26-year-old Lea Buscha. She has opened an animal laundry which she believes is the first of its type in the country.

She guarantees to get customers clean by following this routine:

(1) Dunk it in suds and scrub (unless it's a bird, in which case she dry cleans it), (2) manure and buff nails or horns, and (3) administer a thorough brushing.

Her most exciting "laundry" is the Java monkey, which nipped her finger, and the 16-year-old East Indian leopard—which behaved like a perfect gentleman.

SAVED BY A FOOT

CHICAGO (AP)—A woman sometimes can have the last word in an argument even if she says nothing at all. A robber grabbed Mrs. Doris Swanson's purse on Michigan Avenue. She wouldn't let go. The tug-of-war went on until she kicked the snatcher in the stomach. He fled up an alley.

Youth Center Chatter

By June Haslip—Joyce Howell

With the temperature 102 degrees in the shade, we pull up our type-writer, pull down our sombreros and settle back as coolly as possible to bring you this week's Youth Center Chatter.

With the intense heat we have had this week, things have been rather quiet on the teen-age front. It seems as though most Teeners are either staying home under an air conditioner or submerged in a swimming pool. Then, of course, we have the lucky Teeners who are safely tucked away in some cool place such as Colorado. But we also have the "fortunates" who are in such places as Houston, Dallas or Austin. We don't envy them... even with this Midland heat. Many Teeners are working, too, and we don't envy them either. Or do we? Most offices are air-conditioned.

What better way to get your mind off the heat than to throw a few bridal bouquets? This month seems to be the "marring month" for Midland Teeners. (And why not? This is June. And that's tradition!) Congratulations this week go to Betty McCain (Mrs. Jimmie Bell), Enid Wheeler (Mrs. George Gray, III) Bill Shaw, Howard Edwards and Dixie Mears, and Wilma Hall. Here's a "belated bouquet" for Tina Williams who became Mrs. Paul Pope a couple of weeks ago. We want to wish all of you the very best of everything even though we'll miss you around the Youth Center.

Cousins — By Marriage Here is a bit of "marriage news" with a different slant. Because of a marriage this last week, two of our Youth Center members became cousins. When JoAnn Jones of Stanton was married last week, Bobby Pe-tree, our "out of town member," and Marijann Forrest suddenly realized they "cousin" bridge is falling yet whether we should sympathize or congratulate. But we think it's swell anyway.

This week and for several to come, we will be missing quite a few of our most loyal male members. Charles Shepard, Bob Pines, Jerry McDonald, Bill Aldrich, Joe Turner, Tommy Vannaman and Bus Bray left Sunday for Valley Forge, Pa., where they will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree. More than 47,000 Scouts and Explorers from all over the United States and foreign countries will be camped at the historic park. We are proud of these boys and here's hoping they have the best time possible.

YC Institution Do you fear for your sanity? Do you hear "Mary Had a Little Lamb" and "London Bridge Is Falling Down" at all hours of the day and night? Well, we have good news for you. You are not hearing things at all. What you hear is a little car which is fast becoming a "Youth Center Institution." (By the fact that it may be found there almost anytime.) The cause of all the nursery rhymes in loud tones is Pat Douglas's little "A" Model. The little mason car with the tan top and musical horns really is a favorite among Pat and his friends.

The remarkable thing about Pat's little car, which hasn't a name yet, is that it is in very good condition considering its age. We think the following remark is just too good to pass by... It seems that the insurance man was doing the usual "checking up" with neighbors about both car and owner. The interview went as usual until the man came to the point where the type of car was written. He looked at it for a minute and then blurted out... "See here, this says 1928 Ford... Is that a typographical error? It was no error, the man said "Do you think they'd let me see it?" Pat got the insurance.

Real Cowboys Here's a couple of real cowboys in our midst. John Zant and Mark McKinley are working hard at being "cowpokes." It seems the boys are working on the Zant ranch. We don't think they are working too hard though, as they took time to trot down to San Angelo Monday. Jon House and W. H. and Dan Black are "working" in another way. The boys are busy being "fishermen" in the Colorado. They are taking advantage of the fine fishing in that part of the country.

Here's good news for all you dance fiends. The Youth Center is having a semi-formal juke box dance Saturday night. The event has been looked forward to since the reopening of the Center last week.

Year Ago in Youth Center A year ago we weren't around to write the column as usual, so three helpful Teeners stepped up to do the work for us. Emily Hamilton, Gloria Anguish and Mrs. Jim Dav-entport comprised our "relief team." As we remember they did a fine job.

