PROSPERITY MUST START ON THE FARM

The quickest way to break the back of the depression is to restore the buying power of the farmer. If this one thing is done a cycle of improved business will result, reaching into all other fields of endeavor.

The reconstruction of our distress must start at the bottom not at the top, if we are to overthrow our business lethargy within a reasonable time. Farming communities are without buying power, merchants stocks are low, trade is at a low ebb, credit is tight and naturally so because of low priced commodities. Communities, such as ours, will not regain their purchasing power until prices of farm products are boosted.

When the farmer cannot buy, the manufacturer does not operate, his employees do not work and so the cycle of unemployment and business listlessness goes on in metropolitan centers. When the farmer buys, the merchant moves his goods and re-stocks his shelves from the manufacturer. Then the wheels start to turn.

So far we have witnessed a congress devoting its time to beer. And its time was wasted in this session. The important thing is not beer, it is business—the business of putting the farmer back on his feet. The froth on beer discloses no prosperity.

But take hope. Just now there is indication that congress intends to take up farm relief. The Domestic Allotment plan is coming up for consideration. There are arguments in favor and against it but we have reached the point where it behooves us to try something new. If it fails we will be no worse off than we were; if it succeeds we are ahead.

The allotment plan looks to improving the price on several farm commodities. It could be put into operation within a short time and improve the farmer's purchasing power at once. That done the farmer would be a good spender. He needs things; we all need something or other. The manufacturer would sooner feel the results of our needs when the farm buying power is restored.

It wouldn't take much to start the cycle of business and industry on the upgrade if buying power were in the right place but until the wealth that comes out of the soil is recognized there will be no buying power and no prosperity. Better days will come to all when corn and hogs are put on a pinna-

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Happenings That Affect the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual, National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

General Present outlook is little changed from recent weeks but there is a slight improvement in car loadings and electric power production.

Commercial failures continue high. Stabilization, rather than expansion, is the goal of the moment. Decline of commodity prices seems to have been arrested, always an encouraging sign. Highest class bonds are registering steady advances.

Business leaders, as with one voice continue to reiterate that a balanced budget, tax reduction and strong and constructive Washington leadership are essentials of recovery.

The Farm

Farm prices recently showed a slight advance, led by strong grain quotations. Cotton markets strengthened, with demand improved. Hog and lamb market helped by better meat prices. Cattle and veal lagging. Butter markets unsettled because of excess supply.

The general farm situation in the middle west is still extremely bad, with many counties collecting but 35 to 40 per cent of taxes due.

World traffic in wheat rose sharply during the week ending January 14, with North America and Australia clearing the major share of the 16,632,000 bushels cleared during this period. During the first six months of the current crop season, weekly shipments averaged only 10,809,000 bushels.

Retail Trade

Retail dry goods sales registered a decline of 22.6 per cent in 1932.

Wholesalers believe the usual spring buying movement will spread out over the season, instead of being lumped at one time. Current activity among wholesalers is largely confined to "odd lots" sales.

Merchants generally feel that if a price change occurs in 1933, it will be in the upward direction.

Industry

Overproduction of crude oil and declining sales of gasoline have resulted in reduction of gas prices to lowest level in many years in various parts of the country.

Automobile executives expect a 10 to 15 per cent gain in automobile sales this year, with some leaders forecasting 30 per cent.

The volume of steel business has gained moderately, and the industry is encouraged in spite of disappointing sales to railroads.

During 1932 the iron ore industry mined 9,588,000 tons, a decrease of 65 per cent from 1931 and lowest output since 1885. Total 1932 value was $13,042,000, as against $74,123,910 in the preceding year.

Bankers are opposing the issuance of script to be used as money, while the movement gains headway in many small towns. Bankers feel that if movement becomes national in scope, financial chaos will result.

Farm tool firms opening 1933 sales drive. Pin hopes on certain new features such as low-priced trucks. Farm equipment export business growing.

Federal regulation of worker's wages is being urged by representatives of various labor organizations.

