$25,000 Asked By County Welfare And Relief Board For Work During October

A called meeting of the Terrell County Welfare and Relief Board was held at the Relief offices on Sept. 18th for the purpose of estimating relief needs and work relief projects for the month of October in Terrell county.

Mr. C. H. Francis, field representative met with the board, advising the board that no work relief would be begun or work relief of any kind engaged in during the month of September and relief to October 1 must be confined to destitute persons in food or fuel grants.

Four projects, road, sanitation and community center as well as clean up projects were submitted to the state board at Austin, entailing a fund request to carry on work in October of approximately $25,000.

The board was advised that all labor and wage employees on state highway projects where federal money was to be advanced had to employ their men from Relief rolls of the county in which the work was to be carried on. C. M. Breeding, contractor, was recommended to the state board to assist in the selection of labor to be employed on future federal and state highway projects to be let in Terrell county.

The present Welfare and Relief Board is composed of the following men: Joe Kerr, chairman; L. A. Lowe, administrator; Alfred E. Creigh, Jr., secretary and treasurer. Members are J. D. Nichols, L. M. Baze, Clyde Griffith and County Judge G. J. Henshaw and Commissioner Jim Mitchell as advisory committee from the county court.

Cowboy Contest Will Be Feature Texas State Fair

DALLAS — The Southwestern Champion Cowboy Contest will be staged here at the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7 to 22, when the best cow hands in the entire country as well as many others from the Southwest will compete for the $7,000 in cash prizes and the silver mounted saddle trophies. It has been announced here by Otto Herold, president of the exposition.

The Southwestern Champion Cowboy contest will be produced and presented in the Livestock Arena by Mike Banes of Chicago, one of the best known rodeo producers in the entire country, who has named the managers for the show—Joe R. Greer and Candy Tammer. These two managers are widely known both as rodeo contestants and managers. Barnes produced the rodeo contests held at the 1930 and 1931 expositions of the State Fair.

The saddle trophies will be awarded in the bronc riding, calf roping, steer riding and steer bulldogging events. Winners of the contest features will also receive the title of Southwestern Champion. The saddle trophies will be awarded at the completion of the contest events. Some of the best contest rodeo hands known in the business have already sent in their entry blanks for the championship events, according to advices received here from Chicago.

PEACH TREE BLOOMING

Believe it or not, Sanderson has a blooming peach tree. The tree, which is very young, is growing in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harrell. In the spring the tree leafed out and bloomed but the late frost killed all the blooms.

Several weeks ago the tree shed all its leaves and looked as though it would die. The last week new leaves were putting on and the tree started to bloom.

Perhaps the tree has mistaken the past week of warm weather to be spring and thought it would get an early start.

SALE OF YATES STRIPS IS NOT CONSUMMATED

Mid-Kansas Turns Back Operation of Tests To Turner-State

The sale by Fred Turner, Jr., of Midland and the State of Texas to Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas Co. of leases on six recognized vacancy strips in the Yates pool in Pecos county, totaling 561 acres, much of it proven oil productive, has not been consummated, and Mid-Kansas has turned back the operation of five tests on the strips to L. R. Sproles of Fort Worth and Ben Oneal of Wichita Falls, receivers for the property.

This was learned definitely Saturday. At the time it was understood that parties to the contemplated deal were continuing negotiations at Austin. On last Monday it was reported from several quarters believed to be reliable that the sale had been made, that Turner and the State would receive $1,000,000 each and Turner an additional half million dollars for his half of the royalty under the staggered tracts along the west side of the big Yates vacancy, scrap file 12341, or section 34 1-2. The state owns the other half of the royalty.

The strips were held by the Supreme Court last May to be vacant, unappropriated public school lands, and were awarded to Turner and the state. Turner having filed on them. Mid-Kansas was sued by Turner at Fort Stockton and by the state at Austin to recover back runs from Mid-Kansas' Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Smith-Taylor, which were placed on two of the strips by the shifting of boundary lines westward. Settlement of these suits supposedly would be part of the consideration in any sale of the land to Mid-Kansas.

In order that the property might be developed Sproles and Oneal were appointed receivers and awarded contracts under which five tests are now drilling. These already have forced four offsets by Mid-Kansas. Sproles and Oneal staked 13 locations but, it is understood, will drill only the five for which contracts have been let pending results of negotiations for a settlement.—San Angelo Standard Times.

