TO DEMOCRACY'S CRITICS

Critics are abroad in the land with a doctrine that Democracy, as typically this is induced by the fact that programs introduced by heads of the administration didn't work out 100 per cent from the very start. True, imperfections have cropped out, and many things that have helped one certain class worked to the detriment of the other class. They cannot take into consideration — these critics — that the principles embodied in the recovery program are only a year old, and were born and propagated in one of the worst drought periods in history. Only one man born of woman was perfect, and He, after three years of intensive propaganda for a new Deal, could only count a mere handful of half-scared-beings willing to carry on. It was time that proved His principles — centuries if you please. Those who think our Democracy is a failure should scan the pages of current history in European nations. Among the major nations a new order has arisen, new gods have sprang up over night, to bring despot rule to a people who dare not call their souls their own. Take your pick of the lot, be it known as Fascist, Nazi, Bolshevism or Communism, and how many of the critics would be willing to exchange any of them for what we call Democracy? European conditions today is in a broiling mess — a state where authority of those in power is supreme in every phase of the individual's life, commercially, socially and morally. Critics, over there, we deal with summarily — imprisoned, tortured, and killed like mad dogs. Individual rights are non-existent, and even the press whereby the average citizen may learn what is all about, is throttled. Power-mad despots hold sway, but none trust the others, and right now all are in a crouching position, ready to spring at the throat of the one who shows the least weakness. The rest of the world is bewildered — none can predict the end. Conditions here are perfect in comparison. The majority of our laws still contain the fundamental principles of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for the individual. Of more importance, ours still is a government of, by, and for the people.

ON YE, OF LITTLE FAITH!

The week's news contained an account of an Indian tribe praying (to us it was a pagan tribute) for rain. Showers fell. Newsmen asked the chief how come. Said the chief in reply: "For two moons no rain; we pray, it rains; what you think?" That question would puzzle many a Christian who today scoffs at the idea of praying for rain. Only the other day a professed Christian said that God never interfered with the laws of nature. Maybe not. But when we considered that nature's laws, in the last analysis, are God's laws, that He is supreme in His power, it shouldn't take much faith to believe He would send rain. A casual reading of the Scriptures will show that God in the Old Testament and His Son in the New, were continually interfering with the laws of nature. The plagues of Egypt; the division of the Red sea, causing the manna to fall, the sun to stand still, etc., etc. In the New Testament we have a virgin birth, changing water into wine, raising the dead, and other "interferences with natural laws." Both books are full of such incidents. To pray for rain should be as natural as any other supplication for favor, if the supplicant has faith the size of a mustard-seed. Pray for rain; if it doesn't fall, then turn over to Leviticus 26:3-4, maybe you'll find the reason. If the Word be true God still reigns, the same now as then — and His word is truth.

PAPERS NEED SUPPORT

"I don't think a newspaper helps a town much." The speaker was a business man. Scanning the paper published in his town we couldn't find his name. Too many towns are just that way. The paper is the mirror of the town in which it is published, and the merits of a town is gauged by outside readers from its columns. The majority of folks, by their actions, seem to think a newspaper can thrive without business. Not so, any more than can your chamber of commerce, your Rotary club, your churches or your schools can. Shut off from the avenues of revenue any of these organizations

First Sailfish

Fishermen on the Texas Gulf coast for years have hunted for the elusive sailfish, which has made Florida's waters famous. It remained for a 15-year-old boy, Charles LaTurno of Harlingen, to bring in the first one. Charles landed this big denizen of the deep five miles off the coast from Port Isabel, 25 miles from Brownsville, Texas. (Texas News Photos.)

or institutions and they fade out like a dream. The possibilities of a well patronized home paper are manifold, and they will all reflect to the credit of the hamlet, town or city. So if you cannot support the home paper, don't criticize its handicapped condition.

The eyes of the world are on Germany and its power-mad chancellor, Hitler. Hindenburg's death has all nations wondering what the Nazi leader's next move will be. War seems in the offing, but we have a sneaking idea that many still have a bad taste left from the World War, and are not as anxious as it seems for another such orgy.

If you've waded through the two paragraphs above, maybe you'll think the hot weather got us at last. But to show we still have a grip on things earthly, here's one that fits the times:

My Grandma, she has bobbed her hair!
(How many years it saves!)
She has it dyed jet-black again,
And "did" in modern waves.

A little rouge can do no harm
To give her lips a glow,
So she can feel the spring of life
As forty years ago.

Her dress, a dainty circular;
Her neck all decked in pearls!
What fellow at a dinner dance
Can tell her from the girls?

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yeates spent the week end in Abilene with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sutherland of Del Rio were visitors in the city for several days this week. Mrs. Sutherland being here in her capacity as court reporter at the special session of district court, held this week.

Miss Lillie Burdwell of Langtry is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Wolff and other relatives.