Abroad

The unusual export activity that marked the past two months in French Indo-China has now ceased.

EXAMS FOR ASSISTANT KEEPER NATIONAL PARK

The United States Civil Service Commission will accept applications until February 23 for the position of assistant keeper to fill vacancies in the National Zoological Park, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

The last eligible register for this position was established January 3, 1931. Seven appointments have been made from that register.

The salary is $1,320 a year, less a furlough deduction of 8 1-3 per cent and retirement deduction of 3 1-2 per cent.

Applicants must have had at least six months' experience in a zoological park or menagerie, and must be in sound physical condition.

Full information may be obtained from the Secretary of the United States Civil Service Board of Examiners at the post office in any city which has a post office of the first or the second class, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Roberts, who ranch north of Dryden, were in town on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Roberts being summoned as a Petit Jurymen.

John M. Doak of Del Rio spent several days in the city this week visiting his brothers, Boyd and R. L. Doak.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Turk were in town this week from their ranch near Dryden visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin.

ed: favorable trade balance continues, but the public finance is unsatisfactory. Copra trading is dull in the Philippine Islands and but one coconut oil mill is now operating. Shrinkage in Rumanian imports has followed tariff and foreign exchange restrictions. Chilean business sentiment, recently reported as improved, has received setback, seasonal turnover extremely low.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. DARROW Extension Service Editor

"During the six years I have owned a steam pressure cooker, canned peas have paid the doctor, the groceryman, the blacksmith, the beauty parlor operator, and even for my husband's tobacco," declares Mrs. Solon Lea, president of Mitchell Home Demonstration Club in Haskell county. "By boarding 11 cotton pickers out of my pantry this year I have paid for a piano. When I need the chicken yard grubbed, hot bed made, or garden work done, I pay for the work with canned products."

Fifty-one farm yards were beautified in Travis county last year by home demonstration club women at an average cost of $5 per yard.

Ten Bexar county farm women acting as wardrobe demonstrators in their home demonstration clubs found they could dress becomingly for an average of $32.71 last year. It took planning and wise buying to do it, they explain, but declare the result is worth the effort.

Five Kaufman county farmers who conducted pasture demonstrations last year on 189 acres have made returns averaging $8.15 per acre for an average investment of less than 50 cents per acre.

Seventy 4-H club boys fed pigs in Childress county last year made slightly less than $1 per animal for their labor and investment even though they produced pork at the low feed cost of 22 cents per pound. Fifteen boys who raised litters of pigs made an average of $17.01 for their labor and investment.

It cost 11 Burleson county farmers $4.54 to bud 580 native pear trees to improved varieties last year. The buds on 401 trees were successful, and the owners gave the county agent their estimate that the improved trees are worth $815.20.

Madam! Do you know that it's clever to be a clipper? Here's a habit you can readily cultivate, and you'll find many of your best friends following it.

To become a clipper at one clip, so to speak, just see that the shears are handy when you sit down to read your newspaper. As you spot an advertisement of something that interests you . . . especially some item that you want to examine when you're shopping next time . . . clip out the notice and take it with you.

The merchants who advertise with us are glad to have you ask for specific merchandise. And sometimes it's helpful to refer to the advertisement when you're right in the store.

At all events, a clipping pinned to your shopping list helps you to remember this particular errand. It simplifies and shortens a shopping-trip so much to know what you want and where to get it!

RECIPES AND MENUS

By Department of Home Economics
Texas State College for Women
(CIA)

DENTON, Feb. 2.—A great variety of inexpensive but attractive and delicious confections may be developed in the home kitchen from a few basic materials. It requires a little patience and some practice to make perfect products.

The desirable qualities of these homemade products bring satisfactions not to be measured altogether by the usual standards of value. At first, the beginner should follow directions rather slavishly but the mastery of the approved methods of handling nuts and of the fundamental principles of sugar cookery will bring independence and will result in really creative work which yields genuine pleasure.

