Selected Quotation
A little folly is desirable in him that will not fall into stupidity.

Count on college students to start something idiotic. A move some of the more egotistical institutions is formation of the Veterans of Future Wars, and it is their intention to ask for a $1000 bonus on the strength of being known fodder later on. We have ways contended that the brain at the height of development in about the 6th or 7th grade. After that the average student trend in mind thinking is downward, and these future veterans prove it.

News items give the lie to the reports that the Democrats are losing the country. A politician, however, has a corkscrew imagination and sees the country as he wants to see it—not as it is. Income tax returns, to date have passed the billion mark, showing an enormous increase of the past year. Liquor taxes are proving the salvation of several states, and merely mention this because it takes money to buy whisky. Our opinion is that anyone who cannot see an improvement in the economics of the country as a whole, hasn't got sense enough to hold office—large or small.

CYCLONIC WIND STRIKES SECTION

THIS WEEK IN Texas History

WEEK OF MARCH 22

1825—The State of Coahuila and Texas published her celebrated decree of March 24. This law provided that any foreigner who should settle himself in the state, upon making proper application, and taking the oath required, might designate the lands which the decree allowed him, and obtain a title to same.

1825—The United States were not satisfied with the treaty of 1819 when Texas had been ceded to Spain. On March 26, Henry Clay, as Sec'y of State, gave special instructions to the American minister to try to procure from Mexico the re-transfer of Texas.

1836—Sam Houston retreated from position on the Colorado above Columbus, March 15.

1836—Sam Houston encamps near Hemstead March 28 and spends two weeks in drilling his soldiers.

1842—Mexican raids on San Antonio and the imprisonment of members of the Santa Fe expedition caused President Houston, on March 26, to declare the Mexican coast from Tabasco to the Rio Grande blockaded.—T S College for Women (CIA).

Local Employees Place Second in Sales Contest

Employees of the local branch of the Community Public Service company were awarded a cash prize of $10 the first of the week as second prize in the "Days of '49" lamp campaign recently put on by the company, which ended on March 15.

The contest covered about five states in which the company operates, each office in this large area being given a quota. Notwithstanding the keen competition Sanderson, one of the smallest towns in the area, lacked just 600 watts in tripling their quota, which speaks well of the alertness of the local employees.

On Tuesday night of this week, in celebrating the event, a banquet was held at the Kerr Hotel, where the employees of the Sanderson office and plant and their wives enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Al Creigh was an invited guest.

Quota for WTCC Membership is Quickly Raised

Sanderson's quota for membership in the West Texas chamber of commerce was quickly raised the first of the week by L. M. Baze, cashier of the Sanderson State Bank, who made solicitation of the members and collected the necessary quota of $110 set for this city.

The following citizens and business firms joined the association: Joe Kerr, Kerr Mercantile Co., A. E. Creigh, Jr., Sanderson Wool Commission Co., Sanderson State Bank, McKnight Motor Co., O. H. McAdams, Lee A. Cook, D. L. Duke, Clyde Griffith, W. J. Ferguson, Joe Pennington, Sanderson Mercantile Co., G. J. Henshaw, James Kerr, James House, William Lea, Jr., H. G. Holt, M. G. Northcutt, F. M. Weigand, M. P. Lester, Greene Cooke, Kerr Hotel, G. A. Turner, P. W. Mallory, Sanderson Confectionery, Mrs. F. M. Weigand, R. E. Fred, W. E. Sturman, R. M. Gant, and The Sanderson Times.

We could probably get some big things done in this country if all the geniuses were not tied down to unimportant jobs.

Historic Fort Davis in the Big Bend

High in the rugged mountains in the Big Bend country is old Fort Davis, founded in 1854 by U. S. soldiers seeking a "water route" to the Far West and abandoned nearly 45 years ago. Vivid reminiscences of the picturesque are afforded old timers who visit this old fort nesting beneath the Davis Mts.

Favor Purchase of Old Frontier Fort

Washington, March 24.—After Tom L. Beauchamp, member of the Texas State Parks Board, had explained the plan to a meeting of the Texas delegation in congress today, the delegation went on record in favor of an expenditure of $32,000 for the purchase of the century-old Fort Davis.

The expenditure, if made, will come out of the $3,000,000 lump sum appropriation for federal participation in the Texas Centennial. Most of the sum, however, has been allocated.

Princess Theatre To Show Three Pictures a Week

Commencing next Wednesday, April 1, the Princess Theatre will show three pictures each week, instead of two as it has been doing in the past. Pictures will be shown on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, the shows on Thursday and Saturday nights being the same as shown on Wednesday and Friday.

This extra showing of another picture a week is due to a popular demand for a show in the middle of the week by theatre patrons, and if patronage justifies, it will be made permanent.

For the inaugural of the new policy the management will show on next Wednesday and Thursday nights, Apr. 1 and 2, "Steamboat Round the Bend," the second last picture made by Will Rogers.

All pictures that have been booked for the mid-week show are of the best many of them being released only recently.

MOTHER IS INJURED

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Higgins left last Thursday for Abilene, called there on account of serious injuries to her mother, Mrs. J. E. Carter, sustained in an automobile accident. Mrs. Carter, accompanied by a niece, Miss Young, were enroute from their home in Bowie to Abilene, for a visit with her son, J. Q. Carter. Nearing Anson a tire blew out, causing the car to turn over several times. Mrs. Carter sustained severe and painful head injuries and is now in Abilene. Mr. Higgins returned home Saturday and stated that Mrs. Carter was improved when he left, and in good spirits. It is the hope of Mrs. Carter's many friends in this section that she will soon recover from her injuries. Mrs. Higgins remained in Abilene to be with her mother.