Legion Post Plan For Armistice Day

The regular monthly meeting of the Clarence Halley Mulkey Post, No. 160, American Legion, was held last Thursday night at the court-house, with a large number of the Legionnaires present.

A report from the boy scouts and their attendance at Camp Fawcett was heard. It was decided that if the boxing matches, held Thursday of this week, proved a success financially, that others would be given in the near future, with boxers being invited from nearby towns.

The September meeting will be devoted to the election of officers and planning for an Armistice day celebration.

Following the business session refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served to eighteen members in attendance.

Mrs. Hardgrave Passes Away at the Ranch Home of Son

Following an illness of several months duration Mrs. E. E. Hardgrave, 81, passed away at 2:35 p. m. Wednesday at the ranch home of her son, E. W. Hardgrave, with whom she had made her home for several years.

Mrs. Edwena Eleanor Hardgrave was born December 25, 1853, in Tennessee, moving to Texas with her parents when a child. She was married to John Dyar Hardgrave at Greenville, Texas, on June 18, 1871, who preceded her in death on March 23, 1899.

Early in life Mrs. Hardgrave became a member of the Presbyterian church, and in August, 1929, she united with the Church of Christ. She had made her home in Ballinger from the time of the establishment of that town until 1929, when she moved to San Angelo. For the last year or more she had made her home with her son, E. W. Hardgrave, of this city.

She is survived by three sons: R. G. Hardgrave of Amarillo, E. J. Hardgrave of San Angelo, and E. W. Hardgrave of this city; three daughters: Mrs. J. D. Smith of Rotan, Mrs. J. Rackley of Las Vegas, N. Mex., and Mrs. F. Wiley of Van Horn; also surviving are nineteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The body was prepared for burial at the ranch, and was taken overland to Ballinger where funeral services were conducted late Thursday afternoon, Frank Traylor, minister to the local Church of Christ officiating. Accompanying the body were Mrs. and Mrs. E. W. Hardgrave and family, Mrs. J. Rackley, Mrs. F. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Allen, and Frank Traylor. W. E. Stirman, local undertaker, was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. J. C. Green and son John left Thursday morning for Ft. Davis where they will attend the Bloys campmeeting, and where Mrs. Green will visit her sister, Mrs. Jack Gray.

G. J. Henshaw and brother, Wallace, left Tuesday night for San Antonio in response to a message telling of the death of their brother, Bob, which occurred in that city Tuesday.

New Baptist Pastor Arrives for Duties

Rev. and Mrs. Philip Brown arrived on Thursday of this week from Bedias, Texas, and will make this city their home. Rev. Brown has accepted a call as pastor of the Sanderson church, and will preach his first sermon as pastor next Sunday. The public generally is invited by the membership to come out and hear him, at both the morning and evening hours.

Rev. Brown comes to the local church highly recommended and is a young man of high Christian standing. He is a graduate of Howard Payne college and has had post-graduate work at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. All the outstanding Baptist ministers state that Rev. Brown is a good Sunday school and B. T. S. worker. He had been pastor of the Bedias church for the past two years.

All Sanderson welcomes Rev. Brown and his wife to the city.

POLO CLUB ORGANIZED

Sanderson will soon have a polo club, if plans of Monty Carter and associates are fulfilled. The field is in the course of construction at this place, and soon those inclined can participate in this thrilling game, in which the ponies, as a rule must show as much intelligence as the rider. Several local men are interested, and other announcements will be made as the proposed plans are worked out.

BENEFIT SUPPER

A benefit supper will be given at the C. M. T. club, this city, Saturday, August 25, by members of the Mexican Missionary Workers, for the support of the Mexican missionary work in this city. The price of the supper, at which many Mexican dishes will be served, is 40c, and everybody is cordially invited to come out and support this worthy cause.

Commissioners in Short Session Mon.

The regular monthly meeting of the commissioners' court was held on Monday of this week with the following commissioners present: W. E. Stirman, Eugene Peoples, J. C. Mitchell and R. E. Fred.

The only business transacted at the meeting was allowing bills for the current month.

Julian LaCrosse, district attorney, of Del Rio, was a Sanderson visitor for several days this week, representing the State in trial of Braulio Gutierrez, charged with murder and being heard at a special session of district court which convened Wednesday.

GETS WATER WELL

A good water well was recently completed on the W. E. Stirman ranch, located west of Sanderson near the Downie ranch. Mr. Stirman has his ranch stocked with sheep and plans to make other improvements on the place. Hugh Cox drilled the well.

Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor left the fore part of the week for points in the Davis mountains, and will also attend the Skillman Grove campmeeting.

