Several of Faculty Fail to Sign Up For 1936-37 Term

The following members of the school faculty have signified their intentions of returning to teach this coming year, according to an announcement given to the faculty by Supt. R. D. Holt: Vern Wade, high school principal and coach; Misses Dorothy Childers, Nell King, band instructor. Teachers in the grammar school will return are Misses Martin, principal; Leitha Moffitt, Vern Wade, Bernie Morrison, principal, Misses Martha Anderson and Hazel Bruton will teach in the Mexican school. Margaret Lattimore will teach at Dryden.

At a recent meeting of the school board all teachers were re-elected but the above are the only ones who will be back.

The Sanderson public schools will close next Friday, May 22, following a most successful term.

Band in Concert Next Friday Night

The first annual band concert will be given tonight at eight, in the high school auditorium. The senior class members of the band will be honored at this concert. They are Bernard Kerr, Mary Ferguson, Lloyd Gant, Lillian Wiley, Jr. Lemons, Lois Taylor. The program will be as follows: "Eyes of Texas."

Introduction of seniors.
"Grandiosa" (overture)—E. de Meter.
"Advancer, march W. H. Keifer.
"Sabbath Chimes" (reverie)—La Forest.
"Anchors Aweigh," C. A. Zimmerman.
Barnyard specialty.
"Thunder March."
Female—selected numbers.
Taps.
Mr. J. E. King is band director and instructor of music in high school.

There will be no admission charges to the concert.

RAINS AND SHOWERS

Reports from the range during the past week were to the effect that practically every section of northwest Texas received moisture, in varying volumes. Last Saturday evening Fort Stockton received a heavy rain, which made roads impassable for several hours. Alpine, Marathon and West report showers. The area east and north of Del Rio extends through the hills and into the rains. Sanderson's share was a small shower Wednesday.

Seniors Will Get Diplomas On the Night of May 21

Dr. H. W. Morelock, president of Sul Ross college, Alpine, will deliver the commencement address to the senior class on next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. "Cultural Assets" is the subject of Dr. Morelock's address.

Nineteen members of the class will receive their diplomas at this time. The program: Professional—Mrs. Wilkinson. Vocation, Rev. Philip Brown instrumental quartet. Local quartet, "Beautiful Texas."

Address—Dr. Morelock presentation of diplomas and valedictory.

Presentation of Senior Gift—Dick Sullivan, class president. Professional—Mrs. Wilkinson.

WATER COOLED AIR FOR THE PRINCESS THEATRE

Patrons of the Princess Theatre will have no dread for the hot summer night. This week the management completed the installation of a water cooled system, which should insure comfort even the hottest night. The system was put into operation on Thursday night of this week.

In its operation a centrifugal pump is used to circulate the water, which, in turn, is mixed with the air as it emerges from the big fan for circulation throughout the building.

THIS WEEK IN Texas History

WEEK OF MAY 10

1836—On May 14 the Treaty of Velasco was signed by President David G. Burnet and General Santa Anna. It provided that hostilities should cease and the entire Mexican should retire beyond the Rio Grande.

1846—President Polk signed a declaration on May 13 that war with Mexico existed. Both houses of Congress had passed it with large majorities, and appropriated $10,000,000 and empowered the President to use the army and navy.

1888—The new capitol building was completed and dedicated on May 16. The highest point in Texas is Guadalupe Peak in Culberson county, approximately 8,500 feet.

The highest town in Texas is Ft. Davis, 5,000 feet, in the Davis mountains.—T. S. C. W. (CIA).

New Officers are Installed at Final Meeting of PTA

Installation of officers to serve during 1936-37 was the main feature of the May meeting of the P. T. A. last Thursday afternoon at the high school auditorium. Miss Erma Lee Batey, head of music at Sul Ross college, was the guest speaker at the meeting.

Mrs. D. L. Duke, the outgoing president, installed the new officers as follows: Mrs. E. W. Hardgrave, president; Miss Margaret Martin, 1st vice present; Mrs. B. Canon, 2nd vice present; Mrs. Chester Surratt, 3rd vice president; Mrs. E. W. Chastain, secretary; and Mrs. Tip Frazier, treasurer.

Mrs. Roy Hurst was leader of the meeting and the subject was "The Influence of Music on Children." Music was furnished by the high school band, and the 4th grade staged a clown operetta.

Room attendance was taken by Miss Healy and the third grade won the picture. Mrs. W. H. Doty discussed "What Good Music Means in the Home," and Miss Erma Batey discussed "Methods of Teaching Music in School."

Mrs. Duke announced the adjournment of session until next September, when Mrs. Hardgrave would be in charge.

Cowboy Rides to Convention

Here is A. L. (Yelp an) Yowell, old-time 4 Sixes Panch cowboy, as he left Dallas to ride to the Democratic National Convention June 23, 1936, by the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens in Dallas June 6. "Yelp an" expects to reach Philadelphia riding the burro "General Democracy," the entire 1,555 miles in time for the June 23 opening session of the convention. He then will ride back to Dallas.