VISITS IN EL PASO

Mrs. W. F. Bohlman returned the first of the week from El Paso where she was called last Tuesday on account of the serious illness of a sister, and where she visited with her daughter, Miss Mary Ellen, who is teaching in that city.

People often marvel over the wrong thing.

Extra Passenger For T. & N. O. Ry. In April Report

While a second train to replace the Argonaut which was taken off in 1932 is scheduled to be in operation some time in April, officials of the Southern Pacific line, along the T. & N. O. route, said early this week they had not been advised of a definite date. The new train will be a companion to the Sunset Limited and will be air conditioned. Its inauguration will mean employment for over one hundred men between El Paso and New Orleans.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Notice is hereby given that the Commissioners' Court of Terrell County, Texas, will, up to 10 o'clock, a. m. on the 13th day of April, 1936, receive sealed bids for material, labor and/or complete construction of six miles of right-of-way net wire fence on Highway No. 3, through the Mrs. Louise L. Morrison ranch in Terrell County, about 35 miles east of Sanderson, Texas.

Bidders may make their proposals for complete construction of said fence, furnishing all material and labor; or he may make bid for labor only, or material only, or for net wire only or cedar posts and stays.

Fence to be standard sheep proof fence, built in a substantial workmanship manner. Net wire to be 42 or 43 inches high with one barbed wire above, or 48 inches, with no barbed wire above, wire stays 12 inches apart, and proposal should state the make of wire net, number of line wire and gauge of top and bottom and cross wires he proposes to furnish. Cedar post 6 1/2 inch high and not less than 3 1/2 inches at small end, posts 50 feet apart with 4 stays between posts and where fence crosses points, ridges and gullies, more posts if necessary to make standard sheep proof fence.

Fence when completed subject to approval of the Court.

The Court reserves the right to reject, any and/or all bids.

Bids should be in sealed envelope, addressed to G. J. Henshaw, County Judge, Terrell Co., Texas.

PROMOTED TO MAJOR IN INFANTRY RESERVE

The following item, taken from the San Antonio Evening news of March 20, will be of interest to friends here of L. R. Dillon, who a number of years ago was stationed here as a member of the border patrol.

Lester Reed Dillon, who served in the World War as an enlisted man and who fought in six major engagements, has been promoted to the grade of major in the infantry reserve with rank effective March 4.

Dillon was administered the oath by U. S. Commissioner Lockhart.

Banquet Given By Rotary Club

At the Kerr Hotel, last Friday evening, the Sanderson Rotary club entertained with a banquet and musical program, having several guests in addition to the Rotarians.

The banquet table was beautiful with its white linen cloths and down the center, at intervals, were bouquets of rosebuds.

The program opened with invocation by O. H. McAdams, and was followed by the group singing "Eyes of Texas." L. M. Baze delivered the address of welcome and introduced the guests, following which a trumpet solo was played by J. E. King, with Mrs. Sims Wilkinson at the piano. A vocal duet by D. L. Duke and Mrs. J. E. King brought forth much applause.

R. D. Holt gave a most interesting historical address, taking as his subject "Texas," in which he brought out some of the most famous as well as historical characters of early Texas. Following this address Joe Kerr, Jr., rendered an instrumental baritone solo, followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. J. E. King. The Rotary parting song brought the evening's program to a close.

The following attended this delightful affair: Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baze, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr and guests Mrs. Helen Downie and Mrs. Floyd Christian Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Holt, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Mallory, Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ferguson, O. H. McAdams and daughter, Miss Bess, C. J. Watts, Lynn Harrell, Miss Pearl Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smith and guests, Bernie Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. King, Joe Kerr, Jr., and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson.

S. P. Officials Inspect the New Route Changes

A group of officials of the T. & N. O. and Southern Pacific lines arrived in Sanderson last Saturday morning and made an inspection of the new routing of the line east of the city. They left Sunday.

Included were A. D. McDonald, president of the S. P. lines, San Francisco; Hale Holden, chairman of the board of directors, New York; H. M. Lull, executive vice president, Houston; B. S. Holloman, superintendent, San Antonio; R. W. Barnes, chief engineer, Houston, who had been stationed here temporarily, joined the officials here.

GAME WARDEN HERE

O. Z. Finley, game warden with headquarters in Del Rio, was a visitor in Sanderson last Saturday and while here was a pleasant caller at the Times office, leaving a bulletin announcing the Texas Wildlife conference that will be held in Austin today and Saturday.

Funds Needed for Red Cross Work; Appeal is Made

An appeal for funds to aid the relief work of the Red Cross was received here this week. The funds are needed to aid flood sufferers in fourteen states.

No definite quota has been set for Sanderson and Terrell county. The appeal was received by G. J. Henshaw Thursday. As chairman, he was requested to send in any funds for this relief work as soon as possible, as they were greatly needed, and that if the situation among flood sufferers did not improve additional funds would be needed.

Judge Henshaw stated that no personal solicitation would be made, but that anyone who wishes to contribute to this fund may do so either by handing their donation to him, or leaving it at the bank with L. H. Lemons, who is treasurer of the local chapter.

All funds received here will be forwarded to the headquarters of the Red Cross immediately. This is a worthy cause, and it is the hope of the Times that Sanderson will aid in this relief by voluntarily sending in a nice contribution.

'Rose of Rancho' Film Has Eleven New Song Hits

"Rose of the Rancho," Paramount's new musical romance to be shown at the Princess tonight and Saturday March 27-28, boasts the first original operetta-type score ever written for the screen. And the picture has more new songs than any other film ever made—eleven to be exact, plus 4 Spanish dances.

"Rose of the Rancho" marks the screen debut of Gladys Swarthout, beautiful Metropolitan opera star, and of the new comedy team of Willie Howard and Herb Williams.

