Funeral Homes To Ambulance Service

Friday, Floyd County funeral homes announced that in January, 1975, they will furnish ambulance service for this trade area. This occurred as state law became more rigid in the past and specially equipped ambulances were scarce at this time. The funeral homes owned emergency ambulances. Anticipating this change, the new city building was built with ambulance service in mind. Manager Bill Feuerbacher said the city will seek a Caprock Hospital in Floyd County to work out details of service before January.

"To the People of Floydada, Lockney and Floyd County:

For many months the problems of operating an ambulance under the rules and regulations of the State and the Federal Government guide lines have become harder and harder. The cost to the funeral homes has always been a factor in the feasibility of continuing ambulance service by the funeral homes.

On Tuesday, October 29, there was a meeting in Crosbyton, as representatives of seven funeral homes were present. It was decided at that time that the funerals would start to drop the ambulance service as soon as possible. It was decided that as of the first of January, 1975, the Carter Funeral Home of Lockney, The Moore-Rose Funeral Home of Floydada, The Carter Funeral Homes of Ralls and Lorenzo would discontinue the service. Siegler Funeral Home of Matador was already out of the business and the county there had taken over the operation. The other two are still working out a solution.

For several years most of the funeral homes have been without ambulance service. In talking to the State Inspector he states that only a few areas have funeral home owned ambulances as of this date.

Spokesmen for the two Floyd County Funeral Homes said "We are in no way trying to cause undue hardship on any person or group of persons. We will continue to help in any way that we can to work out a properly run ambulance service for the people of this area."

Moore-Rose Funeral Home reported it would give an ambulance to the city-county and sell them another.

Erwin Boyd at Carter Funeral at Lockney, says he will also give an ambulance.

Both funeral homes were receiving $500 per month subsidy from the city and county.

outnumbered the Antelope fans in the Abernathy stadium, and the game was extremely long for both fans. . . just a little longer for Abernathy I suppose. Abernathy never gave up, their boys showed a lot of spunk and played hard until the final whistle.

Well, here's the way it went: Abernathy took Leslie Soto's kick-off, lost nine yards, punted a five yarder. MacArthur Mitchell right through the middle for eight, five, and two for the first TD with 9:32 left in the first quarter. Quarterback Mike Vickers kicked every extra point except one when a high snap went over his head. However, he handed off to Rex Yeary who ran for the two points. So, Vickers kicked the extra point. . . Floydada led 7-0.

After Leslie's kick-off, Abernathy couldn't go, punted a nine yarder. With 8:08 left in the first quarter Vickers threw the bomb (49 yarder) to Donzell Minner for the second TD. Vickers did it and it was Floydada 14-0.

A repeat of Abernathy can't go, punted a 12 yarder this time. Vickers made 23, Kelvin Ratliff 9, Vickers 17 more, Malvin Collins 4, Ratliff around right end for the third TD with 3:58 left in the first quarter. Vickers did, Floydada 21-0.

Abernathy made one first and ten before Mickey Minnitt intercepted one of their passes. Vickers hit Minner for a nice 20 yard pass, then Ratliff around right end for the fourth TD. Vickers PAT and it was Floydada 28-0 with 2:07 left in the first quarter.

SECOND QUARTER
Greg Goen begins quarterbacking for the "Whirlwinds. . . Minnitt breaks loose on a beautiful 71 yard run for the fifth TD and Vickers did, Floydada 35-0.

Abernathy makes two first downs before Minner intercepts an Antelope pass. Floydada couldn't go and Leslie punted a nice 35 yarder.

Abernathy made a couple of first downs before Keith Marrice recovered an Antelope fumble. A new Whirlwind quarterback comes into the game, number 10, sophomore Jay Womack.

Rex Yeary right through the middle breaks in the clear, rambles some 41 yards for the sixth TD with 1:02 left in the first half. Vickers did and it was 42-0 at the half.

