Friona's Diamond Jubilee Slated Here Sept. 15 - 19

Friona's 25th anniversary Maize Days Celebration, which also marks the city's 75th birthday, will be held next week, September 15 through 19.

First official event on the week's schedule is the Little Miss Friona pageant beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 15 at the high school auditorium, under the sponsorship of Progressive Study Club.

Former Maize Queen Laura Ellis, a contestant in the 1981 Miss Texas pageant, will serve as mistress of ceremonies. A total of 28 girls, five through seven years of age, have been entered in this pageant.

Areo Space Shows will open its run on Tuesday, and will continue through the week at the City Park. The carnival is once again under the sponsorship of the Friona Evening Lions, who will receive a portion of the sales, for use in their community charities.

On Thursday, September 17, the annual Maize Queen Contest will be held. The talent preliminary will begin at 4 p.m. at the high school auditorium, with admission of $2.00.

The finals in the Queen's pageant will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday, also at the high school auditorium. All seats are reserved, and tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office at $3.00 per ticket.

Mistress of ceremonies for the Queen's pageant will be Betty Agee Wetsel, Friona's first Maize Queen in 1957. Mrs. Wetsel has a piano studio in Midland.

Friday's feature will be a 4-H project fair, beginning at 1:30 p.m. at the Community Center.

Friona's Chieftains will play Seagraves at 8 p.m. in their first home football game for the football feature of the week.

Saturday's wrap-up day promises to be by far the busiest day, with a number of activities crowded into the schedule.

Starting the day's activities will be a breakfast, from 5:30 a.m. - 8 a.m. at the high school cafeteria. The breakfast is sponsored by the Friona American Legion Post 206.

The Dixon Six Mile Marathon race will once again be run from the Anthony corner, six miles north of Friona, ending at the intersection of Highway 214 and Highway 60. All joggers and runners are invited.

The Maize Days parade will be held on Main Street, beginning at 10 a.m. The parade theme is "Happy Birthday, Friona--Diamond Jubilee."

The Maize Days barbecue will offer a new twist this year. The event will be catered by Johnny's Barbecue of Midland, and advance tickets are priced at $4.00 per adult plate and $2.50 for children 12 and under.

The menu includes sliced ham, beef, hot links, beans, potato salad and slaw.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office on Main Street. There will be no waiting in line with an advance ticket.

The 4-H project fair continues at the Community Center, from 10:30 a.m. to 4:40 p.m.

An "Art for Heart" art show will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the American Legion Building (Library), second floor.

More than 20 area artists will have their work on display. The work will be for sale, and a commission will be collected by the American Heart Association local chapter.

The annual pet show will be held at 2 p.m. on the public library lawn. Pets of all sizes, shapes and description are usually entered in this show.

A six-gun shootout will be held beginning at 12 noon at the City Park, with a 20-minute show presented every hour on the hour.

The shootout will be performed by the McKenzie Gunslingers of Lubbock, which includes two sons of Friona patrolman Rex Williams, Ronnie and Dwayne Williams. This group does a lot of gun exhibitions in the Lubbock area.

Children of all ages are invited to come see the mules, which will be in a corral at the south end of Main Street.

An open barrel racing and steer roping will be held at 6 p.m. at the rodeo grounds, the final event on the schedule.

All in all, the annual celebration seems to feature "something for everyone," and residents are urged to take part in this Diamond Jubilee celebration.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS have come and gone since the first train-load of prospective residents stepped off the train south of town and gazed across several acres of rolling plains which would some day make up the small but prosperous little city of Friona.

Next week the citizens of Friona will roll out the red carpet for the 25th annual Maize Days Celebration and the Diamond Jubilee of the founding of the town. The first big celebration was held in 1956 to celebrate the town's fiftieth anniversary.

This year's celebration promises to out-do them all.

A lot of work goes into making a town-wide celebration such as this into a success. Many hours of behind-the-scenes preparation goes into each and every activity.

Over the past twenty years during which we have been a proud resident of this community, we have discovered that Friona folks have the ability to rise to almost any occasion and make it into a real "humdinger." Therefore, we can say, without fear or trepidation, that the 1981 Maize Days promises to be the finest celebration in the town's history.

However, we must hasten to point out that this is not just a time for everyone to join in having a lot of fun together down at the city park. It is that, of course, but it is also much more. Various civic clubs, churches, organizations all over town are able, at this time each year, to raise money to support their civic and charitable activities.

Drawings, bake sales, arts and crafts items, booths, raffles, etc., all help to raise money for these groups. Practically every cent of the money raised from these Maize Days activities goes back into the community in some manner.

Some of the areas which have benefitted locally from Maize Days activities are: equipment for the local hospital, fire-fighting equipment for the town, the Library building fund, Senior Citizens building, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts activities, sending crippled and blind children to special camps, scholarship funds, etc.

We urge each and every citizen of Friona and the surrounding area to get out next week and support the big Diamond Jubilee celebration and have a lot of fun while you're at it.

Jerry Lewis Telethon Is Successful

The Jerry Lewis Telethon has been pronounced a success in the Friona area again this year, because of the kind generosity of so many local citizens.

The local committee has expressed its gratitude to those who worked and furnished for the workers.

The Sonic, Tasty Cream and Dairy Queen reportedly kept the group well-fed.

The workers besides Geary Brogden and Roger Nelson's Youth Groups were: Selma Habbinga, Hannah Lookingbill, Addie Moyer, Pat Fallwell, Bill and Naomi Stephens, Iola Nelson, Joe Dillingham, Bill and Mavis Burnam, Juanita Reed, Alice Hough, Ruby Stone, Blanche Boyle, Wana Brewer, Fern White, Dawn Gibson, Holly Tatum, Pat Brockman, Ann Carthel, Karene Bass, Anna Mae Hays, Tammie Kelly, Clessie Stroud and Zonah Bass.

Ron Harkey Wins Contest

Ron Harkey of Petersburg, a former Friona resident, grabbed the early lead in the annual Friona Star football contest.

Harkey correctly picked 19 of the 22 contest games, to win the weekly prize of $10.00. He was the only contestant to pick as many as 19 of the games correctly in the first week's contest.

Wade Cargile of Lazbuddie took second place in the contest with a score of 18, and likewise was the only contestant with that score. Cargile will receive a cash prize of $6.00.

Bob Finley was one of 11 contestants to correctly pick 17 games, and took third place of $4.00 on the basis of his Friona-Tulia tie-breaker score. Finley missed the tie-breaker by only five points, picking Tulia by 13-0, when the score was 18-0.

Other contestants scoring 17 were Eddie Mann, Charlie Morgan, Dianne Morgan, Jackie Morgan, Mark Neill, Jay Reeve, Cynthia Smith, Jimmy Walker, Bobby Wied and Steve Williams.

A total of 15 contestants correctly picked 16 games, another 34 had 15 correct; 27 contestants picked 14 games, 24 had 12 right, and 11 more had exactly half (11) of the games right. A full tabulation of contestants' scores may be found elsewhere in this issue.

Harkey's only misses were in the pro ranks, missing by picking New England over Baltimore, Pittsburgh over Kansas City and Los Angeles over Houston. Cargile also missed three pro games, plus the Farwell-Plains contest.

Most of the contestants had trouble with the professional games, especially Pittsburgh-Kansas City and Los Angeles-Houston, two games in which a late length of the field run netted the underdog an upset win.

A total of 171 contestants entered the first week of the Star's annual football follies. Contestants are vying for a grand prize of $100.00 at the conclusion of the 13-week event.

A total of $20.00 in weekly prizes are also awarded. Football fans are urged to get a copy of the paper and mark their entry for the current week's contest.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Friona Star Group,

Just want you to know I enjoy the paper a lot. It keeps me posted with what Friona is doing. I especially enjoy the Town Talk column. I love you good Friona people and think you have a nice little town.

I have been in Duncan, Oklahoma for seven years now and love Duncan too. Keep the news coming. Enclosed is my check for renewal.

Love to all of you,
Flossie Brown

Dear Bill,

We are always so anxious to receive the Friona Star each week to see the happenings of friends we still have there.

We were disappointed however when we learned too late that the First Baptist Youth were in concert in Hugo, Oklahoma, a few weeks ago, then the very next week in the Antlers

American was a picture of Rick and Dorothy Son, along with Bryan Johnston, were in a youth revival in Rattan, Oklahoma, 12 miles east of Antlers, so we journeyed over to hear and visit them and was surprised to find also helping in the revival, Stanley Ellis, Clint and Sarah Mears.

We enjoyed having these seven young people in our home for dinner. They were a refreshing witness for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your stand many times in your Star Lites.

We were in Friona August 21 through August 25 to attend the wedding of Rhonda and Jimmy Murphree and enjoyed seeing many friends and sorry we missed seeing many that we wanted to see.