GUTIERREZ CASE GIVEN TO JURY LATE THURSDAY EVENING; STATE ASKS DEATH PENALTY BE GIVEN

OUR YEARLING EAGLE

Blue Eagle, symbol of the National Recovery Act, is probably one of the best known figures in the country today. It grips bolts of lightning and is now hovering over 95 per cent of industrial America, advertising the success of the first major move in the New Deal. This great bird was the creation of Charles Coiner, a Philadelphia artist. With only a year behind it, it has brought about the co-operation of 2,300,000 employers and 60,000,000 consumers.

It is not necessary to mention the changes which have been brought about during the year of its life—everybody now knows about them, have been affected by them—for better or for worse. It has been criticized mainly because some of the more fortunate did not benefit a great deal. Put it has given aid where needed and has helped us on the road to recovery.

A congressional act gave the Blue Eagle its authority, which extends until next June. Will it be continued in power?
Long live the Blue Eagle!

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

A big dance is scheduled for tomorrow night at the Masonic hall, Sanderson, sponsored by the Sanderson Polo club, according to window cards advertising the affair. These cards have also been distributed in Alpine, Fort Stockton and other nearby towns, and a large crowd is expected. Music will be furnished by Banks Stocks and his orchestra, their first appearance in Sanderson, but they are highly recommended.

Mrs. J. Rackley of Las Vegas, N. Mex., and Mrs. F. Wiley of Van Horn came in Sunday to be with their mother, Mrs. E. E. Hardgrave, who had been seriously ill, and who passed away Wednesday afternoon at the ranch home of her son, E. W. Hardgrave.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Brannan and Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Halbert were guests at the E. W. Hardgrave ranch Wednesday night.

Mrs. Hugh Cox and daughters motored to Pecos Thursday morning, and met their sister, Mrs. Tom Campbell of Ranger, who has accepted a position as waitress at the Kerr Hotel cafe.

Mrs. W. C. Cargile and son, Billy, have returned from an extended visit with relatives in San Marcos.

Judge C. R. Sinton of Alpine was a Sanderson visitor several hours Thursday.

Terrell Will Vote On 5 Candidates In Runoff on 25th

On Saturday, August 25, the runoff primary will be held throughout Texas, and at that time an election will be held in every precinct in Terrell county. The ballot at this time will be very short as there are only five state offices for which the Terrell county voters will nominate a candidate. These offices and the candidates follow:
For Governor: Tom Hunter and James V. Allred.
For Lt. Governor: Walter Woodull and Joe Moore.
Attorney General: Walter Woodward and William McCraw.
Railroad Commissioner: John Pundt and Lon A. Smith.
Associate Justice Supreme Court: John H. Sharp and H. S. Lattimore.

SPEAKS IN HUNTER'S BEHALF

Hon. C. K. Walsh, an attorney of Wichita Falls, was a Sanderson visitor Thursday, and is making a tour of Texas, speaking in behalf of the candidacy of Tom Hunter, who is in the runoff for governor. He addressed a large gathering at the American Legion field prior to the boxing events in the evening.

Deliberations Started, But No Verdict Reached As Times Goes to Press

The special term of district court convened in this city Wednesday for the purpose of trying Braulio Gutierrez, who was indicted by the Terrell county grand jury at the regular July term, charging him with the murder of Manuel Coronado, who was shot and killed here on July 4.

On Wednesday, the opening day of court, the major part of the session was taken up in challenging a special venire of 900 men from which 11 jurors were selected. The twelfth juror was selected from an extra venire of ten men.

Those selected to hear evidence and pass sentence were C. M. Breeding, W. E. Grigsby, Hugh Cox, A. A. McDonald, Roy Haley, Lynn Harrell, Milton Smith, W. H. Savage, Bozarth Brown, Dee Schooley, O. T. Schuppach and W. F. Harrell.

The lead of questions in challenging the prospective jurors, indicated that the state might ask the death penalty, and many were disqualified on grounds that they were opposed to capital punishment.

After completion of the panel both sides cleared decks for action, and Judge Montague ordered a night session, called for 7:30 at which time testimony relative to the case was heard.

Herman Pauli, the state's main witness, was first to testify, and in practically every detail, his testimony tallied with that given at the preliminary hearing. In substance, he testified of hearing the shot and rushing to the scene. Of seeing Coronado on the ground and his attempt to aid him, but found he was dead. Of seeing Gutierrez and asking him about the shooting, the latter admitting, with an oath, that he had shot and killed Coronado. Under cross-examination, counsel for defendant failed to break down any detail of this damaging testimony.

Dr. James C. Sharp, who was hurriedly called to the scene, testified that Coronado was dead when he arrived. Much of his testimony was of technical nature, such as the location of the wounds, their effect, etc.

Plea of Self Defense

On Thursday morning several character witnesses were introduced by Gutierrez's lawyer, who testified to his reputation as a citizen and as a peace officer; his efficiency as a peace officer, etc.