Honors Awarded Texas Units In Health Campaign

Austin.—Texas local and county health departments are rapidly gaining recognition over the United States according to results of city health conservation and rural health contests recently conducted jointly by the U. S. chamber of commerce and American Public Health association. Dr. Watson S. Rankin, chairman of the committee on awards has announced that in the south central division of the rural health contest first place was won by the El Paso city-county health department, with honorable mention going to Dallas, Nolan, and Potter counties' health departments, and in the inter-chamber city health conservation contest Dallas was given honorable mention in the class of cities between 250,000 and 500,000 population.

The contests were conducted in an effort to reduce economic losses due to unnecessary illness and premature death and to interest business men in the public health work of their communities. They were open to full-time health units provided a local chamber of commerce or similar organization was affiliated with the United States chamber of commerce.

City competitions totaled 235 and the rural contestants included 160 counties and districts. All the health and sanitation items surrounding the units were considered, including adequacy of health facilities and their support, preventive measures, safe milk and water supplies, school health work, health education, modern sewage disposal, provision for periodical health examinations, care of communicable and infectious diseases, prenatal care of expectant mothers, protection, protection of children from diphtheria, and better vital statistics and health records.

Much credit has been given to the active support and help of the state departments of health in bringing these local and county health units up to the standards they have reached.

SUL ROSS BAND HERE

The Sul Ross band under the direction of Thomas B. Granger, spent several hours here Saturday afternoon. The band of 35 members, was enroute to Alpine after a two-day engagement in Uvalde where it was the official band at the Honey Festival, held in that city last Thursday and Friday. In the group were seven members who call and have called Sanderson their home. They are: Gene Banner, Jack Deaton, Savell Lee Sharp, Jim and John Stovell, Lee Hardgrave and D. C. Thrift.

B. F. BERKLEY VISITS

Benjamin F. Berkley, Alpine, and a candidate for the office of state senator from the 29th senatorial district, was a visitor in Sanderson Thursday, and made a formal announcement of his candidacy in this county. His platform and policies will appear in next week's issue of the Times.

Mr. Berkley was senator of this district from 1924 to 1932, and always took an active part in legislation affecting this section.

Payne Announces For Re-election To Legislature

Stanford Payne of Del Rio on Wednesday of this week announced his candidacy for re-election as representative from the 87th legislative district, subject to the action of the first Democratic primary on July 25.

Mr. Payne is completing his first term as a member of the house of representatives.

Concerning his candidacy, Mr. Payne made the following announcement to the Times:

"In announcing my candidacy for re-election for the Texas legislature, I am not unmindful of the many responsibilities and the sacredness of the position to which I aspire.

"I am completing my first term as a member of the House of Representatives, and I believe I can conscientiously say I have tried to do that which is right and to the best interests of my district and my state.

Livestock Industry
"I was author of a $75,000 amendment for Predatory Animal Control work to House Bill No. 780 raising the appropriation from $2,500 to $75,000. This was necessary notwithstanding the fact that previous legislatures had appropriated $70,000 for 1930-1931; $70,000 for 1932-33, and $50,000 for 1934-35.

"I further help lead the fight restoring some $300,000 for the Livestock Sanitary Department of Texas which had been denied this department by the Appropriation committee. This last matter was submitted by the governor to the first called session in September and was finally passed and signed at that time.

Education
"In my opinion the 44th legislature will go down in history of our state as one of the outstanding legislatures in the support of education in Texas. I supported a vast majority of the bills that were introduced by others in support of our public schools and colleges of our state, and personally introduced and helped pass the following bills:

"House Bill No. 547 which appropriated $10,000 for Sul Ross State Teachers College at Alpine, the purpose of which was to build cottages for the students, a band home, and other campus projects, and at the same time give employment to a large number of unemployed people in our district.

"House Bill No. 888 which made an appropriation of $70,000 for the Quemado Valley of Maverick county school district. This measure was necessary because many farmers and citizens from drought-stricken areas of Texas were driven from their homes on account of the drought at a time that was too late to transfer the money that had been appropriated for their children.

"I was joint author of House Bill No. 327 known as the $10,000,000 equalization School Fund Bill.

State and National Parks
"I am intensely interested in the state and national parks program and have vigorously supported all legislation whether introduced by myself or others in furtherance of the state parks program and the establishment of the great international Peace Park in the Big Bend section of Texas. In my opinion this park will be completed in the not far distant future and will be one of the most attractive, outstanding, and worthy park projects in the United States. The tourist trade is rapidly developing into one of the leading industries in the United States and the establishment of the international Peace Park in Brewster county will bring thousands of tourists our way who otherwise would travel some other route.

