Heavy Showers Wednesday of Much Benefit to Range; Covers Big Area

Co. Candidates Spend Very Little In Making Race

Candidates for office a quarter of a century ago would groan out loud and turn over in their grave could they see the expense accounts of modern day candidates. Even in the latter '90's the campaign expenditures of a candidate for the office of constable ran into three and sometimes four figures—more than the returns from the office during a 2-year term. But not any more. And if the thrift displayed by seekers of office these days is exemplified in their conduct of the office, our state and counties should prosper. In Terrell county the peak expenditure reported at the first call was $28, by R. L. Henry, candidate for county judge. G. J. Henshaw, seeking the same office, is trailing by a difference of $3. All others who made reports of expenses in connection with their campaigns, average about $25 each. Several of the candidates had not reported when the Times secured the above figures.

Del Rio Youth Awarded Honor Trophy at Tech

Edwin Smith, of Del Rio, 168-pound halfback for the Matadors, was declared the winner of the Canon-Sandefor football trophy, awarded each spring to the varsity gridders who has performed most creditably in classroom competition, according to a news dispatch from Texas Tech, Lubbock. Smith, during the 1935-36 season, lacked a few grade points of making the highest scholastic standing, but his rival was John Prim, graduate end from Pawnee, Oklahoma, who had won the trophy in 1934-35. As a player may win the trophy but one time, Smith, who alternated at quarterback and left halfback last year, but slated for a regular halfback position in the future, was declared the winner.

Edwin is a son of Mrs. Ed Smith of Del Rio, and graduated from the Del Rio high school in 1934. He is well known in Sanderson, and spends part of his summer vacations at the ranch of his brother, Milton, in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carson, who ranch near Dryden, are the parents of a daughter, born Thursday, June 25, at a San Angelo hospital. The little Miss has been named Lynda Dell, and she tipped the scales at 5 pounds 12 ounces.

MOISTURE REPORTED IN VAL VERDE, PECOS, JEFF DAVIS AND PRESIDIO COUNTIES; SOUTH TEXAS FLOODED

Preceded by a near gale and a blinding dust storm, which came out of the north, rain fell in Sanderson and surrounding country Wednesday afternoon, continuing about an hour, officially recording .33 of an inch. About 10:30 Wednesday night another rain fell, accompanied by a heavy wind, some hail, and a beautiful display of lightning and thunder. This latter precipitation was recorded at 1½ inches. Reports from various sections of the county indicated that all ranches had received some rain—heavier in some sections than in others. Creeks and canyons were running, but the water did not interfere with traffic on the railroad or the highways. This rain was the first in this section since the latter part of May. Ranges were beginning to get dry, weeds and other vegetation searing, and the ranchers were beginning to worry over the problem of feed. Wednesday's rains will be of untold benefit to the range. Sections east of here, around San Antonio and Laredo, have had plenty of rain, with destructive floods that has practically paralyzed traffic in some portions.

GOODES RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Goode, Sr., who have been in Del Rio for the past several weeks, where Mrs. Goode was recovering from injuries sustained when she fell and fractured her knee, returned to the ranch home north of Dryden Tuesday.

Former Teacher in Local Schools Dies In Austin

Word was received here Wednesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McAdams, telling of the death of Jason Morgan, which occurred in Austin at 2 o'clock that afternoon. Death was caused by complications following an operation for appendicitis on last Saturday, according to the message which was sent by Bernie Morgan, a brother. Jason and his brother were in Austin attending the summer session at state university when he was taken ill. He taught in our public schools for six years. Bernie has taught here for two years, and was re-elected to teach here during the 1936-37 term. The body was taken to McLean, Texas, his home, where funeral services and interment took place.

J. R. Black left last Friday for Fort Stockton where he has a position as projectionist in the Grand Theatre in that city.

New Ford V-8's are driven over the roads day and night carrying visitors without charge.

"Winfield for Senator" Club Predicts Sweeping Victory For Stockton Man

LONG RESIDENCE IN WEST ADMIRABLY FITS HIM TO COPE WITH PROBLEMS; IS SUPPORTED BY DAILIES OF THE SOUTHWEST

Ft. Stockton, June 23.—A meeting of unusual interest in Pecos county was that of a gathering of a large number of men in the rooms of the Fort Stockton chamber of commerce Wednesday in the interest of the candidacy of their fellow townsman, H. L. Winfield, for State Senator of the 29th district. A number of Mr. Winfield's friends and fellow voters were present and many of the speakers praised Mr. Winfield as the most logical, qualified and informed candidate in the race.

One speaker said he had known him since his coming to Fort Stockton in 1910 as a private stegographer, and that Mr. Winfield, from his thrift and industry and courteous treatment of people, had worked his way to deputy county clerk, then county tax assessor, then county clerk which he held for many years, then as mayor of his town and president of the Pecos County State Bank. Local supporters feel that he is well acquainted with the conditions and needs of all west Texas, and the problems affecting the livestock and farming interests.