At the conclusion of this testimony Gutierrez took the stand in his own behalf. From the trend of the questions it became evident that self-defense would be the basis of Gutierrez's plea for clemency. He was questioned at length by his attorney, and by District Attorney LaCrosse. His testimony was to the effect that he fired the fatal shot on account of the hostile attitude of Coronado, and his own fear of bodily harm.

Shortly after court convened on Thursday afternoon, and all material witnesses had testified, counsel for both sides closed, and court recessed while Judge Montague prepared his charge to the jury.

Following the court's charge to the jury, which was very lengthy, District Attorney LaCrosse began his arguments, which took over an hour to deliver, and in able manner he brought out many strong points. Feeling justified, from the evidence presented, he asked for the death penalty or, at least, a long term of confinement in the penitentiary.

Judge Lyles' arguments for the defense, while not so lengthy, was based on the theory of self-defense, introducing the hypothesis that the hostility of the Mexican population toward his client, kept him in a state of constant fear, and asked that if his client should be found guilty that sentence be suspended.

Closing argument by Mr. LaCrosse were very brief, in which he again asked that punishment in keeping with the offense be meted out.

At 6:30 the case was given to the jury, who retired and, as we go to press, have not returned a verdict.

Miss Dale Moses, who spent several days at the Joe F. Brown ranch this week, left today for her home in San Antonio.

Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor, who left the fore part of the week to attend the Bloys campmeeting, returned home Thursday evening.

Observatory in the Davis Mts. Will Attract Tourists to Section

West Texas will soon be a mecca for thousands of tourists yearly, if plans now in the making are carried to fulfillment. In the Davis mountains for nearly a year, one of the government's CCC camp have been busy creating park-like facilities. Part of their work is cutting out roads to the summits of several of the smaller mountains, where the tourists, when he reaches the top, can enjoy a scenery as beautiful as any found in this or foreign countries. There also will be found up-to-date cabins, of native rock construction, cooking pits and tables—enabling one to tarry and enjoy not only the scenery, but the wonderful ozone of these famous mountains.

Scenic Route

Having its beginning in the environs of Fort Davis, is what is known as the scenic route. This is a state highway project, about 25 miles long and one which any ordinary car can travel, and it is certainly worth the time for any one to make it. It is in the heart of the mountains, winding its way among the old bald peaks of that region. At several points the motorist unconsciously halts the car to enjoy a sight unequalled in natural beauty. Towering peaks, deep gulches and ravines, here and there a valley of verdant green, pine trees and oak seemingly vying with the nearby cliffs to reach the azure heights. Following this road you eventually come to the site of the McDonald observatory, now in the course of erection, and an innovation that will draw thousands of visitors the year around.

Great strides have been made in construction work—all the cement work is completed, and at present much of the steel, which is being manufactured in Cleveland, is being assembled.

Everything will be ready for the big 80-inch lens when polished. A feature will be the 125-ton astronomical dome 73 feet high, now being transported. This cleverly planned structure, when assembled, will rest on a system of wheels so that it can roll, in its base, from side to side, in any direction. With power from a 5-horsepower motor and all the astronomer has to do when he wishes to spend an evening observing a certain star is to focus the telescope on the object then set the speed of the dome to correspond with that which the body moves across the sky. The dome will roll with the star's movement and keep it in full view at all times.

SUPERVISED CORRESPONDENCE STUDY

There came to the editor's desk this week an article from the Teacher College, Columbia University, which she thinks is the best yet and one that would solve, even right here in Sanderson, the problem of the boy and girl who would like to go off to college but can't afford to, that is the supervised correspondence study in our high schools.

L. P. Arduser, director of the High School Service Department of the International Correspondence Schools has this to say: "We are up against the problem in this country of keeping the boy occupied in school until he can find a job even though he has completed the regular course. We can't keep the boy out of work and out of school at the same time. Supervised correspondence study in the high schools, because of its low comparative costs, makes it possible for the high school to widen its curriculum and provide for a larger student body without making unbearable the burden of taxation."

Fundamentally, supervised correspondence study consists of an arrangement between the local high school and a university extension division or correspondence school, whereby the high school is able to offer one or a group of its students any one of the great number of courses offered by these two types of educational institutions. Adopted by some 150 high schools, it has enabled the schools to fit the curriculum to the natural aptitudes and inclinations of the individual students, while avoiding the great increase in costs which such enrichment of the curriculum would ordinarily entail. A member of the school faculty is appointed to supervise and assist in the correspondence study. A regular period during the school day is allotted for this work.

At the least this is a worthy plan and one that should be given a thorough trial before being condemned as unsatisfactory.

A politician can't get elected without stating the reasons why he should get the votes. How can a business expect to be elected to success unless it tells the people the reasons why it should be patronized?

