Enjoying running into a friend long standing yesterday—Leand Merriman of Pecos. Blind yeath Mr. Merriman has never asked odds of anyone. A talented musician, and expert pianist, he started life all over again, prospered, and is still that way. In his home town he does even need the services of a guide. A remarkable character with many respects.

"Pink Elephant" suggested as public emblem. If the GOP fails that animal what will we have to look at the morning after the night before?

Brackett News-Mail was 56 years old last week. That's a long time for any business to survive. All other papers—or most of them—the News-Mail has been paid for this distinguished service to the community. But ALL country papers, whether efforts are appreciated or not, News-Mail will still carry on, giving 100 per cent for the town and its people. A chance to boost the home town is the elixir of life the average editor.

Looks like it won't be long now, as Europe's playboy, little Adolf Hitler, is getting closer and closer to the powder pile with his lighted match.

At the Amarillo convention the men launched a campaign—'More Beef.' In this section 'Eat More Lamb.' Wherever they think we're going to get money for such a varied diet? Is anything you know Texas will come class-conscious—the beefers will be snubbing the lambers, and vice versa.

A study of Townsends proves is just another gag, just like the sitting, yo-yo, the chain let-down and the K. K. K. Not quite as serious as the Klan, but just as profitable for those at the head of movement.

A centennarian recommends eat onions and garlic for a long life. Maybe he's right. No one would want to get with a 30-30 rifle range of anybody that combination on his teeth.

Father Coughlin's latest outlet energy is to start a newspaper. It won't be long until the reverend gentleman will find he has led something tougher than reform politicians or saving the nation's financial system.

Push the throw-off down, Get goes round and round, Woe, woe, woe, woe, woe, and it comes out clear.

Push the speed button down, The roars round and round, Quits go, below, what ho, Gotta get the old rag out.

Push the stop button down, The slows down and round, Work-up, oh, let's go, Last sheet's here.

Winfield Makes Announcement For Senator, 29th

H. L. Winfield of Ft. Stockton, Thursday authorized the Times to announce officially that he would be a candidate for the post of Texas Senator from the 29th district, composed of the largest section of the state embraced in any senatorial district.

Campaign headquarters will be set up in Fort Stockton and an aggressive campaign, extending into every county in the district, will be waged Mr. Winfield stated Thursday.

The following was taken from the Fort Stockton Pioneer of its issue of March 6th, concerning Mr. Winfield and his candidacy: Mr. Winfield is a native Texas, born in 1888 in Zavala county and was educated in the public schools of San Antonio. He came to Fort Stockton 26 years ago as a young man, and has lived here since that time. He worked first in the office of Judge Howell Johnson, and then became deputy clerk under Frank Rooney from 1911 to 1915. In the latter year he entered politics and was elected tax assessor of Pecos county. He served two terms in that office and then, on retirement of Mr. Rooney in the clerk's office, he was elected county and district clerk. He was elected to this office five times, without opposition during that entire period. He retired from that office at the end of 1929.

When Pecos County State Bank was organized in 1928 Mr. Winfield was made a director and vice president, and a short time later was elected to the presidency, a position he holds at present. In addition to his banking interests, Mr. Winfield owns a 25,000-acre ranch southeast of Ft. Stockton, is president of the Stockton Realty and Abstract company and has oil interests in the Pecos valley and Maternson pools. He is a former mayor of Fort Stockton, and at present is president of the Fort Stockton Lions Club.

In making his announcement Mr. Winfield stated that he had no formal statement for issuance at present, but would state his position on various matters of legislation at a later date. Mr. Winfield made the following statement to the Pioneer Tuesday: "If I am successful in being elected to this office, I pledge the people of the district my whole time and attention to the office during the sessions of the legislature, and will support any measure that will be beneficial to this district, and oppose any that is detrimental. I feel that I am qualified to know the needs of the district, and to the best of my ability will work with the view of bettering of some real service to the people of the district."

Thimble Theatre Treks to Texas

Popeye and his harassed troupe will make a one-night stand in Texas March 17 when Crystal City will hold its gala Spinach Festival. Hearing that this south Texas town is the greatest spinach producer in the world, Popeye wastes no time in transporting the full company to the scene of this picturesque Centennial celebration. Segar, creator of Thimble Theatre for King Features, made this contribution to the Texas Spinach Festival, and Crystal City will retaliate by proclaiming Popeye as Mayor. Olive Oyl as Queen of the Festival and Wimpy as City Meat Inspector. Grab on to Sweet Pea in the back there, folks, and follow the crowd!