It developed from the speakers that Pecos county is one among only about eleven counties in the state that has taxable valuations in excess of forty-five million dollars; and that Pecos county has never had or offered a candidate before for state senator, and has not had a candidate for either branch of the legislature in a quarter of a century.

The crowd was very enthusiastic and promptly perfected a "Winfield for Senator" club, with Dr. E. A. Robertson president and made individual donations to a fund to place "Winfield for Senator" stickers on every car available and to further Mr. Winfield's campaign in every manner possible. From the speakers the outlook for Mr. Winfield's election was almost a certainty. Pecos county appears solid for him.

BROTHER DIES
J. W. Downum returned home Wednesday morning from Salina, Oklahoma, where he was called last Thursday on account of the death of his brother, T. L. Downum, which occurred on Wednesday, June 24, at his home. Death was caused by ptomaine poisoning, Mr. Downum being ill but a few hours.

Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon from the home, and burial was at Salina. Besides the brother, J. W. Downum of this place, deceased is survived by the widow, six children, and five sisters.

MOVE TO FT. STOCKTON

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yeates left Wednesday for Fort Stockton where they will make their home and where Mr. Yeates will be in charge of WPA projects in Pecos county. Mr. Yeates had been superintendent of WPA projects in this place, and the transfer is in the nature of a promotion. Just who will succeed Raymond here is not known at present.

...trip for the 4th of July; Sanderson reasonably early by way of Fort Stockton, Balmorhea, and take a dip in largest outdoor swimming in America. And it is every bit that! This pool, recently created by CCC workers is an architectural work of art from native stones from nearby mountains. The main part of the pool is an immense one, about 300 feet across, and this two arms, oblong in shape, branch out, one to the east and the other to the south. In one of these arms is a wading pool for the children. In the center of the circular section is a tower 30 feet high. Conspicuous in the background is a drive to the heart of famous Lampa canyon, where a picnic can be enjoyed under the shade of oak trees beside streams of sparkling mountain water. It's a worth your while.

...is quiet after the two big political orgies. If half that the newspapers reported is true the delegates sure have had a rest. By the way who is the Republican candidate president—we've forgotten.

...Terrell is about the driest of all counties. It's miles north, east, west, up and down to wading. All the more reason that the delegates should appreciate the efforts of Mr. Clark to provide an in the shape of a swimming pool. You'd be surprised if you didn't see the expense account of an enterprise. The people who should whole-heartedly cooperate, with their moral support, at least. Instead, some, always the case, dig up their heels and knock the project. The pool is unsanitary is just as Mr. Clark by the use of his chemicals and an over-system has taken every precaution to safeguard the health of patronizing the pool. If citizens has ideas along the line of sanitation Mr. Clark will be too glad to give them a rough trial.

...London, the papers report, on a fishing trip. Wonder how gets into the systems of our minds and near-presidents? put in more time fishing doing anything else. That's only reason we'd like to be content.

...from the looks of expense accounts filed by the candidates in this county, the depression is on, or the country is going to the dogs.

...a long trip last Sunday—traveling companion being Morris, local manager of CPS Company's business—country boy who graduated from the kowpoken to the realm of fatts (see last issue of the paper's pamphlet "The Comptorator"). Left this wideawake progressive town at 4 a. m. though everybody was still asleep. A funny thing happened on the way. The streets of that was lined with Christmas trees. We chirruped: "Say Clyde, you see what we see? If you're in a heck of a shape." "Clyde, you mean, those Christmas trees?" We both decided that had slipped a cog along the somewhere, provided we find no explanation. So we went for the Bluebonnet: when old friends, Dunn, hove into we asked what was the idea Christmas trees and Santa dolls—our calendar specified it was the Fourth of—or nearly. The explanation was simple: The local theatre showing the "Trail of the Pine" and the trees added the fact. But those pines, lonesome by a blamed sight were hundreds of them, our reputation for sobriety is untarnished.

...Saturday is the glorious Fourth, centennial year. Let's for the nickels and dimes, close doors and forget business for one day. If you're too old to kick out of celebrations or stay in bed and sleep.

Laughs Under the Big Top!

Gay crowds are thronging Dallas for the magnificent Centennial Exposition. And why? Well one reason is that the Gainesville Community Circus is booked for three shows, June 25, 26 and 27, and laughs and thrills will tumble over each other in three big rings of excitement. Juanita Bailey, daring aerialist, is as comfy on a dizzy high wire as she is here in the ample arms of Billy Basinger, chief clown, whose specialty is a hula in a grass skirt. The circus, the only enterprise of its kind in the world, is composed entirely of amateurs drawn from the ranks of merchants, waitresses, judges, policemen, Sunday school teachers, and many other classes.

