Romney Is Front Presidential Runner Among GOP Governors

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Republican governors, demanding a party role to match their bolstered numbers, went to work today to build an organization that could propel one of them into the GOP presidential nomination.

Their potential leaders were not saying which one — although Michigan's Gov. George Romney clearly is the front runner among them, as he is in the public opinion polls.

Colorado Gov. John A. Love and Rhode Island's John H. Chafee, both seeking the chairmanship of the Republican Governors' Association, agreed that the 25 GOP state executives should seek to line up behind a single candidate for the White House.

CAN CONTROL

With broad, if not unanimous agreement, Chafee told a joint news conference Thursday night, the governors can control the selection of the party's 1968 candidate.

He said the governors also should work to make sure that the next Republican platform embraces imaginative proposals for "new solutions to the many old problems."

Chafee said the governors should take an active role in the selection of their state delegations to the next national convention. And he said they should decide "early in the game" who they want nominated.

NO FIRST CHOICE

"I have no first choice now," he said.

Love said he believes the next nominee will be a governor.

"We have an outstanding slate of governors," he said. He added that Republicans in Congress are trapped in a position of minority opposition to administration proposals, which does not beset the governors.

House Republican leader, Gerald R. Ford of Michigan said there would be no dissension between Republicans on Capitol Hill and in the statehouses.

TIRED OF READING

"I am tired of reading how we are going to fly off into all kinds of collision courses," Ford said in a speech prepared for the association's first formal session.

At an afternoon meeting the governors are expected to elect a chairman to succeed retiring Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho. Ford said Republicans in Congress are not going to use their increased numbers for obstruction. He promised a positive, meaningful minority program — and offered the governors a chance to help shape it.

He said GOP congressional leaders will propose next year a system of state and federal tax sharing, and Social Security increases tied to cost-of-living factors.

BIGGER ROLE

The House minority leader said he would like to see the governors accord a bigger role in the Republican Policy Coordinating Committee, the party's top policy-making council.

The governors were looking for the same thing. Gov. Daniel J. Evans of Washington offered a resolution seeking to increase from five to seven the number of gubernatorial seats on the coordinating group.

That would be generally in line with the increase in GOP gubernatorial numbers — up from 17 to at least 25 as a result of the Nov. 8 election. One race, that in Georgia, still is contested.

NO BANDWAGON

An Associated Press survey of GOP gubernatorial opinion showed signs of cautious support of Romney and some for Richard M. Nixon for the 1968 nomination.

But there was no sign of a governors' bandwagon for Romney.

Chafee indicated that California Governor-elect Ronald Reagan, another rated among potential nominees, will be in the 1968 running.

Love and Chafee said the presidential disclaimer of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller apparently is a firm one. Rockefeller has said he never again would seek the presidency.

Mrs. Farber Escorted To Court

Mrs. William E. Farber, widow of slain former Army Lt. Col. William E. Farber, bites her tongue as she is tugged along toward Monmouth County courthouse by her attorney, George Chamila (left), of West Long Branch, N.J., today. Mrs. Farber arrived to attend first day of testimony in trial of Dr. Carl Coppolino for killing her husband. Mrs. Farber is expected to be a witness for the prosecution. Man at right is unidentified. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Slain Colonel's Wife Reveals 'Love Plans'

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. Marjorie Farber stepped from her witness chair today and described graphically how Dr. Carl Coppolino allegedly smothered her husband with a pillow.

"He said: 'He is a hard one to kill . . . he is taking a long time to die,'" she said, "the attractive 52-year-old woman quoted Coppolino as saying.

"Then he took a pillow and put it over Bill's head like this," she went on, standing up and pressing down with both palms on the corner of a table in front of the judge's bench.

NEARLY IN TEARS

Almost in tears, she said: "and I just stood there and looked at him."

Then she slumped back into her chair and a woman court attendant hurried over with a cup of water.

Coppolino, a 34-year-old anesthesiologist, is on trial here on a first degree murder charge in the death of retired U.S. Army Colonel William E. Farber three years ago.

It was on the following day, the state claims, that the 50-year-old retired Army colonel, William E. Farber, was strangled by Coppolino, 34-year-old anesthesiologist. Earlier, Mrs. Farber, a 5-foot-2 brunette, told of a love affair with Coppolino during which they went together to Miami Beach, Fla.

"That is when Carl wrote out what he called the love plans," she said that in following out the "love plans" she moved out of the bedroom she shared with her husband and broke off marital relations with Farber.

"Sometime in June 1963," the witness continued, "Carl said that man has got to go — my husband."

Weeping profusely now, Mrs. Farber continued: "I was very upset and shocked at this suggestion of Carl's. I told him he must be crazy, out of his mind. Carl set a date. He said by the first of July he has got to go. And he continued it over and over and over."

GOT RID OF IT

Mrs. Farber said on July 27, 1963 she filled a syringe with a lethal anesthesia at Coppolino's direction, and then alone with her husband prepared to inject it while he slept.

"Then I threw out the syringe," Mrs. Farber said. "I got rid of it. This was all very objectionable to me. I just couldn't do this thing. So I threw it out."

Asked what she and Coppolino did the next day, Mrs. Farber said, "We went to the movies."

USED HYPNOSIS

Earlier, the prosecutor, Vincent P. Keuper told the 10-man, four-woman jury that Coppolino used hypnosis to win Mrs. Farber's affections and then try to get her to kill her husband.

Defense counsel F. Lee Bailey told the jury he would prove that the first-degree murder charge against Coppolino was a "cruel hoax," concocted by a woman who "drips with venom on the inside."

Bailey said Mrs. Farber, the state's chief witness against Coppolino, turned against the young doctor, because she was scorned by him.

JEALOUS

Mrs. Farber testified today after being cautioned by the judge that her statements might prove self-incriminating.

Under questioning by Keuper, she testified of first meeting Dr. Coppolino in the fall of 1962. The Farbers and Coppolino were neighbors in the Fox Run section suburban Middletown Township.

Farber, 50, died in his home on July 30, 1963 of what was called a heart attack. The state now claims the colonel was murdered, and Keuper said he would seek the death penalty for Coppolino.

The motive, Keuper said, was

U.S.-Kremlin Space Treaty To Ban Arms

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Some U.N. diplomats believe the new U.S.-Soviet agreement to ban war and weapons from outer space can open the way to a pact to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

The agreement announced Thursday by President Johnson was welcomed at the U.N. as a major breakthrough in a 10-year battle for an international legal code to govern space exploration.

"It is the most important arms control development since the limited test ban treaty of 1963," Johnson said, referring to the earlier pact barring testing in the atmosphere, which most nations have ratified.

He predicted the new treaty would "prevent warlike preparations on the moon and other celestial bodies" while guaranteeing "free access to all areas and installations" in space.

Diplomats at the U.N. also viewed the agreement as a good omen for accord on another major issue now under negotiation — a treaty to halt the spread of nuclear weapons to nations that don't have them. No agreement on this is expected, however, until the 17-nation disarmament talks resume in Geneva early in 1967.

In announcing the agreement from the Texas White House, Johnson expressed hope that the United States will be one of the first countries to ratify the space treaty.

The treaty, now in the hands of the 28-nation U.N. subcommittee on outer space that drafted it, must be approved next by the General Assembly. Quick approval is expected.

Survivor Brought Ashore At Piraeus

Members of the Greek coast guard carry a survivor of the sunken passenger and ferry Heraklion ashore last night at Piraeus, the port for Athens. Like many of the 46 survivors rescued, he was suffering from exposure and exhaustion. The Heraklion went down yesterday during a heavy storm in the Aegean Sea. (AP WIREPHOTO by radio from Athens)

Rescue Ships Still Search For Survivors

ATHENS, Greece. (AP) — Shipping officials revised the toll in the sinking of the ferry Heraklion to 235 dead or missing today and expressed fear that a number of unlisted, last-minute passengers may have been aboard.

Hope was fading that there would be more survivors than the 46 brought in by darkness Thursday. Thursday night 49 survivors were reported, but the ministry of merchant marine said three of those were later found to be bodies.

40 BODIES RECOVERED

Rescue ships kept up their search through the night and today and found 23 more bodies, bringing the total recovered to more than 40.

Officials directing recovery operations at Piraeus, the port of Athens, said many persons may have boarded at the last minute and paid their fare after the ferry got under way from Crete. They said naval students from Crete, on the island of Crete often ride without being recorded on passenger lists.

SANK SWIFTLY

The 8,900-ton Heraklion sank swiftly in a raging storm at 2 a.m. Thursday, midway on an overnight crossing from Crete to Piraeus with 206 passengers officially listed and 75 in the crew. By Thursday night, rescue ships picked up 49 survivors and 17 bodies.

Twelve more bodies were recovered today.

Crewmen told rescuers trucks and cars, torn from their lashings as the 17-year-old ship tossed in the storm, smashed loading doors that had been weakened by waves. They said a 16-ton refrigerator trailer battered open a bow door and the Aegean Sea, whipped up by 75- to 100-mile winds, poured in.

Antonios Kambouris, 21, reported: "The blow that finally broke open the loading door was from a refrigerator trailer up front. I was asleep when the alarm sounded. I awoke and took a lifebelt and jumped into the sea. In 15 minutes the ship was gone."

The Heraklion's captain, Emmanuel Verrikos, was last seen rushing about the decks to direct the abandon ship.

"God knows what happened to the captain," one officer said.

Ships from the U.S. 6th Fleet, British warships and Greek destroyers cruised the area of the sinking off the island of Milos Thursday night, turning searchlights on the dark water and lighting flares as they looked for survivors and bodies.

CHEER FUND SLOWS DOWN

The CHRISTMAS CHEER FUND was a bit on the slow side today, but two gifts came in to keep the program going. Thanks to Mrs. Norman Read for $10, and Mrs. Joe Froman for $5.

This brings the Fund total to $328.50.

Many, many more people surely will want to have a part in bringing a bright Christmas to destitute children who have no other visit from Santa Claus. If it Fund permits, volunteers stand by all year to come to the aid of children who are actually hungry, and to families that need emergency medicine.

If the holiday spirit moves you, make a check to CHRISTMAS CHEER FUND and send it to The Herald for acknowledgement. A lot of people will be grateful.

Millionaire's Bride Might Be Bigamist

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The California attorney general's office says Pearl Choate, the 200-pound practical nurse who married 95-year-old millionaire Albert Otis Birch, may be a bigamist.

A spokesman said Thursday the office has obtained documents showing that Mrs. Choate, now 59, was married by proxy in Mexico on Sept. 17, 1965, to Houston Perry, a car wash company employe in Compton, Calif.

"There is no divorce that we have been able to find," the spokesman said.

PROPERTY TRANSFERRED

Birch, who had previously lived in South Pasadena, Calif., was married to Mrs. Choate last Oct. 26. The ceremony was performed in an automobile at Altus, Okla.

The couple since has traveled about, appearing in Breckenridge, Wichita Falls, Midland, Odessa and Menard, Tex.

Much of Birch's property reportedly has been transferred to his wife's name.

In Oklahoma, Jackson County Atty. Loys Criswell said he had talked with California authorities by telephone.

"I won't know what to do until I get documented proof from California," Criswell said. "I should get it by mail in a day or two. If there is documented proof, and I have some, one to sign a complaint, I will file bigamy charges."

Birch and his new wife turned up Monday at Menard, where he was registered at a hospital under the name of Mann.

Mrs. Birch said she took him to the hospital because he had developed a slight fever and also because he was troubled by stiff legs as a result of surgery last August.

She told publisher Robert S. Weddle of the Menard News earlier she did not want to see reporters and was unavailable thereafter for comment on the report from the California attorney general.

Weddle asked how many times she had married and she replied:

"I'd rather not talk about that, but it's not eight times like some people say. I don't have any living husbands except Otis."

Court officials said her estate included real and personal property.

Miss Jones had lived alone for about five years since the death of her sister, Miss Helen La Dell Jones. Her body was found by sheriff's deputies who had been asked to investigate when she had not been seen or heard from for about a week.

Miss Jones was a native of Huntsville and lived all her life in the house where she died.

HIKE 25 MILES APIECE

Yule Shoppers' Feet Tired?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tired feet? Wait until Dec. 25.

The American Podiatry Association said today Christmas shoppers would hike an estimated 25 miles apiece this year — for a total of two billion miles. That's 4,000 round trips to the moon.

"In crowded stores, especially around bargain counters, shoppers' feet and ankles are subject to many of the same rigors football players encounter," say the footdoctors.

ROUGHED UP

Worse yet, being an athlete doesn't help much. Christmas shopping, says the APA, "is a much rougher sport than golf or tennis."

Dr. Seward P. Nyman, spokesman for the association's 5,000 doctors, says, "Christmas activity is undoubtedly more severe than people realize. Shoppers will be kicked, stepped on, gouged and generally roughed up."