SECOND HALF
After the Abernathy kick-off, Goen is quarterbacking. Minnitt makes about 30 yards and this is called back and Floydada receives 15 yard holding penalty. Minnitt decided he'd make that back and more. . . he raced down the entire field some 86 yards for the seventh TD. Now, the high snap, Vickers recovers the ball, hands off to Yeary, who makes the two points around right end. Floydada 50-0 with 11:22 left in the third quarter.

Womack comes back into the game as quarterback. . . we see Jay Lackey, Gordon Bond, Danny Nixon carrying the ball. With 4:35 left in the third quarter Bond scores the eighth TD from nine yards out. Vickers did and it was Floydada 57-0.

FOURTH QUARTER
No scoring in the fourth quarter, about the only Whirlwind excitement was a 24 yard run by Womack. Collins recovered an Antelope fumble.

General Election Balloting Tuesday

With all local candidates running unopposed in Tuesday's General Election, most of the attention among Floyd County residents will be focused on the gubernatorial and the state senatorial race.

The lack of county races leads to the expectation of a "pretty light" turnout. Polls open at 8 a.m. Tuesday and close at 7 p.m.

VOTING SITES
A complete listing of all voting boxes in the county is on page three.

BULLETIN
Voters who normally cast their ballots at the Lone Star Community Center are hereby notified to vote instead at the Lone Star Baptist Church, Tuesday, November 5. Judge J. K. Holmes made the announcement of the change of voting place Friday.

FIVE CANDIDATES
Dolph Briscoe, the Democratic nominee, faces the challenge of four other party candidates in his bid for a second term as Texas governor. The other aspirants and their parties: Jim Granberry, Republican Party; Ramsey Muniz, Raza Unida Party; Sherry Smith, Socialist Workers Party; and S. W. (Sam) McDonnell, American Party. Granberry, who has been campaigning throughout the state for several months, is a Lubbock dentist and a former mayor of that city.

Democratic Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby is opposed by Republican Gaylord Marshall and Dan Fein of the Socialist Workers Party.

Democrat John C. White and Republican Zack Fisher are candidates for Commissioner of Agriculture. White has held the post for several years.

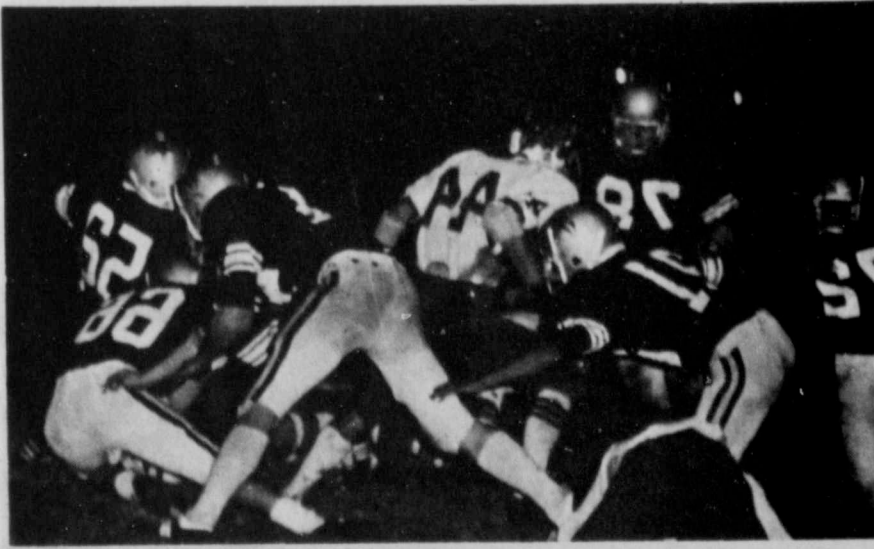

Campaigning in other state races has been virtually nil.

UNOPPOSED
U. S. Representative Omer Burleson of the 17th Congressional District is unopposed.

Considerable interest has been shown in Floyd County in the race for state senator between Plainview's Mary Kirchhoff (Republican) and Ray Farabee (Democrat). This office was vacated by Jack Hightower, who seeks election to Congress against Republican Bob Price.

