'New Students' Policy Issued

When junior starts in school for the first time next month he's going to need, besides a scrubbed face, two other items: a birth certificate and his immunization record.

This has been the policy of Muleshoe schools for several years; this past week the board renewed the policy.

A statement issued following the meeting, read:

"It is a policy of the Board of Education that a child entering the first grade for the first time must present a birth certificate and also a signed statement from your doctor that the child has had a smallpox vaccination and has been inoculated for polio, diphtheria, tetanus, and whooping cough. In the Muleshoe schools we will temporarily accept the Baptismal certificate so that you may enroll your child while you are getting his birth certificate. Also, if your child is in the process of taking his shots, bring this evidence and we will enroll him provided you complete the series of inoculations in a reasonable time." (See STUDENTS Page 6)

Late Tax Payers Irk City

Muleshoe city council will meet this week with two important items on the agenda — what to do about persons who are delinquent on their city taxes, and to charter a new taxicab service for Muleshoe. Albert Field, city manager, said the council will meet a week late since he was out of town at the time of their regularly scheduled meeting last Monday.

As to the procedure to take in the delinquent tax problem, Field said, "We haven't outlined a plan for tackling this problem, which is growing each year. But we will work out tactics to be employed for solving this problem."

He didn't reveal how much in delinquent taxes is owed the city, explaining that a last-minute checkup would be necessary before the exact figure could be arrived at. "However, by the time the council meets we hope to have a tabulation showing both the amount due and the names of those who are delinquent," the city manager summed up.

The council also will be asked to charter a taxicab service for Muleshoe, the first to be launched here in a number of years.

"The council has given oral approval to John Smith to operate a taxicab service in Muleshoe, but now it will be necessary to issue a formal charter," he explained. "Of course it will be a mere formality."

Smith already has started his taxicab service in Muleshoe, operating on an oral agreement with the City.

State To Take Over Farm Road

State highway department has offered to take over a 7 1/2-mile strip of rural road starting at the end of FM 746 and running north to FM 1766 and maintain it.

Bailey county commissioners have accepted the state offer "with pleasure," minutes revealed.

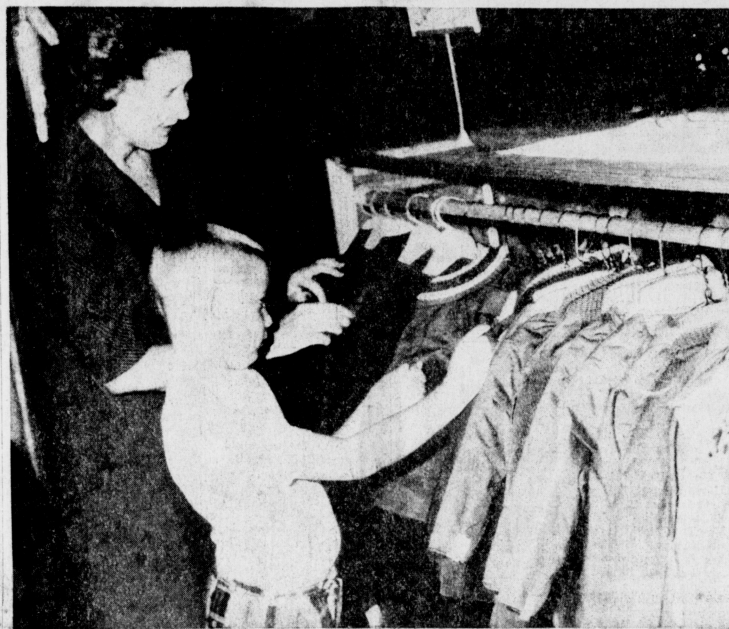

The road which will run from Maple to a point near Lariat, will parallel SH 214, running approximately 10 miles west of the state highway, it was explained.

"The state, in making the offer to take over the road and maintain it, needs the strip as a route for gravel-hauling," Judge Williams explained.

"Heavy gravel trucks will ply the route when construction starts on US 84 widening, and the State will rebuild the road completely after the gravel trucks have completed their work. This will add greatly to the county's road system, providing two well-paved and maintained routes to the south part of the county."

