GEOLOGISTS TO MAKE TRIP IN BIG BEND AREA

Includes Students From U. of T. And College Of Mines

AUSTIN, Texas, May 12.—More than fifty geologists will make a field trip under the auspices of the West Texas Geological Society into the Big Bend region, starting from Marfa, May 14. Dr. E. H. Sellards, director of the Bureau of Economic Geology of The University of Texas, who is familiar with the remote region that is to be visited will serve as chief guide and the assistant will be J. F. Hosterman, district geologist for the Amerada Petroleum Corporation. Besides active members of the profession who will make the trip, several geology students of The University of Texas and the Texas College of Mines at El Paso, and professors of these institutions will take part in the expedition. The camp of the expedition will be located at McGuirk's Tank, situated on the circular Solitario Mountain dome, 70 miles south of Marfa and within a few miles of the Rio Grande. There are parts of the Big Bend region which have been but little explored and it is expected that much geological information of interest and possible value may be obtained. The famous Terlingua quicksilver district is situated in the extreme lower part of the Big Bend, and recently there has been unusual activity in prospecting for cinnabar ore in that region. It is from this ore that quicksilver is obtained. The entire region possesses special interest to geologists. The expedition will be accompanied by a typical chuck-wagon which will carry the food supplies and provide the meals.

These, and seven other buildings, are being erected at a cost of about $3,500,000, with royalty money secured from oil land owned by the school.

HEAVY RAINS FALL THROUGH OUT COUNTY

Creeks and Canyons Cause Delay in Traffic Several Hours

Sanderson and vicinity was visited by a heavy down fall of rain early Wednesday morning and continued throughout the day with intermittent showers falling. All creeks and canyons were running full of water and on the highway west traffic was delayed for a few hours due to the dips running. A total of 1.58 inches of rain fell in town, with the surrounding territory getting from one half to two inches of rain or more. Hail fell in some sections but caused very little damage. A drop in temperature was felt the thermometer falling to 57 degrees.

The rain will be of beneficial to the range causing plenty of feed to put out and water. Ranchmen are all smiles over the rain and are hoping that better times are ahead.

BIG DIRIGIBLE MISSES CITY ENROUTE WEST

Forced Off Route Due To Bad Weather In This Section

Sanderson missed an opportunity Tuesday morning to glimpse the naval dirigible Akron, world's largest airship, as it crossed Texas enroute from Lakehurst N. J., to the Pacific Coast for maneuvers. The ship was under the Command of Charles Rosendhal, a native Texan.

The Akron passed over the Dryden airport at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The ship barely seen by the men at the government airport as it was very cloudy. At that time the ship was headed west toward El Paso.

Two hours later, at 10:30 a. m. reports were received from Langtry that the Akron was sighted over that place headed east. The ship then headed down the Pecos in the direction of San Angelo. Later it was reported at Toyah and by dark the huge ship came in site of El Paso and finally departed from that city about 8:30 on its way to the Pacific coast.

According to weather bureau reports, the Akron faced cloudy weather and thunder shower conditions the entire route from Dryden to El Paso. High winds were encountered in the vicinity of El Paso and the weather conditions through the ship's route in New Mexico and Arizona were not very favorable.

Wool Advance Is Half Of Value

Supplementing its announcement of April 30 when it was stated the National Wool Marketing Corporation had ample funds to handle the entire wool clip of 1932, the corporation has issued the following statement:

"To obtain funds in sufficient amount to finance the handling of 400 million pounds of wool, even at present low values, is quite an achievement in these difficult times. It has been accomplished through the perseverance of the Executive Committee of the National and the whole-hearted co-operation of the Federal Farm Board.

If the advances now being made by the National seem low they must be considered in connection with existing strained economic conditions which demand careful and conservative handling of funds. We have no hesitancy in saying that our advances represent only from 50 per cent to 55 per cent of present Boston values and that this should result in substantial additional returns later in the season.

We ask the growers to bear in mind that offers now being made in shearing sections quite entirely ignore the tariff of 34 cents per pound of clean wool, so that little or no protection accrues to the grower from the best tariff that has ever been provided for his benefit.

We ask that he also take into account the fact that commodity values are to be paid and business generally is to improve. That some progress in this direction will be made before the year draws to a close seems highly probable. Every effort must be made to render the tariff effective even though this may require some temporary personal sacrifice. If the major portion of the domestic clip is placed in the strong hands of the National so that it can be sold to orderly mill demand and not forced on unwilling markets the tariff can be made effective and the market be stabilized. This would benefit both the grower and manufacturer."

TO ERECT TOURIST CAMP

C. M. Breeding, local contractor, has started work on 12 tourist cabins to be erected in the eastern part of the city for C. F. James and R. E. Fred.

