Green Bugs Infest Area Wheat Fields

Field tests in search of a positive poisoning solution or dust to meet a green bug invasion of threatening proportions are being carried in Floyd county this week. Effort is to light on a potion that will whip the bugs and still be within the bounds of reason as to cost.

The invasion of the green bug came to light several days ago in some fields of the west and north parts of the county. County Agent Robt. H. Gibson has been active in aiding wheat men with infested fields in the search for an active agency that will give the needed result and stay within a reasonable cost. This mid-week he had not reported too much success. Concentrations so far tried that will be strong enough to make successful kills will make the cost too great he fears.

Both ground equipment and planes have been used in the experiments. Flynn Thagard, west of Floydada, S. J. Letta in the north part of the county, and Joe Taylor, of Lockney, are among the

Gold Star Girl Enjoys Week at Youth Camp

Marlene Hollums of the Harmony community returned Sunday night from a week's stay in Athens, Texas, where she attended a recreation laboratory. This laboratory was sponsored by the Extension service, churches, Farm Bureau and other organizations interested in recreation for the youth of the state. The meeting was held at a church youth camp.

Marlene is very enthusiastic about the recreation laboratory. She said there was something doing very minute from the time they ate breakfast at 7:00 each morning until the campfire services in the evening. Games and songs were first in the program each day, with a discussion period following. Murry Fox of WFAA, Dallas; Miss Avis Kers, women's editor of the Progressive Farmer and an editor of one of the Tyler newspapers were among the discussion leaders.

Craft work was done after lunch each day. Metal work, leather work, appetry, rope, and small crafts were done. Creative dramatics, singing classes, and square dances finished off the afternoon. After supper a party was held. These were mainly relations, Latin Americans, Colonial, Indian, Plantation, and Western Day. Costumes made the parties more fun. The Camp Fire assembly closed the day.

Marlene was one of the 70 people from all over Texas who attended the recreation laboratory, and the only 4-H Club girl from District 2. She made the trip with Miss Eleanor Ferguson, assistant Home Demonstration agent from Hale County. Others attending from District 2 were Edd McLeroy, Hale county assistant agricultural agent, and Mrs. McLeroy, James Lindsey, 4-H boy of Plainview, and Mr. Bolding of the Hale County Farm Bureau.

Revenue Man To Be Here Tuesday

Burl Bedford, deputy Internal Revenue collector for this area, will be in Floydada on Tuesday of next week, March 7, to aid any who want to set up in making their income tax returns. This date will be the only visit of the revenue collector to Floydada before the end of the income tax-paying period. Bedford is a former city secretary of Floydada. He was reared here and knows many of the taxpayers personally.

appears to be around Dougherty, where some good fields are showing up with a reasonable amount of moisture underground. In the immediate vicinity of Floydada and to the west as well as to the north some fields are beginning to show signs of a losing battle against the pests.

Teams Will Go To FFA Contest On March 18

Floydada chapter of the Future Farmers of America will be represented by two quiz teams in a state contest, when the state's eligible boys gather at Huntsville, Texas, at Sam Houston college, for the state finals.

The quiz teams which won the senior and junior honors will be accompanied by their sponsor, H. G. Barber, to the East Texas city for the finals. The senior team, which recently won first in the district and second in the area is composed of Hubert Ring, Albert Whitfill and Teddy Assiter.

The junior team of Floydada chapter won second in the district and second in Area XI, and thus gained eligibility to the state contest. Governor Will Be There For the first time in history the governor of the State of Texas will honor FFA by attending the state contest. The Future farmer boys are recognizing Governor Shivers' attendance by naming him the guest of honor for the day. Governor Shivers will address the general assembly of Sam Houston college on Saturday, March 18, during the leadership contest.

Aggie's Banquet Fathers Saturday night's banquet given by the boys of the Future Farmer chapter of Floydada High school for their fathers, was attended by well over 100 persons. The meal was served at the high school cafeteria by the cafeteria management. The young men of the chapter used funds they had obtained by working out as a class to provide the excellent feed to honor their fathers.

Superintendent I. T. Graves was the featured speaker of the evening. Douglas Whitfill presided at the banquet and gave his aggie public speaking contest speech for the gathering.

Stansell, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Badgett, and Mrs. Eula Thurmon of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stansell of Cedar, and Mrs. Charlie Probasco of Tulla. The deceased was a grand daughter of W. E. Meador now of Phoenix, Arizona, and a daughter of the late Sam Beard of Floydada.

Monday Dollar Day

Monday, March 6, is Dollar day again in Floydada. On that date numerous local merchandisers indicate they are going to demonstrate that the dollar has not lost its old-time power, at least that it is making a fight to come back. Numerous dollar day ideas are included in the week's run of merchandising appeals in this issue of the Hesperian. Most likely you'll find something worthwhile in some or all of these announcements.

1949 Cotton Crop Figures Above 70,000

Floyd county produced the greatest cotton crop in its history in 1949, announces Robert H. Gibson. A total of 70,759 bales were ginned during the 1949 season. This is almost twice as much cotton as the next highest production which was 42,801 bales in 1926.

Most of the gins in Floyd county have completed the ginning season, cleaned up the yards and do not intend to start up again until the 1950 cotton season begins, Gibson said.

The 1949 figures do not exactly correspond with BAE figures released a few weeks ago, however the 70,759 bale figure was obtained by direct contact with the ginners and is over 99% correct, states Gibson. It is believed that this is an accurate estimation of the 1949 production because it is believed that as much or more cotton grown in the county was ginned elsewhere than was brought into the county.

Mrs. Ferguson Was Oldest Member of Nazarene Church

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Ferguson, 79, whose funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at the Church of the Nazarene, is being mourned by her children and members of the church as the oldest member of the congregation until her death on Saturday morning of last week.

Mrs. Ferguson died at her home, Rev. C. C. Calhoun, pastor of the church, together with Rev. J. E. Young, pastor of the Fundamental Baptist church, and Rev. R. E. Boyles, of Petersburg, officiated at the funeral service.

Five grandsons, A. W. Billy and L. C. Ferguson, Coyt Thompson, Shorty Kirk, and one great grandson, Johnny Duncan, were pallbearers. Interment was made in Floydada cemetery.

Mrs. Ferguson was born in Union, Arkansas, on March 5, 1870. She was married to W. B. Ferguson in 1894. The couple moved to Wichita county, Texas, from Arkansas with their family in 1914, thence to Abernathy in 1924, and to Floydada in 1936. They have made their home here since that year. Mrs. Ferguson had been ill for some eighteen months.

Mrs. Ferguson became a member of the Church of the Nazarene at Abernathy in 1927 and at the time of her home-going she was the oldest member of the Floydada congregation of the church.

Survivors include her husband, W. B. Ferguson, four sons, Rev. John Ferguson of Brownfield, Texas, pastor of the Nazarene church there, H. E. Ferguson, L. C. Ferguson and R. T. Ferguson, all of Floydada, 21 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. One daughter, Mrs. Dora Thompson, preceded Mrs. Ferguson in death in 1946.

Pretty New Home For M. E. Pastor

Pretty new home for the pastor and family of the First Methodist church has been completed at a cost estimated at $12,000 at 127 West Kentucky street.

The new home, of brick and tile walls, takes the place of the parsonage which has been the domicile of the ministers of the church for several years. Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Huckabee moved into the new residence last midweek, indicated by the pastor as "the most comfortable house I have ever lived in."

"This wonderful parsonage will doubtless meet all home needs for our pastors for many years to come," said Rev. Huckabee in commenting on its appointments and the wonderful manner in which the members of congregation have vied to make it a pleasantly livable home for the pastor and his family. "The marvel seems to be how we could have so much for the money we have spent," adds the minister in praise of many individual and class efforts to hold down costs to the church and to make the home one of great pleasure and joy to its successive occupants, Rev. and Mrs. Huckabee being the first in line.