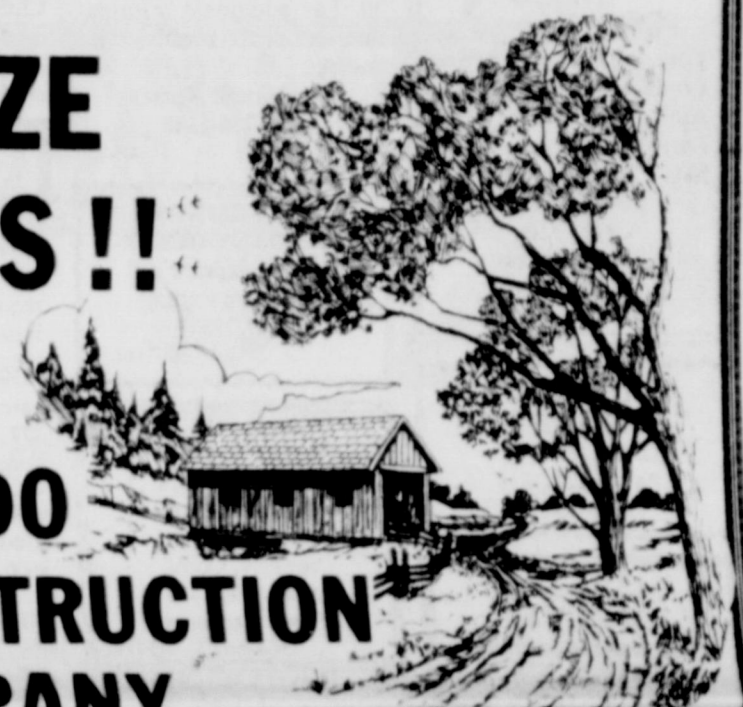

We visited with my sister and brother-in-law, Margaret and Percy Parsons of Dimmitt.

Bob and Florene Knight

THE NEW ENERGY FRONTIER: Coal America's new energy frontier. Black Thunder Coal Mine near Gillette, Wyoming, sits on part of 50 billion tons. Tapping this huge new reserve of raw energy is a job that takes a combination of resources and pioneering spirit. The kind that fuels booms of opportunity. And we're here helping.

Last year, 3 million tons of this coal was used as fuel to make electricity at Southwestern Public Service power plants. Coal is being used more now because other fuels cost too much.

In Wyoming alone, there's enough coal that some areas of Black Thunder won't be mined until the year 2013. That's a lot of electricity. Coal. It's good to know there are some things you can depend on.

Wheat Growers Log 47 Years Of Growth Here

By JUNE FLOYD

In the forty-seven years of the existence of Friona Wheat Growers, Inc. the storage capacity has been increased from 30,000 bushels to 4,709,000 bushels.

The corporation was formed early in 1934 when a group of local farmers got together in an effort to solve some of their marketing problems during the middle of the Dust Bowl Days Depression.

At that time the facility was owned by the Oklahoma Wheat Pool Association, which bought wheat from the farmers. Most of the time a farmer was advanced 15¢ per bushel at the time of delivery. Then, if the Association was able to sell the wheat for a profit, each farmer received a share of the profits.

When local farmers learned that the Association was on the brink of bankruptcy, action was taken and the formation of Friona Wheat Growers, Inc. was the outgrowth of their decision.

The incorporating officers were Floyd W. Reeve, president; and Clyde V. Goodwine, secretary-treasurer. Goodwine served the organization in this capacity until his retirement from the board of directors in June of 1966.

Other board members were F.N. Welch, Elmer Euler and E.B. Whitefield. All the original incorporators are deceased except Goodwine, who lives about one half mile south of town.

Following the death of E.B. Whitefield, T.A. O'Brian Sr. was selected to serve on the board. Later E.L. (Hap) Fairchild and his son, Larry, served on the board at different times. They are the son-in-law and grandson of T.A. O'Brian Sr.

At the time Friona Wheat Growers purchased the assets of its forerunner, local farmers invested $2,000. Capacity at that time was 30,000 bushels. One wooden elevator held 20,000 bushels and another held 10,000 bushels. The original elevator was later sold to Carl Schlenker, who moved it to his farm in the Rhea Community, where he still uses it for grain storage.

O.H. Curtis from Texhoma, Oklahoma was the first manager. He stayed one year. At that time most of the firm's business was selling salt, coal and hay, which was shipped in from Oklahoma. For a few years the drought was so bad and such poor crops were produced that it was impossible for the firm to pay its taxes and interest. Total net worth dropped to a low of $1200.

Old timers remember that 1937 was a good year. In fact, it was the first year since the firm's beginning that a good wheat crop was made. It was during this wheat harvest season that Arthur Drake, son of a pioneer family, who had just returned to Friona after serving in the United States Army, became associated with Friona Wheat Growers.

When harvest was over, his services were not needed, so he sought other employment. Early in 1938 a paving project on Highway 60 between Summerfield and Farwell began. Arthur remembers that he was very happy to get a job on this project. His job was time keeper and gasoline pumper. He fueled all the gasoline burning vehicles on the job with a hand operated pump. His pay was $20 per week.

He recalls, "I was well pleased with my job and my pay. Laborers on the project were only allowed to work 40 hours per week and were paid thirty cents per hour."

Early in June of 1938, Guy Bennett, another Oklahoman, was employed as manager of the struggling elevator. After being informed that Arthur had worked for the elevator the wheat harvest before, Bennett, contacted him about returning.

The paving project was completed at Farwell June 7, 1938, and Arthur went to work for the elevator the following day. Bennett stayed on as manager until 1943. Then Arthur was made manager. He held this position until 1965, when he resigned to become a full time farmer. Following his resignation, Bill Raybon was made manager. Then, three years later Raybon resigned and Drake returned as manager, a position he held until his retirement April 30, 1973.

During the early forties the elevator's operations began to show a profit and by 1946 the corporation was out of debt. Ever since that time financial reports have indicated that a profit was made each year.

About that time additions were made to existing facilities and the total capacity was increased to 190,000 bushels. The first concrete tanks for grain storage were built in 1949. The original storage buildings were replaced with concrete tanks in 1955.

When Drake retired in 1973, storage capacity had been increased from 30,000 bushels to 3,170,000 bushels, and negotiations were underway for purchase of the facilities of Santa Fe Grain, which was owned by Leo Potishman of Fort Worth.

Following completion of this transaction, more storage was added on Santa Fe's location to increase the total capacity to 4,709,000 bushels.

Present board members are David Grimsley, president; A.W. Anthony Jr., vice-president; Ernest Osborn, secretary-treasurer; Leroy Johnson and Mike Riethmayer.

The firm also has a junior board of directors. Its members are Ted Procter, Gerall Wyly and Conrad Renner.

September 1, 1969 Ronald Smiley was employed by the firm. Then, May 1, 1973, he assumed duties of manager, a position which he still holds.

New offices on the east side of Main Street and the south side of Fifth Street are under construction at this time.

"We should be able to move in within the next five or six weeks," Smiley reported.

Drake and his wife, the former Louella Dodge, who came here from Byers, Colorado, to work in the local telephone office, were married in November of 1940.

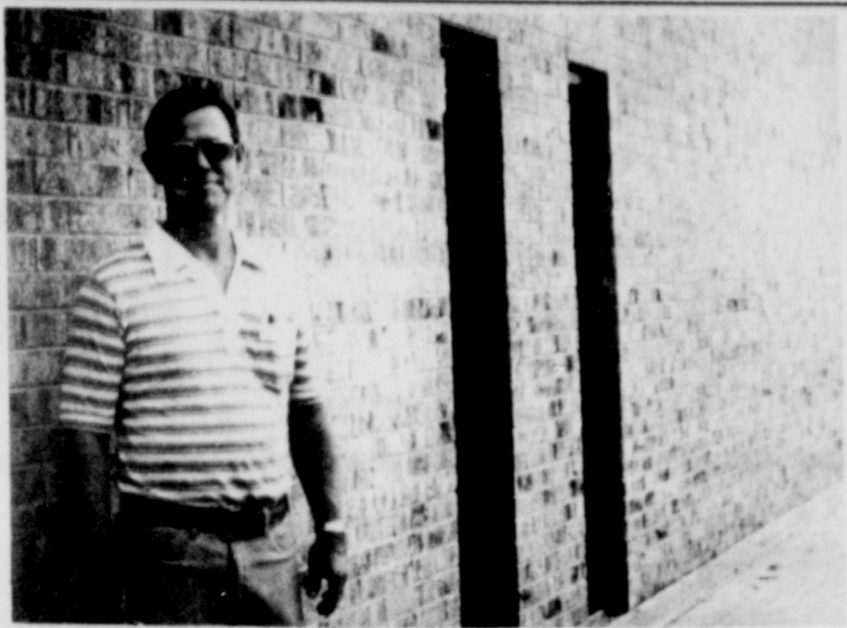

The three daughters born to them grew up here, graduated from Friona High School and married local farmers. Erma and her husband, Jerry Brown, and their daughters, Jana and Sherri, live in town. Betty, whose husband, Floyd Reeve, is a grandson of the late F.W. Reeve, and their three daughters, Debbie, Denae and Becky, live on a farm southeast of town.

Peggy, the youngest of the Drake children, is married to Jackie Stowers. They also live on a farm southeast of town. They have three children, Penny, Gary and Greg.

Since Arthur's retirement, he and Louella do some travelling; spend their summers in Friona and their winters in Scottsdale, Arizona; play games and enjoy their grandchildren.

Ronald Smiley and his wife, the former Melba Bracken, also have three children. Their son, Mitch, and his wife, the former Kim Frye of the Black Community, live in Lubbock, where they are students at Texas Tech University.

Their oldest daughter, Cindy, is married to Jerry Butman. They have one son, Gaines, and live here. The other daughter, Vickie, is a junior elementary education major at West Texas State University, Canyon.

PRESENT MANAGER....Ronald D. Smiley is the current manager of Friona Wheat Growers, a position he has held for the past eight years. Smiley stands in front of the new office for the co-op, which is under construction on South Main Street.

ALLISON WALKER is being sponsored in the Little Miss Contest by Friona Consumers Co., Inc. She is the seven year old daughter of David and Louise Walker.

DARLA SUE PROCTER is the five year old daughter of Dewayne and Cheryl Procter. She is being sponsored by DL's Venture Foods in the Little Miss Contest.