Old Age Assistance
"I strongly supported the submission of a constitutional amendment authorizing the payment of Old Age assistance, and helped pass the Old Age assistance law, and supported reasonable revenue measures to provide payment of same. This law is not perfect but is like many others that are passed with so many conflicting opinions existing in large bodies, but it is a good start in the right direction, and we can amend same from time to time where amendments are found necessary in order to make it as near perfect as possible.

Public Lands
"I vigorously opposed and helped kill in committee a bill which would have forfeited public school lands in which the owner was one year delinquent with principal and interest. This in my opinion was one of the most destructive bills, as far as our district was concerned, that was introduced in the last legislature. This statement is based on the fact that we have almost 2,000,000 acres of school land in the 87th district.

"House Bill No. 774, that which granted a moratorium to the miners of the Big Bend section, was introduced by me. Had this bill not been enacted into a law, many who had spent years in developing the mining interests of the Big Bend section would have lost their claims and their life's work.

"If returned to the legislature, I can promise no more than a faithful rendering of the duties of the office as I see it. It is a privilege and an honor to have been a member of the 44th Texas Centennial Legislature, and I want to thank my friends and the people in general over the district for the loyal support given me in the past and to ask for your support in the coming election.

"Sincerely yours,
"STANFORD PAYNE."

SEEKS SECOND TERM

Hon. Stanford Payne of Del Rio, who announced Wednesday he is a candidate for re-election as representative from the 87th legislative district, in which Sanderson is located. Mr. Payne offers his record made during his first term in the legislature as grounds for returning him to Austin to continue to work for this district.

INJURED IN RODEO

Manton "Mex" Thomas received injuries last Friday at the rodeo held in Uvalde in connection with annual Honey Festival held in that city. Manton, who is a well known amateur rodeo performer, was thrown from a wild steer he was attempting to ride, the animal kicking him in the head, and was unconscious for several hours after being taken to the Uvalde hospital. Reports the first of the week were that he was getting along all right.

Dallas, April 30.—The Texas Centennial Exposition will be the first air-conditioned World's Fair in history. "For the first time, an exposition has been designed and is being built with the comfort of its visitors primarily in mind," said W. A. Webb, general manager of the $25,000,000 show which opens in Dallas June 6.

"More than $1,000,000 is being spent to provide fresh, cool air throughout every major building. The temperature and humidity of the atmosphere will be kept constant over more than ten acres of floor space in 29 buildings. This is 60 per cent of our floor space. The air over all other floor space will be changed completely every eight minutes or less, thus lowering the temperature ten degrees or more and insuring fresh, clean air at all times.

"With two exceptions our exhibit buildings have been erected without windows. This makes it much easier to control the temperature."

Air-conditioning engineers said 6,000,000 gallons of water will be used daily in cooling the atmosphere at the exposition. As an economy measure this water will be used over and over, only adding enough to take care of the evaporation.

Find Letters That May Add 2 to List Of Alamo Heroes

Rusk, Texas.—A letter discovered by Miss Jessie Boone of this city among the papers of her grandfather, William Roark, may add two more names to the list of the immortals of the Alamo.

Dated January 15, 1873, the letter, from J. Purdy, of Millin, Tenn., was found in a battered little trunk owned by Roark, a Tennessean who settled in what is now Cherokee county.

Casual Reference
After congratulations upon the result of the late struggle for Texas independence and expressing hope the administration of the new government would be as wise as its establishment had been glorious, Purdy made this casual reference to two mutual acquaintances:

"You are aware that Dr. Reynolds fell at the Alamo. Poor fellow, no one entered Texas with more philanthropic or patriotic motive than did he. . . . William W. Dowell, the doctor's companion, also fell there."

Published lists of the Alamo heroes seem to omit the names of Reynolds and Dowell.

Another are document in the Boone papers is a letter from Col. Peter Ellis Bean, Tennessee soldier of fortune whose adventures have thrilled many Texas school-boys, written from Jalapa, Mexico, April 9, 1844. He once was a Cherokee county neighbor of William Roark, who was one of the witnesses to his will, recorded in the Nacogdoches county clerk's office.

Old Documents
Commissions of Miss Boone's grandfather as justice of the peace of old Nacogdoches county, an office entailing large responsibilities than the present corresponding position, bear the signatures of Presidents Sam Houston and Marabeu B. Lamar, and are in her possession.

William Roark, a surveyor for the Burnet and De Zavala colonies, was one of the large land owners of the Republic of Texas. Appointed as one of the commissioners to locate the Cherokee county seat, he afterward served as a member of the county's first commissioners' court. One of his many slaves, "Aunt Eda," lives here. Her purchase papers also are among the Boone collection.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

At the regular monthly meeting of the commissioners' court, held Monday and Tuesday of this week, the members sat as a board of equalization, and inspected the renditions as given to the tax assessor. Current bills were allowed and ordered paid. All members of the courts were present.