Aiken - Providence Road Bid Letting

Letting for the construction of the 10.614 miles of highway northward from Aiken to Providence, thence westward nearly two and a half miles to the Hale county line, is set up for March 14, it was announced this week by James F. Potts, resident engineer of the State Highway department. The new road will be known as FM No. 788, and is officially described as from US Highway 70 north and west to Providence and the Hale county line.

It is the first of the several undertakings in the district for highway construction in the year of 1950.

Make Temporary Quarters Ready for County Officers

Within a few days officials of Floyd county will begin deserting the bastion-like first floor offices of Floyd county's fire-gutted court house walls to take up official places in the temporary quarters being provided for them by the commissioners court.

The minute the officials get themselves and their records out of the way Dolph & company, a Dallas construction firm, will rope off the court house property and begin the business of re-doing the court house into a modern $300,000 structure.

Dolph & company were awarded a contract for this work on February 15 when the court met in special session and also considered nine general construction bids as well as several electrical, plumbing, heating and air conditioning bids. You'll Get Used To It: In a frame structure 25 feet by 100 feet at the southeast corner of the square, adjoining the court house grounds, will be housed the county judge, the sheriff, the justice of the Peace of Precinct 1 and 4. The federal housing administrator, the State Welfare officer, the tax assessor-collector and the county superintendent. This temporary structure is now being built.

Crowded into present quarters with the Production Marketing administration, the Extension Service workers and the District Soil conservation personnel will be the county treasurer, the county clerk, the district judge and the district clerk, all in the agricultural building.

For use of the officials who are responsible for the safe-keeping of the public records a vault 20 feet by 35 feet at the rear of the agricultural building is being constructed. The outside finish of this building will be similar architecturally to the present building. It is being veneered with brick over an inside wall of volcanic ash blocks. Safety depository for the tax assessor-collector's records will be the safe from the second floor of the old court house formerly used by the district clerk. This safe and the contents of this second floor room were undamaged in the March 11, 1949, fire, that cost more than $100,000.

SCS PRAISES CROWELL

In a statement praising Robt. H. Crowell this week officials of Floyd County Soil Conservation district announced their intention to put the secretary-manager of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce forward for honors as the business and professional man of the community who has rendered the greatest service to soil conservation. Their statement in full says: Robert H. Crowell, manager of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Floyd County Board of Development since May of 1948, has proved to be a valuable professional man to the cause of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. In his business connection he is associated with many professional men and farmers and it is quite common for him to do missionary work for the conservation program as he goes about other duties. Due to his experience with Soil Conservation Service he is capable of advising and giving technical assistance. Aids Field Day Plans Mr. Crowell did a big part of the planning and contact work to make the annual field day sponsored by the District a success. He met with the Jaycees, explaining the window display contest, which resulted in their organization offering cash prizes to the FFA students and 4-H (See Valuable Man, back page)

Band Concert at Auditorium Here Tonight

With some pride in the progress which the organization has made this year, band director Myron W. Kattner is presenting Floydada public school band in a concert tonight at the high school auditorium. The hour is 8 o'clock.

The band has been pointing for the event for some weeks and Tuesday night did a dress rehearsal. John Phillip Sousa's spirited Washington Post march opens the program of the evening and will be followed by Kom. Sasser Tod, Johann Sebastian Bach's grave and moving choral melody. "Horizon," musical description of the imaginary sunrise meeting of heaven and earth, follows. This is a Peter Buys original composition. F. J. St. Clair's stirring march, "Steel King," is the fourth in the series. A cornet duet "Aurora," featuring Everett Powell and Keith Stansell, will give variety as an interlude in the massed band numbers. Joy Bunch will be accompanist.

George Gershwin Melodies Follows Queen City march and George Gershwin's The Little Rhapsody in Blue, then Sigmund Romberg's Desert Song. Again recognizing the impact of Gershwin's genius on present-day trends in music several of his popular numbers are programmed. These include Strike Up the Band; 'S Wonderful; Bidin' My Time; Liza; Of Thee I Sing; Embraceable You, and I Got Rhythm.

After Indiana State Band march will come the finale, "Bandjive" to close the evening's session. Admission of 50 cents and 25 cents will be charged and funds thus obtained will be used to further the efforts of the band.

Caliche Pit Drowning Case Back From Higher Court to be Tried

The case of the "caliche pit" drowning of the little Copeland boy has been returned to Floyd County District court from the 7th District Supreme Judicial court at Amarillo for trial on its merits.

In this suit the parents of H. A. Copeland, Jr., are seeking to recover damages from the estate of W. M. Massee, for the drowning of their 14-year-old son in the summer of 1948. The youth was drowned when he failed to make a crossing of the caliche pit in southwest Floydada. The caliche pit was created when the city in the mid-thirties prevailed on Colonel Massee to let them have caliche from a block of his land in southwest Floydada to use on street improvement during the progress of the WPA works program. Several thousand yards of caliche were taken from the ground and the resulting pit made a cavity in the earth that accommodated 6 to 15 feet of water over an area of an acre or more. For swimming hole purposes of the adventurous youth of the community it was an ideal spot.

In the preliminaries in district court here last year District Judge Alton B. Chapman on a point of law held that the plaintiff Copeland family had not established a cause for suit. The appeals court in a 15-page opinion reversed the judgment and remanded it for trial in the court here. Only points of law have been covered to date in the suit. It is yet to be tried on its merits. Kenneth Bain is local counsel for the Massee estate. Stapleton and Jones are the lawyers for the Copeland couple. Fifteen thousand dollars damages is the amount sought in the petition.

WAYLAND INTERNATIONAL CHOIR TO APPEAR AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HERE MARCH 10

The colorfully-dressed International choir of Wayland college, Plainview, will sing here at 7:30 on March 10, in the First Baptist church under the sponsorship of Chapel Choir.

Under the direction of Shelby Collier, the choir will present the first part of the program in full dress of tuxedos and evening dresses. It will fulfill its name during the second part of the program with all the members wearing costumes of different nations.

Many of the costumes have been furnished by missionaries and others who know them to be authentic. George Lambert, a Latvian who also lived in Russia and who is formerly of Wayland, made the Latvian and Russian costumes. Director Collier, who taught music in the University of Guadalajara, Mexico, last summer had the Mexican costumes made there.

The choir was organized as a part of the college's international program. With the assistance of students from other nations the choir is studying music from many lands including Italy, Germany, Latvia, France, Hawaii, Japan, China and Mexico.

Two African costumes worn by choir members were loaned to the choir by the former secretary to the Foreign Mission Board, Dr. Charles Madrey. The chiefs robe and the ladies dress was presented to Dr. Madrey during a tour of Nigeria in 1938, by the Baptists of Ogbomosho. This was one way of expressing their appreciation to Southern Baptists for the mission work which they have carried on there for almost a hundred years. The chief's robe is a very large heavy garment with an abundance of hand embroidery.

"No more at Evening" one of the songs on the choir program was translated by a former teacher of Collier, Ivan Dneprov. As far as is known, no other translation exists. The Latvian Prayer song was brought back from Russian prison camps where it was composed and sung first by the Lamberts. It is a

Campaign On For Red Cross

Plans for conducting the annual Red Cross fund drive March 1 to 31 are fairly well organized on the second day of the campaign, Edward Wester, chairman, announced this week.

Solicitors have been urged to complete the campaign within two weeks if possible. Division chairmen to serve throughout the county were named by Mr. Wester last week.

"All May Help" is the slogan for the campaign. Mr. Wester believes that if everyone will remember the slogan and act accordingly it will be an easy matter to soon raise the county's quota of $2,200.

The 1950 goal is slightly higher than last year. This is attributed to a deficit in the reserve fund; expanding of the national blood program; increased service to servicemen and their families; and no change in the buying power of the American dollar.

County Census Information Is Not Available

Name of the crew leader who will direct census takers in Floyd county in the 17th census beginning April 1, promised to be announced today was not available at the Hesperian office this morning.