Gromowskys Have Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Widdy Gromowsky are the parents of a baby girl, Sara Tiffany, born Thursday, September 3, at 8:30 p.m. at Parmer County Community Hospital. Sara weighed four pounds, 12 ounces and was 18 inches long. She is the first child for the couple. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Gromowsky of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Luquette of Canyon. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Lurline Tiffany and Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Reed, all of Pampa.

This week is a very special one in Friona. We're observing our 75th birthday. As those of us who live here look back and reflect on what those who have gone before have done for us, it makes us feel very humble and appreciative.

Even though we enjoy learning about conditions in Friona's early days, none of us would want to carry water from Uncle Andy Wentworth's well, live in many of the houses people lived in at that time or do many of the other things early Friona residents had to do.

One thing the pioneers enjoyed that we would do well to emulate is the extension of hospitality to visitors. Most of us enjoy having guests, so let's concentrate on showing our birthday party guests an enjoyable time while they're here.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boeckman were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boeckman and Louie Boeckman, all of Okeene, Oklahoma. Albert and Louie are Joe's brothers.

Mrs. Pat Fallwell and Mrs. Bill Gibson and daughters, Dawn, Shawna and Betty, attended a lullaby shower in Tulia Saturday. Guest of honor were Mrs. Jan Kiker and baby daughter, Melissa Kim, of Odessa. Mrs. Kiker, the former Gay McElroy of Tulia, is the daughter of the late LaNora Fallwell McElroy.

Noah Young has been a patient in the local hospital, but has been released and is recuperating at home. Wednesday night guests in the Young home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young of Hobbs, New Mexico. At the present time Mr. and Mrs. Young's three sons, Roy Troy and Monroe, and their families all live in Hobbs. I'm wondering if former friends and neighbors of the Buddy and Phyllis Squyres family, who lived out on West Fifth about 20 years ago, recognized the name of the spokesman for the Texas A&M Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory in Amarillo as the blonde youngster we knew as Larry Squyres? The headline of Thursday's Amarillo Daily News "The Plains Today" section relayed the opinions of Dr. Larry Hollis about recent deaths of some area horses from Western Equine Encephalomyelitis. Dr. Hollis and the young boy we knew as "Larry Squyres," are one and the same.

visitors. Dale and Mary Lou Glass of McLean, along with three of their children, Terri, John and Angela, who attend McLean schools, attended West Texas State University's football game. Then, after the game, they were joined by two more Glass girls, Sherry and Jamie Lou, for the trip to Friona. Both of these girls are students at West Texas State and members of the band. Sherry is a senior and Jamie Lou is a freshman. Mary Lou is Roy's and Eva's oldest daughter.

Labor Day visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Menefee were Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Menefee of Fort Towson, Oklahoma, and their two college students, Debbie and Jimmy, who attend Southeastern State University, Durant, Oklahoma. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jody Menefee and daughter, Tiffany, of Valiant, Oklahoma. Mrs. Jody Menefee is the former Becky Powell.

The three younger Houlette brothers, Dale of Friona, Wayne of Plainview and Jerry of Lubbock, left Friona Friday afternoon for their annual Labor Day weekend of fishing in the Pecos River near Cowles, New Mexico.

They were accompanied by Dale's daughter, Robin, and a friend, Jennifer Brockman. The group returned to Friona Monday evening.

Ella Mae and Alene Wilkerson returned home Wednesday after a two week vacation in the southeastern part of the nation. They visited Ella Mae's brother and sister-in-law, Mr.

Chiefs Hoping To Snap 17-Game Skein

The Friona Chieftains were hoping to break their 17-game losing streak, which dates back to the fourth game of the 1979 season, when they journeyed to Boys Ranch Friday night.

Although losers to Tulia, 18-0 in their 1981 season opener, the team was boosted by their showing against the touted Hornets.

"The score was 12-0 in the fourth quarter, we were driving, and got a couple of penalties and had to punt. If we could have punched in a score, it might have been an entirely different ball game," said Coach Tommy Moss.

Moss said that the team made some mistakes, but overall he was real pleased with the effort displayed.

Fumbles due to rain and a wet field contributed to some lost ground for the Chieftains.

Tulia scored twice in the first half, and still had only a 12-0 lead until running back Roland Powell rambled 60 yards in the fourth quarter.

Robert Osborn was Friona's leading rusher with 72 yards in 18 tries, and Nelson Jackson added 56 yards.

Broadening Education Has Been Lora Mae McFarland's Goal

By JUNE FLOYD
When the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. McFarland moved from Central Texas to a farm west of Friona in the mid-twenties, one of their daughters, Lora Mae, came with them for a temporary stay.
However, since that time she has been close to Friona and interested in the community. At one time she was co-owner of a farm near Parmer Hill and always enjoyed rural living.
Since October of 1975 Miss McFarland has made her home at 1111 Etta, which is just about as close to being in the country as any Friona resident can get. There's a farm just across the alley west of her home.

Lora Mae was born at Bertram, Texas and later moved with her parents, brothers and sisters to Killeen, Texas, where she graduated from high school. She continued her education at Texas Tech University and the University of Texas.

She says, "I earned my bachelor's degree, with a major in Spanish, over a period of several years by teaching a full term and going to school during the summer."

Her first teaching experience was in the Amherst, Texas public school system, where she was a classroom teacher. After one year, she accepted the position of High School Principal, which she held one year before going to Levelland High School to teach Spanish.

After teaching there six years, she moved to Littlefield, where she taught Spanish in high school for several years before going to Wellington to teach Spanish and sponsor the Pep Club.

Her next teaching position was in Friona High School, where she taught Spanish the first time it was offered. Two years later she accepted a position at Vernon High School, but resigned to come back to Friona to assist with the establishment of Parmer County Community Hospital. She spent one year visiting other community hospitals in the area, selling memberships all over Parmer County and generally promoting the construction of the hospital.

After declining an offer to be the hospital's first administrator, Miss McFarland secured a Spanish teaching position in Clovis and

She is a long time Baptist and has taken an active part in the teaching program of the church wherever she has lived. She attends First Baptist Church.

During all the years she taught, she continued to broaden her education by taking college courses, travelling and studying the culture of other countries, especially to Spanish speaking nations. Although she has acquired more than enough hours for a Master's degree, she has taken courses she was especially interested in preference to any set degree plan.

She has travelled extensively throughout the United States; has visited several states in Mexico; has been to Europe two times—once to study in Spain; and has also been to Cuba and Canada.

During her travels she collected mementoes of the different countries and has many of them attractively displayed in her home. Windmills have always been especially interesting to her and she has replicas and pictures which are very special to her.

During Miss McFarland's teaching years she belonged to several professional organizations including National Education Association; Texas and New Mexico Education Associations; Delta Kappa Gamma; American Association of University Women; Business and Professional Woman's Club and American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

In recent years Miss McFarland has had eye problems which required surgery and has had to cut down on her outside activities.

However, she still takes an active part in the Senior Citizens organization and Modern Study Club.

Besides people, church work and music, her hobbies are doing all kinds of needle work, sewing, playing games, working puzzles and travelling.

Idleness has never been a part of the philosophy of life of any of the McFarland clan and Lora Mae firmly believes that keeping busy is the best way of life.

Her sisters, who live here, are Katie and Ilene Osborn, Martha Clements and Gerry Taylor. Granville McFarland is the only brother she has living in Friona.

Other members of her family are Lonnie McFarland of Burnet, Texas; R.H. (Shine) McFarland of Tucumcari; and Charlene McFarland Jones of Ruidoso, New Mexico.

The entry hall of Miss McFarland's home serves as a bulletin board for pictures of her many nieces and nephews as well as newspaper clippings about all members of her large family.

Her advice to all is, "Always have something to get up for."

RETIRED TEACHER ENJOYS HOBBIES....Miss Lora Mae McFarland is shown here with a number of hand made articles she has made for herself. Her hobbies include crocheting, needlepointing, collecting and reading. The afghan, which is a single crochet ripple, is one of many she has made. She also gives many of her hand made to friends and relatives on special occasions. She enjoys having more time for pursuing hobbies since she has retired from teaching.

Game Traffic Is Concern

"Over half of the 4,424 persons killed on Texas streets and highways in 1980 were under the age of 29," Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5, said.

"This is an increase of 4.6 per cent or 95 more deaths than the previous year," Bell said. We are asking you, the Texas motorist, to assist in preventing traffic accidents. Many young people are injured each year due to traffic problems which frequently occur following football games. The extremely congested condition caused by the numerous automobiles makes traffic move slowly after any athletic event.

Major Bell said, "Traffic after sports events will be heavy. Please use an extra bit of patience and caution so that you will return home safely. When you leave the stadium, and get into your automobile, remember to drive slowly and carefully."

Mickey Ready attended McMurry College in Abilene one semester and Texas Tech in Lubbock one year before his marriage to Gwen Copple.

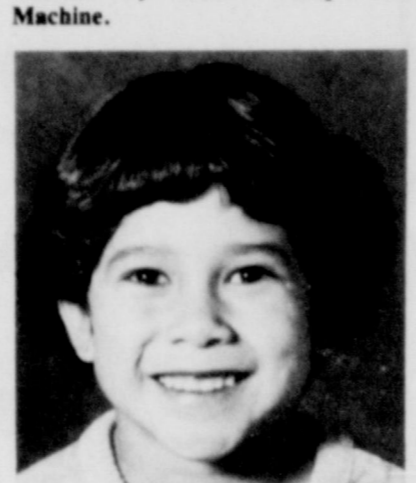

For a number of years they have lived in Waco, where he is state manager of Great Life Insurance Company. She is a secretary for the same firm.

They have four children, Rodney, 19; Teresa, 17; Mike, 16; and Scott, 14.