FRIDAY DEADLINE FOR ABSENTEES
At noon Friday only 15 persons had voted absentee at the Floyd County Courthouse.

The 1955 Study Club will be phoning everyone Tuesday, reminding them to go vote.

City Buys Engine- Generator

The Floydada City Council in a called meeting Thursday night, accepted the bid of Industrial Machine Products Inc. of Louisiana to purchase a reconditioned Cooper Bessemer engine and generator at the price of $80,000 delivered in Floydada.

The engine-generator power rating is around 2,000 KW, and city manager Bill Feuerbacher said the installation of the engine should put the city power plant in good operating strength for over five years, with average expected growth of the city's electricity needs.

"Of course we will be selling revenue bonds for much more than the $80,000 next Thursday night, because a lot of money will be spent getting the engine installed and working properly in our plant," Feuerbacher added.

The city had got so low on power, that it had to discontinue service to gigs in the city last fall.

Plant superintendent J. W. Cannon inspected the engine along with Cooper Bessemer engineers some time ago, and it is Cannon's opinion that the engine is a very good buy and it has only run a few hours since reconditioning.

The power plant has two other Cooper Bessemer engines that have proved to be very good power suppliers.

It is anticipated that the engine and generator will arrive by rail in about 30 days.

Campaign March Against Dystrophy

Miss Lyda Walding, First National Bank, has been named Campaign Treasurer for the November 4, 1974 March Against Dystrophy.

On Monday, November 4 volunteer marchers will conduct a house-to-house appeal for funds to fight Muscular Dystrophy and related neuro-muscular diseases. Miss Walding said, "The drive here in Floydada is part of the annual nation-wide effort to fight Muscular Dystrophy. In the interest of public service and for the convenience of the volunteer marchers and donors, the First National Bank of Floydada will act as depository for the campaign."

Muscular Dystrophy is the devastating crippling of young adults. The thousands of Texas residents afflicted by MD need your help as the majority will not grow to maturity unless a cure is found.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc., will be conducting their annual house to house appeal for funds in Floydada on Monday, November 4.

Dystrophy, a tragic disease for which there is as yet no known cure, means an early death for its victims, two thirds of them children. Your help can bring the precious gift of hope, and perhaps even life itself, to these youngsters.

Join in with other Floydada residents to support this campaign and help MDA bring the much-needed comfort to those less fortunate!

Freshmen Wind Up 7-1 Season

The Whirlwind Freshmen wound up the season here Thursday night as they defeated Idalou 20-14. Coaches Don Rainer and Derrith Welch were well pleased with the 7-1 season record. Coach Welch said the only loss was to Tulia. Tulia was playing sophomores and Freshmen in the game.

There was no score in the Idalou game until the second quarter when Larry Jones scored from the one yard line. PAT failed.

Another TD came in the second quarter as Jack Carthel blocked an Idalou punt, then Bill Starkey recovered on the 13 yard line, and Rick Covington scored from five yards out. PAT failed.

Floydada led 12-0 at halftime. In the third quarter Idalou scored on a long drive, making the two extra points and the score was 12-8. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half Guy Ledbetter scampered for 75 yards and the third Floydada TD. Ricky Covington ran the two extra points over and the score was 20-8. Idalou scored again in the fourth quarter and the game ended 20-14.

Coach Rainer cited Jim Potts, Carmen Soliz, Jack Carthel, Larry Jones, Ricky Covington, Lupe Garza, Bill Starkey and Guy Ledbetter as defensive standouts. . . and secondary linemen: Quin Coleman, Rusty Cagle, Mark Hulme, recovering one fumble and two pass interceptions in the Idalou game. Offensively he praised Kerry Pratt, Jon Jones, Sheldon Sue, Jim Potts, Bill Starkey, Monte Smitherman and Jacky Windom.

Floydada Man Submits Plan To President Ford To Slow Inflation

(Editor's note) David Kirk has mailed the following plan to President Ford on some of his thoughts about slowing inflation:

In a free economy of business in this country, two things control prices more than any of the other factors — supply and demand. From the research that I have done for the past several months, I decidedly found that supply of material and merchandise is lagging behind demand by some $1%. If supply can catch up to demand in the market place, the price should become competitive, thus level off, and in many cases, be reduced.