TEXAS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS STUDYING IN BIG BEND DIST.

Austin.—A group of University of Texas students under the direction of Dr. F. L. Whitney, professor of geology and paleontology at the University, is making a survey of parts of the Big Bend region. This survey is being made in keeping with the practice established several years ago of affording students of geology of the university an opportunity of obtaining practical knowledge of formations in different parts of the State by means of field trips during the summer.

Although most of the topography of that remote part of the upper Rio Grande border has been mapped by engineers of the United States Geologic Survey, it contains large areas about which little is known geologically. To the paleontologist the fossils of the Big Bend are a source of interesting and in some instances new studies. The Chisos and some of the other mountain chains which face of the more level altitudinous region are little known to the average resident of Texas and their confines afford opportunities for scientific studies along several geological lines.

Delinquent Tax Penalties Will Go Up Sept. 30

The penalty on delinquent tax payments will jump exactly 100 per cent after September 30 according to warnings given this week from the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector Lee A. Cook.

Those whose taxes are delinquent may pay them any time between now and September 30 with only a one per cent penalty. On October 1 until December 31 the penalty will be two per cent. On January 1, 1934, it becomes four per cent, and in June 1934 it returns to the former schedule of 10 per cent.

All delinquent tax payers are urged to take advantage of the recently enacted statute allowing delinquent taxes to be paid in five semiannual installments, if the first installment of 20 per cent of the taxes is paid by September 30. The installments will carry six per cent interest, but no penalty.

Senate Confirms Wood as Texas Highway Chief

AUSTIN.—The Texas senate this week confirmed Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's appointment of John Wood of Timpan as chairman of the state highway commission. Several other appointments also were confirmed in an executive session lasting less than 30 minutes.

Shortly after Mrs. Ferguson assumed office, she appointed Frank L. Denison of Temple to the chairmanship of the highway commission. The senate twice refused to confirm Denison.

Mrs. Ferguson then named Wood to the place. Other nominations confirmed included T. C. Andrews of McKinney, chairman of the state pardon board; George Simpson of Corpus Christi, state auditor, and Frank Scofield, of Hillsboro, chairman of the racing commission.

SHEEP AND GOAT MEN PLAN DECEMBER MEET IN ANGELO

Having selected San Angelo for the annual convention of the organization December 14 and 15, executive committee members of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association left to a special committee headed by E. S. Mayer the matter of drawing up a suitable resolution of endorsement for the R. A. C. C. banks.

The report of Bright Baggett, secretary of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, showed $692.21 had been collected since the June 8 meeting at Kerrville and that there is on hand now in the treasury $1,013.55. Collections are better than they have been in some time.

Resolutions adopted by the association left the memorial on the R. A. C. C. banks to a committee of San Angelenos composed of E. S. Mayer, chairman; Alex Collins, president of the Central National Bank; George E. Webb, president of the First National Bank; Sol Mayer, president of the San Angelo National Bank; Judge James Cornell, attorney for the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, Houston; Harte, publisher of the Standard-Times. This committee will meet in the next two or three days, and prepare the resolution which will express the views of the association committee that the R. A. C. C. banks have done well, should be retained and their functions not abridged. Judge J. A. Whitten, member of the associations resolutions committee explained that the time the committee had was so short that it felt it could not handle it properly in the time allotted.

The Texas Legislature in its special session was asked to appropriate sums of money from the $20,000,000 bond issue to be used in supplementing existing appropriations now available for predatory

$28,814.00 Decrease In Valuation Of State And County Property For 1933

Two Short Plays Mark the Chapel Program Tuesday

Two short plays were given at the chapel period Tuesday, September 19, in the High School Auditorium, under the direction of Miss Chaffin.

The first play, "Rip Van Winkle", was taken from the story by Washington Irving. The time was 1790, and the scene was a village on the Hudson, at the foot of the Catskills, in the space before the village inn.

The characters in this play were: Rip Van Winkle, Preston Utterback; Judith Gardener, his daughter, Beatrice Nichols; Rip, Jr., his son, Eugene Litton; Peter Vanderdonk, Jack Shelton; Jonathan Doolittle, keeper of the Union Hotel, Benoit Carpenter; Old Patience Meachey, Mary Arrington; An Orator, Richard Haley; An Official, Jesse Lochhausen; A Young Man, Robert Kerr; An Old Man, Hollis Haley; A Young Woman, Florene Thompson; Group of children: Margaret Arrington, Lewis William Lemons, Edward Kerr, Bill Cochran, Kathryn Moore, Edna Mae McAdams and Janice White.