Zetsches Interested In Horses, Jeep Racing

ZETZSCHES SHARE HOBBIES....Carol and Robert Zetsche follow separate careers and their paths rarely ever cross in their line of work. He's a farmer who does custom haying and she's an accountant, who spends most of her time in an office. All of this does an about face when they have time for their hobbies...horses and Jeeps. They're pictured here with some of the trophies they've collected in these two fields during the past few years.

By JUNE FLOYD
Although Carol Williams Zetsche was born in Chicago, she has lived in the Lone Star State so long that she feels like a native Texan. She moved to Fort Worth as a very young child and grew up there.

When she was a senior at Polytechnic High School in Fort Worth, she met Robert Zetsche, a native of Bowie, Texas, who was attending Arlington State, the forerunner of the University of Texas or Arlington. He was a graduate of Bowie High School.

Following Carol's high school graduation and Robert's completion of his sophomore year in college, he enlisted in the United States Armed Forces and she enrolled at Sul Ross College, Alpine, Texas.

During the 1952-53 school year Carol's parents moved to Wichita Falls and she went there when school ended. She and Robert had corresponded during his two year absence and resumed their courtship following his return home.

About a year later, May 28, 1955, they were married in Wichita Falls, where they established their first home. He lacked one year having his bachelor's degree when they married so he attended Midwestern University, from which he was graduated in the spring of 1956.

His first full time job was showing registered Hereford cattle for different ranches at the major livestock shows.

In April of 1957 he began employment with the Soil Conservation Service and his first assignment was at Dalhart, Texas.

Their first child, Bobby, was born there October 14, 1957 and the three moved to Friona in January of the following year. Robert continued in the employment of the Soil Conservation Service in Parmer County for several years before accepting a job as a pipe salesman for Martin-Marietta in this area.

A few years later he resigned from this position and started farming and doing custom farm work. Since then farm work has been his full time vocation.

For a number of years the Zetsches have lived at 404 Cedar in Friona. A daughter, Robin, was born to them April 25, 1960.

In January of 1972 Carol started working on an agriculture business degree at West Texas State University, Canyon. She commuted to Canyon until she completed her degree requirements and graduated in the spring of 1976—the same spring Bobby graduated from Friona High School.

After attending Lubbock Christian college for a brief period of time Bobby and Kenna Moore, youngest daughter of Kenneth and Lawanda Moore of Friona, were married.

At the present time they live southwest of town and Bobby works with his dad. They have two daughters, Kendy, who is 20 months old and Tierney, who is three months old.

Following Robin's graduation from Friona High School in 1978, she attended Lubbock Christian College for two and one-half years. She is married to Chris Crunclenton and they live in El Paso.

Carol has been employed by Brown, Graham & Company, for the past two years.

Robert and Carol are both interested in horses and Jeep racing. Their love of horses is evidenced in every Maize Days Parade, their membership in Friona Riding Club, of which they are charter members, and the work they do when the club sponsors rodeos or play days for 4-H Club members.

Someone once remarked that if Friona Riding Club had a "workhorse" award it would surely go to the Zetsches. Robert is a past president and Carol has been the club's secretary several different times.

Robert has also been a member of Friona's Volunteer Fire Department since 1962. They are members of Sixth Street Church of Christ.

In addition to being horse lovers, these two are Apaloosa breeders and spend most of their spare time with their horses or their Jeeps.

JENNIFER WHITE is the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie White. She is being sponsored by Poarch's Furniture in the Little Miss Contest.

RIKKI D'LYN CARR is the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Carr. She is being sponsored by Parmer County Implement in the Little Miss Contest.

Texas Highway Patrol Devoted To Courtesy, Service, Protection

By JANET WILKE

As most anyone would perceive, the life of a Department of Public Safety officer is not for the faint-hearted, or for those who wish to sleep on a more regular basis—for these people who protect the highways of our state are not accustomed to life quite as we know it.

The Texas Department of Public Safety has had a long and illustrious past, from their beginning in 1935, when the Legislature passed a law creating the Texas State Police. The DPS motto of "Courtesy, Service, and Protection," most aptly illustrates the belief of the DPS, and when most officers are asked why they chose a life in service to their state, they will reply, "because I wanted to do something to help others."

To become a DPS officer, one must take an 18 week long training session at the DPS Academy in Austin, and this involves a rigid exercise program, which would tire out most any Army Drill Sergeant.

Other qualifications which an entrant in the academy must meet include being between 20 and 35 years of age, having had 60 credible college hours, and have vision no worse than 20/200 correctable to 20/20 with contact lenses. Also a candidate must have height and weight proportional and have never had a criminal record.

They must also be willing to accept assignment in any uniformed service anywhere in the state.

Up to 80 per cent of the persons who enroll in the academy never make it to graduation. As many as 200 applicants per year drop out due to the rigorous training program, but this is what it takes to handle the tough situations out in the field.

Approximately 115 to 125 persons enter the academy each year, with about 90-95 graduating.

The average years of service in the DPS is 8-10. This is due, mainly, to the fact that in 1967 to 1973, the DPS underwent extensive growth in which the service almost tripled in size. So, many of the Troopers have been in for their entire eight year term while others have retired who were in for longer stints.

However, it is no secret that many Troopers are seeking jobs in other professions, such as safety advisors in the oil industry, and the pay is very lucrative.

Schooling troopers costs approximately $500,000 per school, and there are usually two schools per year, one in June and one in January.

Many of the officers who are instructors are people who you might know from your own county, as instructors from all over the state are invited in at various times to tell their bit of expertise on a particular subject.

There are two major areas in the DPS: the Traffic Law Division and the Criminal Law Division.

The highway patrol, drivers license, licensing and weight division, and inspection division all come under the traffic law division.

In the criminal division, the investigation of narcotics abusers is handled by the drug agents and also, it is the division in which the Texas Rangers operate. It also deals with auto theft and intelligence.

There is also one other area in the DPS which we have failed to mention, and that is the Safety Education Service, which is the service which secured for us these facts.

Just because a person wants to be a trooper does not mean they will be selected to be one. There will be only a certain number of persons assigned to trooper service, while others will be assigned to one of the other areas already named above.

When a trooper graduates from the academy, they are assigned a place to serve by the state. They will be on probation for a year, and will ride with a senior officer during that time. After that time, they will then be eligible to ride with a rookie trooper.

After his first year, the trooper is known as a Trooper I, and then after passing a proficiency exam and a period of time the trooper will be elevated to the status of Trooper II. However, a trooper, after two years, can take an exam to be accepted into the criminal law division to, say, work as an undercover drug agent, and if he passes, he will be re-assigned in that field.

The highest rank which a DPS officer can hold is that of Colonel, which is presently held by Col. James Adams, who succeeded Col. Wilson Speir.

To become a member of the narcotics force, a trooper must pass a test and have two years of experience, and in order to be in either the auto theft or intelligence division, a trooper must have had at least five years experience and pass a test. For a trooper to make it in the Texas Rangers, he must have been in the service for eight years and pass a test.

In the Safety Education Service, a trooper will deal with the news media and will also work with schools, civic organizations, and clubs, giving talks on law, safety, drug prevention, and many other things.

In fact, there is a drug education program which will be held in Bovina on September 29 at 7 p.m. in the school. This is a free service of the DPS and it is open to the public. Speaking for this program will be Officer Paul Hoff of the Amarillo Regional DPS office, who has been in the Safety Education program for the past year.

Hoff is a native of Hereford, where he attended school and then earned a degree in criminal law from WTSU.

He is 37 years old, and has been a DPS officer for the past 13 years. Paul served two years in Matador and has served the remainder of the time with the Amarillo office, and was a highway patrol trooper for 12 years.

He is married and he and his wife of 19 years, have two children, a daughter, 13 and a son, 11.

Hoff is deluged with calls for speaking engagements from all types of schools, private and civic organizations, and his schedule keeps him on the road a lot.

He spends some 20 hours weekly covering the Panhandle, speaking to grown-ups, and answering questions.

One of the many questions Hoff encounters often is whether or not the DPS has a "quota."

The Department of Public Safety does not get any of the money they take in when they write a ticket. All the money, if collected by a County Judge, goes to that county for road and bridge funding, or to the county law enforcement fund. The only objective the DPS has when writing a ticket is to "detect and apprehend any and all persons who violate the law, as can be safely handled."

One of the major headaches of the DPS officer is the enormous amount of paperwork which is involved. For every ticket a trooper writes, about 15 minutes must be spent doing paperwork.

Then, if the offender wants to take the ticket to court, the trooper must then appear and testify in the case and this is even more time-consuming. Most troopers still have to go to court occasionally anyway so they can find out what happened to the people they have ticketed in the past.

On the average, each trooper spends about 8-10 hours a week on paperwork. On reports dealing with criminal law, one report may take as long as one to one and a half hours to fill out. And, almost every report must be typed.

Most of the troopers do their paperwork after their shift is up, and a few do theirs when they first come on their shift, before things get busy. But, few have any extra time in which they can spare in order to do this necessary task.

There are about 86 troopers and 10 supervisors in the Panhandle of Texas and four of these officers reside and work in Parmer County.

Art Lopez and Steve Talkington of Friona, and Jim Bishop and Craig Hunt of Farwell, serve the residents of Parmer County very well. They perform, as do their counterparts in other areas of the state, a very difficult job with a great deal of courtesy and service. And, most of the time they are spending time out on the road away from their families so we can be assured of safer highways.

The supervisor for the area is Sgt.

Scott of Hereford, and the officers who serve Parmer County are under his command.