Many reasons are supplied for the lack of supply — energy, transportation, but most important of all, labor. Of course, there are other things such as: money in the foreign markets, balance of payment exchange, credit, government spending in foreign markets, and on and on. However, we must admit to ourselves this one true fact: the wealth of any nation whether or not it is a free economy, social economy, or one of the hard central controled economies, the productive ability of the people in goods and services is the real measure. Gold, money, raw material, energy, transportation or what have you is of very little value, unless the people will develop goods and services from these items. Thus, work is the answer to the problems of our society today.

We are faced at the same time with a dilemma of an ever increasing rate of inflation, yet with a growing inflation rate only second from the least among world nations (leaving out the communist countries that we do not know about). At the same time we have a growing rate of unemployment; and we are now faced with a deep recession. Quite a problem to overcome. Work in the face of these tasks is the only answer. Work is the answer to inflation, work is the answer to depression.

The plan that is to be submitted must be taken in the right light and must be sponsored by the Congress and the Administration of this country. The news media will have to get behind it. Excellent planning must go into the administration of the plan. A "wink" at some of the laws now governing us is necessary. The plan, to be effective, must be worked out in steps of progression for it to work at all. Now — the plan.

People work in this country on the basis of eight hours per day, for five days a week — thus twenty days a month. Everyone who works, regardless of what he does, is to donate one hour of work each day for the twenty days of his or her job at no charge to anyone. That's right, no charge. This plan will not cost the worker any extra money, with the exception of child care, etc.

Just time is asked of each working person: No extra Social Security or income taxes are to be involved. No wage and hour laws to be applied. An example of the productive ability of this plan is: a man works an eight hour shift and produces the equal of 100 items — the extra hour should then produce 12½% more. Some industries of this country are on a ten hour day at this time. The reports of such an arrangement are glowing with increased productivity. The extra hour should not cut down on the over-all ability of the person to produce.

Of course, everyone must participate in some way, so that the effort is unified. The plan that runs twenty-four hours a day — the worker will attempt to be more efficient and produce more and better for the time that he works. The school teacher can prepare the lesson a bit better, or give up a coffee break; the executive can do better work and more of it — this goes for the clerk, the baker, the butcher — the farmer can just flat work longer or stay out of the coffee shop more — and so on, and on, and on.

Stop right here and consider this equation: there are 365 days in the year. Take off the 52 Sundays, the 52 Saturdays, and the 12 normal holidays in the year and you have a balance left of 249 working days in the year. Divide the number 249 by the 20 days of work (if you could extend the one our to one day) and you come up with 12.45% more work turned out in one year. Isn't this the magic gift to get the country back in line. The reason for the one hour instead of extending the requested work to one day, is to get the public back in the saddle of doing a bit of something extra again, and perhaps we can realize how important work is to this country.

For the plan to work, the plan will have to begin, in stages, with the planned accumulation of the raw product — thus the first stage of the 20 day work program would start with those industries involved in the raw material and its transportation. This, of course must tie in with the conservation of the energy and raw material as described by the administration already. I suggest one step further: for 1975, let us have 12% less sports activities in this nation. Consider how much energy can be saved here.

The next process for the plan is for the manufacturing group to take over — thus following would be distribution and finally the consumer — from a housewife to the construction company building in the field.

Now remember, the 20 extra hours is at a no charge basis. The regeneration of productivity in the market

Athena Has Education Program

Athena Junior Study Club met last Thursday week in the home of Mrs. Jerry Williams with Mrs. James Poole serving as co-hostesses. Mrs. Roy Turley gave the invocation and the club pledge and allegiance to the flag were recited. Roll call involved members bringing children's books for the hospital.

A program entitled "Conversations in Education" followed. Mrs. Joe Zorger, Education Chairman, led the round table discussion which included three other educators. Mr. Jerry Cannon, co-ordinator of Plan A, Mr. R. L. Knox, high school principal, and Mrs. Alice Cruz, Adult Education Instructor and Migrant teacher made up the guest panel.