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—It will probably be many a long day before Texas will see in operation an efficient, well-trained state police force selected on merit, and protected by civil service regulation against the influence of politicians. This was the unescapable conclusion of observers here who watched a small group of 25 county sheriffs win a partial victory in their long fight to oust Chief L. G. Phares as director, and succeed him with a man of their own choosing. The public safety commission, after resisting for weeks, finally yielded to the terrific pressure brought upon the commissioners and the governor, and "permitted" Phares to "resign" as director, resume his former post as chief of the highway patrol, and appointed Col. Horace P. Carmichael, assistant attorney general, as the new director of the public safety department. The appointment of Carmichael was a disappointment to the political sheriffs' ring, which had sought the post for a member of their own group, but the sacrifice of Phares was a distinct victory for Albert West, San Antonio sheriff, who has led the fight against Phares ever since he was named.

That the safety commission members acted with the advice and consent of Gov. Allred in dismissing Phares was apparent, since they held an hour's conference with the governor after the delegation of sheriffs had met with them and voiced their demand for Phares' removal. Both the governor and the commission have striven to set up a real state police force since the law was passed last year, but the governor is facing a campaign for re-election and the sheriffs are a potent political force in their home counties. The marriage of the rangers and the highway patrol has proved an unhappy matrimonial venture from the outset and it may end up in the legislative divorce court next year, many observers here believe.

COL. FITZ PASSES—

Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald, the grand old man of Texas journalism whose trenchant pen has been a factor in state politics since the 90's, passed on after a brief illness here. His death brought sorrow to hundreds of newsmen throughout the state who knew him as a master craftsman. Only a few weeks ago this correspondent was privileged to attend a dinner given by Edmund Travis for a group of the veteran capital newsmen. Col. Fitz regaled the younger members of the group with an unpublished story of how he, as managing editor of the Dallas News, got the first story of the great Galveston storm. All wires were down, but the colonel finally located a cable line running from the devastated city into South America that was still working. He got his story into the News office by way of this cable, thru Venezuela and New York, and thence over land wires to Dallas, scoring a notable "beat" on all other papers in Texas. He was a militant fighter for what he believed to be the right, but was no cynic. His genial, gentle Irish nature warmed to the task of praising worthy service, and many, many of his editorials bore the familiar caption "Flowers for the Living," as he wrote brilliantly in commend-

Federal Funds to Pay Large Part of Pension Expenses

Austin.—A statement this week by the director of the old age assistance commission revealed a fact that will mean thousands of dollars to state taxpayers.

"A large part, if not all, of the cost of administering the Old Age Pension law in Texas will be paid by the federal government," said Executive Director, O. S. Carpenter.

Social Security board officials told Mr. Carpenter they anticipated that many of the states receiving federal aid will be able to pay a large part of their operation costs out of the federal allotment for administrative expenses, and thereby leave most of the state funds to be spent for old age assistance.

"After determining the amount to be granted a state for the payment of pensions, the federal government adds 5 per cent of this amount to the check for administrative expenses in that particular state," Mr. Carpenter said. "The entire federal expense allotment may be used before any state funds are spent for that purpose." Present estimates indicate that this amount will be sufficient to pay a large part, if not all, of the ordinary running expenses of the commission after all the applications have been received and acted on so that probably the entire administrative cost to the state will be only the initial expense of setting up the Texas organization and receiving and checking the applications.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood
YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.
Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all signs of kidney trouble.
Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful men the country over. Get them from any druggist.

PROGRESS MARCHES ON

Items of Interest From Towns in the Southwest

PECOS—Sale of the last issue of bonds voted for the construction of Red Bluff dam were reported sold by the Enterprise of that city. The total issue was for $2,050,000. When this amount is depleted federal funds are assured to compete the project, which will reclaim some 75,000 acres of fertile land now idle.

OZONA—On last Sunday funeral services were held in Ozona for W. D. Barton, 76, who died from injuries sustained when he was struck by an automobile in that city. Mr. Barton was a resident of Crockett county since 1902 and well known throughout the Southwest.

MIDLAND—The annual Midland Downs racing meet will open here May 22 and last eight days. All races will be for one-quarter of a mile, and some of the best horses in the state will compete.

ALPINE—Energy in this city seems to be concentrated on highways—which is a very important item to any town. Three highways are under consideration—the Fort Stockton-Alpine route, the Fort Stockton-Alpine route and highway 90. Considerable repair work is contemplated on the two former routes, while funds are now available for re-routing U. S. 90 through the heart of the city.

FLORESVILLE—The Chronicle-Journal reports that shipment of the first carload of onions was made recently from this section. A bumper crop of the commodity, with prices "way down has led to a move to induce the federal government to purchase part of the surplus crop for relief distribution.

FORT DAVIS—Work has again been resumed on the building which will house the McDonald observatory near here. A crew of five are in the job and will remain until every item is completed. This will include the installation of the huge telescope. The lens for the telescope, however, will not be ready for placement before another year. Observation are being made at present with a 12-inch telescope.