A. & M. Cooperates With Federal Govt.

College Station.—When the federal government's new business with farmers came into the state of Texas four months ago, action and speed became the keystones of the agricultural center at the Agricultural and Mechanical college. The 2-wing building shown in the upper left, was built by the A. and M. college in which to house the 325 trained workers of the general auditing and general accounting divisions. It has 18,820 square feet of floor space. The brick building on the campus of A. and M. college, shown upper right, with a floor space of 4,000 sq. feet, was rapidly turned into a disbursing office, a branch of the U. S. treasury with a personnel of 83 who are busy writing checks for the Texas farmers participating in the various agricultural programs.

Lower left to right—Here are the 325 men and women carrying on the auditing and accounting work of clearing the remaining old AAA contracts, the checking and certifying of the Cotton Price Adjustment program applications, and the working out of the details of the Agricultural Conservation program with its more than 300,000 farmer cooperators. A majority of the work of these divisions, during the last few months, has been on the Cotton Price Adjustment program. An average of 4,000 Cotton Price Adjustment applications per day are being certified for payment, and up to date number 186,082, and totaling $6,880,503.28.

GIVE CHILD CHANCE TO ENJOY SUMMER

Schools are closed for summer and citizens interested in the welfare of the future generation are confronted with the fact that a vast amount of energy and ability may go to waste if skill and patience are not employed in directing growing children in this play-time season according to Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

"The civic, moral and educational value of developing the natural talents of each child has a far-reaching influence on health, knowledge and character of the future men and women of this State. The child need not be directed in each little act that he performs. Let the summer vacation season be the time when the child has a chance to develop his own individuality. Many an artist, statesman, or competent executive has come from humble surroundings. But looking back of this we probably will find that this outstanding individual had a chance to develop his natural talent without interference.

"It has been observed that the children grow faster during the summer months than at any other time. This is explainable perhaps because it is then that they are out in the sunshine and fresh air. Good health is essential to physical and mental growth. The main factors to good health are care of the body, nourishing food of the right kind, regular habits, sufficient sleep, rest and play, and a happy state of mind.

Of course, where the child lives and under what conditions, means a great deal as to the type of recreation he will find during the summer. The city child will look forward to trips to the country or hours spent in the playgrounds and swimming pools. The child living in the country will have many things to do that will keep him in the sunshine most of the time.

"Let all work toward the end that each child may feel at the end of the summer that he has worked out some of his own ideas and dreams, and still developed his physical and mental capacities during the few months of play."

C. P. Peavy motored to San Antonio Sunday and returned Monday with Mrs. Peavy who is recuperating from a major operation performed at the Nix hospital in that city about two weeks ago.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin—The interest of Texans swung back to state politics again this week, as delegates returned from the Democratic convention at Philadelphia and reported a routine session with no surprises, except that the easy victory of Jim Farley in his move to repeal the two-thirds rule surprised the Texans.

Confirming the opinion voiced in this column weeks ago that the Centennial year will be a good year for those already in office, the Houston Chronicle, first big Texas daily to issue its selection of editorially indorsed states candidates, tenders its support to Sen. Morris Sheppard, Gov. Allred and Col. Ernest O. Thompson, rail commissioner chairman.

Gov. Allred formally opened the gubernatorial sweepstakes by an answer to his critics and a review of his two-year record before a huge throng at Waxahatchie. He then flew to Laredo to participate with Vice President Garner, U. S. Senator Cartwright, chairman of the senate's public roads committee; Sen. Tom Connally, officials of the federal roads bureau, and other dignitaries in the formal opening of the Laredo-Mexico City highway.

The new highway, long under construction is now reported entirely completed and open to the traffic, although tourist accommodations are not available thru-out its length, and stops must be planned to meet this situation. Already hundreds of American tourists are making the trip.

Old Age Pension Checks Mailed to 40,000 July 1; Amounts From $9 to $30

ward for a job well done." His opponents continued active, centering their heavy fire on the pension issue, and taking occasional digs at each other, with all "shooting" at Allred. Sen. Morris Sheppard also took the field, and several veteran congressmen who are facing stiff opposition launched extensive drives for votes.

CHRONICLE SLATE—Confirming the opinion voiced in this column weeks ago that the Centennial year will be a good year for those already in office, the Houston Chronicle, first big Texas daily to issue its selection of editorially indorsed states candidates, tenders its support to Sen. Morris Sheppard, Gov. Allred and Col. Ernest O. Thompson, rail commissioner chairman. It also indorses Bill McCraw, attorney general; Walter Woodul, lieutenant governor; Supreme Court Justices C. M. Cureton and Richard Critz, and Judge C. S. Lattimore of the court of criminal appeals—all of whom are without opposition. Commenting on the fact that Thompson has two Houston opponents, the Chronicle says: "The Chronicle believes that Mr. Thompson has made such an outstanding record as an office holder, has demonstrated himself such a capable and commendable type of public official, he should, without question, be given the reward of reelection."

