Martin-Withholder.
Last Saturday afternoon at Paso the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Withholder of that city and Ross M. Martin was solemnized. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Withholder, prominent people of El Paso.

Ross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Martin of this city and has been reared here. He is a graduate of our high school and his honest, upright character has made for him many friends. The past several years he has made his home in El Paso, where he is working for T. & N. O. as switchman.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin came in Monday morning for several days visit here with his parents and other relatives. They will leave the latter part of the week for Crystal City and other points for a visit with relatives before returning to El Paso where they will make their home.

The Times joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes and wish for them much success as they travel through life together.

Sunbeams Reorganized.
The Sunbeams, who have not been very active this summer, held a meeting Tuesday at the Baptist Church at which time, under the leadership of Mrs. Roy Knox, they reorganized. Plans were made for the year's work and it is to be hoped that by the time school opens they will have a large band of little sunbeams.

At the church next Tuesday afternoon they will meet and an interesting program has been planned.

BAPTIST CHURCH OPENED.
The opening services for the new Baptist church was held last Sunday, a large crowd of people being out. The church was beautiful in flowers and ferns, the gifts from friends, and made an ideal background for such an occasion.

The Sunday School was organized with 71 members and Jack Dempsey was elected the Superintendent.

The opening service was preached by Rev. Marsh of Marfa. Bro. Owen, the local pastor, in introducing Rev. Marsh said: "That the hope of the church was to be one of service not only to our own members but to every one regardless of denomination. Their highest hope and aim is to lead man to Christ who takes away the sins of the world. And with this thought in mind the church was built and we gather here today to praise God for these blessings." Rev. Marsh delivered a good opening sermon and one worth while. He took as his subject, "The Necessity of Building a House For Worship." Special song service was also had at this time, Mrs. Charles Morris of Del Rio sang "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer."

At the noon hour a lovely basket lunch was served to a large crowd on the court house lawn.

In the afternoon all again gathered at the church and a song service was rendered. Mrs. Ed Sterrett at this time sang "I've Had a Talk With Jesus." Rev. Armstrong, the Methodist pastor who happened to be present, also gave a worth while talk. He expressed his happiness in that the Baptists were able to build such a fine church and especially praised Bro. Owen for his sacrifices made in order that this monument to God might be built.

At 7 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. met and a good program was given. Mrs. Kate James Cox, music and voice teacher, sang "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go." A reading, "The Guy Who Stumped His Toe," was given by Miss Lillie Strange. The B. Y. P. U. will hold their regular Sunday meeting again and all the young folks are asked to come out and help.

At the evening services Rev. Marsh again preached taking as his subject "Thou Faith Has Saved Thee, Go In Faith," taken from the 7th chapter of Luke. The audience was also favored with a solo, "I Am Satisfied With Jesus" by O. H. McAdams.

The members of the church will always remember the opening as they had long looked forward to this day. And the beautiful floral offering was certainly appreciated and they thank each and every one for them.

AS IT LOOKS TO ME.
By Jack Ainslie.

School Days.
Next Sunday night many a rebellious little Sandersonian will lie down to dream dreams and see visions—dreams of burning school buildings and piloried school teachers. For next week Young Sanderson goes back to school again. The freedom, fun and frolic of vacation-time must then give way to the boredom of lessons and themes and classes. And that is a prospect that tends to set rather heavily upon the restless, carefree minds of boys and girls.

But joy cometh in the morning! Such is the buoyancy and resiliency of young hearts that joy lies just around the corner of every turn in the glamorous roadway leading through the happy land of childhood.

To be sure, school days, with their dry, old problems and fussy teachers, are often joy-killers to many an imaginative, restive schoolboy and schoolgirl heart. But out of it all youth wrests some of its happiest moments and most cherished memories—memories that brighten and inspire the after years of life.

Wisely and well does the Guardian Angel of the young provide needed compensation in order that the book of childhood's years may be properly balanced! Much has been done to make modern school days brighter, better and more efficient. Much more needs to be done along the same lines—and will be done. The fathers and mothers of America will see to that.

It's a long lane that has no turning. And the "lane" that leads to the door of the public school usually turns into Achievement Avenue.

Lads and lassies of Sanderson, the school bells are ringing!