BRACKETTVILLE—The New Mail reports the recent sale of the J. F. Johnson ranch to J. C. Clamp, the consideration being the neighborhood of $100,000. The sale included 3000 ewes, 500 head Hereford cattle and 20 registered bulls, and saddle horses. The ranch is located near the border line of Kinney and Maverick counties.

FT. STOCKTON—In a recent state contest between high school bands, the Fort Stockton and Iraan high school bands, both Pecos county, tied for first honors for a trip to the Texas Centennial exposition. The Pecos announces that a compromise has been reached whereby both organizations will attend the show in Dallas.

MONAHANS—This city is having a modern high school building next term, according to the News. Work started last week on a $126,000 structure. The building will be equipped with every convenience for the comfort of students.

PECOS—This place will be one of the highway information buildings which are being located in 17 vantage points throughout the state. They will be located at intersections of main highways and trained men will be in charge to give the tourist desired information regarding points of interest.

SENIOR FAREWELL

LLOYD GANT
The Senior class wishes to bid farewell to their friends, teachers, schoolmates, and the citizens. We also want to thank all for your kindness and cooperation in past years. We, the Seniors, take over the Eagle News this week to let outsiders in on the Senior news and activities. There have been hardships and misfortunes, but a steady pace has brought us to the end of a grand and glorious high school career. Senior class from year to year have moved on, leaving their places and duties to the one to follow, and so we leave our places for the oncoming of Seniors-to-be. As a group we say, "FAREWELL."

Meet the Srs.

Olivia Gutierrez ("Livia") was born in Sanderson, March 2, 1918. She attended the Mexican ward school for four years, then enrolled in Sanderson high school, where she is finishing her high school years. She is a member of the Math club. She lives in Sanderson.

Vick Newton ("Shorty") was born in Valentine, Texas, on June 15, 1919. He attended the Valentine school ten years, then entered Sanderson high school to finish his last year of high school. He is a member of the Science club. He is now living in Sanderson.

Anna Lee Allen ("Annie") was born in San Angelo, Texas, September 1, 1918. She attended a one-room school on the family ranch for six years, then enrolled in the Sanderson schools, and this year is finishing high school. She is a member of the Speakers' club. She lives in Sanderson.

Mary Ferguson was born in Sanderson, March 1, 1920. She attended kindergarten 2 years and started in the first grade of the Sanderson schools. She is finishing her school days here this year. She is president of the Dramatic club and a member of the band. Mary is one of the seniors who started school here in 1925.

Florence Hurst was born in El Paso, Texas, April 12, 1919. She has attended Sanderson schools for eleven years. She is a member of the Speakers' club and the Dramatic club.

Bernard Kerr ("Bernie") was born in Sanderson May 24, 1918. He started school here in the first grade. Bernie is a member of the Band club, and also plays in the band.

Melven Pollard was born in El Paso November 7, 1917. He has attended summer school, and a few weeks of schooling in Kentucky, but has been with his class here since the first grade. "Buttons" is a member of the Debate club, and on the debating team.

Lloyd Ray Gant ("Curly") was born in Sherman, Texas, April 25, 1919. He first attended school in Sherman, and later in Ozona, Ft. Stockton, McCamey, and Marathon. He is a member of the high school band.

Lois Taylor was born in Junction, Texas, January 15, 1919. She attended school first in San Antonio, and in other cities. In 1934 she enrolled in Sanderson high school. She is a member of the Dramatics club and plays in the high school band.

Graduation For 7th Wed., May 20

Duane E. Smith, principal of Sanderson high school, will present the graduates of the seventh grade their diplomas at the first annual grammar school graduation exercises to be held in the auditorium next Wednesday evening, May 20, at 8 o'clock. "The Date," a 2-act play, will be presented by the class as part of the program. Music by the high school band will also be part of this program.

Hold Final Exams Here Next Week

Early final examinations for the senior class will begin this morning at high school. The other high school classes will begin final examinations next Tuesday morning. Seventh grade examinations begin Monday morning. Final examinations will continue through Wednesday and report cards will be given the students next Friday morning, May 22.

Tuesday, May 19—Arithmetic, 9:00; English, 10:30.

Any student having a conflict with any of the above schedules is requested to make arrangement with the teacher of the course. Seventh grade health, spelling and reading may be given at regular class periods.

Senior Class Had Enjoyable Year

By Lois Taylor
The Seniors have had a grand and glorious time this year. The sunrise breakfast was the first event to start off the senior year of entertainment.

Mrs. Ferguson entertained the senior class with a banquet at the Kerr Hotel, honoring Mary Ferguson. The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the decorations and color scheme.

Mrs. W. J. Ferguson, our room mother, honored the class with a Christmas party. Rev. Philip Brown, acting as Santa Claus, presented the seniors with toys and gifts.

