A card received from Sgt. Elbert McCutchan, indicates that the Sgt. will soon be stationed out of reach of the Star's visit under present postal regulations. The card reads as follows: 3-17-43

Dear Mr. White: "I sure have enjoyed the paper very much and wish I could continue getting it, but I guess that is impossible. I know I will miss it very much." Sgt. McCutchan then gives his new address, which seems to substantiate the assumption expressed above. His card was mailed from Camp Stoneman, Calif.

The following letter, which is his first to the Star, is from Pfc. Charles W. Bracken.

Alaska, 3-17-43

Dear Mr. White: How is everybody? I guess you thought I was never going to write. Well I have received the copies of the Star you sent me and I can thank you for it, and I want it to keep on coming to me. The Star helps one to see where all the boys are, and that helps a lot in the army, just to are, so let the Star keep on coming to me if you can. As there is not much to write about, I'll sign off for this time, and hope to hear from you when you get time. With lots of love, Charles.

Cpl. Jennings W. Skully, also has written us his first letter, which reads as follows: Fort Sill, Okla., March 17, 1943 Dear Mr. White:

I thought it was about time that I let you know that I am receiving the Friona News every week for some time, and sure do enjoy it. I like to read about the boys that are in the service of Uncle Sam and wonder how they can get scattered so far. I have been here over two years. It doesn't seem that it has been that long since I left there. If only the rest goes that fast so I can get back to good old Texas. Sgt. May and myself start talking about what has happened out there and about where all of the boys are that left around there. Well, I want to thank you for the Friona News and for all the things that you are doing for us boys in the service. My address now is: Cpl. Jennings W. Skully, Fort Sill, Okla. A friend, Wilson.

Prospects Good at Cortez In renewing his subscription to the Star, G. L. (Red) Cole, a former resident and barber at Friona, writes this short letter.

Cortez, Colo. 3-18-43 Hello, Mr. White. How is the old home town and everyone? I sure wish you folks were getting some of our moisture, as we have all we need. Prospects sure look good here. We have had a very nice winter. I am inclosing one $2.00 bill. Please send me the "Friona Star." Tell every-

In a letter received from our friend, George M. Baker of Marfa, he says in part:

"I now have seven sons and one son-in-law in the armed forces. Duke is in the Marines. Duke is Mr. Baker's youngest son.—Ed.

And here is another interesting letter from John W. Renner, S 2-c:

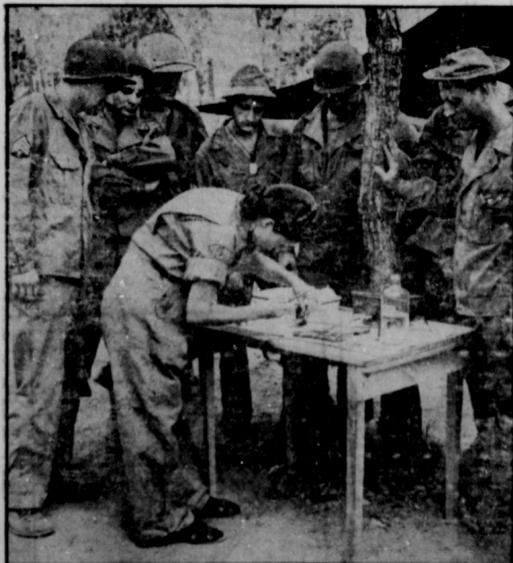

San Diego, Cal. Saturday Evening.

Dear Mr. White: Will let you know my new address, since I have moved from the Naval Training Station to the Destroyer Base and am going to "Armed Guard" School now. We are training for "Gunners Mates" to go aboard merchant vessels. To each gun there is a crew of from 12 to 15 men. I was lucky enough to be chosen captain (Continued on Back Page)

Judge Thompson Here Friday County Judge, Lee Thompson of Farwell was a business visitor at Friona last Friday and was combining pleasure with business by making short visits with many of our people.

While here Judge Thompson favored the Star office with a highly appreciated visit of a few minutes. Judge Thompson is one of the Star's good friends at Farwell, and expressed his appreciation of the paper, and complimented it on its policy of mailing papers to all Friona boys now in the armed service of their country.

IN MEMORY OF A DEPARTED CLASS SISTER

Dedicated by the Members of the Sunshine Class Circle of the Methodist Church Written by Mrs. Foister Rector

Our Sunshine Class Circle has been broken. God thought best to call Nita home.