Strikes are like fevers. They must run a certain length of time before the employers and employees arrive at a stage when they show symptoms of common sense.

Whenever words of comfort seem to fall short of the situation we are reminded of the cemetery salesman who was trying to sell a lot to a little old lady. He wound up by saying "Just think, it would be a great comfort to know that after you die you would be buried beside this beautiful lake." "What!" exclaimed his prospect, "with my rheumatism?"

Mrs. Ed Downie and children and her mother, Mrs. Walter Gregory, returned from Taos and Santa Fe, N. Mex., the latter part of last week, where they motored the week before.

Miss Rachael Lewis arrived last Friday night from Jourdanston, Tex., and is visiting Miss Adair Edmiston this week.

Mrs. W. M. Dyal and sons returned from Lake Charles, La., and San Antonio, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Rose left for Chicago last Thursday where he will undergo treatment for his eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Duke and children returned from a visit with relatives in San Antonio and Fort Worth Monday.

Misses Sammie Jo and Margaret Hays, and Guy B. Hays, who had been visiting their sister, Mrs. Jas. C. Sharp, returned to their home in Eldorado, Ark., last Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Sharp who will visit her parents for several weeks.

Mrs. P. D. Lowry and son, Pat, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. E. Landers, returned Tuesday to her home in El Paso following a visit of two weeks in Sanderson with relatives and friends.

It Happened in Sanderson TEN YEARS AGO THIS WEEK Do You Remember?

A quarantine station was established in Sanderson on Wednesday of this week, to prevent entry of the pink bollworm to the east and south-east cotton districts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Farley left the first of the week for Lubbock on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Kuykendall of El Paso visited relatives in the city the first of the week.

Julian LaCrosse of Del Rio received a letter from Gov. Pat Neff last Saturday notifying him of his appointment as district attorney of the 63rd judicial district, to fill the unexpired term of J. Q. Henry, resigned. Mr. LaCrosse is the Democratic nominee for the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caldwell returned from Richmond, Ky., Tuesday, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dawson and daughter, Florene, are visiting with friends in Abilene.

Women Evangelists Conduct Revival

A two weeks union meeting has just closed at Pumpville this last Sunday. Miss Dale Moses of San Antonio, with Miss Clara Shurley of this city, as co-preacher, held the services. The meeting was very successful, there being nine conversions reported. Misses Moses and Shurley were in Sanderson Monday, enroute to the Joe F. Brown ranch for a few days visit and a needed rest.

Funeral Rites Held in Pleasanton For R. R. Henshaw

Funeral services were held in Pleasanton Thursday morning at 11 o'clock for R. R. "Bob" Henshaw, who died Tuesday in the Robert B. Green hospital in San Antonio, where he had been rushed Monday evening after being found in front of the Labor Temple in that city.

Mr. Henshaw left Sanderson about a week ago, going to San Antonio for a visit with friends. He was in apparent good health when he left here, despite the fact that several years ago he had suffered a paralytic stroke. He evidently suffered another stroke, causing him to collapse. Several lacerations were found on his head and face.

Deceased had made his home in this city for many years with his brother, G. J. Henshaw, who is county judge. He was born and reared in Pleasanton, and was 49 years of age at the time of his death.

Survivors include three brothers, G. J. and Wallace Henshaw of this city, and Jim Henshaw of Phoenix, Arizona; 2 nephews, Wallace Henshaw, Jr., and Bill Henshaw of this city.

FOR SALE—Nice residence. See B. M. Doak. 1915p

F. M. Weigand left Sunday for Alexander, Ill., where he will join Mrs. Weigand and their son, Albert, who have been visiting relatives in that city for several weeks. They plan to return home the latter part of this month.

Bill Vaughan has returned from San Antonio where he spent the past week visiting friends.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. The Legislature shall have the power to create counties for the convenience of the people subject to the following provisions:

"First. In the territory of the State exterior to all counties now existing, no new counties shall be created with a less area than nine hundred square miles, in a square form, unless prevented by the pre-existing boundary lines. Should the state lines render this impracticable in border counties, the area may be less. The territory referred to may, at any time, in whole or in part, be divided into counties in advance of population and attached, for judicial and land surveying purposes, to the most convenient organized county or counties.

"Second. Within the territory of any county or counties now existing, the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, create new counties, combine existing counties and parts of counties and abolish existing counties and change county boundaries as will, provided that no new county shall be created with an area of less than nine hundred square miles nor shall any existing county be reduced in area so as to contain less than nine hundred square miles unless such new county, or such remaining county, and both shall have a population of not less than fifty thousand according to the last United States census prior to the date of the creation or change of such county. When any part of a county is stricken off and attached to, or created into another county, that part stricken off shall be held for and obliged to pay its proportion of all liabilities then existing of the county from which it was taken, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

"Third. No part of any existing county shall be detached from it and attached to another existing county until the proposition for such change shall have been submitted in such manner as may be provided by law, to a vote of the electors of both counties and shall have received a majority of those voting on the question in each."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed in that ballot the words: "For the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

Those voters opposing said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballot the words: "Against the amendment to Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of Texas, providing that the Legislature may by a two-thirds vote of both Houses create new counties and change the boundaries of existing counties."