CARRY EXTRA PAIR

The association recommended four rules for shoppers:

1. Wear low-heeled shoes. Spike heels are like walking on stilts. Carry an extra pair.
2. Take a five-minute break every hour or so, sit down and flex your toes. Keep feet warm and dry.
3. When queuing up in a long line, keep moving. Shift your weight constantly.
4. At the end of the day, massage feet with softening cream and prop them up at an angle higher than the head.

Does Dr. Nyman have any special rules? "Frankly, I try to get my wife to do the shopping. I admire her for being a Trojan."

Asks Washington For Advice

Boy Businessman Goes Right To Top

WASHINGTON (AP) — A small businessman from Rhode Island, aged 12, went right to the top with his perplexing business problem. He got some guidance today from Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor.

The problem, as Jimmy Halpin of Johnston, R.I., related in a letter to the secretary, is twofold:

1. Some neighborhood kids are bothering him and his partner in this business venture.
2. The partners rent a garage as their headquarters from the grandmother of the kids bothering them.

Connor said national cases involving restraint of trade usually are handled by the Justice Department but in this case local action is indicated.

PADDLES TO PANTS

The secretary said he hesitated to recommend anything specific without more facts but suggested the kids' grandmother might be able to apply sufficient restraint, perhaps "paddles applied to the seat of the pants."

"My name is Jimmy Halpin, I am twelve yrs. old," the lad began his letter in his own handwriting and pretty much his variety of spelling. "I am president of two small co: 1, Cherry Hill Paper Waste Co. 2, Cherry Hill Gardeners Co. The first co is a co in which my friend Roland Audet and I collect old newspapers, magazines and books. This co is in an old garage. We pay one dollar rent a month, and we have insurance for 30 cents a month."

PLEASE MAIL

"The second co is a co Roland and I dreamed up. We take care of gardens and lawns. These companies give us about $10 a month. So far in the paper co we made $36.75 in three months. We have booklets keeping track of the amount made, (papers, or money) also of the happenings. We have been robbed three times and the town police fixed that."

"My problem is how do I keep the kids around the neighborhood from bothering us. when it (the land and garage) belongs to their grandmother?"

Jobs Paying $150 A Day Go Begging

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jobs that pay up to $150 a day plus expenses are going begging, and federal officials are worried about it.

But don't hasten to apply for the job of labor arbitrator unless you have wisdom, patience, and a working knowledge of economics, the law, industrial technology, psychology and labor-management relations.

Plus plenty of "just plain common sense," adds Morris L. Myers, general counsel of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

FIST FIGHT

Labor arbitrators, the court of last resort in more than 90 percent of all collective bargaining contracts, get involved in everything from refereeing a grievance over a fist fight to a delicate contract interpretation involving hundreds of thousands of dollars.

And they have to try to keep both union and company officials happy while doing it.

While organized labor bitterly opposes compulsory arbitration laws to settle contract negotiation disputes, most unions warmly embrace arbitration as a means of settling grievances once a contract is signed.

WORD IS LAW

The letter is called "voluntary arbitration," meaning "you agree to be bound by the arbitrator's ruling."

The arbitrator's word is law in settling a grievance. The government's only role is suggesting arbitrators upon request.

Although arbitrators are not federal employees, Myers keeps a roster of 1,000 experienced men around the country and the American Arbitration Association—a private group—lists another 2,000.

But even the best of qualifications doesn't guarantee an arbitrator a job. "The most difficult thing is to get both sides to agree on the man they want," Myers said.

COSTS SPLIT

Myers sends names of arbitrators, along with biographical sketches, to both sides in a dispute. Picking the man for the job sometimes takes on the aspects of selecting a jury for a trial, with each side entitled to remove names of individuals unacceptable to them. Sometimes a whole new panel has to be sent out.

The union and the company split the cost of the arbitrators' services, which averaged $472 per case in fees and expenses for an average three days work.

Few of the arbitrators work at full time. Many are college professors, but prior practical labor-management experience is almost essential.

'Glass Menagerie' Lovingly Handled

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Room Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tennessee Williams' drama of illusion was recreated with delicacy and perception Thursday night in CBS' two-hour adaptation of "The Glass Menagerie."

"The play is memory," stated Hal Holbrook, serving as both Greek chorus and actor in the play. But it was not a happy memory, centering around the restless, trapped young man, a prisoner of his mother's demands and his sister's physical and mental infirmities.

DREAM WORLDS

Living in a shabby crowded St. Louis tenement, so poor that an unpaid bill cut off the electricity in midwinter, mother, son and daughter all existed in their own, special dream worlds, their own refuges from unpleasant reality.

Amanda, the mother, constantly nagging and reproaching, alternately indulging in fantasy about her affluent girlhood and obsessed with finding a "gentleman caller" to court her daughter, lived in a strange world.

Laura with the crippled leg and so painfully withdrawn that even meeting strangers made her physically ill, spent her days with a small collection of glass animals and compulsively played old phonograph records.

STRANGE SHELL

And Tom, boiling with frustration in a menial warehouse job, wrote poems in the wash-room and went endless to movies to escape his dreary life.

Goaded by his mother, the son invited a coworker home for dinner. Laura, panicky, became ill. But the "gentleman caller" did begin to bring her out of her strange shell. Then he utterly destroyed her by telling her of his impending marriage.

Shirley Booth gave a sure and powerful portrayal of Amanda. Barbara Loden's helpless, sensitive Laura made her seem like a frightened injured bird. And Holbrook's sullen explosiveness was just right. Pat Hingle played the gentleman caller with sympathy and understanding.

It was a moving, impressive two hours of fine theater, beautifully produced and lovingly handled.

DEAR ABBY
Some Things Don't Wait

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend and I are both seniors at the University of Colorado. We were planning to get married right after graduation in June, but we eloped in October. When we went home for a weekend we told our parents.

They said we should keep it a secret, announce our engagement at Christmas, and have a big church wedding like we planned in June.

Well, I think I'm pregnant, so I doubt if we can wait that long. I hate to disappoint our folks, but what can I do? Mother so wanted me to have a June wedding. How can I tell her?

SECRET BRIDE: Tell her that a June wedding is for the birds because you have a date with a stark around that time. She will understand.

DEAR ABBY: Is it ever advisable or forgivable to tell your sister that her husband is cheating on her?

She loves him dearly, and they have a lovely home, a beautiful family and status in the community. He was a woman-chaser before their marriage, and apparently he hasn't completely settled down yet. If my sister knew how her husband was chasing around she would leave him and break up her home, causing much heartbreak for herself, her husband and the children.

And yet, knowing what I do, it is so hard for me to remain silent. The kind of women he runs with could cause untold misery at home. (Disease, I mean.) I haven't discussed this with my husband or anyone—except you. What would you do in my place? PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: I would confide what I believe to be true to my husband, and let HIM speak to my sister's husband. Under no circumstances would I tell my sister.

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé and I broke up a month ago, and he told me to keep the engagement ring.

I received a letter from his mother asking me to please send the ring to her.

If he didn't want the ring back enough to come and get it, do you think I should give it to his mother? CURIOS

DEAR CURIOS: It all depends on where the ring came from. If he bought it with his own money and told you to keep it, keep it. If the ring belongs to his mother, or if she gave her son the money with which to buy it, I would send it to her.

Film Books Now Come In Flood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — For that tiny minority of book collectors who specialize in movie subjects, this Christmas season offers the chance for a bountiful harvest.

Whereas movie books used to trickle out of publishing houses, they now come in a flood. The man who knows is comedian Ken Murray, who may have the most extensive private collection of film volumes.

"Now I'm running out of shelf space, not to mention money," says Murray of his specialized bibliophilia. He started collecting many years ago when he was a movie-struck vaudevillian.

Some prizes of Murray's book collection are a 1916 biography of D.W. Griffith by his wife; a 1923 book on Wallace Reid by his mother; "My Trip Abroad" (1922) by Charlie Chaplin; "Confessions of an Actor" (1926) by John Barrymore. Other biographies include those of Marie Dressler, Lillian Gish, Vernon and Irene Castle, Jeanne Eagels, Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Adolph Menjou, Edward Arnold, Harold Lloyd, right down to Linda Christian and Hedy LaMarr.

TRASH

"Most of the books are trash, but they are ideal for my research," said Murray. Best of the books, he feels are "Goodnight, Sweet Prince," the Barrymore biography by Gene Fowler; Bosley Crowther's books on MGM and Louis B. Mayer; and the early film history, "A Million and One Nights" by Terry Ramsaye.

Here are some of the new books on movie subjects for the Christmas buyer (some are offered at reduced prices pre-holiday):

"Double Exposure" (Delacorte, $15) by Roddy McDowall. Portraits by the actor-photographer with word pictures written by celebrities about other celebrities. The coffee-table book of the season.

"How Sweet It Was" (Shorecrest, $12.50; by Arthur Shulman and Roger Youman. A compendium of television history, profusely illustrated.

"Meeting Mrs. Jenkins" (Morrow, $2.95; by Richard Burton. A reprint of the actor's magazine article of his courtship of Elizabeth Taylor with the scandal excised. Written with surprising skill.

"Bogie" (New American Library, $4.95; by Joe Hyams. The official Bogart biography, with introduction by Lauren Bacall. An affectionate portrait.

"The films of W.C. Fields" (Citadel, $7.95; by Donald Descher. Plots and stills from all the comedian's movies.

A Devotional For The Day

Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

PRAYER: O God, in these troublous days, may we look to Thee for a refreshing of the spirit. We have become discouraged and have failed miserably to carry out Thy mission. Forgive us for our shortcomings and give us added strength to live and love life in Thee. We ask for the sake of Christ. Amen.

Making Water Work Overtime

Texas' long-range statewide water plan depends heavily not only on interbasin exchange, for diversion of surplus from humid to arid areas, but also on water-waste treatment, that will allow re-use downstream. This type of water re-use is the most acceptable because open-air overground travel greatly helps water to purify itself.

Ultimately, however, many Texas and other American cities will have to reprocess their own water supplies for second, or even multiple, usage. That will require either purification up to drinking standards—and the difficulty of public acceptance even of that or dual water distribution systems so that the reprocessed water can be used for industry, irrigation, possibly sewage flow (the most wasteful water use), and perhaps recreation and other uses except human consumption.

Consequently, national attention has been drawn to a seven-year experiment in Santee, Calif., a 14,500-population city in the dry foothills northeast of San Diego. The Santee Water District, aided by eight federal, state and county health and water agencies, has developed a water reprocessing system that has doubled the water supply for all but drinking purposes.

The Santee system involves a conventional sewage treatment plant, an oxidation pond, sand and gravel percolating beds, and a chain of four small artificial lakes. The reprocessed water has gained official and popular acceptance for food crop irrigation and recreation, including fishing and swimming and boating, and is available to industry.

The Santee system or some variation of it can be adapted almost anywhere. It is proving both economically feasible and publicly acceptable. And something like it will eventually have to spread nationwide—along with ever more effective antipollution controls, desalination, extensive interbasin transport, and other supply stretchers—if we are to have enough water to meet all our needs a generation or so hence.

Just As Well

What some observers long suspected now appears to be a fact: The supersonic transport plane (SST) now on U.S. drawing boards and in mock-up form will never fly at maximum speeds over land in the United States.

Lacking some unforeseen breakthrough in design or noise-suppression, the SST will be confined primarily to over-ocean flights where its tremendous sonic boom wave will not disturb more than some unfortunate passenger liner or freighter. On shorter runs, say from Chicago to New York en route to Europe, the SST may be able to cruise at 600 miles an hour over land without economic loss, then moving up to its designed speed of 1,800 miles an hour as it starts across the Atlantic Ocean.

Another generation of aeronautical engineers and engine designers may be able to solve the problem of sonic booms. But for the present we will have to content ourselves with subsonic speeds on domestic flights. Perhaps it's just as well. Men already have difficulty adjusting to the passage of several time zones on long flights.

Marquis Childs Anti-Ballistic Missile Pressure

WASHINGTON—Of all the characters in the cast that will determine whether the United States is to spend $30 billion to $40 billion on an anti-ballistic missile system none is more flamboyant—or unpredictable—than Rep. L. Mendel Rivers. The South Carolinian with the dramatic mane of silver hair and a manner to go with it is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

Seniority gave him his chairmanship, and he exercises his power with the imperial touch. As for Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, when he comes to Capitol Hill to testify the chairman looks on him frowningly as an emissary from a hostile power.

RIVERS is planning, by Air Force plans, to take a number of committee members to Ramey Air Force base near San Juan. There in early January they will plot the strategy to give McNamara his comeuppance.