Pretty-up Work Well Under Way

Citizens Taking Active Part in Planting Move

If the beautification work now under way in Sanderson is a criterion, Sanderson people are getting ready for the many visitors expected through this and every other section of the state during Centennial year.

At the courthouse a crew has been busy for some time setting out native trees, cacti, flowers and shrubs. Last week W. J. Banner, who ranches on the Pecos river, brought in ten beautiful rose bushes which have been planted around the courthouse. This work is being carried on under the supervision of Mrs. Joe Kerr, chairman of public buildings and grounds committee of the Centennial beautification club.

At the Kerr Hotel Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downum have been busy supervising the setting out of various native plants and shrubbery, in the park in front of the hotel, and also on the plot facing the highway. Both places have been made very attractive.

A drive through the residential section of the town will reveal the fact that many others are busy beautifying their premises.

We are glad to see their beautification work going on, and it is hope that by the time the Centennial opens in June it will have progressed to a point that tourist passing through Sanderson will note that we, too, are progressive.

ATTENDS STOCK SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Malone Mitchell, Alexander Mitchell and son, Keith, were visitors in San Angelo Sunday and Monday, where they attended the fast stock show and rodeo held there. Mr. Alexander Mitchell purchased three fine registered Hereford bulls at the show and they were delivered to his ranch in the northeastern part of the county on Wednesday. They reported that a larger number of stock was on display this year than ever before—all high-class, pure-bred animals.

Acreage Donated This County for Recreation Park

All commissioners were present at the regular monthly meeting of the court which was held on Monday of this week. Besides routine business, the court transacted the following new business: An order was passed for the appointment of a case worker for relief clients of the county.

On motion the court was authorized to ask bids for material, labor and construction of a right-of-way fence on the property of Mrs. R. W. Morrison near Lozier canyon in this county.

The court also authorized a survey of a tract of land south of highway 3 at the railroad switch known as Galivan, which has been offered to the county by the Downie-King Ranch company as a recreational park. The tract is between the T. & N. O. railroad switch at Galivan and the highway, about 10 miles west of here.

The expense of the survey is to be borne by the county, and G. J. Henshaw, county judge, was authorized by the court to have this survey made. After the survey has been made the parties offering the land will make a definite consummation of the matter.

Harry Robinson Is Candidate for J. P., Precinct 1

The Times is this week authorized to place the name of Harry M. Robinson in its regular announcement column as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1.

Mr. Robinson (Harry), of First and Last Chance fame, is a long-time resident of Sanderson; says he has never announced for public office before. In asking support of the voters he stated he feels he is qualified to fill the office, and will do so to the best of his ability. He respectfully asks your favorable consideration of his candidacy, and will appreciate your support.

Centennial Celebrations Open With Ceremonies at Houston

Texas History Week Proclaimed By Gov. Allred

Austin, Mar. 4.—Gov. Allred today proclaimed March 15 to 21 as "Texas History Week," and urged Texans to devote a substantial part of the week to the study of the state's history.

"The citizenship of the state of Texas is being called upon this year to act as host to the many visitors attending and who will attend the celebration of the Centennial of Texas freedom," Governor Allred said.

"It strongly behooves all loyal Texans to be in position to advise our guests intelligently and fully regarding the glorious and romantic past of our state."

Appropriation is To Rid Southern State of Blowfly

According to word recently received from Congressman Chas. L. South, the $460,000 appropriation for laboratory experiment for the control and eradication of the blowfly was approved by our National House of Representatives, $161,000 of this sum is expected to be spent in the Southwest and approximately $85,000 for experiment work in West Texas.

This news is distinctly gratifying to the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, which has been very active in its endeavor to procure such governmental aid. At the directors' meeting in Ozona on September 12, 1935, plans were laid and a committee appointed to work toward that goal. That committee, the members of which were J. A. Whitten, Roy Hudspeth and C. Canon, has worked faithfully and so far have accomplished in an exceptionally short time much that they have desired. Assisting them in this work is Dr. I. B. Boughton, with the Ranch Experiment Station; J. B. Kidd, Uvalde, in the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the secretary of the Association, G. W. Cunningham.