L. D. Whiteley, district supervisor, spent Wednesday, February 15, here for the avowed purpose of interviewing prospective crew leaders and said at the time that the crew leader would be named today and that he would assume his duties, in advance preparation for the census, beginning March 7.

MRS. LOVELL RECOVERING

Mrs. W. A. Lovell is in Lubbock Memorial hospital this week recovering from a major operation performed Friday of last week. Mr. Lovell said Monday that his wife is doing fine and expects to be able to return home this week-end if no unforeseen complications set in.

No Money in Sight For Borger-to-Post Route at this Time

Three members of the Floyd County Commissioners court and County Judge G. C. Tubbs were in the plains delegation which spent last mid-week in Austin to urge before the State Highway commission the construction of the leg in the north and south highway from Panhandle to Post.

Representatives from Armstrong, Briscoe, Floyd and Crosby counties, as well as a group from Amarillo, were told that the job they are asking the highway commission to do is a big one financially speaking and that the money is not in sight.

An array of statistical facts, showing the need for the completion of the highway was presented to the commission, which invited the delegation to return at a later date. Congestion on the Amarillo highway and the tremendous cost to south plains firms of hauling from the refineries of the north plains to south plains points were featured principally in these representations to the commission.

Commissioner Fred N. Clark, of Precinct No. 1 was the only member of the Floyd County Commissioners court who did not make the trip. Clark was ill at his home. He has recovered sufficiently to be out and on the job this mid-week.

Floyd county produced the greatest cotton crop in its history in 1949, announced Robert H. Gibson. A total of 70,759 bales were ginned during the 1949 season. This is almost twice as much cotton as the next highest production which was 42,801 bales in 1926.

Most of the gins in Floyd county have completed the ginning season, cleaned up the yards and do not intend to start up again until the 1950 cotton season begins, Gibson said.

Pretty New Home For M. E. Pastor

Pretty new home for the pastor and family of the First Methodist church has been completed at a cost estimated at $12,000 at 127 West Kentucky street.

The new home, of brick and tile walls, takes the place of the parsonage which has been the domicile of the ministers of the church for several years.

Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Huckabee moved into the new residence last midweek, indicated by the pastor as "the most comfortable home I have ever lived in."

Caliche Pit Drowning Case Back From Higher Court to be Tried

The case of the "caliche pit" drowning of the little Copeland boy has been returned to Floyd County District court from the 7th District Supreme Judicial court at Amarillo for trial on its merits.

In this suit the parents of H. A. Copeland, jr., are seeking to recover damages from the estate of W. M. Massie, for the drowning of their 14-year-old son in the summer of 1948. The youth was drowned when he fell into a crossing of the caliche pit in southwest Floydada. The caliche pit was created when the city in the mid-thirties prevailed on Colonel Massie to let them have caliche from a block of his land in southwest Floydada to use on street improvement during the progress of the WPA works program. Several thousand yards of caliche were taken from the ground and the resulting pit made a cavity

In a statement praising Robt. H. Crowell this week officials of Floyd County Soil Conservation district announced their intention to put the secretary-manager of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce forward for honors as the business and professional man of the community who has rendered the greatest service to soil conservation.

Robert H. Crowell, manager of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Floyd County Board of Development since May of 1948, has proved to be a valuable professional man to the cause of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. In his business connection he is associated with many professional men and farmers and it is quite common for him to do missionary work for the conservation program as he goes about other duties. Due to his experience with Soil Conservation Service he is capable of advising and giving technical assistance.

Aids Field Day Plans Mr. Crowell did a big part of the planning and contact work to make the annual field day sponsored by the District a success. He met with the Jaycees, explaining the window display contest, which resulted in their organization offering cash prizes to the FFA students and 4-H (See Valuable Man, back page)

Wayland International Choir to Appear at First Baptist Church Here March 10

The colorfully-dressed International choir of Wayland college, Plainview, will sing here at 7:30 on March 10, in the First Baptist church under the sponsorship of Chapel Choir.

Under the direction of Shelby Collier, the choir will present the first part of the program in full dress of tuxedos and evening dresses. It will fulfill its name during the second part of the program with all the members wearing costumes of different nations.

Many of the costumes have been furnished by missionaries and others who know them to be authentic. George Lambert, a Latvian who also lived in Russia and who is formerly of Wayland, made the Latvian and Russian costumes. Director Collier, who taught music in the University of Guadalajara, Mexico, last summer had the Mexican costumes made there.

The choir was organized as a part of the college's international program. With the assistance of students from other nations the choir is studying music from many lands including Italy, Germany, Latvia, France, Hawaii, Japan, China and Mexico.

Two African costumes worn by choir members were loaned to the choir by the former secretary to the Foreign Mission Board, Dr. Charles Madrey. The chiefs robe and the ladies dress was presented to Dr. Madrey during a tour of Nigeria in 1938, by the Baptists of Ogbomosho. This was one way of expressing their appreciation to Southern Baptists for the mission work which they have carried on there for almost a hundred years. The chief's robe is a very large heavy garment with an abundance of hand embroidery. "No more at Evening" one of the songs on the choir program was translated by a former teacher of Collier, Ivan Dneprov. As far as is known, no other translation exists. "The Latvian Prayer" song was brought back from Russian prison camps where it was composed and sung first by the Lamberts. It is a prayer for peace and was written by K. Inks, a Baptist minister.

Four foreign students are in the Choir and eight states are represented by the American singers. Wayland now boasts 27 "Students of the Nations" who come from seven countries; Latvia, Brazil, Mexico, Japan, China, Hawaii, and the Philippine Islands.

Other costumes have been added lately making the costumes valued at approximately $2,000.

Several thousand yards of caliche were taken from the ground and the resulting pit made a cavity in the earth that accommodated 6 to 15 feet of water over an area of an acre or more. For swimming hole purposes of the adventurous youth of the community it was an ideal spot.

In the preliminaries in district court here last year District Judge Alton B. Chapman on a point of law held that the plaintiff Copeland family had not established a cause for suit. The appeals court in a 15-page opinion reversed the judgment and remanded it for trial in the court here. Only points of law have been covered today in the suit. It is yet to be tried on its merits.

Kenneth Bain is local counsel for the Massie estate. Stapleton and Jones are the lawyers for the Copeland couple. Fifteen thousand dollars damages is the amount sought in the petition.

Plans for conducting the annual Red Cross fund drive March 1 to 31 are fairly well organized on this the second day of the campaign, Edward Wester, chairman, announced this week.

Solicitors have been urged to complete the campaign within two weeks if possible. Division chairmen to serve throughout the county were named by Mr. Wester last week.

"All May Help" is the slogan for the campaign. Mr. Wester believes that if everyone will remember the slogan and act accordingly it will be an easy matter to soon raise the county's quota of $2,200.

The 1950 goal is slightly higher than last year. This is attributed to a deficit in the reserve fund; expanding of the national blood program; increased service to servicemen and their families; and no change in the buying power of the American dollar.

MRS. LOVELL RECOVERING Mrs. W. A. Lovell is in Lubbock Memorial hospital this week recovering from a major operation performed Friday of last week. Mr. Lovell said Monday that his wife is doing fine and expects to be able to return home this week-end if no unforeseen complications set in.

No Money in Sight For Borger-to-Post Route at this Time

Three members of the Floyd County Commissioners court and County Judge G. C. Tubbs were in the plains delegation which spent last mid-week in Austin to urge before the State Highway commission the construction of the leg in the north and south highway from Panhandle to Post.

Representatives from Armstrong, Briscoe, Floyd and Crosby counties, as well as a group from Amarillo, were told that the job they are asking the highway commission to do is a big one financially speaking and that the money is not in sight.

An array of statistical facts, showing the need for the completion of the commission which invited the delegation to return at a later date. Congestion on the Amarillo highway and the tremendous cost to south plains firms of hauling from the refineries of the north plains to south plains points were featured principally in these representations to the commission.