Oh! How we all will miss her in our meetings from home to home, as we study those lessons from the Bible.

May we all grow stronger in faith and ever be ready to carry on the task which means victory, not fate. Her memories will always be with us, but her heartaches and suffering are o'er.

Oh Lord, grant her a rich place over on yon distant shore. We will all carry on with fond memories and pray 'til again we shall meet. May not one of our Circle be missing when we gather at Jesus' feet.

The Sunshine Sister Class is the Methodist Women's Bible Class, and they meet in some one of the class members' home every two weeks for Bible study or work for one another, and in no better way can we extend to her family our very sincere feeling than in the above few humble lines.

CLYDE SEAMANDS AT MARLIN

G. (Preach) Cranfill returned Wednesday from Marlin, where he had gone earlier in the week, to drive Clyde Seamands who entered the sanitarium.

Mr. Seamands had been in poor health for some time and was advised to take a course of treatment at the sanitarium.

CORRECTION

In a story in the last issue of the Star, announcing the beginning of a revival meeting to be held at the Euclid Avenue Church of Christ, we are sorry that the wrong date was given in the headline for the beginning of the meeting.

The date as given read, "Sunday March 4," when it should read: "Sunday, April 4," and we are glad to make this correction. The meeting will begin Sunday, April 4, and will continue through three Sundays, closing on April 18, and everybody is invited to attend. Watch next week's Star for further announcements and a program for each day of the meeting.

REV. PRICE REPORTED AS IMPROVING SLOWLY

Word comes to the Star office to the effect that Rev. J. W. Price, pastor of the local Methodist Church, who has been in the Veteran's Hospital at Amarillo, for the past two weeks, is slowly improving.

He is suffering with something like arthritis, and is still unable to sit up, according to the report.

DIDN'T THINK MUCH OF THE STAR

In renewing his subscription to the Star, Oscar Rector of Gage, Okla., writes as follows: "I didn't think much of your paper when it was coming, but as soon as it stopped it was just like one of the family being absent."

Air Power Topic For Junior Club

"Supremacy in the Air—A Determining Factor in Democracy's Victory," was the theme of a program given at a meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, Tuesday evening, March 16.

Lola Goodwine discussed "The Major Role of the Airplane in the History of Modern Civilization."

Christine Holmes reviewed "Victory Through Air Power," by Major Alexander DeSeversky, and Martha Williams presented some interesting facts concerning post-war geography of the air.

Some distinguishing features of modern airplanes were given by the members in answer to roll call.

The club has made plans to collect old silk and nylon hose and to ship them to a point where they can be used. Anyone who would like to give some hose, should contact some member of the club.

Revival Begins Sunday At Local Baptist Church

The Star is authorized to announce the beginning of an eight-day revival service at the local Baptist Church, Sunday morning, March 28.

These services will be under the direction of Rev. George W. McCall, state evangelist, who will do the preaching. Rev. McCall comes highly recommended as a speaker, Bible student and evangelist, and the services and preaching will be truly evangelistic.

The entire public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy these services, which will be held twice each day, the forenoon services being at 11 o'clock, and the evening services beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Hand bills and placards are being prepared and will be distributed announcing these services. Watch for them.

Men's Bible Class To Meet At Regal

The men of the younger men's Bible Class of the Baptist Church have prepared an innovation for Friona by arranging to hold their sessions in the auditorium of the Regal Theatre each Sunday morning, rather than at the church building.

This arrangement was made necessary by a lack of room for their sessions at the church building, and in choosing the new quarters they will now have ample room for their present number, also room for all other men who are not otherwise affiliated and who may enjoy such a method of instruction. They extend a very cordial invitation to all men of Friona to join them in their sessions and discussions. It is a good move in a good cause.

Nancy Shackelford Wins Posture Contest at TSCW

Miss Nancy Shackelford, a freshman student at Texas State College for Women, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shackelford of Friona, was selected as one of two girls, to represent her dormitory of 200 girls in a posture contest for modeling clothes.

Miss Shackelford won a score of 243 points, the highest number received being 267 points.

MRS. M. W. MOODY

Mrs. M. W. Moody, nee Vinita L. Collier, was born at Bridgeport Texas, June 20, 1891. Died March 17, 1943, at Friona Texas, at the age of 51 years, 8 months and 21 days.

She was converted when a young girl and joined the Methodist Church, and has lived a consecrated life.