The ranchmen of the Southwest who have suffered a heavy annual loss from the ravages of the blowfly realize just what far-reaching effect this experimental and research work may have upon their industry. The securing of governmental assistance at this time in indeed a tribute to the committee which the stockmen appointed and a signal victory for the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association. — Southwestern Sheep and Goat Raiser.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoy are the proud parents of a daughter who arrived last Friday night in San Antonio. The little Miss is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, prominent ranch people of this county.

Distribution of Vets Bonds Set For Late in June

World War veterans should not expect to receive their bonus bonds, recently authorized by congress until a reasonable time after June 15, Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator, stated in a press communication given out on Tuesday of this week.

All bonds will be dated June 15 which is the date of their becoming government instruments. Although General Hines did not say how the bonds would be distributed to the applicants, he pointed out that they will be redeemable by the treasury at such places as the secretary may designate and that redemption of the bonds will be a simple procedure.

Bonds will be in $50 denominations, and odd amounts over and above the multiple of $50 in the amount due will be paid by government check, he said.

"These bonds are not of the ordinary type, but have several unusual features which make them extremely valuable," the administrator said. "They may be redeemed the first year at face value, and after that with an additional 3% interest."

Practically all World War veterans in Sanderson have sent in application for bonus bonds.

CENTENNIAL STAMPS HERE

Texas Centennial stamps are now on sale at the Sanderson post office. They are of 3-cent denomination and bear the pictures of Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin in the upper corners. In the center is a 5-pointed Texas star and the words "United States Postage, Texas Centennial, 1836-1936." There is also a picture of the Alamo on the stamp, which in size are approximately 1 by 1 1/2 inches, and the color is pale purple.

VITAL STATISTICS

According to report by R. L. Henry, local registrar, there were four births in Terrell county during February, and four deaths, all being among the Mexican population.

Federal Land Bank Broadens Its Scope of Loans for Agriculture

Oil Activity in County Continues

The abstractor and the county clerk of Pecos county advises that Pecos county is experiencing its greatest activity since the discovery of the Iraan field, and forces are working night and day to supply necessary abstracts and record the leases, and considerable inquiry has been received by local people concerning acreage in the north end of our county, one of the major companies offering to purchase one-half of a 13,000-acre tract on the Pecos-Terrell county, and there is no doubt the other half will be sold within the next few days, as this acreage is close to the Bakersfield field.

Quite a number of assignments have been recorded the past week covering acreage in Block Y, the assignments being recorded in the name of the Texas Oil Ventures, Inc., of British Columbia.

The consensus of opinion of oil people is to the effect that the old Trans-Continental test located on the Goode place will be drilled to a depth of 8000 feet, and it seems to be sustained by the fact that there is very little, if any, acreage left that is not under lease—and to major companies. This well is slated to become the "discovery well" of Terrell county.

Three Governors Raise Curtain for State's Big Year

Texas paused last Monday to celebrate the 100th anniversary of independence and to survey the progress of a raw state into one of the greatest industrial and commercial empires of the world.

At Washington-on-the-Brazos, Gonzales, and at Huntsville patriotic Texans gathered to pay tribute to the state's forefathers.

Three governors took part in the Independence Day celebrations. Governor Hill McAlister of Tennessee, came from Nashville to pay a glowing tribute to General Sam Houston. At Washington-on-the-Brazos Gov. Philip LaFollette of Wisconsin, addressed a throng after the re-enactment of the signing of the declaration of independence.

Houston, too, observed the day with day long patriotic exercises. In the morning at Huntsville, Governor McAlister led the annual pilgrimage of students to the grave of Sam Houston.

Meanwhile, at Brenham, Gov. Allred and Gov. LaFollette took part in a great street parade, and later motored to Washington-on-the-Brazos where the signing of the declaration of independence was re-enacted.

From this historic spot Governors Allred and LaFollette went to Huntsville where they joined Gov. McAlister for the celebration in which "Steamboat House"—Sam Houston's old home—was dedicated to the state. The Tennessee governor also placed a wreath upon Houston's grave.