Commissioner Fred N. Clark, of Precinct No. 1 was the only member of the Floyd County Commissioners court who did not make the trip. Clark was ill at his home. He has recovered sufficiently to be out and on the job this mid-week.

EDITORIALS

First heel flies of 1950 came to our attention on Saturday, February 25, earliest in many a year. Mayhap a really cold spell sometime soon will put the crop out of business before they multiply. Cattlemen and farmers are of a mind that their battle this year may be against insects of all and sundry kinds, assuming some good rainfall during April. Dry weather is a good preventative of bugs and insects that eat up the crops, if you like that kind of a preventative. As to heel flies they hatched out where the ground was moist and the warm sun shone down. The steer you saw with his tail histed and running, as you may have thought, because he felt good, wasn't. He was trying to get away from those cussed heel flies. If he happened to lie down with his legs folded under him while you were looking on you may be sure that was it.

How to combat greenbugs may be the question this spring on many farms. Also in the wheat are these red lions. A red lion is not as big as the king of the forest but he certainly is king when he gets in a wheat field with all his little brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and mammas and papas. He has a face just like a lion. You have to look intently and accustom your eyes to the hue but after you see them, do you see them!

Census in this year of our Lord 1950 may be more kindly to Floydada and other towns of the plains and lower panhandle than in years gone by. In 1940 Floydada and Lockney were certainly licked by a combination of circumstances so far as making a showing in the census book was concerned. The same was true in 1930. The depression they had beginning that year in the big cities and on the Exchange had been developing in the plains country for 10 years. It had a lot of good to excellent business people hanging on the ropes when 1930 came and there was already a lot of hunger and lack of clothing among the people who live by their hands while they were still "making money" buying and selling U. S. Steel common in the cities.

Thrill or quail at this prospect forecast this month in pointed statement by one of Dun & Bradstreet's principals: "We are now entering a period of competition the like of which we have never before seen in our country. Managements with the greatest ingenuity, keenness, and foresight will survive, and those which lack the competitive instinct, the will to work, and the ability to create a hard, tight-functioning organization will be the first to succumb." Those who think of the war years as the "good old days" will be worried by this "change in the times."

We have bred in America a new species. This strain will take over within the period of the next ten years, indeed are already beginning to take over. The best one-word description of these youngsters is "securocrats." This species you will not be able to distinguish from his forebears except that he will be bigger, healthier, and can well expect to live longer. There are observers, however, who take a dim view of this fellow. Sounder in bodily characteristics, personally as brave as his forebears, he has a demonstrated pronounced weakness of spirit, as judged by the standards long accepted under prior conditions. Does he lack intestinal fortitude? Is he seeking to modify the environment to suit his nature? Here is the charge against the youngsters who, we hazard, may read this thing: You have a preference to play it safe; you are an ideal citizen of the new 'welfare state'; you are safety-conditioned from birth; to you the safest and best place to land is on work for the government on a guaranteed job; no risk-taking or shoe-string tries at long-shot goals for you; Horatio Alger stuff leaves you cold. You are willing to let somebody else take the responsibility for things; to you securocrats citizenship means 'the government owes me.' When election time comes you listen for the biggest promise; you wait for some group conveniently to do your thinking for you. Also you are great for slogans and initials, the latter for ease of reference so you won't have to think up your own answers. And furthermore, you have an inferiority complex about the common man. The old-timers apply the term with healthy connotation, but to the youngsters 'common man' is strictly a lower case term. These maturing characteristics which some see also include a desire to have 'ceilings' on any kind of uncommon initiative and 'floors' under any consequences of your shortcomings. These are things which one unusually sound executive in high place declares. Interesting whether his conclusions are true or false.

Garden planting and tree setting out can wait awhile and no harm done, if you are beginning to worry about whether to get out the four-row outfit and plow your wife's half acre garden. Possibly some pruning of trees and vines would not hurt if you have the urge. But don't be too busy planting anything but onions. Get them in the ground by all means and quickly. The varieties that are most luscious and taste so good in the early spring will stand a lot of the blustery kind of cold.

Man is the merriest of the creatures; all above or below him are serious. —Addison

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Items taken from the files of the Floyd County Hesperian, March 5, 1936.)

Noel Troutman, Floyd county farmer, is critically ill in a Lubbock sanitarium this week. Mr. Troutman became ill Thursday of last week. He has a ruptured appendix. Quick thinking on the part of W. R. Daniel, young Blanco farmer, Monday saved his tractor from burning. Daniel was burned painfully but not critically.

One of the many youngsters who will journey to the spring baseball training grounds this spring is Donald Thomas. He will spend the training season in the camp of the Fort Worth Cats.

Funeral services for Thomas Leander Brown, 71, were held Sunday afternoon at the family home in the Blanco community by Rev. G. W. Tubbs. Interment was made in Floydada cemetery.

More blanks for old age assistance were received in Floydada this week, it was announced by County Judge Tom W. Deen.

A. D. Cummings, superintendent, was chosen to head the school system of Floydada Monday night at the regular session of the board of trustees.

Fred Battey, W. H. Nelson, Herman King and D. F. Bredthauer are in Memphis, Tennessee, today where they are attending a national farm group meeting.

THOSE WE SERVE
AND THEIR NEEDS

When one of our patrons speaks of getting good service from this bank, what does he mean? He means that our officers took the time necessary to give him as nearly as possible the type of banking co-operation he needed. That sounds simple enough. It is simple. But we could not do our best if we did not feel that we are daily performing a really helpful service for those who come to this bank.

18-Year-Olds Are Neglecting To Register

In an early-February statement local Board No. 45 of the Selective Service system declares it has come to the board's attention that "quite a few 18 year old men have not registered within the time limit specified for registration."

The board points out in the statement that it is just as important and the penalty is just as great for this offense as it has ever been. In view of the fact the statement adds:

"This Board urges every man becoming 18 years of age to register in his birthday or five days thereafter."

Registrants in Floyd county, born in January, 1932 who registered with the board during January are listed by the Board as follows:

Floydada: Don Mark Shurbet, Route 4, Morgan Reese Grubbs, 312 West Crockett street, and Leonard Walter Wilson, Route 3;

Property Owners Rush Insurance Men; Want Long Term Policies

The pot which began to simmer last summer amongst property owners who needed fire insurance renewals, began to boil furiously in late February as the usual date, March 1 for rate changes neared.

Insurance agents of the community had their busiest month in years as they took orders for long term renewals from many customers. Although no official announcement of increase in premium costs locally had been made by the state Fire Insurance commission, local business circles definitely anticipate that such will be made in routine manner soon. The fire insurance commission is the state agency charged with applying the rules governing fire insurance coverage. Loss by fire of the county court house last March 11 cost insuring companies upward of $100,000.

In addition to saving effected on three or five-year term policies over one year coverage policies, property owners are taking the longer period policies evidently in the hope that a good record for the next few years will see the penalty period through and make renewals at less cost when their policies expire.

In view of the fact that each community is made to carry its own losses, based on relation of losses to premium income possibility is that this may not work out. One property owner this week reasoned that the penalty is not likely to increase and it may get lighter.

Meanwhile, after the February splurge it appears that fire insurance agents may as well make their plans to spend March fishing or getting the ground ready for a spring garden.

MSgt. T. T. Austin in operation Portrex

M/Sgt. Truett T. Austin is receiving amphibious training at the naval amphibious base, Little Creek, Va., in preparation for operation Portrex, joint air-sea-ground maneuver to be held in the Caribbean in late February and early March.

Portrex is planned to test new amphibious and airborne techniques and equipment, to accumulate knowledge and data concerning the principles governing a joint operation, and to indoctrinate army, navy, air force and marine personnel in joint training of all services for increased efficiency of the armed forces as a fighting team.

The Third Infantry division, Fort Benning, Ga., is playing a major role in portrex—that of an amphibious assault force. The third, commanded by Maj. Gen. P. W. Clarkson, is well fitted to take this part, having participated in four major invasions during World War II—Africa, Italy, Sicily and France.

