"Present Day Customs Borrowed From the Past," reads the heading of a Christmas feature story. Oh, yeah? How cum? In early days the custom was to call on your neighbors, extend greetings of the days over a glass of well blended wine. Later the visitations extended into the night, and serenaders chortled carols outside the windows. A little later, gifts for the needy were brought in the dead of night—food for the family, fruits and candy for the children. Many of us today can remember the thrill we got when, on awaking, glancing toward the old fireplace, where dangled a very dilapidated stocking. But the stocking was stuffed out of all shape and proportions, bulging with apples, an orange, and an assortment of nuts and candies. That little token from Santa was enough—the day was full. But son and daughter today! In the first place they are visibly irritated if you mention Santa Claus. They KNOW better. And are they satisfied with the stuffed stocking? Not so you'd notice it—unless it had a diamond solitaire in "dotter's" full-fashioned silks, and a $50 watch in brother's zebra-striped sock. Most parents today dread the advent of Christmas, due the fact that very few believe in Santa Claus any more and fewer are satisfied with mediocre gifts. The old spirit of the past is wholly lacking. Shout merry Christmas at some of the youngsters—either sex—today, and the chances are they shout back, "Merry h—! We ain't had a drink all day!"

A lucky fellow is one who can pick a row with his best girl just before Christmas and make up again after New Year.

Gen. Dawes, of "Hell and Maria" fame, predicts the return of full prosperity by next summer. Then the scramble will be to see who gets credit for it.

Nazi activities are being investigated at Yale college, and some of the other big shot brain factories. "Much ado about nothing," as our friend Bill Shakespeare once wisecracked. If such tendencies were to break out in the 5th and 6th grades of the Sanderson school, then we'd be duly alarmed. Colleges are great on fads, and it looks like the higher they get the dumber they are.

El Paso man shot his wife the other day. On being arrested he claimed the gun was accidentally discharged in a scuffle. She claims she was seated in a chair, reading, when he opened fire. Not being a Sherlock Holmes, we're nonpulsed, and the only solution we can arrive at is that somebody prevaricated.

Recipe for a long and hayyp life: Never feel safe until you learn to fear a bull front ways; a mule back ways, and a woman ALL WAYS.

Now come a group agitating for a new State Constitution. Why not? Everything else is new—a New Age, New Women and a New Deal. So let's change the Constitution. It'll be a heck of a lot of fun from the sidelines, anyhow.

Many cities are bearing down on the reckless auto drivers. A fine move. Many a car you see careening madly down the street, is driven by a galoot who is "going nowhere and has all day to get there." And when he gets to where he's going he's find out he ought to be back where he started from: Some one got the correct angle, in the following verse:
He drove his auto thru the street,
Cutting the air like a knife;
To see the fellow you'd have thought
He was fleeing for his life.
He passed all cars, reached a spot
As far as he could get—
And then he stopped—and parked—and lit a cigarette.

Mrs. R. L. Moulton arrived Wednesday from her home in McKinney for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. B. J. Brennan.

3-Act Comedy By Hi Juniors Tonight

Tonight, at 7:45 o'clock, at the high school auditorium, the members of the Junior class will present "The Spanish Onion," a three-act comedy.

The plot of the play centers about the adventures of the college queen who sells dates to her less fortunate friends and about the concealed identity of the Spanish Onion, who is a handsome young foreigner.

The members of the class, under the direction of Miss Corinne Fox, class sponsor, have been working on the play for several weeks, and those who attend are assured worthwhile entertainment.

An admission price of 25c for adults and 15c for children will be charged.

Baptist Leader

The Rev. Millard A. Jenkins, of Abilene, was re-elected chairman of the executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas at its recent annual meeting. The Rev. Roy Angell, San Angelo, was named vice-chairman and George J. Mason, Dallas, secretary. (Texas News Photos.)

TO PRESENT PAGEANT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pageant, "Ye Shall Find the Babe," will be given at 5:30 p. m. Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all to see this story of the Nativity told in song, prophecy and in characterization.

After the processional by the choir, and the singing of familiar carols, Dr. McCall will explain the offering which is to be taken for Ministerial Relief.