She was married to Murray Wayne Moody, Oct. 11, 1908, at Dixie, Okla. She lived in Oklahoma until 1937, when she moved to Friona. Two baby boys preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband, four daughters: Mrs. J. R. Lawson, of Wellington, Texas; Misses Doris Fern, Grace Jo and June Moody, and one grandbaby; one brother, Joe B. Collier, Abernathy; five sisters; Mrs. Tom Doak, Loop Texas; Mrs. John Duncan Finley, Oklahoma; Mrs. W. D. Tipps, Shamrock, Tex.; Mrs. J. W. Hutson, Hammon, Okla., and Mrs. David Moseley, Friona, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Card of Thanks

We take this method of expressing our sincere thanks an appreciation from the depth of our hearts to all of our neighbors and friends, who were so kind to us in the loss of our darling wife, mother and sister.

Also for the many beautiful flowers that banked her casket. May God's richest blessings rest with each and everyone of you, is our sincere prayer.

COGITATIONS and APHORISMS of Jodok

I have had some comments on my last week's effusion, all complimentary, but, at the same time admitting that it was "queer." Two men said, that although it was "queer" there were some points in it that were worthy of serious consideration, and that I evidently had something. I will admit, that I had been drinking a little (coffee) just before I did the writing.

One stated that will all the queer things I had said, I had not nearly covered the ground of queerness and of queer things people will do and say; a fact that I had fully realized, and among other things and perhaps one of the most common is that which fall to the lot of peace or law-enforcement officers, such as justices of the peace, constables, town marshalls and deputy sheriffs.

I have been associated with these officers and heard them tell of the many queer things people will want them to do. It appears that some people think—that is if they ever think at all—that just as soon as a man becomes elected to any one of these offices, he at once becomes endowed with a full and complete knowledge of the laws of state or nation, and that it is his bounden duty to go out at once upon their verbal complaint, unbacked by any oath, and therefore being merely a hear say, and at once arrest and bring into the courts of justice, any citizen whom they may think should be arrested upon any charge, no matter how trivial, and without any evidence whatever, except their unbacked statement.

These complainants are not always men, but quite frequently women assume the role of the protector of morals for their community, and go at once to the local court or to one of these local law-enforcement officers and pour out their complaints and demand that the offending party be arrested and punished for his misdemeanor.

Whereupon the court or the court's officer, as the case may be, very kindly informs the complaining party, that he will be required to sign a complaint as a complaining witness, and when this is done, the court will issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused party and have him brought in to court, and if he is proven guilty of the charge, beyond the possibility of a doubt, he will have punishment meted out to him as the law, in such cases, provides. But when the complainant is thus faced with the responsibility of the case, he will in many cases refuse to make the oath, giving as his excuse that he does not want to get mixed up in such an affair but that it is the law's duty to act on its own volition without the backing of any sworn statement or other incriminating evidence.

The average person is not aware of the fact that any and all accused persons are considered as innocent in the eyes of the law, until they are proven guilty. An accused person does not have to bear the responsibility of proving himself innocent, but his accuser must prove him to be guilty beyond the possibility of a doubt before any court can declare him guilty and pronounce a sentence or punishment.

And further, the law also provides that if there is a semblance of doubt in the mind of the court or the trial jury as to the guilt of the accused person he must be given the benefit of such doubt. And another thing that the average person does not take into consideration is the fact that when a person is tried on any charge, whether acquitted or convicted, he can never be again tried on that particular charge.

It occurs to me that if all persons who take delight in seeing their neighbors punished for their crimes would take the foregoing facts into consideration and never go to any peace officer with a complaint that they are not willing to go into court and back with their individual oath, the public would get more justice and the courts less criticism. Hearsay evidence is, with a very few exceptions, not worth a "tinker's-dam" in a court of justice.

Maybe you will say that such matters "is none of my business." Well perhaps it is not; but it should be the business of all American citizens to know such things before they go to any court or to any peace officer for a redress of grievances. It is just another form of "queerness" on the part of people to suppose that anyone who has been elected as a peace officer should know all about our criminal statutes. He just doesn't have such knowledge, but he must protect his official integrity before the law before he can act.