John Klinger had just become the "celebrity" of the Center. It seems that John had set the new record for walking out of the Grand Canyon while he was there. His time was two hours and 30 minutes. John made his "radio debut" by appearing on the "Breakfast Club" program.

Nadine Griffin's dance classes presented the floorshow for the very successful dance Little Scotty Engle had the gals swooning, with his crooning. (He still does, we might add.)

Mary and Lynn Neill, Harold and Thalia Atkinson and Harold Hensly are old faces to us now. But a year ago they were newcomers to Midland. David Laverty, Vernon Ray Carpenter, Leonard Dickinson, Jimmy Hunt and Jimmy Schabarum were new members of the Center but "old timers" around town.

Jean Ferguson, Jerelen Jowell, De-phane Tabor, Suzie Young and several others were away at camp and "waited" for the mail. And some of mail, let's get back to 1950. (Not that mail has anything to do with it—we just couldn't think of anything else to say.)

Our sympathy this week goes to Gifford Alstrin who was injured in a recent automobile accident. Gifford is in a hospital in Iowa with one leg broken above the knee. How about dropping Giff a card or letter? He will be the hospital about a month and that time sure can stretch out. His address is Gifford Alstrin, Mahask County Hospital, Room 212, Okaloosa, Iowa. We hope to see Giff home and in good condition before too long.

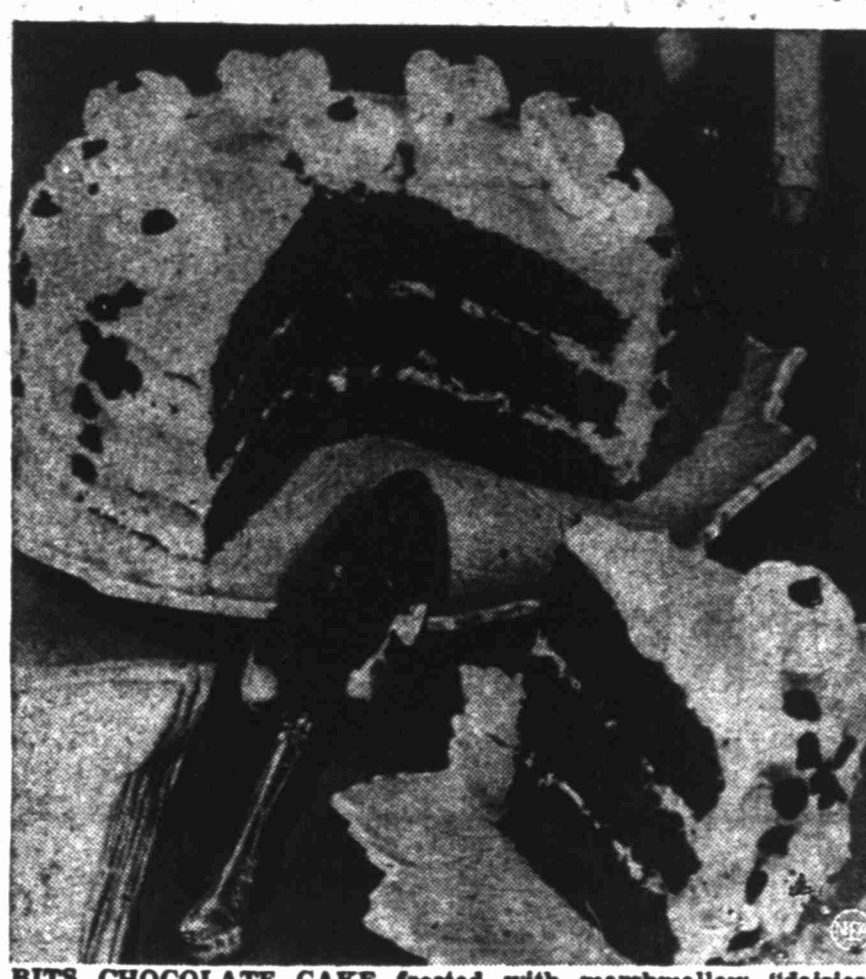

Sue Ann Francis made quite a picture the other day. While driving down the street, we came upon her shiny black sedan parked in the middle of the street. On further investigation we found Sue Ann down on hand and knees trying to see what was wrong. Peggy Simmons was right on hand to give moral support. Just what was wrong, Sue?

That's about it for this week, so we'll leave you for now and get back to that cool swimming pool... SPLASH!