The apartments are to be of stucco and each one will be complete in itself. There will be steam heat, hot and cold running water, and all modern conveniences in each cabin.

Mothers' Day Appropriately Observed Here

Mothers Day was appropriately celebrated in Sanderson when some four hundred people assembled Sunday evening at the High School Auditorium to pay tribute to the Mothers of our country. The program was dedicated to Mother, and every phase of it gave expression of our appreciation of the irreplaceable love and influence of Mother in the life of our Nation.

The High School Band played two numbers, Dawn and Anona. The Girls' Glee Club accompanied by the Band sang Wonderful Mother of Mine, and Mother MaChree. The Girls' Sextette sang the Conqueror. Invocation was offered by Rev. Harrison. The address of the evening was delivered by Dr. L. E. Selfridge of San Antonio. The concluding numbers of the program were: Little Mother of Mine, sung by the Boys' Quartet; I Would that My Love, sung by the Girls' Glee Club; and Silver Threads Among the Gold, a violin duet by Lee Hardgrave and Henry Goldwire.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Griffith.

S. P. TRAIN ORDER TAKEN TO COURT

AUSTIN, TEX., May 9. (AP)—The Texas and New Orleans Railway Company filed suit in Travis County district court today to restrain the Texas Railroad Commission from preventing the railway from discontinuing passenger trains 101 and 102 between Houston and El Paso.

The company had applied to the commission for permission to abandon the trains, claiming revenue produced by the trains was insufficient to pay operating expenses. The application was denied.

A temporary injunction restraining the railroad commission from enforcing its general order was issued by Judge J. D. Moore.

These two trains, which have been running through this city as extras were discontinued this week, Wednesday being the last day that the trains ran.

Taking these trains off will be a handicap to our citizens in getting their mail as all the daily papers from San Antonio will be in here one day late.

Commencing on May 15th Sunday the local freight and express office will be closed on Sundays.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

OUR SCHOOLS DETERMINE WHAT OUR NATION SHALL BE

What we do for our public schools with our children determines what our nation shall do. In spite of temporary economic difficulties, it is not time for back-tracking in education. It is more vital for us to have better education and more of it to protect us from our own ignorance and follies. Men are children but once and during that period the grown-up can at least afford opportunity to the child—Wilbur, Secy. of Interior.

Land and Stock Valuations Left Same As Last Year

Decrease in taxes were announced Tuesday following a meeting of the Terrell County Commissioners' Court. The total tax reduction for the county amounted to twenty cents as follows: the ad valorem tax was cut from 25c to 20c; the road and bridge tax which has heretofore been 30c has been cut to 15c. With this reduction the total tax for Terrell County including the school, will be $1.25 on a hundred dollar valuation.

All land tax assessments were left the same as last year which is $1.50 a acre for all land north of the railroad and $1.25 for the land lying south of the railroad. Where resident and town property was listed the same as last year no changes were made, but those who rendered their property for less than last year, the Commissioners raised it to the valuation of last year.

Sheep, Goats, stock cattle and all other kinds of livestock were set as the same valuation as they were last year. This valuation is as follows: cattle $20; 2 year steers, $30; 3 year old steers, $40; native sheep, $3; spanish sheep, $2; angora goats, $1.50; spanish goats, $1; saddle horses and mules, $25; stock horses $5. WHAT WILL THE PEOPLE DO?

The state's law enforcement machinery is working overtime, gathering evidence and rounding up suspects in a million-dollar oil steal in East Texas. Grand juries, district attorneys, national guardsmen and state rangers are conducting sweeping investigations. Chairman Terrell of the state railroad commission says they are going to clean house—"from cellar to garret, and let the bricks fall where they may." It is to be assumed that the authorities are going to get to the top of this matter, as well as to the bottom. The Houston Post thinks the "garret" deserves especial attention, because there are bound to be "higher-ups" hiding somewhere in its darkened corners. "The revelations thus far indicate organized direction, and that somewhere there will be found "higher-ups" who were the organizing "geniuses." It is not to be believed that a million or more barrels of oil have been stolen from the East Texas fields by mere bush leaguers," declares the Post. The Post comment is typical of editorial opinion all over the state. "Oil theft in East Texas must be stopped," the Tyler Courier-Times declares emphatically. It is a herculean task the authorities have undertaken, asserts this paper. Their success depends on how far the public will back them up. If law violations are winked at it will be a difficult matter to uncover the guilty ones and prosecute them "as it should be done." Arrests have been made, and evidence is being gathered against more than a hundred others. Thus far the authorities have done well. "Now it is up to the people. What will they do about it?" asks the Tyler paper.