Mrs. Zorger represented Title I and the Migrant Program. Mr. Cannon stated that Plan A is a comprehensive plan for educationally handicapped children. Regarding adult education, Mrs. Cruz described it as an individualized instructional process. Mr. Knox pointed toward new innovation in the educational process and gave examples of the resulting vocational programs. Mrs. Zorger emphasized the goal of oral language development on the elementary level for Migrant children.

Members and their special guest, Mrs. Martha Davis of Lockney, were then served gingerbread, spiced tea, and coffee. Members are reminded to bring twenty-five copper pennies to the next meeting.

Well, here we are on our last week of October. Time sure flies fast.
We sure have been having a great time this past week, working on some more clown dolls and some pretty covered wagons. But it's not all work, there is time for fun and having parties.
This past Wednesday we were proud to have our Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Dept. giving our residents a great "Halloween Party." Thanks to these ladies for the wonderful time. Juandell Giles read poetry to us, and they served cake and punch and cookies to all our residents. Decorated our lobby for Halloween, and set

MRS. GARY MANGOLD (former Brenda Carol Dudley)

Miss Dudley, Gary Mangold Wed In Home Ceremony Saturday

Miss Brenda Carol Dudley and Gary B. Mangold pledged wedding vows Saturday afternoon, October 26, in the Lockney home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Mangold. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melson Dudley of Lubbock.

Bob Glover of the Arlington Heights Church of Christ, Corpus Christi, was the officiating minister.

Mrs. John James of Edmund, Oklahoma, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Mangold Jr. of Lockney, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Don Steeley of Killeen, sister of the bride.

John Bickley of Mt. Pleasant was best man. Groomsmen were the groom's brother, Bill Mangold of Lockney, and Steve Sutherland of Dallas.

The bride wore a long gown of Lutesong satin, with an empire waist and a high neckline trimmed in pearl braid. A chantilly lace ruffled trim with pearls accented the long sleeves.

Bridesmaids were attired in printed chiffon dresses in Lighthouse Electric was the setting Tuesday night for the Federation Day salad supper attended by members of the four Floydada Study Clubs, members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

The tables were colorfully decorated in an autumn and hallow'en theme with assorted decorative squash, pumpkins, candles, and paper pumpkin placemats.

Table grace was given by Mrs. Max Dyess. Mrs. Roy Kinard, president of the Floydada Inter-Club Council, was mistress of ceremonies and she recognized club presidents: Mrs. W.O. Newberry, 1934; Mrs. Dallas Ramsey, 1950; and Mrs. John Dunlap, 1956.

Mrs. Kinard introduced Marshall Cooper, Executive Director of Girlstown, U.S.A., with a poem composed by Mrs. John Dunlap. Cooper in turn, introduced residents of Girlstown, Misses Joan Tony, Katy Young, and Marty Massey, who sang a medley of songs, one of which was written by them entitled "Girlstown, U.S.A."

Cooper gave a short history of Girlstown, of which there are now three campuses, located at Whiteface, Borger, and Austin.

Girls are taken by Girlstown from broken homes or troubled environments and introduced to a family situation. The girls are shown love and care in hopes that they can learn to give love and care to others.

Age range varies from three to college age. Some girls live at Girlstown for many years, some stay only a short while.

The director expressed his sincere appreciation to all Federated Women's Clubs of Caprock District for sponsoring Girlstown each year.

A question and answer period followed.

Floydada women gave an assortment of school supplies to Girlstown.

Members attending the event were: 1929 Study Club: Mmes. H.O. Cline, C.W. Denison, Clarence Goins, Sam Green, and Iaan Moore.

Floydada Women Attend March Of Dimes Regional Meet In Dallas

"March of Dimes volunteers are looking forward to the most exciting program year in history," reports Floyd County Volunteers. "The excellent response to last year's drive has enabled us to expand research and medical service programs around the country."