REA MEETS IN DALLAS

Members of the board of Bailey County Electric Cooperative who attended the annual Texas coop meeting in Dallas this past week were Clarence R. Mason, president; Clarence Hamilton, Earth; Chester Setliff, Bala Vernon Blackley, Morton, and Jonnie Wheeler, Morton. Mrs. Blackley and Mrs. Wheeler also attended. Going from the office here were R. Mason, president; Clarence Hamilton, educational director; an Mrs. Keith Bray, assistant educational director.

Youths To Attend School, The Judge Says — Or Else!

Three youths, one 16 and the others 15 — will go to school for sure when the 1965-66 term opens. They are going by order of the court, and if they don't put in their appearance each day, they may wind up at the boy's school in Gatesville.

Meantime they are out trying to earn enough money to pay for a window they broke in June, and for a batch of cigarettes they stole. The money-earning assignment also came from the court.

The three were hauled into juvenile court this past week after officers learned they were the ones who had broken into a Muleshoe service station in June. City officers had been working on the case ever since the June morning when the operator showed up at his station to discover a small window had been broken out sometime during the night, and cigarettes were missing.

The attempt to rob the station was only partially successful; the boys were able to break the window but couldn't manage to squeeze through the opening. They did, however, succeed in reaching the cigarette case and so helped themselves to a generous supply.

Judge Williams faced the three in court Wednesday. Their parents, somewhat tearful, came along too. They talked it all over and decided on reimbursement to the station and schooling for the lads.

"All three of the boys had dropped out of school last year," Judge Williams explained, but they'll be back bright and early on the first day of school this year. — or else!"

Commissioners Set Same Tax Rate As In '64

Bailey county commissioners have set the same tax rate as in 1964, 95 cents per $100 valuation.

The commissioners, who held busy sessions here Tuesday and Wednesday, decided on the same basic tax rate as in 1964, 95 cents per $100 valuation.

A special road rate was set at 30 cents per $100 also. This tax, however, is subject to homestead exemption for those filing for such an exemption.

In addition to the two rates set above, a special tax for road district No. 1-A (comprising precincts 1, 2 and 3) was set at 40 cents to retire bonds voted several years ago for 70 miles of rural roads.

Tax rate on the $250,000 highway 84 widening program has been set at 30 cents and county-wide road program at 70 cents. Add to this the 42 cent state rate, 5 cents for water program, and the total comes to $2.32 per $100 valuation, it was explained.

HOOTEN NAMED DIRECTOR

Robert Hooten, manager of Muleshoe Motor Co., has been named an area director of the Texas Automobile Dealers' Association. A TADA announcement said Hooten's particular "responsibility will be to work with other TADA officials and to specialize in research that will aid the motor vehicle buying public and the automotive industry."

'Please Send Me To Wichita Falls,' Woman Pleads

"I'm sick," a Bailey county woman told Judge Glen Williams this past week, "so please send me to Wichita Falls."

The judge accommodated her. "She came in here with her husband and said she was mentally ill and needed help. She wanted to go to Wichita Falls to see if anything could be done for her."

He said the woman had been in his office several times during the recent months, "and on each occasion she had discussed her mental health," Judge Williams said. "Seems she"

Now It All Depends On Highway Office

Widening of "Killer 84" from Muleshoe to the Parmer county line, is virtually "in the bag."

The tedious — and nerve-racking — process of buying right-of-way land for the 10-mile strip is over except for a few "tag-ends" and now the next move is up to the state highway department.

This means that the road could be built next year if the state highway department gets on the ball, local officials said, and the final modernizing of one of the most dangerous roads in West Texas may be completed before Santa Claus pays his official visit in December of 1966.

Two deeds, last of the 72 parcels included on the original widening program, were mailed to owners Thursday for signature. Owners are expected to fix their John Henrys to the deeds and return them to the county early this week.

"When these return, we should be closing the book on the county's part of the entire project," summed up County Judge Glen Williams.

During the past week, the special condemnation board named by county commissioners completed its work. Due to title difficulties, "several" parcels of land had to be condemned. "The owners of these final parcels were agreeable, so everything is moving toward an immediate closing of the land — buying portion," the judge concluded. "We anticipate no appeals since the prices agreed on already had been accepted by the owners."

Gas lines have been moved off the properties involved, Judge Williams said, and power companies are due to start moving their lines immediately.