The Republicans with their victory of 47 seats in the House will carry far more weight in the committee than they did in the 89th Congress. If they decide to make the "anti-ballistic missile gap" a political issue it would be surprising not to find Chairman Rivers giving them tacit and perhaps open support. He led the committee last year in adding nearly $1 billion to the defense appropriation that McNamara insisted the Defense Department did not need or want.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS, most of them on the conservative side, are singularly susceptible to the pressures of big contractors who are part of what President Eisenhower called in his farewell address the military-industrial complex. There are shipyards in his native state and Rivers has had a running battle with McNamara for approval of two nuclear-powered frigates.

Understandably in view of the enormous complexity of the decision on the anti-ballistic missile, members of the committee with the best will in the world are likely to be swayed by emotions. The whole matter is shrouded in secrecy. The National Intelligence Estimate, revealing what the Soviets have done to place anti-ballistic missiles, is a top-secret document for the eyes of a half-dozen policy-makers.

THE STORY, so far as it is known, is as follows. About five and a half years ago the Russians began to build the sites for anti-ballistic missiles around their principal cities. More than a year later, for some unknown reason, the operation was suspended. Then a year ago they began to build a more extensive system.

McNamara will say only that despite rumors that the Soviet system is potentially more effective than any official is ready to acknowledge, he considers the National Intelligence Estimate valid. On this basis he reaffirms his 1964 statement that there is no break in the stalemate foreseeable into the '70s. If either of the two scorpions should try a first-strike knockout the result would be death for both.

McNAMARA HAS agreed to about a half-billion dollars a year for advanced research on a system its proponents believe to be more sophisticated than that of the Soviets. This adds up to an investment of several billions, stopping short of actual production. One of the extras the Rivers committee threw into the last budget was $167,900,000 for Nike anti-ballistic missile above and beyond McNamara's request.

It has been said on apparently good authority that the United States has undertaken at the highest level to assure the Soviets on the score of the anti-ballistic missile, i.e., if you don't build it, we won't.

MARSHALL D. SHULMAN of Harvard's Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and an associate of the Russian Research Center there, wrote recently in the Washington Post after a stay in the Soviet Union that almost everyone he talked to believed the Johnson administration was on a course of conquest; they simply did not credit the President with sincerity in his expressed desire to improve relations with the Communist world.

McNamara has always been confident that the United States with its fabulous productive system could afford whatever the nation's defense needs might be. He cannot escape seeing now, however, that the cost of the Vietnam war is cutting deeply into programs for domestic reform. And if on top of this $5 billion or so a year is added for a Nike X system of questionable value the cuts will be even deeper.

What Does Romney Stand For?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan Gov. George Romney is a national figure but his national ideas look pretty thin.

Esteemed for high character and moral overtones, he is running ahead of President Johnson in public opinion polls. But what does he stand for?

Romney says he hasn't made up his mind on running for the presidency but he is beginning to scamper around the country like a man taking the Republican pulse on his prospects for representing the party in 1968.

BECAUSE Johnson didn't put in a tax increase last year, Romney said, the economy is now teetering on the brink of a slowdown. But there is a lot of disagreement among economists on that and on whether one is needed at all.

And Romney, whose only experience in government has been on a state level and who has been against too much big federal government, then offered what political scientists might call a kind of utopian concept of government:

Voluntary associations for cooperative action centers. (Whatever they mean.)

Private enterprises for competitive action centers. (Whatever they mean.)

STATE and local governments for locally oriented action centers close to control by the people. (Whatever they mean.)

The federal government as an action center to cope with tasks requiring unified national effort. (Whatever that means.)

If he is going to revolutionize the running of government, it would seem, he could at least get specific, particularly since he said dependence on the federal government is "dwarfing America's men."

But all this is in line with what appears to be Romney's inability to be specific or get down to cases generally.

FOR EXAMPLE: He is reluctant to open up on one of the most important issues of the time, the war in Vietnam, saying he wants to give it much more thought because "before a person raises questions he ought to be able to make specific proposals."

Suggested Book List

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you have a friend whose whole world turns dark when his television set is on the blink?

Why let him sit there in lonely despair? There is a remedy for his condition. It is an old-fashioned remedy called reading. It has helped people pass the time in pleasure and self-profit for centuries.

So, until the television repairman can call, brighten your friend's plight by sending him a book for Christmas. He may be so grateful he will remember you in his book.

But what book to send him? It is very important to send the right book to the right person.

FOR EXAMPLE, and all in fun, here is a suggested list for people we all know or have heard about:

"Many Are Called"—George Romney, Richard M. Nixon, Ronald Reagan, and perhaps Nelson A. Rockefeller.

"Open the Door"—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"Everything but Money"—your wife or mine.

"The Birds Fall Down"—all the young Democratic congressmen who didn't win re-election.

"Education by Uncle"—any disgruntled U.S. taxpayer.

"Modern American Usage"—Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service.

"Music in a New Found Land"—any U.S. serviceman in Vietnam.

"THE PROUD TOWER"—Lyndon B. Johnson.

"Keep Your Mouth Closed, Dear"—Joe Valachi, the singing mobster.

"Confessions of a Dilettante"—Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

"The Moment of Wonder"—Ho Chi Minh.

"The Last Gentleman"—Zsa Zsa Gabor.

"Prayer Can Change Your Life"—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr.

"All God's Creatures"—Martin Luther King Jr.

"LOST CITIES of Asia"—Mao Tse-tung of China.

"Witness to Our Time"—J. Edgar Hoover.

"The Old Glory"—Former Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

"The Naked Image"—Gypsy Rose Lee.

"A World Elsewhere"—Pope Paul VI.

"The Awful Handyman's Book"—Prime Minister Sukarno of Indonesia.

"The Village Square"—Your beatnik son.

"The Silver Swan"—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

"A Tower of Babel"—U Thant.

"The Illusionless Man"—Santia Claus.

Around The Rim

It's Your Christmas

One of the favorite indoor pastimes at this season is to lament the commercialization of Christmas. The business community, we tell ourselves, keeps edging up the season just a little each year, and someday the signal for carols will be the day after Halloween.

ALL THIS WE deplore and blithely go about our Christmas shopping. If it keeps up, we might some day mail out Christmas cards earlier.

Another custom is the profligacy of social functions. Why, I have never been able to understand, every club, every class, every institution and business establishments, too, feel obliged to crowd in a party during the Yuletide. There are other months.

SOMEONE MUST have said it is customary—yes, traditional. Maybe someone else said that it is expected, that everyone else is having a gathering, or even that this is the time to be jolly. If Thomas Payne was right in saying that these are the times that try men's souls, then it is equally correct to say that December is a time to try a man's stamina.

THIS, HOWEVER, doesn't leave me cynical. No one has to get caught up in any or all of this promotion and going. We are simply gregarious creatures, and we prefer going along rather than bucking the tide.

THOSE WHO long for the joy of Christmas they knew as children are indulging in fantasy and futility. Christmas will never be like that again; you can't go back. You can, however, find in Christmas a new and richer experience which comes in reflection, in meditation, in appreciation, in doing for others.

We can step off the merry-go-round now and then just long enough to push out the horizons of our little circle. Sometime through broadening our concerns, we deepen our love.

CHRISTMAS, like all Christian experience, is an adventure of the heart. It is what you make it, not what the busy world may seem to impose upon you. —JOE PICKLE

Ray Bliss Takes Methodical Aim

WASHINGTON—Not one to take his hands off the handle bars to congratulate himself after winning a big race, GOP National Chairman Ray Bliss is already wheeling into position for the next event—the Grand Prix of 1968.

LEAVING other Republicans to gloat over November victories, Bliss looks to January when he will hit the pace for an 18-month grueling drive. This tough political technician, with his total disregard for intraparty philosophies, intends to plant Republican pennants over every citadel from courthouse to White House. If he can fabricate the apparatus of success, he cares not whether his winners are fish or fowl—just so they are Republican.

In January or soon after, Bliss will announce that the number of GOP "workshops"—where campaign tactics are formed—will be increased from the present 153 to 300. He is expected to reveal the recruitment of over 100 additional specialists—the "how-to" mechanics. They go about republicanizing the natives of scattered political islands—youth, farmers, minorities, trade union members and political independents. The Bliss mechanics are further specialized in that they concentrate separately on the cities, the suburbs, the Congressional districts and the statewide constituencies.

REVERSING the usual order of priorities, Bliss looks out from his perch atop the National Committee and gives primary attention to the nethermost political opportunities. The presidency will hardly concern him at first, that might follow other successes. He aims to broaden recent gains at the base of the pyramid. In 1966, under Bliss' programming, the GOP netted 757 new posts at county seats, 576 in the legislatures and 47 statewide offices below those of governor and lieutenant-governor. His immediate goal is to expedite this growth rate.

BLISS IS the target master of the possible. There are two choice governorships coming into range during 1967, but unless some Republican blessing occurs in Mississippi (such as a party-switch by Democratic Congressman John Bell Williams), it is expected that Bliss will concentrate on Kentucky, where the party has just picked up two new House seats. Bliss has seven gubernatorial high-priority targets lined up for 1968—in Iowa, Indiana, Kansas, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Utah and Vermont.

He is equally selective in picking the best chances for further gains in the House of Representatives. All 62 Democratic-held districts where the '66 figures were marginal are considered targets of opportunity. Bliss could feel particularly optimistic about taking five new seats in New York, three in Pennsylvania, two each in New Jersey and Massachusetts and one each in Connecticut and Maine.

IN THE SENATE contests for 1968, the Bliss target chart finds that Democrats Ribicoff (Conn.) and Gruening (Alaska) are particularly vulnerable and can be brought down. Another Democrat at odds with his party leadership on foreign policy and marked for extermination is Church of Idaho. Florida, where Smathers (D) is stepping down, and Maryland, where Brewster (D) has been hurt by political fission, are gleams in Ray Bliss' acquisitive eye. Other senatorial opportunities beckon the Republicans in Arizona, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

What About Other Ruling Minorities?

WASHINGTON—The biggest paradox of our times appears to be unnoticed by the peoples of the free world. Plenty of indignation is being voiced because a white minority in Rhodesia will not allow the right of self-determination to be exercised by the black majority in that country. But, ironically, nobody seems to care about the fate of the white majority not only in the Soviet Union but in the six Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the three former Baltic states, which are frequently referred to as "captive nations" because their present regimes were imposed by Moscow.

A SMALL minority known as the Communist party rules the Soviet Union and insists that there shall be no opposition. Nobody can vote against the party in power. The same thing is true in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and other countries in the Communist bloc.

It is surprising that even the United Nations is being urged by some of the African nations to enforce "sanctions" on Rhodesia in order to punish the white minority. But no such measures are being suggested to deal with the exercise of a dominant authority by the white minorities in each of the Communist-bloc countries.

WOULD THE SAME thing be true if the Communist party consisted only of whites, and the vast majority of the peoples in the Soviet Union, Poland, East Germany and Hungary were black? Would there be talk of "sanctions" to punish the minority for its refusal to grant liberty to the majority of the population in each country?

The answer is not hard to find. For only the small, white minorities who rule colored majorities are assailed today, while white majorities are suffering an agony of enslavement. This is because the members of the United Nations are afraid to band together and take collective action to establish freedom for the majority of the population in each of the "captive" countries?

IT IS EASY enough to punish the white minority in Rhodesia and to cut off the trade of that country and inflict hardships on the entire population—all in the name of human freedom. But commendable as is the objective of those who want to see the majority rule in Rhodesia, there is an obvious inconsistency in the unwillingness of the principal nations of the world today to do anything about the subjugation of vast numbers of people—indeed, the majority—in each of the Communist countries.

Although ethnic Russians constitute only about half of the population of the Soviet Union, Russians dominate the Communist party and its leadership. Thus a small minority of one particular nationality rules the whole country through the system of Communist party discipline.

IN RECENT YEARS, Rumania and Czechoslovakia have achieved some small measure of independence of Moscow, but they are still dominated by the single-party Communist system. It is generally believed that the self-determination achieved in these two countries is not complete but is a form of neutrality as between the Communist parties of Red China and the Soviet Union, respectively. Although Soviet troops have been withdrawn from those countries and from Bulgaria as well, they still constitute a considerable occupation force in East Germany, Poland, Hungary and the Baltic states. Backed by the power of military coercion, the white minorities rule the roost in several countries.

IT'S A GOOD thing, of course, for the United Nations to improve free peoples everywhere to take an interest in the fate of the majorities in those countries which are under the yoke of minorities of any kind. But there would be more enthusiasm for a glorification of the idea of self-determination if it were applied consistently throughout the world. This is the first step.

'NOTHING TO LOSE'

Two Convicts Donate Kidneys To Women

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Two convicts who say they have nothing to lose and nothing to gain except self-respect are donating kidneys to two women, so they can give hope for life to others.

They are Bill Watson, 34, and Ben Crippen, 35, both serving life sentences in the Arkansas State Prison.

ONLY WAY

"Both of us have got more time than we can do," Watson said Thursday. "We've got nothing to lose. This is about the only way we can help somebody."

Watson was convicted for rape and Crippen for murder.