Mrs. Randy Bertrand and Mrs. Craig Edwards has just returned from a regional meeting of the voluntary health organization in Dallas. There, they met with delegates from neighboring states to go over the new dimensions of March of Dimes programs aimed at prevention of birth defects.

"The medical advances we heard about were particularly impressive," said the Floydada women. "Improved methods of treatment, diagnosis, and consultation for high-risk pregnant women and newborns were explained by specialists. At one session, Dr. Edwin Lee Gresham and Dr. Loren P. Petersen, discussed how their specialties are rapidly developing combined techniques to reduce many risks of pregnancy.

"Another important aspect," they continued, "is the progress on plans for a strategic network of perinatal services throughout the country. These guidelines have been drawn up by leaders in obstetrics, pediatrics, family practice, the nursing profession, and health agencies. The goal is to allocate highly trained staff and equipment to treat mothers and infants at different levels of risk to avoid duplicating costly services."

MORE favorite kids stories by Dick Van Dyke. . . . The clergyman was telling his guests a story when his little girl interrupted: "Daddy," she asked, "is that true — or is that preaching?"

One little boy I know was pretty bad one day, so his father gave him a bit of a spanking and sent him to his room without supper. "And don't forget to say your prayers," he was told. And the father went to his son's room to see that he did. The youngster did as he was told. He gave his usual blessings to his family, his friends, his teacher — everybody but his father. Then he turned to his pop and said, "I suppose you noticed you wasn't it?"

My mother-in-law was teaching Sunday school and asked the youngsters to write out the Ten Commandments. When it came to the Fifth Commandment, one boy put down: "Honor thy father and thy mother."

Russian Railroaders To Tour SF Facilities At Amarillo

Six Russian railroaders will tour Santa Fe Railway facilities at Amarillo Friday, November 1, including the recently opened centralized rail welding plant, the ultra-sonic detector car and track geometry car.

Officials of the Soviet Union's Ministry of Rail-roads do not shrink further — to help your neighbor to get by a little better — to help America come through a real crisis that can sink this country just as surely as a powerful enemy at our doorstep? Think this plan over.

ways, they are on an inspection tour of U.S. rail operations. They will fly into Amarillo Thursday at 7:30 p.m. from Longview, Texas after observing a Navajo Indian gang laying the welded rail.

Hosting the delegation will be W.S. Autrey, Santa Fe's chief engineer-system, from Chicago; J.R. Fitzgerald, general manager and E.C. Honath, assistant general manager-engineering, both of Amarillo. The Russians arrived in Washington, D.C. Sunday, October 27, and federal officials are accompanying them on their rail tour. Friday morning at 8:30 a.m., Fitzgerald will speak to the Russians in his office, covering Santa Fe Western Lines operations and answering questions. Each member of the delegation will be given a packet of materials on the company. At 9:30 a.m., they will inspect the ultra-sonic detector car and at 10:30 a.m. will ride on the track geometry car between Amarillo and Pampa. This highly automated and computerized vehicle checks track conditions and locates defects.

The Russian group will spend more than two hours at the centralized rail welding plant, starting at 2:30 p.m. The welding plant, which employs 70 people, was formally opened by President John S. Reed on May 14. Santa Fe now has more than 5,000 miles of welded rail in place, more than any other railroad in the United States. The Soviet railroaders will be Fitzgerald's guests at a dinner in the Amarillo Club that evening. Saturday morning, the Russians will ride a Santa Fe business car on the Super C fast freight train to Kansas where they will conclude their tour of Santa Fe facilities. Autrey says the trip is reciprocal in that he and five other American railroad executives toured rail facilities in the Soviet Union in late June and early July. Sergei Guins, consultant for the Federal Railway Administration, is among the officials making both the Russian and American tours. He will act as interpreter. Dr. Michael R. McCafferty and W.B. O'Sullivan, both of the FRA, will accompany the Russian railroaders at Amarillo.

It's so wonderful to see so many people coming and sharing with us every week. So much concern and love. Thanks again to everyone who has had a part in our morning devotionals and church services. Thanks also to everyone who has brought us material scraps, egg cartons, flowers, etc. I don't have all your names, but bless you for caring. We couldn't do much without your help.