Last Sunday a plaque commemorating the feat of 32 Gonzales patriots who fought their way through to the Alamo only to die in defending the walls of the chapel, was unveiled in the court yard of the Alamo in San Antonio.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mansfield are the parents of a son, born at their ranch home on Wednesday morning of this week. The young man, who weighed 10 pounds, is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stavley of this city and of Mrs. W. H. Mansfield of Uvalde.

Federal Land Bank Broadens Its Scope of Loans for Agriculture

Return to normal purchasing of farm lands is shown by a study of applications received by the Federal Land Bank of Houston in the past five months, according to word received from the bank by A. E. Creigh, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Sanderson National Farm Loan Association. Nearly three million dollars, or about 20 per cent of the Land Bank and Land Bank Commissioners loans applied for in that period have been for the purchase of farms.

For some months past Land Bank Commissioners as well as Federal Land Bank loans have been available for financing the purchase of farms. Prior to the broadening of their scope Land Bank Commissioner loans could be made only to refinance existing indebtedness.

From Oct. 1, 1935, through Feb. 29, 1936, 4,160 new and re-instated application were received by the Federal Land Bank at Houston, for amounts totaling $15,023,950.

Federal Land Bank loans are now available through N. F. L. A. said Mr. Creigh, at the lowest interest rates in history and may be made for the following purposes: (a) To purchase land for agricultural uses; (b) to buy equipment, fertilizers, and livestock necessary for the proper and reasonable operation of the mortgaged farm; (c) to provide buildings and for the improvement of farm land; (d) to liquidate indebtedness of the owner of the mortgaged land incurred for agricultural purposes or incurred prior to Jan. 1, 1933; (e) to provide the owner of the mortgaged land with funds for general agricultural purposes.

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin. — Entertaining distinguished visitors including governors and other dignitaries, and helping inaugurate the long series of Centennial year events in south Texas, kept Governor Allred out of the capital. At Washington-on-the-Brazos, site of Texas early capital, the governor delivered what many auditors declared was the best speech of his public career. It denoted a careful study and an intimate knowledge of Texas history and was devoid of current political reference, also it was full of currently important implications. Then, at Huntsville, the governor shared honors with Gov. Hill McAlister of Tennessee in dedicating the famous Sam Houston "Steamboat House." He next moved to Dallas to deliver an inspirational historical address to high school students and then on to San Antonio for the Alamo celebration. Meanwhile, at Gonzales, cradle of Texas history, high postal officials from Washington watched an initial record breaking sale of the official Centennial stamp issue, which augured well for the Texas birthday year celebrations throughout the state.

Good news for drivers of private automobiles on the highways in Texas is the recent court decision holding that the Railroad Commission has authority to slow down the schedules of buses as a safety measure. The decision extends this authority not only to intra-state buses, but to interstate lines operating in Texas also.

SENTIMENT TEST?—This summer's elections may furnish the first test of public sentiment toward the unicameral, or one-house legislature plan, first fostered in the Texas legislature by Senator Nelson of Tahoka, as an increasing number of candidates for both houses have indicated the plan in their platforms and will discuss it during their campaigns. The plan mustered more than 50 votes in the House during the special session last year, but was given scant hearing by the Senate. Lobbyists in Austin are greatly concerned over its reception by the people, because the plan offers promise of making the work of the lobbyists extremely difficult, since it eliminates entirely the "conference committee," in whose name many a jolt is handed the taxpayer. Senator Nelson has been vigorously advocating the plan all over the state, speaking to women's clubs and other civic groups. The one-house legislature has been adopted by the people of Nebraska and will go into effect there next year. Texas politicians are watching with keen interest to see how it works out there.

EVOLUTION OF PIE SUPPER—Streamlined technique in political campaigns is evident this year, as well as in automobile designs. The ancient Fourth of July barbecue, and its more modest counterpart, the pie supper of the Ladies Aid Society, are familiar political institutions in Texas. But this year the community pie supper has evolved into a regional dinner that brings so many people from so many towns together at one sitting that the Ladies Aid wouldn't even recognize it. It has changed its name into the "testimonial banquet," and Col E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Railroad Commission, and up for reelection this year, is one of its greatest beneficiaries. Recently, friends of the Colonel staged a tremendous testimonial dinner for him in Houston—in a hotel owned by Jesse Jones. Right there Col. Thompson's home town friends got an idea. So the Colonel's own Herring Hotel in Amarillo last Monday night was the scene of another great testimonial dinner for the Colonel, attended by his friends from throughout Texas, in Amarillo to attend the Southwestern Cattlemen's Association annual convention. One hundred and twenty members of the executive committee of the Cattlemen's association shared guest honors with Thompson. The Colonel reported both politics and the hotel business distinctly looking up.