Law is often mentioned by people of considerable intelligence, as being nothing but a group of rules and regulations, that have been devised and compiled by some law-making body for the protection of the honest public. Well, it occurs to me, that such ideas or opinions are "all wet" and absolutely without foundation. The best definition I have ever heard for "law" is one that I had from my very good friends, Judge Horner and Judge Simpson, both of whom have passed on to their rewards as honest and scrupulous lawyers, and that definition is: "Law is simply common sense." Just think the matter through without malice and with an unbiased mind and see if they were not absolutely correct.

I do not pose as a lawyer, a minister, a doctor nor a teacher, but merely as a "street corner" philosopher; and I arrive at many of my conclusions from what I see and hear out on the streets and other places where the general public mingles. Furthermore I do not try to force my conclusions on any other person, but assume the sole responsibility for them myself, and if those who differ with me, can prove me to be in error, I will gladly confess it. Neither have I ever posed as an editor as I would not care to tarnish the record of that high calling with my weak efforts, and I realize that I am without repute among the editors of the many good papers of this territory. That is probably because I am "queer."

I do not frequently mention the good letters I receive from some of my most esteemed readers, neither do I often quote them in my effusions, but I am just in receipt of a good letter from my dear friend, Dr. H. H. Lindeman, of Oklahoma City, and I feel like I shall be justified in quoting it here in full. Not so much because of its complimentary tone to my recent effusion on "Friendship," but more because it contains some suggestions regarding that great subject that I think should be known and practiced by all people.

March 9, 1943.
"Dear Jodok:
In times like these it is gratifying and heartening to see somebody who has the public ear (or eye) exalting something so idealistic, so noble, so spiritual as FRIENDSHIP. Don't you wish some good drama company, or a dozen of them, would revive "Damon and Pythias" again and cover the country with it? That beautiful and heroic loyalty has been too much backed off the stage by our recent "rugged individualism" — which degenerates quickly into "every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost."
Not only will there have to be more cases of true personal friendship before the "brotherhood of man" can be realized, but the converse is also true; before we can have multiplied instances of real friendship, we must have brotherhood more widely practiced in the practical interests of every day. A more general experience of fraternity, let's say in economic relations, would line and warm the nest in which individual friendship would come to birth. The old neighborliness of the frontier grew out of the fact that neighbors in general depend upon each other for survival and security. More of our vital interests should again be pooled into co-operatives of various sorts, so as to keep us close enough together to discover each other's hearts. Then we would find our spiritual affinities (and I don't mean just women either) and mutually satisfy the normal cravings of every soul for friendship.

Maybe it's horse that sailor Jack Keeton of the Phoenix, Ariz., Navy recruiting station and Phoenix rodeo queen Jeanne Robertson are talking about.

Direct Hit Being Scored

Have you noticed that the classic friendships are just between men: Damon and Pythias; David and Jonathan. That was because, before woman came into her own, she was in a lower social class, inferior to men, whereas friendship is a relation only of equals. It is mutuality complete. The best friendships ever experienced in the modern world are in the husband-wife relation, neither one superior or inferior. Glorifying their conjugal relation and exalting their parental unity, they are bound together by the noblest, the holiest, the most significant and the most enduring interests that can absorb the human heart and mind and body. This hampers the case (now that woman is conceded the social equal of man) it is for the foregoing reason that most of the best friendships are between husbands and wives. We who know you and your sainted wife know that you know the truth of this.

I am sure too that the Lord's blessings is upon you in your thinking, as you find friendship overflowing into religion. One of the most helpful religious books back in the youth of our generation, a "best seller" for nearly a decade, was entitled: "Friendship, Human and Divine," and in that thesis President Henry Churchill King of Oberlin College packed a full theology, including the redemption of sinful men. One way that Jesus explained to his disciples the meaning of his death was to say: "Ye are my friends—Greater love hath no man for his friends than this, that he lay down his life for them."

Well, I didn't mean to tire you to death with so long a letter, but your Jodok Cogita-tions of March 5 touched me off. And anyway, it's a long time since I wrote you, whereas you write me every week in your rich and human, common-sense editorials. Keep them cogitating.

Cordially yours,
H. H. Lindeman

Now, should not a letter like the above be sufficient to fill any man's heart with gratifying justification and prompt him to give it to the world?

CHDA NOTES

THE PRESSURE COOKER SITUATION

Many of you have asked if pressure canners will be available this year and I promised to let you hear from me when I had the information you wanted.

Today, I received an announcement which stated that 150,000 pressure canners are being manufactured this year. The United States Department of Agriculture and the War Production Board have allotted materials to three of the well known pressure cooker manufacturers.