We are very happy to see Mamie McGee recuperate and able to go back home. But we will sure miss her. She sure is sweet and a great piano player. She promised us she would come play for us again.

We are very proud of our G.V.N.'s Otero Scheele for she has been to State Board, also Pat Anderson, who also went to State Board, but sorry that we will lose her. She is going to Dallas. We are very proud for them. Also for having Mrs. Della Jacobs with us again and Mrs. Fisher. They are both on our Nurses Staff. We are so proud to have you!

We also want to express our sympathy to Mrs. Ola Rogers whose daughter passed away this week in California. May God grant her strength to bear on.

Last Friday Mrs. Finley went to Lubbock to see the doctor. So glad everything was fine, and she came back that afternoon.

Mr. Hugh Griffith went out for a few days with his daughter and family to Lubbock. Leo Leal went home with his family for a few days also. T.J. Cardinal also went out for the weekend with his wife, Dollie.

Burke went out Tuesday with their daughter, Mildred Cates to Floydada.

We have had several out names. I know Willie Wiley had Bishop E.N. Givens from Plainview visiting with him and also had Willie Bennett from Floydada and several others. Mrs. Weems

PEOPLE POWER IS POLL POWER

Did YOU vote in the last election? Did you exercise personally the right given to you by the founding fathers of this country? In these strange days of incredible events at all levels of our government, do you have a complaint that you can substantiate by saying, "Yes, I cared enough to vote." As Bert Holmes, associate editor of the Dallas Times Herald so aptly stated, "If you want to retain your license to gripe about city, county, state and national affairs, you need to get your gripe permit validated in the voting booth. It's a little hypocritical to gripe and complain about the kind of leaders we have unless we have voted for or against candidates at any level."

There are 5.3 million registered voters in the state of Texas. Only 28% of these voters bothered to go to the polls in the May Primary election. Why?

Sam Kinch Jr. of the Austin Bureau of the Capital press corps toured the state in an effort to discover why Texans no longer care. He states the political experts cannot find a reason for the APATHY found everywhere. He searched for the reasons the public was not "UP IN ARMS". He found no answer!

When such dark clouds are descending over our nation's

democrat / comptroller

Bob Bullock is the overwhelming choice of Texas Democrats for Comptroller. He won the primary election with 76 per cent of the vote.

Bob Bullock is a tough-minded, straight-talking lawyer. He was described as "the best Secretary of State that Texas ever had."

Bob Bullock knows Texas government from one end to the other. He has proven himself in public service.

the job — comptroller the man — bullock.

Bullock Wants To Exempt School Vehicles From Gasoline Tax

FORT WORTH . . . Bob Bullock, Democratic nominee for Comptroller, Monday called for exempting city, school and county-owned vehicles from the state gasoline tax as one small step toward helping local governments.

"It's stupidity to charge school buses a state gasoline tax on one hand and worry about better school financing on the other," Bullock said in an address to the Texas Municipal League's state convention.

Bullock noted that "the school house, the courthouse and city hall aren't on the property tax rolls and they don't pay sales tax: so, it may come as a surprise that we hit them with gasoline taxes."

"I've heard of robbing Peter to pay Paul, but it's ridiculous to put a state gas tax on a county maintainer going out to work on a county road," he said.

Bullock said there is "ample precedent for this relief," noting that the Legislature in 1941 authorized lower motor fuels taxes for private transit systems operating under-city franchises.

Transit systems get a penny break on the five-cent a gallon gasoline tax and a half-cent break on the 6.5 cent diesel tax. Like private consumers, local governments pay the said a total publicly would cost million a year, bucket for the our local govern "You can be that vehicles Texas by government gas taxes. The do is give the our own," Bullock said. He said "the loss to the include a $2.5 gas tax money school fund is money could easily in this when our gap with oil and revenues."