Four buildings are to be sold by the state, included among these is the Progress Baptist Church. The parsonage is to be moved by the church, and the congregation already is occupying its new structure on the north side of the railroad tracks.

These buildings, including the church, will have to be sold to highest bidder, and the state is expected to advertise for bids on these structures in the next few weeks, Judge Williams explained.

Also to be sold by the state are a number of small items, such as irrigation well pumps, sheds, a railroad boxcar which the owners did not retain.

Under terms of the buying program, the owners could either retain the improvements and move them off the right-of-way, or have them removed.

Library - It's One Year Old!

By J. P. Hall

She celebrated her first birthday Tuesday. Birthday well-wishers joined her "every-day" friends who come so regularly and often, and her sister — unit who lives with her at 113 East Ash, Muleshoe, Texas.

"She" is, of course, the Muleshoe Area Public Library who officially celebrated her first birthday Aug. 10.

Congratulatory greetings are due the librarians, officials, patrons, and supporting governmental bodies, as well as "her sister" Texas State Library High Plains Bookmobile Demonstration staff.

The local library, named Muleshoe Area Public Library in 1963, was born one year ago when Librarian Mrs. Bernis (Anne) Camp opened the doors to the library.

This library replaced the outgrown Bailey County Library which had served the neighboring county population since 1939 and which was housed in the county courthouse until the purchase of the Ash Street building in March, 1964. The building presently houses both the bookmobile and public library programs, but is being fast "outgrown," as was its court-house predecessor.

The building, before official opening Aug. 10, was "opened" by members of the Muleshoe American Association of University students, and the state is expected to advertise for bids on these structures in the next few weeks, Judge Williams explained.

Today's Meditation

"Let Them Be Wasted" — By Charles M. Grow — Text: John 6: 11-12 "Jesus then took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, distributed them to those reclining: and likewise the fishes, as much as they wished. But when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather the fragments that are left over, lest they be wasted." (R. C. Confraternity Version N. T.)

As disciples of Christ, we waste many things. We have been extravagant with The Word; too often seeking to salarate those acceptable individuals within the "fenced" divisions of Christ; ignoring those fragments of life, so foreign to our own conception of who is a "nice" person.

What a shocking scene this must create—The Great Shattered "Institution," shutting the pieces of life on the scrapheap outside her gates!

Christ came to confront us with the abundant life, the whole life. God knows and feeds one is still closed in the salad contest which the club is carrying on.

The church is compelled to "gather up the fragments"—those broken lives, the dregs of society, and gather them in with Christ—Love — "Lest they be wasted."

Today, the "Fenced" divisions of Christ's Body finds the "fences" are sagging! The servants of Christ are out in the world sifting the junk - yards of society—seeking to heal sores of countless individuals who have been counted and tagged, until now, as less than human.

Dr. Sanderlin Talks To TOPS

Countesses were Freida Foss and Lena Servantey.

It was announced that next week would be activity night. Side one is still closed in the salad contest which the club is carrying on. The goodnight song was sang by the group and the meeting adjourned.

Donald A. Johnson

Johnson Named To Freeman's Advisory Group

Donald A. Johnson, executive vice-president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. has been appointed a member of the Advisory Committee on Cotton, by the Secretary of Agriculture. The appointment came in a letter from Horace D. Godfrey, Chairman of the Committee and Director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. The Committee, designed to advise the Secretary of Agriculture in connection with programs and problems concerning cotton, meets at the call of the Chairman. Date for the next meeting has not been set.

Johnson, who succeeded the late George W. Pfeifferberger as head of the giant High Plains cotton producer organization on February 26 of this year, has been active in the Washington affairs of cotton for the past several years. He had been Executive Assistant to Pfeifferberger since 1962. Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., with almost 25,000 members, covers 22 counties on the High Plains which produce about half the Texas cotton crop and some 15 percent of the cotton grown in the nation. "For this reason," Johnson said, "it is extremely important that the area be represented in all activities which relate to cotton, and we are certainly grateful for the appointment."

Adequate Defense Concerns Tower

By Sen. John G. Tower
Vietnam has been maven in the minds of Americans. Here in the Senate we have been concerned with seeing to it that both our forces in Vietnam — and all our other defense forces — are adequately prepared.

Military preparedness — sometimes called military readiness — is difficult to define. It involves all the things that go into making our armed forces ready to meet the defense needs of the nation, as those needs are predicted by our best military experts.