The readers, Mrs. N. E. Charlton and Mrs. John Nichols then take their places, and the pageant will be given under the following heads, although there will be no pause between the parts:

- (1) Prophecy. (2) Annunciation. (3) Advent. (4) Adoration of the Shepherds and the Angels. (5) Consecration.

Mrs. D. A. Pollard is directing the pageant and is very grateful to singers and helpers from other choirs of the town, and the cooperation of the Presbyterian congregation. Come and see the pageant and come in the spirit of worship.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. Herman Pauli, who has been seriously ill at her home in this city for several days underwent a major operation on Wednesday morning. Reports Thursday from her bedside were that she was some better.

WILL PROPOSE A DOUBLE REPEAL VOTE FOR TEXAS

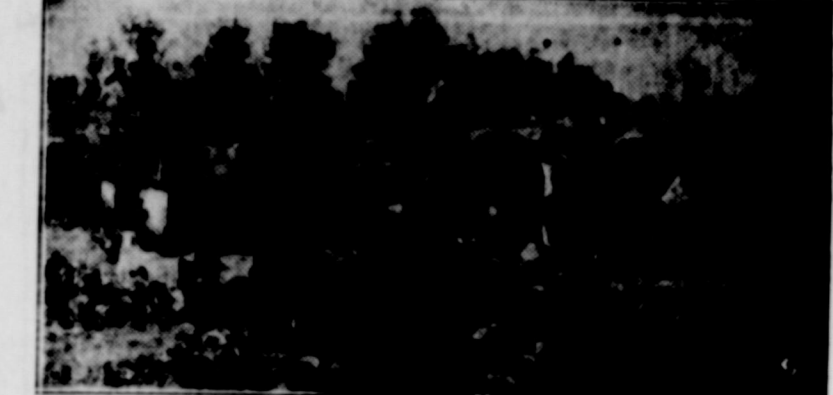

Austin.—Jap Lucas representative elect from Henderson, said here today that he planned to ask the Texas legislature to submit two votes on the prohibition repeal question—one in August, 1935, and the other at the general election in 1936.

By this means he stated the people of Texas could have legalized liquor for a trial period and, if they did not like it after the trial, could hedge at the second election.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the commissioners' court was held on Monday of this week. Apart from passing on the regular monthly bills and ordering same paid, very little business came before the body. The commissioners present were W. E. Stirman, J. C. Mitchell and R. E. Fred.

Cactus, Seared of Thorns, Fed to Cows

A scourge to ranchmen in ordinary seasons, the lowly prickly pear has been of untold value to Southwest Texas stockmen during the last few months. With a national shortage of feed and forage crops, due to drought and curtailment, cattlemen have found that a blow-torch will burn all spines from the meaty prickly pear leaves in minimum time. Then cattle, turned in to feed, eat the cactus with relish. Above is a typical picture from the cattle country, showing Herefords following in the wake of the blow-torch. (Texas News Photos.)

Fort Davis Girl Suffers Back Injury In Auto Accident

Marfa, Dec. 11. (T-P N)—Four young people were injured, one of them seriously, when their car turned over twice about 8 o'clock Monday night on the road between Fort Davis and Marfa. The accident was caused by the loosening of a tie bolt causing the steering gear to get out of control.

In the car were Miss Pauline Goss and Miss Winnie Mae Fisher, John Goss and Otis Mills, all of Ft. Davis. All were scratched and bruised on head, arms and knees, and Miss Goss sustained a serious injury to her back. She was attended by Dr. Darracott of Marfa and will be confined to bed at the home of Mrs. W. O. Miles of Marfa for several days before she can be removed to her home. She is a senior in the Fort Davis high school.

The two young ladies and Miles were thrown through the top of the car, but Goss, who was driving, remained in the car. The accident was entirely unavoidable with the steering gear out of control.

A CCC truck from Fort Davis arrived on the scene soon after the accident, and rendered what aid they could. The truck was considered too rough to carry Miss Goss, so the boys wired the steering gear of the overturned car so that it made the trip to Marfa with her. Goss and Miss Fisher, who is a post office employee at Fort Davis, returned to that town the same night. Miles, until recently, was an employee at the McDonald observatory site.