A true copy. W. W. HEATH, Secretary of State.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 13

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended as to hereinafter read as follows:

"Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only; and the total amount of revenue which the State shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpended appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium. The expenditures of the State government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided however, that the population of the State (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fee or expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has elapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided, further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a statewide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood or an epidemic which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this State, the Legislature shall have authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitutional limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed the words:

"For the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

"Against the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against, so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment. A true copy.

Count and the County Clerk shall hereafter be performed by an officer to be known as Record Clerk the County Tax Assessor and the County Tax Collector shall hereafter be performed by one officer known as Tax Clerk and in the counties where the sheriff performs the duties of the Tax Collector he may hereafter perform the duties of the Tax Clerk. The Record Clerk and the Tax Clerk shall be elected to hold office for a term of two (2) years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to combine the office of County Treasurer and the office of County Surveyor, or to combine either, or both, of said offices with any county office. Within the maximum and minimum limits prescribed by the Legislature the Commissioners Court shall have authority to fix the compensation of all county and precinct officers except County Auditor, County Judge and County Commissioners. The Legislature shall fix the compensation of District Judges, District Attorneys, County Judges, and the County Commissioners and may provide for a County Auditor and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation and the number and compensation of his assistants. The Commissioners Court shall fix the number of deputies, assistants and clerical personnel of all precinct officers and county officers except the county auditor.

(c) City and county officers and employees may, in addition to their duties as such city and county officers or employees, be required to perform such other similar duties for cities, towns and districts within the county, or for the county, as may be mutually agreed upon and contracted for between the Commissioners Court of said county and governing board, or boards, of such cities, town and districts; and the cost of such service shall be provided for in said contracts and paid by such county, cities, towns or districts into the Treasury of the county or city, town or district, as provided for in said contract. All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two (2) years.

(d) The Legislature shall have authority, by general law, to provide for complete forms of county government and organizations different from that provided for in this Constitution to become effective in any county when submitted in such manner as may be prescribed by the Legislature to the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting in said election. Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the right of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the County Auditor, to fix the number

EVENTS OF SOCIETY

P. J. HOLMAN ENTERTAINS CLUB

On Tuesday of this week Mrs. P. J. Holman entertained the members of the Tuesday club and several additional guests at her home. Lovely bouquets of roses, baby asters and gold zinnias were used as decorations in the living room where the tables were set for a dinner of 12. Refreshments of pineapple cherries and cake were served. The high score prize went to Mrs. M. Breeding, with Mrs. T. Maxey making second high score, and consolation went to Mrs. J. W. McKeen.—Reported.

AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. L. H. LEMONS

The ladies of the Presbyterian auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. L. H. Lemons for their regular meeting with Mrs. H. D. Williams, vice president, presiding. Mrs. N. E. Charlton, as program leader, was assisted with her topic "From Lands Far" by Mrs. Earl Pierson and Mrs. W. E. Lea. As devotional leader, Mrs. Lechhausen gave an interesting lesson on her subject "Sent Out Two by Two," from Mark, 6:7. After singing several hymns the auxiliary adjourned to enjoy a social hour.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Edna Edmonson and Miss Rachael Lewis in serving a delicious salad course with punch to the following: Mesdames Joe Nichols, H. D. Williams, J. W. McKeen, D. A. Pollard, Earl Pierson, W. H. Savage, Henry Lamour, Lee Sims, N. E. Charlton, J. V. McCall, W. E. Lea, A. F. Thrift, J. H. Lechhausen, W. R. Holland, T. Mary Hart of San Antonio, Joe Pennington, E. H. O'Neil, Miss Rachael Lewis of Jourdanston, Texas, David Ramsaur, Billy Savage and Margaret Pierson.

Each one present enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the hostess and her little daughters, Adair and Joan, adjourning to meet on August 27th at the home of Mrs. W. H. Savage.—Reporter.

CULTURE CLUB TO MEET WITH MRS. GRIFFITH

The annual business meeting of the Sanderson Culture club will be held this Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. J. Brannan, with Mrs. Clyde Griffith and Mrs. H. C. Goldwire co-hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kellogg spent Monday in Fort Stockton.

Promotes Texas Music

Mrs. R. T. Craig of Athens, Texas, wife of the editor of the Athens Daily Review, has been appointed Chairman of History of Music in Texas by Mrs. I. D. Cole, State Music Federation president. Mrs. Craig has already started a campaign to enlist the aid of every Texas Music club in getting the history of music in Texas assembled. (Texas News Photos.)