Of course, the only real way to measure military readiness is to see what happens when our defense forces are committed to war. That commitment has come. And, unfortunately, we have found our forces not as fully prepared as many of us expected them to be.

As a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I look back last January and February in detailed congressional hearings at which the Defense Department assured the nation that defense funds requested for this year would be adequate for all our needs.

And, as recently as June, Defense Secretary McNamara said his budget provided all the funds needed to carry out whatever combat operations might occur during the next 12 months.

That view, of course, proved to be incorrect, as many of us had feared.

For more than a month, members of the Armed Services Committee have been calling upon the Defense Department to make good on its promise.

Several women from Muleshoe attended Littlefield's play-day Wednesday and brought home the Virgie Haile Traveling Trophy for having the most winners from Muleshoe.

Mary Holt won first flight in low gross, Mary Sweetman, low gross in the third flight; Ruby Hart, low gross in the championship flight and Melzine Elliott, low gross in the nine-hole flight.

partment to come back to the Congress and to request additional funds. This week Secretary McNamara did, indeed, ask the Congress for an additional 1.7 Billion dollars.

Added to the $700 - Million additional voted earlier for Vietnam, that makes nearly two - and - one - half Billion dollars which have been requested — all over and above that defense budget which was supposed to take care of everything.

Let me hasten to point out that our men in Vietnam are now well equipped and are getting every assistance in their fight against Asiatic Communism. There is no shortage of manpower or equipment in Vietnam.

But, in order to assure that no shortage occurs here, we have been forced to strip from other Army divisions in Europe and in the continental United States certain key men, key equipment, and key spare parts.

The Preparedness Subcommittee of the Armed Services Committee has found that U. S. as it should have been. This appears to be a result of the restricted defense budgets of the last two years.

Civilians in the Defense Department, for instance, cut almost $7 Billion out of this year's fund requests by our defense forces. Now, we are finding it necessary to replace a large part of those unused cuts.

Luckily, there still is time for us to make the necessary equipment additions. Luckily, we have not been confronted by another serious crisis simultaneously with Vietnam.

It is my view that defense of this nation must take priority over all other matters. There are many things upon which we would like to spend money — highways, education, and conservation. But, the defense of the country comes first. We must never set arbitrary spending ceilings on defense needs.

We must never permit our defense preparedness just to save money for expenditures on domestic programs in the general category of "welfare".

The welfare of our nation must be our primary concern. So long as America remains secure, there will be spontaneous provision for improved Social Security, improved education, and improved conservation.

But let America appear weak in the eyes of Communism, and we will be faced with ever-greater military challenges, requiring even greater sacrifice of life and ever-greater expenditure of taxpayer dollars.

To keep our defense forces prepared not only to fight and win in Vietnam, but also to cope with any new emergency, we are going to have to buy a lot of things.

Many items on our military shopping list were struck out or delayed over the past two years. Now, we are faced with buying not only currently needed items, but also most of those things previously struck off the list.

Already many Texas firms have received rush contracts for millions of dollars worth of helicopters, radars, and ammunition. The Army may need a whole new 15,000 man division. The Navy will need to take some ships out of the "Mothball Fleet". The Air Force will need additional, expensive planes.

knew that she is sick and wanted help, but this was the first time she had volunteered to take treatments."

Under Texas laws, a person can be committed to a mental institution for "mental illness" and can be kept there for only 90 days. If at the end of that time she does not show improvement, the period can be extended, of course, by court order.

He said the woman who visited his office this past week was one of the first persons eager to come to him voluntarily to request commitment.

"She knew she was sick and she wanted to have something done about it," the judge summed up.

The couple moved to Bailey county 14 months ago from Parmer county.

way or he could sell such improvements to the highway department for a price fixed earlier by the appraiser. Many of the owners elected to keep their buildings. The Progress Baptist parsonage will not be moved until after the church building has been sold and that structure either razed or moved; it was explained that the parsonage must be moved across the plot which the church now occupies.

The county voted bonds for $350,000 three years ago to pay for the land along the right-of-way.

The commissioners and Judge Williams went to Lufkin this past week for a talk-over session with the district highway engineer, O. L. Crane. They were told that the State hopes to widen Killer 84 this next year.