Surgeons at the University of Arkansas Medical Center at Little Rock transplant a kidney today from Watson to Doris Ratliff, 38, of Fayetteville, Ark.

Crippen is scheduled to donate one of his kidneys in about two weeks to Lillie Lewis, 48, of Earle, Ark.

Both Mrs. Ratliff and Mrs. Lewis had their diseased kidneys removed and life has been sustained with an artificial kidney. Their chances of receiving a successful transplant are slightly better than 50 per cent, according to Dr. William J. Flanagan, a member of a kidney transplant team at the medical center that has had nine successful transplants out of 15.

LOT OF WRONG

In an interview at the medical center, where they are not under guard, Watson and Crippen said they approached the operations with some anxiety, but felt the benefits would be great.

"A person has to keep his self-respect all the time," Watson said. "The penitentiary is no place to keep it. When someone hollers for help you try to help."

"I've done an awful lot of wrong," Crippen said. "When you can help you do it. I think I'll be giving Mrs. Lewis the best Christmas present I can."

"The two say they expect no leniency from prison authorities because of their donations.

Private Draws Life In Prison

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — Curtis Armstrong of Groves, Tex., was found guilty of felony murder and unpremeditated murder by an army general court-martial.

The 21-year-old private's sentence was fixed at dishonorable discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances and life in prison.

The sentence is subject to review by the commanding general of Ft. Hood, an army review board in Washington, D. C., and the U.S. Court of Military Appeals.

Armstrong was charged in the shooting death of George E. Robbins, 18, of Temple and the robbery of the filling station where Robbins was an attendant. He was found innocent of the robbery charge.

The defendant pleaded innocent of the charges.

The court-martial board deliberated about three hours before finding Armstrong guilty and then used only 25 minutes to fix his punishment.

Far Bloodier War Expected By U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States expected a far bloodier Vietnam war, it was learned today.

Indications are the Pentagon prepared for the worst, anticipating perhaps 10,000 dead this year and five times as many wounded.

Casualties have been much lower although still running into staggering numbers — over 4,600 killed and 30,000 wounded the past 11 months.

A top source said that when the Pentagon began planning the big military buildup in Southeast Asia statistical studies were conducted which projected U.S. losses at 200 casualties per day per 100,000 men.

10 DAILY DEATHS

The figure, derived from experience in World War II and the Korean conflict, was needed to determine possible replacement and medical demands.

Simply stated, the computerized calculation showed the United States could expect for each 100,000 men in Vietnam to sustain daily 10 combat deaths, 50 wounded and 140 "non-hostile" casualties resulting from accident, disease or other causes.

Actual figures have averaged three killed, 14 wounded and 75 non-hostile losses per day per 100,000 men, this source said. Averages are rather meaningless, however, when it comes to describing the toll of life due to the war.

RUNNING LOWER

Defense Department statistics show that since Jan. 1, 4,659 Americans have been killed in Vietnam, running the count since Jan. 1, 1961 to 6,236 as of last Saturday.

This does not include 1,436 men who have died in plane and helicopter accidents, and from disease or other causes not attributable to enemy action.

A different view of Pentagon figures also shows the ratio of American combat deaths to wounded running much lower proportionately than during World War II and Korea.

The 35,538 wounded and 6,236 killed the past six years form a ratio of better than 5 to 1.

In Korea it was about 3 to 1 with 103,284 wounded and 33,629 killed in three years fighting. In World War II the ratio was over 2 to 1: 292,000 killed, 670,800 wounded.

The Pentagon says that due to better and more readily available medical treatment, 98.4 per cent of the GIs wounded in Vietnam recover. This compares with 97.5 per cent during Korea, 95.5 per cent in World War II and 92 per cent in World War I.

$30 BILLION PLANE

Money, Jobs, Prestige Ride On LBJ's Choice

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Among the decisions pending at the White House is one that involves at least $30 billion, thousands of jobs, the economic future of huge regions, the prestige of the nation.

Measured in dollars it is the biggest single inner space project ever attempted, the creation of an aircraft larger than a football field and faster than sound.

Who will build the supersonic transport — the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash., or Lockheed Aircraft of Burbank, Calif., and Marietta, Ga.? Each has submitted plans for the project, in which the federal government has a heavy investment.

POLITICAL FACTORS

The money, jobs, prestige and economic factors alone make a wise and just decision difficult to arrive at. But before these were even considered, the merits of 22,000 pages of scientific documents were analyzed.

Into this ponderous recipe are now being added the ever present political factors, for when an administration spends money it must use it in a politically effective way, just as a businessman must make it effective financially.

Upon this mass of considerations will come to bear the final judgment of one man, Lyndon B. Johnson. His decision is due by Jan. 1.

POWERFUL

To the winner goes an almost assured market during the next few decades, measured by some standards as low as $30 billion, but as high as $54 billion by Boeing.

General Electric and United Aircraft also are involved, for they are competing for the contract to build the jet engines, designed to be three times as powerful as those used now.

The four companies submitted plans earlier this year after at least a decade of scientific research. More than 200 government authorities reviewed the plans, as did 10 domestic and 21 foreign airlines.

Wind tunnel tests, mockups, laboratory analyses are among the ingredients offered for the decision. No prototype aircraft has yet been built.

LBJ'S CHOICE

The preliminary decision perhaps already has been made by the Federal Aviation Agency. Further consideration will be made by a special Cabinet-level committee. But the final choice is Johnson's.

Various possibilities are open to him: —Simply award the basic aircraft contract to Boeing or Lockheed and the engine contract to United Aircraft or General Electric.

—Postpone a decision. Delay the project by asking that prototypes of both Boeing and Lockheed designs be built and tested so as to better evaluate the two also are building supersonic airliners and are well ahead of the U.S. schedule. This country, however, is basing its hopes on being best.

BIG BUSINESS

—Award contracts to more than one or two of the companies; possibly a major contract to one and a consolation of a sort to another.

Never before has a single decision on a single project carried so much importance in the business world. Its impact is not just immediate. As the years go by, the significance will grow.

For example, the decision being made now will not result in a commercial superjet until 1974. Then the big business, contracts for perhaps 2,000 planes, will begin.

Texans To Test New Tax Form

HOUSTON (AP) — The commissioner of internal revenue says some 60,000 taxpayers in Texas and seven adjoining states will be asked to try a new, simplified tax form when filing 1966 income tax returns next spring.

Shelton Cohen said Thursday the new forms, 1040Q, will be distributed on a test basis to determine whether taxpayers find them simpler and clearer than the present standard form, 1040.

One feature of the new form will be the inclusion of instructions interlaced with the questionnaire blanks, Cohen said at a news conference.

He said those selected to receive the sample form will not be bound to use them in preparing their tax report.

But he urged those receiving it not to give it to someone else to use because "this would foul up our random sampling distribution."

Included with the new form will be a letter explaining why the test form is being sent and also a questionnaire asking for opinions and other comments about the proposed form.

Fleeing Youth Injures Knee

The miscreant and a policeman were injured in a chase on East Sixth Street early today, after the officer stopped the car for speeding. Patrolman Richard Cantwell halted the car for speeding, and the 14-year-old driver abandoned his car in the middle of the street and fled with the policeman in pursuit. In the two block chase, the lad severely injured a knee jumping a fence, and the offi-

B52s Strike Triple Blow

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers struck Communist positions in South Vietnam today in three raids that ranged from near Saigon to the northern edge of the country. As the bombers flew in from their Guam base, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived in Saigon and discounted chances of a prolonged pause in American bombing raids over North Vietnam. "We can't just stop half the war," Rusk told newsmen. "They've got to stop their half of it."

In one raid on the North Thursday, U.S. fighter-bombers were attacked by Communist MIG interceptors only six miles northeast of the center of Hanoi. The MIGs fired heat-seeking air-to-air missiles but failed to score hits, a U.S. spokesman said. He reported, however, that one U.S. plane was shot down by Communist ground fire over North Vietnam and two more were shot down in South Vietnam. Ground action in South Vietnam continued fighting with both the U.S. and Vietnamese military commands reporting only minor engagements.

Two of the contacts were close to Saigon where allied forces are embarked on a new campaign to clear the Viet Cong from jungle bases from which they mount terror attacks on the capital. The B52s in their first raid struck before dawn in Viet Cong-infested Tay Ninh Province, hitting enemy trenches, bunkers, foxholes and suspected troop areas 30 miles northwest of Saigon.

Former Mental Patient Denies Bludgeon Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A former mental patient stood silently today while a lawyer entered his innocent plea to the bludgeon slaying of a nationally known church and civil rights leader.

William R. Minor, 23, stood with his hands behind his back in Columbus Municipal Court as Otto Beatty Jr. of the public defender's office entered the plea to a first-degree murder charge in the death of Dr. Robert W. Spike, 43, a ministry professor at the University of Chicago credited with a major role in moving the church into civil rights activities. Minor gave his home town as Paintsville, Ky.

CASE CONTINUED
Police whisked him in and out of the courtroom on a private elevator. Judge Dean Strasbaugh continued his case until Wednesday. Minor must be indicted by a grand jury before he can be tried, unless he waives indictment and agrees to a trial on the present charge.

POOL OF BLOOD
Spike's body was found in a pool of blood last Oct. 17 in a guest room at the United Christian Center near Ohio State University. He had made a speech dedicating the interdenominational center the day before.

Beck said police were withholding details in the case as a result of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions involving pretrial rights of prisoners. But he did disclose this much: Early Wednesday, Minor stopped a police cruiser in downtown Columbus and told officers he had committed a burglary the night before at the Southeast Christian Church in Columbus.

Head-On Wreck Kills Four Men

ROCKWALL, Tex. (AP) — Four men, three of them from Dallas, were killed early today in the head-on collision of two cars on US 67 about a mile and a half west of Rockwall. The collision occurred in the westbound lane of the divided highway and demolished both vehicles. Deputies said the impact drove the engines into the front seats and wreckers using heavy chains had to rip off doors to free the victims.

Orbin Daily Is District Deputy

Orbin Daily has been named district deputy grand priest for the 44th district of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas. Embraced in this district are chapters in Big Spring, Midland and Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Daily attended meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Texas in Waco. Others at the convocation from here were Mr. and Mrs. Erven Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Morris, C. R. McClenny, Robert Kennedy and Steve Baker.

Three of the delegates to the YMCA annual Youth in Government project were pictured as they packed Thursday for their journey to Austin. They are, from left, Jimmy Wilson, Kay Slate and Randy Nicholson. Other delegates were Kay Stanser, Sherry Bradbury, Bill Schwarzenbach, Gayle Coleman, Gary Turner, Elizabeth Moore and Jill Lewis. Sponsors were Mrs. William Moore and Curt Mullins, general secretary. The delegates were to serve in the House and Senate and present bills approved in the pre-legislative parley in Abilene. Scouting Contributes To Freedom, Butcher Asserts Young men of America, fighting for freedom of the world today, are tremendously motivated, and part of their sense of dedication stems from programs like Scouting, Col. Chester J. Butcher, wing commander at Webb AFB, declared at the annual Lone Star district meeting. Col. Butcher, wing commander at Webb AFB, addressed the banquet session at Cosden Country Club Thursday evening. The occasion honored the unit leaders—den mothers, scoutmasters, explorer advisors and their assistants.

Spotlighted on the were Elwood Carlisle, scoutmaster of Troop 216, sponsored by Baptist Temple, who earned the coveted Scoutmaster Key; Joe Louis Easley, who won the handicapped Boy Scout award for the year; and Mike Alexander, Troop 179, Jerry Lewis, Post 19, Mike Spradling, Air Squadron 236, and Richard Tubbs, Troop 4, all of whom earned the highest badge—the Eagle—during the past year. Erven Fisher introduced them.

New College Buildings Available In February

Howard County Junior College trustees were told Thursday that the new library and science buildings will be ready for use by the end of February. Dr. W. A. Hunt, college president, informed the board that efforts will be made to transfer immediately into the new library when it is available. He predicted that this could be done within a single day.

Change orders were approved for the clock system at the college, including the two new buildings, and for substituting a non-skid type of tile at the library entrance. The HCJC self study report was approved by the Southern Association of Colleges, Dr. Hunt reported. It was one of two received with commendation, and the routine second report was requested. When this is filed and approved, the accreditation for the next 10 years will be assured so long as standards are maintained.

Seven Cases Set By Court

Seven cases were announced ready for trial at 10 a.m. today when Judge Ralph Caton issued a civil jury docket in 118th District Court. A jury panel will report to court at 10 a.m. Monday.

Don Simpson Is Promoted

Donald C. Simpson, who was reared here, has been named undersheriff at Albuquerque, N. M. He is due to attend a FBI school for police officers next March. Simpson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Simpson, Gall Route, is a 1946 graduate of Big Spring High School. He attended Texas Tech, studied engineering for two and one-half years in the University of New Mexico. He took his degree in business administration from the University of Albuquerque.