The Presbyterian Church.
The Presbyterian Church urges all its members and adherents to attend next Sunday's services. The services for the day are as follows:

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Readjustments and rearrangements calling for the hearty and earnest assistance of parents and pupils need to be made. This Sunday school is striving to assist your boys and girls to build a Christian life and character. We believe that the aid of the parents is necessary to this end. Won't you manifest your readiness to extend that aid by your presence at Sunday school Sunday?

At 11 a. m. a sermon on the topic, "In the World's Hall of Fame."

At 8:15 p. m., evening worship. Sermon subject, "The Overdrafts of Life." Both of these sermons will deal with the outreach of the human heart towards God. They will be fundamentally inspirational and directly evangelical.

At both the morning and evening service, Mrs. Kate James Cox will sing.

PRESIDIO CELEBRATES SEPTEMBER 15 TO 17

Border City Delighted That Orient Nearly Completed from Interior Mexico.

One of the biggest international celebrations ever pulled off on the border will take place at Ojinaga, Mexico, and Presidio, U. S. A., September 15, 16 and 17, celebrating completion of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, according to Robert D. Wade, territorial manager of the Railway Guide, who has been in Presidio the last week getting material for the forthcoming Guide.

Mr. Wade said Gen. Don Trevino, general superintendent of Orient operations in Mexico, is sparing no effort in getting the gap of railroad in Ojinaga, just across the river from Presidio. Bull fights and other Mexican sports will be a part of the entertainment. Americans are expected to come with a roll of bedding, as the little town of Presidio can not accommodate the crowd of Americans expected.

President Calles and staff, Dwight Morrow, Ambassador to Mexico; officials of the Orient in Mexico, Mexican military bands, city officials of Ojinaga and many other notables of the sister Republic are expected to take part in the big festival, which will be principally carried out in Mexico completed by this date. The occasion will commemorate not only completion of the Orient to the United States, but will celebrate Mexico's Independence Day.

Alpine, Presidio and towns along the Orient are expected to boom, since announcement that sale of the Orient to the Santa Fe has been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. This is the shortest line from Mexico City to Eastern markets. It is expected that much development of natural resources heretofore remote from railroad facilities will take place.

Henry Gates Announces for Justice of the Peace.

In the announcement column of this week's Times our readers will find the name of Henry Gates, who is running for the office of Justice of the Peace of this precinct.

Mr. Gates needs no introduction to our citizens, as he is well known here, having been a resident here for several years and is well liked by all who know him for his honesty and upright character. Mr. Gates has held this office before and feels as though he is qualified to serve in this capacity again and states that he will appreciate your vote and support in the coming November election.

Sanderson Market Sold.
Sam Spears, who has owned the Sanderson Market for the last year or more, sold out last week to Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Stirman of this city. Possession of the market was given on Saturday and Jack Gray of Valentine will manage the place.

Mr. Gray states that he will handle only the best and freshest of meats and would appreciate all business given them. They will have prompt delivery service.

Mr. Spears will take a much needed rest and will remain here for awhile. He and Mrs. Spears has made many friends here during their stay and who wish for them success wherever they go and in whatever they undertake to do.

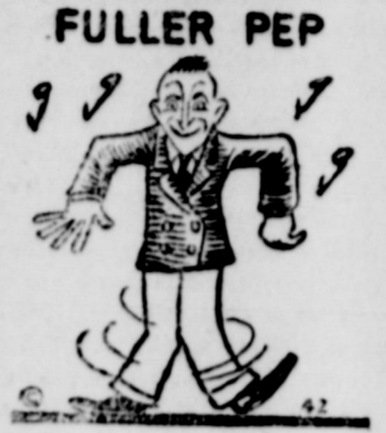

Circus a Success.

The amateur circus which was given Monday evening at the C. A. C. hall by the Boy Scouts of this city was one of entertainment and kept the crowd that was present continuously laughing. Some of the best known performers to be found were in the circus and of course the elephant, monkey, lions, even the giraffe and the rare and only animal of its kind in existence, the gook, was there. The circus also had its own horses which could certainly do various tricks as well as dance. The clowns were forever pulling off various tricks and playing pranks on the performers. And the boxing match between two of them was worth the admission price alone. As a side line one could get soda pop, red lemonade, popcorn and various eats that go with a circus.

A neat sum was realized for the Scouts.

Mrs. Nunn and son of Krippa are visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Hesse.

The question is not where civilization began but where will it.

SCHOOL DAYS; DEAR OLD GOLDEN RULE DAYS

will soon be with us again, and the wise mother or student will have much need of our services in getting ready for the coming school year.