Miss Swarthout sings five songs while John Boles, who plays opposite her, has three, and they sing a duet together. Willie Howard sings two songs. The picture represents an entirely new technique in screen musicals. Heretofore motion picture producers have been somewhat baffled by the difficulty of presenting songs without slowing up the story, but Composers Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger have overcome this problem. They wrote the songs to tie in directly with the dialogue. The music becomes a natural extension of the lines.

Miss Swarthout departs for the first time from her accustomed operatic arias and sings frankly "popular" numbers in at least two instances. Her other songs are of the operatic type. Her two popular melodies are "Thunder Over Paradise" and "Don't Tell a Secret to a Rose."

In the Spanish fiesta scenes she sings "Where is My Love?" Her other songs are "Vigilante Song" and "The Padre and the Bride." Boles' numbers are "Little Rose of the Rancho," "I Met Her on the Prairie," "There's Gold in Monterey," and their duet song is "If I Should Lose You."

Willie Howard's two songs are "I Got a Gal in Californ-I-A," and "The Lone Cowboy."

GRANDSON VERY ILL

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Deaton left Tuesday night for Fresno, Calif., on receipt of a message that their grandson, the 3-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Deaton, was seriously ill from a foot infection. The younger Deatons reside in Fowler, Calif., but took the boy to Fresno to be placed under the care of specialists.

A high wind which struck Sanderson shortly after 10 o'clock Wednesday night, did several hundred dollars worth of damage when roofs were blown down, barns and outhouses blown over, windows blown out and trees and shrubbery whipped to shreds and, in some instances, blown down.

The wind was cyclonic in nature, and was accompanied by clouds of dust and intermittent sprinkles of rain.

The gale could be heard for several minutes before it struck, the noise resembling distant thunder.

The southwest portion of the roof of the McKnight Motor Co. garage in the west part of Sanderson, was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. The glass portion of the double doors in the rear of the building were blown out, creating a suction, which lifted the roof, scattering part of it across the street, part falling inside the building, tearing loose a battery charger, blowing it on top of the garage.

At the Dawson service station nearby, a portion of the galvanized roofing was torn loose, which fell to the ground.

In the residential section several chimneys were blown down, and barns and other outhouses overturned and damaged.

As the gale swept east down the canyon it tore part of the roof off the porch at the residence of P. J. Holman, also part of the roof from the residence of Harry Robinson, just east of Holman's.

With the exception of a windmill on the Joe F. Brown ranch being blown down, little or no damage was reported from surrounding ranches.

OIL NEWS

The old-time surveyor had no idea just how much he was helping the present land owners when he sat on one hill and "walked a mile" for so many minutes to constitute 1900 varas, for in very near all the first surveys there was always a few acres excess, and in one such instance, the present owner has refused a price of $4.75 per acre for an oil and gas lease on his excess acreage, just patented to him, the land referred to being located in the northeast end of Terrell county near the Goode well.

F. C. Bates, Jr., ranching in the extreme northeast part of Terrell county advises that he is preparing to drill the well on his property, spudded in by Mr. Felps, now deceased, to a depth of 5000 feet, the well now being down approximately 3000 feet.

Seven hundred eighty acres of Terrell county school land has been leased to Allan Hargrave of Midland, Texas, and several inquiries have been received concerning the balance of the 2000 acres owner by Terrell county. Geologists have now taken to the air to locate and trace a structure, this being accomplished recently in this county, the "high" being traced from the east end of the county to the southwest corner of Pecos county, and the acreage partially leased over the route taken by the plane.

HIGHWAY TO ST. HELENA

At a meeting held in Austin last Thursday by the state highway commission, designation as a state highway was given a road from highway No. 3 at Marathon to Terlingua thence south to the Rio Grande. The route will traverse the Chisos mountains and one of Texas' scenic wonders, the St. Helena canyon of the Rio Grande in Brewster county, will be opened to tourists by the designation of this highway.

TAKE BABE TO DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Greene Cooke left Wednesday for Dallas taking their daughter, Betty, to that city for medical examination and X-ray. During Mr. Cooke's absence his market will be in charge of his brother, Cleofus Cooke, of Ozona.

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The most noteworthy contribution that has been made this year from any source to the study of the financial condition of the state of Texas has been compiled by C. A. Jay, executive vice president of the Industrial, Commercial & Agricultural Conference of Dallas. Jay made a continuous study of Texas' tax problems. His figures and estimates are entirely unbiased, because he never advocates any legislation or any tax plans, but confines himself simply to the task of digging out facts and publishing them. His analyses in the past have proved more accurate and more informative than those of any political source. Here are the facts as Jay reveals them in his latest analysis of Texas' finances.

When this fiscal year ends there will be a deficit of around $8,000,000 in the general fund, as compared with around $6,000,000 at the beginning of the year. There will be a cash balance in the available school fund of $4,000,000 after payment of the maximum per capita apportionment of $17.50, the highest ever paid in history. Besides, the school fund received $10,000,000 or rural aid this year—$4,000,000 more than it ever got before.

The Confederate pension fund will continue to have a considerable deficit, but under the present constitutional allotment of 7 cents this deficit is being reduced about $400,000 annually.

The state this year had a non-recurring expenditure of $3,000,000 for the Centennial and another $3,000,000 for the first installment of interest and principal on the relief bonds which will decrease annually. The highway fund is adequate and in good condition.

This leave only two problems demanding attention—schools and old age pensions. Jay estimates that if per capita appropriations of $17.50—the maximum—and the $10,000,000 rural aid appropriation this year are continued the school fund will have from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 cash balance at the end of the biennium, with present revenues.