Climax of the operation will be a combined assault on the island of Vieques, which lies about six miles off the coast of Puerto Rico. Vieques will be defended by an "Aggressor" force, one of the latest wrinkles in adding realism to maneuvers.

M/Sgt. Austin, a member of Co. B 73rd Hv. Tk. Bn. 3rd Inf Div., Ft. Benning Ga., is the son of Mrs. E. C. Austin, Floydada, Texas.

His wife is Ruth Elizabeth Austin who resides at 608 28th Ave. Col. Ga.

Public Service is service for safety. Safety for your home, your children, your community. Public Service means every member of our organization practicing safety at work, preaching safety in their homes and communities, teaching safety in our schools and other groups.

Public Service means safe electric service. Dependable electric service. The best electric service. The kind of service your home and community deserve. Do you have it?

PINT-SIZED SHADOW

Many a farmer has a pint-sized shadow that tags him all over the farm. . . shrilly repeats his pet words. . . dresses like a tiny twin. Like most little boys, he can't wait to grow up. The thing he wants most in the world is to be a farmer just like his dad.

Old-fashioned farming, with its never ending toil, often shattered this childhood dream—sent the boy off to the city to seek his fortune. Today, it's easier to keep him on the farm. Better crops and improved farming practices have boosted yields and profits. Modern John Deere equipment has taken over much of the muscle work, and chopped hours from the old dawn-to-dusk work day.

No wonder more and more farm boys are staying with the land—realizing a childhood ambition to follow in their fathers' footsteps. This is a good sign. These young farmers will hasten the fuller mechanization of our agriculture, pioneer new farming practices, and bolster vital food production.

Yes, labor-saving farm equipment is helping to raise our most valuable crop—young Americans who love the land. In such hands the future of our agriculture, and of America, will be secure.

An appearance of height on top is desirable for the girl with a square face. In this hair-do, short locks on top form a high, softly waved bang. BOYCE HOUSE "GIVES YOU TEXAS"

The man on the street is a bit distrustful of college professors as being on the impractical side. And the man on the street isn't far wrong. For example:

The dean of an Oklahoma University is writing a book about words and expressions used by the people of the Southwest, according to the papers, and in explaining the expression, "squirrel whiskey", he says maybe it's called that because it makes people act nutty.

Anybody ought to be able to figure out a simpler explanation and a more logical one than that. (If the dean was joking, that was "unscholarly" and such antics are liable to put him in bad standing with the Professional Ph. D's).

Squirrel whiskey makes the imbiber frisky, like a squirrel. If the dean would go down and mingle with the boys at the barbershop, he would hear the story about the Swede who said he wanted to buy some liquor. "Do you want some squirrel whiskey?" he was asked.

Ole replied, "No, give me some toad-frog whisky; I don't want to climb; I yooost bame vant to yump around a little."

There is no charge to the dean for setting him right on this.

But I still think he ought to

stick to some subject like the amount of starch that Sir Walter Raleigh used in those ruffed collars.

Dallas folks like to Josh Fort Worth citizens about the stockyards and they tell the story of two men on a train. One said, "We are approaching Fort Worth" and the other said, "Yes—I just got wind of it."

Also that when, a few years ago, there was a strike and the stockyards closed down, fliers had to use their instruments in finding Fort Worth; ordinarily, they just used their sense of smell.

Every now and then, you hear someone say, "Some of our biggest men came from small towns." Yes—and some of the ablest men stay there because they prefer the neighborliness of a small town to the rush and roar of a city.

CAT HELPS GUARD BORDER

A customs inspector at Zapata, Texas, cooperating with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in halting the smuggling of fresh meat from Mexico because of the presence there of foot-and-mouth disease, has introduced a new version of the old "cat and mouse" game.

Tourists returning from Mexico sometimes can't resist the temptation of trying to smuggle in restricted fresh meat or rare game. Harvey Cunningham, whose job it is to inspect incoming cars from Mexico, has a pet cat called "Solomon" with a strong appetite for fresh meat.

Cunningham allows "Solomon", the black tom, to do a bit of exploring in vehicles suspected of carrying meat that is contraband because of the danger of bringing foot-and-mouth infection north of the border.

While Opportunity Knocks!

A CAT RANCH is now being organized with 1000,000 cats. Each cat will average 12 kittens a year. The cat skins will sell at 30c each. One hundred men can skin 5,000 cats a day. We figure a daily profit of over

$10,000

WHAT SHALL WE FEED THE CATS?

We will establish a rat ranch next door with a million rats. The rats will breed twelve times faster than the cats. So, we'll have four rats to feed each day to each cat. Now, what shall we feed the rats? We will feed the rats the carcasses of the cats after they have been skinned.

NOW GET THIS!

We feed the rats to the cats and the cats to the rats, and we get the cat skins for nothing!

Shares of stock in this great ranch are selling rapidly, and the prices will soon skyrocket!

JUST A CAT TALE And SKIN GAME

(Within the next six months or year you'll be offered opportunities like the above by well-versed "salesmen" who will be doing you a favor to let you in on the ground floor. There are sound offers also to be offered, which will stand analysis. If you have money to invest, do not be a sucker for Cat Tales and Skin Games. See if what you are offered can be analyzed in terms of common sense. —THE HESPERIAN.)

Time to Plant Hubam Clover, Says Cogdill

The time to plant Hubam clover is almost here. "This clover adds nitrogen, organic matter and is a good chisel for the soil," according to Ralph R. Cogdill, Work Unit Conservationist.

Hubam is an annual sweet clover that is used as a soil improving crop as well as a seed crop. It can be planted in growing wheat, barley or oats and on clean land. Several cooperators in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District are planning to plant an acreage—mostly in growing wheat. These farmers will irrigate their wheat and as soon as the land is dry, clover will be sown broadcast at the rate of 8 to 12 pounds per acre. The seed should be inoculated with the proper inoculant before planting for best results.

The clover will not grow very much until the small grain crop is harvested. Soon after harvest the crop should be irrigated if the ground is dry. The plant will reach its maximum growth late in July or early August. It can be plowed under as a green manure crop, grazed off or left to mature a seed crop. If a seed crop is desired, seed should be used to get increased seed yield. The seed crop can be harvested and the land returned to wheat.

SEVENTH GRADE 4-H CLUB

The seventh grade girl's 4-H club met February 14, with the president Juanice Shearer calling the meeting to order. As the secretary Sarah Sue Colvard called the roll each girl told what she needed for her bedroom. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Petty who gave an interesting demonstration on bedroom accessories.

The meeting adjourned after singing several songs, led by Catherine Bolding.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Tate Jones and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Glassmeyer returned recently from Don Martin, Old Mexico, where they had been the past week fishing. Biggest catch of the trip was a four pounder made by Mrs. Walker.

Two Music Students Are Medal Winners

Mrs. Pearl Pagan received notification last week that two of her pupils won medals in a musical recording competition recently held in Melotone studios of New York City.

Donald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith, won first place rating and received a gold medal with engraved rating. Joyce Myrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Myrick, was given an engraved medal of honorable mention.

Both students made their recordings in Lubbock in November, but due to the large number of entries, were not notified of the results until February.

A Bach and Chopin contest was sponsored by Iri Allison, president of the National Guild of piano teachers for pupils over the United States and foreign countries. Mr. Allison received over 400 records in response to his widespread contest.

Prizes were given in all classifications including artist, collegiate, preparatory and intermediate classes. Donald and Miss Myrick won in the intermediate division.

All students rating "Superior" (from 95% to 100) were given first place medals and those rating excellent were given honorable mention medals.

Six other students in their division received money prizes. Donald entered for his contest numbers Bach Two Part Invention No. 8 and 14 and a Bach Prelude. Miss Myrick entered Bach Two Part Invention and a Bach Prelude. Both students are now taking preparatory work.