INFANT IMPROVED

Rev. S. M. Mims, pastor of the Methodist church, left Monday for Odessa, called to the bedside of his wife, who is ill in a hospital in that city. A new babe, recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Mims, was not expected to live, according to the message. Later reports were that the babe's condition was slightly improved.

Among the Sandersonites who attended the football game at Fort Stockton last Saturday between the Panthers of that place and the Bulldogs of Rocksprings, were Mr. and Mrs. Noble Latson, Pat Moran and Bozarth Brown. Rocksprings won, 13 to 6.

BEG PARDON

Last week the Times reported the bagging of a 10-point buck by Lloyd Gant and Billy Goldwire. Wrong again. It was a 14-point, according to these boys. "Why, dad gum," they chorused, "it looked like it had a rocking-chair on its head." O. K.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stirman motored to San Angelo Wednesday to accompany the body of Mrs. Stirman's mother, Mrs. Nancy O'Neil Keith, to this city for interment. They returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fletcher returned Sunday from San Antonio where they went last Wednesday, to visit relatives.

Menard Man Here To Open Bakery

A new business will open in Sanderson next week with the re-opening of the bakery located on West Oak street, by A. Ware, who comes here from Menard.

Mr. Ware, who has had 12 years' experience in the bakery business, states that in re-opening the bakery it is his intention to furnish the public with the best of baked goods and will appreciate the trade of the housewives and asks that they give his bread, hot rolls, etc., a trial.

Mrs. Ware, three daughters, and a son, accompanied Mr. Ware to Sanderson and the children are now enrolled in our public schools.

Fair Crowd Hears First Band Concert

Last Friday evening, under the direction of Elmo Low, the members of the Sanderson high school band gave its first semi-annual concert at the high school auditorium.

The band, which is composed of twenty members, played several numbers, and the program was interspersed with solos and quartette numbers. Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson was the piano accompanist.

It is to be regretted that more of our citizens did not come out and hear this concert, as the band members certainly put on a splendid program and showed that they had had good training and teaching from a capable bandmaster.

The band plans another concert this coming spring.

Miss Taylor Still In Lead, Queen Contest

With only one more week before it will be known who has been elected football queen of the high school, candidates and their friends are working hard and much interest is being manifested in the contest.

The candidates and the number of votes received by each up to Thursday are as follows: Lois Taylor 152,000, Mabel Schupbach 135,500, Mildred Underwood 123,250, Lillian Halley 97,000, Grace Billings 82,250, Neil Lee 72,500, Lucille Blount 64,250, Mildred Stavley 82,500, Joy Ray 64,750, Betty Bassett 60,000, Ruby Lee Haines 57,500, Sammie Carter, 53,000, Olivia Gutierrez 65,250.

The contest will close next Friday night, December 21, at which time the winners will be announced and the prizes awarded at the Princess theatre. Voting in the contest will close at noon Friday, Dec. 21, and all votes must be deposited in the voting box by that hour, as the box will be removed at noon so that the votes may be counted and the winners determined.

New Westex Official

Here is Mr. Jed A. Rix of Lubbock, who was recently appointed assistant general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to succeed Maury Hopkins who will go to Oklahoma. Rix will have charge of the Plainview office. (Texas News Photos.)

Mr. and Mrs. Col Coates returned the first of the week from Carrizo Springs where they spent several days the past week.

Dr. W. M. Sherwood of the Scott and White clinic in Temple arrived the first of the week for an extended visit with friends here.

Mrs. Felix Harrison and Miss Christine Caruthers were week end visitors in Del Rio with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haley were visitors in Del Rio Wednesday.