He estimates the cost of old age pensions at $3,000,000 a year under the present law if it is efficiently administered. He estimates 240,000 Texans over 65, using adjusted U. S. census figures, and 36,000 of these as "indigents" in the meaning of the Texas law, using figures of the U. S. senate committee on social security. Allowing a liberal sum for the cost of administration of the law, he fixes the maximum cost around $8,000,000 a year. Liquor taxes will furnish $4,000,000 or one-half the sum, he believes. He concludes: "Therefore, the only additional revenue actually necessary would be four or five million dollars to supplement the funds now allotted to old age pensions. Certainly these facts ought to convince the average taxpayer there is no reason for the state to become panicky in search of new revenue in the next regular session of the next legislature."

Actually, revenues of last year are showing substantial increase due to better business conditions and tightening of laws and administration of state tax laws. Notable increases have occurred in gasoline tax and cigarette tax collections already. Federal income taxes are up 45 per cent this year in Texas, indicating a greatly improved business in all lines. More than $25,000,000 in delinquent ad valorem taxes are owing to the state now and reviving business doubtless will bring in some of this revenue. This is not overdue taxes on the little homesteads of widows and small home owners, because an accurate study shows that 46 per cent of this $25,000,000 is owed by only 6 per cent of the delinquent property owners. If the legislature would take steps to collect delinquent state taxes from large property owners who are perfectly able to pay, but have avoided doing so, and thus cast their tax burden upon the little taxpayer, who, the figures prove, had met his obligations, there would not only be no need for any new taxes, but the state would be able to go on a cash basis within a few months. These large taxpayers, many of them delinquent, are the chief agitators for a sales tax in Texas, and they maintain a well-financed lobby which is constantly working to unload the cost of government on the man of small income and relieve property of its share of the tax burden.

Former Governor Dan Moody has a weakness for striking shirts—his fancy running to stripes of blue, lavender and pink. He has them made to order, and with the highest, stiffest collars he can get, and frequently wears two or three different shirts a day.

A freak of nature in the Yates oil pool in Pecos county promises to form the basis of a forthcoming bitter legal battle. When the field first came in, back in 1929, major oil companies which owned most of the leases entered an agreement with a few operators who owned leases on small "vacancy" tracts. All the lease owners agreed on a proration factor of acreage plus well potential, taking a 100-acre tract as the unit. The oil sand there is very "streaky" and by chance some of the largest wells in the world, yielding up to 150,000 or more barrels daily, came in on the little two and four-acre leases. As a result, under the formula, the man with two acres is permitted by the railroad commission rules in some cases to take more oil out of his lease than the major company with 100 acres, where wells are much smaller producers. So the California Oil Co. and the Marathon Oil Co. have petitioned the railroad commission to cancel the agreement they entered into and establish a new system that would give them more oil. The state is opposed, because the school fund draws royalties from the "vacancy" leases. If the commission turns down the request, as it indicated after a two-day hearing, a long-drawn-out court fight probably will result.

SOCIETY HOME

JAMES KERR entertained bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. Snyder in the home of Mrs. Snyder. The party was to be like, and upon arrival they were met at the door by Roberta Lochausen and invited in, and this is what they saw: At the east end of the long room, seated upon the throne of prestige was the Honorable Elder (Mrs. D. A. Pollard), in a mandarin coat, hair combed smoothly from a center part and wearing long earrings to match her costume, who presented to the guests as they entered by Mrs. Ferguson, bade them clasp hands with her in Chinese fashion and kneel with heads bowed to the floor in the Chinese reverential way. The Honorable Elder then gave each guest a lovely pillow on which to sit.

Numbers were drawn in order to seat the guests in groups of four, as in China the refreshments were served at the beginning of the party. The Honorable Elder gave the welcome as follows: "We extend to you our mighty guests of the day, a hearty welcome to our unworthy party. We hide our dishonorable heads at our poor food and unlovely dwelling place, we hope you will accept our lowly hospitality and stoop to partake of our abominable refreshments. I make obeisance to you." (Bows very low). "We are here to celebrate a Chinese party honoring the senior class of 1936, but I see we have a few honorable guests from foreign lands (guests from the high school faculty) and for their sakes I will explain some of our very unworthy customs. Of course every proper feast begins with the sweets, or dessert, and we shall so serve today. It is said that some lands beyond the seas serve sweets at the close of a meal, but we cannot think anyone could be so stupid. Our feast today shall properly begin with the sweets."

The first course consisting of mixed hard candies was served after this speech from the Honorable Elder, and the guests were informed that according to custom they were supposed to eat everything before them, and in the event they did not do so, were to divide the remainder among the group and wrap it in the bright red napkins to take home and eat later.

The Honorable Elder announced the second course: "We shall now enjoy our favorite dish, Eight Precious Rice, which will be accompanied by Heavenly Tea, perhaps delicately scented with jasmine flowers. Of course no Chinese would ever desecrate this delicious beverage by adding anything to it. We have heard, however, that some of our noble and illustrious guests from other lands prefer to add sugar, and even milk of the lowly cow.

Chop sticks were used in the rice course instead of forks, with surprising ability.

As you no doubt know the candy and fruit vendors of China are very popular and no Chinese party is complete without their wares. In this instance Roberta Lochausen was the vendor, dressed in a vivid costume, carrying a tray laden with candies, nuts and fruits of various sorts and descriptions, and each guest helped themselves and received miniatures, tapestry hangings, oriental throws, bright colored pillows and colorful Chinese lanterns hanging from the ceiling.