Health and Farm Talks at Union

The Farmers Union meeting at Sand Hill last week was well attended. Mrs. G. L. Martin administrative superintendent of Peoples hospital, pointed out that people should use more precaution against diseases with vaccinations that are known to be good. She also pointed out that the laboratory in the hospital is equipped to run blood tests on cows for any farmers to help stamp out Bangs disease.

County Agent Robt. H. Gibson discussed the Brannan farm plan, and many farmers took part in the discussion. Gibson said it is up to the farmers to help work out some kind of program because there is going to be some kind of a farm program from now on.

Sand Hill Union meets the third Tuesday in every month to discuss national and local problems and all are welcome, said Ed Holmes, its president.

Non Reports Congressional Body of Arms

Preservation of peace should number one objective of congressional body of arms, said Senator George Mahon, Representative of the 19th district, in a speech in Washington. Mahon followed a series of statements by military leaders on a committee on military appropriations of which Mahon is a member.

The fact that within months Russia has developed the bomb and overrun the over-all military program of this country has not been changed, Mahon continues. The problem of national defense should be re-examined in the light of these events. It is true that the military forces of this country are in the air and on land, sea and in the air, but the demobilization following World War II, but our forces are not as strong as they were in 1945.

Count of the inadequacy of our military establishment have upon the economy of the United States, this country is undertaking to maintain a military force in being that will sustain warfare, according to the congressman. Yet Mahon's committee at least the rate of air armament requested in the fiscal year is increased in several years, the United States air force is not fully adequate for the United States in a state of readiness for war. But he does not advocate an increase, as he feels that the United States cannot afford larger military spending and that certain "calculated risks" must be taken.

At this time one third of our tax dollars are being spent directly on the army, navy and air force. In commenting on defense spending, Mahon said:

"The military people have never won any medals for economy but there is less waste and more economy in our military programs now than in any time within a decade. Further progress in efficiency must be made."

War Not Foreseen Now
The congressman indicated that the top military leaders do not think that an outbreak of war with Russia is likely within the next couple of years. Their fears, based on the fact that Russia is feverishly building up her submarine fleet, navy, air force and army, seem to be that we will inevitably have trouble with Russia at a later date unless some way can be found to establish good will between the United States and Russia.

Among those appearing before the committee in recent meetings are General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff; Louis Johnson, secretary of defense; the secretaries of the army, navy and air force; and the members of the joint chiefs of staff.

Democratic members of the House military appropriations subcommittee are Representatives Mahon, chairman, Harry R. Sheppard of California and Robert L. Sikes of Florida. The republicans on the committee include Representatives Albert J. Engel of Michigan and Charles A. Plumley of Vermont.

The committee handles all appropriations in the house of representatives for the office of secretary of defense and for the army, navy and air force. The committee has been holding hearings for the past seven weeks in an effort to get ready to present the military appropriation measure to the house for consideration about April 1.

Campaigner Finds Many Town Friends Like The Hesperian

S. M. (Tiny) Brown, who is conducting a one-man campaign for more new and renewal readers of The Hesperian said that in his first week of work, spent in the residence areas of Floydada, he found many friends of The Hesperian. Some of these friends have been readers of the newspaper for a quarter of a century, they say. Other and newer friends also are being found.

"I have had a fine reception from the people of Floydada so far. They have been most kind and I appreciate this fact," said Mr. Brown, who had covered something less than half of the area of the corporate limits at the time.

The Hesperian has suffered some years for lack of manpower, along with neighboring businesses, and is taking advantage of the first opportunity presented to go to the people with a personal appeal for their continued support. What people are thinking, what they like to see in a county-wide newspaper, and will they subscribe for The Hesperian are some of the things the good will ambassador is seeking to know. New and renewal subscriptions are being taken on a basis not to exceed two years.

A SMOOTH JOB

Imagine a table so smooth that flat objects cannot be picked up but must be slid off the side and you have an idea of this table used in the Tool Inspection Department of The Timken Roller Bearing Company. Finished to within fifty one-millionths of an inch for flatness, the table is kept in an air-conditioned room for the greatest possible accuracy in measurement readings.

The inspector, a pretty smooth job too, is shown measuring the length of a cone for a bearing that will find its way into a wheel or rolling assembly somewhere in industrial America.

Polio Campaign Nets $3,432.78

Last and final figures on the March of Dimes campaign, submitted by county fund drive chairman Jake B. Watson Tuesday, shows a net of $3,432.78 for the county. Watson was high in his praise of the campaign efforts made by many civic-minded persons of the county and the people who subscribed to the fund in spite of the fact that the total goal of $4,000 was not reached.

The figures made by the chairman of the drive include $499.15 raised by the committee at Lockney, $1,707.21 by the Floydada canvassers and $1,226.42 in other communities. Here are the figures for the other communities, some of which are repeated from former reports:

SHORE NUFF, THIS FLYING SAUCER IS THE REAL THING

LOCKNEY, Feb.—Lockney has now assumed its place in the hall of fame along with other towns of this area who have reported a flying saucer. The event took place about 5:30 Tuesday afternoon of last week when a number of local people watched an orange-colored disc as it traveled in the sky north of town.

Witnesses seeing the phenomenon included Earl Cooper, Al Dutton, Bill Smith, Harold Calloway and possibly others.

The orange ball or disc was first seen northwest of town and traveling east at a comparatively low altitude. As it went, however, it appeared to gain altitude and then turned in a northeasterly direction. It appeared to be traveling at a moderate rate of speed, witnesses said.

The ball was described as orange or fire-colored with a vapor trail behind it.

Bible Study Begins Monday Night Next

Rev. Joe W. English, outstanding Bible scholar and teacher from Glen Rose, will conduct a week's Bible Study in the Mt. Blanco Missionary Baptist church beginning Monday night next at 7 o'clock.

Rev. English, a retired Baptist minister, is the father of Dr. O. W. English, well known Lubbock physician. He recently conducted similar schools in Corpus Christi and Granbury in East Texas.

This will be a study in the book of Acts with emphasis in the bible. Rev. Alvin Hamm, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all who wish to attend from Floydada, Lakeview, Dougherty or any of the surrounding communities. It is indeed a rare opportunity for study according to Rev. Hamm.

Services will be conducted at night only.

New Area Opened by Irrigation Well

CROSBYTON, Feb.—A new section of the East Plains was opened up this week for irrigation with the announcement by Chester Campbell that he has completed a good well on his farm. The location is about four miles north of Highway 82 at the first turn after crossing the canyon.

"We have a good six-inch well, and I believe it would have made an eight inch well," Mr. Campbell said.

The well was drilled to 330 feet, and the pump set on 320 feet. The water rose high in the well before the pump was started, he said.

VISION DOMINATING FACTOR

At the Tenth Annual Southwestern Congress of Optometry in Ft. Worth, optometrists including Dr. J. W. Kimble, of Floydada, heard Dr. G. N. Getman, Minnesota optometrist and research expert, relate how parents must realize that vision is being recognized as the dominating factor in growth and development of children.

Dr. Getman told the optometrists that pots and pans give a baby experience in size, shape, weight, and temperature . . . the things he needs to develop vision. "Nine out of ten times," said the expert, "a child will ignore the fancy toys of dotting relative and, instead, take to the pots and clothespins."

Be Sure To Attend Church Regularly

Now I lay me down...

From the twelfth century children have been learning to repeat this prayer of faith. Back of that are the other centuries when families quoted the 121st Psalm from which it was doubtless taken...

*"Your Guardian will not slumber,
He will neither slumber nor sleep."*

Precious lad with the dimpled cheeks, knowing so little what the world holds of joy and of sorrow, of foes and of friends, of sickness and of health, of defeat and of triumph. Perhaps he has mother and father now and every care for his happiness. Who knows what tomorrow holds for him? You and I may not be near to counsel and to encourage. What then?

Wise and thoughtful for all the years ahead were the parents who early introduced the lad to his eternal Friend and helped him to be at home in the Father's universe. Some day every boy and girl will have to stand alone; will there be strength from hidden springs, a sense of sustaining Power? Some day every woman and every man must make a choice between the high way and the low; will there be light that shines on the good path the soul should take?