Of the utmost importance to all troopers is the cooperation they receive from other law enforcement agents, such as the city police officers and the sheriff's office. Without this cooperation, the DPS could not effectively do their job. I am sure that neither of the other two agencies could do as good a job without the aid of the DPS.

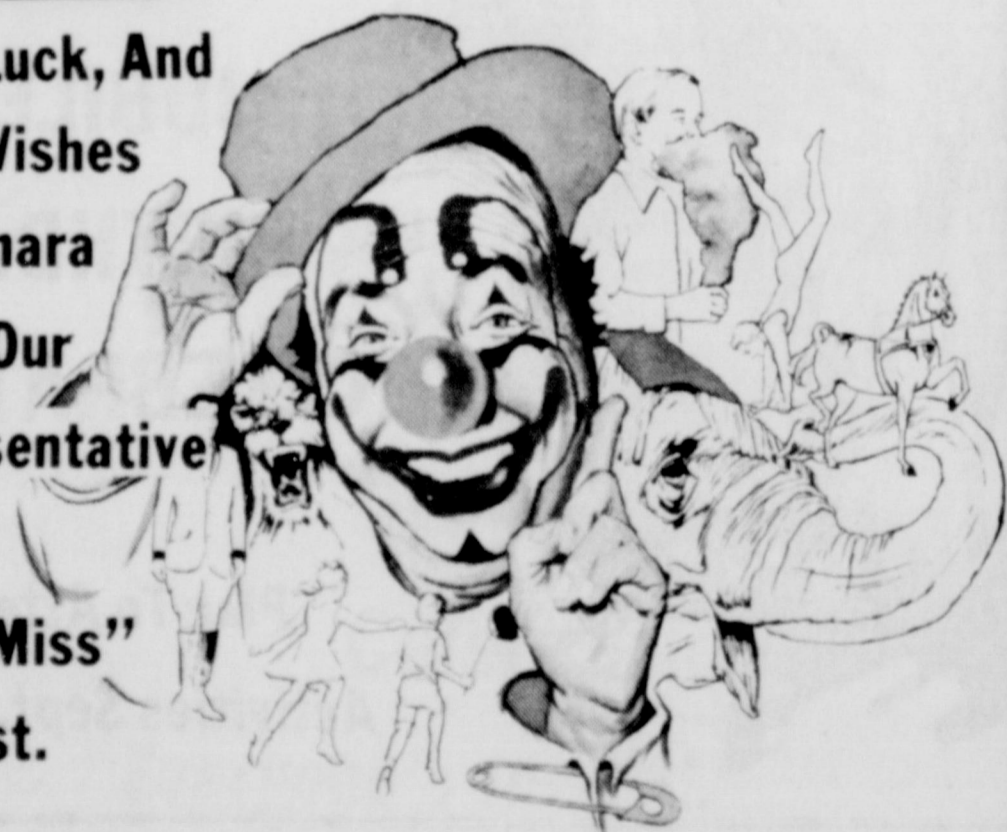

Having been organized in 1935 by an act of legislation, the DPS has served this state long and well. There is no citizen of the state who has not been affected by the job the DPS does. We all are indebted to this organization for all of the things they do and services they provide for us.

Their very presence commands respect and when in trouble, any Texan knows that the DPS will lend a hand.

J.T. Gees Travel Abroad Following His Retirement

By JUNE FLOYD

For more than forty years J.T. and Lilah Gaye Gee have lived in the 900 Block of Summitt Avenue in Friona. Their first home on Summitt was at 911. Then, many years later they built a new home across the street at 906. During the years they lived at 911 they made plans for a new home and collected things for it.

Their back door step at 911, originally served as the cornerstone of the first brick school building in Friona, which was erected in 1911. This cornerstone is a patio stone at their new home. Some bricks from the "Old Red School" were collected and used on the patio and hearth in their new home.

Several pieces of furniture in their present home are also relics of schools of the past. One teacher's chair, which Mr. Gee has refinished, was removed from the first school he attended—a two teacher rural school at Center Point, which is south of Carbon, Texas. A cane bottom chair from the same school survived a fire and was refinished.

J.T., son of Henry L. and Leona Bettis Gee, was born near Dublin, Texas, August 10, 1906. He attended rural schools in Eastland County until he was ready to enter high school, then transferred to Gorman High School because the high school at Carbon was not yet affiliated and he wanted to attend college.

He worked his way through Texas Tech University, from which he holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Husbandry and a Master of Science degree in agricultural education.

Before acquiring requirements for his degree, which took him three years and two summers, he taught agriculture at Sudan. One of his pupils, Elvin Johnston, now lives in Friona and farms in the Rhea Community.

Gee's first Parmer County teaching experience was at Bovina, where he was the high school principal, ag teacher, math and science teacher, and boys basketball coach—for an annual salary of $900.

Lilah Gaye Rodgers, daughter of Toy F. and Fanny Thompson Rodgers, was born near Gorman, Texas, August 5, 1911. A Mangum, Oklahoma High School graduate, she moved with her parents to Lubbock in 1928. She attended Texas Tech and received a bachelor of science degree in home economics in 1932.

While she was a student at Texas Tech, she took out one year to teach at Challis, a two room school seven miles northeast of Brownfield. Then, she returned to Texas Tech and graduated with her class in 1932.

She taught in the Bovina schools for three years—1932-1935—for an annual salary of $765. At that time the Bovina school had a policy of not hiring two persons in the same family, so she and J.T. had to secure permission to get married and keep their teaching positions from the school board.

They were married June 2, 1934 in First Methodist Church in Lubbock. The following spring they were able to secure jobs in the Friona schools with substantial raises in their pay. His salary was increased to $1600 and hers to $900 per year.

At that time community responsibilities for home economics and ag teachers included serving Chamber of Commerce dinners seven times, one Chamber of Commerce banquet; running contour lines for farmers (the government paid farmers 50 cents per acre for plowing on contour lines), butchering hogs and doctoring cows, since there was no vet in Parmer County.

Mrs. Gee remembers, "It was so nice to have a salary increase. Then she adds, "Our having received vouchers instead of checks when Bovina Schools finances failed in the depression days, is funny now."

When asked about some of her early Friona students, she replied, "I remember vividly how Edith Moseley (now Mrs. Herschel Johnson) looked the first time I saw her and what an outstanding student she was."

Three children were born to the couple. They were Linda, Karen (deceased) and Tom. Linda is a 1958 graduate of Friona High School and holds a bachelor's degree from West Texas State University, Canyon. She is married to Owen Houston, also a graduate of Friona High School and West Texas State.

The Houstons, who live in Lubbock, have two children: Robin, a graduate of Coronado High School, has completed three years at Texas Tech, during which time she was employed by Methodist Hospital, and is currently attending the Nursing School of the University of Texas at Austin. Jay is a senior at Cooper High School.

Linda has been teaching second grade at Hardwick Elementary School in Lubbock, after teaching two years in Amarillo and one in Morton. Owen taught Industrial Arts several years before becoming associated with Homestead Realty.

Tom was a member of Friona High School's 1963 graduating class. He attended Texas Tech University and Amarillo's Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing. He also attended Ashford Medical Center, San Juan, Puerto Rico, and is now an anesthesiologist at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco, California.

J.T. and Lilah Gaye have been busy with church and community activities since their arrival here. They're members of Friona United Methodist Church, where they have taught classes and supported projects of the church.

He's a member of Friona Evening Lions Club and has served as president; belongs to the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture and holds membership in the Texas State Teacher's Association and National Retired Teacher's Association.

She's a member of Texas Tech Mortar Board Alumni Association, an officer in Texas Pen Women, and an active member of Parmer County Community Hospital Auxiliary. She's also a former member of Modern Study Club.

Mr. Gee taught agriculture here twenty-four years before resigning to accept the job of elementary principal. He held this position seventeen years before retiring in 1976.

Friona's FFA Chapter became outstanding during the years J.T. Gee taught agriculture. The banners and trophies won by his students made an impressive display.

He said, "Friona's teams won the right to compete at the state level seven times while I was with them. Competing with 24 of the best teams in the state, they won first three times, second place twice, third once and fifth once."

When asked about some of his first students, he recalled, "Frank Lillard, Buck Dixon, Bruce Parr and Clyde Sherri-b were some of the early day stand-outs. I also taught sons of Bruce and Clyde. Then, as principal, I was associated with two of Bruce's granddaughters."

The Gees have always enjoyed travelling and since his retirement, they have taken several nice trips. In addition to their extensive travels in the United States, they've been to Germany, Holland, France, Switzerland, England, Hawaii, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, Canada, Greece and several other small countries in the Far East.

Their contribution to the civic and educational accomplishments of Friona during the past 46 years has been marked by inscriptions on plaques awarded to Lilah Gaye as Woman of the Year in 1971 and J.T. as Man of the Year in 1976.

These inscriptions read, "For unselfish service to the community."

GEES ENJOY WORKING TOGETHER....When Lilah Gaye and J.T. Gee are at home, they're likely to be cooperating on one project or another. Both of them are interested in antiques. Many times they purchase old pieces which are in a bad state of disrepair and work together making them useful and beautiful. The brick in the fireplace in their living room was originally used in the "Old Red Brick" school, which was torn down a few years ago to make room for a more modern building. Items on the mantel reflect their love of collecting old things.

Friona State Bank To Feature Photo Exhibit

A traveling exhibit of 34 photographs taken by W.D. Smithers depicting more than 30 years of the rugged western frontier of Texas will be on display at Friona State Bank during Maize Days September 14-18.

In 1910, at the age of 15, Smithers vowed to record all the special events he witnessed in his life. Setting up shop in San Antonio and then moving to Alpine, Texas, Smithers took thousands of shots of the harsh Big Bend terrain--Texas' most distant frontier--and its determined settlers.