We stand alert and ready to answer their call and will do our very best to prove our ability to save you money on your clothing costs.

Floyd and Leon Drake of Tulia visited their aunt, Mrs. R. H. Lewellen here this week. They left Wednesday accompanied by their sister, Miss Thelma, who has been visiting here for some time.

Dr. W. H. Doty of Del Rio was here the latter part of last week on business.

A COMPARISON OF SERVICES

Have goods from stores delivered to your home, have a suit of clothes altered, have a professional man perform a service, and you expect to pay for each and every service performed.

Ask a bank to perform any financial service—keep your books, furnish you with supplies, protect your funds, forward or collect your checks and you pay not a single penny.

All your banker asks for his services is the opportunity of making a fair profit.

This can be done only by maintaining a reasonable balance in your checking account.

The service fee at this bank simply gives as the possibility of an even break.

T. E. Childers, formerly with the Marfa Publishing Company, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Spencer here the first of the week. Mr. Childers was on his way to Waco to visit relatives before he assumes his duties with the Alpine Avalanche on the first of October. Mr. Childers was a pleasant caller at our office while in this city.

Mrs. Clyde Mills has as her guests this week her mother, Mrs. D. Morgan, her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan and children, and her sister, Miss Lucy Belle Morgan, all of Georgetown. They returned to their home Wednesday.

R. F. Andrews of Tulia is visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. H. Lewellen.

50 Years

Mr. Jones Says:

the Use of Black-Draught at by Jones, as Ave., Okla.

"WHEN I lived in Illinois, as a very young man, I used to take Black-Draught. I believe I can safely say that I have taken it for 50 years, off and on. Black-Draught and quinine were then all the medicines I took. In all these years, I have used Black-Draught when I would get bilious. When I do get bilious, I have dizzy spells and my stomach gets all out of fix, and I just get sick all over. I found that, if I would begin taking Black-Draught in time, I could ward off these sick spells, and for years this is what I have done. I have kept my system cleansed with Black-Draught, just a few doses, now and then."

Mrs. Jones Says:

"I have been a user of Black-Draught for about 43 years, and find it just as good now as when I began its use. When I was young, I used to have severe headaches, and would have to go to bed. I found that by taking Black-Draught, I would soon get easy, and if I would take Black-Draught as soon as I began feeling bad, it would keep off the sick headaches. Now I take Black-Draught for a bad taste in my mouth, biliousness, and the dull, heavy feeling after meals. It surely does help this."

SUPPLEMENT TO SANDERSON TIMES, FRIDAY, SEPT. 7, 1928

DR. J. B. CRANFILL REVIVES THE ADVANCE

Dr. J. B. Cranfill, the old-time prohibition editor, who launched The Gatesville Advance in 1882, and which was the first weekly paper in Texas to advocate National Prohibition, has revived his paper. The price of The Advance is $1 a year. Sample copies will be sent upon request. Agents are wanted in every part of Texas.

The Advance heartily and vigorously advocates the Eighteenth Amendment and all other prohibition provisions, and identifies itself as "a journal of Christian civilization."

A post card will bring you a sample copy, or, what is better, $1 will bring this prohibition paper to you for a whole year. Address The Advance, 630, Wilson Bldg., Dallas, Texas.

Misses Elsie Pearl and Lois Swift, teachers in the Floresville public school for the last several years, will leave this week for Sanderson where they go to accept splendid positions in the faculty of the Sanderson school. Both young ladies were re-elected to teach here the coming year but resigned some time ago to accept the places at Sanderson. Patrons and pupils of the school, as well as the citizens of Floresville generally, greatly regret the moving away of these two splendid teachers and popular young ladies. As art instructors and faculty members of the school they have done splendid work and their efforts in the interest of the Wilson County Fair, as well as other civic and social activities, will be keenly missed. The best wishes of their many Floresville friends follow them to their new field of labor.—Floresville Chronicle Journal.

There were several bridge parties given the past week, particulars of which we were unable to get. We would certainly appreciate it if those who give the parties will phone us the particulars or send in write-ups of them as we are always anxious to print every bit of the happenings in our city and county.

Mrs. Q. J. Lowman and sons and daughters were guests over the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Landers. They visited Fort Davis last Sunday and Monday and returned to their home in Stiles.