MORE HIGHWAYS—Behind in its schedule which calls for getting under contract all of a program of $15,000,000 of regular federal aid projects, and about $23,000,000 of emergency federal aid projects, the Texas Highway Commission this month is working nights to catch up. Two lettings for March already are scheduled, with probably a third late in the month, for a total of about six and a quarter million dollars. This schedule, High Commissioner Harry Hines believes, will go a long way toward putting the state's highway program back on the road to its goal. The delays, caused by federal work relief regulation difficulties, which have since been cleared up, seriously threatened Texas' greatest highway building program in history, for a while. This work, distributed throughout the state, should absorb a high percentage of available labor very shortly, commission officials believe.

J. J. Nance was a business visitor in Del Rio last Saturday.

THANK YOU

We wish to thank the P. T. A. for the fifty dollars it donated to the school for new books in our library.
There is a dire need of books for all the classes. Most of the books now in the library are worn out and some of them have been here almost twelve years. Almost daily you can hear some pupil complaining about there not being any books in the library, or that they have read every one.
Fiction books are needed for the recreation of the pupils, and also historical books for the more serious-minded. With the donation of the P. T. A. we are almost able to buy enough books to satisfy the needs of the school.

Current Comment

By Vaunceil Henderson

Spring is here and the new fad seems to be white shoes. We wonder who will wear the first big summer hat. Come on, the sun is getting hot.

At present the term theme rush seems very important. If you think your is the hardest of all, that's just human nature.

Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears! That seems old, but it's just as important to the freshmen as it was to us when we were freshmen.

We don't hear so much about the Junior-Senior banquet. Maybe it's a surprise! Well, we know the Senior banquet last year was in grand style. Here's luck to you, Juniors.

Every one wonders why the Sophs can't think about algebra at the 5th period. Maybe those grand overtures drifting in from hand practice distract their reasoning power.

The Eagles have a chance at Fort Stockton again this afternoon. Let's beat 'em!

AMERICAN HISTORY CLASS
The American History class is working on term themes which are due March 16.

Some of the titles assigned are: "The History of Terrell County," "History of Sanderson," "History of the Newspaper," "Building of the Railroad," "Livestock Industry" and "Stories of Old Settlers." These themes have no definite length. They are to be typed and set in folders. They will then be placed in the library.

Mr. Holt states that he hopes these themes will be so interesting that every one in town will want to read them.

Mildred Hurst Heads Honor Roll
Mildred Hurst, junior in high school, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hurst, led the high school in scholastic standing in the fourth six-weeks period of the school term. Her record was four grades of A.
Eleven pupils in high school made the honor roll during the same period. The requirements for the honor roll are as many A's as B's, and no grade below B. Of these eleven pupils only three were boys—Lloyd Gant, senior; Pat Harris, junior; and Jack Bogusch, junior. Also, of the eleven pupils who made the honor roll three were seniors, three juniors, two sophomores and three freshmen.

The complete list of those who made the honor roll follows: Anna Lee Allen, Jack Bogusch, Elizabeth Brown, Adair Edmiston, Mary Ferguson, Lloyd Gant, Pat Harris, Emma Fae Harris, Vaunceil Henderson, Mildred Hurst and Bertha Mae O'Bryant. This represents thirteen per cent of the total enrollment of the high school at the present time.

The names of eight pupils appear on the list of those who receive honorable mention, that is, those who receive an average of at least B. These pupils are Maxine Clatfelter, Laurence Gutierrez, Allen Hardgrave, Florence Hurst, Lois Taylor, Helen Turner and Mildred Underwood.