The exhibit includes pictures of Will Rogers, cattle drives, Mexican curanderos (healers), and one of Smithers photographing a rattlesnake at extremely close range. Also, there is an exciting series of five photos which reveal an authentic ambush by U.S. Border Patrol officials on liquor smugglers crossing the Rio Grande from Mexico.

Smithers' adventurous career included riding with a pack mule train during a stint with the U.S. Army in Big Bend. He photographed the U.S.-Mexican border from Brownsville to the Pacific for the border patrol, and also participated in several cattle drives during the 1930s.

As a teenager he photo-documented the birth of military aviation at San Antonio and its subsequent employment in Gen. John J. Pershing's campaign against Pancho Villa. The exhibit includes a photograph of "the Army's first aeroplane" at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Since 1974, Smithers has lived quietly in El Paso, writing about the events to which he bore eye witness.

The traveling photo exhibit was secured through The Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio. The photos are on loan to the Institute from the W.D. Smithers collection at the Humanities Research Center of The University of Texas at Austin. The center owns more than 12,000 of Smithers' pictures, along with 1,207 pages of typed manuscript he has written since 1976 about his adventures as a photographer in west Texas.

Hazel Weir Is Longtime Parmer County Resident

By JUNE FLOYD

One year after Friona was established, Hazel Butcher moved to Farwell with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Butcher. She was born June 15, 1902, at Woodward, Oklahoma. She attended Farwell schools and was graduated from high school in 1920. At that time Texas schools had only eleven grades.

The following year she was married to Scott Weir and they moved into a school house, which had been abandoned, five or six miles north of Friona.

Scott was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Weir, who lived on the Old Ewing Homestead, which was later purchased by the late Ford Welch and his wife, Lucy, who presently lives at Prairie Acres.

When the Weir family moved from Kentucky to Parmer County, Scott rode on the freight train. The family's household furnishings were in one side of the box car and their livestock was in the other end.

Scott later returned to Kentucky for awhile. Then worked at Cincinnati, Ohio, before returning to Friona and enlisting in the United States Army near the close of World War I in the early fall of 1918. He was stationed at Camp Mabry, which is near Austin, and took pneumonia before the War's end.

Soon after he returned to Friona, he and Hazel were married and he rented the farm on which the abandoned school house was located. The first year the couple raised pinto beans.

Hazel recalls, "Scott went to Mountain Air, New Mexico and bought a mechanical bean harvester, but we had to thresh the beans by tromping them out on a wagon sheet and winnowing them by hand."

She went on to say, "We then sacked them in 100 pound gunny sacks and sold them to T.J. Crawford, who operated Crawford's General Store, and he retailed them."

Mrs. Weir also remembers that the second year they farmed they planted maize and pinto beans, but didn't harvest anything.

She reported, "It rained so much in the fall that the maize rotted in the field and the beans sprouted on the vines."

The couple then moved to Friona and opened a cafe in a building on the west side of Main Street on the vacant lot between Allen's Jewelry and Shara Lookingbill's Beauty Shop. This building was the original home of Friona's First Baptist Church.

For the next eighteen years Scott and Hazel operated the Pioneer Cafe in this building, which later housed Scott's Second Hand Furniture Store. The back part of the building later burned and the front part was sold to Pedro Haas, who moved it to a location on Ashland and converted it into a residence.

In 1947 and 1948 Hazel was employed by Herman Dorsey, who owned the drug store at the corner of Seventh and Main. When the store was sold to Wright Williams and the late O.J. Beene, Hazel went to work at the post office. For the next seven years she was employed as substitute clerk and carrier on the rural routes.

Later she was employed as Plains Hardware's sales lady. For about ten years, she courteously and smilingly served the store's customers in whatever capacity she was needed. Since her retirement in 1964, Hazel has been a full time homemaker.

Scott was ill about sixteen years before his death in 1976.

Hazel and Scott moved to the present Weir home at 204 East Eleventh in 1945. At that time, the right-of-way for Highway 60 wasn't as wide as it is now and there were no other buildings in the locality.

"Everything has changed since then," Hazel remarked.

The Weirs had two children. Both of them grew up here. Their son, Sam lived at Seminole many years and died soon after his Dad's death.

Their daughter, Eunice, graduated from Friona High School. She is married to Babe Jeffers and they have lived in Aurora, Colorado, many years.

A long time member of Friona's United Congregational Church, Hazel is active in different phases of church work as well as being a member of the Women's Fellowship organization.

Hazel Weir

"We used to call it Ladies Aid," she remembered.

Then added, "It seems that nothing is the same any more."

When asked about her hobbies, Hazel replied, "Well, I really don't have any. I used to do a lot of things, but any more it seems that time passes too fast."

However, even a casual observer would notice that she grows a lot of flowers, tends her yard, makes centerpieces from natural materials, and makes a lot of pictures.

She has done a lot of travelling and loves being outdoors. She's an avid picture taker and always comes home with enough scenery pictures to fill several pages in her album.

Also, she crochets some, takes a part in activities of the Friona Senior Citizen's organization and enjoys playing "88."

Her only sister, Mabel Huber, lives in Texico, New Mexico.

Hazel says, "I'm not a native of Parmer County, but I've sure been here a long long time."

She's one of the few people around who annually seek out the beauty spots of the town in the winter, spring, summer and fall and makes pictures of them so that she can enjoy the different seasons of the year in her own arm chair.

Pat Fallwell Spends Fifty Years In Friona

By JUNE FLOYD

One of Friona's busiest Senior Citizens lives in a modest home at 613 Pierce. She has lived here more than fifty years and spends most of her time and energy helping local relatives and friends with one project or another.

Her goal for many years has been to make the world a better place in which to live by beginning in her own home and going from there. Somewhere down the line she must have adopted the motto: "A better world begins with me."

Sarah Pipkin was born in Hale County, Texas, near Abernathy, where she grew up. She was the fourth of nine children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Pipkin, pioneer residents of southern Hale County.

She attended high school at Abernathy and Canyon before enrolling in the prep school there. While a prep school student, she met her future husband and acquired the nick name, "Pat," which she has been known by ever since. In fact, if a stranger came to Friona and made inquiry about "Sarah Fallwell," most anyone would refer them to Buddy and Frances Fallwell, whose oldest daughter was named for her grandmother.

W.E. (Fat) Fallwell was born at Mangum, Oklahoma and moved to Castro County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Fallwell, in 1903.

Later the Fallwells traded their Castro County farm for a wagon yard and ice house in Hereford. Then, in 1929, the W.C. Fallwell family moved to Friona.

Pat and Fat were married February 18, 1925 and made their first home on a farm near Bellview, New Mexico. Later they moved to Hereford and from there to Friona in 1930.

Seven children were born to the Fallwells. They were Buddy, Beulah Ruth, Joe, Glenn, LaNora, Jimmie Sue and Tommie Lou. All of them except the two older sons are graduates of Friona High School.

During World War II Buddy

volunteered for duty in the United States Armed Forces, and Beulah Ruth was married to Jeff Booker before she finished high school. She later completed requirements for high school graduation in Oklahoma, so that she could qualify for a Civil Service examination.

The Bookers farmed near Headrick, Oklahoma, many years and their three children grew up there. Beulah Ruth was employed by the post office there a long time and more recently was appointed postmaster at Cash, Oklahoma, where she and Jeff now live.

When Fat died in 1945, five of the children were still in school.

For the first few years Pat drove a school bus and sewed for the public in addition to sewing for her family during the school term. Then in the summer she worked at Hicks Tailor Shop. Joe and Glenn both worked and LaNora, Jimmie Sue and Tommie Lou spent their summer vacation visiting in the Booker home in Oklahoma.

In the early nineteen fifties Pat went to work for Welch-Blackburn Hardware, where she was employed for the next nine years. At that time the store was sold to Mrs. C.L. Vestal Sr. and Loyde Brewer and the name was changed to Vestal-Brewer Hardware and Furniture. Pat continued to work for Loyde, who operated the store, about three years.

During these years the children grew up, graduated from high school and were married. LaNora attended San Jacinto School of Beauty in Amarillo then returned to Friona and purchased Charm Beauty Shop from Anna Jo Blackburn. The shop was located where Taylor's Barber Shop is now.

Following her marriage to O.T. McElroy of Tulia, she sold the shop to her mother, who had decided to take a beautician's course to enable her to operate it.

While Pat was attending San Jacinto Beauty School in Amarillo, she leased the shop to different operators. Then upon completion of her course, she returned to Friona, moved the shop into a new building just north of her residence and opened it for business.

From early spring of 1958 until April of this year Pat operated the shop at this location, while continuing to live next door. She offered much more to her customers than hair care. Many of them were older women who didn't drive. Pat was never too busy to go after them or to take them home if necessary.

She is a long time member of Friona United Methodist Church and a charter member of the local Rebekah Lodge, in which she has held every office and is currently serving as treasurer and deputy; and a charter member of Friona Senior Citizens Friendship House, Inc.

She's also a part of the Green Thumb program and is genuinely interested in the welfare of others. As director of Friendship House, she puts in hours upon hours informing older people about various programs and going far beyond the call of duty to assist anyone who is in need.

Four of her children, Buddy, Joe, Jimmie Sue Gibson and Tommie Lou Boeckman, have lived in Friona most of their lives and have raised their families here.

One of the daughters recently remarked, "Mother keeps so busy all the time that we almost have to make an appointment to visit with her."

One son, Glenn, who has retired from the United States Air Force, and his family live in Tucson, Arizona. LaNora died a few years ago.