Few And Minor Crashes Reported

Three minor accidents were investigated by police Thursday, none involving serious damage or injuries. Ralph Edward Passmore, Crestwood Trailer Park, and Earl Glenn Sherrill, 3311 Evelyn Place, crashed in the 700 block of East Tenth. Dennis G. Poole, 1605-B Lincoln, and Oren Grissom Thompson, 1504 Kentucky Way, ran together at Al's Drive-In. Jimmy Wayne Skelton, 1602 Stadium, reported it and ran driver struck his car at West Sixteenth and Union.

Judge Disqualifies Himself In Contest

Ralph Caton, judge of the 118th District Court, said Thursday afternoon he would disqualify himself from acting on the motion to contest the election of a county commissioner from Precinct No. 2. Judge Caton pointed out that his name was on the same ballot as that of Ray C. Nichols and Winston Wrinkle, the commission candidates. He said he would begin contacting other district judges in the area to find one to act in the election matter.

Wrinkle, Republican candidate for county commissioner who lost the election by eight votes to Nichols, Democratic incumbent commissioner, Thursday filed the motion of intention to contest the Nov. 8 election. He asked that the validity of the vote be ascertained and that the results be certified.

BOXES IMPOUNDED
He asked in his petition filed by Gil Jones, his attorney, that the motion be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and also that votes cast in the County Commissioner Precinct 2 election be recounted. He asked that the validity of the vote be ascertained and that

North Howard Test Is Fishing

Parish Workers Make Christmas 'Chrismons'

The Lutheran Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul Lutheran Church has finished making the "chrismons" for the Christmas tree at the church. "Chrismons" are Christian symbols portrayed in decorations of several different types. The tree decorating service will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m., said the Rev. Clair Wiederholt, and the public is invited. Several hundred of the chrismons have been made, and the project will be continued next year.

Cantata To Have Double Presentation On Sunday

The 49-voice choir of Baptist Temple Church will present the Christmas Cantata, "Night of Miracles," by John W. Petersen, Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock. Solists for the performance will be Mrs. Mona Lue Tonn, Mrs. Joan Barris, Richard Johnson, Frank Swartz, Ralph Barris, Mrs. A. W. Page and Mrs. Marty Carpenter.

Narrator for the cantata will be Ralph Barris, and music will be under the direction of Bill Myers. Mrs. Linda Allen will accompany at the piano. The church nursery will be open, and the public is invited. Baptist Temple Church is located at 11th Place and Goliad.

The Webb AFB Chapel Choir is presenting Petersen's "Night of Miracles" at the 11 a.m. Sunday worship service, and residents of Big Spring as well as Webb personnel are invited. First Lt. Alan Trent will direct the choir and Chaplain Birdwell and on the piano, Mrs. Jonell Roberts.

Goliad Assembly of God Church Services Sunday

The Faith Assembly of God Church will hold special dedicatory services Sunday in the new educational building at 2300 Goliad. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ragan, pastors, said that the church construction was completed by members of the congregation and is valued somewhere between $14,000-$20,000.

Speakers will include the Rev. Haskell Rogers, district superintendent, at the 11 a.m. service; the Rev. R. V. Luna, presbyter of the South Plains section, at the 2 p.m. dedication service; the Rev. Charles J. Estes, throughout the day; and Mrs. Ragan, at the 7 p.m. worship. A lunch will be served to members and friends of the congregation at noon.

Pleasure Spot In Mexico Now Seminary

By PAUL ALBRIGHT MONTEZUMA, N.M. (AP) — The rich and the famous once traveled to this mountain canyon to bathe in hot mineral springs and relax amid the splendor of a Swiss-style castle. Today the hot springs still flow, but the turreted castle serves as Montezuma Seminary, training ground for Mexican parish priests. Nineteenth-century extravagance has given way to the hushed atmosphere and stark simplicity of a Roman Catholic school dedicated to scholarship.

DANCE HALL CHAPEL The dance hall of the old Hotel Montezuma now is a chapel for 400 seminary students, the salons in the turrets are study rooms, side rooms are used for additional library space. Buildings of the old resort now house philosophy and science seminarians. Students from Mexico study for eight years at Montezuma, six miles north of Las Vegas, before being ordained and assigned as secular or diocesan priests in Mexico.

FAMOUS VISITORS The 172-room main building and the 77-room annex were built by the Santa Fe Railway. The hotel had the first electric elevator in the New Mexico Territory and contained bowling alleys, billiard and gambling rooms and facilities for 1,000 hot-springs baths per day. Presidents Rutherford B. Hayes and Ulysses S. Grant visited the hotel, as well as the German Kaiser, Japan's emperor, members of the British royal family, and Civil War Gen. William T. Sherman.

World War I closed Montezuma as a resort hotel. Later it was used by the YMCA and then as a Baptist college. The Roman Catholics purchased it from the Baptists.

Presbyterians Book Film At Coahoma Church

The Coahoma Presbyterian Church will have a special showing Sunday at 7 p.m. of "The Great Commandment," a feature length religious classic. "The film has been hailed as a contribution toward peace and the Christ - concept of Good Samaritanism," said the Rev. Russell Nees, pastor. "Its compelling message speaks directly to today's chaotic world where hatred prevails in the political motives of so many."

The public is invited to attend, and refreshments will be served following the film. The congregations of St. Paul Presbyterian Church and Coahoma Methodist Church have made arrangements to attend the film, Rev. Nees said.

Society Plans On Service At Chapel

This Sunday is the second Sunday of the month and the Holy Name Society at Webb AFB will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 a.m. Mass Sunday. After Mass the men will meet at the Officers' Club for a communion breakfast scheduled for 10 a.m. "I encourage the attendance of all the men in the parish, for a communion and breakfast, at this time of the season, will assist us in our preparation for the observing of the birth of Christ," said Lt. Col. James Rouch, president. There will be a short meeting after the breakfast to discuss plans for the Christmas season.

Baptist Trustees Favor Association

SALADO — A conference of some 80 new trustees for Texas Baptist schools has expressed favor with a proposed incorporation to associate the nine colleges and universities and one academy. Concluding the third annual conference of Texas Baptist College, University and Academy Trustees, the group Wednesday also by common consent approved discontinuance of a trustee study panel, the Committee of Thirty, set up in 1964.

The two-day meetings here were attended by eight of the school presidents, a number of state Baptist convention leaders and the slate of new trustees elected last month by the BGCT. Main purpose of the annual event is to provide orientation sessions for the new trustees. A total of some 335 trustees on ten boards oversee the direction of the ten Texas Baptist schools.

The proposed association of colleges favored by the trustees would make for more ready procurement of funds from foundations and would greatly increase financial efficiency and improved educational qualities, it was reported.

Attending from Big Spring was R. W. Whipkey, member of the board of Hardin-Simmons University. Officers-elect will be ordained and installed Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, minister, will speak on "Binding Ourselves."

Light Snow Pelts Texas

By The Associated Press

Light, powdery snow pelted parts of the Texas Panhandle today as icy winds sent another batch of arctic air surging southward.

The mercury plunged to 18 degrees at Perryton, one of the first points to see snowflakes. Dalhart, also receiving a little snow, stayed a comparatively warm 30 at the same hour.

The snow melted as fast as it fell.

Early morning marks elsewhere included Amarillo 31, Lubbock 35 and Wichita Falls 36.

It remained balmy far downstate, with lows of 64 at both Brownsville and McAllen, and 60 at Beaumont, which measured 1.36 inches of rain overnight.

Light showers were scattered through the area from Stephenville and Comanche northward to near Wichita Falls and from Ennis and Hillsboro past Gainesville.

Colder air was expected to spread throughout the state by tonight.

Amarillo Man Is Fire Victim

AMARILLO (AP) — Noland Lemmons, 46, died Thursday night in a North Amarillo residence fire.

A neighbor from across the street, Ernest Morris, 20, kicked out a bedroom window to rescue Ray Farrell, 75, the only other occupant of the house. Charles Sells, 34, another neighbor, also assisted the elderly man.

Farrell was treated at a hospital after inhaling smoke. Firemen said the body of Lemmons was in a corner of the living room and he apparently had tried to reach a window.

Rusk Again Rules Out Bombing Suspension

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk began a round of conferences on the Vietnam war today after again ruling out a prolonged suspension of the bombing of North Vietnam unless Hanoi indicates it will reciprocate.

"We have told them many times that if they tell us what they've stopped doing, we can consider stopping the bombing," Rusk told newsmen on his arrival from Formosa for a three-day stay.

HALF STOP

"We can't stop just half the way. They've got to stop their half of it."

The secretary predicted the Communists will have to talk peace because "they will not be able to succeed" on the battlefield. He said he was "greatly

Poage To Check Indian Farming

DALLAS (AP)—Rep. W. R. Poage, who becomes chairman of the House Agriculture Committee next month, said he would leave next week on an inspection of India's farm situation.

Poage objected in an interview to India's large importation of wheat from this country while planting 20 million acres to cotton.

He said he planned to recommend a cutback in India's wheat imports unless he learns something new about the Indian farm situation on his projected trip.

The Waco Democrat has been a member of Congress about 30 years and prior to that was a state senator.

General Hails Civic Actions

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland wants his public relations officers to play up the South Vietnamese role in civic action.

His instructions on this score are contained in a memorandum which became available today.

The top U.S. military chief in Vietnam put it this way: "Wherever possible, in hometown news stories, general releases, or discussions with newsmen, full credit should be accorded to the Vietnamese revolutionary development efforts and to Vietnamese individuals involved in them."

"Only thus can we hope to dispel the frequent assertion at home that the effort in Vietnam is largely an American operation."

Westmoreland encouraged "internal credit for U.S. ingenuity and effort" but said: "It is important that outside publicity given to civic actions stress the cooperative, or joint aspects of nation building."

The American commander also stressed that he wants U.S. servicemen indoctrinated to sell civic action and revolutionary development to newsmen and the folks at home.

The four-star general said "it is a matter of continuing concern" that the task of nation building "fails to receive the public attention that is accorded to combat actions in Vietnam."

they're interested in moving this problem to the conference table."

BANGKOK BOUND

Rusk landed at Tan Son Nhut airport amid unusually stiff security precautions after a Viet Cong attack on the airport last weekend.

He then drove to the residence of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and plunged into a series of briefings.

Rusk will be here until Sunday, then will fly to Bangkok. He is en route to the meeting in Paris of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's ministerial council next week.

Slag Avalanche Funds Spur Fuss

ABERFAN, Wales (AP)—Sympathizers have sent millions of dollars to help Aberfan since an avalanche of slag killed 116 children and 28 adults Oct. 21, but the money has brought bitterness and quarrels to the town of 5,000.

"People are frightened by the job of administering this fantastic fund," a minister said. "It is too big."

The Aberfan disaster fund totals $3.43 million and may finally approach $6 million.

The fund committee has paid out $336,000, including $5,600 to persons whose homes were destroyed and $560 to parents who had a child in the school crushed by the slag.

Parents are demanding a temporary school for the 90 surviving children until a permanent one is built in two years. But some persons want to leave the town.

Slag Avalanche Funds Spur Fuss

Some veterinarians have bridled at being called "horse doctor," but in another decade or so, there indeed may be no such thing.

The current trend away from general practice is so pronounced that within 15 years it may be difficult if not impossible to find a veterinarian to treat horses and cows, Dr. H. F. Schwarzenbach told the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday.

There is an acute shortage of veterinarians, and the number of schools is down to 18 turning out 800 annually. Right now there is a shortage of 5,000 vets. and by 1980 this shortage will double. Meanwhile, the percentage in general practice is down to 40 and dropping steadily.

More schools are needed in more states, he said. For instance, states with schools naturally give preference to their own residents. In Texas, A & M University can accept only one of three applicants, and thus much potential is lost.

The grade is not easy, he said, for to get a degree in veterinary medicine, the candidate must complete six years of school (or five on a 12-months basis).

The population increase is creating greater demands for veterinarians. Much of this comes from more people having more small animals and taking better care of them; part of it comes from the need of more large animals to meet work, pleasure and food requirements.

Nineteen Gray Ladies Begin Webb Work

A new class of Red Cross Gray Ladies was formally inducted into volunteer work at Webb AFB Hospital Thursday morning. Nineteen volunteers received certificates, caps and pins, upon completion of preliminary training.

A number of Gray Ladies also received certificates of merit and service stripes for extra years of service. The ceremonies were held at the John H. Lees Service Club and followed with an informal reception.

Col. Chester J. Butcher, wing commander, welcomed the new class, and members were greeted by Col. M. E. Frantz, hospital commander. Certificates were handed out by R. W. Whipkey, chairman of the Howard-Glasscock Red Cross chapter; Mrs. Moree Sawtelle, executive secretary, awarded pins, and Maj. V. M. Longbottom, chief nurse at the hospital, handled the capping ceremonies.