HONOR ROLL
Three complimentary tickets were awarded three high school pupils making the highest grades during the past six weeks. These tickets are compliments of the local Princess theatre. The students receiving tickets are Pat Harris, Mildred Hurst and Anna Lee Allen. The honor roll for the 4th six weeks in the Sanderson high school is as follows:
Anna Lee Allen, 3 A, 1 B; Jack Bogusch, 2 A, 2 B; Elizabeth Brown, 2 A, 2 B; Adair Edmiston, 3 A, 1 B; Mary Ferguson, 2 A, 1 B; Lloyd Gant, 3 A, 1 B; Emma Fae Harris, 3 A, 1 B; Pat Harris, 3 A, 1 B; Vaunceil Henderson, 2 A, 2 B; Mildred Hurst, 4 A; Bertha Mae O'Bryant, 3 A, 1 B.

Shoe Sizes

By Nelle Lea
One never takes time to think what size shoe the other fellow wears, but it is interesting to know that there are many different sizes worn by Sanderson high school girls.

"My, I have such large feet I hate to tell." "Are you going to tell who that large size belongs to?" "I'm not going to tell what size I wear." "Goodness, what are you going to put it in the paper for?" "My feet really are not large, but I wear No. 7 1/2."

These are some of the answers given to the question "What size shoe do you wear?"
Now, the girls don't want to make you think they have small feet when they don't, but you will have to overlook their large feet on account of the rocky ground they have to walk on to and from school.

Among the girls of this high school are 3 that wear size 3 1/2, 2 size 4, 5 size 4 1/2, 6 size 5, 8 size 5 1/2, 8 size 6, 5 size 6 1/2, 3 size 7, 3 size 7 1/2, and 2 size 8.

Of course the sizes get away up there for girls, but you should stop to think that a size 6 isn't so bad for the average size worn by girls, is it?

Eliminations In Declamation 27th

March 27th was selected as the date for declamation elimination contests for Sanderson schools at a meeting of the coaches of declamation Monday afternoon in the office of Supt. R. D. Holt.

The plan, as the committee outlined it, is that in each of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades, the elimination will be made to three boys and three girls before March 27. The maximum number of declamation contestants will be twelve pupils for the final contest. This is the junior division. The date for this elimination is Friday night, March 27. Senior declamation eliminations will be held at the same time and the public is invited to attend.

The winners of these final contests will be awarded medals and will represent the school at the district meet in Fort Stockton on April 10 and 11.

The spelling contests will be limited to two groups of three contestants in each group—the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades. Medals of award will be made in this contest also.

Stockton-Eagles Game Here Today

The Sanderson high school Eagles will play the Fort Stockton volleyball team this afternoon in a return game in the high school gymnasium here at 4:30. There will be no admission charges.

The Feast of Saint Patrick

Saint Patrick (389-463). Although this well-beloved personage is the patron saint of Ireland, he was born in Scotland, or in England or France. Authorities give his birthplace as Bannauenta, but whether this was in Scotland near the modern Dumbarton, or near Daventry in Northamptonshire, England, they are not agreed.

The saint's British name was Suet; Patrick is the anglicized form of his Roman name, Patricius. At the age of sixteen, he was captured by pirates from Ireland and carried to that island, where for six years he tended the flocks of the Ulster chieftain. During these years of his slavery he became a devout Christian and after his escape to France entered monastic life. Directed by a vision to become a missionary to Ireland, he obeyed the call in 432, and for the remainder of his life worked in various parts of the island. His labors were known as one who "found Ireland all heathen, and left it all Christian." There he founded over 300 churches and personally baptized over 120,000 people.

Benefit Minstrels Show Presented

"Chain Gang Minstrels," black-face minstrel show was presented by the men of the town, the faculty and high school boys last night in the high school auditorium. The proceeds went to the high school athletic fund.

All characters in the show were black-face except the interlocutor. The scene was laid in a penitentiary, and the interlocutor was the warden. End men and principal characters were D. L. Duke, P. J. Holman, Wallace Henshaw, J. R. Black, Sr., J. R. Black, Jr., and J. E. King, Duane Smith, R. D. Holt and Bernie Morgan.

The chorus included Jesse Lochausen, Dick Sullivan, Marion King, Bob Lea, Elton Halley, Albert Appel, Jack Bogusch, Joe Kerr and Wesley Lochausen. Negro songs were sung by the chorus in addition to the minstrel songs. Mrs. Wilson was pianist.