Pat is very proud of her family, which includes thirty grandchildren and twenty-six great grandchildren.

Her hobbies are painting and all kinds of handwork, but she can put all of these aside long enough to lend a helping hand if a need arises.

Fryes Prove That Once A Farmer-Always A Farmer

By JUNE FLOYD

Since March of 1965 an attractively furnished three bedroom brick house at 1210 Maple has been home to Douglas and Georgia Frye. They moved from the Hub Community, where they had farmed for several years.

Georgia Tarter was born near St. Louis, Oklahoma and was the eighth of the ten children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Tarter, long time residents of the Lazbuddie Community. She is a 1942 graduate of Lazbuddie High School.

Douglas was the second of six children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chris Frye. He was born at Forrestburg, Texas, which is in Montague County. His first West Texas home was in Wheeler County, where his mother died when he was young.

Later his father and the children lived in Portales and Elida, New Mexico, before moving to the Lazbuddie Community.

Georgia and Douglas were married in Clovis May 19, 1944 and their first home was in the Lazbuddie Community, where Douglas was employed on a farm.

Later he accepted a job as a road maintenance man for Parmer County. After six or seven years on this job, he started farming for himself--first in the Lazbuddie Community and then in the Hub Community.

The Fryes have four children: Betsy Ann, Lynn, Charles and Cheryl, who are graduates of Friona High School.

Betsy Ann and her husband, Tom Stanfield, and son, Scott, live in Portales, New Mexico. Tom farms and Betsy Ann is head of the Department of Human Resources for Roosevelt County.

Lynn and her husband, Arnold Dailey, and two children, Jennifer and Jeffery, live at 811 Arrah. Arnold farms and Lynn is a full time homemaker.

Georgia and Douglas Frye

Charles also farms. He and his wife, the former Rita Underdown, and their three children, Sharon, Kevin and Melissa, live at 1205 West Eighth.

The youngest of the Frye clan, Cheryl, is married to John Franke of Slaton, where they and their son, Kyle, live. John is employed by Lubbock Nut and Bolt in Lubbock and Sheryl works for DeKalb in Slaton.

Since Doug's retirement a few years ago, the Fryes spend much of their time travelling. They enjoy fishing and spend several months each winter on the South Texas Coast. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, travelling and playing dominoes.

Georgia's hobbies are sewing, gardening, freezing, canning and enjoying her grandchildren. She also enjoys going places with her husband.

They have a recreation vehicle and have made long trips in several directions in it. Georgia especially enjoyed a trip to Alaska and Mount Rushmore in South Dakota. She also enjoys the time they spend in the Rio Grande Valley.

Even though Doug doesn't farm anymore, he enjoys going to the farm to see how the crops are doing and hasn't lost his enthusiasm for growing crops.

These two exemplify the adage "Once a farmer-always a farmer," even though they have been living in town more than sixteen years.

Twenty-Four Girls Have Reigned As Maize Queens

By JUNE FLOYD

Friona's first Maize Queen, Betty Agee Wetsel of Midland, Texas, will be emceeing this year's pageant. She and her husband, Eldon, and two daughters, Kellie, who is 16, and Stacie, 13, will be visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Reeta Agee.

Following her graduation from Friona High School, Betty attended Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, where she was a music major.

At the present time Betty has a piano studio in her home.

The second Maize Queen was Celia Berry of Bovina. Later the Berry family moved to Canyon and information about Celia's present whereabouts is incomplete.

She lives in Lubbock and her name is McFadden.

Following her high school graduation, Darla Bingham, the third Maize Queen, attended Cliff Mann School of Floral Design before her marriage to Robert (Beanie) Ivy of the Lazbuddie Community.

At the present time he farms and is manager of Lazbuddie Grain Company. They live nearby.

The Ivys have three children. The oldest daughter, Barbie, is married to Dale Simpson. They also live in the Lazbuddie Community. Two younger daughters, Lori, a junior at Lazbuddie High School, and Stacie, who is a freshman, and one son, Drey, who is ten months, still live at home.

Joy Ingram, the fourth queen, was married to Robert H. Osborn, who died in January of 1978.

This couple had four sons, Robert, Mark, Matt and Ben. Except for a few years, during which time the Osborn family lived in Amarillo, they have made their home here.

The family home is at 1309 Columbia. Robert and Mark are seniors in Friona High School; Matt is a freshman and Ben is in the fifth grade.

Following her graduation from Friona High School in 1963, Kay Bursleson, the fifth queen, attended Texas Tech University.

In 1965 she was named "Miss Lubbock," and was a contestant in the "Miss Texas" pageant the same year.

She and Don Cash were married February 20, 1966. At the present time they live in Salt Lake City, Utah. They have one son, Clay, who is eight.

Don is president of Mountain Fuel. Kay is a full time mother and homemaker.

Janet Buckley was the sixth queen. She and her husband, Dr. Jobey Claborn, have two sons, Jackie, who is seven, and Jason, four. They live in Glendale, Arizona.

During the time Dr Claborn was attending college and medical school, Janet did secretarial and office work.

Since he has established a medical practice in Phoenix, she has been a full time mother and homemaker.

Sheryl Long was the seventh queen. She attended Texas Tech following her graduation from high school in 1965. She and Jim Snead, also a 1965 graduate of Friona High School, were married in 1966 and attended Texas Tech University before moving to Clovis, New Mexico, where Jim established a construction firm.

At the present time the Sneads live in Red River, New Mexico. They have two children, Layle, nine, and Clint, five.

Sandra Beene, who is now Mrs. Ron Awtrey, was the eighth queen. She graduated from Friona High School in 1966 and from Texas Tech University, where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in education, in 1970.

She taught in Bovina and Friona a few years. At the present time, she and Ron and their two sons, Marc, who is nine, and Matthew, three, live at 1506 Jackson.

Ron operates A. Awtrey Enterprises, which is an alcohol manufacturing plant southwest of town.

Susan Neill, the ninth queen, is presently living in Big Sandy, Texas, where her husband, Gene Baker, is employed.

She attended West Texas State University one year and Texas Tech two years and is now doing secretarial and bookkeeping for a Tyler, Texas firm.

Reeve Chevrolet Employs Fourth Generation Of Family

By JUNE FLOYD
When Reeve Chevrolet first opened for business in Friona, it was located on West Fifth Street, where Conny Dodson now has his body shop. This was in 1938 and the owners were the late F.W. Reeve and one of his sons, Glenn E. These two had done some trading with the late G.B. (Pete) Buske, who was the former Chevrolet dealer.

The next year the firm moved into a 40 x 60 building on the east side of Main Street between Fifth and Sixth Streets. In the beginning the two owners were assisted by three employees. Reeve Chevrolet gradually grew until it was necessary to add onto the building and J.H. O'Rear, who was married to the former Esther Reeve, joined forces with his father-in-law and brother-in-law.

During World War II automobile production was at a standstill as the factories were converted to making things necessary to carry on the fight. For awhile the two owners had only one part time mechanic to help keep vehicles in operation. At this time most men did their own automobile, pick-up and truck repair, so there really wasn't a lot for a dealership service department to do.

items was a refrigerator which could be sold for $2 down and $2 per month. At that time refrigerators were the only appliances made by Frigidaire."

Allo Sparkman Reeve, to whom Glenn was married in 1935, joined forces with the company in 1951 and served in the capacity of head bookkeeper for the next twenty-five years. She grew up in Childress, graduated from Panhandle High School and attended Amarillo Business College before enrolling at West Texas State University, Canyon, where she met Glenn.

He was born in Parmer County, where he grew up. Following his graduation from Friona High School, he enrolled at West Texas State.

This couple have four sons who were born here. All of them attended local schools, graduated from Friona High School and were later associated with the family business. At the time Glenn Evan, Don, Joe and Max were growing up, the Reeve family also had farming interests and the boys learned to do farm work.

Following his high school graduation and one year at West Texas State University, Glenn Evan returned to Reeve Chevrolet as sales manager, a position he has held since 1955.

Don attended West Texas State following his high school graduation. Then he taught a few years before returning to Friona and becoming a part of Reeve Chevrolet. Later he and his father-in-law, Raymond Fleming, bought the Chevrolet dealership at Dimmitt and operated Fleming-Reeve Chevrolet for several years before selling it last year.

In the fall of 1961 Joe became a full time employee of the local dealership and is still a part of it. More recently his sons, Joe Kyle and Mitchell, have been employees of the firm. These two make the fourth generation of Reeves to be involved in the operation of Reeve Chevrolet-Olds.

Allo's sons, has not been actively engaged in the business since his graduation from Friona High School. At the present time he lives in Duncanville, Texas, and is an employee of the pharmaceutical division of Johnson and Johnson.

Hadley Reeve died in 1957. His wife, Fay, and two of their children, Floyd and Sharon Reeve White, still live here. Their youngest son, David, lives in Houston and Carol, the youngest of their children, lives in Lubbock.

At one time Reeve Chevrolet was also the agency for the Allis-Chalmers line of farm equipment, which was later sold to Bill Hannold, who operated Galloway Implement Company.

F.W. Reeve died in 1963 and six years later the Oldsmobile line was added to the firm and the name was changed to Reeve Chevrolet-Olds. Then, in 1975 the combined dealership moved to its present location on the north side of Highway 60 southwest of town.

At the present time the firm employs fourteen persons, including two more Reeves. Glenn Evan's wife, Carolin, and Joe's wife, Wanda, take care of the bookkeeping department.

The Reeve family and other members of the dealership staff strive to honestly, cheerfully and efficiently provide the service necessary to live up to the company's slogan, "Your transportation counselor since 1938."