$70 TO BE GIVEN AWAY

Seventy dollars is the pot that is waiting for somebody when they attend the Princess Theatre next Monday night. Bustin Canon's name was called Monday night and he forfeited the $55 free cash prize by not being present. This will be added to the regular $15 next Monday night, and will make a dandy Christmas present for some lucky person.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

DISRESPECT FOR LAW

(Texas Weekly)

Complaints about the widespread prevalence of gambling in various Texas cities are becoming frequent of late, and undoubtedly there has been a noticeable increase of gambling places and of gambling during the past year. The pari-mutuel law, and the consequent rise of mushroom race tracks may be said to be responsible for the increase of illegal poolroom betting and for the gambling craze among large numbers of people, both men and women. But we do not think this is the principal reason for the lax attitude of local authorities in some of our cities toward gambling houses generally. The real cause, we think, is to be found in the disrespect for law which has resulted from the break-down of prohibition enforcement in the State. Whatever else the incoming Legislature may do with respect to the gambling case, one thing it must do is to submit to the people promptly the question of prohibition repeal.

The present situation in Texas with respect to liquor is intolerable. Public sentiment is apparently so strong against the prohibition laws that it is not possible in the average urban community of the State to enforce them. During the past year we have seen the saloons reopened in some of our cities and in practically all of them it is as easy to buy liquor at a drug store as to buy motor oil. The authorities have been compelled to tolerate this condition because experience early in the year demonstrated abundantly that it was useless to make arrests because juries would not convict alleged violators of the prohibition laws. Accordingly the prohibition laws have become inoperative in most urban communities in the State and in some cities saloons are wide open and subject to less regulation than they were in the old days before prohibition.

If this were all, it would constitute an intolerable situation. No law-abiding people can afford to have the laws and the Constitution of the State flouted in this manner. But this is not all, by any means. There is one law breeds disrespect for others. And when local authorities become accustomed to permitting open violation of one law they are likely to do the same about others. That's the real explanation of the open gambling in the State. And prohibition repeal is the first step toward reform.

ATTACKS ON RECOVERY PROGRAM

(El Paso Times)

It is becoming more apparent that organized business and industry are opening fire on some national recovery features, especially the NRA and the government's relief expenditures.

A mention was called a few days ago in this column to the set principles sent to El Paso chamber of commerce by the West Texas chamber of commerce for adoption. The remark was made that these read like something emanating from the U. S. chamber of commerce in Washington.

Now we read that David A. Skinner, secretary of the U. S. chamber of commerce, in an address in Phoenix yesterday, said business men of the nation will demand drastic changes in the NRA, including an amendment to the labor clause, and an optional observance of code regulations.

Mr. Skinner also attacked the federal government's relief expenditures, saying the true road to recovery was through an industrial payroll.

No one questions the truth of this last statement, but in the meantime—what? Will the United States chamber of commerce, through its membership, volunteer to take over the government's employable jobless and put them to work immediately?

Of course it will not, and can't. So what? Let the people starve? Can't be done.

Curtailement of relief expenditures will have to follow, not precede, industrial activity.

The attitude of these gentlemen seems to be this: "Let the government do as we say, stop doing the things we don't like, cut down on its huge expenditures—and then we'll see what we can do to bring back industrial activity and jobs."

But business and industry had that chance during the Hoover administration. According to what we now read, the policies of the Hoover administration must have been ideally suited to the purposes of the big employers. But those employers didn't put people to work. They turned them out. They created the very conditions against which they are protesting today.

It doesn't make sense to us.

LAWYERS WHO LIVE ON CRIME

The federal government continues its vigorous drive on crime. Realizing that the killing of the Dillingers and their like is but one phase of crime suppression the government is now planning a drive on the crooked lawyers who defend these gangsters, live on their thievings and robberies, and defeat justice by protecting criminals.

The National Crime Conference, opened in Washington this week, was conceived by President Roosevelt, Attorney General Cummings, and J. Edgar Hoover of the Department of Justice, as a means of further dramatizing in the minds of the public the government's campaign against criminals.

Elimination of crooked lawyers will be on the conference's agenda. The need is well recognized. The American Bar Association and various state bar associations have been outspoken in their denunciation of lawyers who live on the proceeds of crime; who "front" for gangs, who put up bond for arrested criminals; who fight to protect them from the law; who are, in short, gangsters and criminals themselves.