Pecans and peanuts are plentiful. Popcorn is popular. Honey, used in small amounts, gives a delightful flavor.

Any of the following combinations with a glass of milk or a cup of hot cocoa makes a light but adequate lunch for school children.

1. Biscuit sandwiches with crisp lettuce, a few salted nuts, and 2 popcorn balls.
2. Brown bread and butter sandwiches, custard cup of baked beans, whole tomato, a few buttered and sugared nuts.
3. Graham biscuit sandwiches with chopped meat filling, apple, sugared popcorn in an attractive bag.
4. Whole wheat raisin bread and butter sandwiches, pear, 2 squares of honey-pecan divinity.
5. Biscuit sandwiches with chopped chicken filling, banana, 2 or 3 pieces of honey-nut fudge.
6. Date bread sandwiches spread with cream cheese, orange, 2 squares of peanut butter fudge.

RECIPES

Salted Nuts: For variety, combinations of salted nuts may be served, but each kind should be salted separately because some brown more quickly than others. Cook the nut-meats, a few at a time, in a small sauce pan over a medium flame. Stir. Cook until delicately brown. Remove from frying kettle and place on paper to drain. Transfer to fresh paper and sprinkle with salt, 1 t to each cup nuts.

Spiced Nuts: After frying, drain and sprinkle with a mixture of 1 t salt, 1-4 nutmeg 1-4 t all spice, 1-4 t cloves to each cup.

Honey Popcorn Balls: Cook together 3-4 c strained honey, 1 1-4 c light corn syrup until a very hard ball, slightly brittle, is formed in cold water. Add 1 T butter. Pour slowly over 3 qt. popcorn slightly salted. Mix well. Form into balls with hands.

Honey Nut Fudge: Cook to gether over hot water 1 c condensed milk and 1 sq. unsweetened chocolate cut fine. Add 2 c sugar, 1-4 c strained honey and a pinch of salt. Stir constantly until sugar is dissolved. Cook to soft ball stage. remove from fire; cool. Add 1 t vanilla and beat until thick and creamy. Add 3-4 c nut meats coarsely chopped. Turn into greased pan and cut in squares when cool.

Peanut Butter Fudge: Mix together 3 c sugar and 4 T cocoa, add 1 c milk slowly, beat until smooth. Cook to soft ball stage. Cool. Add 1 t vanilla and 3 T peanut butter. Beat until thick and creamy. Turn into greased pan and cut into squares when cool.

Just around the Corner

EVEN big-city folks must have their "neighborhood stores"! Most of them would no more think of going down town to fight their way through the crowds in search of a roast for dinner than they would of walking to the factory to get a pair of shoes.

City women know that their neighborhood stores can supply them just what they want — and that, in most cases, the service is more alert and friendly.

The same thing is true of this "neighborhood". Our merchants—the men whose ads you read in this paper — are in position to furnish your home with the best and most popular brands of goods. Not only can they save you money, but they gladly relieve you of a lot of worry and loss of time.

THOUSANDS ASKING FOR U. S. JOB LIST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Showing job-hunting Democrats where the manna is hoarded has become for Congressmen quite as acute a crush as the thousands of applications for places.

A determined run on Senators and Representatives in the last week has left them virtually without copies of the booklet prepared by the Civil Service Commission listing some 135,000 to 150,000 patronage jobs.

Much of the annoyance of the government printing office, which retained 200 copies beside the two sent to each Senator and a few extras, telephone calls for copies are pouring in there at the rate of 600 to 700 an hour.

The supply is so limited that seekers after the list find their search futile. Hundreds upon hundreds then turn to their members of Congress in a vain quest, while thousands from over the country write in for the list.

Senators, who are trying to keep their own copies for reference purposes, are beseeched for them. Just as an example of how scarce the supply is, Democratic Leader Robinson of Arkansas, obtained only six copies of the 421-page document.

Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, to help relieve the situation, has introduced a resolution providing for the printing of 5,000 additional copies, to be divided between Senators and Representatives. These would cost about $1,500, the printing office figuring the publication expense per copy at 30 cents. Copies they sell bring 40 cents.