New Gray Ladies are Mildred Adams, Betty Ballash, Shirley Humphrey, Bobbie Keeler, Phyllis Keifer, Bonnie Koehler, Rosemary Little, Jane McLean, Ruth Miller, Linda Nadet, Janet Peterson, Jackie Pike, Jackie Piland, Jeanie Roesler, Natalie Sitarz, Dee Skora, Carol Smith, Gloria Stordahl and Gwen Wingate.

Certificates of merit were awarded by L. D. Jenkins Jr., field director at Webb for the Red Cross, to Barbara Allen, Kathleen Conn, Peggy Daniel, Mary Sokolewicz, Patricia Van Bruene, Mary Washer.

Service stripes were presented to Barbara Allen, Kathleen Bruce, Harriet Casleton, Kathleen Conn, Peggy Daniel, Adele Deming, Joan Fitzsimmons, Karla Fiechsig, Marsella Gibson, Carol Jermain, Susan Lawrence, Margaret McDonald, Margaret Perron, Kay Putnam, Martha Ralston, Norma Renfro, Mary Sokolewicz (a veteran of eight years), Marie Tyldesley, Patricia Van Bruene, Mary Washer and Pat Zamboni.

The Webb Gray Ladies group has Mrs. Kay Pitman and Mrs. Barbara Allen as co-chairmen.

ESA Sorority Donates Money To Cheer Fund

A donation to the Cheer Fund was made during the Thursday evening meeting of Alpha Chi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, at the home of Mrs. B. E. Reagan, 1500 E. 6th.

During the business session, final plans for the Dec. 10 Christmas dance at Cosden Country Club were discussed. Members were also reminded of their participation in decorating Christmas trees at the Veterans Administration Hospital on Dec. 18, and in assisting with the Christmas party at the state hospital on Dec. 20.

Mrs. Glynn Mitchel, district president, announced that the state board meeting will be in Big Spring on Feb. 11-12 at the Holiday Inn.

Mrs. Lloyd Nalls and Mrs. Jack Price conducted a program entitled "Christmas Customs and Home Decorating." Refreshments were served from a table covered with a Christmas cloth and centered with a large red candle.

The next meeting will be Jan. 12 in the home of Mrs. D. M. Moore.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnes, 404 Aylford, announce the birth of a son, David Shennon, on Tuesday. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Holder, 410 Aylford, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnes, El Paso.

Christmas Party Held In Home Of Bill Edwards

Mrs. L. B. Edwards, 2703 Crestline, was hostess for the Thursday evening Christmas party of the Women of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Edwards gave Christmas readings from the Billy Graham decision paper, and she also read the story of the "Christmas Stocking" using illustrations done by Mrs. J. B. Apple.

Favorite recipes were exchanged, and donations were made to a Christmas money tree to be used for selected projects.

Members of the Peggy Potter Circle were hostesses, and served refreshments from a table decorated in a Christmas theme. Mrs. Charles Dodd presided at the coffee service.

Guests were Mrs. Steve Hartman, Mrs. Dan Sebesta, and Mrs. Frank Lovelless and Mrs. Russell Neese, both of Coahoma.

Coffee Held As Farewell Compliment

Mrs. Charles H. Miller Jr., 1024 Ridgeroad, was hostess Thursday morning for an informal coffee honoring Mrs. G. Edward Williams. Dr. and Mrs. Williams and their children will leave here Dec. 22 to make their home in Lake City, Fla. He has been on the staff of the local Veterans Administration Hospital.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a pale green linen cloth and appointed with silver and crystal. The accent was a small tree on a crystal base flanked by gold angels. Colors of red, green and gold were used in decorations throughout the home.

Twenty-five guests attended.

High Tallies Announced

Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. E. L. Powell placed first during duplicate bridge games held Tuesday at Big Spring Country Club. Other winners were Mrs. Fern Durham and Mrs. Joe Herbert, second; and Mrs. Malcolm Patterson and Mrs. Tom South, third.

During Wednesday's games, Mrs. R. H. Weaver and Mrs. Truman Jones tied for first and second places with Mrs. R. E. Dobbins and Mrs. Hayden Griffith. Third place went to Mrs. E. M. Bunn and Mrs. D. A. Brazel, while Mrs. Joe Price and Mrs. Floyd Mays tied for fourth place with Mrs. Robert Dyer and George D. Pike.

Graves Family Goes Deer Hunting

STANTON (SC) — Presidio deer hunters were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Graves and children, Terri and Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Burnam were in Stanton where Mrs. Burnam assisted the Stanton Lodge in performing the initiatory degree. The Burnams are making their home at Lake Leon.

Recent visitors in Odessa were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bevers and Charlene Jones.

Judge and Mrs. Jim McCoy have returned home from Houston where they visited their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carlile have returned home from an extended vacation trip.

Methodist Class Makes Donations

Donations to a fund to assist a needy family were made during the Tuesday evening meeting of the Dorcas Class of Wesley Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. Jack Price, 604 George.

Twenty-one attended the salad supper, and Mrs. Elvin Bearden presided. Mrs. J. L. Overton gave the devotion.

Plans to collect canned goods for a Christmas basket for a needy family were discussed.

The refreshment table was centered with symbols of the Christmas season surrounded by holly and candles.

Mrs. Clyde Angel Reviews Book

Mrs. Clyde Angel reviewed the book, "Forty-Odd," during the Tuesday evening meeting of the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association. The members met at the Downtown Tea Room for a Christmas dinner. Mrs. Jack Cox presided, and Mrs. Huey Rogers gave the invocation.

Gifts were exchanged, and members were reminded they are to assist with the Christmas party at the state hospital Dec. 20.

The Jan. 3 meeting will be at Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital Clinic. Dr. Donald Terry will be guest speaker.

Medicare Explained For ABWA

Mac Nugent, field representative of the local Social Security office was guest speaker during the Tuesday meeting of the Scenic Chapter, American Business Women's Association.

Nugent, introduced by Mrs. L. E. Rose, program chairman, spoke on Medicare. He explained that it has two distinct parts in the program. Part 'A' is the hospitalization, and Part 'B' pertains to doctors' insurance. Nugent said that the procedure is for a patient to enter a participating hospital (one which has made application and has been accepted) and submit his Medicare card which has been assigned to him under Social Security. The hospital then fills out the necessary forms. Only a small portion of the expense is charged to the patient. He noted that all drugs must be administered in the doctor's office or at the hospital, and Medicare does not pay for prescriptions.

The vocational speaker was Mrs. Jack Owens who spoke on orthodontics. Mrs. Owens is employed by Dr. Lee O. Rogers. She showed impressions of teeth and told of methods used to correct imperfections in alignment.

Mrs. Loucille Hope was welcomed as a guest, and a money tree was presented to Mrs. Gene Haston, a recent bride.

The group met at Coker's Restaurant where decorations carried out the Christmas theme. The centerpiece was a large, ornate red candle encircled with colored baubles. A crystal punch service was used, and Mrs. L. V. Misk served. Mrs. E. L. Barron presided.

Joe Barnes Has Birthday Party

KNOTT (SC) — Joe Barnes celebrated his 17th birthday recently with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Barnes. Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments served to eight guests.

Mrs. Mike Davidson, Ackerly, and Mrs. Jewell Smith attended the recent funeral services in Colorado City for Mrs. C. W. Oliver. Also attending was Mrs. W. G. Browning of El Paso.

P-TA Hears Song Skit

"Music In the Air" was the skit presented during the Thursday evening meeting of the Airport Parent-Teacher Association at the school.

The skit was a selection of Christmas carols sung by the sixth and third grade students. Mrs. Raymond Stevens, music teacher, conducted.

Mrs. Cecil Earp presided during the business session, and Ernest Boyd reported on the recent state convention in Austin. The room count was won by J. L. Rankin's sixth grade.

Robes Presented By WSCS Unit

Mrs. Vernon Kent presided during the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Birdwell Lane Methodist Church.

The members met at the church, and Mrs. Johnny Welborn announced that lap robes and gifts are ready to be delivered to patients at Bennett House.

Mrs. Marshall Brown resigned as president and plans were made for an election to be held Jan. 4. Mrs. Welborn gave the closing prayer.

Clubbers Honor W. T. Congers

A housewarming gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Conger Jr. during the Thursday evening meeting of the Forsan Study Club.

Twenty-three attended the Christmas party at the Conger's new home, and refreshments were served from a table covered with a green cloth and centered with traditional holiday items.

Cohostesses were Mrs. C. B. Lone, Mrs. T. M. Dunagan and Mrs. Darrell Flynt.

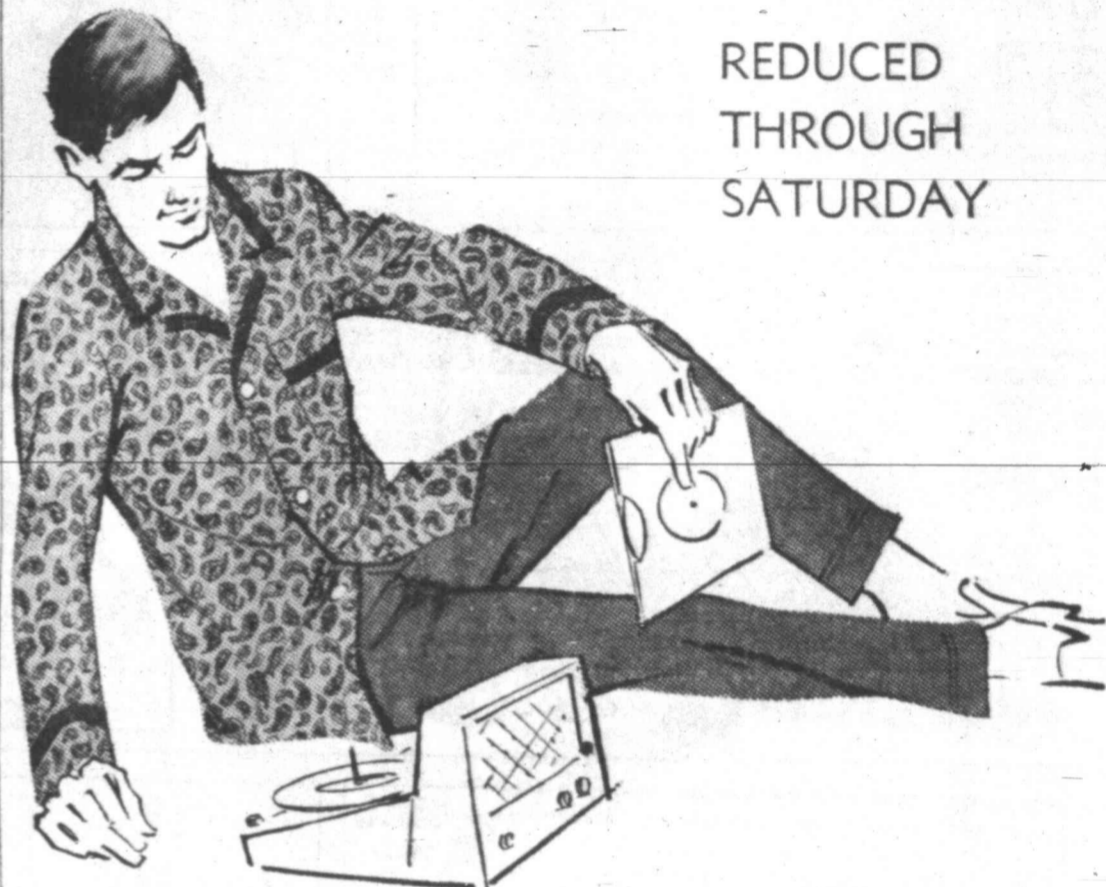

and gave the invocation. Twenty-eight members and the two guests attended. The January meeting will be at Big Spring Country Club.

A LOVELIER YOU

What To Get Them? Here's Go-Girl Gifts

By MARY SUE MILLER

On most every Christmas list at least one lovely's name appears with a question mark alongside. You just don't know what to give her. She has everything!

But before you join the wit's-end group, now growing by the minute, remember that, like old wine in new bottles, there's a new version of "everything." Be on the lookout for it. Just to get you in the groove, these updated classics:

For Miss Teen, a wild and wonderful watch with a strap of Safari fur—pretend giraffe, leopard, zebra or ocelot.

A headband of suede, the "in" leather, for the pre-teen who flaunts a long mane.

In red fox, the beloved grab bag surely has a go-girl's name written on it.

Him-and-Her umbrellas encased in giant checks must hit the target for young marrieds.

Twinkling with gold and silver jewelites, evening stockings match up with belles of the evening.

The perfectionist lovely would dote on a chemist, a slip so perfectly designed that it underlines the sleekest, silkiest knits without interrupting their fluid flow.