In some few instances there have been disbarment proceedings. These have done about as much harm as good. They have served to advertise the disbarred lawyer to all the crooked clients. Often the disbarred lawyer is able to restore himself in good standing at the bar within a year or so—and thereafter has all the robbers, thieves, and killers he can defend.

Something is needed to tie the crooked lawyer directly with the criminals he protects and to give him the same punishment they get.

Something is needed to make the business of defeating justice unprofitable.

Every time leniency is shown a law violator more are encouraged to follow in his footsteps. Too many officers are too timid to do their duty. You would think by the weak kneed actions of some officials when administering fines and punishment to criminals, that they were a party to the offense committed. Lord, give us those who administer punishment to law violators the courage to do their duty! Cracking down on the offenders of the law is the only sure method of discouraging crime.

P. V. Wright, signal supervisor, and Ed Dumas, signal foreman, left here Wednesday morning on a motor car going into El Paso. They were on an inspection trip of the signal system of the T. & N. O. between Sanderson and El Paso.

Following Simple Rules Will Reduce Auto Accidents

Austin.—The number of deaths in Texas due to automobile accidents during the past five years more than equals the number of Texans killed during the world war, according to a statement issued by the State Department of Health. Last year over 1200 persons met death in this manner and from the figures compiled so far for 1934 the number of deaths will be even higher.

Most of the automobile accidents occur on week ends or holidays. This is a surprising fact since fewer pedestrians are abroad and traffic congestions in towns and cities is less on Sundays than other days of the week. This paradox may be explained in part from having more inexperienced drivers on the road, together with their failure to observe traffic rules.

Some of the most frequent violations of traffic rules are: exceeding the speed limit; driving on the left side of the road; failure to give right of way, and running without lights. The observance of rules and regulations is not enough to prevent all accidents. The car itself must be in good shape, especially the brakes and steering connections. Then common sense must be used in all situations.

The consequences of an automobile accident are so disastrous no one can afford to stand on their legal rights in a situation of impending danger. Only if you have conceded rights and have made every possible effort to avoid an accident, can you consider yourself blameless in case of accident.

Offering For Ministerial Relief Taken At Meeting of Presbyterian Auxiliary

The Christmas meeting of the auxiliary was held in the home of Mrs. J. W. McKee on Monday afternoon. Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson was hostess. Twenty members were present. Mrs. D. A. Pollard directed the program, the topic being "The Christmas Angel Takes Charge." Mrs. W. H. Savage gave the devotional feature and talks were given by Mesdames Charlton, McCall and Hillard. Then the Christmas Angel, the person of Mrs. W. E. Grigsby, directed the members to look with interest into the "windows" of the aged ministers, young widows and little children of ministers, and worn out missionaries. These groups were represented by Dr. and Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Jesse Lochausen, Billy Savage and Roberta Lochausen, Mrs. E. E. Corder, and Mrs. W. R. Holland.

The angel then led the way around the pretty Christmas table where each one deposited a little white sack containing gifts for Ministerial Relief. A generous offering was made.

A Christmas remembrance was sent to the boy the auxiliary clothes to the home at Itasca.

After reports were given, the president, Mrs. John Nichols, thanked each officer for the hearty cooperation they had shown in carrying out every feature of the auxiliary work.

Mrs. Wilkinson served date loaf and mulled grape juice to the guests.

Wood-Mansfield

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Woods of Fort Clark, and Miss Mansfield of Uvalde, were married at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Hardin, with Mr. Hardin reading the impressive ring ceremony. The following attended the bride and groom: Mrs. W. H. Mansfield, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mansfield, Miss Mary Mansfield, Miss Cecil Hanson, Miss Dorothy Rainey, C. M. Bentley of Brackettville. Mr. and Mrs. Woods will make their home in Brackettville.—Uvalde Leader News.

CULTURE CLUB TO MEET NEXT FRIDAY

The December meeting of the Sanderson Culture club, which will be its Christmas meeting, will be held on Friday, December 21, at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. A. E. Creigh, Jr., Assisting Mrs. Creigh as hostesses will be Mrs. H. C. Goldwire and Mrs. H. R. Laurence.