The United States Department of Agriculture will control the distribution of these canners and is now developing distribution and possibly ration plans which will be announced soon. When definite information is received it will be published in this paper.

In order to conserve vital materials, the War Production Board has requested that all of the canners made in 1943 be similar in the following respects: The complete canner is to be made of steel; the cover, to have a protective tin coating and the body, covered with vitreous enamel; the capacity is to be large enough to hold at least 7 quart jars. The cooker is to be equipped with a flat rack (no baskets or pans.) The price, probably to be about $15.00, will be established by the local retailer.

This year when most of us are planning to grow a victory garden and can the surplus vegetables it is very important that one fact be kept in mind—that is— It is not safe to can non-acid foods at home unless a pressure canner is available. In other words, a steam pressure canner is required for processing meats, practically all vegetables except tomatoes, and other non-acid foods.

If no pressure canner is available, non-acid foods should be preserved in other safe ways. Ways to preserve vegetables and fruits are drying, pickling, quick freezing, storing in trench of cellar. Meats may be cured or frozen.

Those of you who own a pressure canner should be certain that it is in good shape. Since the pressure gage is the only guide to temperature reached inside most home canners, it is essential that pressure gages register accurately. They sometimes get out of order, hence should be checked at the beginning of the canning season or more often if the canner is in constant use. Clinics will be held again this year, watch for the announcement, if you are interested in having your pressure canner tested.

CHANTS from the Chanticleer

We met our good friend, Oscar Pope on the streets last Saturday afternoon, and we asked him why he had not been around to give us a good cussing.

Oscar stated that he had been busy and did not have time for such trivial things, but would try and get around to it later. We judged that to mean when he gets good and ready. Anyway we always enjoy Oscar's visits.

It seems that the earlier report in regard to the amount of damage done to the big Army Bomber, that was forced to land in a wheat field southeast of town was a mistake and that there was considerable damage done to the plane, and a detachment of soldiers have been here repairing and guarding it while it is being made ready for taking to the air again.

Many of these soldiers have been in Friona a part of the time, and our citizens have been pleased to have them here as they have all departed themselves in a most gentlemanly manner.

The work of repairing the plane was held up quite a bit, owing to their inability to get the necessary parts for the repair.

We were talking to our friend,

D. H. Meade, and he said that since his farm land is sold, he is practically without a job. We know Harvey well enough to know that he is not going to be happy without some sort of a good job and that he will have something to do soon. He did mention something about getting into the hatchery business again but said nothing definite about it. He may do that if there should be enough business evidenced in that line to justify the undertaking.

For many years past it has been some trouble for our people to secure enough tomato, pepper, cabbage and sweet potato plants to satisfy the demand for such things, and when they were able to secure them the people and the dealers were unable to know just what varieties they were getting, and sometimes the varieties they secured were not satisfactory.

Ed White, a few days ago, stated that he is planning to install hot beds or cold frames at his home, where he will be able to supply the local trade with all these plants; and since he will produce them from the seeds, he will choose the varieties that are best suited to this locality, and thus the products raised from them will be more satisfactory. We believe this is a good idea and that such an industry will be of vast benefit to the community, and we congratulate Ed on his progressive enterprise. We are firm believers in people producing their needs at home as much as is possible, and we wish Ed success in his venture.

Many little acts on the part of our neighbors that are of great value to our people and to the community as a whole are passed by with scarcely a notice or a word of appreciation by the people.

Speaking of such things, we wonder how many have taken notice of the work Conrad Weis is doing for all of us and for the city, by keeping the trash, dirt and rubbish cleaned from the gutter on each side of Main and Sixth Streets. It just makes the city look so much cleaner and attractive, and he is out doing this work in the mornings before many of our business people have come down to their places of business. Do any of us give Conrad a word of appreciation for his efforts? Why not try it once in a while?

Another of our good friends A. B. (Bee) Short, was in town from his farm home four miles northeast of town, Tuesday afternoon, and he spoke of the value of a good home garden to almost any family. He stated that last year he and Mrs. Short had raised one of the best gardens he had ever seen. (Yes, this can be done right here in the Panhandle.)

Bee stated that they will make the effort again this year, putting forth greater effort than ever before, if necessary, owing to the fact that so much in the way of securing the family food for the coming year may depend upon such an effort.