WOODUL IS CAGY—Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, opposed for re-election, isn't going to be caught commenting on any other race. Asked his opinion about the governor's race, he said: "The people were smart enough to elect me and I believe they are smart enough to elect a governor without comment from me." Woodul plans to run for attorney general two years from now and will campaign this fall for the constitutional amendments increasing salaries of the governor and other state officers.

POLITICAL PINWHEEL—George Sheppard, State Comptroller, whose office collects millions in taxes throughout Texas, is credited by the political sharks with having one of the most effective political machines in the state. His men usually office in county courthouses, and they do not overlook any opportunity to tie in with the county machine. Pat Dooley, Sheppard's chief clerk, is the office political ramrod. The close affiliation between Roy Sanderford, gubernatorial candidate, and Jim Ferguson, was confirmed by the preliminary report of campaign expenditures and contributions filed by Sanderford, which showed Jim was the angel of Roy's campaign to the tune of $3,558.75. One of Ernest Thompson's opponents charged on the stump one night in Dallas, that "Thompson is bought and paid for by the Standard Oil," and next day the same candidate filed an expense account showing that he had spent $1,000.95, of which $1,000 was contributed by an oil man. Pat Bullock, candidate for state superintendent of education, has recruited considerable strength in West Texas and is making headway in some of the larger cities, including Dallas and Ft. Worth, it is reported here. How he will fare in the final count with Dr. L. A. Woods, incumbent, seeking re-election, will depend on how the vote goes in the populous east Texas counties. Already, speculation is rife concerning the possibility of a special session this fall to raise pension revenue. The lobbyists all hope they'll get their vacations first, if there is a special session. Probably Governor Allred himself doesn't know yet whether or not he will call a special session, until the elections are behind him. The university Centennial exposition, (admission free), one of the greatest educational exhibits ever assembled, is still drawing large crowds of visitors to Austin.

UNDERGOES OPERATION—Mrs. H. S. Attaway was taken to Del Rio last Friday afternoon, and on Saturday morning underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Williams sanitarium. Late reports from her bedside are that she is doing nicely.

ENJOY FISHING TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. Col Coates and son, P. C., and daughter, Mrs. Buck Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Coates and children of Ft. Stockton, and Dr. and Mrs. Gaines Coates of Martines, California, enjoyed a week end on the Banner ranch where they report that fish were biting and that a most enjoyable camping trip was had despite that fact that it rained on them Sunday night.

THOSE MOST IN NEED ARE CARED FOR IN THE INITIAL ALLOTMENTS UNDER NEW LAW; AVERAGE PAYMENT ESTIMATED AT $18

Austin, June 30—The Texas old age assistance commission planned to place 40,097 checks in the mail today—the first payments under a constitutional amendment and statute authorizing pensions to needy persons over 65 years of age.

O. S. Carpenter, state pension director, pointed out that subsequent monthly payments would be considerably larger in number as a result of completion of investigations and approval of additional applications. He estimated that by Sept. 1 the number on the pension rolls would be 65,000 or more.

"We have endeavored to complete our investigations of the neediest applicants first," Carpenter said, "and believe that those who get checks tomorrow will be in the main those who need the money the worst."

Sums Range From $9 to $30—Carpenter said the pension organization has been so busy getting as many deserving applicants as possible on the rolls before the first of July that it had not calculated the amount of the average check.

The checks ranged from $9 to $30, depending on the applicant's need. The director estimated that they averaged around $18, which would mean that the old people would receive over $700,000 on the first day of July. Half of the pension money will be supplied by the state from the liquor tax revenues and the other half by the federal government.

Get the First Checks—State Treasurer Charley Lockhart advised the pensioners to cash their checks at local banks. He pointed out that his department was not in a position to identify endorsements at all times, whereas the local banks were.

Pension payments No. 1 and No. 2 were given July 1 to Frank Kainer, 103, and Mrs. Frank Kainer, 95, of near Weimar, and friends of the age farm couple brought them to Austin to receive their checks in person from Governor Allred.

Mr. and Mrs. Kainer, natives of Austria-Hungary, but residents of Texas for 66 years, smiled their gratitude as Governor Allred expressed the hope that the monthly checks of $25 to each of them would make them happy.

MRS. CARTER IMPROVED—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carter were in town Wednesday from Dryden visiting with friends. Mrs. Carter, who sustained a fractured hip from a fall last winter, is now able to get about with the aid of crutches. Mr. Carter, who also sustained injuries from a fall in the spring, is likewise getting about with the aid of crutches.