The subject will be "Science in the Home," with Mrs. F. L. Burnside as leader, and assisted on the program by Mesdames J. W. McKee and J. H. Lochausen.

MRS. KESSLER ENTERTAINS DRYDEN NIGHT CLUB

Chrysanthemums decorated the home of Mrs. Rufus Kessler when she entertained the Dryden Night club and several invited guests last Saturday night. A tray and coasters were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills for couple making high score.

Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit salad, stuffed celery, cookies and hot chocolate were served to Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Halley, Misses Lattimore and Sandal; Messrs. A. F. Buchanan and Clayton Stubblefield, and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kessler.—Reported.

BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED AT DAGGETT HOME

Mrs. S. S. Daggett was hostess to the Night bridge club and several guests at her home last Saturday night, there being four tables of players who enjoyed the evening playing bridge. Mrs. H. R. Laurence was awarded the high score prize for ladies, and C. M. Breeding was awarded the high score prize for men.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Max Bogusch, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Creigh, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nance, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Peavy, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Breeding, Mrs. H. R. Laurence, S. S. Daggett and to the hostess.

RECENT BRIDE HONOREE AT LOVELY PARTY

Mrs. Landon Rose and Mrs. Tol Murrah entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Lowe with a lovely bridge party, honoring Mrs. Hugh Rose, a recent bride. The Christmas motif was effectively in the decorations and refreshment course.

First and second prizes were won by Mrs. A. E. Creigh, Jr., and Mrs. Clyde Griffith, respectively, and a guest prize was presented to the honoree.

The refreshments were delicious and most artistic, consisting of chicken loaf, cheese straws, fruit cake topped with whipped cream, and coffee. On each plate was an individual favor—a tiny burning candle in a gum-drop holder.

Guests enjoying this lovely hospitality were Mesdames Hugh Rose, Max Bogusch, A. E. Creigh, Jr., S. S. Daggett, John Green, Clyde Griffith, Bustin Canon, L. M. Baze, L. A. Lowe, C. V. McKnight, Will Savage, Sims Wilkinson, Robert Duncan, T. D. Moore, Jim Nance, Lee McCue, Jim Kerr, H. R. Laurence, C. M. ### TUESDAY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CANON

Mrs. Bustin Canon entertained the Tuesday bridge club and several other guests at her home this week. Following the playing of several games scores were added, Mrs. C. P. Peavy making high score and Mrs. J. T. McKinney second high.

Refreshments of chicken salad, toasted sandwiches, olives, chocolate ice box cake with whipped cream, and coffee were enjoyed by Mesdames John Harrison, Lee McCue, Tom Holmes, Lee Roy Grigsby, C. M. Breeding, Mary Lou Kellar, P. J. Holman, Jim Nance, Robert Duncan, Walter Grigsby, J. T. McKinney, C. P. Peavy, L. M. Baze, Jerry Bell, Willie Banner and Sims Wilkinson.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Independence, the "Athens of Texas"

—Think—Talk—Write—Texas Centennial in 1936 as the Athens of Texas, because of its grace of culture and refinement, and strength of military and political leadership. Independence flourished for 41 years as the home of Baylor University and Baylor College. In 1886 both schools were moved, and with General Sam Houston gone, old Independence went into ruins. Above is what the visitor sees today—all that is left of the building which once housed the great institution of Baylor University. The Baptist church, attended by Houston, the grave of his wife and son, and the old Houston home stand nearby, but this once proud city is now a mass of ruins. (Texas News Photos.)

Mrs. F. M. Weigands and sister, Miss Evelyn Robbins, motored to Fort Stockton Tuesday to meet their friend, Wayne Hailey, of Jacksonville, Ill., who was enroute to El Paso on business.

Helpful Household Hints

By BETTY WEBSTER

Selecting the Christmas tree, putting it up, decorating it, and so on, are things every mother and dad ought to know, and be thinking of right now. So, I wonder, DO MY READERS KNOW THAT:

A Christmas tree can be decorated more easily if the electric lights are put on first?