VOTE Tuesday Nov. 5 the General Election

We do not join Ralph Nader in his proposal that people be made to vote! We believe that citizens have the right to choose to VOTE in any way they desire. Our task is to pick up our principles; put on our purpose; persuade the people; provide the possibilities; and POLL POWER WILL BE PEOPLE POWER.

You know, the worse inflation gets the more we need somebody like Briscoe. He's created a lot of good jobs and he knows how to get things started.

We need new jobs and more income in this state and Governor Briscoe is helping us get them.

In times like these when the economy is so shaky, I'm going to stay with Governor Briscoe.

Briscoe's kept pace without adding new taxes - I voted Republican in 1972, but I'm voting for Briscoe this time.

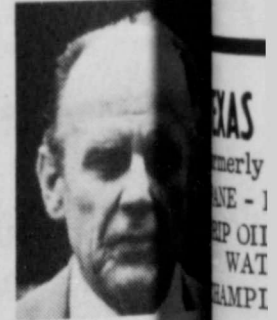

It's quite refreshing for me to know that we have a man like Dolph Briscoe... a man who puts integrity before all things....

They all promised no new taxes: Dolph Briscoe kept his promise.

Dolph Briscoe's proved he has the contacts and the know-how to bring new business to the State of Texas. We can't afford to lose him at a critical time like this.

I think Dolph Briscoe is a Governor you can believe in. I'm looking forward to voting for him in November.

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school senior. I attend church regularly and am active in our church youth group. My problem is a friend of mine. He's a nice guy and we study together, but he belongs to another church, and keeps hassling me about my religion. He thinks it's his mission to go around converting people to HIS religion. We've had some pretty hot arguments about this, and I've told him he is wasting his time if he thinks he's going to turn me off my religion and on to something else. I don't want to end our friendship because he's the most intelligent friend I have, but how can I convince him that I am happy with my own religion and don't want to change?

DEAR J.: Send him this quote from a letter that Thomas Jefferson wrote to Mrs. H. Harrison Smith in 1816: "I never told my own religion nor scrutinized that of another. I never attempted to make a convert, nor wished to change another's creed. I am satisfied that yours must be an excellent religion to have produced a life of such exemplary virtue and correctness. For it is in our lives, and not from our words that our religion must be judged." And J., if your friend is as intelligent as you say he is, he

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I work together delivering morning newspapers. We start out at 1 a.m. and finish up about 5 a.m. It's dark out at that time and many of the house numbers are hidden by big bushes, and some house numbers have been painted over and are impossible to read from the street, so my husband has to get out of the truck and look around for the house numbers with a flashlight. With so much meanness in the world today, he could be mistaken for a prowler. Not only that, but it's time-consuming to get out of the truck, set the brakes, and go looking around for house numbers. I hope you use this in your column to let folks know how they can solve our problem.

DEAR PEOPLE: Your letter could solve that problem for others who must make deliveries at night.

DEAR ABBY: "Stumped" asked how to say no to sex, since she was a divorcee and couldn't use that old "I'm saving myself for marriage" excuse. You told her she didn't need an excuse—just give him a flat "no!" Well, that would run a guy off permanently, which may not be what the lady wants to do. Perhaps she would like to get to know him better. I suggest that she say, "Don't rush me." That's not a flat "no," and she doesn't run the risk of hurting the man's ego. ODESSA, TEXAS

DEAR ODESSA: "Don't rush me" has a ring of promise to it that may be misleading. And how long must a man remain in a holding pattern before the lady no longer feels "rushed"?

Shorthorns Lose At Tulia

The Lockney Shorthorn seventh and eighth grade football teams dropped two decisions to Tulia last week. Tulia won the seventh grade game 14-0 and the eighth grade game 18-14.

The Lockney seventh graders moved the ball well at times but couldn't score. Arnold Alaniz recovered a fumble for the Shorthorn seventh, and the Shorthorn defense played "pretty well", Coach Doug Bowles said.

In the eighth grade contest, David Lee scored for Lockney on a 40-yard end-around run, and Aaron Wilson intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards for the other Lockney TD. The Shorthorns made one conversion run.