In the meantime, the senior class sponsored two dances at the Masonic hall. The music was furnished by Bernard Kerr. The mothers of the seniors supplied the refreshments.

Then we were honored at a Valentine party with Anna Lee Allen, a senior, as hostess, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Allen.

The senior class became Chinamen as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ferguson at a Chinese costume party. The seniors were dressed as Chinese and ate in Chinese fashion. Immediately after the party they were honored with a theatre party.

Several weeks later Mrs. D. A. Pollard entertained for Melven and the senior class with a program dance at the Masonic hall. The dance carried out the Centennial idea. Several girls from Fort Stockton were guests.

Entertains at Ranch Home
Mrs. Lochausen and Mrs. Joe F. Brown were then hostesses to the senior class with a Bon Voyage party at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Brown.

Mrs. Jim Kerr entertained the senior class with a dance, honoring her son, Bernard, at the Masonic hall. Music was furnished by Pablo and his "Jolly Gigolos."

The junior class complimented the seniors of 1936 with a banquet in the banquet room of the high school. A Centennial theme was carried out in the decorations and colors. After the banquet the junior were hosts at a dance at the Masonic hall. Music was furnished by D. L. Duke and Laurence Gutierrez.

The Sanderson Baptist church entertained the seniors with a lawn party and treasure hunt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McAdams, with Misses Dorothy Sullivan and Bess McAdams as directors of the party.

Class Attends Theatre Party
The senior class attended a theatre party Wednesday night, honoring Junior Lemons.

Last night Mrs. Joe Kerr was hostess to the seniors, honoring Bernard Kerr, with a dance at her home.

The seniors in the band will be complimented tonight with a band concert in the auditorium.

On Saturday night the seniors

Class History

By Junior Lemons

Six members of the class '36 started out together in kindergarten under instruction of Mrs. Nations. These are: Lillian Halley, Mary Ferguson, Reuben Mussey, Billy Smith, Florence Hurst and Jr. Lemons. At the start of their career in grammar school, or the "big school," as they called it, Bernie Kerr joined the march of progress.

When the senior-to-be entered the third grade, they were joined by Jesse Lochausen who moved here from El Paso. When they reached the fifth grade they were joined by Melven Pollard, Elton Halley and Roy Deaton; but lost five members that year who are now members of the Junior class. In the sixth grade Dick Sullivan and Pete Deaton moved to Sanderson from Comstock and cast their lot with the class.

Next year Anna Lee Allen who had been attending a ranch school moved in and joined the procession, and also Olivia Gutierrez, a graduate of the Mexican ward school.

The next phase in the onward march of this group, always looking into the future for a guiding light, was graduation from the grammar school.

Some started out for sports and other activities that is a natural part of high school life, and doing their part as individuals to make teams for the future, always pulling for S. H. S. In the ninth grade Lloyd Gant left Knippa to settle here and, his great big smile and kind words were a welcome addition to the class. Next year, in the tenth grade, Lois Taylor ventured out from Brackenridge high school, San Antonio and joined the ranks of the Centennial Year graduating class.

This year Otis Timrod Schupbach returned to his first love, and joined the class, and Vick Newton, a denizen of Valentine, transferred to Sanderson to finish his last year of high school work. During the past season, as per hopes, the school had a senior basketball team, and almost a senior class football team, there being seven members of the class on the squad.

And so, here's hoping the class of '36, Centennial Year, will not falter on its onward march into the future, and will continue to make history.

Jrs. - Srs. Enjoy Annual Banquet

By Mary Ferguson

Saturday evening, May 9, at 7:45 in the school banquet hall, the junior class entertained the senior class and members of the high school faculty and their wives with an annual banquet. Mrs. Maude Sullivan, room mother of the junior class, and Mrs. W. J. Ferguson, room mother of the senior class, and Mr. Ferguson were guests.

The theme of the banquet was the Texas Centennial. This motif was carried out in the decorations, the program and the menu. The program was as follows: Toast to the Seniors—Mildred Underwood.

Response—Dick Sullivan. Vocal solo—"Red Sails in the Sunset," Mrs. J. E. King. Toast to the Faculty—Pat Harris.

Response—Coach Smith. Talk on Texas—Supt. Holt. School song. The banquet was prepared and served by the Home Economics classes under direction of Miss Nell Kruger.

will be honored guests of their sponsor, Miss Lorene Childers at a theatre party at the Princess.

The faculty of Sanderson high school are honoring the seniors with exams on Friday, Monday, and Tuesday.

The seniors have planned a trip to the Carlsbad caverns on Senior Day, Wednesday, May 20.

Next Friday the seniors will be guests of the parents of Anna Lee Allen, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Allen, at an all-day picnic on the ranch. We, the Senior Class of '36, wish to express our sincere appreciation for the wonderful hospitality shown us by our mothers. We also thank Sanderson Baptist church for the delightful entertainment. We thank the faculty for the patience, help and advice shown us during this year.