Bee also stated that he had received a letter from their son, "Doug" wherein he told them that during a rainy spell in Australia, where he is now located with Uncle Sam's forces, he had met with the chance to go hunting, and that he had bagged two kangaroos. He says those animals, when sitting up on their haunches, are as tall as a man.

We were greatly interested in a conversation with J. B. Martin, AAA administrator for this county, while he was in Friona one day last week. Mr. Martin stated that he is giving all his administrative ability toward attaining the success of that department of agriculture but that he was raised on a farm, and prefers a life on the farm to an office job. We truly enjoyed and appreciated his attitude towards both life in general and business.

We also had the pleasure of a short visit from our friend, Bob Chiles, Tuesday afternoon. Bob is a patriotic citizen of the good old U. S. A. and is deeply interested in getting this war fought to a successful end for our country, and at just as early a date as such can be accomplished.

Bob is also deeply interested in religion, and especially in scriptural debates. He told us of one of these debates that will be held at Muleshoe on March 30 and 31, and he sincerely hopes he may be able to attend it.

Another of our good friends, W. C. Osborn, favored us with a few minutes conversation Wednesday forenoon. He stated that, like ourself, the much talked about "plenty of money" in the country has not struck him yet and that he finds labor prices no higher than they have been for many months, although practically everything he has to buy is much higher in price.

The work of building hog houses and stock feeders at the Rockwell Bros. and Co. lumber yard has somewhat subsided and the workmen are now busy at building brooder houses, and some of the nicest samples of this work we have yet seen are being turned out there.

These small buildings are being sold to the farmers at a price just equaling the price of the materials and the labor employed in their building. It is a laudable move on the part of Manager, Lange, as it gives employment to from two to four carpenters, helps him to dispose of some of his stock, affords valuable equipment for the farmers who purchase them and also aids the farm effort of supplying food for the nation.

A class in home nursing was organized here last Monday. The classes are being held at the schoolhouse. Mrs. David Rodgers of Hereford is conducting the nutrition lessons and Mrs. Marie Carroll will teach the nursing part of the course. Those enrolled include Mrs. P. B. Sowell, Mrs. Orville Houser and Mrs. Mildred Dorris of Hereford. Mrs. Glenn Hetzler, Mrs. Anell Jackson, Mrs. Claude Bogle and Mrs. Clarence Hollabaugh of Sims, Mesdames Clarence Morrison, G. C. Harman, Manuel Hawks, Paul Rudd, W. F. Fonder, Merlin Kaul, Louis Jay, Hughes Millard, Buddy Sowell, G. W. Wilson, E. H. Little, R. L. Wilson, Moody Stephan, Richard Connally, E. J. Parsons and Joe Landers of this community. Mrs. Carroll will begin the nursing lessons Monday and enrollment is still open.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul entertained with a forty-two party Wednesday night at their home. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cawthon Bryant and John David, Mr. and Mrs. John Gazaway of Hereford, W. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill and Gary, Mrs. Lloyd Tice and Miss Elma Smith.

Those on the sick list this week include Mrs. T. B. Cox and Edsel Roe. G. C. Hartman is able to be up after being threatened last week with bronchial pneumonia.

Fire, which was caused by an over-heated brooder stove, destroyed the brooder house and 200 baby chicks Friday evening at the Jim Bookout home. The chicks had just been put into the house that morning. Trash on the floor of the house caught fire when the stove got so hot, and the inside of the house was ablaze when Mrs. Bookout discovered it.

School was dismissed Friday so that Miss Smith and Mrs. Tice could attend the meeting of the Teachers Association in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wither- spoon, Jo Ann and Neil and Elwyn Harman of Hereford spent Sunday in the G. C. Hartman home.

Mrs. R. M. Gun, Mrs. Joe Landers and Ross Joe, visited Tuesday with Mrs. Guy Lawrence of Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Willoughby and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt and son of Ward were visitors Wednesday night in the G. C. Hartman home.

Rev. Hardy Stevens of Dawn filled his appointment here Sunday. He was a dinner guest in the Moody Stephan home. Mr. and Mrs. Stephan and Rose accompanied him to Ward where he preached Sunday afternoon. They report an attendance of 30 for the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilson, Jr., were supper guests Sunday night of Kathryn Danforth at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danforth.

Vernon Wilson had a growth removed from his eyeball Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rudd and family of Spring Lake were visitors Friday in the Paul Rudd home.

Mrs. Curt Griffin of Amarillo visited Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Paul Rudd and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson and Jimmy Ray are visiting relatives at Abilene this week.