Mrs. Charles Downie Sr. and daughter, Miss Octavia and Miss Mabel Flint visited here several days this week. They were en route by auto to Berkeley, Cal., from San Antonio, where they have spent the last year.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pollard and son, Melvin, have returned from a visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gray came in the first of the week from Valentine and will make their home here in the future. Mr. Gray has charge of the market.

Mrs. Frank Robertson left Monday for San Antonio where she will visit her sister, Mrs. E. D. Pipes.

Mrs. W. J. Ferguson and children have returned from Floresville where they visited relatives.

Reed McEntz has returned to his home in Douglas, Ariz., following several weeks visit here with his aunt, Mrs. Annie McLymont.

Fred Stivers, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. R. H. Lowellen, left Wednesday for his home in Decatur, Ill.

Surprise Party

Miss Thelma Drake who left Wednesday for her home in Tullia, Texas, was the honoree at a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Roy Knox on Tuesday night when the members of the B. Y. P. U. gave her a little party and showered her with parting gifts.

The evening was very enjoyably spent. Mrs. Kate James Cox furnished the music for the evening.

Following the serving of refreshments, the song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," was sung and each and every one then bade Thelma a fond farewell and the evening party was brought to a close by a prayer by Bro. Owen.

Bazaar

The ladies of the Altar and Rosary Society will hold their semi-annual Bazaar at the Bohman Confectionery on Saturday, October 6. There will be many useful articles for sale, such as aprons, children's bonnets, etc. Pies and cakes will also be sold.

NOTICE

Mrs. Kate James Cox will meet with those wishing to practice singing on Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church at 8:15.

Sunday Services at Baptist Church

Morning—Sunday school 9:45; preaching at 11:00. Evening—B. Y. P. U. at 7:00; preaching at 8:00. Subject for morning hour "The Devil's Dress Suit."

Johnnie Williams of Del Rio visited Ervin Grigsby here this week. Johnnie's many friends were glad to see him again and to know he is doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Haass and her sister Mrs. Nunn, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Haass and family were Alpine visitors Monday.

The W. M. U. will meet Monday, Sept. 10, at the church for Bible study. Every one is urged to come. We will study the book of Romans.

Fred Daugherty of Alpine visited his mother, Mrs. Troxie Daugherty here this week.

The ladies of the Baptist W. M. U. and the ladies of the Presbyterian Auxiliary have finished 26 children dresses and these will be sent to the Protestant Orphanage in San Antonio. This was in answer to an appeal for above dresses. The ladies have been sewing the past 10 days.

Harry B. Nutter of Girvin was a week-end visitor here with friends and relatives. Mrs. Nutter and children, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Farley, returned home with him.

Mrs. W. H. Savage left last Friday for San Antonio where she will visit her sister, Mrs. T. Maxey Hart. Her mother, Mrs. J. W. McKee, accompanied her, returning home the first of the week.

START WITH GOAL POSTS IN SIGHT

If there had been rich relatives or influential friends to pull wires in behalf of Troy Ginn, Myrtle M. Carriere, Roy McCoy and thousands of others we could name, their progress might not mean so much. But, just a few years ago they were in the same position that young people of the average American families find themselves at high school graduation age. They were facing the future. How they were to meet the problems of a career and what they were to accomplish depended upon their own decisions and initiative.

Mr. Troy Ginn, with his twin brother, Roy, had decided upon what he wanted to be, and he lost no time in preparing. His ambition was to be an agent for a railroad and from there to higher positions. He enrolled, therefore, for a Railway Course in America's largest school of telegraphy—Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas. Immediately upon graduation, he was placed in a good position. Later Tyler Commercial College aided him in getting a place with the St. Louis Southwestern Railway and he has been making good in his responsible position at Athens, Texas. Roy Ginn is at Betty, Texas, holding a responsible position with the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company in the telegraph department.

Miss Myrtle M. Carriere is with the Diem Wing Paper Company, 423-427 Front Street, New Orleans. Within five months after she left her home at Franklinton, La., Miss Carriere had completed the thorough course of Bookkeeping, Short-hand and Posting Machine. She says: "I am very proud to be a graduate of Tyler Commercial College and praise the Tyler methods of training at every opportunity."

Roy W. McCoy, who holds a responsible position with the Texas Railroad Commission stationed at Wink, Texas, enrolled from Louisiana. Just after completing his course, he was sent to Tulsa, Okla. With the experience added to his thorough training, Roy was headed for a much larger salary, so he changed positions and was sent to Wink, Texas. When he left Tulsa, that firm employed another Tyler graduate.