WHEREAS, aside from his political activities, the said C. C. Belcher expended much of his time and energy in developing the resources of West Texas for the common good of its entire citizenship, always manifesting an intense devotion to West Texas, her citizenship and her causes. In this respect he won for himself the esteem of every one and rose to a position of unmatched leadership; and

WHEREAS, in a humbler role—that of the ordinary citizen—Cliff Belcher was kind and considerate of his fellowman, charitable to all, profoundly devoted to friends, considerate of foes and sympathetic toward the hopes, aspirations, sorrows and sufferings of all those whom he knew;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That a copy of this Resolution shall be spread upon the Minutes of this court upon a special page therein dedicated to that purpose, and that the Clerk of this Court be directed to furnish copies hereof, under the Seal of this Court, to the members of the immediate family of the deceased, and likewise that copies be furnished to the press.

Your committee further recommends if deemed proper by the Court, that copies of this Resolution be ordered sent, with an appropriate Order of this Court, to the several Clerks of the District Courts of this District, directing such Clerks to spread the same upon the Minutes in their respective counties.

Respectively submitted

JULIAN LACROSSE

Immediately following the presentation of the resolutions, Hon. Julian LaCrosse, District attorney spoke briefly on the life and character of C. C. Belcher. Judge Montague followed Mr. LaCrosse's address and spoke briefly of the association he had had with Mr. Belcher, not only in the law partnership but in the ranch business.

Judge James Cornell a close friend of the deceased touched very briefly and closely on the life of Mr. Belcher and tenderly spoke of his many fine traits of character, his manly straight forwardness and his truthfulness. Judge Cornell his truthfulness.

Telling of the early association with Mr. Belcher and when they were school mates together at the University, Judge C. R. Sutton of Marfa, next told the assembled friends who had gathered for the memorial services, the many fine points of character that Judge Belcher had.

On behalf of the citizens of Terrell County Alfred E. Creigh Jr., extended sympathy to the bereav-

LAYMENS MEETING

The laymen of the Presbyterian church had charge of the meeting Sunday night at the Presbyterian church in the interest of Foreign Missions. A. F. Thrift led in the song service with several appropriate songs as All hail the power of Jesus name. "Publish glad tidings" and "Onward Christian Soldiers." W. H. Savage presided and explained the purpose of the service. D. A. Pollard read the scripture passages Acts 1, 1-11, Matt. 28:16-20 and prayers were led by R. S. Wilkinson and J. D. Nichols. Brief addresses were made as follows: "Look on the fields" J. D. Nichols, "Africa" by A. L. Creigh Jr., "Christian love and sacrifice" P. J. Holman, "Pray" J. W. McKee, "Study" J. D. Nichols, "Give" N. E. Charlton, "Working 24 hours" R. S. Wilkinson, and the offering was taken up by W. C. Vaughan and D. A. Pollard. Concluding remarks were made and the benediction pronounced by the pastor, Rev. Jno. V. McCall. Quite a good congregation listened with interest to this happy beginning of a more active effort on the part of the laymen to extend the kingdom of Christ to the uttermost part of the world.

This woman works for

4¢ an hour

—but electricity will do the job better for less than half as much

Foreign residents in China can hire coolie servants to clean rugs and perform other household duties for as little as four cents an hour. A trivial wage indeed . . . but ELECTRICITY—the great American servant—will work for even less. Cleaning rugs the electric way, for example, costs only one and one-half cents per hour . . . and ELECTRICITY will do the job more thoroughly in less time.

For other household tasks, ELECTRICITY offers its services at equally insignificant wages. It will wash a week's laundry for five cents. It will furnish four hours of radio entertainment for three cents. It will percolate the breakfast coffee for one cent. It will make the toast for even less. In fact, if you paid for your ELECTRICITY as you used it, pennies would pay your electric bill. Nothing else you buy gives so much value for so little money.