Ministerially Speaking

By REV. RONALD MCGOVERN

St. Bernard writes that when Jesus was teaching His disciples and urged them to share in His passion by the mystery of eating His body, some said "This is a hard saying" and they no longer followed Him. When he asked his apostles whether they too wished to go away they said, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

Today it is clear that the words spoken by Jesus are spirit and life, and so we follow Him. To others these words are too difficult and so look elsewhere for consolation. So, He calls upon sinners to return to their true spirit and rebukes them when they go astray.

The prophet says: "If today you hear His voice harden not your hearts" In the gospel we read almost the exact words: "My sheep hear my voice." Therefore, let all of our dealings be in the heart, here Christ lives.

These words are culled from a letter of St. Bernard.

Retired Teacher Is Recognized For Service

By JUNE FLOYD

Mrs. Wana Brewer, 714 Washington, recently received a copy of a resolution from the Senate of The State Of Texas-67th Legislature, first called session, recognizing her outstanding contribution to the field of education by her thirty-five year teaching career.

A native of the Cedar Community in Grayson County, Texas, Mrs. Brewer is the daughter of the late Cecil Lee and Sarah Lucy Vestal. She was born December 14, 1913 in the same house in which her father was born.

Wana grew up in Grayson County and joined a Methodist Church, for which her grandfather had given the land, when one of her uncles, Rev. Tom Lovell, was the pastor.

The first school Wana attended was at Tom Bean, Texas. Later the Vestal family moved to Altus, Oklahoma, for a brief period. Then, they moved back to Grayson County before moving to a Parmer County farm in 1929.

A 1932 graduate of Friona High School, Wana took a post-graduate course the following year and centered her interests on learning home economics and bookkeeping.

She entered West Texas State University, Canyon, in the fall of 1934 and attended two years before she began her teaching career.

She taught two years in the Rhea Community, three in the Lakeview Community and another one in the Rhea Community School before receiving her degree from West Texas State. At Rhea she taught the fourth, fifth and sixth grades the first time then the fifth, sixth and seventh the second time. At that time Texas only had seven grades in grade school.

At Lakeview she taught grades one through four. In her first class of first graders Sam Mears and Billy Joe Mercer stand out most vividly in her memory. Then, in the following class C.H. Veazey left a standing impression on his teacher.

On December 22, 1945 Wana was married to Loyde Arthur Brewer, a native of Vici, Oklahoma, who had come to Friona to make his home with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Art Brewer, in 1928.

Loyde, a 1933 graduate of Friona High School, served as Parmer County Clerk from 1946 to 1954 and as Parmer County Judge from 1958 until 1967.

The Brewers have two sons, Byron and Galen. They are both graduates of Friona High School. At the present time Byron lives in Fort Worth and Galen and his wife live in Austin.

Loyde, Wana and the boys lived in Farwell several years then moved back to Friona in 1954. The following year Wana had a private kindergarten in her home. Then, in 1956 she started teaching third grade in the public school system. She continued to teach third grade until her retirement this spring.

Reading, sewing, collecting bells and trying new recipes are Mrs. Brewer's hobbies.

Many of the decorations in her home are gifts and mementoes from her teaching days. Students and friends have given her bells, figurines, and other interesting knick knacks, which she displays attractively.

She enjoys antique dishes, furniture and other collectibles. Her dining room furniture was bought by her parents in the early days of their marriage. Some of her antiques were originally owned by her parents and grandparents.

She was a member of Modern Study Club many years, but in more recent years has limited her activities to those of Friona Methodist Church, Delta Kappa Gamma and the Parmer County Historical Society.

She has spent much of her time this summer working on the Parmer County history book, which is in the process of being published at the present time.

In concluding the interview with this long time teacher, who was dedicated to her profession, her family and the community, she said, "This citation came as a complete surprise, but I feel very honored to have received it."

Another honor which came to her in 1979 was being named by the

WANA BREWER

Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture as Teacher of the Year.

As an extended part of her family, Mrs. Brewer has adopted Erin Kelley, who lives at Girl's Ranch near Whiteface, Texas.

Incidentally, Mrs. Brewer taught third grade for Marilyn McDonald, whose husband was hospitalized in Amarillo, the first week of the current school term.

JENIFER DAWN BUCHANAN is being sponsored by Production Credit Association in the Little Miss Contest. She is the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.Y. Buchanan.

Struves Successful In Securing Patent

By JUNE FLOYD

If the volume of sales of Sideswipe continues to grow as rapidly as it has during the past two years, the agricultural field should be well covered with "The ultimate tool in rubbing out weeds," as this product of a local inventor has been advertised.

In the first year of operation, this manufacturing concern, which has been located at 421 Euclid since its beginning in 1979, 450 Sideswipes were marketed. Then, in 1980 total sales added up to 5500.

The projected goal for this year is 10,000 and at the end of August Steve and Seva Struve, president and vice-president of the company, feel this is a realistic goal.

The Sideswipe is a wipe on herbicide applicator which Steve invented and has recently received a registered trade mark for. Following his retirement from farming, Struve sold tractor mounted herbicide applicators, which worked on the rope wick theory.

He was dissatisfied with the lack of control of these devices, so began working on an idea for a better method of controlling weeds in fields, gardens, flower beds and truck patches. The first model, which was very crude, was constructed entirely of plastic parts and paint roller, which was covered with polyester nap material.

This device, which he named Sideswipe, was designed so that an operator would be in full control of applying the herbicide to weeds he wanted to destroy. It can also be used to destroy Rogues in seed production.

The Sideswipe weighs 1 1/2 pounds with one quart capacity reservoir and 40 square inch wiping area pad. It can cover 1800 square feet of broadcast vegetation with one filling.

The Struves recently moved the Sideswipe sales office and factory to the McFarland Building at the corner of Seventh and Euclid, which was most recently occupied by Mademoiselle Salon.

Sideswipes have been shipped from Friona to each of the 48 continental United States as well as to Hawaii and Alaska. Far away places to which they have been shipped include Japan, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Singapore, The Phillipine Islands, Argentina, Australia, Costa Rico, Guatemala, Ecuador, South Africa, Columbia, France, England and Belgium. They have also been shipped to our neighboring countries, Canada and Mexico.

Steve grew up in Olton, where he graduated from high school, then attended Draughn Business College, Lubbock, before moving to Abernathy, where he was employed by Struve Mercantile & Cold Storage Co. While working there he and Seva were married.

She grew up here and graduated from Friona High School. She attended West Texas State University, Canyon, from which she holds a bachelor of arts degree with an English major, before their marriage.

Their first home was in Abernathy. A few years later they moved their house to Levelland, where Steve assumed management of a cheese factory.

Following the death of Seva's father, the late Ford Welch, the couple moved to the Welch family's original Parmer County home northeast of Friona.

The couple's three daughters, Kay, Carol and Shelia, grew up in Parmer County and graduated from Friona

High School.

In 1959 the Struves moved to their present home at 1215 White Avenue.

At the present time Kay and her husband, Connie Ray, also a Friona High School graduate, farm in the Oklahoma Lane Community between Bovina and Farwell. They have two daughters, Dee Anne and Robin.

Carol and her husband, Richard Nicholson, and their two children, Shane and Nicole live at Shreveport, Louisiana.

Shelia is married to Gary Carson of Bovina, where they and their son, Jared, make their home.

The Struves are members of Sixth Street Church of Christ.

Regardless of the future of Sideswipe, this unique tool will surely "put Friona on the map" over a large part of the world.

PATENT SECURED....Seva and Steve Struve, owners of the Sideswipe Company, are making a dual announcement this week. One is the securing of a patent on their product, which is now being sold across the country and even in foreign markets. The other news is an open house at the company's new location, 119 West Sixth Street.

1981 Traffic Statistics Released

In the first six months of 1981, there were 217,897 traffic tickets written, and in those instances, there were 850 persons who died and 65,484 persons injured, according to DPS statistical services report released recently.

In accidents involving a motor vehicle in traffic, there was a 2 per cent increase in the number of accidents which occurred from this time last year to the present time.

In motor vehicles accidents to date there have been 157,382 accidents in which 902 persons lost their lives, and for the same period last year, there were 156,320 accidents with 886 persons dead.

In towns the size of Bovina 39,269 accidents were reported and out of those accidents 1014 were fatal. Small towns had the second largest number of accidents, next to towns with populations over 250,000.

Most accidents happened on a Friday at 5 p.m. on clear days during daylight hours. And, in most cases, no defects were reported wrong with the vehicles which were involved.

Most accidents involved a Texas driver, with normal eyesight, who was between the ages of 25 and 34 and was a male.

And, the largest number of accidents involving a vehicle occurred on city streets, 107,014.

For the current time period, there were 218,945 accidents in Texas, as opposed to 210,972 last year at this time, which indicates a 6 per cent increase of accidents this year over that of last year.

On US and State routes, there were 63,379 accidents in the past six months, on Farm-to-Market roads there were 16,138 accidents during the past six months, and on county roads there were 8901 accidents the past six months.

Field Day Re-Set Sept. 16

Rain forced the postponement of the 72nd annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) in Lubbock. Planned for Tuesday, September 8, the tours and presentations at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center north of Lubbock International Airport have been rescheduled for Wednesday, September 16.

However, the High Plains Research Foundation met as scheduled at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, September 8 at the TAMU Research and Extension Center.

"We regret that weather and field conditions necessitate this change to September 16," said Dr. Bill Ott, TAES resident director of research at the center. He said the program will remain the same at the rescheduled event. Tours will be conducted from 1-5 p.m. Stops will feature research on grapes, bollworm control, the cotton development program, weed control and drought tolerance.