Every child born into God's world has a right to know that God is Creator and Sovereign, that His will finally must prevail. Every girl and every boy has a right to be sure that the universe is friendly and that its basic principle is Love. Every living person has a right to trust and to faith and to hope. Every human being has a right to know that he is made in the image of God and eligible to a place in the divine Family. We are both animal and divine spirit; God breathed His own Spirit into man and he became a living Spirit, like unto God. Every child has a right to live reverently as in the continuing and blessed fellowship with the Highest; he has a right to the adult helpfulness that puts his feet in the Way of Life. Teach him to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger, more democratic character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Sharp Crackle of Falling Metal on Roof top Wakens Rapp Family to Speculate on Whence it Came

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Rapp, of Sand Hill, this week add to the store of odd news with a report of a small piece of aluminum that chunked their roof from the sky Friday night shortly after they had retired.

When their young son retrieved the piece of metal next morning it showed evidence of having been subjected to intense heat. Another piece of metal, larger but also showing to have been so intensely heated that it melted around and stuck fast a short machine screw, was found several feet distant in the yard.

Mr. Rapp checked himself on the belief that no metal work, high tension lines or things of the kind were in the adjacent neighborhood, and came to the conclusion that the pieces of metal couldn't have been already on the premises before the sharp noise sounded from their roof top. Surmise is that the metal may have come from a plane so high in the atmosphere they could not hear its engines. The metal could be from an airplane engine. To the suggestion that the metal may have fused and burned out of a flying saucer that was exploring about, Mr. Rapp said if so the people from Star No. 159 or Mars or wherever they come from in the saucers had learned to make screws and washers and aluminum quite like those we see on the earth.

Valuable Man

club members winning the contest. He also contacted the Chamber of Commerce, explaining that the District needed assistance in sponsoring the field day, resulting in that organization furnishing barbecued beef for the noon meal. Bob was personally responsible for contacting individuals preparing the meat and cooking beans. He worked with Tom Stewart of Lockview farm on plans for serving the meal and assisted with registering and serving about three hundred farmers and visitors attending the tour. Mr. Crowell also worked in close cooperation with County Agent Robert H. Gibson in working out the route to be taken to view soil and water conservation practices being applied on 10 farms within the District.

Services voluntarily rendered are very often as essential and beneficial as work of the paid professional and in many cases that type of assistance serves a purpose no one else can offer. In appreciation for his distinguished unselfish service to the cause of soil conservation the District commends Mr. Crowell as an outstanding volunteer conservationist.

In Save the Soil Contest

The Floyd County Soil Conservation district has again entered the "Save the Soil and Save Texas" soil conservation awards program sponsored by The Fort Worth Press with the Houston Press and the El Paso Herald-Post. This is the fifth year these firms have sponsored a contest of this nature. A total of $13 thousand in prizes, medals and awards for meritorious work will be given over the state.

The district board of supervisors have chosen Robert H. Crowell as the business and professional man who has rendered the greatest unselfish service to soil conservation.

Donovan to Dumas on Engineer's Job

Lyle Donovan, who has been associated with REA as engineer the past year, and resident engineer in Floydada for H. N. Roberts and Associates for two years previous left this week to assume duties as resident engineer for Payne and Hicks, consulting engineers, Enid, Oklahoma.

Donovan will assume the duties of resident engineer at Dalhart for about six months and then go to Enid. Plans for moving the family to Dumas depend on housing facilities and other factors, but will be as soon as he locates adequate facilities, Donovan said Monday.

'Theft' Test of Autodom

NEW YORK — One of the pictorial exhibits of Fisher Body Division at the General Motors "Mid-Century Motorama" here Jan. 19-27 depicts the effort to make rear compartments as theftproof as is practical. Fisher Body engineers test the strength of a new compartment lid by using a series of jacks and gauges. The jack at the right above is pushing up on the lid, the one in the middle is stationary, and the one at the left pushes down while gauges measure deflection under various pressures.

Our candid camera's perfect day would begin around 9 o'clock with a breakfast of waffles, sausage, and milk. After breakfast Dan would get a car load of boys and go to the Country Club to swim till noon. For lunch he would eat fish, french fries, salad, ice tea, cherry pie, and strawberry ice cream.

Following lunch, Dan would play tennis until around 3 o'clock, then listen to records until 5. Then he'd take an hour bath—Later he'd journey to Austin to see Floydada win state in basketball. For supper he would eat fish with all the trimmings, then play pool and loaf around until 12:00. To end a perfect day, he'd jump in bed and just sleep till all hours.

The figure who caused the ghastly scream is rather a "scream" himself, but he is a very likeable person to whom all the kids of F. H. S. wish the best of luck and a merry future.

DE QUACKER

Well, after nearly everyone spent the week-end in Canyon, everything should be back just like it was but whether it is or not, we will see.

Kenneth, you had better watch that little Clara and a few more boys, if you want to be going with Clara very long.

Boy, was Joy glad when Bobby was called to be on the all regional team. That good smile that she gave him should last for some time. Let's hope that it does.

Grace and Arlen seem to be doing pretty good these days. May I wish you the best of luck, because you will need it.

Joy and Bill sure did have fun in Canyon over the week-end. Boy, if I could have been around someplace.

Lee, are you losing out with Richard? You had better tighten up your strings a little, hadn't you? Mary Alice was sure glad when she went to Canyon with David Friday night. Good luck kids.

Marlene Raley and Wayne Robertson sure make a cute couple; Keep it up kids.

Peggy and Fred are still hitting everything off O. K. May the best of luck always be with you.

Extra. Did my eyes really see right when they saw Jane Johnson with Everett Powell the other night and again last Sunday afternoon? Jane, what will Leroy say about this, or will he just go with Doris to get revenge? Jane, you started him out right by a Sunday afternoon date, keep it up.

Are Floy and Don still going steady? One hardly ever sees them together any more. What happened? But they sure looked cute in church Sunday night.

What has happened to Jimmy Hammonds, no one sees him any more? Does he always have to go to Ford county?

Myrna Wilson, are you sure that you have "Little Abe" around your little finger? If you think so, you had better take another think because he looked pretty cute the other day with Clara!!!

I just don't see how Sherwyn did without Bill while he was in Waco? But she seems to be making up for it now.

Ted Davis was with Betty Laminack the other night. You know, they made a right cute couple. Come on kids, make it work out.

Genelle, did you really stand Deral up the other Sunday night? That isn't very good business, you know. You had better be careful.

By the way Joan Edleman has the initials A. H. scratched on the back of her bracelet. Could those initials stand for Adrain Helms?

And why did Leroy and Wayne switch girls Saturday night? But how did it come out, Leroy, do you like going with Marlene and Wayne do you like going with Doris? Goodness! When she starts out. Did I see her with Bill Blossom the other night. An old romance renewed maybe.

Sammy and Dorothy still are getting along all right. Keep it up kids, it looks good from here.

Pat, you still haven't told us about that good-looking boy you have been going with lately. You better come on kid.

Earl Eubanks and Eva seem to be getting along just fine these days. May the best of luck be yours.

Why didn't Billee go with Trice the other night? She said it was because her mother wasn't at home but isn't she going steady with Jerry?

Whose jacket is Jean Porter wearing? Could it be Dale Roberts? Cute couple.

Oh! Did Billee, Joy, Chris and Clara have a good time in Amarillo? Too bad the boys had to be in early and were in Canyon.

Dan Jennings Hagood sure wanted a date with Sandie Friday night. But he couldn't seem to catch her at home.

Seems as though Jimmy Powell can't keep his mind on his work for Mary Lou.

Well, it's funny how some people can say that Darlene is going steady with Reese Grubbs when I happen to know for a fact that she is going steady with a certain boy from Lockney! What you say from now on we get our stories straight.

Boy, that Virginia Morris sure gets around, first it is Shorty Cardinal, then Lewis Reddy, then George Burgett, and last Son Holmes.