More Vulnerable

POISON IVY—Medical studies show blondes and redheads are sometimes more vulnerable than brunettes to poison ivy. But no matter what color your hair is, avoid touching suspicious plants. If you do, wash immediately with harsh soaps. If you develop poison ivy, relieve the itching with special lotions, such as Calmitol. Don't scratch affected areas; it will slow the healing.

TSgt. Hoshall E. Thomas, a flight supervisor with the Manual Date Relay Center at Kanto Base, Tokyo, Japan, received the 1967th Commissions Squadron award for the latest quarter. He is a veteran of 14 years and is a native of Muleshoe. Thomas is married and has three children. A cash award of a three-day pass was presented. His wife, the former Vera Blackwell, is also from Muleshoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lewis Ellen and Kirk returned Tuesday from their vacation which included a trip to Six Flags Over Texas.

Army Spec. 4 Gordon R. Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graves, Sudan, has been assigned to the 21st Artillery in Germany.

Library

versity Women, in June, 1964. At that time, once-a-week, two-hour per Wednesdays, check-outs were given to area youth who participated in the first and very successful Vacation Summer Reading Club program. This year's Summer Reading Program is highly successful with over 230 children enrolled. Mrs. Camp reports.

Goals Exceeded
Since Aug. 10, 1964, 15,269 books have been circulated among Muleshoe area folk - old and young. "Experts" said 8 to 10,000 book circulation during a library's first year would be a "high goal."

Area library users pushed local check-outs over the $250 mark above the highest expectations of officials. Estimation was based on communities' records with similar background and population.

Compare also local library's 3,360 book-checkouts in July '65 to the longer-established Littlefield library's report of 2,500 high the same month. These figures speak well for both Muleshoe - Littlefield area library users, who are additionally served by the state bookmobile.

Muleshoe's population is estimated at 5000; its trade area at 15,000 with Littlefield boasting of 7500 population. If you add bookmobile report of April 1 this year of 40,435 books checked out to Muleshoe library's first year report of 15,269 the significantly high figure of 55,588 books in circulation should impress even the most ardent football vs. books fan.

Now take facts in another form. There were some 300 new reader's cards issued at the local library in June (most often a card serves an average family of four). Total this with the librarian's estimate of 2,300 cards in total, and the bookmobile's registration cards estimated at 2,500 and the total a figure close to or exceeding the whopping 5100 cards (5100 multiplied by 4 equals 20,400 or so library users).

Muleshoe area library owns 1,481 books; the state library assistance program, brought over 1,100 state books into the local library to serve the four-county area.

Gifts in the forms of books, money and service-time by volunteers and library supporters - too numerous to mention here - have not reading materials and equipment in the library this past year. Memorial fund gifts have been totalled at 459 books. These volunteered gifts by "community - improvement - minded" area citizens have brought the book stock well up from the county's original 1500 to 900 "usable" books transferred from the county library in 1964.

Governmental Support
"Plugs on - the - back" congratulations are sincerely due not only to library staffs including Mrs. Camp and Mrs. Bernie (Georgia) Pena, bookmobile driver Tommy Black, and Mrs. Joe Sooter, part-time file clerk for the bookmobile, and to the many volunteer helpers. Continuing support and assistance, as well as congratulations are due to the city and county fathers as well as to local library board of trustees chaired by J. Frank Peery and the Friends of Library presidents Mrs. Matilda Slemmons (1963 - 64) and Mel Evans (1964 - 65).

An additional allowance provided for in 1965 - 66 City of Muleshoe budget is listed as operational expenses for the library. The amount rose from the actual 1963 - 64 and prior years' $240, to an estimated 1964 - 65 total of $1,850. Proposed and accepted is a $3,000 budget for 1965 - 66.

City Council deserves credit. Friends of Library president Mrs. Matilda Slemmons (1963 - 64) and Mel Evans (1964 - 65) total of $1,850. Proposed and accepted is a $3,000 budget for 1965 - 66.

The city's contribution to their better library services for its citizens, is taken from General Fund No. 10 and is budgeted for salaries and wages of librarian and part-time (and cards in total, and the bookmobile's registration cards estimated at 2,500 and the total a figure close to or exceeding the whopping 5100 cards (5100 multiplied by 4 equals 20,400 or so library users).