Mrs. Ferguson sent out attractive invitations in Chinese design, requesting the guests to come in oriental costume. Those invited had no idea just what the party was to be like, and upon arrival they were met at the door by Roberta Lochausen and invited in, and this is what they saw: At the east end of the long room, seated upon the throne of prestige was the Honorable Elder (Mrs. D. A. Pollard), in a mandarin coat, hair combed smoothly from a center part and wearing long earrings to match her costume, who presented to the guests as they entered by Mrs. Ferguson, bade them clasp hands with her in Chinese fashion and kneel with heads bowed to the floor in the Chinese reverential way. In this instance Roberta Lochausen was the vendor, dressed in a vivid costume, carrying a tray laden with candies, nuts and fruits of various sorts and descriptions, and each guest helped themselves and received miniature Chinese umbrellas as favors. After the refreshments the Honorable Elder stated, "It is said that in some lands they give their guests a cold dry piece of linen, with which to cleanse their countenances after eating. I have heard this called a napkin or serviette. In our unworthy country, however, we are kinder to our guests as you will see. The hot towels will now be passed, that you may pleasantly wash your faces and hands."

A bowl of water highly perfumed was then passed by the servants and the guests used the proffered hot towels for cleansing their countenances.

At the completion of the meal there was a Chinese parade and a prize was given to the boy and girl wearing the most original Chinese costume. Lillian Halley and Melven Pollard were the lucky Chinese. In Chinese fashion they said good night to the Honorable Elder and were presented with Chinese pass cards to the Princess Theatre to see "The Bride Comes Home."

Numbers were drawn in order to seat the guests in groups of four, as in China the refreshments were served at the beginning of the party. The Honorable Elder gave the welcome as follows: "We extend to you our mighty guests of the day, a hearty welcome to our unworthy party. Popular Fiction Character at the Princess Monday

Clarence E. Mulford, creator of "Hopalong Cassidy," western fiction hero known to millions of readers, who comes to the screen for the first time with William Boyd in the title role, a Paramount release which comes to the Princess Theatre Monday night, March 30th, has the unique distinction of having written 10 books about "Hoppy," with only one of the ten containing a romantic episode which dominated the main theme of the story.

"Hopalong" was the two-gun two-fisted, straight shooting and hard-riding cowboy who rode the range in the lawless days of the Old West, more interested in affairs that involved the use of a Winchester rather than those that involved the heart.

Readers have followed "Hopalong Cassidy" through so many adventures over the past several years that many have begun to think of him as an actual human being. Mulford is constantly getting letters from people who confess they know "Hoppy" and ask for his address.

Jimmy Ellison, Paula Stone, Frank McGlynn, Jr., Kenneth Thompson, Robert Warwick, Geo. Hayes, Charles Middleton, Willie Fung are in the first cast to bring "Hopalong Cassidy" to the screen.

Mrs. Floyd Snyder of Massillon, Ohio and Mrs. Helen Downie of San Antonio attended the dinner given by the Rotary club at the Kerr Hotel Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Both Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Downie were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr.

PRACTICAL COOKERY
By the Home Economics Dept. Texas State College for Women

Denton, Tex.—During Lent the search for meatless meals invariably brings us to the question of fish. And today the fish fillets make it easy to solve the problems. The fish are taken in salt water and immediately cleaned, boned, usually skinned, wrapped packed and sealed for delivery to all merchants. They may be purchased inland as fresh as from the ocean; for they are frosted at a very low temperature. This solidifies them immediately and retains the cell structure. It may be cooked immediately without "defrosting."

Breakfast—Prune juice, oatmeal, toast, marmalade, milk and coffee.

Luncheon—Vegetable soup, Boston baked beans, apple-celery salad, brown bread, milk, cookies.

Dinner—Broiled fillets of Haddock, Duchess potatoes, buttered peas, quartered tomatoes, hot rolls, orange sherbert.

Breakfast—Steamed brown rice with apple sauce and cream, toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked salmon, stuffed tomatoes, spinach ring, fresh cucumbers, bread and butter, stewed rhubarb.

Dinner—Tomato juice, creamed chicken, glazed carrots, buttered cauliflower, radishes, hot rolls.

Mrs. C. P. Bennett arrived last Saturday from her home in Memphis, Tenn., for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Doty.

Mrs. R. E. Corder had as her week end guest, her friend Mrs. Bert Greenslit, who was enroute to California from a trip in Mexico. Mrs. Greenslit's home is in Nebraska.

Mrs. Helen Downie of San Antonio motored out Friday of this week to look over her ranch interests. While here Mrs. Downie was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr.

Mrs. John Neal and Mrs. Lee Grigsby returned last Friday from San Antonio where they had spent several days.

RECIPES

Broiled Fillets of Haddock
Brush the fillets with lemon juice and sprinkle with salt. Arrange on hot oiled plank or heavy skillet. Place under the broiler-flame in an oven which has been pre-heated to 450 F. Broil about 15 minutes. If served on the plank, surround with Duchess potatoes. These are made by adding beaten eggs to mashed potatoes.

Baked Salmon
One No. 2 can salmon, 1 cup of mildly sour cream, lemon juice. Turn canned salmon into baking dish. Sprinkle with the lemon juice. Pour over one cup or more of good sour cream. Bake in a moderate oven (325 to 350 F) until the cream reduces and gets splattered with brown.

Some important principles in fish cookery: (1) To fry fish—quick cooking at a high temperature seals in the juices. (2) If fish is dry and tasteless it is frequently because it may be due to cooking too long at low temperature. (3) The crispness of cucumber and the acidity of lemons are traditional accompaniments to fish, and both help to bring out its natural delicacy and flavor.

AUXILIARY PROGRAM HELD AT CHURCH

The Presbyterian auxiliary held its closing program of the year Sunday night at the church. The motto for the year had been "Looking, Learning, Living." Reports were given which showed every phase of church activity. Each officer had a poster showing more clearly through the "eye gate" the type of work she did. Some very clever ones were displayed. The auxiliary contributed $170 to the benevolent causes of the church the past fiscal year.

Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson had charge of the music for the evening.

After devotional by Mrs. W. E. Grigsby, Dr. J. V. McCall installed the following officers: Mrs. W. E. Grigsby, president; Mrs. McDuffy Kessler, vice president; Mrs. N. E. Charlton, secretary; Mrs. C. L. Sims, treasurer; Mrs. D. A. Pollard, historian; Mrs. J. H. Lochausen, pastor's aid.

The following are chairmen of the various benevolent and local causes: Mesdames John F. Nichols, Joe D. Nichols, W. H. Savage, Lewis Lemons, J. W. McKee, J. V. McCall, H. D. Williams, Earl Pierson and Joe F. Brown.

A good attendance of young people and of the men of the church, as well as the auxiliary members was present for the service. An offering was taken to help support an orphan boy in the home at Itasca.—Reported.

MRS. AUSTIN NANCE HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Nance served a delicious salad course to Mesdames C. M. Breeding, Robert Duncan, Bustin Canon, C. P. Peavy, P. J. Holmes, M. M. Holmes, P. W. Mal-

Health Letter

Austin.—"High up on every health officer's list of Disease Prevention Duties at this time of year, is the reminder, "Typhoid Fever Immunization," stated Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

Through the protection of the public water supplies from contamination, the pasteurization of milk supplies, vaccination against the disease, improved sanitation of home not served by protected water supplies, sanitary supervision of sources of food supplies and other protective measures, typhoid fever can be controlled.

"Here are the fact: As somebody has aptly said 'Nobody catches typhoid fever, he swallows it.' Typhoid is a fifth-borne disease. It causes great suffering and many deaths. That is not all. It is like an endless chain. A certain number of people who have the disease and recover from it become 'carriers.' The continue to pass the typhoid producing germs in the discharge from the kidneys and bowels. If the discharges are not disinfected before they are disposed of, the germs may spread into the soil and pollute it, or they may be carried into an unprotected water supply and contaminate it. A carrier may also spread typhoid when he handles or prepares food and is not careful in washing his hands.

"In vaccination against typhoid we have an effective means of protection which lasts for a certain period and then must be renewed. If you have not been protected against typhoid within the last two or three years, go to your doctor and have it done now. The disease is both preventable and unnecessary."

Miss Addie Kate Reid of Atlanta, Ga., visited this past week with her uncle, J. W. Daniels.

Current Comment

Do most smart people walk fast? Just watch the honor roll pupils and you will see that most of them do. It is true, there are always exceptions—smart ones who do not walk fast and dull ones who do—but, in general, I think I am right.

If you have noticed anything peculiar about the sophas being absent lately, then you're up to the moment. They've been having Spanish talks daily—incorrectly. (Don't tell Miss Wilson!)

Our negro minstrel was a success, judging from the profit. Some of the same players (not students) are in an operetta. We know it will be good.

We hear the girls are going out for baseball as soon as the district meet is over. Good luck to you, girls.

If Homer is going to run for president he'd better hurry. There are already about nine prominent aspirants and there may be more later. We're for you Homer!

We wouldn't mind seeing a play like the "Woman Who Understood Men" every Tuesday. If you don't like sixth period study hall, you're not the only one.

Absentees

The following students were absent during the week of March 16 to March 20:
Monday, 16th—Jimmy Goodykoontz, Audrey Ware, Laurence Gutierrez, Ruby Lee Haines, Jr. Lemons, Clyde Morris, p. m.; Holden Murrah, Zada Van Cleave.
Tuesday, 17th—Clyde Morris, a. m.; Holden Murrah, Laurence Gutierrez, Ruby Lee Haines, Bert Herbert, a. m.
Wednesday, 18th—Bobbie Lea, Constance Richardson, H. Richardson, Lillian Halley, Nelle Lea, Audrey Ware, Ruby Lee Haines, Jr. Lemons, Vaunceil Henderson, a. m.
Thursday, 19th—Audrey Ware, Annabel Billings, H. C. Monroe.
Friday, 20th—Dorothy Lewellen, Homer Richardson, Constance Richardson, p. m.; Melven Pollard, Lois Taylor, p. m.

My Home Town

Billy Jo Corder, 5th Grade
The little town of Sanderson is located in Terrell county in Texas, about 35 miles north of the Rio Grande. It rests in a small valley. Hills form a circle around it, allowing a pass in the southeastern corner and a pass in the southwestern corner.
Sanderson is thickly settled by Mexicans, though quite a few white people live in it. A highway and a railroad run through the southern end. On the main street most of all of the public buildings are located.
The land around Sanderson is used chiefly for raising sheep, goats and cattle. Horses are kept, also. The climate is hot and dry in summer, slightly cold and a bit rainy in winter. There are good summer showers in summer when we get them.
My home is in the northeastern corner of the valley. I like Sanderson in many ways, and I shall never forget it.