W. E. Combs of Plainview is spending a few days with his son, Elmer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill and Gary visited Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Walter near Edmondson.

Barbara Carthel of Lockney spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Maurice Tannahill, Mr. Tannahill and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Tannahill and Gary, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, took her home Saturday and visited in the Frances Carthel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill and Gary and Barbara Carthel spent Wednesday in Amarillo.

Mrs. Merlin Kaul attended a meeting on co-operative marketing at the Court House Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dodson and Monte Max of Olton and Miss Lou Ella Scarbrough of Earth were week end guests here. Miss Scarbrough has joined the WAACS and is expecting her call any time.

Sunday dinner guests in the Merlin Kaul home included Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dodson and Monte Max of Olton, Miss Lu Ella Scarbrough of Earth, Vesta Mae Landers of Canyon, Misses Elma Smith and Nannette Little.

Nannette Little is now working as cashier at the Furr Food Store in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jackson and children were dinner guests Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parker, of North Hereford.

Mrs. Glenn Rutter went to Amarillo Friday where she met her sister, Miss Moody Aten and her nephew, L. D. Aten, of Lelia Lake and brought them to spend the week end in the Rutter home. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lama Aten of Lelia Lake came to spend the day in the Rutter home. Mr. Aten is a brother of Mrs. Rutter.

In Memory of a Loving Neighbor
I'm feeling sad at heart today
A neighbor of mine has passed away;
On earth no more her face
I'll see,
This neighbor, always dear to me,
I'll hear her cheerful voice
No more, she'll greet me at the door.

The door is closed, the house is dark,
Where she, with children had a lark;
Though she had trials hard to bear,
We never heard complaining there.

That smiling face I'm longing for,
I want to see her at the door;
But I will have to wait awhile,
'Er I can see her pleasant smile.

And I to hope, will even dare,
That we'll be neighbors over there,
And that I'll see her face once more,
When she shall greet me over there.

Boxing and Wrestling Hold A Spotlight As Fight Nite Nears

As boxing and wrestling are in the spotlight of the sports world at this time of the year, the students of Friona are going to hold an intra-school fight night in the near future. Thirty-two first place awards are to be presented to the winners after the finals which are to be held Friday, April 2. The same number of second place awards will be given to the losers of the final bouts. The first place awards are sterling silver medals filled with green gold. The second place awards will be ribbons.

There are to be nine different weight divisions in the grade school and seven in high school. The eighth grade entries will be considered under grade school rules and will have to compete with the grade school boys.

All the semi-final bouts will be held in the high school gym Friday night, March 26. All the finals will be April 2. As there are more than four entries in several of the divisions, some bouts will be held in the gym Thursday afternoon. The high school and grade school students will have an opportunity to see these and there will be an admission of 5c and 10c. Following are the different divisions according to weights.

GRADE SCHOOL
60-69, 70-79, 80-89, 90-99, 100-110, 111-120, 121-130, 131-140, 141-150.
HIGH SCHOOL
100-110, 111-120, 121-130, 131-140, 141-150, 151-160, 160 and over.

Jeep Campaign Launched As Part Of School Program

The Treasury Department is launching a special campaign for the Schools at War with a goal of 10,000 jeeps by April 19. Upon the successful completion of a "Jeep" campaign, schools will receive a special certificate.

For these campaigns $900 will be considered the cost of a Jeep. Campaigns must begin after March 1 and end April 19.

The Friona Schools will cooperate in this war time activity. The campaign will open March 22 and end April 19. The climax of the campaign will be a Victory program to be held in the local auditorium. Watch for the date.

Madame: "Do, and I will drop you a flower."

Monsieur: "Ah, in a moment of mad love?"
Madame: "No, in a pot."
—The Eagle's Tale

This is the first time that boxing and wrestling both have been entered in the regular P. E. periods of the Friona Schools. Thus far quite a bit of interest has been shown towards it.

Admission prices will be 10c for students up through the fourth grade, 15c for students from 5th-8th grades, and 25c for high school students and adults.

'Demon In The Dark' Proves Success

"Demon in the Dark," the senior play, was presented before an audience of approximately five hundred Saturday night, March 20, in the grade school auditorium.

