B. L. BOYDSTUN,

PUTNAM POINTERS.

Feb. 12.—A prosperous city like ours should be represented in the leading West Texas Weekly, and as Happy Jack is keeping silent; I am tempted to give you a few pointers.

Our thriving city has been growing nicely since its incorporation nearly one year ago. The R. R. Co. has lately made extensive improvements on its property here, in the way of new tank, section house, etc., and the mineral well still pours forth its health giving waters. Our late lamented bath house is now in "innocuous desuetude", but we hope to see it come alive this summer.

Our city authorities are causing every able bodied man who is eligible to work five days on the streets and alleys of this city, and each cur dog within the city limits now holds a receipt for $1.00 signed by the proper authorities. So you see we are not burdened by taxation.

The snow last week was of great value to the farmers and with the assistance of Prickly Pears and Live Oak spiked with cottonseed and meal our stockmen pulled through without loss.

The public school is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. and Mrs. Duke and Miss Stephens. Say, what about a special tax that would give a longer term; say a ten months school? Eh!

There is considerable sickness in and around town, but none dangerously sick that we have heard of.

Olis Williams, who has been sick for five months, is reported much better and we hope to see him out soon.

T. A. Jackson has secured the contract to carry the mail from Cottonwood to Putnam for the next four years, beginning July 1, 1902. He will probably move his family to Cottonwood.

Dr. Brittain, L. N. Simmons, L. J. Cook, Joe Shackelford and Coke Cauthen went to Baird Tuesday night to see "Uncle Josh." They "seed" him.

Attorney B. W. Patterson, Dr. A. Owen and Mr. Horn, of Cisco were here Wednesday on business; same being a civil case in Chief Justice Jackson's court.

A. M. Sprawls, of Seranton, came in Tuesday and hit the road for Baird, returning Wednesday morning.

T. A. Irvin and J. W. Woods were in the city Wednesday, viewing the political scenery.

M. R. Surles is spending a few days this week "down on the farm" and is trying to catch up with his hunting.

Bud Tucker, night operator at this place, visited his parents at Strawn last Sunday.

J. H. Davis, of Eula, was in the city Sunday to see his father, who has been quite sick for several days.

Uncle Tom Norrell was in town Monday, and as usual, had something interesting to tell the boys.

Charlie Smith, from near Cottonwood, moved in Monday and is now occupying the J. C. Walker residence in South Putnam.

C. T. Hutcheson went to Baird Tuesday on business with the Commissioners Court.

J. C. Walker received a letter Wednesday from his son D. C. Walker of Troop H. 12th Cavalry. Dec has recently been promoted to Sergeant, and has a host of friends here who will be glad to hear of his promotion.

J. J. Sigler returned from San Antonio last Friday, where he had been attending the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

Joe Shackelford, a prominent candidate for Public Weigher at this place, after viewing with alarm the enormous expense incurred by candidates in setting up the "war eagles" to their friends, has placed an order for 1000 cob pipes and 100 sacks of Big Bale and will use same to further his interests in the coming campaign. All rights reserved.

Some of the boys took in "Green Mountain" Sunday evening.

Say Mr. Editor, if this escapes the waste basket, don't feed it to the goat, it might injure him, and we will come again. "RUSTY RUBE"

Feb. 19.—The waste basket doubtless got our last week's "Pointers", but as farmers are accustomed to disappointments, so try again.

That this is indeed an age of progress, no one can deny. Abundant evidence of this is shown by the fact that Squire Jackson, whom we mentioned last week, as having made a covenant with "Sam" whereby Mr. J. was to carry the mail between this place and Kottonwood for a term of four years, is now negotiating for an automobile to be used for this purpose and for carrying passengers also.

There is still considerable sickness in and around town. Some fatal.

Mr. B. F. Coomer, who resided four miles south of town, died Sunday evening, after a long and painful illness, and was buried at Seranton Monday.

Mrs. Foster, who lived four miles north of Putnam, died Monday night and was buried here Tuesday.

The four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Martin died Saturday night and was buried here Sunday.

W. T. Wheeler is up after a severe attack of lagrippe.

Olis Williams is still improving.

Mrs. Journeay, who has been visiting the family of J. A. Heyser, left Sunday morning for her home at Austin.

J. C. Walker went to Dallas Sunday to appear before Judge Meeks court as a witness in the case of J. J. Hendrix vs the T. & P. Ry Co. He returned Tuesday.