After the first play, Mary Ferguson read "Little Red Riding Hood", in dialect.

The second play was "A Sisterly Scheme", from the story by that name, by H. C. Bunner. The scene was the porch of a large summer resort hotel in the Maine woods, on the shore of a little lake. The characters in this play were: Miss Pauline Belton, the older sister, Martha Stradley; Miss Flossy Belton, the younger sister, Mildred Underwood, Miss Redington, their chaperon, Thomasine St. Clair, Mr. Morpeth, a former suitor of Pauline's, J. R. Black, Jr.; Mr. Brown, a young man at the hotel, Herbert Brown; Mrs. Melby, a visitor at the hotel who is interested in everything and everybody at the resort, Ellen Appel.

MARATHON OFFERS A NEW GASOLINE TO MOTORING PUBLIC

To better serve their customers, The Marathon Oil Company, through their agent, E. H. McCright, is now offering a new gasoline that is being sold for the first time this week in Sanderson.

This gasoline, bronze in color, is of the highest octane rating, accurately refined to meet every requirement of the modern motor. The octane rating of this gasoline is 70, within two points of the former octane rating of Ethyl, and is sold at the price of the standard regular gasoline.

Mr. McCright states that this new motor fuel is now being refined in the Fort Worth refinery and that in the future all Marathon gasoline will be shipped from that refinery.

SERVICES HELD THURSDAY FOR MOTHER OF J. I. DANIELS

Funeral services were held last Thursday at Mill Creek, Texas, for Mrs. J. H. Daniels, 73, mother of J. I. Daniels of this city.

Mrs. Daniels had been ill only a short time and her death occurred last Wednesday morning at the family home in Killeen, Texas.

Survivors of Mrs. Daniels are her husband, J. H. Daniels, and the following children: J. I. Daniels of this city, Jesse Daniels of Robstown, Robert Daniels, Mrs. Odessa Yancy, Mrs. Dora Dwyer, Mrs. Ellen Stubblefield and Teo Daniels of Killeen.

Mr. Daniels has the sympathy of his many friends in this city in the loss of his mother.

A decrease of $28,814.00 in both State and County property is revealed with the completion of the 1933 tax rolls by Assessor Jim Nance.

This decrease in property valuation is due to the fact that the $3,000.00 homestead exemption law went into effect this year. Total value of all property for this year amounts to $4,888,876.00 for the 1933 rolls against a total sum of $5,173,690.00 valuation in 1932.

On the 1932 rolls there were charged for collection a total state tax of $35,105.92 and a county tax to be collected in the sum of $60,008.43, and $1,068.00 state poll and $178.00 County poll. Of this amount charged about 60 per cent was collected.

The total state taxes to be collected for 1933 off the roll will be $35,991.57, while the amount to be collected for the county will be $53,180.41. State polls to be collected amount to $1,081.50 while the county polls to be collected amount to $180.25. There is a slight increase in the amount of poll tax to be collected for 1933.

Last year, 1932, the total tax rate was $1.94 on the $100 valuation with the county rate $1.25 of that amount. This year the State has increased their tax rate to 7c on the $100 valuation, the constitutional limit, while the county rate will be $1.16 on the $100 valuation.

If collections come in during 1933 fairly well our County should be able to continue to run on a cash basis. So far, while most every fund is low, there has been ample money to take care of expenses of that fund.

October 1, tax payers may start to pay their 1933 taxes and may take advantage of the split tax payment between that date and November 30.

CONGRESSMAN THOMASON VISITS SHORT TIME IN CITY

Congressman R. E. Thomason, enroute to his home from Austin, spent several hours in our city Thursday visiting with his constituents and friends. Mr. Thomason had been to Austin where he placed his daughter in the University.

We were pleased to have Mr. Thomason to call at this office and the Editor enjoyed his brief visit. While here Mr. Thomason had us to mark his paper up for another year and we certainly do thank him for this.

Congressman Thomason has made us a good representative in Washington and certainly is on the job at all times and willing and eager to look after the wants of his constituents.

AN ADDED IMPROVEMENT

The X-Ray machine that has just been installed by Dr. E. K. Halbert is one that has long been needed in Sanderson. The machine, which is of the latest type, is equipped to do the work of any machine that one will find in any city.