A heavy box with a hole in the bottom and boards nailed across the top to hold the trunk makes a splendid tree stand?

You will have no needles to clean up if you use balsam fir tree?

A balsam tree has not so many needles as a spruce, but will look better for a greater length of time?

Silver "snow" sprinkled on the Christmas tree and silver icicles hung on the branches make an effective background for the ornaments?

RECIPES

Checkerboard Cake

- 3/4 cup of butter.
  - 1 1/2 cups of sugar.
  - 3 cups of sugar.
  - 4 1/2 teaspoons baking powder.
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt.
  - 1 cup milk.
  - 1 teaspoon vanilla.
  - 2 squares of chocolate, melted.
  - 4 egg whites, beaten stiff.
- Cream butter and sugar; sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift three times. Then add to creamed mixture part at a time, alternating with the milk beating after each addition, until smooth; add vanilla.
- Divide into two equal parts. To one part add the chocolate. To each part fold in the whites of two eggs.

Grease and flour two eight-inch square pans. Into one, put a strip about an inch wide of white batter, then an inch strip of chocolate, then white, and so on until the pan is filled. Start the rows in the other pan with the chocolate batter and alternating with the white until filled.

Bake in a slow oven (325 deg.) about 45 minutes. Put together with a white icing and make a checkerboard effect on the top and sides by brushing melted chocolate squares over the white frosting. Cut the cake across the strips to give the checked effect in the cake as well.

Griddle Cakes

- 1 pint milk.
  - 2 eggs, beaten.
  - Flour (about 1 pint).
  - 2 teaspoons baking powder.
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt.
  - 1 teaspoon melted butter.
- Stir eggs into milk; add salt; add baking powder and enough flour to make a thin batter; add butter. Then bake on hot griddle.

Pumpkin Pie Filling

- 1 can pumpkin.
  - 1 cup of milk.
  - 1 egg.
  - 1/2 cup of sugar.
  - 1/2 teaspoon ginger.
  - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt.
- Mix and fill unbaked crust; bake in moderate oven for about three-quarters of an hour.

The auxiliary Bible study in Mark will be held at 3 p. m. Monday, with Mrs. Will Savage.

The last lesson in Miss Carrie's book will be given Wednesday night at 7:15. This meeting will be held in the home of the pastor.

Improvement of S. P. Equipment to Cost $2,000,000

Plans have just been announced by the Southern Pacific company for the complete air-conditioning of its principal trans-continental trains as well as air-conditioning of a large portion of the chair cars and other coaches used in trains operating on the Pacific coast and in Mexico.

Work of equipping the cars with the air-conditioning system, which insures comfortable interior temperature regardless of outside weather conditions, will begin immediately, according to J. T. Monroe, passenger traffic manager for the company. Houston. The improved service will be available about May 1, at the start of next year's tourist and vacation season, he said.

Approximately 260 cars will be involved, and the expenditure of the Southern Pacific and Pullman companies within the next six months will amount to about $2,000,000, according to the announcement. These air-conditioned cars will supplement the more than 100 now in service on Southern Pacific lines.

In its new program of improving passenger service the railroad has given special attention to the comfort of persons traveling in tourist sleeping cars, chair cars and other coaches, it was pointed out.

The trains to be completely air-conditioned are the Overland Limited, Sunset Limited, Golden State Limited, Cascade, Pacific Limited, and three trains operating over the company's lines in Texas and Louisiana, it was announced.

Mrs. Harry Sharp left Monday afternoon for Sonora where she was called on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Stokes, who passed away in that city Tuesday afternoon.

AIRPORT CHATTER By THE OLD MAN

Well, the Old Man has been hitting the ball for the past two weeks, and just back from a trip to the field in San Antonio. We've neglected both the column and our fan mail. But this week brought a "dig" from our Peecos air-minded enthusiast, bringing us to task for the omission. For that reason, and that only, we are making an effort. Before memory lapses, we want to thank E. K. for the clipping and picture of the Lindbergh early home.

Capt. Thad Foster was through this week enroute to San Antonio, and was accompanied by Mrs. Foster, who had been in California for some time, at the bedside of her mother, who passed away last week. Our sympathy is extended the entire family in their sad hour.