Senior Favorites For Term Selected

At a meeting of the Juniors last week the following senior favorites were elected:

Most popular girl, Lois Taylor; most popular boy, Roy Deaton; most beautiful girl, Lillian Halley; most handsome boy, Dick Sullivan; most studious girl, Anna Lee Allen; most studious boy, Lloyd Ray Gant; class poet, Melven Pollard; class historian, Jr. Lemons; class prophet, Lloyd Ray Gant; class will, Lillian Halley.

The voting was by secret ballot, each member writing his selection and name on the ballot. The votes were called out by Miss Howell and the names of the seniors were checked on the blackboard.

Class Prophecy

By LLOYD GANT

When I was on a tour through the United States, I was very much surprised to come in contact with the Senior of 1936. To start the story off, I will begin with one who is very well known in these parts. As I lived in the western states, I began my tour there.

One day when I was driving down a long dusty road in the southern part of Arizona I was very much surprised to see my old friend, Mr. Roy Deaton riding a black horse, but what surprised me most was to find out that he was running a dude ranch. I stopped and had a nice talk with Roy. Then he asked me over to spend a few days with him and, of course, I took up the offer. He told me to go on to the house and he would follow.

When I drove into the Deer Valley Dude ranch I saw a familiar face. I began to investigate the matter, and who do you think it was? None other than the former Lois Taylor. She had become the charming wife of Roy. After a short chat with Lois, I decided to look about the ranch. A great cloud of dust attracted my attention over by the pens, so I ventured over to see what the commotion was about. What do you think was happening? O. T. was trying to rope wild burros, while a little cotton-headed boy was leaning on the fence hollering: "Try again, Papa!" He finally hemmed in an old burro up in the corner and roped it. He was riding an old horse, swayed in the back from his weight. He saw me standing by the fence and came over for a talk. I had a very nice time at the dude ranch and went away feeling fine after meeting some of the old Senior class.

I went on my way. I didn't see any more of the bunch until I reached South Bend, Indiana. I found Dutch Halley coaching a Notre Dame football team.

I went over to Philadelphia and to my surprise found one of the Seniors to be a Philadelphia lawyer, and who do you imagine it was? None other than the one and only Jesse Harman Lochausen. The next day I left for New York. While I was standing on a street corner in that city some one stepped up and slapped me on the back, and when I turned around Reuben Mussey was grinning in my face. He had become a big town racketeer. That night we dined and danced at a large cafe, with the music of Jr. Lemons and his Rhythm Makers, and specialty tap dancing by Melven Pollard; we were very much entertained. But right in the middle of this a big, heavy-set guy walked up to Reuben and said in a rough way: "I got him, boss, but I got the works in my right arm." And was I surprised when I recognized this gangster to be Billy Smith.

Next morning I stepped into a big drug store and noticed a very blonde young lady sitting at one of the tables sipping a chocolate milk. I walked a little nearer and received another great surprise: it was none other than Mary Ferguson. "What are you doing so far from home?" I asked her. "Well, I'm head of the dietary here in Beebevee hospital." She told me that while on the train coming to New York she saw Vick Newton on the train. He was the conductor. I also found out that Florence Hurst was nursing in the same hospital where Mary worked.

I then turned my nose south to dear old Texas. I got into San Antonio and while I was waiting for a signal up walked old Dick

A GENERAL REVIEW

By O. T. SCHUPBACH

The senior boys of the class of 1936 have brought to a close one of the greatest careers a boy can have in a small school. They are making their final show as high school boys on May 21. We only hope their success in future life will be a great as the success they have made in high school.

Sanderson will be fairly well represented next year when these boys leave for college. Schreiner Institute seems to have the edge over other college, as five of the boys plan to enroll there next fall. Texas Tech and T. C. U. rank next with two each, and one each for A. & M. College of Mines, University of Texas, and St. Mary's.

Dick Sullivan is one of the boys intending to enter Schreiner next fall. Dick is president of the Senior class. He was a member of the Newspaper club the first term, and of the Glee club the last term. Dick lettered three years in both football and basketball. He was co-captain of the basketball team in 1935, which won the district title and went to the finals in the regional meet, to be defeated by Bowie. He was co-captain of the football team which was defeated only one time to win second rating in the district. "Sully" played a heads-up game all year from the quarterback position. When the all-district team was picked "Sully" was placed on the second team. Dick should make a good college man.

Deaton to T. C. U.
Roy "Ira" Deaton will buy a ticket to T. C. U. next year. Roy was a member of the Newspaper club the first term and of the Science club the second term. Roy lettered two years in basketball and three years in football. He was co-captain of the football team and was an outstanding star in every game. He played center and when the all-district team was picked he was the unanimous choice for the first team. But that isn't all of the honors he received in football. He made all-southern Class B center and placed on the second all-state Class B team. Last season Roy played center on the basketball team. He became one of the best men that Sanderson high school had.