VISITORS HONORED BY JOE KERR, JR.

Honoring his house guest, Gardy Faubion, Jr., of Llano, Tex., and Edward and Gregory Downie, who are spending the summer months together with their mother, Mrs. Helen Downie, on their ranch near here, Joe Kerr, Jr., gave an outdoor dance Tuesday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr. Punch and cake were served throughout the evening.

Mrs. Vance McLymont, "Stump" Duke and Leslie O'Connor furnished music for the evening which was enjoyed by the following: Mildred Underwood, Mary Arrington, Mary Ferguson, Florene Thompson, Dorothy Sullivan, Mattierue Newton; Messrs. Joe Kerr, Jr., Grady Faubion, Gregory Downie, Edward Downie, Robert Kerr, Bernard Kerr, Dick Sullivan, Billie Ferguson and Vincent Bohlman.

Enjoying the party also were Mrs. Helen Downie, Mrs. Gregory of San Antonio, little Jackie Downie, Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr, little Edward James and Betty Jo Kerr.—Contributed.

WEDNESDAY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. SAVAGE

Vases of lovely summer flowers furnished the decorations for the morning party that was given on Wednesday of this week when Mrs. W. H. Savage was hostess to the Wednesday club and several additional guests at her home.

Following the playing of several tables of bridge an Italian plate lunch, consisting of hot rolls, iced tea and ambassador pie was served.

Members and guests who were present at this lovely affair were Mesdames L. M. Baze, Max Bogusch, S. S. Daggett, J. C. Green, Clyde Griffith, Jim Kerr, Joe Kerr, L. A. Lowe, J. W. McKeen, C. V. McKnight, R. S. Wilkinson, Tol Murrab, Lee McCue, D. A. Pollard, T. D. Moore, Helen Downie, and T. Maxey Hart. Mrs. Max Bogusch made high score, and Mrs. Lee McCue second high, and each were awarded a lovely prize.

NOTICE

There are several cases of whooping cough in Sanderson and county, and I take this method to inform you of the danger that accompanies this disease.

Pertussis (whooping cough as it is known to you) is one of the many diseases of childhood that carries with it a large per cent of fatalities, and just here I wish to emphasize the fact that in this disease tuberculosis often follows as a complication.

Now a word to you mothers—keep your children away from homes that are infected with this disease and report to the City Health Officer, or your family physician, any case of whooping cough that you might know and of, with your help we can stamp out this disease.

School will soon open and we must not let our school children become infected with whooping cough, or any other infectious or contagious disease.

Your cooperation in this matter will be very much appreciated. I assure you I will do my best to protect the health of our city and county.

Respectfully yours, W. H. DOTY, City and County Health Officer.

Prison Break and Thrilling Man Hunt Highlights in "Fugitive Lovers" Monday

All the sensations of a rapid, and thrilling cross-country trip are the thrills promised by advance agents in their reports on "Fugitive Lovers," which comes to the Princess theatre next Monday night, featuring two of the screen's greatest favorites, Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans.

In addition to authentic scenes shot from a great Greyhound bus as it actually sped from New York to Hollywood, the audience will also see the most daring prison break and one of the most thrilling man-hunts ever screened.

A huge "road cruiser" rolls out of its terminal in New York City and, on its first night out, encounters a prison break as it passes a penitentiary. Repeated firing halts the bus. Robert Montgomery, in the role of Porter, leader of the break, manages to climb onto the luggage truck.

Later, in clothing stolen from an unlocked bag, he enters as a passenger. Inside Letty, New York chorine (played by Madge Evans), is repelling the advances of the gangster backer of her erstwhile show. In the role of "Legs" Cafee, the gangster, Nat Pendleton, is trying to force Letty to return with him to Atlantic City.

Porter enters the bus and he befriends Letty. "Legs" plots revenge. Then, suspecting Porter to be the man the police are hunting, he attempts to aid in his capture.

Montgomery gives an exciting performance in his effort to evade capture, and at the same time protect the girl with whom he is in love. Daly, the cold-blooded detective, is played by C. Henry Gordon, ace character actor.

As on any cross-country coach, the bus in "Fugitive Lovers" is filled with variegated passengers, some humorous, some pathetic. Ted Healy is a jolly traveling salesman; his three stooges compose an hilariously funny vaudeville team, and Ruth Selwyn is another interesting passenger. Monday Night is also "Money Night." Don't miss this double feature.

Real Fight Shown "Fightin' Ranger"

Fist fighting in moving pictures, particularly westerns, are becoming more and more authentic. Instead of pulling their punches and using the camera as a means of making the fight look realistic, the battlers actually let loose occasionally and real fights ensue.