White lace kidskin gloves, in short to opera lengths, are an accessory that elegants of all ages cannot have too many of. Except that some are machine-

Give Your Child A Piano This Year

Thinking of something different to give your child, and the whole family, for that matter, this year? Stop by White's Music Co., where the finest selection of Baldwin and Kimball pianos and organs are available. Give your child the piano you didn't have. White's rent pianos year-round but urge you to come in now, before the real Christmas rush starts, and pick out that piano you'd like your child to have.

The fine line of pianos and organs at White's includes the model home organ from Baldwin, a three-channel stereo model, which is really great. The organ features extra voices of string bass, xylophone, marimba and manual and pedal brushes.

Besides new Baldwin and Kimball pianos and organs, White's carries a wide selection of used pianos and organs and features excellent buys in used guitars and amplifiers.

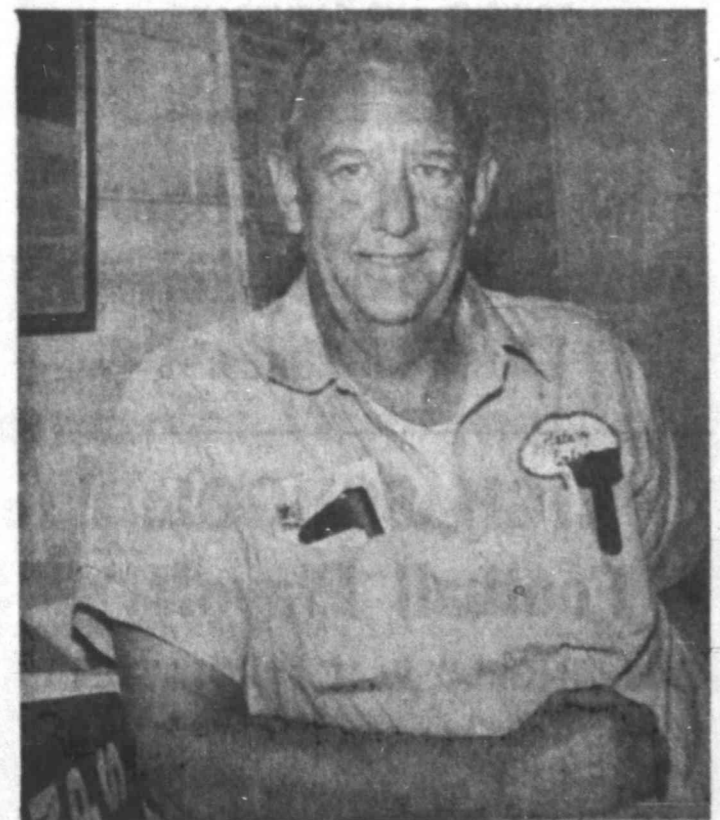

Baldwin pianos and organs are within the price range of the most modest budget. New finishes on Baldwin pianos now come in walnut, cherry or Spanish oak.

The Kimball line of pianos, which start with three pedals and keyboard cover for $475, feature a walnut finish. For the guitar player, there are Gretsch guitars and amplifiers, the brand designed and played by Chet Atkins. There is a complete line of student guitars starting at $21.95 and banjos, drums, ukuleles, strings, sheet music and accessories.

There is a full-time tuner and technician for immediate service on musical instruments.

As a special item there is the player piano built by Kimball. It has volume control and a "rinky-tink" sound, "really like the old-timers."

White Music Co. has been locally-owned and operated for the past six years and has local bank-rate financing and immediate service.

Tracked in soil from bad weather — guests coming — and your carpets look bad? Don't worry, this is one problem easily solved.

There is a product called Blue Lustre that will clean and rebrighen finest carpets safely and at little cost. . . . Wall to wall or spots and traffic paths as they appear. Leaves nap open and fluffy, too. With this easy-to-use carpet shampoo there is no messy powder to "pile up" in rugs or carpets. No gummy residue to cause soiling.

It's so easy—just vacuum your rug—shampoo—let dry—revacuum. With your purchase of Blue Lustre you can rent a light weight electric carpet shampooer for only $1 per day.

You can have clean and new-looking carpets for Christmas, and at a tiny cost, for one-half gallon of Blue Lustre is sufficient to clean three 9 x 12 rugs. Available at Big Spring Hardware.

McMahon Has Big Fleet Of Trucks

Clyde McMahon Concrete Co. begun 12 years ago with a single truck, now has a large fleet of trucks which haul big loads to any job in the Howard County area.

Energy and efficiency have also paid off in additions to the firm, which now handles all kinds of concrete equipment and materials for doing the work — including tools for "doing it yourself."

Hours at the plant, which is located on the Snyder Highway just north of Big Spring, are daily from 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., except Saturday, when hours are 7 a.m. to noon. There is a competent staff of employees to help customers with all types of service.

Huge mixing hoppers have been set up on the lot where trucks just back under the chutes and load in a hurry. These provide the proper mixture for all kinds of jobs, including foundations, bridges, culverts, sidewalks, driveways, curbs and gutters, street pavement and anything else needed if built with concrete.

Clyde McMahon Supply Co. features Whiteman finishing machines and tools to complete the work on the poured concrete. Rotary blades finish off the mixture to the proper surface far differently from when it was formerly done with trowels or a piece of "two by four."

McMahon's also handles Evershred brick saws and blades, expansion joint material, wire mesh for re-enforcement, re-enforcement steel rods, Richmond snap ties, Remington stud drivers for driving studs or nails into concrete, wheel barrows for brick, tile or concrete, vibrators for setting and eliminating air pockets in concrete pourings, and all types of small tools for concrete or mason work.

Carver's Has Convenience

Carver Drive-In Prescription Pharmacy, located at East-Ninth and Nolan, was built for the convenience of its customers and was the first Pharmacy in Big Spring to feature a drive-in prescription window.

This enabled patrons, wanting to pick up prescriptions in a hurry and without having to worry about dress, to drive around the building from Nolan, pick up their items and drive off on Ninth Street without having to worry about a parking place.

As a licensed pharmacist, Milton Carver believes every person should have a regular physical checkup and should use pharmaceuticals prescribed by qualified physicians and properly compounded. A physician's advice is paramount where questions of health are concerned.

A call to Carver's will have your prescription ready for you when you drive up or give you information about other items available in the store.

DICK STEINBORN In local ring debut

Wrestling Card Features Bruin

Professional wrestling, with a bear crowding into the act, returns to town this evening. The scene of the action takes place in the Municipal Auditorium. The starting hour is 8 o'clock. The event, like the other immediately preceding it, is under the aegis of the American Business Club. Pat O'Dowdy of Odessa is the promoter. The 550-pound bear, named Victor, climbs into the ring in the climactic event of the evening and will face up to six tinned bipeds. They are Dandy Dan Miller, Terry Funk, Prof. Tom Tanaka, Dick Steinborn, Jack Cain and Terry London. A tag team tussle between a tandem composed of Miller and Funk and one consisting of Tanaka and Steinborn opens the show. That one is down for the best-of-three falls, with a one-hour time limit. Cain, who gained a measure of renown here in as a referee in an outdoor match in the early fall, will then enter the ring to oppose London in the best of a three-fall tussle. The third of four bouts will send Funk against Steinborn in a one-fall match. London and Steinborn will be new to the local grapple fans. Steinborn is a curly-haired stalwart who won the Texas Heavyweight championship eight years ago and is now claiming the North American title. Ringside seats for the program will sell for $2 each. General admission can be had for a modest $1 while children will be charged 50 cents. The auditorium seats about 1,500, with the chairs at ringside.

Two Duos Are Tied For Top

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — A pair of gambling golfers and two hungry teammates who grew up in the game have shattered par by 17 strokes to lead midway through the richest tournament in golf — the PGA National Team Championship.

The teams of Babe Lichardus and Billy Farrell, Doug Sanders and Al Besselin came home with second rounds of 62 Thursday for 127 and a two-stroke edge on the money kings of golf, Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer. The Nicklaus-Palmer combination and the team of Howie Johnson and Chris Blocker tied for second with 129 in the chase for the tournament's first prize of $50,000. Leaders after the first round with 63, Palmer and Nicklaus dropped back with a 66. The sharpshooting Hebert brothers, Jay and Lionel, were three strokes off at 130. Besselin, calling Sanders "the straightest shooter in the world," said the team was willing to take chances to win. "We don't play safe," he said. "We've been playing together since we were amateurs and we know how to club each other (meaning give advice on what clubs to use)." father.

Rugged Virginia Poly Is Poised For Hurricanes

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Virginia Tech has faced one bad weather condition after another in preparing for Saturday's eighth annual Liberty Bowl football game here. First, there were cold temperatures in Blacksburg, Va.; then rain here Thursday forced the team to practice inside. Saturday, it will be the hurricanes of Miami. Both teams plan brief workouts today. Miami, carries a 7-2-1 record into the game, but is especially proud of having beaten three other bowl bound teams — Georgia (Cotton), 7-4; Southern California (Rose), 10-7; and Florida (Orange), 21-16. Tech has an explosive offense and Miami's defense was ranked fifth among the nation's major colleges. Miami quarterbacks Bill Miller and David Olive passed for 1,506 yards this season, and 225-pound end Jim Cox caught 41 passes. The Liberty Bowl is being staged for the second straight year in the oval shaped Memphis Memorial Stadium, and officials expect a crowd of more than 40,000. Six smaller bowl games also are scheduled Saturday, topped by the clash between San Diego State and Montana State in the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif. at 4:15 p.m., EST. San Diego State, ranked No. 1

Host Cagers Win Games In Prelims

GARDEN CITY—First round play in the annual Garden City basketball tournament was to be completed today with games at 11:20 a.m. and 12:40 p.m. Blackwell and Barnhart were due to tangle in a girls' contest at 11:20 a.m. while boys' teams representing the same schools were to square off at 12:40 p.m. In girls' games Thursday, Water Valley won over the Flower Grove B team, 51-31; Flower Grove A turned back Norton, 46-27; and Garden City thrashed Sterling City, 62-27. In boys' play, Forsan clobbered Water Valley, 71-38; Norton gained stature by turning back Flower Grove, 66-31; and Garden City outlasted Sterling City, 48-43. Flower Grove and Water Valley meet in the girls' semifinals at 5 p.m. today while Garden City takes on the survivor in the Blackwell-Barnhart engagement at 9 a.m. Saturday. The game for third place in the division will be unrec'd at 5:30 p.m. Saturday while the tie goes on the line at 8:10 p.m. In boys' play, Norton tangles with Forsan at 6:20 p.m. today while Garden City collides with the Blackwell-Barnhart winner at 10:20 a.m. Saturday. The game for third place in the boys' division will be at 6:50 p.m. Saturday while the championship will be determined in a 9:30 p.m. game tomorrow night. Consolation round games in girls' play will be at 2 p.m. and 7:40 p.m. today while consolation finals are scheduled for 11:40 a.m. Saturday. In the boys' round, the consolation semifinals game will be at 3:20 p.m. and 9 p.m. today while the consolation finals are scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday.

Favored Teams Move Up In Coahoma Meet

COAHOMA — Favorites advanced as expected in the annual Coahoma Invitational basketball tournament here Thursday. The meet continues through Saturday night. The Stanton boys had a lot of trouble with Sands before grabbing a 77-55 victory. Sands led at half time in that one, 29-23. In other boys' games, Coahoma blitzed Highland, 65-28, in a game that saw Larry Bennett lead the Bulldogs with 15 points; and Roscoe outlasted Westbrook, 37-39. In girls' play, Westbrook humiliated Roscoe, 70-12; Coahoma maunted Highland, 72-20; and Stanton kayeed Sands, 66-45. First round play winds up today and action will continue through tonight.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Don McDonald, the local high school basketball mentor, says his club is suffering from a lack of depth but he expects the situation to improve when the boys who came over from the football team log a little experience. The Steers shook up District 2-AAAA by defeating Odessa High in the semifinals of Odessa's own tournament last weekend. McDonald expected to get a lot of mileage out of all-district performer Robert Jackson and the polished play of boys like Wayne Johnson, Charley Tubb and Danny Clendenin is paying early dividends.

Early results of games involving Western Junior College Conference basketball team suggest that the upcoming race might be the most wide-open scramble of the all. There doesn't appear to be a soft touch in the circuit any more. Amarillo, Odessa and Clarendon loom especially tough.

Now that football season is over at Rice University, ex-Odessa Periman star Tony Conley has decided to report for basketball drills with the Owlets.

Bo Hagan, newly elevated to the head football coaching job at Rice, was a four-year letterman in football, basketball and baseball at Savannah, Ga., High School. In 1943, he was named to the first all-state football team as a halfback.

At South Carolina University, Hagan was a starter in football for four years—freshmen were allowed to play varsity ball there in the '40's.

There is a possibility Big Spring's Tim Smith will be summoned for military service before he can complete his football eligibility at East Texas State University.

Coahoma's Eddie McHugh carried the ball 18 times for gains netting 39 yards for Angelo State College the past football season but failed to gain his varsity letter. He has two years of eligibility remaining down there. Only five sophs were rewarded with varsity numerals at the school.