Dr. Halbert has gone to a big expense in buying and installing this machine and all Sanderson and Terrell County should appreciate this fact and use it whenever the necessity arises. It will cost no more to have an X-Ray made here than it would to go to a large city and by our citizens making use of this machine they will in turn, not only help Dr. Halbert but the other Doctors of our city as well, and thus help to make Sanderson.

HARVEST OPPORTUNITY

It's time for gleaners of opportunity. The seeds of reconstruction that the government planted have taken root in a fertile field of American courage, enterprise and resourcefulness—nurtured by confidence in our country, confidence in our leadership and confidence in ourselves.

These have developed into a steady growth of improved conditions. Now is the time to reap results by sustaining that which has been gained.

Opportunity is to the alert—to those who will "look up and not down, look forward and not back, a look out and not in and who will lend a hand to the common good."—news, Van Nuys, Cal.

"KEEP US ALIVE—"

In these days of national and world readjustment every reserve of hope, faith, and courage are required to enable each of us to swim against the strong tides of life's demands. We cannot afford to cringe or retreat as we, individually and collectively, wage war on human selfishness and greed—the two evil influences that have brought this great nation of ours to its prayerful knees. With new determination, let us join the old Scotch clergyman who, in a day of great need, asked: "Please, Lord, keep me alive as long as I live."—Birmingham (Mich.) Eclectic.

Good government is the product of a well informed citizenship.

When people tell an editor they want him to print the truth they mean the truth about the other fellow. The principal drawback to printing the truth is invariably when it is done somebody's toes get stepped on.

The Livestock Situation

J. A. McNAUGHTON

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21, 1933—Livestock producers are concerned over failures of market prices to show any appreciation in the face of advances which have taken place in many of the commodities they must buy. They feel that increased cost in processing and distributing meats have caused some advances in retail meat prices, but any gains made by the processors have not as yet been reflected back to the growers, although the Processors Code emphasizes the desire and intention to share with the growers the benefits to be derived under the new order of things. Maybe it is a little early to expect results from that source but the livestock growers are certainly getting restless over the heavy load they are carrying and are eagerly looking in every direction for very much needed and highly necessary relief. The general average of cattle, lamb and hog prices today is little different than two or three months ago. Both hog and cattle prices are lower than a year ago.

There is a growing impression among stockmen that the only answer to better livestock prices will come when packers discontinue their practice of using direct purchases of livestock in the country as a means of holding down values on central market. Several producer organizations have urged that the Packer's Code, now being considered by the Secretary of Agriculture, either prohibit country buying or else place country buying on the same basis as stock yard buying. They insist that packers be forced to report their daily purchases of livestock at country points making this detailed information public just as is done in the case of purchases of livestock on central markets.

Whatever is finally worked out in the Processor codes, it is a real move to work out economics in the packing industry and to bring about more satisfactory and profitable conditions for the producer. The country must have faith in the integrity and ability of the Secretary of Agriculture to give his final approval to a code that will be for the best interests of all.

MRS. ROBERT GATLIN IS BRIDGE HOSTESS

One of the most delightful early Fall parties was the one which was given last Thursday afternoon at the Masonic Hall with Mrs. Robert Gatlin as hostess. Choosing the dies y seis theme, Mexican colors were carried out by means of flags, sarapes, potted cactus and mexican baskets and were used as decorations. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon.

Prizes further carried out the theme with a Mexican blue bubble glass water pitcher being the first prize that was awarded to Mrs. Jim Kerr. A set of goblets in the same ware, went to Miss Jewel Dean Pinnin, of Del Rio, for second high score prize.

At individual tea tables, which were decorated with Mexican flags, a salad course consisting of avocado mousse, fritos, bread and butter sandwiches, date sticks, cinnamon nuts, red, white and green mints were served by Mrs. John D. Harrison with Mrs. T. D. Moore pouring the iced tea.

RECIPES AND MENUS

By Department of Home Economics
 Texas State College for Women
 (C.I.A.)

Cold desserts prove an interesting and welcome addition to a meal at any time of year, but they are especially refreshing during the hot days of summer. They may be prepared in advance and left in the ice box to chill until they are needed. Cutting down on the amount of time spent over the gas range is an item which should be considered. It seems that you usually have to have a few hot dishes in the main course of your meal, but what is more tempting than an ice cold dessert? It is so easily prepared. When you intend to go shopping in the morning, mix one of the desserts, put it in the refrigerator and it will be ready to dish out and serve when you return hot and tired. Or don't you like Sunday meals that can be partially prepared on Saturday? Make a dessert Saturday and put it in the ice box for Sunday.