We could go on naming thousands and thousands of young people who were no older, not any more talented, not any better financially when they made their start than you are now. With a desire coupled with a thorough course in Tyler Commercial College, you can reach the highest goal of success. So if you want a good position, if you want abundant success, send now for the large, free book, "Achieving Success in Business." Just clip the coupon printed below and mail today. The helpful book is free, of course. No obligations.

WONDERFUL BANANAS

"I must get some banana brains," said the first banana, listening to the others moving and chatting on the bunch of bananas in the fruit shop.

"Do you suppose you can get them from the fruit man?" asked the second banana.

"Perhaps he has some tucked under the onions," said the third banana. "I wouldn't be at all surprised if there were something under them."

"They seem to be having so very much to say for themselves."

"No, one can't get brains from the fruit man," said the second banana. "Besides we're only being absurd when we talk about banana brains."

"There are no such things. People have brains. Animals have brains. But not fruit."

"Still we have our joys. We like to grow on the branch. We like to grow from green dressed fruit into beautiful yellow fruit."

"And we were all thrilled as we were brought into the shop when just outside we heard some people say: 'Oh, look at those delicious bananas. Aren't they wonderful! They must be so good.'

"Then we began to be sold, our sisters and our brothers, and the fruit man said: 'I won't keep this bunch of bananas any length of time at all.'

"I heard something which made me happy," said a fifth banana which had been listening to the others talking.

"What was it?" asked the first banana.

"What was it?" asked the second banana, and so did the others.

"A lady was in the shop," said the fifth banana, "and she said: 'Bananas weren't on my shopping list today, but I do declare, I must have some of those.'

"They look so wonderful!"

"That was certainly a compliment to us."

"We're a handsome and lucky bunch of bananas," said the first banana and the others all agreed.

"Then I heard a little girl say that she would rather have bananas on a picnic than any thing else," said the first banana continued. "That was a great compliment, too."

"People love picnics and to think that we should be the favorite thing to eat is extremely fine."

"Not only were we her favorite fruit but she liked us better than anything."

"Well," said another banana, "we have our own devoted friends."

"There may be some who don't like us, but it can never be said, never, never, never in this wide world, that we are without friends."

"And all the bananas looked bright and pleased at the truth of this remark."

DIG THREE MONTHS FOR POT OF GOLD

Aged Woman's Dream of Riches Starts Race.

Honolulu.—An aged woman's dream of buried treasure kept four men busy three months digging a lot 20 feet broad and 80 feet deep in a back yard in one of Honolulu's residential districts.

As they dug ancient Hawaiian charms were brought into use to protect them from evil spirits.

Mrs. Pele Kekuaallua, ninety-nine years old, was the dreamer. In her vision, it was explained, she saw the Hawaiian goddess of fire and the volcano, Pele, pointing out a spot in the yard where there was buried $25,000 in the five-cornered gold pieces of the old Hawaiian monarchy. The money was supposed to be contained in the bow of a canoe.

The excavation work went on for weeks before it came to official attention, when two motor cycle officers scouting the region for stolen automobiles noted the unusual activity.

At the end of three months no treasure had been found, but the excavating continued. The searchers had, however, uncovered a peculiar stone, differing in composition from the others in the shaft, and this has been greeted by Hawaiians as a "sacred stone."

A side light of the treasure hunt was the arrest of Kaalawai and John Mueume Niau, one of the diggers, on charges of "kahunaism" or witchcraft. The charges were dismissed when it was found that Kaalawai had prayed only to a luck goddess—Pele and two others—that the treasure sought might be found. The court held that invocation of good omens from spirits was not criminal.

Metal Mining Staging Comeback in Colorado

Denver, Colo.—The metal mining industry in Colorado slowly is staging a comeback.

From 1850 to the beginning of the Twentieth century, the state literally lived gold, silver and lead. Gregory started the "goldmadness" that caused Central City and Black Hawk to spring into being. He watched them grow to be leading, hell-roarin' mining camps.

Then came the slump. Today, however, mining camps are "looking up." Nevada, a famous "ghost town," is coming to life again. Two mines are reported working in that community after years of idleness.

Considerable activity is reported in Cripple Creek, one of the most famous of the old-time camps. From the time Bob Womack, a cowboy, found free gold in the Cripple creek area in 1881, millions of dollars in gold were taken from the hills.