Museum News

Prowling among the relics in our "Little Museum" we find a few things about which nothing has yet been written.

Mrs. John McCall presented a bonnet which was used in 1905. John Clark presented a 45-70 Springfield army rifle with bayonet. He also presented a flintlock, single shot, muzzle-loading pistol which he found many years ago.

Jack McKee presented an advertisement of the stage line that ran from San Antonio to El Paso. It gives rates on the fair and the towns between the two cities: Ft. Clark, Ft. Hudson, Ft. Lancaster, Ft. Stockton, Ft. Davis and Ft. Hancock.

There are more than a thousand interesting pieces in our museum, and it will soon be open to the public. If you have any relics please donate or loan them to the school museum. If desired they will be returned at the end of the year.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADES IN ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

By Margaret R. Arrington

The fifth and sixth grades presented the assembly program on Thursday, March 5, at 9 o'clock, in the high school auditorium.

Earl Hurst was announcer. The program was opened by the sixth grade singing our state song—"Texas, Our Texas." The audience rose and under the direction of Miss Chaffin sang "The Eyes of Texas" and "Beautiful Texas."

Al Creigh gave a talk on one of our greatest Texas heroes, David Crockett. A talk on Texas Independence Day was given by Earl Hurst.

Dryden Pupils Are Early Birds

By Roger Bassett
The school children that live in Dryden have to get up very early in the morning to catch the bus in time to come to school. The children there have to get up about 6 or 6:30 o'clock to get ready to come to school.

The bus leaves Dryden at ten minutes until eight every morning. It takes about 45 minutes to come to Sanderson. Some mornings it very cold on the bus for there is no heater in it. We leave the school house at 4 o'clock in the evening and we arrive home at 4:45.

After arriving at home we do our work and then play. The pupils at Dryden get their lessons early so they can go to bed and be bright on the coming morning. The school bus has never been late for school unless floods or trouble held it back. Some of the mornings were so cold they had to put candles on the windshield to keep it from being covered with ice.

The pupils on the bus have to bring their lunch or they have to buy it downtown.
On the bus are certain rules that all must abide by, and the bus driver is supposed to enforce these rules. Mr. Houston Chandler is the bus driver.

TYPING CONTEST TODAY
A typing contest between Fort Stockton and Sanderson teams will be held today at 4 o'clock in the typing room. Four girls from Fort Stockton will combat three girls and one boy of Sanderson high school. Sanderson contestants are Adair Edmiston, Maxine Clatfelter, Laurence Gutierrez, and Elizabeth Brown.

H. E. NEWS

The Future Homemakers of the Sanderson high school met in regular session Tuesday after school. The topic for discussion was a tentative plan of progression in club work.

Committees were named to present a suggested plan to the club at the next regular meeting. This project is in accordance with the work of the state club.

It has been suggested by the State H. E. Club that each high school club submit a plan for steps of progression in club work. The most outstanding plans will be incorporated into a statewide program for the founding of chapters in the Future Homemakers of America, a new movement of the student clubs of the American Association of Home Economics. The steps of progression in the Sanderson club will be along the lines of health, personality, character, building, club-work, classwork and home improvement. The club plans to award each degree with a suitable pin. Complete plans are to be perfected in the near future and submitted to the State club.

Miss Myrtle Harrell and Miss Ruby Ware entertained the club with a musical selection.

Bookkeeping

The bookkeeping class has been studying business papers for the past two weeks. Bank drafts, sight drafts, time drafts, postal money orders and bills of lading were among those studied. Each student secured a sample copy of one of these papers and wrote a two-page theme describing the course and use of his particular paper. Bernard Kerr purchased a one-cent postal money order to use as an example, having to pay a six-cent fee. Those writing themes were Zada Van Cleave, Sammie Carter, Florence Hurst, Pete Deaton, Bernard Kerr, Lillian Halley and Mildred Hurst.

SPORTS

By Dorothy Lewellen
SPRING FOOTBALL
Coach Smith says spring football will open next week, and he hopes and expects plenty of the boys will come out for this football. They will not play any spring games, but will practice daily to keep them in practice and teach them to become better athletes.

TRACK
Coach Smith says some of the boys are in training for the track events, but it is not definite known yet who will come out or for what events. Probably have a lineup on this next week.