Here are suggested menus for two days with easily prepared refreshing desserts.

Breakfast: Iced orange juice, bacon, toast, Strawberry preserves, Coffee, Milk.

Lunch: Sautted parsnips, Black eyed peas, buttered carrots, whole wheat bread, butter, frozen sliced peaches, iced tea.

Dinner: Hawaii ham, creamed lima beans, pickled beets, stuffed eggs, hot rolls, butter, head lettuce salad, Chocolate ice box cake.

Breakfast: Frozen grapes, broiled tomato slice, scrambled eggs on toast, coffee, milk.

Lunch: Duchess potatoes, asparagus, buttered corn, Graham muffins, Cantaloupe a la mode.

Dinner: Tomato gelatin and chicken loaf, Spinach with hard boiled eggs, Cold slaw, bread, butter, iced coffee or tea, ice box pineapple cake.

Frozen Sliced Peaches: Slice the peaches in any size you wish and sugar them if desired. Put them in your refrigerator pan and serve them when slightly frozen. A delicious and very inexpensive dessert for this month.

Iced Box Cake: Get some rather large chocolate wafers, then whip as much cream as you have to spare. Make sandwiches of the wafers and cream, putting about a half inch of cream between each wafer. This makes a loaf which you place in the ice box until it gets hard. Then when ready to serve cut diagonally in about half inch slices. This makes an attractive dessert as well as a delicious one.

Cantaloupe A La Mode: You know how easy it is for most people to Clean and cut the cantaloupe in make ice cream and keep it on hand, quarters, and remove the seeds. Chill and when ready to serve, fill each quarter with ice cream.

Ice Box Pineapple Pie: To a can of Eagle brand milk add the juice of a lemon and the pulp of a can of crushed pineapple and beat the mixture until thick. Cover a buttered tin with vanilla wafers, plain or rolled. Pour the pineapple mixture over the wafers, top with meringue and brown slightly. Cut in regular pie slices to serve.

ton Friday when the cattle men sought relief for their stricken industry. Mr. Mayer thinks the administration will not listen to a processing tax on cattle. It was his belief, too, that without doubt the R. A. C. C. banks would be merged sooner or later with other institutions.

H. M. Phillips editor of the Co-operator, a bi-monthly publication devoted to the livestock industry in San Angelo, suggests that the Co-operator and the Sheep and Goat Raisers Magazine, published by Holcomb-Blanton Printery be merged and a new magazine be put out under the direction of T. A. Kincaid, president. He said the subscription rate would be $1 for 24 issues, and claimed that his publication carried more news pertinent to the sheep and goat industry than the other publication. The committee did not accept Phillip's plan, said that the matter of any merger should be left to the publishers involved.—Del Rio Evening News.

"HELL BELOW," SPECTACULAR
DRAMA OF DIVING BOATS, TO OPEN HERE NEXT WEEK

Aquatic camera tripods in which cameras on pontoons filmed naval craft in full action—cameras, peeping from the portholes of submarines to film other submarines in action below the surface—amazing scenes within submersible craft showing how they operate, dive, hurl torpedoes, and escape the dread depth bombs in naval warfare—these are some of the thrills in store for audiences at the Princess Theatre where "Hell Below," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's striking drama of battles under the sea, will be shown Friday and Saturday, September 29 and 30.

With Robert Montgomery, Walter Huston, Madge Evans, Jimmy Durante, Eugene Pallette and Robert Young heading an elaborate cast, the mighty pageant of naval heroism which serves as the background for a gripping love story, depicts the exciting action of submarines in the Mediterranean during the World War. The picture is based on Commander Edward Ellsberg's widely read story, "Pigboats," and was directed by Jack Conway. Filmed with the cooperation of the United States Navy, many of the episodes were made with actual submarines in action at Pearl Harbor, the great naval submarine base near Honolulu.

The spectacular drama of the diving boats presents a thunderous background for the romance of a naval lieutenant and the daughter of his commander, which resolves itself into an unusual dramatic twist. This romance serves as a thread to connect the series of thrilling incidents occurring under the sea, on its surface and in the air.