Eliminations in Declamation to Be Held Today

Declamation elimination contests will be held this afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock in the high school auditorium. These contests were originally scheduled for tonight, but the hour was changed at a meeting of the declamation committee Tuesday afternoon.
The junior contestants will declaim at 3 o'clock and the senior contestants will declaim at 3:45 o'clock. Medals will be awarded to winners in each event.
The contestants in their respective classifications, are as follows:
Junior Grammar School Boys—Bill Cochran, W. T. Frazier, Don Allen, Edward Rutledge, Lloyd Deaton, Dewain Hill, Ross Underwood, Earl Hurst, Mack Mims, Robert Lochausen, Malcolm Davis and David Allen.
Junior Grammar School Girls—Carolyn Bodkin, Betty Hurst, Janice White, Margaret Yeates, Adeline McConaughy, Billy Jo Corder, La Nell Seary, Bernice Harris, Roberta Lochausen, Lois Mae Bassett, Mary Bess Hardgrave and Betty Maddux.
Junior High School Girls—Elizabeth Brown and Emma Fay Harris.
Senior Boys—Melven Pollard, and Jesse Lochausen.
Senior Girls—Mildred Haines, Florence Hurst and Anna Lee Allen.
Five judges will select first, second and third place winners. First place contestants will be awarded gold-filled medals.
Grammar school contestants include pupils from the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades. The coaches for these grades have been the reading class teachers. They are Misses Dorothy Wilson, 7th; Nell Kruger, 6th; Mary L. Baskin 5th; Margaret Martin, 4th. Miss Vera Wade, director of the speakers' club in high school, has coached the high school contestants.

Can U Imagine?

A senior girl who is interested in Ford's saying "Give me a curly headed boy and a Chevrolet sedan and let me wahoo, wahoo, wahoo?"

Some Sanderson boys making some students in Fort Stockton think this a "Land of Romance and Adventure?"

Two junior boys and a sophomore getting a write-up in Fort Stockton's paper, concerning late hours?

The senior class has, in the growing, a Dr. Brinkley, eh, Teacher?

Essary and Lois refer to each other as Grandma and Grandpa? Bob Lea not liking track and literary events, but going to the district meet for fresh air and sunshine?

Some Fort Stockton boys in love with Sanderson girls, and Sanderson boys in love with Ft. Stockton girls—always wanting what you haven't got?

Why Albert Appel likes volleyball so well?

Why Connie could be called the girl with the "dreamy eyes" after receiving a letter postmarked Ft. Stockton?

Essary liking typing so well he stays two budgets behind; so he can stay in every afternoon. Pretty girls in those parts?

Jr. Lemons being interested in Mary Beth Banner.
Bud Black going to run the mile. We wonder if he will have some Camels along "to quiet his nerves?"
Just 44 more days of "Thunder Over Paradise."

EDUCATIONAL SLIDES ARE FEATURED AT ASSEMBLY

Thursday, March 19 at 9 o'clock in the high school auditorium the Grammar school assembly program was presented.
The program was based on So. America. J. R. Black operated the stereopticon machine, while Helen Ruth Harrell read about the different slides. A few of the slides were as follows: Scenes in the coffee region of Sao Paulo, Brazil; scenes in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; scenes in Montevideo, Uruguay; scenes in Buenos Aires, Argentina; The Trans-Andean railroad, scenes in Chile. An interesting slide portrayed a llama, an animal common in Bolivia.

THE GHOST HOUSE

By Mildred Stavley
One night about fifty years ago a very interesting incident occurred, although it frightened me out of ten years of growth.
I lived in a town called New Burg. This town had been established ten or fifteen years before because of the gold and silver in the vicinity. One can well imagine the different classes of people who settled here. Most of them would mind killing a person for what they wanted.
It happened that the house in which I lived was formerly an undertaking parlor. I did not know of this, or I would never have moved into it (not that I am superstitious). The house was very large, so I lived in just five of the rooms. There was a cellar and an attic. The attic was dark and musty, with cobwebs in the corners. There were several long black boxes above. I never bothered to see what they contained. I had a habit of sitting up late at night reading detective stories. It was interesting to read them on still, quiet nights.
One night, about nine-thirty, I was reading about a maniac who crept up to a window and ripped the screen. Just then there was an awful scratching noise on my screen. I ran to the window, but I was too late. I heard footsteps going around the house. Were those footsteps, or was that my heart beating so loudly?
I returned to my easy chair, but I couldn't read any more that night. I went to bed and everything was quiet again. Just about over my scare, I was just about asleep when I heard a thumping noise. What was it? Where was it? It stopped. Thinking how foolish I was to become frightened again, I turned over to go to sleep. Suddenly the thumping started again, and then there was a long, piercing shriek that ended in a moan.

4th Grade Teacher Is Senior Member

Margaret Martin, principal of the Sanderson grammar school, being the seventh year she has taught in Sanderson. Coach Duane Smith is second in rank, this being his fifth year as teacher.
Miss Martin graduated from Baylor University in three years, entering in 1927. She has attended the University of Texas three summers since she has been teaching. Miss Martin graduated from Fort Stockton high school; however, she attended high in both Reno and Carson City, Nevada. Her home is now in Fort Stockton.
She has always taught the 4th grade and has always taught in Sanderson. Last year Miss Martin was made principal of the grammar school and is serving in that capacity at present. Upon being queried by reporters concerning the coming summer vacation, she stated she was undecided whether to take a trip or go to school again.

This is the second year in Sanderson for the following faculty members: Dorothy Wilson, Leitha Chaffin, Lorene Childers, Evelyn Healy, and Mary Louise Baskin. Bernie Morgan has been teaching here three years.

Teaching here for the first time this year are R. D. Holt, Roscoe Parker, Ruth Howell, Vera Wade, J. E. King, Martha Anderson and Hazel Bruton.

BASEBALL By Robert Chandler

The seventh and eighth grade boys have started playing baseball the faculty in seniority, this ball between 11:15 and 12 o'clock instead of basketball. They have been playing basketball for quite a while now. They always change from football to basketball, and then to baseball. Basketball has proved to be the most popular sport among these students.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

Mildred Hurst
The junior class held a meeting Tuesday afternoon, Mar. 25, to decide on various phases of the junior-senior banquet. Favors were decided upon and the report of the foods committee was approved. The program and decoration of the banquet room will be decided upon at a later date.