Proves That Family Of Seven Can Live On Dollar A Day

DENTON, Apr. 5.—The mythical dream of the housewife has been scientifically proved—a family of seven can live, and be happy, on $1 a day.

Six students of the Department of Home Economics of Texas State College for Women (CIA) and the manager of the practice cottage in which they live have found that it is possible for them to live on a $1 a day. This includes three well-balanced meals which are sufficiently nourishing to satisfy the appetite without eating between meals.

All food which could be bought in bulk was purchased in this manner and each day's portion carefully weighed and estimated. Each meal was served in the most attractive style in the manner of a three or four course meal. Common foods were made more appealing in this manner. A typical day's menu included:

Breakfast: Oatmeal, sugar, cream, stewed raisins, toast, butter, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Baked tomatoes and rice, shredded cabbage salad, bread and butter, milk.

Dinner: Liver with onions, gravy, baked brown beans with salt pork, mashed potatoes, carrot salad, bread and butter, baked apples.

Because of the value of milk, the regular supply of three quarts a day was continued, despite the fact that this total of twenty-four cents was a large part of the day's allotment. For four days, the experiment was continued, no two days have the same menu.

Is the milk he drinks a breeding place for germs?

It is unless kept in a temperature of 50 degrees or lower. In temperatures above 50 degrees, tiny germs, called bacteria, which are present in small numbers in all milk, multiply with amazing rapidity. Hundreds of microscopic germs become thousands, then millions, within the space of a few hours.

Disease Lurks in Bacterial Growth

Fortunately, most of these germs merely sour the milk and are comparatively harmless to health, but there is an ever present possibility that other germs, of virulent diseases, will get into the milk and multiply with the same rapidity as the harmless germs. Such germs do not always reveal themselves by a sour taste, and when introduced into the human system, may overcome bodily resistance, and result in serious illness. Septic sore throat, typhoid and scarlet fever are a few of the diseases that may be contracted in this way.

Be Safe—Keep Foods Below 50 Degrees

There is one sure way to avoid this danger. Milk, as it comes from your milkman, does not contain enough bacteria to be harmful. Warmth is required to multiply these bacteria to a point where they are a menace to health. Without such warmth bacterial growth cannot take place. To keep milk safe, therefore, it is vitally important that it be kept in temperatures BELOW 50 degrees, the danger line. Then, and only then, can you be sure of protection.

Use Ice or Electricity But Refrigerate Adequately

The method you use in maintaining safe temperatures matters little. Both ice and electricity are efficient and economical. The important thing is to keep milk (and other foods as well) below 50 degrees, safe from bacterial growth. If you use ice, KEEP THE ICE CHAMBER WELL FILLED. If you use electric refrigeration, ADJUST THE TEMPERATURE CONTROL FOR MIDSUMMER OPERATION. Or if your present equipment will not maintain the required cold, see the new ice and electric refrigerators on display at your dealers or the offices of this company.

Ice Is Cheap—So Is Electricity!

Why take chances with insufficient refrigeration?

RECIPES AND MENUS

By Department of Home Economics
Texas State College for Women
(CIA)

DENTON, May 12.—The arrangement of the dinner table is of great importance in serving a guest meal. A few years ago dinner tables were heaped to overflowing with cut glass, silver and other accessories, but today we depend on impressive simplicity rather than the mass display.

At a formal dinner there should always be a plate before each guest until the salad course is removed. As soon as one course is removed, another is put into its place. The first course, a canape or a cocktail, may be served from a small plate or a cocktail glass placed on the service plate. The bouillon cup and saucer are also placed on the service plate when the cocktail service is removed; both bouillon cup and saucer are removed together and immediately replaced by a hot plate containing the main course. Dinner rolls are passed by the waitress; the rolls are offered to the left as are all foods which admit of a choice.

When the main course is completed the plate is removed by the waitress with her left hand and the salad course is then placed with her right hand. On completion of the salad course, the table is cleared, crumbed, and the water glasses refilled; next the dessert silver is placed from a napkin. The dessert course is brought in and placed. Soon after the dessert course is served the demi-tasse is placed and nuts and bon bons are passed.

At strictly formal dinners, left hand service is used throughout, but at the present time right hand service is used more frequently. All plates are placed with the right hand from the right side, and the waitress begins with the hostess each time and continues at her right until all are served.

CLEAN UP NOTICE

TO THE CITIZENS OF SANDERSON:

You are hereby notified that our town is in need of being cleaned up of all trash or filth of any kind. Hogs are not allowed to be kept in the limits of the town. Cows, horse lots and privies must be kept as sanitary as reasonably can do so; and please attend to all the sanitary work about your premises and not wait for an officer to report to you what and when to do your scavenger work. Keep your outside privies well guarded by using lime or other preventives for flies and any other nests for the germs that are the makers of all diseases. We have had very few cases of Typhoid fever in 14 years. Let's all work together and try to keep all of those infectious and contagious diseases out of our little town.