Since July 10, 1959 (which makes county participation and library support 25 years old on the same birthday as the Muleshoe Area Public Library's first year birthday - to the day!) Bailey County Commissioner's Court gave assistance to the Muleshoe Study Club and 1959 Study Club's organization

LIBRARY SET-UP — Working hand-in-hand to bring area residents complete library service are the Muleshoe Area Public Library (note sign in background) and the Bookmobile which visits area communities on a regular schedule. of the first county library. Li- Thanks are due Judge Glen Williams and each county precinct commissioner. They too, have the opportunity in 1966 to progressively raised from $50 a year to the current $800 annual budget.

Bailey County commissioners I. M. Stinson, Lloyd Stephens, W. H. Eubanks and R. P. McCall approved the bookmobile program on Feb. 14, 1964, and were followed by the courts of Parmer, Cochran and Lamb counties.

A concentrated two-year effort of various organizations, clubs and individuals was climaxed on April 15, 1964, when the state bookmobile library three-year demonstration began service to area residents. The bookmobile has made approximately 17 trips to each bookmobile stop and had never missed a scheduled trip, as of April 15 reports. (Deposits have been made in Bledsoe, Bovina, Spade, Friona, Lubbudde, Burdick, Springlake, Sudan, Muleshoe and Olton Public Library, as well of course, the collection being housed here in the local library.)

The bookmobile success, as well as local library improvement, is due to the wisdom, and (6) "to raise funds necessary to provide a permanent home for both bookmobile and fixed library facilities - building, grounds, completely equipped - to turn over to the appropriate governmental bodies to maintain for the benefit of the people."

As the first chapters have been performed with complete support of library improvement and high usage from the entire Muleshoe area, the later chapters will continue to ring new congratulations on each and every birthday of the Muleshoe Area Public Library. Congratulations and Best Wishes to each and all who have contributed to growth and to those who will continue in library improvement progress.

Board of Trustees and FOL boards and members continue expansion and enlargement of library facilities, both for the building and remodeling as well as in continuing financial support.

As were the goals in 1963, so they continue with new impetus: (1) the maintenance of and enlargement of free, public library services for residents of county and entire Muleshoe area; (2) the continuing permanent home for the bookmobile headquarters; and, (3) temporarily, until government support increases, operating expenses of utilities, heating, cooling and janitorial services.

and anticipation, "generally to seek the enlightened assumption of operation and operating expense of library service as the responsibility of governmental bodies involved with (5) assistance from FOL for providing for capital needs, supplementary book purchases, and (6) "to raise funds necessary to provide a permanent home for both bookmobile and fixed library facilities - building, grounds, completely equipped - to turn over to the appropriate governmental bodies to maintain for the benefit of the people."

As the first chapters have been performed with complete support of library improvement and high usage from the entire Muleshoe area, the later chapters will continue to ring new congratulations on each

"If you are financially unable to pay for these shots, you may get the forms from any principal's office or at any physician's office and take these blanks to the receptionist at the West Plains Hospital and you may obtain your child's shots free of charge.

"If you took your child's birth certificate and the record of his shots to the school last spring, when you pre-enrolled, it is not necessary to present them again when you come to register your child on August 27th."

Registration for the Elementary and Junior High Schools will be held in the Muleshoe system on Friday, August 27 from 8:30 until 12 noon. Buses will run that morning.

Act took effect. From that day until May 24, 1965, when the Supreme Court struck down the Act with its Lamont decision, approximately 185 million pieces of foreign mailed matter were referred to these units. Approximately 43 million pieces of "exempt" addresses, for the law had specifically exempted certain categories of recipients and its provisions did not apply to scaled letters. These 43 million pieces of mail were quickly sent along to those to whom they were addressed. But the remaining 62 million pieces of mail were examined before being forwarded. Of this total, approximately 4 percent was determined to be constituted of foreign communist political propaganda. In other words, in the period of slightly more than two years in which the screening law was in effect, about 2.5 million pieces of Communist propaganda were detected by our Postal and Customs units.

As the law was administered, the Post Office Department informed the addressees that the Bureau of Customs had determined certain mailed matter to be Communist propaganda. The addressees were asked for their deliver instructions. This kind of mail could only be delivered upon entry to the United States. Under Postal regulations, I am advised, an addressee may refuse to accept any piece of mail. He may mark any mailed matter "Refused" and return it unopened. An addressee may request his postmaster to withhold from delivery for a period not to exceed two years any specifically described items of foreign printed matter. Unfortunately, the knowledge of these regulations is probably not widespread.