SANTA'S RESTING NICELY—Santa Claus, in the person of James Yellig of Santa Claus, Ind., got letters from worried boys and girls all over the country when they heard he was laid up with a leg injury at Veterans Hospital, Indianapolis. Yellig, who has portrayed Jolly St. Nick for years in his home town, wants to assure all the youngsters he'll be back in action come next Yuletide.

Ice Cream Cake Can Be Made Easily

BITS CHOCOLATE CAKE frosted with marshmallow "daisies" winds up Fourth of July meal with a bang.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Leta have an ice cream festival at home during June. Make something big and wonderful, like a devil's food ice cream cake with coffee cream sauce.

It's easy, this cake. You can buy the ice cream, now, at your favorite super market as well as at your neighborhood store. Also all the fixings, such as the packaged devil's food cake mix.

So let's plan our ice cream festival. Ask all the children, too. Ice cream, an important member of the dairy foods family, contains protein, calcium and riboflavin.

Devil's Food Ice Cream Cake (Serves 6-8)
One quart vanilla ice cream (bulk), 1 package devil's food cake mix.

Place ice cream in freezing compartment of refrigerator until ready to use. Prepare cake mix according to the directions on the package. Bake in a buttered loaf pan (9x5) for 40 to 50 minutes. Allow cake to cool thoroughly. Cut into three layers.

Spread ice cream between the layers preserving enough ice cream to make four scoops for the top of the cake.

Here Are Some Glamor Tricks

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Glamorous models have their beauty faults, also. So don't despair, girls, when you see your favorite cover girl looking as if she just stepped out of a bandbox. Just keep one thing in mind—if you want to accomplish the same results you must work as hard as she does.

"Simple beauty tricks will help any girl with minor beauty problems. Here are some suggestions offered by Candy Jones, a model herself, who teaches would-be glamor girls at the Conover Career Girls' School."

1. Chew bubble gum and blow bubbles like little Sis to keep lips firm and to prevent under-throat sagging. It may even help ward off a double chin. But don't be obvious about it; do it in the privacy of your home, while taking the evening bath or reading a book.

Use White Iodine
2. Keep your nails straight and help them grow longer by using white iodine. Many girls find this one thing in mind—if you want to accomplish the same results you must work as hard as she does.

3. Dad's or husband's shaving brush makes a wonderful complexion brush. Use the shaving cream is excellent for the complexion, say the girls. An ideal way to keep the neck and face clean, says Candy Jones.

4. If the back of your heels or elbows are rough and chapped, apply a piece of absorbent cotton, soaked in hand lotion, directly over the affected spot. Keep it on overnight wearing some old cotton socks.

5. Ice packs under the eyes provide a good pick-me-up and help remove blue circles. Crush two small handfuls of ice, wrap it in gauze, and hold it in place under the eyes.

6. You can pin down protruding ears with a gummed tape or use a liquid adhesive, easy to apply and remove.

7. Lemon with a little added salt will remove discoloration from fingers and elbows and will help remove callouses.

8. Gracefully arched eyebrow is achieved by applying cellophane tape just above the eyebrow to keep it in desired position. Of course you'll do this at home. Apply the tape gently so that it doesn't feel like it is giving you a harsh pull.

IT'S CHURNED IT'S BETTER

NEW Armour Process gives... CLOVERBLOOM "99" that delicious natural flavor your family loves!

If you've begrudged your budget the price of expensive natural spreads... Cloverbloom "99" is your wish come true. Your family will instantly approve the fresh, natural flavor of this thrifty NEW Spread... especially husbands who insist on the finest.

By law, we must label this NEW discovery oleomargarine, but no other margarine has ever had the fresh, sweet "melt-in-your-mouth" flavor of Cloverbloom "99." Armour scientists, after years of research, discovered a NEW process that gives Cloverbloom "99" that natural churned flavor, for Cloverbloom "99" is churned the natural way... that's one secret of its wonderful taste and texture.

This exclusive NEW Cloverbloom "99" process is so different from ordinary margarine making, we've built an entirely new plant in Texas to produce Cloverbloom "99" for you.

You must try Cloverbloom "99" to realize how wholesome and delicious it is. Although a few pennies more per pound than ordinary mar-garine... Cloverbloom "99" costs considerably less than the more expensive natural yellow spread it so perfectly duplicates.

Be first in your neighborhood to try this NEW spread discovery. We are so firmly convinced that you'll prefer Cloverbloom "99" we will offer Double Your Money Back, if you aren't completely satisfied.

Hurry to your store and get a pound of Clover-bloom "99" today!