It is an extremely difficult thing to watch two virile actors pitted against each other with a fake fight in mind. The intensity of the situation soon makes the players forget all about any pact to "go easy," and instead of the "pulled" punch, the punch lands, and it's not long before a real battle is on.

But there is one tradition in such cases. Following the fight the battlers invariably shake hands and say it was all in fun—even though it really wasn't.

In the "Fighting Rangers" which will be the attraction at the Princess theatre tonight and Saturday night, an actual fight was held, unintentionally, of course. The two participants were Ward Bond and Buck Jones.

Bond, a newcomer to films, and a former University of Southern California football star, was stung accidentally by a few blows from Buck Jones. He started to return them with added emphasis and in several seconds the battle was on.

When the fight was over, George B. Seitz, the director claimed it one of the best he had ever witnessed. Buck laughingly suggested a retake which was immediately booted down by Bond.

Good Advice to Parents as School Term Approaches

Austin, Aug. 16.—The schools of Texas will soon be reopening for another term and the Texas State Department of Health urges the parents of school children to see that they are protected against disease in so far as possible. Vaccination, as a protection against typhoid, diphtheria and smallpox, should be done at once.

School children are exposed to much infection, so that where a definite preventive is known, parents should take advantage of it. These vaccinations may save many days out of school, doctor fees and, maybe, life itself. More than six hundred children die each year in Texas from diphtheria.

The child should be taken to the family physician at this time for a physical examination to determine if he has any remedial defects. A child with subnormal eyesight or hearing cannot be expected to do as well in his studies as one that has normal sight and hearing. A dentist should be consulted in regard to the teeth. Any defect found and corrected before schools opens will of course mean much to the child, and will have its effect on his school work as well as his physical well being.

Some physical defects of children, such as underweight or mal-nourishment, show no appreciable present effect. If such a condition is not corrected it may result in something serious later. No hard and fast rules as to a child's weight at a certain age are available, but parents should see whether or not the child shows some gain in weight.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 16, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 16. All land mentioned in Sections 11, 12 and 15 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas now belonging to the University of Texas shall be subject to the taxation for county and school district purposes to the same extent as lands privately owned; provided they shall be rendered for taxation upon the values fixed by the State Tax Board and that the values fixed for school district purposes shall not exceed the values fixed for county purposes on the same land; and provided that the University of Texas from the University Available Fund, shall remit annually to each of the counties and school districts in which said lands are located an amount equal to the tax imposed upon said land for county and school district purposes."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school district purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located."

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the State and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000), or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties of this State the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the then last preceding Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the County Treasury where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county or any municipality, or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the County Treasury, when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fee may be retained by such officer, or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Notaries Public, County Surveyors and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified voters of this State at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether County officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment. A true copy.

W. W. HEATH,
Secretary of State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 41

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 5, of Article XI, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or ordinance passed under said charter shall contain any provisions inconsistent with the Constitution of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half percent (2½%) of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city, unless at the same time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund for at least two per cent (2%) thereon; provided further, that no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every twelve (12) months."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months," and those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 42

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 30, Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 30. The duration of all offices not fixed by this Constitution shall never exceed two (2) years, except that the elected officials of a city that has adopted and amended its Charter as provided in Section 5 Article XI of the Constitution of Texas may, by amendment to such city's charter, hold office not to exceed four (4) years; provided, that when a Railroad Commission is created by law it shall be composed of three (3) Commissioners who shall be elected by the people at a general election for State officers, and their term of office shall be six (6) years; provided, Railroad Commissioners first elected after this Amendment goes into effect shall hold office as follows: One shall serve two (2) years, and one four (4) years and one six (6) years; their terms to be decided by lot immediately after they shall have qualified. And one Railroad Commissioner shall be elected every two (2) years thereafter. In case of vacancy in said office the Governor of the State shall fill said vacancy by appointment until the next General Election."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State on the next General election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934, at which election all voters favoring the proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting Home Rule Cities to so amend their charters that the elected officials of such cities may hold office not to exceed four (4) years," and those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting Home Rule Cities to so amend their charters that the elected officials of such cities may hold office not to exceed four (4) years."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 16

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 1. Taxation to be equal and uniform as to real estate and to be equal and uniform as to all reasonable classifications of property and occupation and income taxes; exemptions; limitations upon counties, cities, etc.

"Taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform. All property in this State, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, other than municipal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, which shall be ascertained as may be provided by law. The Legislature may by general laws make reasonable classifications of all property other than real estate property for the purpose of taxation, and may impose different rates thereon; provided that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform. The Legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing business in this State. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided that Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in the State, shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town for any year on persons or corporations pursuing any profession or business, shall not exceed one-half of the tax levied by the State for the same period of such profession or business."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election all voters favoring said amendment shall write, or have printed, on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation; and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax, and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."