June Maurer as Lizzie, the old maid housekeeper who had a bad cold, kept the audience laughing at her continued use of "stobach bitters" and contortions on the stage. Juniper Jenks and Dido Davis, the two Negro servants played by Webster Johnson and Margie Mars, also provided many laughs for the audience. Thrills and chills were furnished by the "Demon" played by Bob Lee, and the McTav-ishes—Howard Loveless, Shirley Maurer, and Eva Dean Hyde. Romance was supplied by Fern Cunningham as Sondra Trevor, and her two suitors, Verlin Talkington as Bob Hildreth and Vialo Wels as Deryk Vorse, who turned out to be the Blonde Bandit. Ethelind Trevor, Sondra's younger sister, was acted by Benthall Southall.

The proceeds from the play amounted to $86.50, of which 10 percent will go to the government.

Sponsors and directors of the play were Miss Thalia Wright and Mr. J. T. Gee.

Spanish Class Appears On NW Conference Program

Due to the fact that the faculty attended the Northwest Teachers Conference in Amarillo Friday, the students enjoyed a holiday. Members of the Spanish class went to Amarillo also to present a part on the program for the teachers in the Foreign Languages division. The girls wore their colorful Spanish costumes and sombreros and sang several songs in Spanish for the teachers.

School Census Still Incomplete Records Show

Although several announcements have been made to the people of this school district, there are still a number of parents who have not turned in the names of their children of school age to be placed on the family census blank. If you have a child who will be six by the first of September and not over eighteen, please let Supt. Ginn know. The purpose of this census is to enable the school to receive a reimbursement of $22.50 for each school child. It is your duty and privilege as a cit-

Deputy Supt. Praises School

Carl G. Clift, Deputy State Superintendent of District 1, which includes 22 counties with headquarters in Amarillo, made his annual visit to Friona High School last week.

He inspected the work being done by both the faculty and student body of the Friona Schools and noted the discipline, attitude, and the relationship between teacher and pupil. He will send a report of his visit to the state headquarters.

Mr. Clift stated that of the 20 schools which he had visited thus far this year, Friona ranked in the upper group. He also said that the people of Friona could be proud of the school and the work it is doing.

No Spring Training Unless Grades Improve

Unless there are more boys passing all their subjects by April 1, there will be no spring football training. At present there are only 14 out of 30 possible players passing all subjects. It is up to the boys who are failing to decide whether or not we will have spring training because no one will get to play if not more than 25 are passing all subjects by April 1. If spring training is not held, our chances for a good team next year will be slim. Grades come before football. Get to work boys, if you want to play football.

Victory Corps Members Receive Insignia Friday

Following the skits of the senior play, "Demons in the Dark," which was presented Saturday night, the official badges or insignia of the Victory Corps were presented to all members in the auditorium Friday afternoon during the activity period. These badges are a red felt "V" that pins on the left side of the blouse or shirt. It signifies that the member is a buck private in the Victory Corps. Approximately 75 percent of the student body have filled out the applications and are now official members of the Victory Corps.

Miss McFarland related some of the advantages of being a Victory Corps member. The student body participated in pledging allegiance to the flag and sang one verse of the "Star Spangled Banner" and "America."

over a small bunch of boys that I have. It's sorta like being captain of the old basketball team back home or that's the way it seems to me as yet. But I'll bet this takes more training and team work than just playing football or basketball. I like the school and all just fine all except we don't get to come home on leave before we ship out to sea. We have four weeks here then off we go. I have been receiving the Star regularly and I really do like to read the letters the boys write. Thanks a million,
John W. Renner, S 2-e.

There is some question in our mind as to it being good policy to publish the addresses of the boys "overseas" or those about to be sent out of the states, and far be it from us to knowingly do anything that could, in any way give aid, information or comfort to our enemies. But if any of the boys wish to know the address of these boys, we can forward them in private letters.
—Ed.

Pvt. Virgil H. Weis expresses appreciation of the Star, in the following letter:
Sherman, Texas
March 21, 1943.
Dear Mr. White:
I have just received the good old home town paper and I sure do appreciate getting it every week. I read in the "Sons in Service" column where Pvt. Earl Mitchell is a messenger for the Third Army Headquarters, of Lt. Gen. Hodges' Message Center. General Hodges was the General of the Tenth Army Corps here. I drove for General Hodges a couple of times when we were on maneuvers in Louisiana last December. I also read where lots of the boys are overseas and doing a good job of heating down the ears of those Japs. I want to wish those boys lots of good luck. And I want to thank you again, because you are doing a good job, helping the boys in the service. Thanks a lot.

Sincerely,
Virgil.