Jesse "Star" Lochausen will go down to Schreiner next fall and be a Mountaineer for a few years. Jesse lettered three years in basketball and football. He lettered one year in track and one in tennis. If the boys had played volleyball or marbles he would have lettered in them also.

The first two years of football Jesse had the "Tough Assignment"—guard. This year Coach Smith shifted him to the backfield where he played blocking halfback. He made all-district guard in football this year. Jesse was elected captain of the basketball team of 1936. He has received several honors during his basketball career. In 1935 he made all-district forward at Fort Stockton. In 1936 he made all-tournament forward on the second team at the McCamey tournament. This scribe wishes you good luck at Schreiner next year.

Elton "Dutch" Halley will enter A. & M. next fall to get a military education. "Dutch" lettered three years in football and four years in basketball. He played in the S. H. S. backfield three years as fullback. This year he made all-district fullback. He lead the Lindsay Sullivan, and what a chat we did have on that corner. Dick informed me he was still a bachelor and owned one of the biggest sheep ranches—"West of the Pecos." I drove on to Sanderson and found Bernard running his daddy's store. He told me that Anna Lee Allen was "Dean of Women" in T. C. U. and also that Pete was form of the Pyle Cattle Company.

I went on to Fort Stockton and while I was driving around looking the place over I had a blow-out. I went to a nearby house and knocked on the door and a little girl came to the door and asked me in. I asked her to use the telephone and when I stepped in the house the face of Lillian met me. She had settled down to a nice quiet home life. She told me that Olivia was teaching there in the Mexican school.

This ended my most delightful trip, and I went back home feeling fine after seeing and hearing of all my old school mates.

Eagles' offense in all games. He played his fourth year of basketball this year, when he made the second team as all-tournament forward at Ozona, the second team all-tournament forward at McCamey, and a gold medal for second best all-around player.

Mussey to Schreiner
Reuben "Cy" Mussey has decided to try Schreiner next year. "Cy" lettered four years in basketball and three years in football. He was captain of the football team in 1934. He was one of the cogs in the backfield this year until he got injured. He received honorable mention and only took part in two district games. "Cy" has made more all-tournament teams than any boy in S. H. S. He made the first all-tournament team in Ozona one year, and the second team one year. For the last three years "Cy" has made the all-tournament teams at McCamey. For the past two years he has made all-district. An injured knee handicapped him last season. If it hadn't been for that he would probably have had a few more honors.

Billy "Smithy" Smith has chosen the College of Mines in El Paso for his place to receive an education. Billy played only one year of football, but turned out to be a star end.

Cleveland "Pete" Deaton is another one that likes the way the Schreiner Institute is run, so he is going to receive a part of his higher education in that institution. Pete lettered in football one year. He has the makings of a good end.

Lloyd "Curly" Gant is going to the University of Texas next fall. "Curly" lettered two years in tennis, and one in basketball.

Bernard Kerr will enroll in St. Mary's next fall in order to take care of Brother Robert.

Vick Newton, a transfer from Valentine, has decided to go to Texas Tech next year. Vick lettered in basketball at Valentine.

Junior Lemons has decided to go to Texas Tech so as not to let Vick get lonesome next year. Jr. has been a member of the band for about 100 years.

Melven Pollard, the last, but not least, will enter Schreiner.

O. T. Schupbach has planned to go to T. C. U. next year.

CLASS WILL

By Lillian Halley

The following is the senior class will, naming members of the junior class:

To Sammie Carter—Mary Ferguson's size. Sammie, Mary has her diet—you had better learn her secret.

To Nelle Lea—Dick Sullivan's black curly hair. Nelle is going to get a new permanent.

To Bud Black—O. T.'s loud mouth. Bud, I can't hear you.

To Marion King—The blue evening dress of Florence Hurst, so he'll have that "finishing touch." Ask Florence if she minds lending it to you until school is out.

To James Allen—Ten pounds of Lillian Halley's avoidpoups. Lillian will be glad to get rid of it.

To Mildred Underwood—"Cy" Mussey's singing ability. La, la, la, every day, Mildred.

To Bobbie Lea—Elton Halley's football ability so he can make the team next year. 3-6-9-12. Hike!

To Mildred Stavley—B. Smith's drawing ability so she can draw her jokes instead of tell them. Remember, Mildred, you must draw light and even.

To Audrey Ware—The personality of Bernard Kerr. It's up to you Audrey. Can't you go with Bernard and find out about his rare possession.

To Joe Kerr—Lois Taylor's popularity. You've got to be a football hero, Joe.

To Pat Harris—Roy Deaton's height. Can't you grow about a foot, Pat?

To H. C. Monroe—Anna Lee Allen's ability to study. The shortest distance between two points is a straight line, H. C.