Y. A. Orr and wife are visiting in Eastland.

Mr. Xenia Barnes, of Marshall, returned home last night after spending a few days with his brother John, who has been quite sick for some time. John is much better and will likely be up town soon.

J. S. Rogers, of Baird, was in the city Sunday.

C. T. Hutcheson was in Baird Monday on business with the court.

J. H. Surles is taking in Cisco today.

The Political pot has not reached the boiling point yet and we are short on candidates.

Dr. Parkhurst, of New York, is of the opinion that sinners will not even be allowed the privilege of being punished after death.

Baird Star: Chile and Argentina seem determined to fight. Well, let 'em fight.

Does this proceed from an indifference to bloodshed among our scrappy neighbors south of us, or does it proceed from the fact that there are mules for sale in THE STAR's neighborhood?

Neither. THE STAR did not believe there would be much of a scrap, but these continued snarls among our neighbors to the south of us is enough to make one tired.

Just suppose Capt. Coghlan, the rollicking Irishman, should take it into his head to sing "Hoeh De Keiser" at the banquet to be given in honor of Prince Henry, of Germany.

CHRISTIANITY AND INFIDELITY.

Every now and then some orthodox minister discovers that the miracles attributed to the Man of Nazareth are contrary to reason, and he makes the announcement as if it were a new revelation in physics or logic.

The controversy between Christianity and infidelity is as old as the religion itself, and there is not any objection made by Prof. Pearson that has not been made a million times before.

ing press. It is the same old struggle. But Christianity goes on increasingly. It survived Roman persecution and the intolerance of its own zealots.

And really this is the greatest miracle of them all—this and the character and the teachings of Jesus. The materialists deceive themselves by imagining they understand nature, and then they rebel because they can't understand Christ.

The point is there is nothing new in the Pearson hearsay. It is the same old cry of the spiritually blind—or, rather, of the spiritually one-eyed—who look upon a few miracles of healing and see not the greater miracle of the character, the teaching, and the influence of him in whom Pilate found no fault.

WASHINGTON

By WALTON WILLIAMS

COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY HAMILTON MUSK

WHEN regal despots would impose a galling yoke upon our sires, They fought for right and home as those alone can do whom freedom fires.

DEEP dyed was many a battlefield with patriot's blood, and hieing bands, Were taught that free men never yield, that sharp are swords borne in their hands.

FROM Lexington to Yorktown, led by Washington, they onward went, Through changing fortune fought and bled till home the vanquished foe was sent.

GREAT chieftain who our fathers led through scenes of death to freedom's goal, The world with honors crown thy head, attests thy nobleness of soul!

HEROIC men have been whose fame was dimmed by cruelty or crime, But our pure hero's honored name untainted shall be through future time.

WHILE love of liberty inspires the patriot's heart, or there is one Who'd emulate our freeman sires, thy fame is sure, great Washington!

NUTS and CIDER

A Story of General Washington

By Aaron Mason.

It was a little farmhouse on a hill, an ordinary farmhouse. There was just an ordinary well some ten yards from the door.

a moment later the three ordinary men from without joined the three ordinary men within.

"Men," said the man at the table, "there are nuts and cider. Help yourselves." With that he turned to the window again and continued assorting and apparently correcting the papers before him.

The three men from without seated themselves. They said no word, but attacked the nuts and cider more as men obeying orders than as if to satisfy any desire for meat and drink. The room became quite silent but for the occasional cracking of nuts and the rustling of papers at the windows—so silent, indeed, that the soft flow of the cider into the cut glass tumblers could at intervals be heard.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission will hold examinations at several places in each state during March and April, to secure young men and women for the government service. 9,889 persons secured positions last year through these examinations. Probably 10,000 appointments will be made this year. All appointments are for life, and for most positions only a common school education is required. Salaries at appointment vary from $650 to $1200 a year with liberal promotions afterwards. Politics is not considered. There is less competition in the southern states than in other parts of the country. This affords a good opportunity for people between 16 and 45 years of age. Those desiring places of this kind can get full information about them, free, by writing to the Columbian Correspondence College, Washington, D. C. and asking for its Civil Service catalogue, number three.

The Last Heard Of It.

My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house, says F. D. Reynolds, Marsfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable? One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure, very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. Sold by Powell & Powell Baird, Texas.

Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup—Camden (S. C.) Messenger. For sale by R. Phillips, Baird, Y. A. Orr, Putnam.