Milk Drinks Keep You Fresh

FLAVORFUL MILK SHAKES, as cool as an evening breeze, pack plenty of nourishment.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Hot? Bedraggled with the heat? Then remember that milk shakes are cool as a breeze—but a lot more nourishing.

Try this when the spirit wails. Crush fresh strawberries, sweeten and chill (or use frozen berries just slightly defrosted). Blend the berries with whipped cream and use as a topping for a tall glass of cold milk.

The big point about milk refreshers aside from their cooling qualities is their nutritional value. Like all dairy foods, they are rich in proteins, riboflavin and calcium and also contain vitamins. Let the youngsters drink all they want. Serve them with crisp packaged cookies. Make them with all the fresh or frozen fruits available.

Pink Milk Shake
(Serves 4)
Six tablespoons honey, 1 cup crushed strawberries, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 3 1/2 cups milk, 1 cup crushed ice.

Combine honey with crushed strawberries and lemon juice. Add ice and milk; shake or beat vigorously and serve immediately.

Old-Fashioned Banana Milk Shake
(Serves 6)
Five medium ripe bananas, 1 quart milk, 6 tablespoons molasses, 1 1/8 teaspoon salt, nutmeg.
Peel bananas. Mash with a fork until smooth and creamy. Add milk, molasses and salt. Blend thoroughly with whisk or rotary beater. Pour into glasses, sprinkle with dash of nutmeg and serve with crisp cookies.

Maple-Vanilla Float
(Serves 5 or 6)
One quart milk, 1/4 cup maple or maple flavored syrup, 1 pint vanilla ice cream (bulk), 1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla flavoring.

Combine milk, syrup and 2 large scoops vanilla ice cream. Shake or beat until all ingredients are well blended. Top with generous scoop of ice cream and serve at once.

Maltese Still Are Displaced

CAPONE KNOWS HIS GUNS

MONTEREY, CALIF.—(AP)—Citizens did a double take when the local paper informed them: "Al Capone in gun business here." But upon reading further they were reassured. Al Capone, the item continued, is not related to the late notorious gangster, and merely opened, with peaceful intent, a gun repair shop.

PAMAGUSTA, CYPRUS—(AP)—Four hundred displaced persons with no new homeland over the horizon today inhabit one of the internationally publicized Cyprus camps where Britain once held illegal Jewish immigrants to Palestine. They are British subjects, descendants of Maltese. Before the war they had lived for generations in Greece and Turkey. Few spoke English. But because the Maltese had British passports they were evacuated when war began.

For years the 400 have been moving from one DP camp to another—first in India, later to Eritrea, now to this Mediterranean island. Most are elderly. Only 100 are considered employable. They complain they want to return to Greece and Turkey—but those countries do not want them, Britain is caring for them here.

Crane News

CRANE—The Rev. Jack Ramsey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, recently attended the annual church conference for youths at the Moor Ranch, 12 miles from Hunt, Texas. Mrs. Myrtle Shaffer recently returned from Washington, D. C., where she visited her mother who was ill.

Doctors Talk Care Of Mass Casualties If A-Bombs Fall

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Preparations for taking care of mass casualties in case of atom bomb attack occupied the attention of a large group of doctors at the American Medical Association convention Wednesday.

If future A-bomb blasts are like those at Hiroshima and Nagasaki about half the casualties will be burns, and many of the burns will be of an unusual nature, said Dr. Everett I. Evans, professor of surgery at the Medical College of Virginia.

Iron Bed Is Termed Lightning Protector

ATLANTIC CITY—(AP)—The safest place to be in a lightning storm is in a metallic bed. Emmet Cox, Chicago fire prevention expert, explained this to the annual meeting of the National Fire Protection Association.

A lightning bolt entering a room would follow the metal bedstead and leave its occupant unharmed, he said.

WES-TEX FOOD MART
RECIPE OF THE WEEK
By Mary Lee Taylor
Deviled Onions
1 lb. small onions 4 teaspoons flour
1 1/2 cups boiling water and salt 20 min., or until tender.
1/2 cup fat milk
1/2 teaspoon salt 2 1/2-cm. can deviled ham
1 tablespoon shortening
Peel onions; cook covered in boiling water and salt 20 min., or until tender. Drain; save 1/2 cup liquid. Melt shortening in saucepan; blend in flour and pepper. Stir in liquid. Boil and stir 2 min. Add onions, milk and deviled ham. Heat until steaming hot, but do not boil. Makes 4 servings.
You Will Need:
Pot Milk, Deviled Ham, Onions, Shortening and Flour.