Plenty of airplanes these days to keep the drome force on their toes, and they have hardly enough spare time in which to plan for the big holidays ahead. One of the natives looks droopy these days, and with reason. It's a nice, fat turkey gobbler now, but after Christmas it'll just be another pile of bleaching bones to mark the desert trail.

We'll make a special effort for a more interesting column next week. But, as our old friend, Bobby Jones, (the poet, not the golfer), once said, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." We may forget it, or not find the time. In that case, we are taking this opportunity of wishing all readers of the Times and this column a very merry Christmas and a New Year in which every fond hope will be realized. How's that?

Three new students entered the Sanderson high school this week. They are Audrey and Ruby Ware of Menard, and Chris Haines from Eden.

Mrs. James C. Sharp and Mrs. Buck Pyle returned Tuesday night from a visit of several days in San Antonio.

Mrs. Grace Wheeler and son, Edward, were business visitors in Alpine and Marathon the first of the week.

Mrs. Luella Lemons and Mrs. C. I. White and daughter, Janice, left Tuesday for San Antonio where they spent this week visiting their daughter, and sister, Mrs. E. D. Pipes.

Judge G. J. Henshaw returned last Friday from Uvalde where he spent several days visiting Hal Carmichael.

Mrs. J. T. McKinney of Hot Wells, Texas, visited this week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lee Roy Grigsby.

Dr. W. H. Coleman, presiding elder of the El Paso district of the Methodist church, was a visitor here Tuesday, having come down to hold the quarterly conference at the local church.

Mrs. Keith, Texas Pioneer Passes at San Angelo Home

Funeral services will be held here this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Stirman, for Mrs. Nancy O'Neil Keith, 93, who passed away Tuesday night at her home in San Angelo. The Rev. Philip Brown, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate at the services.

Mrs. Keith was born April 21, 1842, in Tennessee, and was married to the late W. H. Keith in Dublin, Texas, on June 10, 1861. When she was four years of age she moved with her family to Texas, settling in Hunt county. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Keith moved to Erath county, being the first settlers in that county. They engaged in the stock raising business for a number years. In 1902 they moved to Terrell county residing here until 1918 when they moved to San Angelo where they made their home, Mr. Keith passing away in that city in 1919. At the age of 16 years Mrs. Keith united with the Baptist church and had been a faithful and devout member of that church until her death.

Survivors include four children, two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Stirman of this city, and Mrs. Leo Cox of San Angelo; two sons, Phil Keith of San Angelo, and J. M. Keith of Douglas, Arizona. She is also survived by 18 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and 7 great-great-grandchildren.

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral were a son-in-law, Leo Cox, and a grandson, C. W. Morris, of San Angelo; two granddaughters, Mrs. Jimmy Attaway of McCamey, and Mrs. Berry Wilson of Del Rio.

Mrs. A. M. Buck, from the ranch near Dryden, is spending the week in town with her daughter, Mrs. Vance McLymont.

Mrs. Louise Larson and baby have returned from Del Rio where they had been visiting friends. Mrs. Larson was accompanied home by Misses Lula and Ollie McBee, who will be her guests for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Turk were in town this week from their ranch near Dryden and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Martin.

Mrs. A. C. Clatfelter left Thursday night for Los Angeles, California, where she will spend the holidays with her son, A. C., and other relatives. Mr. Clatfelter and daughter, Maxine, plan to leave the latter part of next week for that city to join Mrs. Clatfelter.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS IF YOU ARE OVER 40

If so, nature is warning you of danger ahead. Get rid of your trouble early. Make this 25c test. Get Juniper oil, Buchu leaves, etc., in green tablets. Ask for BUKETS, the bladder laxative. Take 12 of them in four days; if not pleased go back and get your money. BUKETS work on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Flushes out excess acids and other impurities which cause getting up nights, frequent desire, scanty flow, burning, backache or leg pains. You are bound to feel better after this flushing and you get your regular sleep. Guaranteed by Bohlman Drug Store.