Yours for a healthy town and community.

P. F. Robertson,
County Health Officer of Terrell County Texas.

CULTURE CLUB TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Sanderson Culture Club will be held next Friday, May 20th, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Creigh Jr. This will be the last meeting of the Club year and an interesting program on Texas Now, Her Resources, will be given.

New Bicentennial Quarter Dollar Being Coined

The new George Washington quarter dollar, to be issued by the United States Treasury as a feature of the nation-wide George Washington Bicentennial Celebration, will be coined in large enough quantities to satisfy a normal demand, officials of the Treasury have informed the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission. It is expected that the quarter will be ready for distribution before June 1.

The design of the new coin was approved by Secretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills from more than a hundred models, many of them submitted by Leading American artists. It was executed by John Flanagan, New York sculptor and the designer of the Department of Agriculture World War Memorial.

The obverse of the new coin bears the portrait of George Washington in profile. Over the head appears the word "Liberty" and below it is stamped the date "1932." To one side is the motto "In God We Trust." The principal design of the other side is a spread eagle with the inscription "United States of America" and "E Pluribus Unum" above, and "Quarter Dollar" below. An olive branch also appears below the eagle to complete a stately, dignified design. The new coin is exactly the same size, weight and fineness as the present quarter dollar.

The George Washington quarter is the first coin of regular issue ever to bear the image of the First President. It was authorized by special act of Congress making it possible for the Treasury to share in the Bicentennial Celebration. As a coin of regular issue the George Washington quarter will replace the twenty-five cent piece now in circulation. No other quarter dollar will be coined for the next twenty-five years unless authorized by special act of Congress.

Minted at San Francisco, Denver and Philadelphia the coins will be placed in circulation through the regular channels of the Federal Reserve Banks, and will appear simultaneously in all parts of the country.

DRYDEN LOCALS

Ten little friends helped Dorothy Bailey celebrate her 8th birthday last Monday afternoon from 3 to 5. Various games were played and delightful cake and punch was served.

Dryden had a good rain and quite a hail storm that beat the gardens into the ground, Wednesday morning. The rain came as a blessing for the ranches were very dry and several of the ranchmen were hauling water for their stock.

The Dryden ball team played Comstock two games on the Sanderson diamond last Sunday and were defeated by the scores of 5 to 2 and 8 to 1 respectively.

The dance given last Friday night by the ball boys was quite a success. Cake, coffee and cold drinks were sold and a neat sum realized. Son McDonnell and Miss Everett won the cake that was awarded the best waltzers.

The "Akron," largest airship in the world passed over Dryden at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday enroute to the Pacific Coast. The clouds were heavy and it was impossible to see the giant ship. It carried 80 men. The "Akron" will take part in the maneuvers on the West Coast.

Wool continues to move out of Dryden territory, a total of 5 cars being shipped the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Buchanan and son, Jackie, spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Carl Ellington at Sheffield.

Larry LaMontague was a Del Rio visitor the past week.

Mrs. Don McDonnell of Del Rio is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lulu McDonnell Smith.

The Mothers Day program under the direction of Mrs. Preston Wyatt was well rendered, twenty one children participating in the songs and recitations.

H. R. Norwood and family went to Marfa Sunday returning Monday night.

Mrs. M. Miller had as her week end guest her daughters Mrs. Dulcie Reynolds and daughter, of Langtry, and Mrs. Jack Conways and daughters of San Antonio.

H. A. Mooney, one of the ball boys, had his ankle badly sprained during the game last Sunday.

REGULAR MEETING OF P. T. A. HELD LAST THURSDAY

In the absence of Mrs. Utterback, president of the organization, Mrs. Joe Nichols, first vice president presided at the session. The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Mrs. Utterback, President, Mrs. Nichols, first vice president; Mrs. R. A. Hurst, second vice president; Mrs. Lochausen, secretary; and Mrs. A. F. Thrift, treasurer.

The group led by Miss Noble, sang When You and I were Young, Maggie. A very interesting discussion was made by Mrs. McCall on the subject of the mothers place in the life of a child. Miss Fox read several papers written by English students, who, in these papers gave their candid opinions of grown-ups.

Probably the most attractive feature of the program was the may pole dance given by the pupils of the second and third grades.

The second grade having the largest number of representatives present won the picture which is given at each meeting to the room with the best attendance.

It was decided that the fourth study hour would be conducted Thursday afternoon, May 12th at 2:30 o'clock.