Efforts are going to be made in this 89th Congress by me and by others to find an alternative means by which to check the flow of Communist propaganda brazenly being mailed to U. S. citizens. The matter is being discussed extensively in an attempt to find a solution achieving the objective of the 1962 Act.

Unions Facing Anti-Trust Law On Bargaining

WASHINGTON (UP) — Organized labor is suffering a severe case of the jitters over a recent Supreme Court ruling that could shake up the system of collective bargaining as it now is carried on.

At worst, labor lawyers fear, the long exemption of unions may be ended and the growing pattern of industrywide labor contracts may wither on the vine. At best, they foresee a rash of lawsuits over labor contracts until the courts iron out the full implications of the decision. "Sharp Attack" Former Justice Arthur J. Goldberg — who disagreed with the majority ruling—hinted it could mean the sharpest setback for organized labor since the modern era of labor relations began with the 1935 Wagner Act that guaranteed unions the right to organize and bargain.

The Supreme Court ruled a labor union is subject to triple damages under antitrust laws if it conspires with one set of employers to set a wage scale designed to drive other companies out of business. The hiton labor lawyers say, is that the court left unclear what is sufficient evidence of a conspiracy to send the case to a jury.

Three justices in the six-man majority said any industrywide wage scale too high for some employers to pay is enough evidence; the other three said there must be some further evidence but didn't say what.

This, said Goldberg in one of his last cases before resigning to become ambassador to the United Nations, could lead to judges and juries setting wage scales throughout the nation. Goldberg is steeped in a lifetime of labor experience as a union lawyer and secretary of labor. Goldberg wrote the dissenting opinion and called the ruling a throwback to the days when human labor was considered a commodity to be bought and sold. The case, involving the coal industry and the United Mine-workers, could deeply affect many other industries that negotiate industrywide contracts. Similar suits seeking some $30 million in damages already are working their way through the lower courts.

Said James R. Hoffa, who long ago negotiated the first nationwide trucking contract: "For the first time in the history of labor movement, it was placed under the Antitrust Act. . . . From now on, labor unions must negotiate by areas and by economic classes with employers."

Polar bears have become easy targets for hunters giving chase in airplanes and armed with high-powered, automatic rifles. Polar bear rugs are now in vogue and magnificent white pelts bring high prices.

Another employee is Ethel Blackwell.

Stinson and his wife, Sunny, have four daughters and live at 1015 West Avenue C. They are members of the North Side Church of Christ.

FOR YOUR UPHOLSTERING NEEDS — for all your upholstery needs, call on Muleshoe Cover Shop where you can be assured of expert workmanship. Pictured here is the owner, Ronald Stinson, and his wife, Sunny Stinson, assistant, Ramiro Leal.

But twin evils became apparent: the stimulus to gambling, and the incentive to murder. Such insurance, wrote Oliver Wendell Holmes, "is a pure wager that gives the insured a sinister interest in having the life come to an end. The law responded with the requirement of an insurable interest."

What you can insure. Suppose you notice that a neighbors children like to play with matches in their garage. If you are the dastardly type, a cunning idea might occur to you. Why not take out a fire insurance policy on that garage, wait for a fire, and then pocket the proceeds?

The catch is, you could not collect a cent on such a policy. For you have no "insurable interest" in the garage. Generally speaking, you cannot take out insurance on another persons property — or another persons life either — unless you do have an insurable interest. The law says you must have something at stake, some motive for wanting that property — or that life — to be preserved.

That wasn't always so. In the early days of modern insurance, at Lloyds famous coffee house in London, anyone could take out life insurance on anyone else. Lives of prominent persons became speculation of the garage would destroy something of value to you. Similarly, in life insurance, a man has an insurable interest in his wife because she owes him services. And a wife has an insurable interest in her husband because he owes her support.

Even when the financial interest is not so clear, a clear sentimental interest will sometimes satisfy the courts. For instance, they usually uphold an insurance policy that a girl, engaged to be married, takes out on the life of her fiance.

"The relation, explained one court, "naturally inclines her to the hope that his life may be prolonged. A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.