The storm warnings are out for SMU in the upcoming Cotton Bowl game. Writing for the Sporting News, scribe Tom Slier said: "Georgia is the only team which could go good Notre Dame and Michigan State. There are a lot of good teams in the South, but the Bulldogs are the best."

In other words, Alabama may be no more than the second-best team south of the Mason-Dixon Line.

In pro football, usually when a reserve tight end comes off the bench in a third down situation, he replaces one of the wide receivers to add blocking power in a short yardage situation.

Midland High's Jack Levin, a terror against Big Spring as a junior, missed more than half the football season for the Bulldogs the past fall but wound up as the club's leading ground gainer. Levin gained 247 yards rushing. Sophomore Ralph Wilson was second on the team with gains totaling 230 paces.

A. Z. Drones, the former San Angelo football great who first enrolled at the University of Missouri, is currently attending Cameron College in Lawton, Okla., where he played football the past season.

Barry Standout In Warrior Win

By The Associated Press Rick Barry's one-man point-making performance kept the National Basketball Association's Western Division a one-team show Thursday night. The sophomore forward, a runaway scoring leader in the NBA, pumped in 50 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 124-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks in Phoenix, Ariz. The triumph increased the Warriors' lead to 5 1/2 games over the Hawks and left San Francisco the only team in the division over 500 at 18-9. The Hawks missed a chance at the break even point and fell from second to third in the West at 11-13.

Hawks, T-Birds Vie Again In Tourney

ODESSA — Paris Junior College's Dragons gave HCJC a scare but the Jayhawks hung on to defeat the East Texans, 86-82, in the first round of the Odessa Invitational Basketball tournament here Thursday.

The Big Spring team returns to competition at 4 p.m. today against New Mexico JC of Hobbs, which bumped Lubbock Christian College in overtime.

In other games Thursday, Cisco won over NMMI and Odessa outlasted St. Phillips JC of San Antonio, 105-84.

The win for the Hawks was their fifth in seven starts. Earlier this week, the Big Springers downed the Hobbs team at home, 114-86.

Jack Hosley and Leon Smith

each scored 19 points for HCJC in the game while Willie Adams paced Paris with 23.

HCJC had a 15-point bulge a couple of times during the game but the Dragons pulled to within a point of a tie late in the contest.

Don Williamson tossed in 20 points for the red-hot Dragons.

Forsan Wins Two Cage Contests

FORSAN — Forsan swept both ends of a junior high school basketball doubleheader from Stanton here Thursday evening.

The margin in the boys' game was 44-41. Jack Willis led the Junior Buffs with 15 points.

The Forsan girls won by a score of 30-29 on a free toss in the last five seconds by Gloria Dodd. Dodd scored 18 points for the winners.

MONDAY EVENING Awards Night At QBC Party

Four awards will be given away at the Quarterback Club's Monday night banquet honoring members of the Big Spring High School football team and their coaches.

The party starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union Building on the HCJC campus.

The city's football buffs are being urged to attend. Tickets, can be had at the entrance to the dining hall for $2.50 each or can be delivered in advance by Everett Whately, retiring co-captain of the booster organization.

Here is a list of the player awards which will be made:

LINE MAN OF THE YEAR — by radio station KBST.

BACK OF THE YEAR — Dibrell's Sporting Goods.

SCHOLASTIC AWARD —

MIKE BRUMBELOW

COACHES AWARD — by BSHS staff (given for contributions to team, attitude and sportsmanship). Gary Rogers, Robert Jackson and Kirby Horton have been named permanent co-captains of the 1966 team and will be recognized.

Harold Bentley, assistant high school principal, will emcee the program. Piano music will be offered during the meal.

Chief speaker for the program will be Mike BrumbeLOW, a prominent El Pasoan and a former coach. BrumbeLOW, one-time line star for TCU, was head coach at Texas Western College from 1950 through 1956. During that time, his teams won 44, lost 23 and tied three. He had only one losing season during his tenure at the El Paso school.

Don Newson and Jess Slaughter have been named new co-captains of the Quarterback Club, succeeding Whately and James Duncan, and will formally take office at the banquet.

Seminoles, Wyoming Set For Titanic Struggle

EL PASO — In an area where it all started, the Cowboys and Indians will have a modern day version of one of their battles Saturday, December 24. The battle will be the Sun Bowl in El Paso, with the Wyoming University Cowboys, champions of the Western Athletic Conference, facing the high-flying Seminoles of Florida State University. Footballs will replace bullets and arrows, but the action should be just as rugged.

And, unlike the old days when the only spectators were wounded participants, the Sun Bowl battle will be watched by an expected capacity "live" crowd, plus millions of television viewers. The game will be televised in color by the National Broadcasting Company over its complete facilities. Kickoff time will be 3 p.m., Big Spring time.

The Sun Bowl game will signal the start of an elongated Southwestern Sun Carnival, a fun-and-sport festival which will extend until Jan. 1.

Crowding Sun Bowl football for equal time will be the annual Sun Bowl basketball tournament Dec. 29-30 with the defending National Collegiate Athletic Association champions, the Miners of the University of Texas at El Paso (Texas Western College), hosting three strong teams: Southern Methodist University, Drake University and University of Southern Illinois. SMU is the defending Southwest Conference champion, Drake is regarded as a title threat in the perennially strong Missouri Valley Conference, and Southern Illinois has been in the NCAA's college division finals for the past two seasons.

Opening round games Dec. 29 and 30 will see the Miners with Drake tackling SMU in the nightcap. Winners of the opening night games will meet for the tournament title at 8:45 p.m. Friday, Dec. 30 with the losers in a consolation opener. Both nights of the tournament are sellouts.

Maris Traded To St. Louis

NEW YORK (AP) — Lee MacPhail, working feverishly over the shattered New York Yankees, continues to operate at his favorite market place — the National League.

The new Yankee general manager shipped Roger Maris and his $75,000 salary tag to St. Louis for third baseman Charley Smith Thursday.

It was MacPhail's second deal since being hired to help rebuild the Yankees, who finished the 1966 season mired in the American League cellar for the first time in 42 years. Ten days ago he swapped third baseman Clete Boyer to Atlanta for outfielder Bill Robinson.

It was MacPhail, then working for Baltimore, who engineered the biggest inter-league trade of 1965 when he dealt three players to Cincinnati for Frank Robinson.

Three Portuguese Soldiers Captured

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Three Portuguese soldiers were captured and others may have been killed in a clash between Indonesian and Portuguese troops on the mountainous island of Timor this month, the newspaper Sinar Harapan reported today. Timor, 300 miles long with about 800,000 inhabitants, lies in the long string of islands stretching east from Java toward West Irian. Its eastern half is Portuguese Timor, the only colonial foothold remaining on an Indonesian island.

YOUR Horoscope Forecast

for Tomorrow
By Carroll Righter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Nothing wrong this morning about planning for the holidays as well as usual interests while the afternoon and evening are splendid for opening up new vistas that can give you the way to more happiness, joviality and to do those things which bring delight to others.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) If you get your bills paid off early, you can then go out for a good time in new places and with new people who like you. Don't endeavor to go off to new far-off places without proper planning first. Be wise.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Find the right kind of understanding associate first, and then you can plan that big enterprise most wisely and it can be successful. Make this a productive day. Evening is then ideal with one you love.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Show others that you are a most efficient worker during day, and then take the time for pleasure with congenials you like. Get work scheduled then take the best of a cheerful frame of mind — it is the best.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) It is better to get out early for pleasure than to get out for a good time in new places and with new people who like you. Show devotion to one who expects it. If you are a co-worker know you appreciate his or her efforts.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Take care of all that work of abode early so that you can get to work in the morning you like in p.m. with perfect ease. Be devoted to kin. Step out in union to some fine theater or other and have fun.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Excellent ideas come to you during day that you should follow through on, and then get pleasure at home with family. Take care of your letter writing and shopping early. Then you can be free to have a good time.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Getting important business and financial matters handled in the morning leaves you time for being with pals and associates later for fun, either at home or out with business. Put plans in operation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you plan early, you can accomplish much that furthers your desires. The personal one line during the day, but have to get down to serious matters tonight. Associates are rarin' to get goin'.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A better system is what you need in the future if you want to accomplish more so study this now, but get out in p.m. for needed socializing. Get appearance improved first. Listen to advice on early day.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) A day to think out where to pigeonhole your friends for cooperation and assistance in the future, or better managing employees. Get work done well. Early planning of evening's activities sees then working out just fine for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Morning is best for outside duties so that you have enough time for friends and relatives later in the day. Unacceptable what you set out to do early. Make plans for the future wisely.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You have a flash of inspiration that opens doors to new opportunity early, but you must get into some civic work also that is very gratifying. Missive from one of different background pieces. Get credit bettered.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he, or she, will be one of those fascinating little youngsters who will want to have secrets all the time and yet be very inquisitive on the other hand, which could be very fine traits, since the desire here is to get ahead of others, and the mind is ever working out one angle or another. Your property will be a very articulate person and thereby make friends of good business acumen.

TEXANS AT WAR

Ball Point Pen Is Life Saver

By The Associated Press
The barrel of an ordinary ball point pen was used as a breathing tube to save the life of a Texan at war.

Lance Cpl. Barnard Salinas Jr., 22, said a quick-thinking medical corpsman used a ball point pen in a battlefield tracheotomy after Salinas was hit in the throat by mine shrapnel. Salinas said the mine blew up just as his platoon was setting a perimeter for the night near Da Nang, South Vietnam.

Kiwanis To Host Kiddies

Boys and girls who live in the vicinity of the West Side Park will celebrate Christmas with the Big Spring Kiwanis club members Thursday noon.

The club will forego its regular meeting at Hotel Settles and meet at the community building at the park. There a Christmas tree will be in place and each Kiwanian has purchased toys for three boys or girls. A dinner of sandwiches, cookies and cold drinks will be served to the young guests and to the club members. A short program will follow, and then Santa Claus will appear to distribute gifts to the youngsters.

This has been an annual custom of the Kiwanis for many years.

Jim Thompson, boys and girls work committee chairman, is arranging the details for the program. One of the rules for the party is that gifts which are provided must not be of the "practical" sort. Only playthings, games, dolls and the like are tolerated.

Howard County Junior College choir provided the program yesterday for the club. Christmas music was featured.

Dan Bustamante was initiated into the club as a new member.

Announcement was made that the club's installation banquet will be on Jan. 12, the place and details to be worked out

Opening lead: Ten of ♠
A contract that appeared to be a lay down when the dummy was spread instilled a sense of overconfidence into South, the declarer at six hearts, and he booted away his chances irretrievably almost before his campaign was off the ground.

West opened the ten of spades, covered in turn by the jack, queen and declarer's ace. The cashing of 12 tricks appeared to be a routine chore, for South planned to draw trump and eventually ruff a spade in dummy. He calculated his inventory as five heart tricks, four diamonds, two spades, and a spade ruff.

A small heart was led to North's queen, however, when East showed out — darkness quickly descended for the declarer. In addition to a club trick, he found there was no way now to avoid the loss of a heart as well.

Altho the four-zero division in trumps was admittedly unfortunate South could have protected himself against the freak of nature provided that West was the one with the missing hearts. The safety play with nine trumps is to play a high card first from the hand with the single honor. By cashing the ace of hearts initially, South is in position to finesse against both the jack and ten subsequently when East shows out.

The only complication that arises is that declarer can no longer ruff out his losing spade, inasmuch as North's hearts are required to draw trumps. South must therefore arrange to utilize the small hearts in his own hand. In other words, the answer lies in a dummy reversal.

After the ace of hearts reveals the bad news, declarer switches to his singleton club. Dummy's jack is played, losing to the queen. The expected spade return is won in dummy and a club is ruffed in the closed hand. A heart is led and when West splits his honors by playing the ten, North covers with the queen. Another club ruff enables South to regain the lead to play his remaining trump. West follows with the six and North's nine wins the trick.

The king of hearts pulls West's jack and South scores the last four tricks with high diamonds. In all, declarer takes two spades, four hearts, four diamonds, and two club ruffs in his own hand.

MARs To Send Yule Messages To Vietnam

Servicemen in Vietnam and other overseas military installations will be receiving Christmas messages from their families and friends in Big Spring thanks to the MARS station here at Webb.

The facilities are available to the people in the Big Spring area if they desire to send a MARSgram to any overseas base.

The Christmas messages, which must be limited to 25 words or less, can be sent to any relative or friend in any of the military services in Vietnam; elsewhere messages should be limited to Air Force personnel. The service includes messages from Webb dependents to their husbands, fathers and friends.

Simply call Ext. 505 and tell the airman who answers that you would like to send a Christmas greeting. The sender must provide the MARS station with the full name, rank, serial number and organization of the serviceman, along with the sender's name and address.