Lenderville, boom town of the Rockies, is engaged actively in a new attempt to regain its former position in the mining world. Aspen, center of the silver district, is active, experts say.

Prosperity is returning to Idaho Springs with its famed Argo tunnel, which pierces the heart of the rich gold-bearing district for more than seven miles.

Old Cliff Dwelling Is Used as a Garage

Phoenix, Ariz.—The ancient and modern are in strange combination at the home of Joseph Johnson, a Verde valley rancher, who has utilized a prehistoric cliff dwelling as garage for his automobile. His cabin is high up on the talus of Red Rock Rim, in which are the remains of scores of rock-built habitations of a people of whom no more is known than is carried by a few vague legends of the Indians of today.

Eat Rattlesnake

State College, Pa.—The evidence is that fried rattlesnake is delicious. A college statement notes that some girl campers liked it so well they ate it four times in three weeks.

Toll of Floods for Year Is Enormous

Washington.—The Red Cross reported that 120,000 persons have been affected by floods in the Mississippi valley this year and that one-half as many counties have been inundated as during the spectacular disaster a year ago.

The relief organization said the only reason why public attention has not been directed to ward conditions this year is because they lack the dramatic features of the 1927 rise.

Twenty-eight relief workers have been stationed in Arkansas, Missouri and Louisiana, where tributaries have been flooded since May. Mr. Bondy reported that there had been no loss of life because the water rose slowly, enabling all to reach safety. Another staff of relief workers is on duty at points in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, where the big Sandy, Licking and other rivers have been in flood.

"The economic losses of these families who have been driven from their homes by the rising waters this year have been tremendous," it was reported.

Isolate Drunkards

In northern Russia chronic drunkards are given the same treatment as persons suffering from smallpox or any other pestilence. They are confined as a menace to health and life of the community.

How S. O. S. Helped to Win the World War

The biggest business corporation of all time was the Service of Supplies—the S. O. S.—behind the American expeditionary forces, in France, 1917-18.

The S. O. S. built more than 1,000 miles of railroad in France; brought over 1,400 locomotives and 18,543 railroad cars; brought 125,000 miles of telegraph and telephone wire, which was hung on 2,500 miles of poles; put up innumerable buildings, including a refrigerator plant for 6,500 tons of meat daily; built 16,000 portable barracks, and two hospital cities, each with 4,000 beds.

The bakeries that were built turned out 800,000 pounds of bread daily. As to the personnel of this huge business, it varied from experts in repairing field glasses, to that indispensable genius with the acetylene torch mending locomotives.—Frederick Palmer in Liberty Magazine.

Study to Improve Bowling

Science has been making an analysis of bowling to determine the rate of speed of the balls, how much they curve and other interesting factors about them, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Dr. L. W. Taylor of Oberlin college has devised an apparatus whereby the passage of a ball is registered to the hundredth of a second at twenty-inch intervals down the alley. A catapult is used to propel the ball. From facts so far learned, some of the accepted theories with regard to a ball's motion have been found incorrect, but friction seems to vary with the speed.

Kill Rats Without Danger

A New Extirminator that is Wonderfully Effective yet Safe to Use!

K-R-O is relatively harmless to human beings, livestock, dogs, cats, poultry, yet is guaranteed to kill rats and mice every time.

For 43 and 50 Years

Their Combined Ages 149 Years

Mr. Jones Says:
"WHEN I lived in Illinois, as a very young man, I used to take Black-Draught. I believe I can safely say that I have taken it for 50 years, off and on. Black-Draught and quinine were then all the medicines I took. In all these years, I have used Black-Draught when I would get bilious. When I do get bilious, I have dizzy spells and my stomach gets all out of fix, and I just get sick all over. I found that, if I would begin taking Black-Draught in time, I could ward off these sick spells, and for years this is what I have done. I have kept my system cleansed with Black-Draught, just a few doses, now and then."

Mrs. Jones Says:
"I have been a user of Black-Draught for about 43 years, and find it just as good now as when I began its use. When I was young, I used to have severe headaches, and would have to go to bed. I found that by taking Black-Draught, I would soon get easy, and if I would take Black-Draught as soon as I began feeling bad, it would keep off the sick headaches. Now I take Black-Draught for a bad taste in my mouth, biliousness, and the dull, heavy feeling after meals. It surely does help this."