Eva, you're still anxious to go with Herschell, aren't you? From all that I hear, the feeling is mutual. What about Lis and Loene, kids? Are you gonna drop them?

Seems Betty Stewart would like to go with Dane Clark. Give her a chance Dane?

What's this I hear about Jimmy Powell wanting to go with Darlene Johnson? Why don't you ask her, she might go?

Genelle, did you and Lee have fun in Amarillo the other day? Now who all was it that went, you and Lee and John and Newton Dale. But who was the other couple?

Winds in Surprise Play in Regional Floydada's underdog Whirlwind five surprised everyone Friday night, including the Floydada fans, by overwhelming the highly favored Shamrock Irish at Canyon in the regional tournament, 40-25. The Shamrock boys had the hottest record in the region with 25 wins and two losses but that didn't spell anything to the Whirlwinds.

The first quarter was played in even terms with the Irish ahead at the first quarter, 10-8. In the second period the Whirlwinds held the Irish to 2 points and sacked up 15 for themselves, making the score at the half 23-12. After that the Shamrock boys were never a serious threat, according to scores. Perry was the point maker in this game with his 15; Guthrie and Finley were tied for second with 9.

This game entitled the Whirlwinds to go farther where they met the Dumas Demons, who had previously swamped the favored Sudan Hornets.

F. H. S. vs. Dumas
 The Dumas Demons overcame a 11-3 lead of the 1st quarter to take finally the fighting Winds by 4 points in the last 3 minutes. The Whirlwinds fought hard the 2nd quarter but Dumas led 21-16. The Winds, who missed some good shots, played hard and with only three minutes to play the score stood 37-35. The Whirlwinds rallied but the Demons came back and the game ended 41-37 and with it a chance for the championship. Finley took Anita Tooley sure is trying to get a date with Jimmy Powell or even get him to notice her. Come on, Jimmy, give her a chance. I don't think Cecil will mind.

What's this about Pike Hanna wanting a date with Arminia Berry. Give him a chance after all there are more good boys than traveling salesmen.

It seems as though Adrian Helms can't make up his mind between three cute freshman girls. Come on Abe and choose one.

Jackie Alexander, how are you and Lorraine Fisher making out, from what I hear you are making it "steady". Cute couple.

Well, Arminia, how do you and Velma like those traveling salesmen from Plainview? Not Bad eh? Especially their car.

Will the kids in F. H. S. please help me with my column in the paper. If you will do so, I will know more and so will you.

high point with 25 points.
F. H. S. vs. Memphis

The Memphis Cyclones, defending state champs from 1949, met the Whirlwinds for third place. The first quarter was hard fought and ended 10-10. The Whirlwinds came back strong and lengthened the margin to 22-11, Finley's sinking 16 points the first half. The second half the Memphis boys showed championship form and tied the score 26-26, but the inspired Whirlwind's fought ahead and with 3 minutes to go the score was 43-41 with the Whirlwinds still on top; then the good ole green and white turned loose and scored 8 quick points to the Cyclones 2. The game ended 51-45. The Whirlwinds showed expert ball handling all through the game and an extra good last minute "freeze". Finley paced the Whirlwinds with 32 points, which made him a total of 65 points for the tournament.

Congratulations, Whirlwinds, you are a swell quintet!!

Guess Who???

She's pretty short I'll have to say
 And seems to be a sunshine ray;
 She and another march along;
 They look alike, am I wrong?

A crush he has on "Cutie" above,
 A football player that we love;
 He drives an Oldsmobile today,
 He's bashful in a funny sorta way.

Fruit Growing Suggestions to Orchardists

(by Leila Petty, County Home Demonstration Agent)

It is not too late to set out fruit trees even though they may have done better if set out earlier. The home orchard owner should strive to have a good assortment of fruit that will ripen as nearly as possible throughout the growing season. By having several kinds as well as an assortment of varieties, the chances for having an adequate supply of fruit each year is insured. Unfavorable weather conditions such as late frost rarely destroy fruit of all kinds. With this in mind, the following kinds are suggested for Floyd county:

- Apples: King David, Delicious, Golden Delicious.
- Pears: Bartlett, Le Conte, Garber.
- Cherries and cherry plums: Opata, Sapa, Wanita, Haska.
- Peaches: Early Wheeler, Golden Jubilee, Hale, Haven, Elberta, Frank.
- Sour Cherries: Montmorency, English Morello.
- Plums: Omaha, Burbank, Pools, Pride, Damson.
- Grapes: Manito, Beacon, Ellen Scott, Extra Bailey.
- Pecans: Western Schly, Burkett.
- Strawberries: Gem, Mastadon.
- Dewberries: Young.

Two varieties of cherry plums, Opata and Sapa, are dwarf trees especially suited to a windy country. The quantity of fruit borne by these is amazing as is attested by two growers in Floydada. Lon M. Davis has several trees in his home orchard in west Floydada that have been most prolific. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Graham have a number of trees on their farm north of town. Each small tree had at least a bushel of fruit last year, according to the Grahams. Two or three trees should supply a family's needs, they said. There is no reason why families in Floyd county can't grow all the dew berries they need, say Mrs. Henry Willis of Center and Mrs. Harmon Handley of Pleasant Valley, who have had berries for a number

Rotary Award to College Prof.

A feature story last week in the Amarillo Globe, had an old friend of many Floydada people as the subject, Mrs. David Flowers, of Amarillo, read the article and gave it to The Hesperian. Says the story:

When the head of West Texas State College's department of education and director of the WTSC Demonstration School received an unexpected and unscheduled honor during the regular assembly period this morning, students of WTSC voiced their approval in loud and prolonged applause.

For the honoree, Dr. Floyd E. "Pop" Savage, is one of the most beloved members of the faculty. During the assembly program this morning, Pop, as he is fondly known to thousands of past and present students, was visited by a delegation from the Amarillo Rotary Club and presented with the Rotary Youth Orchid "for 42 years of outstanding services to boys and girls, in and out of the classroom."

Dr. Roy Boger, dean of Amarillo Center branch of WTSC, made the presentation as a representative of the Amarillo civic club's youth committee, upon the recommendation of Dr. J. A. Hill, president-emeritus of WTSC.

Dr. Boger in making the presentation cited the long record of Pop as teacher and friend, but probably the best description of his popularity was expressed in Dr. Hill's letter of recommendation. "While he was in the hospital recently," the letter said in part, "his old college boys and girls created a stream of visitors and kept his room adorned with flowers. The Training School children, from the first grade up, showed him many courtesies and demonstrated their genuine affection. His teachers (subordinates in the Training School) adore him."

The recommendation went on to describe Pop as "sincere in his relationships with boys and girls, open-minded, public-spirited, and he loves people and loves to teach."

He'll always be "Pop" to every student who learned textbook knowledge and the "enormous fun of living" in his classroom, it was stated by Dr. Boger in his presentation address.

Professor Savage was born in Montague County, Texas, and attended rural schools in that country. He finished his secondary schooling at North Texas Normal School and College. Graduating from North Texas State College in 1908, he taught in rural school in Dallas County and was for three years grade school principal at Memphis.

Taught at Floydada From 1911 until 1918, he was superintendent of schools in Floydada and during 1918 and 1919 he was principal of the old Johnson Street School in Amarillo.

RED CROSS HELPS RESTORE FAMILIES TO NORMAL LIVING AFTER DISASTERS

Planning resumption of normal living with this disaster stricken family of East Prairie, Mo., following mid-January floods is the task of the Red Cross worker. Scenes like this are duplicated in Arkansas and Illinois following floods that drove 30,000 from homes, damaged household furnishings and buildings. Financial aid and planning for future are Red Cross contributions to those without sufficient resources to get back to normal, made possible by annual generous gifts of American people to organization. Such aid was given in 330 disasters last year for total of $6,574,741. About 70 per cent was spent for long-term rehabilitation. Remainder went for immediate emergency care.