More New Books Added to Library

Ten more books have come in during the week as part of the donation made by the Sanderson P. T. A. to the school libraries. This makes a total of $31.99 of the donation to purchase books, and 32 books have been received.
Books received last week are: Fairy Reader, Baldwin; Playtime Stories, Dunlop; Little Stories for Little People, McCullough; Nature Myths of Many Lands, Farmer; Neighbors Near and Far, Carp; Story of Two Boys, Johnson; Makers of the Nation, Coe; Explorers and Founders of America, Foote & Skinner; Stories of Animal Life, Holder; and Famous Men of Modern Times, Haaren & Pollard.

Student Excuses Show Originality

Originality is the keynote for excuses nowadays given by Sanderson high school students.
Varied are the excuses given to Mr. Smith, high school principal, by tardy or absent students when they apply for an absentee slip.
Mr. Smith reported that 80 per cent of the students give illness as an excuse, 10 per cent that they had gone on a visit or were out of town, and the other 10 per cent just practically admitted they had a rebellious spell and didn't want to come to school.
Excuses for tardiness are usually that the pupil had to finish some work at home before they could start to school. Other excuses are they just started late or that the clock at school does not agree with the clock at home.

H. E. NEWS

Competition is growing steadily in the home economic classes. It is but four weeks until all home projects will be judged. In the remaining time sixty-six projects will have been completed.

Bird Study is 6th Grade Project

The 6th grade has been studying birds for the past week under the direction of Miss Kruger. Each student selected a bird and made a report on it in class, and showed a picture of the bird. The class kept a record of the birds seen in this locality. About 30 different kinds of birds were observed.
Certain members of the class went out to nearby ranches to watch the birds' habits. Lois Mae Bassett and Lois Lewellen are making a chart of birds native to Sanderson. The class is indebted to Mrs. McCall for the use of her bird book.
In class discussion Joyce Yeates stated that a scissor-tail tail was so sharp it could cut lightning.

Financial

The financial balance on hand at the end of the basketball season in Sanderson high school athletic fund is $12.25.
The basketball financial statement for 1936 follows:
Receipts
Nine home games $78.25
Rebate on Dist. meet 4.29
Total $82.54
Disbursements
Expense on trips $63.58
Paid on equipment 17.71
Total $81.29
Balance on hand $ 1.25

The proceeds of the minstrels last Thursday night was a net profit of $32.40. At the time this statement was made there was still some money due from ticket sales. All equipment debts have not been paid and the minstrel proceeds will be applied to this debt.

BAND EQUIPMENT

The high school band has just received a pair of new cymbals, donated by the board of trustees.
Mr. King has also ordered some folios for music. They were received Wednesday. Band students had to pay 25c each for them.
Mr. King is planning some weekly concerts for the public. These concerts are to be presented at Kerr Hotel park.

Fifteen Medals For Winners in League Contests

Medals of award to be presented contestants representing the Sanderson schools at Interscholastic League district meet to be held in Fort Stockton April 10 and 11, were received last Saturday. There are 15 medals to be awarded.
The medals are oval-shaped and are gold plated. They have the words "University Interscholastic League, 1936" on them in raised letters. The event for which the medal is awarded is stamped on the reverse side. The medals are attached to a blue ribbon, but may be worn as a watch fob or necklace.
Medals will go to winners of first place in events entered by Sanderson at the district meet.
Awards will be made to the following:
Typewriting team of two: One medal.
Ready Writers — In Grammar school, 1 medal. High school 1 medal.
Declamation — Senior boys, 1 medal; senior girls, 1 medal; Jr. boys, high school, 1 medal; Junior girls, high school, 1 medal; Junior boys, grammar school, 1 medal; Junior girls, grammar school, 1 medal.
Spelling—High school, 1 medal; sixth and seventh grades, 1 medal; fourth and fifth grades, 1 medal.
One Act Play—Boy, 1 medal; girl, 1 medal.
There must be at least two entries in a contest before a medal will be given.
Winners in declamation will be awarded their medals after the contests in the afternoon. Awards in other contests will be made at various times as soon as the contests are completed.

THE MOST EXCITING TIME I EVER HAD

Joyce Yeates, Fourth Grade
The most exciting time I ever had was when a group of boys and girls went on a hike, taking their dinner, and ran into misfortune on the way. I was leader of the group.

We were trudging along heavily one morning about 8:30, and the sun was just beginning to peep over the hills. We were going in and out of bushes, looking for interesting things to take back home as remembrances of our trip. All of a sudden we heard a loud sizzling noise in a bush. It frightened the girls and they screamed. The boys were frightened, too, but they tried not to show it.

We picked up rocks and began to throw them into the bush. The noise became louder and the bush began to move. Then we threw a rope around the bush and pulled on it. All of a sudden out came a snake. It was a rattler, with fifteen rattles. It had a very large body and it was very long.

The snake's body was covered with black and white diamond-shaped designs. We threw rocks at it, punched it with a stick, and tried to kill it.

It began moving towards us, sticking its tongue in and out. We moved back, and Bill, who had a B-B gun, began shooting at it. He shot it in the mouth, and through the body twice. Then he shot it on the head and it lay still. We were sure it was dead. We picked it up, threw it in a bush, and resumed our journey.

MAP MAKING, GEOGRAPHY PROJECT IN 7TH GRADE

The seventh grade of Sanderson high school has been making salt maps for geography. They are physical maps of Asia. The best maps were chosen by Mr. King, and the three best maps were judged by Mrs. Holt. The best map was made by Maria Bustamante.

This class has also been making maps of Texas. They had to have all the kinds of minerals and certain parts that Texas has been divided into. The reason for making the maps of Texas is because this is Texas Centennial year and that is the most important factor in all high school work now.
